398. No bounty shall be paid under such acts, unless there be inserted in the indentures of any apprentice indentured under the said acts, or who shall be turned over from one person to another pursuant to this act, the name of the vessel on board of which such apprentice is bound to serve, id. s.7.

399. TO AMEND THE LAWS IN FORCE for the encouragement of the fisheries carried on in the seas to the southward of the Greenland seas and Davis's Straits, 32 G.3. c.22. (Exp. as ss.1, 2.) [NOTE—This act was continued up to 1804 by 42 G.3. c.22. It has not since been continued, but the acts it amends have been, see ante, pl. 366. (Qu. Is this act in force?)]

400. Every vessel having on board one apprentice for each 50 tons burden, such apprentice being not under 12 nor exceeding 30 years of age at the time when indentured, shall be deemed properly fitted and qualified with respect to apprentices to proceed on the fishery to the Greenland seas and Davis's Straits, and be entitled to the bounty, 32 G.3. c.22. s.3.

401. Whale fins, oil, or blubber, or whales, seal oil, or seal skins, or any other produce of seals, or other fish, or creatures caught in any part of the ocean by British subjects usually residing in G.B., Ire., Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, in ships built in either of such kingdoms, or islands owned, registered, and navigated according to law, may be imported into G.B. duty free, provided proof is made that such articles were actually caught by the crew of the vessel in which they were imported by oath of the master, that the same were so bona fide caught, and provided that a log-book is constantly kept on board, in which all the particulars by 26 G.3. c.41. s.10. pl. 382. required, shall be inserted, and which shall be delivered and verified as therein directed, id. s.4. [but see now 59 G.3. c.52. tit. WHALE, tab. A. Inwards.]

402. The provision in 26 G.3. c.41. s.17. pl. 389. contained, extended to ships employed in such fishery, although not fitted out for the bounty, id. s.5.

403. No boat used as, and commonly called a whale-boat, belonging to any vessel employed in the Greenland seas and Davis's Straits fishery, or in the fishery carried on to the southward thereof, shall be liable to seizure on account of her built, dimensions or construction, provided that on the return of such vessels from their voyages, such boat shall be laid up by the owners in some place to be approved of by the commissioners of customs at the port of such vessel's arrival, and shall not be employed in any way but in such fisheries, 32 G. 3. c. 22. s. 6. [see a similar provision, 51 G. 3. c. 45. s. 6., 59 G. 3. c. 113. s. 6.]

404. In case the time for which any apprentice has been indentured to serve on board any vessel employed in the Greenland seas and Davis's Straits fisheries, or the fisheries to the southward thereof, shall expire during the voyage, such apprentice shall be considered as an apprentice for the whole voyage, and shall, on the ship's return, be mustered accordingly, id. s. 7.

405. No person shall be deemed an apprentice within this act, or the 26 G. 3. c. 41., or 29 G. 3. c. 53. ss. 2—8., unless he be a subject of H. M., id. s. 8.

406. TO PERMIT BLUBBER from the Greenland fishery and Davis's Straits to be boiled into oil after the arrival of the ships from the fishery, and for charging the duty thereon, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 51. ss. 1, 2. [Exp. as to s. 2.]

407. On the return of any vessel from the Greenland seas or Davis's Straits, with any blubber being the produce of whales or other creatures living in the seas, caught in such fishery, such blubber may be boiled into oil under the inspection of an officer of the customs, and afterwards such oil shall be admitted to entry, and the duties paid according to law, id. s. 1. [For the duties on blubber and oil, see 59 G. 3. c. 52. tab. A. Inwards, and ss. 38, 39. of that act as to such duties on Newfoundland whale oil, &c.]

408. FOR ALLOWING UNTIL THE SIGNATURE OF PRELIMINARY articles of peace, vessels employed in the Greenland whale-fishery, to complete their full number of men at certain ports, 46 G. 3. c. 9. [REV. and CON. 55 G. 3. c. 59. s. 2. 60 G. 3. & 1 G. 4. c. 12. and until 31 Dec. 1823. 1 G. 4. c. 53. s. 2.]

409. Any ship or vessel which is not provided with the full complement of men, pursuant to 26 G. 3. c. 41., and other acts relating to the Greenland seas and Davis's Straits whale fishery, at the port from which she shall be fitted and cleared out, may proceed from thence to any port in Forth of Clyde, or in Lough Ryan, or to Lerwick in the Isle of Shetland, or Kirkwall in the Orkneys, and complete their number of men there, provided the number wanted doth not exceed 3 common men for every 50 tons burden of the vessel, but not otherwise; and upon her return from such fishery, such men may be landed at such ports, and upon the master of such vessel producing to the proper custom officer at the port of his arrival in G. B. a certificate, under the hand of the collector or comptroller at the ports aforesaid, which certificate they shall give, certifying the number and the names of the men so taken on board at such ports, and the number and names of such as are so landed there; and upon the master and mate making oath before the collector and comptroller at the port of arrival in G. B. that the men so taken on board proceeded from thence on such fishery, and continued on board during the time such vessel was employed in that business, the master or owners of such vessel shall be entitled to the bounty granted by such acts, as they would if the full complement of men was taken on board at the port of fitting and clearing out, and had returned to such port; provided all the other regulations required by such act have been duly complied with, 46 G. 3. c. 9.

FOREIGN ENLISTMENT.

TO PREVENT THE LISTING OF H. M.'s SUBJECTS TO SERVE as soldiers without H. M.'s licence, 9 G. 2. c. 30. [ENFORCED, and H. M.'s subjects prevented from serving as officers under the French king, and H. M.'s subjects accepting commissions in the Scotch brigade in the service of the States General, obliged to take the oaths of allegiance and abjuration, 29 G. 2. c. 17., both acts REV. 59 G. 3. c. 69. s. 1.]

(STATUTE in force.)

1. TO PREVENT THE ENLISTING OR ENGAGEMENT OF H. M.'s subjects to serve in foreign service, and the fitting out or equipping, in H. M.'s dominions, vessels for warlike purposes, without H. M.'s licence, 59 G. 3. c. 69. [As to when foreign enlistment is felony, see 3 J. 1. c. 4. ss. 18, 19. PARIET, pl. 108, 109, 110.]

2. The statutes 9 G. 2. c. 30. and 11 G. 2. Ir., 19 G. 2. Ir., and 29 G. 2. c. 17. are REV., id. s. 1.

3. And if any natural-born subject of H. M., without his licence first had under his sign manual, or signified by order in council, or by proclamation, shall take or accept, or shall agree to take, &c. any military commission, or shall otherwise enter into the military service as a commissioned or non-commissioned officer, or shall enlist, enter, or agree to enlist or enter himself to serve as a soldier, or to be employed or shall serve in any warlike or military operation, in the service of or for, or under or in aid of any foreign prince, state, potentate, colony, province, or part of any province or people, or of any person exercising, or assuming to exercise the powers of government therein, either as an officer or soldier, or in any other military capacity; or shall, without such licence, accept, or agree to accept, any commission, warrant, or appointment as an officer, or shall enlist or enter himself to serve as a sailor or marine, or to be employed, or shall serve on board any ship of war, or on board any ship used or fitted out, or intended to be used for any warlike purpose, in the service of, for, or in aid of any foreign power; or if any natural-born subject shall, without such licence, engage, or agree to go, or shall go to any foreign state, country, colony, province, or part thereof, or to any place beyond sea, in order to enlist or enter himself to serve, or with intent to serve in any warlike or military operation whatever, whether by land or by sea, in the service or in aid of any foreign state, either as an officer or a soldier, or in any other military capacity, or as an officer or sailor, or marine, though no enlisting money or pay or reward shall have been paid; or if any person whatever, within G. B. and Ire., or in any part of H. M.'s dominions elsewhere, or in any place belonging or subject to H. M., shall hire, retain, engage, or procure, or attempt to hire, &c. any person to enlist, or to engage to enlist, or to serve or be employed in any such service or employment as an officer, soldier, sailor, or marine, either in land or sea service, for or under or in aid of any foreign state, or to go, or to agree to go, or embark from any part of H. M.'s dominions, with intent to be so enlisted, &c. as aforesaid, whether any enlisting money, pay, or reward is received or not; every person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on being convicted on information or indictment, shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of them, at the discretion of the court, 59 G. 3. c. 69. s. 2.

4. Nothing in this act shall render any persons liable to punishment under this act, who at any time before 1st Aug. 1819, within any part of U. K. or of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, or Sark, or at any time before 1st November, 1819, in any place out of U. K. or of such islands, shall have taken or accepted, or agreed to take, &c. any military commission, or shall have otherwise enlisted, or having so served shall continue to serve; but they shall be in such condition and no other, and liable to such penalties, forfeitures, and disabilities as before the passing of this act, and as they would have been subjected to in case this act and the recited acts repealed had not been passed, id. s. 3.

5. Any justice residing at or near to any port within G. B. and Ire. where any offence punishable by this act shall be committed, on information on oath, may issue his warrant for the apprehension of the offender; and the justice before whom such offender is brought, shall examine into the nature of the offence upon oath, and commit such person to gaol, there to remain till delivered by due course of law, unless he shall give bail, to the satisfaction of such justice, to appear and answer to any information or indictment preferred against him, and all such offences which shall be committed within Eng., shall be tried in K. B. and the venue laid at Westminster, or at the assizes or session of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery, or at any quarter or general sessions of the peace for the county where such offence was committed; and all offences in Ire. shall be prosecuted in K. B. at Dublin, and the venue laid at Dublin, or at any assizes or session of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery, or at any quarter or general sessions of the peace for the county where such offence was committed; and all offences in Scot. shall be prosecuted in the court of judicary in Scot. or any other court competent to try criminal offences committed within the county, within which such offence was committed; and where any such offence shall be committed out of the U. K., any justice residing near to the port where such offence shall be committed, on information on oath, shall issue his warrant for the apprehension of the offender; and such justice before whom such offender shall be brought, may examine into the nature of the offence upon oath, and commit such person to gaol, there to remain until delivered by due course of law, or otherwise hold him to bail, to answer for such offence in the superior court, competent to try criminal offences committed in such port, and all offences committed out of the U. K. may be tried in any superior court competent to try criminal offences, id. s. 4.

6. In case any ship in any port within H. M.'s dominions, shall have on board any such person, either as an officer, soldier, sailor, or marine, contrary to this act, any officer of customs, or (where there are no officers of customs) any governor or persons having the chief civil command, on information on oath that such persons are on board, may detain any such ship, provided that no principal officer, governor, or person, shall act as aforesaid, on such information upon oath, unless the informer shall not only have deposed in such information, that the persons on board have been enlisted or entered to serve, or have engaged or agreed or been procured to enlist or enter to serve, or are departing with the intent of enlisting or entering to serve or to be employed, or of serving, or being engaged in such service as aforesaid, but shall also have set forth in such information on oath, the facts on which he forms his knowledge or belief, and all persons convicted of wilfully false swearing shall be deemed guilty of perjury, 59 G. 3. c. 69. s. 5.

7. If any master or person having command of any ship shall knowingly take on board, or if he or the owner shall knowingly engage to take on board, any such persons, such master, commander, or owner, shall forfeit 50*l.* for each person; and the ship shall be seized and detained till such penalty shall be paid, or till such master, &c. shall give sufficient bail, by recognizance before one magistrate, for payment of such penalty, id. s. 6.

8. Every person within the U.K., or H.M.'s dominions beyond the seas, who shall, without licence of H.M., equip or arm, or attempt to equip or arm, or procure to be equipped, &c. or shall knowingly be concerned in the equipment, &c. of any ship, with intent that she shall be employed in the service of any foreign state, or persons exercising any powers of government, as a transport or store ship, or with intent to cruise or commit hostilities against any state, or persons exercising the powers of government, or against the inhabitants of any foreign colony with whom H.M. shall not then be at war; or shall issue any commission for any ship, to the intent that she shall be employed as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction, on information, or indictment, be punished by fine and imprisonment, or either of them, at discretion of the court, and every such ship, with the tackle, apparel, furniture, materials, arms, ammunition, and stores, shall be forfeited; and any officer of customs, excise, or navy, impowered to make seizures under any of the laws of customs or excise, or of trade and navigation, may seize such ships, with the tackle, &c. belonging to or being on board, may be prosecuted and condemned in like manner as ships for breach of the laws, of customs, excise, trade, or navigation, id. s. 7.

9. Every person in any part of the U.K. or of H.M.'s dominions beyond the seas, who, without licence of H.M. shall, by adding to the number of the guns of such vessel, or by changing those on board for other guns, or by the addition of any equipment for war, augment, or procure to be augmented, or shall be knowingly concerned in augmenting the warlike force of any ship of war, or cruiser, or other armed vessel, which, at the time of her arrival in any part of the U.K., or of H.M.'s dominions, was a ship of war, &c. in the service of any foreign state, or of any persons exercising powers of government, or belonging to the inhabitants of any colony under the control of any persons exercising the powers of government, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on being convicted on information or indictment, be punished by fine and imprisonment, or either, at discretion of the court, id. s. 8.

10. Offences committed out of the U.K., may be prosecuted and tried in K. B. at Westminster, and the venue laid there, id. s. 9.

11. Any penalty inflicted by this act, may be sued for by action of debt, &c. or information, in any court of record at Westminster or Dublin, or in the exchequer, or in the court of session in Scot., in the name of the attorney or advocate-general, or of any person soever, wherein no essoin, &c. nor more than one imparlance is allowed; and in every suit the person against whom judgment shall be given for any penalty, shall pay double costs; and every such suit may be brought at any time within 12 months, and not afterwards; and one moiety shall go to H.M., and the other to the use of such person as shall first sue, id. s. 10.

12. If any action is commenced against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this act, all regulations and protections, as to acts done by any officer of customs or excise, or of H.M.'s navy, under any act in force for the protection of the customs and excise, or prevention of smuggling, shall apply in any such action brought in pursuance of this act, id. s. 11.

13. Nothing in this act shall subject to any penalty any person who shall enter into the military service of any prince, state, or potentate in Asia, with leave from the governor-general in council, or vice-president in council of Fort William in Bengal, or in conformity with their orders in council, id. s. 12.

FOREST.

coming to the market, buying out of town that they may sell the same in town unto regrators, 51 H. 3. S. 6. s. 3. (REV. ED. 51.)

2. OF FORESTALLERS. St. Incert. Temp. c. 10. REV. ED. 389.

3. No forestaller shall be suffered to dwell in any town who is an oppressor of the poor: a public enemy of the country, who meeting grain, fish, herring, or other things coming to be sold, doth buy them before others, oppressing the poor and deceiving the rich, and by that means goeth about to sell such things much dearer than he which bought them; who cometh about merchant strangers and offeth them his help in the sale of their wares, and informeth them that they may sell their wares dearer than they meant to have done; he that is convict thereof, the 1st time, shall be amerced, and shall lose the thing so bought, according to the custom of the town; he that is convict the 2d time, shall have judgment of the pillory; the 3d time he shall be imprisoned and make fine; the 4th time he shall abjure the town, and likewise they that give them counsel, help, or favour, id. ibid.

4. THE PENALTY OF FORESTALLERS of wine, victuals, or merchandize, 25 E. 3. S. 4. c. 3. [CONF. 2 R. 2. c. 2.]

5. The forestallers of wines, victuals, and other merchandizes that come to the towns of Eng. by land or by water, if they be thereof attainted at the suit of H.M. or the party before mayor, bailiffs, or justices thereto assigned, or elsewhere, in H.M.'s court; and if they be attainted at H.M.'s suit by indictment or otherwise, the things forestalled shall be forfeit to H.M., if the buyer hath made satisfaction to the seller; and if he hath not made satisfaction of all, but by earnest, the buyer shall forfeit as much as the forestalled goods amount to; and if he have not whereof, he shall have 2 years' imprisonment and more, at H.M.'s will; and if he be attainted at the suit of the party, the party shall have one-half of such forfeit or the price of H.M.'s gift, and H.M. the other half, 25 E. 3. S. 1. c. 3.

6. MERCHANDIZE SHALL BE FREELY SOLD at the staples, so they be not forestalled, 27 E. 3. S. 2. c. 11.

7. All merchants that bring their wines, wares, &c. to the staples, cities, towns, or ports within the realm, may safely sell them; and no persons shall go by land or water towards such wares, to forestall them, or give earnest for them, before they come to the port, nor enter into the ships for such purpose, till the merchandize be set to land to be sold, upon the pains contained in the 3d article aforesaid, [viz. pains of felony, 27 E. 3. S. 2. c. 3.] id. ibid. [The penalty of death in the 27 E. 3. S. 2. c. 3. is REP. by 38 E. 3. S. 1. c. 6. but the forfeiture of lands and goods remains.]

2. WHAT GROUNDS SHALL BE DISAFFORESTED, 9 H. 3. Chart. de For. c. 1. [EXT. to woods, id. ibid. c. 3.]

3. All forests afforested by king Henry shall be disafforested, except those of his own demesne, 9 H. Car. de For. c. 1.

4. All woods which have been afforested by R. 1. or king John shall be disafforested, unless it be our demesne wood, id. c. 3.

5. WHO ARE BOUND TO THE SUMMONS OF THE FOREST, id. c. 2.

6. Men that dwell out of the forest shall not come before the justice of forest by common summons, unless they be impleaded, or be sureties for some other that were attached to the forest, id. ibid.

7. NO PURPRESTURE, WASTE, OR ASSART SHALL BE MADE in forests, id. c. 4.

8. Frecholders which have their woods in forests, shall have their woods as at the time of the first coronation of king Hen. 2. And those that make waste or purpresture in them without licence, or assart, shall answer for the same, id. ibid.

9. WHEN RANGERS SHALL MAKE THEIR RANGE in the forest, id. c. 5.

10. The rangers shall go through the forest to make range, as hath been accustomed at the time of the first coronation of king Hen. 2. and none otherwise, id. ibid.

11. LAWING OF DOGS IN FORESTS, id. c. 6.

12. The view for lawing of dogs within the forest shall be made when the range is made, viz. every third year, and then it shall be done by the view and testimony of honest men; and he whose dog is not lawed, and so found, shall be amerced, and pay 3*s.* And no ox shall be taken for lawing; and such lawing shall be by the assize commonly used, viz. three claws shall be cut off without the ball from the forefoot; but such lawing shall not be done, but where it hath been accustomed from the time of the first coronation of king Hen. 2. 9 H. 3. Car. de For. c. 6.

13. GATHERINGS IN FORESTS; APPOINTMENT OF FORESTERS, id. c. 7.

14. No forester or bandle shall make scotal, or gather garb of oats or any corn, lamb or pig, nor shall make gathering but by the sight, and by the oath, of the twelve rangers, when they make their range; so many foresters shall be assigned to the keeping of the forests, as shall seem sufficient, id. ibid.

15. WHEN SWANIMOTES AND COURTS OF ATTACHMENT shall be kept, and who shall repair to them, id. c. 8.

16. No swanimote shall be kept but thrice in the year; first, the 15th day afore Michaelmas, when the agisters meet to agist our demesne woods, and about the feast of St. Martin in winter, when the agisters receive pannage; and to these two swanimotes shall come the foresters, verderers, agisters, and none other by distress; the third swanimote shall be kept in the beginning of fifteen days before the feast of St. John Baptist, for the fawning of our does; and at this swanimote shall meet the foresters, verderers, and none other by distress; moreover, every forty days through the year, the foresters and verderers shall meet to see the attachments of the forest, as well for vert as for venison, by the presentment of the foresters, and afore them who are attached; and the swanimotes shall not be kept but within the counties in which they have been used, id. ibid.

17. WHO MAY TAKE AGISTMENT AND PANNAGE IN FORESTS, id. c. 9.

18. Every freeman may agist his own wood within the forest, and shall take his pannage; also every freeman may drive his swine through the demesne woods to agist them in his own woods, or where he will; and if his swine be one night within the forest, there shall be no occasion taken thereof whereby he may lose any thing of his own, id. ibid.

19. THE PUNISHMENT FOR KILLING H. M.'S DEER, id. c. 10.

20. No man shall lose life nor member for our venison; but if any man be taken and convict of taking of H. M.'s venison, he shall make a grievous fine, and if he have nothing to lose, he shall be imprisoned a year and a day, and after the year and day (if he can find sureties) he shall be delivered; and if not, he shall abjure the realm, id. ibid.

21. A NOBLEMAN PASSING THROUGH THE FOREST MAY KILL A DEER, id. c. 11.

22. Whatsoever archbishop, bishop, earl or baron, coming to H. M. at his command, and passing by the forest, may kill one or two by view of the forester, if he be present, or else he shall cause an horn to be wound, that he seem not to do it by stealth; and likewise they shall do returning home, id. ibid.

23. HOW A FREEMAN MAY USE HIS LAND IN THE FOREST, id. c. 12.

24. Every freeman shall make in his own wood, or land, within the forest, mills, springs, pools, marshes, dikes or arable ground without the cover, so that it be not to the annoyance of any neighbour, id. ibid.

25. WHAT A FREEMAN MAY HAVE IN HIS OWN WOODS, id. c. 13.

26. Every freeman shall have within his own woods, agries of hawks, sparrow-hawks, falcons, eagles and herons, and the honey found within his woods, id. ibid.

27. WHO MAY TAKE CHIMINAGE OR TOLL IN THE FOREST, id. c. 14.

28. No forester which is no forester in fee paying farm, shall take any chiminage or toll within his bailiwick; but a forester in fee paying farm shall take chiminage, viz. for a cart the half year 2d. and for another half year 2d. for an horse that beareth loads, every half year an half-penny; and of those only that come as merchants through his bailiwick by licence to buy bushes, timber, bark, coal, and to sell it again; but for none other cart, chiminage or toll shall be taken; and chiminage shall not be taken but where it hath been used; those which bear upon their backs brushment, bark or coal to sell, though it be their living, shall pay no chiminage, id. ibid.

29. HOW PLEA OF THE FOREST SHALL BE HOLDEN, id. c. 16.

30. No constable, shall hold plea of forest, neither for vert nor venison, but every forester in fee shall make attachments for plea of forest, as well for vert as venison, and shall present them to the verderers of the provinces; and when they be inrolled and inclosed under the seals of the verderers, they shall be presented to the chief forester when he comes to hold forest, and before him they shall be determined, id. ibid.

31. OF TRESPASSERS IN PARKS, 21 E. 1. S. 1.

32. If any forester, parker or warrener, find any trespasser wandering within his liberty, intending to do damage therein, and that after hue and cry made to him to stand unto the peace will not yield himself, but doth continue and execute his malice, and disobeying H. M.'s peace, doth fly and defend himself with force of arms, although such foresters, &c. or any other coming in their company, and aiding such foresters, &c. do kill any offender so found, they shall not be arraigned upon the same before H. M., his justices or bailiffs, or any other, nor shall lose life or limb, or suffer any other punishment, id. s. 1.

33. Let all such foresters and others beware, that by reason of malice or evil will had before, they do not maliciously pretend, against any person passing through their liberties, that they came thither to trespass or misdo, when of truth, they did nothing, nor were found as trespassers, and so kill them: for the death of such person shall be inquired, and execution done in like manner as for other of H. M.'s subjects standing in his peace, and according to law, 21 E. 1. S. 1. s. 2.

34. AN ORDINANCE OF THE FOREST, 53 E. 1. S. 5. (110 ed. 295.)

35. All H. M.'s lands that have anciently been of the crown, shall have estate of free charge and free warren, and in regard to them that have lands disafforested for the purlien, and such as demand to have common within the forests, the intent of H. M. is, that, where purlien is, they may claim to be quit of charge of the forests; and whereas H. M.'s beasts cannot have their haunt and repair upon the ground, as they had so long as they were within the forests; such folk shall not have common, nor other easement within the forest; but if any of them shall be disafforested by the purlien, would rather be within the forest as before, they shall be received thereunto, and shall have common and other easement as before; the justices of the forest shall keep these points, id. ibid. [see 16 C. 1. c. 16. s. 9. post. pl. 65.]

36. HOW OFFENCES DONE IN THE FOREST SHALL BE presented. 34 E. 1. S. 5. c. 1.

37. All trespasses done in forests, of green hue and of hunting, the foresters within whose bailiwicks such trespasses shall happen, shall present the same at the next swanimote before the foresters, verderers, regards, agisters and other ministers; and upon such presentations, by the oath as well of knights as of other of the nearest parts where the trespass was done, not suspected, the truth shall be inquired of; and the presentations, by the common assent of all such ministers, shall be confirmed and sealed; and if an indictment be in other manner it shall be void, id. ibid.

38. SUPPLYING AND APPOINTMENT OF OFFICERS, 34 E. 1. S. 5. c. 2.

39. If any of such foresters, regards, or other ministers of the same forests die, or by sickness or other means be hindered, whereby he cannot be present at the swanimote, the justice of the forest, or his lieutenant, shall put another in his place, so that the indictment may be made by all; and the officers shall be put in as heretofore, except the verderers, who shall be ordained by election by writ, id. ibid.

40. NONE OF SUCH MINISTERS SHALL BE PUT IN ASSIZES, juries or inquests, taken without the forest, 34 E. 1. S. 5. c. 3.

41. PUNISHMENT OF OFFICERS SURCHARGING THE FOREST, 34 E. 1. S. 5. c. 4.

42. If there be any surcharge found of the foresters, or by such as take upon them to be officers of the forest, such surchargers shall be removed and imprisoned according to the discretion of the justice of the forest or his lieutenant; and they by whom they were placed shall be punished at H. M.'s pleasure; and at every swanimote inquisition shall be made of surcharges of foresters and other ministers, and of their oppressions done to the people, id. ibid.

43. COMMON IN THE FOREST, 34 E. 1. S. 5. c. 6.

44. The justice of the forest, or his lieutenant, in the presence of the treasurer, and by his assent, shall take fines and amercements of those which be indicted for trespasses in forests, and not tarry for the eyre; and they which had common of pasture in the forest before the perambulation, and which were returned into the forest, and were restrained of common by the perambulation, shall have their common as before, id. ibid.

45. THE CUSTOMS AND ASSIZE OF THE FOREST, Stat. incert. temp. xvii. 8vo. ed. 414.

46. OF PROCEEDINGS AGAINST OFFENDERS IN FORESTS, 1 E. 3. S. 1. c. 8.

47. No man shall be taken nor imprisoned for vert nor venison, unless he be taken with the mainour, or indicted after the form specified, in 34 E. 1. S. 5. c. 1. [see pl. 36.] And then the chief warden of the forest shall let him to mainprize till the eyre of the forest, without any thing taken for his deliverance; and if the warden will not so do, he shall have a writ out of chancery to be at mainprize till the eyre; and if such warden, after he hath received the writ, do not incontinently deliver such persons to mainprize without taking any thing, the plaintiff shall have a writ out of the chancery to the sheriff, to attach the warden, to be before the king, to answer wherefore he hath not replevied him. And the sheriff (the verderers being called to him) shall deliver him that is so taken by good mainprize, in the presence of the verderers, and shall deliver the names of the mainperners to the same verderers, to answer in the eyre of the justices; and if the chief warden be thereof attainted, the plaintiff shall recover his treble damages, and the warden be committed to prison, and ransomed at H. M.'s will; and it shall be written to them as to the chief wardens of the forests, because they may not be justices, nor have any record but in the eyre, id. ibid.

48. CONFIRMATION OF THE GREAT CHARTER AND CHARTER OF THE FORESTS, 1 E. 3. S. 2. c. 1.

49. The perambulations of the forest in time of E. 1. shall be holden in the like form as it was then riden and bounded. And thereupon a charter shall be made to every shire; and where it was not bounded, it shall be bounded by good men, and a charter thereupon made; and every man that hath wood within the forest, may take housebote and haybote in his wood without being attached, so that he do the same by the view of the foresters, 1 E. 3. S. 2. c. 1.

50. No FORESTER, NOR KEEPER OF FOREST OR CHASE, or other minister, shall make gathering of victuals or other thing by colour of their office against any man's will, but that which is due of old right, 25 E. 3. S. 5. c. 7.

51. A JURY FOR TRESPASS WITHIN THE FOREST SHALL GIVE THEIR VERDICT where they received their charge, 7 R. 2. c. 3.

52. No jury shall be compelled by any officer of the forest, or other, to travel out of the place where their charge is given them, against their will; nor by menace or duress constrained to give their verdict of a trespass done in the forest, otherwise than their conscience will inform them; but they shall give their verdicts where the charge is given them, id. ibid.

53. NONE SHALL BE TAKEN OR IMPRISONED BY THE OFFICERS OF the forest without indictment, 7 R. 2. c. 4.

54. No man shall be taken or imprisoned by any officer of the forest without indictment, or being taken with the mainour, or trespassing in the forest; nor shall be constrained to make obligation or ransom to any officer of the forest against their will or the assise of the forest; and if any do against this ordinance, and be thereof attainted, he shall pay to the party damaged double damages, and fine and ransom to H. M., id. ibid.

55. FOR INCLOSING OF WOODS IN THE FORESTS, CHASES, AND PURLIEUS, 22 E. 4. c. 7.

56. If any, having woods of his own growing on his own ground in any forest, chase, or purlieu, shall cut the same, by licence in H. M.'s forests, &c. or without licence in the forest of any other, the owners may cope and inclose the ground with sufficient hedges, for preserving the young spring, for 7 years, 21 E. 4. c. 7. [see further, Woods.]

57. JUSTICES OF THE FORESTS MAY MAKE DEPUTIES, 32 H. 8. c. 35.

58. The justices of H. M.'s forests, parks, and chases, by writing sealed with the seal of their office, shall make deputies, which deputies shall have like power as the justices, id. ibid.

59. FOR THE CERTAINTY OF FORESTS and of the meers, meets, limits, and bounds of the forests, 16 C. 1. c. 16. (and recital in ss. 1—3.)

60. The meets and bounds of the forests shall extend no further than the same were commonly known or taken in the 20th of James I.; and all presentments since such 20th year, and all other presentments, perambulations, and other acts, by which the meets or bounds of the forests are further extended, shall be void, id. s. 4.

61. No place within Eag. or Wa., where no justice-seat, swainmote, or court of attachment, have been held, or where no verderers have been chosen, or regard made, within 60 years before the first year of H. M.'s reign, shall be taken to be forest, but shall be for ever disafforested, id. s. 5.

62. The lord chancellor shall upon request of any of the peers, or of the knights and burgesses of parliament, grant commissions to commissioners, nominated by such peers, knights, and burgesses, to inquire by inquests, and by the oaths of witnesses to be produced at such inquests, and by all other lawful means, the meers, meets, bounds, and limits, of the forests, which were commonly known to be their bounds, &c. in such 20th year of James I.; and to return the inquests into the chancery; and all sheriffs and bailiffs of every county wherein such inquests shall be taken, and all verderers, foresters, rangers, and other officers of the forests, shall be attendant to the execution of such commissions, id. s. 6.

63. The forests whereof the bounds be so returned shall not extend any further than the meets and bounds that shall be so returned and certified; and all places without the meets and bounds so returned shall be free, as if the same had never been forest, id. s. 7.

64. All grounds disafforested since the 20th of James I. shall be left out of the meets and bounds of the forests which were to be inquired of, and shall be disafforested, id. s. 8.

65. Provided, that the owners and occupiers of tenements, left out of the bounds of the forest to be returned and certified by virtue of such commissions, may enjoy such common and other profits within the forest as anciently; this act and the 33 E. 1. S. 3. [see pl. 35.] notwithstanding, id. s. 9.

FORGERY.

(STATUTES repealed.)

1. AGAINST SUCH AS FORGE and publish false deeds of other men's tenements, 1 H. 5. c. 2. [REP. 5 E. 1. c. 14. s. 11.]

2. PROCESS AGAINST FORGERS OF DEEDS, 7 H. 5. c. 2. [REP. 5 E. 1. c. 14. s. 11.]

3. CONCERNING THE FORGING OF H. M.'s SIGN MANUAL, signet, and privy seal, 26 H. 8. c. 2. [REP. by the general words of 1 M. S. 1. c. 1. but the like offence declared high treason, 1 M. S. 2. c. 6. which see, post, pl. 2.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. AGAINST COUNTERFEITING OF STRANGE COINS being current in this realm, or of H. M.'s sign manual, signet, or privy seal, 1 M. S. 2. c. 6. and recital in s. 1.

2. Every person who shall falsely forge and counterfeit any kind of foreign gold or silver coin current in this realm by consent of H. M. or H. M.'s sign manual, privy signet, or seal, shall be deemed guilty of high treason, and the offenders, their counsellors and aiders shall, on due conviction, be adjudged traitors, and suffer death, and forfeiture of lands, goods, and chattels, id. s. 2.

3. AGAINST FORGING OF EVIDENCES AND WRITINGS, 5 E. 1. c. 14. and recital in s. 1.

4. If any person shall wittingly, subtilly, and falsely forge, or cause or assent to be forged, any false deed, charter, or writing sealed, court-roll, or the will of any person in writing, to the intent that the freehold or inheritance of any persons in lands, tenements, or hereditaments, freehold or copyhold, or the right or interest of any person to the same, may be molested, defeated, or charged; or shall publish, or show forth in evidence, any such false and forged deed, &c. as true, knowing the same to be false and forged, to the intent above remembered; and shall be thereof convicted, either upon action of forger or false deeds, to be founded upon this statute at the suit of the party grieved, or otherwise according to the laws; he shall pay unto the party grieved his double costs and damages, to be assessed in that court where such conviction shall be, and also shall be set upon the pillory in some market town or other open place, and there have both his ears cut off, and his nostrils slit and scared, and shall forfeit to H. M. the whole issues and profits of his lands during his life, and shall suffer perpetual imprisonment. Such damages and costs recovered at the suit of the party grieved, to be first levied of the goods of the offender, and of the issues and profits of his lands, &c. id. s. 2.

5. If any person shall wittingly, subtilly, and falsely forge, or cause or assent to be forged, any false charter, deed, or writing, to the intent that any person may claim an estate or interest for years in manors, lands, &c. not being copyhold, or any annuity in fee simple or fee tail, for term of life or years, or forge, &c. any obligation, or bill obligatory, or any discharge of any debt, account, action, demand, or other thing personal; or if any person shall publish or give in evidence any such false or forged charter, &c. as true, knowing the same to be false and forged, and shall be thereof convicted as aforesaid; he shall pay to the party grieved his double costs and damages, to be assessed in such court where the conviction shall be, and shall be set upon the pillory in some market town or other open place, and there have one of his ears cut off, and also suffer imprisonment one year, id. s. 3.

6. The party grieved may have his action of forger of false deeds upon this statute, by original writ out of chancery, and have like process upon the same, as in trespass; or may take his suit by bill in K. B., or exchequer, wherein no essoin, injunction, or protection allowed, id. s. 4.

7. If the defendant be convicted, &c. according to this act, he shall not afterwards be impeached for the same offence, id. s. 5.

8. Although the plaintiff in any such action shall, after verdict against the defendant, release the judgment or execution, or suffer the same to be discontinued; yet the same release shall only discharge such costs and damages as the plaintiff should have had; and the judges, before whom the action shall be, may proceed to judgment of the residue of the penalties, and command execution upon the same, notwithstanding such release, id. s. 6.

9. If any person convicted of any such offences, shall afterwards commit any of such offences; every such 2d offence shall be felony, and parties convicted thereof shall suffer death without clergy; saving to every person, other than the offenders, and persons claiming to their uses all rights, &c. to any of the lands, &c. of such offender, id. s. 7.

10. Such conviction of felony shall not take away dower, nor work corruption of blood or disherison of the heir, id. s. 8.

11. This act shall not charge any ordinary or their officers with such offences, for putting their seal of office to any will exhibited unto them, not knowing the same to be false or forged, or for writing of such will, or probate of the same, id. s. 9.

12. Justices of oyer and terminer, and justices of assize, shall inquire, hear, and determine such offences, and make process for execution as against any person indicted of trespass, id. s. 10.

13. All other statutes made for forgery of false deeds, &c. shall be void, id. s. 11.

14. This act shall not extend to any proctor, advocate, or register of any ecclesiastical court, for setting forth or pleading of any proxy ac-ording to the customs allowed by the ecclesiastical courts, for the appearance of any person cited to appear in such courts, nor to any archdeacon or official, for putting their authentic seal to such proxies, neither to any judge ecclesiastical for admitting the same, 5 El. c. 14. s. 12.

15. This act shall not extend to any attorney or counsellor, that shall for his client plead, or give in evidence, any false and forged deed or writing, being not party or privy to the forging of the same, id. s. 15.

16. This act shall not extend to any person that shall plead or show forth any deed or writing exemplified under the great seal, or under seal of any other authentic court, nor shall extend to any judge or other person, that shall cause any seal of any court to be set to such deed, charter or writing, inrolled, not knowing the same to be false or forged, id. s. 16.

17. TO PREVENT THE UTTERING OF FORGED, or counterfeited, or erased bank bills or notes, 11 G. 1. c. 9. s. 6. [see as to forging bankers' notes, 41 G. 3. U.K. c. 57. BANKER, pl. 1.]

18. Every person who shall utter, forge, or counterfeit any bank bill or note, made for the payment of any money by or for the governor and company of the bank of Eng. or any bank note of any sort soever, or shall erase or alter any such bill or note, or any endorsement thereon, or tender in payment, utter, vend, exchange, or barter the same so altered, forged, &c. or demand to have the same exchanged for ready money, by such bank or any other person, knowing the same to be so altered, forged, &c. with intent to defraud the bank or any other person, shall be deemed a felon, and suffer as such, 11 G. 1. c. 9. s. 6.

19. TO PREVENT THE COUNTERFEITING OF East India bonds and indorsements thereon, as likewise indorsements on South Sea bonds, or the hand of the accountant-general and others, 12 G. 1. c. 32. s. 9. [see the rest of this act, COURTS (CHANCERY), pl. 15.]

20. Every person who shall forge, or counterfeit, or procure to be forged, &c. or willingly act in forging, &c. the name or hand of the accountant-general of the high court of chancery, or of the register, or of the clerk of the report office of such court, or of any of the cashiers of the bank of Eng. to any certificate, report, entry, indorsement, declaration of trust, note, direction, authority, instrument, or writing, for or in order to receive or obtain any the money or effects of the suitors of such court, or shall forge, or counterfeit, or procure to be forged, &c., or wilfully assist in forging, &c. any certificate, entry, &c. made by such accountant, register, clerk, or cashiers, or any bond, or obligation, under the common seal of the East India company, or any indorsement or assignment thereon, or on any bond or obligation under the common seal of the South Sea company, or who shall utter or publish any such, knowing the same to be forged, with intention to defraud any person whatever, shall on conviction, be adjudged guilty of felony, and suffer death without clergy, id. ibid.

21. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PREVENTING and further punishment of forgery, 2 G. 2. c. 25. s. 1. [For the rest of this act, see PERJURY. FELONY. Not to extend to Scot. id. s. 4., and attainder under not to work corruption of blood, s. 5. REV. and MADE PERP. 9 G. 2. c. 18. s. 1. EXPL. 31 G. 2. c. 22. s. 78. AMD. 7 G. 2. c. 22. which is EXPL. 18 G. 3. c. 18. But see now these provisions much enlarged and extended to all parts of G. B., 45 G. 3. c. 89. just, pl. 27.]

22. Every person who shall falsely make, forge, or counterfeit, or cause to be falsely made, &c. or willingly assist in falsely making, &c. any deed, will, testament, bond, writing obligatory, bill of exchange, or promissory note, for payment of money, or any indorsement or assignment of any bill or note, for payment of money, or any acquittance, or receipt, either for money or goods, with intention to defraud any person, or shall utter or publish as true any false, forged, &c., deed, &c., with intention to defraud any [person, 2 G. 2. c. 25. s. 1.] [corporation, 31 G. 2. c. 22. s. 78.] knowing the same to be forged, &c. shall on conviction, be deemed guilty of felony, and suffer death without clergy, 2 G. 2. c. 25. s. 1., 31 G. 2. c. 22. s. 78.

23. Every person who shall falsely make, alter, forge, or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be falsely made, &c., or willingly assist in the false making, &c. of any acceptance of any bill of exchange, or the number or principal sum of any accountable receipt for any note, bill, or other security for payment of money, or any warrant or order for payment of money or delivery of goods, with intention to defraud any [person, 7 G. 2. c. 22.] [corporation, 18 G. 3. c. 18.] or shall utter or publish as true, any false, altered, &c. acceptance of any such instrument, with such intention to defraud, shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of felony, and suffer death without clergy, 7 G. 2. c. 22., 18 G. 3. c. 18.

24. FOR THE BETTER PREVENTING THE FORGING or counterfeiting the names of witnesses to letters of attorney, or other authorities or instruments for the transfer of stocks or funds, which now are, or hereafter may be made transferable at the bank of Eng., or for the transfer of any part of the capital stock of the bank of Eng. called bank stock, or of the capital stock, or any stock or funds under the management of the South Sea company, or of the capital stock of the East India company, or for the receipt of dividends upon any such stocks or funds,

37 G. 3. c. 122. [Public clause, id. s. 2. [see, as to forgeries and frauds in transfers of stocks in general, 37 G. 3. c. 30. STOCKS.]

25. If any person shall falsely make, forge, or counterfeit, or cause, or procure to be falsely made, &c. or shall willingly assist in the falsely making, &c. the name or names, or hand-writing of any person, as, or purporting to be the witness attesting the execution of any letter of attorney, or other authority or instrument to transfer, assign, sell or convey, any interest, part, or share of or in any stock, annuity, or other funds, or the dividends thereof transferable, or which by any statute may be hereafter transferable at the bank of Eng., or of or in the capital belonging or which may belong to the bank, called bank stock, or to the South Sea company, or under their management, or of or in the capital stock belonging, or which hereafter may belong to the East India company, called East India stock, or of any letter of attorney, or other authority or instrument to receive any dividends on any of such stocks, annuities, or other funds, or shall alter or publish as true any such letter of attorney, &c. containing such false, forged, or counterfeited name or names, or hand-writing of such attesting witness, knowing such name, &c. to be false, forged, &c., such person shall, on conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of felony, and be transported for 7 years, or suffer such lesser punishment as the court shall award, 37 G. 3. c. 112. s. 2.

26. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PREVENTING THE FORGERY OF BANK notes, bank bills of exchange, and bank post bills, 41 G. 3. (U.K.) c. 39. [Exp. as to the rest verbatim with 45 G. 3. c. 89. ss. 3—7. pl. 30. &c.]

27. TO ALTER AND EXTEND the provisions of the laws now in force for the punishment of forgery of bank notes, bills of exchange, and other securities, to every part of G. B., 45 G. 3. c. 89. [To extend to all parts of G. B., id. s. 8. See as to the forgery of bank notes, 15 G. 3. c. 79. and of the intended new bank note, 1 G. 4. c. 92. BANK OF ENGLAND, pl. 70. and 118.]

28. If any person shall falsely make, forge, counterfeit, or alter, or cause or procure to be falsely made, forged, &c. or willingly aid and assist in the false making, forging, &c. any deed, will, testament, bond, writing obligatory, bill of exchange, promissory note for payment of money, indorsement, or assignment, [see as to forging any indorsement or assignment of any bond of the East India or South Sea Company, 12 G. 1. c. 32. s. 9. ante, pl. 20.] of any bill of exchange, or promissory note for the payment of money, acceptance of any bill of exchange, or any acquittance or receipt, either for money or goods, or any accountable receipt for any note, bill, or other security for payment of money, or any warrant or order for payment of money, or delivery of goods, with intention to defraud any person or body corporate, or shall offer, dispose of, or put away, any false, forged, counterfeited, or altered deed, will, testament, &c. (as before) with intention to defraud any person or body corporate, knowing the same to be false, forged, &c. then such person shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of felony, and suffer death, without clergy, 45 G. 3. c. 89. s. 1.

29. Every person who shall forge, counterfeit, or alter any bank note, bank bill of exchange, dividend, warrant, or any bond or obligation under the common seal of the Gov. and Co. of the Bank of Eng., or any indorsement thereon, or shall offer or put away any such forged, &c. note, bill, &c. or demand the money therein contained or pretended to be due, or any part thereof, of such company or their officers or servants, knowing such note, &c. to be forged, &c. with intent to defraud such gov. and company, or any other person or body corporate, shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of felony, and suffer death, without clergy, id. s. 2.

30. If any person (other than the officers, workmen, servants, or agents of the Bank, authorized by the Bank, and for their sole use) shall make or use, or cause or procure to be made or used, or knowingly assist in the making or using, or, without being so authorized, shall knowingly have in custody without lawful excuse, (the proof whereof shall lie on the accused) any frame, mould, or instrument, for the making of paper, with curved or waving bar lines, or with the laying wire lines thereof in a waving or curved shape, or with any number, sum, or amount expressed in Roman letters, visible in the substance of such paper, or shall manufacture, make, use, vend, expose to sale, publish or dispose of, or cause or procure to be manufactured, made, &c., or assist in the manufacturing, making, &c., or (without being so authorized) shall knowingly have in custody any such paper, as before described, or if any person (except as before excepted) shall by any act or contrivance cause the numerical sum or amount of any bank note, bank bill of exchange, or bank post bill, blank bank note, &c., in a word or words to appear visible in the substance of the paper wherein the same is printed or written, or shall knowingly assist in so contriving, such person on conviction shall be adjudged a felon, and be transported for fourteen years, 41 G. 3. U.K. c. 39. s. 1., 15 G. 3. c. 89. s. 3.

31. This act shall not restrain any person from issuing or negotiating any bill of exchange, or promissory note, having the amount thereof expressed in guineas, or in numerical figures denominating the sum or amount thereof in pounds sterling, appearing visible in the substance of the paper upon which it is written or printed, 41 G.3. U.K. c.39. s.5., 45 G.3. c.89. s.4.

32. This act shall not restrain any person from making, using, vending, exposing to sale, publishing or disposing of any paper having waving or curved lines, or any other device in the nature of water-marks, visible in the substance thereof, not being bar lines, or laying wire lines, provided the same are not contrived in such manner as to form the ground-work or texture of the paper, or to resemble the waving or curved laying wire lines, or bar lines, of the before described paper of the Bank of Eng., or to resemble the water-marks used by the bank, in bank notes, bank bills of exchange, and bank post bills, issued by them, 41 G.3. (U.K.) c.39. s.4., 45 G.3. c.89. s.5.

33. Every person who shall purchase or receive from any other person any forged or counterfeited bank note, bank bill of exchange, bank post bill, or blank bank note, &c. knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, or shall knowingly or wittingly have in his custody or dwelling-house, out-house, lodgings or apartments, any forged or counterfeited bank note, &c. or blank bank note, &c. knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited without lawful excuse, (the proof whereof shall lie on the accused), shall, on conviction, be adjudged a felon, and be transported for 14 years, 41 G.3. (U.K.) c.39. s.5., 45 G.3. c.89. s.6.

34. If any person shall engrave, cut, etch, scrape, or by any other means make, or cause and procure to be engraved, &c. or shall knowingly assist in the engraving, &c. in or upon any plate of copper, brass, steel, pewter, or any other metal, or mixture of metals, or upon any wood or other materials, or any plate soever, any bank note, bank bill of exchange, bank post bill, or blank bank note, &c. or part of a bank note, &c. purporting to be the note, bill of exchange, or bank post bill, or blank bank note, &c. or part of the note, &c. of the bank of Eng., without an authority in writing from the bank for that purpose, or shall use any such plate so engraved, &c. or any other instrument or device for the making or printing any such bank note, &c. or blank bank note, &c. without such authority, or if any person shall, without such authority, knowingly have in custody any such plate, instrument or device, or shall knowingly and wilfully utter, publish, dispose of or put away any such bank note, &c. or blank bank note, &c. or part of such bank note, &c. such person so offending shall, on conviction, be adjudged a felon and be transported for 7 years, 41 G.3. (U.K.) c.39. [14 years, 45 G.3. c.89.] 41 G.3. (U.K.) c.39. s.6., 45 G.3. c.89. s.7.

FRAME-WORK MANUFACTORY.

(STATUTES repealed & expired.)

1. FOR THE MORE EXEMPLARY PUNISHMENT OF PERSONS destroying or injuring any stocking or lace frames, or other machines or engines used in the frame-work knitted manufactory, or any articles or goods in such frames or machines, to continue in force until 1st March, 1814, 52 G.3. c.16. QU. is the 54 G.3. c.42. in force since the act that repealed it is EXP.? and there is no clause of continuance attached to the 54 G.3. c.42.; it has but two sections, and the last of which is merely an extension of the 28 G.3. c.55. s.4. which see, post, pl.22. and where this 2d sec. will also be found.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. TO PROHIBIT THE EXPORTATION OF FRAMES OR ENGINES, for the making and knitting of stockings, and other necessities out of this kingdom, 7 & 8 W.3. c.20. ss.8,9. [This title is framed from the preamble to s.8.]

2. No person shall put on board any ship any frames for knitting stockings, gloves or other wearing necessities, or any part thereof, in order to be exported beyond sea, on pain to forfeit 40*l.*, the one moiety to H.M. and the other to the party suing by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record wherein no essoin, &c. and but one imparlance allowed, id. s.8.

3. Every person who shall buy, sell or remove any such frame, or any part thereof, shall, within two months after, give notice in writing to the master and wardens of the company of Frame-work knitters in London, or their deputies, to whom or what place the same was sold or removed, on pain to forfeit 5*l.*, to be recovered as aforesaid, id. s.9.

4. TO PREVENT THE FRAUDULENT MARKING OF FRAME-WORK, knitted pieces and stockings, 6 G.3. c.29. [The payment of wages in this manufactory is prescribed by 12 G.1. c.34. see id. s.8. WOOLLEN MANUFACTURES.]

5. All frame-work knitted pieces and stockings made of thread, cotton, worsted or yarn, or any mixture of all or any such materials, or of any other materials soever (except those of silk only) which shall contain 3 or more threads, shall be marked with as many eylet holes only as there are threads contained in each piece or pair of such manufactures, which eylet holes shall be made in a distinct manner in one direct line, or in the same course, and not exceeding 3 inches from the two extreme eylet holes, and shall not be made within 4 inches of any letter, figure, mark or device put or woven in such manufactures, and shall be made within 4 inches of the top or end of each piece or pair; and no eylet hole or imitation thereof shall be placed in any frame-work, knitted piece or pair of stockings, except as above directed, 6 G.3. c.29. s.1.

6. Nothing herein shall prevent any manufacturers from using remnants or materials of any sort in the welts and tops of stockings only, at not exceeding 3 inches from the top, though the same shall not contain so great a number of threads as are in the legs of such stockings, id. s.2.

7. Every master frame-work knitter or hosier, or other person who shall make or work, or cause to be made, &c. any frame-work knitted manufactures of any of the materials aforesaid, or mixture thereof (except those of silk only), without being duly marked as in s.1., shall, on conviction, as in s.9. pl. 13., forfeit 5*l.* for every piece of frame-work knitted goods or pair of stockings, as well as the articles themselves, id. s.3.

8. The penalty of 5*l.* shall not extend to persons not making such goods on their own account, id. s.4.

9. Every person employed in any of the above manufactures, who shall not at any time that he shall make any frame-work knitted piece or pair of stockings, duly mark every such piece or pair according to s.1. pl. 5., shall on conviction as in s.9. forfeit not more than 40*s.* nor less than 5*s.* for every piece and pair he shall make and not so mark as above, id. s.5.

10. Any person employed in any of the above manufactures, who shall make it appear to the satisfaction of the justice before whom he is brought, that such frame-work knitted pieces or stockings so by him unduly marked, were so marked by direction of his master or employer, shall be exempted from penalty, id. s.6.

11. Every person who shall sell, or expose to sale, any frame-work knitted piece, or pair of stockings made of all, or any, or of mixture of any such materials as in s.1. pl. 5. (except silk only), which shall not be duly marked as in s.1., shall, on conviction, pay 5*l.* for every piece and pair, and forfeit the same, id. s.7.

12. Any person prosecuted under this act for selling, or exposing to sale any frame-work knitted manufactures not duly marked according to this act, who shall discover the vender thereof, so that he is convicted and is liable to the penalties of this act, shall be himself discharged from the same, id. s.8.

13. Any justice for the county, city, or place, where such offence is committed, (not being a frame-work knitter, hosier, or proprietor of frames used in weaving frame-work knitted manufactures,) may convict offenders against this act on oath of one witness; and in case of non-payment, shall issue a warrant under hand and seal to levy the same by distress and sale of goods, with costs of the latter; and if no sufficient distress, then on proof thereof on oath by the person having the execution of the warrant, shall commit the offender to gaol for 3 months, unless the penalty is sooner paid; to go one moiety to the informer and the other to the poor of the parish, id. s.9.

14. Any person grieved by this act may appeal to the general quarter sessions of the county or place, giving 10 days' notice in writing of such intention to the convicting justice or justices, and within 2 days after notice entering into a recognizance before some such justice, with 2 sufficient sureties conditioned to try the appeal at such quarter sessions; which court, on due proof of such notice and recognizance, shall finally determine the same in a summary way, and award costs to either party, id. s.10.

15. In actions commenced for acts done under this statute, defendant may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance thereof; and if it is so done, the jury shall find for defendant, and if plaintiff discontinue after appearance, or is nonsuit, or has judgment against him on verdict or demurrer, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s.11.

16. Nothing herein shall affect any rights or privileges of the company of frame-work knitters, id. s.12.

17. FOR THE BETTER PROTECTION OF STOCKING FRAMES, and the machines or engines annexed thereto, or used therewith; and for the punishment of persons destroying or injuring such stocking frames, machines, &c. and the frame-work knitted pieces, stockings, or other articles used and made in the hosiery or frame-work knitted manufactory; or breaking or destroying any machinery contained in any mill used or employed in preparing or spinning of wool or cotton for the use of the stocking-frame, 28 G.3. c.55.

18. Every frame-work knitter, who shall rent or take by the hire, any stocking-frame, either with or without any machine or engine thereto annexed, or therewith to be employed, from any person whomsoever, and who shall refuse to re-deliver the same, with the machine or engine therewith let (if any such there be), to the person of whom he shall rent the same, having received from such person 14 days' previous notice for such purpose, shall, on being thereof convicted by the oath or affirmation of the owner or employer of such frames, or any other witnesses before one justice of the county, &c. or place, forfeit 20s. to the poor of the parish where such offence was committed; and in case such forfeiture shall not be immediately paid, and such frame, with the machine, &c. therewith let, delivered up to the owner, within 6 days after such conviction, such justice shall commit the party convicted to the common gaol, there to remain without bail, and be kept to hard labour, not exceeding 3 calendar months, nor less than one, 28 G. 3. c. 55. s. 1.

19. Every person so renting or taking to hire any stocking-frame, with or without such machine, &c. who shall sell, or otherwise unlawfully dispose thereof, without the owners' consent, shall, on being convicted thereof on indictment, suffer solitary imprisonment in the common gaol for not less than 3, nor more than 12, calendar months, id. s. 2.

20. Every person who shall knowingly receive or purchase any such stocking-frame, machine, or engine, so unlawfully disposed of, and is thereof convicted on indictment found, shall be subject to the punishment in s. 2. mentioned, id. s. 3.

21. Every person who shall by day or night enter by force into any house, shop, or place, with intent to cut or destroy, or who shall wilfully and maliciously cut or destroy any frame-work, knitted pieces, stockings, or other articles, being in the frame, or upon any machine or engine thereto annexed, or therewith to be used, or prepared for that purpose, or who shall wilfully, &c. break, destroy, or damage any frame, machine, engine, tool, instrument, or utensil used in and for the making of any such frame-work, knitted pieces, &c. in the hosiery or frame-work knitted manufactory, without the consent of the owner, or break or destroy any machinery contained in any mill, any way employed in preparing or spinning of wool or cotton for the use of the stocking frames, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of felony, and be transported for not more than 14, or less than 7 years, id. s. 4. [The 52 G. 3. c. 42. s. 2. follows this, wherein the difference between that and the 28 G. 3. c. 55. s. 4. is disclosed; they were kept separate because it seemed doubtful whether the 52 G. 3. is in force. See this tit. STATS. rep.]

22. Every person who shall, by day or by night, enter by force into any house, shop or place, with intent to cut or destroy any frame work, knitted pieces, stockings, [or lace, 54 G. 3. c. 42. s. 2.] or other articles being in the frame, or on any machine or engine thereto annexed, or therewith to be used, or prepared for that purpose, [or with intent to break or destroy any frame, machine, engine, tool, instrument or utensil, used in the making of any such frame work, knitted pieces, &c., being in the frame or any such machine, &c., 54 G. 3. c. 42. s. 2.] or shall wilfully and maliciously, [and without the consent of the owner, 54 G. 3. c. 42. s. 2.] break, destroy or damage any frame, machine, engine, tool, instrument or utensil, used in the making of any frame-work knitted pieces, stocking, [lace, 54 G. 3. c. 42. s. 2.] or other articles in the hosiery or [frame-work knitted manufactory, 28 G. 3. c. 55. s. 4.] [or frame-work knitted stocking, or frame-work knitted lace manufactory, 54 G. 3. c. 42. s. 2.] [not having the consent of the owner so to do, 28 G. 3. c. 55. s. 4.] or [shall wilfully, &c., and without the consent of the owner, 54 G. 3. c. 42. s. 2.] break or destroy any machinery contained in any mill, any way employed in preparing of wool or cotton, [or other materials, 54 G. 3. c. 42. s. 2.] for the use of the [stocking frames, 28 G. 3. c. 55. s. 4.] stocking or lace manufactory, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of felony, and be transported for not exceeding 14, or less than 7 years, in the judges' discretion, 28 G. 3. c. 55. s. 4., and 54 G. 3. c. 42. s. 2. (see pl. 21.)

(STATUTES in force.)

1. TO ENABLE CERTAIN COMMISSIONERS FULLY TO CARRY into effect several conventions for liquidating the claims of British subjects, and others against the government of France, 59 G. 3. c. 51.

2. "Recital of the appointment of commissioners by commission of 20th Dec. 1815, for executing convention between the kings of G. B. and France of 20th Nov. 1815, for liquidating claims of British subjects on France; and by commission of 15th Dec., 1816, for executing a 2d convention of 20th Nov. 1815, by the same parties for the same purpose; and by commission of 15th Dec., 1816, for executing a 2d convention of 20th Nov. 1815, between same parties, for liquidation of claims of subjects of G. B., Austria, Russia, and Prussia, on France, and of all debts owed by France out of her territory, both conventions being in conformity to the 4th additional article of treaty of 30th May, 1814, and to the 9th article of treaty of 20th Nov. 1815; and by a commission of 15th June, 1818, for executing as well these conventions as a convention of 25th April, 1818, between same parties, for finally arranging British claims on France, and another convention of same date by same parties, for totally discharging French debts in countries out of their French territory, and for execution of additional articles of convention of 4th July, 1818, for fixing amount of British claims; and by another commission of same date, appointing commissioners of deposit to receive sums from the French government mentioned in the said conventions for value of confiscated British property in the French funds, effects, &c., debts lost, claims for British merchandize, under tariff of customs, published at Bourdeaux, by the Duke d'Angoulême, 24th Mar. 1814; and for claims of Ionian Islands, Isle of France, and other countries under the dominion of G. B." The commissioners of liquidation, arbitration and award, shall apportion, distribute, and order payment of the sums provided by France; viz. a rente of 12,040,000 francs, representing a capital of 210,000,000 francs, and inscribed in the great book of its public debt, bearing interest from 29th Mar. 1818, to claimants duly adjudged entitled thereto, and entered by name within the periods fixed by the conventions in registers opened under the recited commissions; and if the sums received from the French government are sufficient, shall satisfy them in full, if not, in rateable proportions, deducting 2 per cent. for expences of commission; and such payment, or the rejection of any claim by the commissioners, or on appeal from their decision to H. M. in council, shall discharge both governments from any demands for claims under conventions, id. s. 1.

3. Before entering on their duties the commissioners shall take oath faithfully to execute this act, before the master of rolls, or a judge of K. B., C. P., or exchequer, id. s. 2. [The form of oath is annexed to this section.]

4. Any two commissioners may administer the oath to and examine parties or witnesses touching the execution of this act, which latter must attend at the appointed time and place, id. s. 3.

5. Giving false evidence on examination on oath before the commissioners shall be punished as wilful perjury, id. s. 4.

6. Any two commissioners may sit at any place, or adjourn and issue their precept, or parties to appear and produce books and writings as judged necessary for the execution of the act, id. s. 5.

7. Vacancies in either set of commissioners shall be filled up by H. M., and the new commissioner shall take oath and be invested with all the powers of the above commissions, id. s. 6.

8. The commissioners of liquidation shall make orders under the hands and seals of 2 of them at least, for payment of the sums ascertained due to claimants, authorizing the commissioners of deposit, either to transfer the specified part of the inscriptions in the great book of the public debt of France, or to pay in money, and such claimant, or his agent, &c. shall give the receipts required by the commissioners, id. s. 7.

9. The order of two commissioners of liquidation is good authority for the transfer or payment of the sum contained in the order, subject to appeal to H. M. in council, id. s. 8.

10. Such orders of payment shall be transferable by indorsement and signature of original payee, or of holder, attested by two credible witnesses thereto respectively, without any stamp duty, id. s. 9.

11. An appeal lies from the judgment or order of the commissioners of liquidation to H. M. in council, within 3 calendar months therefrom, on giving bond security in 100l. to the crown, for the costs thereof, and the judgment for either party shall be final, and costs shall be awarded for or against appellant as is thought fit, id. s. 10.

12. Any three commissioners of treasury may order the defence of the appeal, and costs thereof to be paid out of the fund for crown law expences. The commissioners appointed under this act are not liable to costs, id. s. 11.

13. The evidence on the appeal shall be no other than that heard before the commissioners, id. s. 12.

14. H. M. in council may make orders respecting special cases of allowing and regulating appeals, 59 G. 3. c. 31. s. 13.

15. The powers of both sets of commissioners of liquidation and of deposit, are suspended on claims, of which notice of appeal is given, until judgment is known, which on certificate made to them they shall execute according to their powers, id. s. 14.

16. Where commissioners of liquidation cannot decide as to which of the disputing claimants is legally entitled to receive the amount of the claims approved by them, or as to any person's competency to give a valid receipt, the commissioners of deposit, under authority of secretary for foreign affairs, and 3 treasury commissioners, may sell inscriptions equal in amount to the disputed claims, and transfer the same to the commissioners of liquidation, who may order the proceeds of said capital invested in public securities to be sold and paid into bank of Eng. in the name of the accountant-general of the court of chancery, the cashier giving receipt, specifying the uses for which it is received; and the court of chancery, on motion or petition, may make such order for investing such disputed sums in public securities, and for payment of dividends as is thought necessary, id. s. 15.

17. Remains of capital in great book of public debt of France, remaining in names of commissioners of deposit, unappropriated to liquidation of British claims, may, by direction of the secretary for foreign affairs, and 3 commissioners of treasury, be sold by the said commissioners, and the proceeds transferred to the commissioners of liquidation in Eng. to be invested in public securities bearing interest, or deposited in hands of bank of Eng., in the names of the last-mentioned commissioners, for applying the produce thereof to the purposes of this act, or to other purposes appointed by the treasury, id. s. 16.

18. Neither set of commissioners shall be deemed public accountants, but their accounts are subject to the audit of the treasury, id. s. 17.

19. The commissioners shall cause to be published in the London Gazette in 14 days after every 5th July and 5th Jan., lists of the claims decided upon by admission or rejection thereof, till the purposes of this act are completed, id. s. 18.

11. In assizes of novel disseisin, and other writs of plea of land, tenements, and rents within enfranchised towns and ancient demesne, sued before any justices assigned in plea of land at common law, in which any mayor, bailiffs, commonalty, lords or bailiffs of ancient demesne be named, the justices shall first inquire by assize in the county, if such mayor, &c. do require it, whether they be disseisors or tenants in such case, or be named by collusion or fraud, and if it be found that they be not disseisors or tenants, but are so named by collusion, such writs shall be quashed and abated, and the plaintiffs shall be in mercy, notwithstanding other disseisors or tenants be named in such writs, 9 H. 4. c. 5.

12. In all writs of assize and actions personal sued in K. B. or C. P., or before any of H. M.'s justices, of any lands, tenements, or other things arising within any seignory, franchise or ancient demesne, whereof the cognizance or jurisdiction ought to pertain to any lords, mayors, bailiffs, citizens, burgesses, or commonalty of any seignory, &c. then if any defendant in any such assize, &c. make default to put out and expel such lords, &c. from their franchise or cognizance, the justices at the request of such lords, &c. shall inquire by assize where such exception is alleged in assize, and in actions personal by inquest before them, whether such default was so made or not, and wherein, as well the plaintiffs as such lords, &c. may have their challenge, and if it be found by such assizes or inquests, that such default be made by collusion to put out such lords, &c. from their franchise, liberties, cognizance, or jurisdictions, such writs shall abate, 8 H. 6. c. 26.

13. FOR CONTINUING OF CERTAIN LIBERTIES AND FRANCHISES heretofore taken from the crown, 27 H. 8. c. 24.

14. No person shall pardon treasons, murders or any felonies; nor any accessories to, or outlawries for, such offences; but H. M. shall have the sole power thereof united to the imperial crown of this realm, id. s. 1.

15. No person shall make justices of eyre, of assize, of peace, or of gaol-delivery; but all such officers shall be made by letters patent under the great seal, in the name and by authority of H. M. in all shires, counties palatine and other places, Wa., or other H. M.'s dominions, in such manner as justices of eyre, &c. be commonly made in every shire, id. s. 2.

16. All original and judicial writs, and all indictments of treason, felony and trespass, and all process to be made upon the same in every county palatine and other liberty, within Eng. and Wa. shall be made only in the name of H. M.; and every person having such county palatine, or other liberty, shall make the teste in such originals and judicials, &c. in the name of that person that hath such county palatine or liberty, (s. 3.) and in every writ and indictment made within such county palatine or liberty, whereby it shall be supposed any thing to be done against H. M.'s peace, it shall be made and supposed to be done only against H. M.'s peace, and not against the peace of any other person, id. s. 5. § 4.

17. Provided that justices of assize, of gaol-delivery, and of peace, to be assigned within the county palatine of Lancaster, shall be made by commission under H. M.'s usual seal of Lancaster, in manner accustomed, id. s. 5.

18. Provided also that all cities, boroughs and towns corporate, which have liberty to have justices of peace or justices of gaol-delivery, shall still enjoy their liberties as heretofore, id. s. 6.

19. All stewards, bailiffs, and ministers of any liberties or franchises, which ought to attend upon the justices of assize, of gaol-delivery, and of peace, in any county, shall be attendant to such justices of the shire wherein such liberties shall be, and make due execution of process; and such bailiffs, or their deputies, shall give their attendance upon the sheriff, together with the sheriffs' bailiffs, at all courts of gaol-delivery for execution of prisoners, id. s. 7.

20. Provided that s. 7. shall not be prejudicial to any stewards or bailiffs of cities, boroughs or towns corporate, which have privilege that they should not be compelled to attend or appear out of such cities, &c. id. s. 8.

21. H. M. shall have all fines, issues, amercements and forfeitures, assessed by or on any stewards, bailiffs or any other officers of any liberties or franchises, for non-execution, mis-execution or insufficient returns of writs or process, or for any contempt or misdemeanor concerning their offices in the administration of justice; and the amercements for insufficient returns made by stewards or bailiffs of liberties or franchises shall be set upon the heads of such stewards or bailiffs, and not upon the sheriffs, id. s. 9.

22. In all places where H. M. in person shall come to rest within liberty or without, there and within the verge limited and accustomed to his court, during the time of his abode, his grace's steward, marshal, coroner and all other his ministers, shall keep their courts for justice, and exercise their offices, and his clerks of the market, and none other, during the said time, shall exercise the office of clerk of the market, id. s. 12. [see similar clause 32 H. 8. c. 30. s. 7. pl. 38.]

23. Provided that this article be not prejudicial to the city of London, id. s. 13.

24. Every statute in force against sheriffs or their ministers for making or returning of panels or juries, or for due serving process, or for taking fees, or for reformation of extortions, or any other thing concerning their offices, and all penalties, &c. therein contained, shall be extended to all stewards and officers of liberties having returns of writs, 27 H. 8. c. 14. s. 14.

25. Provided that s. 14. shall not be prejudicial to any steward, bailiffs of franchises, their deputies or clerks, for exercising their offices above one year, but they may hold their office from the time given to them, id. s. 15.

26. All justices to be made as in this act directed, pl. 15. and 17. shall have power to hold their sessions of peace, and to deliver the gaols, within the same liberties and franchises, by authority of their commission, and to do all other things within the same, in as ample manner as any other justices of peace and gaol-delivery in any shire, id. s. 16.

27. Provided that all justices of peace, gaol-delivery and assize to be appointed by H. M. within any liberty where such justices have been made by any person, by virtue of any letters patent or otherwise, shall keep their sessions, gaol-delivery and assizes, only in such places as the justices of such liberties have commonly used; and no persons within such liberties shall be compelled to appear out of them, before any other justice of assize, &c. than before such justices as shall be assigned to sit within such liberties; and this act shall not extend to any other franchise other than in this act is expressed, id. s. 17.

28. Provided that this act be not prejudicial to any city, borough or town corporate, for any liberties and antient usages, fines, issues and amercements and forfeitures, which they have of the grant of H. M., but such cities, &c. may enjoy the same as heretofore, id. s. 19.

29. Provided that the bishop of Ely, and his steward, shall be justices of peace within such isle, in like manner as justices within counties, id. s. 20.

30. Provided that the bishop of Durham, and his chancellor of the county palatine of Durham, shall be justices of peace within such county palatine of Durham, id. s. 21.

31. Provided that the archbishop of York, and his chancellor of the shire and liberty of Hexham, otherwise Hertoldsham, shall be justices of peace within such shire and liberty, id. s. 22.

32. CONCERNING PRIVILEGES AND FRANCHISES, 32 H. 8. c. 20.

33. The same liberties, franchises, privileges, and temporal jurisdiction, which the owners of the sites, circuits, and precincts of late monasteries and religious houses, and of divers honours, castles, manors, messuages, lands, tenements, liberties, franchises, and other hereditaments, had within three months before they came to H. M. shall be revived and actually in H. M. and within the rule and survey of the court of augmentations, and the same liberties, &c. and all fines, issues, and other profits arising by reason of them, shall be exercised and claimed by H. M.'s officers, in the same manner as before they came into H. M.'s hands; and such officers of H. M. shall be liable to account for the same to such court, id. s. 1. [The court of augmentation dissolved, and the business annexed to the exchequer, 1 M. S. 2. c. 10.; see also 7 E. 6. c. 2.]

34. All liberties, &c. which the owners of such sites, &c. and other premises which came to H. M. by attainder had lawfully used within three months next before they came into H. M.'s hands, shall be reserved, and actually in the hands of H. M. and rule and survey of H. M.'s general surveyors, and the officers of the same; and such liberties, &c. and all fines, issues, and other profits thereof coming, shall be exercised and claimed by H. M.'s officers, in the same manner as before they came to H. M.'s hands, and such officers shall account for such issues to such surveyors, id. s. 2.

35. Such officers shall be attendant and obedient to all H. M.'s courts, as well for executions and returns of writs, warrants, and precepts, as for their personal appearances and other duties of their offices, like as the officers of the late owners did, under all pains and penalties by law ordained for any default in the same; and no sheriff or officer of any sheriff, or other foreign officer, shall meddle with any of the premises, otherwise than as they lawfully might before the premises came to H. M., id. s. 3.

36. All persons, and bodies politic, their heirs, successors and assigns, may hold and use, as well by themselves and their servants as by their tenants, such liberties, &c. which any of them have from H. M. by letters-patent, indentures, writings, under H. M.'s seal, or by authority of parliament, or otherwise, or by lawful grant or lease of any persons, as if this act had not been made, the privileges of sanctuary, church, churchyards, or cemeteries, for tuition of transgressors excepted; saving to all persons and bodies all such offices, fees, and profits, which they ought to have by reason of such sites, &c. in like manner as if this act had never been made, id. s. 4.

37. The chancellor of the court of augmentations, [see note to pl. 33.] and the attorney-general, may take to H. M.'s use knowledge of all concords for fines to be thereupon had and recorded in the court of C. P., of and upon all manors, lordships, lands, &c. and which, by reason of such fines, shall be under survey of such court, without any fee for the same, and the judges of C. P. shall accept and allow all such knowledges of concords by such chancellor and attorney to be certified and delivered unto the C. P., and the same shall be as effectual as if taken and acknowledged before such court of C. P.; and such chancellor and attorney may take knowledge for inrolment of deeds made to H. M. of any manors, lands, &c., and of all obligations made to H. M., or to his use, for any matter concerning such court, or such manors, lands, &c. without any fee; and such deeds, so acknowledged and there inrolled, shall be as valid as if acknowledged, &c. before the court of C. P., 32 H. 8. c. 20. ss. 5—6.

38. All such liberties, &c. limited to such court of augmentations, and to the surveyors' courts, where H. M. shall abide there and within the verge limited to H. M. court, the steward, the marshal, coroner, clerk of the market, and other ministers, shall keep their courts for justice, and exercise their offices as well within liberties, &c. as without, and H. M.'s clerks of the market shall exercise the office of clerks of the market, within such verge, id. s. 7.

39. The article next above rehearsed shall not be prejudicial to the city of London, id. s. 8. [see similar clauses to these last two, 27 H. 8. c. 21 ss. 12—13. pl. 22. 25.]

40. The same liberties, &c. which the late owners of the sites, circuits, and precincts of the monasteries of Furness, and Castlemo, Coningshead, Burrough, and Holland, and the honours, manors, lands, &c. liberties, &c. to such monasteries appertaining, which came to H. M. and have been assigned and limited to the order and survey of the chancellor, officers, and ministers of the county palatine and the duchy of Lancaster, had lawfully used within 3 months next before they came into H. M.'s hands, shall be revived and vested in H. M. and be within the rule and survey of the chancellor, and of the officers of such county and duchy; and such liberties, &c. and all fines, issues, and profits thereof coming, shall be exercised and claimed by H. M.'s officers, in like manner as before they came to H. M. and such officers shall account for such issues, &c. to such officers of such county and duchy, id. ss. 9, 10. [NOTE, s. 11. is verbatim with s. 5. pl. 35.]

41. This act shall not affect any liberty, &c. or other profits belonging to H. M.'s castles, honours, &c. of such duchy or county, but the same shall be received and answered to H. M. by such chancellor and officers as heretofore usual, id. s. 12.

42. This act shall not prejudice the liberties and privileges of the cinque ports, but that the same may be enjoyed as granted by Ed. 4. and by the present king confirmed, as if this act had not been made, id. s. 13.

43. FOR RENDERING THE PROCEEDINGS UPON WRITS OF mandamus and informations in the nature of quo warranto, more speedy and effectual, and for the more easy trying and determining the rights of officers, and franchises in corporations and boroughs, 9 A. c. 20. [see also 4 & 5 W. 3. c. 22. s. 1—3. COURTS (K. B. CHANCERY), pl. 1.]

44. Where any writ of mandamus shall issue out of the court of K. B., the courts of sessions in the counties palatine, or of great sessions in W.a., for the admission of burgesses or freemen of cities, towns corporate, boroughs, or places in Eng. or W.a. the persons who are required to make returns to such writ shall make such returns to the first writ of mandamus, id. s. 1.

45. On return made to such writ the person suing out the same may plead to or traverse all or any of the material facts therein contained, to which the party making the return shall reply, take issue, or demur, and such further proceeding shall be thereon had as in an action on the case for a false return; and, if any issue is joined, the person suing such writ shall try the same in such place as an issue joined in such action on the case should have been tried, and if a verdict, judgment on demurrer, or by nil dicit, or for want of a replication or other pleading is given for him, he shall recover damages and costs in like manner as he might in such action on the case; such costs and damages to be levied by ca. sa., fi. fa. or elegit, and a peremptory writ of mandamus shall be granted without delay for him for whom judgment is given as might have been if the return was sufficient, and if judgment is given for party making such return, he shall recover costs to be levied as aforesaid, id. s. 2.

46. If any damages shall be recovered under this act against the person making such return, he shall not be liable to any other action for making such return, id. s. 3.

47. In case any person shall usurp, intrude into, or unlawfully hold and execute any of such offices or franchises, the proper officer in each of such courts as in s. 1. pl. 44. with the leave thereof, may exhibit an information in the nature of a quo warranto at the relation of any person desirous to prosecute the same, and who shall be mentioned therein to be the relator against such person so intruding, &c. and proceed therein in the manner usual in such informations; and if it appear to such courts that the several rights of divers persons to such offices or franchises can be determined on one information, such courts may give leave to exhibit one information accordingly in order to try their respective rights, and such person against whom such information is prosecuted shall appear and plead as of the same term or sessions in which such information was filed, unless the court shall give the relator further time to plead, and the relator shall proceed thereon with all convenient speed, id. s. 4.

48. In case any person against whom any such information is exhibited in any such cases in any of such courts, is found guilty of an usurpation or intrusion into, or unlawfully holding or executing any of such offices or franchises, such courts respectively may give judgment of ouster against such person of and from such offices, &c. and fine such person for his usurpation &c., and may also give judgment that the relator in such information named shall recover his costs in such prosecution, and if judgment is given for the defendant therein, he for whom such judgment is given shall recover his costs against such relator, the same to be levied as in s. 2. pl. 45. directed, 9 A. c. 20. s. 5.

49. Such courts may allow to such persons respectively to whom any writ of mandamus is directed, or against whom any information in the nature of quo warranto in any of the cases aforesaid, shall be prosecuted, or to the persons prosecuting the same, such further time to make return, plead, reply, rejoin or demur, as to them seems fit, id. s. 6.

50. The statute of jeoffayles and 4 Ann. c. 16. shall extend to all writs of mandamus and informations in the nature of quo warranto, and proceedings thereon for any of the matters herein mentioned, id. s. 7.

51. The mayor, bailiff or other officer to whom it belongs to preside at any election, and to make return of any member to serve in parliament, and who ought to be annually elected, and who shall be in such annual office for one whole year, shall not be capable to be chosen into the same office for the year immediately ensuing; and where any such annual officer is to continue for a year, and until some other person is chosen and sworn in, if such officer shall unlawfully obstruct the choosing another person to succeed him at the proper time, he shall forfeit 10*l.* to be recovered with full costs by any person who will sue for the same, in any court of record in s. 1. mentioned, by action of debt, &c. or information wherein no essoins, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, one moiety to H. M. and the other to the party suing, id. s. 8.

M. and the other, besides full costs, to the seizer or informer, to be recovered as other penalties concerning the duties on starch may be, and if any perfumer, &c. shall expose to sale, vend, or utter any hair powder so mixed with alabaster, &c. he shall forfeit the same, and 20*l.* to be recovered and divided in like manner, 10 A. c. 26. s. 31. [See 12 A. S. 2. c. 9. s. 20. pl. 5.]

5. No perfumer, peruke maker, barber, seller of or dealer in hair powder, shall make, vend, sell, or dispose of, or offer to sale any powder, made of or mixed with alabaster, talke, plaister of Paris, whiting, lime, or other thing of the like nature, (sweet scents only excepted,) under pain of forfeiting all the hair powder so made or mixed, vendid, &c. and 50*l.*, to go one moiety to H. M. and the other to the informer, and be recovered as any other penalty concerning the duties on starch may be, 12 A. S. 2. c. 9. s. 20. [See 4 G. 2. c. 14. s. 5. post, pl. 6.]

6. Every maker of hair powder, and every perfumer, peruke maker, barber, seller of or dealer in hair powder, who shall mix, or cause to be mixed, any alabaster, plaister of Paris, talke, chalk, whiting, lime, or any other material, (rice first made into starch and sweet scents excepted,) with any starch, or powder of starch, to be used for making hair powder and who shall make or cause to be made any hair powder of any such materials, or any other of the like nature, other than starch, and starch powder, or of rice first made into starch, and who shall use, sell, or offer to sell any hair powder so made, shall forfeit the same and 20*l.*, 4 G. 2. c. 14. s. 5.

7. Makers of hair powder to make true entries of their residences with the excise, id. s. 6.

8. Any officer for the duties on starch may at all times by day, on request, enter the house or workhouse, and all other places belonging to or used by any person for making hair powder, and likewise the shops belonging to any perfumer, &c. as in s. 5. pl. 6. and there examine all parcels of hair powder, and carry away a sample of the same on paying the price thereof, and if on examination of such hair powder it appears that the same is mixed, or made of alabaster, plaister of Paris, &c., or with any other material, than as before in s. 5. pl. 6. excepted, the person on whom the same was found shall forfeit 20*l.*, 4 G. 2. c. 14. s. 7.

9. Every starch maker, or powder maker, and dealer in hair powder, who shall have in his custody any alabaster, plaister of Paris, &c. as in s. 5. pl. 6. or any other material, other than starch, or powder of starch or of rice first made into starch, for making, mixing, or counterfeiting hair powder, shall forfeit all such materials and 10*l.*, id. s. 8.

10. Every starch maker, or maker of hair powder, and every perfumer, &c. as in s. 5. pl. 6., who on due request by any such officer in the day time, shall refuse to permit such officer to enter into every the workhouse, shop, and other place belonging to or used by them for making or keeping of hair powder, or to examine and carry away any sample of hair powder, on his offering to pay for the same, shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 9.

11. All penalties hereby inflicted, shall be sued for, levied, recovered, and mitigated, by such ways as any penalty for any offence against the excise laws may be, or by action of debt, &c., or information in the courts of record, at Westminster, wherein no essoins, &c., and only one imparlance allowed, and shall go in moieties to H. M. and the informer, suing within 6 months after the offence done, id. s. 10.

12. No dealer in or seller of tea, shall dye, fabricate, or manufacture any sloe or other leaves, in imitation of tea, or shall mix, colour, stain, or dye leaves of tea with terra japonica, or other ingredients, or shall vend, or expose to sale the same, or have the same in custody, on pain to forfeit for every pound of such leaves so dyed, &c., mixed, coloured, &c., 10*l.*, id. s. 11.

13. Every person, whether a dealer in, or a seller of tea, or not, who shall dye, fabricate, or manufacture, any sloe leaves, liquorice leaves, or or the leaves of tea that have been used, or the leaves of the ash, elder, or other tree, shrub, or plant, in imitation of tea, or who shall mix, colour, stain, or dye, any such leaves with terra japonica, copperas, sugar, molasses, clay, logwood, or other ingredient, or who shall sell, utter, vend, or expose to sale, or have in custody any such dyed, &c. leaves, in imitation of tea, or any such coloured, &c. leaves, or any leaves that should be dyeing, &c. in imitation of tea, and be thereof convicted on oath of one witness, before one justice of peace, for the county, city, or place, where such offence was committed, shall for every pound thereof forfeit 5*l.*, and on non-payment thereof, such justice shall commit the offender to the common gaol of the county, &c. without bail, for not exceeding 12, or less than 6 months, or until the penalty is paid, 17 G. 3. c. 29. s. 1.

14. Every person who shall have in his custody any quantity (exceeding 6*lb.*) of sloe, ash, or elder leaves, or the leaves of any other tree, shrub, or plant, green, or manufactured, and shall not prove to the justice hearing the matter, that the same were gathered with the consent of the owners of the trees, &c. from which the same were taken, and that they were gathered for some purpose other than that of fabricating the same in imitation of tea, and shall be thereof convicted, as in s. 1., pl. 13. shall forfeit 5*l.* for every pound thereof found in his custody, and on non-payment, such offender shall be committed to prison for the time in s. 1. aforesaid, id. s. 2.

15. If any officer of excise or other person shall suspect that any such leaves dyed, &c., or leaves dying, &c. in imitation of tea, or intended so to be, shall be hid or lodged in any place, then on oath made by such officer or person before the justice of the county, city, or place where the same are suspected to be hid, &c. setting forth the ground of such suspicion, such justice may by special warrant under his hand and seal, authorize such officer or person, by day or night, but if in the night, then in the presence of a constable or other peace officer, to enter into all such places, and seize, and carry away as forfeited, all such leaves which he shall find so hid or lodged, together with all the waggons, carts, boxes, bags, tubs, or other vessel or package containing the same, and the justice so granting such warrant, or any other justice for the same county, city, place, &c. on proof of the premises, by oath of one witness, may by warrant, under his hand and seal, order such dyed, &c. or other leaves so seized, to be burnt, and such waggon, &c. to be sold, and the produce, after the deducting the charge of seizure and sale, and the burning of such leaves, shall go one half to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, and every person who shall obstruct, &c. such officer or person, having such authority, from entering such suspected places, or in seizing, carrying away, or burning the same, or selling the waggon, &c. containing the same, shall forfeit 50*l.* on conviction thereof, by oath of one witness, before one justice for the county, city, place, &c., and on non-payment, such justice may commit the offender to the common gaol of the county or place, for not exceeding 12, or less than 6 months, or until the penalty and charges are paid, id. s. 3.

16. No such green or unmanufactured leaves so found hid, shall be burnt, if the owner thereof shall within 24 hours after such seizure, prove to the satisfaction of the justice granting the warrant for seizing such leaves, or any other justice for the same county, city, or place, that such leaves were gathered with the consent of the owner of the trees, shrubs, or plants, from which such leaves were taken, and that the same were gathered for some other use, and not to be fabricated, &c. in imitation of tea; and if such proof is made within such time, such leaves, and the waggons, carts, &c. in which the same were seized, shall be restored to the owner by order of such justice, 17 G. 3. c. 29. s. 4.

17. All such dyed, coloured, &c., fabricated, &c., and other leaves, shall be deemed to be in the custody of the occupier of the dwelling-house, out-house, gardens, and lands, wherein the same shall be so found hid and concealed, and such occupier shall be liable to all the pains and penalties by this act inflicted on persons having such dyed, &c. and other leaves in his custody, if it is proved to the justice hearing the matter, that such leaves were lodged in such dwelling-house, &c. with the consent of the occupier thereof, id. s. 5.

18. One moiety of all penalties hereby inflicted, shall go to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence is committed, id. s. 6.

19. In all informations or proceedings for any of the offences aforesaid, the evidence of the inhabitants of the parish where the offence was committed, shall be allowed, id. s. 7.

20. Justices of peace for the respective counties, cities, places, &c. where any offence against this act is done, shall put this act in execution, and administer an oath to any witness, id. s. 8.

21. The conviction of every offender against this act shall be certified by the convicting justice to the quarter sessions, to be filed of record, and shall be in the form following, or to that effect, (viz.)

‘ ——— } Be it remembered, That on the — day of —, in the year —, A. B. to wit. } was, upon the — complaint of C. D. convicted before —, of the justices of the peace for —, in pursuance of an act, passed in the 17th year of the reign of H. M. King George the third, for —, [as the case shall be] given under — hand and seal, the day and year above written.] and the same shall be good in law, and not be quashed for want of form, or be removable by certiorari into K. B., but shall be final, id. s. 9.

22. EVERY PERSON WHO SHALL, AT THE ROASTING OF ANY COFFEE, or before or afterwards make use of water, grease, butter, or any other material which will increase the weight or dammify the coffee, shall forfeit 20*l.*, and every trader or dealer in coffee who shall knowingly buy or sell any such coffee, shall forfeit 20*l.* to go in moieties to H. M. and the party suing [by bill, plaint, or information in any court of record at Westminster or exchequer in Scot. wherein no essoin, &c. is allowed, s. 23.] for the same, 5 G. 1. c. 11. s. 23.

23. FOR THE PREVENTION OF frauds and perjuries, 29 C. 2. c. 3. ss. 1. 4—17. (commonly called the Statute of Frauds), [see the rest of this act, ss. 5, 6, 12, 19, 24. WILLS; ss. 7—11. USES AND TRUSTS; ss. 13—15. JUDGMENT; s. 18. RECOGNIZANCE; s. 25. EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS.]

24. All leases, estates, interests of freehold, or terms of years, or any uncertain interest of, in, to, or out of, any messuages, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, created by livery of seisin only, or by parol, and not put in writing, and signed by the parties creating the same, or their agents thereunto lawfully authorized in writing, shall have the force and effect of leases or estates at will only, and shall not either at law or equity be taken to be of greater force, or effect any consideration for making any such parol leases or estates, or former usage, to the contrary notwithstanding, id. s. 1.

25. Except leases not exceeding 3 years from making thereof, whereupon the rent reserved to the landlord during such term, shall amount to two thirds at least of the full improved value of the thing demised, id. s. 2.

26. No leases, estates, or interests, either of freehold, or terms of years, or any uncertain interest, not being copyhold or customary of, in, to, or out of, any messuages, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, shall be assigned, granted, or surrendered, except by deed, or note in writing signed by the party so assigning, &c. the same, or their agents thereto lawfully authorized by writing, or by act or operation of law id. s. 3.

27. No action shall be brought, whereby to charge any executor or administrator on any special damage to answer damages out of his own estate, or whereby to charge any defendant on any special promise to answer for the debt, default, or miscarriages of another person; or to charge any person on any agreement made in consideration of marriage, or on any contract or sale of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or any interest, in or concerning them, or on any agreement that is not to be performed within one year from its making, unless the agreement on which such action is brought, or some memorandum or note thereof, is in writing, and signed by the party to be charged therewith, or some other person thereunto by him lawfully authorized, id. s. 4.

28. No contracts for sale of goods for the price of 10*l.* sterling or more, shall be good, except the buyer accept, and actually receive part of the goods so sold, or give something in earnest to bind the bargain, or in part payment, or that some note or memorandum in writing of such bargain be made and signed by the parties to be charged by such contract, or their agents lawfully authorized, id. s. 17.

FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCE.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. A FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCE TO DEFEAT A LORD of his wardship shall be void, 52 (or 54) H. 3. c. 6. [REPEALED by the abolishment of feudal tenures, 12 C. 2. c. 24.]

2. AGAINST FRAUDULENT PROFFMENTS TENDING TO DEFAUD H. M. of his wards, 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 17. [REPEALED by the abolishment of feudal tenures, 12 C. 2. c. 24.]

3. FOR THE AVOIDING OF FRAUDS IN CERTAIN CONVEYANCES and assurances made by the late rebels in the north, 18 EL. c. 4. EXT.

1. FRAUDULENT ASSURANCE OF LANDS OR GOODS TO DECEIVE creditors, shall be void, 50 & 51 E. 3. c. 6.

2. If people borrowing goods in money or merchandize, do give their tenements and chattels to their friends by collusion, if it can be found that such gifts are made by collusion, the creditors shall have execution of such tenement and chattels, as if no such gift had been made, id. ibid.

3. AGAINST FEOFFMENTS OF LANDS AND GIFTS OF GOODS made by fraud or for maintenance, 1 R. 2. c. 9. [AMD. 4 H. 4. c. 7. which is EXPL. 11 H. 6. c. 3.]

4. No gift or feoffment of lands, tenements, or goods, shall be made by fraud to have maintenance, or to make disseisees ignorant against whom they ought to take writs, and if any be they shall be void, and disseisees shall have recovery against the first disseisors, as well of the lands, &c. as of their double damages, without regard to any alienation, so that they commence their suits within a year after disseisin done; this statute shall hold in all actions in plea of land where feoffments be made by fraud or collusion to have recovery against the first feoffor, and it shall be understood where such feoffers take the profits, 1 R. 2. c. 9.

5. Such disseisee as in 1 R. 2. c. 9. mentioned, may have their action against such first disseisor during the life of such disseisor, so that such disseisor take the profits thereof at the time of suit commenced; and as to other writs in plea of land the demandant shall commence his suit within the year against the tenant of the freehold at the time action accrued to him, so that such tenants take the profits thereof at time of such suit commenced, 4 H. 4. c. 7.

6. In all writs grounded on novel disseisin, the disseisees shall have their recoveries by such writs against the disseisors or their feoffees, as they would in assize of novel disseisin, so that such disseisors or their feoffees take the profits at time of writ purchased, 11 H. 6. c. 5.

7. FOR RELIEF OF CREDITORS AGAINST FRAUDULENT DEEDS made by debtors, 2 R. 2. S. 2. c. 3.

8. Where debtors make feigned feoffments of their lands and goods, and after withdraw themselves, and flee into privileged places of holy church, and take the profit of their said lands and goods, the creditors after they have brought their writs of debt, and a capias awarded, and the sheriff return that he hath not taken such persons because of places privileged, then another writ shall go to the sheriff to make proclamation at the gate of such privileged place, 5 times once in every week, that the person comprised therein be before H. M.'s justices to answer the plaintiff; and on return of proclamation made and such person comes not, judgment shall be given against him, and thereon execution shall be made of their lands and goods, as well those given by collusion as of any other after such collusion found; but no man shall be barred his suit against such debtors at common law, id. ibid.

9. AGAINST PRIVY AND UNKNOWN FEOFFMENTS, 1 R. 3. c. 1.

10. Every estate, feoffment, gift, release, grant, leases and confirmations of lands, tenements, rents, services, or hereditaments, made by any person of full age, of whole mind, at large and not in duress, to any person, and all recoveries and executions had shall be good to him to whom it is so made, and to all other to his use against the seller, feoffor, donor, or grantor thereof, and their heirs, claiming as heirs to such seller, &c., and all other claiming to the use of such seller, at the time of the bargain, sale, &c. made; saving to all persons such right, action, &c. by reason of gift in tail as before this act, id. ibid.

11. AGAINST FRAUDULENT DEEDS OF GIFT, 3 H. 7. c. 4. [EXT. to gifts, alienations, &c. of lands, &c. 13 EL. c. 5. which is CON. 14 EL. c. 11. s. 1., MADE PERP. 29 EL. c. 5. s. 2.]

12. Deeds of gift of goods and chattels made of trust to the use of the person who made such deed shall be void, 3 H. 7. c. 4.

13. Every feoffment, gift, grant, alienation, bargain, and conveyance of lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods, and chattels, or of any lease, rent, common or other profit or charge, out of such lands, &c., by writing or otherwise, and every bond, suit, judgment, and execution, to be had or made with the intent to defraud creditors or others of their actions, suits, debts, accounts, damages, penalties, forfeitures, heriots, mortuaries, and reliefs, shall be deemed only as against that person, his heirs, successors, executors, administrators, and assigns, whose actions, &c. are or shall be any way disturbed, delayed, or defrauded, to be utterly void, 13 El. c. 5. s. 2.

14. All parties to such feigned or fraudulent feoffments, &c., and being privy and knowing of the same, which shall wittingly put in ure, avow, or defend the same as true, and done bona fide, and upon good consideration, or shall alien or assign any lands, &c. so conveyed to him, shall forfeit one year's value of such lands, &c. and the whole value of such goods, and so much money as is contained in such covinous bond, one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party grieved, to be recovered in any court of record by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, and shall also, on conviction, suffer one half year's imprisonment, id. s. 3.

15. All common recoveries hereafter to be made against tenant in tail, or other tenant of the freehold (the reversion or remainder, or the right thereof then being in other persons) shall, as touching such reversions or remainders, and against their heirs, stand in full force notwithstanding this act, id. s. 4.

16. This act shall not make void any estate or conveyance by reason whereof any person shall use any voucher in any writ of formedon hereafter to be depending, but such vouchers shall be as valid as if the act had not been made, id. s. 5.

17. This act shall not extend to any estate or interest in lands, &c. leases, rents, commons, profits, or goods hereafter to be had, conveyed, or assured, which estate or interest shall be on good consideration, and bona fide lawfully conveyed or assured to any person or body corporate not having notice of such fraud or collusion, id. s. 6.

18. AGAINST FRAUDS DEFEATING REMEDIES FOR DILAPIDATIONS, 13 El. c. 10. [see the rest of this act, LEASES. AMD. 14 El. c. 11. s. 18. CON. 1 J. 1. c. 10. s. 1—24., 21 J. 1. c. 28. and indefinitely, 16 C. 1. c. 4.]

19. If any archbishop, bishop, dean, &c. or other having dignity or office in any cathedral or collegiate church; or if any person, vicar, or other incumbent of any ecclesiastical living whereunto do belong any houses or other buildings which by law or custom he is bound to keep in preservation, do make any deed of gift or alienation, or other like conveyances of his moveable goods, to the intent to defraud his successors of their remedies for dilapidation, then such successors may have remedy in any court ecclesiastical competent for the matter, against him to whom such deed was made for such reparation, as if the party to whom such deed was made was executor of the party making it, 13 El. c. 10. s. 2.

20. All sums to be recovered in the name of dilapidations, by sentence, composition, or otherwise, shall, within 2 years after receipt, be truly employed on the buildings and reparation for which paid, on pain that the person recovering and not employing the same, shall forfeit to H. M. double what he has received and not so employed, 14 El. c. 11. s. 18.

21. AGAINST COVENANTS and fraudulent conveyances, 27 El. c. 4. s. 4. and recital in s. 1. [MADE PERF. 39 El. c. 18. ss. 31, 32.]

22. Every conveyance, grant, charge, lease, estate, incumbrance, and limitation of uses of, in, or out of, any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments made with intent to defraud such persons or bodies corporate as shall purchase in fee-simple, fee-tail, for life, lives, or years, the same lands, &c. so formerly conveyed, granted, &c., or to defraud such as shall purchase any rent or profit in or out of the same, shall be deemed only as against such persons and bodies, their heirs, successors, executors, administrators, and assigns, and against all others claiming by, from, or under them, which shall purchase for good consideration, the same lands, &c. or any rent, &c. thereout, to be utterly void, 27 El. c. 4. s. 2.

23. All parties to such fraudulent conveyances, or being privy, and knowing of the same, which shall wittingly put in ure, avow, or defend the same as true, and done bona fide, or on good consideration, to the disturbance of such purchasers, lessees, or grantees, or of their heirs, successors, executors, &c. or such as shall lawfully claim by, from, or under them shall forfeit one year's value of the lands, &c. so purchased, to go in moieties to H. M. and the party grieved, and to be recovered in any court of record by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, and also being thereof convicted shall be imprisoned one half year, id. s. 3.

24. This act shall not make void or defeat any conveyance, assignment of lease, assurance, grant, charge, lease, estate, interest or limitation of use, of, in, to, or out of any lands, &c. to be made on good consideration, and bona fide to any person, or body corporate, id. s. 4.

25. If any person shall make any conveyance, gift, grant, demise, charge, limitation of use, or assurance of, in, or out of any lands, &c. with any clause, or condition of revocation, determination, or alteration thereof at his pleasure contained in any writing, deed, or indenture of such conveyance, and after such conveyance, &c. so made, shall bargain, sell, demise, or charge the same lands, &c. for money or other good consideration given, (such first conveyance, &c. not by him made void, or revoked according to the power therein given) then such former conveyance, &c. as touching such lands, &c. so after sold, &c. against such burginees, vendees, lessees, grantees, and their heirs, successors, executors, &c. and persons claiming by, from, or under them shall be void, 27 El. c. 4. s. 5.

26. No lawful mortgage to be made bona fide, and without fraud, on good consideration, shall be impeached by this act, id. s. 6.

27. All the tenor and contents of all statute merchants and staple hereafter to be acknowledged, shall, within six months after such acknowledging be entered in the office of the clerk of recognizances taken according to 23 H. 8. c. 6. by shewing such statute so knowledgeable unto such clerk who shall enter the same, he taking sd. for each entry, id. s. 7.

28. If the party to whom such statute shall be acknowledged, his executor or administrators, shall not within 4 months next after the knowledge of any such statute, bring the same to such clerk, or his deputy, whereby a copy thereof may be taken and entered, the same statute shall be void against all persons and bodies, their heirs, successors, executors, &c. as shall after the knowledge of such statutes, purchase for good consideration the lands, &c. liable to such statute, or any part thereof, or any rent, lease, or profit out of the same, id. s. 8.

29. If such clerk, or his deputy shall not, in shewing such statute, enter the same within 6 months, and also indorse upon such statute his name, and the day and year of entry, he shall forfeit for each statute he shall so neglect to enter and indorse 20*l.*, one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party suing, in any court of record, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin is allowed, id. s. 9.

30. No clerk of recognizances shall take for any search to be made concerning any such statutes so entered above 2*d.* for one year's search, and so after that rate, upon pain to forfeit to the party grieved twenty times as much as he shall take contrary to this act, to be recovered as in s. 9. pl. 29. directed, id. s. 10.

31. FOR THE RELIEF OF CREDITORS AGAINST FRAUDULENT devices, 3 W. & M. c. 14., and recital in s. 1. [MADE PERF., 6 & 7. W. & M. c. 14. s. 2.]

32. All wills and testaments, limitations, dispositions or appointments, concerning any manors, messuages, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or of any rent, profit, term, or charge thereout, whereof any person at his decease shall be seised in fee-simple in possession, reversion, or remainder, or have power to dispose (i by will, shall be deemed (only as against creditors by bond or specialty in which the heirs are bound, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns) to be fraudulent and absolutely void, 3 W. & M. c. 14. s. 2.

33. Every such creditor may maintain his action of debt on his bond and specialty against the heir at law of such obligor, and such devisees jointly, and such devisee shall be liable for false plea pleaded, in like manner as any heir should have been for false plea pleaded, or for not confessing the lands, &c. to be descended to him, id. s. 3.

34. Provided that all limitations or appointments, devises, or dispositions of any manors, &c. as in s. 2. for the payment of any just debt, or any portion for any child, other than the heir at law, according to any marriage contract in writing bona fide made before such marriage, shall be of full force, and such manors, &c. shall be holden by such person, his heirs, executors, &c. for whom such limitation, &c. was made, and his trustees, and their heirs, executors, &c. for the estate so limited, &c. until such debt or portion is raised, id. s. 4.

35. Where any heir at law is liable to pay the debt of his ancestor in regard of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments descending to him, and shall sell, aliene, or make over the same before action brought, or process sued out against him, he shall be answerable by action of debt for such debt to the value of the land so sold, &c.; in which cases all creditors shall be preferred as in actions against executors and administrators, and such execution shall be taken out on any judgments so obtained against such heir to the value of such land, as if the same were his own proper debts, saving that the lands, &c. bona fide aliened before action brought, shall not be liable to such execution, id. s. 5.

36. Where any action of debt on specialty is brought against any lien he may plead riens per descent, at the time of original writ brought, or bill filed against him, and the plaintiff may reply that he had lands, tenements, and hereditaments from his ancestor before the original writ brought or bill filed, and if on issue joined thereon it be found for the plaintiff, the jury shall inquire of the value of the lands, &c. so descended, and thereupon judgment shall be given, and execution awarded as in s. 5. pl. 35.; but if judgment is given against such heir by confession of the action without confessing the assets descended, or on demurrer, or nihil dicit, it shall be for the debt and damages without any writ to inquire of the lands, &c. so descended, id. s. 6.

37. All devisees made liable by this act, shall be liable in the same manner as the heir at law by force of this act is, notwithstanding the lands, &c. to them devised are aliened before action brought, id. s. 7.

FREIGHT.

1. To enable H. M. to fix the rate and direct the disposal of freight-money for the conveyance of specie and jewels on board H. M.'s ships and vessels, 59 G. 3. c. 25.

2. All freight-money to be paid for the conveyance in any vessel of H. M. of gold, silver and jewels, or any other articles received by special order on board such vessels, and for which freight is payable, shall be paid at such rate and distributed and applied to such purposes, and amongst such persons and in such proportions as H. M. shall by proclamation direct, and no freight-money or reward shall be demanded, paid, received or detained for the conveyance of such articles, other than for the purposes and by the persons in the proportion to the rates, and in the manner by such proclamation allowed; and all bargains and contracts made or entered into for the payment of such freight at any other rate, for any other purpose, or by or to any other persons, or in any other manner or proportion shall be void, id. ibid.

FRIENDLY SOCIETIES.

1. For the encouragement and relief of friendly societies, 33 G. 3. c. 54. (Public clause, s. 27.) [Amend. and Ext. to institutions of a charitable nature, 35 G. 3. c. 111. (which see CHARITIES, pl. 19.) and mistakes in the registry of their rules RECTIFIED, 43 G. 3. s. 111. and Amend. 49 G. 3. c. 125. The above acts have been greatly altered by the 59 G. 3. c. 128. which see post, pl. 35. with regard to societies to be established after the passing of that act, but it leaves societies previously founded solely to the operation of the above statutes.]

2. Any number of persons in Great Britain may form themselves into and establish societies of good fellowship, for the purpose of raising by subscriptions or voluntary contributions a stock or fund, for the mutual relief and maintenance of the members thereof, in old age, sickness and infirmity, or for the relief of the widows and children of deceased members, and the members of any such societies or any number of them as shall be nominated a committee, may assemble together to make proper rules and regulations for the government of such societies, as to the major part of those assembled seem meet, so as such rules, &c. be not repugnant to the laws of the realm or of this act, and may inflict such fines and forfeitures upon the members offending against such rules as may be just, for duly enforcing the same to be paid to the use of the society, and may alter and amend such rules, &c. or annul the same and make new ones in lieu thereof, 33 G. 3. c. 54. s. 1.

3. Provided such rules, &c. shall with all speed be exhibited in writing to the justices at quarter sessions, or at any adjournment thereof, for the county, riding, division or shire where such society is established, who may review the same, and then or at a subsequent sessions annul such as are repugnant to this act, and affirm those that conform to it; and when so confirmed such rules, &c. shall be signed by the clerk of the peace, and a duplicate on parchment shall be deposited with him, to be filed with rolls of the session without fee, and such rules, &c. so approved and filed, shall bind all parties, and no society shall be deemed within the meaning of this act, till the rules thereof be so confirmed and filed; and no such societies already established shall be deemed within this act, unless they exhibit their rules, and have them so confirmed and filed at the Michaelmas sessions, 1794, [enlarged to 1796, 35 G. 3. c. 111. s. 1.] id. s. 2. [See as to making rules, &c. 59 G. 3. c. 128. post, pl. 35.]

4. Any such society who shall have exhibited their rules, orders and regulations at any quarter session, having peculiar jurisdiction for the place where such society is established, and not to the sessions for the county, riding, &c. at large, shall exhibit the same to such county sessions, bearing the certificate of the town clerk or other officer of the time when first exhibited, or shall exhibit a duplicate or true copy of such rules, &c. with an affidavit annexed, taken before a justice for the county, of the time when they were first exhibited subject to the like allowance, review and confirmation of such county sessions as by 33 G. 3. c. 54. s. 2. directed; and such rules, &c. being confirmed at such county sessions as by such act directed, shall be valid from the time of their first exhibition at such sessions having peculiar jurisdiction, 43 G. 3. c. 111.

5. All such societies whose rules, &c. have been exhibited to such justices since Michaelmas 1796, or which may be so exhibited and which have been dealt with, examined, confirmed, deposited and filed, as by 33 G. 3. c. 54. directed, shall be deemed within the meaning of such act, as if established within such periods so limited, 49 G. 3. c. 125. s. 2.

6. Benefit of these acts denied to societies hereafter to be formed, unless constituted under this act, 59 G. 3. c. 128. s. 1. [see this act post, pl. 35.]

7. No rules, &c. so confirmed shall be altered or repealed, unless at a general meeting of the members of such society, convened by public notice in writing, signed by the clerk or secretary of such society, in pursuance of a requisition for that purpose, by three members, and read at two of the usual meetings of such society, held next before such general meeting for making such alterations or repeal, unless a committee has been nominated for that purpose, in which case such committee shall be convened in like manner, and unless such alteration or repeal is made with the consent of three fourths of such meeting or committee; and such alteration, &c. shall be reviewed by such justices at sessions and filed as aforesaid, and no rule, &c. shall be binding until it is confirmed and agreed to, 33 G. 3. c. 54. s. 3. [see as to the alteration of rules, &c. s. 5. pl. 40. and as to committees, s. 9. (pl. 44.) of 59 G. 3. c. 128.]

8. Such societies may at their general meetings or by their committee elect and appoint such persons into the office of steward, president, warden, treasurer or trustee of such society, as they think proper, and may appoint clerks and other officers, for so long and for such purposes as the rules of the society shall establish, and elect others in room of those who vacate or die, and such officers who are appointed to any office touching the receipt or management of the money collected for such society, shall before they take upon them the execution of any such office or trust (if such rules require it), become bound with two sureties for the just execution of such office or trust, and for rendering a true account according to such rules, &c. and in all matters to pay obedience to the same, in such penal sum as the majority of such society shall think fit at a general meeting; and such bond shall be given to the clerk of the peace of the county, &c. without fee, and in case of forfeiture, it may be sued on in his name to the use of such society, and bonds to be given by any other person appointed to any such office or trust, shall be given to the treasurer or trustee, to be by him prosecuted in case of forfeiture, to the use of the society, and no such bonds or other security given to or on account of such society, shall be subject to stamp duty, id. s. 4. [see as to appointing trustees, 59 G. 3. c. 128. s. 4. post, pl. 39.]

9. Such societies shall elect any number of their members, not less than eleven, to be a committee, and shall delegate all or any of the powers hereby given, and who shall continue to act as such committee for the time appointed, and where a standing committee is appointed for general purposes, its powers shall be declared by the rules, &c. confirmed and filed as in s. 2. pl. 3. and where a committee is formed for any particular purpose, its powers shall be deduced to writing, and entered in a book by the secretary or clerk of such society, and 5 of its members shall in all cases concur in any act of such committee; and such committee shall act in the name of such society, and all their acts and orders under such powers shall be of the like effect, as if done by the society at a general meeting, provided all acts of the committee shall be subject to the review and controul of such society, in such manner as their rules, &c. shall direct, id. s. 5.

10. The treasurer or trustees of such society, with the consent of such society testified as their rules, &c. shall direct, may lay out such money as shall be collected for the purposes of such society, and as it is not wanted for immediate application, either on private securities to be approved as aforesaid, (the same be taken in the name of such treasurer or trustees,) or invest the same in the public funds in their names with such consent, and may alter and transfer such securities and funds, and sell the same, id. s. 6.

11. All dividends and proceeds of such money so invested shall be brought to account by such treasurer or trustees, and be applied to the uses of such society, according to its rules, &c. id. s. 7.

12. The treasurer, trustees, and other officers of any such societies, who shall receive any part of the effects of such society, or is entrusted in any way with the management or custody thereof, or of any securities relating to the same, his executors, administrators, and assigns, shall, on demand made in pursuance of an order of such society or committee, give in his account at a general meeting to be examined, allowed, or disallowed, and on like demand shall pay over the money in his hands, and assign and transfer all securities, effects, or funds, taken in his name, or being in his custody, to the treasurer or trustees, or such person as the society shall appoint; and in case of neglect so to do, such society, in the name of its treasurer or trustees, shall exhibit a petition to the court of chancery or exchequer in Eng., or court of session in Scot., or of great sessions in Wa., who shall proceed thereon in a summary way, and make order therein, and all assignments and transfers made in pursuance of such order shall be good in law, id. s. 8.

13. No fee or gratuity shall be taken by any officer or minister of such courts, for any thing done in such court, in pursuance of this act; and on presenting of such petition the judges of such courts shall assign counsel, and appoint a clerk in court to conduct such petition for such society, and who shall do their duties without fee, and no proceeding therein shall be subject to stamp duty, id. s. 9.

14. If any person appointed to any office, entrusted with any money or effects of such society, or any securities relating to the same, shall die, or become bankrupt, or insolvent, his executors, administrators, or assignees, shall, within 40 days after demand made by order of such society, or the major part of them assembled at any meeting thereof, deliver over all things belonging to such society to such persons as they shall appoint; and pay out of the assets or effects of such person all money due, which such person received by virtue of his office, before his other debts are paid; and all such assets and effects shall be bound to the payment thereof accordingly, 33 G. 3. c. 54. s. 10.

15. All money, goods, chattels, stocks, annuities, and other transferable securities and effects of such society, shall be vested in the treasurer or trustees for the time being, and on their death or removal shall vest in their successors for the same estate, and subject to the same trust, without any assignment or transfer, and shall, for all purposes of action or suit, as well criminal as civil, at law, or in equity, be deemed and stated to be their property in their own names, and such treasurer or trustees may bring or defend any action or suit, criminal or civil, touching the goods, &c. of such society, and may, in all such cases, sue and be sued in their own names without other description; and no such suit, &c. shall abate, or be discontinued by their death or removal, but their successors may proceed therein, in the name of the party commencing same, id. s. 11. [See 59 G. 5. c. 128. s. 7. pl. 42.]

16. All such societies, before any rules, &c. thereof be confirmed, shall, by a general rule to be confirmed by the justices, declare all the purposes of such society, and direct all the uses to which the money, to be subscribed for the use of such society, or which shall arise therefrom, or belong to such society, shall be applied, and in what shares, and under what circumstances a member or other person will become entitled to the same, and which application shall not be repugnant to the uses and purposes of such society so to be declared; and all such rules, &c. shall be complied with, and such monies shall not be misapplied, under such penalty as the rules, &c. shall impose; and no rule, &c. shall be made to dissolve such society, so long as its purposes can be carried into effect, without the consent of 5-6ths of the members, and also of all persons entitled to receive relief from such society testified under their hands, nor shall any such rule direct the division or distribution of such fund amongst the members of such society, other than for carrying into effect its purposes as declared by them, and confirmed by the justices; but all such rules, &c. for such dissolution or distribution, made without such consent, or contrary to the rules, &c. confirmed by such justices, shall be void, id. s. 12. [See as to the dissolution of society, 59 G. 5. c. 128. s. 8. post. pl. 43.]

17. All the rules, &c. made by such society, shall be entered in a book to be kept by one of the members to be appointed for that purpose, and shall be signed by such members, and shall, at convenient seasons, be open to their inspection, and the same so entered shall be deemed the original orders, and shall be received in evidence as such in all disputes and trials before any court; and no certiorari shall be brought to remove any rules, &c. of any such society, made in pursuance of this act, into the courts at Westminster, id. s. 13.

18. Any such society may receive donations towards the supply of their stock or fund, and all such sums shall be applicable to the general purposes of such society, in like manner as the contributions of the several members of the society are to be applied under s. 12. of this act id. s. 14.

19. If any member of any such society, established under this act, shall think himself aggrieved by any thing done or omitted to be done by such society, 2 justices for the county, &c. on complaint on oath, or affirmation by or on behalf of such person, may issue their summons to the principal officers of the society, by whatever name called, or one of them, if such complaint is made against such society collectively, and if made against any such officer, then they may summon him to appear before them at a time and place mentioned in the summons, and also at the same time and place summon all parties having the custody of the rules, &c. of such society; and such justices, at such time and place, whether the party summoned shall appear or not but on proof on oath or affirmation of such summons being duly served or left at his usual place of abode, shall peremptorily determine the complaint in a summary way, according to the meaning of such rules, &c., and shall make such order therein as they deem just, and such order shall be complied with and final, and not subject to appeal, or be removable into any court of record at Westminster, id. s. 15. [See further as to justices interfering where a member, or the widows and children of deceased members are refused relief, 49 G. 3. c. 125. 59 G. 3. c. 128. s. 15. post. pl. 56.]

20. If provision is made by a general rule or order of any such society, and is confirmed, as hereby required, for a reference by arbitration of any dispute between the society, or persons acting under them, and any member thereof, the same shall be referred to such arbitrators as are named and elected, as by such rules, &c. required; and the award made by such arbitrators, according to such rules, shall be binding, final, and without appeal, or being subject to the control of 2 or more justices, as hereinbefore prescribed, id. s. 16.

21. No member of any society established under this act, who inhabits or resides in any parish, township, or place, not having a legal settlement there, or who shall come to inhabit, &c. there, and shall deliver to the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of such place, or either of them, a certificate under the hands of the stewards, presidents, wardens, or treasurers of such society, or any 2 of them, attested by one witness, thereby acknowledging the person mentioned therein to be a member of such society, shall, during the time such person continues a member, be removable from any parish, &c. where such certificate has been delivered, until he shall actually become chargeable to such place, or is forced to ask relief of such place, and then, and not before, such person with his family may be removed to his last legal settlement, 33 G. 3. c. 54. s. 17. [extended to all persons whether members of any such society or not. See Poon.]

22. Such certificate shall express the place of abode of the persons signing and attesting it, and one of such witnesses shall make oath before a justice for the county, city, or place, that he saw the same signed by the parties whose names it bears, and that the name of such witness thereunto set is of his own hand-writing, and such justice shall certify that such oath was made before him; and such certificate and oath of the execution thereof so certified, shall be taken and allowed in all courts as duly proved, and shall be received as evidence without other proof, id. s. 18.

23. On complaint made by the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of any parish or place, where such certificate was delivered, to any justice of the county, city, or place where such person resides, such justice may cause such person to be summoned before him to be examined on oath as to the place of his last legal settlement, and such person shall obey such summons, and make oath accordingly; and such justice shall give an attested copy of such examination to the party making the same, to be produced before any other justices of the peace before whom he shall be again summoned to make oath, and on such 2d summons on production thereof, he need not make any further oath touching such matter, but shall permit a copy thereof to be taken by such last mentioned justice, id. s. 19.

24. Two justices who have taken such examination, or before whom such copy has been produced at the request of such churchwardens and overseers, by order in writing under hand and seal, may adjudge and declare the place of last legal settlement of such person, or of such of his family as reside in such place under this act, without issuing any warrant of removal; and a duplicate of such order shall be transmitted to the quarter sessions to be holden next after the end of 20 days from time of making the same, to be filed of record, and a copy of such order attested by one witness, or a duplicate thereof, together with an attested copy of such examination annexed to such copy or duplicate, shall be delivered to the churchwardens or overseers of the place of such person's last legal settlement, 15 days previous to such sessions, and on proof on oath of the delivery of the same to them made before the sessions, such order shall be filed, and orders so filed shall be final and conclusive in ascertaining the place of last legal settlement of such person, unless appealed against within the time hereinafter mentioned, id. s. 20.

25. All persons aggrieved by any such adjudication of such justices, may appeal to the quarter sessions holden next after the expiration of 15 days from the time of delivery of such copy or duplicate, and such sessions may receive such appeal, and determine its merits in like manner, as if the persons mentioned in such order had been by warrant actually removed, and may award costs as in like cases of appeals from orders of removal by any statute now in force, to be recovered as costs awarded under such statutes may be, id. s. 21.

26. No member of any such society who shall reside in any parish or place under this act, shall thereby acquire any settlement therein by delivery and publication of any notice, unless the same shall be made after such person shall cease to be a member, and after revocation of his certificate, id. s. 22.

27. No such member who shall so reside, and who shall be rated towards the rates or taxes of the parish, &c. where he resides, and duly pay same, shall thereby acquire any settlement in such parish, id. s. 23.

28. No person who is an apprentice bound by indenture to, or who is an hired servant to, or with any person who came into, and resided in such parish under this act, not afterwards having gained a legal settlement therein, shall gain any settlement by virtue of such apprenticeship or hiring, but they shall have their settlements as if they had not been so bound or hired, id. s. 24.

29. Every bastard born in any parish during the mother's residence there under this act, shall have the same settlement as the mother had at the time of its birth, id. s. 25.

30. Whenever any overseer is put to any charge by maintaining any persons or their families residing in such parish under this act, or in removing any persons back to the places to which they belong, after they have become actually chargeable, such overseer shall be reimbursed the same by the overseers of the poor of the parish to which such person belongs, the same being ascertained by a justice residing near the place where such charges are incurred, to be levied in case of refusal of payment, by distress and sale of the last mentioned overseers' goods by warrant under hand and seal of such justice, id. s. 26.

31. If any member of any society established under 33 G. 3. c. 54. offends against any of the rules, &c. thereof, 2 justices residing within the county, riding, stewardry, city, or place, where such society is held, may, on complaint on oath by another member, issue their summons to the party complained of, and on his appearance, or in default thereof, on due proof on oath of service of such summons, such justices shall proceed to determine such complaint according to the rules, &c. of such society, confirmed as in such act mentioned, and shall make such order therein, as to them seems just; and in case they adjudge any money to be paid by the party complained of, and he shall not on notice thereof forthwith pay the same, such justices may issue their warrants under hand and seal, to levy the same by distress and sale of his goods, together with costs by them awarded, and the costs of such distress and sale, 49 G. 3. c. 125. s. 1.

32. If complaint is made to 2 such justices by any member of such society, of relief having been refused to him, to which he was lawfully entitled according to the rules of the same, such justices shall summon the officer of the society complained of, and on his appearance, or in default thereof, on due proof on oath of the service of such summons, shall determine the complaint, and award such money as appears due to be forthwith paid, together with costs not exceeding 10s.; and if the same is not forthwith paid in their presence, they shall, by warrant under hand and seal, cause it to be levied by distress, or distress and sale of the money, goods, securities, and effects of such society, together with the further costs attending the same, and in default thereof, then on the goods of such officer so neglecting, and so from time to time as often as complaint is made of the non-payment of any sum so ordered to be paid; provided that sums paid by or levied on such officer, and damages done to him thereby shall be repaid out of the money of the society, id. s. 3. [see s. 2. pl. 5.]

33. All orders made by such justices by virtue of 33 G. 3. c. 54., or this act, on complaint of a member of any such society, shall be made on the presidents, wardens, stewards, treasurers, or trustees, or other principal officers of the society to which the complaint relates, or one of them, at the discretion of the justices in the proper names of such officers, and such order may be served on the party therein named, either by delivering a copy to him or leaving it at his usual place of abode, and such service shall be binding on such officer and the society to execute the same, id. s. 4.

34. Every order, adjudication, or award of any justice or justices under this act shall be final, and not removeable into any court of law, or restrainable by the injunction of any court of equity, id. s. 5. [These provisions extended to widows and children of deceased members, 59 G. 3. c. 128. s. 15. post, pl. 49.]

35. FOR THE FURTHER PROTECTION AND ENCOURAGEMENT OF friendly societies, and for preventing frauds and abuses thereon, 59 G. 3. c. 128.

36. No society hereafter to be framed in Eng. or Wa., or the members thereof, shall be entitled to the benefit of 33 G. 3. c. 54., 35 G. 3. c. 111., 45 G. 3. c. 111., and 49 G. 3. c. 125., unless constituted under the authority and according to the provisions of this act, id. s. 1.

37. When any persons in Eng. or Wa. shall intend to form under this act a friendly society or institution, whereby it is intended to provide by contribution, on the principle of mutual insurance, for the maintenance or assistance of the contributors, their wives or children, in sickness, infancy, age, widowhood, or other natural state or contingency, which is susceptible of calculation by way of average, such persons may apply by memorial, as in s. 4. pl. 39. mentioned, to the justices at quarter-sessions, or any adjournment thereof, for the county or place of separate jurisdiction, wherein such society is to be established, for a confirmation and approval of the rules of such institution, and of the tables of payments and allowances to be adopted therein; and if such such justices, or any committee by them appointed, consisting of not less than 3 justices, (of whom 2 shall be a quorum) shall, on examination thereof, be satisfied that the contingencies to be provided for, whether specifically named in this act or not, are such as according to the meaning of this act are fit to be provided for by such society, and shall deem the rules and tables of such society, either in the form in which they were originally exhibited, or with such omissions, additions, or alterations as may be made therein by such justices, with the consent of the persons proposing to be trustees, to be fit and proper, and shall be satisfied that the formation of such society will be beneficial, regard being had to the existence of any other society already formed within the same district, such rules and tables so confirmed or amended, shall be deposited and enrolled according to the provisions of 33 G. 3. c. 54. s. 2. pl. 3., and a copy thereof, authenticated by the signature of two justices, shall be delivered to the trustees, and thenceforward become their rules, and be binding on all parties: provided that such justices shall not confirm and allow any tables of payments or benefits, or any rules dependent upon or connected with the calculation thereof, until it appears to such justices, that such tables and rules are such as have been approved by two persons known to be professional actuaries or persons skilled in calculation, as fit and proper, according to the most correct calculation of which the case will admit, 59 G. 3. c. 128. s. 2.

38. The justices, at quarter-sessions, for any county in Eng. or Wa. may make and publish general rules, for the formation and government of friendly societies under this act, and may require that the rules of all societies thereafter established, shall be made conformable to such general rules; and such justices may declare, that the rules proposed for the formation of such friendly societies, and made conformable to such general rules, may be exhibited to and confirmed by two justices in petty sessions; and in such case, and subject always to the direction of such general rules, such justices in petty sessions shall have the like powers, and their proceedings shall be subject to the like provisions, in regard to the formation of friendly societies, as are by this and former acts established in respect of the justices in general or quarter-session, id. s. 3.

39. Every such memorial as in s. 2. pl. 37. presented to the justices, shall set forth the names, residence, and occupation of 5 persons at the least, of whom the majority shall be substantial householders assessed to the relief of the poor, upon not less than 50l., which persons shall be trustees, and the signature of such intended trustees shall be affixed to such memorial; and such society shall, in the manner prescribed by the rules thereof, elect other persons so qualified to fill vacancies among such trustees; and if such vacancy continues more than 3 months, so as to reduce the trustees below 3, the remaining trustees may nominate one other, to be the third trustee; and no trustee shall be removed from his office without his own consent, except with the approbation of 2 justices in petty sessions, id. s. 4.

40. As often as the trustees and persons having, under the rules of any such society, the management thereof, shall be desirous of making any alteration in such rules and tables, they may make further application by memorial to the justices in general or petty sessions, signed by the trustees or the major part of them, and such application shall be dealt with by the justices according to the provisions in s. 2., with respect to the first establishment of such society, id. s. 5.

41. The trustees shall appoint one fit person or more to be treasurer or treasurers, and shall require such securities as they may deem necessary; and no bond or other security shall be chargeable with stamp-duty, id. s. 6.

42. All monies, goods, chattels and effects, and all securities for money, or other obligatory instruments and evidences, or muniments and all other effects, rights and claims of such institution, shall be vested in the trustees for the benefit of such institution, and the depositors therein, their respective executors or administrators, and on the death or removal of any trustee, shall vest in the successor for the same estate, without any assignment or conveyance, except the transfers of stocks and securities in the public funds; and shall for all purposes of action or suit, criminal or civil, at law or equity concerning same be deemed and stated to be the property of such trustees, in their proper names, without further description, and such trustees may bring or defend any prosecution or action, and may sue and be sued in their proper names, without further description, in all cases touching the property, &c. of such institution; and no suit or action shall be discontinued or abate by their death or removal, but their successors may proceed in the same, in name of the person commencing same; and such successors shall have like costs, as if the action had been commenced in their names, for the benefit of such institution, id. s. 7.

43. No society established under this act shall be dissolved, nor shall any division of the funds be made, otherwise than according to the rules, without the consent of the trustees or the major part; but no such consent of trustees shall be given, unless it shall have been certified by two professional actuaries or persons skilled in calculation, which persons shall have been approved as such by the justices, that, according to the most correct calculation of which the case will admit, the interest of all the contributors, and of all persons having claims thereon, in possession or expectancy, are, by the proposed scheme of dissolution fairly dealt with and secured, id. s. 8. [see pl. 16.]

44. The rules shall specify the place at which it is intended such society shall hold its meetings, and shall contain provisions with respect to the powers and duties of the members at large, and of such committees or officers appointed for the management of the affairs of such society, subject always to the provisions of this act with respect to the appointment and duties and powers of the trustees; and such society shall not be subject to the provisions and restrictions of 33 G. 3. c. 54. as to the appointment of committees, or otherwise, with respect to the management of such society, id. s. 9. [see pl. 7.]

45. Any society established under this act, may subscribe the whole or any part of its funds into the funds of any institution which shall have taken the benefit of 57 G. 3. c. 130., and 58 G. 3. c. 48. [see BANKS FOR SAVINGS], id. s. 10. [but see 1 G. 4. c. 83. same tit.]

46. Any society established under this act, may pay directly into the bank of Eng. any sum not less than 50l., to the account of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, upon the declaration of the trustees or two of them, that such monies belong exclusively to the society; and the cashiers shall receive such monies, and place the same into a new and separate account, to be raised in the name of such commissioners, denominated, 'The fund for the society established at A. in the county of B., under an act of the 59th year of the reign of king George the third;' and all the provisions of such act of 57 G.3. c. 150, with respect to the accounts of banks for savings, and the regulation of certificates, debentures, &c. concerning the same, shall be applicable to the monies paid into the bank under this act, 59 G.3. c. 128. s. 11.

47. Nothing in this act shall extend to prevent such trustees from investing any part of the funds of such society in any public stocks established by parliament, or from laying out the same upon real security at interest, id. s. 12.

48. Such trustees shall not be liable to make good any deficiency which may arise in its funds, unless such persons shall have declared by writing under their hands, deposited and registered in like manner with the rules of such society, that they are willing to be answerable; and each of such persons may limit his responsibility to such sum, as shall be specified in such instrument, 59 G.3. c. 128. s. 13.

49. When such trustees shall be apprehensive that the funds of such society, together with the sum (if any) for which persons having formed such society shall have made themselves responsible, are likely to prove insufficient to make all the payments becoming due to the parties interested, according to the rules, such trustees shall forthwith state their apprehension, and the grounds thereof, to the justices in general or quarter sessions, or if the rules shall have been originally confirmed at the petty sessions, then to the justices in petty sessions; and such justices upon a full statement of the accounts and proceedings of such society, may make such order for the adjustment of the claims, as to them may appear fair and equitable: but any person who may think himself aggrieved by any such order of justices in petty sessions, may appeal therefrom to the quarter sessions next ensuing; whose decision shall be final, id. s. 14.

50. "Whereas by 49 G.3. c. 125. no provision is made for the relief of widows and children of deceased members of friendly societies, aggrieved by the officers or members thereof:" It is ENACTED, that justices shall have the like power in cases of complaint made by such widows and children, as they have under such act, or this act, in regard to the members themselves, id. s. 15.

51. All the provisions of 33 G.3. c. 54. and 49 G.3. c. 125., for which no other provision is made by this act, shall be applicable to all societies formed under this act, id. s. 16.

9 A. c. 15. s. 1.

11. If billet is so exposed to sale, or in vessel, &c. not so assized, any justice or head officer of city or place where it is, may call before them 6 lawful men of the same parish to present, on their oaths, as to the sufficiency of its assize under this act; and if they present that such billets are not assized and marked or cut as in s. 1., shall take them as forfeit, and deliver same to overseers for distribution to the poor, id. s. 2.

12. General issue may be pleaded, and special matter given in evidence in actions for things done in pursuance of this act, and if plaintiff discontinue, is nonsuit, or has verdict of judgment on demurrer against him, defendant shall have treble costs, 9 A. c. 15. s. 3.

13. Owners of trees may cut, mark or omit to mark billets of what assize or length, &c. they please for their private use, id. s. 4.

14. Beech billets are excepted from 9 A. c. 15., 10 A. c. 6. s. 1.

15. All retailers of beech billets in London, Westminster, or Bills of Mortality, shall use assizes used before 9 A. c. 15. [comb. 43 El. c. 14. pl. 7.], or sell by weight if required by buyers, id. s. 2.

15. FOR BETTER PRESERVATION OF THE GAME IN Eng. 10 G. 3. c. 19. [REP. 15 G. 3. c. 80. s. 5.]

16. TO AMEND [2 G. 3. c. 19.], 36 G. 3. c. 39. [REP. 39 G. 3. c. 34. s. 1.]

17. TO AMEND [13 G. 3. c. 54.], 36 G. 3. c. 54. [REP. 39 G. 3. c. 34. s. 1.]

18. TO EXTEND THE PROVISIONS OF 17 G. 2. c. 5. tit. VAGRANT, as far as they relate to destruction of game in the night, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 50. [REP. 56 G. 3. c. 130. and 57 G. 3. c. 90. s. 5.]

19. TO REPEAL 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 50. and to make other provisions in lieu thereof [relating to killing game in the night], 56 G. 3. c. 130. [REP. 57 G. 3. c. 90. s. 4.]

1. CONCERNING TRESPASSERS IN PARKS AND PONDS, [vivariis, warrens and fishings, 2 Inst. 100.] it is not yet discussed, for the lords demanded the proper imprisonment of such as they should take therein, which H. M. denied, and therefore it was deferred, 20 H. 3. c. 11.

2. IF ANY BE ATTAINED AT SUIT OF THE PARTY GRIEVED for trespasses in parks and ponds, large amends shall be awarded, with 3 years imprisonment and fine at H. M.'s pleasure, if he have whereof, and shall find surety not to commit the like trespass; and if he cannot find surety, shall abjure the realm. And if any being guilty thereof be fugitive, and have no tenement sufficient, whereby he may be justified, as soon as H. M. shall find it by inquest, he shall be proclaimed from county to county, and if he come not, shall be outlawed, 3 E. 1. c. 20. s. 1.

3. If none do sue within the year and day after the trespass done, H. M. shall have the suit; and those found guilty thereof by lawful inquest, shall be punished as above. And if such trespasser be attainted of taking tame beast or other thing in such parks by robbery, let the common law pass upon him, id. s. 2.

4. OF TRESPASSES IN PARKS, 21 E. 1. S. 1. (De Malefactoribus in Parcis.)

5. If any forester, parker, or warrenor, shall find any trespassers wandering within his liberty, intending to do damage therein, and that will not yield themselves to such foresters, &c. to abide the law after hue and cry made, for H. M.'s peace, but fly and defend themselves with force and arms, although such foresters, &c. or any being in H. M.'s peace, and coming in their company for arresting such offenders, being so found, do kill one or more of the latter, they shall not be liable to punishment for the same, id. s. 1.

6. Such foresters, &c. shall beware that by reason of any previous ill-will they do not maliciously pretend that any person passing through their liberties, come thither to trespass or misdo, when of truth they did not so do, or were not found seeking occasion to do, or doing mischief, and so kill them, or they shall be liable for the death, id. s. 2.

7. HOW HE WHO TAKETH UP ANOTHER MAN'S HAWK SHALL TAKE IT,

34 E. 3. c. 22. [AMD. 37 Ed. 3. c. 19. and see 11 H. 7. c. 17. s. 2. infra, pl. 17. and 5 El. c. 21. s. 3. infra, pl. 32.]

8. Every person who finds a falcon, terecelet, laner, laneret, or other falcon, which is lost, shall bring it to the sheriff, who shall make proclamation in all the towns of the county that he hath such hawk; and if the lord which lost it, or any of his men, comes to challenge him, and proves the same to be his lord's, let him pay the costs and have the falcon; and if none come within 4 months to challenge him, the sheriff shall have him, making satisfaction to the taker, if a simple man; and if he be a gentleman, and of estate to have the falcon, shall redeliver the falcon, taking of him reasonable costs for the time he had him in his custody; and if any man has taken such falcon, and conceals the same and be thereof attainted, he shall have 2 years imprisonment, and yield to the lord the price of the hawk, if he have whereof, and if not, shall abide the longer in prison, 34 E. 3. c. 22.

9. If any steal a hawk, and carry away the same, contrary to 34 E. 3. c. 22. it shall be done of him as of a thief that steals a horse, or other thing, 37 E. 3. c. 19.

10. FOR PREVENTING THE UNLAWFUL DESTRUCTION OF GAME, 15 R. 2. S. 1. c. 13.

11. No artificer, labourer, or other layman, who hath not lands and tenements of 40s. per ann., nor any clerk, if not advanced to 10*l.* per ann. shall have or keep any greyhound, lurcher, or dog to hunt, [R.E.P. scob. as to this qualification, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 25. s. 3. pl. 66.] nor shall use ferrets, hays, nets, hare-pipes, nor cords, nor other engines to destroy [deer, R.E.P. 16 G. 3. c. 30. s. 27.] hares, conies, nor other game, on pain of one year's imprisonment; and the justices of the peace shall enquire of and punish these offences, 13 R. 2. S. 1. c. 13. s. 1.

12. NO PERSON OF WHAT ESTATE, DEGREE OR CONDITION SOEVER [other than H.M.'s son,] [as be a lord's son, see Rot. Parl. and recital of this act, 1 R. 3. nu. 16.] shall have any mask or game of swans of his own, or any other to his use, except he have freehold lands and tenements of 5 marks, viz. 3*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* yearly value, above all yearly charges; and the swans of any subject not so qualified, may be seized by any person so qualified, as forfeited, and one moiety shall go to H.M., the other to the informer, 22 E. 4. c. 6. [see an act exempting the inhabitants of Crowland, in Lincolnshire, from the above penalties, Rot. Parl. 1 R. 3. nu. 16.]

13. AGAINST UNLAWFUL HUNTING IN FORESTS AND PARKS, 1 H. 7. c. 7.

14. In case of any unlawful hunting in the night, or with disguises, in any forests, parks, and warrens, any of H.M.'s counsel, or justices of the peace of such county where such hunting is had, to whom information thereof shall be given, may make a warrant to the sheriff, or other officer of such county, to arrest the offender, and to have him before the same or any other justice, or H.M.'s counsel, who shall examine him as to such hunting, and if he wilfully conceals the same, or any person offending with him, he is guilty of felony, which shall be inquired of and punished, on conviction, like other felonies; but if he confess the truth, his offence shall be as against H.M. but trespass finable to be assessed at the next general sessions of the peace for the county, and any rescous or obstruction offered to the person having execution of such warrant, shall be felony. And if any person be convicted of any such hunting, with painted faces, visors, or otherwise disguised, to the intent that they should not be known, or of unlawful hunting in night-time, the persons so convicted shall have like punishment as if they were convicted of felony, id. ibid.

15. AGAINST TAKING OF PHEASANTS AND PARTRIDGES, 11 H. 7. c. 17.

16. No person may take pheasants or partridges by nets, snares, or other engines, out of his own warren, upon the freehold of any other person, without licence of the owner, upon pain of forfeiture of 10*l.*, the one half to the party that will sue for the same, and the other half to the owner or occupier of the ground, id. s. 1.

17. Also no person shall take upon his own ground, or any other man's, the eggs of any falcon, goshawks, laners, or swans, out of the nest, upon pain of imprisonment of a year and a day, and fine at H.M.'s will; the one half to H.M., and the other half to the owner of the ground; and the justices of peace have authority to hear and determine such matter, as well by inquisition as information and proofs, id. s. 2.

18. Also no man shall bear any hawk of the breed of Eng., called a nysse, goshawk, tassel, laner, laneret, or falcon, on pain of forfeiture of his hawk to H.M. And all persons that bring any nysse or hawks from beyond sea, shall bring a certificate under the customers seal of the port where he first landed with the hawks, testifying that the hawks be of the parts beyond the sea, upon the same pain. And the person that bringeth such hawk to H.M. shall have a reasonable reward, or the hawk for their labour, id. s. 3.

19. Also no man shall take any ayre, falcon, goshawk, tassel, laner, or lanerets, in their warren or woods, or in other place, nor purposely drive them out of their coverts accustomed to breed in, nor slay them for any hurt done, but suffer them to pass at their liberties, upon pain of 10*l.*, the one half to the party that will sue for the same by action of debt, by examination before the justices of the peace, information, or otherwise, and the other half to H.M., 11 H. 7. c. 17. s. 4.

20. Provided that the moiety of the forfeiture given to the owner of the ground for taking of swans eggs, be to the owner of the swans, and not to the owner of the ground, id. s. 5.

21. NO PERSON WITHOUT HIS OWN GROUND SHALL SLAY OR TAKE BY CRAFT OR ENGINE any herons, except with hawking or long bow, on pain of forfeiture for every heron 6*s.* 8*d.*, and no person without his own ground shall take any young herons out of the nest, without licence of the owner of the ground, on pain of forfeiture for every heron, 10*s.* 19 H. 7. c. 11. s. 1.

22. Every man shall be admitted to sue for the said forfeitures by action of debt, &c.; and 2 justices of peace, in their sessions, may call before them any person suspected, and examine him in the premises; and if found in default, he shall be committed to prison, till he have found surety for payment of the forfeitures to H.M., and such justices shall have the 10th part of such forfeiture, id. s. 2.

23. NO PERSON SHALL TRACE AND KILL ANY HARE IN THE SNOW, [see 1 J. 1. c. 27. pl. 43.] and the justices of peace at every sessions, and stewards of leets, shall have power to inquire of such offenders; and after such inquisitions found, the justices of peace and stewards for every hare so killed shall cess upon every such offender 6*s.* 8*d.* to be forfeited to H.M., that shall be so found by the cessors, and the forfeiture found in every leet, shall be to the lord of the leet, 14 & 15 H. 8. c. 10.

24. AGAINST DESTRUCTION OF WILD FOWL, 25 H. 8. c. 11. and recital in s. 1. [s. 2. hereof is R.E.P. 3 & 4 E. 6; c. 7. R.E.V., 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 2, CON. 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 22., 16 C. 1. c. 4. s. 2. but see now 9 A. c. 25. s. 4. pl. 92. and 10 G. 2. c. 32. s. 10. id.]

25. It shall not be lawful between the last of May, and the last of Aug. [altered to 1st June, and 1st Oct., 10 G. 2. c. 32. s. 10.] to take wild fowl with nets or other engines, on pain of one year's imprisonment, and to forfeit for every fowl 4*l.*, one-half to H.M. and the other half to him that will sue for the same, by action of debt, or information without essoin, &c., 25 H. 8. c. 11. s. 2. [see note to last pl.]

26. Justices of peace may inquire, hear, and determine the offence, aforesaid, as in cases of trespass, id. s. 3.

27. Any gentleman, or other that may dispend 40*s.* by the year, of freehold, may hunt and take such wild fowl with their spaniels only, without using any net or other engines, except long bows, id. s. 4.

28. From 1st March to the last of June yearly, no person shall withdraw, take, destroy or convey any eggs or wild fowl from or in any nest where they are laid, on pain of imprisonment for one year, and to forfeit for every egg of any crane or bustard, 20*l.*; and for every egg of bittour, heron, or shoveler, 8*d.*; and for every egg of mallard, teal, or other wild fowl, 1*d.*, one moiety to H.M., and the other to him that will sue for the same; and all justices of peace shall have power to inquire, hear and determine the same, id. s. 5.

29. This act shall not extend to any persons that will destroy crows, choughs, ravens, and bustards, or their eggs, or any other fowl or their eggs not used to be eaten, id. s. 6.

30. FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF UNLAWFUL TAKING OF FISH, deer, [R.E.P. as to deer, viz. s. 3.—1. in part, by 16 G. 3. c. 30. s. 27.] or hawks, 5 El. c. 21. and recital in s. 1.

31. If any person shall unlawfully break, cut down or out, or destroy any head or dam of any ponds, moles, stagues, or several pits, wherein fish are stored by the owners, or shall wrongfully fish in any of the said ponds, &c. to the intent to destroy, take or steal any of such fish against the will of the owners, not having lawful title so to do, and thereof be convicted at the suit of H.M. or party grieved; he shall suffer imprisonment 3 months, and shall pay to the party grieved his treble damages; and after the 3 months expired, shall find sureties for his good abearing for 7 years, or shall remain in prison till they are found, 5 El. c. 21. s. 2.

32. If any person shall take away any hawks, or their eggs unlawfully out of the woods or ground of any person, (not having authority so to do,) and thereof be convicted as aforesaid, he shall likewise suffer imprisonment 3 months, and pay to the party grieved his treble damages and after such 3 months expired, shall find sureties for his good abearing for 7 years; or else remain in prison till they are found, id. s. 3.

33. Nothing in this act shall extend to any park or inclosed ground hereafter made for deer, [R.E.P. as to deer, 16 G. 3. c. 30. s. 27.] without H.M.'s grant or licence, id. s. 4. [see 3 J. 1. c. 13. as to conies in grounds inclosed for that purpose since 5 El. c. 21.]

34. The party grieved may take his further remedy against all such offenders for his damages, and recover the treble value thereof, as well before justices of oyer and terminer, of assize, and of peace, as elsewhere, in any other H.M.'s courts of record; and on satisfaction of the treble damages, or on confession thereof by the party, before the justices in open sessions, the party grieved may release the suretyship of good abearing, 5 El. c. 21. s. 5.

35. The justices of oyer and terminer, and of assize, and of peace, and gaol-delivery, in their sessions, shall have power to hear and determine the offences aforesaid, as well on indictments before them, as by bill of complaint, information, or any other action, in which no essoin, &c. shall be allowed, 5 EL. c. 21. s. 6.

36. If any person is bound before any such justices to H. M. for his good abearing for 7 years, according to this act, and shall within the 7 years come before the justices of peace of the county, where the offence was committed, in open sessions, and there acknowledge his offence, and satisfy the party grieved, as in s. 5. pl. 34. the justices may within the 7 years discharge the recognizance, and the party, id. s. 7.

37. FOR PRESERVATION OF PHEASANTS AND PARTRIDGES, 23 EL. c. 10. (and against taking them by nets, and untimely hawking, &c. id. s. 1.)

38. No person shall take or destroy any pheasants or partridges with nets, snares, gins, engines, rowsting, lowfing, or other devices, in the night, on pain of forfeiture for every pheasant, 20s. and for every partridge 10s. which if he do not pay within 10 days after conviction, he shall have one month's imprisonment; and besides such forfeiture or imprisonment, shall put in bond with sureties for 2 years, that he shall not take or destroy any partridges or pheasants contrary to this act, the bond to be taken by some justice of the county where the offence was committed, the one-half of which forfeitures to be to the lords of the liberties and manors, and the other to such as will sue for the same by bill, plaint, or information, wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed, 23 EL. c. 10. s. 2.

39. If such person to whom the half of the said forfeiture is appointed, shall dispense with or procure any taking or destroying of partridges or pheasants contrary to this act; all such forfeitures as he should have had be to the poor of the parish, and be levied or recovered by any of the churchwardens, id. s. 3.

40. No person shall hawk, or with his spaniel hunt, in any ground where corn shall grow, (except in his own ground,) at such time as any sown or coddled corn shall be standing upon the same, nor before such corn shall be shocked, cocked, hilled or copped; upon pain of forfeiture for every time that he shall so hawk or hunt (without the consent of the owner of the corn) to the owner of the said corn 40s., to be levied or recovered in manner aforesaid, id. s. 4.

41. The justices of assizes and of peace in their sessions, and stewards of leets, liberties, and lawdays, shall hear, inquire and determine, of all offences against this act; and every justice of peace in any county, shall have power to examine all offenders in the premises, if the offences shall not be before heard and determined by the justices of assize, or the stewards of leets, &c. and also shall take bond with sureties for the offenders appearance at the next general sessions of the peace to answer the offence and pay the penalties, or receive the punishment, id. s. 5.

42. This act shall not extend to lowbellers, traniellers, or others, which shall unwillingly happen to take partridges or pheasants by night, under any trammel, lowbel, roadnet, or other engine, so as they do presently let them go without wilfully hurting them, id. s. 6.

43. FOR THE BETTER EXECUTION OF THE INTENT AND MEANING of former statutes made against shooting in guns, and for preservation of pheasants and partridges, and against destroying hares with hare-pipes and tracing them in the snow, 1 J. 1. c. 27. and recital in s. 1.

44. Every person which shall shoot at, kill, or destroy with any gun or bow, any pheasant, partridge, pigeon, heron, mallard, duck, teal, widgeon, grouse, heathcock, moor-game, or any such fowl, [for any hare; REV. 48 G. 3. c. 93. s. 1.] or shall take or destroy any pheasant, partridge, or pigeon, with setting dogs and nets, or with any nets, snares, or instruments; or shall take the eggs of any pheasant, partridge or swans, out of the nest; or willingly break the same in the nest; or shall trace or course any hares in the snow; or take or destroy any hares with hare-pipes, cords, or other engines; and the same offences are proved by the confession of the party, or by the testimony of two witnesses on oath, [one witness as to taking and killing partridges and pheasants, 7 J. 1. c. 11. s. 8. infra, pl. 62.] before 2 justices of the county, city, or town corporate, wherein the offence is committed, or the party apprehended, shall be by them committed to the common gaol for 3 months, unless he forthwith on conviction pay to the churchwardens of the parish where the offence is committed, or himself apprehended, to the use of the poor, 20s. for every pheasant, partridge, pigeon, [see further as to pigeons, 2 G. 5. c. 29. pl. 145-148.] heron, mallard, duck, teal, widgeon, grouse, heathcock, moor-game, or any such fowl, and for every egg of pheasant, partridge or swans, and for every hare which he shall take or willingly destroy; or unless after one month after commitment with 2 sureties he become bound by recognizance in 20l. a-piece to H. M., with condition that he should not shoot at, kill, take or destroy, any of the said games by the means aforesaid; which recognizance shall be taken by any 2 or more such justices, and returned to the next quarter sessions, as other recognizances for the peace, id. s. 2.

45. Every person which shall have any greyhound for coursing of deer or hare, or setting-dog or nets to take pheasants or partridges [except persons seized in their own right, or in right of their wives, of lands or hereditaments of the clear yearly value of 10l. of some estate of inheritance, or for term of life of the yearly value of 30l. above reprises, or possessed of goods to the value of 200l.] [all between brackets semb. REV. 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 25. s. 3. pl. 66.] or shall be the sons of any knight or baron of parliament, or of some person of higher degree, or the son and heir apparent of an esquire, and being thereof convicted as aforesaid, shall by the said justices be committed as before expressed; except such person pay to the churchwardens of the parish where the offence shall be committed, or the party apprehended, to the use of the poor, 40s., 1 J. 1. c. 27. s. 3. [See as to selling game, id. s. 1. pl. 101.]

46. No person shall be punished by any former law, for any offence for which by this law he may be punished; and all justices of assize in their circuits, and of peace in their quarter-sessions, and any 2 of the latter together out of sessions, may hear, punish, and determine, all offences against this act, and do every thing requisite for the execution thereof, 1 J. 1. c. 27. s. 5.

47. Every person keeping hawk, (which at the quarter-sessions shall be licensed,) may shoot hail-shot in hand-guns or bird-pieces, at crow, chough, pie, rook, ring-dove, jay, or smaller birds, for hawk's-meat, to kill hawk's-meat according to the licence only, so that he, at the same sessions become bound to the king by recognizance in 20l. not to shoot at any the fowl or game prohibited by this law; and not to shoot in any gun within 600 paces of any heronry, nor within 100 paces of a pigeon-house, nor in any other park, forest, or chase, whereof the party so licensed or his master shall not be owner, keeper, or governor, for which licence and recognizance the clerk of the peace is to take only 12d., id. s. 7.

48. AGAINST UNLAWFUL HUNTING AND STEALING OF DEER AND CONIES, 3 J. 1. c. 13. [Amended, 7 J. 1. c. 13. s. 34.; and both acts CON. 3 C. 1. c. 1. s. 22. and indefinitely 16 C. 1. c. 4., but 3 J. 1. c. 15. ss. 2-8. are REV. as to the penalties of hunting, &c. deer, therein, by 7 J. 1. c. 13. s. 2.; and 16 G. 3. c. 50. s. 27. and 7 J. 1. c. 17. ss. 7-4. are REV. as to the penalties therein provided, for hunting, &c. deer, as above, by 16 G. 3. c. 50. s. 27.]

49. "Recital, that [deer and, REV. in last pl.] conies in grounds, inclosed since 5 EL. c. 21., are not sufficiently protected, 3 J. 1. c. 13. s. 1."

50. If any person, shall in the night-time, [or by day, id. s. 8. REV. as in pl. 56.], unlawfully break or enter into any park or grounds, inclosed with a wall, pale, or hedge, and used for keeping [deer or, REV. as in pl. 48.] conies, and unlawfully hunt, chase, take or slay any conies therein, against the will of their owners or occupiers, and thereof shall be convicted, at suit of H. M., or the party grieved, he shall suffer imprisonment 3 months, and shall pay to the party grieved treble damages and costs, to be assessed by the justices before whom he shall be convicted, and shall find sureties for his good abearing for 7 years, or else shall remain in prison till he find sufficient sureties during that time, id. s. 2. [as to hunting, &c. conies in uninclosed warrens, see 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 25. s. 4. pl. 67.]

51. The justices of oyer and terminer, of assize [see WARRENS], in their circuits, and justices of peace and gaol-delivery in their sessions, shall have power to inquire, hear, and determine the said offences, by examination of the offenders, and to award process, as well on indictments taken before them, as by bill of complaint, information, or other action, wherein no essoin, &c. allowed, id. s. 3.

52. The party grieved may take his further remedy against such offenders for his damages, and recover the treble value, before the justices, mentioned in s. 3., or in the courts at Westminster; and on satisfaction of treble damages to the party, or on acknowledgement thereof before the justices, the party grieved may release the suretyship of the good behaviour at any time within the seven years, id. s. 4.

53. If any person, not having lands, tenements, or hereditaments of the yearly value of 40l. or not worth in goods 200l. shall use any gun, bow, or cross-bow, to kill [any deer or, REV. see pl. 48.] conies, or shall keep any engine, hayes, nets, ferrets, or cony-dogs, except such as shall have grounds inclosed, used for the keeping of conies, the increasing of which conies shall amount to the yearly value of 40s. to be letten, or keepers, or warreners in their grounds; any person having lands, &c. of the yearly value of 100l. in fee simple, tail, or for life, in his own right, or in that of his wife, may take from such malefactor, and to his own use keep such guns, &c. id. s. 5.

54. If any person shall be bound for his good abearing, according to s. 2., pl. 50. and shall within the 7 years come before the justices of the county where the offence was committed, in quarter-sessions, and there confess his offence, that he is sorry therefore, and satisfy the party grieved according to this act, the justices may within the 7 years discharge the recognizance, id. s. 6.

55. Provided, that this act do not extend to any park or inclosed ground hereafter to be made for [deer, REV. see pl. 48.] conies, without licence of H. M., id. s. 7.

56. This act shall not extend to any offence concerning the hunting, chasing, or killing of [deer, or REV. ant., pl. 48.] conies, in the day-time, but to such offences committed in the night-time only, 3 J. 1. c. 13. s. 9. [repealing id. s. 2. pl. 50. as to such offences in the day; but REV. as to deer only, 7 J. 1. c. 13. s. 2. pl. 50.]

57. TO PREVENT THE SPOIL OF CORN AND GRAIN by untimely hawking, and for better preservation of pheasants and partridges, 7 J. 1. c. 11. and recital in s. 1. [Con. 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 22. and indefinitely 16 C. 1. c. 4.]

58. Every person which shall hawk at, destroy, or kill, any pheasants or partridges, with hawks or dogs, by colour of hawking, between 1st July and the 31st Aug., the offence being proved by confession of the party, or by testimony of 2 witnesses upon oath, before 2 or more justices of peace of the county, city, or town corporate, wherein the offence shall be committed or the party apprehended, shall be by the justices committed to the common-gaol for one month, unless he forthwith pay to the church-wardens or overseers of the poor where the offence shall be committed, or the party apprehended, to the use of the poor, 40s. for every such hawking at any pheasant or partridge, and 20s. for every pheasant or partridge, which such person shall take, kill, or destroy, contrary to this statute, 7 J. 1. c. 11. s. 2. and see 39 G. 3. c. 34. s. 3. infra, pl. 142.

59. The party so punished shall not for the same offence be punished by any other law, id. s. 3.

60. No offenders shall be impeached by this act, unless accused within 6 months after the offence, id. s. 4.

61. Persons having free warren, and every lord of a manor, and every freeholder seised in his own right, or in the right of his wife, of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, to the clear yearly value of 40*l.*, of some estate of inheritance, or for term of life of the yearly value of 80*l.* above reprises, or worth in goods 400*l.* by themselves or their household servants sufficiently authorized for that purpose, may take pheasants and partridges, in the day-time only, in their own or their masters free warren, manor, and freehold, betwixt the feast of St. Michael and the birth of our Lord yearly, 7 J. 1. c. 11. s. 7. semb. Rev. 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 25. s. 3. pl. 66.

62. Every [base and mean, see preamble to this section, or semb. unqualified] person which shall take, kill or destroy, any pheasant or partridge, with setting-dogs and nets, or with any nets, snares, or engines; and if the offence is proved by confession of the party, or by testimony of one witness on oath, before two justices of the county, &c. wherein the offence shall be committed, or the party apprehended; shall be by them committed to the common gaol, there to remain 3 months, unless he pay to the church-wardens or overseers of the poor of the parish where the offence shall be committed, 20s. for every pheasant or partridge, which he shall take, kill, or destroy, contrary to this statute, and become bound by recognizance in 20*l.* to H. M., with condition that he shall not at any time thereafter, take, kill, or destroy any pheasant or partridge; which recognizance shall be taken by any one justice of the county, &c. where the offence shall be committed, and shall be returned to the next quarter-sessions, there to remain of record as other recognizances taken for the peace, id. s. 8.

63. Every constable and headborough shall (on bringing a warrant under the hands of two justices) have power to enter into and search the house of any person (other than those by this act allowed to take pheasants and partridges) being suspected to have any setting-dogs or nets, for the taking of pheasants and partridges, and wheresoever they find any such setting-dogs or nets, the same to take, kill, destroy, and cut in pieces, as things prohibited and forfeited, id. s. 9.

64. FOR BETTER PRESERVATION OF THE GAME: and for securing warrens not inclosed, and the several fishings of this realm, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 25. and recital in s. 1.

65. Lords of manors or other royalties, not under the degree of an esquire, may by writing under their hands and seals, authorize game-keepers within their royalties, who may seize all such guns, bows, greyhounds, setting-dogs, lurchers, or other dogs, to kill hares or conies, ferrets, trameles, lowbells, hays or other nets, hare-pipes, snares or other engines, for the taking and killing of conies, hares, pheasants, partridges, or other game, as within such manors shall be used by any persons by this act prohibited to keep or use the same; and the said game-keepers, or any other persons thereunto authorized by warrant under hand and seal of any justice, may in the day-time search the houses or other places of any such persons prohibited to keep or use the same, as are suspected to have in their custody any guns, bows, greyhounds, setting-dogs, ferrets, cony-dogs, &c., hays, trameles, nets, lowbells, hare-pipes, snares, or engines, and the same may seize and keep, for the use of the lord of the manor, or otherwise may cut in pieces or destroy, as things prohibited, id. s. 2.

66. Every person not having lands and tenements, or some other estate of inheritance, in his own or wife's right, of the yearly value of 100*l.* or for term of life, or having leases for 99 years, or any longer term, of the clear yearly value of 150*l.* (other than the son and heir apparent of an esquire, or other person of higher degree, and the owners and keepers of forests, parks, chases, or warrens, being stocked with deer or conies for their necessary use, in respect of the said forests, parks, chases, or warrens) shall not have guns, bows, greyhounds, setting-dogs, ferrets, cony-dogs, lurchers, hays, nets, lowbells, hare-pipes, gins, snares, or other engines aforesaid; but shall be prohibited to keep or use the same, id. s. 3.

67. If any person shall enter wrongfully into any warren or ground lawfully used for breeding or keeping conies, (though not inclosed,) and shall chase, take, or kill, any conies, against the will of the owner or occupier, not having lawful title so to do, and shall be thereof convicted in manner following, the offender shall yield to the party grieved treble damages and costs, and suffer imprisonment 3 months, and after till he shall find sureties for his good abearing, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 25. s. 4.

68. No person shall kill or take in the night any conies upon the borders of warrens or other grounds lawfully used for the breeding or keeping of conies; except such persons as shall be owners of the soil, or lawful possessors of the ground, or persons employed by them; on pain that every person so offending, and being thereof convicted in manner following, shall give the party injured such satisfaction as shall be appointed by the justice before whom he is convicted, and over and above pay down unto the overseers for the use of the poor of the parish, such sum, not exceeding 10*l.* as the justice shall think meet; in default whereof, the justice shall commit him to the house of correction, for any time not exceeding one month, id. s. 5.

69. If any person shall be found setting or using any snares, hare-pipes, or other like engines, and shall be thereof convicted, he shall be liable to the penalties in (s. 5.) id. s. 6.

70. If any person shall use any casting-net, thief-net, drag-net, tramel, shove-net, or other net; or any angle, hair, noose, troll, or spear; or shall lay any wears, pots, nets, fish-hooks, or other engines; or shall take any fish in any river, stew, pond, mote, or other water, without the consent of the owner of the water; and be thereof, or of any other the offences in this act, convict by confession of the offender, or by oath of one witness, within one month after the offence committed, before any justice; every such offender in stealing or killing fish, shall give to the party injured such satisfaction for his damages as the justice shall appoint, not exceeding treble damages; and over and above shall pay down unto the overseers for the use of the poor, such sum not exceeding 10*l.* as the justice shall think meet; and in default of payment, the same shall be levied by distress and sale of goods, by warrant of such justice; and for want of distress, the offender shall be committed to the house of correction, for such time as the justice shall think fit, not exceeding one month; unless he shall enter into bond, with one surety, to the party injured, not exceeding 10*l.* never to offend in like manner, id. s. 7.

71. Every justice before whom such offender shall be convict, may take, cut, and destroy, all such angles, spears, hairs, nooses, trolls, wears, pots, fish-hooks, nets, or other engines, wherewith such offender shall be apprehended, id. s. 8.

72. Every person aggrieved by any judgment given by any justice by virtue of this act, may appeal to the next quarter sessions; and such order as shall be made upon the said appeal shall be final, if no title to any land, royalty, or fishery, be therein concerned, id. s. 9.

73. This act shall not extend to the abridging of any royalty or prerogative royal of H. M. nor to alter the forest laws, id. s. 10.

74. FOR THE MORE EASY DISCOVERY AND CONVICTION of such as shall destroy the game of this kingdom, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 23. (and recital in s. 1.)

75. Every law now in force for preservation of the game shall be put in execution, id. s. 2.

76. Every constable, headborough, and tithingman, being authorized by warrant of one justice under his hand and seal, may enter into and search the houses of suspected persons not qualified; and in case any hare, partridge, pheasant, pigeon, fish, fowl, or other game, shall be found, the offender shall be carried before some justice of the same county or division, and if he do not give a good account how he came by such game, (or shall not in convenient time, set by the justice, produce the party of whom he bought the same, or some credible person to depose upon oath such sale thereof; but such sale, or buying, &c. is prohibited, 58 G. 3. c. 75. infra, pl. 104-107.) shall be convicted by the justice of such offence, and shall forfeit for every hare, partridge, fish, fowl, or other game, not under 5*l.*, and not exceeding 20*l.* to be ascertained by the justice; one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, to be levied by distress and sale of goods, by like warrant of the justice; and for want of distress, the offender shall be committed to the house of correction, for any time not exceeding one month, and not less than 10 days, there to be whipt and kept to hard labour. And in case any person not qualified shall keep or use any bows, greyhounds, setting-dogs, ferrets, cony-dogs, hays, lurchers, nets, tunnels, lowbells, hare-pipes, snares, or other instruments, for destruction of fish, fowl, or other game, and shall be thereof convicted as aforesaid, he shall be subject to the same penalties as are to be inflicted upon the persons who shall be found to have any hare, partridge, fish, fowl, or other game, as aforesaid. And if any person produced shall not before the justice give evidence of his innocence, as aforesaid, he shall be convicted in the same manner as the person first charged, and so from person to person, until the first offender be discovered, id. s. 3.

77. All lords of manors, or persons authorized by them as game-keepers

[under 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 25., and see now 57 G. 3. c. 90. pl. 206.] may within their royalties resist such offender in the night-time, in the same manner, and be equally indemnified, as if such fact had been committed within any ancient chase, park, or warren, 4 & 5 H. 4. M. c. 23. s. 4.

78. No person shall keep any net, angle, leap, piche, or other engine for taking of fish (other than the makers and sellers, or the owner and occupier of a river or fishery; and the owner of any river or fishery, and all persons by them appointed, may seize and keep to their own use, every net, angle, leap, piche, and other engine, which they shall find used or laid, or in the custody of any person fishing in any river or fishery, without consent of the owner, &c.; and any person (being authorized by warrant of a justice, in the day-time) may search the houses or other places of any person hereby prohibited to keep the same, as shall be suspected to have in his custody any net, &c., and the same may seize and keep to their own use, or cut in pieces or destroy, as things prohibited, id. s. 5.

79. This act shall not abridge any fisherman or his apprentices, authorized to fish in navigable rivers with lawful nets, but they may use the trade of fishing as before, id. s. 6.

80. No certiorari shall be allowed, to remove any conviction or other proceeding for any matter in this act, unless the party against whom such conviction is made, shall, before the allowance thereof, become bound to the person prosecuting in sol. with such sureties as the justice of peace before whom such offender was convicted, shall think fit, with condition to pay to the prosecutors (within one month after such conviction confirmed or procedendo granted) their costs to be ascertained upon their oaths; in default whereof, it shall be lawful to proceed to the execution of such conviction as if no certiorari had been awarded, id. s. 7.

81. Where any offender shall be punished by this act, he shall not incur the penalty of any other law for the same offence, id. s. 8.

82. If any action is brought for any thing done in pursuance of this act, the defendant may plead the general issue; and if the verdict shall pass with the defendant, or if plaintiff is nonsuit or discontinue, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 9.

83. If any inferior tradesman, apprentice, or other dissolute person, shall hunt, hawk, fish, or fowl (unless in company with the master of such apprentice, duly qualified), he shall be subject to the penalties of this act, and may be sued for the wilful trespass in coming on any person's land, and if found guilty, the plaintiff shall recover full costs, id. s. 10.

84. For preserving the red and black game of grouse, called heath-cocks, or heath-polls, no person on any mountains, heaths, forests, chaces or other wastes, shall burn, between 2d Feb. and 24th June, any grigling, heath, furze, goss, or fern, on pain that the offender shall be committed to the house of correction for any time not exceeding one month and not less than 10 days, to be whipt and kept to hard labour, id. s. 11.

85. FOR BETTER PRESERVATION OF THE GAME, 5 & 6 A. c. 14. [MADE PERP. 9 A. c. 25. s. 1., and AMD. by rest of that act.]

86. All the laws in being for preservation of game shall continue, 5 & 6 A. c. 14. s. 1. [see ss. 2, 5. infra, pl. 99, 100.] 3 G. 1. c. 11. s. 2. S. P.

87. If any person not qualified so to do, shall keep or use any greyhounds, setting dogs, hays, lurchers, tunnels, or other engines to destroy the game, and shall be convicted by the oath of one or more witnesses, by a justice or justices where such offence is committed, the person so convicted shall forfeit *5*l., one half to the informer and the other half to the poor of the parish, to be levied by distress and sale of goods, by warrant of such justice; and for want of distress the offender shall be sent to the house of correction for 3 months for the first offence, and for every other offence 4 months; and any justice of peace, and the lords and ladies of manors within the said manors may take away any such hare, or any other game, from any such higgler, &c. or other person not qualified; and likewise may take away such dogs, nets, or other engines, which shall be in the custody of any persons not qualified to keep the same to their own use: and any lord or lady of a manor, by writing under hand and seal, may empower a gamekeeper [for gamekeepers, REPER. 9 A. c. 25. s. 1.] upon the manor to kill hare, pheasant, partridge, or any other game; but if he shall under colour of the said power, kill or take the same, and afterwards dispose thereof without the consent or knowledge of the lord or lady, and shall be thereof convicted upon complaint of the latter and on oath of one witness, before any one justice, he shall be committed to the house of correction for 3 months, and kept to hard labour, 5 & 6 A. c. 14. s. 4.

88. If any person shall set fire to any ling, heath, or brakes growing upon the forest of Sherwood, or on any other land in the county of Nottingham, or shall cut any ling, &c. in order to be burnt to ashes on the ground, or shall burn the same on the ground within the said county, without licence from the owner of the soil, he shall forfeit to the owner of the soil 10*l.* and all the ashes; and every person who shall buy fern ashes of any such unlicensed person within the said county, shall forfeit for every peck 10*l.*, one moiety to the poor of the parish and the other to such as shall give information; and the keepers and officers of such parts of the said forest, and the owners of the soil where the said offences shall be committed, their servants and agents, may take away, for their own use, the scythes, rakes, &c. used for the purposes aforesaid, of every such offender; and any one justice, on complaint made for any of the said offences, may send his warrant to bring the person complained of before him; and if he be convicted before him by the oath of one witness, he shall pay the penalties hereby imposed, and in default thereof, shall be committed to the house of correction to hard labour for one month, unless the penalties be in the mean time paid, 5 & 6 A. c. 14. s. 5.

89. No lord or lady of a manor shall make above one gamekeeper within one manor, with power to kill the game thereof, and the name of such person shall from time to time be entered with the clerk of the peace, such entry to be made and viewed without fee, and a certificate thereof to be granted by the clerk of the peace, on payment of 1*s.*; and in case any other gamekeeper whose name is not so entered, and who shall not be otherwise qualified to kill game, shall kill any hare, pheasant, partridge, moor, heath game, or grouse, or if any gamekeeper or other person not qualified in his own right to kill game, shall sell or expose to sale any hare, &c. the offender shall incur such penalties as are inflicted by 5 & 6 A. c. 14. ss. 2—3. pl. 99, 100. on higglers, carriers, innkeepers, or victuallers, for buying or selling of game, to be recovered as prescribed by that act, 9 A. c. 25. s. 1.

90. If any hare, &c. be found in the shop, house, or possession of any person not qualified in his own right to kill game, or entitled thereto under some person so qualified, the same shall be adjudged an exposing thereof to sale, id. s. 2., [see pl. 102, 103.]

91. If any person shall take, kill, or destroy any hare, &c. in the night-time, he shall incur such penalties as aforesaid, id. s. 3.

92. If any person, between 1st July, [altered by 10 G. 2. c. 32. s. 10. to June] and the 1st of Sept. [October, id.] yearly, shall by hays, tunnels, or other nets, drive and take away wild duck, teal, widgeon, or other waterfowl, in any fens, lakes, broadwaters, or other places of resort for wild fowl in the moulting season, such person being thereof convicted before one justice of peace, by the oath of one witness, shall, for every waterfowl so taken, forfeit 5*s.*, one moiety to the informer and the other to the poor of the parish; the same to be levied by distress and sale of goods, by warrant of the justice before whom the offender shall be convicted; and for want of distress the offender shall be committed to the house of correction for any time not exceeding one month nor less than 14 days, there to be whipt and kept to hard labour; and the justice shall order such hays, nets, or tunnels, that were used in driving and taking the said wild-fowl, to be seized and destroyed in the presence of such justice, id. s. 4. [as AMD. by 10 G. 2. c. 32. s. 10.]

93. FOR BETTER RECOVERY OF PENALTIES INFLECTED ON PERSONS who destroy the game, 8 G. 1. c. 19.

94. Where any person shall, for any offence against any law in being for preservation of the game, be liable to pay any pecuniary penalty on conviction before any justice of peace, any other person may either proceed to recover the said penalty by information before a justice, or sue for the same by action of debt on the case or by information in any court of record, &c. wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, and the plaintiff if he recover shall have double costs, 8 G. 1. c. 19. s. 1. [AMD. 26 G. 2. c. 2. 2 G. 3. c. 19. ss. 5, 6.]

95. Provided that all suits to be brought by force of this act shall be brought before the end of the next term [or 2d term, 26 G. 2. c. 2. s. 1.] after the offence committed; and no offender shall be prosecuted for the same offence both by the way prescribed by this law and by the way prescribed by any of the former laws; and in case of any second prosecution, the person so doubly prosecuted may plead in his defence the former prosecution pending, or the conviction or judgment thereupon, 8 G. 1. c. 19. s. 2.

96. All actions to be brought by virtue of 8 G. 1. c. 19. for the recovery of any penalty for offences against any law for the preservation of the game, shall and may be brought before the end of the second term after the offence committed, 26 G. 2. c. 2. s. 1.

97. Any person soever may sue for and recover the whole of any such penalty for his own use by action of debt, or on the case, bill, plaint or information in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, and plaintiff if he recover shall have double costs, and no part of the penalty recovered in such action shall be applied for the use of the poor of the parish wherein such offence is committed, id. s. 5.

98. No such action or information shall be brought but within 6 months next after the cause of action accrues, id. s. 6.

99. FOR PRESERVATION OF THE GAME BY PROHIBITING the possession of game by certain persons, and the buying or selling thereof by any person soever; [this title is framed to show the object of this section of 1 J. 1. c. 27. and of ss. 2—3. of 5 & 6 A. c. 14., to amend the latter of which 28 G. 2. c. 12. is declaredly passed, and 58 G. 3. c. 75. follows up its principle.] 1 J. 1. c. 27. s. 4., 5 & 6 A. c. 14. ss. 2, 3. [AMD. by 28 G. 2. c. 12., and 58 G. 3. c. 75.]

99. Every higgler, chapman, carrier, inn-keeper, victualler or alehouse-keeper, who shall have in his custody any hare, pheasant, partridge, moor, heath-game or grouse, or shall buy, sell, or offer to sell any hare, &c. shall, (unless such game in the hands of such carrier be sent up by persons qualified to kill the game) be carried before some justice of peace; and on view, or on oath of one or more witnesses, shall be convicted, and shall forfeit for every hare, &c. 5*l.* one half to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the parish; to be levied by distress and sale of goods, by warrant of the justice before whom such offender shall be convicted; and for want of distress the offender shall be committed to the house of correction, for the first offence, for three months, and for every other offence for four months; provided such conviction be within three months after such offence. And if any certiorari be allowed to remove any conviction or other proceedings concerning any thing in this act, the party against whom such conviction shall be made, shall, before allowance of such certiorari, become bound to the person prosecuting in 50*l.* with such securities as the justice of peace, before whom such offender is convicted, shall think fit, with condition to pay unto the prosecutors, within 14 days after such conviction confirmed, or procedendo granted, their full costs, to be ascertained upon their oaths; and in default thereof, it shall be lawful to proceed for the execution of such conviction, as if no certiorari had been awarded, 5*§* 6 A. c. 14. s. 2.

100. Every person that shall destroy, sell or buy any hare, &c. and shall within 3 months make discovery of any higher, &c. that hath bought or sold, or offered to buy or sell, or has had in possession, any hare, &c. so as any one shall be convicted, as in s. 2. pl. 87., shall be discharged of the penalties for killing and selling the same under s. 2., and shall receive the same benefit as any other informer, id. s. 3.

101. Every person who shall sell or buy to sell again any deer, hare, partridge or pheasant (except partridge and pheasant reared in house or brought from beyond sea) shall forfeit for every deer 40*l.*, hare or partridge 10*l.*, pheasant 20*l.*, to go in moiety to the party suing by indictment or information, and to the poor of the parish where the offence committed, 1*J.* 1. c. 27. s. 4.

102. Every person whether qualified or not to kill game, who shall sell, expose or offer to sale any hare, pheasant, partridge, moor, heath game or grouse, shall incur the forfeitures and penalties of 5*§* 6 A. c. 14. (s. 2. pl. 87.) 28 G. 2. c. 12. s. 1.

103. If any such hare, &c. (as in s. 1.) shall be found in the shop, house, or possession of any poulterer, salesman, fishmonger, cook or pastry cook, the same shall be deemed an exposing to sale (within s. 1.) and the forfeitures shall be recovered and penalties inflicted by such means and within such time, and shall be applied to the uses prescribed by 5*§* 6 A. c. 14. s. 2., or by this or any other act since made for preservation of game, id. s. 2.

104. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL PREVENTION OF OFFENCES connected with the unlawful destruction and sale of game, 58 G. 3. c. 75.

105. If any person whether qualified to kill game or not, shall buy any hare, pheasant, partridge, moor, heath-game or grouse, and shall be convicted thereof within 6 calendar months, before any justice or magistrate acting for the county, riding, city, town, borough, division or place where such offence is committed, by the oath of one or more witnesses, he shall, for every hare, &c. so bought, forfeit 5*l.* one half to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed; to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under hand and seal of the convicting justice or magistrate, rendering any overplus of such distress and sale to the party, after deducting the charges of making the same, 58 G. 3. c. 75. s. 1.

106. "And for better discovery of such persons as shall buy or sell game," every person who shall buy, sell, or offer to sell, or have unlawfully in possession any hare, &c. (as in s. 1.) and shall make discovery of any person that hath within 6 calendar months bought or sold any such game as aforesaid, so as any one shall be convicted of any such offence under this or any other statute in force, such discoverer shall be discharged from all penalties to which he may be liable at the time of making such discovery, by reason of the offences in s. 1. prohibited, any thing in any former statute contained notwithstanding; and shall receive the same advantage as any other informer is entitled to under this act for such information, but nothing herein shall discharge such discoverer from any penalties for which a prosecution is actually pending, or conviction or judgment had against him at the time of making such discovery, id. s. 2.

107. Whosoever any person shall for any offence against this act, be liable to any penalty on conviction before any justice or magistrate as aforesaid, any other person may proceed to recover the same by information or conviction as aforesaid, or to sue for and recover the whole thereof for his own use, by action of debt or on the case, bill, plaint or information in any court of record wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed; with double costs to plaintiff if he recovers; but no such action, &c. or information shall be brought or exhibited but within 6 calendar months next after the offence, and in case of a second prosecution for one offence, the defendant may plead the former prosecution pending, or the conviction or judgment thereon had, id. s. 3.

108. FOR PUNISHMENT OF SUCH PERSONS AS SHALL UNLAWFULLY kill or destroy deer in parks, paddocks or other inclosed grounds, 5 G. 1. c. 28. [VIRTUALLY AMD. 16 G. 3. c. 30. and 42 G. 3. c. 107. s. 1.]

109. Every person or persons who shall enter into any park, paddock or other inclosed ground where deer are usually kept, and wilfully wound or kill any red or fallow deer there without consent of the owner of such park, &c. or of the person entrusted with the care of such park, &c. or who shall be aiding, &c. in the committing such offence, and being indicted for any such offence before any judge or justices of goal delivery for the county wherein such park, &c. shall lie, shall be convicted by verdict or confession, shall be transported for 7 years, and the court before whom such conviction is had, or any subsequent court held at the same place with like authority, may make over such offenders by order of court to the use of any person contracting for performance of such transportation, id. s. 1. [but see now 42 G. 3. c. 107. s. 1. pl. 112. and id. s. 4. pl. 134., which only inflict transportation for a second offence.]

110. Nothing herein shall repeal any former statute against deer stealing, and where any offender is punished under this act, he shall not be prosecuted or incur any penalty for the same offence by any other statute, id. s. 2.

111. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING THE STEALING of deer, and for repealing (viz. by s. 27.) so much of 13 R. 2. S. 1. c. 13. as relates to keeping engines for taking deer; and 19 H. 7. c. 11. s. 1. as to the penalty of 10*l.* for keeping deerhays, or buckstalls, or stalking at deer without licence; and so much of 5 E. 1. c. 21. ss. 3. & 4. and of 3 J. 1. c. 13. viz. s. 2. & s. 8. 7 J. 1. c. 13. viz. s. 4. relating to killing deer; and 13 C. 2. S. 1. c. 10., 3 W. & M. c. 10., 5 G. 1. c. 15., 10 G. 2. c. 32. ss. 7—9, against destroying deer, 16 G. 3. c. 30. [ENF. and AMD. 42 G. 3. c. 107. 51 G. 3. c. 120. does not extend to Scot. s. 28.]

112. Every person who shall wilfully course or hunt, or take in any slip, noose, toil or snare, or who shall kill, wound or destroy, or shoot at, or otherwise attempt to kill, wound or destroy, or shall carry away any red or fallow deer, kept or being in the inclosed part of any forest, chase, purlieu or ancient walk or any inclosed park, paddock, wood or other inclosed ground, where deer have been or shall be usually kept, without consent of the owner or other due authority, or who shall knowingly be aiding or assisting therein, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and on conviction thereof on indictment shall be transported for seven years, 42 G. 3. c. 107. s. 1. [altering the provision of 16 G. 3. c. 30. s. 1. which section is REP. 42 G. 3. c. 107. s. 6.]

113. Every person who shall wilfully commit any of the offences (mentioned in s. 1.) in the uninclosed part of any forest, chase, purlieu or ancient walk, or shall be aiding, &c. therein, shall, for every such act of wilful coursing, &c. and for every such attempt to kill, &c. and for every deer so taken, killed, wounded, destroyed, shot at or carried away, in or from such uninclosed part of such forest, &c. forfeit 50*l.* [which may be mitigated to not less than 20*l.* by the convicting magistrate, 51 G. 3. c. 120. s. 1.] and if such offender shall be a keeper or person entrusted with the care of the deer in the forest, &c. wherein the offence committed he shall pay double that penalty, viz. 100*l.*, 42 G. 3. c. 107. s. 2. as AMD. by 51 G. 3. c. 120. s. 1.

114. Any one justice, on complaint made to him on oath that there is reason to suspect any person of having in his custody, or in any dwelling-house, out-house, yard, garden, or place, any red or fallow deer, unlawfully killed, or the head, skin, or other part thereof, or any slip, noose, toyle, snare, or engine, for taking of deer, may by warrant under his hand and seal cause such person and such house, &c. to be searched; and if any red or fallow deer suspected to have been killed, or the head, skin, or part thereof, or any slip, &c. suspected to be used for taking or killing deer, shall be found in his custody, or in such house, &c. may cause the same and such person in whose possession or house the same were found, to be brought before any justice; and if such person shall not produce before such justice the party of whom he received the same, or satisfy such justice that he came lawfully by such deer, or the head, skin, or part thereof, or had a lawful occasion for such slip, &c. or did not keep the same for any unlawful purpose, he shall forfeit not exceeding 30*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, 16 G. 3. c. 30. s. 4.

115. If any red or fallow deer, suspected to have been unlawfully killed, or the head, skin, or other part of such deer, shall, on search under a warrant from any justice, be found in the possession of any person, or in any dwelling-house, &c. or shall be proved to have been in the possession, house, &c. of any person who may be suspected to have come dishonestly by the same, and such person, or the owner of such house, &c. shall not, under the provisions aforesaid, be liable to conviction; then, for the discovery of the party who actually killed or stole such deer, it shall be lawful for any justice, as the evidence given and the circumstances of the case shall require, to summon before him every person through whose hands such deer, or the head, skin, or part thereof so found, shall appear to have passed, and if the person from whom such deer, or the head, &c. shall appear to have been first received, or who having had possession thereof, shall not give proof, to the satisfaction of such justice, that he came lawfully by the same, he shall forfeit not exceeding 30*l.* nor less than 10*l.*, 16 G. 3. c. 30. s. 5.

116. If it appear, on the oath of a credible witness, that any person hath had in his possession, house, &c. any red or fallow deer, or the skin, head, or other part thereof, and shall be suspected to have come dishonestly thereby, than such person, and all other persons through whose hands the same shall appear to have passed under like suspicion, shall be proceeded against in like manner, and on conviction shall be subject to the same penalty, as if such deer, &c. had been found in the possession, house, &c. of such person, upon a search made under any warrant as aforesaid, id. s. 6.

117. In case any person shall set, lay, or use, any net, wire, slip, noose, toyle, or other engine, for taking or killing deer, within any forest, chace, purlieu, or ancient walk, or in the ring or outer fence or bank dividing the same from the adjoining lands, or in any inclosed park, paddock, wood, or ground, where deer are, have been, or shall be usually kept, such person, not being the owner of such forest, &c. or entrusted with the care of the deer within the same, convicted of any of such offences, shall forfeit for the first offence, not exceeding 10*l.*, nor less than 5*l.*; and if afterwards convicted of any of the offences last mentioned, shall, on every conviction after the first, forfeit not exceeding 20*l.* nor less than 10*l.*, id. s. 7.

118. If any person shall wilfully pull down or destroy, or cause to be pulled down or destroyed, the pales, or any part of the walls of any forest, chace, &c. (as in s. 7.) or ground, where any red or fallow deer shall be then kept, without the consent of the owner or person intrusted with the custody thereof, or being authorised, such person shall be subject unto the forfeiture, in s. 1. (see pl. 112.) and s. 5. infra., pl. 135. for the first offence of killing deer, id. s. 8. [Qv. if extending to the penalty given by 42 G. 3. c. 107. s. 2. pl. 113.; but see 42 G. 3. c. 107. s. 4. and s. 5. infra., pl. 134—135.]

119. If any person carrying any gun, or other fire-arms, or any sword, staff, or other offensive weapon, shall come into any forest, chace, park, &c. as in s. 7. pl. 117. or other ground where deer are usually kept, be the same inclosed or not, with an intent to shoot at, course, or hunt, or to take in any slip, &c. or to kill, wound, destroy, or take away any red or fallow deer, it shall be lawful for every ranger or keeper, or person intrusted with the care of such deer, to seize and take from such person, in and upon such forest, or other ground, to the use of the owner thereof, all such guns, fire-arms, slips, nooses, toyles, snarcs, or engines, and all dogs there brought for coursing deer, in the same manner as game-keepers of manors are empowered, within their manors, to seize and take dogs, nets, or engines, in the custody of persons not qualified to keep the same; and if any person shall there beat or wound any ranger or keeper, or his assistants, or shall attempt to rescue any person in custody of such ranger, keeper, or assistant, such person shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted, shall be transported for seven years, id. s. 9.

120. Upon complaint or information on oath, of one witness, before one justice, of any offence against this act, it shall be lawful for such justice (except only where he is specially directed previously to summon the party before him) to cause the person charged by such complaint, to be apprehended by warrant, and to be brought before him, and he shall proceed to hear the matter of complaint, and to determine the same; and where it is provided by this act that the party complained of shall be summoned to appear, if he shall not appear, then, upon proof of the service of such summons, either personally, or by leaving the same at his place of abode, the justice may apprehend such party by warrant, and proceed as if no previous summons had been directed by this act, id. s. 10.

121. All penalties shall be recoverable before one justice, on proof of the offence, by oath of one witness, or on confession of the offender; and one moiety shall be paid, for the use of H. M., into the hands of such person as the justice shall direct, and the other to the informer; and in case of non-payment thereof, with the charges of conviction, immediately on conviction, the said penalty and charges shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods of such offender, by warrant under the hand and seal of the justice, and for want of sufficient distress, the offender, except only where otherwise provided by this act, shall be sent by the said justice to the common gaol of the same county or place for one whole year, without bail, unless the penalty be sooner paid, id. s. 11.

122. The justice, before whom any offender shall be convicted of having incurred any pecuniary penalty, immediately after conviction, may order him into custody, in case he shall not immediately pay the penalty, during such time, not exceeding three days, as such justice shall think proper to allow for return of the warrant of distress, id. s. 12.

123. If it appear to the satisfaction of such justice, by confession of the convict or otherwise, that such party hath not goods sufficient to levy the penalty, such justice shall, without issuing any warrant of distress, proceed to commit the party convicted, as if a warrant of distress had been issued, and nulla bona returned, id. s. 13.

124. If any person, committed for any first offence against this act, shall, before commitment, procure security to be given by two sureties, to the satisfaction of the justice before whom he shall be convicted, for payment of the penalty, with the charges, within six days, inclusive of the day of conviction, then such justice may accept such security, and on non-payment thereof at the time stipulated, cause the party and his sureties to be apprehended by warrant under his hand and seal, and commit them to the common gaol for such time as the party convicted was subject to have been imprisoned, in case no security had been given, unless the penalty be sooner paid, 16 G. 3. c. 30. s. 14.

125. Any keeper or under-keeper of any forest, or other ground inclosed, where deer are, have been, or shall be usually kept, and their assistants, may seize upon the spot any person whom they discover hunting, coursing, killing, wounding, shooting at, taking, destroying, or carrying away, any red or fallow deer from any forest, chace, purlieu, or ancient walk, whether inclosed or not, or in any inclosed park, paddock, wood, or in any other inclosed ground, or attempting so to do, or in setting or laying any net, wire, slip, noose, toyle, snare, or other engine therein, for the taking, killing, or destroying of deer therein, and carry him before some neighbouring justice having jurisdiction, id. s. 15.

126. In case any offender, for his first offence against this act, shall, for want of distress, be committed to gaol, and shall, whilst in gaol, obtain the consent in writing of the prosecutor, and also of the owner, ranger, forester, keeper, or other person chiefly intrusted with the care of the deer, for his enlargement, the general or quarter sessions may cause him to be brought before them, and by order may direct the keeper of such gaol to set him at liberty, id. s. 16.

127. Any person who shall offend against this act, and shall make discovery of any other person who hath offended against the same, so as he be convicted, shall be discharged of all forfeitures by him incurred previous to such discovery, id. s. 17.

128. The conviction of offenders against this act shall be certified by the justice to the next general quarter sessions, to be filed amongst the records, and shall be fairly written on parchment or paper in the following form :

‘ Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year — A. B. was, upon the complaint of C. D. convicted before — of the justices of the peace for — in pursuance of an act passed in the — year of the reign of his majesty king George the Third, for — [as the case shall be]. Given under — hand and seal, the day and year above written.’

Which conviction shall be good, and shall not be quashed for want of form, id. s. 18.

129. No certiorari shall remove any conviction, unless the convict shall, before the allowance thereof, become bound to the prosecutor in 100*l.* with sufficient sureties approved of by the convicting justice, with condition to pay to the prosecutor, within thirty days after conviction confirmed, or a procedendo granted, the full costs and damages, to be ascertained upon their oath; and shall become also bound to the justice, with such sureties as such justice shall approve of, in 60*l.* for each offence, with condition to prosecute such writ of certiorari with effect, and to pay such justice the forfeitures, or to render the person convicted to such justice, within 30 days after such conviction confirmed, or a procedendo granted; and in default thereof, the penalty may be levied as if no certiorari had been awarded, id. s. 19.

130. After confirmation of any conviction, by any of the superior courts at Westminster, and delivering the rule to the said justice, whereby such conviction hath been confirmed, such justice may proceed against the party convicted, as if a procedendo had been granted, id. s. 20.

131. Persons aggrieved by the judgment of any justice, and not removing the matter by certiorari, may appeal from such judgment to the general or quarter sessions, next after the expiration of 20 days from the time of conviction; but the appellant shall give 6 days notice in writing to the prosecutor of bringing such appeal, and of the matter thereof, and shall enter into recognizance before some justice, with two sureties, approved by the justice, on condition to appear and try the same at the general or quarter session held next after the expiration of 10 days from the conviction, and to abide by the order of such court, and for payment of the costs by them awarded, which appeal shall be then examined, and finally heard and determined by such sessions; and in case such judgment shall be affirmed, the appellant shall pay the prosecutor his full costs, to be ascertained by order of sessions, id. s. 21.

132. In case any person aggrieved, as aforesaid, shall have paid the penalty, or shall be then imprisoned; he may appeal on entering into recognizance by himself only, without any surety, conditioned as above, the penalty remaining in the hands of such justice or such person continuing in prison until the appeal determined, id. s. 22.

133. All the provisions of 16 G. 3. c. 30. are extended to this act, and in default of payment of the penalties imposed by this act, with the charges of conviction, immediately on conviction, and for want of sufficient distress of the goods of the offenders he may be committed to gaol by the convicting justice or justices for 6 months, unless the penalty and charges be sooner paid, 42 G.3. c. 107. s. 3.

154. Persons convicted of any offence for which a pecuniary penalty is imposed either by this act or by 16 G.3. c. 30., and guilty of a second offence against this act, for which a pecuniary penalty is in this act (s. 2. pl. 113.) before imposed, shall, on conviction, be transported for seven years, id. s. 4.

155. The justice before whom any person is convicted of a first offence against this act, for which a pecuniary penalty is imposed, shall transmit such conviction under his hand and seal to the next quarter-sessions for the county, division, city, town or place wherein such first offence was committed, there to be filed by the clerk of the peace amongst the records of the court; and the same, or a true copy, certified by such clerk or other officer, or proved to be true, shall be sufficient evidence to prove the conviction, id. s. 5. and 16 G.3. c. 30. s. 3.

156. Nothing in this act extends to Scot. or Ire., id. s. 7.

157. No such conviction or judgment shall be set aside by the said court or sessions for want of form, or for want of stating or mistating any facts in case the facts alleged in the conviction be proved to the satisfaction of the court, but such appeal shall be decided on the merits only, nor shall such conviction or judgment be removed by certiorari into any court at Westminster, 16 G.3. c. 36. s. 23. [but see s. 19. ante, pl. 129.]

158. Persons sued for any thing done in pursuance of this act may plead the general issue, and if a verdict pass for defendant, or if plaintiff discontinue, or is nonsuit, or has judgment against him on demurrer, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 24.

159. Every prosecution for any offence under this act shall be commenced within 12 calendar months, and persons prosecuted under this act shall not be liable to prosecution for the same offences under any other act, or in any court of attachment, swainmote, eyre, or any forest court, id. s. 25.

160. All actions shall be laid and tried in the county where the fact was committed, and shall be commenced within 6 calendar months after, id. s. 26.

161. FOR BETTER PRESERVATION OF THE GAME in that part of G. B. called Eng., 2 G.3. c. 19. [not Ext. to Scot. id. s. 3.]

162. No person shall on any pretence soever take, kill, destroy, carry, sell, buy or have in possession or use any pheasant between 1st Feb. and 1st Oct. in any year, [or partridge between 12th Feb. and 1st Sept., pl. 201., 2 G.3. c. 19. s. 1. The provisions in s. 1. of this act respecting the limitation of the season for shooting, &c. partridges are repealed by 39 G.3. c. 34. ss. 1—2., and the new season fixed by that act (s. 3.) between 1st Sept. and 1st Feb. is extended to G. B., id. ibid.; and the same limitation in 15 G.3. c. 54. s. 1. as to the season of killing partridges in Scot., though altered by 36 G.3. c. 54. s. 1. to the 1st Feb. and 14th Sept. in every year, is restored by the repeal of the latter act by 39 G.3. c. 34. s. 1.]; black game between 1st Jan. and 20th Aug., red game between 1st Dec. and 25th July. [Rep. as to the season of killing black and red grouse, 15 G.3. c. 55. s. 13. and sec s. 1. infra, pl. 156.; QU. as to the season of killing partridges, and black and red grouse in Ire.]

163. Nothing in this act shall extend to any pheasant taken in the season allowed by s. 1. and kept in any mew or breeding place, 2 G.3. c. 19. s. 2.

164. Every person convicted of any offence against this act [or against 39 G.3. c. 34. s. 3., see that section, pl. 142.] by the oath of one or more credible witnesses, shall, for every [partridge so taken, &c. in G. B., 39 G.3. c. 34. s. 3.] pheasant [see as to the penalty for killing heath-fowl or grouse out of season, 15 G.3. c. 55. s. 2. infra, pl. 157.] so taken, killed, destroyed, carried, sold, bought or found in his possession or use, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, forfeit and pay 5*l.* to the person who shall inform and sue for the same; and any person may recover such 5*l.* with costs by action of debt or information in any court of record at Westminster, with no essoins, &c. or more than one imparlance allowed thereon, 2 G.3. c. 19. s. 4.

165. TO AMEND SO MUCH OF 1 J. 1. c. 27. viz. of (s. 2.) as relates to the preservation of house doves and pigeons, by making the manner of convicting offenders more easy and expeditious, 2 G.3. c. 29.

166. If any person shall shoot at with intent to kill, or shall by any means whatever kill or take with wilful intent to destroy any house-dove or pigeon, and shall be thereof convicted by confession or oath of one or more witnesses before one or more justices, he shall forfeit 20*s.* to the person who shall inform against, and prosecute him to conviction; and if the same be not forthwith paid on conviction, such justice may commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction to hard labour, for not exceeding 3 nor less than one calendar month, unless the money be sooner paid, id. s. 1.

167. Nothing herein shall hinder any owner of a dove-cote or pigeon-house, &c. from taking by himself or other duly authorized person, all house-doves or pigeons which shall at any time be taken in his own dove-cote, &c. id. s. 2.

168. No person convicted of any offence against this act shall be liable to conviction under any other act, and all prosecutions under it shall be commenced within 2 months after the offence committed; and no person imprisoned for default payment of any penalty under this act shall be afterwards liable to pay the same, 2 G.3. c. 29. s. 3.

169. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PRESERVATION OF FISH in fish-ponds and other waters, 5 G.3. c. 14. ss. 1—5. [See rest of this title and statute, WARREN.]

150. Every person who shall enter into any park or paddock fenced in and inclosed, or into any garden, orchard or yard adjoining or belonging to any dwelling-house in or through which any river or stream shall run or be, or wherein shall be any river, stream, pond, pool, moat, stew, or other water, and by any means soever shall steal, take, kill or destroy any fish kept therein without consent of the owner, or shall be aiding, &c. therein, or shall receive or buy any such fish knowing them to be stolen, and being thereof indicted in 6 calendar months after such offence before any judge or justices of gaol-delivery for the county wherein such park, &c. shall be, and shall be convicted of any such offence, shall be transported for 7 years, id. s. 1.

151. Every person who shall commit such offence, and surrender himself to any justice of peace for the same county, or who being apprehended, or in custody for the same, or on any other account shall voluntarily make full confession thereof, and true discovery on oath of any accomplices, so as they may be apprehended, and shall on trial of the latter give evidence sufficient to convict them, shall be pardoned and discharged of his offences so confessed as above, id. s. 2.

152. Any person who shall take, kill or destroy, or attempt to take, kill or destroy any fish in any river or stream, pond, pool or other water (not being in any park or paddock, garden, orchard or yard belonging to any dwelling-house, but in other inclosed ground, private property), and who shall be convicted thereof by the oath of one or more witnesses, shall forfeit for every offence 5*l.* to the owner of the fishery of such river, &c.; and one or more justices, on complaint on oath against any person, may issue their warrant to bring the offender before him or them; and if he be convicted before such justice, &c., or any other of such justices, by the oath of one or more witnesses, or by confession, he shall forfeit 5*l.* for the use of the person entitled thereto (as in s. 4. next pl.), or in default payment, shall be committed to the house of correction for not exceeding 6 months, unless the penalty be sooner paid, id. s. 3.

153. The owner of the fishery of such river, &c. (as in s. 3.) wherein any offence in s. 3. mentioned shall be committed, may sue for and recover the said sum of 5*l.* by action of debt or information, commenced within 6 calendar months after the offence committed, in any court of record at Westminster, in which no essoins, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 4.

154. Nothing in this act shall subject any person to the penalties who shall fish, &c. in any river, &c. (as in s. 3.) or other water in which such person hath a right to take fish, id. s. 5.

155. TO EXPLAIN AND AMEND THE SEVERAL LAWS NOW in being so far as they relate to preservation of moor or hill game, 13 G.3. c. 55. not extending to Scot., id. s. 11. [AMD. 43 G.3. c. 112., 50 G.3. c. 67.]

156. No person shall kill, destroy, carry, sell, buy or have in his possession any heath fowl, commonly called black game, between 10th Dec. and 20th Aug. [between 10th Dec. and 1st Sept. in the New Forest, 43 G.3. c. 112., and in Somerset and Devon, 50 G.3. c. 67.], nor any grouse, commonly called red game, between 10th Dec. and 12th Aug., nor any bustard between 1st Mar. and 1st Sept. in any year, 15 G.3. c. 55. s. 1.

157. If any person shall in any of the cases aforesaid offend contrary to this act, he shall, on conviction, for the first offence forfeit not exceeding 20*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*; and for the second and every subsequent offence, not exceeding 30*l.*, nor less than 20*l.*, id. s. 2.

158. Such forfeitures may be recovered by action of debt or information, in any court of record at Westminster, or great sessions in Wa., with no essoins, &c., or more than one imparlance allowed, to be brought within 6 months after the matter done, id. s. 3.

159. Any person (except the person liable to pay such forfeitures) may proceed to recover any of them by information and conviction, before any justice, who, on due proof made on oath by one witness, or by confession of the accused, may cause the forfeiture to be forthwith paid; and, in case of neglect or refusal, may levy the same by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under his hand and seal, together with all costs attending the same, returning the overplus to the owner; to be applied, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where such offence committed; and such justice may order such offender to be detained in custody till return is made to such warrant of distress, unless the party convicted shall give security, to the satisfaction of such justice, for his appearance before him on the day appointed for the return of the warrant of distress, not exceeding 5 days from the time of taking security, which security the justice shall take by recognizance or otherwise: and in case no distress can be had, such justice shall commit such offender to gaol, to hard labour for not exceeding 6 nor less than 3 months, unless the penalty and costs of prosecution be sooner paid, id. s. 4.

160. No offender against this act shall be prosecuted for the same offence both by action of law and by information before a justice; but, in case of any second prosecution, the person so doubly prosecuted may plead the former prosecution, or the conviction thereupon had, 13 G.3. c. 55. s. 5.

161. The form of the conviction shall be as follows, viz.

‘ Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — A. B. having appeared before me, or us — one or more of H. M.’s justices of the peace [as the case may be] for the county of — and due proof having been made, upon oath, by one or more credible witness or witnesses, or by confession of the party [as the case may be] is convicted of [specifying the offence, with the time and place where the same was committed, and also specifying, if known, that it is the first, second, or any subsequent offence against this act, as the case shall be]. Given under my hand and seal, [or our hands and seals,] the day and year aforesaid.’

which the justice shall cause to be wrote fairly upon parchment, and returned to the next quarter sessions, to be filed by the clerk of the peace among the records, id. s. 6.

162. Any clerk of the peace, on application made to him, may cause a copy of any conviction filed under this act, to be delivered to persons on payment of one shilling for every copy, id. s. 7.

163. No person shall be proceeded against by information before a justice, unless information be made on oath before some justice within 3 months, id. s. 9.

164. If any person is aggrieved by any thing done in pursuance of this act, by any justice, he may appeal to the general quarter sessions, and within 4 months after the cause of complaint shall have arisen, on giving 14 days’ notice in writing of his intention to bring such appeal, and of the matter thereof, to the justice, and every other person against whom such complaint shall be made, and within 4 days after such notice, entering into a recognizance before some justice, with one surety, conditioned to try such appeal at, and abide the order of, and pay such costs as shall be awarded by the sessions; and such justice and person, having received notice of such appeal, shall return all proceedings had before them touching the appeal to the sessions, on pain of forfeiting 5*l.*; and the sessions, on due proof of the notice given, and of the entering into such recognizance as aforesaid, shall hear and finally determine such appeal, in a summary way, and award costs to the parties appealing or appealed against, to be levied as in s. 4. pl. 159.; and their determination shall be final; and no proceedings in pursuance of this act shall be quashed for want of form, or removed by certiorari, except as before mentioned, into any court of record at Westminster, id. s. 10.

165. Actions or informations for any thing done in pursuance of this act shall be commenced within 6 months, and laid in the county where the matter shall arise; and the defendant may plead specially, or the general issue; and if a verdict be given for the defendant, or if plaintiff be nonsuited, or discontinues after appearance or judgment against him on demurrer, defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s. 12.

166. FOR REPEALING 10 G.3. c. 19., WHICH INFLECTED CERTAIN PENALTIES ON PERSONS KILLING GAME IN THE NIGHT BETWEEN ONE HOUR AFTER SUNSET AND ONE HOUR BEFORE SUNRISE, AND FOR MAKING OTHER PROVISIONS FOR BETTER PRESERVATION OF GAME IN Eng. IN LIEU THEREOF, 13 G.3. c. 80.

167. If any person shall kill, take, or destroy any hare, pheasant, partridge, moor game, or heath game, or use any gun, dog, snare, net, or any other engine, with intent to kill, take, or destroy any hare, &c. in the night, viz. between 7 at night and 6 in the morning from 12 Oct. to 12 Feb., and between 9 at night and 4 in the morning, from 12 Feb. to 12 Oct. such person, being convicted thereof on the oath of one witness, before one justice, shall forfeit for the first offence, not exceeding 20*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*; and for the second, not exceeding 30*l.*, nor less than 20*l.*; but in case, on any information made on oath as aforesaid, before any justice, against any such offender, it appears that he hath already been convicted of a first and second offence against this act, then he shall commit him to the common gaol, there to remain till the next general quarter session, unless such offender shall have entered into a recognizance, with 2 sureties, to appear at such session, to be tried by indictment for the offence; and also shall bind over the informer to prosecute the offender by indictment: and the said general or quarter sessions shall direct the said indictment to be tried; and if such offender is convicted, then he shall forfeit and pay into court 50*l.*; and in case he shall neglect or refuse to pay the same, he shall be committed to the common gaol for not less than 6, nor more than 12 months, unless such penalty be sooner paid; and shall, if the justices think proper, be once publicly whipped at the expiration of such commitment, in the town or place where such gaol shall be, between 12 and one in the day, id. s. 1.

168. The justice shall cause the conviction to be made out as follows:

‘ Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — A. B. is convicted before me — one of H. M.’s justices of the peace for the county of — [specifying the offence, with the time and place where the same was committed, and also specifying that it was the first or second offence against this act, as the case shall be.] Given under my hand and seal, the day and year aforesaid.’

and to be fairly wrote on parchment, and returned to the next general quarter session, to be filed by the clerk of the peace among the records of the county, 13 G.3. c. 80. s. 2.

169. Any clerk of the peace, on application, may cause a copy of any conviction, filed by him, to be forthwith delivered to such persons, on payment of 1*s.* for every copy, id. s. 3.

170. The penalties of a first, second, and third offence, on conviction at the sessions, together with costs ascertained by the justices before whom any offender shall be convicted, shall be forthwith paid by the latter, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence is committed; and in case he shall not pay the same, or give security for the payment thereof, such justice or justices shall, by warrant, cause the same to be levied by distress and sale, together with all costs of such distress, returning the overplus (if any) to the owner; and may order such offender to be detained in safe custody till return may conveniently be made to such warrant of distress, unless the party convicted give security, to their satisfaction, for his appearance before him or them on the day appointed for the return of the warrant, not exceeding 7 days from the time of taking such security, which security he or they may take by recognizance or otherwise: but if on such return no sufficient distress can be had, then he or they shall commit such offender to the common gaol for 3 months, unless the money forfeited be sooner paid, or until such offender, thinking himself aggrieved by such conviction, shall give notice to the informer that he intends to appeal to the next general quarter session, and shall enter into recognizance before some justice or justices, with two securities conditioned to try such appeal, and to abide the order of and pay the costs awarded by the sessions, which notice of appeal being not less than 14 days before the trial thereof, such person aggrieved may give, and the said justices, at such session, on proof of notice being given, and of entering into such recognizance, shall hear and finally determine such appeal in a summary way, and award costs to the parties appealing or appealed against; and the determination of such sessions shall be final, id. s. 4.

171. If any person shall, on a Sunday, or on Christmas Day, in the day time, take, kill, or destroy any hare, pheasant, partridge, heath game or moor game, or shall, on a Sunday, or on Christmas Day, use any gun, dog, net, or engine for taking, killing, or destroying any hare, &c., such person convicted in manner prescribed by this act, shall be subject to the like forfeitures as are before inflicted for other offences against this act, id. s. 6.

172. In case any person shall commit any offence against this act, whereby a penalty is incurred, and dwells in another county than that in which the offence was committed, the justice or justices before whom such information or indictment was had, may direct his or their warrant of apprehension, and of distress and sale, to any constable within such county where the offence was committed, to be by him carried to the justice residing near to the place where the offender dwells, to be signed by him on the back of the warrant, on proof on oath of the hand-writing of the justice, &c. who first granted the warrant; which indorsement shall be sufficient authority for the constable of such parish where he dwells, or where his goods or distress are to be found, or for such constable who shall bring the said warrant to be indorsed, to apprehend and convey such offender before the justice who first granted the warrant, or any other justice or justices of that county where the offence was committed, or for such constable to levy such penalty, by distress and sale, as if the person had lived in the county where the offence was committed; and also, where no sufficient distress can be found, to convey the offender before the justice who first granted the warrant of distress, or any other justice, &c. of that county where the offence was committed, to be dealt with according to law; and the justice of such other county who indorsed the warrant of distress or apprehension shall direct such constable to deliver over any money for penalties arising from such distress to the justice of the county who first granted the warrant, to be by him distributed according to this act: and in case such constable shall not pay the same, or deliver over all proceedings had upon such distress or warrant of apprehension, the justice who first granted the warrant, or the one who indorsed it, may commit such constable to the common gaol for 6 months, or until the money be paid, and the proceedings delivered over to the justice who first granted the warrant, or, in case of his absence or death, to any other justice of the same county, to be by him distributed according to this act: and no action, or indictment, or appeal, shall be brought by any person against the justice of such other county who indorsed such warrant for indorsing the same, id. s. 7.

173. No order or other proceeding shall be quashed for want of form, or be removed by certiorari into any court at Westminster, id. s. 8.

174. No person shall be proceeded against for offences against this act, unless information be made thereof upon oath before some justice within one calendar month, 13 G. 3. c. 80. s. 9.

175. To regulate game certificates in G. B. (Framed as the duties, which form the subject of the original title are expired), 25 G. 3. c. 50. [Cons. by 31 G. 5. c. 21. s. 3. AMD. id. s. 4 and 10. N.B. For all the duties now payable on the different descriptions of game-certificates, and exceptions and exemptions therefrom, see 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sched. L., and 52 G. 7. c. 93. Sch. id. tit. TAXES (ASSESSED).]

176. Every person in G. B., who shall use any dog, gun, net, or other engine, for the taking or destruction of game, (not acting as a game-keeper, under a deputation duly registered,) shall previously deliver in a paper or account in writing, containing the name and abode of such person to the clerk of the peace or his deputy, [or to the collector, or if in Scot. to the sub-collector of assessed taxes, for the place where he resides, see 48 G. 3. c. 55. Sch. L., and 52 G. 3. c. 93. Sch. L. Rules, &c.]; or to the sheriff, or steward-clerk of the county, stewardry, &c. where such person shall reside, and annually take out a certificate thereof, [paying 3*l.* 1*s.* 6*d.*, see the schedules above cited] 25 G. 3. c. 50. s. 2.

177. Every deputation of a game-keeper, granted to any person by any lord or lady of a manor in Eng. or Wa., shall be registered with the clerk of peace of the county in Eng. wherein the manor lies; and where granted by any proprietor of land in Scot. shall be registered with the sheriff or steward-clerk of the county, &c. in which the lands lie; and the game-keeper so appointed shall annually take out a certificate thereof, paying [1*l.* 5*s.*, see the schedules above cited], id. s. 2.

178. Every person delivering into the office of the clerk of the peace, or his deputy, or if in Scot., into that of the sheriff or steward-clerk, a paper in writing, containing his name and place of abode; and every game-keeper, to whom such deputation shall be granted, registering the same as aforesaid, and requiring a certificate thereon, shall be annually entitled thereunto; and such clerk of the peace, &c. shall thereupon issue a stamped certificate, to the effect following:

'I, A. B. clerk of the peace for the county of C. [or, as the case may be, deputy clerk of the peace, or, if in Scot. I, A. B. sheriff or steward clerk of the county of C.] do hereby declare, That E. F. hath this day delivered into my office a paper, writing, or account, containing his name and place of abode, [or, as the case may be, hath this day registered a deputation,] whereby he is appointed a game-keeper by —, for the manor or lands of —, which I do hereby certify, in pursuance of an act of parliament, passed in the 25th year of K. Geo. the Third, intituled, An act for repealing an act, made in the 24th year of the reign of His present Majesty G. 3. intituled, "An act for granting to H. M. certain duties on certificates issued with respect to the killing of game," and for granting other duties in lieu thereof.' id. s. 4.

179. The said clerk of the peace, &c. after signing such certificate, shall forthwith issue the same, stamped as above, to the person requiring the same; and shall, previous to its delivery, be entitled to receive from such person 1*s.* for his own trouble; and in case he shall neglect or refuse to issue to such person, so delivering in such paper, or registering such deputation, a certificate properly marked and stamped as above, he shall forfeit 20*l.*, and moreover be liable to pay to H. M., the duty payable on such certificate, id. s. 5.

180. Every certificate issued by the clerk of the peace, &c. shall bear date on the day on which it is issued, and shall remain in force from thence until 1st July, next, and no longer; and any clerk of the peace, &c., who shall issue any certificate to any person, otherwise than above directed, shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 6.

181. Every person who shall use any greyhound, hound, pointer, setting-dog, spaniel, or other dog, or any gun, net, or other engine, for the taking or destruction of any hare, pheasant, partridge, heath-fowl, called black-game, or grouse, called red-game, or any other game whatsoever, without having obtained such certificate, he shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 8.

182. Every person to whom any deputation of a game-keeper shall be granted by any lord or lady of a manor in Eng. or Wa., or by any proprietor of land in Scot., and who, for 20 days next after such deputation shall first be granted, shall neglect or refuse to register the same, and take out a certificate thereon, as in s. 2., and not having obtained some certificate, in pursuance of this act, shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 9.

183. Nothing herein shall make it necessary for any of the royal family to take out any certificate, or restrain any person appointed by them, from using any dog, gun, net, or other engine, for taking of game within the forests, chases, parks, warrens, or other royalties to them belonging, id. s. 10.

184. The clerks of the peace, &c. shall, in every year, on or before 1st Aug., whenever they shall be thereunto required by the commissioners of [stamps, semb. now of] assessed taxes, make out and transmit to the head office in London, correct lists, in alphabetical order, of the certificates issued by them, distinguishing the duties paid on each certificate; and on the delivery thereof, the receiver-general of the [stamp duties, quære, assessed taxes] shall pay to every clerk of the peace, &c. for making out such list 4*d.* for the name of every person to whom such certificate shall have been issued, and which shall be inserted in such list; and in case any clerk of the peace, &c. shall neglect or refuse to make out such lists, or shall not insert in such list a full account as before directed, of all persons the same ought to contain, then such clerk of the peace, &c. shall forfeit 20*l.*, 25 G. 3. c. 80. s. 11.

185. All the said lists shall be deposited and kept at the head office in London, and may, within office hours, be inspected by any person, on payment of 1*s.*, id. s. 12.

186. The commissioners of [stamp duties, quære, as in pl. 184.], shall, once or oftener, in every year, as soon as may be after the lists shall have been transmitted to them, cause the same to be inserted in the newspapers, circulating in each county, or in such public newspaper as to them shall seem most proper, id. s. 13.

187. If any lord or lady of a manor in Eng. or Wa., or proprietor of land in Scot., shall make any new deputation of a game-keeper for any manor or lands in the room of the person already appointed, and to whom such certificate as aforesaid hath been issued, and shall register such new deputation with the clerk of the peace, &c. and shall obtain a new certificate thereon, the first certificate granted shall be void; and the person acting under the same, after notice to him given of such new certificate, shall be liable to the penalties prescribed by this act, as if no certificate had been granted, id. s. 14.

188. If any person shall be found using any dog, gun, net, or other engine for the taking or destruction of game, by any other person who hath obtained a certificate in manner before directed, such other person producing such certificate, may demand from the person using such dog, &c. to produce a certificate issued to him; who shall, on such demand, produce such certificate to the person demanding the same, and permit it to be inspected; and every such person who shall refuse to produce a certificate issued to him, or not having produced such certificate, shall refuse, on demand thereof, to give in his christian and surname, and place of residence, or shall give in any false name or place of residence, shall forfeit 50*l.* id. s. 15.

189. The certificate hereby directed to be issued by the clerks of the peace, &c. shall not authorize any person to use any greyhound, hound, pointer, setting-dog, spaniel, or other dog, or any gun, net, or other engine for the taking or destruction of game, at any time, or in any manner prohibited by law; nor shall give to any person any right to use any greyhound, &c. or any gun, &c. unless such person shall be qualified so to do, under the laws now in being, but shall be liable to the same penalties in the said laws contained, id. s. 16.

190. No certificate, obtained under any deputation of a game-keeper, shall be pleaded or given in evidence, where the person having such certificate shall have used any greyhound, &c. or any gun, &c. out of or beyond the precincts of the manor, or lands for which such deputation was given, id. s. 17.

191. As there are several cities and town that are counties of themselves, and have no clerks of the peace, every person residing in such cities, &c. may deliver in the paper before directed, to the office of the clerk of the peace, &c. or his deputy, of any county adjoining to such city, who is to issue his certificate to the person applying for the same, as before directed, in the same manner as if the person resided in the county; and upon neglect or refusal to issue such certificate, such clerk of the peace shall be liable to the same penalties as if he had refused or neglected to issue such certificate to any person applying for the same, resident in the county of such clerk of the peace, id. s. 18.

192. Persons counterfeiting stamps, &c. shall be adjudged felons without clergy, id. s. 19. and 31 G. 3. c. 21. s. 5.

193. Provisions of former acts, relating to stamp duties, shall be in force in executing this act, id. s. 20.

194. All pecuniary penalties for offences against this act may be recovered in any courts at Westminster, for offences committed in Eng., Wa., or Ber., and in the court of sessions, of judiciary, or of exchequer in Scot., for offences committed in Scot., by action of debt, &c. or information, with but one imparlance, wherein the plaintiff, if he recover, shall recover the same for his own use, with costs, id. s. 21.

195. One justice, on information or complaint to him made, shall summon the accused, and the witnesses on either side, to appear before him; and on the appearance of the accused, or in default of his appearance according to such summons, shall proceed to hear and determine the matter in a summary way; and on due proof made thereof, either by confession or oath of one witness, may give judgement for the penalty; and award his warrant under his hand and seal, for levying any pecuniary penalties so adjudged on the goods of the offender, and to cause sale to be made thereof, in case they shall not be redeemed within 6 days, rendering to the party the overplus, if any; and where sufficient goods cannot be found to answer the penalty, to commit such offender to the common gaol, there to remain for 6 [altered by 26 G. 3. c. 82. s. 7. 3] months, unless such penalty be sooner paid; and if he shall find himself aggrieved by the judgment of such justice, he may, on giving security to the value of such penalty, together with the costs awarded, in case such judgment shall be affirmed, appeal to the next general quarter sessions, who shall summon and examine witnesses upon oath, and finally determine the same; and in case the judgment of such justices shall be affirmed, such justices may award the person to pay costs occasioned by such appeal, 25 G.3. c. 50. s. 22.

196. Every person summoned as a witness before such justice, either on the part of the prosecutor or of the accused, who shall neglect or refuse to appear, at the time appointed, without reasonable excuse for such neglect or refusal, to be allowed of by such justice, shall forfeit 10*l.* to be levied as before directed, id. s. 23.

197. The justice before whom any offender shall be convicted, shall cause the conviction to be made out thus: [The following form is substituted for that in 25 G.3. c. 50. s. 24. by 31 G.3. c. 21. s. 4.]

Be it remembered, that on [time of conviction], at [place of conviction], A. B. [offender], of [his addition], was duly convicted before me, or us, [name and style of convicting justice or justices]; for that the said A. B. [offender], on, [time of offence], at [place of committing it], did [here state the offence against the act according to the fact], contrary to the form of the statute, and I [or we] do declare and adjudge that the said A. B. [offender] has forfeited for his said offence the sum of — l. to be distributed as the law directs. Given under my hand and seal, [or our hands and seals,] the day and year first above mentioned, 31 G.3. c. 21. s. 4.

198. Such justice or justices may mitigate any such penalties as they shall think fit, the reasonable costs of the officers and informers, as well in making as prosecuting the discovery, being always allowed over and above such mitigated penalty, and so as the mitigation do not reduce the penalties to less than a moiety of those incurred above such costs, and no such conviction shall be removeable by certiorari into any court soever, 25 G.3. c. 50. s. 25. [As to application of penalties not herein directed to be applied, see 26 G.3. c. 82. s. 1. STAMPS; sed qu. see pl. 184.]

199. Every person prosecuted for any thing done under either of these acts may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if on the trial a verdict pass for defendant, or if plaintiff is nonsuit, defendant shall have treble costs, 25 G.3. c. 50. s. 28. 31 G.3. c. 21. s. 10.

200. FOR LIMITING THE TIME FOR KILLING PARTRIDGES IN G. B., [this title is framed to show the object of the act, without noticing in this place the provisions by which it repeals other acts on this subject.] 39 G.3. c. 34.

201. No person shall, on any pretence soever, take, kill, destroy, carry, sell, buy, or have in possession, or use any partridge, within G. B., between 1st Feb. and 1st Sept. in any year, under the penalties by 2 G.3. c. 19. s. 4. pl. 144. imposed, 39 G.3. c. 34. s. 3. [altering the time of killing, &c. partridges limited by 2 G.3. c. 19. s. 1. pl. 142. which is expressly R. & P. by 39 G.3. c. 34. s. 1. s. 1. [NOTE, no exception is here provided in favour of partridges taken in the season, and kept in any mew or breeding place, as in the case of pheasants, by 2 G.3. c. 19. s. 2. pl. 143. but scabbe partridges or pheasants reared in the house, or imported from beyond sea, may be bought and sold, 1 J.1. c. 27. s. 4. pl. 101.]

202. IF ANY OFFICER OR SOLDIER shall, without leave of the lord of the manor, under his hand and seal first had and obtained, take, kill, or destroy, any hare, coney, pheasant, partridge, pigeon, or any other sort of fowls, poultry, or fish, or H. M.'s game, within the U. K., and on complaint thereof shall, on oath of one witness, be convicted before any justice, every officer so offending shall forfeit 5*l.* for use of the poor of the place where such offence is committed, and every commanding officer shall forfeit 20*l.* to be applied in like manner, for every such offence by any soldier under his command; and if, on such conviction and demand also made by constable or overseer, such officer shall not within 2 days pay the respective penalties, he shall forfeit his commission, 47 G.3. c. 32. s. 69., and see SOLDIERS.

203. TO REPEAL SO MUCH OF 2 J.1. c. 27. s. 2. AS RELATES TO PENALTIES for shooting at hares, and also to repeal 3 G.1. c. 11. relating to gamekeepers, 48 G.3. c. 93. and recital in s. 1.

204. The lord or lady of a manor may depute any person whatever, whether acting as gamekeeper, or retained as male servant to any other person or not, or whether qualified or not, to be a gamekeeper to any such manor, with authority to him as game-keeper to kill game within the same, to his own use, or for the use of any other person, to be specified in such deputation whether qualified or not, and no person so appointed game-keeper, and empowered to kill game as above, and not killing game for the use of the lord of the manor, shall be deemed, or entered, or paid for, as the game-keeper, or male servant of the lord or lady giving such deputation, id. s. 2.

205. Persons so appointed game-keepers shall have the same rights and powers, as if legally appointed to act as game-keeper to kill game for the use of the lord, id. s. 3.

206. FOR PREVENTION OF PERSONS GOING ARMED BY NIGHT for destruction of game, and for repealing by s. 5. 39 & 40 G.3. c. 50., and by s. 4. 56 G.3. c. 130. 57 G.3. c. 90.

207. If any person or persons, having entered into any forest, chase, park, wood, plantation, close, or other open or enclosed ground, with intent illegally to destroy, take, or kill game or rabbits, or with intent to aid, abet, and assist any person or persons illegally to destroy, take, or kill game or rabbits, shall be found at night, that is to say, between 6 in the evening and 7 in the morning, from 1st Oct. to 1st Feb., between 7 in the evening and 5 in the morning, from 1st Feb. to 1st April, and between 9 in the evening and 4 in the morning for the remainder of the year, armed with any gun, cross-bow, fire-arms, bludgeon, or other offensive weapon, every such offender, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced to transportation for 7 years, or to such other punishment as may by law be inflicted on persons guilty of misdemeanor, and as the court shall adjudge; and if any such offender shall return before the expiration of the term for which he is transported, he, being thereof duly convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall be sentenced to transportation for life, 57 G.3. c. 90. s. 1.

208. The rangers and owners, and occupiers of any such forest, &c. (as in s. 1.) their keepers and servants, and any other persons, may seize or assist in seizing such offenders, by virtue of this act, and by authority of the same may convey such offenders into the custody of a peace officer, who is to convey them before some one justice for the county or place where the offence was committed, or, in case such offenders shall not be so apprehended, then any such justice, on information on oath may issue his warrant for apprehension of such offenders; and if on apprehension it shall appear to him on oath, that the persons so charged have been guilty of the crime of being found armed at night as aforesaid, he may admit such persons to bail, and in default of bail may commit them to the county gaol until the next general quarter sessions, or general commission of gaol delivery, there to be tried; and, if in Scot., until such persons shall be dealt with as any persons charged with a transportable offence may be dealt with according to the law of Scot., id. s. 2.

209. If any person shall unlawfully enter into or be found in any forest, &c. (as in s. 1.) at night, according to the provisions of this act as to the night, [see pl. 207.] having any net, engine, or other instrument for the purpose and with the intent to destroy, take, or kill or shall wilfully destroy, take, or kill game, the rangers, and the owners and occupiers, their keepers and servants, and any other persons may seize or assist in seizing such offenders by virtue of this act, and convey such offenders into the custody of a peace officer, who is to convey them before some such justice, to be dealt with according to law, id. s. 3.

210. FOR FURTHER REGULATING THE APPOINTMENT OF GAME-KEEPERS IN WA., 59 G.3. c. 102.

211. Every person seised in fee, or as of freehold, or otherwise beneficially entitled in his own right, to any lands in the principality, of the clear annual rent of 500*l.*, and not being within the bounds of any manor, lordship, or royalty, or being within such bounds, but enfranchised therefrom, may appoint by writing under his hand, a gamekeeper, to preserve, or to course, hunt, shoot at, or kill game for his use over such his lands, and over the lands of every other person, not being within the bounds of any manor, lordship, or royalty, who shall, by licence in writing under his hand, authorize him to appoint a gamekeeper or other servant, to preserve or kill game thereon, id. s. 1.

212. No gamekeeper having such appointment as aforesaid shall, during its continuance, be made liable to any penalties imposed by former statutes, for having game in custody, or for coursing, hunting, shooting at, or killing game, on any lands mentioned in his appointment, and whereon the person making the same, has any licence or authority to grant it, id. s. 2.

213. But nothing herein shall empower any person to make such appointment or licence to course, hunt, shoot at, or kill game upon his lands, situate within any such manor, &c. (unless enfranchised therefrom,) without the consent in writing of the proprietors of such manor, &c. [having right to pursue and kill game over such lands. QU. the meaning of] and where, in existing leases, the lessor hath not reserved the right of sporting, then no such appointments or licences shall be valid, without consent of the occupier, id. ibid.

214. Recital "that many manors, &c. in WA. are extremely extensive, and that the restriction by 9 A. c. 28. s. 1. of only one gamekeeper to kill game within any manor, has tended greatly to the destruction of the game within the principality," the lords and ladies of such manors, &c. and the stewards of the crown for such manors, &c. as belong to H. M. within the principality, are respectively authorized to appoint gamekeepers for such divisions of their respective manors, as they think fit, each of whom shall have the like powers within such division, as any gamekeeper appointed for the whole of a manor hath by any act in force; but only one gamekeeper shall be appointed for each division, and all appointments under this act shall be registered with the clerk of the peace, in like manner, and shall be subject to all other enactments now in force as to the appointment of gamekeepers of manors, id. s. 3.

215. Every person making any appointment or licence under this act, may revoke or render void such consent, [see consent by the occupier, s. 2.] appointment and licence, and grant other consent, &c. as often as he thinks proper, 59 G. 3. c. 102. s. 4.

216. This act shall not protect any persons killing game without a game certificate; or affect the rights of H. M., or his successors, or of any other person to any manor, &c. in the principality, id. s. 5.

GAMES AND GAMING.

(STATUTES repealed.)

1. AGAINST UNLAWFUL GAMES; (viz. prohibiting servants in husbandry, labourers, and servants of artificers, or victuallers, to use tennis, foot-ball, coits, dice, casting the stone, kails (viz. nine-pins), and other such importune game,) 12 H. 2. c. 6. [EXT. to hand ball by some persons, 11 H. 4. c. 4., hand in and hand out, and quekborde, 17 E. 4. c. 3. ALL REP. 35 H. 8. c. 9. s. 17. as to the penalties thereof, and entirely by 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11.]

2. No such persons shall play at any unlawful game, except playing at tables, but only for meat and drink, except at Christmas, 11 H. 7. c. 2. all playing at tables by the same persons prohibited, 19 H. 7. c. 12. [VIRTUALLY REP. 33 H. 8. c. 9. s. 17., and expressly by 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11. & s. 16. and see the later provisions of 30 G. 2. c. 24. s. 14., &c. infra.]

3. LICENCES OR PLACARDS TO KEEP GAMING-HOUSES, BOWLING alleys, &c. 33 H. 8. c. 9. s. 15. [REP. 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 9., which renders them void.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. ALL SUITS TO BE PURSUED UPON ANY STATUTE FOR USING ANY unlawful game, or for not using of any lawful game, shall be sued and prosecuted, or otherwise determined at the general quarter-sessions or assizes, or leet of the county where the offence is committed, but in no wise out of such county, 31 E. c. 5. s. 7.

2. FOR DEBARRING UNLAWFUL GAMES, 33 H. 8. c. 9. ss. 11—24. [AMD. 2 G. 2. c. 28. s. 9.]

3. All former statutes for restraint of unlawful games are repealed, as to the penalties thereof, 33 H. 8. c. 9. s. 17.

4. No person shall for gain or living, keep any common house, alley or place, of bowling, coiting, clothe, cayles, half-bowl, tennis, dicing, table or carding, or any other game prohibited by statute heretofore made, or any unlawful new game on pain of 40s. per day forfeiture, [and of 6s. 8d. for every person resorting thereto, s. 12.]; id. ss. 11—12.

5. So where any justice shall find on his own view, or where it is proved before him, on the oaths of 2 or more witnesses, that any person hath used any unlawful game, contrary to 33 H. 8. c. 9., he may commit the offender to prison, unless he enter into recognizance with or without sureties at discretion of the justice, not to play at such unlawful games, 2 G. 2. c. 28. s. 9.

6. All justices, mayors, sheriffs and other head officers, in every city, town or borough, may enter all houses, places, and alleys, where such games are suspected to be used, and as well the keepers thereof, as the persons there playing may imprison, till the former find sureties to H. M.'s use, no longer to use such house, game or place, and till the latter are bound by themselves or their sureties at discretion of such justices, &c. not to play the same, or haunt such places, &c., 33 H. 8. c. 9. s. 14.

7. The mayors, &c. (as in s. 14., adding the word "constables"), shall make search weekly, or at farthest, once every month, where any such houses, plays or places are suspected to be kept; and if they do not make search once every month, if the case so requires, according to this act, and do not execute the same in all things, they shall forfeit 40s. for every month, id. s. 15.

8. No artificer, husbandman, apprentice, labourer, mariner, fisherman, waterman, nor any serving man, shall play at tables, tennis, dice, cards, bowls, clothe, coiting, logging or other unlawful game, out of Christmas, on pain of 20s.; and in Christmas may play thereat in their masters' houses or presence; and no person shall play at bowls in open places out of his garden or orchard, under pain of 6s. 8d.; and all justices, mayors, and other head officers, knowing any person using unlawful games, may commit such offender to ward till he be bound to H. M.'s use, not to use such unlawful games, id. s. 16.

9. Where such forfeiture is within any franchise or leet, one moiety shall go to the lord, and the other to any of H. M.'s subjects, that will sue for the same in any of H. M.'s courts by action, &c. or information, without essoin, &c. allowed; and where such forfeiture is out of any franchise or leet, one moiety shall be to H. M., and the other to any of H. M.'s subjects that will sue as above, id. s. 18.

10. All mayors and other head officers, shall, four times in the year, make proclamation of this act in every market within their jurisdictions, id. s. 19.

11. The justices of gaol delivery, assizes, and of peace, shall cause the same to be proclaimed in their circuits and sessions, id. s. 20.

12. But every master may licence his servants to play at cards, dice or tables with him, openly in his house or in his presence, or with any other gentleman repairing to their master as above, 33 H. 8. c. 9. s. 22.

13. Every nobleman and other having lands, or other yearly profit for term of life in his own right, or in his wife's right, to the yearly value of 100l., may licence his servants or family to play within the precinct of his house, garden or orchard, at cards, dice, tables, bowls or tennis, as well amongst themselves as others repairing to the same, id. s. 23.

14. AGAINST DECEITFUL, DISORDERLY, AND EXCESSIVE GAMING, 16 C. 2. c. 7. and recital in s. 1.

15. Every person, of any degree or quality soever, who, at any time after 29th Sept., 1664, shall, by any fraud, unlawful device, or ill practice soever, in playing at or with cards, dice, tables, tennis, bowls, skittles, shovel-board, or in or by cock-fights, horse or foot-races, dog matches, or other pastimes or games soever, or in or by bearing a share or part in the stakes, wagers or adventures, or in or by betting on the sides or hands of such as do or shall play, act, ride or run as above, win, obtain or acquire to himself or other, any sum of money, or other valuable thing, shall ipso facto forfeit treble the sum or value of money, or other thing so won or acquired, one moiety to H. M., and the other to the loser, suing for the same within 6 calendar months after such play, and in default of such prosecution, the same other moiety to such person as will sue for the same, within one year next after the 6 months expired in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster; and such plaintiffs shall recover treble costs, id. s. 2.

16. If any person shall play at any games soever, other than with ready money, or shall bet on the sides of such as do, or shall play and lose any money or other thing exceeding 100l. at one time, and shall not pay down the same at the time, the party who loseth above 100l., shall not be compellable to pay same, but all judgments, recognizances, mortgages, bonds and other securities, given for the same shall be void; and the person winning shall forfeit treble the value; one moiety to H. M., and the other to such as shall sue for the same within one year after such offence committed, in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, without essoin, &c. allowed; and such plaintiffs shall have treble costs, id. s. 3, [and see 18 G. 2. c. 31. s. 8., infra, pl. 34.]

17. FOR BETTER PREVENTING EXCESSIVE AND DECEITFUL GAMING, 9 A. c. 14. [CONF. 18 G. 2. c. 34. s. 10., AMD. virtually, 18 G. 2. c. 34. s. 3.]

18. All notes, bills, bonds, judgments, mortgages or other securities, given by any person where the whole or any part of their consideration is for money, or other valuable thing, won by gaming, or playing at cards, dice, tables, tennis, bowls or other game, or by betting on the sides or hands of such as game, or for repaying any money knowingly lent for such gaming, or lent at the time and place of such play to any person that shall play or bet, shall be void; and where such securities or conveyances shall be of lands, tenements or hereditaments, or shall incumber or affect the same, such securities, &c. shall enure for the use of such person as should be entitled to such lands, &c. in case the grantor, or the person incumbering the same, had been dead; and all conveyances made for preventing of such lands from coming to such person shall be void, 9 A. c. 14. s. 1.

19. Any person who shall at any sitting, by playing at cards, dice, tables or other game, or by betting as above lose in the whole the value of 10l., and shall pay or deliver the same, or any part thereof, may within three months, sue for the money or goods lost, or any part thereof, from the winner, with costs, by action of debt founded on this act, in any of H. M.'s courts of record, in which no essoin, privilege of parliament, or more than one imparlance shall be allowed; in which actions, it shall be sufficient for the plaintiff to allege, that the defendants are indebted to the plaintiffs, or received to the plaintiffs' use the monies so lost and paid, or converted the goods won of the plaintiffs to the defendants' use, whereby the plaintiffs' action accrued to him according to the form of this statute, without setting forth the special matter; and in case the loser shall not without collusion sue, within the above time, any person by such action may sue for the same and treble the value thereof, with costs; the one moiety to the use of the defendant, and the other to the poor of the parish, id. s. 2.

20. Every person, who by this act is liable to be sued for the same, shall be obliged to answer on oath such bill as shall be preferred for discovering the money or any thing won at play, id. s. 3.

21. Any court of equity, where such bill shall be filed, may enforce its decree in that, as in other causes, 18 G. 2. c. 34. s. 3.

22. Upon the discovery and repayment of the money, or other thing so discovered, the discoverer shall be indemnified from any further penalty, 9 A. c. 14. s. 4.

23. Every person who shall, by any fraud in playing at cards, dice or any games, or by bearing a part in the stakes, or by betting on the sides or hands of such as game, win any money or other valuable thing; or who shall at any one sitting win above 10l., shall on being convicted on an indictment or information, forfeit 5 times the value of the money or other thing won, and shall be deemed infamous, and suffer such corporal punishment as in cases of wilful perjury; such penalty to be recovered by such person as shall sue for the same, 9 A. c. 14. s. 5.

24. Any two justices of peace may cause to be brought before them every person whom they shall have just cause to suspect to have no visible estate or calling to maintain themselves by, but do for the most part support themselves by gaming; and if they shall not make it appear that the principal part of their expenses is not maintained by gaming, such justices shall require of them securities for their good behaviour for 12 months, and in default thereof, commit them to the common gaol till they find such securities, id. s. 6.

25. If such person shall, during the time for which he shall be so bound to good behaviour, at any one time play or bet for any thing exceeding in all the value of 20s., such playing shall be a breach of his behaviour, and forfeiture of his recognizance, id. s. 7.

26. In case any person shall assault and beat, or shall challenge or provoke to fight, any other person, upon account of money won by gaming or betting, he shall, being convicted upon indictment or information, forfeit to H. M., all his goods, and suffer imprisonment in the common gaol of the county 2 years, id. s. 8.

27. Nothing in this act shall hinder any person from gaming within the palaces of St. James or Whitehall, during such time as the sovereign shall be resident at either of the said palaces, or in any other royal palace where H. M. is actually resident, [9 A. c. 14. s. 9., 12 G. 2. c. 28. s. 10., 18 G. 3. c. 34. s. 6. s. 7.] so as such playing be not in any house the freehold whereof shall be out of the crown, or in lease, and so as such playing be for ready money only, 9 A. c. 14. s. 9.

28. TO MAKE MORE EFFECTUAL THE LAWS IN BEING TO prevent excessive and deceitful gaming, 18 G. 2. c. 34. ss. 1—10. [See s. 11. HORSE RACING.]

29. No person shall keep any house or place for playing, or permit any person within the same, to play at the game of roulette or roly poly, or at any other prohibited game, under the penalties of 12 G. 2. c. 28. (LOTTERIES), 18 G. 2. c. 34. s. 1.

30. If any person play at the said game of roulette, or at any game with cards or dice prohibited by law, he shall incur the penalties, and be liable to the prosecution by 12 G. 2. c. 28. directed, id. s. 2.

31. Persons having jurisdiction to hear informations on the statutes against gaming on any information exhibited before them for any offence committed against this act, or against 12 G. 2. c. 28. (LOTTERIES) or 15 G. 2. c. 19. (HORSE RACING) may summon any person other than the accused, to appear and give evidence at a certain day, time or place, and in case of his neglect to appear, or refusal to give evidence, he shall forfeit 50*l.* to be levied by distress and sale of goods by warrant under hands and seals of the persons issuing such summons, and if he have not sufficient goods whereon to levy the said 50*l.* he shall be committed to the common gaol for the county, city or place where such offence is committed for 6 months, id. s. 4.

32. No person other than the plaintiff or defendant in the cause shall be incapacitated from being a witness touching any offence against the laws against excessive gaming by reason of having played, betted or staked at any prohibited game, id. s. 5.

33. No privilege of parliament shall be allowed to any persons soever against whom any proceeding shall be had for keeping of any common gaming-house or any place for playing at any prohibited game, id. s. 7.

34. Every person who shall win or lose at play or by betting at any one time the sum or value of 10*l.*, or of 20*l.* within 24 hours, may be indicted for such offence in 6 months after the same is committed, either before the justices, of K. B. assize, gaol delivery, or grand sessions, and being lawfully convicted, shall be fined five times the value of the sum so won or lost, which fine, after reasonable charges allowed by the court to the prosecutors and evidence out of the same, shall go to the poor of the parish or place where the offence was committed, id. s. 8.

35. Every such offender who shall discover any other like offender so that he be convicted, shall be indemnified from all penalties by reason of such offence (if he has not been before convicted thereof,) and shall be a witness to prove same, id. s. 9.

36. This act shall not repeal the 9 A. c. 14., id. s. 10.

37. FOR PREVENTING GAMING IN PUBLIC-HOUSES by journeymen, labourers, servants and apprentices, 30 G. 2. c. 24. ss. 14—23. [See ss. 1, 2. tit. CHEAT, pl. 6, 7. and ss. 3—13. in Sections, REP. and EXP.]

38. If any person licensed to sell any kind of liquors, or who shall sell, or suffer the same to be sold, in his or her house, out-houses, grounds, or apartments thereunto belonging, shall knowingly suffer any gaming with cards, dice, draughts, shuffle-boards, Mississippi or billiard tables, skittles, nine-pins, or with any other implement of gaming, in his houses, &c. by any journeymen, labourers, servants or apprentices, and is convicted on confession, or on the oath of one witness, before any justice or justices of the peace for the county, division, city, or place wherein the offence is committed, within 6 days after such offence, he shall for every such offence forfeit 40*l.* and for every like offence of which he is afterwards convicted, 10*l.*; all which sums so forfeited shall be levied by distress and sale of his goods, by warrant from the justice before whom convicted; which warrant the latter shall grant; and three-fourths of all sums so forfeited shall be paid to the churchwardens of the parish in which the offence is committed, for the use of the poor; and the other fourth to the person on whose information the party offending is convicted, 30 G. 2. c. 24. s. 14.

39. If any journeyman, apprentice or servant game in any house, out-house, ground or apartments thereto belonging, wherein any liquors are sold, and complaint is made on oath before any justice or justices of peace for the county or place where the offence is committed, such justice, &c. shall issue his warrant to some constable, tythingman, headborough, or other peace officer of the parish or place wherein the offence is charged, or where the offender resides, to apprehend and carry such offender before some justice acting for the county, &c. or place where the offence is committed, or the offender resides; and if he is convicted by oath of one witness or on confession, he shall forfeit any sum not exceeding 20*l.* nor less than 5*l.* as the justice shall think fit, every time he shall be convicted; and 1-4th of the money so forfeited shall be paid to the person on whose information the party is convicted, and the other 3-4ths applied for the use of the poor of the parish wherein the offence is committed, and shall be paid to the overseers of the poor of such parish; and if the party convicted shall not forthwith pay the sum so forfeited, such justice, &c. shall by warrant commit such offender to the house of correction, or other prison of the county, &c. or place in which he is apprehended, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month, or till he pay the penalty, id. s. 15.

40. Any justice or justices of any county or place, &c. on complaint on oath of any offence against this act, within the same county, &c. or place, shall issue his warrant for bringing before him, or some other justice, the person charged with such offence; and the justice before whom such person shall be brought shall hear such complaint, and proceed to judgment and conviction; and if it appear by oath of any person to his satisfaction, that any person within his jurisdiction can give evidence on behalf of the prosecutor or accused, and who will not voluntarily appear to give evidence, such justice shall issue his summons to convene such person before him to be examined on oath concerning the premises; and if he neglect to appear, and no just excuse be offered, then (after proof by oath of such summons duly served) he shall issue his warrant to bring such witness before him, and on his appearance shall examine him on oath; and if he refuse to be examined on oath, without offering any just cause for such refusal, such justice may, by warrant commit every person so refusing to the public prison of the county, &c. or place, for any time not exceeding 3 months; and if he deem the evidence of such witness material, may bind over such witness unless a feme covert, [see 3 M. & S. 1.] or one under the age of 21 years, by recognizance in a reasonable penalty, to appear and give evidence at the next general or quarter sessions of the peace, or sessions of oyer and terminer, id. s. 16.

41. No person charged on oath with any offences punishable by this act, and which require bail, shall be admitted to bail before 24 hours notice be proved by oath to have been given in writing to the prosecutor, of the names and places of abode of the bail; unless the bail offered be known to the justice, &c. and he approve of them; and every such offender bound over to the general quarter sessions of the peace or gaol delivery, to answer such offences, shall be tried at the general quarter sessions of the peace, or sessions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery held next after his being apprehended, unless the court think fit to put off the trial on just cause, id. s. 17.

42. In all actions, trials, and other proceedings in pursuance of this act, any inhabitant of the parish or place in which any offence is committed contrary to this act, shall be admitted to give evidence, and be deemed a competent witness, notwithstanding his being an inhabitant, id. s. 18.

43. The conviction shall be thus drawn, viz.:

‘— } Br it remembered, That on this — day of — in the — year of to wit. } H. M.’s reign, A. B. is convicted before — of H. M.’s justices of peace for the said county of — [or for the — riding or division of the said county of — or for the city, liberty, or town of — as the case shall be] for — and the said — do adjudge him or her to pay and forfeit for the same the sum of —. Given under — the day and year aforesaid.’

and shall be written on parchment, and transmitted to the next general quarter sessions of the peace for the county, &c. or place wherein such conviction was had, to be filed among the records there; and in case any person so convicted appeal from the judgment of the justice, &c. to the general or quarter sessions, the sessions shall on receiving the conviction, proceed to the hearing of the appeal according to s. 21. of this act, id. s. 19.

44. No certiorari shall be granted to remove any indictment, conviction, or other proceedings in pursuance of this act, id. s. 20.

45. Any person convicted as above, aggrieved by the judgment of the justice or justices before whom he is convicted, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions of the peace for the county, division, city, or place where such judgment is given; and the execution of the judgment shall be suspended, on his entering into a recognizance at the time of conviction, with two sureties, in double the sum adjudged to be forfeited, on condition to prosecute such appeal with effect, and abide the judgment of the sessions; which recognizance the justice or justices before whom such conviction was had shall take; and the sessions shall finally determine the appeal, and award such costs as to them appear just, to be paid by either party; and if on hearing the appeal the judgment of the justices, &c. before whom the appellant was convicted is affirmed, such appellant shall immediately pay the sum adjudged, with such costs as the sessions shall award; or in default of payment, shall suffer the pains and penalties by this act inflicted on persons who neglect to pay the respective forfeitures, 50 G.2. c.24. s.21.

46. No person by this act punished for any offence shall be punished for the same under any other law; and if any action be commenced for any thing done in pursuance of this act, the defendant may plead the general issue; and if the plaintiff be nonsuited, or discontinue after appearance, or if judgment is given for defendant on verdict or demurrer, he shall have double costs, id. s.22.

47. So much of 21 G.2. c.44. [JUSTICES OF PEACE] as relates to rendering the justices more safe in the execution of their office, shall extend to justices acting in execution of this act; and no action shall be commenced against, or writ issued out, or copy or writ served upon, any peace officer, for any thing done in the execution of this act, till notice in writing be given to him, or left at his usual abode, by the attorney for the party commencing such action, &c. or suing out, or serving the copy of such writ, which notice shall contain the name and place of abode of the defendant, with the cause of action; and the name of the attorney shall be underwrote or indorsed thereon; and any peace officer may at any time within 14 days after such notice, tender amends for the injury complained of, to the plaintiff, or to the attorney, and if not accepted, defendant may plead such tender in bar, with the general issue, or any other plea, with leave of the court; and if on issue joined upon such tender, the jury find the amends tendered to have been sufficient, they shall find a verdict for the defendant; in which case, or if plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues, or if defendant has judgment on demurrer, defendant shall have his costs; and if the jury find no such tender was made, or that the amends tendered were not sufficient, and also find against the defendant on such other plea, the jury shall give a verdict for plaintiff, with such damages as they think proper, for which plaintiff shall have judgment, with costs, id. s.23.

1. ALL WINES, RED AND WHITE, IMPORTED into Eng. Wa. and Ire. to sell, shall be truly gauged by H.M.'s gauger, or his deputy; and every person making disturbance, and not suffering wines to be gauged, shall forfeit them, with imprisonment and ransom at H.M.'s will. Every gauger not ready by self or deputy to do his office when required, or committing fraud therein, to damage of buyer or seller, shall pay to the party grieved treble damages, and shall lose his office, with imprisonment, &c.; and the value of any quantity wanting in any such tun or pipe, shall be allowed by seller or buyer, [and see 18 H.6. c.17. and, 28 H.8. c.14. s.6. s.p.] 27 E.3. S.1. c.8. [CONF. 28 H.8. c.14. s.5.]

2. EVERY SELLER OF A TUN OR PIPE OF WINE, not gauged, shall forfeit the wine, or its value, to H.M., 51 E.3. S.1. c.5. [CONF. 28 H.8. c.14. s.5.]

3. ALL VESSELS OF SWEET, RHENISH, OR OTHER WINE, and of vinegar, oil, honey, and other gaugable liquors imported into Eng., Ire., or Wa., shall be well gauged by our gaugers or their deputies, subject to 27 E.3. S.1. c.8., 4 R.2. c.1. [CONF. 28 H.8. c.14. s.5.]

4. NO PERSON SHALL BE MOLESTED in the exchequer, nor elsewhere, for not gauging wines of Rhine, otherwise than of old times, 14 R.2. c.8.

5. ALL VESSELS OF WINE, OIL, AND HONEY, to be sold in Eng. shall be gauged by H.M.'s gauger, or his deputy, before they are sold, on pain of forfeiture thereof, or of their value, to H.M.; and abatement shall be made by the seller to the buyer of the proportionable price for the quantity wanting, on pain of forfeiture, notwithstanding any privy covenant between buyer and seller; and every person spying such forfeiture, and informing the lord treasurer, or barons of exchequer thereof, shall have half of the same, (s.1.) and the gauger shall take the same fee for gauging vessels of oil or honey as for wine, 18 H.6. c.17. ss.1—2. [CONF. 28 H.8. c.14. s.5.]

6. THE GAUGE PENNY shall not be paid to the gauger till he or his deputies have gauged the wines, when he shall take it in satisfaction, and shall do the office of gauger in all places when required, on penalty contained in 27 E.3. S.1. c.8. pl.1., 23 H.6. c.15. [CONF. 28 H.8. c.14. s.5.]

7. TO ASCERTAIN THE CONTENTS OF vessels of wine and oil, 1 R.3. c.13. [CONF. 28 H.8. c.14. s.5. and AMD. id. s.6.]

8. No person shall bring into the realm any butt of malmsey to be sold, unless it contain at least 128 gallons; nor any vessels of wine or oil except of the following measure, viz. 252 gallons per tun; 126 gallons per pipe; 63 per hogshead; 31½ per barrel; 18½ per rundlet, 1 R.3. c.13. s.1.

9. No vessels of wine or oil shall be put to sale till gauged by H.M.'s gauger or his deputy, on pain of forfeiture of the same, or of the value, to H.M., id. s.2.

10. Every foreign or other seller to any liege subject of any butt, &c. of wine or oil (as in s.1.), which is wanting in measure as above, shall rebate of such price to the buyer a due proportion of the price, on pain of forfeiture of all wine and oil so sold, notwithstanding any privy contract between buyer and seller, id. s.3.

11. Every gauger, within the limits of his office, shall truly gauge all the butts, &c. (as in 1 R.3. c.13. s.1. pl.8.), and shall plainly and truly mark on the head of every such vessel its contents, on pain of forfeiture to the party to whose use such wine or oil is sold, 4 times the value of that which the vessel wants of its lawful contents, to be recovered, besides costs of suit, by original writ or bill, in any court of common law, or court having jurisdiction in the place where the offence is committed, by action of debt, and the seller shall make an allowance to the buyer for the full value of lack in the measure, at the rate of the whole price of the wine, oil, or other thing so sold, by that vessel marked, on pain of forfeiting double the value of such vessel, wine, and oil, to be recovered as above, 28 H.8. c.14. s.6.

1. HOW VESSELS OF GOLD SHALL BE ASSAYED, TOUCHED, and marked, 28 E.1. c.20.

2. No goldsmith shall make any vessel or other thing of gold or silver, except it be of true alloy, viz. gold of a certain touch, and silver of the sterling alloy or better, at the pleasure of him to whom the work belongeth; and none shall work worse silver than money. And no vessel of silver shall depart out of the hands of the workers, until it be assayed by the wardens of the craft, and marked with the leopard's head, and they shall work no worse gold than of the touch of

Paris. And the wardens of the craft shall go from shop to shop among the goldsmiths to assay if their gold be of the touch; and if they find any other than of the touch, the gold shall be forfeit to H. M.; and none shall set any stone in gold, except it be natural: and cutters of stones and of seals shall give to each their weight of silver and gold. And all the towns of Eng. where any goldsmiths be, shall be ordered as they of London be; and one shall come from every town to London, to be ascertained of their touch: and every goldsmith attainted that he hath done otherwise than is ordained, shall be punished by imprisonment, and ransom, at H. M.'s pleasure: the prerogative of the crown being saved, 28 E. 1. c. 20. [Rec. and Conf. comm. semb. 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 1. 38 G. 3. c. 69. s. 8.]

5. GOLDSMITHS SHALL MAKE ALL VESSELS and work of silver of alloy of good sterling; every master shall have his own mark, which shall be known by H. M.'s surveyors of the work and alloy, but the same shall not be set on till the latter have made their assay, after which they shall set H. M.'s mark, and the goldsmith his mark, for which he will answer, 37 E. 3. c. 7.

4. NO MAN SHALL GILD OR SILVER ANY LOCKS, rings, beads, candlesticks, harness for girdles, chalices, hilts, nor pommels of swords, powder boxes, nor covers for cups made of copper or latten, on pain to forfeit to H. M. 100*s.*, and to make satisfaction to the party grieved, but (chalices excepted) artificers may work ornaments for the church of copper and latten, and the same gild or silver, so that in the foot or some other part, the copper and latten shall be plain, 5 H. 4. c. 15. [Amd. 2 H. 5. S. 2. c. 4. 8 H. 5. c. 3.]

5. NO MAN SHALL GILD ANY SHEATHS OR METAL but silver, and ornaments of holy church; nor shall silver metal, but knight's spurs, and the apparel pertaining to a baron or above that estate, on pain of forfeiture to H. M. 10 times the value of the thing so gilt, and shall be also imprisoned one year, and the justice shall inquire and determine thereof, and he who will sue for H. M. shall have one-third of the pecuniary penalty, 8 H. 5. c. 5.

6. GOLDSMITHS SHALL GILD NO SILVER WORSE THAN OF alloy of English sterling, being of reasonable price, on pain of forfeiting to H. M. the value of the thing so sold, 2 H. 5. S. 2. c. 4.

7. FOR REGULATING AND ASCERTAINING THE FINENESS of silver work, 2 H. 6. c. 14. [Rec. and Conf. comm. semb. 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 1. 38 G. 3. c. 69. s. 8.]

8. No goldsmith nor worker of silver in London shall sell workmanship of silver, unless it be as fine as the sterling, except the same need solder, which shall be allowed; and no goldsmith nor jeweller, nor none that worketh harness of silver, shall set any of the same to sell within the city, before it be touched with the touch of the leopard's head, if it may reasonably bear the same, and also with a mark of the workman, upon pain of forfeiture of the double; and the mark of every goldsmith shall be known to the wardens of the craft; and if it be found that the keeper of the touch touch any such harness with the leopard's head, except it be as fine in alloy as the sterling, he shall forfeit the double value to H. M. and the party, id. s. 1.

9. And in York, Newcastle upon Tyne, Lincoln, Norwich, Bristol, Salisbury, and Coventry, every of them shall have divers touches, according to the ordinance of the mayors, bailiffs, or governors, of the same towns, id. s. 2.

10. And no goldsmith, nor worker of silver, nor keeper of the said touches, within the same towns, shall set to sale, nor touch any silver in other manner than is ordained in London, upon pain of the said forfeiture; and no goldsmith, nor worker of silver, where no touch is ordained, shall work any silver, except it be as fine in alloy as the sterling; and the goldsmith or worker shall set upon the same his mark before he set it to sale; and if it be found that it is not as fine as the sterling, the worker shall forfeit the double value; and the justices of peace, mayors, and bailiffs, shall hear, enquire, and determine, by bill or in other manner, of all that do contrary to the said ordinances, id. s. 3.

11. NO FINER OF GOLD AND SILVER, NOR PARTER OF THE SAME BY fire or water, shall alloy no fine silver nor gold, nor none sell to any person but only to officers of mints, changes, and goldsmiths; and the masters of mints, changes, and goldsmiths, for all such fine gold and silver coming to them, shall answer the value after its fineness; and no finer or partier shall sell silver in mass, molten and alloyed, upon pain of forfeiture of the same, H. M. to have one half, and the finder that will sue in exchequer the other half; and if any finer or partier of gold and silver, either by fire or water, alloy or sell any fine silver or gold, otherwise than is ordained in this act, he shall lose the value thereof, H. M. to have the one half, and the finder that will sue in the exchequer the other half; also all fine silver shall be made so fine that it may bear 12 penny weight of alloy in a pound weight, and yet be as good as sterling, and rather better; and every finer shall put his mark upon such fine silver, upon pain of the value, found contrary, to be forfeit; H. M. to have the one half, and the finder that will sue in the exchequer the other half; and no goldsmiths shall melt or alloy any silver but only for making of amels for divers works of goldsmithry, and for amending of plate, 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 2. s. 1. [but R. c. and semble Conf. 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 1, 38 G. 3. c. 69. s. 8.]

12. Nor shall they sell fine silver, nor other silver alloyed, molten into mass, to any person; this ordinance to be kept by the goldsmiths in every point, upon pain of forfeiture of the silver or value thereof; H. M. to have one half, and the finder that will sue in the exchequer the other half, id. s. 2.

13. FOR REFORMATION OF ABUSES IN GOLDSMITHS, 18 E. 1. c. 15. [Rec. and Conf. 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 1, and 38 G. 3. c. 69. s. 8.]

14. No goldsmith shall work, sell, or exchange, any plate, or other goldsmith's wares of gold, less in fineness than of 22 carats, [18 carats now allowed, 38 G. 3. c. 69. s. 1.] and they use no sother, [and see 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 11.] amel, nor other stuffings, in their works, more than is necessary; and they shall not take above 12*d.* for the ounce of gold (besides the fashion) more than the buyer shall be allowed for the same at H. M.'s exchange or mint, upon pain to forfeit the value of the thing sold or exchanged; and no goldsmith shall make, sell, or exchange, any plate of goldsmith's wares of silver, less in fineness than of 11 oz. 2 dwt. [ALT. 8 W. 3. c. 5. s. 9. RESTORED 6 G. 1. c. 11. s. 1.] nor take above 12*d.* for every pound weight of silver, besides the fashion, more than the buyer shall be allowed for the same at H. M.'s exchange or mint; nor put to sale, exchange, or sell, any plate or goldsmith's work of silver, before he hath set his mark to so much thereof as may conveniently bear the same, upon pain to forfeit the value of the thing so sold or exchanged; and if any goldsmith shall make any goldsmith's work or plate, and the same shall be touched, marked, and allowed, by the wardens or masters of that mystery, and in the same there is found any deceit, the wardens and corporation of that mystery shall forfeit the value of the thing so exchanged or sold; one moiety to H. M., and the other to such party grieved as will sue for the same, by action, or information, with no essoin, and but one imparlance, 18 E. 1. c. 15.

15. ALL GOLD AND SILVER EXTRACTED BY THE ART OF MELTING, and refining metals, and otherwise improving them and their ores, [and extracting gold and silver thereout, preamble in s. 1.] shall be henceforth employed for no other use but increase of monies, and the place appointed for their disposal shall be the mint in the Tower, where they shall receive full value for their gold and silver so extracted, from time to time, according to its assay and fineness, and so for greater or lesser weight, and no gold or silver metal so refined and extracted, may be used or disposed of elsewhere in H. M.'s dominions, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 30. s. 3. [see ss. 1—2. Stats. Rep. &c. pl. 7.; s. 4. MINES.]

16. NO PERSON SHALL WORK ANY MANUFACTURE OF SILVER less in fineness than 11 oz. 10 dwt. [altered from 11 oz. 2 dwt. as provided by 18 E. 1. c. 15. pl. 14. which is RESTORED 6 G. 1. c. 11. s. 1. post. pl. 29.] of fine silver in every pound troy, nor put to sale or exchange any manufacture of silver (unless it be silver wire, or such things as in respect of their smallness are not capable of receiving a mark) until such manufactured silver shall be marked as follows, viz. with the worker's mark, to be expressed by the two first letters of his surname, the marks of the craft of goldsmiths, which instead of the leopard's head and the lion, shall for this plate be a lion's head erased and a Britannia, and a distinct variable mark to be used by the warden of the mystery, to denote the year in which such plate is made; on pain that all such manufactured silver which shall be made, exposed to sale or exchanged, contrary to this act, or the value thereof, shall be forfeited, one half to H. M., and the other half to persons that will seize or sue for the same, to be recovered in any court of record, by action, &c. or information with no essoin, &c. but one imparlance allowed; and if any person shall make any silver plate contrary to this act, and the same shall be touched, marked or allowed, by the wardens or masters of the said mystery, or those authorized by them for assaying plate, and if in the same there is found any deceit, the wardens and corporation of that mystery shall forfeit the value of the plate so deceitfully marked, one half to H. M., and the other half to any person that shall buy the same and be grieved thereby, to be recovered as aforesaid, 8 W. 3. c. 8. s. 9.

17. FOR APPOINTING WARDENS AND ASSAY MASTERS FOR ASSAYING wrought plate, in the cities of York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester and Norwich, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 4. [Amd. 1 A. S. 1. c. 9. ss. 3—5. 6 G. 1. c. 11. ss. 1—3. 41. Rev. and Conf. 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 1. and 38 G. 3. c. 69. s. 8.]

18. The cities where the mints were lately erected, viz. York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester and Norwich, shall be appointed for assaying and marking of wrought plate, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 4. s. 1.

19. In every of the cities aforesaid, the goldsmiths, silversmiths and plate-workers, being freemen of, and inhabiting, the said cities, and having served an apprenticeship to the trade of a goldsmith, silversmith or plate-worker, shall be incorporated a company of such city, to be called The company of Goldsmiths of such city; and shall be enabled annually to chuse two wardens, to continue one year; and if any of them die or remove out of such city, the company shall within one month chuse another in his room, id. s. 2.

20. No goldsmith, silversmith or plate-worker in the said cities shall make any manufacture of silver less in fineness than the standard which shall be appointed by law, nor shall put to sale or exchange any plate of silver, until marked as follows, viz. with the worker's mark, to be expressed by the two first letters of his surname, and also with the lion's head erased, and the figure of Britannia, and with the arms of such of the cities aforesaid wherein such plate shall be assayed, and also with a variable mark or letter in Roman character; which shall be annually changed on the election of new wardens, to denote the year; on pain that all such silver plate (except such things as by reason of their smallness, are not capable of receiving a touch) shall be forfeited, or the value thereof; one moiety to H. M., and the other to such as will sue for the same in any court of record in any place wherein such offence shall be committed, 12 & 13 W. 7. c. 4. s. 2.

21. There shall be an able man, experienced in assaying of gold and silver, elected by the company of goldsmiths in each of the said cities, for whom it shall be lawful to detain eight grains for every lb. troy of silver he shall assay, four grains whereof shall be put into the box of diet, and the other four grains shall be allowed him towards his waste and spillings; and who immediately after his election, shall take the oath following, id. s. 4.

I A. B. do swear that I will be faithful and true to our sovereign lord king George, and will, so long as I shall continue an assayer, well and faithfully behave myself in the said office, and no undue profit to myself take, to the hurting or hindrance of any person that is owner or bringer in of any gold or silver in plate to be assayed, except of plate wrought only four grains of every lb. weight, to be taken and put into the box of diet, and other four grains to be taken likewise of every lb. weight of plate wrought (and not otherwise) towards my waste and spillings in making the said assays; and that I will touch nor gold nor silver, but what shall be of the goodness of, and according to, the standard of this kingdom, which for the time being is, or shall be, appointed by law, for wrought plate; and all such gold and silver as shall be brought to me to be touched, I will truly set down in writing, and the same at all times, as I shall be required, will duly and truly deliver again (except eight grains, as aforesaid; and will true accounts make thereof, when thereunto required by the wardens of the companies wherein I am chosen assayer; and that I will no assays make of things new wrought before they be marked with the mark of the maker or owner thereof; and that I will not put into the aforesaid box any silver, but that silver which I shall have scraped and taken from the plate which I shall assay and pass for standard.—So help me God.

Which oath the mayor shall administer to such assayer, id. s. 5.

22. The boxes, wherein the diet of plate tried by the assayers is put, shall be locked up with three locks, and the keys kept by the wardens and assayers; and shall be at the charge of each company conveyed annually (if required by the lord chancellor) to H. M.'s mint at the Tower; and the diet therein contained shall be tried as the pix of the coin is tried; and if in any of the said diets there shall be found any deceit, such co. shall forfeit 50*l.* to be recovered as in s. 2. pl. 20., against such co., or any member thereof in his private capacity, to be disposed as aforesaid; and if any plate shall be touched, marked or allowed for good, by the assayers, and in the same there shall be found any deceit, such assayer shall forfeit double the value of the plate, as aforesaid, id. s. 6.

23. Every person who shall be a goldsmith, silversmith or plate-worker, and shall inhabit in any of the cities, or in any other place where an assayer shall not be appointed, before he takes upon him to exercise any of the said trades, shall enter his name, mark, and place of abode, with the wardens of such co. of that city where an assayer is appointed; which shall be done by the wardens without fee; and if any such goldsmith, &c. shall not enter his name, mark, and abode, or shall strike any other mark, such goldsmith, &c. shall forfeit double the value of the plate so marked, to be recovered and disposed as aforesaid, id. s. 7.

24. Every goldsmith, silversmith and plate-worker, inhabiting in any place where an assayer shall not be appointed, shall first fix his mark on all his plate, (except such things as by reason of their smallness cannot receive the touch) and shall then send the same to some place where an assayer shall be appointed, and the same shall be there assayed; and if it is found to be of the fineness of standard, it shall be marked by the assayer; and he shall be paid by the owners of such plate, a sum not exceeding 6*d.* for every lb. troy; and any goldsmith, &c. who shall work any silver plate less in fineness than the standard, or shall put to sale or exchange any silver plate (unless it be such things as in respect of their smallness are not capable of receiving a touch) before such plate shall be assayed and marked, shall forfeit the plate, or the value thereof, as aforesaid, id. s. 9.

25. The town of Newcastle on Tyne is appointed for assaying and marking wrought plate, and for executing the several powers in 12 & 13 W. 5. c. 4. mentioned, 1 A. S. 1. c. 9. s. 3.

26. The goldsmiths, silversmiths and plate-workers, freemen of, and inhabiting in, the said town of Newcastle, and having served an apprenticeship to the trade, shall be incorporated a co. of the said town, and shall be called The Company of Goldsmiths of the Town of Newcastle upon

Tyne; which co. shall be enabled annually to chuse two wardens, to continue one year; and if either of them die or remove out of the town, the co. shall within one month chuse another, 1 A. S. 1. c. 9. s. 4.

27. All silver plate (except such things as by reason of their smallness are not capable of receiving the touch) shall be made of the same fineness, and assayed and marked with the arms of the said town and other the marks mentioned in 12 & 13 W. 5. c. 4.; and an assay-master shall be elected by the said company, who shall take such oath as is thereby prescribed before the mayor of Newcastle; and the said assay-master, and all the goldsmiths, silversmiths and plate-workers, inhabiting in the said town, shall observe all such matters, and be subject to such rules and forfeitures, as in the said act, mentioned, id. s. 5.

28. The old standard of 11 oz. 2 dwt. of fine silver at least, to be contained in every lb. troy, [as in 18 El. c. 15. pl. 14. which was altered by 8 W. 3. c. 8. s. 9. pl. 16.] shall be restored instead of the new standard of 11 oz. 10 dwt. of fine silver in every such lb. troy, by 8 W. 3. c. 8. fixed, 6 G. 1. c. 11. s. 1.

29. No gold or silversmith or plate worker, shall be obliged to work any manufacture of silver according to the new standard, or be restrained from exchanging or selling any silver vessels, &c. so as the same contain 11 oz. 2 dwt. of fine silver at least in every lb. troy, and be touched, assayed and marked, as by the former acts and by this act is provided, id. s. 2.

30. No person shall work any silver vessel, &c. less in fineness than 11 oz. 2 dwt., or put to sale or exchange any silver vessel, &c. (unless silver wire, or such things as in respect of their smallness are not capable of receiving a mark) till the same be touched, assayed and marked, as prescribed by the laws for touching, &c. and all the rules, powers, forfeitures, &c. provided by any former law in force, shall be continued, for securing the standard of 11 oz. 2 dwt., id. s. 3.

31. Silver plate shall not be made less in fineness than 11 oz. 10 dwt. of fine silver in every lb. troy, or 11 oz. 2 dwt.; which two different standards of wrought plate shall be severally marked, viz. plate not less in fineness than 11 oz. 10 dwt. shall be marked with the workman's mark, the mark of the wardens of the goldsmiths' company, and a lion's head erased, and a Britannia; and all vessels of silver not less in fineness than 11 oz. 2 dwt., shall be marked with the worker's mark, and that of the wardens of the goldsmiths' company, and with a lion passant, and a leopard's head; and no manufactures of silver shall be made of a coarser alloy, under the penalties prescribed by any laws now in being, id. s. 41.

32. FOR BETTER PREVENTING FRAUDS AND ABUSES IN GOLD AND SILVER WARES, 12 G. 2. c. 26. [Public clause, id. s. 24.]

33. FOR ALLOWING GOLD WARES TO BE MANUFACTURED AT A STANDARD LOWER THAN IS ALLOWED BY LAW, [viz. by 12 G. 2. c. 26. and other Statutes.] 38 G. 5. c. 69.

34. No person making or dealing in gold and silver wares in Eng. shall make or procure to be made any gold vessel, plate or manufacture of gold less in fineness than 22 [18, by 38 G. 5. c. 69. s. 1.] carats of fine gold in every lb. troy; nor make, &c. any silver vessel, plate, or manufacture of silver, less in fineness than 11 oz. 2 dwt. of fine silver in every lb. troy; nor sell, exchange, or expose to sale, or export out of this kingdom any gold vessel, &c. made less in fineness than 22 [18] carats of fine gold in every lb. troy; nor sell, &c. any silver vessel, &c. made less in fineness than 11 oz. 2 dwt. of fine silver in every lb. upon pain for every such offence of forfeiting 10*l.*, and for default of payment, the offender shall be committed by the court in which judgment is given, to the house of correction of the place where convicted, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding 6 months, or until payment, 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 1. as Art. by 38 G. 5. c. 69. s. 1.

35. Nothing in this act shall extend to any jewellers' works, viz. any gold or silver wherein any jewels or other stones are set (other than mourning rings) nor to any jointed night ear-rings of gold, or gold springs of lockets, 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 2.

36. If any shopkeeper or other person dealing in gold or silver wares (not being the maker or worker thereof) happen to export, sell, or expose to sale any gold or silver wares worse than the respective standards, and within 14 days next after notice of the coarseness thereof discover to the party grieved, or to the master, wardens, or clerk of any of the companies of goldsmiths belonging to the place within which such shopkeeper resides, the name and place of abode of the maker or of the person of whom such shopkeeper, &c. bought such coarse gold or silver wares, and produce him, if living, so that he may be prosecuted; and at any trial to be had against such maker or person of whom the same were bought, for such offence, give material evidence, and the judge before whom the cause is tried under his hand upon the record certify the same, and also that there did not on such trial appear any ground to believe that such shopkeeper, &c. was privy to such fraud; or if such shopkeeper, &c. on the trial of any suit or prosecution against himself concerning the premises, prove that he delivered to such maker or worker a sufficient quantity of standard gold or silver to make the said wares, and paid a reasonable price for the fashion, or paid a market price for standard gold or silver of that weight, besides a reasonable price for the fashion; in either of the said cases such shopkeeper, &c. shall be exempt from any penalty incurred by this act for exporting, selling, or exposing to sale such coarse gold or silver wares, and from any action or prosecution for the same, 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 3.

37. It shall not be necessary for such shopkeeper, &c. who sold, &c. such coarse gold or silver wares to give such material evidence, or to procure such certificate in order to his indemnity, unless such trial against such maker or person of whom the same was bought, be had within 4 terms after such discovery, nor unless reasonable notice be given to such shopkeeper, &c. of the time of such trial, id. s. 4.

38. No person making or dealing in gold or silver wares, shall sell, exchange, or expose to sale in Eng. any gold or silver vessel, plate, or manufacture of gold or silver, or export the same, until such vessel, &c. of gold, being of the standard of 22 carats of fine gold per lb. troy, and such vessel, &c. of silver being of the standard of 11 oz. 2 dwt. of fine silver per lb. troy, be marked with the mark of the maker, which shall be the first letters of his christian and surname, and with these marks of the Co. of goldsmiths in London, established by letters patent 4 Jan. 8 C. 2. viz. the leopard's head, the lion passant, [A.T. to the mark of a crown, and the figures 18 in lieu of the lion passant, under a like penalty, 58 G. 3. c. 69. s. 2.] and a distinct variable mark to denote the year in which such plate is made; or with the mark of the maker, and with the marks appointed by the assayers at York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester, Norwich, or Newcastle-upon-Tyne; or plate, being of the standard of 11 oz. 10 dwts. of fine silver per lb. weight troy, with the mark of the maker, which shall be the first letters of his christian and surname, and with these marks of the said company, viz. the lion's head erased, the Britannia, and the mark to denote the year; or with the mark of the maker and the marks of one of the said cities or towns; on pain, for every such offence, of forfeiting 10*l.* and for default of payment, of being committed by the court in which judgment is given to the house of correction where convicted, to be kept to hard labour, for any time not exceeding 6 months or until payment, id. s. 5. as A.T. by 58 G. 3. c. 69. s. 2.

39. Nothing in this act shall oblige any of the following wares of gold [or silver, R.F. 30 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1.; see id. s. 55. present exemptions of silver wares.] to be marked by the respective companies of goldsmiths, viz. rings, collars for rings, or other jewels, chains, necklace beads, locketts, hollow or raised buttons, sleeve buttons, thimbles, coral sockets and bells, ferrils, pipe lighters, cranes for bottles, very small hook clasps, any stock or garter clasps jointed, very small nutmeg graters, rims of snuff-boxes, whereof tops or bottoms are made of shell or stone, sliding pencils, tooth-pick cases, tweezer cases, pencil cases, needle cases, any philligree work, any sorts of tippings or swages on stone or ivory cases, any mounts, screws, or stoppers to stone or glass bottles, or phials, any small or slight ornaments put to amber or other eggs or urns, any wrought seals, or seals with cornelian or other stones set therein; or any gold [or silver, R.F. as above] vessel, plate or manufacture of gold or silver so richly engraved, carved or chased, or set with jewels or other stones, as not to admit of an assay to be taken of, or a mark to be struck thereon, without damaging the same; or such other things as by reason of the smallness or thinness are not capable of receiving the marks, and not weighing 10 dwts. of gold [or, silver, R.F. as above] each, 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 6. [and see exemptions in 55 G. 3. 185. Sched. STAMPS (PLATE).]

40. Every working gold and silversmith, and other manufacturer of gold or silver, who shall work or make or cause to be wrought or made, any gold or silver plate or manufacture by this act required to be marked by the goldsmith's Co. or by the wardens and assayers as in s. 5. pl. 58. at the above cities, &c. shall from time to time send with every parcel of gold or silver to such assay-officers a note in writing, containing the day of the month and year, christian and surname, and abode of the worker or maker, all the species in such parcel of plate, the number of each species, and weight of each parcel; to be entered in the books of the said co. or of the said wardens, &c. and filed; and the officers making entry thereof and filing the same, shall monthly deliver on oath into the excise office, all the notes by them received for silver plate assayed or marked, or true copies thereof; and the commissioners of excise may monthly or oftener appoint a person to inspect the books in the assay offices, to check accounts of plate chargeable with duty, and for every default by such gold or silver manufacturer, officer of the goldsmiths' co., and of every warden or assayer in the premises, each of them shall forfeit 5*l.* and on non-payment shall be committed by the court in which judgment is given thereon, to the house of correction for 3 months hard labour, or until payment thereof made, id. s. 9.

41. No debenture shall be granted nor drawback paid on the exportation of such silver plate or manufactures as have been made 7 years or more before entry for exportation, id. s. 10.

42. Any warden or deputy warden of the company of goldsmiths in London, or any warden or assayer of York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester, Norwich, and Newcastle-upon-Tyne, having been a working goldsmith or silversmith may determine what solder is necessary in every piece of plate brought to the assay-offices to be marked, and how forward in the workmanship the same ought to be, and whether all the pieces are put together or not which are intended to be put together, on seeing the same; and when any of them adjudge any piece of plate to be too much charged with solder, or not forward enough in the workmanship, or the pieces not put together that are intended to be put together, or that any piece of plate is incapable of being marked, he shall refuse to permit the same to be marked, 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 11.

43. Every person aggrieved by determination of such warden or deputy warden of the company of goldsmiths in London, may appeal to the other wardens of the said company, or 2 of them, or to the meeting of the standing committee of the company; and if not satisfied with the determination of the said wardens or committee, may appeal to the court of assistants of the company, or may appeal in the first instance to the said court of assistants, by writing, desiring their judgment, who, upon such complaint, shall determine the same; but their determination shall be final, id. s. 12.

44. The wardens and commonalty of goldsmiths in London, or such person as the court of assistants of the said company shall appoint, may take of all such persons as send to the assay-office belonging to the said company, any piece of wrought plate of gold or silver to be marked, any prices not exceeding the following, viz. for assaying and marking gold watch cases or gold watch boxes, 10*s.* a piece, for gold hooks for watch chains, 10*d.* for gold buckles, 5*d.* for gold snuff-boxes, 1*s.* 5*d.* for every other piece of wrought gold weighing 30 oz. or under, 2*s.* 6*d.* for such piece of wrought gold weighing above 30 oz. to 50 oz. 3*s.* 9*d.* and so in proportion, id. s. 13.

45. If any parcel or single piece of wrought gold be sent to the said office, which according to the rates shall not amount to 15*d.* then there shall be paid for assaying and marking a price not exceeding 15*d.*, id. s. 14.

46. The said wardens and commonalty, or such person as the court of assistants shall appoint, may take of all persons who send to the assay-office, any piece of large silver plate weighing 4 lbs. troy or less, for the assaying and marking a sum not exceeding 5*d.* and for every piece of such plate weighing above 4 lbs. troy, there shall be taken out a diet not exceeding ten grains per pound weight troy; and for assaying and marking the several small wares of silver following, of the person who brings the same to the assay-office any prices not exceeding the following, viz. for every sword-hilt 5*d.*, for every snuff-box 3*d.*, for every pair of spurs 3*d.*, for every watch case or watch box 2*d.*, for every knife or fork-haft 1*d.*, for every pair of buckles 4*d.*, for every pair of tea-tongs 1*d.*, for every dozen of tea-spoons or tea-strainers 3*d.*, for belt-buckles, belt-locks, runners, and pendants 2*d.*, a piece, for every orange-strainer or nutmeg-grater 1*d.*, for every dram-cup 1*d.*, for every dozen of seals 3*d.*, for every salt-seller 1*d.*, for every pair of clasps 1*d.*, and for every dozen of buttons 3*d.*, id. s. 15.

47. If any parcel or single piece of wrought silver plate be sent to the said office, which according to the rates, shall not amount to 5*d.* there shall be paid for assaying and marking a sum not exceeding 5*d.*, id. s. 16.

48. If any person refuse to pay such prices, any warden or deputy warden of the said company may refuse to mark any of the plate of such person so neglecting to pay, until the same be paid, id. s. 17.

49. The assayers at York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester, Norwich, and Newcastle-upon-Tyne, may take the like rates for assaying and marking wrought plate of gold or silver, as the company of goldsmiths in London; and may refuse to assay or mark plate for default of payment, id. s. 18.

50. If the said prices raise more money than sufficient to defray the expences of the assay-offices, the overplus shall be applied in prosecuting offenders against this act; and if such prosecutions shall not require the whole overplus, then the prices shall be lessened by the respective companies of goldsmiths; and they shall take so much less for the assaying and marking wrought plate for the future, as will answer the purposes aforesaid, without bringing any profit to the said companies, id. s. 19.

51. The assay-office of the company of goldsmiths in London shall be kept open for taking in plate, from 7 in the morning, till 9 of the morning every working day or half day; and the weigher shall take in the same, with the notes thereof, and shall weigh and take an account thereof before the same be assayed, and afterwards weigh the plate back, and deliver the same to the owner or his order; and when ever the common assayer of the company, or his assistant, (appointed by the court of assistants of the said company, and sworn truly to execute their office,) or an assayer at York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester, Norwich, or Newcastle-upon-Tyne, shall find any parcel of plate to be of a coarser alloy than the respective standards, and shall so report the same after three assays, then any warden or deputy-warden of the goldsmiths in London, or any warden of the company at any of the places aforesaid may cut and deface such parcel of plate, at any time after 3 days next after the last assay and not sooner, unless the person who sent the same desire it to be broken and delivered to him sooner; and there shall nevertheless be paid for assaying the same such prices as are before limited, id. s. 20.

52. Every person who shall make, or cause to be made, any gold or silver vessel, or manufacture of gold or silver in Eng., shall first enter his new marks, names, and places of abode, in the assay-office of the company of goldsmiths in London, or in the assay-office at York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester, Norwich, or Newcastle-upon-Tyne; which new marks shall be different from their old marks, and all his old marks shall be broken or defaced in the presence of the assayer, on pain for every offence of forfeiting 10*l.*, and the further sum of 10*l.* for using any other mark; and for default of payment shall be committed by the court, in which such judgment is given, to the house of correction where convicted, to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding 6 months, or until payment, 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 21.

53. The said penalties and forfeitures shall be recovered, with full costs of suit, by action, &c. or information, in any court of record at Westminster; in which actions the defendants shall put in special bail; and wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed; and one moiety of the penalties shall go to H. M., and the other to the person who shall sue for the same, id. s. 22.

54. If any suit is commenced against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this act, the action shall be commenced before the end of the next term after the fact committed, and shall be laid in the county or place where the assay-office is whose officer is complained of, and the defendant may plead the general issue, &c., and if the plaintiff be nonsuited, or discontinue, or have verdict or judgment on demurrer against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s. 23.

55. The respective companies of goldsmiths in London, Edinburgh, [Birmingham and Sheffield], erected by 13 G. 3. c. 52. for plate made in those towns, or within 20 miles thereof, And, as to Sheffield, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 20., and the wardens and authorized assayers of gold at York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester, Norwich and Newcastle on Tyne, may touch, assay and mark with the mark in s. 2. pl. 38. of this act [and in s. 5. of 12 G. 2. c. 26.], any gold vessel, plate or manufacture of the standard of 18 carats fine gold to every lb troy of gold brought to them for those purposes, under all the regulations of the laws in force, except as to the mark in s. 2. directed to be used instead of the lion passant, 38 G. 3. c. 69. s. 3.

56. Nothing in this act shall prohibit the making, selling, exchanging or exporting any gold plate or manufacture of the standard of 22 carats of fine gold in every lb troy, id. s. 4.

57. Nothing herein shall be construed to authorize any person to touch, assay or mark with the mark in force before passing of this act, any gold plate or manufactures of a lower standard than 22 carats fine gold in every lb troy, id. s. 5. [seem. Exr.]

58. Every person who shall work or make, or cause to be made, &c. or who shall sell, exchange or export, or cause to be sold, &c. any gold plate or manufacture not duly marked with one of the marks by law required to denote one of the respective standards of 22 or 18 carats of fine gold in every lb troy, shall forfeit 50*l.* id. s. 6.

59. If any person shall forge, cast or counterfeit, or cause to be cast, &c. the mark or stamp used or directed to be used in pursuance of this act for the marking or stamping gold plate by the goldsmith's Co. in London or Edinburgh, or the Birmingham or Sheffield Co. [erected as in pl. 55.], or by the wardens or assayers at York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester, Norwich or Newcastle on Tyne, or shall cast, forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be cast, &c. any mark, stamp or impression made or to be made with any mark or stamp used by the latter, or any of them, or shall mark or stamp, or cause, &c. any wrought plate of gold, or any wares of silver, brass or other metal gilt over and resembling plate of gold, with any forged mark or stamp in imitation of or to resemble any mark, &c. to be used by the co.'s wardens or assayers aforesaid, or any of them, or shall transpose or remove, or cause to be transposed, &c. from one piece of wrought plate to another, or to any vessel of silver, brass or other metal as aforesaid, any mark, stamp or impression made or to be made by the said co.'s wardens or assayers, or any of them, or shall sell, exchange or export any wrought gold plate or vessel of silver, brass or other metal with any such forged mark, &c. thereon, or with any mark, &c. transposed from any other piece of plate knowing such mark, &c. to be forged or transposed as aforesaid, or shall wilfully be possessed of any forged mark or stamp in imitation of any mark, &c. used by the said co.'s wardens or assayers, or any of them, every such offender shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of felony, and be transported for 7 years, id. s. 7. [But the act for erecting the Birmingham and Sheffield assay offices inflicts 14 years transportation, for counterfeiting, &c. their stamps on silver plate, 13 G. 3. c. 52. s. 11. pl. 86. and see the note to 13 G. 3. c. 59., infra, pl. 91.]

60. All gold vessels, plate and manufactures whatever of the standard of 18 carats of fine gold to every one lb weight troy, shall be touched, assayed and marked with the several marks directed to be used by this act, or by any acts in force previous to its passing, in making gold plate or manufactures, except the mark of the lion passant [see ante, s. 2. pl. 38. of this act, arranged with 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 5.] by the like persons, at such places, and under such powers and regulations, provisoes, exemptions, conditions, penalties, payments, rewards, subtractions and detentions on touching, &c. the same as gold plate, or of 22 carats standard, are subject to under 12 G. 2. c. 26. or by any acts therein recited, or otherwise, in force, and all the powers of those acts with regard to the touching &c. such gold plate, or selling or exporting the same, are extended to this act, 38 G. 3. c. 69. s. 8.

61. TO PREVENT COUNTERFEITING GOLD AND SILVER LACE, and for settling the proportions of fine silver and silk, and for the better making of gold and silver thread, 15 G. 2. c. 20. PUBLIC clause, s. 15. [AMD. by 28 G. 3. c. 7. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 8.]

62. All copper, brass, and every metal inferior to silver, shall be spun upon thread, yarn, or iccle only, and not spun, mixed, wove, wrought, or set upon silk; on pain that every offender therein shall forfeit 5*s.* for every ounce so spun or set upon silk, 15 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1.

63. All silver wire to be drawn for the making of silver thread shall hold at least 110*z.* 15*dwt.* of fine silver upon the lb. troy; and all silver to be gilt and made use of in the wire-drawer's trade, shall hold at least 110*z.* 8*dwt.* of fine silver, upon the lb. troy, and shall not have less than 4*dwt.* 4*gr.* of fine gold, without alloy, laid upon each pound weight of the said silver, on pain that the refiner or maker shall forfeit 5*s.* for every ounce so made contrary to this act, id. s. 2.

64. No gilt wire shall be coloured with verdigrease or deadhead, or other forced colour, on pain of forfeiting 2*s.* 6*d.* for every oz. so coloured; and for all gold and silver prepared as aforesaid, and reduced into plate, there shall be allowed at the least 6 oz. of the said plate to cover 4 oz. of silk; except large twist, freeze, freezon, frost and cheque, and except round brocade, used in making brocaded gold and silver silks or stuffs only, in which there shall be allowed at the least 6 oz. of the said plate to cover 5 oz. of silk; all which gold and silver plate shall be spun close upon well-boiled and light-died silk only, except frost, being run thin, and spun upon different coloured silk; and if any spinner or other person lay gold or silver plate upon any greater proportions of silk, or in any other manner than before directed, (except as before excepted), he shall forfeit 2*s.* 6*d.* for every ounce so spun, id. s. 3.

65. If any person sell or offer to sale any gold or silver office lace, mixed with any other metal or materials than gold or silver, silk and vellum, he shall forfeit for every ounce 2*s.* 6*d.*, id. s. 4.

66. If any person sell any gold or silver wire, plate, thread, lace, or fringe, by any other weight than troy weight, he shall forfeit for every ounce so sold 5*s.*, id. s. 5.

67. If any maker or seller make or sell any goods mixed with gold or silver thread or plate, made contrary to the intent of this act, he shall forfeit 5*s.* for every ounce of gold and silver thread or plate so made or sold, id. s. 6.

68. No gold or silver thread, lace, fringe, or other work made thereof, or any thread, lace, fringe, or other work made of copper, brass, or other inferior metal, or gold or silver, wire or plate, shall be imported into G. B. on pain of being forfeited and burnt, and also of 100*l.* to be paid by the importer for every parcel, id. s. 7.

69. Every ingot of silver designed for gilt wire, shall be weighed in presence of the excise officer attending the forge, before being covered with gold, and shall be weighed in his presence, and marked by him after gold laid thereon, on penalty of 20*l.* for refusing to admit such officer, id. s. 8.

70. Of the several penalties inflicted by this act, one moiety shall be to the use of H. M., and the other to him that shall inform or sue for the same: and may be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 9.

71. If any person be sued for what he shall do in the execution of this act, he may plead the general issue; and if the plaintiff be nonsuited, discontinue, or lose verdict, defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s. 10.

72. Every suit or prosecution to be brought by virtue of this act, shall be commenced in 6 months after the offence committed, id. s. 11.

73. Nothing in this act shall extend to prohibit any copper, brass, or other metal inferior to silver (spun upon thread, yarn, or iccle, as directed by this act,) being wrought or sewed with silk on any apparel used in theatrical entertainments only, id. s. 14.

74. All copper, brass, and every other metal inferior to silver, shall be spun on thread, yarn, or iccle only, and not spun, mixed, woven, wrought, or set on silk; and no person shall sell, or offer to sale, or export any copper, brass, or other metal inferior to silver, which shall be spun, &c. upon silk, upon pain of forfeiting 5*l.* for one oz. or any quantity less than one oz. and the further sum of 5*l.* per oz. for each quantity exceeding one oz. which shall be so spun, &c. on silk, or sold, or offered to sale, or exported, to be recovered and disposed of as after mentioned; and for default of paying down the penalty upon conviction, shall be committed by the court in which judgment shall be given, to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 6, nor less than 3 months, or till payment is made of the penalty; and also on pain that all such copper, brass, or other metal inferior to silver so spun, &c. on silk, or sold, or offered to sale, or exported, shall be forfeited, one moiety to H. M. and the other to such person as shall sue, 28 G. 3. c. 7. s. 1.

75. No metal inferior to silver, which shall be gilt and drawn into wire, or flatted into plate, shall be spun or wrought into or upon, or mixed with lace, fringe, cord, embroidery, tambour work, or buttons, made in the gold and silver lace manufactory, or set upon silk, or made into bullion, spangles, or purl, or any other materials used in the making of lace, &c. or in imitation of lace, or of any of the materials used in the making thereof, or of any of them; and no person shall sell, or offer to sale, or export any metal inferior to silver, which shall be gilt and drawn into wire, or flatted into plate, and spun or woven, or wrought into or upon, or mixed with lace, &c. or set upon silk, or made into bullion, spangles, or purl, or any other materials used in making of lace, &c. or which shall imitate, or be meant to imitate lace, &c., or any of the materials used in the making thereof, or of any of them, upon pain that every person offending therein shall forfeit 5l. for one oz. or any quantity less than one oz. and 5l. per oz. for every quantity exceeding one oz. which shall be so spun or wrought into or upon, or mixed with lace, &c. or set upon silk, or made into bullion, spangles, or purl, or any other materials used in the making of lace, &c. or in imitation of lace, &c. or of any of the materials used in the making thereof, or of any of them, or sold, or offered to sale, or exported as aforesaid; and for default of paying down the penalty on conviction, shall be committed by the court to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 6, nor less than 3 months, or until payment be made of the penalty; and also upon pain that all such metal inferior to silver, which shall be gilt, and so spun or wrought into, or upon, or mixed with lace, &c. or set upon silk, or made into bullion, spangles, or purl, or any other materials used in the making of lace, &c. or in imitation of lace, &c. or of any of the materials used in the making thereof, or of any of them, or sold, or offered to sale, or exported, shall be forfeited, one moiety thereof to H. M. and the other moiety thereof to such person as shall sue, id. s. 2.

76. No copper, brass, or other metal, which shall be silvered and drawn into wire, or flatted into plate, or made into bullion, spangles, or purl, or any other materials used in the making of lace, &c. or in imitation of lace, &c. or of any of the materials used in the making thereof, or of any of them, shall hold more, or bear a greater proportion than 3 dwts. of fine silver to the lb. avoirdupois of such copper, brass, or other metal; and no person shall sell, or offer to sale, or export any copper, brass, or other metal, silvered and drawn into wire, or flatted into plate, or made into bullion, spangles, or purl, or any other materials used in the making of lace, &c. or in imitation of lace, &c. or of any of the materials used in the making thereof, or of any of them, and which shall bear a greater proportion than 3 dwts. of fine silver to the lb. avoirdupois of such copper, &c. upon pain that each person offending therein, shall forfeit 5l. for one oz. or any quantity less than one oz. and the further sum of 5l. per oz. for each quantity exceeding one oz. which shall bear a greater proportion, or shall be sold, or offered to sale, or exported, and for default of paying down the penalty upon conviction, shall be committed by the court to the house of correction to hard labour for not exceeding 6, nor less than 3 months, or until payment be made of the penalty; and also upon pain that all such copper, brass, or other metal, which shall bear a greater proportion, or be sold, or offered to sale, or exported, shall be forfeited, one moiety thereof to H. M., and the other moiety to such person as shall sue, id. s. 3.

77. No copper, brass, or other metal inferior to silver, whether gilt, or silvered, or stained, or coloured, or otherwise, shall be worked up or mixed with gold or silver, in any manufacture of lace, &c. and no person whomsoever shall sell, or offer to sale, or export any copper, &c. inferior to silver, whether gilt or silvered, or stained, or coloured, which shall be worked up or mixed with gold or silver, in any manufacture of lace, &c. upon pain that each person offending therein shall forfeit 5l. for one oz. or less, and the further sum of 5l. per oz. for every quantity exceeding one oz. of such lace, &c. which shall be so worked up, or mixed, or sold, or offered to sale, or exported; and for default of paying down the penalty upon conviction, shall be committed by the court to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 6, nor less than 3 months, or until payment be made of the penalty; and also upon pain that all such lace so worked up, or mixed, or sold, or offered to sale, or exported, shall be forfeited, one moiety thereof to H. M., and the other to such person as shall sue, id. s. 4.

78. All forfeitures and pecuniary penalties shall be divided, one moiety thereof to H. M. and the other with full costs to the person who shall inform or sue in any court of record at Westminster, by action of debt, &c. as in 15 G. 2. c. 20. s. 9. pl. 70., id. s. 5.

79. Persons sued may plead the general issue, and if the plaintiff become nonsuit, discontinue, or verdict for defendant, he shall recover treble costs, 28 G. 3. c. 7. s. 6.

80. Every action for any penalty incurred, shall be brought within 6 months after the offence committed, or after the discovery thereof, id. s. 7.

81. FOR REPEALING 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 19. s. 3. WHICH RESTRAINS ANY person keeping an inn, tavern, alehouse, &c. or selling wine, ale, &c. by retail, from publicly using any wrought or manufactured plate, or any utensil or vessel thereof, except spoons, on penalty of forfeiting the same or their value with costs to the party suing, by bill or information, and for putting an end to such prosecutions, 9 G. 3. c. 11. and recital in s. 1.

82. If any action, &c. is brought against any person hereby indemnified against all forfeitures incurred by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 19. the general issue may be pleaded, and this act, and the special matter given in evidence id. s. 5.

83. FOR APPOINTING WARDENS AND ASSAY MASTERS FOR RESAVING wrought plate, [made] in the towns of Sheffield and Birmingham, [and within 20 miles thereof.] 13 G. 3. c. 52. and recital in s. 1. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 3. [A.T. and A.M. as to prices of assay in Sheffield, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 20. s. 1. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 5. The following appear to be the only provisions of a public nature.]

84. Divers persons are incorporated a company of the town of Birmingham, and divers others of Sheffield, to be called "The Guardians of the standard of wrought plate," within those towns respectively, and to continue therein as long as they live therein, or within 20 miles thereof, 13 G. 3. c. 52. s. 2. others may be chosen in place of those who die or remove, and 4 wardens shall be elected, id. s. 3. [see as to election, bond, and oath of assayer, id. s. 6.]

85. No silversmith or plate worker in either of those towns, or within 20 miles thereof, shall knowingly put to sale, exchange, or sell any silver vessel made therein, or within 20 miles thereof, till such silver vessel, plate, or manufactured silver (being of standard of 11 oz. 2 dwts. of fine silver per lb. troy, shall be thus marked, viz. with the initials of the worker, the lion passant, and the assay company's mark, viz. for the Birmingham company an anchor, for the Sheffield company a crown, id. s. 3 to denote its goodness, and the place where it was assayed and marked, and also with a distinct variable mark or letter, which shall be annually changed on the election of new wardens for each company, to denote the year in which it is marked; or plate of the standard of 11 oz. 10 dwts. fine silver per lb. troy, with the above initials, figure of Britannia, mark to denote the year, and the assay company's mark, on pain that all such silver, &c. (except such things as from their smallness or thinness cannot receive a touch), which shall be made, exposed to sale, exchanged, or exported contrary to this act, shall be forfeited, or its value, one moiety to H. M., &c. and the other to such person as will sue, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information, in any court of record in any county or place wherein such offence shall be committed, and wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. ss. 4—5.

86. If any person soever shall cast, forge, or counterfeit, or cause, &c. to be cast, &c. any mark or stamp used for marking plate in pursuance hereof, or by any maker or worker of silver plate, or either of them; or shall cast, &c. or cause, &c. to be cast, &c. any mark, stamp, or impression in imitation of any mark, &c. made with any mark or stamp used, or to be used by the Birmingham or Sheffield companies, or by any maker, &c. of silver plate, or either of them, or shall stamp, &c. any silver wrought plate with any stamp forged in imitation of any stamp used as above, or shall transpose or cause to be transposed from one piece of wrought metal to another, or to any plated vessel, or vessel of base metal any stamp or impression made by or with any stamp used as above, or shall sell, exchange, expose to sale, or export any silver, wrought plate, or vessel of base metal with any such forged stamp, or impression thereon, or any stamp transposed from any other piece of plate, knowing such stamp to be forged, or transposed, as above, or shall wilfully have or be possessed of any stamp forged in imitation of any stamp used as above, such offender shall, on conviction, be transported for 14 years, id. s. 14.

87. "Whereas it was by 13 G. 3. c. 52. s. 15. enacted, that every working silversmith, or dealer in wrought plate, and every worker or dealer in any other metal plated with silver, who shall strike any letter on any vessel, &c. made of metal so plated, &c. or on any metal vessel, &c. made to look like silver, shall forfeit 100*l.* which was found to destroy emulation among the manufacturers of plated goods," it is enacted, that any manufacturer of goods plated with silver within Sheffield, or 100 miles thereof, may strike on any metal vessel, or thing plated or covered with silver, his surname, or in case of partnership, the name or firm thereof, and also some mark, figure, or device, to be struck at the end of such surname, or other name or firm; such mark, &c. not being the same, or in imitation of any mark used by any assay-office established by law for assaying wrought plate, without being subject to any penalty for so doing, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 20. s. 2.

88. Every such surname, name, or firm, shall be in plain and legible characters, struck with one punch only, and every such mark, figure, or device, shall, before it is used, be submitted to examination of the company of guardians of the Sheffield assay office, [see 13 G. 3. c. 52. ss. 1—2. &c.] and approved by them at some of their public meetings, and registered in a book kept for that purpose, for which registry 2s. 6d. only shall be paid by the manufacturer, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 20. s. 3.

89. Every manufacturer of plated goods within Sheffield or 100 miles thereof, who shall at any time hereafter strike any name, mark, figure, or device on his plated goods, which has not been previously registered at the Sheffield assay-office, [see 13 G. 3. c. 52. ss. 1—2. &c.] or which has been previously registered there by any other such manufacturer, shall forfeit to the wardens 100*l.*, to be recovered as in 13 G. 3. c. 52. s. 4. viz. by action of debt or information, in any court of record in any county or place wherein such offence is committed, and wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance, shall be allowed, id. s. 4.

90. FOR PUNISHING THE OFFENCE OF FRAUD and abuse in marking or stamping of gold and silver plate. [This title is framed from that of the above act.] 13 G. 3. c. 59.

91. NOTE (1).—The first punishment of [casting, forging, or, these terms first added 13 G. 3. c. 59. s. 2.] counterfeiting stamps used by the goldsmith's company of London, or by the wardens and assayers for the cities of York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester, and Norwich, in 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 4. mentioned, or by those of Newcastle-upon-Tyne under 1 A. S. 1. c. 9. for assaying and marking of wrought gold and silver plate, was by penalty of 500*l.* (see 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 4. s. 4. &c.); that penalty was repealed by 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 7. and another of 100*l.* was imposed for the above offence, to which were added, "marking" wrought gold or silver plate "with a forged stamp, transposing any of the marks, stamps, or impressions made by any of the stamps of the above companies from one piece of wrought plate to another, or to any vessel of base metal silvered or gilt over, and resembling gold and silver; selling, exchanging, exposing to sale, or exporting plate with forged or transposed mark; or having such stamp in possession," (id. s. 8.); that penalty was also repealed by 31 G. 2. c. 32. s. 14., and the above offences were declared felony without clergy, id. s. 15.; that provision was also repealed by 13 G. 3. c. 59. s. 1. and "the stamping any wares of brass or other base metal, silvered or gilt over, and resembling gold or silver plate, with any such forged stamp" being added, transportation for 14 years was substituted, id. s. 2. (which see infra, pl. 93.); the like punishment is also provided for counterfeiting stamps used for marking silver plate by the assay companies of Birmingham and Sheffield; for transposing them as above, or for selling, exchanging, exposing to sale, or exporting any silver plate, or vessel of base metal, with such forged or transposed stamps thereon, 13 G. 3. c. 52. s. 14. (see ante, pl. 86.); the above offences, as regards the stamps used for stamping gold or silver plate by the above companies of goldsmiths, in 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 4. and 1 A. S. 1. c. 9. mentioned, and by the Birmingham and Sheffield companies in 13 G. 3. c. 52. [NOTE, no stamps for gold plate are appointed by that act, but see 38 G. 3. c. 69. s. 7. ante, pl. 59.] and by the Edinburgh goldsmiths' company, with the addition of the king's head made therein, by 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 53. s. 5., are again made felony without clergy, id. s. 16. infra, pl. 106. which, however, does not notice the provisions and still-existing contrary enactment of 13 G. 3. c. 59. s. 2. pl. 93. By a still later provision the same offences, as they regard the stamps on gold plate, as altered by 38 G. 3. c. 69. s. 2. pl. 38. (viz. a crown, and the figures 18, instead of the lion passant), are declared felony, and punished by transportation for 7 years, id. s. 7. pl. 59.

92. NOTE (2).—The like offences against the stamps, used by the Dublin goldsmiths' company, on gold and silver plate made in Ire. are punished in like manner, 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 15. s. 16. and cutting out such stamps, with intent to transpose them as above by a 200*l.* penalty, id. ibid.; the last quoted, as well as the two following enactments seem to have been made with a view to prevent the above offences, as peculiarly affecting the stamp duties, while it is submitted that the former regulations were more particularly directed to ascertain and fix the fineness and intrinsic value of wrought plate, as well as to prevent its illegal alloy; thus the offences of forging stamps on gold or silver plate, and of uttering, selling, or exposing to sale the same, having thereon the impression of such forged stamp, and of privately using any stamp, die, or plate provided under direction of the commissioners of stamps, "with intent to defraud H. M. of any of the duties under their management," are declared felony without clergy, 52 G. 3. c. 143. s. 7.; see REVENUE, 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 7. see STAMPS (Plate), and the provision of 52 G. 3. c. 143. s. 8. appears confined to stamps used by the commissioners to "denote the duties granted to H. M.;" whether, therefore, the provisions from 47 G. 3. downwards, are to be considered more especially as revenue regulations, while the former enactments enure to that object, but are more particularly applicable to regulating the assay, &c. of gold and silver plate, or whether the whole are now blended, it is not our present object to determine; the existing provisions all apply to the stamps originally provided by 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 4. 1 A. S. 1. c. 9. and 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 5. as altered in slight particulars of device as above noticed; but the punishment of the above offences appears wholly indeterminate. It is therefore submitted that the confusion incident to the concurrent operation of so many co-existing but contrary enactments can only be remedied by repealing the whole existing provisions on the subject, and re-enacting the law thereon.—R. P. T.

93. If any person soever shall cast, forge, or counterfeit, or cause, or procure to be cast, &c. any mark or stamp used, or to be used, for marking, &c. gold or silver plate, in pursuance of any statutes now in force, by the goldsmith's company in London, or by the wardens or assayers at York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester, and Norwich, [these are the places provided for in the original statute, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 4.] or Newcastle-upon-Tyne, [this place by 1 A. S. 1. c. 9. and see 13 G. 3. c. 52. s. 14. as to forging, &c. stamps of Birmingham and Sheffield assay companies, ante, pl. 86.] or by any maker of gold or silver plate, or any or either of them, or shall cast, &c. or cause or procure to be cast, &c. any mark, stamp, or impression, in imitation of any mark, &c. made with any mark or stamp used, or to be used as aforesaid by the said company, or by the said wardens, or by any maker; or shall make, or stamp, or cause, &c. any wrought plate of gold or silver, or wares of brass, or other base metal, silvered or gilt over, and resembling plate of gold or silver, with any mark, &c. forged or counterfeited in imitation of or to resemble any such mark or stamp so used, or to be used as aforesaid, by the said company, wardens, &c. or maker; or shall transpose or remove, or cause, &c. from one piece of wrought plate to another, or to any vessel of base metal as aforesaid, any mark, stamp, or impression made, or to be made by any mark, &c. used or to be used as aforesaid, by the said company, wardens, &c. or makers, or shall sell, exchange, or expose to sale, or export, any wrought gold or silver plate, or any vessel of such base metal as aforesaid, with any such forged, &c. mark, &c. thereon, or any mark, &c. transposed, &c. from any other piece of plate, knowing the same to be forged, &c. or transposed, &c., or shall wilfully be possessed of any mark or stamp forged in imitation of any mark, &c. used, or to be used as aforesaid, by the said company, wardens, or maker, every offender, in either of the above cases, shall, on conviction, by order of the court before whom convicted, be transported for 14 years, 13 G. 3. c. 59. s. 2. [see the note, last placitum.]

94. FOR IMPOSING DUTIES ON GOLD AND SILVER PLATE imported into, and made in G. B., 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 53. [AND, as to regulations of assay, marks, weights, &c. by 25 G. 3. c. 64. and 30 G. 3. c. 31.; the duties by s. 1. of this act imposed as to plate imported into G. B. are lastly repealed by 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 1. and their present amount will be found in that act, table A. tit. PLATE; for the present stamp duties on plate made in G. B. see STAMPS, 55 G. 3. c. 185. sched. tit. PLATE.]

95. The duties on plate made in G. B. shall be under management of the commissioners of stamps, id. s. 2.

96. Every working gold and silver smith, or other manufacturer of gold or silver, who shall work or make, or cause to be wrought, any gold or silver vessel, plate or manufacture of gold or silver, required to be assayed, and marked, by the company of goldsmiths in London, Edinburgh, or by the Birmingham or Sheffield companies, [gold plate not provided for by 13 G. 3. c. 52.] or by the wardens and assayers at York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester, Norwich, and Newcastle upon Tyne, shall send, with every parcel of such gold or silver, to the assay office of the said companies, cities, and places, a note, containing the day of the month and year, the christian and surname of the maker, and place of his abode, and also the species in such parcel of plate, and the number of each, with the total weight of such parcel, and also the money payable for the duty upon the total weight of such parcel; and also shall send and pay, with every such parcel, to the officer belonging to such assay office who shall receive such gold or silver so sent, the duty directed to be paid upon such parcel so required to be assayed, id. s. 4.

97. The wardens, or their deputy assay-master, weigher, or other person appointed by the said companies or assay-officers, shall mark with the following new mark, that is to say, with the mark of the king's head, besides the other marks, all such pieces of gold or silver plate so sent to be assayed; and shall, previous to assaying such plate, receive, for the use of H. M. from the person whose property is required to be assayed, 8s. [17s. by 55 G. 3. c. 185., sched. PLATE.] for every ounce of gold plate; and 6d. [1s. 6d. id. ibid.] for every ounce of silver plate, brought to the said assay offices to be assayed, and shall give a receipt for the duty paid to the person bringing such plate; and in default of receiving such duty, such companies or assay-officers so assaying such plate, shall be accountable to H. M. for the duty, as if the same had been received, id. s. 5.

98. The assay-master, weigher, or officer of the assay-offices, who shall receive the said duties, with the notes, shall daily, as soon as he shall have entered the same in the book of the companies, deliver the said notes, and pay the duties by him received, to the clerk or accountant of the said companies, who shall file and enter the same, and keep account in writing, in books to be kept for that purpose, of the duties so received, which account shall be open for the inspection of any person so authorized under the hands and seals of the commissioners of stamps to inspect the same, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 53. s. 6.

99. The person appointed by the companies to receive the duties, shall, where such plate is sent to be assayed in the rough state, as heretofore has been usual, make a deduction of 1-6th from the weight, and an allowance of 1-6th part of the duty, to the person bringing the same; and shall, at the bottom of the note, express the deduction from the weight, and allowance of the duty; provided nothing herein shall extend to any allowance being made on any quantity of silver plate, less in in weight than one ounce troy, nor to any fractional part of an ounce, 25 G. 3. c. 64. s. 1.

100. No person soever, making or selling, trading or dealing in gold or silver wares, shall sell, exchange, or expose to sale, in G. B. any gold or silver vessel, plate, or manufacture of gold or silver, made after 1st Dec. 1784, or export the same out of G. B. until such time as such manufacture of gold, and of silver (of the standard directed by law,) shall be marked with the new mark before directed, viz. the king's head, besides other marks already directed by law to be marked thereon, upon pain that such offender shall forfeit 50*l.*; and for default of not paying down the penalty upon conviction, shall be committed by the court in which judgment shall be given, to the house of correction, for not exceeding one year, nor less than six months, or till payment be made of the forfeiture; and also on pain that such manufacture of gold and silver, sold, exchanged, or exposed to sale, without having the mark thereon as directed, shall be forfeited, one moiety to H. M., and the other to such person who shall sue, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 53. s. 8.

101. Nothing in this act shall extend to any jeweller's works, viz. any gold for silver, R.E. 30 G. 3. c. 31. s. 1.] wherein any jewels or other stones shall be set (other than mourning rings), nor to any jointed night ear-rings of gold or gold springs of lockets, nor to compel any of the wares of gold for silver R.E.] to be stamped with the stamp directed by this act, which are excepted in 12 G. 2. c. 26. s. 6. id. s. 9.

102. When any parcel of gold or silver shall in any of the assay-offices be found to be of a coarser alloy than the standard, and shall be cut, broken, and defaced, then (and where no intended fraud shall appear) the duty paid on such parcel upon the delivery thereof to be assayed, shall be returned to the worker by the companies who shall deface such manufacture; and the said companies shall make an entry in the books before directed to be kept of the species and weight of each parcel cut, and the names of the persons to whom such plate did belong, and the amount of the duty returned, id. s. 10.

103. The clerk or accountant of the company of goldsmiths in London shall, within 2 months after 25th Mar., 24th June, 29th Sept., and 25th Dec., in every year, or at such other times, after the expiration of the 2 months, as may be appointed by the commissioners of stamps, giving a previous public notice of 14 days, or more, by advertisement in the London Gazette, deliver to the commissioners, or person appointed by them at the head office, true copies of the accounts before directed to be kept by such clerks or accountants, for the quarter completed before such day of delivery, or notice; and, at the same time, shall pay such sums which shall appear to be due on such accounts to the receiver-general of the stamp duties on stamped vellum, or other officer appointed to receive the same at the head office; upon pain of forfeiting, for every default in not delivering true copies of such accounts, 500*l.*; and for every default in payment of the monies due on such accounts, double the amount of the money due, id. s. 13.

104. The wardens, or their deputies, or the clerk or accountant, or person appointed to receive the duty by the goldsmiths' company at Edinburgh, or by the companies of Birmingham and Sheffield, (see note to s. 4 pl. 96.) or the assay-offices at York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester, Norwich, Newcastle upon Tyne, or other cities where an assay-office shall or may be established, shall, within 2 months after 25 Mar., 24 June, 29 Sept. and 25 Dec. in every year, or at such other times after the expiration of the 2 months as may be appointed by the head distributor, or person so to be authorized to receive the duties, giving a previous notice of 14 days, or more, by advertisement in the London Gazette, or in the newspaper published in the county where such head distributor resides, deliver to such head distributor, or person aforesaid, true copies of the accounts directed to be kept by such companies, for the quarter completed before such day of delivery; and, at the same time, shall pay to such head distributor, or person authorized, all money due upon such accounts, on pain of forfeiting, for every default in not delivering such accounts, 50*l.*; and for every default in payment of the monies due on such accounts, double the amount of the monies due on the said account, id. s. 14.

105. The receiver-general of the stamp-duties, at the head office, and the head distributor of stamped vellum, or person appointed by the commissioner to receive the duties, shall make an allowance to all clerks, accountants, or persons appointed by such companies, for their trouble in originally receiving the said duties, and making out such account, at the rate of 6*d.* in the pound out of the monies by them accounted for and paid, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 53. s. 15.

106. If any person shall cast, counterfeit, or cause to be cast or counterfeited, the stamp used, or directed to be used in pursuance of this act, for stamping of gold or silver plate, or shall cast or counterfeit, or cause to be cast or counterfeited, any stamp in imitation of any stamp, or made with any stamp used; or shall stamp or cause to be stamped, any wrought plate of gold or silver, or any wares of brass or other base metal silvered or gilt over, and resembling plate of gold or silver, with any stamp which shall be forged, in imitation of any stamp used by the said companies or assayers, or by any maker or worker of gold or silver plate; or shall transpose, or cause to be transposed, from one piece of wrought plate to another, or to any vessel of such base metal as aforesaid, any stamp made with any stamp used as aforesaid by the assayers, &c. or by any maker of gold or silver plate, or shall sell, exchange, or expose to sale, or export out of this kingdom, any wrought plate or any vessel of such base metal, with such forged stamp, or any stamp which shall be transposed from any other piece of plate, knowing such stamp to be counterfeited or transposed, or shall wilfully have any stamp counterfeited, in imitation of any stamp used as aforesaid, such person shall be guilty of felony without benefit of clergy, id. s. 16. [This provision is like that in 31 G. 2. c. 32. s. 15., which was R.E. 13 G. 3. c. 59. s. 1.; but this being the later provision, must, it is presumed, be considered in force as to all such stamps with the addition of the king's head made by s. 5. of this act, sed. QV. And see note, pl. 91. ante.] and 38 G. 3. c. 69. s. 7., inflicting transportation for 7 years for forging, &c. the stamps on gold plate, as altered by that act, [s. 1, 2.]

107. Penalties shall be divided, one moiety to H. M., and the other moiety, with costs, to the person who shall inform, in any court at Westminster, for offences in Eng., Wa., or Ber., or in the exchequer in Scot., for offences committed in Scot., by action of debt or information, without essoin, or more than one imparlance allowed, id. s. 17.

108. Persons sued may plead the general issue, and if a verdict pass for the defendant, or if plaintiff be nonsuit, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 19.

109. In case any person shall, during the continuance of the duties imposed upon wrought plate, exported by way of merchandize for foreign parts, export any plate of gold or silver, wrought in this kingdom, which is charged with the duties of 8*s.* per ounce, and 6*d.* per ounce, [see the present duties, ante, pl. 95.] and the same shall appear to have been made or marked after 1 Dec. 1784, and the duties paid, and shall give security before shipping thereof for exportation, that the quantities of such plate, intended to be exported, shall not be relanded in G. B., and shall make proof on oath, that the same were actually made or marked after the said time, which security shall be taken in H. M.'s name, and the oath administered by the customer or collector of the port of exportation, without fee; then, without any notarial act as in the former act mentioned, the said customer or collector shall give to the exporter thereof a debenture, expressing the kinds and quantities of such plate so exported, or shipped to be exported; and the exportation or shipping thereof being certified by the searcher upon the debenture, the collector or receiver of the duty upon plate, at the assay offices where assayed, shall, upon the debenture so certified being produced to him, forthwith pay [a drawback, after the rate of 8*s.* per ounce troy of gold, and 6*d.* for every ounce troy of silver, see note, above] out of the duties then in the hands of the said receiver, without fee; and if such collector shall not have money in his hands to pay such debenture, then the receiver-general of the stamp duties is to pay the same out of the duties arising by this act, 25 G. 3. c. 64. s. 3.

110. The exporters of gold and silver watches shall mark or engrave in the inside of every case or box of each watch, inclosing the works thereof, the same numbers and figures which shall be marked on the works of the watch inclosed in such case, id. s. 4.

111. All securities and bonds, required to be taken as aforesaid, shall continue in force, until such exporter of wrought plate shall produce and deliver to such customer or collector the bill of lading thereof, and which shall have at the foot the receipt of the master of the vessel on board of which the said plate were shipped, and also a receipt or certificate on the back of such bill of lading, under the hand of the person to whom such wrought plate were consigned, certifying that the same have been received, and mentioning in such receipt or certificate the true kinds of plate consigned and received, and the name of the person consigning the same, and also, if such plate shall consist of watches, the numbers or figures marked in the inside of the case of each watch, then such securities shall be delivered up and cancelled, id. s. 5.

112. Where the vessel on board of which such plate, &c. were shipped, shall be lost, or shall not, within 3 years, return to any port in G. B., on proof thereof to the customer or collector at the port at which the drawback was received, and the bonds given, the said customer, &c. shall deliver up to such exporters their securities, that the same may be cancelled, if no fraud in the mean time appeared, or no prosecution thereon shall have been commenced, 25 G. 3. c. 64. s. 6.

113. The 12 G. 2. c. 26. (s. 6.) as far as it relates to the not obliging the wares of silver therein specifically mentioned, viz. rings, jewels, settings, chains, &c., and such other wares of silver therein generally named, to be stamped; and also 24 G. 3. c. 53. s. 9. as far as it relates to the not compelling any of the wares of silver to be stamped with the stamp directed by the last mentioned act, which are excepted in the said act, 12 G. 2. c. 26., shall cease, 30 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1. [Public clause, s. 6.]

114. Nothing in those acts shall oblige any of the following wares of silver to be stamped with the marks mentioned in the 12 G. 2. or to be marked with the new mark of the king's head, mentioned in 24 G. 3. viz. chains, necklaces, bends, lockets, any philligree work, shirt buckles or broaches, stamped metals, or spouts to china, stone, or earthenware tea-pots, or any of them, of any weight whatsoever, (id. s. 3.) or shall oblige any of the following wares of silver to be stamped with the marks mentioned in 12 G. 2. c. 26. with the new mark of the king's head, mentioned in 24 G. 3. c. 53. viz. tippings, swages, or mounts, or any of them, not weighing 10 dwts. of silver each, save and except only necks and collars for castors, cruets, or glasses, appertaining to any sort of stands or frames, (id. s. 4.) or shall oblige any wares of silver whatsoever, not weighing 5 dwts. of silver each, to be marked with the marks of 12 G. 2. c. 26. or 24 G. 3. c. 53. except only the following silver wares, viz. necks, collars, and tops for castors, cruets, or glasses appertaining to any sort of stands or frames, buttons to be affixed to or set on any wearing apparel, solid sleeve buttons, and solid studs, not having a bisulled edge soldered on, wrought seals, blank seals, bottle tickets, shoe clasps, patch boxes, salt spoons, salt shovels, salt ladles, tea spoons, tea strainers, caddy ladles, buckles (shirt buckles or broaches, before mentioned, excepted), and pieces to garnish cabinets, or knife cases, or tea chests, or bridles, or stands, or frames, id. s. 5.

GREENWICH HOSPITAL.

1. FOR INCREASE AND ENCOURAGEMENT OF SEAMEN, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 21.

2. "[Recital that W. & M. had granted certain land and the palace of Greenwich for a hospital for relief of seamen, their widows and children, ss. 1—3. and by letters patent of 10th Sept., 1695, had also granted an annual sum out of treasury for maintenance thereof, id. s. 4. [AMD. 2 A. c. 6. s. 19., 10 A. c. 17., 2 G. 2. c. 7., 18 G. 2. c. 31. ss. 1—4.]

3. Every [registered] R.E.P. as to registry of seamen by 9 A. c. 21. s. 64.] seaman, mariner, waterman, fisherman, lighterman, keelman, or seafaring man disabled for sea service by age, wounds, or accidents, and not in a condition to maintain himself comfortably, and the widows and children of such of them as shall be killed or drowned in sea-service, shall, on certificate thereof from the captain, master, surgeon, and purser, or so many of them as were in the ship for the time being, under his or their hand and seal, to the governors of Greenwich hospital, shall be admitted and placed therein, and shall have provided for him during life out of the revenues, and according to the rules of such hospital, fitting lodging, meat, drink, clothing, and other necessities; and the widows of such seamen, watermen, &c. who shall be slain or drowned in the sea-service, and the children of such as are not of ability to provide comfortably for themselves, shall be received into the said hospital, and provided for; and the latter shall be educated till they are fit to be put out, or of ability to maintain themselves; so far forth as the hospital shall be capable to receive such disabled seamen, and such widows and children, and as the revenues thereof will extend, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 21. s. 7.

4. Every seaman who shall serve in any of H. M.'s ships, or in any ship belonging to any H. M.'s subjects, shall allow out of the wages of such service 6d. per mensem for support of the said hospital, for the purposes aforesaid; which monthly allowance shall be collected as appointed by the commissioners for executing the office of lord high admiral, id. s. 10.

5. Licences shall be given by order of M. H. or the admiralty, to any landmen desirous to apply themselves to the sea-service, to serve in merchants' ships, or other trading vessels, which shall be a protection against being impressed, for 2 years following the date of such licence; [provided that such landmen bring to the register 2 persons inhabitants or known in the place where they so enter themselves, who shall assert their knowledge of such landmen for 2 years past, and in what business they have known them employed; and any person who shall vouch any one for a landman who shall be proved to be a seaman, shall forfeit 20l., and any seaman taking another's name, or person counterfeiting any licence, shall forfeit 20l. and be liable to such further punishment as by law may be inflicted for such misdemeanor; Qv. if in force since 9 A. c. 21. s. 64.] id. s. 15.

6. When any vacancies happen in Greenwich Hospital, the commissioners executing the office of lord high admiral, may nominate any disabled seamen, their wives and children, and the widows and children of seamen slain or drowned in sea service, to be provided for in the hospital, 2 A. c. 6. s. 19.

7. Every person that shall serve H. M., or any other, in any of H. M.'s ships, or in any ship belonging to subjects of G. B. or Ire., or of the dominions thereunto belonging, and every master working in his own ship, whether employed on the high sea or coasts, or in any port, bay, or creek, (other than such apprentices under the age of 18 years, as are exempted from payment of 6d. per mensem, by 2 A. c. 6., and persons employed in any boat upon the coasts, in taking of fish which are brought fresh on shore into G. B. and Ire., and persons employed in boats that trade only from place to place within any river, or in open boats upon the coasts,) shall pay the said 6d. per mensem for support of Greenwich Hospital, 10 A. c. 17. s. 1.

8. The master of every ship, not in H. M.'s service, shall deduct out of the wages accruing to such seaman 6d. per mensem, and pay the same to the officers appointed by the admiralty, id. s. 2.

9. The admiralty may appoint receivers of the said duty, and authorise them to depute the collectors or other officers of customs of the out-ports, and of the ports of Ire., or such other as they shall think fit to collect the same; and may make such allowance to them out of the said duties as they shall judge reasonable, id. s. 3.

10. Such receivers, or their deputies, may by warrant, summon all masters, or in their absence the owners of ships, not in H. M.'s service, to appear at their office, so as the person summoned be not obliged to travel above 10 miles; and shall examine every such master or owner, as to the number and times of service of all persons belonging to such ships, who are chargeable with 6d. per mensem; and if such masters, &c. refuse when summoned (not having a reasonable excuse) to appear, or obstinately refuse to make discovery of the matters aforesaid on their oaths, or neglect to pay the monies due to the hospital within 14 days after they shall be cleared inwards, they shall forfeit 20l., one moiety to the use of the said hospital, and the other to such person as shall sue for the same in any of H. M.'s courts of record; and if a verdict pass for plaintiff, he shall have double costs; and if any such master shall attempt to go to sea with his ship before he hath paid the said duty for the voyage preceding, such receivers, or their deputies, may stop such ship; and on the death or removal of any master, the owners shall deliver to the succeeding master a true account of the said duty due to the hospital, and money sufficient for payment of the same; and in default thereof, such receivers, &c. may stop such ship from proceeding to sea, id. s. 4. [See a like provision as to privateers, 18 G. 2. c. 31. s. 4. pl. 30.]

11. Where by this act an oath is required to be taken, the solemn affirmation of quakers shall be accepted instead; and any quaker who shall on such affirmation declare any matter which shall be false, or any other person who shall willingly make a false oath, shall suffer like punishment as persons convicted of wilful perjury id. s. 5.

12. No private contracts made by any seaman shall obstruct or delay payment of the duties appropriated to the said hospital, id. s. 6.

13. Any person sued for any thing done in the execution of this act, may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence; and if plaintiff is nonsuit or loses a verdict, defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s. 7.

14. Nothing in this act shall oblige the payment of the 6d. per mensem by any masters or servants of the hoys or vessels belonging to the port of London, and employed within the North Foreland, in bringing corn, fish, or other provisions for London, id. s. 8.

15. The admiralty shall consider, as qualified for an admission into the said hospital, any seaman offering himself to be admitted, and producing a certificate of his having been wounded or hurt in defending any ship belonging to the subjects of H. M. against enemies, or in taking any ship from the enemy, and thereby disabled for sea service, id. s. 20.

16. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL COLLECTING IN G. B. AND OTHER H. M.'s dominions, the duties granted for support of Greenwich hospital, 2 G. 2. c. 7.

17. The several acts, [viz. 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 21., 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 23., 10 A. c. 17. ss. 1—3., and now 18 G. 2. c. 31. ss. 1—4.] concerning the duty of 6d. per month payable by all seamen for support of Greenwich hospital, shall extend to all ships belonging to H. M.'s subjects, within Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and within all H. M.'s dominions in America, as well as those within G. B. and Ire., 2 G. 2. c. 7. s. 1.

18. For better collecting such duty, the receivers thereof may depute any officers of the customs in the several ports of the said islands and colonies, or such other persons as they think fit, to collect the same; and the admiralty may make such allowance to them out of the duty, as they judge reasonable, id. s. 2.

19. The collectors of the duty in the ports of the said islands and colonies, shall summon and examine on oath all masters and owners of ships belonging to H. M.'s subjects, as by 10 A. c. 17.; and any such master, &c. who shall neglect to appear and make such discovery, &c. shall forfeit 20l., id. s. 3.

20. All masters, &c. of ships belonging to H. M.'s subjects within the said islands or colonies, who shall sail from thence to G. B. or Ire., and back to the said islands or colonies, shall pay such part of the said duty as shall be due at their arrival, and during their continuance in G. B. or Ire., within the said kingdoms; and such part as shall be due at the time of their return to, and during their continuance in, the said islands or colonies, within the said islands and colonies; and all masters, &c. of ships, belonging to any subjects of H. M. within G. B. or Ire., who shall trade from thence to any of the said islands or colonies, shall pay the said duty of 6d. per month, only in G. B. or Ire., 2 G. 2. c. 7. s. 4.

21. The receivers of the duty, and their deputies, may by warrant, summon and examine on oath all masters, &c. of ships employed by the navy, victualling, ordnance, customs, post-office, or any other public offices of the crown, in H. M.'s service; and every such master, &c., refusing to appear, or to make discovery, or neglecting to pay the duty, shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 5.

22. The secretaries or chief clerks of the navy, victualling-office, ordnance, custom-house, post-office, and all other public offices of the crown, usually employing ships for the service of H. M., shall, on 1 Jan. in each year, or within 20 days following, deliver into the office of the receiver of the duty in the port of London, a list of the ships that in the year preceding have been employed by such office, and of all ships which remain in the service of such office, and of such as shall be discharged, and of the names of the masters, &c. and the numbers of seamen employed in every such ship; and no treasurer or other officer belonging to such office, shall make out or pay any bill for the freight of any ship so employed, or pay any wages to any master, &c. till such master, &c. shall produce to such treasurer, &c. an acquittance signed by the receiver or his deputy, whereby it shall appear, that such master, &c. hath paid the said duty of 6d. per month, and that he is not more than 30 days in arrear to the hospital; and if any default is made by any secretary or other officer belonging to any of the public offices in any thing hereby directed, such secretary, &c. shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 6.

23. All masters of merchant ships or other private vessels liable to the duty of 6d. per month, shall pay the said duty, before any such ships shall be cleared inward, in any ports of G. B. or Ire., or of Guernsey, Jersey, &c. or of the colonies in America; and no officer of the customs shall clear inwards any merchant ship liable to the said duty, or grant any warrant, or give or make out any cocket, transire's, returns, or discharges to such ships, nor suffer them to go out of any port, till the master, &c. produce to the officer an acquittance signed by the receiver, whereby it shall appear, that such master, &c. hath paid the said duty, and that he is not more than 30 days in arrear; and every master of such ship, who shall neglect to pay the 6d. per month, and also every officer of the customs, who shall make default in the premises, shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 7.

24. Where by this act an oath is required, the solemn affirmation of quakers shall be accepted instead of such oath; and any quaker affirming any matter which shall be false, or any other, before any persons hereby authorized, who shall wilfully make a false oath, shall suffer the punishments of wilful and corrupt perjury, as provided by the laws of the places where such offence shall be committed, id. s. 8.

25. All penalties incurred by this act, within G. B. or Ire., shall be recovered as by 10 A. c. 17. for the forfeiture of 20*l.* inflicted on the masters neglecting to appear, &c. and all penalties incurred within the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, &c. or the said colonies in America, shall be recovered as usual for other penalties incurred by virtue of penal laws within the said islands and colonies, together with double costs; and one moiety of the penalties shall be to the use of the hospital, and the other to the use of such persons as shall sue for the same, id. s. 9.

26. Any person sued for any thing done in execution hereof, may plead the general issue, and shall [see the terms, ante, pl. 13.] recover treble costs, id. s. 10.

27. Every officer or other person employed in any privateer or ship, having letter of marque belonging to any subjects, shall pay 6d. per month, or proportionably, during service in such ship for better support of Greenwich hospital, 18 G. 2. c. 31. s. 1.

28. The commander or owner of every privateer, &c. as in s. 1., shall detain out of the wages and shares of prizes payable to such officer or other person employed in his ship such duty of 6d. per month, (other than persons exempted by former acts,) and shall pay the same to the officers appointed by the admiralty on that behalf, id. s. 2.

29. The commander of every privateer, &c. (as in s. 1.) before he sails from any port of G. B. or Ire., Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or within H. M.'s colonies in America, shall deliver to the customs collector a list signed by him of the names, ages, and descriptions of every person employed therein, and on arrival at, or return to any such port, shall deliver to such collector there a copy on oath of the list delivered to the collector of the port from which he sailed, and an account in writing, whether all or any of the men are returned; and if any are wanting, what is become of them, or on default shall forfeit 50*l.*, one moiety to the hospital, and the other to the party suing, id. s. 3.

30. The receiver of the 6d. duty, or his deputy, by warrant under his hand, may summon all such commanders, or in their absence the owners of such privateers, &c. (as in s. 1.) to appear at his office, (so as the person summoned be not obliged to travel above 10 miles,) and shall examine them as to the number and times of service of all persons employed in such ships, who are liable to such 6d. per month; and every such person refusing (without reasonable excuse) to appear, or to make discovery on oath, or to pay the monies due to the hospital within 6 calendar months after due notice from such receiver, &c. shall forfeit 50*l.*, one moiety to the hospital and the other to the party suing by action of debt, or information in any court of record without essoin, &c. allowed, with double costs to plaintiff if he obtain a verdict; and if such commander attempt to go to sea with such ship, before accounting with and paying the receiver, &c. the duty for the preceding voyage, the latter may stop his ship; and on death or removal of such commander, the owners shall deliver to the succeeding master an account of the 6d. duty due, and money sufficient for paying same, in default whereof the ship may be stopped as above, 18 G. 2. c. 31. s. 4.

31. FOR APPLICATION OF RENTS AND PROFITS OF THE ESTATES forfeited by attainders of James, earl of Derwentwater, and Charles Radcliffe, 8 G. 2. c. 29. [AMD. 13 G. 2. c. 30.]

32. FOR VESTING THE ABOVE ESTATES IN TRUSTEES for an absolute estate of inheritance for benefit of the royal hospital at Greenwich, 22 G. 2. c. 52. [AMD. 16 G. 3. c. 24.]

33. FOR VESTING THEM IN THE COMMISSIONERS AND GOVERNORS of Greenwich hospital, incorporated by letters patent, 16 G. 3. c. 24. [The titles only of these statutes are given as they appear of a personal nature.]

34. TO PREVENT THE RECEIVING OF CLOTHES AND GOODS belonging to Greenwich hospital, (Framed from the preamble to these sections,) 20 G. 2. c. 24. ss. 16—17. [virtually AMD. 54 G. 3. c. 110. s. 1.]

35. Every pawnbroker, or other person, who shall take to pawn, buy, exchange, or receive any clothes, linen, and other goods or stores belonging to H. M. or to the governor and directors of Greenwich hospital, appropriated to and for the wear of the pensioners or nurses thereof, during their continuance therein, and to the use of such hospital from any such nurse, pensioner, or other person on any pretence soever, or who shall cause the colour of such clothes, linen, or goods, to be changed, or the marks taken out or defaced, shall forfeit 5*l.* for every such offence, on conviction by oath of one or more witnesses, before any justice of the county, wherein such offence is committed; which penalty shall be levied by justice's warrant under his hand and seal, by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, one moiety thereof to go to the informer, and the other to the use of the hospital; and in case no sufficient distress can be found, or the offender so convicted shall not pay the same in 4 days after conviction, such justice shall, at discretion and by like warrant, either commit him to gaol for 3 months, or cause him to be publicly whipped, id. s. 16.

36. Every pensioner or nurse of the hospital who shall run away from the same, and carry away with them any clothes, linen, stores, or goods, delivered to them to wear or use whilst they belong to the hospital, or any other clothes, goods, or stores belonging thereto, shall, on lawful conviction by oath of one witness, be committed to the common gaol or house of correction of the town, city, or county, where they were apprehended, for 6 months, id. ibid., 54 G. 3. c. 110. s. 1. s. p.

37. In actions against any person, or against any governor, &c. or other house officer of such hospital concerned in the government thereof, or any servant or agent employed by them in collecting the rents thereof, or in any other matter relating to such house, for any thing done in execution of this act, or relating to such hospital, defendant may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, with treble costs if plaintiff is nonsuit or defendant has a verdict, id. s. 17.

38. TO PREVENT THE EMBEZZLEMENT OF CERTAIN PROPERTY belonging to Greenwich hospital, 54 G. 3. c. 110. s. 1. (Public clause, s. 7.)

39. The commissioners and governors of the hospital shall, from time to time, cause the clothes, linen, stores, and other articles, belonging to the hospital, and capable of being marked, to be marked, stamped, or branded with an anchor, surmounted with a naval crown, with 2 flags over the crown, and the letter G on one and H on the other side of such device, and any pawnbroker or other person who shall take in pawn, buy, exchange, or receive any clothes, linen, or other goods marked, &c. as above, from any person on any pretence soever, (such mark, &c. being considered sufficient evidence of the property,) or who shall cause such mark, &c. to be taken out, obliterated, or defaced, shall forfeit 10*l.* for every such offence, on conviction by oath of one or more credible witnesses before any one or more justices of the county, wherein the same is committed, to be levied by warrant under hand and seal of such justice or justices, by distress and sale of the offender's goods, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the use of the hospital; and in case any such offender so convicted shall not have sufficient goods and chattels, whereon distress may be made to the value of the penalty recovered, or shall not pay such penalty in 4 days after conviction, then such justice, by warrant under his hand and seal, shall commit such offender to the county gaol for 3 months, 54 G.3. c.110. s.1.

40. To IMPOWER THE COMMISSIONERS OF Greenwich HOSPITAL, after defraying the necessary expences thereof, to provide for such seamen, as being worn and become decrepid in the service of their country, shall not be provided for within that hospital, and to enable them to receive their pensions in the most convenient manner, and for preventing frauds and abuses therein, 5 G.3. c.16. [EXR. by, and to be construed as one act with 46 G.3. c.100., id. s.5. AMD. comm. semb. 43 G.3. c.120. s.22. and as to s.3. by 55 G.3. c.56. s.3. and see 55 G.3. c.1. Provisions as to Ire. 54 G.3. c.110. ss.2—6.]

41. The commissioners impowered to grant out-pensions to worn and decrepid seamen, 5 G.3. c.16. s.1.

42. All assignments, bargains, sales, orders, contracts, agreements, or securities soever, given or made by any out-pensioner for any sums of money to become due on any such out-pension, are void, id. s.2.; [but see 59 G.3. c.12. s.30., Poor, pl. 126.]

43. The treasurer of the hospital shall make out 2 bills for every such out-pension, which shall be duplicates and joined together with oblique lines, flourishes, and devices, and made payable to the out-pensioner by the receiver-general of land-tax, collector of customs or excise, or clerk of cheque, respectively, according to the appointment therein; which being numbered and dated shall be signed [QU. if not now signed by the paymaster of pensions, 55 G.3. c.56. s.3. next pl. and pl. 69, and see 55 G.3. c.1. s.8., infra, pl. 70.] by the treasurer or his first clerk, and attested by steward or clerk of the cheque of the hospital, id. s.3. [see the form, next pl. prescribed by 55 G.3. c.56. s.3., semble superseding that provided by 5 G.3. c.16. s.3.]

44. Any 5 or more commissioners or directors of the hospital may direct the bills for payment of pensions to be made out in such form as to them appears most proper, and to be signed by the paymaster of pensions of the hospital, [see 55 G.3. c.1. s.7. pl. 69] or in his absence by his chief clerk, or to be otherwise signed as to them shall seem fit, and until the commissioners, &c. shall otherwise direct, the bills shall be as follows:

Sir,

Royal Hospital, Greenwich.

Pay to B. D. of —, in the county of —, out-pensioner of the royal hospital at Greenwich, upon producing the duplicate hereof, together with a certificate under the hands of the minister and church-wardens (or in Scot. under the hands of the minister and two elders) of the parish where he resides, that to the best of their knowledge and belief, he is the person named in such bill, the sum of —, being an account of his pension, if the same shall be demanded within 6 calendar months from the date hereof, otherwise you are to return this bill to the paymaster of pensions of the said royal hospital. — Paymaster, 55 G.3. c.56. s.3.

NOTE.—The personating, or falsely assuming the name and character of any out-pensioner of Greenwich hospital, in order to receive the out-pension due to such out-pensioner, or procuring any other to do the same, is felony without benefit of clergy, by 5 G.3. (vis. c.16. s.6. pl. 48.)

[This warning clause is not annexed to the form in 55 G.3. c.56. s.3. but is here given from 5 G.3. c.16. s.3. as this part does not seem superseded by 55 G.3. c.56. s.3. See 54 G.3. c.110. s.6. infra, pl. 54, and the most comprehensive provision of this nature, 57 G.3. c.127. s.4. tit. PRIZE.]

45. The bills being so made out and signed, shall be cut asunder indistinctly through the oblique lines, flourishes or devices, and one of them shall be transmitted forthwith to the person specified therein, and the other to the said receiver-general, &c. who shall, if the duplicate is produced to them in 6 calendar months from its date, examine the same with the said certificate, and administer an oath, as to the truth thereof, to the person producing the same, and if satisfied of its truth, shall testify the same on the back of the bill, and shall pay (gratis) the out-pensioner the sum therein contained, taking his receipt on the back thereof; which bill so paid, shall, on production thereof at his office, be immediately repaid by the treasurer of the navy to such receiver-general, &c., or to his order; but if the duplicate of such bill be not produced in 6 months from date, or if the proper certificate of the out-pensioner is not produced with it, the bill shall be returned to the treasurer of Greenwich hospital, to be cancelled, after which, such part of the pension shall become payable as if the bill had not been made out, 5 G.3. c.16. s.3., [see a similar enactment, 43 G.3. c.119. s.13. which also enacts, that all such bills and receipts so made and given, shall be free from stamp duty.]

46. Where such receiver-general, &c. (as in 5 G.3. c.16. s.3. last pl.) on tender for payment of such duplicate, shall not have in his hands sufficient public money to answer the same, and shall refuse or delay the immediate payment thereof, he shall indorse thereon the day of tender, and cause of delay to pay the same, appointing thereon some future day of payment within 2 months at farthest from the day of tender, and shall deliver it back to the person presenting the same: and if he unnecessarily delay payment, or take any fee, &c. for payment thereof, he shall, on conviction before any 3 or more of the commissioners of land-tax, customs, or excise, or of the navy, if the person complained of be a clerk of the cheque, forfeit any sum not exceeding 50*l.* to the informer, recoverable like any penalty incurred under the customs or excise laws, 5 G.3. c.16. s.4.

47. Bills so paid by the navy treasurer shall be allowed in his accounts with the treasurer of the hospital, as a payment of so much ready cash, id. s.5.

48. Any person knowingly personating, or falsely assuming the name or character of any person entitled, or supposed to be entitled to any such out-pension, or procuring any person so to do, in order to receive the money due, or supposed to be due thereon, shall, on conviction, suffer death as a felon without benefit of clergy, id. s.6. 54 G.3. c.110. s.6. infra, pl. 54., [and see the last and most comprehensive provision of this nature, 57 G.3. c.127. s.4. tit. PRIZE.]

49. In case any pensioner to whom such duplicate of bill [viz. for pension on Greenwich chest, now dissolved, 55 G.3. c.1. s.3—4.] is remitted, shall be disabled from appearing personally before the receiver-general, collector of customs, or excise, or clerk of cheque, by bodily infirmity; which disability is certified in writing by the minister and church-wardens (or minister and elders in Scot.) of the parish where he is resident, or by his medical attendant, then the money shall be paid to any other person to whom such pensioner shall, by writing under his hand, to be indorsed on such duplicate order the same to be paid: such person at the time of demanding payment thereof, producing such duplicate of bill, with the respective certificates as to the identity of the pensioner, and his inability to appear in person, and giving a receipt for same at foot of such order, which order and receipt shall be free from stamp duty, 43 G.3. c.119. s.22. [but QU. if now in force, as applying merely to pensioners on Greenwich chest, dissolved as above.]

50. So much of 33 G.3. c.25. (Ir.) as relates to any provision for enabling seamen resident in Ire. to receive out-pensions granted to them by the commissioners and governors of the hospital, and for preventing frauds therein is RFP., 54 G.3. c.110. s.2.

51. The hospital treasurer or his deputy, legally authorized, shall, as occasion requires, make out 2 certificates for any out-pension granted by the said commissioners and govr. residing in Ire., which certificates shall be duplicates, and joined together, with oblique lines or devices, and numbered, dated, and signed, [QU. if not now signed by the paymaster of pensions, 55 G.3. c.56. s.3. supra, pl. 44. and pl. 69., and see 55 G.3. c.1. s.8. infra, pl. 70.] by the said treasurer, deputy, or his first clerk, and attested by the steward of the hospital, or the clerk of the cheque, or his first clerk, and addressed to the collector of the district in Ire. in which the out-pensioner shall reside, and shall be written or printed in the form, or to the effect set forth in schedule A., one of which shall be transmitted to the out-pensioner, and the other to the collector to whom it is addressed; and on production of the duplicate thereof to the collector, by the person entitled to receive the money therein mentioned, he shall examine it, and inquire into its truth, by oath of the person producing the same (which oath he shall administer) and being duly satisfied of its truth, shall immediately, without fee, pay to the person specified the sum mentioned thereon, taking his receipt on the back thereof for the same; but such claim shall be made to the collector in 9 months from the date, and in case such duplicate shall not be produced, and payment demanded within 9 calendar months from the date, the collector shall transmit the certificate to the hospital treasurer at Greenwich, 54 G.3. c.110. s.3.

52. If such collector to whom tender of such duplicate is made for payment, shall not have in his hands public money sufficient to answer it, or shall refuse immediate payment, he shall indorse on the back thereof the day of tender, and cause of refusal to pay the same, and shall appoint thereon for its payment some future day within one month, at farthest, from its presentment, which, with its indorsement, shall immediately be delivered back to the person presenting it, and if on complaint to the commissioners of revenue in Ire. (who, or any 3 of whom, may hear and determine the same) it is proved to their satisfaction that such collector has wilfully or unnecessarily refused payment thereof, or that he, or any person employed by him, has taken any fee, gratuity, or deduction whatever, on account of such payment, they may fine him in not exceeding 50*l.*, recoverable like any penalty incurred under the customs or excise laws, id. s.4.

53. Every collector who shall pay any money to any person entitled to the same under this act, shall return the duplicate on which the receipt is indorsed, (as in s.2.) to the above commissioners (s.3.) who shall quarterly cause a certificate to be given to such collector, specifying the amount of the money paid by him within such quarter, and he shall be credited by them for the same, id. s.5.

54. Every person who shall knowingly personate, or falsely assume the name or character of, or procure another to personate, &c. any person to whom such certificate shall have been granted, in order to receive the money mentioned therein, or in order to receive any money due, or supposed to be due on account of any such out-pension, or who shall procure another person so to do, or who shall forge, or counterfeit, or procure to be forged, &c. any bill, certificate, letter of attorney, ticket, certificate, assignment, last will, or other power, authority, or document, soever, in order to receive such money, or shall willingly, &c. take a false oath, or procure another so to do, or shall utter, as true, any forged, &c., letter of attorney, &c. (as above) in order to receive payment of any money due, or supposed to be due for any out-pension, and is convicted of any such offence, is guilty of felony, and shall suffer death as a felon without benefit of clergy, 44 G.3. c.110. s.6.

55. FOR IMPROVING THE FUNDS OF Chatham chest, and for transferring its administration to Greenwich hospital, [in a department called Greenwich chest,] and for ameliorating the condition of the pensioners on those funds, 43 G.3. c.119. [AMD. by 46 G.3. c.101. and 55 G.3. c.1. s.56. PUBLIC clause, id. s.4., but almost entirely EXP. since Greenwich chest was dissolved, by 55 G.3. c.1. ss.3—4. which act is AMD. as to ss.1—2. by 55 G.3. c.133. s.4.]

56. FOR ENCOURAGEMENT AND REWARD OF PETTY OFFICERS, seamen, and royal marines for long and faithful service, and for consolidation of the chest at Greenwich, with the royal hospital there, 55 G.3. c.1.

57. TO AUTHORIZE THE COMMISSIONERS AND GOVERNORS OF Greenwich hospital to transfer 1,355,400 3 per cent. consols, standing in the name of the "corporation of the chest of Greenwich," into the name of the commissioners, and to receive the dividends due on such annuities, 55 G.3. c.56., [and see pl. 74.]

58. The chest at Chatham shall be removed from Chatham to Greenwich hospital, and called the Greenwich chest, [the chest dissolved 55 G.3. c.1. s.3., and its funds consolidated with those of the hospital, id. s.4.] 45 G.3. c.119. s.1.

59. The lands and hereditaments given by s.1. to the use of Greenwich chest, are vested in the body corporate of the "superior of Greenwich chest," therein mentioned, [dissolved 55 G.3. c.1. s.3. pl. 65.] in trust to sell the same, and invest the purchase-money in the 3 per cents. for the use thereof, id. s.2. [This stock was consolidated with the hospital funds, 56 G.3. c.1. s.4.; and see 55 G.3. c.56.]

60. The lands, &c. sold, shall be conveyed to the purchasers free of chest incumbrances, id. s.3.

61. The receipt of the Greenwich chest accountant for the purchase-money, shall discharge the purchaser who is not bound so see the investment thereof made, 46 G.3. c.101. s.4.

62. The commissioners on application made to them by any person claiming pensions for length of navy service, may apportion the pensions according to their length of service, allowing for previous service as a non-commissioned officer or private marine, or as a non-commissioned officer or private soldier in any land forces, 55 G.3. c.133. s.4.

63. The commissioners and governors of Greenwich hospital, out of their present funds, as well as out of those by this act, or at any time hereafter transferred to the use of the hospital, may grant pensions, remunerations or allowances to petty officers, seamen, and marines, who, on account of the length of their services, and good and faithful conduct, may be deemed deserving thereof, in like manner as pensions, &c. are now granted to petty officers, &c., wounded, disabled, or worn-out in H. M.'s service, 55 G.3. c.1. s.1.

64. The commissioners shall, in granting pensions, be hereafter guided by such regulation, scale, and proportion, as H. M. by order in council shall direct, id. s.2.

65. From 1st Jan. 1815, the corporation of "Supervisors of the chest at Greenwich" [created 43 G.3. c.119. s.1. pl. 59.] is dissolved, and all powers and duties exercised by them shall be transferred to and imposed on the commissioners and governors of Greenwich hospital, id. s.3.

66. All the funds of Greenwich chest shall belong to the above commissioners, as part of the hospital funds, and shall be paid over to the treasurer of the hospital in aid of the purposes of this act, and of the general funds of the hospital, id. s.4.

67. All stock standing in the names of any person on 1st Jan. 1815, in trust for the chest, shall be transferred to the above commissioners, id. s.5.

68. Compensation shall be made to the officers of Greenwich chest, who shall lose their offices by this act, and are not re-appointed under s.7. hereof, id. s.6.

69. One proper person shall be appointed accountant and paymaster of pensions in the royal hospital, with such clerks under him, with such salaries, and subject to the regulations directed by the commissioners, which paymaster and clerks shall be appointed to, and removeable from, their offices respectively, under the rules existing with regard to the other hospital officers, except the governor and treasurer thereof, id. s.7.

70. Such paymaster shall perform all acts and duties concerning out-pensions heretofore or hereafter granted from Greenwich hospital, as now by law required to be performed with regard to such duties, or to pensions now granted from the funds of Greenwich chest by the treasurer of the hospital, or accountant of the chest respectively; and the signature, acts, and deeds of the paymaster, with regard to all such pensions, shall be of as full value as if it were the signature, &c. of such treasurer or accountant respectively, 55 G.3. c.1. s.8.

71. Nothing herein shall enable the paymaster to draw any monies out of the bank, or to receive or give receipts for any monies on account of the hospital, or to exercise any power now vested in the treasurer for receipt and custody of any hospital funds, except as regards sums by the treasurer transferred or paid to the paymaster for payment or discharge of the out-pensions; for all which sums he shall be accountable, according to the regulations in force at the time, with regard to allowances issued for such purposes, id. s.9.

72. All letters and packets addressed to such paymaster, on any affairs relating to the hospital, shall be free of postage; and all letters sent by him, relating to out-pensions, shall be sent free of postage, and shall be under cover with "Out pensions, pursuant to act of parliament, fifty-fifth George the Third" printed thereon, and the paymaster or his chief clerk shall write his name under the same; and if either shall convey under any such covers any writing, paper, or parcel, other than those relating to such out-pensions, the offender shall forfeit 100*l.*, id. s.10.

73. All the provisions and penalties, as well of death as otherwise, contained in any acts in force relating to out-pensions, granted by the commissioners, shall be applied to the purposes of this act, and to the pensions to be granted in pursuance of ss.1—2. pl. 63—64., id. s.12.

74. The corporation of commissioners and governors of Greenwich hospital, by power of attorney in their corporate name, and under their corporate seal, may make any person their attorney, to transfer the sum of 3 per cent. consols, 1,355,400*l.* from the name of the corporation of the Greenwich chest into that of the above commissioners, and to receive all dividends due thereon for the purposes mentioned in 55 G.3. c.1., 55 G.3. c.56. s.1.

75. The bank indemnified for such transfer, and not required to see the application of the dividends, id. s.2.

76. TO EMPOWER THE COMMISSIONERS AND GOVERNORS OF Greenwich hospital to make certain allowances to old, infirm, wounded, or disabled officers in the royal navy, and to provide a fund for the payment thereof, and for the increase of pensions to disabled seamen and marines, 46 G.3. c.100.

77. The commissioners are empowered to grant certain allowances in addition to their half-pay, to old, infirm, or disabled captains, commanders, and lieutenants of the navy, not provided for in the hospital; provided that no such allowance and half-pay shall together exceed 3-4ths of the salary paid to officers of similar rank resident in the hospital, id. s.1.

78. Prize agents, under 45 G.3. c.72. to retain for use of the hospital 1*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* per cent. on proceeds of prizes taken in the then war, id. s.2. [Semb. EXP.]

79. A like per centage on the amount of the net proceeds of droits of admiralty shall be retained for the use of the hospital, id. s.3. [and see 57 G.3. c.127. s.3. infra, pl. 84.]

80. A like per centage on amount of bounty money for ships taken in the then war, [id. s.4. semb. EXP.]

81. TO SETTLE THE SHARE OF PRIZE MONEY, droits of admiralty, and bounty money payable to Greenwich hospital, and for securing to that hospital all unclaimed shares of vessels found derelict, and of seizures for breach of revenue, colonial navigation, and slave abolition laws, 57 G.3. c.127.

82. Greenwich hospital is entitled to receive 5*l.* per cent. on the net proceeds of all prizes taken and condemned since 17th June, 1814, and on all grants to the royal navy and marines, and on all bounty monies, and seizures under the revenue, colonial navigation, or slave abolition laws, and also on all droits of admiralty arisen and payable to or amongst any crews of H. M.'s ships since 17th June, 1814. id. s.1.

83. All prize agents under any prize act now in force, or hereafter passed, shall, out of the net proceeds of all prizes taken and condemned since 17th June, 1814, and from the net proceeds of all bounty bills, and of all seizures under the revenue, colonial navigation, or slave abolition laws, and of all monies arising from derelicts, and of all grants which have come into their hands, retain for the use of the hospital; and shall (within 10 days after the account thereof examined and certified by the examiner of naval prize accounts, or if there is no such officer, in 10 days from notification of any distribution of the said monies), pay over to the hospital treasurer, his deputy, or appointee under hand and seal to receive same, the sum of 5*l.* per cent. on the net proceeds of every such prize grant, or other monies, which payment and the treasurer's receipt shall be a sufficient discharge to such agent for the same, in his account with the parties entitled to a share thereof, id. s.2.

84. The receiver of the droits of admiralty for the time being, as soon as possible, after the net proceeds arising therefrom have, from time to time, been ascertained, and after expiration of the period of appeal against any adjudication in relation thereto, shall deliver in an account thereof, and pay to the hospital treasurer or his deputy, &c. the 5*l.* per cent. on such net proceeds for the use of the hospital, id. s.3. [See s.4.

as to persons being scamen, for obtaining prize money, forging orders, &c. tit. PRIZE.]

85. When such per centage was paid into the hands of the hospital treasurer, the same shall be appropriated to the current services of the hospital, 57 G.3. c.127. s. 5.

86. Greenwich hospital is entitled to all forfeited and unclaimed shares of the proceeds arising from any vessels found derelict by any H.M.'s ships, and out of all seizures for breach of the revenue, colonial revenue, and slave abolition laws, made by any H. M.'s ships, and of and from all bounties given under the laws against the slave trade, and every person, agent for payment or distribution of all such proceeds and bounty, or other monies shall be subject to 54 G.3. c.93. supra, id. s. 6.

87. TO ENABLE THE GOVERNORS OF Greenwich hospital to continue to provide for the payment of out-pensioners thereof, 1 & 2 G.4. c. 98.

88. The governors shall continue to pay all such out-pensioners as heretofore, out of the interest, or by sale of the principal of any capital stock, public funds, or annuities, vested in them as such governors for hospital purposes, other than those vested in them by legacy or bequest, to or for the benefit of the hospital; provided that, if in the judgment of the governors, the making any such payments may restore the annual income arising from the estates, rents, revenues, and public or other securities, and sums applicable to hospital purposes, below what may be sufficient for its necessary expences, then, before making such payments out of any interest, or sale of such principal, they shall require and receive from the treasury security, either by deposit or issue of exchequer bills to them, for all such sums so paid or to be paid, in order that the adequacy of the hospital funds, for the necessary expences thereof, may be fully secured, and the governors are hereby indemnified in making any such payments, and applying the funds under their control in paying such out-pensioners; and the treasury, by warrant under the hands of any 3 or more of them, may direct the proper officer of exchequer, either to deposit with or issue to them, from time to time, any such amount of exchequer bills, out of those granted by parliament towards the supplies of the year, as may be necessary to secure the amount of such payments, or necessary to enable them to make the same, id. s. 1.

89. Nothing herein shall require the governors to continue to pay any such out-pensions after the principal of the stock, &c. now in their possession, is exhausted, id. s. 2.

3. OF MAINTAINING LANDS IN WARD, and restoring them to heirs, &c., id. c. 5. [semb. EXP. as to the above since 12 C.2. c. 24. ss. 1—2.; but see BENEFICE, pl. 1.]

4. HEIRS SHALL BE NAMED without disparagement, id. c. 6.

5. IN WHAT CASE THE WARD SHALL PAY his lord the value of his marriage, 20 H.3. c. 7. [REP. 12 C.2. c. 24. ss. 1—2.]

6. FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCES TO DEFEAT a lord of his wardship shall be void, 52 or 54 H.3. c. 6. [AMD. 34 & 35 H.8. c. 5. ss. 15—17., REP. by, or EXP. since 12 C.2. c. 24. ss. 1—2.]

7. PROCESS IN A COMMUNI CUSTODIA: ward by reason of ward, id. c. 17. [semb. REP. 12 C.2. c. 24. ss. 1—2.]

8. PENALTY OF HEIR MARRYING without consent of guardian: and as to female ward, 3 E.1. c. 22. [REP. 12 C.2. c. 24. ss. 1—2.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. THE PENALTIES FOR RAVISHMENT of ward, 20 H.3. c. 6. [CONF. 5 E.1. c. 22. s. 1., VIRTUALLY AMD. 13 E.1. West. Sec. c. 35.]

2. Of heirs led away or withheld, or married with force by their relations or other; IT IS PROVIDED, that any layman being convict thereof, shall [yield to the loser the value of the marriage, REP. 12 C.2. c. 24. s. 2., and shall] be imprisoned until [he hath so done, if the child be married, REP. as above, and until] he has satisfied H. M. of his trespass; [viz. by 2 years imprisonment, comm. semb. from 13 E.1. c. 35. West. Sec.], and this to be done of heirs within 14 years of age; [the rest of the act is repealed, 12 C.2. c. 24. ss. 1—2.], id. ibid.

3. PROCEEDINGS IN WRITS OF RAVISHMENT of ward, &c., 13 E.1. c. 35. West. Sec. [semb. REP. 12 C.2. c. 24. ss. 1—2., but see 20 H.3. c. 6. and 12 C.2. c. 24. s. 8., sub fin. pl. 13.; it is therefore inserted.]

4. The punishment of him who taketh away a ward, shall be 2 years imprisonment, though he restore the child unmarried; and if he marry the child after the years of consent, he shall abjure the realm, or have perpetual imprisonment, and thereupon the plaintiff shall have writ in this form; [see the Latin text, 8vo Stat. i. 194.], and suit shall be made against the party on whom complaint is made, till he come in by distress, if he have whereby he may be distrained, or also for his contumacy, he shall be exacted and outlawed; and if such heir be carried into another county, then a writ shall go to the sheriff of such shire, in this form; [see Latin text, id. ibid.] 13 E.1. West. Sec. c. 35.

5. And the death of the heir shall not abate the proceedings, that the plaintiff may be tried to whom he ought to have been restored, had he been living; nor shall the ravisher be excused punishment by such death; and if the plaintiff die before the plaintiff determined, if the right belonged to him by reason of his fee, his heir shall resummon the plaintiff, and the plaintiff pass in due order; but if the right belongs to him by another title, as by gift, sale, or such like, the plaintiff shall be re-summoned, at suit of his executors, and the plea pass as above; so if defendant dies before plaintiff is determined or heir restored, the plaintiff shall proceed [by re-summons, between the plaintiff, his heirs or executors, and the executors of the defendant or his heirs, if the executors be not sufficient as to satisfaction for value of the marriage, as in 30 H.3. c. 6., 3 E.1. c. 22., REP. 12 C.2. c. 24. ss. 1—2.], but not as to the pain of imprisonment, for none ought to be punished for another's offence; in the same manner, when plaintiffs depend between parties for the ward of land, or of an heir or of both, by the writ of præcipe tulit, &c., quod reddat, re-summons shall be made between the heirs and executors of plaintiff and defendant, if death prevent any of the parties before plaintiff determined, and when they have passed to the great distress, a day shall be given within which three county courts may be holden at least, and open proclamation therein made, that the deforcior shall come into the bench at the day contained in the writ, to answer the plaintiff; when, if he come not, and proclamation is returned thrice, judgment shall pass for plaintiff, saving the defendant's right if after he will claim it; [in the same manner shall it be done in a writ of trespass, of ejection from such wardships semb. REP. 12 C.2. c. 24. ss. 1—3.], 13 E.1. West. Sec. c. 35.

6. THE AUTHORITY AND DUTY OF GUARDIANS in socage, 52 (or 54) H.3. c. 17.

7. If land holden in socage be in custody of the friends of the heir, because he is within age, such guardians shall make no waste, sale or destruction of the inheritance, but shall keep it safely to his use, so that when he comes to lawful age, they shall answer to him the issues thereof by a lawful account, saving to themselves their reasonable costs, id. ibid.

8. IF A GUARDIAN OR CHIEF LORD, [or chief lord being guardian, Fleta, lib. 1. c. 12. s. 4.], infeoff any man of land, which is the inheritance of any infant in his ward to his disherison, the heir shall forthwith have recovery by assize of novel disseisin against guardian and tenant; and the seisin, if recovered, shall be delivered by the justices to the next friend of the heir to whom the inheritance cannot descend, to improve to the use of the heir and to answer to him for the issues when he comes of age; [and the guardian shall lose custody of the thing recovered, and all the remainder of the inheritance holden in name of the heir; and if any other guardian than the chief lord do so, he shall lose the wardship altogether, and be grievously punished by H. M., 3 E.1. c. 48. s. 1.]

9. If the infant be carried away or disturbed by his guardian or any other, by reason whereof he cannot sue his assize, then may one of his next friends be admitted to sue for him, 3 E.1. c. 48. s. 2.

10. So in every case, where infants may sue, if they be eloiigned, so that they cannot sue personally, their next friends shall be admitted to sue for them, 13 E.1. c. 35. (West. Sec.)

11. IF AN INFANT BE HOLDEN FROM HIS HERITAGE, after the death of his father, cousin, grandfather or great-grandfather, whereby he is driven to his writ, and his adversary comes into court, and for answer alleges a feoffment, or pleads some other thing whereby the judges award an inquest, the inquest shall pass as if he were of full age, 6 E.1. c. 2. [Stat. Gloc., and the statute shall remain without limitation of time, see Explanations, 8vo Stat. i. 136.]

12. INFANTS UNDER 14 YEARS OF AGE shall not be received into the four orders of friars, viz. friars, minors, augustines, preachers and carmelites, without the consent of their parents or next friends having them in custody, and shall remain for one year in the place where they are first received; and the chancellor is empowered to give relief to complainants, 4 H.4. c. 17. [The principals of the above 4 orders in Eng. swear, laying their hands on their coifs, before the king, lords and commons to observe this statute, id. ibid.; but this statute seems EXP. See PAPIST.]

13. WHERE ANY PERSON HAS ANY CHILD UNDER 21 years old, and unmarried at the time of his death, the father of such child, whether born at his decease or in ventre sa mere, or whether such father be within 21 or of full age may by deed executed, or by last will in writing in presence of two witnesses, dispose of the custody and tuition of such children till they attain 21 years, or any lesser time to any persons in possession or remainder, other than popish recusants, which disposition shall be good against all persons claiming the custody or tuition of such children as guardian in socage or otherwise, and such persons to whom the custody of such children shall be so disposed or devised may maintain an action of ravishment of ward or trespass against any which shall wrongfully take away or detain them, and shall recover damages for the use of such children, 12 C.2. c.24. s.8.

14. Persons to whom the custody of such children shall be so disposed may take into their custody to the use of such children the profits of all lands of the latter, and also the custody, tuition and management of their goods and personal estate till their respective age of 21 years, or any lesser time, according to such deposition, and may bring such actions in relation thereto as a guardian in socage may do, id. s.9.

15. This act shall not alter the custom of London, nor of any other city or town corporate, or of the town of Berwick, concerning orphans, nor discharge any apprentice from his apprenticeship, id. s.10.

16. To enable infants who are seized and possessed of estates in fee, in trust, or by way of mortgage, to make conveyances thereof, 7 A. c.19. [Ext. 4 G.3. c.16.]

17. Any person under 21 years old, by direction of chancery or exchequer by order made on hearing all parties on the petition of the person for whom such infant shall be seized or possessed in trust, or of the mortgagor or guardian of such infant or person entitled to the monies secured upon any lands, tenements or hereditaments whereof any person shall be seized or possessed by way of mortgage, or of the person entitled to the redemption, may convey any such lands as the court shall by order direct, which conveyance shall be good in law, 7 A. c.19. s.1.

18. The same provision applies where such lands, &c. are situate within the duchy of Lancaster, or in either of the counties palatine, or in Wa., under direction of the court of duchy chamber of Lancaster, or of exchequer of Chester, of the courts of chancery of Lancaster and Durham, and of great sessions in Wa., 4 G.3. c.16. s.1.

19. Such infants being only trustees or mortgagors may be compelled by such order to make such conveyances in like manner as trustees or mortgagors of full age, 7 A. c.19. s.2., 4 G.3. c.16. s.2.

GUNPOWDER.

1. For preventing the mischiefs which may happen from keeping too large quantities of gunpowder in or near the cities of London and Westm., or the suburbs thereof, 5 G.1. c.26. AMD. 11 G.1. c.23. [Both REP. 11 G.3. c.35. s.13. and 12 G.3. c.61. s.31.]

2. To prevent the mischiefs which may happen by keeping too great quantities of gunpowder in any one place, or carrying the same together from one place to another, 22 G.2. c.38. [REP. 11 G.3. c.35. s.13. and 12 G.3. c.61. s.31.]

3. For reducing into one act the several laws relating to the keeping and carriage of gunpowder, and for more effectually preventing mischiefs by keeping or carrying it in too great quantities, 11 G.3. c.35. [REP. 12 G.3. c.61. s.31.]

1. All persons, whether subjects or aliens, may import gunpowder, paying such customs for same as are limited by authority of parliament, 16 C.1. c.21. s.2. [but see 1 J.2. c.8., infra, pl. 4. semble in force.]

2. H. M.'s subjects of Eng. may at pleasure make and sell gunpowder, and also bring into this kingdom saltpetre, brimstone, or other materials for making it, id. s.3.

3. Putting in execution letters patent restraining these rights incurs a premunire, (under 16 R.2. c.5.) id. s.4.

4. None shall, without H. M.'s licence, import into Eng., Wa., or Ber., by way of merchandize, any gunpowder, arms, ammunition or utensils of war, on pain of forfeiture of such goods to H. M., and treble value thereof, half to H. M. and half to the party suing for the same in debt or by information, 1 J.2. c.8. s.2. [REP. as to import thereof from Ire., which shall be free, 46 G.3. c.121.]

5. Any person obtaining grant or patent for sole making or importing gunpowder, arms, &c. except for H. M.'s public stores, and putting same in execution, or molesting other lawful makers thereof, shall incur a premunire under 16 R.2. c.5., and be disabled to hold office under H. M., and their patent, &c. is void, 1 J.2. c.8. s.3.

6. H. M. may, by proclamation, prohibit the export of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, 12 C.2. c.4. s.12. [AMD. and EXT. 29 G.2. c.16., 33 G.3. c.2. s.3—5., and see as to lord lieutenant's power herein in Ire., 49 G.3. c.76]

7. So of saltpetre by order in council, 29 G.2. c.16. s.11.

8. All the above articles so prohibited to be exported and shipped on board any vessel in any port of G. B. in order to exportation, contrary to such order or proclamation, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by warrant of any magistrate, or customs or excise officer, with penalty of 100*l.* for every cwt. of saltpetre or gunpowder, and in proportion for any less quantity; 100*l.* for every 25 arms; and 100*l.* for every 2 cwt. of any ammunition, and in proportion for a less quantity, 29 G.2. c.16. s.2.

9. Persons aiding in shipping the same shall forfeit 100*l.* and treble value of such prohibited articles, id. s.3.

10. Masters of vessels taking on board, or permitting to be taken on board any such prohibited articles, forfeit 100*l.*, id. s.4.

11. H. M. may under this act prohibit the shipping such articles for carrying coastwise, id. s.5.

12. Penalties go two-thirds to H. M., and one-third to the seizer or party suing by bill or information, in any court of exchequer in G. B., with no essoins, &c. allowed, id. s.6., and see pl. 15.

13. Shipping such prohibited articles to be carried coastwise, subjects offender to penalties of 29 G.2. c.16. s.2. as if shipped for export, 33 G.3. c.2. s.3.

14. Every ship, vessel, or boat, on board which such prohibited articles shall be exported, carried coastwise, or on board which they are laden for either purpose, shall be forfeited, with all her guns, tackle, &c. and may be seized by the customs officers, id. s.4.

15. This shall not extend to H. M.'s ships, or to vessels employed by board of ordnance, or having on board arms and ammunition for their defence by admiralty licence, id. s.5.

16. For regulating the making, keeping, and carriage of gunpowder in G. B. and to repeal (s.31.) the laws heretofore made for any of those purposes, 12 G.3. c.61. [Commencement 1 July, 1772, s.31. except as to penalties which commence from 1st July, 1773, s.4. and s.9., REP. as to part of s.21., by 54 G.3. c.152., and see 1 & 2 G.4. c.118. s.31., POLICE, pl. 43.]

17. No person shall use or cause to be used any powder mill, or other engine, or in any manner manufacture gunpowder in any place within G. B., except in places where the manufacture is now, (viz. 1st July, 1772,) actually carrying on, or where it afterwards shall become lawful so to do by obtaining a licence for that purpose, under the hereafter mentioned provisions, on pain of forfeiting all gunpowder made contrary hereto, and 2*s.* for every lb. thereof, 12 G.3. c.61. s.1.

18. Using pestle mill subjects the offender to same penalties, id. s.2.

19. No person shall in any mill or engine, make at one time under a single pair of mill-stones, any quantity of powder or materials to be made into it exceeding 40 lbs. on pain of forfeiting all gunpowder so made at one time and exceeding 40 lbs. and also 2*s.* for every lb. thereof, id. s.3.

20. Nothing herein extends to the powder mills now erected at Battle, Browhnt, Seddelscombe, and Brede in Sussex, so far as relates to making fine fowling powder, called "Battle Powder," id. s.5.

21. No greater quantity than 40 cwt. of powder shall be dried at one time in one drying stove, &c. on pain of forfeiture of overplus and 2*s.* for each lb. thereof, id. s.6.

22. No greater quantity than is necessary for the immediate work then carrying on in corning, drying, or dusting houses, &c. shall be kept therein, or in any building adjoining thereto, except magazines of stone or brick, situate 50 yards from powder-mill, on like forfeiture of overplus, and 2*s.* for each lb. thereof, id. s.7.

23. Powder makers, besides such magazines near their mills, shall have another remote from them, for receiving and keeping all the powder made at such mill, as soon as convenient to remove it, on penalty of 2*s.* for every month during which they make gunpowder without it, and 5*l.* for every day of wilful neglect to remove same, not being hindered by weather or other impediment, id. s.8.

24. Such magazine shall be well built of brick or stone near the Thames, and below Blackwall, or in some other convenient place licensed by justices, as in s.16., id. s.8.

25. Makers of gunpowder keeping, or permitting to be kept, charcoal within 20 yards from any powder mill, engine, or drying, corning, or dusting house or magazine thereto belonging, shall forfeit 5*l.* for every week during which it is so kept, id. s.10.

26. No dealer in gunpowder shall keep more than 200 lbs. and not being such, more than 50 lbs. in any house, mill, magazine, store, or warehouse, shop, cellar, yard, wharf, or other building or place occupied by the same person, (all such buildings adjoining to each other, and occupied together, being to be deemed one house within this act,) or on any river or other water, (except in carriages loading, unloading, or passing on the land, or in ships, boats, or vessels, loading, &c. on water, or detained there by tide or bad weather,) within London or Westminster, or 3 miles of either, or within any city, borough or market town of G. B., or one mile thereof, or within 2 miles of any palace or house of residence of H. M., his heirs and successors, or any queen consort or dowager, or of any H. M.'s powder magazine; or within half a mile of any parish church; or in any other part of G. B., except as hereinafter excepted, on penalty of forfeiture of the surplus above the quantity hereby allowed to be kept, and 2*s.* for every lb. of such surplus id. s.11.

27. 300 lbs. of powder may be kept for the use of any mine, or colliery, in any magazine, or warehouse within 200 yards thereof, and out of the limits mentioned in s.11., id. s.12.

28. The justices for each county or division in G. B. may, on application to them in quarter-sessions by any person, (he having given notice in writing of his intention to make such application, as also of the place proposed for such purposes 14 days before making it, to an overseer or churchwarden of the parish in which it is proposed to erect such new mill and magazine, or of an adjoining parish, if the place is extra-parochial, who shall cause such notice to be read on the next Sunday in the parish church after divine service,) license the erecting powder mills, and proper offices adjoining thereto, or magazines for keeping unlimited quantities of powder, not being in London or Westminster, and being out of the fixed limits in s. 11., 12 G. 3. c. 61. s. 13.

29. Persons aggrieved by refusal of quarter sessions to license such mills and magazines, or to appoint pieces of ground for magazines remote from any mills, may apply to the sessions for a special case thereupon, and the justices then present shall certify the special circumstances of the case in question, with the proofs offered for and against the application, in order to its removal by certiorari into K. B., in the return to which writ they shall state the same; and K. B. may judge of the merits, and if it think fit, may make order on the justices to grant such licence, or make such appointment at next quarter sessions, without fresh application, and the costs of such certiorari shall be awarded at discretion of K. B., id. s. 14.

30. No person shall be liable to penalties under this act for keeping unlimited quantities of gunpowder without such licence, in any magazine apart from the powder-mill, and already built and used for that purpose, and out of the fixed limits in s. 11., till 6 months after an adjudication of the quarter sessions that the same is dangerous, which adjudication they shall not have authority to make, except on complaint to them of such magazine by some householder of the parish in which the magazine is, and after due summons of the owner to answer the same, and after examination on oath of witnesses on both sides; and unlimited quantities of gunpowder may be kept in magazines licensed under former acts, id. s. 15.

31. Quarter sessions shall, on application to them by any powder maker, appoint pieces of ground, not within London or Westminster, or the limits in s. 11., and not exceeding one acre in one place, with the use of convenient roads thereto, on which pieces he may erect magazines for keeping gunpowder in any quantity, after having agreed with the owners of such grounds for purchase thereof; and if any owner shall not agree, or from any impediment cannot agree, such justices shall issue a warrant to the sheriff of the county or other officers having returns of writs within their jurisdiction, to impanel and return before them a jury, who, on oath to be administered by the justices, shall inquire into the true value of the ground, with the use of the roads thereto; and their verdicts shall be kept with the records of the sessions, whose judgment thereon shall be final: and the justices may send for any persons interested, and may examine any parties or witnesses on oath, and the money adjudged, not exceeding 30 years' purchase, shall be paid to the owners of the ground, according to their interests therein, in proportions adjudged by the justices: and on such payment, or in case of refusal to accept the money, then on leaving the same with the sessions for the owners' benefit, the inheritance of the ground and use of the roads thereto shall vest in the purchasers, id. s. 16.

32. No person shall have or convey at one time, within G. B., more than 25 barrels of gunpowder in any carriage by land, or than 200 barrels in any vessel by water, (except in vessels with gunpowder imported from, or exported by sea, or going coastwise,) and all gunpowder (with that exception) conveyed on land or water, shall be in barrels close joined and hooped without iron about them, and so secured as to prevent its scattering in the passage; and each barrel shall contain no more than 100 lbs. of gunpowder, and when conveyed by land, shall be enclosed in a leather or saltpetre bag, and in a carriage completely covered with wood, painted cloth, tarpaulin, or wadmill tilts over the gunpowder therein; and no gunpowder shall be conveyed in any vessel by water (except as above) that hath not a close deck, and as soon as it is put on board it shall be covered with raw hides or tarpaulins; and all gunpowder otherwise conveyed (except as above) within G. B. in greater quantity, or in other manner than above prescribed, and the barrels containing it may be seized by any person who shall have the same authority to use for that purpose, during 24 hours after seizure, the carriage or vessel in which such gunpowder shall be seized, with the tackling, beasts, or accoutrements, belonging thereto, on paying a recompense for use thereof, and to detain such gunpowder and barrels as is given in s. 23. to persons searching under warrant of a justice, which seizure shall be for his own use on conviction of the offender, id. s. 18.

33. When any vessel having stale, condemned, or returned gunpowder on board arrives at the wharf, &c. where it is to be landed, no person shall begin to unload or shall bring down to such wharf with intent to load in such vessel any other gunpowder, till the whole or a part of the former be first unloaded and carried away from the same, and after such unloading and carrying away part of such gunpowder, no person shall begin to load or bring down with intent to load any greater quantity than the part carried away on pain of forfeiting all gunpowder so brought down or loaded contrary hereto, 12 G. 3. c. 61. s. 19.

34. If any person having the care of any barge, except vessels with gunpowder imported from, or to be exported to places beyond sea, or going coastwise loaded with gunpowder, or other person on board the same, shall bring, have, or use or permit any person to bring, &c. any charcoal, or other combustible matter, or any fire or lighted candle, or shall smoke or permit any person to smoke on board, such person shall forfeit *5*l., id. s. 20.

35. No person having the care of any carriage, used for conveyance of gunpowder by land, shall, after beginning to place or load therein any quantity, or beginning to unload the same thereout, stop at any place of loading, or in the loading or unloading suffer any longer time to pass than with all diligence shall be necessary for loading and unloading; and no person having the charge of any vessel used for conveyance of gunpowder by water, (except in the case of vessels loading for import or export of gunpowder, or going coastwise) shall, after beginning to load or unload, stop at any wharf, or in loading or unloading, suffer any longer time to pass than with all diligence is necessary for loading or unloading, not exceeding 18 hours, unless hindered by weather; and every such vessel, except as above, having completed her loading, shall depart from the place of loading on her course the first ensuing tide, unless hindered by weather, or other impediment, id. s. 21.

36. Other articles may be conveyed in the same carriage, and on board the same vessel, 54 G. 3. c. 152. repealing the latter part of 12 G. 3. c. 61. s. 21.

37. These provisions for conveyance, loading, &c. of gunpowder, only apply to vessels, carriages, &c. carrying above 100 lbs. of gunpowder, 12 G. 3. c. 61. s. 22.

38. Where demand is made, and reasonable cause of suspicion assigned on oath by any one person, any justice may issue his warrant for searching in the day-time any house, mill, &c. (as in s. 11.) wharf, or other place, or any carriage or vessel in which gunpowder is suspected to be made, kept, or carried contrary to this act, and all gunpowder found on such search to be made, kept, or carried contrary hereto shall be seized and immediately removed in its barrels by the searcher to any proper place in conformity with this act; and if seized in any carriage or vessel, may use the latter, its tackle, horses, &c. for the purpose of removal, for 24 hours on paying recompense for such use, to be settled by the justices hearing the complaint, after the seizure, or on non-payment immediately after such settlement, shall be recoverable by distress and sale as in s. 26. and may detain the same and the barrels till it is adjudged before 2 or more justices whether it is forfeited or not, and such searcher or seizer shall not be liable to any suit for such detainer, or for any loss of or damage happening to the gunpowder or barrels, except by their own or agent's wilful act, id. s. 23.

39. Powers under such warrant are extended to Thames police surveyor on board all ships in the river, except H. M.'s ships, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 37. s. 2.

40. No commander of a vessel lying in the Thames, and outward bound shall receive on board more than 25 lbs. of gunpowder, (except for H. M.'s service) before her arrival at, over, against, or below Blackwall, and every commander of a vessel entering the Thames, shall, (with that exception) put ashore in proper places (as in s. 8. 13. &c.) before arrival there, or in 24 hours, if the weather permit after coming to anchor or to place of unloading there any larger quantity than 25 lbs. (except for H. M.'s service,) on pain of forfeiture of all the surplus afterwards found on board, with the barrels, and 2*s.* for every pound thereof, id. s. 24.

41. The master, warden, and assistants of the Trinity House, shall appoint one or more searchers for unlawful quantities of gunpowder in vessels in the Thames who may enter any ship for same, (except H. M.'s ships) above Blackwall, at any time between sunrise and sunset, and search the same for unlawful quantities of gunpowder, and shall have all powers of persons acting under justices warrant, as in s. 23., id. s. 25.

42. All penalties hereby given shall be recoverable before 2 justices, on proof of the offence by oaths of one or more witnesses, or on confession of the offender, to go in moieties to H. M. and informer; and where the penalty is pecuniary, in case of nonpayment, it shall be levied with costs thereof by distress and sale of offender's goods under such justices' warrant, or in default of sufficient distress the offender shall be sent to the house of correction to hard labour for any time from 3 to 6 months, id. s. 26.

43. No person shall be prosecuted for any offence against this act after 14 days from seizure, or from the offence committed; and in actions for any thing done under this act, defendant may plead general issue, and give special matter in evidence, and if he have verdict or judgment on demurrer, &c. or if plaintiff is nonsuit, or discontinues after issue joined, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 27.

44. Actions for acts done under this act shall be laid and tried in the county where the act is done, and shall be commenced within 6 months, 12 G. 3. c. 61. s. 28.

45. Nothing herein extends to H. M.'s powder mills or magazines, or to hinder trial of powder by his officers, or to the keeping it in his magazines at Barking, Creekmouth in Essex, and Erith Levee, in Kent, or near Liverpool, or Bristol, or to any carriage thereof under special order of the board of ordnance, specifying the quantity and time for which it is in force; or to the carriage of gunpowder with forces on march, or militia on annual exercise, or sent for their use, id. s. 29.

46. Unlimited quantities may be carried in close decked vessels, &c. as in s. 18. from vessels below, to magazines also below Blackwall, or from the latter to ships below that place going beyond sea or coastwise, id. s. 30.

7. Every person suing for any passport for any such Egyptians to abide within this realm, contrary hereto, shall forfeit 40*l.*; and every such licence shall be void, one moiety of the forfeiture being to H. M. and the other to the seizer, id. s. 6.

8. This act shall not extend to children not above 14, nor to charge any person as accessory to any offence specified herein, id. s. 8.

HABEAS CORPUS. (See LIBERTIES AND RIGHTS.)

1. FOR BETTER SECURING the liberty of the subject, and for prevention of imprisonment beyond the seas, 31 C. 2. c. 2. [AMD. 43 G. 3. c. 140., 44 G. 3. c. 102., 56 G. 3. c. 100.]

2. "Recital of the great delays made by sheriffs and other officers, having custody of persons accused of criminal matters, in making returns to writs of habeas corpus, by standing out to an alias and pluries, contrary to their duty and the known law of the land, and to the subject's great charge and vexation," 31 C. 2. c. 2. s. 1.

3. When any person shall bring any habeas corpus directed to any sheriff, gaoler, or other person, for any person in their custody, and the writ shall be served upon the said officer, or left at the prison with any of the under officers, the officer shall within 3 days after service thereof (unless the commitment were for treason or felony expressed in the warrant) upon payment or tender of the charges of bringing the prisoner, to be ascertained by the judge or court that awarded the same, and indorsed upon the writ, not exceeding 12*d.* per mile, and upon security given by his own bond to pay the charges of carrying back the prisoner, if he shall be remanded, and that he will not make escape by the way, make return of such writ, and bring the body before the lord chancellor, or the judges or barons of the court from whence the writ shall issue, or before such other person before whom the writ is returnable, according to the command thereof, and shall certify the causes of his detainer; unless the commitment be in any place beyond the distance of 20 miles from the place where such court or person shall be residing; and if beyond 20 miles, and not above 100 miles, then within 10 days; and if beyond 100 miles, then within 20 days after such delivery, id. s. 2.

4. All such writs shall be marked in this manner, per statum tricesimo primo Caroli Secundi regis, and shall be signed by the person that awards the same; and if any person shall stand committed or detained for any crime, (unless for felony or treason expressed in the warrant,) in vacation time, he (if other than persons convict or in execution) or any one on his behalf, may complain to the lord chancellor, or any justice of the K. B. or C. P. or baron of the exchequer of the degree of the coif; and the lord chancellor, justices or barons, or any of them, on view of the copies of the warrants of commitment and detainer, or on oath that such copies were denied to be given to the prisoner by the person having him in custody, are required, on request made in writing by such person, or any on his behalf, attested by two witnesses present at the delivery of the same, to grant a habeas corpus under the seal of such court whereof he shall be a judge, directed to the officer in whose custody the party is, returnable immediate, before the lord chancellor, or such justice, baron, or any other justice or baron of the degree of the coif, of the said courts; and on service thereof the officer or his deputy shall bring such prisoner before the lord chancellor, or such justices, barons, or one of them, before whom the writ is returnable, and in case of his absence, before any other of them, with the return of such writ, and the causes of commitment and detainer; and thereupon, within 2 days, the lord chancellor, or such justice or baron, shall discharge the prisoner, taking his recognizance, with one or more sureties, in any sum according to their discretions, having regard to the quality of the prisoner, and the nature of his offence, for his appearance in the court of K. B. the term following, or at the next assises, sessions, or gaol delivery, for such county or place where the commitment was, or where the offence was committed, or in such other court where the offence is cognizable; and shall certify the writ, with the return and the recognizance into the court where the appearance is to be made, unless it appear to him that the party is detained upon a legal process, order, or warrant, signed and sealed with the hand and seal of any such justice or baron, or some justice of peace for such matters for which the prisoner is not bailable, 31 C. 2. c. 2. s. 3.

5. If any person shall have wilfully neglected 2 whole terms after his imprisonment to pray a habeas corpus, he shall not have any habeas corpus in vacation time in pursuance of this act, id. s. 4.

6. If any officer or his deputy shall neglect to make the returns, or to bring the bodies of the prisoners, according to the commands of the writ; or on demand made by the prisoner, or in his behalf, shall refuse to deliver, or within 6 hours shall not deliver, to the person demanding a copy of the warrants of commitment and detainer of such prisoner, such person in whose custody the prisoner shall be, shall for the first offence forfeit to the party aggrieved 100*l.*, and for the second 200*l.* and is disabled to hold his office: the said penalties to be recovered by the party grieved, his executors or administrators, against such offender, his executors or administrators, by action of debt, &c. or information in any of the courts at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c., waiver of law, stay of prosecution by nolle prosequi, nor more than one imparlance, shall be allowed; and any recovery at the suit of any party grieved shall be sufficient conviction for the first offence; and any after recovery, &c. for any offence after the first judgment, shall be a sufficient conviction for the second offence, id. s. 5.

7. No person set at large upon a habeas corpus shall be again imprisoned for the same offence, other than by the legal order and process of such court wherein he shall be bound by recognizance to appear, or other court having jurisdiction: and if any person shall knowingly re-commit or imprison, or cause to be re-committed, &c. for the same offence any person set at large as aforesaid, he shall forfeit to the party grieved 500*l.*, any colourable variation in the commitment notwithstanding, id. s. 6.

8. If any person committed for high treason or felony expressed in the warrant, upon his prayer in open court the first week of the term, or first day of the sessions of oyer and terminer or general gaol delivery, to be brought to trial, shall not be indicted in the next term or sessions after such commitment, the judges of K. B. or justices of oyer and terminer and general gaol delivery, are required, upon motion made in court the last day of the term, sessions, or gaol delivery, to set at liberty the prisoner on bail; unless it appear to them on oath, that the witnesses for

H. M. could not be produced the same term, &c.; and if any person committed as aforesaid, upon his prayer the first week of the term or day of the sessions, &c. to be brought to trial, shall not be indicted and tried the second term, &c. or shall be acquitted, he shall be discharged, 31 C. 2. c. 2. s. 7.

9. Nothing in this act shall discharge any person charged with any process in any civil cause, id. s. 8.

10. If any subject of this realm shall be in custody for any criminal matter, he shall not be removed into custody of any other officer, unless by habeas corpus, or other legal writ; or where the prisoner is delivered to the constable or other inferior officer to carry to some common gaol; or where any person is sent by order of any justice of assize, or of peace, to any common workhouse, or house of correction; or where a prisoner is removed from one place to another within the same county, in order to his trial or discharge; or in case of sudden fire, infection, or other necessity; and if any person shall sign or countersign any warrant for such removal contrary to this act, as well he, as the officers that obey the same, shall incur the forfeitures in s. 5. pl. 6. mentioned, both for the first and second offence, to be recovered by the party grieved, id. s. 9.

11. Any prisoner may obtain his habeas corpus, as well out of chancery or exchequer, as K. B. or C. P.; and if the lord chancellor, or any judge or baron of the degree of the coif, in the vacation, on view of the copies of the warrants of commitment or detainer, or on oath that such copies were denied, shall deny a habeas corpus by this act required, being moved for as aforesaid, they shall forfeit to the party grieved 500*l.*, id. s. 10. [see 3 B. & A. Rep. 420.]

12. An habeas corpus according to this act may be directed into any county palatine, the cinque ports, or other privileged places, and the islands of Jersey or Guernsey, id. s. 11.

13. No subject of this realm, being an inhabitant of Eng., Wa., or Ber., shall be sent prisoner into Scotland, Ireland, Jersey, Guernsey, or places beyond the seas; and every such imprisonment is hereby adjudged illegal; and any subject so imprisoned may maintain an action of false imprisonment in any of H. M.'s courts of record against the persons by whom he shall be so committed, detained, imprisoned or transported, and against any person that shall contrive, write, seal or countersign, any warrant or writing for such commitment, &c. or shall be advising or assisting in the same; and shall recover treble costs, besides damages, which shall not be less than 500*l.* in which action no delay, &c. shall be allowed, except such rule of court made in open court as in justice shall be necessary for special cause expressed in the rule; and the person who shall knowingly write, seal or countersign any warrant for such commitment, detainer or transportation, or shall so commit, &c. any person contrary to this act, or be advising or assisting therein, being lawfully convicted, shall be disabled to bear any office of trust or profit, and shall incur the penalties of the statute of præmunire 16 E. 2. c. 5. and be incapable of any pardon from H. M. of the said forfeitures or disabilities, id. s. 12.

14. Nothing in this act shall give benefit to any person who shall by contract in writing agree with any merchant or owner of a plantation, or other, to be transported to any parts beyond the seas, id. s. 13.

15. If any person convicted of felony shall pray to be transported, and the court shall think fit to leave him in prison for that purpose, such person may be transported to any parts beyond the seas, id. s. 14. [see TRANSPORTATION, post.]

16. If any person residing in this realm shall have committed any capital offence in Scot. or Ire., or any of the islands or foreign plantations of H. M., he may be sent to such place, to receive trial, as before making this act, id. s. 16.

17. No person shall be sued for any offence against this act, unless within two years after the offence committed, in case the party grieved is not then in prison; and if he be in prison, then within two years after the decease of the person imprisoned, or his delivery out of prison, id. s. 17.

18. After the assizes proclaimed of the county, no person shall be removed from the common gaol upon hab. corp. in pursuance of this act, but upon any such hab. corp. shall be brought before the judge of assize in open court, id. s. 18. but after the assizes ended, every person may have his hab. corp. according to this act, id. s. 19.

19. If any suit be brought for any offence against this law, defendant may plead the general issue, not guilty, or nil debet, giving all special matter in evidence, id. s. 20.

20. Where any person appears to be committed by any judge or justice of peace, and to be charged as accessory before the fact to any petty treason or felony, or on suspicion thereof, or with suspicion of petty treason or felony, specially expressed in the warrant, he shall not be removed or bailed by virtue of this act, id. s. 21. *

21. TO ENABLE THE JUDGES OF H. M.'S COURTS OF RECORD at Westminster to award writs of habeas corpus for bringing persons detained in gaol before courts martial, and the several commissioners therein mentioned, 43 G. 3. c. 140.

22. Any judge of H. M.'s courts of K. B. or C. P. or any baron of the exchequer of the degree of the coif, at his discretion may award a writ of habeas corpus for bringing up any prisoner detained in any gaol in G. B. or Ire., before any court martial, or any commissioners of bankrupt, or for auditing public accounts, or other commissioner acting under authority of any commission or warrant from H. M. for trial, or to be examined touching any matter depending before such courts martial or commissioners respectively, and the like proceedings shall be had upon such writ of habeas corpus so to be awarded as upon other such writs for bringing persons detained in gaol before magistrates or courts of record for the above purposes, 43 G. 3. c. 140.

23. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE in Eng. and Ire. by the issuing of writs of habeas corpus ad testificandum, 44 G. 3. c. 102.

24. Any judge of K. B. or C. P. or baron of exchequer of the coif in Eng. or Ire., or any justice of oyer and terminer or gaol delivery, being such judge or baron, may at his discretion award a writ of habeas corpus for bringing any prisoner detained in gaol before any such courts or any sitting of nisi prius, or before any other court of record in Eng. or Ire., there to be examined as a witness, and to testify of the truth before such courts or any grand or petit or other jury in any matter civil or criminal, at any time depending therein, id. s. 1.

25. Every justice of great sessions in Wales and county palatine of Chester, shall have like authority within his jurisdiction, id. s. 2.

26. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUALLY SECURING THE LIBERTY of the subject, 56 G. 3. c. 100.

27. Where any person shall be confined (otherwise than for some criminal matter, and except persons imprisoned for debt, or by process in any civil suit) within Eng., Wa., or Ber., or the isles of Jersey, Guernsey, or Man, any baron of exchequer or justice of K. B. or C. P.; and where any person shall be so confined in Ire., any baron of the exchequer, or justice of K. B. or C. P. in Ire. may, upon complaint made to them, if it appears upon affidavit or affirmation that there is a reasonable ground for such complaint, award in vacation time a writ of habeas corpus ad subjiciendum, under the seal of the court of which he is a judge, to be directed to the person in whose custody the party so confined shall be, returnable immediately before the person awarding the same, or any other judge of the same court, id. s. 1.

28. If the person to whom any writ of habeas corpus shall be directed under this act, upon service of such writ, either by actual delivery or leaving the same at the place where the party is confined, with his servant or agent, shall wilfully neglect or refuse to make a return, he shall be guilty of contempt of court; and the justice or baron, before whom the writ is returnable, upon proof made by affidavit of wilful disobedience, may issue a warrant for apprehending and bringing before him, or some other justice or baron of the same court, the person so disobeying, in order to his being bound to H. M., with two sufficient sureties, in such sum as the warrant expresses, with condition to appear in court at a day in the ensuing term to be mentioned in the warrant, to answer the matter of contempt; and in case of his neglect or refusal to become bound, such justice or baron may commit such person to the gaol of such court, till he shall have become bound, or shall be discharged by order of the court in term time, or by order of one of the justices or barons thereof, in vacation; and the recognizances to be taken thereupon shall be returned and filed in such court, and shall continue in force till the matter of contempt has been heard, unless sooner ordered by the court to be discharged: but if such writ shall be awarded so late in the vacation by any one such justice or baron, that, in his opinion, obedience thereto cannot be conveniently paid during such vacation, the same may, at his discretion, be made returnable in court, at a day certain in the next term; and such court shall proceed thereupon, and award process of contempt in case of disobedience, in like manner as on disobedience to any writ originally awarded by such court: but if such writ shall be awarded by the court of K. B. or C. P. or exchequer of Eng. or Ire., (which last court shall have power to award such writs,) but so late that, in the judgment of the court, obedience thereto cannot be conveniently paid during such term, the same shall, at the discretion of such court, be made returnable at any day certain in the then next vacation, before any justice or baron, or if in Ire., before any justice or baron of the same court, who shall proceed thereupon, in such manner as by this act directed concerning writs issuing during the vacation, id. s. 2.

29. In all cases, though the return is good and sufficient in law, the justice or baron, before whom the return is made, may proceed to examine into the truth of the facts set forth in such return, by affidavit or affirmation, and do therein as to justice shall appear; and if such writ is returned before any one such justice or baron, and it appears doubtful to him on such examination, whether the material facts set forth in the return, be true or not; in such case such justice or baron may let to bail the person so confined, on his entering into a recognizance with one or more sureties; or in case of infancy or coverture, or other disability, on security by recognizance, in a reasonable sum, to appear in court upon a day certain in the term following, and so from day to day as the court shall require, and to abide such order as the court shall make; and such justice or baron shall transmit into the same court, such writ and return, together with such recognizance, affidavits, and affirmations; and thereupon the court shall proceed to examine into the truth of the facts, in a summary way, and to determine touching the discharging, bailing, or remanding the party, 56 G. 3. c. 100. s. 3.

30. The like proceeding may be had in the court, for controverting the truth of the return, although such writ shall be awarded by the court itself, or be returnable therein, id. s. 4.

31. A writ of habeas corpus, according to this act, may run into any county palatine, or cinque port, or other privileged place, within Eng., Wa., Ber., Jersey, Guernsey, and Man., and also into any port, harbour, road, creek, or bay, upon the coast of Eng., Wa., or Ire., although the same should lie out of the body of any county, id. s. 5.

32. The provisions of this act, touching the making of writs of habeas corpus issuing in vacation returnable into the said courts, or for making such writs awarded in term time returnable in vacation, and also for making wilful disobedience thereto a contempt of court, and for issuing warrants to apprehend and bring before such justices and barons persons wilfully disobeying such writ, and in case of refusal or neglect to become bound for committing them to goal, respecting the recognizances so to be taken, and the proceedings thereon as aforesaid shall extend to all writs of habeas corpus awarded under 31 C. 2. c. 2. and 21 & 22 G. 3. c. 22. fr. in as ample a manner as if such writs and the cases arising thereon had been specially provided for herein, id. s. 6.

HACKNEY COACHES, CHAIRS, &c.

(STATUTE expired.)

FOR LICENSING AND REGULATING HACKNEY COACHES and stage coaches, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 22. [semble EXP. and REP. by the effect of 9 A. c. 23. ss. 1—22.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR LICENSING AND REGULATING HACKNEY COACHES and chairs, 9 A. c. 23. ss. 1—22. 49. 54. [number of hackney chairs increased 10 A. c. 19. ss. 158, 159. (these acts MADE PERF., 3 G. 1. c. 7. s. 1.) (see the rest of this act, CHARIAGES); hackney chairs increased to 400, 12 G. 1. c. 12. s. 15—17; all the above acts CON. 16 G. 2. c. 26. s. 4., and so long as any former acts relating to hackney coaches are in force, 33 G. 2. c. 25.; number of hackney coaches increased, 11 G. 3. c. 24.; lastly to 1100 by 42 G. 3. c. 78.; additional weekly rent, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 27., which is AMD. 26 G. 3. c. 72.; coach stand removed out of New and Old Bond Street, 32 G. 3. c. 62.; as to licensing hackney chariots and carriages drawn by one horse, 54 G. 3. c. 147. s. 15., pl. 102., 55 G. 3. c. 159. s. 4. post, pl. 107.]

2. H. M. may nominate and appoint any persons not exceeding 5 to be commissioners for regulating and licensing all hackney coaches, which shall be permitted to be driven for hire, or kept within the cities of London or Westminster, and the suburbs thereof, or within all places comprized within the weekly bills of mortality, which commissioners shall execute the powers hereby given, 9 A. c. 23. s. 1. [EXT. to Kent and Essex, pl. 49.]

3. Such commissioners, or the major part of them, shall, under their hands and seals, license all such persons who keep or drive any hackney coach or coach horses within such limits, not exceeding 800; and on each licence the weekly sum of 5s. shall be reserved to H. M., to be paid monthly, with such conditions therein to be inserted for the more effectual payment thereof, as such commissioners think fit, id. s. 2.

4. The commissioners of hackney coaches, under their hands and seals, may license over the number of 800 hackney coaches authorized by 9 A. c. 23. s. 2. any additional number not exceeding 200 to be employed for hire, within the cities of London and Westminster and weekly bills of mortality, so that the number of licensed coaches does not exceed 1000, and on each of such licences 5s. weekly shall be reserved, to be paid during the continuance of such licence, in like manner and with like penalties and conditions to be inserted therein as in other such licences, and such coaches, and the drivers and keepers thereof, shall have the same benefit, and be liable to the same rules, penalties, &c. as are lawfully prescribed in relation to keepers of hackney coaches; and the renters of such licences, and the drivers of such coaches, and all persons who shall drive or let to hire any hackney coach within such limits without licence, shall be liable to all the penalties they would have been if this act had not been made, 11 G. 3. c. 24. s. 1. [application of money, general issue, double costs, ss. 2—4. post, pl. 13—14.]

5. The commissioners of hackney coaches, or major part of them, may, under their hands and seals, beside the 1000 hackney coaches allowed by 9 A. c. 23. and 11 G. 3. c. 24., license in like manner not exceeding 100 more to be employed within the proper limits, so that the number of licensed hackney coaches shall not at one time exceed 1100 and a weekly sum of 5s. shall be reserved on each such licence to H. M., to be paid during the continuance of the licence, in like manner and under like penalties and conditions as other hackney coach licences, and such coaches and the keepers or drivers thereof, shall have the same rates and benefits, and be liable to the same rules, orders, and penalties as were before this act passed, lawfully prescribed to hackney coaches, and the renters of such licences, and the drivers of such coaches; and all persons who shall presume to drive, or let to hire any hackney coach, or coach horses, or carry any person for hire within such limits without licence, shall be liable to all forfeitures as they would have incurred if this act had not been made, 42 G. 3. c. 78. s. 1. [application of money, general issue, double costs, ss. 2—4. as in 11 G. 3. c. 24. s. 4. post, pl. 14.]

6. Such commissioners or the major part of them, may also in like manner license 200 hackney chairs within such limits, reserving in like manner to H. M. the yearly sum of 10s. to be paid quarterly, 9 A. c. 23. s. 5.

7. The commissioners of hackney coaches may in like manner license any additional number of hackney chairs not exceeding 100, so that the number of such licensed chairs shall not exceed 300 [400, 12 G. 1. c. 12. s. 15.] at one time, 10 A. c. 19. s. 158., 12 G. 1. c. 12. s. 15.

8. Hackney chairs thus licensed shall pay the yearly rent of 10s., and shall be subject to the like rules, &c. as other hackney chairs and chairmen licensed under the 9 A. c. 23., and persons carrying any chair within the limits in 9 A. c. 23. s. 1. pl. 2. mentioned, without such licence, shall incur the like penalties for using unlicensed chairs, as if this act had not been made, 10 A. c. 19. s. 159.

9. On each of such licences there shall be reserved to H. M. the annual sum of 10s., to be paid quarterly with such conditions, &c. to be inserted therein, as such commissioners shall think proper, and such chairs shall have the same rates and benefits, and be subject to the same rules and penalties, &c. as by former acts prescribed in relation to such chairs, 12 G. 1. c. 12. s. 16.

10. The money to arise by such licences together with certain other money herein mentioned, shall go to form a yearly fund of 186,670*l.*, towards paying the principal sum of 2,602,200*l.*, with interest for the same at 6 per cent. hereinafter mentioned, (viz. in s. 55. and it is a loan of that sum,) 9 A. c. 23. s. 54.

11. The money to arise by the rents of the increased number of chairs under this act shall be added to the fund by 9 A. c. 23. s. 54. established, 12 G. 1. c. 12. s. 17.

12. The rents arising by the additional number of hackney coaches, shall be applied to the same purposes, and subject to the same penalties as other rents of such coaches are appropriated by parliament, 11 G. 3. c. 24. s. 2., 42 G. 3. c. 78. s. 2.

13. The treasury may reward the commissioners of hackney coaches, and the officers employed by them, for their labour, and discharge such incident expences as attend the execution of this act, in such manner as they see fit, 11 G. 3. c. 24. ss. 3—4., 2 G. 3. c. 78. s. 3.

14. Persons sued for any thing under this act, may plead the general issue, giving this act and special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof; and if it so appears, a verdict shall be recorded for the defendant; and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues after appearance, or has judgment against him on verdict or demurrer, the defendant shall have double costs, with usual remedy to recover same, 11 G. 3. c. 24. s. 4., 42 G. 3. c. 78. s. 4.

15. Places of abode of the owners of hackney coaches, shall be registered at Guildhall, under penalty of 20*l.*, 11 G. 3. c. 29. ss. 113—115 (Local act.)

16. An additional duty shall be paid to H. M. by all persons licensed to drive or keep any hackney coach, or coach horses, within London, Westminster, or the suburbs thereof, or within the weekly bills of mortality, of the weekly sum of 5s. for every coach so licensed, to be paid monthly; and all the powers, clauses, penalties, and matters in other acts relating to hackney coaches, or the owners, renters, or drivers thereof, shall be in full force with relation to this additional duty, and shall be applied and put in execution in levying thereof, 26 G. 3. S. 2. c. 27. s. 1.

17. Such additional duty shall be paid into the exchequer distinctly from other branches of the public revenue; and the auditor shall keep a book wherein to enter such additional duty separately, and it shall form a fund for the payment of the several charges by 27 G. 3. S. 2. c. 10. (Lottery act) imposed, id. s. 9. [and see 9 A. c. 23. s. 54. pl. 10.]

18. No person shall drive or let to hire any hackney coach or coach horses, within such limits, without a licence from such commissioners, upon forfeiture of 5*l.*, nor carry any hackney chair for hire without such licence, upon forfeiture of 40*l.*; and no horse shall be used in any hackney coach under the size of 14 hands; and every licensed coach and chair shall have a mark or figure on each side; and if one person shall be licensed to keep several hackney coaches or chairs, he shall have distinct figures; and no person shall put the same figure on his coach or chair which is appointed for another, or shall deface such figure, upon forfeiture of 5l., one moiety to the informer, and the other to H. M.; and such commissioners shall in the first place license all persons who have been ancient coachmen or chairmen, or the widows of any of them unless they neglect to take out such license within a time to be allowed by such commissioners, being not less than 20 days, 9 A. c. 23. s. 4. [see as to the distinct figures, 55 G. 3. c. 159. s. 7. post, pl. 109.]

19. The commissioners for licensing hackney coaches and chairs shall, in the first place license the widows of hackney chairmen who die possessed of any licences, unless such widows shall neglect to take licences within a reasonable time, to be limited by the commissioners, but not to be less than 20 days, 12 A. S. 1. c. 14. s. 1.

20. Such widows, and their chairs and servants, shall be liable to such rules, penalties and orders, as any other licensed chairmen are by 9 A. c. 23. and 10 A. c. 19. liable, id. s. 2.

21. If any such commissioners shall license more than 800 [1100 see 42 G. 3. c. 78. pl. 5.] coaches, or 200 [now 400, pl. 7.] chairs, to be in being at one time, he shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered by any person who will sue for the same, by action of debt, &c. or information, in any court of record wherein no essoins, &c. and only one impleading is allowed, 9 A. c. 23. s. 5.

22. HACKNEY COACH FARES established 9 A. c. 23. ss. 6—7.; new ones granted 7 G. 3. c. 44. ss. 13—14.; those fares R.E.P. and new ones granted, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 27. ss. 4—5., which are R.E.P. 26 G. 3. c. 79. ss. 1—2. and new ones granted, which were increased by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 47. s. 1.; but all former fares are R.E.P. and new ones established by 48 G. 3. c. 87. s. 1. and sched. A. and B. (post, pl. 100.)

23. No person shall pay to the chairman for an hackney chair, carried any distance within such limits, more than the rate by this act allowed for an hackney coach driven 2-3ds the same distance; and the commissioners shall publish the several rates hereby allowed to chairmen; and if any hackney coachman or chairman shall refuse to go, or shall exact more for his hire than the rates hereinbefore limited, he shall forfeit 40*l.*, 9 A. c. 23. s. 8.

24. If any hackney coachman or driver shall refuse to go at, or shall exact more for his hire than shall be appointed, he shall forfeit a sum at the discretion of such commissioners, not exceeding 5l. nor under 10*l.*; such offences to be determined and the penalties levied as by 9 A. c. 23. s. 13. pl. 29. is directed, concerning the 40*l.* penalty, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 57. s. 2.

25. Such commissioners shall appoint under-officers, with moderate allowances, and they shall not take for their licences or for any thing by them done under this act, any gratuity or fee, other than what is to be paid to H. M. upon pain to forfeit their offices, and to be incapable of any grant thereof, or of any other office; only the clerks may take 2*s.* 6*d.* for ingrossing each licence, 9 A. c. 23. s. 9.

26. Such commissioners and other officers shall take an oath for the due execution of their offices, and shall not execute the powers hereby given till such oath has been taken, id. s. 10.

27. The commissioners shall pay the money hereby arising over the charges of collectors into the exchequer, and upon oath deliver to the treasury books of accounts, containing all the licences granted, and the names and surnames of the persons to whom granted, and the profits thereby accruing, once in every year, id. s. 11.

28. Such weekly and other rents and sums and all forfeitures and penalties by this act, or by any bye-laws made by the commissioners under s. 16. of this act, pl. 30. (the penalties to be incurred by the commissioners excepted) shall be levied by warrant under hand and seal of 3 of such commissioners, by distress of the goods of the offender, which shall be sold within 10 days, and the overplus shall be returned to the owner, the charges of making the distress being first deducted, with the costs of the warrant, if within 7 days' notice he does not pay the penalty incurred without such warrant, and if no distress can be had, the offender shall be committed by like warrant till the penalty is paid; and if the rent be behind 14 days, the commissioners (without demanding the arrear) may revoke the licence and grant it to another, id. s. 12.

29. Offences against the act (except those of the commissioners) may be heard and determined by 3 commissioners in a summary way, upon the oath of one witness, or upon confession, (the party being summoned,) one moiety to H. M. and the other to the informer, id. s. 13. [General issue, and no certiorari, ss. 14. 15. see post, pl. 42—43.]

30. Such commissioners, or the major part of them, may make such orders and bye-laws to bind persons only who have hackney coach or chair licences, and annex such penalties for the breach thereof as they think fit, so as such orders, &c. be agreeable to this act, and be for the better execution thereof, and for the good government of the persons so licensed, and be not repugnant to the law, id. s. 16.

31. The commissioners authorized to put 9 A. c. 23. in execution, may make such bye-laws to bind all persons licensed to keep hackney coaches, the renters of such licences, and drivers of such coaches, and annex such penalties as they think fit; so as the same are agreeable to the intent of this and former acts, and for the good government of the persons licensed, such renters and drivers: such bye-laws to be approved and put in execution as by the act directed, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 57. s. 1. [39 & 40 G. 3. c. 47. s. 9. post, pl. 80.]

32. Such rules and bye-laws, so to be made, shall be approved of by the lord chancellor and the two chief justices, and the chief baron, and when allowed shall be published, and the breach of any of the rules hereby appointed, and the penalties thereon, shall be punishable, and shall be inflicted and executed by any justices of peace, or any chief magistrate of the county, city, or place where the offence is committed; but no person shall be punished twice for the same offence, 9 A. c. 23. s. 17. [see 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 57. s. 7. pl. 44., 4 G. 3. c. 36. s. 2. pl. 52.]

33. All such penalties which shall be levied by any justice or magistrate under this act, or such bye laws, or H. M.'s part thereof, shall be transmitted to the receiver-general of the revenues of the hackney coaches, &c., and certified to such commissioners within 10 days after levied, upon forfeiture of double the sum, two-thirds to H. M., and the other third to the informer, id. s. 18. [altered 10 G. 3. c. 44. s. 7. post, pl. 67.]

34. Upon complaint to such commissioners that a coachman or chairman hath offended, he shall be summoned, (see pl. 45. and 66.) and if he refuse to appear, or is found guilty of a misbehaviour, they may revoke his licence for giving abusive language, or otherwise, and license another in his place, id. s. 19. [see post, s. 49. pl. 38.]

35. Such coachmen or chairmen so licensed may ply on the Lord's day, notwithstanding 29 C. c. 7., id. s. 20.

36. An account of the profits arising by licensing coaches and chairs shall be made annually before the auditors of the imprests, [commissioners of public accounts now, see ACCOUNTS PUBLIC, pl. 19.] id. s. 21.

37. If any refuse to pay a coachman or chairman his just hire, or shall cut or break any coach or chair wilfully, any justice of the peace may grant a warrant against the offender, and, upon proof on oath, award satisfaction to the party grieved; and upon refusal to make satisfaction, may bind him over to the next sessions, which shall finally determine the matter, and for non-payment levy by distress, id. s. 22. [see 55 G. 3. c. 159. s. 6. post, pl. 108.]

38. If any person driving a coach, or carrying a chair for hire, under the licence of another person as his servant, shall be guilty of any misbehaviour, by demanding more than his fare, or giving abusive language, or other rude behaviour, and being convicted by oath of one witness before such commissioners, or one justice for London, Westminster, Middlesex, or Surrey, he shall forfeit not exceeding 20*l.* to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed; or if not able to pay, shall be sent to Bridewell or some house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for 7 days, and have the public correction of the house, id. s. 49. [see ante, s. 19. pl. 34.]

39. No person shall stand, ply, or drive for hire with any coach soever, hearse, or coach horses, or shall let or hire any mourning coach or coach horses, to attend any funeral within the cities of London and Westminster, or the weekly bills of mortality, except persons licensed by the commissioners of hackney coaches, on pain to forfeit 5l., to be recovered, levied, and applied as by 9 A. c. 23. s. 4., pl. 18. directed in case of persons driving any unlicensed hackney coach for hire, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 57. s. 3.

40. If any person shall drive a mourning coach to any funeral, except the same have a number fixed on the fore-standard of such coach or hearse, or in some other place to be appointed by the commissioners, or except the same be the coach of some gentleman attending the master or mistress, or any of his family, the commissioners upon information may summon the driver, and on his not appearing may proceed; and though no express hiring shall be proved, yet unless the party appear and prove a previous order from the owner of such coach, &c. to attend at such funeral, it shall be adjudged a driving for hire; and the party shall forfeit 5l., to be recovered of the driver or the undertaker of such funeral, to be levied and applied as aforesaid, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 57. s. 4. [Ext. to coaches in general, 7 G. 3. c. 44. s. 10. post, pl. 34.]

41. If any person shall drive a mourning coach or hearse to any funeral within London, Westminster, or the suburbs thereof, or within 5 miles of Temple Bar, except the same has a number fixed on the fore-standard, shewing it to be a licensed coach or hearse let to hire, the commissioners of hackney coaches, on information given, shall summon driver, and on his appearance or default, may proceed against him, and although no express hiring be proved, it shall be deemed a driving for hire, and the offender shall forfeit 5l., to be recovered and applied as other penalties for the like offence are under the hackney coach laws [see 9 A. c. 23. s. 4., pl. 18. 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 57. s. 4. last pl.] 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 27. s. 7.

42. Persons sued for any thing done under this act may plead the general issue, and give this act [and the special matter; 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 57. s. 5.] in evidence; and if a verdict or judgment on demurrer shall pass against the plaintiff, or if he is nonsuited, discontinues or forbears prosecuting, the defendant shall have double costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, 9 A. c. 23. s. 14., 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 57. s. 5.

43. No certiorari shall supersede execution or other proceedings on any order made by such commissioners under this act, but such execution, &c. may be had notwithstanding such writ, 9 A. c. 23. s. 15., 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 57. s. 6.

44. The alderman of every ward of the city of London, and every justice within his jurisdiction in London, Westminster, and the weekly bills of mortality, may inflict the like penalties, and levy them in the same manner for any offences against this act as such commissioners may; but no person shall be punished twice for the same offence, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 57. s. 7.

45. If the owner of any such licensed coach neglects to appear before the commissioners of hackney coaches on complaint made, with his proper driver, upon third summons left at his place of abode, entered with such commissioners, they may revoke the licence of such person and grant it to another, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 27. s. 3. [see pl. 66.]

46. All persons now or to be licensed shall be subject to all the rules, orders, bye-laws or matters, as may be lawfully prescribed in relation to drivers or keepers of hackney coaches and their renters, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 27. s. 6. [See s. 8. CARRIAGES, pl. 12.]

47. Persons sued for any thing done under this act may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if the defendant has a verdict, or the plaintiff is nonsuited, the defendant shall have treble costs, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 27. s. 10., 26 G. 3. c. 72. s. 4.

48. If any hackney coachman, his renter or driver, shall be in arrear of any of the rents made payable by any licence granted by such commissioners for any longer time than is therein expressed, such commissioners may revoke such licence, and levy the rent on the goods of such owner or renter, in like manner as he may on the owner, 26 G. 3. c. 72. s. 3. [see similar clause, pl. 82.]

49. TO EXTEND THE LAWS RELATING TO HACKNEY COACHES to the counties of Kent and Essex, 4 G. 3. c. 36. [for rest of this act, BANKRUPT. Offences committed by hackney coachmen within certain districts punished, 11 G. 3. c. 28. Exp. as to ss. 3, 4.]

50. All the new squares, buildings and streets within the parishes of St. Mary le bonc, St. George Hanover Square, St. George the Martyr, Queen Square, and St. George Bloomsbury in Middlesex, and also all the burying grounds within 5 miles of the cities of London or Westminster belonging to any of the parishes within such cities, or the parishes aforesaid, shall be deemed within such cities according to this act, and the jurisdiction of the commissioners of hackney coaches and of justices of peace, and all the provisions therein contained, shall extend to such squares and places, 11 G. 3. c. 28. s. 1.

51. The commissioners of hackney coaches may order licensed hackney coachmen to provide check strings or wires, and every such coachman plying for hire without such check shall forfeit 5s., to be levied and recovered in like manner as other penalties may be, by (9 A. c. 23. s. 13. pl. 29. s. 17. pl. 32.) any hackney coach law in force, 11 G. 3. c. 28. s. 2. [General issue and double costs, s. 5., similar to 11 G. 3. c. 24. s. 4. ante, pl. 14.]

52. Justices of the peace for Kent and Essex shall have the same authority within their respective jurisdictions to put the laws in execution against the drivers of licensed hackney coaches for offences committed against such laws as the commissioners of hackney coaches, the aldermen and justices of London, Westminster, Middlesex and Surrey now have, 4 G. 3. c. 36. s. 2. [See 9 A. c. 23. s. 17. ante, pl. 32.]

53. FOR EXPLAINING AND AMENDING SEVERAL ACTS OF PARLIAMENT relating to hackney coaches and chairs, 7 G. 3. c. 44. ss. 10—22., [AMD. and REP. as to s. 11. by s. 4. of 10 G. 3. c. 44. ss. 4—9., 12 G. 3. c. 49., 32 G. 3. c. 47. (PUBLIC CLAUSE, s. 5.), further AMD., and regulations as to increasing fares, and new fares established 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 47., REP. as to the fares, (ss. 1 and 11.) 48 G. 3. c. 87. s. 2., which see, post, pl. 88.]

54. Upon every information before the commissioners against any person, for driving for hire, or letting to hire, any hackney coach, contrary to 9 A. c. 23., although no express hiring shall be proved, yet unless the party accused shall appear, and make proof to the commissioners, that no money or other gratuity was paid, or agreed to be paid for the use of the coach, the same shall be deemed a driving for, or a letting to hire; and every person offending shall incur the like penalty as if money, &c. was actually proved to be paid, 7 G. 3. c. 44. s. 10. [See as to hearses and mourning coaches, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 17. ss. 3—4. ante, pl. 39—40.]

55. Every coachman, licensed by such commissioners, plying for hire within London or Westminster, [or within the weekly bills of mortality, and the suburbs of such cities, 12 G. 3. c. 49. s. 1.] shall be obliged on every day of the week, at seasonable times to go any where, within the distance of 10 miles from London or Westminster; and in case of refusal, shall be liable to the like penalty and punishment as in cases of refusal, [see 9 A. c. 23. s. 8. pl. 23.] to carry for hire, 7 G. 3. c. 44. s. 19. and 12 G. 3. c. 49. s. 1., [see exception from this clause, made in favour of hackney coaches used as stages, 12 G. 3. c. 49. s. 2., post, pl. 70.]

56. Every licensed hackney coachman, and his renter or driver, plying for hire within the cities of London or Westminster, or the suburbs thereof, shall be compellable in every day of the week, (unless [he has been out 12 hours REP., 55 G. 3. c. 159. s. 12. post, pl. 96.] or shall have some reasonable excuse,) to go to any place within the distance of 10 miles, in case such coachman shall have time to return by or before sunset, [see the hours specified, 48 G. 3. c. 87. s. 3. post, pl. 89.] or the fare shall undertake to return in such coach, 32 G. 3. c. 47. s. 1.

57. Every hackney coachman so plying, shall be obliged to go at any hour of the night, [unless he has been out 12 hours; but see pl. 89.] or has some excuse, on all public turnpike roads, that shall be lighted up, within 2 miles and a half, from the extreme parts of the carriage-way pavements of London or Westminster, where a regular continuation thereof doth extend, 32 G. 3. c. 47. s. 2. [see 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 47. s. 5. post, pl. 76.]

58. In every case where any person, for offences mentioned in any law relating to hackney coaches and chairs, shall be liable to be committed to prison, such commissioners, or 3 of them, either may commit such offender to prison, for not exceeding one month, or, by warrant under their hands and seals, to Bridewell in London, or some other house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour, for not exceeding one month; and also to receive the correction of such house, if the commissioners shall so think fit to order, 7 G. 3. c. 44. s. 15.

59. The commissioners, or 3 of them, in all cases where they may now, by law, commit any offender convicted before them to Bridewell, or any other house of correction may commit such offender, by warrant, immediately to Bridewell in London, or some other house of correction; there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month, and also to receive the correction of the house, if the commissioners think fit, 10 G. 3. c. 44. s. 5.

60. If any person duly licensed to let or drive for hire any hackney coach, shall be guilty of misbehaviour in his employment, such commissioners, or 3 of them, may either revoke such coachman's licence, or inflict a penalty not exceeding 3*l.*, upon conviction for every such offence, to be paid to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed; and if any person so convicted shall not be able, or shall refuse to pay, he shall be committed to Bridewell, or some other house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for 30 days, 7 G. 3. c. 44. s. 16.

61. Any hackney coachman, may take 12*s.* 6*d.* for a day's work or hire, reckoning 12 hours to the day, id. s. 17. [QU. if REP. see 48 G. 3. c. 87. s. 1. pl. 88.]

62. Every licensed hackney coachman, or his driver, who shall drive with any hackney coach on the Lord's day, shall be liable to do the like work, as well without the weekly bills of mortality as within, as on any other day of the week, id. s. 18.

63. Former acts concerning jurisdiction of commissioners, &c. continued, id. s. 19. [see s. 20. CARRIAGES, pl. 17.]

64. No writ of certiorari shall supersede execution or other proceeding on any orders of such commissioners under this act; but execution, &c. may be had thereon, id. s. 21.

65. Persons sued for any thing done under this act, may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if a verdict or judgment on demurrer shall pass against the plaintiff, or if he is nonsuited, or discontinues after appearance, the defendant shall have treble costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 22.

66. Every person licensed to carry or let for hire a hackney-chair, who shall neglect or refuse (being summoned) to appear before the commissioners in person, or by his renter, upon any complaint made, without some reasonable excuse, to be approved of by the commissioners, shall forfeit 10*s.*; and if such person shall not appear, together with his renter, upon the 3d summons, without such reasonable excuse, the commissioners may determine the complaint, notwithstanding the absence of the party offending, upon the oath of one witness, and impose the penalty, 10 G. 3. c. 44. s. 6.

67. All the offences mentioned in 7 G. 3. c. 44. or this act, may be determined, and all the forfeitures recovered and levied, not only by the commissioners, but also by any justice, mayor, bailiff, or other magistrate, as by 9 A. c. 23. directed, id. s. 7.

68. H. M.'s part of all penalties which shall be levied by any justice, mayor, bailiff, or other magistrate, shall be by him transmitted to the receiver general of the revenues arising by hackney coaches and chairs, and also a certificate thereof to the commissioners for licensing and regulating the same, within 10 days after the levying any such penalty, upon pain of 10*l.*; one moiety to H. M., and the other to him that will inform, id. s. 8.

69. Persons sued for any thing done under this act, may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if a verdict shall pass against the plaintiff, or if he shall discontinue, or be nonsuited, or have judgment on demurrer against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 9.

70. The commissioners of hackney coaches or other persons, shall not fine or punish any licensed hackney coachman, his renter, or driver, for refusing to carry a fare out of the ordinary course of his stage-work or duty, who shall regularly employ his coach as a stage coach, to and from places in the neighbourhood of London and Westminster, and shall by painting in legible characters, plainly denote the same to be a stage coach, 12 G. 3. c. 49. s. 2. [See as to these stages, 44 G. 3. c. 88., post, pl. 84.]

71. Every person hiring a hackney coach, to go any further distance than the regular continuation of the carriage-way pavement after sun-set, shall be liable to pay to the coachman, not only his lawful fare, but also 6d. for every distance not exceeding half a mile, that such coachman shall have to return to the end of such pavement, after setting down his fare, unless the fare shall return in such coach, such additional fare to be recovered as any other fare may be; and in case such coachman shall refuse to go, or shall exact more than his fare, he shall be liable to the penalty inflicted by the hackney coach laws for such offences, 32 G. 3. c. 47. s. 3.

72. No proceeding to be had against any offender under this act shall be quashed for want of form, or be removable by certiorari into any court at Westminster, with general issue and treble costs as in 9 A. c. 20. s. 14. ante, pl. 42., but nothing in this act shall lessen or abridge any of the bye-laws now in being relative to such hackney coach owners, their renters, or drivers, id. s. 4.

73. Whenever the average price of oats, published in the London Gazette, according to 31 G. 3. c. 30. shall exceed 25s. per quarter, the commissioners of hackney coaches may cause an addition to be made to the rates and fares hereinafter allowed to be taken, in the proportions here set forth, (viz.) upon every fare amounting to 2s. the additional sum of 6d.; amounting to 4s. the additional sum of 1s. and so in like proportion on every increase of 2s., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 47. s. 2.

74. Such additional fare shall not be paid unless such coach has been the full distance, or kept waiting the full period allowed for 2s. or 4s., or any such increase of 2s.; and may be recovered as other such fares may be; and such commissioners shall, when they increase such fares, publish a notice thereof in the London Gazette, specifying when the increase is to commence, and how long it shall continue so, and the period of commencement shall be 7 days at least from the time when notice published, and such additional price may be continued until such average shall be reduced to one guinea a quarter, and for 30 days after, id. s. 3.

75. Such commissioners may appoint such persons with such moderate allowance as they think fit, to inspect all hackney coaches by them licensed, and the horses used in drawing the same, and such persons shall four times in every year, and at all times when such commissioners deem it proper, inspect such coaches and horses, and examine their state and condition, and report the same to the commissioners, who may suspend the licence of any person whose coach is found defective in safety, repair, or cleanliness, or whose horses are insufficient, and continue such suspension until the defect is properly rectified; and if any person shall refuse to permit his coach or horses to be inspected, or shall produce such persons any other coach or horses than those bona fide and ordinarily driven under such licence, the commissioners may supersede such licence, id. s. 4.

76. Hackney coachmen whose coaches are found standing in the street, and not hired, shall be deemed to be plying for hire, although not standing on the regular stand, and they shall be compellable to go with any person desirous to hire them, and if any complaint shall be made to such commissioners, of refusal to go, such coachman shall be obliged to prove that he was hired at the time when applied to; and in case he cannot produce such evidence, he shall be liable to the like penalties as may by any act [9 A. c. 23. s. 8. 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 57. s. 2. ante, pl. 23—24.] in force be inflicted in cases of refusal to carry for hire by such coachman, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 47. s. 5. [See ante, 7 G. 3. c. 44. s. 12., pl. 55.]

77. But when he shall produce such evidence, such commissioners shall require the party who summoned him, to make him such allowance for loss of time as they deem proper, id. s. 6.

78. Such commissioners may require all persons licensed to keep, drive, or let, any hackney coach, to enter in a book at their office, the name and place of residence of the person driving such coach, and such commissioners may grant leave for him to drive, and on complaint made against such driver by the owner of the coach or other person, they may revoke or suspend such leave; and in case of omission to enter such driver's name and residence, or in case such owner shall permit any person not so entered, and to whom no leave is granted, unless for any period between a driver leaving a coach, and the next meeting of such commissioners, they may revoke or suspend the licence of such person, id. s. 7.

79. No person shall attend at any hackney coach standing, or at any place of public resort as a waterman to hackney coachmen, unless he shall be authorized under the hand-writing of such commissioners, on pain to be liable to such penalty as may be imposed by any rule, &c. of such commissioners made in pursuance hereof, id. s. 8.

80. Such commissioners may make rules, orders, &c. for governing and regulating drivers of hackney coaches and persons who attend as watermen at hackney coach stands, or places of public resort, and may annex penalties for the breach thereof, not exceeding 40s. nor less than 5s. for any one offence, and may alter and amend such rules, &c., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 47. s. 9. [See 9 A. c. 23. s. 16., ante, pl. 30.]

81. No person shall carry for hire any person in any sedan chair, (unless the same is hired for 12 hours at least) within the cities of London and Westminster, or the suburbs thereof, or within the weekly bills of mortality, without having a licence from the commissioners of hackney coaches, on pain to forfeit 40s. to be recovered, levied, and applied in any penalty for the like offence under any other act [9 A. c. 23. s. 4. pl. 30.] may be, id. s. 10.

82. If any hackney coachman, or his renter, shall be in arrear of payment of any rents reserved, or their licences, for longer time than is therein mentioned, the commissioners of hackney coaches may revoke such licences, and levy the rents upon the goods and chattels of the owners or renters, in such manner as they may now do on the owner, id. s. 12. [See similar clause, 26 G. 3. c. 72. s. 3. ante, pl. 48.]

83. Persons sued for any thing done under this act, may plead the general issue, and give this act and special matter in evidence; and if defendant has a verdict, or the plaintiff is nonsuited, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 13.

84. FOR EXPLAINING AND AMENDING 12 G. 3. c. 49. (ante, pl. 55. 70.) and several (stamp) acts relating to hackney coaches, employed as stage coaches, and for indemnifying the owners of hackney coaches who have omitted to take out licences pursuant to 25 G. 3. c. 51., 44 G. 3. c. 88., [It is as to so much as authorizes the commissioners of hackney coaches to license hackney coaches to be used as stage coaches, and as exempts the owners of hackney coaches from payment of the mileage duties, 55 G. 3. c. 185. s. 11. See STAMPS (Stage Coaches).]

85. The commissioners for hackney coaches, with the approbation of the treasury, may license as many owners of hackney coaches licensed by them as may appear necessary, to ply for hire and employ as public stated stages, such their licensed hackney coaches, to and from such places to such distances from London and Westminster, and the borough of Southwark, as well within as without the weekly bills of mortality, under and subject to such conditions as the treasury shall require, provided that the owners or renters of such hackney coaches do plainly denote and distinguish their coaches to be stated stages to and from such place for which licensed by painting same on their coaches, 44 G. 3. c. 88. s. 1.

86. Licensed owners of hackney coaches are not liable to the penalty for omitting to take out licences from the commissioners of stamps for stage coaches, under 25 G. 3. c. 51., although used as stage coaches to and from places within 10 miles of London and Westminster; and persons against whom prosecutions for such penalties shall be brought, shall be indemnified, id. s. 2.

87. FOR REPEALING THE rates and taxes taken by licensed hackney coachmen, and for establishing others in lieu thereof, and for amending several laws relating to hackney coaches, 48 G. 3. c. 87. [EXPL. AND AMD. and hackney chariots authorized to be licensed, 54 G. 3. c. 147. which is R.E.P. as to ss. 1—13., and AMD. (and carriages drawn by one horse, and additional chariots authorized to be licensed,) by 55 G. 3. c. 159. and recital in s. 1.]

88. All former rates and fares set forth in former acts, and heretofore taken for the hire of hackney coaches, within London, Westminster, and the suburbs thereof, and within the weekly bills of mortality, or other places whither hackney coaches are compellable to go, shall be repealed, and in lieu thereof the persons licensed by the commissioners for hackney coaches to drive, keep, or let to hire any hackney coach, with horses, within such limits, and persons acting under them, may demand for the hire of such coach the rates and fares set forth in the Schedules hereto annexed, marked (A.) and (B.), calculating for time or distance, at the option of the coachman, 48 G. 3. c. 87. s. 1. [Such rates and fares shall be calculated by the hour or mile, and not also by the day, as heretofore allowed, id. s. 2.]

89. Every hackney coachman plying for hire within such limits, shall be obliged on every day of the week, after 8 in the evening, between Lady-day and Michaelmas-day, and after 5 in the evening between Michaelmas-day and Lady-day, to go the distances, and under the circumstances, in 32 G. 2. c. 47. s. 1. pl. 56., and 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 47. pl. 76. mentioned, id. s. 3.

90. So much of 48 G. 3. c. 87. (s. 4.) as authorizes coachmen to demand certain fares over the ordinary fares, where they drive into the country after certain hours, shall be repealed and the additional fares here mentioned shall be paid: viz. in case any hackney coach or chariot shall be hired in any part of London and Westminster, and the suburbs thereof, the borough of Southwark, or any place adjoining thereto, where there is a regular continuation of carriage way pavement, or at any hackney coach stand beyond such pavement, and discharged after

7 o'clock in the evening between Michaelmas-day and Lady-day, and after 9 o'clock between Lady-day and Michaelmas-day, at any place where there is not a regular continuation of carriage way pavement, there may be demanded, besides the ordinary fare the full fare allowed by 48 G.3. c.87. to the nearest extremity of such continued carriage way pavement, or to any stand for hackney coaches beyond such continuation of carriage way pavement, where such coach or chariot was hired, at the option of the party discharging it; and in case any such coach or chariot shall be hired and driven into the country, and there discharged in the day time, and not after the hours aforesaid, there may be demanded for the return thereof to such pavement or stand, at such option, for each mile above 4 miles, the additional fare of 6d.; but no such allowance shall be made for any lesser distance than 4 miles, 55 G.3. c.159. s.5.

91. If any hackney coachman, when discharged in the country, pick up promiscuous passengers, and is thereof convicted by the oath of one witness, before such commissioners, he shall forfeit from 20s. to 3l. in their discretion; but this shall not prevent such coachman from taking up regular fares, in the proper course of their employment, 48 G.3. c.87. s.5.

92. Every hackney coachman shall carry four adult persons in his coach, and a servant outside, at one time, and shall not be compellable to carry more; but if he agree to carry above that number, he may demand for every such additional person 1s. above his fare; or if hired to drive into the country, and there wait, and shall return with such additional person, he shall be entitled to demand 1s. for going, and 1s. for coming back, above his regular fare, id. s.6.

93. Every hackney coachman may refuse to carry more than 4 adult persons (not being children in arms or lap) in his coach but if he shall agree to carry, or actually shall carry, above that number, he shall be entitled to receive for such additional person, of what age soever, 1s. over the regular fare, under the circumstances, and as by 48 G.3. c.87. s.6. allowed, 54 G.3. c.147. s.14.

94. Every hackney coachman taking persons to Faushall, or other place of public resort, and being desired to wait, may receive a reasonable sum in hand, over and above his fare, to be accounted for on his being discharged, 48 G.3. c.87. s.7.

95. Hackney coachmen who shall, in civil and explicit terms, declare to persons desirous to hire his coach, either that he is actually hired, or has been out 12 hours, and shall afterwards be summoned to answer for his refusal, and shall on complaint prove that he was bona fide hired, or had been out 12 hours, and it shall appear that he did not use uncivil language, shall not be punished for such refusal; and the commissioners before whom the complaint is heard, may require the party who summoned such coachman, to make him a reasonable compensation for loss of time, not exceeding 5s. nor less than 3s., to be levied and recovered as other penalties may be, under any act relating to hackney coaches, id. s.8.

96. No driver who shall ply for hire shall refuse, although he has been out 12 hours, to go with any person who is desirous of hiring him, to any distance prescribed by law, at the established fares, 55 G.3. c.159. s.12.

97. No owner or driver of any stated figured (but see pl. 109.) stage on his way to London, shall take up any person as a passenger after he has entered the paved streets of London, Westminster, or Borough of Southwark, nor on his return into the country shall he take up any passenger for the purpose of setting him down in any such streets, such owner or driver knowing the intention of the passenger to get down in such streets, under a penalty of from 20s. to 3l., in the discretion of such commissioners or the major part of them, before whom the complaint is heard, and they may revoke the licence of such owner so offending more than once, but such penalty shall not be incurred if such passenger so taken up and set down had previously taken his place for the country at a booking-house, and had paid the full fare, 48 G.3. c.87. s.9.

98. No owner of any such stage shall have more than two booking houses between the place from whence his stage shall set out, in town and country, nor shall remain more than 20 minutes at one of such houses, under a penalty of from 20s. to 40s., in discretion of major part of the commissioners hearing the complaint, 48 G.3. c.87. s.10.

99. If any hackney coachman, his renter, or driver, shall take more for his hire than the rates hereby limited, he shall be subject to the like penalties and punishments, to be levied, recovered, and inflicted by such persons and in such manner as by hackney coach laws allowed, [9 A. c.23. s.8. &c. ante, pl. 23, 24.] and such fares may be recovered in such manner as hackney coach fares, by any act of parliament, [viz. 9 A. c.23. s.22. pl. 27., and see infra, pl. 108.] are recoverable, 48 G.3. c.87. s.11.

100. For every hackney coach hired and taken any distance there shall be paid the rates and fares following; that is to say,

For every distance within	And not exceeding	s. d.
Above one mile	One mile	1 0
Above one mile and a half	One mile and a half	1 6

Above three hours forty minutes	Three hours forty minutes	10 0
	Four hours	11 0

And for any further time after the rate and proportion of 6d. for every 15 minutes, id. Sch. B.

102. Such commissioners may, under the hands and seals of the major part of them, as opportunity shall occur by vacancy, in the number of licensed coaches, license a limited number of hackney chariots, so as the number of such chariots do not exceed at one time 200, and so as the aggregate number of licensed carriages shall not exceed 1100, and on each such licences 5s. weekly shall be reserved to H. M., to be paid from the commencement of such licence, in like manner and under like penalties and conditions therein to be inserted as in other licences granted in pursuance of any act now in force relating to hackney coaches; and such chariots, and the drivers and keepers thereof, shall in respect thereof have the same rates and benefits, and be liable to the same orders, rules, bye-laws, pains and penalties, as by law prescribed for the drivers or keepers of hackney coaches; and the renters of such licences (other than such as are repugnant to this act) and all persons who shall presume to drive or let to hire any hackney chariot or chariot horses, or carry any persons for hire within the cities of London and Westminster, or the suburbs thereof, or within the weekly bills of mortality, without such licence, shall be liable to all such penalties, &c. that may be imposed by any act [9 A. c.23. s.18.] relating to hackney coaches, 54 G.3. c.147. s.15.

103. Such commissioners, with the consent of the treasury, may license an additional number of hackney chariots, not exceeding 200, over and above the number in 54 G.3. c.147. s.15. mentioned, as they see fit, 55 G.3. c.159. s.2.

104. The money arising by the rents of such hackney chariots, shall be subject and applicable to the like purposes, and under the like penalties, as rents on hackney coaches are applicable and appropriated by parliament, 54 G.3. c.147. s.16. [see 9 A. c.23. s.54. ante, pl. 10.]

105. No owner or driver of any hackney chariot, shall be compellable to carry more than [two, 54 G.3. c.147. s.17., altered by 55 G.3. c.159. s.3. to] three persons [not being children in arms or lap], in his chariot, and a servant outside at the same time; but if he agrees to carry, and shall actually carry a greater number, he shall be entitled to receive for each additional person 1s. over the regular fare; and if he shall drive into the country, and wait there, and return with any such additional person, he shall receive 1s. for going, and 1s. for coming back, 54 G.3. c.147. s.17. 55 G.3. c.159. s.3.

106. If any person is sued or prosecuted for any thing done under formation in any court of record, to be recovered with full costs, 3 & 4 A. c. 4. s. 4. (see 50 G. 3. c. 41. s. 17. & 19., post, pl. 23. and 25.)

3. All persons trading in the woollen or linen manufactures of this kingdom, and selling the same by wholesale, shall not be deemed hawkers, pedlars, or petty-chapmen under any act; but such persons and those employed by them, may sell by wholesale only the said manufactures, id. s. 14.

4. FOR THE RELIEF OF THE WHOLESALE TRADERS AND DEALERS IN English bone-lace, by obviating several doubts in the several acts for licensing hawkers and pedlars, 4 G. 1. c. 6. [AMD. 29 G. 3. c. 26. s. 20., 52 G. 3. c. 108.]

5. No person, being a [maker, 4 G. 1. c. 6. or] wholesale trader in [English bone, 4 G. 1. c. 6. 29 G. 3. c. 26. s. 20.] lace, [in woollen, linen, silk, cotton, or mixed goods, or any goods, ware, or manufactures of G. B., 29 G. 3. c. 26. s. 20., 52 G. 3. c. 108.] and selling the same by wholesale, shall be deemed a hawker, pedlar, or petty-chapman, within the meaning of any act relating to them; but all such persons, their [children, 4 G. 1. c. 6. 29 G. 3. c. 26. s. 20.] apprentices, servants, or agents, selling by wholesale only, may go from house to house, to any of their customers, who sell the same again by wholesale or retail, without being subject to the penalties and duties contained in act touching hawkers, pedlars, &c. 4 G. 1. c. 6., 29 G. 3. c. 26. s. 20., 52 G. 3. c. 108. s. 1.

6. FOR PLACING THE DUTIES OF HAWKERS AND PEDLARS under the commissioners of hackney coaches, 50 G. 3. c. 41. [AMD. 52 G. 3. c. 108., see s. 1. of this act, last pl. See as to Scot., 55 G. 3. c. 71.]

7. The 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 27. and all acts made for continuing, altering, or regulating the duties thereby imposed, as far only as such acts relate to such continuance, &c. and all powers, &c. contained in any act of parliament relating to the collection of such duties, shall be repealed; provided that nothing herein shall revive any act repealed by any of the acts repealed by this act, 50 G. 3. c. 41. s. 1.

8. All licences to be granted under this act, shall continue in force until 1st August next following the dates of such licences, id. s. 2.

9. The commission by which commissioners are appointed for licensing hawkers, pedlars, and petty chapmen, shall cease, id. s. 3. [see s. 17. post, pl. 23.]

10. The treasury, out of the monies raised by this act, may pay to the commissioners for licensing hackney coaches, their clerks, or any other persons, such sums as they may deserve for their service, or have expended in the execution of this act; and the treasury may grant such pensions by way of compensation to the commissioners and other persons employed in the office for granting licences to hawkers, &c. at the time of the passing of this act, as to them seems fit, so as the same shall not exceed the amount of their salaries, id. s. 4.

11. This act shall not hinder any person from selling or exposing to sale any sorts of goods or merchandize in any public mart, market, or fair, legally established within Eng., Wa., and Ber., id. s. 5., 50 G. 3. c. 41. s. 4.

12. There shall be paid to H. M. the rates and duties following, viz. by every hawker, pedlar, petty chapman, and every other trading person, going from town to town, or to other men's houses, and travelling either on foot or with horses, or otherwise, in Eng., Wa., or Ber., carrying to sell or exposing to sale any goods, a duty of 4l. for each year; and every person so travelling with an horse, ass, or mule, or other beast bearing or drawing burthen, 4l. more yearly for each beast he shall so travel with, id. s. 6.

13. No such hawker, &c. so travelling shall, either by opening a room or shop, and exposing to sale any goods, &c. by retail in any town, parish, or place, not being a householder there, or the same not being his usual place of abode, or by any other means, sell, either by himself or by any auctioneer, whether licensed or not, broker, appraiser, agent, servant, or other person on his behalf, any goods, &c. by outcry, knocking down of hammer, candle, lot, parcel, or any other mode of sale at auction, or whereby the highest bidder is deemed the purchaser; and every person selling contrary to such prohibition shall forfeit 50l., id. s. 7.

14. The duties hereby imposed, shall be under the management of the commissioners for hackney coaches, who shall employ such additional clerks and officers as may be required for collecting, recovering, paying, and accounting for the same, and shall themselves receive such additional allowances as may be approved by the treasury, id. s. 8.

15. Every hawker, &c., subject to these duties, shall annually take out a licence as herein-after mentioned, which shall continue in force for such time as in s. 2. provided, id. s. 9.

16. Every hawker, &c. so travelling, shall, at the time of receiving his licence, and without any discount, pay all duties imposed upon him to the commissioners for hackney coaches, or some person authorized by the major part of them, in writing, under their hands and seals, and upon payment thereof a licence shall be granted to such person, subscribed by one of such commissioners, for him to travel and trade according to this act, and according to the duties which shall then be paid, 50 G. 3. c. 41. s. 10.

17. Any person duly authorized by the present commissioners to grant licences in any place within Eng., Wa., and Ber., except the cities of London and Westminster, may grant licences under this act, as if they had been duly authorized under this act by the commissioners of hackney coaches, until such last mentioned commissioners shall annul their authority, id. s. 11.

18. Before any person shall receive any licence so to trade or travel, he shall produce to the commissioners for hackney coaches or their deputy appointed for licensing hawkers, &c. a certificate signed by some one clergyman officiating within the parish, chapelry, or place wherein he has his usual residence, and also by two reputable inhabitants thereof, attesting that he is of good character, and reputation, and is fit to be licensed to exercise the trade of a hawker, &c. id. s. 12.

19. Such certificate so to be produced as aforesaid, shall be in the form or to the effect following;—

‘ We A. B. the minister, and C. D. and E. F. being 2 householders residing at — in the parish, chapelry, or otherwise, [as the case may be] of — in the county of — do hereby certify, that G. H. hath been known to us for the space of — years last past, and during all that time hath usually resided in the said parish, chapelry, or otherwise, [as the case may be], of — and is a person of good character and reputation, and is a fit person to be licensed to exercise the trade of a hawker, pedlar, and petty chapman. Dated the — day of —

A. B. Minister.

E. F. } Householders

20. Every person to whom any such licence shall be granted under this act, and who shall trade under colour thereof, shall cause to be written, in large capitals, upon every pack, box, bag, trunk, case, cart, or waggon, or other vehicle or conveyance in which he shall carry his goods, &c. and of every room and shop in which he shall so trade; and likewise upon every hand bill or advertisement which he shall distribute or publish, the words “Licensed Hawker,” together with the number, name, or other mark of distinction so written upon his licence, on pain to forfeit 10l., id. s. 14.

21. If any person other than to whom such licence has been so granted, shall write or cause to be written, or kept or continue written, upon any pack, &c. or in any room or shop in which he shall sell or expose to or keep for sale any goods, &c. the words “Licensed Hawker,” or “Licensed Pedlar,” or any other words to that effect, he shall forfeit 10l., id. s. 15.

22. Every hawker, &c. as in s. 6., who shall be convicted of knowingly dealing in, or selling any smuggled, contraband, or prohibited goods, &c. or any goods, &c. fraudulently or dishonestly procured, either by himself or through the medium of others, with his privity, shall, after such conviction, forfeit his licence, be incapable of holding any new licence, or trading under the same, over and above such incapacities, and penalties to which he is liable for such illegal trafficking and dealing, id. s. 16.

23. If any such hawker, &c. so travelling, shall so trade without or contrary to or otherwise than as allowed by such licence, he shall forfeit 10l.; and if any person trading under any licence so to him granted, upon demand made by any person authorized or appointed to demand any such licence by the commissioners for licensing hawkers, &c. [see s. 3., ante, pl. 9.] or any two of them, under their hands and seals, and upon producing such authority to such person so trading, or upon demand made by any justice of peace, mayor, constable, or other officer of the peace of any county, &c. town corporate, borough, or place where he shall so trade, or by any officer of customs or excise, or by any person to whom such hawker, &c. shall offer any goods to sale, shall refuse to produce his licence, or shall not have his licence ready to produce, then the person so refusing, or not having his licence ready to produce, shall forfeit 10l., and for non-payment thereof shall suffer as a common vagrant, and be committed to the house of correction, id. s. 17.

24. If any person shall forge or counterfeit any licence by this act directed to be granted, or travel with, or produce any such forged or counterfeited licence for any such purposes, he shall forfeit 300l., id. s. 18.

25. In case any person shall let out or lend any licence so granted to him, or shall trade with or under colour of any licence granted unto any person, or of any licence in which his real name is not inserted as the name of the person to whom the same is granted, such persons shall forfeit 40l.; and in case any person shall be convicted or have judgment against him for lending his licence contrary to this act, such his licence shall be void, and he shall be incapable of having any licence again granted to him; provided that nothing herein shall subject to such penalty any servant travelling for a licensed master, with the licence of such master, and for his benefit, or any licensed master sending such servant to travel with such licence, id. s. 19.

26. Any person may seize and detain for a reasonable time any such hawkers, &c. who shall be found trading without a licence contrary to this act, or who being found trading shall refuse to produce to such person a licence according to this act, after being required so to do, in order to give notice to a constable, headborough, tithingman or other peace officer, who shall carry such person so seized, unless he shall in the mean time produce his licence, before some justice of peace of the county or place where such offence was committed, who shall examine into the fact charged, and upon the proof either by confession or by the oath of one witness, that the person so brought before him had so traded, and no such licence being produced by such offender before him, shall convict such offender, and thereupon by warrant under his hand and seal cause such sum of 40*l.* to be levied by distress and sale of his goods, &c. or of the goods with which such offender was found trading, rendering the overplus to the owner, after deducting charges of such distress, and out of such sale may pay such penalties, and in the mean time may commit such offender to the common gaol or house of correction for the county, &c. town or place, until such penalties and charges are levied by such distress and sale, or until the same be otherwise paid, 50 G. 3. c. 41. s. 20.

27. Every constable or other officer of the peace who shall neglect upon due notice, or on his own view, to be aiding in the execution of this act, being thereunto required, and shall be thereof convicted upon confession, or by the oath of one witness before any justice for the county or place where the offence was committed, shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 21.

28. Any persons who on the 1st day of May were duly licensed to trade as hawkers and pedlars, may set up, occupy, use or exercise any craft, mystery, or occupation, occupied within this realm, in any place where there shall be resident inhabitants, although they have not been brought up in such craft, &c. 7 years as apprentices; and also may set any person to work in such craft, &c. although such person has not been apprentice therein, any penalty contained in 5 Ed. c. 4. to the contrary notwithstanding; and if any such person or their wives or children shall be prosecuted for exercising any such craft, &c. in any city or place, and shall make it appear that they had such licence, they shall upon the general issue pleaded be found not guilty, in any action, &c. or information, or indictment for such cause; and in all cases where costs are allowed, such persons so acquitted shall receive double costs, and no such persons, their wives or children, during the time they shall exercise such craft, &c. in any parish or place, shall be removeable therefrom to his last legal settlement, until such person shall become actually chargeable to such parish, any law not [QU. NOV. P.] in being relative to the settlement of the poor notwithstanding, id. s. 22.

29. Nothing in this act shall prohibit any person from selling any printed papers licensed by authority, or any fish, fruit, or victuals, nor the real workers, or makers of any goods, &c. of G. B. or their children, apprentices, or known agents usually residing with such real workers or makers only, from carrying abroad or exposing to sale, and selling by retail or otherwise, any of such goods, &c. of their own making, in any mart, market, or fair, and in every city, borough, town corporate, and market town, nor any tinkers, coopers, glaziers, plumbers, harness menders, or other persons usually trading in mending kettles, tubs, household goods, or harness, from going about and carrying with them proper materials for mending the same, id. s. 23.

30. All pecuniary penalties incurred under this act, of a greater sum than 20*l.*, shall be recovered with costs in any of the courts of record at Westminster, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed, and one moiety of every such penalty shall belong to H. M. and the other to the person who shall sue for the same, id. s. 24.

31. In all cases where the pecuniary penalty by this act imposed does not exceed 20*l.*, it shall be recoverable before one justice of peace of the county, riding, shire, division, city, liberty, town or place, wherein the offence was committed, on proof of the offence, either by confession or by the oath of one witness, and one moiety thereof shall belong to H. M., and the other to the informer prosecuting for the same, and in case of non-payment, such justice, by warrant under his hand and seal, shall cause the same to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, or of the goods with which he is found trading, and the overplus, after deducting the penalty and expence of the distress and sale, being rendered to the owner; and shall also commit the offender to the prison of such county, &c. until such penalties and charges be levied by such distress and sale, or until the same be paid, and such justice by his warrant may cause such offender to be apprehended and brought before him to answer any charge for any such penalty, and may commit him to prison until the hearing of such complaint, unless he shall enter into a recognizance before such justice, with 2 sureties in a sufficient sum, to be ordered by such justice to appear at the hearing of such complaint, id. s. 25.

32. No person committed to any gaol or house of correction for any offence against this act, shall be detained longer than 3 months, id. s. 26.

33. If any person shall find himself aggrieved by the judgment of any such justice, he may, upon entering into a recognizance with 2 sureties, to be approved by such justice, to the amount of such penalty and forfeiture, together with a sum which such justice shall deem adequate to the amount of the costs which may be awarded, conditioned to pay the penalties, and costs adjudged in case such judgment is affirmed, appeal to the justices at the next general sessions for the county or place, who may summon and examine witnesses upon oath, and finally determine the same, or at their discretion may state the facts specially for the determination of the court of K. B. thereon; and in case the judgment of such justice is affirmed, such justices or court of K. B. may award the person to pay such costs occasioned by such appeal as to them seems meet, 50 G. 3. c. 41. s. 27.

34. A conviction in the form or to the effect following, mutatis mutandis, as the case may happen to be, shall be good, without stating the evidence, and without alleging more than the substance of the offence in all cases wherein any such justice hath power to convict under this act.

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — at — in the county of — A. B. came before me C. D. one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the said county, residing near the place where the offence herein-after mentioned was committed, and informed me that E. F. of — in the said county of — [here set forth the fact for which the information is laid] whereupon the said E. F. being duly summoned to answer the said charge, appeared before me (and having heard the charge contained in the said information, acknowledged and voluntarily confessed the facts therein stated to be true) but in his [or her] defence alleged, [here setting forth the substance of the defence] [or voluntarily confessed the said charge to be true, or did not make any defence against the said charge,] whereupon the same was fully proved on the oath of G. H. a credible witness, [or said that he [or she] was not guilty of the said offence, whereupon the same was fully proved on the oath of G. H. a credible witness, or as the case shall be], [or did not appear before me pursuant to the said summons, but the said charge was fully proved on the oath of G. H. a credible witness, or as the case shall be,] and therefore it manifestly appearing to me, that the said E. F. is guilty of the offence charged in the said information, I do hereby convict him [or her] of the said offence, and do adjudge that he [or she] hath forfeited the sum of — or his [or her] licence and the sum of — of lawful money of G. B., to be distributed as the law directs according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided. Given under my hand and seal the —' id. s. 28.

35. No conviction upon this act shall be removed by certiorari or otherwise into K. B. or any court, save upon an appeal as in s. 27. directed, id. s. 29.

36. Every justice before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence under this act, shall receive H. M.'s share of the penalty levied or paid under such conviction, and such justice, his executors or administrators, shall pay all such sums which he shall so receive, at the next general sessions of the peace after he has received the same, into the hands of the clerk of the peace or other such like officer for the county or place, who shall remit the same forthwith, without fee, to such commissioners for licensing hawkers, &c. [see ante, s. 3.] or to such person as the greatest part of them shall appoint; and every justice, his executors or administrators, shall immediately on such payment made to any clerk of the peace or other such officer, transmit a like schedule to such commissioners, or to such person so by them appointed, id. s. 30.

37. All the powers, rules, penalties and forfeitures, exemptions, and things whatsoever, which by 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 27., or by any other law now in force relating to the duties by that act granted, are provided, settled, or established (other than so far as the same are inconsistent with or repugnant to this act, and other than in such cases for which different provisions are prescribed by this act), shall be exercised and put in execution for the managing, levying, recovering, and paying the several duties hereby granted, as fully as if all such powers, &c. were repeated in this act, id. s. 31.

38. Every person who shall be summoned as a witness to give evidence before any justice of peace touching any matter relative to this act or 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 27., and who shall neglect to appear at the time and place for that purpose appointed, without a reasonable excuse, to be allowed by such justice, or appearing shall refuse to be examined upon oath and give evidence, shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 32.

39. The several duties herein-before granted, shall be paid into the hands of the cashier of the duties on hawkers, &c. who shall keep a distinct account thereof, and pay the same (the necessary charges of raising, paying, and accounting for the same being deducted) into the exchequer, at such time and in such manner as the duties now charged on hawkers, &c. are directed to be paid; and in the office of the auditor of such receipt, shall be kept a book in which all the monies arising from such rates and duties and paid into the exchequer, shall be entered separate from all other monies paid to H. M.; and such money so paid into the exchequer shall be made part of the consolidated fund, and be subject to all the charges to which the duties upon hawkers and pedlars were liable immediately before the passing of this act, id. s. 33.

40. If any person is sued for any thing done in pursuance of this act, he may plead the general issue and give the special matter in evidence; and if a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or the plaintiff is nonsuited, or has judgment against him upon demurrer, or discontinues, or is non-prossed, such defendant shall have treble costs, 50 G.3. c.41. s.34.

41. The 50 G.3. c.41. shall not prohibit any person from carrying about coals in carts, or on horses, asses, &c. and selling the same by retail, or subject them to the duties and penalties thereby imposed, 52 G.3. c.108. s.2.

HEALTH (PUBLIC).

1. FOR THE CHARITABLE RELIEF AND ORDERING OF PERSONS infected with the plague, 1 J.1. c.31. and recital in s.1. [CON. 3 C.1. c.4. and indefinitely, 16 C.1. c.4.]

2. The mayor, bailiffs, head officers, and justices of peace of every city, borough, town corporate and place privileged, or any two of them, shall have power to tax every inhabitant, and all houses and hereditaments within the city, &c. for the relief of persons infected or inhabiting in houses and places infected therein, and levy the same on the goods of the party refusing to pay, by warrant of the mayor, &c. 1 J.1. c.31. s.2.

3. If the party to whom such warrant is directed shall not find goods, the mayor, &c. shall by like warrant cause such person to be committed to the gaol until he satisfy the taxation, id. s.3.

4. If the inhabitants of any city, &c. find themselves unable to relieve their poor infected persons, then upon certificate thereof by the mayor, &c., such justices of the county of or near such city, &c. may tax the inhabitants of the county within 5 miles of the place infected at weekly rates, to be levied by warrant from such 2 justices, by sale of goods, and in default thereof by imprisonment of the body of the party taxed, id. s.4.

5. If any such infection shall be in any borough, town corporate or privileged place, where there are no justices, or in any village or hamlet, any 2 justices of the county may tax the inhabitants of the county within 5 miles of the place infected, at weekly rates, for relief of the places infected, to be levied by warrant from such justices by sale of goods, and in default thereof by imprisonment of the body of the party taxed; such taxes, &c. made by such justices of the county for the relief of such cities, &c. where there are no justices being disposed of as they think fit, and where there are such justices, then in such writ as the mayor, bailiffs, &c. as in s.1. shall think fit, id. s.5.

6. All which rates made within any city, &c. shall be certified to the next quarter sessions for the city, &c. and rates made within any county to the quarter-sessions of the county; and if the justices at such sessions shall think it fit such rate should continue, or be enlarged, or extended to any other parts of the county, the same shall be so enlarged, &c. and every constable and other officer that shall wilfully make default in levying such money, shall forfeit 10s. to be employed on such charitable uses, id. s.6.

7. If any person infected, or being or dwelling in any house infected, shall be by the mayor, bailiffs, constable, or other head officer of any city, borough, town corporate, privileged place or market town, or by any justice of peace, constable, headborough, or other officer of the county, commanded to keep his house, and shall wilfully and contemptuously disobey such appointment, attempting to go abroad, or going abroad, and resisting such keepers or watchmen as shall be appointed to see them kept in, such watchman with violence may enforce them to keep their houses; and if any hurt come by such enforcement to such disobedient persons, the watchmen and their assistants shall not be impeached therefore. And if any infected person so commanded to keep house shall wilfully and contemptuously go abroad, and converse in company, having any infectious sore upon him uncured, such person shall be adjudged a felon, and suffer death; but if such person shall not have any such sore found about him, he shall be punished as a vagabond ought to be by 39 El. c.4. [but which act is Rev. by 12 A. St.2. c.23.] and be bound to his good behaviour for one year, id. s.7.

8. No attainer of felony by this act shall extend to any corruption of blood, or forfeiture of goods or lands, id. s.8.

9. The justices, mayors, bailiffs, and other head officers aforesaid, may appoint searchers, watchmen, examiners, keepers, and buryers, for the persons and places infected, and minister unto them oaths for the performance of their offices, and give them other directions as for the present necessity shall seem good, id. s.9.

10. No mayor, justice, &c. shall by force of this act do any thing within either the universities, or within any cathedral church, or the precincts thereof, or within the colleges of Eaton or Winchester; but the vice-chancellor of either of the universities, and the bishop and dean of every cathedral church, and the provost or warden of either of such colleges shall have all such power within their precincts, as any mayor, &c., id. s.10.

HEALTH (PUBLIC).

11. FOR PRESERVATION OF HEALTH AND MORALS OF PUBLIC apprentices, and others employed in cotton and other mills and factories, 42 G.3. c.73. [AMD. 59 G.3. c.66. Public clause, s.4. and 60 G.3. c.5. like clause, s.3.]

20. The ceilings and interior walls of all the rooms of such mills, &c. shall be washed with quick lime and water twice a year, and care shall be taken to admit fresh air by sufficient windows, 42 G.3. c.73. s.2. 59 G.3. c.66. s.5.

21. Apprentices shall be instructed in every working day for the first 4 years of their apprenticeship in reading, writing, and arithmetic, at the expense of the master, &c. 42 G.3. c.73. s.6.

22. Sleeping apartments of male and female apprentices shall be distinct, and two only shall sleep in one bed, id. s.7.

23. Apprentices shall be instructed in the Christian religion, for at least one hour on Sundays, at the master's expense, and in Eng. and Wa., (if the parents are of the church of Eng.) shall be taken once a year for examination by the rector or curate or in Scot., by the minister of the parish; and after 14, and before 18 years of age, shall be prepared and sent to the bishop for confirmation, or shall receive the sacrament if in Scot.; and shall be sent once a month to the divine service of the established church, in Eng. or Scot., and the master, &c. shall have divine service performed once at least on Sunday to those who cannot attend, and shall take due care that his apprentices regularly attend divine service according to this act, id. s.8.

24. The justices of peace of every county or place, where such mills, &c. are situate, shall yearly at Midsummer sessions appoint two visitors, &c. being either one justice and one clergyman, or both justices, who shall report to quarter sessions on the condition of such mills, with power of appointing two visitors to every 6 mills, id. s.9.

25. If the visitors find any infectious disease appearing to prevail in any such mill or factory, they or either of them may require the master forthwith to call in some competent medical person, to ascertain its nature and probable effects, and to apply remedies and regulations for preventing the infection, and curing the sick, which medical person shall report to the visitors, as often as required, their opinion in writing of the nature, progress, and present state of the disease, and its probable effects, the master paying all medical expenses, id. s.10.

26. Every person molesting the visitors in the execution of their powers under this act shall forfeit from 5*l.* to 10*l.*, id. s.11.

27. Printed or written copies of this act shall be hung up by the master, &c. in two or more conspicuous places on such mill or factory, and shall be constantly kept and renewed, so as to be legible and accessible to the persons employed therein, 42 G.3. c.73. s.12.

28. A copy of this act, or a full and true abstract of its regulations, signed by the proprietor, manager, or overseer, shall be hung up in a conspicuous part of such mill, manufactory, or building, and shall be kept and renewed so as to be always legible, 59 G.3. c.66. s.6.

29. Masters, &c. of such mill or factory, wilfully offending against this act, (but see next pl.) forfeit not more than 5*l.* nor less than 40*s.* at discretion of the justices convicting, as in s.15. pl. 32. one half payable to informer, and the other to the overseers of the poor in Eng. and Ire., and to the minister and elders in Scot., of the parish or place where such offence is committed, in aid of the poor rate thereof, in

Eng. and Ire., and for benefit of the poor thereof in Scot., but the information must be laid within one month after the offence committed, 42 G.3. c.73. s.13.

30. Every such master, &c. wilfully offending against 42 G.3. c.73. or this act, shall, for each offence, forfeit not more than 20*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, at discretion of the justices convicting, as in pl. 32. to be paid one half to the informer and the other to the overseers of poor in Eng., to churchwardens in Ire. and to the minister and elders in Scot. of the parish or place where the offence is committed, in aid of poor rate in Eng., and for the benefit of the poor thereof in Ire. and Scot., but all informations for offences against either act shall be laid within 3 calendar months after the offence, and all penalties inflicted by this act shall be levied and applied as by 42 G.3. c.93. directed, 59 G.3. c.66. s.7.

31. Every such master, &c. shall, at the Epiphany sessions, annually make entry in a book kept by the clerk of the peace of the county or division in which his mill or factory is situate, of every such mill, &c. occupied by him or her wherein 3 or more apprentices, or 20 or more other persons are employed, paying such clerk 2*s.* only for each entry, 42 G.3. c.73. s.14.

32. All offences for which a penalty is imposed by this act [and scmb. by 59 G.3. c.66., see s.7. pl. 30.] shall be heard before 2 or more justices of peace acting for the place where the offence is committed, and all penalties hereby imposed, and costs attending conviction, shall and may be levied by distress and sale of offender's goods by warrant under hand and seal of any 2 or more like justices, rendering any overplus to the offender; which warrant such justices shall and may grant on conviction of the offender, either by confession or on oath of one or more witnesses; and in case such distress cannot be found, and such penalties and costs are not forthwith paid, such justices shall, by warrant, commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction for not exceeding 2 calendar months, unless the same be respectively sooner paid, but no such distress warrant shall issue till 6 days after conviction, and an order made on the offender for payment thereof, and no such conviction shall be removable into any court soever, id. s.15.

33. Conviction shall be as follows:

'County of—' } Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year —, to wit. } A. B. was, upon the complaint of C. D., convicted before — of the justices of the peace for the said county of — [or for — or in the said county of — as the case may be,] in pursuance of an act passed in the 42d year of the reign of H. M. K. G. the third for [or, as the case may be.] Given under our hands and seals the day and year above written.' and shall be certified to the next general quarter sessions, there to be filed among the records of the county, &c., id. s.16.

9. The mayor, bailiff, or other head officer, of every city, town corporate, borough, or market town, having such head officer; or any 2 justices of peace or magistrates, having jurisdiction within any city, &c. where there is no such head officer, and in cities, &c. where there are not 2 such magistrates, then any 2 justices for the division, county, riding, shire, or stewartry, within which such city, &c. shall lie, may within 3 months after this act passed, appoint some place for the examining and inspecting of all raw hides and skins of all oxen, bulls, cows, heifers, steers or storks, calves, hogs or pigs, sheep, lambs, horses, mares or geldings, killed, slaughtered, or flayed within such city, &c. or within such distance thereof, as may be fixed by the persons choosing such place, so as such distance is not less than 2, or more than 3 miles from such city, &c. and such persons shall also appoint proper days and hours for such inspection, and give notice thereof, and of such distance, to be put up in legible characters in some part of such place so appointed; and the persons so appointing such place shall also, at the same time, annually or oftener, appoint some person to be inspectors of hides and skins within such city, &c. or the districts thereof, and appoint others in their places, in case of death or removal, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 2.

10. Any mayor or other person authorised by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 1. to appoint a place for the inspection of raw hides and skins, may choose any place within any district ascertained under that act, whether it be within any city, town corporate, borough, or market town or not, 41 G. 3. U.K. c. 53. s. 1.

11. If any 6 or more, or in case of any difference of opinion of the majority of the tanners, carriers, or other persons manufacturing of leather, and not journeymen, apprentices, or persons working for hire, but residents in, and carrying on such trade, &c. in such city, &c. and who have delivered in writing their names, places of abode, and occupations, shall recommend to the persons hereby authorised to appoint inspectors 2 persons as proper for the office, where one is necessary, or 4 where 2 are necessary, then one or 2 as the case requires of such persons shall be appointed to the office, provided that 3 or more persons in partnership shall be considered as one only in such recommendation; provided that when any complaint is made by any person interested, or dealing in raw hides or skins in any place appointed for the inspection thereof, of any misconduct or neglect of duty in such inspector, and due proof thereof is made to the satisfaction of the persons hereby authorised to appoint such inspector, such persons shall discharge such inspector, and appoint another in his place, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 3. [See further provision as to this recommendation, 41 G. 3. U.K. c. 53. s. 2. post, pl. 27.]

12. If any butcher or other person shall wilfully, negligently, or carelessly cut, or flay, or gash the hide or skin of any ox, bull, cow, &c. (as in s. 2. pl. 9.) so as to occasion injury, or render it less useful for making leather, or shall flay the hide of any ox, bull, cow, heifer, steer, stirk, or calf, below the knee or gambrel, and shall be convicted thereof before one justice of the county, city, or town, where the hide is found, upon the oath of any inspector under this act, or any witness, he shall forfeit for every hide, &c. so cut, &c. below the knee the fines following, (viz.) not exceeding 10s. or less than 1s. for the raw hide or skin of every ox, bull, cow, heifer, steer, or stirk, so wilfully or negligently cut, &c. in the flaying hereof, or that shall be so flayed below the knee or gambrel; and not exceeding 5s. or less than 1s. for the hide or skin of every horse, &c.; and not exceeding 6d. or less than 3d. for the hide or skin of every hog, pig, sheep, or lamb, so wilfully, &c. damaged by cuts, gashes, or flaws in the flaying thereof, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 4. [but see 2 next pl.]

13. No fine imposed by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 4. for the wilful or negligent cutting, gashing, or flaying any raw hide or skin, of any ox, bull, cow, heifer, steer, or stirk, in the flaying thereof, or for flaying the same below the knee, shall exceed 5s. or of any calf, 2s. 6d.; or for so gashing, &c. any hide of any horse, mare, or gelding, 2s. 6d., 41 G. 3. U.K. c. 53. s. 4.

14. Provided no butcher or other person shall be liable to any penalty or forfeiture by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. or this act imposed for the flaying any hide of any ox, bull, cow, heifer, steer, stirk, or calf, below the knee, in any case where the hide is not flayed more than 2 inches below the knee, id. s. 5.

15. Every inspector of hides and skins under this act shall, before he begins to execute his office, take an oath duly to perform the same, which shall be administered by the persons authorised to appoint them, and which shall be in the words following:

'I, A. B. do swear that I will faithfully and diligently execute the office of inspector of hides and skins, according to the true intent and meaning of an act passed in the fortieth year of the reign of H. M. king George the Third, intituled an act [here set forth the title of this act] without favour or affection, prejudice or malice, to any person whomsoever. So help me God.' and which inspectors shall examine and mark as herein directed all raw hides and skins flayed within their respective districts, and shall have for the same the fees following, (viz.) for the hide of every ox, bull, cow, heifer, steer, or stirk, horse, mare, or gelding, 1d.; and for every calf, hog, or pig skin, one halfpenny; and for every sheep or lamb skin one farthing; and if any person, other than such inspector, or a person authorised by him, shall stamp or mark any raw hide or skin with the stamp usually used by him, such person shall forfeit 20s., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 5.

16. Any such inspector, on examining of any raw hide or skin that has been damaged in the flaying, may impose such penalty for the wilful or negligent gashing, &c. thereof, or flaying the same contrary to this act, not exceeding one-half of the highest penalty imposed by s. 4. pl. 12. in respect of such damage as he deems reasonable, without having the same adjudged by a justice, in pursuance hereof, but subject to the determination of arbitrators summoned in pursuance of s. 12. in case the owner or any other person in his behalf shall dispute the penalty, and give notice in writing of his determination to have the same determined by such arbitrators, id. s. 6.

17. Where such inspectors shall deem any person liable to an higher penalty, in respect of such damage than such half penalty, he shall proceed to recover the same by information before a magistrate or justice, as in s. 16. directed, id. s. 7.

18. The whole penalty imposed by any inspector, as in s. 6. or adjudged by any magistrate or justice, on the information of any inspector, shall be given to such inspector, id. s. 8. [See s. 14. post, pl. 26.]

19. So much of 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 8. as gives the whole penalty to the inspectors REP., and instead thereof, one half only of such penalties, which by such act are given to the inspectors, shall be paid to them, and the other shall go towards the execution of such act, and this act in manner, by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 16. directed, provided this act shall not prevent any reward to be given to such inspectors out of such other half, as in such act (s. 14.) directed, 41 G. 3. U.K. c. 53. s. 7.

20. Inspectors under this act shall have 2 marks, one with the letter S, to denote good hides, and the other with the letter D, to denote damaged ones; with the first he shall mark on or near the tail every raw hide or skin which is not damaged in the flaying, and with the latter he shall mark on one of the fore shanks every raw hide, &c. which is damaged, on being paid the penalty hereby imposed for wilful or negligent cutting, gashing, or flaying of any hide or skin in the flaying, or for flaying the same contrary to this act; and if the person, to whom such damaged hide belongs, shall refuse to pay such penalty, or the money by s. 5. allowed for inspecting and marking any raw hide or skin, such inspector may seize such hide or skin; and unless the penalty is paid in less than 48 hours after such seizure, or unless notice is given of the owner's intention to have such hide or skin produced, and the dispute decided by arbitrators appointed under s. 12. of this act, such inspector may sell the same, and retain the penalty and the expences incurred, rendering the overplus to the owner, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 9.

21. If any butcher or other person residing in any city, &c. as in s. 2. or within the district thereof, for which an inspector is appointed, shall wilfully neglect to bring any raw hide or skin belonging to him, by this act required, to be marked, to some place appointed, in pursuance hereof, for (s. 2. pl. 9.) the examining and inspecting of raw hides, within the hours prescribed; or if such butcher or person shall remove from such place any raw hide or skin that has been flayed within any such city, &c. or the district thereof, that has not been examined and marked by some inspector, or person authorized by him, and approved by the magistrate of the district, he shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.* nor less than 40*s.* for each hide so neglected to be brought to such place within such hour, or so removed, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 10.

22. Every butcher or other person required by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. to bring any raw hides or skins to any place appointed for inspection of such hides, &c. under such act, shall bring them as in such act prescribed, within 10 days from the time of flaying thereof, and if he neglects so to do, shall forfeit the penalties by that act s. 10. imposed on persons wilfully neglecting to bring raw hides or skins to any such place, according to such act, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 53. s. 6.

23. If any such butcher or person shall give notice in writing to such inspector, of his intention to carry his hides or skins to any other place where an inspector is appointed under this act, for any period not less than one calendar month following the date of such notice, then such butcher, &c. may carry such their hides or skins to such place during the period mentioned in such notice, to have same examined and marked, and may renew such notice for not less than one calendar month, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 11.

24. In case any difference of opinion or dispute arise between any butcher or other person, and any inspector, whether any hide or skin has been injured in the flaying, or rendered less useful for leather, within this act, any magistrate or justice before whom such difference or dispute is brought, shall within 48 hours, summon 5 impartial persons in the working or manufacturing of leather, to whom, or to any 3 of them such dispute shall be referred, and who shall finally determine the same within 24 hours; and before they act in hearing the matter, they shall take an oath before such magistrate, &c. to do equal justice between the parties concerned, and such magistrate shall cause the hide or skin in dispute to be produced to them, and the difference or dispute to be heard, and the decision of the major part of such persons shall be conclusive and binding, and the party against whom the same is given shall pay the costs of summoning and attendance of such persons, and the expenses incidental thereto, to be ascertained and allowed by such magistrate, id. s. 12.

25. Every person duly summoned upon any such dispute, who shall neglect to attend at the time and place mentioned in such summons, unless he can give satisfactory reasons for his non-attendance, shall forfeit 40*s.*, id. s. 13.

26. All penalties and forfeitures hereby imposed, and not otherwise disposed of, shall be distributed as follows, (viz.) one half to the persons informing and prosecuting to conviction every such offenders, and the other shall be applied for the better executing this act, either in rewarding any inspector of raw hides, acting in the district where the penalty was incurred, or in paying any charges that may arise in establishing any such place for inspection of raw hides and skins, or for any purpose relating to the care and improvement, or continuing of such place in such manner as the persons appointing such place, to whom the moiety, when recovered, shall be paid, shall direct, with the approbation of any 6 or more, or in case of difference of opinion of the majority of the persons dealing in the manufactory of leather, (not being journeymen, apprentices, or persons working for hire for any master currier, or manufacturer of leather) who shall deliver their opinions in writing to such persons as in s. 3. pl. 11. directed, in case of recommendation of inspectors; and if any person to whom any such moiety shall be paid, shall misapply the same, he shall forfeit double the sum so retained or misapplied, to be sued for and applied as other penalties by this act imposed may be, id. s. 14. [but see next pl.]

27. So much of 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. ss. 3—14. as requires that any recommendation of any persons to be inspectors under such act, or any approbation in relation to the distribution of penalties, to be by 6 or more persons, being either tanners, curriers, or other persons manufacturing or dealing in the manufactory of leather, shall be repealed, and any shoemakers, saddlers, or other persons working or dealing in leather, not being journeymen or apprentices, or persons working with or for any shoemaker or worker in leather, for hire, and who shall then be residing and carrying on such trade within any city, liberty, borough, or market town, or the district thereof, and who have, as by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 3. delivered in writing their names, places of abode, and occupations in leather, may join with tanners, skinnners, curriers, or other persons manufacturing of leather, in the recommending persons to be inspectors of raw hides and skins, under the recited act, and also in giving any approbation in relation to the distribution of such penalties, as by the said act directed, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 53. s. 2.

28. No recommendation of any persons to be inspectors under 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 3. or this act, shall be good, unless 3 tanners, skinnners, curriers, or other persons manufacturing leather, shall join therein, nor shall any such approbation of any shoemaker, saddler, or other person, so working or dealing in leather, in relation to such penalties be good, unless 3 tanners, &c. join therein, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 53. s. 3.

29. Nothing herein shall extend to the cities of London, or Westminster, or the borough of Southwark, or any of the liberties thereof within 15 miles of the royal exchange, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 15. [Provisions of this act Ext. to London by 43 G. 3. c. cvi., but that act R.E.P. and other provisions made, 48 G. 3. c. lxxi.]

30. Every penalty and forfeiture hereby imposed, shall be recoverable before one justice for the county, riding, or division, or any magistrate of any city, &c. as in s. 2. pl. 9. where the offence was committed, upon conviction by confession, or oath of one witness, and shall be levied by warrant under hand and seal of such justice, or magistrate, by distress and sale of the offender's goods, and if no distress can be found, and the penalty and costs are not forthwith paid, such justice or magistrate by the like warrant may commit the offender to the common goal or house of correction, for not exceeding one month, or until [Q<sup>r</sup>. unless] penalty be sooner paid, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 16.

31. Persons aggrieved by the judgment of such justice or magistrate, may, when the penalty adjudged shall exceed 10*s.*, and upon giving security to the amount of the penalty, together with such costs as may be awarded in case the judgment is affirmed, appeal to the next general or quarter sessions, and the justices there may finally determine the matter, and award reasonable costs in case judgment is affirmed, and no such judgment or conviction shall be removable by certiorari, id. s. 17.

32. Any information for any offence against this act shall be laid before one justice or magistrate within 3 days after the offence was committed, otherwise it shall be of no effect, id. s. 18.

33. Every information under 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. for wilfully or negligently cutting, flaying, or gashing any raw hide or skin, shall be made within 3 days after such hide has been inspected, and any inspector or other person may lay any other information for any other offence under such act within 14 days after the offence is committed, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 53. s. 8.

34. Every such conviction before one justice shall be in the form following, and shall be certified to the next quarter sessions, to be filed amongst the records of the county, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. s. 19.

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year —, A. B. was on the complaint of C. D. convicted before — of the justices of the peace for the said county of —, [or for the riding or division of such county of —, or for the said city, liberty, district, or town of —, as the case may be.] in pursuance of an act passed in the 40th year of the reign of H. M. king George the third, for [or as the case may be.] Given under — hand and seal the day and year above written.'

or the magistrate may issue his summons to convene such witness before him, at a time therein to be fixed, although such person is not within his jurisdiction; and if such person shall neglect to appear, having no just excuse, he shall forfeit 40*s.*, to be recovered as other penalties under 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. ss. 14—16. and this act, and be applied towards execution of such acts, provided such witness need not be compelled to travel more than 6 miles by reason of such summons, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 53. s. 10.

35. All the provisions of 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 66. and this act relating to the examination and expectation of raw hides and skins, shall extend to all raw hides and skins flayed in G. B. that may be found within the limits of any district ascertained under such act, without reference to whether they were flayed within such limits or not, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 53. s. 9.

36. If it be made out by oath of any person to any justice or magistrate, that any person, whether living within or out of his jurisdiction, can give material evidence on either side, in any prosecution under such act or this act, and who will not voluntarily appear and be examined touching the premises, such justice or magistrate shall issue his summons to convene such witness before any such justice, &c. at such reasonable time as shall be fixed in such summons, though such person be not at time of such summons within jurisdiction of such justice, &c.; and if any person so summoned shall not appear at the time appointed by such summons, having no just excuse, he shall forfeit for every such offence 40*s.*, recoverable as any other penalty, under either act, and to be applied towards executing the purposes of both; but no person shall be obliged to travel above 6 miles by reason of such summons, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 53. s. 10.

37. FOR PERMITTING HIDES TO BE TAKEN OUT OF THE WOOZE, in order to be shaved, or to have the thin parts cut therefrom, 56 G. 3. c. 110. ss. 4. (s. 5. LEATHER, &c.) 6, 7. [This title is framed.]

38. Any tanner may take out of the wooze and shave any hide or skin, or cut the thin parts therefrom, provided that he give 6 days' notice in writing to the proper excise-officer of his intention so to do, specifying therein the day and hour when he will take such hides or skins out of the wooze, and the number of them, and whether so taken out for shaving or for cutting off the thin parts, and every tanner who shall take out such hides or skins for such or any other purposes, excepting for shifting into other wooze, or shall remove or conceal any hide or skin, or piece thereof, not being the shaving thereof, from the sight of such officer, so that the duties shall not be duly accounted for and paid, shall forfeit 200*l.*, 56 G.3. c.110. s.4. [see s.5. LEATHER, &c.]

39. Every tanner, tawer, or dresser of hides and skins, or pieces thereof, shall hang up the same when taken out of the wooze for that purpose, separate from all others taken out of the wooze for such purpose on any former day, and shall continue them apart till the surveying officer has taken an account thereof, on pain to forfeit 100*l.*, id. s.6.

40. The penalties hereby inflicted shall be recovered as other excise penalties, or by action of debt, &c. or information in the courts of record at Westminster, or exchequer in Scot., and shall go in moieties to H.M. and the informer, id. s.7.

1. FOR PREVENTING THE CARRIAGE OF EXCESSIVE LOADS of meal, malt, bricks and coals, within 10 miles of the cities of London and Westminster, 6 G.1. c.6. [REF. as to meal, malt, and coals, 11 G.3. c.51. s.4. See also local act, 4 G.3. c.39. s.25.]

2. No person shall carry at one load in the cities of London and Westminster, or within 10 miles thereof, in waggons or carts, having their wheels shod or bound with tire or streaks of iron, more than 750 bricks, on pain to forfeit one of the horses, together with the gears, bridles, and halters used therewith, to any person who will seize the same, in such manner and to such uses as the penalties under 5 G.1. c.121. (which is REF. 7 G.3. c.42. s.57.) may be, 6 G.1. c.6.

3. So much of 4 G.3. c.39. s.25. (local act for paving Westminster.) as enacts that no person shall carry at one load, within the limits, mentioned in 6 G.1. c.6. in any wagon or cart, having the wheels thereof bound with iron, more than one chaldron of coals, shall be REF., 11 G.3. c.51. s.4.

4. TO EXPLAIN, AMEND, AND REDUCE INTO ONE ACT OF parliament the statutes now in being, for the amendment and preservation of the public highways within England, and for other purposes, 13 G.3. c.78. [AMD. as to assessments, 54 G.3. c.109. s.1—3. and as to stopping up ways, 55 G.3. c.68. See as to statute duty, 34 G.3. c.74. post, pl. 102. &c.]

5. On Sept. 2. unless it be Sunday, and then on the following day, the constables, headboroughs, tythingmen, churchwardens, surveyors of highways, and householders, being assessed to any parochial or public rate, of every parish, township, or place, shall assemble at the church or chapel of such parish, &c. or if no church, &c. then at the usual place of meeting, at 11 in the forenoon, and the major part of them so assembled, shall make a list of the names of 10 persons, living within such respective parishes, &c. who have each an estate in lands, tenements, and hereditaments, within such parish, &c. in their own or their wives' right, of 100*l.* annual value, or a personal estate of the value of 100*l.* or who are occupiers of houses, lands, &c. of the yearly value of 30*l.*, and if there shall not be 10 persons so qualified, then they shall insert in such list the names of so many as are qualified, together with the names of so many of the most sufficient inhabitants, not qualified, as shall make up 10, if so many can be found; if not, so many as are there resident, to serve the office of surveyor of the highways; and the constable, headborough, or tythingman, shall, within 3 days after such meeting, transmit a duplicate of such list to one of the justices within the limit of the county, riding, division, hundred, city, corporation, precinct or liberty where such parish shall lie, living in or near the same; and shall also return the original list made at such meeting to the justices at special sessions to be held for the highways within that limit, in the week next after Michaelmas or quarter sessions in every year; and shall also, within three days after making such list, give personal notice to, or cause notices in writing to be left at the abode of the persons contained in such list, informing them of their being named, to the intent that they may appear before the special sessions to accept such office, if appointed thereto, or to shew cause against their being appointed; and such justices shall hold such special sessions at such convenient place within their limits, as they judge proper; and shall give notice of the time and place where they intend to hold the same to the constables, &c. of such parish, &c. 10 days before the holding of the session; and the justices then and there, from such lists, according to their discretion, and the largeness of the parish, by warrant under their hands and seals, shall appoint one, 2 or more of such persons, if, in opinion of such justices, qualified for the office, if not, one, 2 or more, of the other substantial inhabitants, or occupiers of woods, tithes, lands, &c. within such parish, living within 3 miles thereof, and within the same county, fit to serve the office of surveyor of the highways for such parish, if such can be found; which appointments shall, by the constables, &c. be notified to every person appointed by the justices, within 3 days after appointment, by serving him with the warrant, or by leaving the same, or a copy thereof, at his house or abode; and every person appointed, if he accepts the office, shall be surveyor for the parish for the year ensuing, and shall take upon him and execute such office; and such justices shall then and there give such of the surveyors as personally appear before them a charge, for the better performance of their duty, according to this act;

and if any of such persons appointed, whose names were contained in such list, and who were served with such notice, shall refuse or neglect to appear at such special sessions, and accept such office, if appointed thereto, or shall not, within 6 days after being served with such warrant or appointment, signify his acceptance thereof, either in person, or by writing to one of such justices, he shall forfeit 5*l.*; and in case any person appointed, whose name was not contained in such list, shall neglect to accept such office, or shall not within 6 days after being served with such appointment, shew to one of the justices signing such appointment, sufficient cause why he should not serve, he shall forfeit 50*s.*; provided no person who hath been appointed and served the office for one year, shall be liable to be appointed for the same parish within 3 years from such first appointment and service, unless he consent thereto; but if no list be made and returned, or if such justices shall make such appointment, and the person appointed shall refuse to serve, such justices or 2 of them, shall, at such special sessions, or at some subsequent special sessions, to be held within one month after, nominate some other person to be surveyor, and shall fix such salary to be paid to such surveyor, to be appointed as last mentioned, out of the said forfeitures, and all other forfeitures, fines, penalties, assessments and compositions, to be paid, levied and raised under this act, within such parish, &c. as such justices shall think fit, not exceeding 1-8th part of what shall have been raised by an assessment of 6*d.* in the pound, for the use of highways within such parish, where such assessment is raised, and observing the same restriction, from the best information they can get of the probable amount of such an assessment, where none hath been already made; and such justices shall, if they think fit, require the constables, &c. and surveyor, of such parish, or any of them, to return to them an account in writing, of the sum which such assessment of 6*d.* in the pound hath raised, or will raise, within such parish, &c.; and if the constables, headboroughs, tythingmen, churchwardens, surveyors of the highways, and such householders shall neglect to make such list, or if the constable, &c. of any parish, &c. shall not return such list of names when made, and such duplicate thereof, and give such notice, and serve such warrant, as in this act directed; or if such constable, &c. and surveyor, neglect to return such account of the amount of such assessment, when required, every constable, headborough, tythingman, churchwarden or surveyor shall forfeit 40*s.*, 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 1.

6. Where such justices, upon neglect or refusal of the person nominated surveyor to accept the office, shall appoint any other person for such surveyor, with a salary, such justices shall appoint one substantial inhabitant of such parish for assistant to such surveyor, until the next annual appointment of surveyors according to this act; and if the person appointed assistant shall, upon notice of such appointment, refuse to accept that office, he shall forfeit 50*s.*, and in that case such justices may appoint any other substantial inhabitant for assistant; and if such second appointed assistant shall refuse to accept the office, he shall forfeit 50*s.*; and such justices shall appoint any other person inhabiting in such parish, assistant, who shall be entitled to the forfeitures last mentioned, and also to some further salary (to be paid as the surveyor's) if such justices think it necessary, and order the same; provided no person appointed assistant for one year shall be liable to be appointed assistant for the same parish, &c. within 3 years next following such first appointment, without his consent, id. s. 2.

7. The surveyor of every parish, who shall not reside therein, but is appointed with such salary, shall, if required by the churchwarden, overseer, or any principal inhabitant, at the time of his appointment, or within 14 days after, give a bond without stamp to some proper person within such parish, &c., nominated by such justices, with sufficient surety, to account for the money which shall come into his hands as surveyor, which bond is good in law, id. s. 3.

8. The assistant so appointed shall, to the best of his skill, assist the surveyor, whenever requested by him, in calling in and attending the performance of the statute duty; in collecting the compositions, fines, penalties, and forfeitures; in making and collecting the assessments; in making out and serving the notices authorized by this act; and in such other matters as are required of him by the surveyor; and such assistant shall account with, and pay to such surveyor, according to this act, all money which shall come into his hands as assistant; and in default he shall forfeit double the value of the money received, and not paid and accounted for; if assistant shall wilfully neglect the performance of any of the duty required from him by this act, he shall forfeit from 40*s.* to 5*l.*, at the discretion of the justices of the limit within which such assistant is appointed; and such surveyor shall send orders, in writing, upon the assistant, for payment of all sums due to any person for work or materials which amount to 40*s.*; and such surveyor shall not be responsible for any money received by the assistant and not actually paid to him or his order, id. s. 4.

9. If two parts out of three of those assembled in such parish, &c. for nomination of surveyors, as in s. 1., shall agree in the choice of any particular person of skill to serve the office of surveyor, and in the settling of a certain salary for his trouble therein, and shall return the name of such person, together with the list in s. 1. directed, to the justices at such sessions to be held in the week next after the Michaelmas quarter sessions, then such justices, if they think proper, may appoint such person surveyor for such parish, &c., and allow him the salary mentioned in such agreement, which shall be raised and paid as the salary in s. 1. mentioned; and in case any surveyor appointed under this act shall die, or become incapable of executing that office before such next special sessions for appointing surveyors, such justices, or 2 of them, shall, at some special sessions, appoint such person as they think proper, to execute the office until such next sessions; and if such deceased surveyor had a salary, they may allow the same to his successor; and if the justices at their special sessions, or at any time afterwards, pursuant to this act, shall appoint more than one person for surveyor, all persons so appointed shall be comprehended under the word surveyor in every part of this act, 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 5.

10. No tree, bush, or shrub, shall stand in any highways, within 15 feet from the centre thereof (except for ornament or shelter to the house, building, or court-yard of the owner thereof), or hereafter be planted within such distance; but the same shall be cut down, grubbed up, and carried away by the owner or occupier of the land, within 10 days after notice to him or his agent, given by the surveyors, on pain of forfeiting for every neglect 10*s.*, id. s. 6.

11. The possessors of land next adjoining to every highway shall cut, prune, and plash their hedges, and also cut down, or prune and lop the trees growing in or near such hedges (except trees planted for ornament or shelter, as in s. 6.) that the highways shall not be prejudiced by the shade, and that the sun and wind may not be excluded from such highway; and if such possessor shall not, within 10 days after notice given by the surveyor, cut, &c. such hedges, and cut down, &c. such trees, such surveyor may make complaint thereof to some justice, who shall summon the possessor to appear before the special sessions; and if it appear at such sessions that such possessor had not complied with this act, such justices, upon hearing the surveyor and the possessor or his agent (or in default of his appearance, upon having due proof of the service of such summons), and considering the circumstances, may order such hedges to be cut, &c. and such trees to be cut down or pruned in such manner as may best answer such purposes; and if the possessor shall not obey such order within 10 days after made, and he have had due notice thereof, he shall forfeit 2*s.* for every 24 feet in length of such hedge which shall be neglected to be cut and plashed, and 2*s.* for every tree neglected to be cut down or pruned; and the surveyor shall cut, prune, and plash such hedges, and cut down or prune and lop such trees, as directed by such order; and such possessor shall be charged with, and pay, besides such penalties, the charges of doing the same; or, in default thereof, such charges and expences shall be levied, together with such forfeitures, upon his goods by warrant from a justice, in like manner as forfeitures (s. 79. pl. 76.) incurred by this act, id. s. 7.

12. Ditches, drains, or watercourses, of a sufficient depth and breadth, for keeping all highways dry, and conveying the water from the same, shall be made, scoured, cleansed, and kept open, and sufficient trunks, tunnels, plats, or bridges made where any cartways, horseways, or footways, lead out of such highways into the land adjoining thereto, by the occupier of such lands; and every person who shall occupy any lands adjoining to such highway through which the water hath used to pass from such highway, shall open, cleanse, and scour the ditches, &c. for such water to pass without obstruction; and every person in king default in any such matters, after 10 days' notice given by the surveyor, shall forfeit 10*s.*, id. s. 8.

13. If any person lay in any highway any stone, timber, straw, dung, or other matter, or in making, scouring, or cleansing the ditches, &c. shall permit the soil dug out of such ditches, to remain in such highway, so as to obstruct or prejudice the same for 5 days after notice thereof given by the surveyor, such person shall forfeit 10*s.*, id. s. 9.

14. If any stone or timber, or any hay, straw, stubble, or other matter for making manure, or on any other pretence whatsoever, not tolerated by this act, is laid in any highway, within 15 feet from the centre thereof, and shall not, within 5 days after notice given by the surveyor or some person aggrieved thereby, be removed, the owner or possessor of the lands adjacent, or any other person by order of some justice may clear such highways, by removing the stone, &c. and to take and dispose of the same to his own use, id. s. 10.

15. If any person shall wilfully place or leave any waggon, cart, or carriage, or any plough or instrument of husbandry, in any of such highways (except only during loading or unloading, and standing as near the side of such highway as may be), so as to interrupt the free passage of any other carriage, such person shall forfeit 10*s.*, id. s. 11.

16. The surveyors appointed under this act shall view all common highways, trunks, tunnels, plats, hedges, ditches, banks, bridges, causeways, and pavements, within the parish, &c. for which they are appointed;

and in case they observe any nuisances, incroachments, obstructions, or annoyances contrary to this act, they shall give to any person doing the same personal notice, or notice in writing, to be left at his abode, specifying the particulars wherein such nuisances, &c. consist; and if such nuisances, &c. shall not be removed, and the ditches, drains, gutters, and watercourses effectually made, scoured, cleansed, and opened, and such trunks, funnels, plats, and bridges made and laid, and such hedges properly cut and pruned, within 20 days after notice, then the surveyors may remove such nuisances, &c. and open, cleanse, and scour such ditches, &c. and make or amend such trunks, &c., and cut and prune such hedges for the benefit of such highways; and the person neglecting to make, or open and cleanse such ditches, &c. or to cut or prune such hedges after such notice, shall forfeit for every foot in length neglected, 1*d.*; and such surveyors shall be reimbursed what charges and expences they shall be at in removing such nuisances, &c. and making or opening, cleansing, and scouring such ditches, &c. and in making or amending such trunks, &c. and in cutting and pruning such hedges, by the person who ought to have done the same, over such forfeiture; and in case such person shall, upon demand, neglect to pay the surveyor his charges and expences, and also the forfeiture of 1*d.* per foot, then such surveyor shall apply to any justice; and upon making oath before him of notice being given to the defaulter, and of such work being done by such surveyor, and of the expences attending the same, such surveyor shall be repaid by such person all his charges as shall be allowed to be reasonable by such justice; or, in default of payment thereof on demand, the same shall be levied as the penalties are under this act, 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 12.

17. No person shall be compelled, nor any surveyor permitted, to cut or prune any hedge, other than between the last day of Sept. and the last day of Mar.; and nothing herein shall oblige any person to fell any timber-trees growing in hedges at any time whatsoever, except where the highways shall be ordered to be enlarged, or to cut down or grub up any oak-trees, growing within such highway, or in such hedges, except in April, May, or June, or any ash, elm, or other trees, other than in Dec., Jan., Feb., or Mar., id. s. 13.

18. Where the ditches, gutters, or water-courses, which have been usually made, or which are in s. 8. directed to be made, cleansed, and kept open, shall not be sufficient to carry off the water which shall lie in and annoy the highways; such surveyors, by the order of one justice, may make new ditches, &c. in and through the lands adjoining such highways, or any other lands, if necessary, for effectually carrying off such water, and also may keep such ditches, &c. scoured, cleansed, and opened; and such surveyors and their workmen, may go upon such lands; provided, such surveyors make proper trunks, tunnels, plats, bridges, or arches over such ditches, &c. where necessary, for the enjoyment of the lands, through which same made, and keep the same in repair; and do also make satisfaction to the owner or occupier of such lands not waste or common, for the damages which they sustain thereby; to be settled and paid as damages for getting materials in inclosed lands are by s. 29. pl. 33. directed to be settled, id. s. 14.

19. Such surveyors shall make and maintain every public cartway leading to any market-town, 20 feet wide; and every public horseway or driftway, 8 feet wide, if the ground between the fences inclosing the same will admit thereof, id. s. 15.

20. Where it appears on the view of 2 justices, that the ground or soil of any highway between the fences, is not of sufficient breadth, and may be widened, or that the same cannot be conveniently enlarged, and made commodious for travellers, without turning the same, such justices shall, within their jurisdictions, order such highways to be widened, or turned, as they think fit, so that such highways, when enlarged and diverted, shall not exceed 30 feet in breadth; and that neither of such powers do extend to pull down any building, or to take away the ground of any garden, park, paddock, court, or yard; and for the satisfaction of the persons, bodies, &c. who are seized, or interested in their own right, or in trust for any person in such ground laid into the highway so to be enlarged, or through which such highway, so to be turned, shall go, such surveyor, with the approbation of such justices, shall make an agreement with them, for the recompence to be paid for such ground, and for the making such new ditches and fences, according to their several interests therein, and also with any other persons that may be injured by the enlarging, or diverting such highways, for the satisfaction to be made to them; and if such surveyor, with the approbation of such justices, cannot agree with such persons, or they cannot be found, or shall refuse to treat, or take such recompence as is offered by such surveyor; then the justices at any general quarter sessions for the limits, upon certificate in writing, signed by the justices making such view, of their proceedings, and upon proof of 14 days notice in writing, having been given by the surveyor to the owner, occupier, or other person, or bodies, interested in such ground, or to his guardian, trustee, clerk, or agent, signifying an intention to apply to such sessions for taking such ground, shall impanel a jury of 12 out of persons returned to serve as jurymen at such quarter sessions; and such jury shall, upon their oaths, assess the damages to be given, and recompence to be made to such owners, &c. as they think reasonable, not exceeding 40 years purchase, and likewise such recompence as they think reasonable, for making of new ditches and fences on the side of such highways, enlarged or diverted, and also satisfaction to any person that may be otherwise injured by the enlarging or diverting such highways; and, upon payment or tender of the money awarded to the person or bodies intitled to receive the same, or leaving it with the clerk of the peace of such limit in case such person cannot be found, or shall refuse to accept the same, for the use of the owner, or others interested in such ground, the interest of such person in such ground shall be divested out of them, and such ground, after such agreement or verdict, shall be taken to be a public highway; saving to the owner all mines, minerals, and fossils, lying under the same, which can be got without breaking the surface of the highway; and also all timber and wood growing upon such ground, to be fallen and taken by such owner within one month after such order has been made, or in default thereof, to be fallen by such surveyor, within such months aforesaid, [see pl. 17.] and laid upon the land adjoining, for the benefit of the owner, and where there is not sufficient money in the hands of such surveyor, for the purposes aforesaid, then such 2 justices, in case of agreement, or such quarter sessions, after verdict, shall order an equal assessment to be made, and collected upon all occupiers of lands, &c. in the parishes, &c. where such highways shall lie, and shall direct the money to be paid to the person so interested, in such manner as such justices or quarter sessions shall direct: and the money raised shall be employed and accounted for, according to the order of such justices, or quarter sessions, for purchasing the land to enlarge or divert such highways, and for making such ditches and fences, and also satisfaction for the damages sustained thereby; and such assessment, if not paid within 10 days after demand, shall, by order of such justices, or quarter sessions, be levied by such surveyor, as in s. 67. pl. 71. mentioned; but no such assessment in one year shall exceed 6*d.* in the pound of the yearly value of the lands, &c. assessed, 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 16.

21. When such new highways shall be made, the old highway shall be stopped up, and the land thereof shall be sold by such surveyor, with the approbation of such justices, to some person whose lands adjoin, if he be willing to purchase, or if not, to some other person, for the full value; but if such old road shall lead to any lands, &c. which cannot in the opinion of such justices be accommodated with a convenient way from such new highway; then the old highway shall only be sold subject to the right of way to such lands, &c. and the money arising from such sale, shall be applied towards the purchase of the land where such new highway shall be made, and upon payment or tender of the money, and upon a certificate being signed by such 2 justices, or by the chairman of the quarter sessions, describing the lands sold, and expressing the sum agreed for, and directing to whom the same shall be paid, and upon the purchaser's taking a receipt for such purchase-money from the person entitled to receive the same, by an indorsement on the back of such certificate, the soil of such old highway shall become vested in such purchaser and his heirs; but all mines, minerals and fossils, lying under the same, shall continue to be the property of the person who would have been entitled to the same, if such old highway had continued there, id. s. 17.

22. In case such jury shall deliver a verdict for more monies, as a recompence for such lands or for the making such fence, or for such damage, as in s. 16., than what was offered by such surveyor, before application to the quarter sessions, then the costs shall be borne by the surveyor out of the monies in his hands, or shall be assessed by this act; but if such jury shall give a verdict for no more, or for less monies than so offered, then such costs shall be paid by the person who refuses to accept the recompence so offered him, id. s. 18.

23. Certain regulations as to turning and diverting highways, 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 19. are Rev. 55 G. 3. c. 68. s. 1. (see the provisions in lieu thereof, post, pl. 89.) and where any highway, &c. hath been diverted above 12 months, either from necessity, where the same was destroyed by floods, or slips of the ground on which made, or from other causes, if new highways, &c. have been made in lieu thereof, more commodious, and the same have been acquiesced in, and no suit hath been commenced for diverting the same, every new highway, &c. set out and used in the place of that diverted, shall from henceforth be a public highway, &c. and all persons liable to repair any such old highways, &c. so diverted, or to be diverted, shall continue liable to the repair of such new highways, &c. except where any agreement has been made relative to such repairs, between the parties interested therein, which hath laid the burthen thereof upon any other person, id. s. 19.

24. No common land, lying between the fences of any old highway to be stopped up or inclosed shall be inclosed; and where the land lying between the fences of such highway, not being common land, shall, upon a medium, exceed 30 feet, and not extend to 50 feet in breadth, the same shall not be stopped up or inclosed, until satisfaction shall be made to the owner of such land, for so much thereof as shall exceed the breadth of 30 feet; and if the parties cannot agree as to satisfaction to be made, the same shall be adjusted by such justices, or by the jury, if a jury is impanelled; if the land between such fences, not being common land shall exceed 30 feet in breadth, or if the old road diverted shall lie through the open field or ground belonging to any particular person, such person, and also the person intitled to the land between such fences, shall hold the land of such old highway, and pay to the surveyors for the use of the highways, so much money as shall be agreed upon between the parties; or if they cannot agree, so much as shall be adjudged by such justices or jury, if impanelled, to be adequate to the purchase of it, estimating such highway at 30 feet in breadth, upon an average, 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 20.

25. Where any footway shall be diverted under this act through the land belonging to the same person who owned the land through which such old footway lay, the same shall be adjudged an exchange only, and no satisfaction shall be made, unless the new footway shall be of greater length or value than the old footway; and where such footway shall not be turned through the lands belonging to the same person, the damage occasioned by such old footway to the lands through which it lay, if the parties interested shall not agree, shall be adjudged by two persons, the one to be named by the owner, and the other by the two justices; and if the persons so nominated cannot agree, they shall chuse some third person to adjudge the same, whose determination shall be final; and the money for which such damages assessed shall be applied in making satisfaction to the owner, id. s. 21.

26. If in any parish, &c. where any highway is diverted under this act, it appears to the justices who are, by s. 16. pl. 20., to view the same, that there are other highways within such parish, &c. besides that to be diverted, which may, without inconvenience to the public, be diverted into such new highway, or any other highway, and the charge of repairing such highway may be thereby saved to such parish, &c. such justices may order such highway, which so appears unnecessary, to be stopped up, and the soil sold, in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, and such appeal, [see as to this appeal, 55 G. 3. c. 68. s. 3. pl. 90.] to the party aggrieved, as in s. 19. pl. 23. is directed, concerning highways to be stopped up or inclosed, id. s. 22.

27. Every surveyor shall give information upon oath to such justices, or two of them, of all highways, and of all bridges, causeways, or pavements upon such highways, as are out of repair, and ought to be repaired, by reason of any grant or tenure or otherwise, and such justices shall limit a time for repairing the same, of which notice shall be given by such surveyor to the occupiers of the lands liable to such repairs, or to such persons as are chargeable with the same; and if such repairs shall not be made within the time limited, such justices shall present such highways, &c. so out of repair, together with the persons liable to repair the same, at the next general quarter sessions, for such limit, and such sessions may, if they see cause, direct the prosecution to be carried on at the general expence of such limit, and to be paid out of the general rates within the same, id. s. 23.

28. Every justice of assize, justices of counties palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham, and of great sessions in Wales, shall have authority upon their own view, and every justice of the peace, either upon his own view or upon information upon oath to him given by any surveyor, to make presentment at their assizes or great sessions, or in the open quarter sessions, of any highway, causeway or bridge not repaired, or of any other default or offence contrary to this statute, and all defects in the repair thereof shall be presented in such jurisdiction where the same do lie, and not elsewhere; and no such presentment nor indictment shall be removed by certiorari out of such jurisdiction till traversed and judgment thereupon given, except where the obligation of repairing such highways, &c. may come in question; and such presentment so made by such justice of assize, &c. shall be as good as if the same had been presented and found by the oaths of twelve men; and for every default or offence so presented, such justices of assize, &c. shall have authority to assess such fines as by them shall be thought meet (saving to every person affected by such presentment his lawful traverse to the same, as well with respect to the fact of non-repair as to the obligation of repairing, as upon any indictment found by a grand jury); and the justices at their general quarter sessions may, if they see cause, direct the prosecutions upon such presentments as shall be made at the quarter sessions to be carried on at the general expence of such limit, and to be paid out of the general rates, id. s. 24.

29. The justices at any special sessions held under this act may, by writing under their hands and seals, order those highways (not being turnpike roads) which, in their opinion, do most want repair within their jurisdiction to be first amended, and how and when; according to which order, if such there be, all surveyors shall proceed within their liberties, id. s. 25.

post is made, requiring him to cause to be erected at the spot where such highways meet, a stone or post, with inscriptions thereon, in large letters painted on each side thereof, containing the name of the next market town, or other place to which such highways lead; and also at the several approaches to such parts of any highways as are subject to deep or dangerous floods, graduated stones or posts denoting the depth of water in the deepest part, and likewise such direction posts or stones as such justices shall judge necessary for guiding travellers in the best track through the floods; and the surveyor shall be reimbursed the expences of providing the same out of the monies received by him pursuant to this act; and in case any surveyor shall, 3 months after such precept, neglect or refuse to cause such stones or posts to be fixed, such offender shall forfeit 20s., 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 26.

31. Every surveyor may cause to be taken so much of the rubbish or refuse stones of any quarry lying within the parish, &c. where he is surveyor (except such as shall have been got by the surveyor of any turnpike road) without the licence of the owners of such quarries for the amendment of such highways, but not to dig stone in such quarry without leave of the owner; and such surveyor may also for such use in any waste or common ground, river or brook within such parish, &c. or within any other parish, &c. wherein gravel, sand, chalk, stone or other materials are likely to be found (in case sufficient cannot be had within such parish, &c. and sufficient is left for the use of the roads in such other parish, &c. search for, dig, get, and carry away the same, so that such surveyor doth not thereby divert or interrupt the course of such river or brook, or prejudice any building, highway or ford, nor dig or get the same out of any river or brook within 100 feet above or below any bridge, nor within like distance of any dam or wear, and gather stones lying upon any lands within the parish, &c. where such highway shall be for such purpose, and may take away so much of such materials as such surveyor shall think necessary to be employed in the amendment of such highways, without making any satisfaction for such materials; but satisfaction shall be made for all damages done to the lands of any person by carrying away the same, as in s. 29. directed for getting materials in inclosed lands; but no such stones shall be gathered without the consent of the occupier of such lands, or a licence from a justice, after having summoned such occupier to come before him, and heard his reasons, if he appear and give any, for refusing his consent, id. s. 27.

32. Nothing in this act relative to the getting of stones, shall extend to any land (private property) covered with stones thrown up by the sea, commonly called beach, id. s. 28.

33. Such surveyor may search for, dig and get sand, gravel, chalk, stone or other materials, if sufficient cannot be had within such waste lands, common grounds, rivers or brooks, in and through any inclosed lands of any person whomsoever within the parish, &c. where the same is wanted, or by licence from two justices at a special sessions within any other parish, &c. lying near to the highway for which such materials are required, if it appear to such justices that sufficient materials cannot be had in the parish where such highways lie, or in the waste lands or common grounds, rivers or brooks of such adjacent parish, and that a sufficient quantity of materials will be left for the use of the parish where the same shall be (such lands not being a garden, yard, avenue to a house, lawn, park, paddock or inclosed plantation), and may take away so much of such materials as such surveyor shall think necessary to be employed in amendment of such highways; such surveyor making such satisfaction for the damage to be done to such land, by the getting away the same, as shall be agreed upon between him and the owner, occupier or person interested, in the presence and with the approbation of two inhabitants of such parish, &c., and in case they cannot agree, then such satisfaction shall be ascertained by order of one justice of the limit where such land shall lie; and in such places, where, from the want of other materials, burnt clay may be substituted in the place thereof, surveyor may dig clay in such places as he is hereby authorized to dig chalk or gravel, and may dry the same upon the lands adjoining, and burn the same upon any waste lands or common grounds, and carry such clay as other materials are allowed to be carried by this act, upon making such satisfaction for the damages within the inclosed lands where such clay is placed or carried, as in s. 27. directed with regard to other materials; but when the owner of such inclosed lands shall have occasion for such materials lying within the same for the repair of any highway, or other roads upon his estate, or which he shall be under obligation to repair, and shall give notice to such surveyor that he apprehends there will not be sufficient for those purposes, and also for the use of the public highways; then the surveyor shall not dig or take such materials without the consent of such owner, or an order of two justices, after their having summoned and heard the owner or occupier, or his agent; which justices shall enquire into the nature of the case, and may permit or restrain such power as to them shall seem just, id. s. 29.

of any other parish lying near, by reason whereof the surveyor may be forced to buy materials, and to make recompence for damage done by getting thereof; and as no provision is made for raising a fund to reimburse the expences thereof, and also such expences as such surveyors may incur by erecting guide posts, &c., and by making or repairing such trucks, tunnels, plats, bridges or arches, and by rendering satisfaction for damages done to lands by making of new ditches or drains, nor for the salary to be paid by such parish to such surveyor;" it is enacted, that upon application by such surveyor to the justices at their special sessions, and oath made of the money which he hath bonâ fide laid out, or which will be required for such purposes, the justices, or two of them, shall, by warrant under their hands and seals, cause an assessment to be made upon all occupiers of tithes, lands, woods and hereditaments within such parish, &c. and the same shall be collected by such persons, and allowed in such manner as the justices by their order at sessions shall direct; and the money raised shall be employed and accounted for according to the direction of such justices, and such assessment shall be levied as in s. 67. pl. 71. mentioned; but no such assessment in one year shall exceed 6d. in the pound of the yearly value of the lands, &c. assessed, 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 30.

35. If any surveyor, or person employed by him, shall, by reason of searching for, digging or getting any materials for repairing any highways, make any pit or hole in such lands, rivers or brooks, such surveyor or persons shall forthwith cause the same to be fenced off, and such fence to be supported and repaired during such time as such pit shall continue open, and shall, within 3 days after such pit shall be opened, where no materials shall be found, cause the same to be forthwith filled up, levelled and covered with the turf dug out of the same; and where any such materials shall be found within 14 days after having dug up sufficient materials in such pit, shall cause the same to be filled up, sloped down or fenced off, and so continued; and every surveyor shall, within 20 days after appointed to that office, cause all such pits then open, and not likely to be further useful, to be filled up or sloped down, and if likely to be further useful he shall secure the same by posts and rails, or other fences, to prevent accidents to persons or cattle; and in case such surveyor or persons shall neglect to fill up, slope down or fence off such pit, they shall forfeit 10*s.*; and in case such surveyor or persons shall neglect to fence off such pit, or to slope down the same as before directed, for six days after he has received notice for either of those purposes from any justice, or from the owner or occupier of such several ground, river or brook, or any person having right of common within such common or waste lands, and such neglect and notice shall be proved upon oath before one justice, such surveyor or persons shall forfeit any sum not less than 40*s.* nor exceeding 10*l.*, to be determined by such justice, and to be laid out in fencing off, filling up or sloping down such pit, and toward the repair of the roads in the parish, &c. wherein the offence was committed, as the justice shall direct, which forfeiture, in case not paid, shall be levied as other forfeitures as in s. 72. pl. 76. directed, id. s. 31.

36. No materials dug for the use of any other parish than that wherein the same are found, shall be removed from where dug, other than between 1st April and 1st Nov. or in the time of hard frost in the winter, id. s. 32.

37. If any person shall dig, or cause to be dug, materials for the highways contrary to this act, whereby any bridge, mill, building, dam, highway, ford, mines or tin-works may be damaged or endangered; every offender therein shall forfeit any sum not less than 20*s.*, nor exceeding 5*l.*, at the discretion of the court or justices before whom complaint is made, id. s. 33.

38. Certain regulations with regard to the performance of statute duty, 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 34, 35. 38, 39., all R.E.P. 54 G. 3. c. 74. s. 1. [See other provisions in lieu thereof, post, pl. 103—110.]

39. The surveyor, where the employment for teams is of such sort that two horses will be sufficient for one cart, or where a stand cart with one horse will be necessary, may call upon any person liable to send a team, draught, or plough, who keeps carts, and 3 horses, to send such carts, or horses, to perform his statute-duty, as the surveyor shall direct, and the surveyor shall allow every stand cart and one horse as half a team, and every cart and 2 horses as two-thirds; and if a waggon shall be found necessary, the surveyor may require the duty, or part thereof, to be performed with such waggon, by any person who keeps one; which directions shall be observed, or the person liable to perform duty shall forfeit such sum as the duty so required of him shall bear, in proportion to the forfeiture inflicted for every neglect in performing duty with a team, &c. 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 36.

40. Such surveyor shall give to, or cause to be left at the abode of every person liable to perform such duty, four days' notice at least of the day, hour, and place, upon which each of such day's duty shall be to be performed; and every person making default in finding and sending each wain, cart, or carriage, furnished as aforesaid, and such men with the same, as herein required, or in performing such duty in manner by this act directed, shall, for every default in sending such wain, &c. with such men, forfeit 10*s.*; and for every default in sending every cart with one horse and one man, 5*s.*; and for not sending every cart with two horses and one man, 5*s.*; and every person making default in sending such labourer, and in performing such labour at the time and place, and in manner directed by this act, or in paying such composition-money, shall, for every such neglect, forfeit 1*s.* 6*d.*; all which forfeitures shall be applied for the use of the highways within the parish, &c. where the same shall arise; and such surveyor shall equally demand such duty from every person liable, without favour; and if in any parish it shall not be necessary to call forth the whole duty in any year, it shall be abated in equal proportions amongst all persons liable; and the surveyor may, with all speed, after default made in performance of such duty, proceed for the recovery of the penalties, as in s. 72. pl. 76., so that the same may be recovered before he makes up his accounts, 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 37.

41. If any person who shall keep a team, and not occupy lands, &c. of 50*l.* per annum, in lands, &c. in the parish, &c. where he resides, but shall in part maintain his horses and beasts of draught used in such team upon lands occupied by him in adjacent parishes, such justices, at some special sessions, may mitigate the duty or composition, as they think just, id. s. 40.

42. The surveyor of every parish shall, on some Sunday in Nov., in every year, cause ten days' notice at least to be given in the church or chapel, and if no church or chapel, then at the most public place there, and shall repeat the like notice in such church, &c. on the next succeeding Sunday, of the time and place when and where the persons permitted, and inclined to compound, may signify to such surveyor their intention to compound; and all persons signifying the same, who shall then, or within one calendar month after, pay to such surveyor the composition, shall be discharged from the performance of such duty, which composition shall be employed by the surveyor for the use of the highways; and no composition shall be permitted, unless paid at the day, or within the time aforesaid; but where the occupation of any lands, &c. shall be changed, or any new inhabitant shall come to reside in such parish, &c. after the time appointed for such composition, then the persons occupying such lands, &c. or so residing in such parish, &c. shall be allowed to compound, as in s. 38. (now R.E.P. see pl. 58.): provided they pay the composition-money to the surveyor within 14 days after they enter upon such lands, &c. or come to reside in such parish, &c.; and every tenant of lands, &c. who intends to quit the possession thereof within six calendar months from the time fixed for making such composition, may compound for half the duty, and the succeeding tenant may compound or perform duty in kind for the other half; and if the surveyor shall receive from any person a composition for more duty than shall be required from the other inhabitants within the same parish, for the same year, he shall repay such extraordinary composition to such persons, so as to bring the duty to an equality amongst all such inhabitants, id. s. 41. [See whether s. 36, 37, 41. are not R.E.P. by 34 G. 3. c. 74. pl. 103—107., &c.]

43. In every parish, &c. where any person shall keep a draught or plough, and no carriage, he shall pay to the surveyor 1*s.* for every horse, or pair of oxen or neat cattle, used in such draught, for every day's statute-duty on the day such duty is to be performed, or pay according to the rate aforesaid for the lands, &c. which he shall occupy in such parish, at the option of the surveyor, id. s. 42.

44. The inhabitants of every parish, &c. at some vestry, or public meeting held under this act, may appoint 3 months in every year, within which no statute-duty shall be performed; viz. one month in the spring, called the seed month; one month in summer, for the hay harvest; and one other month in the summer, for corn harvest: provided notice in writing be given of the times appointed to the surveyor of such parish, &c. and also to the surveyor of every turnpike road within the same, within 3 days after such meeting, and 14 days before the beginning of each of such months, id. s. 43.

45. "As by several acts (see 3 G. 3. c. 84.) concerning turnpike roads, part of the statute-duty may be directed to be performed on such roads, and in some places, persons liable thereto may have compounded for the same;" it is ENACTED, that in such cases, the surveyor of the highways of the parish, &c. where such composition shall have been made, shall pay to the treasurer or surveyor of such turnpike roads a certain part of the composition-money so received, to be proportioned according to the number of days' duty which such persons were liable to perform on such turnpike road; which money shall be laid out on such part of the turnpike road as lies within the parish, &c. from which it was received; and if such surveyor of the highways shall neglect to pay to the treasurer or surveyor of such turnpike road such part of such composition-money received by him, within 20 days after he has received the same, upon demand made by such treasurer or surveyor, the same shall be levied upon the goods of such surveyor, as penalties are by s. 72. pl. 76. to be levied, id. s. 44.

46. If upon application of the surveyor of the highways for any parish, &c. to the justices for the limit wherein such parish, &c. lieth, at their quarter sessions, or at some special sessions for the highways, such justices shall be satisfied, by oath, that the duty hereby authorized to be performed, and the money to be collected, has been performed, applied, and expended, according to this act, or shall be satisfied that the common highways, bridges, causeways, streets, or pavements, belonging to such parish, &c. are so far out of order that they cannot be sufficiently amended, paved, cleansed, and supported, by the means before prescribed, notice being first given of such intended application at the church or chapel of such parish, &c. on some Sunday preceding such quarter or special sessions; (or if the place be extra-parochial, a notice, in writing being first given to some of the principal inhabitants residing in such extra-parochial place, a week before such sessions); then an equal assessment upon all occupiers of lands, &c. as in s. 30. pl. 34. within such parish, &c. shall be made and collected by such persons, and allowed in such manner, as such justices, by their order, at such sessions, shall direct; and the money thereby raised shall be employed and accounted for, according to the orders of such justices, towards amending, paving, cleansing and supporting such highways, causeways, streets, pavements and bridges, 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 45.

47. If on application of the surveyor of highways for any parish, township, or place, to the justices at quarter sessions, or at any special sessions for highways, such justices are satisfied that the common highways, bridges, causeways, streets, or pavements belonging to such parish, &c. are so far out of order that they cannot be amended by means of 13 G. 3. c. 78. and by the assessment thereby (s. 30. pl. 45.) authorized to be made, such justices may order an additional assessment to be made on such parish, &c. which shall be levied and collected by the same means as is directed for levying and collecting assessments, under s. 67. of such act, and upon same persons as are therein declared to be liable to the same, 54 G. 3. c. 109. s. 1.

48. Notice of such intended application shall be first proved upon oath of such surveyor to have been given at church or chapel on 2 Sundays preceding such sessions, or in places where there are no churches or chapels, to have been stuck up in 2 conspicuous places within such places, for one week previous to such sessions, or in extra-parochial places to have been given in writing to some of the principal inhabitants thereof one week previous to such sessions, in order that persons interested may attend and state objections to such assessment, id. s. 2.

49. The assessment herein authorized shall not exceed 1s. 9d. in the pound on the actual value at the time of making such additional assessment, id. s. 3.

50. The assessment last authorized, and that in s. 30. pl. 34. authorized, for buying materials, making satisfaction for damages, erecting guide-posts, and paying surveyor's salary shall not together in one year exceed 9d. in the pound of the yearly value of the lands, &c. as in s. 30. pl. 34. assessed, 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 46.

51. No fine, issue, penalty, or forfeiture for not repairing highways, or not appearing to any indictment or presentment for not repairing, shall be returned into exchequer, or other court, but shall be levied by and paid to such person residing in or near the parish, &c. where a road lies, &c. as the court shall order, to be applied towards repair of such highways; and persons so ordered to receive such fine shall receive, apply, and account for the same, according to the direction of such court, or in default thereof, forfeit double the sum received; and if any fine, &c. to be imposed on any such parish, &c. for not repairing the highways, or not appearing, shall be levied on one or more inhabitants of such parish, &c. such inhabitants may make complaint to the justices at special sessions; and such justices shall, by warrant under their hands and seals, cause a rate to be made, as last before prescribed, (s. 30. pl. 34.) for re-imbursing such inhabitants the monies levied on them; which rate so made, and confirmed by 2 justices, shall be collected by the surveyor, who shall, within one month after making and confirming such rate, collect, and pay unto such inhabitants the money levied on them, id. s. 47.

52. The surveyor shall collect, or cause to be collected, the assessments, penalties, and compositions, within the year for which he is appointed surveyor, and shall keep books, in which he shall enter a true account of such money as shall come to him, or the hands of his assistant, and to whom, and on what occasion, he applied the same; and shall also enter in such books lists of all sums then due from persons in respect of the payments, assessments, &c. for such highways under this act; and shall also enter an account of all tools, materials, implements, and things provided by order of the inhabitants at a vestry or other public meeting for the repair of such highways, at the public expence of such parish, &c. and shall produce such books, and the assessments made within that year for purposes of this act, unto the inhabitants, at a vestry or other public meeting held within 15 days before the special sessions, so to be held in the week next after Michaelmas quarter sessions, that such accounts, assessments, and lists may be inspected by the inhabitants; and such surveyor shall, after such books and assessments produced at such meeting, take same to such justices for limit wherein such parish, &c. doth lie, on such day and hour as shall be agreed upon at such meeting, some day after such meeting of inhabitants, and before such special sessions, and then and there verify such account or part, upon oath, if required; and such justice may allow such account, if he finds it just, or postpone it until such special sessions, if he finds cause for so doing, in which case it may be settled at such special sessions, after the parts objected to by such justice shall have been explained and verified by evidence, to satisfaction of justices at such special sessions; in case any articles in such account shall not be explained and proved to satisfaction of such justices, they may disallow the same; and whenever such account is so allowed, or disallowed, such books and assessments shall be transmitted to the churchwarden or overseer, or if the place be extra-parochial, then to some principal inhabitant, to be kept for the use of such parish, &c.; and such surveyor shall deliver a duplicate of such book and account, together with all money as shall remain in his hands, and likewise all tools, &c. to the succeeding surveyor, in case any new surveyor is appointed, or retain the same in his hands, and account for them in his next account, if he be continued surveyor in the succeeding year; and the succeeding surveyor may recover and receive all money due as aforesaid, by such ways as the preceding surveyor could; and in case such surveyor shall neglect to provide such books, or to enter such accounts and lists therein, or to deliver such books, and duplicate, and such assessments, tools, &c. in manner aforesaid, he shall forfeit for 40s. to 5l.; and in case he make default in paying or accounting for money remaining in his hands, according to the directions aforesaid, he shall forfeit double the money which shall be adjudged by such justices to be in his hands; and in case any surveyor shall die before such accounts and lists made out, or such monies, books, assessments, tools, &c. shall be delivered and paid, the executors or administrators of such surveyor shall make out, and pay, and deliver the same, in like manner, and under like penalty, as such surveyor is; and every surveyor shall pay to the justices' clerks, for the appointment and charge, 1s.; for the bond 6d., and for the account so examined and taken, and for oath administered, 1s.; and if any person receive any greater fee, he shall forfeit 10l., 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 48.

53. In every parish, where a sufficient quantity of materials cannot be provided and carried by the labourers and teams required to perform statute-duty, such surveyor shall contract for getting and carrying thereof (in the presence of such assistant, if appointed), at a meeting held for that purpose, of which 10 days' notice in writing shall be given, by fixing the same upon door of the church or chapel, or if no church or chapel, at the most public place within such parish; which notice shall specify the work to be done, and the time and place for letting thereof; and if any surveyor shall have any share or interest, directly or indirectly, in such contract, or in any other contract for work or materials to be done or provided on account of any highways, roads, bridges, or other works, under his care, or shall, upon his own account, directly or indirectly, let to hire any team, or sell any timber, stone, or other materials to be used in making or repairing such roads, &c. (unless a licence, in writing, for the sale of such materials, or to let to hire such team, be first obtained from some justice within that limit,) he shall forfeit 10l., and be incapable of being employed as a surveyor with a salary, under this act, id. s. 49. [NOTE.—Section 49 of this act, although inserted in Pickering's and Runnington's is omitted to be numbered in Railby's edit. It is here restored by changing the number of the section from 50. to 49., and so throughout.]

54. If any surveyor, after acceptance of the office, shall neglect his duty, for which no penalty is imposed, he shall forfeit from 10s. to 5l., at the discretion of the justice, id. s. 50.

55. Where any lands are given for the maintenance of causeways, pavements, highways, and bridges, such persons who are enfeoffed or trusted with such lands, shall let them to farm at the most improved yearly value, without fine; and the justices in such sessions shall enquire into the value of such lands, and order the improvement and employment of the rents, according to the direction of the donor, if they find the persons entrusted have been negligent (except lands given for the uses aforesaid to either of the universities which have visitors of their own), id. s. 51.

56. "As the surveyors are to secure horse and foot causeways, by posts, blocks, or great stones, fixed in the ground, or by banks of earth cast up, or otherwise, from being broken with carriages; and as persons may wantonly pull up, cut down, and remove, or damage such posts, &c. and drive carriages upon such banks and causeways, or against the sides thereof, and also dig or cast down such banks, and such persons may break, damage, or throw down the stones, bricks, or wood, fixed upon the parapets or battlements of bridges, and may pull down, destroy, obliterate, or deface, any mile-stone or post, graduated or direction post or stone, erected upon any highway;" be it enacted, that every person guilty of any such offence, shall, upon complaint thereof made to any justice, by the oath of one witness, or upon view of the justice, forfeit for every offence any sum not less than 10s. nor exceeding 5l.; and in default of payment thereof shall be committed to the house of correction, there to be whipped, and kept to hard labour for any time from 7 days to one calendar month, 13 G.3. c.78. s.52.

57. The justices of all cities, corporations, boroughs, and other places, are hereby to put in execution this act within their jurisdictions, id. s.53.

58. This act shall not authorize any justice for any city, town corporate, or borough, to fix or allow any salary to any surveyor, except such salary as is settled by 2 parts out of 3 of the persons assembled in the parish, &c. within such city, &c. for which such surveyor is appointed, id. s.54.

59. No waggon, having the bottom of the fellics of the wheels of the breadth of 9 inches, shall be drawn with more than 8 horses; and no cart, having like wheels, with more than 5 horses; and no waggon, having the bottom of the fellics of the breadth of 6 inches, and rolling on each side a surface of 9 inches, with more than 7 horses; and no such waggon rolling a surface of 6 inches only, with more than 6 horses; and no cart, having the bottom of the fellics of the breadth of 6 inches, with more than 4 horses; and no waggon, having the bottom of the fellics of less breadth than 6 inches, with more than 5 horses; and no cart, having the bottom of the fellics of less breadth than 6 inches, with more than 3 horses upon such highways, under these pains; viz. the owner of such waggon or cart shall forfeit 5*l.*, and the driver, not being the owner, 10*s.*, for every horse or beast drawing above the number limited, to the sole use of the informer; but carriages moving upon wheels or rollers, of the breadth of 16 inches on each side thereof, with flat surfaces, may be drawn with any number of horses, or other cattle, id. s.55.

60. But no prosecution shall be commenced before a justice for any such forfeiture, unless information be laid within 3 days after the offence committed; and no action shall be commenced but within one calendar month; and neither information or action shall be laid or commenced, unless notice is given by the informer to the driver on the day upon which the offence is committed, of the intention to complain of such offence; and if it appear to the justice that the offender lives so remote as to make it inconvenient to summon him to appear before such justice, such justice may dismiss the complaint, and leave the informer to his remedy by action at law, id. s.56.

61. The justices, at their quarter sessions held in the week after Michaelmas, [see 55 G.3. c.68. s.6. post, pl. 93.], may license in such manner, and for such time as they think fit, an increase of the number of horses to be drawn in carriages up any steep hill, or on any road not turnpike, within their jurisdictions, over the number before limited, if, upon inquiry into the state of such roads, they find it necessary; and at any Michaelmas quarter sessions may revoke or vary the same, id. s.57.

62. If it appear upon the oaths of witnesses, to the satisfaction of any justice, or of any court of justice authorized to enforce this act, that any waggon, cart or carriage, could not, by reason of deep snow or ice, be drawn by the number of horses allowed, then such justice or court, may stop all proceedings before them for the recovery of any penalty incurred by drawing with a greater number of horses, &c. than are allowed; provided the regulations, concerning the number of horses and wheels of carriages, shall not extend to carts, waggons or carriages, employed only in carrying one stone, block of marble, cable rope, or piece of metal, or piece of timber, or to such ammunition or artillery as shall be for H.M.'s service; and two oxen or horned cattle, shall be considered as one horse, id. s.58.

63. The owner of every waggon, wain or cart, and also of every coach, post chaise or other carriage, let to hire, shall paint upon some conspicuous part of his waggon, &c., and upon the pannels of the doors of all such coaches, &c. before the same are used upon any public highway, his christian and surname, and the place of his abode, in large letters, and continue the same thereupon so long as such waggon, &c. shall be used upon such highway; and the owner of every common stage waggon or cart, employed as travelling stages from town to town, shall, above his christian and surname, paint on the part, the words Common Stage Waggon or Cart; and every person using any such carriage without the names and descriptions so painted thereon, or who shall paint any false name or abode on such waggon or other such carriage, shall forfeit from 20*s.* to 5*l.*, id. s.59.

64. If the driver of any cart, car, dray or waggon, shall ride upon such carriage in any street or highway, not having some other person on foot, or on horseluck, to guide the same, (such carriages as are conducted by some person holding the reins of the horse excepted); or if the driver of any carriage whatsoever, on any part of any street or highway, shall, by negligence or misbehaviour, cause any damage to any person or carriage passing upon such street, &c., or shall quit the highway, and go on the other side of the hedge or fence inclosing the same; or wilfully be at such distance from such carriage, whilst it shall be passing upon such highway, that he cannot have the direction of the horses drawing the same; or shall, by negligence or misbehaviour, prevent or interrupt the free passage of any other carriage, or person on the highways; or if the driver of any empty waggon, cart or carriage, shall neglect to turn aside for any coach, chariot, chaise, loaded waggon, cart or other loaded carriage; or if any person shall act as the driver, of any such coach, post chaise or carriage, let for hire, or waggon, wain or cart, not having the owner's name, as before required, painted thereon, or shall refuse to discover the true christian and surname of the owner, such driver, convicted of such offences, either by his own confession, the view of a justice, or by the oath of one witness, before any justice for limit where such offence committed, shall, for every offence, forfeit not exceeding 10*s.*, in case such driver shall not be owner; and in case the offender be owner of such carriage, then not exceeding 20*s.*; and in either of such cases, shall, in default of payment, be committed to the house of correction, for not exceeding one month, unless the same be sooner paid; and every driver, offending in either of such cases, shall, by authority of this act, with or without any warrant, be apprehended by any person who shall see such offence committed, and shall be immediately delivered to a constable or peace officer, to be conveyed before some justice; and if such driver, in any such cases, shall refuse to discover his name, the justice of peace before whom taken, or to whom any such complaint is made, may commit him to the house of correction for not exceeding 3 months, or may proceed against him for the penalty, by a description of his person and the offence, and expressing in such proceedings that he refused to discover his name, 13 G.3. c.78. s.60.

65. Two justices, whenever they judge proper, may hold any special sessions, besides that which is in s.1. directed, for executing this act, and adjourn the same, causing notice to be given of the time and place of the holding such special sessions, and of the adjournments to the justices within such limits, by the high constable or other officer, id. s.61.

66. If any persons collecting tolls for passing over any public bridge with carriages or cattle, shall keep any victualling-house, alehouse, or other place of public entertainment, or shall sell, or permit to be sold therein, any wine, beer, ale, cyder, spirituous liquor, or other strong liquors, by retail, he, being convicted by the oath of one witness, or by his own confession, before any justice for limit, shall forfeit 5*l.*, id. s.62.

67. If any person shall encroach, by making any hedge, ditch, or fence, on any highway, not turnpike road, within 15 feet from the middle thereof, or shall plough, harrow, or break up the soil of any land, or in ploughing, or harrowing the adjacent lands, shall turn his plough upon any land within 15 feet from the middle of any highway, where the breadth is formed or described with certainty, and does not exceed in breadth 30 feet, every person so offending shall forfeit 40*s.* to such person who shall make information; and the surveyor may cause such hedge, ditch, or fence to be taken down, or filled up, at the expence of the person to whom the same belongs; and one justice, upon oath, may levy, as well the expences of taking down such hedges, as the penalties hereby imposed, by distress and sale of the offender's goods, in such manner as distresses and sales for forfeitures are to be levied by this act, id. s.63.

68. The court before whom any indictment or presentment is tried for not repairing highways, may award costs to the prosecutor, to be paid by the person indicted, if the defence was frivolous; or may award costs to the person indicted, to be paid by the prosecutor, if such prosecution was vexatious, id. s.64.

69. If the inhabitants of any parish shall agree, at a vestry or public meeting, to prosecute any person by indictment, for not repairing any highway within such parish, &c. which they apprehend such person was obliged to repair, or for committing any nuisance upon any highways, or shall agree to defend any indictment preferred against such parish, the surveyor may charge in his account the expences incurred in carrying on or defending such prosecutions, after the same are allowed by a vestry or a justice for the limit, which expences shall be paid by such parish, &c. out of the fines, forfeitures, compositions, and assessments authorized to be raised hereby, id. s.65.

70. Where a vestry or public meeting of the inhabitants is directed by this act, there shall be public notice given of holding such meeting, at the church or chapel of such parish, on Sunday next preceeding such meeting, and also notice thereof in writing, specifying the purpose of such meeting, fixed at the same time upon the door of such church or chapel, and the same shall not be held till 3 days after such notice; and if there be no church or chapel, the like notice shall be given in writing and put up at the most public place within the parish; 3 days before such meeting, id. s.66.

71. If any person shall refuse or neglect to pay the sums assessed upon him under this act, within 10 days after demand, the same may be levied by the surveyor, or persons authorized, by warrant under the hand and seal of one justice, by distress and sale of goods of person so neglecting rendering overplus to the owner, after charges of distress and sale deducted, and in default of distress such justice may commit the person refusing to the common gaol, there to remain until he shall have paid the sum assessed, and the costs, id. s.67.

72. The surveyor shall be in all cases a competent witness in all matters relating to this act, id. s.68.

73. The forms of proceedings set forth in the schedule hereto annexed, shall be used upon all occasions; and no objection shall be made or advantage taken for want of form, 13 G.3. c.78. s.69. [These forms, and those annexed to 34 G.3. c.64. (see pl. 94.), will be found in 2 Burn's Justice, by Chetwynd, 752—782., and are, therefore, omitted here; and see Appendix, No. IV.]

74. The justices shall, at every special sessions held in the week next after Michaelmas quarter sessions, procure and deliver a printed abstract of the most material parts of this act, to every surveyor then appointed, as the charge in s. 1. directed to be given, id. s.70.

75. In case any person shall resist or make forcible opposition against any person employed in the execution of this act; or make any rescue of the cattle or goods distrained by virtue of this act; or if any constable, headborough, or tythingman shall neglect to execute any warrant granted by any justice under this act, such person convicted thereof by a justice, shall, for such offence, forfeit from 40s. to 10*l.*, to be paid to the surveyor, to be laid out in the repair of the highways where offence was done; and in case he do not forthwith pay or secure to be paid such forfeiture, after conviction, then such justice may commit such person to the common gaol or house of correction, for not exceeding 3 months, unless the forfeiture be sooner paid, id. s.71.

76. All penalties by this act imposed for any offence against the same, and all costs allowed and ordered by this act, (the levying of which is not otherwise directed,) shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the offender, by warrant under the hand and seal of some justice where such offence happens, rendering the overplus to the party, after deducting the charges; which warrant such justice shall grant, upon conviction of the offender by confession or upon the oath of one witness, or upon order made; and the penalties, when levied, shall be paid, the one half to the informer, and the other to the surveyor, to be applied towards the repairs, unless otherwise directed by this act; but in case the surveyor is the informer, then the whole shall be employed towards the repair of the highway; and in case such distress cannot be found, and such penalties, or the costs, are not forthwith paid, such justice, by warrant under his hand and seal, may commit such offender to the common gaol or house of correction for not exceeding 3 months, unless the penalty and charges be sooner paid, and if such offender shall live out of the jurisdiction of the justice hereby authorized to grant such warrant, any justice of the limit wherein such person shall inhabit, upon request, and upon a true copy of the conviction whereby such forfeiture was incurred, and of the order for payment produced and proved by a witness upon oath, by warrant under his hand and seal, may cause the penalty mentioned in such conviction, and the costs, to be levied by distress and sale of the goods of such offender; and if no sufficient distress can be had, may commit such offender to the common gaol, or house of correction, for the time aforesaid, id. s.72.

77. No warrant of distress, unless otherwise hereby directed, shall be issued for levying any penalty or charges, until 6 days after the offender shall have been convicted, and an order made and served upon him, for payment thereof, id. s.73.

78. Every prosecutor may, at his election, recover any forfeiture which shall amount to 40s. (the manner of recovery thereof not being directed by this act), either as in s.72. directed, or by action at law in any court of record, viz. where any person shall be liable to any such pecuniary penalty, he may recover same by action of debt, in which it shall be sufficient to declare, that defendant is indebted to plaintiff in a sum of—being forfeited by an act passed in 13 G.3. intitled, 'An act to explain, amend, and reduce into one act of parliament, the statutes now in being for the amendment and preservation of the public highways within that part of G. B. called Eng. and for other purposes;' and the plaintiff, if he recovers, shall have double costs, id. s.74.

79. Provided there shall not be more than one recovery for the same offence, and ten days notice in writing be given to the party offending, previous to the commencement of such action, and the same be brought within one calendar month after the offence committed, id. s.75.

80. No conviction shall be made unless upon confession, the oath of one witness, or the view of a justice; and any inhabitant of any parish, &c. shall be deemed a competent witness, id. s.76.

81. Any justice may administer an oath in matters requiring the same under this act, id. s.77.

82. Where any distress shall be made under this act, the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party a trespasser, on account of any default or want of form in any proceedings, nor shall the party distraining be deemed a trespasser ab initio, on account of any irregularity afterwards done by the party distraining, but the person aggrieved may recover damages in an action on the case, id. s.78.

83. No plaintiff shall recover in any action for any irregularity, trespass, or wrongful proceedings, if tender of sufficient amends be made before action brought; and in case no tender shall have been made for the defendant before issue joined, he may by leave pay into court such money as he sees fit, and the usual proceedings in like cases shall be adopted, id. s.79.

84. Any person aggrieved by any thing done by any justice or other person, in the execution of this act, and for which no relief hath been appointed, may appeal to the quarter sessions for the limit for where the complaint arises, such appellant giving notice in writing of his intention to appeal, and of the matter thereof, to the justice or person against whom such complaint shall be made, within 6 days after the cause arose, and within 4 days after such notice entering into a recognizance before some justice, with one surety conditioned to try such appeal at, and abide the order of, and pay such costs as shall be awarded by said quarter sessions, and every justice, and other person, having received notice of such appeal, shall return all proceedings had before them, touching matters of appeal, to said quarter sessions, on pain of 5*l.*; and such sessions, upon due proof of such notice being given, and of the entering into such recognizance, shall finally determine such appeal in a summary way, and award costs to either party as they think proper; to be levied as in s.72. directed; and the determination of such quarter sessions shall be conclusive; and no proceedings had in pursuance of this act shall be quashed for want of form, or removed by certiorari (except as before mentioned) into any court at Westminster; provided no such appeal shall be made against any conviction for any penalty, unless the person convicted shall, at the time of conviction, if he be then present, if not, within 6 days after, give notice of his intention to appeal, and at the same time enter into recognizance with sureties to pay such penalty, in case such conviction is affirmed upon appeal; and upon his giving such security, the further proceeding for such penalty shall be suspended until such appeal is determined, 13 G.3. c.78. s.80.

85. Actions for any thing done in pursuance of this act shall be commenced within 3 calendar months after the fact committed, and be brought within the proper county, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof, and if it so appear, or if such action is brought after the time limited, or is laid in the wrong place, the jury shall find for the defendant, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues after appearance, or has judgment against him on demurrer, the defendant shall have treble costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, id. s.81.

86. Nothing in this act touching the making and returning lists of persons qualified to be surveyors, and the appointment of such surveyors, nor the repeal of 3 H. & M. c.12. relating to such surveyors, shall extend to the city of Bristol, but the acts passed previous to this act, relative to surveyors of the highways, and to cleansing, paving, lighting and regulating the streets and other places within such city, shall remain in force, and be executed, id. s.85.

87. Nothing in this act shall extend to parish of St. Mary Matfelon, otherwise Whitechapel, and St. John of Wapping in Middlesex, id. s.86.

88. Nothing in this act shall alter, restrain, or abridge any acts relating to, or powers of the commissioners of sewers, id. s.87.

89. WHEN IT SHALL APPEAR ON THE VIEW OF ANY 2 OR MORE justices of peace, that any public highway, bridleway, or footway, may be diverted, so as to make the same nearer or more commodious to the public; and the owner of the lands through which such new highway, &c. so proposed to be made, shall consent thereto, by writing under his hand and seal, such justices may, by order at some special sessions, divert and stop up such footway, and divert, turn, stop up, and inclose, sell, and dispose of such old highway or bridleway, and purchase the ground and soil for such new one, by such means, and subject to such exceptions and conditions as in 13 G.3. c.78. s.16. pl. 20. mentioned with regard to highways to be widened or diverted; and also, when it shall appear on the view of such justices, that any public highway, &c. is unnecessary, such justices, or 2 of them, may by order, stop up, and sell, and dispose of the same, by such ways, and subject to such exceptions, &c. as aforesaid, except that the money to arise from such sale, where by 13 G.3. c.78., it would be applicable to the purchase of ground and soil for the new highways, &c., shall be paid to the surveyor, and applied towards the general repairs of the highways and bridleways of the parish, &c., within which the way so stopped up shall be situate: provided, that in all such cases, a notice in the form or to the effect of schedule (A.) shall be affixed at the place, and by the side of such highway, &c. from whence the same is directed to be turned or stopped up; and also inserted in one or more newspapers circulated in the county; or in case there is no such newspaper, then in any newspaper circulated in the nearest adjoining county for 3 successive weeks, after the making such order and a like notice shall be affixed to the church-door of every parish, within which the way so to be turned or stopped up, or part thereof, shall lie, on 3 successive Sundays, subsequent to the making of such order; and such notices having been so published, such order shall at the quarter sessions holden within the limits where the way so to be diverted or stopped up shall lie, next after 4 weeks from the first day of publishing such notices, be returned to the clerk of the peace, in open court, and lodged with him; and such order shall at such sessions be confirmed and enrolled of record by such clerk, 55 G.3. c.68. s.2. [see ante, 13 G.3. c.78. s.19. pl. 23.]

90. Where any highway, bridleway, or footway shall be so ordered to be stopped or inclosed, and such new highway, &c. set out in lieu thereof, or where any unnecessary highway, &c. shall be so ordered to be stopped, any person aggrieved by such order, or by the inclosure of any road or highway, by virtue of any inquisition taken upon any writ of ad quod damnum, may make his complaint thereof, by appeal to the quarter sessions, upon 10 days' notice given in writing of such appeal, to the surveyor of the highways of the parish, &c. wherein such highway, &c. shall be situate; and also by affixing such notice to the door of the church or chapel of such parish; and such sessions shall determine such appeal, 55 G. 3. c. 68. s. 3.

91. If no such appeal is made, or being made, if such order and proceedings are confirmed by the sessions, such inclosures may be made, and the ways stopped, and the proceedings thereon shall be binding and conclusive, and the new highway, &c. so set out, shall for ever after continue a public highway, bridleway, or footway; but no inclosures of such old highways, &c. (except in cases of stopping up of such useless highway, &c.) shall be made, until the new highway, &c. is completed and put into good condition and repair, and is so certified by 2 justices, upon view thereof, which certificate shall be returned to the clerk of the peace, and shall be by him inrolled of record in the court of quarter sessions next after such order has been confirmed or inrolled; but after the inrolment of such order and certificate, such old highway, &c. shall be stopped up, and the soil sold, in manner and subject to the regulations, &c. in 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 17. pl. 21. contained, id. s. 4.

92. This act shall not annul or impeach any order or proceedings had for diverting or stopping up any highway, &c., made previous to the passing hereof, but the same shall be valid, id. s. 5.

93. The justices of peace assembled in special sessions in the week after Michaelmas, may do all acts which they might heretofore legally have done in the special sessions directed to be holden in the week after the Michaelmas quarter sessions, 55 G. 3. c. 68. s. 6. [See further on this point, 54 G. 3. c. 84., QUARTER SESSIONS.]

94. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY REPAIRING SUCH PARTS OF THE highways of this kingdom, as are to be repaired by 2 parishes, 34 G. 3. c. 64. [not to extend to Srol., id. s. 6. As to the forms annexed to this act, see pl. 75.]

95. Two justices of peace for any county, riding, or division, on complaint or application by any surveyor of parish highways, (stating in writing, by a plan thereto annexed, that there is in such parish, and also in an adjoining parish, specifying the same, a certain common highway, describing same by metes, bounds, and admeasurement, one side of which highway ought to be repaired by one of such parishes, and the other side by the other), may issue their summons with a copy of such writing and plan annexed, to the surveyor of such other parish, to appear before them, on a day mentioned, not more than 14, or less than 7 days from the date thereof; and in case the parties shall then appear, such justices may proceed to decide the matter in manner hereinafter mentioned, in case all parties consent; but if the surveyor summoned shall not appear on such first summons, or appearing, shall require further time, such justices shall adjourn the matter for not more than 21, nor less than 14 days, of which the surveyor not appearing shall have notice: on which day such justices shall proceed to hear the parties and their witnesses, and, whether the party summoned does or does not appear, shall examine and finally determine the matter as follows; viz. such justices shall divide the whole highway by a transverse line, crossing the same into 2 equal parts, or into 2 such unequal parts, as in consideration of soil, waters, floods, the inequality of highway, &c., they in their discretion shall think right, and shall adjudge and order that the whole of such highway on both sides, in one of such parts shall be maintained and repaired by one such parishes; and the whole of such highway, on both sides thereof, in the other of such parts by the other parish, and shall cause their order and a plan of such highway, and the allotment thereof to be delineated on paper, and filed with the clerk of the peace of the county, and shall also cause such parts, stones, or other boundaries to be set up, as shall be necessary to ascertain such division and allotment, id. s. 1.

96. After such order and plan so filed, the inhabitants of such parishes shall be bound, as of common right, to maintain and repair such parts of such highway, so allotted to them, and shall be liable to be prosecuted for neglect of such duty, and shall in all respects be liable to the provisions of the highway acts, and shall be discharged from the repair of such part as is not allotted to them, id. s. 2.

97. All costs and charges incurred by reason of such proceedings shall be defrayed by such 2 parishes, the same being ascertained by such 2 justices; and in case such parties neglect to pay their respective shares, such justices, or any other justice for the county, &c. may levy the same by distress and sale, with the costs, on the goods of any surveyor of the parish so neglecting to pay, id. s. 3.

98. This act shall not alter any boundaries of counties, lordships, hundreds, manors, or any other division, nor the boundaries of parishes, otherwise than for such purposes, id. s. 4.

99. This act shall not relate to any highways, the repair of any part of which belongs to any bodies corporate, township, or other such place, or to any private person by reason of tenure of lands, or otherwise, but shall relate to parishes only. Provided that in case any body corporate, township, or other such place, or any such private person, or any other person bound by law to repair one side of any highway shall be desirous that the same shall be under the regulations of this act, and the parties bound to repair the other side shall consent, 2 justices may make such order and allotment of such highway, which order, when filed with the clerk of peace, shall have the like force as the like order in case of parishes, 34 G. 3. c. 64. s. 5.

100. Either of such parishes, between whom such allotment is made under this act, by an order in vestry specially called for that purpose, may appeal to the quarter sessions for the county where such parishes lie, holden next after the time when such order and plan is filed, and not otherwise; and on hearing of such appeal, such sessions may affirm, quash, or amend such order, as to them appears just, and allow costs, in their discretion, to either party, which order of quarter sessions shall not be removed by certiorari or otherwise, but shall be final, id. s. 7.

101. Such complaint, summons, adjudication, and plan may be in the forms stated in appendix hereto annexed, id. s. 8.

102. FOR VARYING SOME of the provisions of 13 G. 3. c. 78. (the highway act) which relate to the performance of statute duty, 34 G. 3. c. 74. [REPE. AS TO S. 3., and new rates of composition made, 44 G. 3. c. 52., which are ALTERED 54 G. 3. c. 109. ss. 4—8. See farther as to statute duty, 13 G. 3. c. 78. ss. 36—44., ante, pl. 39—45.]

103. Every person who shall not keep a team, draught, or plough, but who shall keep one or more carts, and 1 or 2 horses, or beasts of draught only, used to draw in such carts upon the highways, shall perform statute duty for the like number of days therewith, and with one labourer to attend each cart, or shall pay for the lands, tenements, woods, tithes, and hereditaments which he shall occupy, at the rate in s. 3. mentioned, at the option of the surveyor; and every person who shall keep a coach, post-chaise, chair, or other wheel-carriage, and not keep a team, &c., nor occupy lands, &c. of the annual value of 50*l.* in the parish, township, or place where he resides, shall pay the surveyor 1*s.* for every day's statute duty for each horse used to draw in such carriage, or shall pay according to the value of the lands he shall occupy, after the like rates, at the option of the surveyor; and if such teams, &c. are not required by the surveyor, on any of such days, then the persons who should have sent the same shall, according to notice, to be given as in s. 3. mentioned, send unto such work, for every one so spared, three able men, there to labour, or pay the surveyor 4*s.* 6*d.*, at the option of the surveyor; and such persons shall bring with them shovels, spades, picks, and other tools proper for such purposes; and such persons and carriages shall perform the work appointed by the surveyor for 8 hours in each of such days, within such parish, &c. or in carrying materials from any other parish, &c. to be employed in the repair of highways of the parish, &c. where so required to labour. And if any person sending any team shall not send a sufficient labourer, besides the driver, (except as before mentioned,) or if such labourer or driver, or driver of any cart required to perform statute duty, shall refuse to work or carry proper loads, such surveyor may discharge any such team, &c. and recover from the owner the forfeiture incurred under 13 G. 3. c. 78. (see s. 37. pl. 40.) in case no such team, &c. had been sent, 34 G. 3. c. 74. s. 2.

104. So much of 34 G. 3. c. 74., viz. s. 3., as relates to the amount of composition for statute duty REPE., 44 G. 3. c. 52. s. 1.

105. Persons liable to perform statute duty, by sending any teams, draughts, or ploughs, with men, horses, or oxen, as in 34 G. 3. c. 74. directed, may compound for the same if they think fit, by paying to the surveyor, at the time and in manner by 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 4. pl. 9. directed, such sums as the justices for the limits where statute duty is to be performed, or the major part of them, at their special sessions held in the first week after Michaelmas in each year shall adjudge, not exceeding 12*s.* or less than 3*s.* per team, &c. per day; and in default of their adjudging the same 6*s.*, for and in lieu of each day's duty for each team, draught, or plough; and for each cart with 2 beasts of draught, from 3*s.* to 8*s.*; and in default of their adjudging the same 4*s.*; and for each cart with one beast of draught from 2*s.* to 6*s.*; and in default of their adjudging the same 3*s.*, 44 G. 3. c. 52. s. 2. [See 54 G. 3. c. 109. s. 4. post, pl. 110.]

106. The surveyor appointed under 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 1. pl. 5., together with the inhabitants and occupiers of land, &c. as in s. 2. pl. 6. within each parish, township, or place, shall, at proper seasons, endeavour to repair the highways, and be chargeable thereto as follows, viz. every person keeping a waggon, cart, wain, plough, or tumbrel, and 3 or more beasts of draught, used to draw the same, shall be deemed to keep a team, draught, or plough, and be liable to perform statute duty with the same, in the parish, &c. where he resides; and shall, six days in the year, if so many required, (to be computed from Michaelmas to Michaelmas) send on every day, and at every place appointed by the surveyor for the parish, &c. one wain, cart, or carriage, furnished after the custom of the country, with oxen, horses, or other cattle, and other things fit for the purpose, with two men, and which duty so performed shall excuse such person from his duty in such parish, &c. in respect of all lands, &c., as in s. 2., not exceeding the annual value of 50*l.*, which he occupies therein. And every person keeping such team, &c. and occupying in the same parish, &c. lands, &c. of the yearly value of 50*l.*, over and above the 50*l.* in respect whereof such team duty was performed, and every such person occupying lands, &c. of the yearly value of 50*l.* in any other parish, &c. besides that he resides in, and every other person not keeping a team, &c., but occupying lands, &c. of the yearly value of 50*l.* in any parish, &c. shall, in like manner, and for the same number of days, send one wain, &c. furnished with 3 horses, or 4 oxen and one horse, or 2 oxen and 2 horses, and 2 men to each, and in like manner for every 50*l.* per ann. which such person shall further occupy in any such parish, &c., the same to be employed by the surveyor in repairing the highways within such parish, &c. where such lands, &c. lie; and every person who shall not keep a team, &c. but shall occupy lands, &c. under the yearly value of 50*l.* in the parish, &c. where he resides, or in any other, and every person keeping a team, and occupying lands, &c. under the yearly value of 50*l.* in any other parish than that wherein he resides, shall contribute to the repair of the highways, and pay the surveyor in lieu of such duty the sums following, viz. for every 20*s.* of the annual value of such lands, &c. 1*d.* for each day's statute duty required in the year, not exceeding 6 days in the whole; and every such person shall, in like manner, pay 1*d.* for every 20*s.* of the annual value of the lands, &c. which he shall occupy in any such parish, &c. above the annual value of 50*l.* and less than 100*l.*, and so for every 20*s.* that each progressive and intermediate annual value of 20*s.* of the lands, &c. which he shall so occupy shall fall short of the further increase of 50*l.* in every parish, &c. where such lands, &c. lie, for each day's statute duty. Provided no person keeping such team, &c. and performing duty with the same in the parish, &c. where he resides, and not occupying lands, &c. within the same of the yearly value of 50*l.*, need send more than one labourer with such team; which sums shall be considered as a composition, and be paid to the surveyor of the parish, &c. in which charged, for the use of the highways therein, at the time in 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 41. pl. 42. directed, or within 10 days after, or in default such surveyor shall apply to a justice for the limit wherein default made, who shall summon the party to appear at some special or other petty sessions, where 2 justices shall be present, to show cause why he neglected to pay such composition; and in default of appearance, or if on appearance he shall not show that he is poor, and deserving relief, such money shall be levied by distress and sale of his goods, in the same manner as other forfeitures for not performing the statute duty are hereby authorized to be levied. [See s. 2. pl. 103. of this act; but see also 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 72. pl. 76. See other rates for composition of statute duty, 54 G. 3. c. 109. ss. 4—7. pl. 107—113.] Provided that, when on such application such justices shall discharge any poor or indigent person from payment of composition money, such person shall be discharged from the expences arising by such summons and appearance, 34 G. 3. c. 74. s. 4.

107. On application of any poor person to be discharged from the payment of the rate or composition made by two justices at a special or petty sessions held for the limits wherein such poor persons reside, such justices (having first given notice to the surveyor of the highways to appear on the part of such parish) shall examine into the situation of such applicant, and if he appear deserving relief, may exempt him from payment of all rates and composition, by 13 G. 3. c. 78. (s. 34. 35. and 38. which were R.&c. by this act) imposed, id. s. 5.

108. If it appear to the justices at special sessions held in the week after the Michaelmas quarter sessions, or at any other special or petty sessions held within the limits of any parish, &c. at which two justices are present, that no carriages or labourers can be obtained without paying a high price for the same, for repairing the highways in any particular parish, &c. such justices may order the team duty, or so much thereof as they think fit, to be performed in kind within such parish, (except in respect to such teams as belong to persons not occupying lands, &c. of the annual value of 50*l.* within the same,) and may also order all daily labourers, or such part of them as they think fit, to perform six days labour on such highways in kind, in case so many days are required, upon being paid their customary wages; provided that if part of such teams or labourers only are required, it shall be directed by such justice in some given proportion, as one half, &c. and in that case the surveyor shall, at a public vestry, put the names of all persons liable to send such teams into one box, and the names of all such labourers into another, and some inhabitant then present shall draw out such number as is equal to the proportion so ordered, and such persons so drawn shall perform such duty in kind for that year; if such order shall be continued in the subsequent year, the same method shall be observed, but the names before drawn shall not a second time be put into the box, and so in every succeeding year, which order shall supersede the power of compounding, and be binding and continue in force until discharged or varied by the justices at some such subsequent sessions, 34 G. 3. c. 74. s. 6.

109. The 13 G. 3. c. 78. shall continue in force, except where hereby repealed or altered, id. s. 7.

110. In all cases where it shall be made appear to two justices acting within the district by the surveyors of the highways, or of any turnpike roads, that the maintenance and repair thereof can be more effectually done by composition in money, than by a performance of the statute duty in kind, they shall require the same in money on receiving an authority under the hands and seals of such justices, in lieu of the whole or part of the statute duty; and such justices, at their special sessions for highways, held in the week next after Michaelmas yearly, [see now 55 G. 3. c. 68. s. 6. ante, pl. 93.] shall fix such rates as they deem reasonable as a composition, in lieu of the teams, carts, horses, oxen or labour, which persons are bound in the proportions now fixed by law to provide or perform, which rates they shall annually make known at such sessions, having regard to the wages of labour and the rate of hiring teams, &c. in the parish, &c. where such composition is required, and which shall be paid in the same manner, and within the same period, and subject to the same regulations as by law established for enforcing payment of compositions in lieu of statute duty, [see 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 41. pl. 42., and 34 G. 3. c. 74. s. 4., pl. 106.] provided that if the whole composition in money is not required in lieu of the whole duty in kind, such composition may be demanded in equal proportions from each person liable to pay the same, unless they prefer to pay a composition for the whole duty, according to the rates herein directed, 54 G. 3. c. 109. s. 4.

111. All persons liable under 13 G. 3. c. 78., 34 G. 3. c. 74. s. 4., and 44 G. 3. c. 52., to contribute to the repair of the highways by payment in money in lieu of statute duty, shall contribute thereto in lieu of every day's statute duty for every 20*s.* of the actual annual value at the time of making such assessments of the tithes, woods, lands, &c. which such persons shall occupy in the parish, township or place where they reside, or in any other parish, &c. a sum equal to 1-50th part of the sum fixed by the justices as in s. 4. last pl. directed as the composition for one day's labour of a cart, wain, or carriage, furnished with 3 horses and 2 men, omitting fractions of a farthing; and all persons occupying more than 50*l.* and less than 100*l.* per annum in such parishes, shall contribute to such repairs in lieu of every day's statute duty, for every 20*s.* of such value taken at such time over and above such 50*l.* a like sum for a like quantity of statute duty, and so on progressively for every 20*s.* of such actual annual value for each additional 50*l.* per annum, to be paid in like manner and subject to the same regulations as in s. 4., id. s. 5.

112. Persons who shall keep a coach, post chaise, or chair, or other wheel carriage, and not a team, draught, or plough, nor occupy 50*l.* per annum in any parish, &c. where they reside, shall pay the surveyor for every day's statute duty for each horse he shall use in his carriage, such sum as the justices shall fix, as in s. 4. pl. 110. directed, as a composition for one day's work of a horse, or shall at the option of the surveyor, pay in lieu of each day's statute duty for every 20*s.* of the actual annual value of such lands, &c. which they shall occupy, the 50th part of such sum so fixed as a composition for one day's labour of a cart, wain, or carriage, furnished with 3 horses and 2 men, omitting fractions of a farthing, to be paid and regulated as in s. 4. directed, id. s. 6.

113. All persons neglecting to perform their statute duty in kind, on being regularly summoned for that purpose by the surveyor, shall forfeit twice the amount of the composition for the same, according to the rules fixed under this act, and shall be liable to perform the same, either in the same or the following year, the payment of such forfeitures; and the arrears of statute duty shall be enforced and applied to the benefit of the highway or turnpike road, as the case may be, to which the neglected duty was due by the surveyor, in the same manner as other forfeitures may be levied, [see 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 47. pl. 51.] and statute duty may be enforced [see 13 G. 3. c. 78. s. 34. pl. 38. and 34 G. 3. c. 74. s. 4. pl. 106.] under the recited acts, id. s. 7.

114. Justices and magistrates of cities, corporations, precincts, liberties, and other separate jurisdictions, shall execute the act within their respective jurisdictions, in as ample a manner as county justices may, id. s. 8.

115. This act shall not alter the recited acts, or acts passed subsequent to them, regarding highways or turnpike roads, but the same shall remain in full force where not expressly altered by this act, and all their provisions, &c. and forms shall, as far as may be, be applicable to this act, id. s. 9.

HOLY DAYS, FASTS, AND SUNDAYS.

FOR ABSTINENCE FROM FLESH, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 19. [Exp.]

1. FOR KEEPING OF HOLY DAYS and fasting days, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 3 [R]ep. 1 M. S. 2. c. 2. but which is REP. 1 J. 1. c. 25. s. 48.]

2. The days hereafter mentioned shall be kept holy days, viz. all Sundays, the days of the feast of the Circumcision of Christ, of the Epiphany, of the Purification, of St. Matthew the apostle, of the Annunciation, of St. Mark, of St. Philip and Jacob, of the Ascension, of the Nativity of St. John Baptist, of St. Peter, St. James, St. Bartholomew, and St. Matthew, the apostles, of St. Michael the archangel, of St. Luke the evangelist, of St. Simon and Jude the apostles, of All Saints, of St. Andrew, and St. Thomas the apostles, of the Nativity of our Lord, of St. Stephen the martyr, of St. John the evangelist, of the holy Innocents, Monday and Tuesday in Easter-week, and Monday and Tuesday in Whitsun-week; and no other day shall be commanded to be kept holy, or to abstain from labour, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 3. s. 1.

3. Every even or day next before any of such feasts of the Nativity of our Lord, of Easter, of the Ascension, Pentecost, and the Purification and the Annunciation, of All Saints, and of all such feasts of the apostles (other than of St. John the evangelist and Philip and Jacob) shall be fasted and observed, and none other even or day shall be commanded to be fasted, id. s. 2.

4. All archbishops and bishops, and all others having spiritual jurisdiction, may inquire of every person offending in the premises, and punish such offender by the censures of the church, and enjoin him penance convenient, id. s. 5.

5. This act shall not abrogate the abstinence from flesh in Lent, or on Fridays and Saturdays, or on any other day appointed to be kept by 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 19., saving only of those evens whereof the holy-day next following is abrogated by this statute, id. s. 4.

6. When any of such feasts (the evens whereof be commanded to be kept fasting-days) fall upon the Monday, the Saturday before, and not the Sunday, shall be commanded to be fasted for the even of such feast, id. s. 5.

7. Every husbandman, labourer, fisherman, and all other persons, upon such holy-days, in harvest, or at any other times when necessity shall require, may labour, ride, fish, or work, id. s. 6.

8. The knights of the garter shall keep St. George's feast yearly, the 22d, 23d, and 24th of April, and at such other times as yearly shall be thought convenient by H. M. and such knights, or any of them, id. s. 7.

9. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY ENFORCING the observance of fasts and fish days, [This title is framed from these sections.] 5 El. c. 5. ss. 14—25. 30—40. [CON. 13 El. c. 11. s. 2., 35 El. c. 7. s. 8., 39 El. c. 18. s. 45., and as to so much which is not REP. together with all additions and explanations thereof, 1 J. 1. c. 25. s. 6., 21 J. 1. c. 28., and as so much as is not REP. nor doth concern the eating flesh, or using of fish on the Wednesday, together with all additions, 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 8., and indefinitely, 16 C. 1. c. 4., and REP. as to ss. 14—16. 36—40., by 27 El. c. 11. which is CON. as above, and AMP. 35 El. c. 7. s. 22.]

10. Every Wednesday throughout the year which heretofore hath not by the laws been observed as a fish day, and which shall not fall in Christmas or Easter-week, shall be kept as the Saturdays in every week ought to be, 5 El. c. 5. s. 14. [This section and the 2 following were REP. by 27 El. c. 11. s. 5., pl. 30. but the penalty was diminished by 35 El. c. 7. s. 22. post, pl. 13.]

11. No person shall eat flesh upon any day now kept as a fish day, or upon any Wednesday now limited to be so kept, upon pain to forfeit 7l. or suffer 3 months imprisonment, 5 El. c. 5. s. 15. [but see pl. 15.]

12. Every person within whose house any such offence shall be done, and knowing thereof, and not effectually punishing or disclosing the same to some officer having authority to punish the same, shall forfeit 40s., which forfeiture shall be divided into three parts; one part to H. M., the other part to the informer, and the third to the parish where the offence is committed, to be levied by the church-wardens after conviction, id. s. 16.

13. Persons eating flesh contrary to 5 El. c. 5. shall forfeit only 20s. or suffer one month's imprisonment, and every person in whose house any such offence done, and being knowing thereof and not disclosing same, shall forfeit 15s. 4d., 35 El. c. 7. s. 22. [comb. superseding 5 El. c. 5. s. 15.]

14. This act shall not extend to any person that shall have licence upon causes to be contained in the licence, 5 El. c. 5. s. 17.

15. Such licences shall be void unless they contain the conditions hereafter mentioned, viz. every licence made to any lord of parliament, or their wives, shall be upon condition that such person licensed shall pay to the poor men's box within the parish where they dwell, in the feast of the Purification, or within 6 days after, 26s. 8d. the same to be paid within one month after the feast, upon pain of forfeiture of such licence; and every licence to a knight, or a knight's wife, shall be upon condition that such person licensed shall pay yearly 15s. 4d. in form aforsaid; and every licence to persons under such degrees, shall be upon condition that such person shall pay yearly 6s. 8d. in form aforsaid, 5 El. c. 5. s. 18.

16. No licence shall extend to the eating of beef at any time of the year, nor to the eating of veal from the feast of St. Michael until the 1st May, id. s. 19.

17. All persons, which by reason of sickness shall be enforced to eat flesh, shall be licensed by the bishop, or by the parson of the parish, or of the next parish; which licence shall be signed with the hand of the bishop or parson, and not endure longer than the time of the sickness; and if the sickness shall continue above 8 days, the licence shall be registered in the church-book with the knowledge of one of the church-wardens, and the party licensed shall give to the curate 4d. for the entry; and that licence to endure only for the time of sickness, id. s. 20.

18. If any licence by any parson be granted to any other than such as appear to have need thereof by reason of sickness, not only such licence shall be void, but also such parson shall forfeit 5 marks, id. s. 21.

19. Such persons as heretofore ought to be licensed by reason of age or other cause, by order of the ecclesiastical laws, shall enjoy the same privilege, id. s. 25.

20. All such offences done on the land, or within any haven or pier against this act, all justices of peace in their sessions, and mayors, sheriffs, or bailiffs, and other head officers of cities and towns corporate shall enquire of such offenders by oath of 12 men, or by information, and thereupon determine the same, id. s. 30.

21. If any person shall be presented before such judges or justices, or if any information is given of any offender against this act, they shall make process as upon indictment of trespass; and if such offenders be convicted by confession or otherwise, they shall forfeit as aforsaid, all which forfeitures shall be levied to the uses before expressed, id. s. 51.

22. All such forfeitures as are determinable before the mayors, sheriffs, &c. shall be to the common use of the corporation where such offences are presented, id. s. 52.

23. All such forfeitures as are determinable before the justices of peace, shall be to the use of H. M., id. s. 55.

24. For the levying of such forfeitures, such justices, mayors, &c. may make process in their discretion, id. s. 54.

25. No information or suit of any person under this act shall be of any effect, unless commenced within half a year after offence done; or if for H. M., or for the admiral of the cinque ports, mayors, or other officers, unless it be within one year, id. s. 55.

26. Every person may on every Wednesday hereby ordered to be observed as a fish day, have one dish of flesh, so that they have served at the same table and meal 3 dishes of fish, id. s. 56. [The sections 36—40. REP. 27 El. c. 11. s. 5., but see the note, ante, pl. 9.]

27. Such persons as shall have licence to eat flesh upon any fish-day (except such as for sickness shall be licensed by the bishop or their curates, or shall be licensed by reason of age, or other impediment allowed by the ecclesiastical laws) shall be bound to have for every dish of flesh at their table, one usual dish of sea fish, to be served at the same table and spent, id. s. 37.

28. This article shall be interpreted in favour of expences of sea fish, and the offenders shall be punished in like manner as such as shall eat flesh upon fish days, id. s. 38.

29. "That all persons may know that this act is meant for the support of the navy, and not for superstition in the choice of meat," (id. s. 39.): Whosoever shall, by preaching, teaching, writing, or open speech, notify, that any eating of fish, or forbearing of flesh mentioned in this statute, is of necessity for the saving of the soul, or that it is the service of God, otherwise than as other politic laws are, such persons shall be punished as spreaders of false news, id. ss. 39—40.

30. So much of 5 El. c. 5. as concerns the eating of fish, or restrains the eating of flesh upon any Wednesday, not being before the making of such acts, used as a fish day, and all matters therein contained concerning the same, shall be REP. 27 El. c. 11. s. 3.

31. Sea fish may be sold upon any fish day in the week other than Sundays, in every city, borough, town corporate, or market town, within the realm, id. s. 4.

32. No inn-holder, tavern or alehouse keeper, victualler, or cook, shall utter or put to sale upon Fridays and Saturdays, or any day in Lent, any kind of flesh victuals, except to persons having licences according to 5 El. c. 5. upon pain to forfeit 5l. and suffer 10 days imprisonment, to go one-third to H. M., one-third to the lords of the leet where offence committed, and one-third to the party that will sue for the same by action of debt, &c., or information wherein no essoin, &c., and offences against this act to be enquired of as by 5 El. c. 5. s. 30. directed; saving to the cinque ports and Great Yarmouth, all such liberties as they have touching the fair at Great Yarmouth, id. s. 5.

33. FOR A PUBLIC THANKSGIVING TO ALMIGHTY GOD every year on 5th Nov., 3 J. 1. c. 1. [recital of the gunpowder plot, id. s. 1.]

34. All ministers in every church, or other usual place for common prayer within Eng. and the dominions thereof, shall always upon the 5th of Nov. say morning prayer, and give God thanks; and all persons shall upon that day resort to the parish church or chapel accustomed, or to some usual church or chapel where the service of God shall be used, and there abide during the time of service, 3 J. 1. c. 1. s. 2.

35. Every minister shall give warning to his parishioners at morning prayer, the Sunday before every 5th of Nov. for the due observation of that day; and after morning prayer or preaching upon the 5th of Nov. shall read publicly this act, id. s. 3.

36. FOR PUNISHING DIVERS ABUSES COMMITTED ON Sunday, 1 C. 1. c. 1. [Con. 3 C. 1. c. 3., indefinitely 16 C. 1. c. 4.]

37. There shall be no meetings or concourse of people out of their own parishes on the Lord's-day, for any sports and pastimes, nor any bear-baiting, bull-baiting, interludes, common plays, or other unlawful exercises, used by any within their own parishes, and every person offending, shall forfeit 5s. 4d. to the use of the poor of the parish; and if any justice of peace, or the chief officers of any city, borough, or town corporate, upon view, or by confession, or on proof of one witness by oath, shall find any person offending in the premises, such justice or chief officer shall give warrant under his hand and seal, to the constables and church-wardens of the parish where such offence is committed, to levy the penalty by distress and sale of goods; and in default of distress, that the party offending be set in the stocks 5 hours; and if any man be sued for execution of this law, he may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; provided that no man be impeached by this act, except he be called in question within one month after the offence; provided also that the ecclesiastical jurisdiction shall not be abridged by this act, 1 C. 1. c. 1.

38. FOR THE FURTHER REFORMATION OF SUNDRY ABUSES COMMITTED ON Sunday, 3 C. 1. c. 1.

39. No carrier with any horse, or waggoner with any waggon, or carman with any cart or wain, or drovers with any cattle, shall by themselves or other travel on Sunday, on pain to forfeit 20s., and no butcher by himself, or other with his privy, shall kill or sell any victual on that day, on pain to forfeit 6s. 8d.; and such offences being done in the view of any justice, mayor, or other head officer of any city or town corporate, or being proved on oath of two witnesses, or by confession before such justice, &c. within their respective limits where the offence was committed, all such penalties may be levied by any constable or church-warden by warrant from such justices, &c. by distress and sale of the offender's goods, or shall be recovered by any person that will sue by bill or information in any court of record, in any city or town corporate, before the justices in their general sessions, and such penalties shall go to the use of the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, except that such justice, &c. may reward the informer thereof with any sum not exceeding one-third of the penalty; provided such bill, &c. is commenced in the city or town where the offence was committed, and wherein no essoin, &c. is allowed; provided that any constable or church-warden that has any action brought against him for any such distress, may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, and no person shall be impeached under this act, unless he is questioned within 6 months after the offence committed. This act shall not affect the authority of the courts ecclesiastical, 3 C. 1. c. 1.

40. FOR A PERPETUAL ANNIVERSARY THANKSGIVING ON THE 29th of May, 12 C. 2. c. 14.

41. All ministers in every church, chapel, or other usual place of public prayer within Eng., and the dominions thereof, shall annually celebrate the 29th of May, by rendering thanks to God, for his goodness in restoring H. M. to the throne, and every person within such dominions shall annually resort on that day to some church or chapel, and abide there during such thanksgiving, id. s. 1.

42. Every minister shall give notice to his parishioners, publicly in church at morning prayer, the Sunday next before such 29th of May, for the due observance thereof, and shall then publicly read this act, id. s. 2.

43. EVERY 30th of Jan. UNLESS IT FALLS ON A Sunday, and then the day following, shall be observed in all churches and chapels of Eng., Ire., Wa., and Ber., and the isles of Guernsey and Jersey, and all other H. M.'s dominions, as an anniversary day of fasting and humiliation, 12 C. 2. c. 30.

44. FOR THE BETTER OBSERVATION OF THE LORD'S DAY, commonly called Sunday, 29 C. 2. c. 7. [see ante, 3 C. 1. c. 1. pl. 38.; post, 21 G. 3. c. 49. pl. 51.]

45. All laws in force concerning the observation of the Lord's day shall be put in execution, and all persons shall on the Lord's day exercise themselves in the duties of religion, and no tradesmen, artificers, labourers, or others, shall do any worldly labour of their ordinary callings on that day, (works of necessity and charity excepted,) and all persons 14 years old or upwards offending in the premises, shall forfeit 5s., and no person shall publicly cry or expose to sale any wares, fruits, herbs, goods or chattels on the Lord's day, or any part thereof, upon pain to forfeit the same, every time they are so cried or exposed to sale, 29 C. 2. c. 7. s. 1.

46. No drover, horse-courser, waggoner, butcher, or higher, or their servants, shall travel on such day, upon pain to forfeit 20s. and no person shall use any boat, wherry, lighter, or barge, except on some extraordinary occasion, to be allowed by a justice of the county, or head officer, or some justice of any city, &c. where the fact is committed, upon pain to forfeit 5s.; and if such offenders be convicted before such justice or officer, &c. upon view, by confession, or oath of one witness, such justice, &c. shall give warrant under hand and seal to the constables or churchwardens of the parish, to seize such goods so cried, or put to sale and sell the same, and levy such penalties by distress and sale of the offender's goods; and in default of distress and inability to pay, the offender shall be set in the stocks for two hours, and all such penalties and forfeitures shall go to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, except that such justice may thereout reward the informer, so as such reward does not exceed the third part of the penalty, id. s. 2.

47. This act shall not prohibit the dressing of meat in families, or the dressing or selling meat in inns, cook's-shops, or victualling houses, for such as otherwise cannot be provided, nor to the crying or selling of milk before 9 in the morning, or after 4 in the afternoon, id. s. 3.

48. No person shall be prosecuted for any offence hereinbefore mentioned unless the same is commenced within 10 days after the fact done, id. s. 4.

49. Provided that if any person travelling on the Lord's day shall happen to be robbed, no hundred shall be charged for such robbery, but the person robbed shall be barred from his action therefore, but the hundred shall nevertheless (on notice of the robbery given, or hue and cry for the same brought) make fresh suit after the offenders, according to 27 El. c. 13. upon pain to forfeit to H. M. as much money as the party robbed might have recovered if this act had not been made, id. s. 5.

50. No person on the Lord's day shall serve or execute any writ, process, warrant, order, judgment, or decree, (except in cases of treason, felony, or breach of the peace,) but such service shall be void, and the person so serving or executing the same, shall be liable to the party grieved for damages, as if he had done the same without writ, &c. id. s. 6.

51. FOR PREVENTING CERTAIN ABUSES AND PROFANATIONS ON THE LORD'S DAY, called Sunday, 21 G. 3. c. 49. [see ante, 3 C. 1. c. 1. pl. 38. 25 C. 2. c. 7. pl. 44.]

52. Any house, room, or other place, opened or used for public entertainment, or for public debating on any subject, on any part of Sunday, and to which persons shall be admitted by payment of money or by tickets sold for money, shall be deemed a disorderly house or place, and the keeper thereof shall forfeit 200l. for every day that such house, room, or place, shall be opened or used, as aforesaid, on the Lord's day, to such person as will sue for the same, and shall be otherwise punishable as in cases of disorderly houses; and the person managing such place of public entertainment, or acting as master of the ceremonies, chairman, or president of any such meeting for public debate on the Lord's day, shall forfeit 100l. to whoever will sue, and every door-keeper, servant, or other person who shall collect, or receive money, or tickets from persons assembling at such house, &c. or who shall deliver out tickets for admitting persons on the Lord's day, shall also forfeit 50l. to whoever will sue, id. s. 1.

53. Any person who shall appear, act, or behave as master, mistress, or person having the management of any such house, &c. (as in last pl.) shall be deemed the keeper thereof, and shall be liable to be prosecuted and punished as such, though not the real owner, and wherever such house, &c. shall be kept by divers persons, as partners or joint owners, each of them shall be deemed to be, and be punished as the keeper thereof, and any house, &c. at which persons shall be supplied with tea, coffee, or other refreshments of eating and drinking, on the Lord's day, at greater prices than those usually charged on other days at such house, &c. or at any coffee houses or other houses where the same are usually sold, shall be deemed a house, &c. to which persons are admitted by payment of money, though not there taken in the name of or for admittance, or at the time when such persons enter into or depart from such house, &c.; and any house, &c. opened for public entertainment or debate on the Lord's day, at the expence of any number of subscribers or contributors to carrying on the same, and to which persons shall be admitted by tickets, to which such subscribers are entitled, shall be deemed a house, &c. to which persons are admitted by payment of money, within this act, id. s. 2.

54. Every person advertising, or causing to be advertised, any public entertainment or meeting for debating on any subject on the Lord's day, to which persons are to be admitted by payment of money, or by tickets sold for money, and every person printing or publishing the same, shall respectively forfeit 50l. for every such offence to any person who will sue for the same, id. s. 3.

55. Any person entitled to any such forfeiture may sue for same by made in the 21st year of the reign of H. M. king George the third, intitled, an act for," (&c. as above, pl. 51.) and the plaintiff, if he recovers, shall have full costs, 21 G. 3. c. 49. s. 4.

56. No action shall be brought for either of such penalties, unless within 6 calendar months after offence committed, id. s. 5.

57. In actions for any thing done in pursuance of this act, the defendant may plead the general issue; and if a verdict pass against the plaintiff, or if he discontinue, is nonsuited, or has judgment against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 6.

58. The ecclesiastical jurisdiction within this realm shall not be hereby altered or abridged, but such courts may punish such offences as before this act, id. s. 7.

59. Nothing herein shall alter any of the liberties to which protestant subjects, being dissenters, are by 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 18. entitled, id. s. 8.

HOMICIDE.

(STATUTE repealed.)

1. MURDER BY POISONING IS HIGH TREASON, TO BE PUNISHED by boiling to death, 22 H. 8. c. 9. s. 1., and justices of peace in their sessions may inquire of such murders, id. s. 2. [but see rest of this section, tit. COIN, pl. 36], and the offender's lands escheat to the lord of the fee, as in felony, id. s. 3. [REPE. by general words of 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 2. repealing all treasons previous to 25 E. 3., with the exception (in s. 8.) of the treason of counterfeiting coin.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. Nothing shall be given for a writ of inquisition by him that prayeth inquisition of life or member, but it shall be granted freely, see 9 H. 3. (M. C.) c. 26.

2. The writ de odio et atia, (see note to pl. 6.) as provided by 9 H. 3. c. 26. (M. C.), 3 E. 1. c. 11., 6 E. 1. c. 9., and 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 29., is taken away by 28 E. 3. c. 9., but seems revived by 42 E. 3. c. 1., which repeals any statute made against the Magna Charta and Carta de Foresta, [see 2 Inst. 55. 43. & 315.]

3. Inquests of murder taken by the sheriff, and by H. M.'s writ of odio et atia, shall be taken by lawful men chosen by oath, (2 being knights,) who, by no affinity with the prisoners, or otherwise, are to be suspected, 3 E. 1. c. 11.

4. OF HOMICIDE IN SELF-DEFENCE OR MISFORTUNE, 6 E. 1. c. 9. [See rest of this statute, APPEAL, pl. 3.]

5. No writ shall be granted out of chancery [de odio et atia, see 3 E. 1. c. 11.] for the death of a man to enquire whether a man did kill another by misfortune, or in his own defence, or otherwise without felony, but he shall be imprisoned till the coming of the justices of gaol delivery, and shall put himself upon his country for good and evil; and if found by them as above, the justices shall inform H. M. thereof, who shall take him to his grace if it please him, 6 E. 1. c. 9.

6. NO COMMISSIONS OR GENERAL WRITS SHALL BE GRANTED to sheriffs to gain of, indict, or take ransom of people to their own use, and deliver them without being brought before H. M.'s justices for their deliverance, 28 E. 3. c. 9. [This statute thus repeals the writ de odio et atia issued to the sheriff to inquire whether the person charged with murder was committed on just suspicion, or propter odium et atiam only, 2 Bla. Comm. 128, 129., but Lord Coke considers it revived by 42 E. 3. c. 1., which repeals all acts against the great charter. See 2 Inst. 55. 43. 315.]

7. MURDRUM [MURDER: this word is declared by the learned Barington in his observations on the statutes, 70, 71. 4th Edit. to be here used for the fine imposed on the township, where, as Bracton expresses it, "occulta hominum occisio interveniat," Bracton, lib. 3. c. 15. Reeve's Hist. E. Law, cap. 28. acc.; but Lord Coke considers it as here referring to the crime itself, 2 Inst. 148, 149.] from henceforth shall not be adjudged before one justice, where it is found misfortune only, but shall take place in such as are slain by felony only, 52 (or 54) H. 3. c. 25.

8. EVERY LAY PERSON WHO SHALL HEREAFTER PREPENSEDLY murder their lord, master or sovereign immediate, shall not be admitted to their clergy, and shall be executed, 12 H. 7. c. 7. s. 2.

9. WHERE A MAN KILLING A THIEF SHALL NOT FORFEIT HIS GOODS, 24 H. 8. c. 5.

10. Any person indicted for the death of any evil disposed person attempting to murder, rob, or burglariously to break a mansion-house, and the same is by verdict so found, shall not forfeit any lands, tenements, goods, or chattels, for the death of such person in such manner slain by him, but shall be thereof fully discharged, id. ibid.

11. IF ANY MAN BE SLAIN IN THE DAY AND THE FELON is not taken, the township shall be amerced for the escape, and justices of peace shall enquire of such escapes, and certify them into K.B.; so if any be wounded in peril of death, the offender shall be arrested and put in surety till it be perfectly known whether the party live or die, and murderers indicted at H. M.'s suit, may be tried within the year after the murder, without waiting for appeal taken for the same, [which is now REP. 59 G. 3. c. 46. s. 1.] 31 H. 7. c. 1. s. 3. [See rest of this statute, CORONER, pl. 18—18.]

12. TO MAKE SOME OFFENCES PETTY TREASON, 12 H. 7. c. 7.

13. Any lay person who shall prepensedly murder his lord, master, or sovereign immediate, shall not hereafter be admitted to clergy, and after conviction or attainer by due course of law, shall be put in execution as though he were no clerk, id. s. 2.

14. TO PROCEED BY COMMISSION OF OYER AND TERMINER against such persons as shall confess [treason] and murder, &c. without remanding the same to be tried in the shire where the offence was committed, 33 H. 8. c. 23. [EXT. &c. 43 G. 3. c. 113. s. 6. REP. as to treason by 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 10. s. 7.]

15. If any person, being examined by H. M.'s council or 3 of them, be vehemently suspected of [treason, misprision of treason, REP. as above,] murder, H. M.'s commission of oyer and terminer, under his great seal shall, by his command, be made by the lord chancellor to such persons, and into such shires as H. M. shall appoint, which murders shall be tried by lawful men returned by the sheriff, and no challenge shall be allowed for the shire or hundred, 33 H. 8. c. 23. s. 1.

16. On trial of such [treasons] murders, the challenge to any juror for want of freehold of 40s. yearly value shall be allowed, id. s. 2.

17. Peers indicted of the above offences shall have trial by their peers, id. s. 3.

18. All the powers of 33 H. 8. c. 23. respecting the offence of murder, are extended to the offence of procuring, directing, counselling, commanding, or otherwise becoming accessory before the fact to any murder; and in case any offender shall, in pursuance of either act be indicted for murder, and it appears that the person so indicted and tried is guilty of manslaughter and of no greater offence, the jury may find accordingly, or in case of difficulty, a special verdict on which there shall be the like judgment and execution, as if the offence had been committed within the body of any county in this realm, and as if such trial had been had and a verdict found on an indictment for murder found and tried at common law by a jury of the county within which the offence was committed, 43 G. 3. c. 113. s. 6. [Nothing in this act extends to Ire., id. s. 7.]

19. JUSTICES OF THE PEACE MAY ENQUIRE AS WELL of all murderers by poisoning, as of counterfeiting of coin of any outward realm, suffered to rim in this realm, and make process by capias only, and the justices of assize in Eng. may hear and determine in their sessions, as well such treasons done by way of poisoning, as of counterfeiting of such coin, 22 H. 8. c. 9. s. 2. [All treasons created since 25 E. 3. REP. with an exception (in s. 8.) as to any statutes concerning the counterfeiting of coin, by 4 E. 6. c. 12. s. 2.]

20. WILFUL KILLING BY POISONING IS WILFUL MURDER of malice prepensed, and the offenders, their aiders and counsellors, shall suffer death accordingly, 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 13.

21. TO TAKE AWAY THE BENEFIT OF CLERGY FOR SOME KIND of manslaughter, 1 J. 1. c. 8. and recital in s. 1.

22. Every person who shall stab or thrust any person that hath not then any weapon drawn, or that hath not then first stricken the party which shall so stab or thrust, so as the person stabbed or thrust shall thereof die within 6 months, though it cannot be proved that the same was done of malice forethought, yet the offender shall, on conviction, lose his clergy, and suffer death as in case of wilful murder, id. s. 2.

23. This act shall not extend to any person who shall kill any person se defendendo, or by misfortune, or any otherwise than above, nor to any person who in keeping the peace may commit manslaughter, but not on purpose, nor to any person who in correcting his child or servant shall, beside his purpose, chance to commit manslaughter, id. s. 3.

24. FOR TRIAL OF MURDERS, IN CASES WHERE EITHER the stroke or death only happens in that part of G. B. called Eng., 2 G. 2. c. 21.

25. Where any person feloniously stricken or poisoned on the sea or elsewhere out of Eng., shall die therein, or having been stricken or poisoned in Eng. shall die at sea, or elsewhere out of Eng., an indictment thereof, found by jurors of the county in Eng. in which such death, stroke, or poisoning shall happen respectively, whether found before any coroner on view of such dead body, or before justices of the peace, or other justices having authority to inquire of murders, shall be as effectual, as well against principals as the accessories, as if such stroke or poisoning, death and offence of accessories had happened in the same county; and judges of oyer and terminer, &c. shall proceed thereon, and offenders shall (except challenges for the hundred) have the same defence, trial, and punishment as if such stroke or poisoning, and death, and offence of accessories, had been committed in the same county, where such indictment is found, 2 G. 2. c. 21.

26. FOR BETTER PREVENTING THE HORRID CRIME OF MURDER, 25 G. 2. c. 57

27. All persons found guilty of wilful murder shall be executed according to law, on the day next but one after sentence passed, unless the same shall happen to be Sunday, and then on the Monday following, 25 G. 2. c. 37. s. 1.

28. The body of such murderer shall, if such conviction and execution is in Middlesex, or London, or the liberties thereof, be immediately conveyed by the sheriff or sheriffs, or their deputy and officers, to the hall of the surgeons' company, or such other place as the latter shall appoint, and be delivered to such person as they shall appoint, who shall give the sheriff or his deputy a receipt for the same, and the body so delivered shall be dissected and anatomized by such surgeons, or their appointee; and if such conviction and execution happen in any other county or place in G. B., the judge of assize or other proper judge shall award the sentence to be executed (as in s. 1.), and the body of such murderer shall, in like manner, be delivered by the sheriff or his deputy to such surgeon as the judge shall direct, id. s. 2.

29. Sentence shall be pronounced in open court immediately after conviction, and before proceeding to other business, unless the court see reasonable cause for postponing it; in which sentence shall be expressed not only the usual judgment of death, but also the time for its execution, and the marks of infamy hereby directed for such offenders, id. s. 3.

30. After sentence pronounced, in case there appears reasonable cause, the judge may stay the execution at his discretion, regard being had to the true intent of this act, id. s. 4.

31. The judge may appoint the body of such murderer to be hung in chains, but in no case shall it be buried, unless after it has been dissected, (as in s. 2.), and every judge shall direct the same either to be disposed of for dissection (as in ss. 2—3.), or to be hung in chains, id. s. 5.

32. After conviction and judgment the gaoler shall confine such prisoner to some separate cell, and no person, except such gaoler or his servants, shall have access to him without licence obtained under the hand of the judge before whom he was tried, or of the sheriff or under sheriff, id. s. 6.

33. In case such judge shall see cause to respite the execution, he may, by licence in writing, signed by him, relax any or all of the restraints by s. 6. or s. 8. directed to be observed by the gaoler, id. s. 7.

34. After sentence, and till execution, such offender shall be fed with bread and water only, except in case of receiving the sacrament, of any violent sickness, or wound, in which case some known medical man may be admitted to administer necessaries, (his Christian and surname and abode being first entered in the prison books;) and every gaoler who shall offend against or neglect to execute any of the directions hereof, shall forfeit his office, be fined 20*l.*, and imprisoned till the same is paid, id. s. 8.

35. Every person who shall by force set at liberty, or rescue, or attempt to rescue, &c. any person out of prison, committed for or found guilty of murder, or in going to, or during execution, is guilty of felony, and shall suffer death without clergy, id. s. 9.

36. If any person, after execution had, shall by force rescue or attempt to rescue the body of such offender out of the custody of the sheriff or his officers, during the conveyance of such body to any of the places in ss. 2—3. directed, or from the company of surgeons, or their servants, or from the house of any surgeon where the same is deposited, he shall be deemed guilty of felony, and shall be liable to 7 years' transportation with the like punishment and conviction for returning to G. B. within that time, as other felons, id. s. 10.

37. Nothing herein shall extend to alter so much of 11 G. 1. c. 26. as relates to the suspension of execution of persons convicted of capital offences within Scot. id. s. 11.

38. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL PUNISHMENT OF MURDERS and manslaughters committed in places not within H. M.'s dominions, 57 G. 3. c. 53. [Amo. as in next pl.]

39. TO AMEND 57 G. 3. c. 53. for the more effectual punishment of murders, manslaughters, rapes, robberies, and burglaries, committed in places not within H. M.'s dominions, as relates to the trial of murders, &c. committed in the Honduras, 59 G. 3. c. 44.

40. All murders and manslaughters which shall be committed on land at the settlement of the bay of Honduras by any persons residing there, and all murders and manslaughters committed in the islands of New Zealand and Otaheite, or within any other islands, countries, or places not within H. M.'s dominions, nor subject to any European power or state, nor within the territories of the United States, by the master or crew of any British ship or vessel, or by any person sailing or belonging thereto, or that have sailed or quitted any British ship to live in such islands, &c. shall be sued and punished in any of H. M.'s islands, colonies, &c. forts, or factories, under H. M.'s commission issued or to be issued under 46 G. 3. c. 54. in the same manner as if the offence had been committed on the high seas, 57 G. 3. c. 53. s. 1.

41. All murders, manslaughters, rapes, robberies, and burglaries committed on land at the settlement of the bay of Honduras, may be tried within such settlement, under H. M.'s commission, under the great seal of G. B., to be directed to any 4 or more discreet persons, as the lord chancellor shall from time to time think fit to appoint, in the same manner as is provided with respect to crimes, directed to be determined by 46 G. 3. c. 54. in any of H. M.'s islands, plantations, colonies, dominions, forts, or factories, 59 G. 3. c. 44. s. 1.

42. The commissioners so to be appointed, or any 3 of them, shall have the like powers as any commissioners under 46 G. 3. c. 54., and all persons convicted shall be subject to the same pains, penalties or forfeitures, as they would be subject to, in case the same were tried within any of H. M.'s islands, plantations, colonies, or dominions, by virtue of any commission according to 46 G. 3. and 57 G. 3. c. 53., id. s. 2.

43. But nothing herein contained shall repeal the provisions of 33 H. 8. c. 23. (ante, pl. 14.) 57 G. 3. c. 53. s. 2., and 59 G. 3. c. 44. s. 3.

HOPS.

(STATUTE repealed.)

TO PREVENT FRAUDS IN THE BUYING AND SELLING OF HOPS. 14 G. 3. c. 68. [R&P. 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 81. s. 1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR AVOIDING OF DECEITFUL SELLING, BUYING OR SPENDING corrupt and unwholesome hops, 1 J. 1. c. 18. and recital, in s. 1. [Con. 3 C. 1. c. 4. and indefinitely by 16 C. 1. c. 4.]

2. If any foreigner, stranger, native Englishman, denizen, merchant, or any other person, do bring or cause to be brought into England out of any foreign realm any hops, being deceitfully or corruptly unclean, corrupt or mixed with any powder, dust, dross, sand, or any other soil, such person shall forfeit the same, 1 J. 1. c. 18. s. 2.

3. If any brewer of beer or ale, or other person, shall buy the same hops so brought from beyond sea, or growing within this realm, and shall employ the same in the making of beer or ale to be sold, being unclean, corrupt, or so mixed, he shall forfeit the value thereof, to go in moieties to H. M. and the party suing by information or action of debt in any court of record, wherein no essoin, &c. id. s. 3.

4. TO PREVENT THE MALICIOUS CUTTING OF HOP-BINDS, 6 G. 2. c. 37. s. 6. [Public clause, s. 8. Con. 10 G. 2. c. 32. s. 3., 17 G. 2. c. 40. s. 5., 24 G. 2. c. 57. s. 4., MADE PERP. 31 G. 2. c. 12. s. 6.]

5. If any person shall unlawfully and maliciously cut any hop-binds growing on poles, in any plantation of hops, he shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of felony, and suffer death without clergy, 6 G. 2. c. 37. s. 6.

6. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PREVENTING THE clandestine importation of foreign hops into G. B. and Ire. and to prevent the adulterating or sophisticating of hops to alter the colour or scent thereof, 7 G. 2. c. 19.

7. If any foreign hops be landed out of any ship in G. B. before entry made at the custom house at the port of importation, and before the duties be paid, or without a warrant signed by the proper officer, or if any foreign hops other than of British growth shall be landed in Ire., the same shall be forfeited and burnt within 10 days after lawfully condemned, and also the vessel importing them; and the persons concerned in the importing, or who shall aid in the landing thereof, shall forfeit 5*l.* for every pound weight thereof, and so in proportion, id. s. 1.

8. Every person in G. B. or Ire. who shall mix with or put into any quantity of hops any drug, ingredient or other thing to alter the colour or scent thereof, shall, on conviction, by oath of one witness before one justice for the county where the offence was committed, forfeit 5*l.* per cent. thereof, id. s. 2.

9. Fines and penalties hereby imposed, and not particularly provided for, may be sued for, recovered, levied and mitigated in G. B. or Ire. as other fines, &c. may be by any law in force (see 9 J. 1. c. 12.) in relation to hops, to go in moieties to H. M. and the informer, id. s. 3.

10. TO REPEAL 14 G. 3. c. 68., and for the better collection of the duty on hops, and to prevent frauds and abuses in the trade of hops, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 81. [Amo. as to the marking bags and pockets of hops, 48 G. 3. c. 134., further Amo. 54 G. 3. c. 123.]

11. Every owner, planter or grower of hops, before he begins to put any hops into any bag or pocket, shall mark on the outside of every such bag in letters of 4 inches in length and half an inch in breadth, and on the outside of every such pocket in letters of 3 inches in length and half an inch in breadth, 54 G. 3. c. 123. s. 1. with durable ink or paint, his name [and place of abode, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 81. s. 4. [the parish and county in which such hops were grown, 54 G. 3. c. 123. s. 1.] and if any owner, &c. shall put any hops into any bags or pockets without being so marked for shall at any time before or after such hops have been packed mark thereon the name of any other person, parish or county than as before directed, or the symbol appertaining to or due thing denoting the symbol of any other county or place, 54 G. 3. c. 125. s. 1.] every such owner, &c. shall forfeit 20*l*. [for each bag or pocket, to be recovered and applied as by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 81. s. 11, pl. 23. directed, 54 G. 3. c. 123. s. 1.], 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 81. s. 2., 54 G. 3. c. 123. s. 1.

12. If any owner, &c. shall knowingly put or suffer to be put any hops of different qualities and value in the same bag or pocket, he shall forfeit 20*l*. for each bag or pocket, to be recovered and applied as aforesaid, 54 G. 3. c. 123. s. 2.

13. In addition to the particulars by law required to be marked on the outside of every bag or pocket of hops, there shall be marked by the owner, &c. of hops in the form by those before mentioned particulars required, the name of the parish and county in which the hops put into any such bags or pockets shall be grown, and if any owner, &c. shall put any hops into any such bags, &c. before the same are so marked, he shall forfeit 20*l*., 48 G. 3. c. 134. s. 1.

14. If any person shall counterfeit or wilfully remove, alter, erase or obliterate, or cause it to be done, any mark by this or any other act required to be put on any bags or pockets of hops, he shall forfeit 20*l*., id. s. 2. [See 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 81. s. 4. post, pl. 16.]

15. No owner, &c. of hops shall buy any hops in any bag the weight of which shall be greater in proportion to the gross weight of such bags, and the hops contained therein, than 10*lbs*. for every 112*lbs*. of such gross weight, on pain in case of default herein to forfeit 20*l*., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 81. s. 3.

16. When the excise officer has weighed and taken account of any hops in order to charge the duty, he shall mark in large figures with ink or paint on the outside of the bag or pocket the gross weight thereof, and the year when the hops were grown, and also the progressive number of such bag, &c. according to the number of bags or pockets weighed and charged to each owner, &c. during the then current hop season, such number to be taken progressively, beginning 1, 2, and so onwards, according to the number charged to each owner, &c.; and if any person shall counterfeit or alter, or cause to be counterfeited, &c. any matter hereinbefore directed to be marked, and so marked by any such owner, &c. or by any such officer, he shall forfeit 100*l*.; and if any person shall wilfully deface or obliterate any such matters, or cause it to be done, or shall connive at it, he shall forfeit 20*l*., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 81. s. 4.

17. No owner, &c. of hops growing or to grow in G. B. shall suffer them to be removed or conveyed from the oast, storehouse or place where weighed for the purpose of charging the duty before the expiration of 12 hours after they have been so weighed, unless the same shall sooner have been re-weighed by the supervisor of excise, and if, on such reweighing, any additional weight is found, such hops shall be chargeable with duty for the last weight; and if any such owner, &c. shall remove, or suffer to be removed, any such hops contrary to this act, he shall forfeit 50*l*., id. s. 5.

18. No planter or owner of hops in G. B. shall be obliged to give more than 24 hours' notice of his intention to weigh, provided the time to be specified in the notice for weighing shall be between 4 in the morning and 5 in the evening, id. s. 6.

19. No officer of excise inferior to a supervisor shall weigh any hops at any oast, &c. as in s. 5. of any owner, &c. between 5 in the evening and 4 in the morning, and if any such owner, &c. permit any such inferior officer to weigh any hops between those hours he shall forfeit 20*l*., id. s. 7.

20. Every owner, &c. as in s. 1. of hops growing or to grow in G. B. shall have scales and weights at his oast, &c. where such hops have been so weighed, and shall permit the supervisor to use them in reweighing such hops, and every owner who shall neglect to keep such scales, &c. or who will not permit such supervisor to use them, shall forfeit 30*l*., and every owner, &c. who shall provide or make use of any false or unjust scales or weights, or shall practise any device whereby such supervisor is hindered from taking the just weight of such hops shall forfeit 100*l*., together with the false or unjust scales and weights which may be seized by any supervisor or officer of excise, id. s. 8.

21. Every such owner, &c. in G. B. shall, when required by the supervisor, cause to be brought and put into and taken out of the scale all hops which such supervisor shall wish to be reweighed, and by himself and servants assist in reweighing of all such hops on pain, in case of neglect, to forfeit 50*l*., id. s. 9.

22. Every person who shall oppose, assault, molest or hinder any officer of excise in the due execution of this act, shall forfeit 100*l*., id. s. 10.

23. All fines and penalties by this act imposed shall be sued for, recovered, levied and mitigated in like manner as any other penalties under the excise laws may be, or by action of debt, &c. or information in the courts of record at Westminster, or in the court of exchequer in Scotland, and shall go one moiety to H. M. and the other to the party informing, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 81. s. 11., 48 G. 3. c. 134. s. 3.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. SHERIFFS SHALL MAKE PURVEYANCE FOR THE KING'S great horses; and commissions before granted to the keepers of such horses revoked, 10 E. 3. S. 2. c. 2. [Purveyance abolished, 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 12.]

2. CERTAIN PERSONS APPOINTED TO HEAR AND DETERMINE offences committed by the keepers of the king's horses, 10 E. 3. S. 2. c. 3. Exp.

3. THE KEEPING OF HORSES FOR THE KING shall be as by 14 E. 3. S. 1. c. 19. [see PURVEYANCE] directed, 36 G. 3. c. 5.

4. AGAINST CONVEYANCE OF HORSES out of this realm, 22 H. 8. c. 7. [Con. 28 H. 8. c. 6., 31 H. 8. c. 7., 37 H. 8. c. 23., 7 E. 6. c. 11. all Exp.]

5. NO ENGLISHMEN SHALL BELL OR EXCHANGE OR DELIVER to be conveyed into Scot. any horse, mare or gelding without the king's licence, 23 H. 8. c. 16. [Am. 32 H. 8. c. 6. Rep. by the general words of 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 4., 1 M. S. 1. c. 1. s. 5., but Rev. 1 E. c. 7. and the 23 H. 8., and 1 E. expressly, and the 32 H. 8. virtually Rep. 4 J. 1. c. 1. s. 6.]

6. CONCERNING KEEPING OF GREAT HORSES, 33 H. 8. c. 5. [Rep. 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11.]

1. PERSONS TAKING HORSES FOR THE KING without having the badge or authority of the king shall be imprisoned till he hath made satisfaction to the party, 20 R. 2. c. 5. [but see purveyance abolished, 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 12. PURVEYANCE.]

2. AGAINST TRANSPORTING HORSES AND MARES beyond the seas, 11 H. 7. c. 15. [Am. 1 E. 6. c. 5. which is Rep. as to s. 6. by 5 E. c. 19. and both acts Rep. as to Scot. by 5 & 6 A. c. 8. Art. 18.] [These acts were considered virtually repealed by the different acts that imposed a duty on the exportation of horses, which was first done by 22 C. 2. c. 13. s. 8., and last by 49 G. 3. c. 98. sched. A., but both these acts have been Rep. by 59 G. 3. c. 52., and there is now no duty on horses exported. QU. therefore are these acts in force.]

3. No person shall convey any horse out of this land, or any mare above the value of 6*s*. 8*d*. without H. M.'s licence, upon pain to forfeit the same, the owner of such mare receiving 6*s*. 8*d*. or else it be not forfeit, and at the time of seizure of such mares, they shall be prized by the head officer of the town, and sold, and the half deal of the price of above 6*s*. 8*d*. shall be to H. M., and the other to him that seizeth, and no person shall carry out of this land any mare under three years old, and not over the price of 6*s*. 8*d*. paying to H. M. the usual custom, and for all mares by H. M.'s licence conveyed beyond sea, the owner shall pay 6*s*. 8*d*. for custom before she be shipped, 11 H. 7. c. 13. s. 1. [See 1 E. 6. c. 5. s. 9. post, pl. 15.]

4. If any person will give for any of the mares so to be carried, 7*s*. he may take such mare, if she be not before taken by H. M.'s officer, nor H. M.'s licence be not in that behalf obtained, id. s. 2.

5. Every denizen may carry a horse beyond sea without licence, not intending to sell him, and that intent to be known by oath before the customer of the port, id. s. 3.

6. No person shall sell, exchange, give, or convey into Scotland, to the use of any Scottish man, or carry, give, &c. beyond the sea out of this realm, or the dominions of the same, any horse, gelding, or mare, without H. M.'s special licence under the great seal, or privy signet, or sell, deliver, &c. to any Scottish man within Eng. to be conveyed into Scotland, any horse, &c. or convey or carry away any horse, &c. into foreign parts beyond the sea without the like licence, on pain to forfeit to H. M. the same horse, &c. and 40*l*. for each horse, &c. one moiety to H. M. and the other to the party suing, by information, or action of debt, or detinue, in any court of record, wherein no essoin, &c. and likewise on pain to be imprisoned for one year, 1 E. 6. c. 5. s. 1. (but see note to pl. 2.)

7. The wardens of the east, west, and middle marches in their courts, and also the justices of peace in every shire in Eng. or Wa., in their quarter-sessions, may inquire of offences done contrary to this act, and every person may arrest a Scottish man, and all other persons which shall convey any such horse, &c. into Scotland, or any place beyond sea without such licence, id. s. 2. [Rep. 5 & 6 A. c. 8. Art. 18.; see pl. 2.]

8. If H. M. do grant such licences as in s. 1. to carry and convey any horses, &c. into Scotland, or beyond sea, or give authority to any person to grant such licences, then persons having such licence from H. M. or from such other person under his seal, may carry and convey any number of horses, &c. into Scotland, or beyond sea, as is mentioned in such licence, id. s. 3.

9. This act shall not extend to horses, &c. carried beyond the sea, or into Scotland, to serve H. M. in his wars, id. s. 4.

10. Persons so licensed to convey horses, &c. into Scotland, before such conveyance, on pain to forfeit such horse, &c. or the double value thereof, (to go in moieties to H. M. and the party suing), shall show his licence to one of such wardens as in s. 2. who shall calendar the number of horses, &c. in a book, and indorse such licence with his hand, 1 E. 6. c. 5. s. 5.

11. The warden of the five ports may yearly give 6 horses or geldings, upon like pain, to any person beyond sea in amity with H. M., id. s. 7.

12. This act shall not be prejudicial to the master of H. M.'s horses, for such things as concern his office, id. s. 8.

13. Any mares may be carried beyond sea, whereof the price does not exceed 10s. in such like manner as mares of the price of 6s. 8d. (see 11 H. 7. c. 13. s. 1. ante, pl. 3.) might be before this act, id. s. 9.

14. CONCERNING THE BREED OF HORSES, 27 H. 8. c. 6. and recital in s. 1. [AND. 32 H. 8. c. 13. and recital in s. 1. which is R.P. as to so much as concerns the counties herein mentioned, and new provisions made in respect thereof, 8 EL. c. 8. and recital in s. 1. and 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 12.]

15. Every person which shall have any park or ground inclosed, wherein deer is usually kept for game, containing one mile in compass, and shall be seised thereof in fee-simple or tail, or for term of life in possession to his own profit, every owner of such park, being in his own hand, and every farmer of such park being let to farm, shall keep for every such park or ground inclosed, as long as the same shall be used with deer for game, 2 mares apt to bear foals each of the height of 15 handfuls at least, to be measured from the lowest part of the hoof unto the highest part of the shoulder, every handful to contain 4 inches, upon pain of forfeiture of 40s. for every month lacking such mares; and every such owner or farmer of park, whereof the compass is four miles and above (upon like pain) shall keep 4 mares apt to bear foals, of the height of 13 handfuls, 27 H. 8. c. 6. s. 2.

16. If any of such mares chance to die, the owner (providing others of like height within 3 months after) shall not incur the penalty, id. s. 3.

17. The lords, owners, and farmers of parks and grounds inclosed, appointed to keep mares, shall not willingly suffer any of such mares to be leapt with any horse under the stature of 14 handfuls, upon pain of 40s. the one moiety of all such penalties to H. M. and the other to the party that will sue for the same by information, action, or otherwise, wherein no essoin, &c. id. s. 4.

18. Provided that this act extend not to charge the owners of any park within the counties of Westmorland, Cumberland, Northumberland, and the bishopric of Durham, to keep mares for any parks lying in such counties; nor to charge the owners of parks with the finding of mares, the herbage of which park is common to the tenants and inhabitants of the townships adjoining, id. s. 5.

19. Spiritual persons chargeable by this act may sell the breed of their mares, id. s. 6.

20. No commoner within any forest, chase, moor, marsh, heath, common, or waste ground, nor any officer within any such forests or chases, or any other person, shall have or put to pasture in any such ground, any stoned horse above the age of 2 years, and not of the height of 15 handfuls from the lowest part of the hoof of the forefoot, unto the highest part of the wither, every handful to contain 4 inches, to pasture in such forests, &c. within the shires of Norfolk, Suffolk, Cambridge, Buckingham, Huntingdon, Essex, Kent, Hants, North Wilts, Oxford, Berks, Worcester, Gloucester, Somerset, North Wales, South Wales, Bedford, Warwick, Northampton, York, Chester, Stafford, the city of York, the town of Gloucester, the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, the counties of Lancaster, Salop, Leicester, Hereford, and Lincoln; nor shall put to feed any stoned horse above the age of 2 years, and not of the height of 14 handfuls, on any like ground within any other shire; upon pain of forfeiture of the horses which shall be found in any such ground, 32 H. 8. c. 13. s. 2. [see ante, pl. 17.]

21. So much of 32 H. 8. c. 13. as concerns any of the marches or fens within the Isle of Ely, and the shires of Cambridge, Huntingdon, Northampton, Lincoln, Norfolk, and Suffolk, [and Cornwall, 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 12.] shall be R.P., 8 EL. c. 8. s. 2., 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 12.

22. No person shall have or put to pasture upon any marsh or fen within such isle or counties, (Cornwall excepted), any stoned horse, being above 2 years old, and not of the height of 13 hands, to be measured as in 32 H. 8. c. 13. s. 2. pl. 20. directed, upon the like pain as by the said act is limited, 8 EL. c. 8. s. 3.

23. Every person that shall find any such horse may seize the same as follows, viz. he shall first go unto the keeper of the forest, &c. or to the constable, bailiff, headborough, bursholder, or tithingman, of any township next adjoining, and shall require them in the H. M.'s behalf, to go with him to bring such horses as he shall think to be there feeding contrary to this statute, to the next pound, and there the horses to be measured by any of the same officers, in the presence of 3 other honest men to be named by the officer; and if the horses be contrary to this act, such person that shall so seize such horses may take and retain the same to his own use, 32 H. 3. c. 13. s. 3.

24. If any keepers, bailiffs, constables, &c. or any of such 3 honest men which shall be required to be at the measuring, refuse to do as aforesaid, or do not truly measure such horses, every such bailiff, &c. shall forfeit 40s. the one half to H. M., and the other to the party that will sue by action of debt on information or otherwise, in which no essoin, &c., 32 H. 8. c. 13. s. 4.

25. This act shall not extend to any stoned horse that shall happen once in any year to break out of any several pasture, against the will of the owner, into any of such forests, &c. so that such horse do not abide in such forests, &c. 4 days after notice given at the dwelling-house of the owner, or after publication thereof upon a Sunday or festival in the parish church where the owner doth dwell, id. s. 5.

26. All forests, &c. shall be driven at the feast of St. Michael, or within 15 days after yearly by the lords, owners or possessors, or by the officers of the same, and by the constables, headboroughs, bailiff, bursholders, and tithingmen, within whose precepts the commons, &c. being out of forests and chases, lie; upon pain of 40s. to be forfeited to H. M. by every of such officers, bailiffs, constables, &c. and the lords, owners and possessors of such forests and chases, by their officers, and the constables, &c. within the limits of their offices, may make like drifts of such forests, chases, commons, &c. at any other season, as often as they shall think meet, id. s. 6.

27. If in any of such drifts there shall be found any mare, filly, foal, or gelding, that shall be thought not able, nor like to grow to be able, to bear foals of reasonable stature, or to do profitable labours by the discretions of such drivers, or of the more number of them, such drivers shall cause the same unprofitable beasts to be killed; and the bodies to be buried or otherwise bestowed, id. s. 7.

28. The justices of peace in their quarter sessions, and all stewards of leets, shall inquire of all defaults contrary to the effects above written; and all presentments thereof in such leets shall be certified by the steward in the next general sessions of the peace, or unto the custos rotulorum of the shire, within 40 days after that presentment made; which justices in their quarter sessions shall hear and determine every such presentment before themselves found, or in any of such leets so to be certified, as well by examination as otherwise; and if any such stewards imbezzle or conceal any such presentment, or do not certify the same, they shall forfeit 40s. the one half of every the forfeitures above written to be to H. M., and the other to the person that will sue for the same before the justices of peace in their quarter sessions by bill or information, which justices shall hear and determine every such offence, as well by examination as otherwise, id. s. 8.

29. No person shall have or put to pasture any horse, gelding, or mare, infect with scab or mange, upon any of such forests, chases, moors, &c. upon pain to forfeit for every horse, &c. 10s. which offence shall be inquirable and presentable before the steward in every leet, as other common annoyances be; and the forfeiture to be to the lord of the leet, id. s. 9.

30. This act shall not extend to any persons having stoned horses under the heights above-mentioned, for putting any of such horses to feeding in any commons where mares or fillies be not suffered to be kept, id. s. 10.

31. THAT NO MAN STEALING HORSE OR HORSES SHALL ENJOY the benefit of his clergy, 37 H. 8. c. 8. s. 2., 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 10., 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 33. [see accessaries before and after the fact deprived of benefit of clergy, 31 EL. c. 12. s. 5., post, pl. 15.]

32. Every person who shall steal any horse, gelding, mare, foal or filly, [any horses, geldings or mares, 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 10.] and shall be thereof found guilty by verdict, or by confession, and is attainted or otherwise indicted thereof, and on arraignment shall stand mute, [or challenge peremptorily above 20, 37 H. 8. c. 8. s. 2.] or will not answer directly to the indictment, shall not have the benefit of clergy, and shall suffer death, 37 H. 8. c. 8. s. 2., 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 10. [see s. 1. of 37 H. 8. c. 8. INDICTMENT; and as to standing mute, 12 G. 3. c. 20. FELONY, pl. 82—84.]

33. Recital of 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 10. and the doubt whether persons convicted of stealing one horse, &c. were deprived of clergy by that act, and for clearing up doubt, all persons feloniously stealing any horse, gelding or mare, shall not be admitted to clergy, but shall be put from the same in like manner as if they had been indicted for felonious stealing of two horses, &c. and thereupon had been found guilty by verdict of 12 men, or confession, or wilfully standing mute, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 33. [NOTE. The enactment of 37 H. 8. c. 8. s. 2. seems here to have been overlooked, for that act is in the singular number only, and 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 10. seems to have been intended to amend it by extending it to horses, &c.]

34. AGAINST BUYING OF STOLEN HORSES, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 7. and recital in s. 1. [AND. 31 EL. c. 12.]

35. The owner, governor, farmer, steward, bailiff or chief keeper of every fair and market overt, shall yearly appoint one certain place where horses shall be used to be sold, in which place there shall be by such keeper of the fair or market appointed one or more to take toll and keep the place from ten until sun-set; upon pain to forfeit 40s. and every toll-gatherer shall during the fairs and markets take toll for every such horse, mare, gelding or colt, at such place, betwixt such hours, and not at any other time or place; and shall have before him at the taking of the toll the parties to the bargain and cost of every such horse, &c. and also the horse, &c. sold, &c. and shall then write in a book the names and dwelling-places of all the parties, and the colour, with one mark at least of every such horse, &c. on pain to forfeit 40s., 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 7. s. 2.

36. The toll-gatherer or keeper of the book shall within one day after such fair or market deliver this book to the owner, steward or chief keeper of the fair or market, who shall then cause a note to be made of the number of all horses, &c. sold at such market or fair, and subscribe his name, or set his mark thereunto; upon pain to forfeit 40s. and also to answer the party grieved, id. s. 3.

37. The sale, gift or exchange in any fair or market overt of any horse, &c. stolen, shall not alter the property, unless the same shall be in the fair or market openly ridden, walked, driven or standing one hour at least betwixt ten in the morning and sunset in the place wherein horses are used to be sold, and unless all the parties shall come together and bring the horse to the open place appointed for the toll-taker or book-keeper, and there enter their names and dwelling-places, with the colours and one mark at least of the horses, &c. in the toll-taker's or keeper's book, and also pay him their toll, if they ought to pay any, if not, then the buyer shall give 1d. for the entry in the book, id. s. 4.

38. If any horse, &c. that is stolen, be sold or exchanged in any fair or market, and not used according to this statute, the owner of such horse may seize such horse, or have an action of detinue or replevin for the same, id. s. 5.

39. The one half of all which forfeitures shall go to H. M. and the other to him that will sue for the same before the justices of peace, or in any of the ordinary courts of record, by action of debt, &c. or formation, wherein no essoin, &c., id. s. 6.

40. The justices of peace of every place or county may in their sessions, inquire of, hear and determine all offences against this act, as they may do other matters triable before them, id. s. 7.

41. In every such fair or market, where any toll is due, the keepers of such book shall take 1d. for every contract, for his labours in writing the entry, id. s. 8.

42. No person shall in any fair or market sell, give or exchange any horse, mare, gelding, colt or filly, unless the toll-taker or book-keeper, bailiff or chief officer, will take upon him knowledge of the person that shall offer to sell or exchange any horse, &c., and of his name and place of dwelling, and shall enter the same in a book kept for the sale of horses; or else that he so offering to sell shall bring unto the toll-taker or other officer one credible person, that will testify that he knoweth the party that selleth; and enter in the book as well the name, mystery and place of dwelling of him that selleth as of him that so shall avouch his knowledge of the same person, and shall also cause to be entered the price that he shall have for the horse, &c., and no person shall take upon him to avouch that he knows the party unless he do indeed know the same party, and shall declare to the toll-taker, &c. as well the name, &c. of himself, as of him for whom he maketh such avouchment; and no toll-taker or other person keeping any book of entry of sales of horses shall take any toll, or make entry of any sale, &c., unless he knoweth the party that selleth or the party that shall avouch, and shall make entry in the books of such his knowledge, and the true price that shall be had for any such horse, and then give to the party buying (requiring and paying 2d. for the same) a note of the contents of the same, subscribed with his hand; on pain that every person that shall so sell without being known to the toll-taker, or without bringing such avoucher, causing the same to be entered, and every person making any untrue avouchment, and every toll-taker, book-keeper, or other officer of the fair or market offending in the premises, shall forfeit 5l.; also every sale or exchange of any horse, &c. in fair or market, not used in all points according to the meaning aforesaid, shall be void; the one half of all which forfeitures to be to H. M., and the other to him that will sue for the same before the justices of peace, or in any ordinary courts of record, by action of debt, &c. or information, in which no essoin, &c., shall be allowed, 31 El. c. 12. s. 2.

43. The justices of peace shall have authority in their sessions to inquire, hear and determine all offences against this statute, id. s. 3.

44. If any horse, mare, gelding, colt or filly, shall be stolen, and after shall be sold in open fair or market, and the same sale shall be used in all points as aforesaid, yet the sale of such horse within 6 months after the felony done, shall not take away the property of the owner, so as claim be made within 6 months by the party from whom stolen, his executors or administrators, or by his appointment, in the town or parish where the same horse, &c. shall be found, before the mayor or other head-officer; if the horse, &c. shall be found in any town corporate or market town, or else before any justices of peace of that county near the place where such horse, &c. shall be found, and so as proof be made within forty days by two witnesses, before such head officer or justice, that the property of the horse, &c. was in the party for whom claim is made, and was stolen from him within 6 months before such claim; but the party from whom such horse, &c. was stolen, his executors or administrators, may at all times take again such horse, &c. upon payment to the party that shall have possession of the same horse, &c.; of so much money as the same party shall swear before such head officer or justice of peace that he paid for the same, 31 El. c. 12. s. 4.

45. Not only all accessories before such felony done, but also all accessories after such felony, shall be put from all benefit of clergy, as the principal ought to be, id. s. 5. [see 37 H. 8. c. 8. s. 2., &c. pl. 31.]

46. FOR REGULATING HOUSES AND OTHER PLACES KEPT for the purpose of slaughtering horses, 26 G. 3. c. 71.

47. No person shall keep or use any house or place for the purpose of slaughtering or killing any horse, mare, gelding, colt, filly, ass, mule, bull, cow, ox, heifer, calf, sheep, hog, goat, or other cattle, which shall not be killed for butcher's meat, without first taking out a licence at the quarter sessions for the county, riding, city, town, district, division or liberty, where such slaughter house is situate; and such sessions shall grant such licence upon a certificate, under hand and seal of the minister and churchwardens or overseers, or two substantial householders of the parish, where the applicant for such licence shall dwell, that such person is fit to be trusted with such business; provided, that in case of the death of any person, to whom such licence is granted, the widow or personal representative of such person so dying, may carry on such business to the then next quarter sessions, id. s. 1. [See the penalty, s. 8., post, pl. 54.]

48. Every such licence shall be signed by the justices of such sessions or the major part of them, and a copy thereof shall be entered in a book to be kept by the clerk of the peace for the county; and all persons may at all times (Sundays excepted), between the hours of 10 and 12, search the office of the clerk of the peace, wherein any such copy is entered, and make an extract from the same on payment of 6d.; and all persons so licensed, shall affix over the door of the house, where he carries on such business, his name, and the words "licensed for slaughtering horses, pursuant to an act passed in the 26th year of H. [48. late] M. king George the Third," id. s. 2.

49. Every occupier of such licensed house shall, 6 hours previous to his slaughtering any horse, &c. as in s. 1., and which shall not be killed for butcher's meat; and previous to the flaying of any horse, &c. brought dead to such slaughter house, give notice in writing to a person appointed, as in s. 5., as inspector, that such inspector may take an exact account and description of the height, age, (as near as may be), colour and particular marks of every horse, mare, gelding, foal, filly, ass or mule, and of the colour and marks of every cow, bull, heifer, ox, calf, sheep, hog or goat, or other cattle brought alive or dead for such purposes; and no such horse, &c. shall be killed but between 8 in the morning and 4 in the evening, during Oct., Nov., Dec., Jan., Feb. and Mar.; and between 6 a. m. and 8 p. m. during the rest of the year, id. s. 3. [See the penalty, post, s. 8. pl. 54.]

50. Every person so licensed, shall, at the time any horse, &c., as in s. 1., is brought for the purpose of slaughtering or flaying, make an entry in a book of the name and abode, and profession of the owner, and also of the person who brought the same to be slaughtered or flayed, and the reason why the same was brought to be slaughtered or flayed, which reason the person bringing the same shall declare to such person, so licensed; which book shall at all times be open for the examination of the inspector, to be appointed as in s. 5.; and such licensed person shall attend with, and produce such book before any justice, when required by warrant or order under the hand and seal of such justice, and shall likewise produce the same at every general quarter sessions held for the county, id. s. 4.

51. Such of the parishioners as are intitled to meet in vestry for choosing parish officers, shall, in every parish wherein such slaughtering house shall be situated, annually, or oftener, appoint one or more persons to be inspectors to inspect every such slaughtering house, to whom all occupiers and persons carrying on such business shall, 6 hours previous to his slaughtering or flaying any such horse, &c., as in s. 1., give notice in writing of his intention so to do; and such inspector shall in person, or by his servants, attend at the slaughtering house of the person so giving notice, and there take such account as in s. 3. directed; and such inspector shall keep a book, and therein make an entry of such account; and such person carrying on such business shall for such entry pay to such inspector 6d.; and every person desiring to inspect such book shall have access to the same between the hours in s. 3. mentioned, paying to such inspector for such search, 6d.; and such inspector shall cause to be painted over the door of the house where he resides, his name, and the words, inspector of houses and places for slaughtering horses; and in case such inspector shall, upon examination of any horse, &c. intended to be slaughtered, have reason to believe that such horse, &c. is free from disease, and in a sound and ser-vicious state, or that the same has been stolen, or unlawfully come by, he shall prohibit the slaughtering of such horse, &c. for not exceeding 8 days, and in the mean time shall cause an advertisement to be inserted in the Daily Advertiser, or some public newspaper circulated in the county where such slaughter-house shall be situated, twice or oftener, unless the owner of such horse, &c. shall sooner claim the same, to certify under his hand, or otherwise inform the inspector, that he sent such horse, &c. to be delivered to the person so licensed for the purpose of being slaughtered, the expense of inserting such advertisement, to be paid by the occupiers of such slaughtering-house to such inspector; and in case such occupier shall refuse to pay the same, and shall be thereof convicted on the oath of such inspector before one justice for the county, &c., he shall forfeit double the amount of the charge of such advertisement, to be raised by distress and sale of the goods by warrant under the hand and seal of such justice, and the form of conviction shall be as follows:

'A. B. is convicted, on the oath of C. D. inspector of houses and places for slaughtering horses, for the parish of E. in the county of D., of refusing to pay the sum of — being the expense of an advertisement or advertisements [as the case may be] inserted in the Daily Advertiser, or some other public newspaper circulated in the county [as the case may be], pursuant to the directions of the statute in that case made and provided. Given under my hand and seal this — day of — F. G.' 26 G. 3. c. 71. s. 5.

52. Every inspector may, at all times in the day or night, but if in the night, then in the presence of a constable, enter into and inspect any place kept for slaughtering horses by any person so licensed; and also any stable, building, shed, yard, or place belonging thereto, and then and there examine and see if any horse, &c., as in s. 1., is deposited or brought there, and take an account thereof; and all persons so licensed shall suffer such inspector, at all times in the day and night, but if in the night, then in the presence of a constable, to enter into and inspect such place, and also any stable, &c., and freely to examine and see any horse, &c. then and there being, and to take such account as in s. 3. directed, id. s. 6.

53. In case any person who shall offer to sale, or shall bring any horse, &c. to any person keeping such slaughtering house, to be slaughtered, or being dead, to be flayed, shall not be able, or shall refuse to give a satisfactory account of himself, or of the means by which the same came into his possession; or if there be reason to suspect that such horse, &c., as in s. 1., is stolen or unlawfully obtained, the person keeping such slaughtering house to whom the same shall be brought or offered to sale, and his servants, and also such inspector or his servants, may seize such person, and also every such horse, &c. so brought or offered to sale, and deliver such person into the custody of a constable or peace officer, who shall convey him before a justice for the county, and if such justice shall, upon examination, have cause to suspect that such horse, &c. is stolen or unlawfully obtained, such justice may commit such person into safe custody for not exceeding 6 days, in order to be further examined; and if upon either of the examinations such justice shall be satisfied that such horse, &c. is stolen or illegally obtained, he may commit the person bringing the same to sale, to the common gaol or house of correction, there to be dealt with according to law, id. s. 7.

54. If any person keeping such slaughtering house shall slaughter any horse, &c., as in s. 1., for any other purpose than for butchers' meat, or shall flay any horse, &c. brought dead to such slaughtering house, without taking out such such licence, as in s. 1., or without giving such notice as in s. 3. or shall slaughter or flay the same at any time other than within the hours in s. 3. limited, or shall not delay slaughtering according to the direction of such inspector, as in s. 5., such person shall be guilty of felony, and shall be punished by fine and imprisonment, and such corporal punishment, by public or private whipping, or shall be transported for not exceeding 7 years, as the court shall direct, id. s. 8.

55. If any person keeping such slaughtering house shall throw into any lime pit, or otherwise immerse in lime, or any preparation thereof, or rub therewith, or with any other corrosive matter, or destroy or bury the hide or skin of any horse, &c. by him slaughtered or flayed, or shall be guilty of any offence against this act for which no punishment or penalty is provided, such person shall be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by fine and imprisonment, and such corporal punishment, by public or private whipping, as the court shall direct, id. s. 9.

56. If any person so licensed shall make any false entry in such book, of any matter required by him, to be made in such book, as in s. 4., he being convicted thereof, upon the oath of 2 witnesses, before one justice, shall forfeit not exceeding 20*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, to be levied by distress and sale of the goods of such offender by warrant under the hand and seal of such justice, (the surplus, after deduction of the charges, to be restored,) one moiety thereof to be paid to the informer, and the other to be forthwith paid by such justice to the overseers of the poor, for the use of the poor where the offender shall reside; and in case such offender shall not have effects to the amount of the penalty, such justice, after sale and application as aforesaid of such effects as shall be found, may commit him to the house of correction, there to be confined to hard labour for not exceeding 3 months, nor less than one, 26 G. 3. c. 71. s. 10.

57. A conviction for such offence, in the tenor and effect following, shall be good, id. s. 11.

'Be it remembered, that on this — day of — in the year — A. B., licensed for slaughtering horses, is convicted upon the oaths of C. D. and E. F. two credible witnesses, before me G. H. one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the county of — of having wilfully made [or caused to be made as the case may be], a false entry in the book required by the statute in that case made and provided, to be kept by the said A. B., whereby he [she, or they] has [or have] forfeited the sum of — Given under my hand and seal, the day and year above written.'

58. The book of the inspector shall be produced at every general quarter sessions, and delivered to the justices at such sessions, then and there to be examined by them as they think fit, id. s. 12.

59. If any person shall occasionally lend any house, barn, stable, or other place, for slaughtering any horse, &c. which shall not be killed for butchers' meat, without taking out such licence, and shall be thereof convicted before any justice, upon the oath of two witnesses, he shall forfeit not exceeding 20*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, one moiety thereof to be paid to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence shall be committed; and which last moiety shall, upon payment thereof, be immediately transmitted by the justice to the overseers of such parish; and in case such penalty shall not be forthwith paid, such justice shall commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction for not exceeding 3 calendar months, nor less than one, unless the penalty be sooner paid; and the conviction shall be as follows, or to that effect:

'Be it remembered, that on this — day of — A. B. was convicted, upon the oaths of two credible witnesses, before me C. D., one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the county of — for occasionally lending a house [or place, as the case may be], for the purpose of slaughtering horses [or as the case may be, of slaughtering cattle for other purposes than for butchers' meat], without a licence for that purpose first obtained, according to the statute in that case made and provided. Given under my hand and seal, the day and year above written.'

60. This act shall not extend to any currier, felt-maker, tanner, or dealer in hides, who shall kill any distempered or aged horse, &c. as in s. 1. or purchase any dead horse, &c. for the bonâ fide purpose of selling, using, or curing the hides thereof, in the course of their trades; nor to any farrier employed to kill aged and distempered cattle, nor to any person who shall kill any horse, &c. of their own or other cattle, or purchasing any dead horse, or other cattle, to feed their own hounds or dogs, or giving away the flesh thereof for the like purpose, id. s. 14.

61. If any collar-maker, currier, felt-maker, tanner, or dealer in hides, or farrier, or other person, shall, under colour of their trades, knowingly kill any sound horse, or boil or cure the flesh thereof for the purpose of selling the same, such collar-maker, and other tradesman, shall be deemed to be an offender within this act, and shall, for such offence, forfeit not exceeding 20*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, id. s. 15.

62. Any justice before whom complaint is made for any offence against this act, may summon any person, other than the party complained against, to appear before him, to give evidence; and in case such person shall wilfully refuse or neglect to attend, or give evidence, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, and in default of payment thereof, or in case of inability to pay the same, shall stand committed to the common gaol or house of correction, for not exceeding three calendar months, nor less than one, unless the penalty is sooner paid, id. s. 16.

63. Any inhabitant of the parish where any offence shall be committed, shall be a competent witness, notwithstanding his contributing to any of the rates to such parish; or being a poor person relievable by the parish, and intitled as such to receive any benefit from any penalty to be paid in pursuance of this act, id. s. 17.

64. Persons sued for any thing done under this act may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, and if defendant gets a verdict, or the plaintiff is nonsuited, such defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 18.

HORSE-RACING.

1. TO PREVENT THE EXCESSIVE INCREASE OF HORSE-RACES, 13 G. 2. c. 19. ss. 1—8. and s. 10.; see s. 9. in LOTTERIES, [AMD. 18 G. 2. c. 34. s. 11.]

2. No person soever, shall enter, place, start, or run, any horse, mare, or gelding, for any plate, prize, sum of money, or other thing, unless such horse, &c. shall be bonâ fide his property, on pain of forfeiture of the horse, or the value, to be sued for, &c. (as in s. 6.); nor shall any one person, enter and start more than one horse for one and the same plate, &c., on pain, that every such horse, (other than the first entered) or the value, shall be forfeited, to be sued for, &c. (as in s. 6.) 13 G. 2. c. 19. s. 1.

3. No plate, prize, sum of money, or other thing, shall be run for, or advertised to be run for, by any horse, &c., unless such prize be of 50*l.* value or upwards; and every person who shall enter, start, or run, any horse, &c. for any plate, &c. of less value than 50*l.*, shall forfeit 200*l.*; and every person who shall make, print, advertise, publish, or proclaim any advertisement or notice of any prize, of less value than 50*l.*, to be run for by any horse, shall forfeit 100*l.*, recoverable as (in s. 6.) id. s. 2.

4. Any person may run any match, or start and run for any plate, &c. (as in s. 1.) of the real value of 50*l.* or upwards, at any weights and place soever, without incurring the penalties of 13 G. 2. c. 19. (s. 3. and s. 5.) relating to the weights above mentioned, [see 2 B. & P. Rep. 53, 54.] 18 G. 2. c. 34. s. 11. [virtually repealing, 13 G. 5. c. 19. s. 3. as to weights, and id. s. 5. as to places of running, being Newmarket and Black Hambleton only, for prizes of 50*l.* value or upwards.]

5. No person shall run any match between any horse, &c. for any plate, &c., unless run on Newmarket-Heath or Black Hambleton, or unless the said plate, &c. be of the intrinsic value of 50*l.*; and in case any person shall run any such match at any other place than those aforesaid, or for any plate, &c. of less value than 50*l.*, he shall forfeit 200*l.*, 13 G. 2. c. 19. s. 5. [We have seen that for plates, &c. of 50*l.* value, horses may now be run with any weights, notwithstanding 13 G. 2. c. 19. s. 3., and at any places, notwithstanding id. s. 5., 18 G. 2. c. 34. s. 11. See the doubts in pl. 2. B. & P. 53, 54.; but this section is here inserted, because in 4 Bla. Comm., by Christian, 15th Ed. 173. n. 11., it is suggested that at Newmarket and Black Hambleton, a race may be run for less than 50*l.* The words of this section do not appear to warrant this construction, but rather to re-enact the penalty of s. 2. pl. 3. against running for plates under 50*l.* value, without reference to place, or excepting Newmarket and Black Hambleton from the general rule.—R. P. T.]

6. Every race hereafter run for any plate, &c. (as in s. 1.) shall be begun and ended in the same day, 13 G. 2. c. 19. s. 4.

5. All sums paid for entering any horse, &c. to start or run for any prize, &c. shall be paid to the 2d best horse who shall run for the same, id. s. 7.

7. Nothing herein shall prevent the running any horse, &c. for any plate, prize, or other thing, now issuing out of, or paid for by the rents and profits of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or out of the interest of any money now appropriated for that purpose, id. s. 8.

8. All penalties and forfeitures incurred for any offence against this act, shall be sued for and recovered by action or information in any court of record at Westminster, or at the assizes, and shall be disposed of, one moiety to the party suing, and the other to the use of the poor of the parish where such offence committed, except where such latter moiety is recovered in Somersetshire, and then to the poor persons in the New Bath Infirmary, id. s. 6.

9. In any action or information brought by virtue of this act, no essoin, &c., or more than one imparlance shall be allowed; and the plaintiff or informer shall recover double costs, id. s. 10.

HUE AND CRY.

1. MEN SHALL BE READY TO PURSUE FELONS, 3 E. 1. c. 9.

2. All shall be ready at the summons of the sheriff, and cry of the county, to sue and arrest felons, as well within franchise as without; and they who will not, and are thereof attainted, shall make grievous fine to H. M., and if default be found in the lord of the franchise, H. M. shall take it to himself; and if in the bailiff, he shall have one year's imprisonment and make fine, and if he hath not whereof, he shall be imprisoned 2 years, id. s. 1.

3. And if the sheriffs, coroners, or other bailiffs, within or without franchise, for reward, prayer, fear, or affinity, do conceal felonies done in their bailiwicks, or will not attach or arrest such felons, as they may, or otherwise neglect their duty, they shall have one year's imprisonment, and make fine to H. M.; and if they have not wherewith, they shall be imprisoned 3 years, id. s. 2.

4. FRESH SUIT SHALL BE MADE AFTER FELONS AND ROBBERS, (c. 1.) and inquiry made of felons and robbers, and the county shall suffer if they be not taken, 13 E. 1. St. Wymt. c. 1—2. [EXTD. to Ire. 31 E. 3. St. 4. c. 5. CONF. 28 E. 3. c. 11. See further 27 E. 1. c. 13. post, pl. 11.]

5. In fear of the pain H. M. has established, no felonies shall be concealed or spared, and cry shall be made in all counties, hundreds, markets, fairs, and other places, where solemn assembly of people is, so that none excuse himself by ignorance; and the county shall be so kept, that after robberies and felonies committed, fresh suit be made, from town to town, and from county to county, 13 E. 1. St. Wymt. c. 1.

6. When need requires, inquests shall be made in towns by the lord of the town, and after in the hundred, franchise, and county, where felonies are committed, in the marches of the shires, so that the offenders may be attainted; and if the county will not answer for the bodies of such offenders, the inhabitants shall be answerable for robberies done, and also damages, so that the whole hundred with the franchises within the same shall answer for such robberies; and if done within the division of 2 hundreds, then both shall answer, and after the robbery or felony, the county shall have 40 days to agree for the robbery, or to answer for the bodies of the offenders, 13 E. 1. St. Wymt. c. 2.

7. OF HUE AND CRY, 13 E. 1. (St. Wymt.) c. 6. [for rest of title and statute, see ARMS, &c. MARKETS AND FAIRS]

8. Sheriffs and bailiffs within franchises and without, shall follow the cry with the county, and according as they are bounden, shall keep horses and armour so to do; and in default of any, they shall be presented by the constables to the justices, and by them to H. M., who shall provide remedy, id. ibid.

9. THE STATUTE OF Wynton (or Winchester), 13 E. 1., shall be sent 4 times a-year in every county, and read there, as well as the 2 great charters; and 3 knights assigned in the shire to redress things done against the great charters, shall have warrants for maintenance of that statute, 28 E. 1. c. 17.

10. EVERY SHERIFF OF Eng. shall be bound in his own proper person, to make proclamation of the St. of Wynton, 13 E. 1., 4 times a year, in every hundred within his bailiwick, and by his bailiffs in every market-town, 7 R. 2. c. 6.

11. FOR FOLLOWING THE HUE AND CRY, 27 E. 1. c. 15. and recital in s. 1. [AMD. as to the hundred of Benhurst in Berks., 39 E. 1. c. 25. Persons travelling on Sunday, and being robbed, not to have the benefit of the statutes of hue and cry, 29 C. 2. c. 7. s. 5., HOLY DAYS AND FASTS, pl. 49.]

12. The inhabitants of every hundred (with the franchises therein) wherein defect of fresh suit after hue and cry made shall happen, shall answer the moiety of all such sums and damages, as shall by force of the acts, 13 E. 1. (St. Wymt.) c. 1, 2, and 6., and 28 E. 3. c. 11., be recovered against such hundred, within which any robbery or felony is committed, the same to be recovered by action of debt, &c., or information in any court of record at Westminster, in the name of the clerk of the peace for the county, without naming him; and such moiety to be to the use of such hundred, where the felony, &c. was done, 27 E. 1. c. 13. s. 2.

13. If any clerk of the peace shall commence any such action, &c., and afterwards dies, or is removed before recovery or execution had, the same shall not thereby abate or be discontinued; but his successor may follow the same, in such manner as if it had been commenced by him, id. s. 3.

14. After execution of damages by the party robbed, or complaint made by the party so charged, any justices of the same county, inhabiting in or near such hundred, may assess and tax rateably all the towns, parishes, villages, &c., as well of the hundred where the robbery was committed, as the liberties within the same, towards an equal contribution to be had for the relief of such inhabitants, against whom the party robbed had execution; and after such taxation made, the constables or headboroughs of every such towns, &c. may, within their several limits, rateably tax according to their abilities every inhabitant and dweller in such town, &c. for payment of such taxation; and if any inhabitant shall refuse to pay the same, then such constables or headborough may, within their respective limits, distrain their goods and chattels, and sell the same, and retain the money to such use; rendering any overplus to the owner, id. ss. 4—5. [see now 8 G. 2. c. 16. s. 14. post, pl. 37., and 22 G. 2. c. 46. s. 34. HUNDREDS.]

15. All constables and headboroughs, after they have levied and collected their said rates so taxed, shall within 10 days after pay the same unto such justices or one of them, for the use of such inhabitants for whom such rate, &c. was made, and who shall re-deliver it over upon request to such inhabitants, id. s. 6.

16. The like taxation, levying by distress, and payment, shall be done in every hundred where default or negligence of fresh pursuit shall be, for the benefit of such inhabitants thereof as shall have any damages or recovery levied upon them by virtue of this act, for the payment of one moiety of the money recovered against the hundred where the robbery was committed, id. s. 7.

17. Where any robbery shall be committed by two or a greater number of malefactors and one of them is apprehended by pursuit made according to such act or this act, then no hundred shall incur any forfeiture mentioned in such acts or this act, although the residue of such malefactors shall escape, id. s. 8.

18. No person robbed shall charge any hundred except he commence his suit within one year after such robbery committed, id. s. 9.

19. No hue and cry shall be allowed a lawful hue and cry and pursuit, except the same be made by horsemen and footmen, id. s. 10.

20. No person robbed shall take any benefit by such statutes, except he shall with as much convenient speed as may be give notice of such felony or robbery unto some of the inhabitants of some town, village, or hamlet near the place; nor shall bring any action upon such statutes, except he shall within 30 days before such action brought, be examined on oath before some justice of peace inhabiting within the hundred or near the same, whether he knows the parties that committed the robbery, or any of them; and if it be confessed that he does know the parties or any of them, he shall, before the action brought, enter into recognizance before such justice to prosecute the persons known, 27 El. c. 13. s. 11. [See further as to notice, 8 G. 2. c. 16. s. 1, post pl. 24.]

21. The inhabitants of the hundred of Peymersh, alias Benhurst, in Berkshire, may, in the name of the clerk of the peace for the county of Berks., recover all such sums of money as shall be recovered of them by the statutes of hue and cry against the inhabitants of every hundred wherein negligence of pursuit shall be, after notice given or hue and cry brought to the same inhabitants of any robbery done within the hundred of Peymersh, with like power for the recovery, &c. of such money as by 27 El. c. 13. directed in case of a moiety thereof, 39 El. c. 25. s. 1.

22. Provided that no such remedy shall be had for the whole money, but only in these cases, viz. where no such notice (as by 27 El. c. 13. was appointed shall be given to the inhabitants of the hundred of Peymersh, or where the inhabitants of the same hundred (after such notice, or after hue and cry brought) shall make fresh suit and pursuit after the offenders with horsemen and footmen, according to such statute, and where the offenders shall not be apprehended within 40 days, id. s. 2.

23. FOR THE AMENDMENT OF THE LAW RELATING TO ACTIONS ON the statutes of hue and cry, 8 G. 2. c. 16. [AMD. 22 G. 2. c. 24. See also 22 G. 2. c. 46. s. 34. HUNDREDS, pl. 1.]

24. No person shall maintain any action against any hundred by virtue of the statutes 13 E. 1. St. Wylt. and 27 El. c. 13. unless he shall, besides the notice already required, with as much convenient speed as may be after any robbery on him committed, give notice thereof to one of the constables of the hundred, or to some constable, horseholder, headborough, or tythingman of some town, parish, or tything, near the place wherein such robbery shall happen, or shall leave such notice in writing at the dwelling-house of such constable, &c. describing so far as circumstances will admit, the felons, and the time and place of the robbery; and also shall within 20 days after cause notice to be given in the London Gazette, therein likewise describing the felons, and the time and place, together with the goods whereof he was robbed; and shall also before action commenced go before the chief clerk or secondary, or the filazer of the county wherein such robbery shall happen, or the clerk of the pleas of that court wherein such action is intended to be brought, or before the sheriff of the county, and enter into a bond to the high constable of the hundred where the robbery was committed in 100*l.* with two sureties to be approved of by such chief clerk, &c. with condition for securing to such high constable (who shall enter an appearance and defend such action) the payment of their taxed costs, in case the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues, or has judgment against him on demurrer, 8 G. 2. c. 16. s. 1.

25. When such bond shall be entered into before the sheriff, such sheriff shall certify the same to the chief clerk or secondary in the court of K. B. or to such filazer of such county, in case the action be intended to be brought in the C. P. or, if in the court of exchequer, to the clerk of the pleas; which certificate shall be delivered by the party robbed to such chief clerk or secondary, or to such filazer, or clerk of the pleas or their deputies before any process shall issue; and such chief clerk, &c. shall not take any greater fee for making such bond than 5*s.* above the stamp duties; nor shall any sheriff take any greater fee for making, nor shall such chief clerk, &c. take any greater fee for filing such certificate than 2*s. 6d.*; and such chief clerk, &c. shall deliver over gratis all such bonds to the high constables, to whose use the same were taken, id. s. 2.

26. No hundred shall be chargeable, if one of the felons be apprehended within 40 days next after notice in the London Gazette, id. s. 3.

27. No process for appearance in any action on such statutes against any hundred shall be served on any inhabitant thereof save only upon the high constable of the hundred, who shall cause public notice to be given thereof in one of the principal market towns within the hundred, on the next market day; or if there be no market-town, then in some parish church within such hundred immediately after divine service on the Sunday next after his being served with process, and he shall enter an appearance in the action, and defend the same as he shall be advised; and in case the plaintiff recovers, no process of execution shall be served on any particular inhabitant nor on the high constable, but the sheriff shall upon receipt of any execution cause the same to be shewn to 2 justices of the peace (one to be of the quorum) residing within the hundred or near the same, who shall cause such assessment to be made and levied as by the statute 27 El. c. 13. s. 4. (pl. 14.) directed, in which assessment there shall be included, over and above the costs and damages recovered by the plaintiff, all necessary expences which any high constable hath been at, in having defended such action, claim being made thereto by such high constable before the justices upon notice given him by such justices; and the money so levied shall be paid over (by such officers as by the statute 27 El. c. 13. (pl. 14.) are to levy the same) within 10 days, to the sheriff of the county, to the use of the plaintiff for so much as the costs and damages by him recovered shall amount to, and to the use of the high constable for so much as his expences shall amount to, of which the high constable shall give in an account, and make proof upon oath to the satisfaction of the justices, before any taxation shall be made for reimbursing such high constable, and shall have no further allowance towards paying an attorney than what such attorney's bill shall be taxed at, 8 G. 2. c. 16. s. 4. [See 22 G. 2. c. 46. s. 34., HUNDREDS, pl. 1.]

28. The money which shall be paid over to the sheriff, shall, on request, be by him paid over to the parties entitled without deduction, id. s. 5.

29. No sheriff shall be called upon to return such writ of execution until 60 days after the writ shall be delivered to the sheriff, who shall indorse on it the day on which he received the same, id. s. 6.

30. If any plaintiff, in any action to be brought against any hundred upon such statutes shall be nonsuited, or discontinued, or have judgment on demurrer, or a verdict given against him, any 2 justices (such as are in s. 4. mentioned) upon complaint, and upon an account given in by such high constable, and proof made upon oath to the satisfaction of such justices, of expences necessarily laid out, may make such taxation, and to be levied as in 27 El. c. 13. s. 4. (pl. 11.) directed, in order to reimburse such high constable what he shall have necessarily expended in defending such action, wherein such plaintiff shall be so nonsuited, &c. over and above the costs taxed; and in case it appears upon oath to such justices that such plaintiff and his sureties are insolvent, such 2 justices may make a taxation in the manner directed by 27 El. c. 13. (pl. 14.) to reimburse such high constable such taxed costs, as by reason of such insolvency he shall not be able to recover from such plaintiff, id. s. 7.

31. The money rated for the reimbursement of such expences of the high constable, in case of judgment given against the plaintiff, shall be paid within 10 days after collection to such justices, or one of them, to the use of such high constable, and be by them paid to him, id. s. 8.

32. Any person who shall apprehend such felons within the time in s. 3. (pl. 26.) limited, whereby the hundred hath been discharged from any such action, shall upon proof on oath made before such 2 justices be intitled to 1*l.* (which shall be raised upon the hundred by taxation to be made, &c. as before directed,) and such 1*l.* shall be paid unto such 2 justices, within 10 days after the same shall be collected; and such justices shall pay over such sum to such persons, in such shares as they shall think reasonable; provided that such person shall not be thereby incapable to be a witness in such action, id. s. 9.

33. The justices, by whom such taxations, as directed by 27 El. c. 13. (pl. 14.) and this act, shall be made, shall appoint some reasonable time, within which such taxations shall be levied, which time shall not exceed 30 days; and if any officers, who are to levy such taxations shall neglect to pay over the money to the sheriff and justices, such officer shall for every neglect forfeit double the sum, to be by him levied, id. s. 10.

34. Every constable, horseholder, headborough, or tythingman, to whom such notice shall be given, or left at his dwelling-house, and every constable of the hundred, and every constable, &c. of every town, &c. within the hundred or the franchises within the precinct thereof, wherein such robbery shall happen, as soon as the same shall come to his knowledge, shall, with the utmost expedition make fresh suit, and hue and cry after the felons; and if any constable, &c. shall offend in the premises, he shall forfeit 5*l.*, id. s. 11.

35. Every forfeiture hereby incurred shall be recovered with costs, and shall go one moiety to H. M. and the other to such person as shall sue for the same, within 6 months after such forfeitures incurred, by action of debt, &c. or information in the courts at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 12.

36. In actions for any thing done in pursuance of this or either of such recited statutes, the defendant may plead the general issue, and give such acts and the special matter in evidence, and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinued, or forbears prosecution, or has verdict or judgment on demurrer against him, the defendant shall have full costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 15.

37. No such action shall be brought but within 6 months after the thing done, id. s. 14.

38. In any action against any hundred, on either of such acts, any person inhabiting within the hundred shall be admitted a witness for the hundred, id. s. 15.

39. No person shall recover against any inhabitant of an hundred, in action on the statutes of hue and cry, more than 200*l.*, unless the person or persons so robbed shall, at the time of such robbery, be together in company, and be in number 2 at least, to attest the truth of such robbery, 22 G. 2. c. 24.

HUNDREDS.

1. FOR ASCERTAINING THE METHOD OF LEVYING writs of execution against the inhabitants of hundreds, 22 G. 2. c. 46. [s. 34.]

2. No writ of execution to be sued out against the inhabitants of any hundred, on any judgment obtained under any act of parliament, shall be levied on any particular inhabitants thereof, but the sheriff shall, on receipt of such writ, produce it to 2 justices, in manner by 8 G. 2. c. 16. s. 4. (Hue and Cry, pl. 27.) directed, who shall in manner by that act directed, thereupon cause a taxation to be made, levied, and collected, for raising as well the costs and damages recovered by the plaintiff, as also the expenses incurred by any inhabitant in defending such action, the same being first proved on oath, and the attorney's bill taxed as such act directs; and the money so to be levied shall, within the time by such act (s. 8. tit. id. pl. 31.) limited, be paid to the party entitled to receive the same, without deduction or fee, 22 G. 2. c. 46. s. 34.

HOSPITAL.

1. FOR ASSURANCE OF GIFTS, GRANTS, &c. made for relief of the poor in hospitals, &c. 14 EL. c. 14.

2. [Recital of the foundation of Christ's, Bridewell, and St. Thomas's hospitals, by letters patent, 26th June, 7 E. 6., and of Bartholomew's, by letters patent, 13th June, 38 H. 8.] All gifts, grants, legacies, devises, and assurances, to be made of any lands, tenements, and hereditaments, by will, feoffments, or otherwise, to the use or for the relief of the poor in any hospital now being in esse, shall be good in law, according to the true meaning of the donor or testator, as if the corporation were rightly named in such deeds, &c. any misnaming thereof notwithstanding, saving to all persons, other than such donor, &c., all right and title which they may have therein, 14 EL. c. 14. s. 1.

3. FOR ERECTING OF HOSPITALS, or abiding and working houses for the poor, 39 EL. c. 5. [REV. AND MADE PERP. 21 J. 1. c. 1. s. 2.]

4. All persons seized of an estate in fee simple, may, [during 20 years, this restriction taken away 21 J. 1. c. 1. s. 13. and the foundation may be made] at any time, by deed inrolled in chancery, found hospitals, maisons de Dieu, abiding places or houses of correction, as well for the finding and relief of the maimed, poor, needy or impotent, as to set the poor at work, to have continuance for ever, and to place therein such head and members, and such number of poor as shall seem convenient; and the houses so founded shall be incorporated, and have perpetual succession by such name as the founder shall appoint; and shall have power to purchase lands and tenements, being freehold, not exceeding the yearly value of 200*l.* to any one such house; and shall have such common seal as by the founder in writing appointed; and shall be ordered and visited by persons nominated by the founder, according to his statutes, not being repugnant to the laws of this realm, id. s. 1.

5. All leases or estates to be made by any corporation to be founded exceeding 21 years in possession, and whereupon the accustomed yearly rent shall not be reserved, shall be void; saving to all persons (other than the founders) all right, &c. id. s. 2.

6. This act shall not extend to enable persons being within age, women covert without their husbands, or non sane memorie, to make any such corporation, id. s. 3.

7. No such hospital, &c. shall be erected by force of this act, unless it be endowed for ever, with tenements of the yearly value of 10*l.*, id. s. 4.

8. No such incorporation to be founded by force of this act shall do any act whereby any of the lands or stock of such incorporation shall be transferred to any other; and such construction shall be made upon this act, as shall be most beneficial for the maintenance of the poor, id. s. 5.

9. FOR CONFIRMING AND ENLARGING THE POWERS granted by H. M. to the governors of the "Hospital for the maintenance and education of exposed and deserted young children," by charter of 17th October, 1739, and to enable them to execute the good purposes thereof, 15 G. 2. c. 29. [It has been thought right to insert the title of this act here, but from its private nature, it is not given at length.]

10. FOR BETTER REGULATION OF LYING-IN HOSPITALS and other places appropriated for the charitable reception of pregnant women, and to provide for the settlement of bastard children born therein, 13 G. 3. c. 82. (PUBLIC clause, s. 19.)

11. No hospital or place shall be used for the public reception of pregnant women, under public or private support, in any parish within Eng. unless a licence shall be first had as aforementioned, from the general quarter sessions, who shall grant such licence to any persons who shall apply for the same, on paying 40*s.* for every licence to the clerk of the peace of the county, or town clerk of a city, as a per-quisite for his trouble, and as a fund to defray the expense of the stamp and parchment used for the grant of such licence, 13 G. 3. c. 82. s. 1.

12. Such licence shall be written on parchment, and stamp with a 6*s.* stamp, [this duty REP. and see 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 1. and 48 G. 3. c. 149. reched. A. and 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 1.] and a copy thereof shall be entered in a book kept by such clerk, and preserved as a public register amongst the records of the county or city, to be inspected by any person on payment of 1*s.*; and such licence shall be signed by 2 justices, at their general quarter sessions, and shall intitle the person to whom granted to keep one hospital, house, or place, and no more, for the public or charitable reception of pregnant women, id. s. 2.

13. All hospitals, houses, and places used for the purpose of the delivery or lying-in of such pregnant women, shall be deemed hospitals within the meaning of this act, id. s. 3.

14. There shall be fixed and kept up over the door or public entrance of every such hospital, an inscription in large letters, in the following words, viz. LICENCED FOR THE RECEPTION OF PREGNANT WOMEN, PURSUANT TO AN ACT OF PARLIAMENT PASSED IN THE THIRTEENTH YEAR OF THE REIGN OF KING GEORGE THE THIRD, and the affixing such inscription shall be a condition in every licence; and in case the same is not kept over the door of such hospital, such licence shall be void, id. s. 4.

15. No bastard born in any such hospital, &c. shall be settled in or intitled to any relief as a parishioner, from the parish wherein such hospital, &c. shall be situated; but shall follow the mother's settlement, and gain a settlement in the parish where his mother was last legally settled, id. s. 5.

16. In case it becomes necessary to remove the mother of the child born a bastard, and the child from the parish in which such hospital shall be situated, to the parish to which such woman shall belong, such parish being within 20 miles of such hospital, &c. shall be chargeable with the payment of all charges attending such removals; to be settled by any justice of the county in which the parish shall be situated to which such mother and child shall be removed; and if such charges, after settled, and demand made, directed to the churchwardens or overseers, shall not be paid within 2 days after demand; then one justice for the said county, by warrant under his hand and seal, may levy the same by distress and sale of the goods of all or any of the churchwardens or overseers making refusal, id. s. 6.

17. Any person aggrieved by such removal or distress may appeal to the quarter sessions, within 4 months, first giving 14 days' notice at least, in writing, of the intention to bring such appeal, and of the matter thereof, to the party against whom such appeal is to be brought, and within 2 days after such notice, entering into recognizance, with 2 sureties conditioned to try such appeal, and to abide the order of, and pay costs awarded by, such quarter sessions; and the justices shall then determine the appeal in a summary way, awarding costs to the parties appealing or appealed against, as they think proper, and their determination shall be conclusive, id. s. 7.

18. All officers belonging to the parish wherein the mother shall have been last settled, and all magistrates of the county, &c. wherein such parish shall be situated, may apprehend the reputed father of such bastard child, and take security for indemnity of the parish, and punish the parents, and do every other matter as such magistrates or officers might, in case such child had been born in such parish, id. s. 8.

19. Nothing in this act shall alter the law relative to the settlement of any bastard child, where the mother's settlement cannot be ascertained, id. s. 9.

20. The owner, keeper, governor, master, secretary, clerk, or other person, who shall have the management of such hospital, &c. shall, before the admission of any pregnant woman into such hospital, (unless prevented by sickness) take such woman before some justice, who shall examine her upon oath, whether she is married or single; and in case she is not able, at such admission, to go before such justices and be examined, then the said owner, &c. may, when such woman shall be recovered, take her before such justice, to be examined as aforesaid, and such examination, taken upon oath, shall be entered in a book, to be provided and kept for that purpose by the owner, &c. and signed by the justices, id. s. 10.

21. If any woman, on admission into such hospital, shall produce an affidavit, sworn by her before such justice for London, or for the county or place wherein such hospital, &c. is situated, that she is a married or single woman, which affidavit shall be kept and filed at such hospital, then she shall not be liable to go before any justice, or to be further examined on oath as to her marriage, id. s. 11.

22. If any woman shall be delivered of a bastard child in such hospital, such owner, &c. shall, 4 days before such woman shall be discharged, give a personal notice, or notice in writing, of such delivery, to be left at the abode of the overseer or churchwarden of such parish wherein such hospital shall be situated; and the latter is after such notice to attend at such hospital within the time so notified, and shall convey such woman before some justice, where such birth shall happen, who shall examine such woman upon oath relative to her last settlement, and shall certify, in writing, to such overseer or churchwarden the whole of such examination, who shall cause the same to be deposited amongst the books and papers of the parish, 13 G. 3. c. 2. s. 12.

23. If at any time such overseer or churchwarden shall, on such attendance, be informed by such owner, &c. that such woman is not sufficiently recovered to be carried before such justice, he shall wait till a further notice is given, which shall be repeated as occasion may require; and such overseer, &c. shall pay attention thereto, id. s. 13.

24. Such owner, &c. may keep in such hospital, such woman so delivered of a bastard child, till she be adjudged in a fit condition to be discharged, and until she shall have been examined before some justice, with respect to her settlement, id. s. 14.

25. Nothing in this act shall empower any person to keep in such hospital any woman delivered of a bastard child, longer than 6 weeks after the birth of such child, unless it be by her own consent, id. s. 15.

26. Every such owner, &c. who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to comply with this act, shall forfeit 50*l.*, and every churchwarden or overseer 10*l.* for each offence, to be recovered with costs, by action of debt or information, in any court of record at Westminster, by any person who shall sue, and to be applied one moiety to the poor of the parish, and the other to the party suing, id. s. 16.

27. Every action brought for any thing done in pursuance of this act, must be brought within 6 calendar months, (id. s. 18.), and the defendant therein may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, at any trial thereupon; and if the verdict shall be for defendant, or if plaintiff be nonsuit, discontinue, or have judgment against him on demurrer, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 17.

M. take any thing to his own use; and if the lunatic die in such state, the residue shall be distributed for his soul, by advice of the ordinary, id. ibid. [But see now 31 E. 3. St. 1. c. 11., 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 10.; as to distribution of intestate's effects, EXECUTORS, &c.]

5. TO ENABLE IDIOTS AND LUNATICS WHO ARE SEISED OR POSSESSED OF estates in fee, or for lives, or terms of years, in trust or by way of mortgage, to make conveyances, surrenders, or assignments of such estates, 4 G. 2. c. 10. [EXT. to idiots, &c. not found such by inquisition, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 114.]

6. Any persons being idiot, lunatic, or non compos mentis, or the committees of such, in their name, may, by direction of the lord chancellor, signified by an order made on hearing all parties concerned, on the petition of the persons for whom such idiots, &c. shall be seized or possessed in trust, or of the mortgagors, or of the persons entitled to the monies secured upon any lands, &c., whereof such idiot, &c. is seized or possessed by way of mortgage; or of the persons entitled to the redemption thereof, convey such lands in such manner as the chancellor shall by such order direct; and such conveyance shall be good and effectual, 4 G. 2. c. 10. s. 1.

7. Such persons being idiots, &c. and only trustees or mortgagees, or the committees of such, shall be empowered and compelled by such order to make such conveyances in like manner as trustees or mortgagees of sane memory, id. s. 2.

8. The lord chancellor of G. B. may, by an order made on the petition of the person for whom any person, being idiot, lunatic, or non compos mentis, (but not being found such by inquisition) shall be seized or possessed in trust, or of the mortgagors, or of the persons entitled to the money secured by or on any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereof any person being idiot, &c. but not having been found such, is seized by way of mortgage, or by the person entitled to the equity of redemption thereof, appoint such person, as he thinks fit on behalf of such person so being idiot, &c. to convey and assure any such lands, &c., in such manner as the chancellor shall by such order direct, to any other person, and such conveyance, &c. shall be as good as if such person, being idiot, &c. were at the time of making the same of sane mind, and had himself conveyed such lands, &c. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 114. s. 1.

9. Every person appointed under this act shall be compelled by such order, so to be obtained, to make such conveyance, &c. as trustees or mortgagees of sane memory are compellable to convey, surrender, or assign their trust-estates and mortgages, id. s. 2.

10. TO PREVENT THE MARRIAGE OF LUNATICS, 15 G. 2. c. 30. [EXT. to Ire. 51 G. 3. c. 37.]

11. In case any person found a lunatic by any inquisition, taken by virtue of a commission under the great seal of G. B. [or of Ire. 51 G. 3. c. 37.] or any lunatic or person under a phrenzy, whose person and estate, by virtue of any act of parliament shall be committed to the care of particular trustees, shall marry before being declared of sane mind by the chancellor, or such trustee, or the majority of them, [as the case shall require, 51 G. 3. c. 37.] every such marriage shall be void, 15 G. 2. c. 30., 51 G. 3. c. 37.

11. (a) FOR REGULATING MADHOUSES, 14 G. 3. c. 49. (PUBLIC clause, s. 34.) [CON. 19 G. 3. c. 15. MADE PERP. 26 G. 3. c. 91.]

12. If any person in Eng., Wa., or Ber. upon Tweed, shall conceal, harbour, entertain, or confine in any house or place, kept for the reception of lunatics, more than one lunatic at one time, without having lord such licences as in s. 2. directed, (except such as are committed by the chancellor, keeper, &c.) such person shall forfeit 500*l.*, 14 G. 3. c. 49. s. 1.

13. The president and fellows of the royal college of physicians in London, at a general meeting of such college, to be held upon the last day of September, or if that falls upon Sunday, then upon the 1st Oct. in every year, shall elect 5 fellows for granting such licences within London and Westminster, and within 7 miles of the same, and within the county of Middlesex, according to this act; and such 5 fellows shall be commissioners for granting such licences for the year ensuing; provided that 2 of such fellows so to be elected, shall not have acted as commissioners the preceding year; and no person shall be elected, or act as a commissioner, for more than 3 years successively, 14 G. 3. c. 49. s. 2.

14. In case at any election there shall not be a sufficient number of fellows qualified or willing so to act, the president and fellows shall elect from the licentiates one or more to supply the same, id. s. 3.

15. As often as any of such commissioners shall die, or refuse to act, such president shall call a meeting of such fellows within 14 days after such death, &c. is known to him, to elect a commissioner in the room of him who shall die or refuse to act, which commissioner shall have the like power, &c. as his predecessor, id. s. 4.

16. Every such commissioner shall, within 10 days after election, take the following oath:

'I A.B. do swear, that I will faithfully and impartially execute all the trusts committed unto me, by virtue of an act of parliament, made in the 14th year of the reign of king George the third, intituled, An act for regulating madhouses; and that I will not, directly or indirectly, give notice, or cause notice to be given to the keeper, or person having the cure of any house or place licensed for the reception of lunatics, of the time of visitation of such house or place. So help me God.'

Which oath such president may administer on the day of election, or within 10 days after; and in case any such commissioner summoned by the president to attend to take the oath, shall neglect to attend, or attending, shall refuse to take the oath, he shall forfeit 5*l.*, to be applied to the use of the college, id. s. 5.

17. Such commissioners, or 3 of them, shall meet in the hall, or other place in such college, as often as they think fit, so as such meetings do not interfere with the board of censors, nor with any other general meeting of such college; and at all such meetings in such college, the commissioner who is of the longest standing shall be the chairman, id. s. 6.

18. The treasurer of such college shall be the treasurer for the purposes of this act; and such commissioners, or 3 of them, shall, at some meeting, within 14 days after they shall be elected, appoint a secretary for the year ensuing; who shall be paid such salary by such treasurer, as such commissioners shall direct; and such secretary shall, at the next meeting of the commissioners after appointed, take the oath here set down, id. s. 7. [The oath is omitted as not being of general utility.]

19. Such commissioners, or 3 of them, shall meet annually on the 5d Wednesday in Oct. or within 10 days afterwards, to grant licences to persons for keeping houses for the reception of lunatics for one year, from the 20th Nov. then next ensuing, within London and Westminster, and within 7 miles of the same, and within Middlesex; but notice of the place, and of the day and hour of every meeting for granting such licences, shall always be published 5 several times in the London Gazette, before the day of meeting (which licences they shall grant to all persons who shall desire the same); and all licences shall be stamped, [this duty REP., 55 G. 3. c. 184. s. 1.] and be under the hands and seals of 3 of such commissioners, for each of which licences there shall be paid to the secretary, by the person applying to take out the same, the sums following, viz. for each house wherein there shall be kept any number of lunatics, not exceeding 10, 10*l.*, and above 10, 15*l.*, over what shall have been paid for the stamp; which money shall be paid over by such secretary to such treasurer; and the further sum of 6*s.* 8*d.* shall be paid on every licence to such secretary for his fee, id. s. 8.

20. No one licence shall authorize any person to keep more such houses than one; nor shall any such licence continue in force for longer than one year, id. s. 9.

21. No such commissioner shall be interested in keeping any house for lunatics, upon pain of forfeiting 50*l.*, id. s. 10.

22. The president of such college shall cause summonses to be sent to such commissioners, to attend at the first meeting after they shall be so appointed, which summons shall be sent by some person of the college, such president shall think proper, and left at the usual place of abode of each commissioner, id. s. 11.

23. In case 2 commissioners shall think proper to call a meeting, they may themselves cause the like notice to be given and sent, as in s. 11, to the other commissioners requiring their attendance, at a time and place therein appointed, id. s. 12.

24. At all meetings of such commissioners, in case of equality of votes, the chairman shall have the casting vote, id. s. 13.

25. Such commissioners, or 3 of them, either by themselves or with their secretary, shall once in every year, and whenever required by the lord chancellor, or by the chief justice of K.B., or C.P., inspect all houses so licensed by them, between 8 and 5 in the day-time; and also at any other time within such hours, as often as they shall think necessary, and shall have at such times, power to continue in such house, and examine the lunatics for such time as they think proper, id. s. 14.

26. Such commissioners, or their secretary, shall, at every such visitation, make minutes in writing, of the condition of such houses as to the care of the patients, and all other particulars as deserve notice, with their observations thereupon; which minutes shall, within one week after such visitation, be by such secretary entered in a register to be kept by him in such college, and the same shall be read to, and signed by such commissioners, or 3 of them, at their next meeting; but no minute which tends to impeach the character of any house shall be so entered, unless such minute shall have been previously signed by 3 commissioners present at such visitation; and in case the commissioners shall discover any thing that shall deserve censure, they shall report the same; and such part of their report shall be hung up in the censor's room, to be perused by any person who shall apply for that purpose, 14 G. 3. c. 49. s. 15.

27. In case the keeper of any house for lunatics, within London, &c. as in s. 2. shall refuse such commissioners, at the time of visitation, admittance into such house, with or without their secretary, he shall forfeit his licence, id. s. 16.

28. Such commissioners, or 3 of them, shall cause an exact account to be kept of their proceedings; and such accounts shall be entered in the same register as the minutes taken at visitations; and such register shall be lodged in such college in a strong chest, which shall be under the care of the headle or housekeeper belonging to such college, and shall be carefully locked up by the secretary, and the key thereof kept by him; which register shall belong to such commissioners, and the key shall be delivered over to every succeeding secretary, whenever the former shall go out of office, id. s. 17.

29. The president may inspect such register as often as he thinks proper at such college, and in the presence of such secretary, id. s. 18.

30. If any person shall apply to one of the commissioners, to be informed whether any particular person has been confined in any of such licensed houses, and the commissioners permit such enquiry to be made, and sign an order directed to the secretary, he shall make search; and if it appears that the person enquired after has been so confined, such secretary shall acquaint the applicant with the names of the keeper, and of those by whose direction such person has been confined, id. s. 19.

31. Such treasurer shall pay to each of such commissioners for every time they shall inspect any licensed house within such limit, one guinea; and shall also pay such expences as they shall incur in the execution of this act; and such treasurer shall keep an account of all monies received and disbursed, which shall be lodged in the chest where the register is kept, which accounts shall be produced to the president, when required by him and elects, to be examined and settled by them; and if, upon such examination, the accounts appear just, the same shall be allowed and signed by the president and 4 of the elects, and shall be by the president reported, together with the other accounts, at the next general meeting of such college; and such account so allowed, &c. shall be a discharge to such treasurer accordingly, id. s. 20.

32. The keeper of every such licensed house, within such limits, as in s. 2. shall within 3 days after any patient is received into such house (except pauper lunatics sent by parish officers), cause notice thereof to be given to such secretary, which shall contain the name of every person so received, the name and place of abode of the person by whose direction such lunatic was sent, and also the name and place of abode of the physician, surgeon, or apothecary, by whose advice such direction was given; all which notices shall be sent sealed up, directed 'To the secretary to the commissioners for licensing houses for the reception of lunatics, to be left with the headle of the college of physicians in London;' all which notices such headle shall receive, and deliver to such secretary within 2 days, and the secretary shall file such notices, and enter the same in the register within 2 days; and every such keeper who shall admit, or confine any lunatic, without having an order in writing, under the hand and seal of some physician, surgeon, or apothecary, that such person is proper to be received into such house as a lunatic, or shall receive any lunatic into such house, having such order, and shall not give such notice thereof to such secretary, shall forfeit 100*l.*, id. s. 21.

33. No house which is not within London, or within 7 miles of the same, or within Middlesex, shall be kept for the reception of more than one lunatic, unless such house shall be licensed by the quarter sessions for the county wherein such house shall be situated, id. s. 22.

34. The justices at any quarter sessions shall grant licences to such persons as shall apply, such persons paying for each licence the sums following, viz. for each house, wherein there shall be kept any lunatics, not exceeding 10, 10*l.*, and above 10, 15*l.*, and no one licence shall authorize any person to keep more houses than one, nor shall such licence be granted for longer than one year; and such justices shall, at the time of granting such licences, appoint 2 justices, and also one physician, to inspect such houses; and such justices and physicians so appointed, or 2 of them, whereof the physician to be one, may visit, in the day-time, every house so licensed, as often they think fit, id. s. 23.

35. Such justices and physician may, at every visitation, if they think necessary, make minutes in writing, of the condition of every house which they shall visit, as to the care of the patients, and such other par-particulars as deserve notice, with their observations thereon; which minutes shall be entered in a register to be kept by the clerk of the peace of the county, a copy whereof shall be sent by such clerk, to the secretary to such commissioners, to be by him inserted in a separate register; which register shall be kept in same box and manner, as the register belonging to such commissioners; and such clerk of the peace shall be paid such sum for his trouble, as such justices shall direct; and all money to be paid for such licences as shall be granted by such justices, shall be paid to the clerk of the peace, who shall keep an account thereof in a book, and shall account for the same to such justices, as often as required; and all expenses attending the execution of this act (except within London, &c. as in s. 2.) shall be defrayed out of such money, in such manner as such justices shall direct, 14 G. 3. c. 49. s. 24.

36. At such general quarter session, when such justices and physician shall be appointed, the clerk of the peace shall take the like oath as is appointed (in s. 2.) to be taken by the secretary of the commissioners, id. s. 25.

37. In case the keeper of any such house, not within London, &c. shall, in the day-time, refuse such justices and physician, on such visitation, admittance into such house, he shall forfeit his licence, id. s. 26.

38. The keeper of any such house not within London, &c. (as in s. 2.) shall give such notice (as in s. 21.) of the receipt of every lunatic (except those sent there by parish officers) to the secretary to the commissioners at such college, within 14 days after their reception; and every such keeper who shall admit or confine any lunatic, without an order in writing under the hand and seal of some physician, surgeon, or apothecary, that such person is proper to be received into such house as a lunatic, or shall receive any lunatic having such order, and shall not give such notice thereof to such secretary, shall forfeit 100*l.*, id. s. 27.

39. No such licence shall be granted either by such commissioners or justices, unless the person to whom such licence is granted, shall enter into recognizance to H. M. in 100*l.*, with 2 sureties each in 50*l.*, or one surety in 100*l.*, under the usual conditions for the good behaviour of such person, id. s. 28.

40. The lord chancellor, or the lord chief justice of the K. B. or C. P. may, by any written order directed to such commissioners, or to the justice and physician appointed visitors at any quarter sessions, (as in s. 23.) require such commissioners, or 3 of them, or such visitors, or 2 of them, to inspect any house so licensed; and also to report to him or them touching such matters, as they shall in such order be directed to inquire into, or as they think deserving their lordships notice, and such chancellor and chief justices may also at any time, by a like order, send for and inspect the registers so to be kept, as in ss. 17. & 24., and may summon and examine any persons concerned in the execution of this act, as often as they think proper; and in case they do not obey such orders within 2 days after the receipt of them, and shall not show good cause to the contrary, every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of contempt of the courts of chancery, K. B., or C. P., as the case is, id. s. 29.

41. This act shall not extend to any public hospitals within this kingdom, id. s. 30.

42. In all proceedings to be had under the writ of habeas corpus, and in all indictments, informations, and actions preferred against any person for confining or ill treating any of H. M.'s subjects in any of such houses, the party complained of shall be obliged to justify their proceedings according to the course of the common law, as if this act had not been made, id. s. 31.

43. All penalties and forfeitures incurred within London or Westminster, or within 7 miles thereof, or within Middlesex, for offences against this act, shall be sued for and recovered in any courts of record at Westminster, by action of debt, &c. or information by the president of such college, in the name of the treasurer, within 6 calendar months after the offence committed, and shall be paid to such treasurer, and applied, (except where hereby otherwise directed,) as follows, viz. one moiety shall go to the informer, and the other towards defraying the expenses attending the execution of this act, and all penalties and forfeitures so incurred not within such limits, shall be sued for and recovered by action of debt, &c. or information, in the name of the clerk of the peace for the county where any such offence was committed, and shall go in moieties to the informer, and towards the expenses attending the execution of this act within such county, id. s. 32.

44. All actions for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within 6 calendar months after the fact committed, and shall be laid in the county, city, or place where the cause arose, and the defendant at his election, may plead specially, or the general issue not guilty, giving this act, and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof; and if it so appears, or if if such action is brought in the wrong county, &c. or if not commenced within the time limited, the jury shall find a verdict for the defendant; and on such a verdict found, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues after appearance, or judgment on demurrer is given against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, 14 G. 3. c. 49. s. 33.

45. FOR THE SAFE CUSTODY OF INSANE PERSONS CHARGED with offences, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 94. [Amended 56 G. 3. c. 117. See further as to Lunatic Criminals, 48 G. 3. c. 96. post, pl. 59.]

46. In all cases where it is given in evidence upon the trial of any person charged with treason, murder, or felony, that such person was insane at the time of the commission of such offence, and such person is acquitted, the jury shall be required to find specially, whether such person was insane at the time of the commission of such offence, and to declare whether they acquitted him on account of insanity, and if they find that he was insane at such time, the court shall order such person to be kept in strict custody in such place and manner as to the court seems fit, until H. M.'s pleasure is known, and thereupon H. M. may give order for the safe custody of such person in such place and manner as to him seems fit, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 94. s. 1.

47. If any person indicted for any offence shall be insane, and shall on arraignment be found so by a jury lawfully impanelled for that purpose, so that he cannot be tried, or if on the trial of any person so indicted, such person shall appear to the jury charged with the indictment to be insane, the court before whom he is arraigned and tried may direct such finding to be recorded, and thereupon order such person into strict custody till H. M.'s pleasure be known; and if any person charged with any offence is brought before any court to be discharged for want of prosecution, and appears to be insane, such court may order a jury to be impanelled to try his sanity, and if he be found to be insane, may order him into strict custody in such place and manner as to the court seems fit, until H. M.'s pleasure is known; and in all cases of insanity so found, H. M. may give order for the safe custody of such person during his pleasure, in such place and manner as to him seems fit, id. s. 2. [See when lunatic himself, and if he cannot, what parish or county is to defray the expence of his maintenance, 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 27. post, pl. 93.]

48. If any person is discovered and apprehended under circumstances that denote derangement of mind, and a purpose of committing some crime for which he might be indicted, and any justice of peace before whom such person is brought, shall issue his warrant for committing him as a dangerous person, suspected to be insane, such cause of commitment being plainly expressed in such warrant, such person shall not be bailed except by two justices, one of whom shall be the justice who issued such warrant, or by the court of general quarter-sessions, or by one of the judges of the courts in Westminster-hall, or by the lord chancellor, id. s. 3.

49. If any person who shall appear insane shall endeavour to gain admittance to H. M., by intrusion on H. M.'s palaces or places of residence, or otherwise, so that H. M.'s person is endangered, the privy council, or one of the principal secretaries of state, may cause such person to be brought before them or him, and if on examination it appears such person is insane, and that H. M.'s person is thereby endangered, the privy council, or such secretary, may order such person into safe custody, and the lord chancellor may award a commission under the great seal, directed to certain commissioners therein to be named, to enquire into the sanity of such person, and whether H. M.'s person is thereby endangered, and for such purpose may direct the sheriff of the county where such person is, to summon a jury to try the sanity of such person, and whether H. M.'s person is thereby endangered, in the same manner as juries summoned to try the sanity of persons on a commission in the nature of a writ of de lunatico inquirendo; and if on inquiry so taken, such person is found so far insane as that H. M.'s person is endangered thereby, the chancellor may take order for the safe custody of such person, so long as there is reason to apprehend that H. M.'s person is endangered by his or her insanity, and if it afterwards appears that such person has recovered the use of his or her reason, so that there is no reason to apprehend any danger to the person of H. M., the chancellor may enquire into the fact by such means as seem proper, and if it does so appear, may discharge such person from custody either absolutely or conditionally, or under restrictions, as to him seems meet, id. s. 4.

50. If any person having been duly convicted of any offence shall, after such conviction, and during his imprisonment, or continuance in any gaol, prison, hulk, penitentiary, or house of correction, under sentence of transportation or imprisonment, become insane, and it is duly certified by two physicians or surgeons that such person is insane, one of the principal secretaries of state may direct, by warrant under his hand, that such person be removed to such lunatic asylum, or other proper receptacle for insane persons in the U. K., as such secretary may judge proper, and such person so removed shall remain under confinement in such asylum or receptacle, or any other, whither he may be removed by any like order, until it is certified to such secretary, by 2 physicians or surgeons, that he has become of sane mind, whereupon such secretary may issue his warrant to the keeper or person having custody of such asylum or receptacle, if such person is still subject to imprisonment, or to be continued in custody, directing that he may be removed back from such asylum or receptacle, to the gaol, prison, &c. from whence he was taken to be confined in such asylum, &c. or if the period of imprisonment or custody is expired, that he be discharged, 56 G. 3. c. 117.

51. To AUTHORIZE THE SALE OR MORTGAGE OF THE ESTATES OF persons found lunatic by inquisition in Eng. or Ire. respectively, and for granting leases of the same, 43 G. 3. c. 75. [EXPL. 59 G. 3. c. 80.]

52. The respective lord chancellors of the U. K. being intrusted by H. M.'s sign manual with the care of persons found lunatic, or of unsound mind, and incapable of managing their affairs, by inquisition in Eng. and Ire. may order the freehold and leasehold estates of such persons to be sold or charged by mortgage, or otherwise, in order to raise a sum sufficient to pay the debts and perform the compacts and engagements of such persons so found lunatic, and the costs attending the same, and such sale or mortgage, and may direct the committee of the estates of such persons to execute in their names conveyances of such estates to be sold, mortgaged, or incumbered, and procure such admittance to, and make such surrenders of the copyhold estates of such persons so found lunatic, &c. and do all other acts necessary to effectuate the same, in such manner as such chancellors respectively may direct; which conveyances so made shall be as good as if made by the lunatics, &c. when in their sound mind, 43 G. 3. c. 75. s. 1.

53. Such assent of 43 G. 3. c. 75. s. 1. as authorizes the sale or mortgage of estates belonging to lunatics, shall extend to such estates as are held by ancient demesne, or by copy of court roll, 59 G. 3. c. 80. s. 2. [See the rest of this act, RECOVERIES.]

54. The surplus of the money raised shall be applied in the same manner as the estate sold would have been, 43 G. 3. c. 75. s. 2.

55. In case any person found lunatic, or of unsound mind, is seized of freehold and copyhold lands and hereditaments, either for life, or some other estate, with powers of granting leases, taking fine, reserving small rents on such leases for one, two, or three lives, in possession or reversion, or for years determinable on lives, or term of years absolutely, then the power of leasing such lands, &c. vested in such persons so found lunatic, &c. having a limited estate only, may be executed by his committees, under the direction of such chancellors respectively, being so intrusted as in s. 1. and such leases so to be executed, shall be as good as if made by such person in his sound mind, id. s. 3.

56. Such chancellors respectively being so intrusted, (as in s. 1.) may direct a committee of the estate of such lunatic to make such leases of the freehold, copyhold, or leasehold estates of such persons so found lunatic, or of unsound mind, according to their interest therein, and to the nature of their tenures, for such term of years, and subject to such rents and covenants as such chancellors respectively shall direct, and all such leases so made, shall be as good as if made by the persons so found lunatic, &c. in their sound mind, id. s. 4.

57. All acts done by committees of the estates of such lunatic, by virtue hereof, and the order of such chancellors, shall be valid and binding on such persons so found lunatic or of unsound mind, and persons claiming through them, as if such persons so found lunatic, &c. had been in sound mind, and had personally done such acts, id. s. 5.

58. Nothing herein shall subject the freehold, copyhold, or leasehold estates of any person found lunatic, or of unsound mind, to the demands of their creditors, otherwise than as the same are now subject by due course of law, but only to authorize such chancellors respectively to make such order in the cases herein-before mentioned, when the same may be for the benefit of such persons, &c. found lunatic, &c., id. s. 6.

59. FOR THE BETTER CARE AND MAINTENANCE OF LUNATICS, being paupers or criminals, in Eng., 48 G. 3. c. 96. [AMD. 51 G. 3. c. 79, 55 G. 3. c. 46.]

60. The justices of peace for every county within Eng. and Wa. at their quarter-sessions, or any adjournment of the same, or the major part of such justices there assembled, may direct notice to be given in some public newspaper circulated in or near such county, of their intention of taking into consideration, at their next quarter or annual sessions, the expediency of providing a lunatic asylum, or house for the reception of lunatics and other insane persons within such county, or of appointing a committee of magistrates to treat with any one or more of the adjacent counties to unite for that purpose, 49 G. 3. c. 96. s. 1.

61. Such justices, after such notice being so given, shall at such sessions take the same into consideration; and if it appears to the major part of them, such major part not being less than 7, that it is expedient that a lunatic asylum should be erected for such county sole, such justices shall appoint such number of visiting justices as they think fit to superintend the building, erection, and management thereof, and from time to time to report the state of their proceedings to the quarter sessions, id. s. 2.

62. In every case where it has been or shall be hereafter determined, that a lunatic asylum shall be erected under 48 G. 3. c. 96. the justices of peace acting for the county or united counties, at whose expence such asylum was, or shall be built, shall annually at the Michaelmas general, or quarter-sessions for such county or counties, or in counties where annual general sessions have been fixed by law, at such annual general sessions, elect the members of the committee of visiting justices for the building, erection, and management of such asylum, and such justices, or the major part of them, such part not being less than 7, assembled at any such sessions, or any adjournment thereof, may fill up any vacancy in the number of visiting justices so appointed that has occurred by death or resignation, 55 G. 3. c. 46. s. 1.

63. If the justices assembled at the Michaelmas general quarter, or annual general sessions in any year, shall neglect to make such election, or if at any other such sessions, or any adjournment thereof, they shall neglect to fill up any vacancy that may have so occurred, the committee of visiting justices before appointed, or such of them as continue to act, shall be deemed the legal committee for the building, &c. of such asylum, until the next Michaelmas quarter, or annual general sessions, 55 G. 3. c. 46. s. 2. [see s. 5. post, pl. 102.]

64. In all cases where it appears expedient to such justices for any county to unite with any one or more adjacent county or counties for the purposes of this act, and for the providing a lunatic asylum to serve for such several counties, such justices, at their respective quarter-sessions, (whereof due notice shall be given, as in s. 1.) may appoint any number of justices not exceeding 5, to be a committee for treating for that purpose, 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 3.

65. Where the committees of justices so appointed by any two or more counties, think fit to unite such counties for the purposes of this act, and shall signify their desire so to do at a meeting holden for that purpose, an agreement shall at such meeting be entered into by such justices so appointed, or the major part of them, in form or to the effect set forth in the schedule, No. 1. (see APPENDIX); which agreement, when subscribed by the major part of the justices so appointed for each county, shall be binding upon such counties; and it shall specify the place at or near which such asylum shall be situate, and the proportions in which the expences necessary for executing the purposes of this act shall be assessed upon the several counties so uniting, which proportions shall be calculated by such justices so appointed upon the population of such several counties, as stated in the returns to 41 G. 3. G. B. c. 15. [EXR.] and such agreement shall also specify the number of visiting justices to superintend the building, erection, and management of such asylum to be appointed by each of the counties so uniting, which number shall be in proportion to the share of the expences so to be assessed upon each of such counties, but so that a number less than 3 shall in no case be appointed for any county so united, id. s. 4.

66. In all cases of the union of 2 or more counties, or of any place of distinct jurisdiction with any such county or counties, the proportion of the expences attending the execution of 48 G. 3. c. 96., or 51 G. 3. c. 79. or this act, shall be calculated on the numbers of the population of such counties and places as have been stated in the last returns of such population made under authority of parliament, previous to the union of such counties, 55 G. 3. c. 46. s. 10. [see 51 G. 3. c. 6. 1 G. 4. c. 94.]

67. Provided the number of visitors appointed by any such place of distinct jurisdiction so uniting shall bear the same proportion to the number of visiting justices appointed by such county or counties as the population of such place shall bear to the population of such county or counties, 55 G. 3. c. 46. s. 11.

68. When such agreement has been so entered into and signed, the justices so appointed to be a committee for each county so uniting shall respectively report the same to the next quarter-sessions for each of such counties, and shall then deliver into court a duplicate of such agreement, to be by the clerks of the peace of such counties entered of record; and the justices there shall immediately proceed to nominate such number of persons as by such agreement they may be entitled to appoint to be visiting justices of such asylum till the next Michaelmas quarter sessions, and shall continue annually to appoint such visiting justices at each such Michaelmas session, 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 3.

69. Such visiting justices so appointed by such county sole or such united counties, shall within 2 calendar months after such appointment, assemble at such place as appears to them most convenient, (due notice thereof being given to them by the clerk or clerks of the peace of such county or counties), and may adjourn such meeting from time to time, or from place to place, and meet as often as they think necessary; and they or the major part of them shall, at such meetings, appoint a clerk and a surveyor for duly exercising the powers of this act, and receive plans and estimates, and contract for the purchase of lands and buildings, or for the alteration of any buildings belonging to such county or any of such united counties, and for building, erecting, altering, furnishing, and completing such lunatic asylum, and the yards, courts and outlets thereto belonging, and such contracts shall be entered into at the most reasonable rates, and with the most responsible persons; and such contractor shall give security for the due performance of his contract to the clerk to such visiting justices; and all contracts when made, and all orders relating thereto, shall be entered in a book to be kept by such clerk, and when such asylum is declared complete, as in s. 17. directed, then such book shall be deposited among the records of such county sole, or of such of the counties so united for the purposes of this act as have paid the largest proportion of the expenses of such asylum, to be inspected by any person contributing to the county rates of such county or counties; and all buildings or land so to be contracted for and purchased, shall be conveyed to such persons as the visiting justices shall think fit, in trust for the uses of this act; and such visiting justices shall from time to time report to the quarter-sessions of such county or counties respectively the several plans, estimates, and contracts which have been so entered into, and also the sums necessary to be levied on such county sole as the expense, or on each of such united counties as the proportion of the expense to be incurred on such several accounts, 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 6. [see sums to be laid out in lands and buildings limited, 55 G. 3. c. 46. s. 6., post, pl. 103.]

70. The quarter-sessions shall cause such sums as have been reported to them by the visiting justices to be necessary for that purpose, to be raised as rates are directed to be raised by 12 G. 2. c. 29. and 13 G. 2. c. 18., or shall direct the same to be paid out of the ordinary rate of such county, id. s. 7.

71. When it appears on the report of such visiting justices, that the charges of carrying this act into execution will exceed one half of the amount of the ordinary annual assessment for the county rate for any county (such assessment to be taken on a mean proportion of such rate for the then last 5 years), then the justices of peace within the limits of their commissions, assembled in quarter-sessions, may borrow and take up on mortgage of such rates by instruments in the form in the schedule (No. 2.), or to that effect, any sums not less than 50*l.* each, at legal or lower interest, as to them or the major part of them (such major part not being less than 5) shall appear necessary for such purposes, and secure all such sums so borrowed upon the credit of the rates to be raised upon such county; and such justices so assembled may treat and agree with any persons for the loan of any such sums, and by their order confirm such agreement, as in s. 5.; and which agreement so established by such order, and signed by the chairman and 2 or more justices present at the making of such order, shall be effectual for securing to the persons so advancing any sums, their executors, administrators, and assigns, all such sums, with interest, on such terms as by such agreements shall be stipulated; and such securities shall be numbered in order of succession in which granted, and copies or extracts of them shall be kept with the clerk of the peace, or other officer having the custody of the records of the quarter-sessions of such county; and all persons to whom any such securities shall be made, or who shall be entitled to the money thereby secured, may, by indorsing their names on them, assign the same, and their right to the principal money and interest thereby secured; and such assignee may in like manner transfer the same again, and so toties quoties; and the person to whom such security, or any such assignment thereof shall be made, and his executors, administrators, and assigns, shall be creditors upon such rates in an equal degree one with another, and shall not have any preference with respect to the priority of any monies so advanced, id. s. 8.

72. Such justices may not only charge the rates to be raised upon such county with the interest of the money so borrowed, but also with a further sum at least equal with the sum so charged for such interest, which sums shall be assessed on such county as county rates are directed to be assessed, and applied under the direction of such justices in discharge of the interest and of so many of the principal sums on such securities as such money will extend to discharge in each year, until the whole of the money for which such securities are made and the interest thereof are discharged; and such justices shall fix one or more days in each year on which such payment shall be made, and make orders for assessments in due time, so as to provide for the regular payment thereof; and shall appoint a proper person to keep a regular account of all the receipts and payments under this act in a book separate from all other accounts, and the same so to settle that it may easily be seen what interest is growing due, what principal money has been discharged, and what remains due, and such book so settled to deliver into court at every annual or Michaelmas quarter sessions to be held for any such county; and such sessions shall carefully inspect such accounts, and make orders for carrying this act into execution, in such manner as to them seems meet; and if it appears to such justices that the person so appointed has neglected such order, and has not duly applied the money in his hands to the purposes hereby directed, such person shall forfeit double the money which shall not have been applied to the purposes of this act, to be recovered by distress and sale of his goods, by warrant under hands and seals of such justices; and such penalty, after the charges of recovering the same, (Qu. deducted) shall be paid to the treasurer of such asylum, to be applied to the use of the same; and such justices, on a day and hour to be fixed at some quarter or annual sessions holden for such county (of which 14 days public notice shall be given, as in s. 1.), shall, in open court, cause all such securities to be drawn by lot and numbered for payment according to the event of such drawing, and the securities so drawn and numbered shall be regularly discharged in succession according to priority of such drawn number, 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 9.

73. Such justices, in their quarter sessions, shall make provisions by means of the rates, and by their orders and directions, in such manner that the whole money to be borrowed under this act shall be fully discharged within a time to be limited, not exceeding 14 years from the time of borrowing the same, id. s. 10.

74. II. M. and all bodies corporate, and also all guardians, committees, husbands, trustees and attornies of any persons being infants, lunatics, idiots under coverture or any other disability, and also all other persons who shall be seized, possessed of, or interested in any houses, buildings, lands, tenements, hereditaments, easements or privileges which shall be deemed necessary for the purposes of this act, may contract or agree for, and sell, convey and assure such houses, &c. unto such persons as shall be named by the visiting justices, in trust and for providing such lunatic asylum, and the yards, courts and outlets thereunto belonging; and all such contracts, agreements, sales, conveyances and assurances shall be valid, id. s. 11.

75. All money agreed to be paid to any corporation, guardian, committee, husband, trustee or attorney on behalf of any infants, lunatics, idiots, females-covert or cevalique trusts, or to any other persons whose houses, &c. shall be limited in settlement for the purchase of any such lands, &c. shall, in case such sums shall exceed 100*l.*, be laid out by such corporations, &c. or by any persons seized of such houses, &c. so limited in settlement, in the purchase of lands, &c. in fee simple to be conveyed to or to the use of such corporations, &c. and to and for such persons, and for such estate, and subject to such uses, limitations, remainders and contingencies as the houses, &c. in respect whereof such purchase money was so paid, were limited, settled and assured at the time of making such purchase or contract, or such as shall then be capable of taking effect, the charges of such conveyances and settlements to be paid in the same manner as the other expenses relating to the lunatic asylum; and till such purchases shall be made, such money, whether the same shall or shall not exceed 100*l.*, shall be laid out by such corporations, or other persons interested therein, in some government securities, in the names of two persons, one to be nominated by the party interested, and the other by such visiting justices; and the interest arising from such securities shall be paid to such person as would have been entitled to the rents and profits of such lands, &c. easements and privileges, in case the same had not been sold, or would be entitled to the rents and profits of such lands, &c. so to be purchased, in case the same were so purchased and settled, id. s. 12.

76. No justice who shall, under this act, do any thing in the execution hereof, shall be capable of having any beneficial interest, either in his own or in the name of any other person in trust for him, in any contract or agreement to be made under this act, or shall for any design or plan he may deliver or produce, receive any emolument whatever, id. s. 13.

77. Such visiting justices, or any five of them, shall empower their agents or workmen to dig, take and carry away any soil, clay, sand, gravel or stone, and to manufacture the same for building, carrying on and completing such asylum, or other buildings hereby directed to be built, upon or from any common or waste land, river or brook, without paying any thing for the same; they causing all pits or quarries made by such digging to be filled up, or fenced, so as not to be dangerous to passengers or cattle, id. s. 14.

78. Such visiting justices may sue and be sued in the name of their clerk, and no action that may be commenced by or against them, or any of them, by virtue of this act, in the name of their clerk, shall abate or be discontinued by his death or removal, or by the act of such clerk, without the consent of such visiting justices or any five of them; but the clerk to such visiting justices for the time being shall always be deemed plaintiff or defendant in such action, as the case shall be, id. s. 15.

79. Such visiting justices, as well in the choice of ground and situation, as in determining upon the plans for building, or for purchasing and altering buildings for such asylums, shall fix upon an airy and healthy situation, with a good supply of water, and which may afford a probability of the vicinity of constant medical assistance, and pursue such measures and plans as shall provide distinct wards for male and female lunatics, and also for the convalescents and incurables, and also distinct day rooms and airing grounds for the male and female convalescents, and dry and airy cells for the lunatics of every description, id. s. 16.

80. So soon as any lunatic asylum so erected shall be declared by the visiting justices to be completed, and in a fit state for the reception of lunatics, whereof due notice shall be given three times in some public newspaper circulating in the county or district of counties united for the purposes of this act, the justices of peace acting respectively for any county or counties at the expence of which such asylum has been built, shall issue warrants, upon the application of the overseers of the poor of any parish situate therein, for the conveyance of any lunatic, insane person, or dangerous idiot who may be chargeable to such parish, to such asylum, there to be safely kept until duly discharged, as in s. 23. pl. 88. directed; and at the time of issuing such warrant such justice shall also make an order upon the overseers of the poor of the parish to which such lunatic, &c. shall belong, to pay such weekly sum to the treasurer of such asylum, as shall be fixed upon by the visiting justices as a fit rate for the maintenance, medicine, clothing and care of such persons, 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 17. [See when justice may refuse to grant such warrant, 51 G. 3. c. 79. s. 1, 2. post, pl. 108—109.]

81. If any such overseer shall wilfully neglect or delay to give information to such justice of any such lunatic or insane person who shall be chargeable to such parish, or to make application for such warrant during 7 days from the time he shall be acquainted that such person is so lunatic or insane, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding 10*l.* nor less than 4*0s.*, to be recovered by distress and sale of his goods, by warrant under the hands and seals of any two justices acting for the county within which such parish is situated, which warrant such justices shall grant upon the confession of the party, or upon the information of any witness upon oath; and such penalty, after the charges of recovering the same deducted, shall be paid, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the treasurer of such asylum, to be applied to the use of the same, id. s. 18. [See 59 G. 3. c. 127. s. 1. 3. post, pl. 108—109.]

82. In case there shall be a lunatic asylum established under this act for the county or district of united counties within which the parish to which any lunatic or mad person apprehended by virtue of the 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 20. [see VAGRANT], belongs shall be situated, then such justices who shall by virtue of such act issue any warrant for the confinement of such lunatic or mad person, shall, in the body of such warrant, direct that such lunatic be confined in such asylum, and not elsewhere; but if no such asylum has been established, then such justices, if they think fit, may order by such warrant that such lunatic be confined in any house duly licensed for the reception of lunatics under the 14 G. 3. c. 49. [see ante, pl. 11., &c.], although such house may not be situated within the county where the parish to which such lunatic or mad person belongs shall lie, id. s. 19.

83. In case the place of the last legal settlement of any lunatic or mad person, apprehended by virtue of the 17 G. 2. c. 5. cannot be ascertained, then the justices who caused such person to be apprehended, shall by their warrant direct such person to be confined in the lunatic asylum for the county or district of united counties within which he was apprehended, if any such asylum has been established, and not elsewhere; or if no such asylum has been established, in some house duly licensed for the reception of lunatics, or in some other secure place as directed by such act; and if such person have not an estate to pay the charges of removing, and of keeping, maintaining, and curing such person under this act, then such charges shall be satisfied by the treasurer of the county within which such person shall be apprehended, out of the county rates, by order of two justices to him directed, id. s. 20.

84. Nothing in this act shall render any lunatic asylum, provided under this act, for the use of any county or united counties, liable to the reception of lunatics or insane persons, who may be chargeable to or apprehended in any city, town, precinct, parish, township, or place situate within the limits of such county or united counties, but claiming exemption, and being exempt from contributing to the county rate, unless such city, &c. shall have agreed to unite, and shall thereby have contributed to the expence of the same under the powers herein-before given, id. s. 21.

85. At any meeting of the justices of peace to be held as in s. 1. in any county for the purpose of considering on the expediency of providing a house of reception for lunatics or other insane persons, if it appears to the major part of the justices so assembled, that it would be expedient to unite and join with any lunatic asylum built and established by voluntary contribution, or intended so to be, they may appoint a committee, as in s. 3. directed, to treat with and enter into and subscribe an agreement with a committee of governors, directors, or subscribers to such voluntary institution, such committee being appointed by a majority of such subscribers, to be called by public advertisement, as in s. 1. for the express purpose of making such appointment; and all provisions herein-before directed in regard to counties treating and agreeing with each other, shall be adhered to, so far as they will apply, or the circumstances of the two cases admit; and the number of the committee of governors, &c. appointed by the subscribers, shall not exceed the number of the committee of justices, to be appointed by the justices of peace; and such committee of subscribers, or the major part of them, shall be competent to enter into and subscribe any agreement, as fully as any committee appointed under this act, on the part of any county uniting to treat with any other county so uniting: provided no agreement so made by any committee of justices shall be valid on the part of the county, until the same has been submitted to and approved by the majority of the justices of the county assembled at the next ensuing quarter sessions, which shall be held after such agreement has been entered into, 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 22.

86. The subscribers to any lunatic asylum, erected, or to be erected by voluntary contributions, who have or may unite with any county or counties, under the 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 22. or the majority of them present at a general meeting, to be held in Oct., in each year, of which notice shall be given by advertisement, in some newspaper circulated within the county where such lunatic asylum is situated, shall annually elect their committee of governors, directors, or subscribers, in order to act with the committee of visiting justices, appointed on behalf of such county or counties, for the building, &c. of such asylum, under 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 2. and also may at any general meeting called for that purpose, of which due notice shall be given as aforesaid, fill up any vacancy in the number of such committee, of governors, &c. that has occurred by death or resignation, 55 G. 3. c. 46. s. 3.

87. If no such annual meeting shall take place, or if the subscribers there assembled shall fail so to elect, then the governors, &c. before appointed such, or such of them as shall continue to act, shall be deemed the legal committee, for the purpose of acting with such committee of visiting justices, until the next annual meeting of such subscribers, id. s. 4. [see s. 5. post, pl. 102.]

88. All lunatics, insane persons, or dangerous idiots, so committed to such asylum, shall be safely kept, and no such person shall be suffered to quit the asylum, or to be at large, until the visiting justices or the greater part of them, shall order his discharge, and shall signify the same in writing, under their hands and seals; and if any officer, servant, or assistant in such asylum, shall, through neglect or connivance, permit such person to escape, without such order, he shall forfeit not exceeding 10*l.*, nor less than 4*0s.*, to be recovered by distress and sale of goods, by warrant under the hands and seals of any 2 justices, acting for the county within which such asylum is situated, (which warrant such justices shall grant, upon the confession of the party, or upon the information of any witness upon oath); and such penalty, after the charges of recovering the same deducted, shall be paid one moiety to the informer, and the other to the treasurer of such asylum, to be applied to the use of the same, 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 25. [How expence of removal to be paid, 51 G. 3. c. 79. s. 6. post, pl. 100.]

89. In all cases where any such lunatic asylum has been established under this act, the visiting justices appointed to superintend the same, or the major part of them, such major part not being fewer than 5, shall make such regulations as to them seem expedient for the management and conduct thereof, in which shall be set forth the number and description of officers and servants to be kept, the duties to be required, and what salaries shall be paid them; and may appoint a treasurer, and such other officers and servants, together with such number of assistants as they find necessary in proportion to the persons confined in such asylum, and may dismiss them; and shall fix a certain weekly rate to be paid for each person confined in such asylum, which may be sufficient to defray the whole expence of the maintenance and care, medicines and clothing requisite for such person, and the salaries of the officers and attendants; provided, that such rate shall in no case exceed 1*4s.* per week; and such visiting justices shall annually audit the accounts of the treasurer, and report the same to the next quarter sessions holden for the counties, at the expence of which such asylum was established, id. s. 24.

90. The justices acting for any county, at whose expence any lunatic asylum has been or shall be erected, or the major part of them (such part not being less than 7) assembled as in s. 6. may make such addition to the weekly rate allowed by 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 24. for each pauper confined therein, as to them seems fit, and make an order accordingly, which order shall be signed by the clerk of the peace or his deputy, on behalf of the court, and forthwith published in some newspaper circulated within the county, and such additional rate shall be paid by the overseers of the poor of the parishes or places to which the lunatics in such asylum belong, in the same manner as is by 48 G. 3. c. 96. provided, with regard to the weekly rate to be fixed on by the visiting justices, for the maintenance, medicine, clothing, and care of such lunatics, 55 G. 3. c. 46. s. 7.

91. Such visiting justices may order all such repairs, or other expences, as may be necessary for such asylums, and direct the same to be paid by an order upon the county treasurer, where such asylum is established by one county only, or shall apportion the same as aforesaid, (QU. s. 4.) upon each county where such asylum is established for a district of counties, and shall make an order upon the treasurer of each of such counties, for the payment of such proportion; and such county treasurer shall immediately discharge the same out of any money then in his hands, under the penalty of double such sum he was directed to pay, to be recovered from him for the benefit of such asylum by action, in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, by the treasurer of such asylum, 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 25.

92. In all rates, taxes, and levies to be made for any parish or place in which any land or ground to be purchased for the purposes of this act is situate, such land, &c. with any building to be erected thereon, shall not be assessed to any such rates, &c. at a higher value or more improved rent than the same was at the time of such purchase; nor shall any building, which, under this act, shall be erected on such land, be assessed to any house or window tax, id. s. 26.

93. In all cases where any person shall, by virtue of the 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 94. s. 2—5., be kept in custody as a lunatic or insane person, by order of any court, or by H. M.'s order subsequent thereto, any two justices of the county where such person is so kept, may enquire into and ascertain by the best legal evidence that can be procured under the circumstances of personal legal disability of such lunatic, the place of the last legal settlement, and the circumstances of such person; and if it appears that he is not possessed of sufficient property which can be applied to his or her maintenance, may make order upon such parish where they adjudge him or her to be legally settled, to pay such weekly sum for his or her maintenance in such place of custody as such court of H. M. shall appoint, as shall be fixed upon and directed in writing by a principal secretary of state; and where such place of settlement cannot be ascertained, such allowance shall be paid by the treasurer of the county where such person was apprehended; but if it appears that such person is possessed of sufficient property, then such justice shall order the same to be applied to pay the expence of his maintenance, in the manner directed in the case of lunatics and mad persons, by the 17 G. 2. c. 5. provided the churchwardens and overseers of such parish in which such justices shall adjudge any lunatic to be legally settled, or the major part of them, may appeal against such order to the quarter sessions, to be holden for the county where such order was made, in like manner, and under like regulations, as against any order of removal, giving reasonable notice thereof to the clerk of the peace of such county, who shall be respondent in such appeal; which appeal the justices assembled at such quarter sessions shall hear and determine, in the same manner as other orders of removal, id. s. 27.

94. All directions, clauses, and things in this act contained relating to counties, shall extend to all ridings, divisions, cities, towns, liberties, and places possessing separate jurisdictions; and if relating to parishes, shall extend to all vills, townships, and places maintaining their own poor, id. s. 28.

95. Whenever any application is made by the overseers of the poor of any parish in any county or district of counties, at the expence of which any lunatic asylum has been erected, to any justice acting for such county or counties, to issue his warrant for the conveyance of any lunatic or insane person to such asylum, such justice may refuse so to do, if he think fit, such lunatic, &c. not being actually dangerous, provided that at the time of his so refusing, such justice shall deliver in writing to such overseers the reasons for such refusal, 51 G. 3. c. 79. s. 1.

96. If any persons shall think themselves aggrieved by such refusal, they may appeal to the justices at the next general or quarter sessions to be holden for the county or place, the appellant giving to the appellee 10 days' notice of his intention to appeal, and such justices at such sessions shall hear and determine the appeal in a summary way, and make such determination as they think proper, which shall be final, id. s. 2.

97. Every justice who shall have issued a warrant for the conveyance of any lunatic, &c. to such asylum, or who has refused so to do, on the application of the overseers of the poor of any parish, shall make regular returns to the quarter sessions for the county, of all cases brought before him, when he has granted or refused to grant any such warrant, stating the reasons of refusal, and such returns shall be filed among the records of the sessions, id. s. 3.

98. The overseers of the poor of any parish, on applying to any justice for the conveyance of any lunatic or insane person or dangerous idiot, shall produce to such justice a certificate in writing from some medical person, of the state and degree of lunacy of the person on whose behalf the application is made, and such justice may cause such lunatic, &c. to be visited by such medical person as he thinks fit, and may examine such medical person, on oath, as to the state and degree of lunacy of such lunatic, &c. and order such sum to be paid to such medical person, as is reasonable, by the overseers so applying out of the poor rates, id. s. 4.

99. The medical superintendant of every such asylum shall make returns to the general or quarter sessions once a year, of the state and condition of all persons committed to his care under the 48 G. 3. c. 96. and this act, in order that the justices there may be able to direct the discharge of any persons from such asylum, who may appear from such returns and the report of such medical person to be no longer fit to remain there, and such justices may issue their warrants for the admission of such other persons as may appear the fittest objects for immediate reception therein, out of those on whose behalf application has been made to any justice, and whose cases have been regularly reported to such sessions, 51 G. 3. c. 79. s. 5.

100. On the regular discharge of any pauper from such asylum, the expences attending the removal shall be borne by the parish, in which such pauper is legally settled, and the same on being allowed by 2 justices of the county wherein such parish is situated, shall be paid by the overseers of the poor of such parish out of the poor rates, id. s. 6. [see 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 25. ante, pl. 88.]

101. No bastard born of any lunatic, insane person, or dangerous idiot, in any such asylum, shall thereby gain a settlement in the parish, where such asylum is situated, but the legal settlement of such child shall be to the parish where its mother was last legally settled, 51 G. 3. c. 79. s. 7.

102. If any committee of visiting justices, or of visiting justices united with any committee, or governors, or directors or subscribers to any lunatic asylum, erected or to be erected by voluntary contributions, shall neglect to adjourn any meeting held for the purposes of 48 G. 3. c. 96., or where any thing shall occur to render the meeting of such committee necessary within the period to which they have adjourned, the clerk to such committee may convene a new meeting by a circular letter to each member thereof, informing him of the time and place of such meeting 10 days before it shall be held, 55 G. 3. c. 46. s. 5. [see 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 2. ante, pl. 59. and s. 22. pl. 85.]

103. In every case in which a lunatic asylum has been, or shall be erected by any county under the 48 G. 3. c. 96., the justices of such county, or the major part of them, (such part not being less than 7.) assembled at any annual or general quarter sessions, or any adjournment thereof, to be held for such county, may limit the sums which may be expended on the purchase of lands or houses, or in the erection of new buildings, or the extension or alteration of existing ones for the purpose of such asylum, or the yards, outlets, or courts, belonging thereto, as well on its first establishment as at any time during its continuance; and such committee of visiting justices shall not enter into any contract for the purchase of lands or houses, or the erection of new, or the extension or alteration of existing buildings for the purpose of such asylum, or the yards, &c. belonging thereto, at a sum which may in the whole exceed the sums so limited by the justices in such sessions, and no contract so entered into by such visiting justices, shall be valid, id. s. 6. [see 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 6. ante, pl. 69.]

104. The justices acting in and for any county, at their petty sessions, may issue their warrants to the overseers of the poor of the parishes or places within their subdivisions, to return lists of all lunatics and dangerous idiots being paupers within their parishes, specifying the name, sex, and age of each lunatic, &c. and whether dangerous or not, and for what time such lunatics have been disordered in their senses; and such overseers shall forthwith, on receipt of such warrant, prepare and return such lists, which shall be verified on oath before the justices, at such petty sessions, and accompanied with a certificate from a medical practitioner, as to the state and condition of each lunatic, &c. and any overseer to whom such warrant has been directed and delivered, who shall neglect to prepare such list, or to return the same at the time and place by the warrant fixed with such certificate, or to verify the same on oath, shall be subject to such fine, as overseers of the poor and other parish and pence officers are under 33 G. 3. c. 55. [see JUSTICES OF PEACE.] the same to be imposed and levied as by that act directed, and such justices shall transmit such lists forthwith to the clerk of the peace, or his deputy, to be by him laid before the quarter or annual sessions, and such overseers may defray the necessary expences of the examination of such lunatics or dangerous idiots by a medical practitioner out of the poor-rates of the parishes to which such lunatics, &c. belong, or where their legal settlement has not been ascertained out of the poor-rates of the parish where they reside, id. s. 8.

105. Any two visiting justices with the consent of the medical superintendant, may discharge from such asylum any lunatic confined therein, whose perfect recovery is certified by such superintendant, id. s. 9.

106. Whenever it appears to the justices acting for any county or counties, at whose expence any lunatic asylum has been erected, or the major part of them, (such part not being less than 7.) assembled at any quarter or annual sessions, that such asylum is more than sufficient for the accommodation of lunatics, being paupers, within the district for which it was built, they may make order for the admission of so many lunatic patients, as to them seems meet, not being paupers or criminal, or if paupers, but belonging to any other county, or to any parish or place within the county or counties by which such asylum was erected, which may be exempt from contributing to the county rate of such county or counties, and which has not been united therewith, or contributed to the expence of such erection under these conditions, viz. that no such patient shall be admitted therein without an order signed by one visiting justice, directed to the governor or superintendant of such asylum, nor without the certificate in writing of a regular medical practitioner, certifying the lunacy of such patient, nor without an undertaking signed by 2 householders, or the minister and one churchwarden or overseer of the place where such lunatic resides, at the time of application for admission, for the due payment of the weekly allowance and other expences contingent on the maintenance and care of such lunatic during his continuance therein, as well as for his removal therefrom, within 3 days due notice given in writing by the governor or superintendant of such asylum by the order of one visiting justice under the penalty of 50*l.*, to be recovered and applied as other penalties may be by virtue of this, or any other act passed for the building, &c. of asylums for pauper lunatics, provided such weekly sum for such patients not being paupers shall be fixed by the visiting justices, at such rate as they deem sufficient to cover every expence liable to be incurred for such patient, and shall in no case be less than one third more than is paid, at such time, by the parishes within such district, for the maintenance of patients thereto belonging, together with such extra sum for clothing and medicine as may be incurred during the continuance of such patient in such asylum, under the sanction of the visiting justices thereof, 55 G. 3. c. 46. s. 12.

107. FOR MAKING PROVISION FOR THE BETTER CARE OF pauper lunatics in Eng., 59 G. 3. c. 127. [Public clause, s. 2.]

108. On its being made known to 2 or more justices of peace of any county, that a poor person chargeable to any parish or place within any of such counties is deemed to be a lunatic or insane, or a mischievous idiot, such justices, by order under hand and seal, if they think fit, may require the overseers of the poor of such parish or place, to bring such poor person before them, or some other justices of the county, at a time and place by such order appointed, and such 2 justices may call to their assistance a medical person at the charge of such parish, and if on examination of such poor person, or from other proof, such justices are satisfied that he or she is a lunatic, &c. they may, by order under their hands and seals, directed to such overseers, according to the form in schedule A. cause such poor person to be conveyed to and placed in some lunatic asylum, in cases where such asylum has been established under 48 G. 3. c. 96., for the county or district of united counties within which the parish of such poor person is situate; but if no such asylum has been established, such justices shall direct such poor person to be conveyed to and placed in some licensed mad-house; and such 2 justices or any others acting in the division for such county where such parish is situated, shall from time to time make order on the overseers of such parish for the payment of all reasonable charges of conveying such poor person to such asylum or mad-house, and if to a lunatic asylum for the payment of such a weekly sum to the treasurer thereof, as the visiting justices of such asylum under the 48 G. 3. c. 96. shall fix, or if to such mad-house for the payment of such a weekly or monthly sum to the keeper thereof, for the maintenance, medicine, clothing and care of such poor person as he shall be willing to accept, and as to such justices shall appear reasonable; and such overseers shall not remove such poor person from such house without an order of 2 justices of the county, after due enquiry into the circumstances of the case, unless such person is discharged as cured; provided such overseers so conveying such insane person to such asylum or mad-house, shall deliver a certificate from the medical person so called to the assistance of the justices (which certificate shall be in the form in schedule B.) to the keeper of such asylum or mad-house, id. s. 1. [see 48 G. 3. c. 96. s. 17, 18. ante, pl. 80, 81.]

109. Every overseer of the poor of any parish to which any lunatic or insane person shall be chargeable, who shall for 7 days wilfully neglect or delay to give information of the state of such person to some justice acting within the division of the county within which such parish or place is situate, shall forfeit from 40*s.* to 10*l.* (to go in halves to the informer and the poor of such parish) to be recovered by distress and sale of the offender's goods by warrant under the hand and seal of any 2 justices for the county, id. s. 3.

INCLOSURE.

1. FOR CONSOLIDATING IN ONE ACT CERTAIN PROVISIONS usually inserted in acts of inclosure, and for facilitating the mode of proving the several acts usually required on passing such acts, 41 G. 3. (U.K.) c. 109. [Virtually AMP. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 23. NOTE. 'Commissioner' is named throughout both acts as enjoying same powers with 'Commissioners,' though the latter expression as most comprehensive is here adopted.]

2. The provisions of these acts are only so far binding in each case as they shall not otherwise be provided for in any such inclosure act hereafter to be passed, 41 G. 3. (U.K.) c. 109. s. 44., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 23. s. 5.

3. No person shall act as a commissioner under any future inclosure act (except in signing the notice of the first meeting, or administering the oath or affirmation hereinafter mentioned) till he have taken or subscribed the oath annexed, which any one commissioner or one justice of the county (where only one commissioner is appointed) may administer, and the oaths and appointment of new commissioners shall be annexed to and enrolled with the award and a copy of such enrollment, and shall be legal evidence, 41 G. 3. U.K. c. 109. s. 1.

1 A. D. do swear, [or bring one of the people called Quakers, do solemnly affirm] that I will faithfully, impartially and honestly, according to the best of my skill and ability, execute and perform the several trusts, powers and authorities vested and reposed in me as a commissioner, by virtue of an act for [here insert the title of the act] according to equity and good conscience, and without favour and affection, prejudice or partiality to any person or persons whomsoever. So help me God.

4. Commissioners declining to act shall give notice in writing to the other commissioners, and none of them shall purchase any lands within any parish in which the inclosures are to be made, either in his own or another's name, until five years after date of the award, id. s. 2.

5. The commissioners by examination of witnesses on oath or affirmation, and by other lawful ways, shall inquire into the boundaries of parishes, manors, hamlets, or districts; and if it appears to them that they are not sufficiently ascertained, shall ascertain the same, and they shall remain the boundaries thereof; but they shall give public notice of such inquiry by writing under their hands, affixed on the church doors, and by advertisement in some newspaper to be named in such act, and by writing to be left at the last abode of the lords or stewards of manors in which the lands so enclosed are situate, and of the adjoining manors, ten days before setting out the boundaries, and in one month after setting out the same, shall cause a description thereof in writing, to be delivered to one of the churchwardens or overseers of the respective parishes, and of such lords or stewards; and all persons interested in but dissatisfied with the decision respecting the boundaries, may appeal to the quarter sessions next after publication of the boundaries by leaving such description as above, giving eight days' notice of appeal, and of the matter thereof in writing to the commissioners, and their decision shall be final, and not removed by certiorari or other writ, id. s. 3.

6. A true survey, admeasurement, plan, and valuation of the lands to be divided, allotted, and inclosed by such act, and also of all the messuages, cottages, orchards, homesteads, and ancient inclosed lands in any such parish or manor, shall be made and reduced into writing by such commissioners, and the number of acres and decimal parts of an acre in statute measure contained in all the lands directed to be divided, &c. and also in all the ancient inclosures and homesteads, and of every proprietor's distinct property therein respectively at the time of survey, shall be specified, and kept by such commissioners, being verified by the surveyors on oath administered by any commissioner at a meeting of commissioners; and the proprietors, their agents, and persons interested therein, may inspect and take copies of such amendment and plan only, id. s. 4.

7. Until the division is completed, the old enclosures and lands to be inclosed may be entered by the commissioners, or any persons they may appoint to make surveys and measurements thereof, and any maps made at the time of passing the act may be used without making new ones, if the commissioners approve, id. s. 5.

8. Claimants of common or other rights in lands to be enclosed shall deliver to the commissioners at one of their meetings for that purpose, an account in writing, signed by them or by their husbands, guardians, trustees, committees or agents, and therein shall describe the lands, tenements and hereditaments in respect whereof they claim to be entitled, with the names of the persons then in possession, the computed quantities thereof, the nature and extent of the right, and in what right or for what freehold or copyhold estates (distinguishing them) they claim, or on default shall be barred of all right and title in such lands so to be divided, all which claims or accounts shall, till after execution of award, be open to inspection of all parties interested, or their agents, who may take copies thereof, and whose objections to any such account shall be delivered in writing, signed as above, to the commissioners at or before some other like meeting, but shall not afterwards be received, except for legal disability or special cause allowed by the commissioners, id. s. 6.

9. The commissioners are not hereby authorized to determine disputes touching title to lands, but shall set out the allotments to the persons in actual possession of the lands, in lieu or right whereof the allotment shall be made, and no suit touching such title shall delay the division or inclosure, id. s. 7.

10. The commissioners before making any allotments, shall set out public carriage roads and highways, and turn or stop up any of the roads over any part of the said lands which they judge necessary, so as such roads are 30 feet wide at least, and set out in the directions which appear on the whole most commodious to the public, and shall ascertain the same by marks and bounds, and prepare a map thereof, to be deposited with their clerk for inspection of parties concerned, and shall give notice of such setting out of roads, and deposits, and also of the several lines of such intended carriage roads by advertisements, and by sticking some on the church door, as in s. 3. and shall appoint a meeting, not sooner than

3 weeks from date of such notice, at which if any person shall object to such roads, the commissioners with any justice of the division, not interested, shall determine the same, as well as any objections made to any alteration proposed by such commissioners, together with such justice; and if the commissioners by such bill are empowered to stop up any old road, it shall not be done without order of 2 like justices, not interested, which order shall be subject to an appeal to quarter sessions, as if it had been originally made by such justice, 41 G.3. U. K. c. 109. s. 8.

11. Such carriage roads shall be fenced on both sides by such of the owners, and within such time as the commissioners shall, by writing under their hands appoint, and no person shall set up any gate across such roads, or plant any trees in or near the hedges on the sides at less than 50 yards from each other, and the commissioners shall by writing under their hands appoint one or more surveyors, for the first forming the new parts of such roads, and for repairing any part thereof previously made, and if with a salary, such salary and the expence of forming and repairing such roads, over and above a proportion of the statute duty on the roads repaired shall be raised in like manner as the other expences of the act are directed to be raised, and shall be paid on or before execution of the award; and if the same is thereby directed to be raised by sale of a part of the lands to be inclosed, the commissioners shall make a contract rate on the owners in case the produce of the sale is insufficient, and such surveyors shall be subject to the control of the justices of the county in which such roads lie, and shall account to them in like manner for the monies by them received and expended, and for repayment of any surplus remaining in their hands to the persons liable to contribute to the same, according to the proportion ascertained by such commissioners; and the justices may levy highway rates according to the above proportion, as if such surveyors were appointed under the highway act, 13 G.3 c. 78., and if such surveyors neglect to complete and repair such roads within 2 years after such award, or within a further time, not exceeding one year allowed by such justices, they shall forfeit 20*l*. and the inhabitants at large of the parish wherein such roads are situate shall not be charged towards forming or repairing them, except the above proportion of statute duty, till such roads are by such justices in special sessions declared to be fully formed and repaired, from which time they shall be supported like other public roads in the parish, id. s. 9.

12. The commissioners shall set out private roads, bridle and footways, ditches, drains, watercourses, and watering places, quarries, bridges, gates, stiles, mounds, fences, banks, bounds, and land marks, in, over, upon, and through, or by the sides of the allotments, giving such notice, and subject to such examination as to any private roads, as in s. 8. required in the case of public roads, and the same shall be made and kept in repair at the expence of the owners of the land inclosed, in such shares as the commissioners shall by their award direct, id. s. 10.

13. The grass and herbage growing on the public and private roads and ways so set out, shall belong to the proprietors of the adjoining lands, and all roads, ways, and paths not so set out shall be stopped up and extinguished, and allotted as part of the lands to be inclosed; but no turnpike road shall be diverted without leave of the majority of the trustees assembled at some public meeting called for that purpose, on 10 days' notice, id. s. 11.

14. The commissioners in making allotments shall have regard as well to the situation of the proprietor's houses, as to the quantity and quality of land, as far as may be consistent with the general convenience of the proprietors, and shall have particular regard to the convenience of the owners of the smallest estates, id. s. 12.

15. And on application of the parties interested at their first or second meeting for receiving claims, and on attentive view and full consideration of the premises, may direct small allotments to be laid together and ring fenced, and to be stocked and depastured in common, and may make such orders for equitable enjoyment thereof, and for participation of any produce to grow thereon as they may think beneficial, id. s. 13.

16. The allotments shall be taken in full bar and satisfaction for all rights of common and other rights in the said lands; and after the making such division and allotments and execution of the award, or at any other time which the commissioners shall by writing under their hand, and affixed on the door of the parish church direct, the same shall be extinguished, id. s. 14.

17. The commissioners may allot any tenements, messuages, buildings, new allotments, or old inclosures, in exchange for any other within the same parish or manor, or within any adjoining parish or place, with the consent of the owners, or of their husbands, guardians, trustees, agents, &c., which exchanges shall be set out in the award; and all such exchanges of lands belonging to any church, chapel, or benefice, shall be made with like consent, in writing, of the bishop and patron, id. s. 15.

18. The commissioners (on request in writing of joint-tenants, coparceners, or tenants in common, or of their trustees, &c., as in s. 15.) may make allotments in severalty to such joint tenants, &c.; and after such allotments, the same shall be held in severalty by the persons to whom allotted, subject to the same uses as the undivided shares would have been, in case such partition had not been made, 41 G.3. U. K. c. 109. s. 16.

19. All persons, to whom any allotment shall be made, shall accept their allotments in 2 calendar months after the award is executed, or shall forfeit their right to any part of the lands inclosed, id. s. 17.

20. But guardians, husbands, trustees, committees, or attorneys, may accept allotments for the use of persons disabled to take, or beyond sea, and tenants for life may accept of such allotments; but the non-claim or non-acceptance of any such guardian, &c. shall not prejudice the rights of such disabled persons, who shall claim or accept such allotment within 12 calendar months next after such disability removed, or of any heir in remainder after death of any person dying during such disability, who shall claim or accept the same in 12 months after his title accrued, or known so to be, id. s. 18.

21. After setting out allotments, and before execution of the award, the allotments may be ditched and fenced off, and inclosed with consent of the commissioners given in writing, under their hands, id. s. 19. [See 1 & 2 G.4. c. 23. s. 1. infra, pl. 48.]

22. Timber and other trees, thorns and bushes, standing on any waste, or lands to be allotted by such act, shall go along with the lands whereon they stand, the parties, to whom they are allotted, paying to their owner such sums, and at such times and places, as the commissioners shall, by writing under their hands, direct; but on default of payment the owners may enter and cut down, and take them away, at reasonable times within one year after such neglect or default, id. s. 20.

23. Whenever money is to be paid for the purchase or exchange of lands, or of any timber or wood growing thereon, which ought to be laid out in the purchase of other lands, to be settled to the same uses, the commissioners may therout defray any proportion of the expences of passing and putting the act into execution, which may be charged on any such lands, or on which such timber or wood actually grew, and also of any permanent improvement, as building, draining, or planting, which shall be made by direction of the commissioners on the lands so allotted; and if the surplus amount to 20*l*. it shall, as soon as may be, be laid out in other purchases, to be conveyed to like uses; and in the meantime shall be paid into the bank in the name, and with privy of the accountant general of chancery, to be placed to his account ex parte such commissioners, without a fee, to the intent that it may be applied under direction of the court, signified by order, on petition preferred in a summary way by the person entitled, either towards redemption or purchase of land tax, or towards the discharge of any incumbrances affecting such lands, or till the same shall, on like application, be laid out by like order in purchase of other lands, to be settled to like uses; and in the meantime such money may, by like order, be laid out in some public funds, or on government or real securities, and the dividends thereof shall, by like order, be paid to the person entitled to the rents, id. s. 21.

24. If such money be less than 20*l*. and exceed 2*l*. it shall, at the option of the person entitled to the rents, signified in writing, be paid into the bank, as in s. 21. or otherwise, to 2 trustees nominated by such person and to be approved by the commissioners, signified under the hands of all parties, that such money and dividends may be applied, as before directed, without obtaining the direction of the court of chancery, id. s. 22.

25. If less than 2*l*. it shall be applied to the use of the person entitled to the rents of the lands, in such manner as the commissioners shall think fit, or, in case of infancy or lunacy, to his guardian or committee, id. s. 23.

26. If any person, to whom any allotment is made, or if any guardian, husband, trustee, committee, attorney, &c. for any minor, &c. or other incapacitated person, or if any tenant in tail, or for life, trustees of settlement, mortgagees, or creditors in possession, do not accept, inclose, and fence the allotments within such time as the commissioners, by like writing under their hands, or by their award shall order, the latter shall cause it to be inclosed, fenced, and let, and may receive the rents till the expences are satisfied, or may charge them on the proprietor of the allotment; and by like writing, or by their said award, may appoint to whom and to what time the same shall be paid, subject to the same mode, and with like powers of recovery thereof, as may be provided respecting the other expences of passing such act, id. s. 24.

27. Posts and rails, or other dead fences, may be erected by the proprietors on the outside of the ditches bounding the allotments, at seasonable times, within 7 years next after fencing them, but not exceeding 3 feet from such ditches, for preserving their quickset hedges, and such fences may be carried away within that term, id. s. 25.

28. No fences or hedges, which at the time of passing any act, are standing on the lands directed to be inclosed, shall be destroyed, till the execution of the award, without consent of the commissioners, in writing; and if assigned by them as a boundary or sub-division fence for any of the allotments, they shall be left uncut, and the proprietor of the allotments shall make such compensation in money to the former owners as they shall, by writing under their hands order, subject to the same mode and like powers of recovery thereof, as may, in such act, be provided, respecting the other expenses of passing the same, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 109. s. 26.

29. But no proprietors, whose allotments shall lie next to any common, fields, or inclosed grounds fenced by any mound, fence, brook, or rivulet, shall be compelled to make any hedges, ditches, or fences next to such common, fields, &c.; but the whole mound, &c. or other sufficient fences, which divide such common, fields, or inclosed grounds shall remain a boundary for the purpose of such division, and shall be repaired by the proprietors, as before this act, or in any other manner directed by the commissioners; and if any of the proprietors have a greater proportion of fences to make and maintain, than in the commissioners' judgment the allotments ought to be charged with, the latter may ascertain such sum to be paid to every proprietor towards making such fences by such other of them who may have a less proportion, according to the value and quantity of his allotment, and to grant such other relief out of the money raised for defraying the expenses of such act as they think reasonable, in order that the boundary fences may be brought as near as may be to a just proportion, id. s. 27.

30. If any person shall wilfully destroy, carry away, or damage any fence, stile, post, rail, gate, bridge, or tunnel, put up under the authority of any such act, he shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.* on conviction, by confession, or oath of one witness, before one justice of the county; and owners of such fences, &c. as well as proprietors of lands within, or inhabitants of the parish, may give evidence, id. s. 28.

31. If it is provided by such act that the expenses of obtaining, and also of carrying it into execution, shall be paid in proportion by the proprietors of lands, and they, or any of them, except any exempted person, neglect so to do, or to pay the expenses of fencing allotments by the commissioners, as in s. 2. and on proprietor's refusal so to do at the days and times appointed, the commissioners, by warrant under their hands and seals, directed to any person soever, may cause the same to be levied by distress and sale of goods of the defaulter, or the husband, trustee, or attorney, &c. wherever found, with the costs of distress, and interest at 5*l.* per cent. from the time the same was directed to be paid; or they or their appointees may enter on the allotments and receive the profits thereof, till, thereby or otherwise, such share and costs, and all interest thereon, and all costs occasioned by such entry and perception of the profits are fully paid, id. s. 29.

32. The husbands, guardians, trustees, committees, or attorneys of any owners of such allotments, or exchanged lands, or any tenants in tail for life, lives, or years, determinable on lives or other contingency, interested as aforesaid, except the rector or vicar of the parish, may charge such allotments or exchanged lands by mortgage, lease, or other charge for term of years, with such sums as the commissioners shall, by their award, or writing under their hands, adjudge necessary to pay their shares of the expenses in s. 29. as well as those of charging the said lands, so as the same shall not exceed 5*l.* per acre; and if persons in possession charged with a share of such expenses, or hereby enabled to charge the lands with the same, shall advance the money; then the commissioners, by deed under their hands and seals, attested by 2 witnesses, may mortgage, lease, &c. the lands to them for their reimbursement with interest, to commence on termination of their right in the premises, with covenant that such mortgage, lease, &c. shall cease, or with a trust to re-assign when the whole is fully paid, and to pay the interest, so that no future owner of the lands shall be liable to pay more than 6 calendar months arrear thereof, before his title commenced, id. s. 30.

33. The commissioners may deduct from any allotments to trustees or trustees of charity or school lands, so much land as shall, by the former, be deemed equal to their proportions of the expenses in s. 29., and may allot the same to such persons as will undertake to pay, and shall pay all such expenses, id. s. 31.

34. If it is provided by any such act that the expenses attending it shall be paid by sale of any part of the land to be inclosed, the commissioners shall set out and sell, by private contract or by auction, giving 6 weeks previous notice, in manner directed by such act as to other notices, such part as they think will raise a sufficient sum, and the purchaser shall immediately pay them 1-10th of the purchase money, which shall be forfeited if the remainder thereof be not paid in 3 calendar months after, or at such further time as the commissioners shall appoint, and the allotments for which the whole money shall not have been so paid, or for which there shall be no bidding at such auction, shall be again put up and sold for the best price, or by private contract for not less than 9-10ths of the original price, or one bidding above the sum at which the same was put up at the former auction; and every allotment, for which the full purchase is paid, shall, immediately thereon, be discharged from all common and other right thereon, and be vested in fee-simple in, and inclosed, and thenceforth held in severalty by such purchaser, and allotted accordingly, and the purchase money shall be applied in defraying the charges which may be by any act directed to be paid by sale of such land, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 109. s. 32.

35. The commissioner or commissioners, by writing under his or their hands, may summon witnesses to appear at any appointed time and place, to give evidence on oath, administered by him or them, in any thing relating to the execution of the powers given by this act, and may cause a copy thereof to be served on such witness, or left at his usual abode, and every person so summoned who shall not appear without some reasonable excuse or appearing shall refuse to be sworn or examined (his reasonable expenses having been paid or tendered to him), shall on conviction thereof by information on oath, made before him, forfeit any sum from 5*l.* to 10*l.* as the latter shall order, id. s. 33.

36. No witness shall be obliged to travel above 8 miles from the boundary of the parish, manor, or district intended to be inclosed, id. s. 34.

37. As soon as conveniently may be after the summons and allotment is furnished, the commissioners shall draw up an award in writing, containing the quantity of land inclosed, in acres, roods, and perches, statute measure, and the quantity of each part thereof allotted or exchanged, with its situation and description, as also a description of the roads, ways, foot-paths, water-courses, watering-places, quarries, bridges, fences, and land-marks, set out; and all such other their orders and regulations which they shall think proper, to be engrossed or written on parchment, and read and executed by them, in presence of the proprietors who may attend at a special meeting for that purpose, of which 10 days' notice in a county newspaper shall be given, and such execution shall be proclaimed the next Sunday, in the church of the parish where the lands lie, from which time of proclamation only shall the award be considered to be complete, and shall, within 12 calendar months after, be enrolled in one of the courts of record at Westminster, or with the clerk of the peace of the county, to be inspected at 1*s.* fee only, and a copy of such award, or of any part thereof, signed by the proper officer of the court, or by the clerk of the peace, or his deputy, shall be made and delivered to any person requesting the same, for which no more shall be paid than 2*d.* for 72 words, which award, and each copy so signed as above, shall be legal evidence; and such award, and all regulations and matters contained therein, shall be conclusive, except where contrary provision is herein, or in such act contained; and the commissioners, if they think it necessary, shall draw on parchment, or vellum, maps of the land, expressing the quantity of each allotment, in acres, roods, and perches, together with the proprietors' names, which maps shall be annexed to, and enrolled with, and deemed part of such award, id. s. 35.

38. The commissioners shall enter in a book a particular account of all money received during the inclosure, and of all disbursements made by virtue of the act, which book shall be kept at the clerk's office, open at all reasonable times, till all the accounts are settled, for the inspection of any of the proprietors, without fee; and if any such commissioners, or their clerk, neglect to keep such book, or refuse its inspection, and are convicted thereof, on oath of one witness not interested in the inclosure, before any justice of the county in which such lands are situate, or of such of the county where such offender shall be, he shall forfeit not exceeding 10*l.* nor less than 5*l.* to be levied and applied as in s. 39. pl. 42., id. s. 36.

39. All monies raised under any such act shall, when amounting to 50*l.*, be deposited in the hands of some banker, or person approved by a majority in value of the proprietors present at the first meeting of the commissioners; in the notice of which meeting shall be expressed the intention of then appointing such banker or other person; and no such monies shall be issued without an order in writing, under the hands of such commissioners, specifying the person to whom, and the service for which the same are due, and the balance, if any, on final settlement of accounts, shall be repaid to the land owners, in proportion to the sums paid by them, id. s. 37.

40. The rector or vicar of any parish in which the lands intended to be inclosed are situate, by indenture under his hand and seal, with consent of the bishop of the diocese and of the patron, may lease their allotments for not exceeding 21 years, commencing within 12 calendar months next after the award, so that the rents shall be reserved to the incumbent for the time being by 4 quarterly payments, and shall be the most improved rents which can be had, without taking any fine, or other consideration for granting such lease, a counterpart of which shall be executed by lessee; and no such lessee shall be made dishonourable for waste by express covenant; and power of re-entry, on non-payment of rent, shall be reserved in such lease, id. s. 38.

41. Whenever any leases to be granted by any incumbent under the above enactment, shall by any means become forfeit or void, or are surrendered before expiration of the term, then the incumbent, with previous consent of the ordinary and patron, may grant a new lease of the lands so demised, for such term of years as shall at the time of such avoidance be then unexpired of the term granted by such original lease, subject to the conditions therein then unperformed, and capable of having effect, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 23. s. 4.

42. All penalties imposed by this or any such act, or by the commissioners under the same, shall be recovered before any one justice for the county in which the lands to be enclosed are situate, and resident near such parish, and not interested in the matter, who shall summon the accused and witnesses on both sides, and on appearance, or contempt of the accused, shall examine the witnesses on oath, and may condemn the accused in the penalties incurred, on proof of accusation by one witness, and may levy the same by distress and sale of offender's goods, with costs, which penalties, the application whereof is not otherwise by this, or such other act directed, shall be applied as the commissioners, by writing under their hands, or in their award, shall order, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 109. s. 39.

43. Nothing in such act shall prejudice the right of any lord or lady of any manor or lordship, to the seignories and rights incident thereto, but the same (other than the interest meant to be thereby barred) shall remain, id. s. 40.

44. Saving always to H. M., and to all other persons, bodies politic and corporate, all such right, title, and interest, (other than such hereby intended to be barred) as before passing such act, id. s. 41.

45. Two justices may take affidavits, on oath or affirmation, of the notices required by such acts having been given; of the consents of the parties interested; of the allegations contained in their preambles; and of the quantity of land to be enclosed; which affidavits shall be in form as in the schedule, and not liable to any stamp duties, id. s. 42.

46. Every person who, in any examination, affidavit, deposition, or affirmation, taken in pursuance of this act, before such justices or commissioners, shall knowingly swear or affirm any matter which is false, shall on conviction, be guilty of perjury, and suffer the penalties thereof, id. s. 45.

47. TO AMEND THE LAW RESPECTING THE INCLOSING OF open fields, pastures, moors, commons, and waste lands, in Eng., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 23.

48. After 19 April 1821, every person to whom any allotment of land has been, or shall hereafter be set out, and to whom possession thereof has been or shall hereafter be given, by virtue of any order or direction in writing, in form in the schedule hereto annexed, and signed by the commissioner or commissioners, [see note to pl. 1.] acting under any act now or hereafter passed for dividing, allotting, and inclosing any open fields, &c. (as in title) in Eng., and who shall have demised the same, or any part thereof, to any tenant or servant, or his bailiff, or agent, may enter such allotment, and distrain any effects therein, or on any other lands or tenements held together with such allotment by the tenant or occupier thereof, for any rent in arrear for all or any part thereof, and either alone or together with such allotment, and any other lands, &c. held therewith, notwithstanding the award of the commissioners, is not executed and perfected in pursuance of any such statute, id. s. 1.

49. Every person to whom any such allotment is or shall hereafter be set out, and to whom possession is or shall be given in form, as in s. 2. and the schedule, and his tenants, stewards, agents, and servants, may maintain any action at law for any damage done by any person soever to the ground soil or herbage of any such allotments, or to the fences, ditches, gates, bridges, or tunnels thereon, and may bring ejectment for recovering the possession of any such allotment, or any part thereof, notwithstanding the award is not executed and perfected by such commissioners, id. s. 2.

50. Nothing herein shall affect the right of appeal against the award or directions of the commissioners when made and executed, or the right of possession to any such allotments, as affected by the judgment of the court on such appeal, or to prejudice any alteration ordered by such commissioners, as to such allotment in any such award, id. s. 3. [see s. 4. supra. pl. 41., and s. 5. pl. 2.]

INDEMNITY.

1. TO INDEMNIFY SUCH PERSONS IN U. K. as have omitted to give securities and register memorials under 50 G. 3. c. 85. (OFFICE and OFFICERS,) and for extending the times limited for those purposes respectively, till two months after commencement of next sessions, 57 G. 3. c. 98. [Exp.]

2. TO INDEMNIFY SUCH PERSONS IN U. 3. FOR INDEMNIFYING PERSONS WHO SINCE 26 Jan. 1817 [up to 31 Jan. 1818, semble which is the date of 58 G. 3. c. 1., repealing 57 G. 3. c. 55., the Habeas Corpus suspension act] have acted in apprehending, imprisoning, or detaining in custody persons suspected of high treason or treasonable practices, and in the suppression of tumultuous and unlawful assemblies [under 57 G. 3. c. 55., Habeas Corpus suspension act] 58 G. 3. c. 6. [See note to pl. 1.]

4. TO INDEMNIFY PERSONS WHO SHALL GIVE EVIDENCE before the courts on the bill, passed by the house of commons, "to exclude Grampound, county of Cornwall, from sending burgesses to serve in parliament, and to enable the borough of Leeds, county of York, to send 2 burgesses to serve in parliament in lieu thereof," 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 21.

5. Persons not candidates at the last election, but implicated in the alleged bribery therein, and examined as witnesses before the lords touching such bribery, shall, on making a faithful disclosure, be indemnified against all penal actions, criminal prosecutions, and disabilities, to which they may become liable by means of any thing done by them, and so discovered as above, id. s. 1.

6. But this act shall not indemnify persons giving false evidence, or suppressing any matter in question, id. s. 2.

7. All persons examined as in s. 1., on any action or prosecution instituted in respect of any of the matters to which they shall be so examined, may give in evidence on such trial, copies of the entries of such examinations contained in the lords' journals, which shall be conclusive evidence of the fact of the examination of such persons, of the questions proposed to, and answers given by them to such questions id. s. 3.

INDICAVIT.

A WRIT OF Indicavit shall not be granted before the suit hanging in the spiritual court between the parties, be recorded, and the chancellor be certified thereof by the sight of the libel, 34 Ed. 1. St. 4. De Con-junctim Feoffatis, sub fin. [see 3 Bl. Comm. 91. Reeves, Hist. E. L. c. 11., and see rest of this statute, ACTION REAL, pl. 14—16.]

INDICTMENT AND INFORMATION.

1. FOR REGULATING the fee of the clerk of the crown of the K. B. on indictments, 2 H. 4. c. 10.

2. Where many be indicted of one felony or trespass, and they all plead to issue as not guilty, the clerk of the crown shall not have more than 2s. of them all for the venire and entering of the plea and the justices of K. B. shall see that no extortion is done in this behalf, id. ibid.

3. NO INDICTMENT shall be made but by inquest of lawful people duly returned by the sheriffs or bailiffs of franchises, without any nomination first made by any person except by the officers according to law; and if any indictment be made to the contrary, the same shall be void, 11 H. 4. c. 9.

4. AN INDICTMENT lacking these words, vi et armis, shall be insufficient in law, 37 H. 8. c. 8.

5. The words vi et armis, viz. baculis, cultellis, &c. or other like words, shall not of necessity be put in any inquisition or indictment, nor shall any advantage be taken of their omission either by error, plea, or otherwise, but such indictment, &c. shall be good, id. s. 1. [see s. 2. tit. Horses, pl. 32.]

6. TO PREVENT malicious informations in K. B., 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 18. (and part of s. 1.) ss. 2, 6—7. only. [See the rest of this title and statute, OUTLAWRY.]

7. The clerk of the crown in K. B. shall not, without express order given in open court, file any information for any trespass or misdemeanor, or issue any process thereupon, before taking a recognizance from the person procuring such information, with the place of his abode, title or profession, to be entered to the person against whom such information is to be exhibited, in the penalty of 20*l.*, that he will effectually prosecute such information, and abide by and observe such orders as the court shall direct, which recognizance he and also every justice of peace (where the cause of such information arises) are empowered to take; and he shall make an entry thereof upon record, and shall file a memorandum thereof in some public place in his office, for all persons to inspect without fee; and in case any person against whom any information shall be exhibited shall appear and plead to issue, and the prosecutor shall not at his own costs within one year after issue joined, procure the same to be tried, or if upon such trial a verdict pass for defendant, or in case the informer procure a noli prosequi, the court is authorized to award to defendant his costs, unless the judge before whom such information shall be tried shall at the trial certify upon record that there was a reasonable cause for exhibiting such information; and in case the informer shall not, within 3 months after the costs taxed and demand made, pay to defendant the said costs, defendant shall have the benefit of the said recognizance to compel them thereto, 4 & 5 H. & M. c. 18. s. 2.

8. Nothing in this act shall extend to any other informations than such as are exhibited in the name of H. M.'s coroner or attorney in the court of K. B., commonly called the master of the crown-office, id. s. 6.

9. On the demise of any king or queen all pleas to informations in the said court shall stand good without calling defendants to plead again, unless the defendants desire so to do within 5 months after such demise, id. s. 8.

10. FOR MAKING GENERAL THE PROVISIONS OF 56 G. 3. c. 73. [MINES] for removing difficulties in the conviction of offenders stealing property from mines, 1 G. 4. c. 102.

11. It shall be sufficient for all purposes soever for the conviction of any offender charged in any indictment with burglary, felony, grand or petty larceny, or criminal breach of trust committed on the goods, chattels, or personal property of what nature soever, of any partners soever, to allege and aver that such [house broken, QU.] goods, &c. stolen [or embezzled, QU.] are the property of some one or more such partners, and others his partners, without naming the latter, id. ibid. [As THIS ACT related to the method of laying the names of partners when prosecutors in indictments generally, it was deemed necessary to place it under this title, and not to attach it to the title MINES: and it would have particularly conduced to the certainty of the laws on the subject, had the framers of this statute, instead of thus generally extending 56 G. 3. c. 73. against stealing from MINES, (among other offences, to burglary and criminal breaches of trust, to which its words appear perfectly incompetent and inapplicable) re-enacted the desired provision in a definite shape, embracing the more extended objects of its purview. The above placitum was framed from what appeared the sense of 56 G. 3. c. 73., as now applied to the offences enumerated in 1 G. 4. c. 102., and the learned reader is requested to compare the acts. ## INLAND NAVIGATION.

1. FOR PUNISHING SUCH PERSONS AS SHALL WILFULLY AND MALICIOUSLY pull down or destroy any turnpike, locks, or other works erected by authority of parliament, for making rivers navigable, 1 G. 2. St. 2. c. 19. [CON. and AMD. 5 G. 2. c. 33., 8 G. 2. c. 20., and MADE PERP. 27 G. 2. c. 16.; all these acts as to turnpikes, viz. 1 G. 2. St. 2. c. 19. ss. 1, 2, in part, and 5 G. 2. c. 33. ss. 1, 2, 3, in part, and 4, 5, and 8 G. 2. c. 20. s. 17. REP. by 7 G. 3. c. 40. s. 61., 13 G. 3. c. 84. s. 86., and further AMD. 4 G. 3. c. 33. s. 5., 1 G. 4. c. 115.]

2. Every person who shall [a second time wilfully demolish any turnpike gate, or REP. as in pl. 1.; but see pl. 5.] wilfully and maliciously break down or demolish any lock, sluice, or flood-gate erected by authority of parliament on any navigable river, for preserving the navigation thereof, and shall be convicted of the same, or any indictment before any of H. M.'s justices of assize, oyer and terminer, or general gaol delivery for the county, city, &c. where such offence was committed, shall be guilty of felony, and suffer as in cases of felony, and be transported for 14 years [s. 2.], and this act shall be publicly read at the quarter sessions [s. 4.], 1 G. 2. St. 2. c. 19. ss. 1. & 4.

3. The trustees, proprietors, or other persons empowered to put in execution any act for making [highways or R.R. as in pl. 1.] rivers navigable, shall, out of the tolls arising under any such acts, pay the costs becoming due by reason of any action, information, or other prosecution commenced for pulling down or destroying any [turnpike REP. as in pl. 1.] lock, sluice, flood-gate, or other works, on any navigable river erected by authority of parliament, 5 G. 2. c. 33. s. 3.

4. Every person who shall by day or night wilfully or maliciously pull down, pluck up, throw down, level, or otherwise destroy any [turnpike or gate, REP. as in pl. 1.] lock, sluice, flood-gate, or other works, on any navigable river erected or to be erected by authority of parliament, or shall forcibly rescue any person, being lawfully in custody of any person for such offences, shall on conviction be guilty of felony, and suffer death without clergy, 8 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1. [but see next pl.]

5. So much of 8 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1. as inflicts the punishment of death for the offences therein recited shall be REP., and instead of the punishment of death, such offenders shall be liable to be transported beyond seas for life, or for such term not less than 7 years as the court trying the offender shall adjudge, or shall be liable in the discretion of the court to be imprisoned only, or imprisoned and kept to hard labour in the common gaol, penitentiary, or house of correction, for not exceeding 7 years, 1 G. 4. c. 115. ss. 1, 2.

6. Every person who shall wilfully or maliciously break, throw down, damage, or destroy any hanks, flood-gates, sluices, or other works, or open, or draw up any flood-gate, or do any other wilful hurt or mischief to any such navigation, so as to obstruct the carrying on, completing, or maintaining such navigation, shall be guilty of felony, and be transported for 7 years, 4 G. 3. c. 12. s. 5.

7. All persons wilfully and maliciously drawing or plucking up any flood-gate, fixed, or made in any wear or lock erected by authority of parliament, on any navigable river for preserving the navigation thereof, shall on conviction, by oath of one witness before two justices for the county, riding, or division, where such offence was committed, or of the adjacent county, &c., shall be sent to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for one month, 8 G. 2. c. 20. s. 2.

8. Offences against this act may be laid and tried in any adjacent county within Eng., as if the fact was there committed, id. s. 3.

9. No attainer for any offence hereby made felony, shall work corruption of blood, loss of dower, or forfeiture of lands or goods, id. s. 4.

10. If any person commit any offence hereby declared felony, and being out of prison, shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered, &c. one or more who shall commit any such offence, so that they may be convicted, such person shall be intitled to H. M.'s pardon for the felonies aforesaid committed at or before that time, and such pardon shall be a good bar to any appeal, id. s. 5.

11. The inhabitants of every hundred within Eng. within which any such offence shall be committed by pulling down and destroying any [turnpike-gate REP. as in pl. 1.] lock, sluice, or flood-gate, or any works erected, as in s. 1. (pl. 4.) shall make full satisfaction for the damages thereby suffered, the same to be recovered by action of debt, &c., or information in any court of record at Westminster, in the name of the clerk of the peace of the county wherein the offence was committed, without naming him, the same to go to the only use of the trustees, &c. of any [turnpike or, REP. as in pl. 1.] navigable river, and applied to the same purposes as the tolls, the sum to be recovered not exceeding 20*l.*, and all such inhabitants shall be rated towards an equal contribution for the relief of the inhabitant [see 22 G. 2. c. 46. s. 34. HUNDREDS] against whom execution for such damages is levied, and which shall be raised in manner by the statutes of hue and cry 27 El. c. 13. s. 4. directed, id. s. 6.

12. Where any such offender shall be apprehended and convicted of any such offence within twelve months after the offence was committed, the hundred which has made such satisfaction shall be repaid the sums paid by them for such satisfaction out of the tolls of the turnpike so pulled down, 8 G. 2. c. 20. s. 7. [QU. REP. 7 G. 3. c. 40. s. 61.; see pl. 1.]

13. Such actions, &c. as in s. 6. which shall be commenced by the clerk of the peace of any county who shall happen to die, or be removed after the same was commenced, shall not thereby be abated or discontinued, but his successor may prosecute the same in such manner as his predecessor might have done, id. s. 8.

14. No action of debt, &c. or information, shall be sued to recover damages under this act, unless information on oath shall be made thereof within 6 days, before some justice for the county, liberty, or division, wherein the offence was committed, inhabiting within or near such hundred, (id. s. 9.) and all such actions must be brought within 6 months after the offence was committed, id. s. 10.

15. If any person shall assault any collector of tolls, or threaten him in the execution of his office, or shall forcibly [pass through any turnpike gate, REP. as in pl. 1. or] carry away, or detain any collector, so as he shall not be able to return to his duty for 3 days, then the offender, on conviction by oath of one witness before 2 justices for the county, liberty, or division, where the offence was committed inhabiting near such division, who shall summon the parties, and hear and determine such offence, shall forfeit £l., to go one moiety to the constable of the parish trust, for the use of the trustees, &c. of such navigable river, to be applied to the same uses as their tolls, after allowing the constable a reward in the discretion of such trustees, &c. to be levied by warrant under the hand and seal of such 2 justices, by distress and sale of goods, and if no distress, then the offender shall, by like warrant, be sent to the county gaol for 6 months, unless sooner discharged by the quarter sessions; and if such party shall a second or third time offend, on conviction as aforesaid, he shall forfeit 10*l.* to be levied as aforesaid, and in case of no distress, shall for every offence after the first, be sent by like warrant to the county gaol for one year, and before he is discharged, shall give security to the quarter sessions for his good behaviour for 7 years, 8 G. 2. c. 20. s. 11.

16. Such collectors of the toll may seize and detain any person guilty of such offences, and carry him before one justice for the county or place where the offence was committed, without warrant, and such justice shall oblige such offender to give security for his appearing at the next petty sessions holden for the division or place, and in default of such security, shall commit him to the county gaol until he gives such security, id. s. 12.

17. If any constable shall refuse to execute any warrant issued [by the trustees of any turnpike-road, R.R. as in pl. 1. or] under the hands and seals of any 2 justices, for apprehending any person guilty of any offence against this act, or if any person shall refuse to assist any constable in apprehending such offenders, then such constable or person shall forfeit 5l. to the clerk of the trustees of any turnpike or navigable river, to be applied as in s. 11. and to be levied by distress by warrant, under the hand and seal of 2 justices, to be directed to the high constable of the hundred where such constable, &c. shall inhabit, to be by him levied as in s. 11. directed, id. s. 13.

18. All penalties that under this act shall be received by any constable or clerk of such trustees, in trust for such trustees, shall be paid over by such constable or clerk, to any person to whom such trustees shall by any order direct it to be paid, and in case of refusal so to do, or to account for the same, any 2 justices for the county, town, or division, on the oath of one witness, made before them of such refusal, may commit the party so refusing to the county gaol until he shall satisfy the same, id. s. 14.

19. Any person aggrieved by any order to be made by any 2 justices as aforesaid, may appeal to the next general sessions for the county, or place, where such order was made, giving reasonable notice of such appeal, the reasonableness of which shall be determined by such sessions, and if a reasonable time has not been given, they shall adjourn the appeal to the next quarter sessions, and there finally determine the same, and such sessions shall award costs to either party, and such determination shall bind all parties, id. s. 15.

20. No certiorari shall be granted by any court to remove any orders or proceedings of any justice or justices, concerning this act, out of the proper county, city, or place, id. s. 16.

21. If any suit shall be brought against persons for any thing under this act, the same shall be [commenced within 6 months after fact committed, id. s. 18. and 1 G. 2. c. 19. s. 3.] laid in the county where the cause of action arose, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance thereof, and if it appears to have been so done, or [that the action was not brought within time limited, 1 G. 2. s. 2. c. 19. s. 3. or] that the action was not laid in proper county, then the jury shall find for the defendants, and on such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues after appearance, or has judgment against him on demurrer, the defendant shall have treble costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, 1 G. 2. c. 19. s. 3., 8 G. 2. c. 20. s. 18.

INROLMENT.

1. CONCERNING INROLMENTS OF BARGAINS AND CONTRACTS OF lands and tenements, 27 H. 8. c. 16. [EXT. to counties palatine, 5 E. c. 26. and 10 A. c. 18. s. 3.]

2. No lands or hereditaments shall pass whereby any state of inheritance or freehold shall be made, or any use thereof, to be made by reason only of any bargain and sale, except the same bargain and sale be made by writing indented, sealed, and enrolled in one of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, or within the county where the lands lie, or before the custos rotulorum, and 2 justices, and the clerk of the peace of the county, or 2 of them, the latter being one; and such enrolment shall be made within 6 months after date of the writings indented, the custos, &c. or justices and clerk taking for the same, where the land exceeds not 40s. yearly value, 2s., viz. 12d. to the justices, and 12d. to the clerk, and where it exceeds that value, 5s., divided between them as above; and such clerk shall enrol and engross on parchment the deeds, and at the end of every year shall deliver the rolls thereof to the custos rotulorum, to remain in his custody among other county records, 27 H. 8. c. 16. s. 1.

3. This act shall not extend to lands within any city, borough, or town corporate, wherein the mayors, recorders, or other officers may enrol deeds, id. s. 2.

4. FOR PUBLIC REGISTERING OF ALL DEEDS, CONVEYANCES, and wills made of any honours, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, within the west riding of the county of York, after 29th Sept. 1704. 2 & 3 A. c. 4. [EXT. in many of its provisions to East Riding, 6 A. c. 35.; Middlesex, 7 A. c. 30. and see pl. 44.; North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6.]

5. A memorial of all deeds and conveyances which, after 29th Sept. 1704, shall be made, and of all wills in writing, of persons who shall die after the said day, concerning any lands, tenements or hereditaments in the west riding of the county of York, may at the election of the parties concerned be registered; and every deed or conveyance that shall, after any memorial is so registered, be made of the lands, &c. comprised in such memorial, shall be adjudged fraudulent and void against any subsequent purchaser or mortgagee for valuable consideration, unless such memorial thereof be registered before the registering the memorial of the deed or conveyance under which such subsequent purchaser or mortgagee shall claim; and every devise by will of lands contained in any memorial so registered, that shall be made after the registering thereof, shall be adjudged fraudulent and void against any subsequent purchaser or mortgagee, &c. unless a memorial of such will be registered, 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 1.

6. One public officer for registering such memorials shall be kept in Wakefield, to be executed by a fit person elected, or his sufficient deputy, to continue in the said office so long as he shall well demean himself therein, id. s. 2.

7. All elections of a register shall be by balloting, viz. all the freeholders that have freehold within the west riding, of the yearly value of 100*l.* (to be determined by oath of the elector before the scrutators) shall be electors of the register; and the justices of peace for the west riding, or any five such justices appointed by them, shall be scrutators of the ballot; who shall, in the presence of the electors, place glass vessels, into which each elector shall put one open paper, containing the name of such person as he approves of to be register; which papers shall be taken out in the presence of the scrutators, and the names of every person therein shall be transcribed in columns, with the number of their electors, and the same shall be read over in the hearing, and fixed up in the view of the electors; and the person upon whom the majority shall fall, shall be register, id. s. 3. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 4. s. r.; East Riding, 6 A. c. 35. s. 3. s. r.]

8. As often as the office shall become vacant, the justices of the peace, at the quarter sessions next after such vacancy, shall declare the vacancy, and by order of sessions appoint a time within one calendar month, and above 3 weeks, ensuing the end of such sessions, for the electors to assemble at Wakefield, [Beverley, in East Riding; and in North Riding, the market town fixed as in 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 2. pl. 54.] to chuse a person to supply the vacancy; and the clerk of the peace shall cause copies of such order to be delivered to the chief constables of the several wapentakes, who shall publish the same in full market, in every market-town, on the next market-day, and affix the same in the most public place there, id. s. 5. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 6. s. r.; East Riding, 6 A. c. 35. s. 5.]

9. On the death of any such register, and until another election, his executors and administrators, together with the sureties for the said register, or their executors, &c. shall appoint a person to execute the office, for whose demeanor the security shall be answerable, id. s. 6. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 9. s. r.; East Riding, 6 A. c. 35. s. 8. s. r.]

10. All memorials shall be in writing on vellum or parchment, and directed to the register; and in case of deeds and conveyances, shall be under the hand and seal of one of the grantors or grantees, their guardians or trustees, attested by 2 witnesses, one whereof to be one of the witnesses to the execution of such deed; which witness shall, upon oath before the register, prove the signing and sealing of the memorial, and the execution of the deed mentioned in such memorial; and in case of wills, the memorials shall be under the hand and seal of one of the devisees, his executors, &c. his guardians or trustees, attested by 2 witnesses, one whereof shall prove the signing and sealing of such memorial, id. s. 7. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 11. s. r.; East Riding, 6 A. c. 35. s. 10. s. r. So in Middlesex, where the oath may also be before any master in chancery, 7 A. c. 20. s. 5. s. r.]

11. Every memorial of any deed or will, shall contain the day of the month and year when the same bears date, and the names and additions of all the parties to such deed, and of the deviser of such will, and of all the witnesses, and the places of their abode, and shall mention the lands, &c., and hereditaments contained in such deed or will; and the names of all the parishes, townships, hamlets, precincts, or extra-parochial places, where such lands are, in such manner as the same are mentioned in such deed or will, and every such deed and will, or probate of the same, of which such memorial is to be registered, shall be produced to the register at the time of entering such memorial, who shall endorse a certificate on such deed and will, or probate thereof, and mention the day, hour, and time, on which such memorial is entered, expressing also in what book, page, and number, the same is entered; and the register shall sign the certificate so endorsed; which shall be allowed as evidence of such registries in all courts of record; and every page of such register books, and every memorial that shall be entered, shall be numbered, and the day of the month, and the year, and hour, or time of the day, shall be entered in the margins of the register books, and of the memorial; and such register shall keep an alphabetical calendar of all parishes, extra-parochial places and townships, within the west riding, with reference to the number of every memorial that concerns lands in such parish, &c., and of the names of the parties; and such register shall duly file every such memorial in order as the same is brought to the office, and enter the memorials in the order that they shall come to his hand, 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 8. s. 8. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 12.; and as to filing, &c. id. s. 20. s. r.; East Riding, &c., 6 A. c. 35. s. 11. s. r.; in Middlesex, 7 A. c. 20. s. 6. s. r.]

12. Such register, before he enters on the office, shall be sworn before the justices of peace, or three of them, that shall be present at his election, in these words:—

'You shall truly and faithfully perform and execute the office and duty that is directed and required by act of parliament, in registering memorials of deeds, conveyances and wills, within the west [north, or east] riding of the county of York, [or town and county of Kingston-on-Hull,] so long as you shall continue in the said office; and that you have not given nor promised, directly nor indirectly, nor authorised any person to give or promise, any money, gratuity, or reward whatsoever, for procuring or obtaining the said office. So help you God,' id. s. 9. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 7. s. r.; East Riding, 6 A. c. 35. s. 6. s. r.]

13. When the register appoints any deputy, such deputy shall take the oath before two justices of peace; [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 8. s. r.; East Riding, &c., 6 A. c. 35. s. 7. s. r.] and every register, at the time of his being sworn, shall enter into a recognizance with two sureties, to be approved of by five justices of peace present at his election, by writing, to be registered at the next quarter sessions, in the penalty of 2000*l.* to H. M., to be taken by the same justices that approved of his security, conditioned for his true and faithful performance of his duty in the execution of his office; the same to be transmitted by the justices within one month into the office of H. M.'s remembrancer of the exchequer, 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 10. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 28. s. r.; East Riding, &c., 6 A. c. 35. s. 7. and s. 23. s. r.]

14. When any register shall die or surrender, and within 5 years from such death or surrender no misbehaviour appear to have been committed by such register, the recognizance shall become void, 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 11. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 30. s. r.; East Riding, &c., 6 A. c. 35. s. 25. s. r.]

15. Such register, or his deputy, shall give due attendance at his office every day (except Sundays and holy days), between 9 and 12 in the forenoon, and 2 and 5 in the afternoon, for the dispatch of business; and shall make searches concerning all memorials registered as aforesaid, and give certificates under his hand concerning the same, if required, 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 12. [Testified by 2 witnesses in North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 27.; so in East Riding, &c., 6 A. c. 35. s. 22.; so in Middlesex, 7 A. c. 20. s. 12. s. r.]

16. Such register shall be allowed for the entry of every memorial, 1*s.* in case the same do not exceed 200 words; but if it exceed, then after the rate of 6*d.* [Ad. in North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 26.] an hundred for all the words above the first 200; and the like fees for the like number of words contained in every [bargain and sale, in East and North Ridings, 6 A. c. 35. s. 30., 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 21.] certificate or copy given out of office, and for every search 1*s.*, 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 13. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 26.; East Riding, 6 A. c. 35. s. 21.; in Middlesex, 7 A. c. 20. s. 11. s. r.]

17. If any such register, or his deputy, neglect his duty, or commit or suffer any undue or fraudulent practice in the office, and be thereof convict, such register shall forfeit his office, and pay treble damages with costs, to every person injured thereby, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information, in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, with no essoin, &c., and but one imparlance allowed, 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 11. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 29. s. r.; East Riding, 6 A. c. 35. s. 9. and s. 24. s. r.; so in Middlesex, 7 A. c. 20. s. 4.]

18. The person nominated upon the death of any register to execute the office, during the time the same shall be vacant, shall take the oath appointed to be taken by such register and his deputy, before 2 justices of peace; and if such person be convicted of any neglect, misdemeanor, or fraudulent practice, he shall pay treble damages with full costs, to every person injured, to be recovered as aforesaid, 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 15. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 10. s. r.]

20. Where there are more writings than one for perfecting any conveyance, which concern the same lands, &c. or hereditaments, it shall be a sufficient memorial and register thereof, if all the lands, and the parishes, townships, hamlets, or extra-parochial places, where the same lie, be once named in the memorial, register, and certificate, of any one of the deeds; and the dates of the rest of the deeds relating to the said conveyance, with the names and additions of the parties and witnesses, and their abodes be set down in the memorials, registers, and certificates of the same, with a reference to the deed whereof the memorial expresses the parcels, and directions to find the registering the same, id. s. 17. [8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 14., North Riding, s. r.; East Riding, &c., 6 A. c. 35. s. 13. s. r.; in Middlesex, 7 A. c. 20. s. 7. s. r.]

21. A memorial of such deeds and wills, as shall be made or published in London, or in any other place not within 40 miles of the west riding, which may affect lands in the west riding, shall be registered, in case an affidavit sworn before any one of the judges at Westminster, or a master in chancery, be brought with the memorial to the register, wherein one of the witnesses to such deeds shall swear he saw the same executed, and the memorial signed and sealed, or wherein one of the witnesses to the memorial of any will shall swear he saw such memorial signed and sealed, and the same shall be a sufficient authority to the register to give a certificate of the registering such memorial; which certificate signed by the register shall be evidence of the registries, 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 18. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 13. s. r.; East Riding, 6 A. c. 35. s. 12. s. r.]

22. If any person shall forge or counterfeit any such memorial or certificate, and be thereof convicted, such person shall incur such penalties as by 5 El. c. 14. are imposed upon persons for forging or publishing of false deeds, whereby the freehold of any person may be molested; and if any person shall forswear himself before the register, or before any judge or master in chancery, in the cases aforesaid, and be thereof convicted, such person shall incur the same penalties as if the oath had been made in any of the courts at Westminster, 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 19.; [so in Middlesex, 7 A. c. 20. s. 15.]

23. Memorials of wills registered within 6 months after the death of the deviser dying within Eng., Wa., and Ber., or within 5 years after the death of every deviser dying upon or beyond the seas, shall be effectual against subsequent purchasers and judgments, &c. 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 20. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 15. s. r.; East Riding, 6 A. c. 35. s. 14. s. r.; Middlesex, 7 A. c. 20. s. 8. s. r.]

24. In case the persons interested in the lands devised by reason of the contesting such will or other inevitable difficulty, without their wilful neglect, shall be disabled to exhibit a memorial within the times limited, in such case the registry of the memorial, within 6 months after their attainment of such will, or a probate thereof, or removal of the impediment, shall be sufficient, 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 21. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 16.; East Riding, 6 A. c. 35. s. 15.; Middlesex, 7 A. c. 20. s. 9. s. r.]

25. No member of parliament shall be capable of being chosen register, or of executing the office, or of holding fee thereout, nor shall any register or his deputy be capable of being chosen a member, 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 22. [6 A. c. 35. s. 32. as to East Riding; 7 A. c. 20. s. 21. s. r. Middlesex.]

26. FOR INROLMENTS OF BARGAINS AND SALES WITHIN THE WEST riding of the county of York, in the register office there lately provided, and for making such register more effectual, 5 & 6 A. c. 18. (Public clause, id. s. 12.) [not given at length where it resembles 2 & 3 A. c. 4., see that act.]

27. All bargains and sales of lands within the said west riding, enrolled before the register in the public office at Wakefield, [Beeverley, East Riding,] shall be effectual, according to 27 H. 8. c. 16.; and the register, or his deputy, (together with one justice of peace,) shall have power to take the acknowledgment of the bargainors; and shall enrol such bargains and sales; and indorse a certificate on such bargains and sales, of the times of enrolling, and sign the same; and the rolls thereof shall keep in the public office upon record amongst the memorials of deeds, 5 & 6 A. c. 18. s. 1. [East Riding, &c. at Beeverley, 6 A. c. 35. s. 16. s. r.]

28. Deeds of bargain and sale so enrolled, and copies of the enrolments thereof, shall be allowed in all courts as sufficient evidence, as bargains and sales enrolled in the courts at Westminster, id. s. 2. [East Riding, 6 A. c. 35. s. 17. s. r.]

29. Such enrolment of such deed in the register office shall be deemed the entering of a memorial thereof, id. s. 7. [East Riding, &c. 6 A. c. 35. s. 18. s. r.]

30. No judgment, statute, or recognizance (other than those entered into in the name, and on the account of H. M.) shall affect any lands in the west riding, but only from the time that a memorial of such judgment, &c. shall be entered at the register office, expressing, in case of such judgment, the names of the plaintiffs, and the names and additions therein of the defendants, the sums recovered and the time of signing; and in case of statutes and recognizances, expressing the date thereof, the names and additions of the cognizors and cognizees, and for what sums, and before whom the same was acknowledged; and the party shall produce and leave with the register to be filed, a memorial of such judgment, statute, or recognizance, signed by the proper officer, together with an affidavit sworn before one of the judges at Westminster, or a master in chancery, that such memorial was duly signed; which memorial such officer is required to give such plaintiffs or cognizees, or their executors, administrators, or attorney; they paying 1*s.*, id. s. 4. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 18. s. r.; East Riding, &c., 6 A. c. 35. s. 19.; Middlesex, 7 A. c. 20. s. 18. s. r.]

31. The register shall make an entry, and if required give a certificate under his hand, testified by 2 witnesses, of such memorial of any judgment, statute, or recognizance, and therein mention the day on which such memorial is registered, expressing in what book, page, and number, id. s. 5. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 19. s. r.; East Riding, 6 A. c. 35. s. 20.; Middlesex, 7 A. c. 20. s. 19. s. r.]

32. The recognizance entered into by the register for the faithful performance of his duty, shall stand a security, as well for the due enrolment and safe keeping of the enrolments of all bargains and sales enrolled before the register, as for the faithful performance of his duty in the execution of his office of register, 5 & 6 A. c. 18. s. 6.

33. The register shall be allowed for enrolling every such bargain and sale, and memorial, and for certificates, copies, and searches, like fees as for entering memorials of deeds and wills, &c. [see 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 13. pl. 15.] id. s. 7.

34. If any person shall forge or counterfeit any entry of the acknowledgment of any bargainer in such bargain or sale, or any such memorial, certificate, or indorsement, as herein mentioned, and shall be thereof convicted, he shall incur such penalties as in 5 Rl. c. 14. are imposed for forging or publishing of false deeds, whereby the freehold of any person may be molested; and if any person shall forswear himself before the register, or before any judge or master in chancery, in the cases herein mentioned, and be thereof convicted, such person shall incur the same penalties, as if the oath had been made in any of the courts at Westminster, id. s. 8. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 31.; East Riding, &c. 6 A. c. 35. s. 26. s. r.]

35. All certificates required by this act, or by 2 A. c. 4. to be given by the register in case of searches, shall be signed by the register, or his deputy, in the presence of 2 persons, who shall set their names as witnesses, id. s. 9.

36. In case of mortgages, judgments, statutes, and recognizances; if a certificate shall be brought to the register, signed by the mortgagors and mortgagees, plaintiffs and defendants, cognizor and cognizees, respectively, their executors, administrators, or assigns, and attested by 2 witnesses, whereby it shall appear, that all monies due have been paid in discharge thereof; which witnesses shall, upon oath before the said register, prove such monies to be satisfied, and that they saw such certificate signed; the register shall make an entry in the margins of the register books, against the enrolment of such mortgage, or registry of such judgment, statute, or recognizance, that such mortgage, &c. was satisfied, and shall file such certificate upon record in the office, id. s. 10. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 32. s. r. East Riding, &c. 6 A. c. 35. s. 27. s. r.]

37. If any judgment, statute, or recognizance be registered within 30 days after the acknowledgment or signing thereof, all the lands that the defendant or cognizor had at the time of such acknowledgment or signing, shall be bound, id. s. 11. [East Riding, &c. 6 A. c. 35. s. 28. s. r.]

38. FOR THE REGISTRY OF ALL DEEDS, WILLS, &c. affecting any lands or hereditaments in the East Riding of Yorkshire, or the town and county of Kingston on Hull, after 20th Sept. 1778, and for rendering the registry in the west riding more complete, 6 A. c. 35. (Public clause, s. 33. [When this act resembles 2 A. c. 4. and 5 A. c. 18. it is not given at length; see those acts.]

39. A memorial of all conveyances, which after 29th Sept. 1708, shall be made, and of all wills where the deviser shall die after that day, concerning and whereby any lands in the east riding of the county of York, or in the town and county of Kingston upon Hull, may be affected, may be registered; and every such deed shall be adjudged fraudulent against any subsequent purchaser or mortgagee for valuable consideration, unless such memorial be registered, before the registering the memorial of the deed under which such subsequent purchaser or mortgagee shall claim; and every such devise by will shall be adjudged fraudulent against any subsequent purchaser or mortgagee for valuable consideration, unless a memorial of such will be registered as is herein directed, 6 A. c. 35. s. 1.

40. One public office for registering shall (at the public charge of the east riding, to be raised by the justices of peace at their quarter-sessions, in such manner as they are empowered to raise money for the repairs of county bridges) be established at Beverley, id. s. 2. [same provision for North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 3. at the market town, to be fixed as in s. 2. (pl. 54.) provided.]

41. In all deeds of bargain and sale enrolled in pursuance of this act, whereby any estate of inheritance in fee-simple is limited to the bargainee and his heirs, the words grant, bargain, and sell, shall amount to, and be construed to be, express covenants to the bargainee, his heirs and assigns, from the bargainer, for himself, his heirs, executors and administrators, that the bargainer, notwithstanding any act done by him, was at the time of the execution of such deed seized of the hereditaments thereby granted, bargained, and sold, of an indefeasible estate in fee-simple, free from all incumbrances, (rents and services due to the lord of the fee only excepted,) and for quiet enjoyment thereof against the bargainer, his heirs, and assigns, and all claiming under him, and also for further assurance thereof to be made by the bargainer, his heirs and assigns, and all claiming under him; unless the same shall be restrained by express words contained in such deed; and the bargainee, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, may in any action assign breaches thereupon, as they might do in case such covenants were expressly inserted, 6 A. c. 35. s. 30. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 35. s. r.]

42. Every leaf of the register and enrolment-books shall be signed by 2 justices, appointed by the justices at their quarter-sessions, and an entry thereof shall be made from time to time by the clerk of the peace of the said riding, in the order-book of the sessions, and signed by the justices that shall sign the register and enrolment-books; and a like entry shall be made upon record, and signed, of the number of the books, and how marked, and how many pages each of them contains, in the register-office, 6 A. c. 35. s. 31. [North Riding, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 36. s. r.]

43. All the provisions of this act concerning the east riding and town and county of Hull, not contained in 2 & 3 A. c. 4., and 5 & 6 A. c. 18., shall extend to all manors, lands, &c., and hereditaments situate in the west-riding (the mortgage or purchase whereof exceeds 40*l.*), as if they were inserted in the recited acts, 6 A. c. 35. s. 34.

44. FOR PUBLIC REGISTRY OF DEEDS, CONVEYANCES, WILLS, AND other incumbrances, affecting any honors, manors, lands, tenement, and hereditaments, within Middlesex, after 20th Sept. 1709., 7 A. c. 20., (Public clause, s. 20.) [The sections of this act, which resemble those in the preceding enrolment acts are not given at length, but will be found referred to above.]

45. A memorial of all deeds and conveyances, wills, and devises in writing, executed, made, and published of, or concerning and whereby any lands or hereditaments in the county of Middlesex, may be any way affected in law or equity, may be registered as hereinafter directed, and every such deed shall be adjudged fraudulent, and void against any subsequent purchaser or mortgagee for valuable consideration, unless such memorial thereof be registered as hereby directed, before registering the memorial of the deed, under which such subsequent purchaser, &c. claim; and every such devise by will, shall be adjudged void against any subsequent purchaser or mortgagee, for valuable consideration, unless a memorial of such will, be registered as hereinafter directed, id. s. 1.

46. One public office for registering such memorials shall be erected; viz., the sworn clerk of the enrolment-office in chancery for Middlesex, the chief clerk to enrol pleas in K. B., [now altered to his secondary, the master of the K. B. office, 25 G. 2. c. 4. s. 1.], the clerk of the warrants in C. P. and H. M.'s remembrancer, or his deputy in exchequer, shall be the registers or masters of the office for the matters in this act; and may appoint one or more deputies for whom they shall be accountable, which registers or their deputies, shall perform their duties in some office, in or near the inns of court or chancery; and the registers shall present such deputies to the lord chancellor, chief justices of K. B. and C. P., and chief baron of exchequer, to be by them, or 3 of them, approved before entering on their office, and they may be by the like persons displaced by writing under their hands and seals; and the like persons, or any 3 of them, may from time to time, make rules for the management of the office, id. s. 2.

47. Every such register, before entering on his office, shall be sworn either before the lord chancellor, or either chief justice or the chief baron, for true execution of his duty, id. s. 3. [The oath resembles (mutatis mutandis), that in 2 & 3 A. c. 4. s. 9.)

48. Each of the registers or masters, at the time of being sworn into office, shall enter into a recognizance with sureties (to be approved of by the lord chancellor, chief justices, and chief baron, or one of them) in the penalty of 2000*l.* to H. M., to be taken by one of the chief justices, conditioned for his true and faithful performance of his duty in his office, in all things directed by this act, the same to be transmitted by such chief justice within one month after the date, into the office of H. M.'s remembrancer of the exchequer, id. s. 15.

49. The damages to be forfeited by any such register, for any neglect, misdemeanor, or fraudulent practice, shall be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information, with no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance allowed in any court at Westminster, id. s. 14.

50. In case of mortgages, if a certificate shall be brought to the registers, signed by the mortgagees, &c. that all monies due upon such mortgage have been paid, &c. the registers shall make an entry in the margins of the register-books, that such mortgage was satisfied, as in 5 A. c. 18. s. 10., supra, pl. 36., id. s. 16.

51. This act shall not extend to any copyhold estates, or to any leases at a rack rent, or to any lease not exceeding 21 years where the actual possession goeth along with the lease, or to any of the chambers in Serjeants-Inn, the inns of court, or inns of chancery, id. s. 17.

52. FOR THE PUBLIC REGISTRY OF ALL DEEDS, CONVEYANCES, WILLS, AND other incumbrances, affecting any honors, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in the North Riding of Yorkshire, after (9th Sept. 1736.) 8 G. 2. c. 6. (Public clause, id. s. 38.) [The sections of this act omitted to be given at length here, are the same as the provisions of prior acts, and are before referred to, as applying to the North Riding.]

53. A memorial of all deeds and conveyances, which after 29th Sept. 1736, shall be made, and of all wills where the deviser shall die after the said day, and of all judgments, statutes, and recognizances, (other than those entered into in the name and on account of H. M.) which shall be obtained or entered into after the said day, whereby any manors, lands, &c. or hereditaments, in the north riding of Yorkshire may be affected, may be registered; and every such deed or conveyance, judgment, &c. shall be adjudged fraudulent against any subsequent purchaser or mortgagee, plaintiff or cognisee, upon valuable consideration, unless such memorial thereof be registered, before registering the memorial of the deed or conveyance, judgment, &c. under which such subsequent purchaser or mortgagee, plaintiff or cognisee, shall claim; and every such devise by will shall be adjudged void against a subsequent purchaser or mortgagee, plaintiff or cognisee, on valuable consideration, unless a memorial of such will be registered, 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 1.

54. One public office for registering such memorials, shall be established at such market-town, as the justices of peace shall adjudge to be the nearest to the centre of the north riding, to be managed (as in 2 A. c. 4.), 8 G. 2. c. 6. s. 2.

55. In case of concealment of any will, no purchaser for valuable consideration, nor any plaintiff in any judgment, or cognisee of any statute or recognizance, shall be defeated by any title devised by such will, unless the same be actually registered within 3 years after the death of the deviser, id. s. 17.

56. Bargain and sale of lands in the north riding, inrolled by the register, shall be as effectual as if inrolled according to 27 H. 8. c. 16. and one justice may take the acknowledgment of the bargainer, or of one of the bargainees; and the register shall inrol all such bargains and sales, and shall indorse a certificate of the times of inrolling, as in (5 A. c. 18. s. 1.) supra, pl. 27., id. s. 21.

57. Any person claiming title to any hereditaments in the north-riding, may register, at full length in the said office, any deeds, wills, or conveyances, under which such title is claimed, and which shall be made, and in the case of wills, where the deviser dies after 29th Sept. 1736, and the register shall inrol the same; and shall, in the margin of such inrolment, mention the time of inrolment, and shall indorse and sign a certificate on such deed or will, and shall keep all the books, wherein such inrolments shall be made, in the said office, there to remain upon record; and all copies of such inrolments, signed by the register, and attested by 2 witnesses, shall be good evidence of such deeds, wills, or conveyances, destroyed by fire or other accident, id. s. 22.

58. At the time any deed or will shall be brought to be inrolled, one of the witnesses shall make oath or affirmation before the register, that such deed was duly executed by the granters, or that such will was signed and published by the deviser, id. s. 23.

59. Such deeds and wills, as shall be made and executed in any place not within 40 miles of the office, may be entered in length, in case an affidavit or affirmation, made before one of the judges, or a master in chancery, be brought with such deed or will, wherein one of the witnesses shall swear, or affirm, that he saw the said deeds executed, or such wills signed and published, id. s. 24.

60. Such inrolment of such deeds and wills shall be deemed to be the entry of a memorial thereof, pursuant to this act, id. s. 25.

61. Such register shall be allowed for the entry of every memorial, 1s. but if such memorial exceed 200 words, then at 4d. per 100 for all the words in such memorial, above the first 200; and the like fees for every bargain and sale inrolled, and deeds and wills registered at length; and for every search 1s., id. s. 26.

62. If any judgment, statute, or recognizances, be registered within 20 days after the acknowledgment or signing thereof, it shall be as available as if such memorial had been entered on the day of the signing or acknowledgment, id. s. 33.

63. FOR APPOINTING THE MASTER OF THE KING'S BENCH OFFICE, one of the registers for the inrolment of deeds, wills, and conveyances in Middlesex, instead of the chief clerk of the pleas in K. B., 25 G. 2. c. 4. [Public clause, id. s. 3.]

64. The deputy or secondary of the chief clerk, to inrol pleas in K. B., called the master of the K. B. office, shall be one of the registers of the office for the things contained in 7 A. c. 20. instead of such chief clerk, with the powers as by that act given to such chief clerk; and the latter shall be discharged from being one of the registers for inrolling such deeds, &c. for Middlesex, and from any disability which as one of the said registers he would have been subject to, 35 G. 2. c. 4. s. 1.

65. Such secondary, called the master of the K. B. office, before entering on the office of register, shall take the oath, and enter into such recognizances as in 7 A. c. 20. mentioned, and be liable to the same penalties for misbehaviour as the other registers, id. s. 2.

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR RELIEF OF DEBTORS WITH RESPECT TO THE IMPRISONMENT OF THEIR PERSONS, and to oblige debtors who shall continue in execution in prison beyond a certain time, and for sums not exceeding what are mentioned (viz. 300*l.*) in the act, to make discovery of and deliver upon oath their estates for their creditors' benefit, 32 G. 2. c. 28. ss. 13—25. (the Lords' act.) [Not to extend to Scot., id. s. 25. AMD. 33 G. 3. c. 5., (which was MADE PERP. 39 G. 3. c. 50.), 37 G. 3. c. 85., EXT. to Fort William, Madras, and Bombay, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79. s. 23., and to prisoners in custody for non-payment of money under an order of any court of equity, 49 G. 3. c. 6., and AMD. 52 G. 3. c. 34. See the rest of 32 G. 2. c. 28., viz. ss. 1—4. ARREST, pl. 12—15. ss. 5—12. PRISON, &c.]

2. If any person charged in execution for any sum not exceeding 100*l.* [300*l.* 33 G. 3. c. 5. s. 1.] or on which execution there remains due (as shall be made appear by oath) a sum not amounting to above 100*l.*

[anub. now 3004.] be minded to deliver up to his creditors, who shall so charge him in execution, all his effects; such prisoner before the end of the first term next after he is charged in execution, may exhibit a petition to any court at law from whence the process issued upon which he was taken, or to the court into which such prisoner is removed by habeas corpus, or charged in custody, and remains in the prison thereof, certifying the cause of his imprisonment; and not only setting forth a just account of all real and personal estate which he, or any person in trust for him, is entitled to at the time of his petitioning, and of all incumbrances affecting such estate, but also a just account of all the real and personal estate which such prisoner, or any person in trust for him, was entitled to at the time of his first imprisonment in the action in which he is charged in execution, either in possession or expectancy, to the best of his belief, and so far as his knowledge extends; and a just account of all securities wherein any part of his estates consists, and of all deeds and papers concerning the same, and the names and places of abode of the witnesses to all securities or notes, and where they are to be met with, so far as his knowledge extends; and before such petition is received, such prisoner shall cause to be given or left, for all creditors at whose suit he stands charged in execution, or their executors or administrators, at their usual place of abode (or for their attorney last employed in such action, in case any creditor, &c. cannot be met with, but not otherwise), 14 days at least before such petition is presented, a notice in writing, signed with the name or mark of such prisoner, importing that such prisoner intends to petition such court, and setting forth a copy of the schedule of his estate, which he intends to deliver into court, except the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of the prisoner and his family, and the tools of his trade, not exceeding 10*l.* in value; and an affidavit of the due service of such notice shall be delivered with such petition and read in court; and if such court is satisfied with the regularity of such notice, such petition shall be received; and such court shall, by rule, cause the prisoner so petitioning to be brought up to such court on some day in such rule specified; and the creditors at whose suit he stands charged in execution, or their executors or administrators, may be summoned to appear personally, or by attorney, at some day specified in such rule; and if any creditor so summoned, or their executors or administrators appear, or if they neglect to appear, then, upon affidavit of the service of such rule on them (or their attorney, if they cannot be met with), such court shall, in a summary way, examine into such petition, and hear what shall be alleged for or against the discharge of such prisoner; and shall administer to prisoner an oath to the effect following:

'I A. B. do swear, in the presence of Almighty God, that the account by me set forth in my petition presented to this honourable court, doth contain a full and true account of the real and personal estate, debts, credits and effects whatsoever, which I, or any in trust for me, at the time of my first imprisonment in this action, or at any time since, had, or was in any respect entitled to, in possession, reversion or remainder (except the wearing apparel and bedding of or for me and my family, and the tools or instruments of my trade or calling, not exceeding 10*l.* in value in the whole); and also an account how much of my real and personal estate, debts, credits or effects hath since been disposed of, released or discharged, and how, to whom, and on what consideration, and for what purpose, and how much thereof I, or any person or persons in trust for me, have, or, at the time of my presenting my said petition to this honourable court, had, or which I am or was, or any person in trust for me, or for my use, in any ways interested in, or entitled to, in possession, reversion, remainder or expectancy; and also a true account of all deeds, writings, books, papers, securities, bonds and notes relating thereto, and where the same respectively now are, to the best of my knowledge and belief, and what charges are now affecting the real estate I am now seised of, or entitled to [if such prisoner be then seised of any real estate], and that I have not, at any time before or since my imprisonment, directly or indirectly, sold, leased, assigned, mortgaged, pawned, or otherwise disposed of, or made over in trust for myself, or otherwise than is mentioned in such account, any part of my messuages, lands, tenements, estates, goods, stock, money, debts, or other real or personal estate, whereby to have or accept any benefit, advantage or profit to myself or my family, or with any view, design or intent to deceive, injure or defraud any of my creditors to whom I am indebted.

and in case any prisoner as aforesaid shall in court take such oath, such court may then order the lands and effects contained in such account, or so much as may satisfy the debts wherewith such prisoner stands charged in execution, and the fees due to the keeper of the prison, to be by a short indorsement signed by the prisoner, assigned to the creditors who have charged such prisoner in execution, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, for their benefit, subject to all prior incumbrances; and the estate, interest or effects belonging to any such prisoner shall, by such assignment, be vested in the persons to whom such assignment is made, according to the interest such prisoner had therein, and the creditors to whom such assignment is made, shall take possession of, and sue in their names for the recovery thereof, as assignees of commissioners of bankrupts may sue for the recovery of the effects of bankrupts; and no release of such prisoner, his executors or administrators, or any trustee for him subsequent to such assignment, shall be pleadable in bar of any action commenced by such assignees of such prisoner; and upon every such assignment being executed by such prisoner, he shall be discharged out of custody by rule of court, and such rule being produced to, and a copy thereof left with such sheriff, or keeper of any prison, shall be a warrant to him to discharge such prisoner, if charged in execution, or detained for the causes mentioned in his petition, and no other; and every such sheriff or keeper shall, on having such order produced to him, and a copy thereof left with him, discharge forthwith every prisoner ordered to be so discharged, without taking any fee, or detaining him in respect of any demand of chamber-rent, or otherwise; or for any fees due to such sheriff or keeper, or any employed under him; and no such sheriff or keeper shall be liable to any action of escape, or other suit or information, for what he shall do in pursuance of this act; and the persons to whom the estate and effects of such prisoner shall be assigned, shall, with all convenient speed, sell the same, and divide the produce among the creditors who shall have charged such prisoner in execution, before the time of his petition, in proportion to their debts; but in case the persons at whose suit such prisoner stood charged in execution be not satisfied with truth of such prisoner's oath, and, either personally, or by attorney (if they cannot personally attend, and proof be made thereof, to satisfaction of such court), desire further time to inform themselves of the matters therein, such court may remand such prisoner, and direct him and the persons dissatisfied with such oath to appear in person, or by attorney, on some other day appointed by such court, at furthest within the first week of the term next following the time of such examination, but sooner if such court think fit; and all objections to the insufficiency in form against any prisoner's schedule of his effects, shall be only made the first time such prisoner is brought up; and if at such second day, creditors dissatisfied with such oath make default in appearing; or appear and are unable to discover any effects of the prisoner omitted in the account set forth in his petition; then such court shall by rule immediately cause the prisoner to be discharged, upon such prisoner's executing such assignment as before directed; unless such creditor who charged such prisoner in execution, his executors or administrators, insist upon such prisoner being detained, and agree by writing signed with his name or mark (or under the hand of his attorney, in case such creditor, &c. be out of Eng.) to pay weekly a sum not exceeding [*2*s.* 4*d.*, now, pl. 4. altered to*] 3*s.* 6*d.* as such court thinks fit, unto the said prisoner, to be paid on every Monday, so long as such prisoner continues in prison in execution at the suit of such creditor; and in such case such prisoner shall be remanded to prison; but if any failure at any time be made in the payment of the weekly sum, such prisoner, upon application in term time, to the court where the suit was commenced or carried on, or in the prison of which court any such prisoner stands committed on habeas corpus, or in vacation time, to any judge of such court, may, by order of such court or judge be discharged, proof being made on oath of the nonpayment for any week of the sum ordered; but every such prisoner before he be discharged shall execute an assignment of his estate and effects as before directed; and if any prisoner petitioning for his discharge under this act, refuse to take such oath before directed, or be detected before such court or judge of falsity therein, or refuse to execute such assignment of his effects, he shall be remanded and continue in execution, 32 G. 2. c. 28. s. 13.

3. So much of 32 G. 2. c. 28. ss. 13, 14. as relates to the amount of the respective sums 2*s.* 4*d.* and 1*s.* 6*d.*, to be paid and allowed as aforesaid, shall be REP., 37 G. 3. c. 85. s. 1.

4. In all cases where any persons charged in execution for debts, would have been entitled under 32 G. 2. c. 28. to be discharged unless their creditors would agree as therein mentioned, to pay a weekly sum not exceeding 2*s.* 4*d.* to such prisoner, or any such court as therein mentioned should think fit, such court by rule or order may cause such prisoners to be discharged on their executing such assignment and conveyance of their estates and effects as therein mentioned, unless such creditors shall insist on their being detained, and shall agree by writing signed as therein expressed, to pay a weekly sum not exceeding 3*s.* 6*d.*, as such court shall think fit unto such prisoners, to be paid at such times, manner, terms, and under such rules as by 32 G. 2. c. 28. is provided, with respect to the allowance made under that act, 37 G. 3. c. 85. s. 3.

5. Where more creditors than one shall charge under 32 G. 2. c. 28., any person in execution, and desire to have such prisoner detained, each such creditor shall respectively pay such weekly sum not exceeding 2*s.*, on every Monday to or for such prisoners as the court before whom any such prisoner is brought up to be discharged under such act, shall, when he is remanded, on the note for the payment of the weekly sum ordered to be paid, as in that act is required to be given, direct, id. s. 4.

6. Where any prisoner is charged in execution in any county-gaol, or in any other prison above 20 miles from Westminster-hall, or the court out of which the execution issued; then upon petition to the court from whence such execution issued, or in the prison of which court such prisoner stands charged in execution, in like form as petitions before-mentioned, and on affidavit, to the purport before directed, made and left with such petition, such court (being satisfied with the truth of such affidavit) shall make a rule, to cause the prisoner so petitioning, to be brought to next assizes for the county or place where he is imprisoned, if the same is within Eng., and if within Wa., or county palatine of Chester, then to the next great sessions for the county in which such prisoner is imprisoned; and the expence of bringing such prisoner to such assizes, not exceeding 1s. a mile, shall be paid to the gaoler who brings such prisoner, out of such prisoner's effects, if sufficient to pay such expence; and if not, then such expence shall be paid by treasurer of the county, riding, division, or place in which such prisoner is imprisoned, out of stock of county, &c. as the same is allowed by such court from which such execution issued, or in the prison of which such prisoner is, by one of the judges of assize or justices of great sessions; and the creditors, their executors or administrators, at whose suit such prisoner stands charged in execution, shall, by rule of court from whence the process issued, be summoned to appear at such next assizes or great sessions, if such creditors, &c. can be met with; and if not, then the attorney last employed for such creditors shall be summoned; and a copy of such rule shall be served on such creditors, &c. or left at their usual place of abode, or with their attorney last employed, 14 days at least before such assizes or great sessions; and on an affidavit of such service being laid before the judge of assize, or of great sessions, such judge being satisfied with the truth of such affidavit, shall appoint a time for hearing such petition, on some day on the crown side of such court during such assizes or great sessions, on the appearance of the creditors, &c. summoned in pursuance of this act; or in default of their appearance in person, or by attorney, then on proof of their being served with the notice required, and a copy of the account of the real and personal estate of the prisoner being comprised in such notice, and of the rule of such court for his appearance at such assizes or great sessions having been served; the judge shall, in a summary way, examine into such petition, and hear what shall be alleged for or against the discharge of the prisoner; and upon such examination, shall administer to such prisoner the oath before appointed; and shall make such order in the premises as seems meet, and proceed in the same manner concerning the discharge of any prisoner in any prison within his jurisdiction, and give the same relief and directions, as any court out of which any process issued against any prisoner may do, and every order made in the premises by such judge of assize or great sessions shall be as effectual as if made in the court out of which the process issued on which such prisoner was charged in execution; and the same shall be made a record of the proceedings at such assizes or great sessions, and a copy thereof shall be from thence transmitted to the court from whence the execution against the prisoner discharged issued, signed by the judge of assize or great sessions, to be a record of such court, 32 G. 2. c. 28. s. 15.

7. The court under the process whereof any debtor or other person is confined, may order such debtors and others to be brought before any general or quarter-sessions mentioned in any petition of such debtors or others, to be holden for any county, city, liberty, or franchise, or jurisdiction within the distance of 20 miles of the gaol wherein such debtors, &c. are confined, instead of ordering them to be brought up before a judge of assizes, in all cases where such courts think proper so to do, and where such sessions are holden either nearer in point of distance from such gaol, or in point of time, than the assizes at which such judge of assize would be present would be holden; and such sessions before whom such debtors or others are brought up, shall determine the petition, and do all things, as near as may be, which by 32 G. 2. c. 28. a judge of assize on the crown side is required to do, and their orders shall be as valid as if made in the courts out of which process against such debtors or others issued, and the same shall be made records of such sessions, and copies thereof, signed by the chairman shall be transmitted to such courts, to be a record of such court, and all the provisions, powers, penalties, liabilities, indemnities, &c. contained in 32 G. 2. c. 28., or 33 G. 3. c. 5., or 39 G. 3. c. 50., applicable to any thing to be done before a judge of assize, or by any person in obedience to any order made under such acts, shall extend to all things by this act authorized to be done before the general or quarter-sessions, or by any person in obedience to any order made under this act, 52 G. 3. c. 34.

8. If any prisoner who is charged in execution for any debt or damages not exceeding 100*l.* besides costs, shall not within 3 months after he is charged in execution make satisfaction to his creditors who charged him in execution, then such creditors, their executors or administrators may require such prisoner, on giving 20 days' notice in writing to him, that they design to compel him to give in to the court from which the process issued, on which he is charged in execution, or into the court in the prison of which he hath been removed by habeas corpus, or remains charged in execution, within the first 7 days of the term next ensuing the expiration of such 20 days, in respect to any prisoner charged in any prison belonging to the courts in Westminster Hall; and at the second court held by any other court of record after the expiration of such 20 days, in respect to any prisoner charged in any prison belonging to such other court; and where any such prisoner is charged in execution in any prison above 20 miles from Westminster Hall, or the court out of which the process, on which he is charged in execution, issued, then to give in upon oath, at the assizes or great sessions, as in s. 15., and on the crown side thereof, for the county or place in the prison of which such prisoner is, next after the expiration of such 20 days, an account in writing, signed with his name or mark, of his real and personal estate, and of all incumbrances affecting the same, to the best of his knowledge and belief, in order that his effects may be divested out of him, and may by such court or judge, be ordered to be assigned in manner and for the purposes herein after declared, and every creditor requiring any prisoner to be brought up as aforesaid, shall also give 20 days notice in writing of such his intention to all other creditors of such prisoner, at whose suit such prisoner is detained, if he be detained or charged in execution at the suit of any other creditors besides those giving such notice, if such other creditors can be found, and if not, then to the several attorneys last employed in the respective actions in which such prisoner is so detained; and shall give a like notice in writing to the sheriff or keeper of the prison in which such prisoner is detained, of his intention to have such prisoner brought up, and to require such sheriff or gaoler to bring up such prisoner; and such notice to any sheriff or gaoler shall be so given 20 days at least before the time appointed for such prisoner to be brought up; and thereupon every such sheriff or gaoler to whom such notice is so given, shall, at the costs of such creditors, their executors, &c. cause such prisoner to be brought, as by such notice is required, to such court, assizes, or great sessions, as in s. 15. together with a copy of the causes of his detainer: and if such sheriff or gaoler, on such notice in writing being given, and on tender made on behalf of such creditor, of reasonable charges, not exceeding 1s. a mile, to bring up the prisoner so required, shall neglect to bring him there at the time required, with a copy of his detainer, such sheriff or keeper shall, for every such offence, forfeit 20*l.* to be recovered by the party aggrieved by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record at Westminster, if such offence be committed out of Wa., or the county palatine of Chester; and if in Wa., or Chester, then in some court of record in such principality or county palatine within the jurisdiction of which such offence is committed, with treble costs, 52 G. 2. c. 28. s. 16.

9. Every prisoner charged in execution, who in the pursuance of this act shall, at the desire of any creditor, be brought up to any such court, as in s. 15. shall, on proof there first made of such notices as before directed having been given, deliver into court upon oath, within the time before prescribed, an account in writing of his real and personal estate, and of all writings and securities, &c. relating thereto, and of all incumbrances then affecting the same, and the times when made, to the best of his knowledge and belief, except necessary wearing apparel and bedding of such prisoner and his family, and the necessary tools of his trade, not exceeding the value of 10*l.* which account shall be subscribed with the name or mark of such prisoner: and on the delivering in of such account, the estate and effects of such prisoner shall be assigned by such prisoner, by a short indorsement on such account, to such persons as the court, judge, or justices, in which, or to whom such account shall be so given in, shall order, in trust for the creditors who required such prisoner to be brought up, and of such other creditors (if any) at whose suit such prisoner is charged in custody or in execution, and who by writing, signed by them respectively, before such assignment is made, consent to such prisoner's being discharged at their suits, and agree to take a proportionable dividend of his effects with the creditors who required him to be brought up, and if there be no other creditors, or if there being such they do not agree in writing to discharge such prisoner, and accept such proportionable dividend, then in trust for the creditors only who shall require such prisoner to be brought up; and by such assignment all such prisoner's estate and effects shall be vested in the creditors to whom the same are so assigned in trust; and if any overplus remain after payment of the debts or damages, and costs, due to any creditors at whose suit such prisoner is discharged, and all charges of getting in such effects, the same shall be paid to such prisoner, his executors, administrators, or assigns; and upon every such assignment by such prisoner, to the satisfaction of the court, judge of assize, or justices of great sessions, before whom the same was made, such prisoner shall by such court or judge be discharged in the actions at suit of the creditors who required such prisoner to be brought up, and in the actions of every other creditor, &c. signing such consent, with the same benefit of making use of such discharge, as is before provided for prisoners seeking and obtaining their discharge under the provisions in the former part of this act (s. 13.); and no greater fee than 2*s.* 6*d.* shall be taken for such discharge by all or any officers of any such courts, assizes, or great sessions; and no stamp shall be necessary on such assignment, or any rule made for such discharge; but all the future effects of such prisoner (except the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of such prisoner and his family, and the tools of his trade) shall be liable to his debts, if not fully paid from his estate assigned aforesaid; and no advantage shall be taken in any action hereafter commenced against such prisoner, his heirs, executors, or administrators, for that the cause of action did not accrue within six years next before the commencing of such action, unless such prisoner was entitled to such advantage before he stood charged by the original action; and in such case the same may be pleaded by such prisoner, his heirs, &c. and if any prisoner charged in execution, and required to be brought up as aforesaid, neglect to deliver in and subscribe such account of his estate and effects in such court, &c. within the time before appointed, or within 60 days then next following without making appear some just excuse to be allowed of by the court, &c. or shall refuse to assign his effects, he so offending and convicted upon indictment, shall be transported for 7 years; and if such prisoner deliver in a false account of his effects, or designedly conceal, and not insert in such account, any books, securities, or writings relating to his effects, with intent to defraud his creditors, and be convicted on indictment, he shall suffer the pains inflicted on persons convicted of wilful perjury, 32 G. 2. c. 28. s. 17.

10. If any person taking an oath by this act required, shall upon any indictment for perjury, be convicted by confession or verdict, he shall suffer the pains and forfeitures inflicted on persons convicted of wilful perjury, and shall be liable to be taken on any process de novo, and charged in execution for such debt, as if he had not been discharged, or not charged in execution before, and shall never after have the benefit of this act, id. s. 18.

11. If the effects of any prisoner assigned in pursuance of this act, extend not to satisfy the whole debts, and the fees due to the gaoler, such gaoler shall only receive a proportionable dividend in respect of such fees pro rata with the other creditor, id. s. 19.

12. Prisoners so discharged shall never after be arrested for the same debts; nor shall any action of debt be brought against them on any such judgment, unless they be under this act convicted of wilful perjury; but notwithstanding any discharge under this act for the person of such prisoner, the judgment against him shall continue in force, and execution may at any time be taken out thereon against the lands, &c. or goods of such prisoner, except the necessary wearing apparel and bedding for himself and family, and the tool for his trade, not exceeding 10*l.* in value, id. s. 20.

13. Any assignee to whom by virtue of this act the estate or effects of any prisoner discharged by this act shall be assigned, shall make composition with any debtors or accountants to such prisoner, where the same appears reasonable, and may take such part of any debt as can be gotten in full discharge of such debt or account; and also may submit any difference concerning such prisoner's estate or effects, or in respect of any debt due to such prisoner, to the determination of arbitrators chosen by such assignees, and the parties with whom such difference is; and if such arbitrators cannot agree, then may submit the same to the determination of any umpire chosen by them, or otherwise to settle the matter in difference between them, as such assignees think fit; and the same shall be binding, as well to all other of such prisoner's creditors who have charged him in custody or execution, as also to such prisoner: and every such assignee shall be indemnified for what he fairly does in the premises according to this act, id. s. 21.

14. The courts at Westminster, from whence any process issued, upon which such prisoner was charged in execution, whose effects are assigned under this act, or where such prisoner is charged in execution by process issued out of any other court, the judges of the K. B., C. P., and exchequer, or any one of them, on the petition of any creditor having charged such prisoner in execution, or of such prisoner, complaining of any fraud or misbehaviour of any such assignee, may order the parties concerned to attend such court or judge at some certain time in such order mentioned; and every such court at Westminster, and every judge thereof, shall make such order in the premises, either for displacing such assignee, and appointing a new one, or for the prudent management of such estate and effects, for the benefit of the creditors, as any of such courts or judges think fit, and in case of the displacing of an assignee, and the appointing of a new assignee, the effects of such prisoner shall from thenceforth be divested out of the assignee so removed, and vested in, and delivered over to the new assignee, in the same manner, and for the like purposes, as the same were before vested in the former assignee, id. s. 22.

15. Where mutual credit shall have been given between any prisoner discharged under this act, and any other person before the delivery of any schedule of estate and effects of such prisoner upon oath; that the assignees of such prisoner shall state an account between them; and nothing more shall be vested by any assignment made in pursuance of this act, as estate and effects of such prisoner, than what appears due to him for the balance of such account, id. s. 23. [The sect 24. is Rev. by 52 G. 5. c. 34. s. 2.]

16. Every creditor, or his executors or administrators, at whose suit any debtor is charged in execution for any sum not exceeding 300*l.* may compel such debtor to deliver up his estate and effects for the benefit of his creditors, as by 32 G. 2. c. 28. s. 16. provided, 33 G. 3. c. 5. s. 3.

17. All persons committed on attachments for not paying money awarded to be paid under submissions to arbitration, by rules of court, or arbitration bonds which have been made rules of court pursuant to 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 15., and likewise for not paying of costs duly taxed, and also on writs of excommunicato capiendo or other process, grounded on non-payment of costs in any cause in any ecclesiastical court, shall have the benefit of this act, subject to the conditions herein expressed with respect to prisoners for debt only, id. s. 1.

18. Where any debtor shall neglect to take the benefit of 32 G. 2. c. 28. or this act, within the time limited, and shall make it appear to the court out of which execution issued, that such neglect arose from ignorance or mistake, he shall be entitled to such benefit as if he had taken the same within the time limited; but any creditor at whose suit any debtor shall be so in execution, may file interrogatories for the examination of such prisoner before he takes the benefit of this act; but this act shall not extend to any debt owing to the crown, nor shall it affect any proceeding under any commission of bankruptcy, nor shall extend to Scot., id. s. 5.

19. All persons in custody for contempt of any court of equity, by not paying any money or costs, ordered to be paid by any decree or order of any such court, shall be entitled to the benefit of 32 G. 2. c. 28., 33 G. 3. c. 5., and 37 G. 3. c. 85. subject to the terms and conditions therein expressed with respect to prisoners for debt only, 49 G. 5. c. 6.

20. FOR THE DISCHARGE OF DEBTORS IN EXECUTION for small debts (20*l.*) from imprisonment in certain cases, 48 G. 3. c. 123. [not to extend to Scot. or Ire., id. s. 9.]

21. All persons in execution upon any judgment in any court, and whether the same be a court of record or not, for any debt or damages not exceeding 20*l.* exclusive of costs, and who have lain in prison for 12 calendar months previous to their application to be discharged, may on such application in term time, to some one of the superior courts of record at Westminster, to the satisfaction of such court, be forthwith discharged out of custody as to such execution, by rule or order of such court; provided, that in case of any such application to be discharged out of execution upon a judgment obtained in the court of record at Westminster, such application shall be made to that court wherein such judgment was obtained, and that whether such prisoner be then actually detained in the gaol of such court, or stands committed on habeas corpus to the gaol of another court; provided, that if any such discharge is obtained by any false allegation, which, if true, might entitle the prisoner to his discharge under this act, such prisoner shall, on the same being made to appear to the court by whose rule he was discharged, be liable again to be taken in execution and remanded to his former custody by rule of such court, but no sheriff, gaoler, or other person shall be liable as for an escape, in respect of such enlargement, during the time such prisoner was at large by means of such undue discharge, and notwithstanding any such discharge, the judgment wherein such debtor was taken in execution, shall continue in force, except as to taking his person, and the creditors at whose suit he was so taken, may take out execution on such judgment against his lands, tenements, hereditaments, and goods, (other than wearing apparel and bedding of himself and family, and his tools of trade, not exceeding 10*l.* value;) or they may bring an action on such judgment against such debtor, or use any remedy for recovery of their demands against any person liable to satisfy the same, as they could in case such debtor had not been taken in execution; provided no debtor duly discharged under this act, shall be taken or charged in execution upon any judgment herein declared to continue in full force, nor be arrested in any action on such judgment, and no proceeding by sc. fa. action or otherwise, shall be maintained against his bail in any action upon the judgment whereon the defendant was charged in execution, and afterwards discharged under this act, id. s. 1.

22. FOR THE RELIEF OF INSOLVENT DEBTORS IN Eng., 1 G. 1. c. 119. [Con. to the end of the session after 1st June 1695, id. s. 52.]

23. If M. may appoint a chief and two other commissioners, being barristers of 10 years' standing, to be commissioners for the relief of insolvent debtors, and to preside in a court to be called The Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; which shall be a court of record; and when such appointments have been notified in the London Gazette, such court shall be deemed fully constituted, and shall have power to appoint a chief clerk, a provisional assignee, a receiver, and such other officers as the lord chancellor, and chief justices of K. B. and C. P. and the chief baron judge necessary, and in such manner as they shall direct; and such court, or any of the commissioners acting under this act, may adjourn any meeting under this act as often as they think necessary, and may administer oaths, and examine all parties and witnesses upon oath for the purposes of this act, and shall have the same powers of compelling the attendance of witnesses, and of requiring and compelling the production of books, papers, and writings, as are now possessed by any of the superior courts at Westminster, and may order any prisoner who shall have petitioned for relief under this act, or any prisoner who shall be a necessary and material witness in any matter pending in such court, or before any commissioner thereof, to be brought before such court or commissioner as often as shall be thought fit; and such court shall also have the power of committing persons guilty of any contempt to such court, to the prison of the K. H. or the common gaol of any county in which such person shall be, and the power of fining in a summary way, or removing any of the officers of such court who shall be guilty of any negligence, wilful or unnecessary delay, or other misconduct; provided such court shall not award costs against any person, except in such cases only where costs are hereinafter expressly mentioned and permitted to be awarded by this act: provided that nothing herein shall compel the attendance of any witness, unless the party on whose behalf such witness is required shall have previously tendered to such witness such allowance for expenses for his attendance, as, in the judgment of such court or of a commissioner shall appear reasonable, 1 G. 4. c. 119. s. 1.

24. Such court shall sit for the dispatch of business twice in every week throughout the year, and one of such commissioners shall attend, id. s. 2.

25. No fee or gratuity shall be received or taken by such court, or any officer thereof, on any pretence, except such as shall be specified in a list, to be signed by the commissioners of such court, a copy of which list shall always be exposed to view in the office of such court, id. s. 3.

26. When such court is fully established, any person in King who shall be in actual custody upon any process whatsoever, for any debt, damage, costs, or sums of money, or for contempt of any court for nonpayment of any money, or of costs, taxed or untaxed, either ordered to be paid, or to the payment of which such persons would be liable in purging such contempt, or in any manner in consequence of such contempt, at any time within 14 days next after the commencement of such actual custody, or within such further time as the court shall think reasonable, may apply by petition in a summary way to such court for his discharge from such confinement, according to this act; in which petition shall be stated the place wherein such prisoner is then confined, the time when he was first charged in custody, together with the names of the persons at whose suit he shall, at the time of presenting such petition, be detained in custody, and the amount of the debts and sums, and also of such costs as aforesaid, so far as such costs are ascertained, for which such prisoner is so detained; and shall pray to be discharged from custody, and to have future liberty of his person against the demands for which he is then in custody, and of all other persons who shall be or claim to be creditors of such prisoner at the time of presenting such petition; which petition shall be subscribed by such prisoner, and forthwith be filed in such court; and such prisoner shall, at the time of subscribing such petition, duly execute a conveyance and assignment, in such form as such court shall direct, of all his estate, right, title, interest, and trust to all his real and personal estate and effects, except to the wearing apparel, bedding, and other such necessaries of such prisoner and his family, not exceeding in the whole the value of 20*l.*, so as to vest all such estate and effects in the provisional assignee of such court, subject to a proviso that in case such prisoner shall not obtain his discharge under this act, such conveyance and assignment shall, from the dismissal of his petition praying for his discharge, be void, id. s. 4.

27. Such court shall direct such provisional assignee, or such assignees as in s. 7. mentioned, to pay out of such estate and effects to the prisoner such allowance for his or her maintenance during such prisoner's confinement in actual custody as shall seem reasonable, id. s. 5.

28. Such prisoner shall, within 14 days after such petition has been filed, or within such further time as the court shall think reasonable, deliver into such court a schedule, containing a full and true description of every person to whom such prisoner is then indebted, or who to his or her knowledge shall claim to be his or her creditors, together with the nature and amount of such debts and claims, distinguishing such as are admitted from such as are disputed by such prisoner, and also a perfect account of all the estates and effects, real and personal, in possession, reversion, remainder, or expectancy; and also of all places of benefit, whether the emoluments arise from fixed salaries or from fees; and of all pensions or allowances of such prisoner in possession or reversion, or held by any other person on behalf of such prisoner, or from which he or she derives or may derive any benefit or advantage; and also all rights and powers of every nature, which such prisoner, or any other person in trust for him or her, or for his or her use, shall be seized or possessed of, or interested in, or entitled unto, or which such prisoner, or any person in trust for him or her, or for his or her benefit, shall have any power to dispose of, charge, or exercise for the benefit of such prisoner at the time of presenting such petition; together with a perfect account of all debts at such time owing to such prisoner, or to any person in trust for him or her, or for his or her benefit, either solely, or jointly with any other person; and the names and places of abode of such several debtors and of the witnesses who can prove such debts, so far as such prisoner can set forth the same; and such schedule shall also truly describe the wearing apparel and bedding of such prisoner, and his or her family, and the working tools and implements, and other such necessaries, not exceeding in the whole 20*l.*, which may be excepted by such prisoner from this act, together with the values of such excepted articles; and such schedule shall be subscribed by such prisoner, and filed in the court, 1 G. 4. c. 119. s. 6.

29. When such court shall adjudge any prisoner to be entitled to his discharge, such court shall appoint proper persons to be assignees of the estate and effects of such prisoner for the purposes of this act; and when such assignees have signified to the court their acceptance of the appointment, such prisoner's estate, effects, rights, and powers, vested in such provisional assignee, shall immediately be assigned by such provisional assignee to such assignees, in trust for their benefit and the rest of the creditors of such prisoner, in proportion to their respective debts, according to this act; and in case any prisoner who is discharged under this act shall be entitled to any copyhold or customary estate, the assignment to such assignees shall be entered on the court rolls of the manor of which such copyhold is holden; and thereupon the assignees of the estate and effects of such prisoner may surrender or convey such copyhold estate to any purchasers from them, as the court shall direct, and the rents and profits thereof shall be in the meantime received by such assignees, for the benefit of such creditors, but without prejudice to the lord of the manor of which any such copyhold is holden; and such assignees shall sue, as there may be occasion, in their own names, for the recovery and enforcing any estate, effects, or rights of any such prisoner; and also execute any trust or power vested in or created for the use of any such prisoner, but in trust for their benefit and the rest of such creditors, according to this act, and may give such discharges to any persons who shall be indebted to such prisoner, as may be requisite; and such assignment, whether to a provisional or other assignee or assignees, shall be entered on the proceedings of the court, and an office copy thereof shall be sufficient evidence thereof in all courts; and such assignees shall, with all speed, after their accepting such assignment, use their best endeavours to get in the estate and effects of such prisoner, and make sale of all such estate and effects vested in them; and if such prisoner shall be interested in or entitled to any real estate, either in possession, reversion, or expectancy, the same, within 2 months after such assignment and conveyance, or within such other time as the court shall direct, shall be sold by public auction in such manner and place as the major part of the creditors entitled to the benefit thereof, who shall assemble together on any notice published in the London Gazette, and in some daily paper published in London, or within the bills of mortality, if the prisoner before his or her going to prison resided in London or within the bills of mortality, and if elsewhere, then in some newspaper published and generally circulated in or near the county, city, or place in which such prisoner resided before he or she was committed to prison, 30 days before any such sale is made, shall, under their hands, approve; and such assignees, at the end of 3 months from the time of accepting such assignment or conveyance, and so as occasion requires, shall make up an account of such prisoner's estate, and make oath in writing before an officer of such court to be appointed for that purpose, or before one justice of peace of the county, city, or place in which such assignees reside, that such account is a fair and just account of the estate and effects of such prisoner got in by them, and of all payments made in respect thereof, and that all payments in such account charged were bona fide made, which account so sworn shall be filed with the proper officer of the court; and if it appear that such assignees have any balance wherewith a dividend may be made amongst the creditors whose debts are expressed in his or her schedule, such assignees shall forthwith declare such balance; and notice of the making of such dividend shall be published, in like manner as a meeting of creditors is herein directed to be published, 30 days before such dividend is made; and every creditor whose debts shall be admitted in such schedule shall receive a share of such dividend, unless such prisoner, or his or her assignees, or any other creditor, shall object to any such debt, in which case the same shall be examined into by the court, who may require and compel the production of all books, papers, and writings which may be necessary to be produced, as well by the person claiming such debt, as by the prisoner against whom the same is claimed, or his or her assignees, and examine all such persons and their witnesses on oath, and take all other measures necessary for the due investigation of such claim; and the decision of such court upon such claim shall be conclusive with respect to any dividend of the effects of such prisoner under this act, id. s. 7.

30. When prisoners discharged under this act are entitled to annuities for their own lives, or other uncertain interests, or to reversionary or contingent interests, or to property under such circumstances that the immediate sale thereof may be prejudicial, then such court may take into consideration all circumstances affecting the property of any such prisoner, either at the time of the discharge or afterwards; and if it appear that it would be reasonable to make any special order touching the same, such court may do so, and direct such property as it may be expedient not to sell, or not to sell immediately according to this act, not to be so sold, and may direct in what manner such property shall be managed for the benefit of the creditors until the same can be properly sold, or until payment of all such creditors according to this act; and may make such order touching the sale or disposition of such property as to such court seems reasonable, considering the rights of the creditors to payment of their demands, and the future benefit of such prisoner after such payment, and upon such conditions with respect to the allowance of interest on debts not bearing interest, or other circumstances, as seems just; and if it appear to such court that the debts of such prisoner can be discharged by means of money raised by way of mortgage on any property of such prisoner, instead of by sale, such court may so order and give all necessary directions for such purpose, and generally direct all things proper for discharge of the debts of such prisoner, in such manner as may be most consistent with his or her interests in any surplus after payment of such debts, 1 G. 4. c. 119. s. 8.

31. In case such prisoner, or any of his or her creditors, or such court, is dissatisfied with the account of any assignees so rendered upon oath as in s. 7., or in case such assignees neglect to render such account, or to dispose of the property, or collect the effects of such prisoner, or in any manner waste or mismanage the same, or neglect to make a due distribution thereof, such court, or any such creditor, may require such assignees to render such account on oath, as hereby directed, if not before rendered, and may examine any account so rendered, and inquire into any waste, mismanagement, or neglect of the estate or effects of such prisoner, and direct a proper administration thereof, and ascertain the produce of such estate and effects to be divided amongst such creditors, and direct the distribution thereof accordingly; and may compel the production of all books, papers, and writings necessary for such purposes, and examine all parties and their writings on oath, and take measures necessary for the compelling and rendering of such account, and the due investigation thereof, and the proper disposition of the effects of such prisoner according to this act, and may award costs against any of the parties as justice requires; and the decisions of the court upon such matters shall be final, id. s. 9.

32. Every creditor of any such prisoner, for any sum payable by way of annuity or otherwise at any future time, by virtue of any bond, covenant, or other securities, shall be admitted a creditor, and receive a dividend of the estate of such prisoner, in such manner and upon such conditions as such creditor would have been entitled by law if such prisoner had become bankrupt, the amount upon which such dividend is calculated, and the conditions on which the same is received being first settled by such court; and without prejudice in future to their securities, otherwise than as the same would have been affected by a proof made in respect thereof by a creditor under a commission of bankruptcy, and a certificate obtained by the bankrupt under such commission, id. s. 10.

33. Provided no suit in law be proceeded in further than an arrest on mesne process, or suit in equity be commenced by any assignees of any such prisoner's estate and effects, without the consent of the major part in value of the creditors who shall meet pursuant to a notice to be given, 14 days before such meeting, in the London Gazette, or other newspaper published in the neighbourhood of the last residence of such prisoner for that purpose, and without the approbation of one of the commissioners of such court, id. s. 11.

34. Where any persons claiming the benefit of this act are possessed of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, to hold for their natural lives, with power of granting leases and taking fines, reserving small rents on such estate for one, two, or three lives in possession or reversion, or for some number of years determinable upon lives, or have powers over such real or personal estate which such prisoners could execute for their own advantage, and which ought to be executed for the benefit of the creditors of such prisoners; the power of leasing such lands, &c. and all other such powers over such real or personal estates, which are or shall be so vested in any such prisoner, shall be vested in the assignees of the real and personal estate of such prisoner, by virtue of this act, so far as the prisoner could by law vest such power in any person to whom he might lawfully have conveyed the same, to be by such assignees executed for the benefit of all the creditors, id. s. 12.

35. Any assignees of the estate or effects of any prisoner, with the consent of the major part in value of his or her creditors present at a meeting to be had on 14 days notice previously given for the purpose hereafter mentioned in the London Gazette, if the prisoner was in custody in London or the weekly bills of mortality, and if not, then also in some newspaper published in the county, city, or place in or near which such prisoner was in such actual custody, and with the approbation of one of the commissioners of such court, may make compositions with any debtors or accountants to such prisoner, where the same appear reasonable, and take such reasonable part of any such debts as can upon such composition be gotten in full discharge thereof, and submit to arbitration any difference or dispute between such assignees, and any persons on account of any thing relating to the estate and effects of such prisoner; and assignees shall be indemnified for what they shall fairly do in the premises under this act, 1 G. 4. c. 119. s. 13.

36. In case any assignee so appointed is unwilling to act, or in case of the death, incapacity, or misconduct of any such assignee, any creditor of such prisoner may apply to such court to appoint a new one, with like powers as the original assignee; and such court may remove such assignees, and appoint new assignees, and oblige any assignee who shall be removed, and the heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns of any deceased assignee, to account for and deliver up all such estate and effects, books, papers, writings, deeds, and all other evidences relating thereto, as remain in his hands, to be applied for the purposes of this act; and the decision of such court thereupon shall be final; and immediately after such appointment, all the estate, effects, rights, and powers of such prisoner, vested either in the provisional assignee or such assignees as aforesaid, are hereby vested in such new assignee, id. s. 14.

37. In case any such assignees, or the heirs, executors, or administrators of any deceased assignees, shall not deliver over any part of such estate or effects, or pay the balance of the produce thereof found in their hands according to this act, such court may order the persons so offending to be arrested and committed to the county gaol nearest to the place where they reside without bail, until they have fulfilled the duty required by this act, or until this court shall make order to the contrary, id. s. 15.

38. Such court shall forthwith, after such petition and schedule have been filed, cause notice thereof to be given to the creditors at whose suit such prisoner is detained, or the attorney or agent of such creditors, and to the other creditors named in such schedule, of such of them as the court shall think fit, and to be inserted in the London Gazette, and also, if the court thinks necessary, in some other newspaper, and shall appoint a day and place for hearing such petition; and in case such notice as the court shall direct has been given by any creditor, of his or her intention to oppose such prisoner's discharge, both such creditor, and any other of the creditors of such prisoner, may oppose his or her discharge, and for that purpose put such questions to such prisoner and examine such witnesses as the court thinks fit, touching such petition and schedule, and such other matters as the court thinks proper to be enquired into, in order to the execution of this act; but no creditor shall examine or oppose the discharge of such prisoner, until he shall make oath or affidavit of his debt, or otherwise satisfy the court of his right so to oppose, if required so to do by such prisoner: provided that, at such hearing, any creditor so opposing may require, or the court may order that it be referred to an officer of the court, to investigate the accounts of such prisoner, and to examine into the truth of his or her schedule, and to report thereon to such court; and such court may at such hearing proceed on the other matters in opposition to the discharge of such prisoner, or adjourn the hearing thereof until such officer has made his report; and in case such prisoner is not opposed, and the court is satisfied with the schedule, and that such prisoner is entitled to the benefit of this act, then such court shall so declare, and shall order such prisoner to be discharged forthwith, or so soon as he or she has been in custody at the suit of one or more of the persons who were creditors at the time of petitioning, or who have since become creditors in respect of debts then growing due, for such period not exceeding 6 months in the whole, as such court shall direct, to be computed from the time of filing the petition, and shall in such order specify the several debts of the prisoner to which such charge applies, and such discharge shall extend to all process issuing from any court for any contempt of any court, ecclesiastical or civil, by non-payment of money, or of costs in any cause or proceeding in any such court; and in case it appears to such court, that the opposition to the petition of such prisoner is vexatious, such court may award such costs to such prisoner as shall appear just, id. s. 16.

39. In case it appears to such court, that such prisoner, with intent to conceal the state of his affairs, or to defeat the objects of this act, has destroyed or otherwise wilfully prevented or withheld the production of any books, papers, or writings, relating to his affairs; or has kept false books, or made false entries, or wilfully and fraudulently altered or falsified any such books, &c. or has in any respect been guilty of fraud, in discharging or concealing any debt due to or from such prisoner; or has fraudulently made away with, charged, mortgaged, or concealed any part of his or her property, either before or after the commencement of his or her imprisonment, for the purpose of diminishing the sum to be divided among his or her creditors, or of giving an undue preference to any of the creditors, then such court may order such prisoner not to be discharged, or receive any protection under this act, until he has been in custody at the suit of some one or more of the persons who were creditors at the time of his petitioning the court, or had since become creditors in respect of debts then growing due, and from whose claims he shall be discharged by the judgment of such court, for such period, not exceeding 3 years in the whole, as such court shall direct, to be computed from the filing of such prisoner's petition, 1 G. 4. c. 119. s. 17.

40. In case it appear to such court that any such prisoner has contracted any of his debts fraudulently, or by means of false pretences, or without having had any probable expectation at the time when contracted of paying the same, or shall be indebted for damages recovered in any action for crim. con., or for seducing the daughter of the plaintiff, or in any action for a malicious prosecution, or for any other malicious injury, or has put any of his or her creditors to any unnecessary expence, by any vexatious defence to any suit for recovering the same, such court may order such prisoner not to be discharged, or to be entitled to any benefit under this act, as to any debt so contracted, or as to any damages so incurred, or as to any debt for recovering of which he shall occasion unnecessary expence, until he has been in custody at the suit of the creditors whose debts were so contracted, or damages so incurred, or who were so put to expence, for such period not exceeding 2 years, as such court shall direct, to be computed as in s. 17. id. s. 18.

41. In all cases where such prisoner shall not be ordered to be discharged forthwith, but to be liable to imprisonment at the suit of his creditors, such court, on the application of such prisoner, may order the creditors at whose suit he is imprisoned, to pay to such prisoner such sum not exceeding the rate of 4s. by the week in the whole, at such times and manner as such court shall direct; and on failure of payment thereof as directed by the court, such prisoner shall be forthwith discharged from custody at the suit of the creditor so failing, id. s. 19.

42. The justices of peace for every county, city, cinque port, or place, assembled at the quarter or general sessions, or at any adjournment thereof, shall in open court appoint as many fit persons as they judge sufficient, to be examiners for the purposes of this act, within their respective jurisdictions, id. s. 21.

43. Such court shall, in all cases, as they think fit, direct any prisoner, instead of being brought before such court for final examination, to be examined by the justices in open court, at their general or quarter sessions, or at some adjournment thereof, &c. who shall take such examination pursuant to such order; and such court shall forthwith cause 21 days notice to be given in the London Gazette, and in such one or more newspapers as such court shall direct, of the day on which, and the place where such prisoner shall be brought before such justices for examination; and such prisoner shall be carried before such justices, for which such order shall be a sufficient warrant; and in case any one creditor shall give 2 days notice to such prisoner of his or her intention to oppose such prisoner's discharge, then such creditor, or any other creditor may oppose such discharge, and put to such prisoner all such questions as to such justices appear proper, which such prisoner shall answer, upon oath, and if it appear to such justices to be proper that the accounts of such prisoner, and the matters of his or her schedule should be further investigated, then such justices may adjourn the hearing of his or her petition to some subsequent general, or quarter, or adjourned sessions, and at the request of any one or more creditors direct that some one of the examiners appointed by such justices under s. 20. shall examine into such schedule, and certify his opinion thereon to the justices at such sessions to which the hearing of such petition was adjourned, and of which adjournment all parties interested shall take notice; and such examiner shall receive for his trouble 1*l.* for every meeting under such order, to be paid by the person requiring the same; and in case it appears to such justices upon such examination, or by evidence, that such prisoner is entitled to the benefit of this act, then they shall so adjudge, and shall certify the same to such court; and in case it also then appears to such justices that such prisoner contracted any debts, against which he shall seek to be discharged fraudulently, or without any probable expectation at the time of contracting, of being able to pay the same, or with intent to conceal the state of his affairs, or to defeat the objects of this act, has destroyed or otherwise wilfully prevented the production of any books, papers, or writings, relating to his affairs, or has kept false books or made false entries, or fraudulently altered or falsified any such books, &c. or in any respect has been guilty of fraud, in contracting, discharging, or concealing any debt due from such prisoner to any creditor, or has fraudulently made away with, charged, mortgaged, or concealed any part of his or her property, either before or after the commencement of his or her imprisonment, for the purpose of diminishing the sum to be divided among his or her creditors, or of giving an undue preference to any of them, or that such prisoner has put any of such creditors as have proved their debts to unnecessary expence, by any vexatious defence, or improper delay in any suit for recovering the same, or that such prisoner has fraudulently omitted any effects or property to the value of not less than 20*l.* in the schedule which such prisoner first delivered in to the court, then such justices shall so adjudge, and shall also declare in like manner, and subject to the same limitations as by s. 16—18. imposed in such cases upon the court to be established under this act, for what period of time such prisoner shall remain in actual custody before he or she shall be discharged under this act; and such justices shall forthwith certify the same to such court; and thereupon such court shall accordingly order and direct that the prisoner be discharged when he has been in such actual custody for the full period expressed in such certificate, 1 G. 4. c. 119. s. 21.

44. In case any such prisoner, after his commitment to such actual custody, is removed by habeas corpus, or otherwise, from the place of such actual custody, or rendered in discharge of bail, such court may receive the affidavits of any creditor, or of any other person, in opposition to the discharge of such prisoner under this act; and also, if such court thinks fit, may permit interrogatories to be filed for the examination or cross-examination of every person making or joining in such affidavit, and also may stay the discharge of such prisoner until such interrogatories be answered to the satisfaction of such court; but this shall not extend to any prisoner who has been in such actual custody, or arrested, within Middlesex, or Surrey, or the city of London, id. s. 22.

45. Such order of such court for the discharge of such prisoner shall be final, and shall not be reviewed by such court, unless such court shall, after such order made, see good cause to believe that such adjudication, and the order founded thereon, were made on false evidence, or otherwise fraudulently obtained; in which case any creditor of such prisoner may apply to such court to direct such prisoner to be brought again before them; and such court, upon due notice to be given by such creditor, may rehear the matter, and make further order as they see fit; but in case such court, or such justices shall entertain any doubt, touching any matter alleged against such prisoner at the time of his final examination before mentioned, to prevent his or her discharge, or touching the examination of such prisoner, such court or justices may remand such prisoner to custody, and afterwards cause him or her to be again brought up for examination, as often as such court or justices see fit, id. s. 23.

46. Every prisoner applying for his or her discharge, or any other persons taking an oath under this act, who shall wilfully forswear and perjure himself or herself in any oath so to be taken, and shall be convicted thereof, shall suffer the punishment inflicted on persons convicted of corrupt perjury, id. s. 24.

47. When any order for the discharge of any prisoner is made, the court may also order a judgment to be entered up against such prisoner in some one of the superior courts of Westminster, in the name of the assignees of such prisoner, or of such provisional assignee, if no other shall then be appointed and have accepted such office, for the amount of the debts of such prisoner, which at the time of such order remain unpaid, from which such prisoner is discharged by such order; and such prisoner shall execute a warrant of attorney to authorize the entering up such judgment; and such judgment shall have the force of a recognizance; and such order of the court established under this act, shall be a sufficient authority to the proper officer for entering up such judgment; and when it appears to the satisfaction of such court that such prisoner can pay such debts, or part thereof, or that he is dead, leaving assets for that purpose, the court may permit execution to be taken out upon such judgment, or put in force any other power given by this act against the after acquired property of such prisoner, for such sum as the court shall order; such sum to be distributed rateably amongst the creditors; and such further proceeding shall be had, in the discretion of such court, until the whole of the debts due to the several persons against whom such discharge was obtained shall be fully satisfied, together with such costs as such court think fit to award; and no scire faciens shall be necessary to revive such judgment on account of lapse of time, but execution shall at all times issue thereon by virtue of the order of such court; provided that in case any such application against such prisoner shall appear to the court to be ill founded and vexatious, the court may not only refuse to make any order, but also dismiss the same with such costs as appear reasonable, id. s. 25.

48. No prisoner who is discharged under this act shall, after such discharge, be imprisoned by reason of the judgment so entered up against him in the name of such assignees as in s. 25., or of any judgment, decree or order obtained for payment of money only, or for debt, damages, or contempt of any court, ecclesiastical or civil, by nonpayment of money or costs, occasioned or growing due at the commencement of such actual custody, and expressed in such discharge, or shall be in prison for any costs, taxed or untaxed, to the payment of which he may be then liable in consequence of any contempt, or in order to the purging the same; but that upon every arrest or detainer in prison upon any such judgment or decree or order, or on account of any such debt, damage, contempt, costs, and sums, any judge of the court from which the process issued, upon showing to such judge a copy of the order for such discharge, attested by the proper officer of such court, may release from custody such prisoner, and if such judge shall think fit, may order the plaintiff or person suing out such process, to pay such prisoner the costs thereby incurred, or so much thereof as such judge shall deem just, such prisoner causing a common appearance to be entered for him in such action, 1 G. 4. c. 119. s. 26.

49. If any action of escape, or any action be brought against any judge, justice of peace, sheriff, gaoler, keeper of any prison, or any person, for performing the duty of his office in pursuance of this act, such judge, &c. or other person, may plead the general issue, and give this act in evidence; and if the plaintiff be nonsuited, or discontinues, or verdict pass against him, or judgment is had upon demurrer, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 27.

50. After such court has declared any prisoner entitled to the benefit of this act, no fiere facias shall issue on any judgment before then obtained against such prisoner, for any debt contracted, or cause of action arising before commencement of such actual custody, except upon the judgment entered up by order of the court, as in s. 25.; and if any scire facias, or action of debt, or any other suit, is brought against any prisoner, his or her heirs, executors, or administrators, upon any judgment obtained against such prisoner, or any statute or recognizance acknowledged by him or her, or any other cause arising before the commencement of such actual custody, by virtue of this act, except upon such judgment so entered up against such prisoner, as in s. 25., such prisoner, his or her heirs, &c. may plead generally, that such prisoner was duly discharged according to this act, by the order by which such discharge was obtained, and that such discharge remains in force, without pleading any other matter specially, whereto the plaintiff shall reply generally, and deny the matters pleaded, or reply any other matter, which may show the defendant not to be entitled to the benefit of this act, or that such prisoner was not duly discharged according to the provisions hereof, in the same manner as the plaintiff might have replied, in case the defendant had pleaded this act and his discharge under it specially; and if the plaintiff be nonsuited, discontinues, or verdict passes against him, or judgment is had on demurrer, the defendant shall have double costs; provided that it shall be lawful to proceed against any prisoner so discharged upon any judgment, recognizance, or other security obtained, and which could not have been put in force against such prisoner at the time of his obtaining such discharge, id. s. 28.

51. In case any such prisoner shall, after his discharge, become entitled to or possessed in his or her own right of any stock in the public funds, or of any bills of exchange, promissory notes, bank notes, or other choses in action, or other property which by law cannot be taken in execution under such judgment so to be entered up, as in s. 25., and such prisoner shall refuse to convey, assign, or transfer such stock, bills, notes, choses, or other property, or sufficient to satisfy such judgment, the assignees of such prisoner may apply by petition in a summary way, setting forth the facts of the case, to the court, and pray that such prisoner may be taken and remanded to custody, notwithstanding such discharge; and if, upon examination by the court, and hearing as well the assignees as the prisoner, in case he appear, or the assignees only, in case he shall not, due notice having been given to him, it appears to the court that the contents of such petition are true, then such court shall so adjudge, and order the prisoner to be apprehended and remanded to custody, which shall in such cases be within the walls of the prison from whence such prisoner was discharged, and not within any rules thereof, until he shall convey, assign, and transfer such stock, bills, &c. or as much thereof as the court shall direct, towards the satisfaction of such judgment, to such assignees, for the general benefit of his creditors, id. s. 29.

52. In case any person or body corporate shall, after the discharge of any such prisoner, become possessed of, or have under his or their control, any stock in the public funds, or any legacy, money due or growing due, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bank notes, securities for money, goods and chattels, or any other property belonging to such prisoner, or held in trust for him, or for his use, or to which such prisoner is in any way entitled; or in case any such person or body is in any manner indebted to such prisoner, such court, upon the application of any assignee or creditor of such prisoner, may cause notice to be given to such person or body, directing him or them to retain the property till the court shall make such further order concerning the same; and thereupon such court may further order such person or body to deliver over such property, and pay such debts, or part thereof, to the receiver of the court, or to the assignees of such prisoner, for the general benefit of his creditors entitled to claim under such judgment so entered as in s. 25. aforesaid, id. s. 30.

53. The court to be established under this act shall admit at their discretion any number of fit persons to practise in such court as attorneys or agents on behalf of such prisoners in such actual custody, which admissions shall, in all cases, be made without the payment of any fee, and shall be filed of record in such court; and in case any person not admitted on the files of such court shall practise therein as an attorney or agent on the behalf of any prisoner in such actual custody, he shall be deemed guilty of a contempt, id. s. 31.

54. In cases wherein by this act an oath is required, the affirmation of a quaker shall be accepted in lieu, and every person making such affirmation, who shall be convicted of wilful false affirmation, shall suffer such penalties as are inflicted upon persons convicted of corrupt perjury, 1 G. 4. c. 119. s. 32.

55. In case any prisoner shall, with intent to defraud his creditors, fraudulently omit in his schedule, as finally amended and filed in such court, at the time of the order for his discharge from such actual custody, any effects or property, or retain or except out of the schedule, as wearing apparel, bedding, working tools and implements, and other necessaries, more in value than 20*l.*, such person so offending, and any person aiding him to do the same, shall, upon being convicted, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and the court may sentence him to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour for not exceeding 3 years, id. s. 33.

56. All affidavits to be used before such court, or any commissioner thereof, or any justices of peace at their general or adjourned sessions, or any examiner appointed under s. 20. of this act, shall be sworn before such court, or any commissioner appointed by such court for the purpose of taking affidavits, or any master extraordinary in chancery, or commissioner for taking affidavits in any of the superior courts of Westminster Hall; and no conveyance, assignment, letter of attorney, affidavit, or other proceedings whatsoever before or under any order of such court, or before any justices of peace acting in the execution of this act, shall be liable to any stamp or other duty, id. s. 34.

57. Three shillings, and no more, shall be paid to any printer of any newspaper for the insertion of any advertisement herein directed to be inserted in any newspaper, and all printers and proprietors of newspapers shall insert the same on payment of 3*s.* in such form as such court shall direct; and no such advertisement shall be liable to any stamp or other duty, id. s. 35.

58. The court to be established under this act shall exercise all such powers respecting persons who have already obtained their discharge by virtue of 53 G. 3. c. 102., 54 G. 3. c. 23. and 56 G. 3. c. 102., or their estate and effects, or their assignees, as might have been exercised by the court established under such recited act, in case it had been continued, id. s. 36.

59. All the records, papers, documents and money belonging to or received under the authority of the court established under such recited acts, shall, when the court to be established under this act has been fully constituted, be delivered over to the chief clerk of such last-mentioned court by the officer having the custody of the same; and shall be deemed to be the records of the court established under this act, id. s. 37.

60. Nothing in this act shall entitle the assignees of such prisoner, being an officer of the army or navy, or in the naval or military service of the East India Co. or a beneficed clergyman or curate, to the pay or pension of such officer, or to the income of such benefice or curacy, for the purposes of this act; provided such assignees may apply for and obtain a sequestration of the profit of any such benefice for the payment of the debts of any such clergyman, and the order for such discharge shall be a sufficient warrant for granting of such sequestration without any writ or other proceedings, and such sequestration shall accordingly be issued, as the same might have been upon any writ of levari facias, founded upon any judgment against such clergyman; provided also, that such court may order such portion of the pay or half-pay or pension of any such officer of the army or navy, or naval or military service of the East India company, as on communication from such court to the secretary at war, or the admiralty, or the court of directors of the East India company, he or they may respectively consent to, by writing under the hand of the secretary at war, or the lords or secretary of the admiralty, or the secretary of the court of directors, to be applied in payment of his debts, and for that purpose to be paid to his assignees; and such order and consent being lodged in the office of the paymaster of H. M.'s forces, or of the treasurer of the navy, or the secretary of the court of directors, such paymaster or treasurer or secretary shall give directions accordingly, and such portion of the pay, half-pay or pension of such officer, as shall be specified in such order and consent, shall be paid to his assignees, until such court make order to the contrary, id. s. 38.

61. The justices of peace acting for the several parts of Keateven and Holland in the county of Lincoln, shall hold their several quarter sessions or other sessions for such parts or divisions respectively, by adjournment or otherwise, in the parts or division of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln, for the purposes of this act, and shall meet and act therein for such purposes only, id. s. 39.

62. This act shall not discharge any prisoner seeking the benefit of this act, with respect to any debt due to H. M., or to any debt or penalty with which he or she shall stand charged at the suit of the crown, or of any person for any offence committed against any act relative to customs, excise, stamp or salt duties, or any branches of the public revenue, or at the suit of any sheriff or other public officer upon any bail bond entered into for the appearance of any person prosecuted for any offence committed against any act relative to such revenues, unless three of the lords of H. M.'s treasury shall certify under their hands their consent to such discharge, id. s. 40.

63. Any person who shall be imprisoned under any writ of capias, in any immediate extent issued and remaining in force at the instance or for the benefit of any surety, or other persons, or the inhabitants of any parish, ward or place who have advanced and paid the debt to the crown, and by reason whereof the lords of the treasury may not be authorized to give their consent, may apply to the barons of the court of exchequer in Eng. or Scot. for his discharge, giving one month's previous notice in writing to the surety or persons aforesaid, or to the churchwardens or overseers of the parish, ward or place, at whose instance or for whose benefit such extent shall remain in force, of his intention to make such application, and an enumeration and description of all his property, debts and effects in his own possession or power, or that of any other person for his use; and such court to whom such application is made, may order such person to be brought before them, or any baron of such court, to be examined upon oath touching his property and effects; and if such person shall, on such examination, make a full disclosure of all his property, and it shall otherwise appear to the satisfaction of the court reasonable that such person should be no longer imprisoned under such writ, such court or baron may order a writ of superdedas quoad corpus to be issued out of such court for the liberation of such person; provided that no such liberation shall be deemed to satisfy or supersede such extent or any proceedings thereon, except as to such imprisonment, or the debts seized under the same, and for which such person shall be so imprisoned, 1 G. 4. c. 119. s. 41.

64. No prisoner against whom any commission of bankrupt has issued and shall remain in force, and who has not obtained a certificate of conformity under such commission, shall be entitled to be discharged under this act from any debt for which such prisoner shall be detained in custody, and which might have been proved under such commission, unless such prisoner has been so detained for 5 years before he shall apply for his or her discharge under this act, id. s. 42.

65. No person who has been discharged by virtue of this, or of any other act for the relief of insolvent debtors, shall again be entitled to the benefit thereof within five years, unless 3-4ths in number and value of his creditors shall signify their assent, or it is made appear, to the court to be established under this act, that such person has, since his or her former discharge, endeavoured by industry and frugality, to pay all just demands upon him or her, and has incurred no unnecessary expence, and that all debts incurred, subsequent to such former discharge, have been necessarily incurred for the maintenance of such person, or his or her family, or that the insolvency of such person has arisen from misfortune, or from inability to acquire subsistence for himself or herself, and family, id. s. 43.

66. If any person being a prisoner in any such prison, upon any such process (as in s. 4.), is of unsound mind, and therefore incapable of taking the benefit of this act, as he or she might if of sound mind, the gaoler or keeper of such prison shall require one justice for the county or place to attend at such prison and enquire into the state of mind of such prisoner; and thereupon, and also in case such justice shall receive information by other means, that any such prisoner is of unsound mind, such justice shall go to such prison, and by his own view, and by examination on oath of such person as he thinks fit, enquire into the state of mind of such prisoner; and if it then appear to such justice, that such prisoner is of unsound mind, and therefore incapable of taking the benefit of this act, such justice shall forthwith make a record of the fact, and certify the same to the court established under this act; and thereupon such court, at the instance of any person on behalf of such prisoner, may order notice to be inserted in the London Gazette, and in two public newspapers circulated in the neighbourhood of such prison, and of the usual residence of such prisoner, before he or she was committed, as such court sees fit, and shall in such order specify, that application will be made to such court for the discharge of such prisoner, on a day to be specified in such order, being 20 days from the day of publication of such one of such gazette and newspapers containing such notice as is last published; which notice, together with service of the like notice on the creditors at whose suit such prisoner is detained, or their attorneys in such suit, shall be sufficient to authorize the court to discharge such prisoner, if otherwise entitled to such discharge, according to such act; and such court shall proceed, and discharge such prisoner, and do all other acts under this act, in case it appears that such prisoner might have been discharged under this act if of sound mind, id. s. 44.

67. The proper officer of the court established under this act, shall, on the request of such prisoner, or of any creditor, or his attorney, produce to such prisoner, creditors, or attorney, at such times as the court shall direct, such petition, schedule, order, and judgment, and all other orders and proceedings made in such matter; and a true copy of every such petition, &c. and other proceedings, signed by the officer in whose custody the same shall be, or his deputy, certifying the same to be true, without being written on stamped paper, shall be admitted, in all courts, as legal evidence of the same, id. s. 45.

68. The assignees of any such prisoner, who shall be discharged under this act, may apply to the court established under this act, that such prisoner may be further examined as to any matters relating to his or her estates and effects, either by such court, or by any justice for the county, or place where such prisoner then resides, and if such court shall direct such examination before any such justice, such justice shall call before him such prisoner, by such summons, or means as he thinks fit; and if he or she appears, shall examine him or her, upon oath or otherwise, as to such matters as such assignees desire, relating to his or her estate and effects; and if on payment or tender of payment of such reasonable charges as such justice judges sufficient, he or she shall neglect to appear, not having a lawful excuse allowed by such justice, or being come before such justice shall refuse to be sworn, or to answer such questions as such justice shall put, relating to his or her estate and effects, vested or intended to be vested in such assignees, as required by the order of such court, such justice shall certify such default to the court; and thereupon, and also in case such prisoner shall neglect to appear before such court to be examined, if the court shall so order, or appearing before such court shall refuse to be sworn, or to answer such questions as shall be put to him or her, relating to his or her estate or effects, then such court by warrant may commit such prisoner to the common gaol of any county or place, without bail, until such time as he or she shall submit to such court, and answer upon oath or otherwise to all such lawful questions as shall by such court be put or ordered to be put for such purposes, 1 G. 4. c. 119. s. 46.

69. The court to be appointed under this act shall after the end of 6 months after the appointment of assignee under this act, at the request of any one creditor, summon such assignees, and examine them, upon oath or otherwise, touching their receipts and payments, and order the money in their hands to be paid into such court, and that such dividend be made of the estate and effects of such prisoner as it may think proper; and in case any dividend shall remain in the hands of such assignees for 12 months next following the declaring thereof, such court shall direct that such unclaimed dividend shall be immediately paid into court; and in default of such payment by the time by the court limited, such court may make such summary remedy for the purpose, by a distress and sale of the goods of such assignees, as to them seems proper; and if no sufficient distress can be found, then such court shall commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction, without bail, until such court shall order to the contrary, id. s. 47.

70. In all cases in which such court is by this act authorized to award costs, such court may cause such costs to be recovered in the same manner as costs awarded by a rule of any of the superior courts at Westminster may be, id. s. 48.

71. All petitions and other proceedings relating thereto, of all persons confined for debt, damages, costs or sums, or contempt for non-payment of money, and in the custody of the sheriffs of London, Middlesex, and of the warden of the Fleet prison, may, if such court shall think fit, be heard and determined at the Guildhall for the city of London, or at the sessions-house in the Old Bailey, or at such other place in the city of London as such commissioner shall appoint, id. s. 49.

72. All persons who have been discharged under any act for the relief of insolvent debtors from contempts for non-payment of money or costs, shall be deemed to have been discharged, not only from costs ordered to be paid, but also from all costs which such persons would be liable to pay in consequence of such contempts, or on paying the same; and also all persons from whose demands for costs any persons shall be discharged by virtue of this or any former act, shall be deemed to be creditors of such last mentioned persons, and entitled to the benefit of all the provisions made for creditors by such acts, id. s. 50.

73. Nothing in this act shall defeat the proceedings in any commission of bankrupt which may be issued against any prisoner who may claim the benefit of this act, before such prisoner has obtained his discharge under this act, but such commission shall have relation to avoid any assignment of the estate and effects of such prisoner under this act, as it would have had to avoid any assignment by such prisoner if this act had not been made, id. s. 51.

INSURANCE.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. TO PREVENT THE LAYING OF WAGERS, AND EFFECTING POLICIES OF INSURANCE ON THE CONTINGENCY OF THE PRESENT WAR, 7 A. c. 16. [Exp.]

2. TO PROHIBIT ASSURANCE ON SHIPS BELONGING TO FRANCE, AND ON MERCHANDIZES AND EFFECTS LADEN THEREON, DURING THE PRESENT WAR WITH FRANCE, 21 G. 2. c. 4. [Exp.]

3. TO RESTRAIN THE MAKING INSURANCES ON FOREIGN SHIPS BOUND TO AND FROM THE EAST INDIES, 25 G. 2. c. 26. [REP. 31 G. 2. c. 27.]

4. FOR REGULATING INSURANCES ON SHIPS, AND ON GOODS, MERCHANDIZES, OR EFFECTS, 25 G. 3. c. 44. [REP. 28 G. 3. c. 58. s. 1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. CONCERNING MATTERS OF ASSURANCE AMONGST MERCHANTS, 43 El. c. 12. [AMD. 15 & 14 C. 2. c. 23. and recital in s. 1.]

2. The lord chancellor may award under the great seal of Eng., one standing commission, to be renewed yearly at least, for the hearing and determining of causes arising on policies of assurance entered within the office of assurances in London; which commission shall be directed unto the judge of the admiralty, the recorder of London, 2 doctors of the civil law, 2 common lawyers, and 8 discreet merchants, or to any 5 of them; which commissioners, or the greater part of them which shall sit, shall have power to hear, examine, and decree all such causes concerning policies of assurance in such summary course, as to them seems meet, without formalities of proceedings, 43 El. c. 12. s. 1.

3. Such commissioners as well may warn the parties to come before them as examine upon oath any witness, and commit any person that shall contain their decrees; and they shall once every week at least sit upon the execution of such commission in the office of assurances, or some other place; and no person by this act may claim any fee for any cause concerning the same, id. s. 2.

4. Any person grieved by sentence of such commissioners, may within 2 months, exhibit his bill in chancery for the re-examination of such decree, so as every complainant before he exhibits such bill, do either execute the sentence awarded, or lay down in deposito with such commissioners such money as he is awarded to pay, and on so doing the complainant shall be enlarged of his imprisonment, and the chancellor may reverse or confirm such decree according to equity; and in every such suit brought by such assurers, and decreed against them, shall award double costs, id. s. 3.

5. No such commissioner shall intermeddle in the execution of such commission in any cause where himself is a party; nor any commissioner (other than the judge of the admiralty, and the recorder of London) shall proceed in the execution of any such commission, before he has taken his oath before the lord mayor [and court of aldermen, Rev. 15 & 14 C. 2. c. 23. s. 1] to proceed uprightly and indifferently between party and party, id. s. 4.

6. The lord chancellor may issue yearly or oftener, one standing commission, under the great seal of Eng., empowering the commissioners mentioned in 43 El. c. 12. s. 1, or 3 of them (whereof a doctor of the civil law, or a barrister of 5 years standing to be one,) to make a court, and proceed, as by the act 43 El. c. 12. s. 5 might have done; and such commissioners may summon parties and witnesses, and in case of contempt in the witnesses upon the first summons and tender of reasonable charges, and in the parties upon their second summonses, may punish the offenders by imprisonment or costs, as they think fit; and every such commissioner may proceed in the execution of such commission, having first taken an oath before the lord mayor of London, only to proceed uprightly and indifferently between party and party; and no person shall proceed in the execution of such commission before he be so sworn before the lord mayor, 15 & 14 C. 2. c. 23. s. 2.

7. In case such commissioners find cause to examine witnesses beyond the seas, or any remote parts of H. M.'s dominions, like commissions or process shall issue out of the court of admiralty, as have formerly been returnable before such commissioners; and such commissioners may give their final sentence and executions, as well against the body of the party evicted or his goods, as also against the executors and administrators of such party, and assess such costs on the party convicted, as to them seems just, id. s. 5.

8. One commissioner may administer an oath to any witness legally summoned, timely notice being given to the adverse party, and set up in the office before such examination, an order that such witness may be cross-examined, id. s. 4.

9. Such commissioners shall in no case proceed both against person and goods for one debt; and nothing in this act shall prejudice the appeal to chancery, id. s. 5.

10. TO PREVENT INSURANCES ON MARRIAGES, BIRTHS, christenings, or service, 9 A. c. 6. s. 56. [This title is framed from the preamble to this section.]

11. Every person who shall erect or set up any office, or place for making assurances on marriages, births, christenings, and service, or any of them, shall forfeit 500*l.*, to be recovered by information or action in any court at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, and to go one third to H. M., one third to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, and one third to the informer with costs; and every person, who in any office set up before 8th March, 1710, shall permit any such insurance to be made, shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered and distributed in like manner, id. ibid.

12. EVERY PERSON WHO SHALL KEEP ANY OFFICE for making assurances on marriages, births, christenings, or service, or any office under the denomination of sales of gloves, of fans, of cards, of numbers, of H. M.'s picture, for the improvement of small sums, or the like offices under that pretence, shall forfeit 500*l.*, to be recovered and distributed as in 9 A. c. 6. s. 56. (last pt.); and every printer, or other person, who shall, by writing or printing, publish the setting up, or keeping any office or place under any such or the like denominations, for the improvement of small sums, shall forfeit 100*l.* to be recovered and distributed, as the last mentioned penalty is, 10 A. c. 26. s. 109.

13. TO REGULATE INSURANCE ON SHIPS BELONGING TO THE SUBJECTS OF G. B., and on merchandizes or effects laden thereon, 19 G. 2. c. 37. [AMD. 28 G. 3. c. 56.]

14. No assurance shall be made by any person or bodies corporate on any ship belonging to H. M. or any of his subjects, or on any goods on board any such ship, interest or no interest, or without further proof of interest than the policy, or by way of gaming or wagering, or without benefit of salvage to the assurer; and every such assurance shall be void, 19 G. 2. c. 37. s. 1.

15. Assurance on private ships of war fitted out by H. M.'s subjects solely to cruise against his enemies, may be made by or for the owners, interest or no interest, free of average, and without benefit of salvage to the assurer, id. s. 2.

16. Any merchandizes or effects from any port in Europe or America, in the possession of the crowns of Spain or Portugal, may be assured, in such manner as if this act had not been made, id. s. 3.

17. It shall not be lawful to make re-assurance, unless the assurer be insolvent, become a bankrupt, or die; in either of which cases such assurer, his executors, administrators or assigns, may make re-assurance, to the amount of the sum before by him assured; provided it be expressed in the policy to be a re-assurance, id. s. 4.

18. All money to be lent on bottomry, or at respondentia, on any ship belonging to any of H. M.'s subjects, bound to or from the East Indies, shall be lent only on the ship, or on the effects on board, and shall be so expressed in the condition of the bond; and the benefit of salvage shall be allowed to the lender, his agents or assigns, who alone shall have a right to make assurance on the money so lent; and no borrower on bottomry, or at respondentia, shall recover more on any assurance than the value of his interest on the ship, or in the effects on board exclusive of the money so borrowed; and in case it appear that the value of his share in the ship or effects doth not amount to the sum he hath borrowed, he shall be responsible to the lender for so much thereof as he hath not laid out on the ship or merchandizes laden thereon, with lawful interest for the same, together with the assurance and all other charges thereon, in the proportion the money not laid out bears to the whole money lent, notwithstanding the ship and merchandizes be totally lost, id. s. 5.

19. In all actions brought by the assured upon any policy of assurance, the plaintiff or his agent shall, in 15 days after required so to do in writing by the defendant or his agent, declare in writing what sum he hath assured in the whole, and what sums he hath borrowed at respondentia or bottomry, for the voyage or any part of the voyage in question, id. s. 6.

20. Any person or body corporate sued on any policy of assurance, may bring into court any sum of money; and if any such plaintiff refuse to accept such sum with costs to be taxed in discharge of such action, and afterwards proceed to trial, and the jury shall not assess damages exceeding the sum brought into court, he shall pay to such defendant costs to be taxed, id. s. 7.

21. No person shall make or cause to be made, any policy of assurance upon any ship, goods, or other property, without first inserting therein the name, or usual style and firm of dealing of one of the persons interested therein; or without, instead thereof, first inserting in such policy the name of the usual style and firm of dealing of the consignee, or consignee of the goods, &c. insured; or the name, or usual style and firm of the person residing in Great Britain, who shall receive the order for such policy, or of the person who shall give the order to the agent, immediately employed to negotiate the same, 28 G. 3. c. 56. s. 1.

22. Every policy of insurance, made or under-wrote contrary to his act, shall be void, id. s. 2.

23. FOR REGULATING INSURANCES ON LIVES, and for prohibiting all such insurances, except in cases where the insurers have an interest in the life or death of the persons insured, 14 G. 3. c. 48.

24. No insurance shall be made on the life or lives of any persons, or on any other event, wherein the person for whose use, or on whose account such policy is made, shall have no interest, or by way of gaming or wagering; and every assurance made contrary hereto shall be void, id. s. 1.

25. It shall not be lawful to make any policy on the life of any person or other event, without inserting in such policy the persons' names interested therein, or for whose use such policy is made or under-wrote, id. s. 2.

26. Where the insured hath interest in such life, or event, no greater sum shall be recovered from the insurer than the amount or value of the interest of the insured therein, id. s. 3.

27. Nothing herein shall extend to insurances bonâ fide made by any person on ships, goods, or merchandises: but such insurance shall be valid, 14 G. 3. c. 48. s. 4.

28. FOR BETTER SECURING CERTAIN POWERS AND PRIVILEGES intended to be granted by H. M., by two charters for assurance of ships and merchandises at sea, and for lending money on bottomry, and for restraining several extravagant and unwarrantable practices therein mentioned, 6 G. 1. c. 18. [Money to be paid under such charters in part remitted, 7 G. 1. S. 1. c. 27.; AMD. 8 G. 1. c. 15. s. 25., 11 G. 1. c. 30. s. 43.; EXT. to America, 14 G. 2. c. 37., which see, tit. AMERICAN COLONIES, pl. 11.; see as to assuring craft, &c. employed in inland navigation, 1 G. 2. (U. K.) c. lvii.]

29. H. M. may by one charter under the great seal of G. B. grant that persons therein named, and all others who shall be admitted members into their corporations, shall be one distinct body politic and corporate for the assurance of ships, goods, and merchandises at sea, or going to sea, and for lending money on bottomry, by such name as H. M. may think proper, and H. M. may likewise grant the same by another such charter, and such corporations by their names shall have perpetual succession, subject to the redemption or revocation hereinafter provided, and may choose their governors, directors, and other officers, in such manner, and under such qualifications as shall be prescribed by such charter; and such governors and directors shall continue in office for 3 years, and in case of death or removal, shall be supplied as in their charters prescribed, and each of such corporations shall have a common seal, and may break or alter the same as they think fit, and shall be capable in law to take, purchase, and enjoy messuages, lands, or tenements, not exceeding the value of 1000*l.* per annum, and may grant, alien, or demise the same at their free wills, and may sue and be sued, answer and be answered in the courts of record, or elsewhere, in all actions concerning the assurance of ships, goods, or merchandises at sea, or lending money upon bottomry, or any other thing concerning the same corporations, 6 G. 1. c. 18. s. 1.

30. Each of such corporations shall pay into the exchequer for the use of H. M. 300,000*l.* to discharge the debts of his civil government, (s. 2.) and on failure of payment within the times hereby limited, the corporations may be sued, and in same cases determined, id. s. 3. [EXP.; 111,250*l.* paid by such company, and residue remitted, 7 G. 1. S. 1. c. 27. s. 26.]

31. Each of such two corporations shall be obliged to cause such stock of ready money to be provided, as shall be sufficient to answer all just demands on their policies for losses, and shall satisfy the same according to such policies; and in case of neglect, the parties assured, or their executors, administrators, or assigns may bring an action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed, in which the plaintiffs may declare that the same corporation is indebted to them in the monies demanded, and have not paid the same according to this act; and thereupon the plaintiffs shall recover against the corporation so neglecting double damages, besides full costs, and the stock and effects of such corporation shall be subject thereto, 6 G. 1. c. 18. s. 4. [but see next pl.]

32. So much of 6 G. 1. c. 18. s. 4. as subjects such corporations to pay double damages besides full costs, shall be RFP. and single damages only with costs shall be recovered, 8 G. 1. c. 15. s. 25.

33. In all actions of debt or covenant sued against either of such corporations upon any policy of assurance under the common seal of such corporation for the assuring of any ship, goods, or merchandise at sea, or going to sea, such corporation may in case of actions of debt, plead generally, that they owe nothing to the plaintiff, and in actions of covenant, that they have not broke the covenants in such policy contained, or any of them, and if issue is joined therein, the jury if they see cause may find a verdict for the plaintiff, and give such part only of the sum demanded in such action of debt, and such damages only in such actions of covenant as appear to them, on evidence given at the trial, due to the plaintiff in justice, 11 G. 1. c. 30. s. 43.

34. Each of such corporations shall be obliged by this act and their charters to raise such sum as H. M. therein may direct, not exceeding 1,500,000*l.* in the way and proportions in their charters directed, to be called the capital stock of such corporations, 6 G. 1. c. 18. s. 5.

35. Such corporations in general courts, authorized to be held pursuant to such charters, may raise such capital stocks, either by taking subscriptions of particular persons, or by calls of money from their members, or by such other ways, as to such general courts seem expedient; and all subscribers, their executors, administrators, and assigns, shall have a share in such capital stock, and in the profits attending the same, and shall be admitted members; but no person shall be entitled to any greater share in the stock than the money which they shall have paid, id. s. 6.

36. The corporations shall have power in their general courts to call in from their members proportionably, according to their shares in the capital stock, any further sums as shall be judged necessary, and all executors, &c. guardians, trustees, and mortgagees shall be indemnified, and may pay the money so called for; and in case any member shall refuse to pay his share at the times appointed by notice in the London Gazette, and upon the Royal Exchange, such corporation may not only stop the dividends payable to such member, and apply the same to the payment of the money so called for, but also stop the transfer of the shares of such defaulter, and charge him with interest at 8*l.* per cent. per annum, from the time the money was called for until it is paid, and the shares of such defaulter shall be liable to answer the money so appointed to be paid, and interest; and if the principal and interest shall be unpaid for 3 months, such corporations, or their courts of directors, may authorize persons to sell so much of the stock of such defaulter as will satisfy the same; and the money so called in shall be deemed capital stock, and written in the books of such corporations, and the members paying the same shall have credit for their shares thereof in such books: nevertheless such corporations, in a general court, may cause any sums called in to be divided amongst the then members, and the shares in the capital shall be proportionally abated, 6 G. 1. c. 18. s. 7.

37. For enabling the corporations to lend money on parliamentary securities, they shall have power to borrow money upon bills or bonds, under their common seal, at such interest, for any time not less than 6 months, as they shall think fit, so as the principal so borrowed shall not exceed the principal monies then owing to them on such parliamentary securities; and such bills or bonds shall not be chargeable with stamp duties, id. s. 8.

38. The shares in such capital stock shall be transferable and devisable, and their bills and bonds shall be assignable and recoverable, as H. M. by the charters shall prescribe, as well in relation to such shares, as to such bills and bonds, and such capital stock and shares, and interest thereof shall be adjudged in all courts a personal, and not a real estate, and shall go to the executors, or administrators, and not to the heir, id. s. 9.

39. Such stock, and the shares and interest thereof shall be exempted from taxes; and no governor, director, or other officer of such corporations, shall for that cause be disabled from being a member of parliament, nor in respect of such share be liable to become bankrupt; and no stock in the corporations shall be subject to foreign attachment by the custom of London, or otherwise, id. s. 10.

40. H. M. by such charters may grant to each of such corporations power to make bye laws, and such further powers relating to the assurance of ships, &c. or lending money upon bottomry, as to him shall seem meet, and subject such corporations and the powers granted to them to such restrictions as therein may be expressed, id. s. 11.

41. All other corporations, and all partnerships for assuring ships or merchandises at sea, or for lending money upon bottomry, shall be restrained from underwriting any policies, or making any contracts for assurance of ships or merchandises at sea, or going to sea, or for lending money by way of bottomry. And if any corporation, or persons acting in such partnership (other than the 2 corporations to be established), shall under-write any such policy, or make any such contract for assurance of ships, &c. or agree to take any premium for such policies, every such policy shall be void, and every sum so under-written shall be forfeited, and may be recovered, one moiety to the use of H. M. and the other to the person who shall sue for the same, in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed; and if any corporation, otherwise than as aforesaid, or persons acting in such partnership agree to lend money by way of bottomry, contrary to this act, the security shall be void, and such agreement shall be adjudged an usurious contract, and the offenders shall suffer as in cases of usury: nevertheless, any particular person may under-write any such policies, or may lend money by way of bottomry, so as the same be not on the account or risque of a corporation, or of persons acting in partnership, id. s. 12.

42. If any person shall forge or counterfeit the common seal of either of such corporations, or forge, counterfeit, or alter any policy, bill, bond, or obligation, under such common seal, or shall offer to dispose of, or pay away any such forged, counterfeit, or altered policy, &c. knowing the same to be such, or shall demand the money thereon from such corporations or their officers, knowing such policy, &c. to be forged, &c. with intent to defraud either of such corporations or any other person, such person shall be guilty of felony, and suffer as in cases of felony, without clergy, id. s. 13.

43. No person shall be capable of being elected governor, sub-governor, deputy-governor, or director, of either of such corporations, during the time he shall be governor, &c. of the other corporation; and if any governor, &c. or member of either of such corporations, having any share in the capital stock of that corporation, shall, in his own name, or in the name of any other, in trust for such governor, &c. or member, purchase any share in the stock of the other corporation, the share so purchased shall be forfeited, one moiety to the use of H. M., and the other to the prosecutor, to be recovered as before (in s. 12.) mentioned, id. s. 14.

44. Upon 3 years' notice to be printed in the London Gazette, and affixed upon the Royal Exchange, by authority of parliament, at any time within 31 years, to be reckoned from the dates of the 2 charters, and upon payment by parliament to the corporations of 300,000*l.* without interest, such corporations shall cease, 6 G. 1. c. 18. s. 15. [Exp.]

45. If after the expiration of 31 years, H.M. shall judge the further continuance of such corporations to be hurtful to the public, then, by letters patent under the great seal, he may make void the same corporations; and the same shall become void accordingly, without any inquisition, sci. fa. or other thing to make void the same, (id. s. 16.); and in case such corporations shall be so revoked, the same corporation, with like powers and privileges, shall not be grantable again to any person or corporation, but shall be suppressed for ever, id. s. 17.

46. All undertakings by public subscriptions, relating to fisheries and other affairs of trade, and acting as corporate bodies without charter, or under charters intended for other purposes, or under obsolete charters, and tending to the common grievance of H.M.'s subjects in their trade, and all public subscriptions, receipts, payments, transfers, and other things for proceeding in such undertaking, and particularly the acting as a corporate body, the raising transferable stocks, the transferring any share in such stocks without legal authority; and all acting under any charter formerly granted for particular purposes therein expressed, by persons who shall use or endeavour to use the same charters for raising a capital stock, or for making transfers of such stock not intended by such charter, to be raised or transferred, and all acting under any obsolete charter become void or voidable by non-user or abuser, or for want of making lawful election, shall be deemed illegal and void, id. s. 18.

47. All such unlawful undertakings and all such proceedings (as in s. 18.) shall be deemed public nuisances, and all causes relating thereto shall be heard and determined as such, and all offenders therein being convicted upon information or indictment in any of H.M.'s courts of record at Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin, shall be liable to such punishments whereto persons convicted for public nuisances are by any laws of this realm liable; and shall moreover incur such further pains, &c. as were provided by the statute (of provision and præmunire, 16 R. 2. c. 5.) id. s. 19.

48. If any merchant or trader shall suffer any particular damage by occasion of any undertaking, &c. by this act declared unlawful, he shall have his remedy by action on this statute against the persons or societies engaged therein, contrary to this act, in any court of record, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed, and shall recover treble damages with costs, 6 G. 1. c. 18. s. 20. [See 14 G. 2. c. 27. AMERICAN COLONIES, pl. 11.]

49. If any broker, or person acting as a broker, for himself or in behalf of any others, shall bargain, sell, or buy, or contract for any share or interest in any of the undertakings hereby declared unlawful, he shall not only be disabled to act as broker, but shall also forfeit 500*l.*, one moiety to H.M., the other to the informer, in any court of record, with costs, 6 G. 1. c. 18. s. 21.

50. Nothing herein shall extend to any undertakings established before 21th June, 1718. (s. 22.); this act shall not prejudice the 2 corporations, hereby intended to be erected, for assurance of ships, &c., id. s. 23.

51. This act shall not hinder the South Sea company from enjoying such powers as belong to them, as before this act except as to insurance upon ships and merchandise at sea or going to sea, id. s. 24.

52. This act shall not restrain the carrying on of any home or foreign trade in partnership, as heretofore might be legally done, except only as to the insuring of ships, and lending money on bottomry, id. s. 25.

53. The South Sea company and the East India company may advance on the bottom of any ship or vessel, and on goods on board of any vessel in the service of such companies, to any commanders, agents, sailors, servants, or other persons employed in such service, any sum by way of bottomry, id. s. 26.

54. Nothing in this act shall extend to any corporation formerly erected for the carrying on a trade, which they have publicly continued to exercise; or to subscriptions for enlarging the capital stock of the South Sea company, id. s. 27.

55. Nothing herein shall hinder the East India company from enjoying all such powers, &c. as belong to them; or which they might have done before this act, id. s. 29.

56. If any governor, &c. or member, as in s. 14. pl. 42., of either of such corporations, shall advance to H.M. any money by way of loan, or anticipation on any branch of the revenues, that now or hereafter may belong to H.M., other than on such funds or branches on which a credit-loan may be granted by parliament; such governor, &c. or either of them, who shall consent or agree to, or approve thereof, shall on conviction forfeit treble the value of the sum so lent, whereof 1-5th shall be to the informer, to be recovered in any court of record at Westminster, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c., privilege of parliament, or other privilege shall be allowed; and the residue shall be at the disposal of parliament, id. s. 29.

57. When any vessel, goods, or merchandises, shall be insured, a by the laws relating to the stamp duties; and all promissory notes for assurances or insurances of ships or goods, at sea or going to sea, shall be void, and nothing shall be recovered thereon, 11 G. 1. c. 50. s. 45. [see s. 44. tit. STAMPS (INSURANCE, POLICIES OF).]

INTRUSION.

1. TO ADMIT THE SUBJECT TO PLEAD THE GENERAL ISSUE in informations of intrusion, brought on behalf of H. M., and retain his possession till trial, 21 J. 1. c. 14.

2. Whosoever H. M., his heirs, or successors, and such under whom H. M. claims, and all others claiming under the same title under which H. M. claims, hath been or shall be out of possession for 20 years, or hath not taken the profits of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, within 20 years before any information of intrusion brought to recover the same, the defendant may plead the general issue if he think fit, and shall not be pressed to plead specially; in which cases defendant shall retain the possession he had at the time of such information exhibited, until the title be tried, found, or adjudged for H. M., id. s. 1.

3. Where an information of intrusion may fitly be brought on H. M.'s behalf, no scire facias shall be brought, whereunto the subject shall be forced to a special pleading, and deprived of the grace intended by this act, id. s. 2.

IRELAND (PARLIAMENT).

1. THE UNITED KINGDOM SHALL BE REPRESENTED BY ONE PARLIAMENT, styled "The Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland," 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. Article 3.; [see rest of act of Union, IRELAND (Union).]

2. Four lords spiritual of Ire. by rotation of sessions, and 28 lords temporal of Eng., elected for life by the peers of Ire., shall be the number to sit and vote on the part of Ire. in the H. of L. of the parliament of the U. K. and 100 commoners, (2 for each county, 2 for the city of Dublin, 2 for Cork, one for Trinity College University, and one for each of the 31 most considerable cities, towns, and boroughs) shall be the number to sit and vote on the part of Ire. in the H. of C. of the parliament of the U. K., id. Art. 4. s. 1., [and see infra, Art. 4. s. 2. pl. 14.]

3. Such act as shall be passed in the Irish parliament, previous to the union, (viz. 40 G. 3. Ir. c. 38. infra, pl. 13.) to regulate the mode by which the lords and commons to serve for Ire. in the parliament of U. K. shall be summoned and returned, shall be considered part of the treaty of union, and incorporated in the statutes ratifying the same, id. Art. 4. s. 2., [see infra, pl. 13.]

4. All questions touching the rotation or election of lords spiritual or temporal of Ire. to sit in the parliament of U. K., shall be decided by the H. of L. thereof, and whenever from equality of votes, a complete election is not made, the names of the peers having such equality of votes shall be written on similar pieces of paper, and put into a glass by the clerk of the parliaments, at the table of the H. of L. whilst the house is sitting, and the peer or peers whose name or names shall be first drawn out by him, shall be deemed elected, id. Art. 4. s. 3.

5. No person holding any peerage of Ire. now subsisting, or hereafter to be created, shall be thereby disqualified from serving in parliament for any county, city or borough of G. B., in the H. of C., unless previously elected, as above, to it, in the H. of L. of the U. K.; but so long as he shall so continue a member of the H. of C., he shall not be entitled to the privilege of peerage, nor be capable of being elected to serve as a peer on the part of Ire. or of voting at such election, and shall be liable to be sued, indicted, and tried as a commoner for any offence with which he may be charged, id. Art. 4. s. 4.

6. H. M. may create peers of Ire., and make promotions in its peerage after the union, at the rate of one such creation for every 3 Irish peerages becoming extinct after that time; and if Irish peers shall by extinction or otherwise, be reduced to 100, exclusive of such peers of Ire., who shall hold any peerage of G. B., subsisting at, or of U. K., created since the union, by which they shall be entitled to an hereditary seat in the H. of L. of the U. K., then H. M. may create one peer of Ire. as often as any one of such peerages shall become extinct, or as often as any peer of Ire. shall become entitled by descent or creation to any hereditary seat in the H. of L. of U. K.; so that the peers of Ire. shall be kept up to 100, above the number of such peers entitled by descent or creation to hereditary seats in the H. of L. of U. K., id. Art. 4. s. 5.

7. Any peerage in abeyance, shall be deemed an existing peerage, and none shall be deemed extinct, unless on default of claimant to its inheritance for one year from the death of the person last possessed thereof; and if no claim be made to its inheritance, as may be prescribed by the H. of L. of U. K., it shall be deemed extinct; but nothing herein shall exclude any person from putting in a claim to the peerage, so deemed extinct, and if allowed as valid by judgment of the H. of L. of U. K. reported to H. M., such peerage shall be considered revived; and if any new Irish peerages be created in the interval, in consequence of the supposed extinction of such peerage, no new right of extinction shall take place at the next extinction of an Irish peerage, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. Art. 4. s. 6.

8. All questions touching the election of members to sit on the part of Ire. in the H. of C. of the U. K., shall be decided as questions touching such elections in G. B., now are, or at any time hence, shall by law be decided subject to such particular regulations for Ire., which from local circumstances the parliament of U. K. may deem expedient, id. Art. 4. s. 7.

9. The qualifications in point of property of the members of the H. of C. for Ire., shall be the same as those provided by law for counties, cities, and boroughs in Eng., unless otherwise hereafter provided by statute, id. Art. 4. s. 8. [Maybe in Eng., Wa., Ber., or Ire., 41 G. 5. (U. K.) c. 131. s. 23. or Scot., 59 G. 5. c. 37. s. 1.]

10. When H. M. shall declare his pleasure for holding any parliament of U. K., a proclamation shall issue under the great seal of U. K., to cause the lords spiritual and temporal, and commons, who are to sit for Ire. to be returned, as provided by 40 G. 3. c. 38. Ir. (see Art. 4. s. 2. pt. 3.) and the lords spiritual and temporal and commons of G. B., and those returned as above for Ire., shall constitute the 2 houses of parliament of the U. K., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. Art. 4. s. 9.

11. H. M. may under the great seal of G. B., declare the present parliament of G. B. to be the first parliament of U. K. on the part of G. B., and they with the peers and commons, [the then existing commons of Ire. id. art. 7. s. 2.] returned for Ire., shall be the lords and commons of the first parliament of U. K., id. Art. 4. s. 10.

12. The lords of parliament for Ire. in the house of lords of U. K., shall at all times have the same privileges of parliament which belong to the lords of parliament for G. B., and the lords spiritual and temporal for Ire. shall have the same rights in respect of sitting and voting on the trial of peers as those lords respectively on the part of G. B.; and the lords spiritual of Ire. shall have rank and precedence next after those of the same rank of G. B., and shall fully enjoy all their privileges except that of sitting in the house of lords, and on the trials of peers; and the persons holding temporal peerages of Ire. existing after the time of the union, shall, after the union, have rank after all peerages of the like degrees in G. B. subsisting at the union; and all peerages of Ire. created after the union, shall rank, &c. with peerages of U. K. so created, according to the dates of creation; and all peerages of G. B. and Ire. shall in all respects be considered peerages of U. K.; and the peers of Ire. shall, as peers of U. K., be sued and tried as peers except as above, and shall enjoy all privileges of peers as fully as those of G. B., the privileges of sitting in the house of lords and those dependent thereon, and that of sitting on the trial of peers excepted, id. Art. 4. s. 11.

13. TO REGULATE THE MODE BY WHICH THE LORDS SPIRITUAL and temporal, and the commons to serve in the parliament of U. K. on the part of Ire. shall be summoned and returned thereto, 40 G. 3. (Ir.) c. 38. [This act forms part of the treaty of union, see Art. 4. s. 2. supra, pt. 3. and is incorporated in the acts of union of the respective parliaments of both countries, and is recited in 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. Art. 8. s. 2.]

14. The 4 lords spiritual of Ire. shall sit in this order, viz. one of the 4 archbishops, and 3 of the 18 bishops of Ire. shall sit in the house of lords of the united parliament in each session, such right of sitting being regulated as between them by rotation among the sees; the primate of all Ire. sitting in the 1st session, the archbishop of Dublin in the 2d; of Cashel in the 3d, of Tuam in the 4th, and so by rotation of sessions for ever, notwithstanding dissolution or expiration of parliament; three suffragan bishops shall sit from session to session in this order; the bishops of Meath, Kildare, and Derry in the 1st session; of Raphoe, Limerick, &c. and of Dromore in the 2d; of Elphin, Down, &c. and of Waterford, &c. in the 3d; of Leighlin and Ferns, of Cloyne, and of Cork, in the 4th; of Killaloe, Kilmorc, and Clogher, in the 5th; of Ossory, Killala, &c. and Clonfert, &c. in the 6th session of the parliament of U. K.; such rotation to be subject to the rotation hereinafter provided, 40 G. 3. c. 31. Ir. as recited and confirmed, Art. 8. s. 2.

15. The 28 lords temporal shall be there chosen by all the lords temporal of Ire., each of them being entitled to sit in the parliament of U. K. for life; and in case of their death or forfeiture, the vacancy shall be thus filled up, viz. 'after providing for the election of the first 28 temporal peers to serve in parliament for Ire.' future elections are thus regulated; whenever the seats of any of the lords so elected shall be vacated by decease or forfeiture, the chancellor of the great seal of U. K. on receiving a certificate under the hand and seal of any two lords temporal of the parliament of U. K. certifying the decease of any such peer, or on view of the record of his attainer shall direct a writ to be issued under the great seal of U. K. to the chancellor, keeper, or commissioners of the great seal of Ire., directing him to cause writs to be issued by the clerk of the crown there, to every temporal peer of Ire. intitled to sit in the H. of L. of Ire. before the union, or whose right to vote at such elections shall, on claim made in his behalf, have been admitted by that house before the union or after it by the H. of L. of U. K.; and notice of the issuing such writs, and of the names and titles of the peers to whom they are directed, shall be published by such clerk of the crown, in the London and Dublin gazettes; which writs shall have annexed a form of return with a blank for the peer elected, and shall enjoin each peer in 52 days from teste of writ to return same into the crown-office of Ire. with the blank filled up, by inserting the name of the peer for whom he shall vote to succeed to such vacancy, which writs and returns shall be bipartite, and the name of the peer chosen shall be written on each part, which shall also be respectively subscribed by the peer to whom directed, and sealed with his seal of arms, one part thereof to remain in the crown-office of Ire., and the other to be certified by the clerk of the crown to the clerk of the parliament of U. K. and no peer of Ire. (except such as have been elected representative peers for Ire. in the H. of L. of U. K., and have there taken the oath, and signed the declaration prescribed by law) shall on pain of suffering such punishment as that house shall award, make a return to such writ, unless after the issue or before the return day thereof, he shall have taken the oaths and signed the declaration by law required to be taken and signed by lords of U. K. before they can sit or vote in the parliament thereof, which shall be either taken and subscribed in the chancery, or before a justice of peace of Ire. and a certificate thereof signed by the register of the court or such justices, shall be transmitted by such peer with the return, and shall be annexed to that part thereof remaining of record in the crown-office of Ire., and the name of the peer chosen shall be published as above, and he shall sit and vote in the H. of L. of the U. K. for life, and in case the votes are equal, the names of the parties shall be written on pieces of paper of similar form, and put into a glass, by the clerk of parliament of U. K. at the table of the H. of L. whilst the house is sitting, and the peer whose name is first drawn out by such clerk shall be deemed the peer elected, 40 G. 3. c. 38. Ir. as recited and confirmed, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. Art. 8. s. 2.

16. In case any lord spiritual being a temporal peer of U. K. or of Ire. is chosen by the lords temporal one of the representatives, then during his life the rotation of representation of the spiritual lords shall proceed to the next spiritual lord in rotation, without regard to the spiritual lord so chosen a temporal peer; i. e. if such spiritual lord is an archbishop, the rotation shall proceed to the archbishop whose see is next in rotation, and if a suffragan bishop, the rotation shall proceed to the suffragan bishop whose see is next in rotation, 40 G. 3. c. 38. (Ir.) as recited and confirmed, id. ibid.

17. Of the 100 commoners to sit for Ire. in the united parliament, 64 shall be chosen for the counties, viz. for each county 2; and 36 for these cities and boroughs, viz.

Armagh 1.	Drogheda 1.	Limerick 1.
Athlone 1.	Dublin, (City) 2.	Lisburne 1.
Bandon Bridge 1.	(Trinity College) 1.	Londonderry 1.
Belfast 1.	Dundalk 1.	New Ross 1.
Carrickfergus 1.	Dungannon 1.	Newry 1.
Cashel 1.	Dungarran 1.	Portarlington 1.
Catherlough 1.	Ennis 1.	Sligo 1.
Clonmell 1.	Enniskillen 1.	Trillick 1.
Coleraine 1.	Galway 1.	Waterford 1.
Cork 2.	Kilkenny 1.	Wexford 1.
Downpatrick 1.	Kinsale 1.	Yonghall 1.

40 G. 3. c. 38. (Ir.) as recited and confirmed, id. Art. 8. s. 2.

18. When a new parliament is summoned, or if any seat becomes vacant by death or otherwise, the above counties, cities, and boroughs, shall proceed to a new election; and all towns, cities, or boroughs, other than the above, shall cease to elect M. P.s and no meeting shall be had for that purpose, on pain of præmunire against every person duly convicted of taking any part therein, 40 G. 3. c. 38. Ir. [Rec. and Conr., id. ibid.]

19. [After providing for the return of the then members of the Irish H. of C. for the above recited counties and places, to serve for Ire. in the first parliament of the U. K.] it is enacted, That whenever H. M. shall summon a new parliament of U. K. the chancellor, keeper, or commissioners of the great seal of Ire. shall cause writs to be issued to the above mentioned counties and places, for election of members of the H. of C. of U. K. and whenever any vacancy of the above seat shall arise, a writ shall in like manner be issued, and which writs and the returns thereon being returned into the crown office of Ire. shall be transmitted to that of Eng. and certified in the usual manner to the H. of C. and copies thereof attested by the chancellor, &c. of Ire. shall be preserved in the crown-office of Ire. and shall be evidence in case of loss of originals, 40 G. 3. c. 38. Ir. [Rec. and Con. id. ibid.]

20. FOR REGULATING THE TRIAL OF CONTROVERTED ELECTIONS or returns of members to serve in the united parliament for Ire. 42 G.3. c.106. [Its powers EXT. to 47 G.3. S.1. c.14. AMD. by the rest of that act, and by 60 G.3. and 1 G.4. c.7.]

21. All regulations and powers prescribed by British statutes in force at the union, respecting petitions to the house of commons, complaining of undue elections or returns, or of the insufficiency of the latter, and respecting trial and determination of petitions of persons desiring to oppose any right of election, or of appointing returning officers, which shall have been deemed valid by the determination of any select committee of the house, and respecting the trial thereof by such select committee, are extended to such petitions to the united parliament from any place in U. K., 42 G.3. c.106. s.1.

22. The time for receiving recognizances on Irish petitions by the speaker of the house of commons, is extended from the 14 days given by 28 G.3. c.52. s.5. to 28 days, 47 G.3. S.1. c.14. s.8.

23. Such petitions for places in Ire. shall not be proceeded on, unless they state all the matters concerning which the petitioners intend to examine witnesses, and no witness shall be called or examined before the committee, or before the commissioners, (to be chosen as in ss. 4—11.) to any thing not contained in such petition, or in the lists and statements in s.5. mentioned, 42 G.3. c.106. ss. 2—3.

24. The parties appearing before any select committee to be chosen for trial of such petition, shall after a chairman has been chosen, and before any other business is proceeded on, interchange their respective lists of objectionable votes, and names of the voters, and statements in writing of all particulars respecting any right of voting, or of choosing a returning officer, and of all other matters intended to be insisted on or objected to by either party; and no witness shall be called or examined by or for either party, before such select committee or the commissioners, to any matter not contained in such lists, statements, or in the petition complaining of the election or return in question, id. s.3.

25. The parties appearing before the committee and delivering lists of votes, or of names of voters, to which they intend to object, shall state in such lists their specific objections to each vote, and no evidence shall be admitted before the committee or the commissioners, of any objection not so stated; and if no evidence is produced before them to substantiate the objections so stated, and if the committee are of opinion that such proceeding was frivolous and vexatious, they shall report the same to the house, with their opinion on the other matters relating to such petition, and the opposite party may recover from the petitioners the costs incurred by reason of such frivolous and vexatious objections in the usual mode of recovery thereof, 47 G.3. S.1. c.14. s.4.

26. Whenever it appears to a select committee, that any petition complaining of any of the causes of petition enumerated in s.1. cannot be effectually enquired into before them without great expence, they may, on application of the parties, make an order for the appointment of commissioners, 42 G.3. c.106. s.4.

27. But no such commission shall issue, unless notice be served on the opposite party as soon as the petition is presented, of the intention to apply to the committee for it, id. s.5.

28. If the committee think no such commissioners necessary, the committee may try the merits of the petition, as merits on petition are usually tried for G. B., id. s.6.

29. Whenever the committee think fit to make order for such commissioners, they shall be appointed on the next sitting day after the order made at the time previously appointed by the committee in their presence, and in that of the petitioners and sitting members, and in that of all parties before the house, on distinct interests, or complaining or complained of on different grounds, or their respective counsel or agents, or of such of them as shall attend; and the names of 7 barristers, each being of at least 6 years standing, and having consented under their hands and seals to become commissioners on being so appointed, and not having voted, or having been sheriff, returning officer, or counsel, at the election in question, shall be delivered to the chairman of the committee on behalf of each party, and a list of the whole shall forthwith be made, and thereupon the parties, their counsel, or agents, beginning on the part of the petitioner, may alternately strike off one name till the list be reduced to 2; who, with the chairman (being a barrister of like standing, appointed as in s.8.) may act as commissioners for examining matters referred to them by, and as limited by the order of the select committee, id. s.7.

30. After the appointment of the 2 commissioners, and before the committee adjourns, a 3d commissioner shall be appointed, and when so appointed and consenting, shall be chairman either by consent of all parties, or if they cannot agree, by nomination of the select committee as in s.9., id. s.8.

31. The clerk of the crown in Ire., or his deputy, shall, at the commencement of every session, transmit to the speaker of the house of commons of the united parliament, a list of all such barristers qualified and consenting as above, out of which list the committee shall appoint a chairman, but no barrister whose name is struck off the list as in s.7 shall act as such, 42 G.3. c.106. s.9.

32. When the parties agree in nominating any 3 such commissioners, and deliver a list of the names of the barristers so consenting to the committee, signed by all the parties, they shall be the commissioners, and shall appoint one of themselves chairman, id. s.10.

33. When more than 2 parties appear before the house, on distinct interests, at the striking the committee, they shall not be permitted to give in such list of barristers, but the select committee shall appoint the commissioners, and name which of them shall be chairman, id. s.11.

34. If within one hour after the time fixed by the select committee for appointing commissioners under this act, the petitioner shall not appear either personally, or by counsel or agent, or shall not give in a list of names as above, the committee shall not proceed to appoint such commissioners, but shall forthwith report to the house, that he has made default in the recognizance entered into on presenting such petition, id. s.12.

35. If within the like time, the sitting member or other party opposing the petition, shall not appear as in s.12, or shall not give in any list of names as in s.7, in order to appoint commissioners and reduce their names from the list, the chairman of the committee shall stand in his place, and when it comes to his turn as such to strike out a name, shall put all the remaining names in a glass, and draw one out, which name shall be struck off, and the number reduced to 2 as in s.7.; and the same method of reduction shall be followed whenever a party waves his right of striking off names from the list, id. s.13.

36. The chairman of the committee shall issue a warrant under his hand and seal, directed to each commissioner, commanding him on penalty of 500*l.* to repair to the city, borough, town, or place, in, or for which the election or return complained of or other subject matter of the petition arose, or happened on a day certain therein named, (being not less than 14, or more than 21 days after the day of their appointment,) and shall address to the chairman of the commissioners a true copy of the petition, and of the said lists, disputed votes, and statements of the parties delivered before the committee, with a true copy of the order of the committee specially assigning and limiting the matters as to which the commissioners are to examine evidence, and to report the same, with such other documents and papers as the committee think proper, all which warrants and papers shall be conveyed to the clerk of the crown in Ire., or his deputy, and by him transmitted to the parties in the method used in conveying writs in G. B., and the chairman of the committee shall also transmit a copy of his warrant only to the Dublin Gazette for insertion in its next number, id. s.14.

37. After completion of these proceedings the chairman of the committee shall report his proceedings to the house, stating that they have gone through all other parts of the petition, except those specially referred to the commissioners in Ire., and may ask permission to adjourn till the speaker shall by warrant direct them to re-assemble, on which, permission being given, they may adjourn accordingly, id. s.15.

38. In petitions on controverted elections in Ire., the committee shall not be dissolved on account of the death or absence of its members, except they are reduced to less than 9, id. s.16.

39. At the place and on the day appointed, between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m., the chairman and commissioners shall open their court and commence proceedings by reading the warrant of the chairman of the committee, and all other papers transmitted by them to him, and shall then swear faithfully to do their duty, the chairman taking the oath first and administering it to the commissioners (every one of whom acting not being qualified by his degree as barrister, shall forfeit 500*l.*) they shall sit every day except Sundays, Good Friday, or Christmas-day, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. without longer adjournment than 24 hours, except in case of a commissioner's death or continued absence as in s.18. unless Sunday, Christmas-day, or Good Friday intervene, in which latter case the 24 hours shall be reckoned exclusive of such Sunday, &c. id. s.17.

40. Every commissioner absenting himself, except in cases of illness, sudden accident, or necessity, to be made appear to the other commissioners by facts specially stated and verified on his oath, and such illness being certified on oath of a physician before a justice, shall forfeit 500*l.* for every day he shall so absent himself, id. s.18. & 21.

41. The commissioners shall never sit until all of them are met, except in cases where the absence of a commissioner is verified on oath as in last pl., nor then except by consent of parties, given as in s.20; and if they, or such number as is so consented to, the chairman being one, shall not meet in one hour after the adjournment-hour, a further adjournment shall be made, and so from time to time till the commissioners and chairman are assembled; and if their number be unavoidably reduced to less than 3, by death or otherwise, and shall so continue for 3 sitting days, and no such consent is given, the party who originally appointed the defaulting commissioner shall nominate another barrister, having consented as above, in his place; and in case of the chairman's death or absence for 5 sitting days, the commissioners shall nominate a barrister to be a new chairman, or if they cannot agree, their names shall be put in a glass in their open court, and the first drawn name shall appoint a chairman, consenting as above, and shall give notice of his appointment, who shall thereon, on 500*l.* penalty, repair to the place of meeting on a day certain named by the commissioners, not more than 14 days from the day of his appointment, and shall have all the powers of each original commissioner, 42 G. 3. c. 106. s. 19.

12. But any number of commissioners (the chairman being always one) may act during the absence or after the death of any commissioner, with consent of the parties, entered on their minutes of proceedings and signed by them or their agents, id. s. 20.

13. The commissioners may adjourn to any town within the county which they may think necessary, id. s. 22.

14. The chairman may at all times, by warrant under his hand and seal, send for persons, papers, and records, and the commissioners shall examine all witnesses on oath, and all matters referred to them with the same powers and in like manner as committees of the house do, and shall appoint a clerk to take down in writing minutes of their proceedings, who shall from time to time make true copies thereof, and of all evidence produced before them, and shall give one copy thereof to each of the parties interested or his agent, on their demand, on being paid 6*d.* for every sheet of 72 words, id. s. 23. [and see rest of section, infra, pl. 51. Only 5*d.* a sheet is given for these copies, as well as those to be furnished to the clerk of the crown for Ire. and to the speaker of the house of commons, for which 6*d.* a sheet was allowed by 12 G. 3. c. 106. s. 31, infra, pl. 51., 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 14. s. 6.]

15. No counsel shall plead, examine, or cross-examine witnesses before the commissioners, but they shall do so themselves, 42 G. 3. c. 106. s. 24.

16. Commissioners shall state their reason, in writing for rejecting any witness or evidence tendered, but the party offering such witness, &c. may require the same to be taken, and it shall be taken down separately by the clerk, and a copy thereof with a statement of the purpose for which it was produced shall be signed and sealed by the commissioner in the nature of a bill of exceptions to evidence, and shall be transmitted to the committee; and if they are of opinion that the tendering of such evidence was frivolous or vexatious, or that his testimony was irrelevant to the matter in issue, they shall report such opinion to the house, and the party who opposed the receiving such witness or evidence shall recover the full costs incurred by such opposition, the same being received as above in the manner provided by law for recovery of costs in cases of frivolous, &c. petitions or opposition thereto, id. s. 25.

17. When any person shall be appointed clerk to any such committee, he shall be sworn by their chairman, faithfully to take down and certify the evidence adduced before them, and from day to day to transcribe, &c. the same for their use, and that he will as far as possible give the exact words in which the evidence is delivered, and conduct himself impartially to the best of his judgment, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 14. s. 1.

18. No person who voted at such election, or who claims to vote at the place to which the petition relates, shall be such a commissioner, &c. see S.P. ante, pl. 29., nor clerk to such commissioner, without consent in writing of the petitioners and sitting members petitioned against, id. s. 2.

19. Any objection to such commissioner shall be made at the time of his first appointment, and to their clerk, at the first meeting of the commissioners, or shall be of no effect, id. s. 3.

20. The sum to be received by any clerk shall not in any instance exceed 50*l.* for any such copy so furnished by him, and containing as well the minutes of all proceedings, as of all evidence produced before the commissioners, id. s. 7. [and see pl. 44. within brackets.]

21. Every person wilfully giving false evidence, or making false oath or affidavit before the commissioners, or any justice, touching things provided by this act, shall be prosecuted for the same, and on conviction, shall be sent to some house of correction to hard labour, for not exceeding 7 years, or shall be transported for a like period, as the court think proper: and the chairman, by warrant under hand and seal, directed to any constable, or other person specially appointed by him, may summon any witness to attend the commissioners at the day and place mentioned in the warrant, 42 G. 3. c. 106. s. 28.

22. Witnesses neglecting to attend, without lawful excuse to be determined by the commissioners, or prevaricating or otherwise misbehaving, in giving or refusing to give evidence before them, or being guilty of any contempt or misbehaviour towards them, while sitting as such, shall be committed by the chairman's warrant, directed to the gaoler of the common gaol of the county or place in which they shall sit, for any time not exceeding 6 calendar months, [unless he be a peer of realm or lord of parliament,] 42 G. 3. c. 106. s. 29.

23. If it be necessary to summon a member of parliament to give evidence, who is then attending his duty in parliament, the chairman of the commissioners shall certify the same to the speaker, who shall report it to the house, id. s. 30.

24. Each commissioner immediately after the final report of the committee on the petition, shall receive from the treasury in Dublin 200*l.* for his attendance, with a guinea per day, for the time he has been engaged on the commission, with 1*s. 6d.* a mile travelling expences, from or to his usual abode in his attendance thereon, and their clerk shall receive a reasonable sum for his attendance, not exceeding 2*l. 2s.* per day, with such sum not exceeding 6*d.* per sheet of 72 words, for the copies of evidence transmitted under s. 23, as the commissioners think fit, 42 G. 3. c. 106. s. 31. [seem lowered to 5*d.*, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 11. s. 6. ante, pl. 44.]

25. All penalties by this act imposed may be recovered with full costs of suit, by any person suing for same by action of debt in any court of record in Ire., stating that defendant is indebted to plaintiff in the amount of the penalty sued for by virtue of this act, without essoin, &c. and but one imparlance allowed, id. s. 32.

26. Every indictment, information, or action for offences against or forfeitures incurred under this act, shall be found, filed, or commenced in one year after the fact, or in 6 months after the proceedings of the house of commons in any such petition are concluded, id. s. 33.

27. The commissioners in 10 days after the evidence is closed, shall transmit by their clerk one copy of the minutes of all proceedings before them, to the clerk of the crown for Ire., or his deputy, and another to the speaker of the house of commons: [and the clerk of the commissioners shall have 3*d.* fee for every sheet of 72 words in both such copies, payable at the treasury in Dublin, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 14. s. 6. but the whole of such fees shall not exceed 50*l.* id. s. 7. pl. 50.] [seem, fixing the amount of this fee at 5*d.*, which might have previously been made 6*d.*, at pleasure of the commissioners, see 12 G. 3. c. 106. s. 31. ante, pl. 51.] and the speaker shall communicate it to the house, and the commissioners shall adjourn in order to receive any further orders (viz. to re-assemble, see s. 27, infra, pl. 62.) which the committee may think requisite to make, 12 G. 3. c. 106. s. 27.

28. When from the length of the evidence adduced, they cannot transmit a copy of the minutes of their proceedings within such 10 days, they shall do so with all convenient dispatch, assigning the reason for such delay, 60 G. 3. & 1 G. 4. c. 7. s. 2.

29. Within 2 days after the copy of the proceedings before the commissioners is received by the speaker, he shall insert in the London Gazette a warrant, signed by him, directing the select committee to re-assemble within a month from the date, if parliament be then sitting, or within a month from the commencement of the next session; and such committee shall try and determine the merits of the petition in the usual manner, on the written minutes of evidence taken before the commissioners, but shall not call for or receive any other evidence; and may hear counsel as to its effect, and shall report their own opinion to the house, on the whole merit of such election or other matter of the petition, 42 G. 3. c. 106. s. 26.

30. If the speaker receive a copy of such proceedings when the house of commons is adjourned for a longer time than one month, from the publication of his warrant in the London Gazette, as in 42 G. 3. c. 106. s. 26., he shall in such warrant direct the committee to re-assemble in one month after the day to which the house may be adjourned: and if the house adjourn subsequently to any day so fixed by the speaker, he shall by another warrant, inserted as above, direct them to re-assemble within a like period, from the day to which the house is adjourned, 60 G. 3. & 1 G. 4. c. 7. s. 1.

31. When any select committee shall re-assemble to try the merits of any petition, pursuant to 42 G. 3. c. 106. s. 26. pl. 53. after proceedings had therein before commissioners in Ire., they may send for all books, papers, records, or other documents produced in evidence before such commissioners, without re-assembling the latter, or directing any warrant to their chairman, but shall try the merits of the petition, and determine all matters tried before the commissioners, from the written minutes of the proceedings before them, and from inspection of such books and documents as far as they relate to such proceedings, but shall not call for or receive in evidence any extracts therefrom, nor other than those produced before them, nor in any matter not in issue before them, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 14. s. 5.

32. The committee from time to time during their continuance, and before reporting their final opinion to the house on the merits of the petition, may by further warrant under hand and seal of their chairman, direct the commissioners to re-assemble for the purposes therein specified, and like proceedings shall be had on such further warrant of the chairman of the committee, as in s. 14. is directed as to his warrant, 42 G. 3. c. 106. s. 27. pl. 36.

63. FOR BETTER SECURING THE FREEDOM OF ELECTIONS OF MEMBERS to serve in parliament for any place in Ire., by disabling certain revenue officers in Ire. from voting at such elections, 45 G. 3. c. 25.

64. No commissioner, collector, surveyor, supervisor, or gauger, or other officer of excise in Ire., or any branch thereof; nor any commissioner, collector, surveyor, comptroller, searcher, or other officer of customs in Ire., or any branch thereof; nor any surveyor, collector, comptroller, inspector, or other person soever employed by the commissioners of H. M.'s revenue in Ire., in charging, collecting, levying, or managing any taxes in Ire., paid under their direction; nor any commissioner or officer of stamps, or persons appointed by them to distribute stamps in Ire.; nor any post master or masters general, or their deputies, or persons employed under them, in the revenue of the post office in Ire., nor any captain, master, or mate of any packet or vessel employed by the Dish post office for conveying the mail to G. B. or to or from any other place, shall be capable of voting in any election for the choice of an M. P. for any county, county of a city, borough, town corporate, university, or other place in Ire., and if any person hereby disabled to vote, shall presume to vote during the time he shall hold, or within 12 calendar months after he shall cease to hold or execute any of the above offices, contrary to this act, his vote shall be void, and he shall forfeit 100*l.* Irish currency, one moiety to the informer, and the other to be paid into the hands of the treasurer of the county, &c. or place in Ire., within which such offence has been committed, to be applied to such public charity or charitable purpose therein, as the next quarter sessions shall think fit, and to be recovered by any person suing for the same, by action of debt, or information in any court of record in Dublin, without essoin, or more than one imparlance allowed, and the offender shall be disabled from ever holding office under H. M., id. s. 1.

65. Nothing herein shall extend to any office in Ire., now held, or lawfully granted to be held by letter patent for any estate of inheritance or freehold, id. s. 2.

66. No person shall be liable to any penalty of this act, unless prosecution be commenced within 12 calendar months next after the same is incurred, id. s. 3.

67. FOR AMENDING 55 G. 7. (Ire.) FOR REGULATING THE ELECTION OF MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT, so far as relates to freeholds under 20*l.* yearly value, and for making other regulations relating thereto, 45 G. 5. c. 59. [AMD. 51 G. 3. c. 77.]

68. Every person registering a freehold under 20*l.* yearly value, not arising from a rent charge, shall register the same as follows, at a sessions of the peace for the county, county of city, or of town where the freehold lies, held at least 12 [calendar 51 G. 3. c. 77. s. 2.] months before the teste of the writ for the election, at which his vote was tendered by producing the deed, lease, or instrument, from which his freehold arises, and taking this oath or affirmation:

'I, A. B. of — in the county of — [or, of the county of the city, or town of — as the case may be,] do swear [or, if a Quaker, affirm,] That I am a freeholder of the county of —, and that I have a freehold therein, arising from [a house or houses, land, or both, or other hereditaments, as the case may be,] of the clear yearly value of 40*s.* at the least above all charges payable out of the same, lying land being at — [naming the townland or townlands, or other denomination by which the place is generally known, and barony or half barony, or baronies and half baronies wherein it is situate,] in this county [and if in a city or town, or county of a city or town, naming the same, and the street, and square, row, alley, lane, or place]; and that the said freehold does not arise from a rent charge; and that the same arises by virtue of the deed, lease, or instrument which I now produce, bearing date the — day of — in the year — for the life or lives of A. B. and C. D. [or in case the said freehold be not for life or lives, then stating the nature of his tenure, as the case may be,] at the yearly rent of —; and that I am in the actual occupation thereof, by residing thereon, or by tilling, or by grazing, or by both tilling and grazing [as the case may be,] to the amount of at least 40*s.* yearly value thereof; and that the said freehold is not set or agreed to be set to the person or persons who executed the said deed, lease, or instrument, or to the heirs or assigns of such person or persons, or to any one in trust for him, her, or them, nor do I intend to set the same to such person or persons, or any of them; and that I have not agreed to set it for the term for which I hold it; nor have I procured it fraudulently, or in exchange for a freehold in any other county. So help me God.'

And persons having freeholds not arising from a deed or lease, shall describe the same according to the nature of its tenure, in the oath to be taken by them in which case the words in the above oath importing that the same arises by virtue of deed, &c. shall be omitted, and such description inserted in its place, 45 G. 3. c. 59. s. 1. [as AMD. 51 G. 3. c. 77. s. 2.]

69. Every oath or affirmation made for the registry of a freehold under 20*l.* yearly value, not arising from a rent charge, shall be valid if the party making oath shall state therein that the freehold arises either by virtue of a deed, lease, or instrument produced by him, whether all or any of such terms are used in such oath, and if the whole yearly rent, of the yearly rent per acre, with the number of acres, are stated (whether the amount of receiver's fees is or is not included in the specified amount thereof, or whether the rent and sums are set forth in figures or in words at length) or in which the actual occupation of a freehold is stated to be either by residing, or by tilling or grazing, or by all, or any, or either such means, either stated copulatively or disjunctively, 51 G. 3. c. 77. s. 1.

70. Every adjournment of the sessions, and an adjournment of an adjournment thereof, shall be deemed a sessions of the peace for the purpose of such registry, and if such sessions lapse for want of such adjournment, a sessions shall be held at the same place on the 1st Monday in the next month, at which the clerk of the peace or his deputy shall attend for the purpose of such registry, and an adjournment thereof to any city or market town in the county, shall be a sessions pro hoc vice, 45 G. 3. c. 59. s. 15.

71. Every deed, lease, or instrument, produced by persons taking the above oath, shall be indorsed in open court by the clerk of the peace, with his name, and date of the month and year; who shall then compare it with the above oath, and within 10 days shall enter in the registry book its date, the names of the parties, and of the life or lives for which the same is held, id. s. 3.

72. No person shall be admitted to vote for a freehold under 20*l.* yearly value, who shall not have so registered his freehold at least 12 [calendar, 51 G. 3. c. 77. s. 2.] months before teste of the writ for holding the election, at which he shall offer his vote; and every freeholder, before he shall be admitted to poll at any election, shall, if required by the sheriff or any elector, declare on oath from whom he derives his freehold, if he holds it under any person, and if the same is situate in a city, town corporate, or market town, and describe the street, or part of the city or town in which it is situate, and who are his next resident neighbours, and when the same was granted, and for what life or lives, and whether the latter or any of them are in being at the time of such election, and whether he is the person who actually registered the freehold under which he desires to vote, which declarations shall be entered in the poll-book taken by the sheriff or their deputies; and he shall, if so required by any elector, take this oath before he is admitted to poll:

'I, A. B. of — in the county of — [or, of the town or city of —] do swear [or, if a Quaker, do affirm,] that I am a freeholder of this county; and that I have a freehold therein arising from a house or houses, land, or both, or other hereditaments [as the case may be,] of the yearly value of forty shillings at the least, above all charges payable out of the same, lying and being at — in the barony or baronies, half barony or half baronies of — in this county [and if in a city or town, or county of a city or town, naming the same, and the street, square, row, alley, lane, or place]; and that the said freehold does not arise from a rent charge. So help me God.' id. s. 4.

and if so required, by any elector, the following words shall be added to such oath:

'and that the same arises by virtue of a deed, lease, or instrument [or otherwise, as the case may be,] bearing date the — day of — in the year — for the life or lives of —; and that the said — one of the aforesaid lives, is still alive, to the best of my knowledge and belief [unless he is himself one of the lives, in which case he shall swear, that I am one of the lives therein, instead of the word, that the said — one of the aforesaid lives, is still alive, to the best of my knowledge and belief]; or in case the said freehold be not for life or lives, then stating the nature of his tenure, or the words following, 'and that I have been in the actual occupation thereof for twelve successive calendar months, between — [naming the day he registered the same,] and — [naming the date of the teste of the writ for holding the election,] by residing hereon, or by tilling and by grazing, or by both tilling and grazing [as the case may be,]; to the amount of amount of at least 40*s.* yearly value thereof [as the case may be,]; or the words following, 'and that the said freehold is not set, or agreed to be set, to the person or persons who executed the said deed, lease, or instrument, or to the heirs or assigns of such person or persons, or to any one in trust for him or them; nor do I intend to set the same to such person or persons, or any of them; and that I have not set it, or agreed to set it, for the term for which I hold it; and that I have not been polled before at this election; and that I am to the best of my belief of the age of twenty-one years.' id. s. 5.

73. The blanks in such oath shall be filled up in conformity to the oath in s. 1. made at time of registry, id. s. 6.

74. All provisions of former acts respecting freeholds under 20*l.* yearly value, and not hereby repealed, are still applicable to them, id. s. 7.

75. Every grant of an interest importing to be, but not being a freehold, with intent to enable any person to vote, shall be valid against the grantor for any purpose excepting that of voting, id. s. 8.

76. A penalty of 100*l.* may be recovered from any person demising a freehold for life or lives, to induce the lessee to register it as a freehold, or to vote as a freeholder thereout by any person suing for the same by action or information, id. s. 9.

77. The clerks of the peace, or their deputies, of the counties in Ire. shall, at the general quarter sessions of the peace, or adjournment thereof next after his appointment, take oath as follows, and shall deliver the same to the county treasurer, to preserve among the records of the county, 45 G. 3. c. 59. s. 10.

'I, J. B. clerk or deputy-clerk of the peace for the county of — [as the case may be], do swear, That I will faithfully and honestly, and without favour or affection, perform and discharge the several duties directed to be performed by the clerks and deputy-clerks of the peace, by an act passed in the parliament of Ireland, in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled, An Act for regulating the election of members to serve in parliament, and for expediting the several acts therein mentioned; and by an act passed in the forty-fifth year of King George the Third, intituled, [here set forth the title of this act]; and that I will not demand or receive any fee or fees for discharging any of the said duties, which I am not entitled to by law. So help me God.'

78. Such clerks and deputy-clerks of the peace shall give every freeholder who requires it a full and correct return of every freeholder, who shall register his freeholds according to 55 G. 3. c. 29. Ir., and this act, with a certificate of its correctness at the bottom, as in the schedule annexed, id. s. 11.

Name of Freeholder and Residence.	Name of Landlord and Residence.	Value of Freehold.	Description.	Situation.	Barony or Half Barony.	Names of Life or Lives or other Tenure.	Rent.	Date of Registry.

79. Wilful perjury, or subornation thereof, in any of the oaths above required, shall be punished as such, id. s. 14.

80. Papists taking the oaths and declarations in 13 & 14 G. 5. c. 55. Ir., and 55 G. 3. c. 21. Ir. contained, in open court in some one of the four courts in Dublin, or at any assizes or general sessions of the peace, or at an adjournment, or adjournment of an adjournment thereof, held for the county where they dwell, or at any election, as in s. 1. directed, are entitled to vote as by 57 G. 3. c. 47. Ir. directed, 51 G. 3. c. 77. s. 5.

81. On a poll being demanded at any election of a member of parliament for any county, city, town, or borough in Ire., the returning officer shall, at the request of any candidate at such election, appoint two or more justices to administer the oaths and declarations required in s. 3. in some convenient part of the court or place so as not to interrupt the poll; and the clerk of the peace, or his deputy, appointed under his hand for that purpose, shall attend and give to every person so taking and subscribing such oaths, a certificate thereof; and the said justices and clerk of the peace, and his deputy, before acting under such appointment, shall take this oath before, and administered by, the returning officer:

'I — do swear that I will faithfully and impartially administer the oaths and declarations now required to be taken and subscribed by papists by 13 & 14 G. 3. Ir. c. 35.,' 33 G. 3. Ir. c. 21.

and any clerk of the peace, or his deputy, the following oath:

'I — do swear, that I will, on being thereunto requested, fairly and truly give to every person who shall now take and subscribe the oaths and declarations required by law to be taken by papists, in order to entitle them to vote at any election before the commissioners appointed by the returning officer for that purpose, a certificate thereof as required by law, and that I will not give any such certificate to any person before he has taken and subscribed such oaths and declarations as are mentioned in such certificate before me and in my presence, 51 G. 3. c. 77. s. 4.

82. The proper officer of every court shall, in 14 days after 1 Jan. yearly, transmit to the rolls office in Dublin, all rolls containing the names and additions of persons who have taken such oaths, &c. in the year preceding, id. s. 5.

83. Such officer shall first enter in a book the names, &c. of all persons entered in such rolls, which shall be open to inspection at 2s. 6d. fee to such officer, who shall give a certificate thereof, when demanded, to any person, whose name is entered in such book, and who shall swear that he did at any former time take such oaths and declarations in open court, id. s. 8.

84. If any person's vote is refused on account of the informality of such certificate, he may demand of the clerk of the peace a new certificate, paying 1s. fee, and shall then be permitted to poll, id. s. 7.

85. Any officer of the court neglecting to transmit such rolls to the rolls office, or to make out such lists, or omitting therein the name of any person entitled to a certificate, or inserting any not entitled, or neglecting or refusing to give such certificate, shall forfeit 100l. recoverable by bill, plaint, or information, in any court of record in Dublin, id. s. 8.

86. FOR BETTER REGULATION OF POLLS, AND FOR MAKING FURTHER provision for election of members to serve in parliament for Ire., 1 G. 4. c. 11. [57 G. 3. c. 131. is Rev. by s. 1.]

87. Every poll demanded at any election in Ire., shall commence on the day on which it is demanded, or on the next day after at furthest, (unless it happen to be Sunday, Christmas-day, or Good Friday, and then on the day next after) and shall be duly proceeded in from day to day, for so many hours of each polling day as the returning officer is by this act directed to keep the poll open, (the above days only excepted) until finished; but so that no poll for such election in Ire., shall continue more than 15 days at most, (the above days excepted); and if it shall continue till the 15th day, it shall be finally closed at or before the hour of 3 in the afternoon, and the returning officer shall immediately after its final close, truly and publicly declare the names of those who have the majority of votes on such poll, and shall forthwith make a return of those persons, 1 G. 4. c. 11. s. 2.

88. Where a poll takes place as above, the returning officer shall, within 2 days of its final close, deliver all the poll books of such election to the clerk of the peace for such county, county of a city, or town, if such election is held for the same, or if in any other place, then to the officer who has the custody of the records of such place, verifying on oath (which any justice for such county, &c. or place shall administer), that the poll books delivered in are the original poll books of such election on which the return was founded, and that from the final close of the poll to the time he delivers in the same, there has been no erasure, addition, or alteration made therein, and such poll books shall be carefully kept amongst the records of such county, &c. or place, and their production by such clerk of the peace or officer, or his deputy, shall be deemed sufficient evidence of their authenticity, unless disproved, id. s. 5.

89. Where a poll takes place at any election for a county, &c. as in s. 5., the returning officer shall certify on the back of such return to the writ, the names of the candidates, with the number who voted for each as it appeared at the final close of the poll, which certificate shall be evidence of the truth of the facts therein unless disproved by contrary evidence, id. s. 4.

90. Immediately after receipt of the writ for election for any county, the sheriff thereof shall, indorse thereon the date of receiving the same; and shall, within 2 days after its receipt, cause proclamation of the time and place of holding such election, to be made at the place where it ought by law to be holden, between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., and on the same day shall cause to be affixed on the doors of the county courthouse, public notice, signed by himself, of a special county court to be there holden for the purpose of such election only, and which shall be holden on some day (Sunday, Christmas-day, and Good Friday excepted) not later from the day of making such proclamation and notice, than the 16th, nor sooner than the 10th day; and the mayor, sovereign, portreeve, provost, burgomaster, bailiff, or seneschal, of any borough or other place in such county, shall hold the election for the same not later than 8 days after receiving the precept of the sheriff of such county, having in the usual public place in such borough or other place caused to be affixed a notice under his hand, of the time and place of holding such election 4 days at least preceding the day of election; and the sheriff of a county of a town or city, shall hold the election for the same not later than 8 days from receiving the writ, having in the usual places thereof, caused to be affixed notice under his or their hand, of the time and place of holding such election, 4 days at least preceding the day of election, id. s. 5.

91. Whenever in any one barony or half barony of any county, or in any county of a town or city, the number of freeholders appearing by the books of the clerk of the peace capable of voting at any election for the same, exceeds 800, the returning officer shall provide 2 or more places of polling for such barony, &c. and shall make such a division of the freeholders according to the first letters of their names, that no more than 800 freeholders need poll in any one place of polling, but so as not to divide the names beginning with the same letter of the alphabet, and shall provide as many more places of polling as may be necessary, and appoint additional deputies and poll-clerks to take the poll therein, not exceeding one deputy and one poll-clerk for each such place, id. s. 6.

92. The returning officer at all elections shall erect a booth or hire a building, unless there is already some fit place for the purpose, wherein he may decide all disputed questions, and objections to votes referred to him, which booth, building, or place shall be separate from and exclusive of the number of booths, buildings, or places necessary for polling electors; and shall give constant attendance in such separate booth, &c. during the entire number of hours that the polling shall continue each day, and shall proceed without suffering delay or interruption to take place in deciding all disputed questions, and objections to votes, referred to him from the polling booths; and the returning officer at any election for any city or borough, shall appoint a deputy to take the poll at any such election; whose deputy, in each place of polling, shall appoint such one person for each candidate, as shall be nominated to him by the latter, to be an inspector of the clerk appointed for taking the poll and the agent of such candidate in each place of polling; and such one other person for each candidate as shall be nominated by the latter to be a clerk for keeping a cheque-book of the poll-book in each place of polling, id. s. 7.

93. The clerk of the peace at every such election for any county or county of a town or city, shall appoint, or in failure thereof the returning officer shall appoint a deputy-clerk of the peace, and likewise an assistant to him, to be present in each place of polling, who shall take with him into such place of polling the registry book belonging to the barony, half barony, or county of a town, or city, to be polled in such place of polling, and all the original affidavits or affirmations made by the persons capable of voting therein; which affidavits, &c. he shall have arranged alphabetically in separate parcels, (one or more for each letter of the alphabet), and endorsed with the names of the persons by whom they were made, and with the number of the entry of each affidavit, &c. in the registry book; and in those cases wherein a certificate of registry shall not be produced by the person tendering his vote or offering to poll, such deputy shall, on demand of the returning officer's deputy, produce the original affidavit, &c. of the registry of such person; and shall be entitled to receive 10s. and no more; and his assistant 5s. for each day of attendance; and if such deputy, or such assistant, shall alter, deface, destroy or lose any affidavit, &c. committed to his care, he shall forfeit 10l. for every such offence, to any person suing for the same, by action of debt, at any general quarter-sessions, 1 G. 4. c. 11. s. 8.

94. The returning officer at any election shall, on demand in writing of any candidate, appoint a sufficient number of competent persons to act as interpreters, in order to translate faithfully such oaths, affirmations, and questions and answers, as are required at any election; and every such interpreter shall immediately after such appointment, and before acting, take the following oath, which every returning officer may administer, and shall receive 10s. per day for his attendance, id. s. 9.

"I, A. B. do swear, that I will faithfully interpret such oaths, affirmations, questions, and answers, as I shall be directed to interpret by the returning officer or officers, and his or their deputy or deputies, [as the case may be]."

95. Where any person shall tender his vote, or offer to poll at any election for a county, or county of a town or city, by virtue of a freehold, the returning officer's deputy shall, in the first place, refer to the entry of the affidavit or affirmation of the registry thereof in the registry book, and write down opposite thereto the initial letters of his name; and then shall refer to the certificate or affidavit of the registry thereof; and if any such person shall produce a certificate of the registry of his freehold, corresponding with such entry, without erasure or interlineation therein, signed in open court by two justices, and countersigned by the acting clerk of the peace, as directed by 35 G. 3. c. 29. (1st) or signed as directed by this or any other act, when the freehold is situated in a county of a town, or of a city, such certificate shall, without further proof, be deemed of equal authenticity with the original oath or affirmation, and conclusive evidence of his registry of such freehold; and the returning officer's deputy shall write down the initials of his name on the margin of such certificate; and in all cases wherein no such certificate is produced by the person tendering his vote, &c., or wherein such certificate, if produced, shall appear to such deputy not to be in manner and form as aforesaid, he shall direct the deputy clerk of the peace to produce the original affidavit, &c. of the registry of the freehold of such person so tendering his vote, &c. id. s. 10.

96. The returning officer's deputy, if required by any candidate or his inspector so to do, shall in person administer, in the place of polling where he presides, an oath in this form, to every person separately, who shall tender his vote at such election, and immediately after production of the certificate or affidavit of registry, when any such person votes by virtue of a freehold, viz.

"I, A. B. do swear, [or, being a Quaker or Moravian, do solemnly affirm,] that I will true answer make to all such questions as the sheriff's or other returning officer's deputy [as the case may be] presiding in this booth shall demand of me; and I do also swear, [or, being one of the people called Quakers or Moravians, do solemnly affirm,] that I have not polled before at this election; and that I am, as I believe, 21 years of age. So help me God." And immediately after any person so tendering his vote, shall have taken such oath or affirmation, the returning officer's deputy shall, if required by any candidate or his inspector, put the following questions, and no others, without allowing any person to interrupt him, to every such person so tendering his vote, and the poll clerk shall forthwith write down the entries on the poll book according to the answers, and if any of the questions are not required to be put, then according to the entry of the voter's registry in the registry book:

1. What is your name?
2. Where do you reside?
4. Where is it situated?

And the returning officer's deputy shall then, if required as above so to do, refer to the certificate of registry, if produced by the person tendering his vote, or if not, to the original affidavit of registry, and then shall immediately ask, if required as above, without making or allowing any other to make any comments on such certificate or affidavit, the following question:

5. Is the freehold described in this certificate, or affidavit of registry [as the case may be] the same freehold which you now swear you are possessed of, and by virtue of which you now offer to vote?

And if it appears to the returning officer's deputy, from the certificate or affidavit of registry, that any person shall tender his vote, in respect of a freehold of 40s. value only, he shall then, if required as above, put the following questions:

6. Do you swear, that you have been in the actual occupation of this freehold, as described in your certificate or affidavit of registry, [as the case may be,] by tilling it, or by grazing it, or by residing upon it, during the whole of the last 12 months?

7. Do you swear, that this freehold is now of the clear yearly value of 10l. above all charges payable out of the same?

And whenever entry of the affidavit, &c. of registry of such person shall appear in the registry book; and such person shall have produced such certificate of registry as in s. 10.; or the original affidavit has been produced by the deputy clerk of the peace; and such person so tendering his vote has taken the above oath, and answered the above questions, such deputy shall then ask him this question:

8. For whom do you vote?

And his vote shall be entered on the poll book according to his answer; unless objection be made thereto by an inspector of a candidate appointed as above; and if it appears to such deputy from the answers given by any person to the first four questions aforesaid, that his freehold arises from a rectory, vicarage, curacy, or other ecclesiastical preferment, he shall forthwith proceed to ask him, "For whom do you vote?" and his vote shall be entered according to his reply, unless an objection be made as above: provided that the returning officer's deputy may take the vote of any person tendering his vote, whose freehold appears on the registry book, without referring to the certificate or affidavit, &c. of registry, or without administering any oath or putting any question to such person, except the question, "For whom do you vote?" if not required by any candidate or his inspector so to do; and provided that if an entry of the affidavit, &c. of the registry of the freehold of any person tendering his vote, required by law to be registered, shall not appear in the registry book; or if any person tendering his vote, shall not either produce such certificate, or be able to refer to an original affidavit, &c. of registry in the possession of the deputy clerk of the peace, or if any such person shall refuse to take the oath, or shall not give a direct answer to each question put to him, or shall admit in his answer to said question, that he is not the person whose freehold is registered, or that he has no freehold, or that the freehold described in his certificate, &c. is not the freehold for which he tenders his vote, or that he has not been in occupation thereof for the whole of the last 12 months, or that the same is not at the time of tendering his vote of 40s. value, above all charges payable thereout, such deputy shall direct such person to withdraw from the place of polling, and proceed immediately to receive the vote of the next voters, id. s. 11.

98. No objection shall be made to a vote till after the person tendering the same has declared for whom he votes; and if the vote is then objected to by an inspector of any candidate, the poll shall not be thereon delayed, but the returning officer's deputy shall direct the poll clerk to enter a memorandum on the poll books, showing for which candidate he has voted, and shall immediately proceed to receive the vote of the next person who shall tender his vote; and the inspector who has made the objection on behalf of any candidate shall instantly write down a memorandum, on a printed form to be provided by the returning officer, containing the name and abode of the voter, and the nature of the objection, and shall sign and date the same, and shall give the same to the returning officer's deputy, who shall sign the same with his initials, and then give the same to the assistant deputy clerk of the peace, who shall take it, together with the certificate, or affidavit, or affirmation of registry, if necessary, to the returning officer, to decide on its validity; and he or his assessor, at their discretion only, may order the voter to attend during the inquiry into his vote; and may examine such voter, by such questions as he shall think necessary, as to any objection to his vote: and shall administer this oath to him:

"I, A. B. do swear [or, being a Quaker or Moravian, do solemnly affirm] that I will true answers make to all such questions as shall be here put to me by the returning officer or officers, or his assessor [as the case may be]."

So help me God."

And if the vote is allowed, shall write down on the memorandum these words, "Allow this vote;" and if the vote is disallowed, then these words, "Reject this vote;" and in either case, shall write down the initials of his name, under the words so directed to be written down on the memorandum; and shall then deliver the said memorandum to the same assistant deputy clerk of the peace who had brought it to be forthwith carried back to the returning officer's deputy; and such deputy

I, A. B. clerk or deputy-clerk of the peace for the county of — [as the case may be], do swear, That I will faithfully and honestly, and without favour or affection, perform and discharge the several duties directed to be performed by the clerks and deputy-clerks of the peace, by an act passed in the parliament of Ireland, in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, intitled, An Act for regulating the election of members to serve in parliament, and for amending the several acts therein mentioned; and by an act passed in the forty-fifth year of King George the Third, intitled, [here set forth the title of this act]; and that I will not demand or receive any fee or fines for discharging any of the said duties, which I am not entitled to by law. So help me God.

[illegible][illegible]

80. Papists taking the oaths and declarations in 13 & 14 G. 5. c. 55. It., and 33 G. 5. c. 21. It. contained, in open court in some one of the four courts in Dublin, or at any assizes or general sessions of the peace, or at an adjournment, or adjournment of an adjournment thereof, held for the county where they dwell, or at any election, as in s. 1. directed, are entitled to vote as by 37 G. 3. c. 47. It. directed, 51 G. 3. c. 77. s. 3.

I — do swear that I will faithfully and impartially administer the oaths and declarations now required to be taken and subscribed by papists by 13 & 14 G. 3. Ir. c. 35. 33 G. 3. Ir. c. 21.
 and any clerk of the peace, or his deputy, the following oath :

"I — do swear, that I will, on being thereunto requested, fairly and truly give to every person who shall now take and subscribe the oaths and declarations required by law to be taken by papists, in order to entitle them to vote at any election before the commissioners appointed by the returning officer for that purpose, a certificate thereof as required by law, and that I will not give any such certificate to any person before he has taken and subscribed such oaths and declarations as are mentioned in such certificate before me and in my presence, 51 G. 3. c. 77. s. 4.

82. The proper officer of every court shall, in 14 days after 1 Jan., yearly, transmit to the rolls office in Dublin, all rolls containing the names and additions of persons who have taken such oaths, &c. in the year preceding, id. s. 5.

87. Such officer shall first enter in a book the names, &c. of all persons entered in such rolls, which shall be open to inspection at 2s. 6d. free to such officer, who shall give a certificate thereof, when demanded, to any person, whose name is entered in such book, and who shall swear that he did at any former time take such oaths and declarations in open court, id. s. 8.

84. If any person's vote is refused on account of the informality of such certificate, he may demand of the clerk of the peace a new certificate, paying 1s. fee, and shall then be permitted to poll, id. s. 7.

85. Any officer of the court neglecting to transmit such rolls to the rolls office, or to make out such lists, or omitting therein the name of any persons entitled to a certificate, or inserting any not entitled, or neglecting or refusing to give such certificate, shall forfeit 100*l.* recoverable by bill, plaint, or information, in any court of record in Dublin, id., s. 8.

86. FOR BETTER REGULATION OF POLLS, AND FOR MAKING further provision for election of members to serve in parliament for Ire., 1 G. 4. c. 11. [57 G. 3. c. 13. is REP. by s. 1.]

87. Every poll demanded at any election in Ire., shall commence on the day on which it is demanded, or on the next day after at farthest, (unless it happen to be Sunday, Christmas-day, or Good Friday, and then on the day next after) and shall be duly proceeded in from day to day, for so many hours of each polling day as the returning officer is by this act directed to keep the poll open, (the above days only excepted) until finished; but so that no poll for such election in Ire., shall continue more than 15 days at most, (the above days excepted); and if it shall continue till the 15th day, it shall be finally closed at or before the hour of 3 in the afternoon, and the returning officer shall immediately after its final close, truly and publicly declare the names of those who have the majority of votes on such poll, and shall forthwith make a return of those persons, 1 G. 4, c. 11. s. 2.

88. Where a poll takes place as above, the returning officer shall, within 2 days of its final close, deliver all the poll books of such election to the clerk of the peace for such county, county of a city, or town, if such election is held for the same, or if in any other place, then to the officer who has the custody of the records of such place, verifying on oath (which any justice for such county, &c. or place shall administer), that the poll books delivered in are the original poll books of such election on which the return was founded, and that from the final close of the poll to the time he delivers in the same, there has been no erasure, addition, or alteration made therein, and such poll books shall be carefully kept amongst the records of such county, &c. or place, and their production by such clerk of the peace or officer, or his deputy, shall be deemed sufficient evidence of their authenticity, unless disproved, ib. s. 3.

89. Where a poll takes place at any election for a county, &c. as in s. 3., the returning officer shall certify on the back of such return to the writ, the names of the candidates, with the number who voted for each as it appeared at the final close of the poll, which certificate shall be evidence of the truth of the facts therein unless disproved by contrary evidence, id. s. 4

90. Immediately after receipt of the writ for election for any county, the sheriff thereof shall, indorse thereon the date of receiving the same; and shall, within 2 days after its receipt, cause proclamation of the time and place of holding such election, to be made at the place where it ought by law to be holden, between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., and on the same day shall cause to be affixed on the doors of the county court-house, public notice, signed by himself, of a special county court to be held thereon for the purpose of such election only, and which shall be holden on some day (Sunday, Christmas-day, and Good Friday excepted) not later than the day of making such proclamation and notice, than the 16th, nor sooner than the 10th day; and the mayor, sovereign, portreve, provost, burgomaster, bailiff, or seneschal, of any borough or other place in such county, shall hold the election for the same not later than 8 days after receiving the precept of the sheriff of such county, having in the usual public place in such borough or other place caused to be affixed a notice under his hand, of the time and place of holding such election 4 days at least preceding the day of election; and the sheriff of a county of a town or city, shall hold the election for the same not later than 8 days from receiving the writ, having in the usual places thereof, caused to be affixed notice under his or their hand, of the time and place of holding such election, 4 days at least preceding the day of election, id. s. 5.

91. Whenever in any one barony or half barony of any county, or in any county of a town or city, the number of freeholders appearing by the books of the clerk of the peace capable of voting at any election for the same, exceeds 800, the returning officer shall provide 2 or more places of polling for such barony, &c. and shall make such a division of the freeholders according to the first letters of their names, that no more than 800 freeholders need poll in any one place of polling, but so as not to divide the names beginning with the same letter of the alphabet, and shall provide as many more places of polling as may be necessary, and appoint additional deputies and poll-clerks to take the poll therein, not exceeding one deputy and one poll-clerk for each such place, id. s. 6.

92. The returning officer at all elections shall erect a booth or hire a building, unless there is already some fit place for the purpose, wherein he may decide all disputed questions, and objections to votes referred to him, which booth, building, or place shall be separate from and exclusive of the number of booths, buildings, or places necessary for polling electors; and shall give constant attendance in such separate booth, &c. during the entire number of hours that the polling shall continue each day, and shall proceed without suffering delay or interruption to take place in deciding all disputed questions, and objections to votes, referred to him from the polling booths; and the returning officer at any election for any city or borough, shall appoint a deputy to take the poll at any such election; whose deputy, in each place of polling, shall appoint such one person for each candidate, as shall be nominated to him by the latter, to be an inspector of the clerk appointed for taking the poll and the agent of such candidate in each place of polling; and such one other person for each candidate as shall be nominated by the latter to be a clerk for keeping a cheque-book of the poll-book in each place of polling, id. s. 7.

93. The clerk of the peace at every such election for any county or county of a town or city, shall appoint, or in failure thereof the returning officer shall appoint a deputy-clerk of the peace, and likewise an assistant to him, to be present in each place of polling, who shall take with him into such place of polling the registry book belonging to the barony, half barony, or county of a town, or city, to be polled in such place of polling, and all the original affidavits or affirmations made by the persons capable of voting therein; which affidavits, &c. he shall have arranged alphabetically in separate parcels, (one or more for each letter of the alphabet), and endorsed with the names of the persons by whom they were made, and with the number of the entry of each affidavit, &c. in the registry book; and in those cases wherein a certificate of registry shall not be produced by the person tendering his vote or offering to poll, such deputy shall, on demand of the returning officer's deputy, produce the original affidavit, &c. of the registry of such person; and shall be entitled to receive 10s. and no more; and his assistant 5s. for each day of attendance; and if such deputy, or such assistant, shall alter, deface, destroy or lose any affidavit, &c. committed to his care, he shall forfeit 10l. for every such offence, to any person suing for the same, by action of debt, at any general quarter-sessions, 1 G. 4. c. 11. s. 8.

94. The returning officer at any election shall, on demand in writing of any candidate, appoint a sufficient number of competent persons to act as interpreters, in order to translate faithfully such oaths, affirmations, and questions and answers, as are required at any election; and every such interpreter shall immediately after such appointment, and before acting, take the following oath, which every returning officer may administer, and shall receive 10s. per day for his attendance, id. s. 9.

"I, A. B. do swear, that I will faithfully interpret such oaths, affirmations, questions, and answers, as I shall be directed to interpret by the returning officer or officers, and his or their deputy or deputies, [as the case may be]."

95. Where any person shall tender his vote, or offer to poll at any election for a county, or county of a town or city, by virtue of a freehold, the returning officer's deputy shall, in the first place, refer to the entry of the affidavit or affirmation of the registry thereof in the registry book, and write down opposite thereto the initial letters of his name; and then shall refer to the certificate or affidavit of the registry thereof; and if any such person shall produce a certificate of the registry of his freehold, corresponding with such entry, without erasure or interlineation therein, signed in open court by two justices, and countersigned by the acting clerk of the peace, as directed by 35 G. 3. c. 29. (Tr.) or signed as directed by this or any other act, when the freehold is situated in a county of a town, or of a city, such certificate shall, without further proof, be deemed of equal authenticity with the original oath or affirmation, and conclusive evidence of his registry of such freehold; and the returning officer's deputy shall write down the initials of his name on the margin of such certificate; and in all cases wherein no such certificate is produced by the person tendering his vote, &c., or wherein such certificate, if produced, shall appear to such deputy not to be in manner and form as aforesaid, he shall direct the deputy clerk of the peace to produce the original affidavit, &c. of the registry of the freehold of such person so tendering his vote, &c. id. s. 10.

96. The returning officer's deputy, if required by any candidate or his inspector so to do, shall in person administer, in the place of polling where he presides, an oath in this form, to every person separately, who shall tender his vote at such election, and immediately after production of the certificate or affidavit of registry, when any such person votes by virtue of a freehold, viz.

"I, A. B. do swear, [or, being a Quaker, or Moravian, do solemnly affirm,] that I will true answers make to all such questions as the sheriff's or other returning officer's deputy [as the case may be] presiding in this booth shall demand of me; and I do also swear, [or, being one of the people called Quakers or Moravians, do solemnly affirm,] that I have not polled before at this election; and that I am, as I believe, 21 years of age. So help me God." And immediately after any person so tendering his vote, shall have taken such oath or affirmation, the returning officer's deputy shall, if required by any candidate or his inspector, put the following questions, and no others, without allowing any person to interrupt him, to every such person so tendering his vote, and the poll clerk shall forthwith write down the entries on the poll book according to the answers, and if any of the questions are not required to be put, then according to the entry of the voter's registry in the registry book:

1. What is your name?
2. Where do you reside?
4. Where is it situated?

And the returning officer's deputy shall then, if required as above so to do, refer to the certificate of registry, if produced by the person tendering his vote, or if not, to the original affidavit of registry, and then shall immediately ask, if required as above, without making or allowing any other to make any comments on such certificate or affidavit, the following question:

5. Is the freehold described in this certificate, or, affidavit of registry [as the case may be] the same freehold which you now swear you are possessed of, and by virtue of which you now offer to vote?

And if it appears to the returning officer's deputy, from the certificate or affidavit of registry, that any person shall tender his vote, in respect of a freehold of 40s. value only, he shall then, if required as above, put the following questions:

6. Do you swear, that you have been in the actual occupation of this freehold, as described in your certificate or affidavit of registry, [as the case may be] by tilling it, or by grazing it, or by residing upon it, during the whole of the last 12 months?

7. Do you swear, that this freehold is now of the clear yearly value of 10s. above all charges payable out of the same?

And whenever entry of the affidavit, &c. of registry of such person shall appear in the registry book; and such person shall have produced such certificate of registry as in s. 10.; or the original affidavit has been produced by the deputy clerk of the peace; and such person so tendering his vote has taken the above oath, and answered the above questions, such deputy shall then ask him this question:

8. For whom do you vote?

And his vote shall be entered on the poll book according to his answer; unless objection be made thereto by an inspector of a candidate appointed as above; and if it appears to such deputy from the answers given by any person to the first four questions aforesaid, that his freehold arises from a rectory, vicarage, curacy, or other ecclesiastical preferment, he shall forthwith proceed to ask him, "For whom do you vote?" and his vote shall be entered according to his reply, unless an objection be made as above: provided that the returning officer's deputy may take the vote of any person tendering his vote, whose freehold appears on the registry book, without referring to the certificate or affidavit, &c. of registry, or without administering any oath or putting any question to such person, except the question, "For whom do you vote?" if not required by any candidate or his inspector so to do; and provided that if an entry of the affidavit, &c. of the registry of the freehold of any person tendering his vote, required by law to be registered, shall not appear in the registry book; or if any person tendering his vote, shall not either produce such certificate, or be able to refer to an original affidavit, &c. of registry in the possession of the deputy clerk of the peace, or if any such person shall refuse to take the oath, or shall not give a direct answer to each question put to him, or shall admit in his answer to said question, that he is not the person whose freehold is registered, or that he has no freehold, or that the freehold described in his certificate, &c. is not the freehold for which he tenders his vote, or that he has not been in occupation thereof for the whole of the last 12 months, or that the same is not at the time of tendering his vote of 40s. value, above all charges payable thereout, such deputy shall direct such person to withdraw from the place of polling, and proceed immediately to receive the vote of the next voters, id. s. 11.

98. No objection shall be made to a vote till after the person tendering the same has declared for whom he votes; and if the vote is then objected to by an inspector of any candidate, the poll shall not be thereon delayed, but the returning officer's deputy shall direct the poll clerk to enter a memorandum on the poll books, showing for which candidate he has voted, and shall immediately proceed to receive the vote of the next person who shall tender his vote; and the inspector who has made the objection on behalf of any candidate shall instantly write down a memorandum, on a printed form to be provided by the returning officer, containing the name and abode of the voter, and the nature of the objection, and shall sign and date the same, and shall give the same to the returning officer's deputy, who shall sign the same with his initials, and then give the same to the assistant deputy clerk of the peace, who shall take it, together with the certificate, or affidavit, or affirmation of registry, if necessary, to the returning officer, to decide on its validity; and he or his assessor, at their discretion only, may order the voter to attend during the inquiry into his vote; and may examine such voter, by such questions as he shall think necessary, as to any objection to his vote: and shall administer this oath to him:

"I, A. B. do swear [or, being a Quaker or Moravian, do solemnly affirm] that I will true answers make to all such questions as shall be here put to me by the returning officer or officers, or his assessor [as the case may be]."

So help me God."

And if the vote is allowed, shall write down on the memorandum these words, "Allow this vote;" and if the vote is disallowed, then these words, "Reject this vote;" and in either case, shall write down the initials of his name, under the words so directed to be written down on the memorandum; and shall then deliver the said memorandum to the same assistant deputy clerk of the peace who had brought it to be forthwith carried back to the returning officer's deputy; and such deputy shall either reject such vote, or order the poll-clerk to enter the same on the poll for the candidate to whom given, as he shall be directed by the returning officer, or his assessor; and every such memorandum shall be preserved by such deputy, and delivered by him to the returning officer, to be attached to the poll books at the close of the election; and the form of the memorandum so to be prepared shall be as follows;

Barony of
Number in the registry book.	Name of voter.	Abode of voter.	Objection.
			(Signed) Dated      day of      18      .
Allow this vote.		Reject this vote.
(Signed)		(Signed)

Provided that if any objection be taken to any vote, which is not in substance different from one previously ruled by the returning officer or his assessor; or if any objection be taken which appears to such deputy to be frivolous, or taken for delay, then he shall not transmit the memorandum containing such objection to the returning officer; and shall admit the vote so objected to to be entered upon the poll, 1 G. 4. c. 11, s. 12.

99. Every returning officer shall give such instructions in writing to his deputy appointed for taking the poll, as are necessary to point out to him what is required to be done in respect of objections to votes, and of the manner of transmitting them to such returning officer; and every such deputy shall obey such and any other instructions given to him by the returning officer, in respect of the due performance of his duty, id. s. 13.

100. No person, other than the returning officer or his assessor, shall ask any question of any person examined, on account of his vote having been objected to; and no person shall interfere with or suggest any question to them respecting such examination, and the latter may, at their discretion only, permit a barrister or barristers to argue any question of law before him, on the evening of any polling day, after the poll is closed, id. s. 14.

101. No deputy of any returning officer shall put questions to any person tendering his vote, except those in s. 11. directed to be put, or make any comments on the answers given to the same; or on any thing relating to any vote tendered before him, but shall forthwith refer any objection thereto to the returning officer, as in s. 12., and shall not investigate any right to vote further than as in s. 11., nor reject the vote without reference to the returning officer, id. s. 15.

102. No person whatever shall plead or speak in any place of polling during the time of polling, on any thing concerning the same, or concerning the refusal of any returning officer's deputy to transmit an objection to a vote to the returning officer, as in s. 12. provided for, or to ask any questions of any person tendering his vote, id. s. 16. [and see s. 23.]

103. No person shall require any elector to take any oath of the nature of a rentcharger's or freeholder's oath, to show any circumstance concerning his freehold, in order to enable him to vote, except the oaths herein required; and every returning officer's deputy shall administer to every elector the bribery oath or affirmation, if required by any candidate, or inspector, or elector, so to do, id. s. 17.

104. If any person shall be admitted to poll at any election who has polled before therat, or who has personated another elector for the purpose of polling therat, or who has polled by virtue of a forged certificate of registry, or of a registry of an alleged freehold under a lease of land or tenements for life or lives, made by a lessor who had not at the time of making the same a freehold estate therein; or of a registry of an alleged freehold under a lease of land or tenements, for life or lives, which lease is to end on some such covenant or condition, that a freehold estate has not been demised thereby, the returning officer shall, on complaint of any candidate, take the vote of such person off the poll, at any time before its final close, provided that the act complained of as having been committed by such person, be set forth and positively declared to have been committed by such person, in an affidavit to be sworn before a justice, which shall be delivered to the returning officer; and further, that the act complained of shall appear to the returning officer, on due examination of one or more witnesses concerning the same, on oath, to be proved to have been committed by such person, which oath the returning officer shall administer; and the returning officer shall examine all such cases between 7 a. m. and 10 p. m. of each polling day, except that on which the poll shall be finally closed, unless all the objected votes referred to such returning officer by his deputies shall have been disposed of; provided that the affidavit setting forth every such complaint, shall be delivered to the returning officer, on the same day on which the act complained of is committed, 1 G. 4. c. 11. s. 18.

105. The returning officer shall cause the poll to be kept open in every place, and on every day of polling, from 9 a. m. except on the first day of polling, till 6 p. m. except on the last day of polling, between 15th April and 15th Sept.; and from 9 a. m., except on the first day of polling, until 5 p. m., except on the last day of polling, between 15th Sept. and 15th April; and in case any disputed questions, or objections to votes referred to him by his deputies, shall not be decided during the time for which the poll shall be so kept open, he shall give his attendance in his own place of sitting, and proceed to decide the same, from 7 to 10 p. m. each polling day, except on the last day of polling, id. s. 19.

106. The returning officer shall, on any day after the fourth day of polling, computing therein the day on which the poll is commenced, close finally the poll in any booth or place of polling in which no more than 20 persons have polled, or been referred for decision to the returning officer, during that day; provided that if it shall appear on the evidence of two or more witnesses on oath, which oath the returning officer shall administer to the returning officer, that any persons intending to offer themselves to poll in such booth, &c. have been prevented by violence from coming to the same for the purpose of polling on that day, then the returning officer may keep such booth open for another day, and so on from day to day, if such violence be repeated, and be found to have taken place on such evidence as above to satisfaction of the returning officer, id. s. 20.

107. No sheriff of a county shall appoint any person to act as his deputy at any election, unless he shall have a freehold estate of 50l. yearly value at least, above all charges; and such sheriff shall demand on oath of such person, whether he has a freehold estate of that value, at the time when he shall administer to him the sheriff's deputy's oath, id. s. 21.

108. The returning officer may summon all constables, bailiffs, and other peace officers, to attend the places of polling, and keep the peace at such election, and perform such other things as are assigned by the returning officer, and may appoint any number of special constables that he may think proper to assist therein; and every such constable, &c. so employed, shall be entitled to receive 5s. for each day of attendance; and if, being so summoned, he neglect to attend during the whole election, or to obey the lawful commands of the returning officer, he shall forfeit his office, and all salary due to him, id. s. 22.

109. The returning officer, or his deputies, at any election, may commit all persons to gaol for not exceeding 24 hours, who shall plead or speak on any thing concerning the polling, or any objection to a vote, or the refusal of any deputy to transmit an objection to the returning officer, or put any question to any returning officer or elector, in any place of polling, or in the booth of the returning officer, contrary to s. 14. and s. 16., or who shall be found rioting or interrupting the poll, or wilfully preventing the approach of electors to the place of poll, or who shall be guilty of contempt to such returning officer or deputy, id. s. 23.

110. In case of the death or severe illness of any returning officer, during the continuance of the poll, the first sworn deputy, under penalty of 500l. to any person who shall sue, shall proceed with the poll, and act in every respect for all purposes of the election, and with all power to do any act required by law to be done by a returning officer at any election, as if he had been originally the returning officer; and shall take the oath directed by law to be taken by the returning officer at commencement of the poll, to be administered by any 2 justices; and shall proceed with, and finally close the poll at the time in s. 2. required, and make return of the person who hath the majority of votes, unless his authority is superseded by the recovery of the returning officer; and in case of the death or severe illness of such first sworn deputy, the next in succession shall act as returning officer, subject to like penalty, and with same powers, and taking the like oath; and so on, each deputy shall act as the returning officer in case of the death or severe illness of the acting returning officer, id. s. 24.

111. Every returning officer duly convicted of having acted corruptly or partially in execution of his duty, as such, shall be adjudged guilty of a high misdemeanor, and imprisoned for not exceeding 3 years; and is for ever incapable of holding any office, civil or military, under the crown, id. s. 25.

112. The expence of erecting booths, hiring buildings, and of employing assessors, sub or deputy sheriffs, clerks of the peace, their deputies and assistants, poll and other clerks, interpreters, and constables, peace officers, and all other persons directed by this and other acts, to be employed by the returning officer for conducting an election for any county, &c., or other place, and also of making proclamations and returns, and of stationary, advertisements, and all other expences necessary to provide the means of taking such poll, shall in the first instance be paid by the returning officer presiding at such election, 1 G. 4. c. 11. s. 26.; [s. 27. relating to grand jury presentments for reimbursing returning officers, is REP. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 58. s. 7. pl. 138.]

115. Every affidavit or affirmation of registry made heretofore, shall be deemed to be according to law, notwithstanding no reference is made in it to a former registry; and in any affidavit, &c. hereafter made at any sessions of the peace, no words whatever shall be introduced having any reference to a former registry; and the acting clerk of the peace at every sessions of registry, shall immediately after each affidavit &c. is signed by the 2 presiding justices, and by the acting clerk of the peace, and before proceeding to do any other business soever, enter into a book the substance of every such affidavit, &c. in succession, and not alphabetically, in the form following:—

No	Name of freeholder.	Place of abode.	Situation of freehold.	Name of landlord.	Value of freehold.	Names of lives or other tenure.	Place & date of registry.

And the entry in such book of all the affidavits, &c. so registered on each day of sessions, shall be signed by the presiding justices, or 2 of them at the least, before they leave the court, and countersigned and dated by the acting clerk of the peace, 1 G. 4. c. 11. s. 28.

111. Clerks of the peace shall enter in alphabetical order, according to the surnames of the persons who have registered freeholds, the substance of every affidavit of registry of every freeholder capable of voting on 1st Jan. 1821, at any election for the same, in the above form, in separate books, one for each barony or half barony, county of a town, or of a city, in which such freeholds lie, affixing before each name a number, to show how many have registered under each letter of the alphabet in each book; and shall enter in the same manner the substance of every such affidavit made after 1st Jan. 1821, id. s. 29.

115. Within one calendar month after Jan. 1. 1821, every clerk of the peace, shall cause not less than 50, nor more than 200 copies of the registry books, commencing with the entries of 20s. and 40s. freeholds, from 1st Jan., 1815, within one calendar month after 1st Jan., 1822, and shall every succeeding year cause to be printed, in the cheapest manner and by contract, not less than 50, nor more than 200 copies of all entries in the registry book of each barony and half barony, county of a town or of a city, of all affidavits, &c. of persons who have registered their votes within the year then last past, ending on such 1st Jan. respectively; and shall deliver in each year, one printed copy thereof to each justice residing in such county; provided that the clerk of the peace shall not suffer the original registry books to be out of his possession, but shall cause copies to be made for the purpose of printing them, id. s. 30.

116. Every clerk of the peace, shall produce one of the said printed copies of registry books of each barony or half barony in such county, or of such county of a town or of a city, corrected by him, and certified under his hand to be correct, to a judge of assize, at the spring assizes in 1821, for any such county; and shall produce at every succeeding spring assizes for the same a printed copy of all entries made in such books within the year ending 1st Jan. then last past, corrected by him, and certified as above; which copies shall be immediately delivered over, in presence of the judge, to the clerk of the crown, who shall sign and date the same; and shall be preserved among the records of such county, and shall be deemed equally valid as the original books at any election, in case they or any part thereof, are not produced at such election by the clerk of the peace; and the clerk of the crown shall produce such printed copies at any election, if required so to do by the sheriff of the county; and no judge at any such spring assizes, shall fiat any presentment for paying any salary to any clerk of the peace, until such printed copies, so certified, are so delivered in his presence to the clerk of the crown; and the clerk of the peace need not hereafter deliver copies of the entries in the books of registry to the county treasurer, id. s. 31.

117. The sessions shall not allow any person to register his freehold by virtue of any written instrument, unless stamped according to law; and the clerk of the peace shall certify in every certificate of the registry of a freehold of 40s. value only, that the same was registered by virtue of a written instrument stamped according to law, id. s. 32.

118. If any clerk of the peace shall neglect to appoint deputies and assistants to attend the places of polling at any election, or to have the original affidavits or affirmations of registry arranged and indorsed, or to enter in a book at every sessions of registry the substance of every affidavit, &c. then made as herein-before required, or to enter in books the substance of all affidavits or affirmations of registry of all the freeholders capable of voting at an election on 1st Jan. 1821, or of those who may thereafter register freeholds, as in s. 29., or to cause registry books to be printed and delivered to the clerk of the crown, in form as herein-before required, or to certify in every certificate of registry granted after 1st May, 1820, that the written instrument produced by the person registering a freehold was stamped according to law, shall, for every such offence, forfeit not exceeding 500l. to any person suing for the same, to be recovered by information in any court of record in Dublin, 1 G. 4. c. 11. s. 33.

119. The grand jury of every county, or county of a town or city, at every spring assizes, shall present such sums as shall be a proper remuneration to the clerk of the peace for expence of printing the registry books, as in s. 30.; provided that no such presentment be made till the contract for the printing be produced, and that it appear to the grand jury that the clerk of the peace has caused them to be printed in the cheapest manner, id. s. 34.

120. [After recital of 37 G. 3. c. 47. (Ir.)] Freeholders having freeholds not consisting of rent-charges, and desirous to register them, as being of 50l. or 20l. yearly value, shall omit in such oath or affirmation the name of the parish in which such freehold is situate, and name therein the townland or other denomination by which the place is generally known wherein such freehold is situated, id. s. 35.

121. Persons polling or offering to poll a second time, at the same election, or personating, or attempting to personate any other person, for the purpose of polling at such election, shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall be imprisoned for not more than two years, at discretion of the judge, id. s. 36.

122. If any person shall vote at any election, by virtue of the registry of an alleged freehold, under a lease of land and tenements for life or lives, made by a lessor who had not, at the time of making the same, a freehold estate therein; or under a lease of land or tenements for a life or lives, which lease is to end and determine on some such covenant or condition, that a freehold estate has not been devised by the same; or under a lease of land or tenements for a life or lives, or a certain number of years, which life or lives is or are dealt; or under a lease of land or tenements for a life or lives, which lease has expired or been surrendered, after due notice not to vote by virtue of such registry has been given to such person by any candidate, or his inspector, and which notice they may give to such person at any time before or during such election, or in the place of polling, such person, on conviction thereof, shall forfeit to any person suing for the same 20l., to be recovered by him, with treble costs of suit, by action of debt, at any quarter sessions, or assizes held in the county in which such election has taken place, id. s. 37.

123. "Recital of the provisions of certain Irish acts, and of 45 G. 3. c. 79. that oaths made for registry of freeholds shall be read aloud in open court, and signed by 2 justices therein, which is inconvenient." In all counties of towns and of cities, on the day immediately preceding the opening each quarter sessions, unless such day falls on a Sunday, and then on the day next but one preceding the opening of each quarter sessions, and immediately after the criminal and other business of such sessions has been fully transacted, unless such day shall fall upon a Sunday, and then on the second day after such business has been fully transacted, the chief magistrate of such county of a town or city, or his deputy, in case of absence or illness, shall, on being required so to do by any freeholder of such county, &c. hold an open court of sessions for registering all such freeholders as shall present themselves for that purpose, in form now required by law; and the chief magistrate, or deputy, shall sit each day from 10 a.m. till 4 p.m., and any freeholder in any county of a town or city, may register the same before the recorder, or his deputy, presiding in open court, at any quarter sessions, or adjournment thereof, for the county, &c. in which such freehold is situate; and such chief magistrate, or deputy, and recorder, or deputy, shall administer all oaths, and sign all certificates now required by law to render the registry of such freehold valid; and their signatures so affixed in open court shall be, singly, a sufficient attestation of such registry, in place of the signature of 2 magistrates, and of the clerk of the peace, as now required by law; and the certificate of registry of a freehold in any county of a city or town so signed as aforesaid, shall be sufficient evidence of the registry thereof at any election, if without erasure or interlineation; and the affidavits of registry so attested shall be delivered by such mayor, recorder or deputies, to the clerk of the peace, to be filed amongst the records of the court, id. s. 38.

124. If any chief magistrate of any county of a town or city, shall wilfully omit to hold any such session, by himself or deputy, as in s. 38, on being required so to do, as above; or if any other chief magistrate, or recorder, shall omit, or wilfully refuse to register the freehold of any person duly qualified, presenting himself for that purpose to him, he shall forfeit 100l. for every neglect of duty; and if the clerk of the peace, or deputy, shall neglect to attend at any such session of the peace, on due notice given to him of holding the same by any such freeholder, and there to do all acts now required of him by law for registry of freeholders, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit 50*l.*, to be recovered by information in any court in Dublin, one moiety to H. M., and the other to him who shall recover the same, 1 G. 4. c. 11. s. 39.

125. If any person shall falsely make, forge or counterfeit, or cause, &c. to be falsely made, &c., or shall willingly act or assist in the false making, &c. any certificate of the registry of any freehold or affidavit, &c. relating thereto, or any instrument purporting to be a certificate of the registry, or an affidavit relating thereto, or shall utter or publish, or assist to utter or publish, or produce in any polling booth as true, any such forged, &c. certificate, affidavit or instrument, with intent to make or support any claim of himself, or any other person to vote at any election, he shall be deemed guilty of felony, and transported for 7 years, id. s. 40.

126. Every person whom any returning officer shall employ to act as a clerk for taking the poll, shall enter in a book the number opposite to the name of each freeholder in the registry book who shall tender his vote, his name and abode, situation and value of freehold, and for whom he votes, and shall, before the beginning of the poll, take the following oath which shall be administered by the returning officer, id. s. 41.

'I A. B. do swear, that I will, at this election of a member [or members, as the case may be] to serve in parliament for the county, county of the town, or city [as the case may be] of — truly and indifferently take the poll, and set down the number opposite to the name of each freeholder in the registry book, his name and the place of his abode, and the situation and the value of his freehold, and for whom he shall poll. So help me God.'

127. Any deputy sheriff, poll clerk, clerk, or deputy, or assistant deputy clerk of the peace, interpreter, constable, or peace officer, who shall absent himself from the duty of his office at any election, during any part of the time that the poll shall be kept open on each day, shall forfeit all compensation for his attendance during such election; and the returning officer, in case of the neglect, or insufficiency of any such person, shall immediately remove him, and appoint a person to fill his place, id. s. 42.

128. Nothing in this act shall extend to abridge or defeat the franchise of any person who before this act has duly registered his franchise; franchises registered under 57 G. 3. c. 131. before passing this act, are not affected by this act, id. s. 43. (see s. 1.)

129. Persons having freeholds under 20*l.* yearly value, not consisting of a rent charge, and liable only to crown or quit rent, may register the same in like manner as provided for persons having freeholds of 20*l.* yearly value in 37 G. 3. (Ire.) c. 29. and such person so registering his freehold, shall insert in the oath of registry, the words "forty shillings," instead of "twenty pounds," or "fifty pounds," and shall add these words, "and that the said freehold does not consist of a rent charge, and that it is liable to no rent except quit or crown rent, or that it arises from fee farm grant, or that I hold it under a lease or leases for ever, or under a lease or leases for lives, renewable for ever, [as the case may be]," and every person who offers to vote by virtue of a freehold under 20*l.* value, and holding it, subject to quit or crown rent, shall make the same affirmations and take the same oaths as are now provided for persons having freeholds of 20*l.* value; provided that such persons shall in such oaths make the alterations and additions herein set forth in their oath of registry, id. s. 44.

130. All former acts for regulation of election of members of parliament for Ire. shall be in force, except as altered by this act, id. s. 45.

131. TO REGULATE THE EXPENCES OF ELECTIONS OF MEMBERS OF parliament for Ire. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 58.

132. After 23d June, 1821, no other charges shall be made for any thing performed or done in the execution of any writ or precept for holding an election in Ire., besides the charges set forth in sched. (A.), id. s. 1.

133. No other person, besides the persons mentioned in that schedule, shall receive fee or reward for any thing done in execution of any writ or precept for holding an election, id. s. 2.

134. No person hereafter elected to serve in parliament for any county, city, town, or borough, shall, by himself, or friends, or agent, directly or indirectly, give any fee or reward, or make payment of money by way of compliment, or on any account to any returning or deputy returning officer, clerk of the peace or his deputy, on penalty of being hereby declared to be disabled to serve in parliament on such election for such county, &c. id. s. 3.

135. So much of 35 G. 3. c. 29. (Ire.) as provides that no candidate for any county shall employ at his election more than one agent and one clerk for each barony or half barony therein, is repealed, id. s. 4.

136. After passing this act, no candidate at an election for any county, &c. (as in s. 5.) shall pay to any barrister, agent, inspector, or clerk, any money for his trouble at any such election, exceeding the sums in schedule (B.), id. s. 5.

137. If any such candidate shall give, by himself, his friends, or agents, or by any person employed by him or them, any money, fee, office, employment, or reward, or promise, or security for any money, &c. to any barrister, as in last pl., for doing any thing concerning any matter relating to such election, directly or indirectly, above the sum set forth to be paid in schedule (B.), he shall be disabled to serve in parliament on such election for such county, &c. as in s. 3., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 58. s. 6.

138. 1 G. 4. c. 11. s. 27. relating to grand jury presentments for reimbursing returning officers, is repealed, id. s. 7.

139. Nothing herein shall cause any candidate at an election for any county, &c. to be liable to payment of any charges for expences attending execution of any writ or precept for holding an election, to which he was not liable previous to 1 G. 4. c. 11. except for such additional places of polling, and deputy clerks, and assistant clerks of the peace, as by that act s. 6. pl. 91. required to be provided.

IRELAND (UNION).

1. FOR THE UNION OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, 39 & 40 G. 3 c. 67. Articles 1—2, 5—7. Articles 3—4, and Article 8. s. 2., relate to Ireland (Parliament), and Art. 8. s. 1. to id. (Administration of Justice.)

2. THE ARTICLES OF UNION approved by the parliaments of both countries, are as follows, and are confirmed by the royal assent, Art. 8. s. 1.

3. The kingdoms of G. B. and Ire. shall, on 1 Jan. 1801, and for ever after, be united into one kingdom, called "The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland," and the royal style and titles belonging to the imperial crown of such U. K., and its dependencies, and the ensigns armorial flags, and banners thereof, shall be such as H. M. by royal proclamation, under the great seal of U. K. shall appoint, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. Art. 1.

4. The succession to the crown of U. K., and the dominions thereto belonging, shall continue as settled by the existing laws, and the terms of union between Eng. and Scot., id. Art. 2.

5. The churches of Eng. and Ire. as now by law established, shall be united into one protestant episcopal church, called "The United Church of Eng. and Ire.," and the doctrine, worship, discipline, and government of which united church shall be as now by law established for the church of Eng., and its continuance shall be deemed an essential part of the union; and in like manner the doctrine, &c. of the church of Scot. shall remain as now by law, and by the acts of Union [5 & 6 A. c. 8. art. 25.] established, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. Art. 5.

6. H.M.'s subjects of G.B. and Ire. shall, from 1st Jan. 1801, be entitled to the same privileges, and be on the same footing as to encouragements and bounties on the like articles, being the growth, produce, or manufacture of either country, and generally in respect of trade and navigation, in all ports and places in U.K. and its dependencies; and in all treaties made by H.M. with any foreign power, his subjects of Ire. shall have the same privileges, and be on the same footing, as those of G.B. id. Art. 6. (s. 1.)

7. After 1st Jan. 1801, all prohibitions and bounties on the export of articles the produce or manufacture of either country to the other shall cease, and they shall thenceforth be so exported without duty or bounty on export, id. Art. 6. (s. 2.)

8. All articles the produce or manufacture of either country (not herein after enumerated as subject to specific duties) shall from thenceforth be imported into each country from the other free from duty, other than the countervailing duties in Sched. No. 1. (A) & (B), or such as may hereafter be imposed by parliament, as herein after provided [and for 20 years from the union the articles enumerated in Sched. No. 2. shall be subject on import to the duties there contained, but now see 1 G. 4. c. 45.] and the woollen manufactures called old and new drapery, shall pay on import into each country from the other the duties now payable on import into Ire.; salt, hops, and coals on import into Ire. from G.B. duties not exceeding those to which they are now subject, id. Art. 6. (s. 3.) [The duties under this act are not repealed by 43 G. 3. c. 68. s. 4., 44 G. 3. c. 98. s. 1., 49 G. 3. c. 98. s. 9., but continue, subject to the modifications of other acts, as 45 G. 3. c. 18. &c. See that act, s. 5., and 59 G. 3. c. 52. s. 5.]

9. Calicoes and muslins shall, on import from either country to the other, be liable to the present duties till 5th Jan. 1808, when they shall be decreased in equal annual proportions till they stand at 10 per cent. from 5th Jan. 1816, till 5th Jan. 1821, and cotton yarn and twist shall, on like import, be subject to present duties till 5th Jan. 1808, after which the latter shall be annually in like manner reduced, so that all duties may cease thereon from 5th Jan. 1816, id. Art. 6. s. 4.

10. Articles of the growth, &c. of either country, which are subject to internal duty, or to duty on the materials of which they are composed, may be made subject on import into each country from the other to a reasonable countervailing duty in respect of the above-mentioned duty; [see the articles Sched. No. 1. (A) (B)] and on export thereof a drawback shall be given equal in amount to the countervailing duty payable on such articles on their import into the same country from the other; and in like manner the united parliament may impose any new or additional countervailing duties, or take off or diminish the existing ones, as may appear on the like principle just in respect of any additional internal duty, or duty on the materials composing such article, or of any abatement of duty thereon; and when any such new duty is imposed on the above import, a drawback equal to it in amount shall be given in like manner on the export of every such article from one country to the other, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 65. Art. 6. (s. 5.)

11. All articles the growth, &c. of either country, when exported through the other, shall in all cases be exported subject to the same charges as if exported directly from the country of which they were the growth, &c. id. Art. 6. (s. 6.)

12. All duty on import of foreign or colonial goods into either country, shall on export to the other be either drawn back, or the amount (if any is retained) placed to the credit of the country to which they shall be exported, so long as the expenditure of U.K. is defrayed by proportionable contributions; but all existing duties, bounties, or prohibitions on corn, meal, malt, flour, or biscuit, may be regulated, varied, or repealed, as parliament shall deem expedient, id. Art. 6. (s. 7.) [Then follows the schedule of articles to be charged with countervailing duties from Ire. into G.B. and G.B. into Ire. respectively. Art. 7. is superseded by 56 G. 3. c. 98.]

13. The great seal of Ire. may, if H.M. shall so think fit, be used in like manner after as before the union, except where it is otherwise provided by the above articles within Ire., and H.M. may, so long as he sees fit, continue the privy council of Ire. for that part of the U.K. id. Art. 8. s. 3.

JEOfAILS.

1. CONCERNING MISPLEADING, JEOfAILS, [and attorneys, see ATTORNEY, pl. 14—15.] 32 H. 8. c. 30. [CON. 33 H. 8. c. 17., 37 H. 8. c. 23. MADE PREP. 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 32. s. 1. [EXT. to writs of mandamus for restoring persons to offices and franchises in corporations, and to proceedings in quo warranto for like purposes, 9 A. c. 20. S. 7. as to the courts and proceedings therein, to which these statutes do and do not extend. See infra, pl. 15. and last pl.]

2. If any issue be tried [viz. verdict found] in any court of record, by oath of 12 or more indifferent men, the justices shall give judgment therein, notwithstanding any mispleading, lack of colour, insufficient pleading, or jeofail, discontinuance, misconveying of process, misjoinder of issue, lack of warrant of attorney for the party against whom the issue is tried, [or verdict found,] or other default of the parties, their counsel or attorneys, and such judgments shall not be liable to reversal by writ of error, or false judgment, for any such default, 32 H. 8. c. 30. s. 1. [See s. 2. ATTORNEY, pl. 15.]

3. FOR REFORMATION OF JEOfAILS, 18 EL. c. 14. [EXT. to writs of mandamus for restoring persons to offices and franchises in corporations, and to proceedings in quo warranto for the like purposes, by 9 A. c. 20. s. 7.]

4. After verdict of 12 men or more given in any action in any court of record, the judgment thereon shall not be stayed or reversed by reason of any default in or lack of form touching false Latin, warrant from the register, or other default in form, in any writ original or judicial, count, declaration, plaint, bill, suit, or demand, or for want of any writ original or judicial, or by reason of any imperfect or insufficient return of any sheriff or officer, or for want of any warrant of attorney, [see s. 3. ATTORNEY, pl. 16.] or for any default in process, on or after aid prayer, or voucher, nor shall any such record of judgment, after verdict, be reversed for any such defect, 18 EL. c. 14. s. 1.

5. FOR FURTHER REFORMATION OF JEOfAILS, 21 J. 1. c. 13. [and recital in 16 & 17 C. 2. c. 8. s. 1.] [see rest of this statute, ERROR, pl. 20—22.]

6. After verdict of 12 men or more given in any court of record, the judgment thereon shall not be stayed or reversed for any variance in form only, between the original writ or bill, and the declaration, plaint, or demand, or for lack of averment of the life of any person, so as on examination he be proved to be in life, or because the venire facias, habeas corpus, or distingas, is awarded to a wrong officer, or that the viene is in some part misawarded, or sued out of more or fewer places than ought to be, so that one place be right named, or because any of the jury is misnamed, either in surname or addition, if on examination he prove to be the man who was meant to be returned, or because there is no return on any of the writs, so as a panel of the jurors' names be returned and annexed to the writ; or for that the sheriffs or other returning officer's name is not set to the return, so as on examination, it is proved to be returned by the sheriff, undersheriff, or other such officer; or because the plaintiff in an ejectment, or in any personal action, being an infant under 21 years, did appear by attorney therein, and the verdict pass for him, 21 J. 1. c. 13. s. 2.

7. After verdict of 12 men, given in any action, bill, suit, or demand, in any of the courts of record at Westminster, or in the counties palatine of Chester, Lancaster, or Durham, or great sessions of Wa., judgment thereupon shall not be stayed or reversed for default in, or lack of form, or because only one or no pledges to prosecute are returned on original writ, or entered on any bill or declaration; or because the sheriff's name is not returned on the original writ; or for default of alleging profert into court, of bond, bill, indenture, or other deed mentioned in any pleadings; or for default of alleging profert into court, of letters testamentary, or of administration, or for omission of ri et arnis, or contra pacem; or for clerk's mistake of christian or surname of plaintiff or defendant, demandant or tenant, sum, or sums of money, day, month, or year, in any pleading where the right, name, sum, &c. are rightly laid in the same, or in any preceding writ, plaint, roll, or record, to which plaintiff might have demurred, and shown same for cause; nor for want of averment of hoc paratus est verificare or verificare per recordum, or not laying a prout patet per recordum, or for wrong venue, so as the cause were tried by a jury of the proper county or place where the action is laid, 16 & 17 C. 2. c. 8. s. 1.

8. No judgment after verdict, confession by cognovit actionem, or relicta verificatione, shall be reversed for want of miseri cordi, or capitur, or by entering one by mistake for the other, or for that "ideo concessum est per curiam," is entered for "ideo consideratum est per curiam;" nor for that the costs in any judgment are not entered to be by consent of plaintiff, or that the increase of costs, after verdict in any action, or on nonsuit in replevin are not entered to be at request of the party for whom the judgment is given; but all such variances and defects, not being against the right of the matter of the suit, or altering the issue or trial, shall be amended by the judges of the courts where such judgments are given, or into which the record is removed by writ of error, id. ibid.

9. FOR EXPEDITING JUSTICE IN CASES OF DEMURRERS AND PLEADINGS, 27 El. c. 5., [virtually AMD. 4 & 5 A. c. 16. ss. 1—2. and s. 7.]

10. FOR PREVENTING ARRESTS OF JUDGMENTS, 16 & 17 C. 2. c. 8. [see rest of statute, ERROR, pl. 20—22. MADE PARP. 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 4.; 27 El. c. 5. is ENF., and with 16 & 17 C. 2. c. 8., virtually EXT. to the proceedings enumerated in 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 2. See infra, pl. 15. and 16., and to all writs of mandamus, and informations in quo warranto, 9 A. c. 20. s. 7. FRANCHISES, pl. 50.]

11. After demurrer joined and entered in any action in any court of record, the judges shall give judgment according to the very right of the cause and matter in law, without regarding any defect or want of form in the process, pleadings, or other proceedings soever, except those only which the party demurring shall specially set down with his demurrer; and no judgment shall be reversed in error for any such defect as above, and not so specially set down, 27 El. c. 5. s. 1.

12. After demurrer joined and entered, the court may amend all such defects, not so specially set down, id. s. 2.

13. FOR AMENDMENT OF THE LAW, AND BETTER ADVANCEMENT OF JUSTICE, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. ss. 1—2. s. 7., and s. 24. infra, pl. 16. [The above sections are EXT. with all other statutes of jeofails to informations and proceedings on writs of mandamus and quo warranto, 9 A. c. 20. s. 7., to all suits in H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, for recovery of any debt immediately owing, or revenue belonging to H. M.; and to all courts of record in the counties palatine and great sessions in Wa., and to all courts of record within this kingdom, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 24.]

14. Where demurrer is joined and entered in any suit in any court of record, the judges shall give judgment, as the very right of the cause and matter in law shall appear, without regarding any omission or defect in any writ, return, plaint, declaration, or other pleading, process, or course of proceeding, except those only which the party demurring shall specially set down with his demurrer as causes thereof, notwithstanding that such imperfection, &c. might have heretofore been taken to be matter of substance, and not aided by 27 El. c. 5.; so as sufficient matter appear on the pleadings, on which the court may give judgment according to the very right of the cause; and no advantage shall be taken of an immaterial traverse, or of the default of entering pledges, or of alleging the bringing into court any bond or other deed mentioned in the declaration or other pleading, or of any letters testamentary, or of administration; or of omission of vi et armis et contra pacem, or of the want of averment of hoc paratus est verificare, or hoc paratus est perjurare per recordum, or prout patet per recordum; but the court shall give judgment according to the very right of the cause, without regarding any such imperfections, or other matter of the like nature, except it be specially shown for cause of demurrer, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 1.

15. All the statutes of jeofails shall extend to judgments entered on confession, nil dicit, or non sum informatus, in any court of record; and no such judgment shall be reversed, nor shall any judgment on any writ of enquiry of damages executed thereon be staid or reversed for any thing which would have been aided by the statutes of jeofails, in case a verdict had been given in the action, so as there be an original writ or bill, and warrants of attorney duly [see s. 3., ATTORNEY, pl. 16.] filed, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. id. s. 2. [These statutes EXT. to process and pleadings, when in English, 4 G. 2. c. 26. s. 4.; to all proceedings under 18 G. 2. c. 18. viz. s. 5. &c., PARLIAMENT, pl. 143., id. s. 15., or under 49 G. 3. c. 118., same title, pl. 100., id. s. 4.; to actions in Scotch exchequer, for debts due to the crown, 6 A. c. 26. s. 9.]

16. Nothing in these acts shall extend to any [appeal of felony or murder REP., 59 G. 3. c. 46. s. 1.], indictment, presentment, or inquisition of treason, murder, felony, or other matter, or process upon them, nor to any writ, bill, action, or information on any penal or popular statute, except concerning customs and subsidies of tonnage and poundage, 16 & 17 C. 2. c. 8. s. 2.; and also except actions of debt for not setting out tithes, id. s. 5., and debt immediately owing, or revenue belonging to H. M. 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 24.; [nor to any writ of error brought by any executor or administrator, 16 & 17 C. 2. c. 8. s. 5.], 18 El. c. 14. s. 2., 27 El. c. 5. s. 3., 21 J. 1. c. 13. s. 3., 16 & 17 C. 2. c. 8. s. 2. & s. 5., 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 7.; to all actions, &c. under 18 G. 2. c. 18., PARLIAMENT, pl. 143., or under 31 G. 2. c. 14. tit. id., pl. 153., or under 49 G. 3. c. 118. tit. id., pl. 100.

P. 900*l.* each; to the chief baron of exchequer, 1500*l.*; to the 3 other barons, 900*l.* each; to the chief justice of Chester, 500*l.*; to each of the justices of great sessions in Wales, 350*l.*; such salaries to be paid quarterly, on 10th Oct., 5th Jan., 5th April, and 5th July, 27 G. 3. c. 16. s. 66. [NOTE.—The above augmentations were thus made, viz. 500*l.* to the chief justice of C. P. was included in the words of the grant in 52 G. 2. c. 35. s. 9. which were "to each of the judges of C. P. 500*l.*," 500*l.* by 32 G. 2. c. 35. s. 9. and 400*l.* by 19 G. 3. c. 65. to each puisne judge of K. B. and puisne baron of exchequer; 1000*l.* by 32 G. 2. c. 3. and 500*l.* by 19 G. 3. c. 65. to the chief baron; 200*l.* by 32 G. 2. c. 35. s. 9. and 300*l.* by 12 G. 3. c. 30. s. 1. to the chief justice of Chester; 150*l.*, and 200*l.* by the same acts to the 2d justice of Chester, and to each of the justices of great sessions in Wales; see the present salaries, infra, pl. 8.]

3. SUCH OFFICER OF THE MASTER OF THE ROLLS AND CHIEF baron, and of each of the puisne justices and barons as they shall respectively appoint, shall, as soon as may be after 25th Mar. and 29th Sept. half yearly, deliver to the treasury an account signed by such master of the rolls, &c. respectively of their clear salaries after the deduction of all fees and taxes paid in respect thereof, and also of all fees, &c. received or payable to them in respect of the execution of their offices, either in the courts at Westminster, at the rolls, or at chambers, in respect of any business depending in K. B., C. P., or exchequer, in the preceding half year, 39 G. 3. c. 110. s. 2.

4. There shall be paid out of the consolidated fund of G. B. in preference to all later charges thereon, as much money as will make up the salary and pecuniary profits of the master of the rolls, 4000*l.* per ann. 39 G. 3. c. 110. s. 1. [rest of this section is REP., 49 G. 3. c. 127. s. 1.]

5. There shall be paid out of the like fund, so much money as will make up the salaries of the chief baron, 5000*l.*; of each puisne judge and baron of the degree of the coif, 4000*l.*, 49 G. 3. c. 127. s. 2.

6. In whatever sums the whole amount which has been received, or was payable to such persons in respect of their offices within the half year preceding the delivery of the account, as by 39 G. 3. c. 110. s. 2. pl. 3. directed, is less than 2500*l.* for the chief baron, and 2000*l.* for each of such other judges, shall be the sums to be issued for the half year in which such account shall be delivered, and shall be computed so as to make up their salaries to the above half yearly sums, id. s. 3.

7. The annual sum of 40*l.* viz. at 10*l.* per term to the 2d judge of K. B. for his trouble in charges to the grand jury, and pronouncing judgment on malefactors, shall not be included in the account by 39 G.3. c. 110. s. 2. pl. 3. required, 49 G.3. c. 127. s. 4.

8. There shall be paid out of the consolidated fund the yearly sums herein mentioned, viz. to the chief justice and second justice of Chester, and to each justice of the great sessions in Wa. 400l. in augmentation of their respective salaries and profits, and over and above any sum to which they may be entitled under any act now in force, 49 G.3. c. 127. s. 5. [Thus making up 900*l.* to the chief justice, and 750*l.* to each of the above justices, see supra, pl. 2. in note.]

9. The sums to be issued in pursuance hereof shall be paid half-yearly, free of all taxes and deductions, (except property tax now Exr.) on 10th Oct. and 5th April annually, by equal portions, under the same regulations as by 39 G.3. c. 110. prescribed, as far as they are applicable, id. s. 6.

10. The 39 G.3. c. 110. shall extend to this act as far as it is applicable, and not hereby altered, id. s. 7.

11. If any person having the office of master of the rolls, chief baron, puisne justice, or baron of any such courts, shall die, or resign the same, the executors, &c. of the person dying, or the person resigning, shall be entitled to such proportionable part of such salary according to such rates as may have accrued during the time such person executed the office, and the proper officer of the successor shall deliver in such account on the days required, signed by such successor and his predecessor, or by the executors, &c. of the party dying, who shall then receive what according to this act is due; and if the party resigning or dying has received more than a proportionable part of the clear salary, the former, or the executors, &c. of the latter, shall pay to the successor a sum equal to such excess, id. s. 4.

12. Such successor shall be entitled to receive such salaries and profits as may become due from the death or resignation of his predecessor, in like manner as if his patent was dated on the day after such death, &c., id. s. 5.

13. TO ENABLE H. M. TO GRANT ANNUITIES TO PERSONS in certain offices in the courts of Westminster hall on their resignations of their respective offices, 39 G.3. c. 110. ss. 6—11. [AMD. 53 G.3. c. 153.]

14. H. M., by letters patent under the great seal of G. B., may grant unto any person executing the office of lord high chancellor of G. B., or lord keeper, a yearly sum not exceeding 4000*l.* from the time of his resignation for his natural life, the same to be paid and charged on the consolidated fund, and payable quarterly, clear of all deductions, on 5th Jan., 5th April, 5th July and 10th Oct. by equal portions; provided that H. M. may, by such letters patent, limit the duration of any such annuity granted to the chancellor, &c. to such periods during life in which he shall not execute such or any other office of profit under H. M., so as such annuity and the profits of such other office do not together exceed 4000*l.*, 39 G.3. c. 110. s. 6.

15. H. M. may, in like manner, grant unto any person who has executed the office of chief justice of K. B., and has resigned the same, a yearly sum not exceeding 3000*l.* [800*l.* more, 53 G.3. c. 153. s. 1.], and to any person who has executed the office of master of the rolls, chief justice of C. P. or chief baron of the exchequer, and has resigned the same, a yearly sum not exceeding 2500*l.* [800*l.* more, 53 G.3. c. 153. s. 1.], and to any person who has executed the office of a puisne judge of K. B. or C. P., or of baron of the coil of the exchequer and has resigned same, a yearly sum not exceeding 2000*l.* [600*l.* more, 53 G.3. c. 153. s. 1.], such annuities to be paid out of and charged on the consolidated fund [so in 53 G.3. c. 153. s. 1.], to commence from the resignation and continue during the life of the grantee, and to be paid in manner and at the times in 39 G.3. c. 110. s. 6. last pl., the first payment being made on such of the said days as shall first happen after such resignation [but no such annuity shall be valid unless such chief justice, &c. has continued in one or more of such offices for 15 years, or is afflicted with a permanent infirmity disabling him for executing his office, which shall be distinctly recited in the grant, 39 G.3. c. 110. s. 7.], 39 G.3. c. 110. s. 7. [as AMD. by 53 G.3. c. 153. s. 1.]

16. The treasury, and high and under treasurer of exchequer, may, by warrant under their hands, direct the auditor of the receipt of exchequer to make forth and pass debentures for paying such annuities, and the money payable on such account as in s. 2. pl. 3., without demanding fees for same, and which warrants and debentures shall be a sufficient authority for payment thereof at the times therein stated, 39 G.3. c. 110. s. 8.

17. After the signing such warrants or debentures, the same shall be good according to their purport and this act, and shall not determine by the death of H. M., or by the death or removal of any commissioner of treasury or high or under treasurer of exchequer, or by the determination of their offices, id. s. 9.

18. The treasury and exchequer shall, without fee, do all acts herein required of them, in order to render this act effectual, id. s. 10.

19. The annuities granted by 39 G.3. c. 110. and 53 G.3. c. 110., shall be paid, clear of taxes and deductions, (except property tax, now Exr.), by equal portions, together with and in the same manner as annuities granted by 39 G.3. c. 110. only, and subject to the like rules, 53 G.3. c. 153. s. 2. [and 39 G.3. c. 110. shall extend to this act as far as it is applicable, and not hereby altered, id. s. 3.]

20. The receipt of all such persons to whom any such annuities or sums of money have been granted, shall be a good discharge for the payment thereof without further warrant, and the same shall be paid clear of all taxes and charges; and if any officer of exchequer neglects to pay the same, or to do any act necessary to enable any such retired judge, &c. to receive the same, such judge, &c. may prosecute the officer, his heirs, executors or administrators, by bill plaint or action of debt, and shall recover and sue out execution against them for so much of such annuity then due as is in the hands of such officers at the time of demand for payment, or refusal to do such act, 39 G.3. c. 110. s. 11.

21. TO ENABLE SUCH PERSONS AS H. M. MAY APPOINT TO the office of chief justice or judge of either bench, or of chief baron or baron of exchequer, to take on themselves the degree of a serjeant-at-law in vacation, 39 G.3. c. 113.

22. H. M. at any time in vacation, whilst any of the above offices is vacant, may cause a writ to be issued out of chancery, directed to any barrister at law H. M. shall think fit, commanding him to appear in such court, and take on himself the state and dignity of a serjeant-at-law, and such person shall accordingly appear before the chancellor at the time and place by him appointed, and on so appearing and taking the oaths usually administered to a serjeant-at-law, shall, without further act, be deemed a serjeant-at-law; and in case H. M. shall be pleased by writ or letters patent under the great seal, to appoint such person so sworn to any of the above offices, he shall be deemed lawfully appointed, and may hold and execute the same as if he had been a serjeant-at-law, sworn in the usual way, id. ibid.

23. TO AUTHORISE JUDGES TO WHOM PETITIONS for certain bills, shall be referred to examine witnesses on oath, 41 G.3. U. K. c. 105.

24. One or more judges of Scot. to whom any petition for any bill concerning lands, hereditaments, or other heritable subjects in Scot., shall be referred by the house of lords, and one or more of the judges of Ire., to whom any petition concerning lands or other hereditaments in Ire. shall be referred, may examine on oath all witnesses produced before them, touching the matter of such petition, and may administer an oath accordingly, which shall be as available, and persons taking the same shall be punished for false evidence in the same way, as if it had been administered to the witness at the bar of the house of lords, id. ibid.

JUDGMENTS.

1. HOW DELAYS OF JUDGMENT IN COURTS OF JUSTICE shall be redressed, 14 E.3. S. 1. c. 5.

2. At every parliament shall be chosen a prelate, 2 earls, and 2 barons, with commission from H. M. to hear by petition complaints of delays of judgments or grievances, and they shall have power to cause to come before them at Westminster or elsewhere, the tenor of records and processes of such judgments delayed, and to cause the justices to come before them to hear the reasons thereof; which cause so heard by good advice of themselves, the chancellor, treasurer, justices of both benches, and other of H. M.'s counsel as many and such as they think necessary, shall proceed to judgment, and the tenor of the record with the judgment shall be remanded before the justices before whom the plea did depend, who shall give judgment according to the same record; and if the difficulty cannot well be determined without assent of parliament, the said tenor shall be brought by the said prelate, &c. into the next parliament, and final accord shall be there taken what judgment ought to be given, and by advice of the said prelate, &c. be it ordained to encrease or diminish the number of the ministers as need may be, 14 E.3. S. 1. c. 5. [see ERROR passim.]

3. AFTER JUDGMENT GIVEN IN H. M.'s COURTS, THE PARTIES and their heirs, shall be thereof in peace till the judgment is reversed by attainr or error, 4 H. 4. c. 23.

4. "Whereas it has been found mischievous that the judgments in H. M.'s courts at Westminster, do often relate to the 1st day of the term of which they are entered, or to the day of the return of the original or filing bail, and bind defendant's lands from that time, though in truth they were acknowledged or suffered, and signed in the vacation after such term, whereby, often purchasers are aggrieved, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 13."

EVERY JUDGE OR OFFICER OF ANY OF H. M.'s COURTS AT Westminster who shall sign any judgments, shall, at such signing without fee for doing the same, set down the day of the month and year of his so doing on the paper book, docket, or record which he shall sign, which day shall be also entered on the margin of the roll of the record, where such judgment is entered, id. s. 14.

5. Such judgments as against bonâ fide purchasers, for valuable consideration of lands, tenements, and hereditaments chargeable thereby, shall, in consideration of law, be judgments only from the time when they are so signed, and shall not relate to the first day of the term;

whereof they are entered, or the day of the return of the original or filing the bill, 29 C.2. c.3. s.15.

6. FOR BETTER DISCOVERY OF JUDGMENTS IN THE COURTS OF K. B., C. P., and exchequer at Westminster, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 20. [CON. 6 & 7 W.3. c.14. s.3. MADE PERP. 7 & 8 W.3. c.36. s.3.]

7. The clerk of essoins of C. P., every clerk of doggets of K. B., and the master of the office of pleas in exchequer, shall, before the last day of every Easter term, make into an alphabetical dogget by defendants' names, a particular of all judgments for debt by confession, non sum informatus, or nil dicit, entered in such respective courts of the Hilary term preceding, and continuing plaintiffs' and defendants' names, places of abode, title, trade, or profession, (if any such be in the records,) and the debt, damages, and costs recovered, and in what county, city, or town the actions were laid, and the number roll of entry thereof; and every clerk of the judgments, and other clerk in K. B. and C. P., and the clerk of the judgments in exchequer, and all other clerks of those courts, shall, in 10 days before the end of Easter term, bring to the clerks of the doggets of C. P. and K. B., [QU. clerk of essoins of C. P. see above] and to the master of office of pleas in exchequer, notes in writing of the judgments entered by them of the said Hilary term, on every judgment on verdict, writ of inquiry, demurrer, or other judgment, for debt or damages, in order to entry in manner aforesaid; the same shall be done for Easter and Trinity terms before the last day of Michaelmas term, and for Michaelmas term before the last day of Hilary term, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 20. s.1.

8. Such doggets shall be kept in books of parchment in the respective offices, to be searched by all persons at reasonable times, on payment to the officers having custody thereof 4d., for every term's search, for judgments against any one person, on penalty of 100l. for every term's neglect of duty in the premises by any clerk above-mentioned, to go one moiety to the party grieved, the residue to the informer suing in any H. M.'s courts at Westminster, without essoin, &c. and but one imparlance, id. s.2.

9. No judgment not doggetted in such books, shall affect any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, as to purchasers or mortgagees, or have preference against heirs, executors, or administrators in administration, id. s.3.

10. Four-pence in addition to the now usual fees shall be paid by the plaintiff [to the respective clerks of the judgments, see preamble to section,] on every judgment entered up, id. s.4.

JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS.

(STATUTES expired.)

1. FOR REGULATING CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS AGAINST CERTAIN scholars of Oxford, 9 H. 5. S.1. c. 8. Exp.

2. FOR CONTINUANCE OF PROCESS AND JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS, on account of the inconvenience of keeping certain returns in Easter term, 12 C.2. c.3. [Exp.]

3. FOR CONFIRMATION OF JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS OF ILLEGAL courts of justice, 12 C.2. c.12. [Exp.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. THAT ALL PROCEEDINGS IN COURTS OF JUSTICE IN Eng. and in exchequer in Scot., shall be in the English language, 4 G.2. c.26. [AMD. 6 G.2. c.6., 6 G.2. c.14. ss.3-5., an act of a similar nature was passed A. D. 1650, and was CON. till 1st August, 1660, by 12 C.2. c.3. s.4. See also 36 E.3. c.15. PLEADING, pl. 8.]

2. All writs, process, and returns, pleadings, rules, orders, indictments, informations, inquisitions, presentments, verdicts, prohibitions, certificates, patents, charters, pardons, commissions, records, judgments, statutes, recognizances, bonds, rolls, entries, fines, and recoveries, and all proceedings whatever in courts of justice in Eng., [great sessions of W. and Ber., 6 G.2. c.14. s.3. and s.5.] and exchequer in Scot., shall be in English, and not in Latin, French, or other tongue, and shall be written in such common and not court hand, as the statutes are usually engrossed in, the lines and words to be written at least as close as the statutes usually are, and not abbreviated, [but see 6 G.2. c.14. s.5. next pl.] 4 G.2. c.26. s.1. [as EXT. by 6 G.2. c.14. s.3.; but 4 G.2. c.26. does not extend to the court of the receipt of exchequer, 6 G.2. c.6. s.1., which court, and its several members, shall carry on business according to the usual course, id. s.2. But it should seem that the process annexed to the schedules of defendants in process for debts due to H. M., should be in English and common legible hand, according to 4 G.2. c.26., see 6 G.2. c.14. s.5. latter part, which is EXT.; and the quarterly imprest certificates of monies issued at receipt of H. M.'s exchequer shall be written in English, in common hand and character, 1 & 2 G.4. c.121. s.1. ACCOUNTS PUBLIC, pl. 23.; and so of accounts made out for declaration by commissioners of public accounts, id. s.7. lit. id. pl. 62.]

3. Such proceedings may be written or printed in a common legible hand or character, and with the like way of writing or printing, and expressing numbers by figures, as have been heretofore or are now commonly used in English, 6 G.2. c.14. s.5.

4. A penalty of 50l. is recoverable by any person suing for same by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, commenced within 3 months, in any court of record at Westminster, of great sessions in W., or of exchequer in Scot., without essoin, &c. and with but one imparlance, for writing or printing such proceedings in any other language than English, or in court hand; but such penalty shall not extend to the usual technical names of writs, process, or other technical words, if written or printed in a legible hand, not being court hand, and with usual English abbreviations, 4 G.2. c.26. s.1., [as AMD. 6 G.2. c.14. ss.4, 5.]

5. Nothing in this act shall extend to certifying beyond seas any case or proceedings in admiralty, which may be certified in Latin as formerly, 4 G.2. c.26. s.3.

6. All statutes of jeofails shall extend to forms and proceedings in courts of justice (except criminal cases), when they are in English, and this clause shall be construed in the most beneficial manner, id. s.4.

JURY. (See ATTAINT.)

(STATUTES expired.)

1. FOR ADMITTING A TRAVERSE AGAINST AN UNTRUE INQUISITION, 1 H. 8. c.12. [Exp.]

2. SHERIFFS SHALL RETURN SUFFICIENT JURORS, 11 H. 7. c.26. [CON. 12 H.7. c.2., 19 H.7. c.16. all Exp.]

3. FOR THE RETURNING OF ABLE AND SUFFICIENT JURORS, 16 & 17 C.2. c.3. [Exp. See preamble of 4 W. & M. c.24. s.15.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. CONCERNING CHARTERS OF EXEMPTION AND LIBERTIES, THAT the purchaser shall not be impanelled in assizes, juries, and inquests, it is provided, that if their oaths be so requisite that without them justice cannot be administered, as in great assizes, perambulations, and in deeds or writings of covenants, or where they be named witnesses, or in attainments and other cases like, they shall be compelled to swear, saving to them at another time their exemption, 52 (or 54) H.3. Stat. Marl. c.14. [see 2 Inst. 127., and 7 & 8 W.3. c.32. s.6. pl. 66.]

2. THE JUSTICES IN EYRE SHALL NOT AMERGE TOWNSHIPS on their circuits, because all being 12 years old came not afore the sheriffs and coroners to make enquiry of robberies, burnings of houses, or other things pertaining to the crown, so that there come sufficient to make such inquests, except inquests of the death of man, whereat all being 12 years old ought to appear, 52 (or 54) H.3. Stat. Marl. c.24.

3. HOW MANY AND WHAT PERSONS SHALL BE RETURNED IN JURIES and assizes, 13 E.1. West. Sec. c.38. [AMD. 21 E.1. St. 2. (8vo ed. 254. De iis, qui ponendi sunt in assisis, &c.) 28 E.1. c.9.; and as to qualification, 2 H.5. St. 2. c.3., 8 H.6. c.29., and of jurors in the sheriff's tourn, 1 R.3. c.4.—Note. The Qualification of juror for the counties in Eng. is now 10l. per ann., and in W. 6l., 4 & 5 W.3. c.24. s.15. post, pl. 35., in cities and towns the qualification appears to be as under the above act; but see as to cases of felony 25 H.8. c.13. pl. 29.; leaseholders are now qualified, see 3 G.2. c.25. s.18. pl. 100; and as to Middlesex, 4 G.2. c.7. s.3. pl. 101.]

4. No more shall be summoned in one assize than 24, and old men above 70, and men being sick, or not dwelling in the county, shall not be put on juries or petit assizes, nor they that dispend less than 20s. yearly; and if such assizes and juries be taken out of the shire, none shall pass in them, but such as dispend 40s. yearly, except such as be witnesses to deeds and writings; [but see now pl. 35.] This act shall not extend to the great assizes where knights do pass, not resident in the shire, so that they have land in the shire; and if the sheriffs or bailiffs of liberties offend herein, they shall restore damages to the party grieved, and be amerced to H. M.; and justices assigned to take assizes, may hear complaints against this act, and minister justice in form aforesaid, id. ibid.

5. No sheriff nor bailiff shall put in any recognizance of juries, inquests, assizes, and attainments that pass out of their proper bailiwicks, any, except they have lands to the yearly value of 100s. at least; [but see now pl. 35.] and this statute shall not repeal the last statute of Westminster Sec. 13 E.1. c.38. except as to such as ought to pass in recognizances out of their counties, yet so that within the county before justices of H. M., assigned to the taking of juries, inquests, or other recognizances, none shall be impanelled except he have lands to the yearly value of 40s. and likewise saving that before justices errant for common pleas in their circuit, and also in cities, boroughs, and other market-towns, it shall be done as it hath been accustomed, 21 E.1. St. 2.

6. No sheriff nor bailiff shall impanel in juries more persons, nor otherwise than is ordained by the statute, and shall put in the jury such as be next neighbours, [now of the body of the county, 24 G.2. c.18. s.3. pl. 36.] most sufficient and least suspicious; and he that otherwise doth, and is attainted thereupon, shall pay the plaintiff his damages double, and be grievously amerced to H. M., 29 E.1. c.9.

7. No person shall pass in any inquest upon trial of the death of a man, nor betwixt party and party in plea, real or personal, whereof the debt or damage amounts to 40 marks, if he have not lands of the yearly value of 40s., so that it be challenged by the party, that such person hath not such lands, 2 H. 5. S. 2. 3. [not to extend to juries de medietate lingue, 8 H. 6. c. 29., as to which see post pl. 19., and see now pl. 35.]

8. No bailiff nor other officer shall return in any pannel any person in any shire of Eng. to be put on any enquiry in any of the sheriff's turns but such as be of good fame, and having lands of freehold within the same counties to the yearly value of 20s., or copyhold to the yearly value of 26s. 8d., 1 R. 3. c. 4. s. 1.; and if any bailiff or other officer return any person contrary to this statute, he shall lose for every person so returned 40s., and the sheriff other 40s., the one half to H. M., and the other half to the party that will sue by action of debt, wherein no essoin, &c. and every indictment before any sheriff in his turn otherwise taken, shall be void, 1 R. 3. c. 4. s. 2. [but indictments found in the sheriff's tourn are to be sued at the quarter sessions, 1 E. 4. c. 2. QUARTER SESSIONS.]

9. OF INQUESTS TO BE TAKEN WHEREIN H. M. IS PARTY, notwithstanding it be alleged that the jurors, or some of them, be not indifferent for H. M., yet such inquests shall not remain untaken for that cause; but if they that sue for H. M. will challenge any of those jurors, they shall assign a cause, and the truth of the challenge shall be enquired of, 33 E. 1. S. 2. Ordinatio de inquisitionibus.

10. THE PUNISHMENT OF A JUROR THAT IS AMBIDEXTER and taketh money, 5 E. 3. c. 10. [AMD. 34 E. 3. c. 8. and further AMD. and EXT. to embraceors], 38 E. 3. St. 1. s. 12.

11. If any juror in assizes, juries or inquests, take of the one party and the other, and be thereof attainted, he shall not be put in any assizes, juries, or inquests, and nevertheless be commanded to prison, and further fined at H. M.'s will: and the justices before whom such assizes, &c. shall pass shall have power to enquire and determine according to this statute, 5 E. 3. c. 10.

12. In every plea, whereof the inquest or assize doth pass, if any of the parties will sue against any of the jurors, that they have taken of his adversary, or of him, for their verdict, he shall have his plaint by bill presently before the justices before whom they did swear, and if the juror plead to the country, the inquest shall be taken forthwith; and if any other than the party will sue for H. M. against the juror, it shall be so heard; and if the jurors be attainted at the suit of other than the party, he that sueth shall have half the fine; and the parties to the plea shall recover their damages by the taxing of the inquest; and the juror so attainted shall have imprisonment one year, which shall not be pardoned; and if the party will sue by writ before other justices, he shall have suit in such form, 34 E. 3. c. 8.

13. If any jurors do take any thing of the plaintiff or defendant to say their verdict, and thereof be attainted by the process in 34 E. 3. c. 8. be it at the suit of the party that will sue for himself or H. M. or at the suit of any other, all such jurors shall pay ten times as much as he hath taken; and he that will sue shall have the one half, and H. M. the other; and all imbracers to procure such inquests for gain shall be punished as the jurors; or if the juror or imbracer have not whereof to make grace, he shall have imprisonment for one year. And no justice or other minister shall inquire of office upon the points of this article, but only at the suit of the party or of others, 38 E. 3. St. 1. c. 12.

14. OF JURIES IN ATTAINTS, 14 E. 2. (1 Stat. Rev. ed. 353.)

15. If the first jurors which be living appear not in court before the justices assigned to take such juries of 24, at the first grand distress upon them returned, or if return be made that they have nothing, then by their absence the taking of the jury shall not be delayed, observing in all other things the usual process, id. ibid.

16. NO INDICTOR SHALL BE PUT IN INQUESTS upon the deliverance of a party indicted of trespass or felony, if he be challenged for the same cause, 25 E. 3. S. 5. c. 3.

17. OF INQUESTS de medietate lingue, 28 E. 3. c. 13. s. 3. [CON. 8 H. 6. c. 29. For rest of this statute, see MERCHANT.]

18. In all inquests and proofs which be to be taken between aliens and denizens, be they merchants or others, as well before the mayor of the staple as before other justices, although H. M. be party, the one half of the inquest shall be denizens and the other half aliens, if so many can be found, that be not parties, nor with the parties in contracts, pleas, or other complaints, and if there be not so many, then such as can be found, and the remainder of denizens, good men, 28 E. 3. c. 13. s. 3.

19. The 28 E. 3. c. 13. s. 3. shall be in force, notwithstanding 2 H. 5. S. 2. c. 5. requiring jurors to have 40s. a year, and that act shall only extend to inquests between denizen and denizen, 8 H. 6. c. 29. [QU. see pl. 35.]

20. PANELS SHALL BE MADE OF THE MOST NEIGHBOURING PEOPLE not suspected nor procured; and the sheriffs, coroners, and other ministers, which do to the contrary, shall be punished, before the justices who take the inquest, according to their trespass, as well against H. M. as against the party, for the damages by him sustained, 34 E. 3. c. 4.

21. PANELS OF JURIES SHALL BE ARRAYED FOR FOUR DAYS before the sitting of the justices at nisi prius, 42 E. 3. c. 11. [Further regulated, 6 H. 6. c. 2.]

22. No inquest but assises and deliverances of gaols shall be taken at nisi prius, nor in other manner, before that the names of all that shall pass in the inquests be returned in court; and the sheriffs shall array the panels in assises 4 days at least before the sessions of the justices, upon pain of 20l., so that the parties may have view of the panels if they demand it; and bailiffs of franchises shall make their answer to the sheriffs 6 days before the sessions, upon the same pain; and in all panels arrayed by the sheriffs or bailiffs shall be put the most substantial people, and worthy of credit, and not suspect, and the night, 4 E. 3. c. 11.

23. The panels of special assises shall be arrayed, and a copy indented of the same by the sheriff delivered to the plaintiffs, tenants, and defendants, 6 days before the sessions of the justices, if demanded; and bailiffs of franchises shall make their returns to sheriffs 8 days before such sessions, upon pain of 40l. to H. M. by the sheriff or bailiff neglecting, 6 H. 6. c. 2.

24. THE PENALTY FOR TAKING BRIBES for the arraying of a jury, 18 H. 6. c. 14. [QU. EXP. see s. 2. and for abuses in returning juries in criminal cases, 3 H. 8. c. 12. See 27 El. c. 6. s. 4. post, pl. 49.]

25. If any sheriff or other having power to make arrays and panels do take any gift or reward for making the same, the party aggrieved shall have his suit by writ or bill against such sheriff, &c. before the justices where such arrays be returned, to recover ten times as much as they received for making such array; and such justices may hear and determine such suits, as well by examination of the defendants as by trial of inquests thereof, and award execution, and in such writ process shall be awarded as in case of trespass, provided such suits shall be taken in the county where such sheriffs, &c. shall be at the time of such array, 18 H. 6. c. 14. s. 1. This ordinance shall continue to the next parliament; and if it then seem meet to H. M. and the lords, shall endure for ever, id. s. 2.

26. All panels returned, which be not at the suit of any party, that shall be made by every sheriff and their ministers afore any justices of gaol delivery, or of peace in their sessions, to inquire for H. M. shall be reformed, by putting to and taking out of names of the persons so impanelled, by the direction of the justices before whom the panels be returned; and such justices shall command every sheriff, &c. to put other persons in such panel by their discretion; and if any sheriff, &c. do not return the panels so reformed, he shall forfeit 20l., the one half to H. M. and the other to him that will sue for the same by action of debt, &c. wherein no essoin, &c. and H. M.'s pardon shall be no bar against the parties that shall sue, 3 H. 8. c. 12.

27. FOR JURORS in Middlesex, 8 E. 4. c. 3. [see further, 4 G. 2. c. 7. s. 3. post, pl. 83. and 101.]

28. Every juror that shall be impanelled and returned within the county of Middlesex, in H. M.'s courts at Westminster, at every fourth day of the return shall be demanded; and all persons impanelled in those courts, that appear at such day, their appearance shall be recorded, and they shall not lose any issues that day; and every default, essoin, and other delay, of any plaintiff or defendant in any personal action shall be adjudged, adjourned and allowed, as before this statute, id. s. 1. 2.

29. MEN IN CITIES, BOROUGHES AND TOWNS, which be clearly worth 40l. in goods, shall pass in trial of murders, 25 H. 8. c. 13.

30. Persons being natural born subjects, who enjoy the liberties and privileges of any city, &c. (as in the title) where they dwell, being worth in moveable goods 40l., shall be admitted in trial of murders and felonies, in every session and gaol delivery to be holden for such cities, &c., albeit they have no freehold, id. s. 1.

31. This act shall not extend to any knight or esquire, dwelling or resorting to such cities, &c., id. s. 2.

32. CONCERNING THE APPEARANCE OF JURORS, in the nisi prius, 35 H. 8. c. 6. and recitals in s. 1. 2. [CON. 37 H. 8. c. 22., MADE PERP. 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 32.; so much of 35 H. 8. as relates to the tales, EXT. to qui tam actions, and where H. M. only is party, 4 & 5 P. & M. c. 7. and recital in s. 1.; and to W. a. and the counties palatine, 5 El. c. 25. and recital in s. 1.; and to defendants, 14 El. c. 9., AMD. 27 El. c. 6., 4 & 5 W. 3. c. 24. ss. 15—21., (which is CON. 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 32. s. 10., 10 A. c. 14. s. 4., 9 G. 1. c. 8. s. 2. QU. if not now EXP.); and also AMD. 4 & 5 A. c. 16. ss. 6—7., 24 G. 2. c. 18. s. 3.]

33. In cases where such persons as should pass upon trial of any issue joined in the courts of Westminster, ought to dispend 40s. by the year of freehold for term of life, writs of venire facias shall be in this form: Rex, &c., precipimus, &c., [see pl. 35.], and so forth, the residue being in the usual form: and where it is not necessary that such persons shall dispend 40s. by the year of freehold, such writs of venire shall be in such form, omitting the clause of quorum quilibet habeat quadraginta, &c., 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 3. [but see now, pl. 35.]

34. Where jurors to be returned for trial of any issues in K. B., C. P., exchequer, or before justices of assize, by the laws now in force ought to have freehold of the yearly value of 40s. in every such case, the jurors shall have estate of freehold to the yearly value of 4l. at least; [but see next pl.] and the writs of venire facias shall be in this form: Regina, &c. Præcipimus, &c. quod venire facias coram, &c. duodecim liberos & legales homines de vicineto de B. quorum quilibet habeat quatuor libras terræ, tenementorum vel reddituum per annum ad minus, per quos rei veritas melius sciri poterit, & qui nec. &c., and upon such writ, the sheriff or minister making the return, shall not return any person unless he may dispend 4l. in the year of freehold, out of ancient demesne, within the county upon pain to forfeit for every person 20s.; 27 El. c. 6. s. 1. [and see next pl.]

35. ALL JURORS (OTHER THAN STRANGERS UPON TRIALS per medietatem lingue) to be returned for trials of issues joined in the courts of K. B., C. P., exchequer, or before the justices of assize, or nisi prius, oyer and terminer, gaol delivery or quarter sessions, in any county in Eng., shall have, in their own names, or in trust for them, within the county 10l. by the year above reprises, of freehold or copyhold lands or tenements or lands, &c. of ancient demesne, or in rents, or in all or any of such lands, tenements or rents in fee simple, fee tail or for life, of themselves or another; and in counties in Wa., such jurors shall have 6l. by the year as aforesaid, all which persons, shall be liable to be returned as jurors, before such courts or justices; and if any of lesser estate be returned, it shall be good cause of challenge, and he may be discharged on such challenge or on his own oath; and no jurymen's issues making default, shall be saved, but by order of the court for some good cause, proved on oath; but shall be duly estreated and levied, and the writ of venire for impanelling juries in such cases in Eng., shall be in this form: *Rex, &c. præcipimus, &c. quod venire fac coram, &c. duodecim liberos & legales homines de vicineto [but see next pl.] de A. quorum quilibet habeat decem libras terræ, tenementorum vel reddituum per annum ad minus, per quos, &c. et qui nec, &c.*, and the rest shall be in the ancient manner, and such writs for juries in Wa. shall be in like form: altering decem into sex, and the sheriff, coroner or other minister, who is to make the panel, shall not return any juror unless he has such sums by the year, on pain to forfeit 5l. to H. M., 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. s. 15. [See the qualification for jurors in Middlesex, 4 G. 2. c. 7. s. 3. pl. 101.]

36. "Whereas great delays frequently happen in trials, by reason of challenge to the arrays of panels of jurors, and to the polls for default of hundredors" (required by 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 3. to be returned), it is enacted, That every venire facias, for trial of any issue in any action or suit in any court at Westminster, shall be awarded of the body of the proper county where such issue is triable, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 6. [NOTE. The proviso in id. s. 7., 'that s. 6. should not extend to any action or information on any penal statute,' is REP. as follows: EVERY venire facias for trial of any issue in any action or information on any penal statute in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, in the counties palatine of Lancaster, Chester, and Durham, and in Wa., shall be awarded of the body of the proper county where such issue is triable, 24 G. 2. c. 18. s. 3. These provisions virtually supersede 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 3. as to returning hundredors on the venire; and the challenge for the hundred in 27 El. c. 6. s. 5.]

37. Upon the trial of any issue in any personal action, all challenges, principal or for other cause, [but not for the hundred, see last pl. and 27 El. c. 6. s. 5., now superseded thereby.] shall be admitted as if this act had never been, 27 El. c. 6. s. 5, 6.

38. Upon every writ of habeas corpora or other distingas, with a nisi prius, delivered of record to such sheriff, or other minister to whom making the return appertains, (as in s. 13. pl. 46.) he shall return the issues on every person impanelled on such writ, [5s., 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 4.], [10s., 27 El. c. 6. s. 2.]; on the 2d habeas, &c., [10s., 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 4.], [20s., shillings, 27 El. c. 6. s. 2.]; and on the 3d, [13s. 4d., 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 4.]; [30s., 27 El. c. 6. s. 2.]; and upon every writ further awarded to try such issue, he shall double the issues last specified, until a full jury is sworn in the process determined, on pain to forfeit for every return contrary hereto 5l., 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 4., 27 El. c. 6. s. 2.

39. In every such writ of habeas corpora or distingas, with nisi prius, where a full jury does not appear before the justices of assizes or nisi prius, or else after appearance where by challenge, the jury is like to remain untaken for default of jurors, then such justices, on request by the plaintiff or demandant, may command the sheriff, &c. to appoint so many persons of such county then present as shall make a full jury, and who shall be added to the former panel, and they may be challenged; and such justices may proceed to trial with such jury, and such trial shall be as good as if it had been tried by the jury impanelled under the venire; and in case any such person so appointed is called, and being present, does not appear, or if after appearance, he shall wilfully withdraw from court, such justices may set a fine on him at discretion; such fine to be levied as issues lost by jurors for default of appearance at common law are, 35 H. 8. c. 6. ss. 5—9.

40. The justices of assize and nisi prius, before whom any trial shall be made by virtue of any writ of habeas corpora, or distingas, where a full jury shall not appear, or after appearance of a full jury, by challenge, the jury is like to remain untaken for default of jurors, may, upon request made on behalf of H. M., or upon request of the party that followeth qui tam, on any penal statute, or his attorney, command the sheriff, &c. to name so many able persons of the county then present, (i. e. a tales de circumstantibus), and to add the names to the former panel as shall make a full jury, (4 & 5 P. & M. c. 7. s. 2.) and every clause in 35 H. 8. c. 6. shall be taken to give the same advantage to H. M. and all such persons as shall pursue any action, &c. for H. M. and only or for him and the party, as the plaintiff in any other action might have, 4 & 5 P. & M. c. 7. s. 4.

41. In the shires of Wa., and in the counties palatine of Chester, Durham, and Lancaster, where a full jury shall not appear before the justices of great sessions in such shires or counties, or by challenge of parties the jury is like to remain untaken for default of jurors, such justices upon request by the plaintiff or demandant may command the sheriff to name so many other persons of such counties present as shall make up a full jury; which shall be added to the former panel; and such parties may challenge the jurors so named, and such justices may proceed to trial with them in such manner as they might if all the jurors had been returned on the venire, and such trial shall be as good as if such jurors had been impanelled and returned under the venire; and in case such persons after being called be present and do not appear, or after appearance do wilfully withdraw themselves, such justices shall set such fine as they think good, to be levied as issues lost by jurors in such shires, &c. are, 5 El. c. 25. s. 2.

42. Where the plaintiff or demandant may have upon his request to the justices of nisi prius in Eng., or to the justices of oyer, or of assizes, of the 12 shires of Wa., and the counties palatine, a tales de circumstantibus, in all such cases the tenants, actors, avowants and defendants (if the plaintiffs or demandants shall forbear to pray the same) may, upon their request, have on the same record and by the same justices the tales unto them granted, in like manner as the plaintiff or demandant may, (s. 1.) and in all popular actions, informations and suits commenced in courts of record upon penal laws, wherein any person shall sue qui tam, the defendants shall be admitted to pray a tales, 14 El. c. 9. ss. 1, 2. [see the qualification of a talesman in Eng. and Wa., 4 & 5 W. 3. c. 24. ss. 18, 19. post, pl. 59., and talesmen to be taken from the other panels, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 32. s. 3. post, pl. 62.]

43. Where any jury returned by any sheriff, &c. is made full by such justices under this act, such persons were returned in the panel to try such issue, who shall not appear, shall lose the issues on them returned in such wise, as if the jury remained for default of jurors, 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 10. and for Wa. and counties palatine, 5 El. c. 25. s. 3.

44. Upon a reasonable excuse for default of appearance of any juror proved before such justices at the day of their appearance, by oath of 2 witnesses, such justices may in their discretion discharge such juror of the forfeiture of issues on him resumed, and such sheriff, &c. shall be discharged of the penalties for not returning such issues, and the return shall be good, 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 11. [and s. r. for Wa. and the counties palatine, 5 El. c. 25. s. 4.]

45. If such justices afore whom such jury should appear in the county where the issue is to be tried, [by virtue of a writ of nisi prius, 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 12.] do not come at the day and place appointed, [but the assize or nisi prius is discontinued thereby, or otherwise, other than for lack of jurors, 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 12.,] then all such jurors shall be discharged of any issues on them returned, and the sheriff of the above-mentioned penalties, 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 12.; [s. r. for Wa. and the counties palatine, 5 El. c. 25. s. 5.]

46. If upon any writ of habeas corpora, or distingas, [with a nisi prius, 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 13.] issues be returned on any hundredors or jurors by the sheriffs, &c. and such hundredors, &c. be not lawfully summoned or distrained, such sheriffs, &c. shall forfeit double the issues returned on them; the moiety of all forfeitures herein, [other than issues returned on jurors shall go to H. M. and the other to the party suing, by action of debt, &c. or information, in H. M.'s great court where such forfeiture is incurred, 5 El. c. 25. s. 6.] wherein no essoin, &c.; saving to all persons and bodies corporate having right, &c. to such issues, to be before any such justices, [of assize, or nisi prius, 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 13.] forfeited, all such right, &c. as if this act had not been made, 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 13. [s. r. for Wa. and the counties palatine, 5 El. c. 25. s. 6.]

47. This act shall not extend to any city, or town corporate, or to any sheriffs, or minister therein for return of any inquest or panel to be made of persons residing therein, but they may return such persons as they were before accustomed, so as such sheriff return on such persons as be impanelled the like issues [which he ought to return, 5 El. c. 25. s. 7.] as herein mentioned, 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 14. [s. r. for Wa. and the counties palatine, 5 El. c. 25. s. 7.]

48. If any sheriff or other minister return any person summoned in any jury, wherein he shall for default of appearance lose any issues, where in truth such person was not summoned, the same sheriff, &c. shall forfeit to the person so returned, double the value of the issues lost, 27 El. c. 6. s. 3.

49. If any sheriff, under-sheriff, &c. or bailiff of franchise, shall take any money or other profit, or any agreement to have any profit for the not returning of any person to be sworn as juror for the trial of any issue joined before any justices, every sheriff, &c. so offending shall forfeit 5*l.*, the one moiety to H. M. and the other to such person as will sue for the same in any court of record, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c., id. s. 4.

50. This act shall not extend to any juries or issues to be returned in any city or town corporate, or other place privileged to hold plea, or in Wa., but they may be returned as heretofore, id. s. 7.

51. No sheriff or bailiff of any liberty shall return any person to have been summoned, unless such person has been duly summoned 6 days before the day of appearance; nor shall take money or reward to excuse any juror; upon pain to forfeit 10*l.* to H. M. (s. 16.), saving to all cities, boroughs, and towns corporate, their ancient usage of returning jurors of such estate, and in usual manner, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. s. 17.

52. It shall be lawful to return any person upon the tales in Eng. who has within the same county 5*l.* by the year, as in s. 15. and not otherwise, id. s. 18., and any person upon the tales in Wa. who has within the county 3*l.* by the year, as in s. 15., id. ss. 18, 19.

53. No fee shall be taken by any sheriff, clerk of assizes, or other person, upon account of any tales returned; upon pain of 10*l.* one moiety to the prosecutor, and the other to H. M., to be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one impur- lence allowed, id. s. 20.

54. No writ de non ponendis in assis et juratis shall be granted, unless upon oath made that the suggestions are true, id. s. 21.

55. FOR CHALLENGES. ALL CLAUSES, &c. SPECIFIED IN ANY ACT of parliament made in the reign of H. 8. touching any challenge for the county, hundred, or peremptory challenge, or concerning any trial of foreign pleas, pleaded by murderers, felons, or other offenders, shall as to such challenges and trials remain in force, 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 11.

56. FOR LEVYING OF ISSUES LOST BY JURORS, 27 El. c. 7. and recital in s. 1. [Con. 29 El. c. 5. s. 18., 31 El. c. 10. s. 17., 35 El. c. 7. s. 14. MADE PERP. 39 El. c. 18. s. 52.]

57. No sheriff, coroner, or other person to whom it belongs to return any writ, shall return any juror dwelling out of any liberty without the addition of his place of abode at the time of such return, or within one year next before, or some other addition by which the party may be known, nor any juror within any liberty with other addition than such as was delivered to him by the bailiff, or his deputy, certified under his hand; nor shall any bailiff of any liberty, or his deputy return any juror, or deliver to the sheriff, or his under-sheriff the names of any person to be returned upon any panel without the addition certified under his hands to the sheriff, of the place of abode of every person so returned at the time of such return, or within one year next before, or some other, by which such party may be known; and no extract of issues against any juror so returned shall be delivered out without such addition as is put in the original panel, or tales wherein such juror is returned, and no under-sheriff, bailiff, or other officer shall collect such issues so estreated of other persons than such as are charged by such estreat, on pain that every clerk that shall write such estreat, and every person so offending shall forfeit to H. M. 5 marks, and to the party grieved 5 marks, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record wherein no essoin, &c. 27 El. c. 7. s. 2.

58. Justices of oyer and terminer, of assize, and of the peace, as well within liberties as without, shall hear and determine offences against this act, and award process of execution to levy such forfeitures within their limits, id. s. 3.

59. FOR THE EASE OF JURORS AND BETTER REGULATING OF JURIES, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 32. [Con. 1 A. St. 2. c. 13. s. 1., AND 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 10. 1 A. St. 2. c. 13. s. 3., 3 & 4 A. c. 18. ss. 5—6. which is Con. 10 A. c. 16. s. 4., 9 G. 1. c. 8. s. 2. There is no clause in either of these acts providing for their expiration at a limited time, and they do not appear to have been continued since the 9 G. 1.]

60. If any plaintiff or demandant in any cause in the courts at Westminster, which is at issue, shall sue forth a venire facias, upon which any writ of habeas corpora or distingas with a nisi prius issues in order to the trial of such issues at the assizes, and such plaintiff, &c. shall not proceed to trial at the first assizes, after the teste of such habeas, &c.; in all such cases (other than where views by jurors is directed) the plaintiff, &c. whenever he thinks fit to try the issue, shall sue forth a new venire in this form: Quod de novo venire facias coram, &c. duodecim liberos et legales homines de vicineto [now of the body of the county, 24 G. 2. c. 18. s. 3. pl. 86.] de A. quorum quilibet habet decem libras terræ, tenementor' vel redditum per annum ad minus, per quos, &c. et qui nec, &c. and the residue in the usual way, which writ being returned and filed, a habeas corpora or distingas with a nisi prius shall issue thereupon (for which the ancient fees shall be taken, as in case of the pluries, habeas corpora, or distingas) upon which the plaintiff, &c. may proceed to trial as if no former venire had been filed, and so loties quoties; and if any defendant or tenant, in any action in such courts shall wish to bring to trial any issue, when by the course of the court he may do the same by proviso, such defendant, &c. shall, of the issuable term, next preceding such intended trial, sue out a new venire by proviso, and prosecute the same by habeas corpora or distingas, with a nisi prius, as though there had not been any former venire sued out or returned, and so loties quoties, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 32. s. 1.

61. Every venire facias and habeas corpora or distingas, with a nisi prius, sued out according to this act, and all trials and proceedings thereon shall be good and not erroneous or assignable for error, id. s. 2.

62. In every writ of habeas corpora or distingas with a nisi prius where a full jury shall not appear before the justices of assize or nisi prius, or else after appearance, when by challenge, the jury is like to remain untaken for default of jurors, the sheriff or minister who ought to return the talesmen shall on the award of the tales by such justice of assize, return freeholders or copyholders of the county where the cause is to be tried, and who are returned upon some other panel at the same assizes, and who are there attending to serve upon such tales and not others, if so many can be found, and either of the parties may challenge such jurors so annexed to such former panel, and such justices and judge of assize may proceed to trial with those before impanelled, and with such talesmen as they might if all such jurors returned on the venire awarded to try the issue had appeared, and such trial shall be good; and in case any freeholder or copyholder returned on such tales, and being present at such return, shall be called on, and shall not appear, or if after appearance he shall wilfully withdraw, such justice or judge may set a fine on such person, id. s. 3. [see ante, 35 H. 8. c. 6. s. 5—9. pl. 39.]

63. That sheriffs may be the better informed of persons to be returned for trials of issues joined in the courts of chancery, K.B., C.P., or exchequer, or to serve upon juries at assizes, sessions of oyer and terminer, general gaol delivery, and sessions of the peace; all constables, tithingmen, and headboroughs, shall yearly, at the quarter-sessions in the week after St. Michael, upon the first day of such sessions, or upon the first day that such sessions shall be held by adjournment at any particular division, return a list of the names and places of abode of all persons within the places for which they serve, qualified to serve upon such juries, with their additions, between the age of 21 and 70 years, to the justices of peace; which justices, or 2 of them, at such sessions, shall cause to be delivered a duplicate of such list, by the clerks of the peace to the sheriffs, on or before the first of Jan. following, and cause such lists to be entered in a book by the clerk of the peace, and kept amongst the records of the sessions; and no sheriff shall impanel any persons to try issues joined in such courts, or to serve in any jury at the assizes, sessions of oyer and terminer, gaol-delivery or sessions of the peace, that shall not be named in such list; and any constable, tithingman, or headborough, failing to make such return, shall forfeit 5*l.* to H. M., to be recovered by bill or information, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 32. s. 4.

64. The justices of peace for all counties within Eng. or Wa., shall yearly during the continuance of such act, at the quarter-sessions next after the 24th of June, issue their warrants to the head-constables of every hundred, lathe, or wapentake, requiring them to issue their precepts to the constables, tithingmen, and headboroughs, requiring them to meet together with such head-constables, within 14 days next after, at some usual place; where the constables, &c. shall prepare a list signed by them, of the names and places of abode of all the persons within the places for which they serve, qualified to serve on juries, according to 1 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. s. 15. pl. 35. with their additions, between the age of 21 and 70 years, as by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 32. is directed; which list the constable, &c. yearly at the quarter-sessions in the week after St. Michael, upon the first day of such sessions, or upon the first day that such sessions shall be held by adjournment at any particular place, shall return to the justices in open court; and any head-constable failing to issue his precept to meet with the constables, &c. shall forfeit 10*l.*, and any constable, &c. failing to meet the head-constable, and failing to prepare a list, and to return the same to such justices, shall forfeit 5*l.*; and every such high-constable, constable, and tithingman, so offending, shall be prosecuted at the assizes, sessions of oyer and terminer, or general gaol-delivery or sessions of the peace; and the justices of peace at the quarter-sessions, yearly, shall cause such several acts to be read in court, 3 & 4 A. c. 18. ss. 5, 6. [See 3 G. 2. c. 25. s. 7. post, pl. 86.]

65. Every summons of any person qualified to such services, shall be made by the sheriff, his officer or deputy, 6 days before, shewing to every person so summoned the warrant under the seal of the office; and in case any juror be absent from his habitation, notice of such summons shall be given, by leaving a note in writing under the hand of such officer, at the dwelling-house of such juror, with some person there inhabiting, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 32. s. 5.

66. That sheriff may not incur any penalty by summoning or returning any person, named in the book of jurors transmitted to them from the quarter sessions, for not being qualified to serve as jurors; such return to such justices shall be a good excuse and bar for such sheriff, for such summons and return; and if any action or information is brought for such return against such sheriff, he may plead the general issue, and give this act in evidence; and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinued, or if the defendant has a verdict, or a noli pros. be entered in any information, or a verdict pass for defendant thereon, the plaintiff or informer shall pay treble costs, to be awarded by the court, and levied by the usual process. And if the sheriff, his deputy, or bailiffs, shall summon any freeholder or copyholder, otherwise than as aforesaid, or neglect their duty in the services required by this act, or excuse any person for favour or reward, or allow any writ of non ponentis assise et juratis, or other writ, to excuse any person from the service of any jury, under the age of 70; such sheriff, &c. shall forfeit 20*l.* to be recovered by such party grieved, or whom else shall sue for the same, in any of the courts at Westminster, by action of debt, &c., or information, wherein no essoin, &c., and only one imparlance is allowed, 7 & 8 W.3. c.32. s.6.

67. No person shall be returned to serve upon any jury at the assizes or general gaol-delivery for the county of York, or at any sessions of the peace for any part thereof (the city of York and town of Kingston upon Hull excepted) above once in 4 years; and every sheriff of such county shall keep a register, wherein the names of all who have served as jurors, with their additions and places of abode, and the times and places of such their services shall be alphabetically entered, which registers shall be delivered over to the succeeding sheriff within 10 days after he shall be sworn into office; and every juror who shall serve at any such assizes, gaol-delivery, or sessions, may, at the end of such assize, &c. repair to the sheriff to have his name entered, of which he shall have a certificate, upon request, gratis, id. s.7. [See 3 & 4 A. c.18. s.4. pl. 77.]

68. The 7 & 8 W.3. c.32. s.7. shall extend not only to any sessions of the peace to be holden for any of the ridings within the county of York, but also to any sessions that shall be holden by adjournment for any part of such ridings, 10 A. c.14. s.5.

69. No person interested in such estate, as will qualify him to serve on juries, of the yearly value of 150*l.*, or of a greater value, shall be returned to serve on any jury at any sessions of the peace, for any part of the county of York, upon penalty of 20*l.*, to be forfeited by any sheriff or other officer making such return and summons, to be recovered for the use of any person that will sue in any court of record at Westminster, by action of debt, &c., or information or otherwise, wherein no essoin, &c., and only one imparlance allowed, 1 A. St 2. c.13. s.3.

70. If any person interested in such estate, as will qualify him to serve on juries, of the yearly value of 150*l.*, shall serve as a juror at any such sessions or adjournments, he shall not be thereby exempted from serving at the assizes for the county, for such term of 4 years, or any other term, 10 A. c.14. s.6.

71. Only one panel, consisting of 48 (each person having 80*l.* land per annum) shall be returned to serve on the grand inquest, and no more than 10 panels, consisting of 24 jurors each, shall be returned to serve upon trials in civil causes, at any assizes for the county of York (except where special juries are directed by rule of court) and at no one quarter-sessions of the peace for such county, or within any of the ridings within the same, or in any place where such sessions shall be holden by adjournment within such county, shall be returned above 40 persons, to serve either upon the grand inquest or other service there, 7 & 8 W.3. c.32. s.8.

72. The inhabitants of the city of Westminster shall be exempted from serving in any jury at the sessions of the peace for Middlesex, id. s.9.

73. This act, or 4 & 5 W.3. c.24. shall not give any longer time for the summoning of juries, to try any issues that are triable by jurors of London or Middlesex, than was required before; nor shall give any longer time for the return of any writ, precept or process of venire facias, habeas corpus, or distingas; but where there shall not be 6 days between the awarding of such writ and return thereof, every juror may be summoned, attached, or distrained, as he might have been before either such act, 7 & 8 W.3. c.32. s.11.

74. This act shall not extend to the city of London, nor to any county of any city or town, nor to any town corporate that have power by charter to hold sessions of gaol-delivery or sessions of the peace, id. s.12.

75. All justices of peace shall at their sessions next before the feast of St. Michael yearly, issue precepts to the constables, requiring them to make such return of persons to serve upon juries, as by 7 & 8 W.3. c.32. s.4. pl. 63. is directed, 8 & 9 W.3. c.10.

76. If any sheriff of the county of York shall, during the continuance of the act 7 & 8 W.3. c.32. s.4. pl. 63. neglect to keep such register, as in such act is directed, or shall neglect to enter the names of the jurors in any assizes or quarter sessions, as in such act is directed, or shall neglect, within 10 days after the succeeding sheriff shall be sworn into office, to deliver over as well the registers that shall be made in the year wherein he shall have served sheriff, as also all such other registers as were prepared in the sheriffwick of any of his predecessors within 4 years next before, and which were delivered over to him, or shall neglect to deliver such certificate gratis, as in such act is mentioned, he shall forfeit 100*l.* one moiety to H. M., and the other moiety to such person as shall sue for the same, in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, by action of debt, &c. or information wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, 3 & 4 A. c.18. s.3.

77. If any sheriff of the said county, his deputy or bailiff, during the continuance of the said act, shall knowingly summon or return any person to serve on any jury at the assizes or sessions of the peace, who shall within 4 years before such summons or return, have served on any jury at any assizes or sessions with such county, and shall not, upon producing of such certificate, discharge such summons or return, and thereof give notice to the party summoned, 6 days before such assizes or sessions of the peace; such sheriff, &c. shall forfeit to the party so summoned 20*l.* to be recovered as in s.3. mentioned, with costs, 3 & 4 A. c.18. s.4.

78. FOR THE BETTER REGULATION OF JURIES, 3 G.2. c.25. [AMD. 4 G.2. c.7. with acts are MADE PERP. and AMD. 6 G.2. c.37. ss.1,2,, 24 G.2. c.18. ss.1—4. See s.5. of this act, SITTINGS IN LONDON.]

79. The persons required by 7 & 8 W.3. c.32. s.4. pl. 63., and by 3 & 4 A. c.18. s.5. pl. 64. to give in, or who are by this act to make up lists of the names of persons qualified to serve on juries, shall (on request to any parish officer, who has in his custody any of the rates for the poor, or land tax,) inspect such rates, and take the names of such persons qualified to serve on juries, dwelling within their precincts; and shall yearly, 20 days before Michaelmas, upon 2 Sundays, fix upon the door of the church, within their precincts, a list of all such persons intended to be returned to the quarter sessions, as so qualified, and leave a duplicate of such list with a churchwarden or overseer of the poor; to be perused by the parishioners, without fee, to the end that notice may be given of qualified persons omitted, and of non-qualified persons inserted; and if any person not qualified shall find his name mentioned in such list, and the person required to make such list shall refuse to omit him, the justices at their quarter sessions, on satisfaction from the oath of the party complaining, or other proof, shall order his name to be struck out, 3 G.2. c.25. s.1.

80. If any person, required to give in or make up any such list, shall wilfully omit any person whose name ought to be inserted, or insert any who ought to be omitted, or shall take any reward for omitting or inserting any person, he shall, for every person so omitted or inserted, forfeit 20*l.* on conviction before one justice of the county, &c. where the offender shall dwell, on his confession, or proof thereof by one witness on oath; one half to the informer, the other to the poor of the parish, &c. for which the list is returned; and if the penalty is not paid within 5 days, it shall be levied by distress and sale of goods, by warrant from one justice; and the justices before whom such person is convicted shall certify the same to the next quarter sessions, which shall direct the clerk of the peace to insert or strike out the name improperly omitted or inserted; and duplicates of such lists, when delivered at the sessions and entered by the clerk of the peace, shall, during the sessions, or within 10 days after, be transmitted by the clerk of the peace to the sheriff; and the sheriff shall take care that the names be entered alphabetically, with their additions and places of abode; and every clerk of the peace neglecting his duty therein, shall forfeit 20*l.* to such person who shall prosecute for the same, till the party be convicted upon an indictment at the quarter sessions for the county, id. s.2.

81. If any sheriff or officer to whom the return of juries belongs, shall summon and return any persons to serve on any jury before the justices of assize, nisi prius, or judges of the great sessions in Wa., or of the sessions for the counties palatine, whose name is not inserted in the duplicates so transmitted to him by the clerk of the peace; or if any clerk of assize, judge's associate, or other officer, shall record the appearance of any person so summoned and returned, who did not really appear, then any judge of assize, nisi prius, &c. shall, upon examination in a summary way, set such fines upon such sheriff, &c. for every person so summoned and returned, and for every person whose appearance shall be so falsely recorded, as such judge shall think meet, not exceeding 10*l.* nor less than 40*l.*, id. s.3.

82. No persons shall be returned as jurors at any assizes or nisi prius, &c. who have served within one year before in the county of Rutland, or 4 years in the county of York, [see ante, pl. 69, 70], or within 2 years in any other county, not being a county of a city or town; and if any sheriff shall wilfully transgress therein, any judge of assize, &c. shall on examination and proof of such offence, in a summary way, set a fine upon such offender, not exceeding 5*l.*, id. s.4.

83. The 3 G. 2. c. 25. s. 4. shall not extend to Middlesex, (s. 1.) and no person shall be returned to serve as a juror at any session of nisi prius in Middlesex, who has been returned as a juror at nisi prius in such county, in the two terms or vacations next preceding, under such penalty on the sheriff, or other summoning or returning officer, as might have been inflicted for any offence against the 3 G. 2. c. 25. s. 4., 4 G. 2. c. 7. s. 1, 2. [See s. 5. as to leaseholders being jurors in Middlesex, pt. 101.]

84. Every sheriff, &c. shall register in a book the names of such persons as shall be summoned and serve as jurors at any assizes, &c. together with their additions and places of abode, alphabetically, and the times of their services: and every person so summoned and serving shall, upon application to the sheriff, &c. have a certificate testifying his attendance, which such sheriff, &c. shall give without fee; and such book shall be transmitted by the sheriff, &c. to his successor, 3 G. 2. c. 25. s. 5.

85. No sheriff or other person shall take any reward, to excuse any person from serving on juries; and no officer appointed to summon juries shall summon any person other than such whose name is specified in a mandate signed by the sheriff, &c.; and if any sheriff or officer shall wilfully transgress in such cases, any judge of assize, &c. may, on examination and proof of such offence, in a summary way, set a fine on any person so offending, not exceeding 10*l.*, id. s. 6.

86. It shall be sufficient for any constables, tithingmen or headboroughs, after they have completed the lists of persons qualified to serve as jurors for their precincts, according to 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 32. and 5 & 4 A. c. 18. and this act, to subscribe the same in the presence of one justice for each county, &c. and at the same time to attest the truth of such lists upon oath to the best of their knowledge or belief; and such lists shall (being first signed by such justices) be delivered by such constables, &c. to the high constables of hundreds, &c. who shall deliver in such lists to the quarter sessions, attesting upon oath the receipt of such lists from the constables, &c. and that no alteration hath been made since their receipt thereof, id. s. 7.

87. Every sheriff, &c. in Eng. shall upon the return of every venire facias (unless in causes intended to be tried at bar, or where a special jury shall be struck by rule of court) annex a panel to the writ, containing the names, additions and places of abode of a competent number of jurors named in such lists, the names of the same persons to be inserted in the panel annexed to every venire facias, for the trial of issues at the same assizes; which number of jurors shall not be less than 48, nor more than 72, without direction of the judges appointed to go the circuits and sit as judges at nisi prius or assizes, or one of them, who may, by order under their hands, direct a greater or lesser number, and such number so directed, shall be the number returned to serve on such jury; and the writs of habeas corpora or distringas, subsequent to such venire, need not have inserted in the bodies of such writs the names of all the persons contained in such panel; but it shall be sufficient to insert in such writs corpora separatim personarum in panello huc brevi annexo nominalium, or words of like import, and to annex to such writs panels, containing the names returned in the panel to the venire, with their additions and abodes; and for making such returns and panels and annexing the same, no other fees shall be taken than what are now allowed, and such persons named shall be summoned, but no other, id. s. 8.

88. Every sheriff or officer, to whom the return of juries in the court of great sessions in any county of Wa. shall belong, shall, at least 8 days before every great sessions, summon a competent number of persons qualified out of every hundred and commote within such county, so as such number be not less than 10, or more than 15, without the direction of the judge of the grand session, who may, by rule of court, direct a greater or lesser number to be summoned out of every hundred, &c.; and such officer shall return a list containing the names and additions, &c. of the persons so summoned, on the first court of the second day of every grand sessions; and the persons so summoned, or a competent number of them, as the judges shall direct, and no other, shall be named in every panel to be annexed to every venire, habeas corpora, and distringas, for the trial of causes in such grand sessions, id. s. 9.

89. Every sheriff or officer to whom the return of the writs for the trial of causes before the justices of the sessions for the counties palatine of Chester, Lancaster, or Durham doth belong, shall, 14 days at least before the sessions held, summon a competent number of persons qualified, so as such number be not less than 48, nor more than 72, without the direction of the judges; and shall, 8 days at least before such sessions, make a list of the persons so summoned, containing their names, additions, and places of abode; and such lists shall be hung up in the sheriff's office; and the persons named in such lists, and no others, shall be summoned to serve on juries at the next sessions; and such sheriff shall return such list on the first day of the sessions; and the persons so summoned, or a competent number of them, as the judges shall direct, and no other, shall be named in every panel to be annexed to every venire, habeas corpora, and distringas in such sessions, 3 G. 2. c. 25. s. 10.

90. The name of each person summoned and impanelled; with his addition and place of abode, shall be written in distinct pieces of parchment or paper of equal size, and shall be delivered to the marshal of such judge of assize or nisi prius, or of such great sessions, or of the sessions of such counties palatine, who is to try the causes in the county, by the under-sheriff, and shall, by the direction of the marshal, be rolled up all in the same manner, and put into a box or glass; and when a cause is brought to be tried, some indifferent person in open court shall draw out 12 of such papers: and if any of the persons drawn shall not appear, or are challenged and set aside, then a further number, till 12 be drawn who shall appear, and be allowed after challenge, &c.; and such 12 persons so first drawn and approved, their names being marked in the panel, and they being sworn, shall be the jury to try the cause; and the names of the persons sworn shall be kept apart in some other box, &c. till the jury have given in their verdict, and the same is recorded, or till the jury be discharged; and then the same names shall be rolled up again, and returned to the former box, &c. and so toties quoties, id. s. 11.

91. If a cause shall be brought on to be tried, before the jury in any other cause have brought in their verdict or are discharged, the court may order 12 of the residue to be drawn as before, for trial of such cause, id. s. 12.

92. Every person whose name shall be drawn, and who shall not appear, being called 3 times, on oath made that such person had been summoned, shall forfeit for every default (unless some reasonable cause of absence be proved by oath to the satisfaction of the judge) such fine, not exceeding 5*l.* nor less than 40*s.* as the judge shall think reasonable, id. s. 13.

93. Where a view shall be allowed, 6 of the jurors or more (who shall be consented to on both sides; or if they cannot agree shall be named by the proper officer of the courts of K. B., C. P., or the exchequer, at Westminster, or of such grand sessions of Wa. and the counties palatine, or, if need be, by a judge of the court where the cause is depending, or by the judge before whom the cause shall be brought on to trial, shall have the view, and shall be first sworn, or such of them as appear on the jury, before any drawing; and so many only shall be drawn to be added to the viewers as shall make up the number of 12, id. s. 14.

94. The courts of K. B., C. P., and exchequer at Westminster, upon motion made on behalf of H. M., or on the motion of any prosecutor or defendant on an indictment or information for any misdemeanor or information in the nature of a quo warranto in K. B., or in an information in the exchequer, or on motion of any plaintiff or defendant in any cause depending in such courts, shall order a jury to be struck before the proper officer for the trial of any issue, in such manner as special juries are usually struck in such courts upon trials at bar, id. s. 15.

95. The justices of the sessions or assizes for the counties palatine of Chester, Lancaster, and Durham, on motion made on behalf of H. M. or on motion of prosecutor or defendant, on any indictment or information for any misdemeanor, or on the motion of any plaintiff or defendant in any action or suit brought in the courts of session or assizes in such counties, may, if they see fit, order a jury to be struck before the proper officer, for the trial of any issue joined in any of such cases, as special juries have been usually struck in the courts at Westminster, on trials at bar, 6 G. 2. c. 37. s. 2.

96. The person who shall apply for such jury shall pay the fees for striking it, and shall have no allowance for the same on taxation of costs, 3 G. 2. c. 25. s. 16.

97. The party who shall by virtue of 3 G. 2. c. 26. s. 15. or 6 G. 2. c. 37. s. 2. apply for a special jury, shall not only pay the fees of striking such special jury, but shall also pay all the expences occasioned by such special jury, and shall not have a further allowance for the same upon taxation of costs, than such party would be entitled to in case such cause had been tried by a common jury, unless the judge who tried the cause shall, immediately after the trial, certify in court, under his hand, upon the back of the record that the cause was proper to be tried by a special jury, 24 G. 2. c. 18. s. 1.

98. No person who shall serve on any jury appointed under such acts, shall be allowed for so serving more than the sum the judge who tries the issue thinks reasonable, not exceeding 1*l.* 1*s.*, except where a view has been directed, id. s. 2.

99. Where a special jury shall be ordered by rule of court in any cause arising in any city or county of a city or town, the sheriff shall be ordered by such rule to bring the books of persons qualified to serve on juries within the same, in like manner as the freeholders' book hath been usually ordered to be brought in order to the striking of juries for trials at bar, in the counties at large, and the jury shall be struck out of such books, 3 G. 2. c. 25. s. 17.

100. Any person having an estate in possession in land in his own right of the yearly value of 20*l.* over and above the reserved rent, being held by lease for the absolute term of 500 years, or for 99 years, or any other term determinable on one or more lives; and the name of every such person shall be inserted in the lists, and in the freeholders' books; and such leaseholder may be summoned to serve on juries as freeholders may, with like penalties for non-appearance, 3 G. 2. c. 25. s. 18.

101. All leaseholders within Middlesex, on leases where the improved rent or value amounts to 50*l.* or upwards per ann. over all ground rents, or other reservations, payable under such leases, shall be liable to serve on juries, when legally summoned, 4 G. 2. c. 7. s. 5. (but see 8 E. 4. c. 3. ante, pl. 27.)

102. The sheriffs of London shall not return any person to try any issue joined in any of the courts of K. B., C. P., or exchequer, or to serve on a jury at the sessions of oyer and terminer, gaol delivery, or sessions of the peace to be held for such city, who shall not be a housekeeper within such city, and have lands, &c. or personal estate to the value of 100*l.*, and the same cause alleged by way of challenge, and found, shall be admitted as a principal challenge; and the person challenged may be examined on oath of the truth of such matter, 3 G. 2. c. 25. s. 19.

103. The sheriffs or other officers to whom the returning of juries belongs, shall not return any person to serve on a jury for the trial of any capital offence, who would not be qualified to serve as a juror in civil causes; and the same matter alleged by way of challenge shall be a principal challenge; and the person so challenged may be examined on oath of the truth of such matter, id. s. 20.

104. This act shall be read once in every year, at the quarter sessions to be held for every county or place within Eng. and W.a. next after the 24th June, id. s. 21.

105. In trials where a peer or lord of parliament is party, no challenge shall be taken to any panel of jurors for want of a knight being returned in such panel, nor any array quashed by reason of such challenge, 24 G. 2. c. 18. s. 4.

106. TO EMPOWER JUDGES OF COURTS OF RECORD in cities and towns corporate, liberties, and franchises, to set fines on persons who shall be summoned to serve upon juries in such court, and shall neglect to attend, 49 G. 2. c. 19.

107. Every person duly impanelled and summoned to serve upon any jury, for the trial of any cause to be tried in any court of record holden within London or in any other city, &c. (as in the title) within England, who shall not appear and serve on such jury (after being called 5 times, and on proof being made on oath that the person so making default was duly summoned) shall pay such fine, not exceeding 40*s.* nor less than 20*s.*, as the judge of the court deems reasonable, unless some just cause for such absence shall appear by oath or affidavit to the satisfaction of such judge, id. s. 1.

108. If any person on whom any fine is set under this act, shall refuse to pay the same to the person authorized by such judge to receive the same, such judge may, by warrant under hand and seal, cause such fine to be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the party fined; and the overplus, after deducting such fine, and the charges of distress and sale, shall be rendered to the party distrained on, id. s. 2.

109. Every fine imposed under this act, when levied, shall be paid by the person who received the same, to the proper officer of the city, &c. in which the court was holden wherein the fine was imposed, to be applied to such uses as issues set on jurors, or other fines set in such court are by charter, prescription, or usage applied, id. s. 3.

110. Actions for any thing done in pursuance of this act shall be commenced within 6 calendar months after the matter complained of arose, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the defendant has a verdict, or the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues, or has judgment against him on demurrer the defendants shall recover double costs with the usual remedy to recover same, id. s. 4.

111. TO REGULATE THE ATTENDANCE OF JURORS AT THE ASSIZES in certain cases, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 46.

112. In any county wherein the judge or justices of assize in Eng., or of great sessions in W.a., or of courts of sessions held for the counties palatine, shall so direct, the sheriff or other officer to whom the return of venire, or other process for trial of causes at nisi prius belongs, shall summon and impanel not more than 144, or such lesser number of jurors, as the judge, &c. shall direct, to serve indiscriminately on the criminal and civil side, and shall divide them equally into 2 sets, the first of which shall attend and serve for so many days at the beginning of each assizes as such judge, &c. shall, before or at commencement of such assizes, respectively direct, and the other for the residue of the assizes, id. s. 1.

113. Such returning officer shall, in the summons to the persons in each set, require their attendance generally as at present, but on the back of each summons shall indorse whether the person named therein is in the 1st or 2d set, specifying at what time his attendance will be required, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 46. s. 2.

114. Every such attendance and service shall entitle jurors to the like certificates and exemptions as for attendance, &c. during the whole assizes, id. s. 5.

115. The returning officer, as in s. 1., shall, on his return of all such process, as in s. 1., annex thereto a panel containing the christian and surnames, additions, and abodes of the persons in each set; and during the attendance, &c. of the first of such sets, the jury on the civil side shall be drawn from the names in that set, and during the attendance of the 2d, from the 2d, id. s. 4.

JUSTICES OF ASSIZE, &c.

[NOTE. This title comprehends the statute law relating to Justices of assize, gaol delivery, oyer and terminer, and nisi prius; and of the peace so far only as the latter commission is annexed to those above recited, in order to give judges their necessary power on the circuits. For the general law of Justices of Peace, see that title: and see titles Sittings in London and Middlesex, and JUDGES.]

1. ASSIZES OF novel disseisin and mort d'ancestor shall not be taken but in their proper shires, and after this manner: 'We, or if we be out of the realm, our chief justices, shall send our justices through every county once in the year, who, with the knights of the shires, [but see 20 R. 2. c. 3., infra, pl. 49.] shall take such assizes in the counties, and those things which, at their coming into the county, cannot be determined, shall be determined in another place in their circuit, and those things which for difficulty cannot be determined, shall be referred to our justices of the bench, and there determined,' 9 H. 3. M. C. c. 15. [This statute is also placed tit. ACTION REAL, pl. 49.: but is repeated here as the first enactment relating to justices of assize.]

2. TO WHOM AND IN WHAT CASES commissions of oyer and terminer shall be granted, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 29.

3. The writ of trespass ad audiendum et determinandum shall not be granted before any justices, except those of K. B. and C. P., and in eyre [or errants, 2 E. 3. c. 2.], and only for a great [ugly and horrible, 2 E. 3. c. 2.] trespass, where speedy remedy is necessary; neither shall a writ to hear and determine appeals be granted before justices assigned, unless in a special case, and when H. M. commandeth, but the indictors shall have a writ of Odio et Atia as in M. C. (c. 26., HOMICIDE, pl. 2—3.) 13 E. 1. s. 2. c. 29. 2 E. 3. c. 2. [This writ seems taken away, 28 E. 3. c. 9., but QU. if not REV. since the repeal of all statutes contrary to M. C. by 42 E. 3. c. 1. See 2 Inst. 43. 5. j. 316.]

4. THE APPOINTMENT and authority of justices of nisi prius, 13 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 30.

5. Two justices sworn shall be assigned, before whom assizes of novel disseisin, mort d'ancestor, and attaint, shall be taken, who shall associate to them one or two knights of the shire, and shall take the assizes and attaints but thrice in the year, first between the quintaine of St. John the Baptist, and the gule of August, the second time between the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross and the Utas of St. Michael, and the 3d time between the Epiphany and Purification of the Blessed Mary; and in every shire, at every taking of assizes before their departure, shall appoint the day of their return, and shall adjourn the assizes from term to term, if the taking of them be deferred, at any day vouching to warranty, esoin, or default of jurors: and if they see fit that the assizes of mort d'ancestor being respited by esoin or voucher, ought to be adjourned into the bench, they may do so, and shall then send the record, with the original writ, before the justices of the bench, who, when the matter is come to taking the assize, shall remit the matter to the former justices before whom the assize shall be taken, but giving in such assizes 4 days in the year before such justices assigned. Inquisitions of trespass shall be determined before the justices of both benches, except the trespass is so heinous as to require great examination: inquisitions also of other pleas pleaded in either of the benches, shall be determined before them, wherein small examination is required, as when the seisin or entry of any is denied, or when one article is to be inquired; but inquisitions of many and great articles, which require great examination, shall be taken before justices of the benches, except both parties desire the inquisition may be taken before some of the associates when they come into those parts, so that it shall not be done but by 2 justices, or one with some knight of the county on whom the parties can agree: and such inquisitions shall not be determined by any justices of C. P., unless a day and place certain be mentioned in a writ judicial, by these words, "Præcipimus tibi quod venire facias coram justiciariis nostris apud Westmonasterium in octabis sancti Michaelis nisi talis et talis tali die et loco ad partes illas venerint duodecim." &c. id. s. 1.

6. Such inquests, when taken, shall be returned into the benches where judgment shall be given, and shall be enrolled, and inquisitions otherwise taken shall be of no effect, except that an assize of darrein presentment and inquests of quare impedit shall be determined in their own shire before one justice of C.P. and one knight, yet at a day and place certain assigned in bank, whether defendant consent or not, and there judgment shall be immediately given, 15 E.1. West. Sec. c.30. s.2.

7. All justices of the benches shall henceforth have in their circuits clerks to enrol all pleas pleaded before them, as used in time past, and justices of assize shall not compel the jurors to say precisely whether it is disseisin or not, so that they shew the truth of the fact and require aid of the justices, but if they will say that it is disseisin, their verdict shall be admitted at their peril, and the justices shall not put in assizes or juries, any other than those who were summoned thereto at first, id. s.3.

8. APPOINTMENT OF JUSTICES OF GAOL DELIVERY AND THEIR power, 27 E.1. St. 1. c.3.

9. The justices assigned to take assizes, in every county where they do take them, shall remain there after the assizes taken both together, if they be lay, and if one is a clerk, then one of the most discreet knights of the shire, being associate to the lay man by our writ, they shall deliver the gaols in such shires, as well within liberties as without, of all manner of prisoners after the usual form of gaol delivery of the shires, and shall then enquire what sheriffs and others have let out by replevin prisoners not relevisable, or have offended in any thing contrary to 3 E.1. c.18. for regulating the taking bail, id. ibid.

10. BEFORE WHAT PERSONS AND HOW NISI PRIUS SHALL BE granted, 27 E.1. St. 1. c.4. [Virtually Amended and Expld. 12 E.2. St. 1. cc.3, 4., 2 E.3. c.16.] and 14 E.3. St. 1. c.16.

11. THOSE INQUESTS AND JURIES SHALL BE TAKEN AT nisi prius, 12 E.2. St. 1. cc.3, 4. Statute of York.

12. NISI PRIUS MAY BE GRANTED AS WELL AT SUIT OF TENANT AS defendant, 2 E.3. c.16.

13. INQUESTS AND RECOGNIZANCES DETERMINABLE BEFORE THE justices of either bench, shall be taken in vacation before any one of the justices before whom the plea is brought, [or before any judge of K.B. (C.P. or exchequer, 14 E.3. St. 1. c.16.)] [or before the justices assigned to take assizes in those parts, 14 E.3. St. 1. c.16. infra, pl. 17.] there being associate to him one knight of the same shire where such inquests shall pass, unless it be an inquest that requires great examination, in taking such inquests, the justices shall do as to them seems expedient, 13 E.1. West. Sec. c.30. supra, pl. 5—7. notwithstanding; 27 E.1. St. 1. c.4.

14. "Since 27 E.1. St. 1. c.4. needs to be better declared," It is AGREED, that inquests and juries taken in pleas of lands that do not require great examination shall be taken in the county before one justice of the court where the plea is, [or before the justices assigned to take assizes in those parts, 14 E.3. St. 1. c.16. infra, pl. 17.] there being associate unto him one good man of the country, knight, or other, so that a certain day be given in the bench, and a certain day and place in the country in presence of the parties, if the demandant request it, and inquests and juries in pleas of land that require great examination, shall be taken in the country in the above manner before 2 justices of the bench, 12 E.2. St. 1. c.3.

15. AND THE JUSTICES MAY RECORD NONSUITS AND DEFAULTS IN the country at the days and places so assigned, and shall report what is done at a day given in the bench, there to be enrolled, and thereupon judgment shall be given; such inquest and juries may be taken in the bench if they come, and this act does not extend to great assizes, and one justice of either bench, there being associate to him one good man of the country, knight, or other, at request of the plaintiff, shall take inquests on pleas pleaded and to be pleaded, that be moved by attachment and distress, and may record nonsuits as above, and take inquests on defaults made there, and as to assizes of darrein presentment, and inquests on writs of quare impedit to be taken, it shall be done as in Stat. 13 E.1. c.30. West. Sec. contained; and the justice may record nonsuits and defaults in the country, and give judgment thereon as in bench, and report what he has done to the bench, there to be enrolled; and if the justices assigned to take such inquests in the country, do not come into the country, or come not at the day assigned, yet the parties on such inquests shall keep their day in the bench, id. c.4.

16. INQUESTS TO BE TAKEN IN THE COUNTRY UNDER 12 E.2. St. 1. cc.3, 4. in plea of land, shall be taken as well at the request of the tenant as the demandant, other process according to that statute being saved, 2 E.3. c.16.

17. WHOSO DEMANDETH THE NISI PRIUS IN K.B., as well at suit of defendant as of plaintiff according to 2 E.3. c.16., the nisi prius shall be granted before any justice of the court where the plea is, if any of such court go into those parts, and if not, then before any justice of C.B. at a certain day, which may be accorded, and the tenor of the record sent to him under seal of the chief justice of the court, at which day he shall take the inquest and return the verdict under his seal with the writ, the tenor, and the panel, which shall be received in K.B., and there enrolled, and judgment given according to the verdict, and such justice of K.B. shall record defaults and nonsuits, as if the nisi prius had been granted before any justice of K.B., and after which defaults so recorded and returned in K.B., the justices shall give judgment on the same record, and in like manner shall it be done with pleas in C.P., whereof the inquests and juries shall be taken in the country by nisi prius; and if no justice of C.P. goes, the nisi prius shall be granted before any justice of K.B. to do as above said of the justices of C.P., and the tenor of the record shall be sent to him, and he shall have the like power as the justice of C.P. assigned to take inquest and juries of K.B.; and if none of the justices of either bench come into the county where inquests or juries are to be taken, then the nisi prius shall be before the chief baron of the exchequer, who shall have like power as such justices have by this act; and if none of them, then the nisi prius shall be before the justices assigned to take the assizes there, so always one of such justices be a justice of either bench, or a king's serjeant sworn, they having such power as aforesaid of the justices of either bench; and if the tenour of the record is demanded by one party to deliver to the justice before whom the nisi prius is granted to prevent fraud or damage to the other party, or to the people of the inquests, another shall be delivered to the other party if he require it; and the justices of both benches, the chief baron, and the justices assigned before whom the nisi prius is hereby granted, shall have power to give the judgments in the county and return the same according, as in 12 E.2. St. 1. cc.3, 4. contained, 14 E.3. St. 1. c.16.

18. ARTICLES AND OATHS OF H.M.'s MINISTERS IN THE EYRE of the justices, Stat. Incert. Temp. xiii.

19. THE STATUTE CALLED [RAGEMAN] REGULATION OF JUSTICES of assize; id. xiv.

20. EIGHT JUSTICES SHALL BE ASSIGNED TO TAKE ASSIZES, juries, and certificates, through the realm; viz. 2 in the counties of York, Northumberland, Westmoreland, Cumberland, Lancaster, Nottingham, and Derby; 2 in those of Lincoln, Leicester, Warwick, Stafford, Salop, Northampton, Rutland, Gloucester, Hereford, and Wigorn; 2 in those of Cornwall, Devon, Somerset, Dorset, Wilts, Southampton, Oxon, Berks, Sussex, and Surrey; 2 in Kent, Essex, Suffolk, Norfolk, Cambridge, Huntingdon, Bedford, and Buckingham, and the assizes, juries, and inquests of Middlesex, shall be taken before the justices of the bench, [seem. disregarded in practice.] which said 8 justices assigned to take the assizes and certificates, shall specially attend, and daily through the year, viz. in the places where they think best and most to the advantage of the people, and writs of assizes, juries, or recognizances, shall be granted to be taken before any other justices than those assigned, except of H.M.'s special grace, Stat. de Justiciariis Assignatis, Stat. Incert. Temp. xy.

21. APPOINTMENT OF JUSTICES OF ASSIZE, GAOL-DELIVERY and oyer and terminer, 2 E.3. c.2.

22. The courts mentioned in 27 E.1. St. 1. c.3. shall not be granted against that statute, and assizes, attainds and certifications shall be taken before justices commonly assigned [not procured by great men], but good men and lawful, having knowledge of the law, and none other, after the form of 13 E.1. West. 2. c.29., 2 E.3. c.2. s.2. [and see 13 E.1. West. 2. c.30. and Stat. Incert. Temp. xiv. xv.]

23. THE AUTHORITY OF JUSTICES OF ASSIZE and gaol-delivery, 4 E.3. c.2. [see rest of tit. and s.2. JUSTICES OF PEACE, pl. 4—5.]

24. Good and discreet persons shall be assigned in all the shires of Eng. to take the assizes, juries and certifications, and to deliver the gaols at least 3 times a-year, or oftener if need be, 4 E.2. c.2. s.1.

25. Justices assigned to deliver gaols shall deliver them of those indicted before the keepers of the peace, which keepers shall send their indictments before such justices, who may enquire of sheriffs, gaolers, and other in whose ward such indicted persons shall be, if they make deliverance or let to mainprize any so indicted and not mainpernable, to punish such sheriffs, &c. if they do contrary hereto, id. s.3.

26. THE OATH OF THE JUSTICES, 12 E.3. St. 4.

'Ye shall swear, that well and lawfully ye shall serve our lord the king and his people in the office of justice, and that lawfully ye shall counsel H. M. in his business, and that ye shall not counsel nor assent to any thing which may turn him in damage or disherison by any manner, way or colour; and that ye shall not know the damage or disherison of him, whereof ye shall not cause him to be warned by yourself or by other; [and that ye shall do equal law and execution of right to all his subjects, rich and poor, without having regard to any person; and that ye take not by yourself or by other, privily nor openly, gift nor reward of gold nor silver, nor of any other thing which may turn to your profit, unless it be meat or drink, and that of small value, of any man that shall have any plea or process hanging before you, as long as the same process shall so be hanging, nor after, for the same cause; and that ye take no fee as long as ye shall be justice, nor robes of any man great or small, but of the king himself; and that ye give none advice nor counsel to any man, great nor small, in no case where the king is party.] [These words in brackets omitted, 20 E.3. c.1.] And in case that any of what estate or condition they be come before you in your sessions with force and arms, or otherwise against the peace, or against the form of the statute thereof made, to disturb execution of the common law, or to menace the people, that they may not pursue the law, that ye shall cause their bodies to be arrested and put in prison; and in case they be such that ye cannot arrest them, that ye certify the king of their names, and of their misprison hastily, so that he may thereof send in a covenable remedy, and that ye by yourself, nor by other, actively nor passively, maintain any plea or quarrel hanging in the king's court or elsewhere in the country; and that ye deny to no man common right, by the king's letters, nor none other man's, nor for none other cause; and in case any letters come to you contrary to the law, that ye do nothing by such letters, but certify the king thereof, and proceed to execute the law notwithstanding the same letters; and that ye shall do and procure the profit of the king and of his crown, with all things where ye may reasonably do the same; and in case ye be from henceforth found in default in any of the points aforesaid, ye shall be at the king's will of body, lands and goods, thereof to be done as shall please him; as God you help and all salute, 18 E. 3. s. 4.

27. DUTY OF JUSTICES OF BOTH BENCHES and of assize, &c. 20 E. 3. c. 1. and of barons of exchequer, id. c. 2. [Both AMD. virtually, 8 R. 2. c. 3. which was Sust. by 9 R. 2. c. 1. till declared by parliament.]

28. All our justices [including barons of exchequer, see 20 E. 3. c. 2., 8 R. 2. c. 3.] shall henceforth do equal law and execution of right to all subjects without regard to any person, and without omitting to do right for any letters or command from H. M. or other, or by any other cause; and if any such letter, &c. come to them, or to others deputed to do law and right in disturbance of the law, they shall proceed as if none such had come, and shall certify H. M. and council of such commands contrary to law, 20 E. 3. c. 1.

29. THE BARONS OF EXCHEQUER SHALL DO RIGHT AND REASON to all subjects, and shall deliver the people reasonably and without delay as in times past, 20 E. 3. c. 2.

30. [After recital that H. M. has caused his justices to be sworn in the words in brackets in the justices' oath, ante, pl. 26.] On pain to be at our will of body, lands and goods if they do contrary, and for this cause we have increased their fees so as reasonably to suffice them, id. s. 2.

31. NO JUSTICE OF K. B., C. B., OR BARON OF EXCHEQUER, shall, during their office, take by self, or other, robe, fee or reward of any but H. M., or allowance of any, except of meat and drink which are of no great value, and shall not give council to any, great or small, in affairs wherein H. M. is party or affected, and shall not be of any man's counsel in any plea or quarrel pending before them, or in any other of H. M.'s great courts or places, on pain of loss of office and making fine and ransom to H. M., 8 R. 2. c. 3.

32. JUSTICES OF oyer and terminer, and their associates, and also of assizes, to be taken in the country and of gaol delivery, and those assigned and associated to them shall first make oath in certain points as enjoined by our council in our chancery before any commission be to them delivered, 20 E. 3. c. 3.

33. THE JUSTICES ASSIGNED TO TAKE ASSIZES shall have commissions to enquire in their sessions, and shall enquire of sheriffs, escheators, bailiffs of franchises, and their under ministers, and also of maintainors, common embracers and jurors in the country, and of the gifts and other profits which the said ministers take of the people to execute their office, and for making the array of panels putting in the same jurors suspect and of evil fame, and of that the said maintainors, &c. take gifts of the parties in subversion of law and disturbance of common right, and to punish all them who are found guilty thereof as law and justice require, as well at suit of H. M. as of the parties, and the chancellor and treasurer shall hear the complaints of all who will complain and ordain speedy remedy, 20 E. 3. c. 6.

34. THE JUSTICES ASSIGNED TO TAKE ASSIZES and deliver gaols, shall hold their sessions in the principal towns of every county, viz. where the shire courts are holden, 6 R. 2. St. 1. c. 5. [AMD. 11 R. 2. c. 11. as to Cumberland, by 14 H. 6. c. 3.; as to Cornwall, by 1 G. 1. c. 45.; as to Bucks., by 21 G. 2. c. 12.]

35. [Because 6 R. 2. St. 1. c. 5. is grievous to the people], the chancellor shall provide remedy by advice of the justices when need requires, 11 R. 2. c. 11.

36. THE ASSIZES FOR CUMBERLAND shall be holden in the city of Carlisle only, 14 H. 6. c. 3.

37. THE HOLDING THE ASSIZES FOR Cornwall shall not be confined to Launceston, but the lord chancellor with advice of the justices of assize, may appoint a convenient place in that county for holding and executing all commissions of assize, nisi prius, oyer and terminer and gaol-delivery for that as for any other county, 1 G. 1. c. 45.

38. ALL THE COMMISSIONS ENUMERATED IN THE LAST placitum appointed to be held and executed for Bucks. next after Trinity term, shall be held, &c. for each year in the town of Buckingham, 21 G. 2. c. 12. s. 1.

39. But if that town is unfit for holding assizes, by accident of fire, contagious distemper or other unforeseen exigency, to be made appear before the lord chancellor, he, with advice of the justices of assize, during continuance of such exigency, and at no other time, may appoint another convenient place in the county for holding their assizes, &c. 21 G. 2. c. 12. s. 1.

40. IN PLACES WHERE A nisi prius is holden of course after the great distress & times served and returned before the justices against the jurors and the justices demanded, if none of them will pursue, or if they refuse to have the writ of nisi prius, then such writ shall be granted at suit of any of the jurors present, and that as well in the exchequer as elsewhere, 7 R. 2. c. 7.

41. [NO MAN OF LAW SHALL BE JUSTICE OF ASSIZE, or of deliverance of gaols in his own county, formbe REP. 12 G. 2. c. 27. pl. 27. and 49 G. 3. c. 91. same pl. and the chief justice of C. P. shall be assigned to take such assizes and deliver gaols, but as to the chief justice of R. B. it shall be done as for 100 years last past was usual, 8 R. 2. c. 2. [CON. and AMD. 15 H. 4. c. 2.: as to justices of assize only, 33 H. 8. c. 24. In part REP. 12 G. 2. c. 27. 49 G. 3. c. 91.]

42. NO CHIEF JUSTICE OF K. B. SHALL BE ANY WAYS HEREAFTER made a justice of assize in any county within Eng. except that of Lancaster, 15 H. 4. c. 2.

43. NO MAN OF LAW SHALL BE JUSTICE OF ASSIZE in the county where he was born or dwells, on pain to forfeit 100*l.*, 33 H. 8. c. 24. ss. 1, 2. [Sens. REP. 12 G. 2. c. 27. and 49 G. 3. c. 91.] but this act shall not touch any persons who may be clerks of assize, and associate to any justice of assize of any county, city, or town in Eng. wherever such persons do dwell, or were born; but they may execute their offices notwithstanding, 33 H. 8. c. 24. s. 3., nor shall it extend to any mayors, sheriffs, recorders, stewards, bailiffs, sewters, or other officers being born or dwelling within any city, borough, or town, but that they may be justices of assize of fresh force, or of other assizes in the same city, &c., 33 H. 8. c. 24. s. 4.

44. This act shall not prejudice any justice of either bench for taking assizes in such courts, nor any justice taking them by adjournment, id. s. 5.

45. But no clerk of assize during the session of assize, or nisi prius shall be of counsel with any person within any circuit of which he is clerk of assize, on pain to forfeit 10*l.*, to go in moieties to H. M. and party grieved, to be sued in any H. M.'s courts, by action of debt, &c. or information wherein no essoin, &c. or dilatory plea shall be allowed, id. s. 6.

46. Nor shall this act extend to the justices, justice clerks, or clerk of assizes within the duchy and county palatine of Lancaster, who may execute their offices there as before this act, id. s. 7.

47. Every judge of K. B., and C. P., and every baron of exchequer, and other person learned in the law, who shall be appointed justice of oyer and terminer, or gaol delivery, [or of assize, 49 G. 3. c. 91.] in any county within Eng. may exercise such office [or act under any commission of nisi prius, 49 G. 3. c. 91.] in any such county notwithstanding they have been born or dwell there, without being liable to the penalty of 100*l.*, or any other penalty, 12 G. 2. c. 27., 49 G. 3. c. 91.

48. IN EVERY COMMISSION OF THE PEACE TWO MEN OF LAW in the same county where it is made, shall be assigned to go and proceed to the deliverance of thieves and felons, as often as they think it expedient, 17 R. 2. c. 10.

49. NO LORD OR OTHER OF THE COUNTY SHALL SIT ON THE bench with the justices to take assizes in their sessions, on pain of fine to H. M. and the justices shall not suffer it, 20 R. 2. c. 3.

50. THE JUSTICES OF nisi prius TAKING INQUESTS according to 13 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 30. ante, pl. 6., shall have power in cases of felony and treason to give judgment, as well where a man is acquit, as where he is thereof attainted, at the day and place where the inquests, &c. were taken, and to award execution, 14 H. 6. c. 1.

51. FOR REGULATING THE COMMISSIONS AND SALARIES OF THE judges, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 2. s. 3. in part.

52. After the limitation of the crown in this act mentioned, [see KING, &c.] shall take effect, the judges, commissions shall be made Quamdiu se bene gesserint, and their salaries ascertained and established; but on the address of both houses of parliament, they may be removed, id. ibid. [AMD. 1 G. 3. c. 23.]

53. The commission, &c. of the judges shall continue in force during their good behaviour, notwithstanding the demise of the crown, 1 G. 3. c. 23. s. 1.; provided H. M. may remove any judges, on address of both houses of parliament, 1 G. 3. c. 23. s. 2.

54. The salaries settled on the judges shall be paid during continuance of their patents or commissions, id. s. 5., and each of them as shall become payable out of any annual sum granted for support of H. M.'s household, and the honour of the crown, shall after the demise of H. M. be charged upon and payable out of the civil list revenues then subsisting; all some further provisions be made, and shall then be payable out of the money applicable to such uses, id. s. 4. [The chancellor, judges, and speaker of house of commons shall be paid from the 2d class in the civil list as settled by 1 G. 4. c. 1. St. KING, &c., pl. 141.]

55. To empower the justices of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery of Worcester, in the county of Middlesex, to continue to hold a session of gaol-delivery for Worcester, begun to be holden before the usual day of term, and the sitting of the K. B. at Westminster, not withstanding the happening of the sitting of such court at Westminster, or elsewhere in Midd., as 23 G. 2. c. 13. Penit. clause 18. [see similar act for the session of the peace, 23 G. 2. c. 13. QUARTER SESSIONS.]

56. When any session of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery of Newgate for Midd. has been begun to be holden before the assize day of any term, the same session may be continued and the business thereof concluded, notwithstanding the happening of such assize day of the sitting of the court of K. B. at Westminster, or elsewhere in Midd. and all trials, judgments, proceedings, acts, and things, and all proceedings, &c. in pursuance of such judgments, had, made, or done at such sessions so continued, shall be valid, 23 G. 2. c. 13.

57. WHENEVER THE COURTS OF ASSIZE vis prius, oyer and terminer or gaol delivery for any county at large in Eng. are held in or near any city or town that is also a county of itself, and at the same time with the like courts of such city or town, the lodgings of the judges shall be construed to be situate within the county at large, and also within such city or town for the purposes of this act, and for transacting the business of the assizes for such county at large, and for the county of such city or town during the time that such judges continue therein, for execution of their several commissions, 19 G. 2. c. 74. s. 70. [MADE PERP. 39 G. 2. c. 46.]

58. FOR GIVING CERTAIN POWERS TO JUSTICES OF ASSIZE, 1 G. 4. c. 53. ss. 5. 6. [see rest of title and ss. 1—2. SITTINGS IN London and Midd. ss. 3. 4. Courts (King's Bench), pl. 2—3. s. 4. is also in OATHS.]

59. The judges of K. B. and C. P. and the barons of exchequer at Westminster, and the justices of Chester, each and every or any one of them during their respective circuits for taking assizes, may grant such summonses, and make such orders in all actions and prosecutions pending in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, in which the issue if brought to trial, would be to be tried upon such their respective circuits, as if such judges, barons, and justices were respectively judges of the court in which such actions, &c. are pending, and such summonses and orders shall be in full force accordingly, id. s. 5.

60. For the purposes of this act, the counties palatine shall be taken to be counties on the circuits of the respective justices of K. B., C. P., and barons of exchequer at Westminster, and justices of Chester, id. s. 6.

JUSTICES OF PEACE. (See QUARTER SESSIONS.)

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

14. Justices of peace shall be made of the most sufficient persons dwelling in same counties, by the advice of the chancellor and of H. M.'s council, without taking other persons dwelling in foreign counties, (except lords and the justices of assizes,) to be named by H. M. and his council; and except also H. M.'s chief stewards of the duchy of Lancaster, id. ibid.

15. Suits and processes before justices of peace, shall not be discontinued by new commissions of the peace, but the justices in the new commissions shall have power to continue such pleas and processes; and finally to hear and determine the same, 11 H. 6. c. 6., [see commission of a justice not to be discontinued by preferment to a dignity or title, 1 E. 6. c. 7. s. 6., DISCONTINUANCE, pl. 7.]

16. FOR INQUIRY OF INQUESTS CONCEALED, AND FOR certificate of recognizances taken before justices of peace to be made to the sessions, 3 H. 7. c. 2. ss. 1—6. [This title is framed from these sections, see s. 1. STAR CHAMBER, and ss. 3—5. CORONER.]

17. The justices of peace of every shire may take an inquest, whereof every man shall have lands to the yearly value of 40s., to enquire of concealments of other inquests taken afore them, or other of such matter and offences as are to be enquired of and presented before justices of peace, whereof complaint is made by bill, as well within franchise as without; and if any such concealment is found within the year after the same concealment, every person of such inquest shall be amerced, by the discretion of the justices in full sessions, id. s. 2.

18. Every justice taking recognizance for keeping the peace, shall certify the same at the next sessions, that the party bound may be called, and in case of his default, the same shall be recorded, and the recognizance and record of default certified into chancery, K. B. or exchequer, id. s. 6.

19. FOR THE JUSTICES OF PEACE FOR THE DUE EXECUTION of their commissions, 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 12.

20. Every justice of peace shall cause to be proclaimed yearly, in 4 principal sessions, the tenor of this proclamation; and every justice of peace present at any such sessions, if they cause not such proclamations to be made, shall forfeit to H. M. 20s. id. s. 1.

21. H. M. commandeth the justices of peace of each shire to endeavour to execute the tenor of their commission, and that every man that let them to execute their authority, that they shew it to H. M.; and if they do it not, and it come to his knowledge by other, they shall be taken as men out of credence, and be put out of commission for ever; and over this he commandeth all men grieved in any thing that the justice of peace may determine, that they make complaint to the justice of peace; and if they have no remedy, if it be nigh such time as the justices of assizes come into that shire, they shall show the complaint to such justices; and if then they have no remedy, they shall come to H. M. or to his chancellor; and his highness shall send for such justices, to know the cause why his subjects be not eased, and his laws executed; whereupon, if he find any of them in default, he shall be put out of the commission, and punished according to his demerits; and his highness shall not let for any cause, but that he shall see his laws to have true execution, and his subjects to live in surety, 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 12. s. 2.

22. THE QUALIFICATION FOR A JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, 18 H. 6. c. 11.

23. None shall be appointed a justice of peace, unless he have 20*l.* a-year in lands (s. 1.); penalty on unqualified persons acting as justices, 20*l.*; exception as to corporations (s. 3.), id. ss. 42, 43. [see further 5 G. 2. c. 18., post, pl. 28.]

24. TO EMPOWER JUSTICES OF PEACE TO COMMIT CERTAIN OFFENDERS either to the house of correction or the county-gaol, 6 G. 1. c. 19. s. 2. (this title is framed from that section.) [AMD. 27 G. 3. c. 11. Justices of liberties empowered in certain cases to commit offenders to the county house of correction, 15 G. 2. c. 24., and further powers given in case of offenders for whom no limited punishment is assigned by law, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 52.]

25. Any justice of peace, within his jurisdiction, may commit either to the common-gaol, or to the house of correction, as he sees fit, such vagrants and other criminal offenders, and persons charged with for convicted of, 27 G. 3. c. 11.] small offences (for want of sureties, 6 G. 1. c. 19. s. 2.), as by any law [now in force, or hereafter to be made, 27 G. 3. c. 11.], he is authorized to commit to the county-gaol, 6 G. 1. c. 19. s. 2., 27 G. 3. c. 11.

26. Where any person, liable to be committed to the house of correction, is apprehended within any liberty, city, or town corporate, whose inhabitants are contributing to support of the house of correction of the county, riding, or division, in which such liberty, &c. is, the justices for such liberty, &c. may commit such person to the house of correction of such county, &c., which person so committed, shall be dealt with and be subject to the same correction as if committed by any justice of the same county, &c., 15 G. 2. c. 24.

27. Where any offender is committed to the house of correction by any justice of peace, for offences cognizable before him, out of general or quarter sessions, and the time and manner of punishment is not expressly limited, such justice shall commit such offender to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour until the next general or quarter sessions, or till discharged by due course of law, and 2 justices, one of whom shall be the justice who committed such offender, may discharge him before such sessions, if they see cause, and if not so discharged, such sessions may either discharge him, or continue him in custody for such time as they see fit, not exceeding 3 months, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 52. [see the rest of this act, viz. ss. 1—29. 33—34., VAGRANT: ss. 30—31. PRISON and PRISONER, pl. 105—106.]

28. FOR THE FURTHER QUALIFICATIONS OF JUSTICES OF THE PEACE, 5 G. 2. c. 18. [AMD. 7 G. 2. c. 10. s. 3., 19 G. 2. c. 20.; and as to the oath to be taken by justices, 1 G. 3. c. 13. (which is also AMD., 7 G. 3. c. 9.) see 18 H. 6. c. 11. pl. 22—23.]

29. No person shall be capable of being a justice of peace, or of acting as such for any county, [riding, or division, 18 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1.] in Eng. or Wa. who has not, either at law or in equity, to his own use in possession, a freehold or copyhold for customary, 18 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1.] estate, for life, or for some greater estate, or an estate for [some long term of, 18 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1.] years, determinable on one or more life or lives, or for a term originally created for 21 years or more, in lands, tenements, or hereditaments, lying in Eng. or Wa., of the clear yearly value of 100*l.* over what will satisfy all incumbrances, [and over all rents and charges payable out of the same, or who is not seised of, or entitled in law or equity to his own use, to the immediate reversion or remainder in lands, &c. lying as aforesaid, which are leased for one, 2, or 3 lives, or for years determinable upon one, 2, or 3 lives, upon reserved rents, and which are of the clear yearly value of 300*l.* and who shall not, before he takes upon himself to act as a justice of peace at some general or quarter sessions for the county, &c. for which he intends to act, first take and subscribe the oath following, and which shall be kept by the clerk of the peace, amongst the records of the sessions, [18 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1.] 5 G. 2. c. 18. s. 1., 18 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1. [See further, as to the oaths of justices, 1 G. 3. c. 13. post, pl. 46.]

'I, A. B. do swear, that I truly and bona fide have such an estate, in law or equity, to and for my own use and benefit, consisting of —, [specifying the nature of the estate, whether messuage, land, rent, tythe, office, benefice, or what else.] as doth qualify me to act as a justice of the peace for the county, riding, or division of —, according to the true intent and meaning of an act of parliament made in the 18th year of the reign of H. M. king George the second, intituled, An act to render more effectual an act passed in the 5th year of his present Majesty's reign, intituled, An act [set out the title] and that the same [except where it is an office, benefice, or ecclesiastical preferment], is lying, or being, or issuing out of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, being within the parish, township, or place of —, or in the several parishes of —, in the county of —, or in the several counties of —, [as the case is].'

30. No attorney, solicitor, or proctor, shall be capable to be a justice of the peace in Eng. or Wa. during such time as he shall practise as such, 5 G. 2. c. 18. s. 2.

31. If any person not so qualified, shall take on himself the office of a justice of peace, or shall do any act as such, he shall forfeit 100*l.*, one moiety to H. M., and the other to such person as will sue for the same, by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 3.

32. Every such clerk of the peace shall, upon demand, deliver an attested copy of such oath to any person paying 2*s.* for the same which being proved to be a true copy of such oath, shall be admitted to be given in evidence upon any issue in any action or information brought upon this act, 18 G. 2. c. 20. s. 2.

33. Any person who shall act as a justice of the peace for any county, &c. in Eng. or Wa. without having taken and subscribed such oath, or without being qualified according to this act, shall forfeit 100*l.* one moiety to the use of the poor of the parish in which he usually resides, and the other to the use of such person who shall sue for the same, to be recovered, with costs, by action of debt, &c. or information, in any court of record at Westminster, in which no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed, and in every such action or information, the proof of qualification shall lie on such person against whom the same is brought, id. s. 3.

34. If the defendant in any such action or information intends to insist upon any lands, &c. not contained in such oath, as his qualification to act as a justice of peace at the time of the supposed offence, he shall, at or before pleading, deliver to the plaintiff or informer, or his attorney, a notice in writing specifying such lands, &c. (other than those contained in the oath) and the parish or place, and the county wherein the same are (offices and benefices excepted, which may be ascertained by their usual names); and if the plaintiff or informer shall thereupon not proceed any further, he may, with the leave of the court, discontinue such action or information on payment of such costs, as the court shall award, id. s. 4.

35. Upon the trial of the issue in any action or information so brought, no lands, &c. not contained in such oath and notice, or one of them, shall be allowed to be insisted upon by the defendant, as part of his qualification, id. s. 5.

36. Where the lands, &c. contained in such oath or notice, are together with other lands, &c. belonging to the person taking such oath, or delivering such notice, liable to any charges, rents, or incumbrances, within and for the purposes of this act, the lands, &c. contained in such oath or notice, shall be deemed chargeable, only so far as the other lands, &c. so jointly charged are not sufficient to pay the same, id. s. 6.

37. Where the qualification or any part thereof consists of rent, it shall be sufficient to specify in such oath or notice so much of the lands &c. out of which such rent is issuing as shall be of sufficient value to answer such rent, id. s. 7.

38. In case the plaintiff or informer, in such action or information discontinued the same, otherwise than as in s. 4., or is nonsuit, or has judgment against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s. 8.

39. Only one penalty of 100*l.* shall be recovered from the same person by virtue of this act, or of 5 G. 2. c. 18. for the same or any other offence committed by the same person, before the bringing of the action or information upon which one penalty of 100*l.* has been recovered, and due notice given to the defendant of the commencement of such action or information, id. s. 9.

40. Where an action or information is brought, and due notice given thereof, as in s. 9., no proceedings shall be had upon any subsequent action or information against the same person, for any offence committed before the time of giving such notice; but the court where such subsequent action or information is brought, may, upon the defendant's motion, stay proceedings therein; so as such first action or information be prosecuted without fraud, and with effect; but no action or information, not so prosecuted, shall be deemed an action or information within this act, id. s. 10.

41. Every action, bill, plaint, or information, given by this, or 5 G. 2. c. 18. shall be commenced within 6 calendar months after the fact upon which the same is grounded was committed, id. s. 11.

42. This act shall not extend to any city or town being a county of itself, or to any other city, town, cinque-port, or liberty, having justices of peace within their respective limits by charter, commission, or otherwise; but in every such city, &c. such persons may be capable to be justices of peace, and in such manner only as they might have been if this act had not been made, 5 G. 2. c. 18. s. 4., 18 G. 2. c. 20. s. 12.

43. Nothing in this act, or in 5 G. 2. c. 18. shall extend to any peer, or lord of parliament, [or to the lords or other of H. M.'s privy council, or to the justices of either bench, or to the barons of the exchequer, or to H. M.'s attorney or solicitor-general, or to the justices of great sessions for the county palatine of Chester, and the several counties of W<sup>a</sup>. within their respective jurisdictions, 18 G. 2. c. 20. s. 13.] or to the eldest son or heir apparent of any peer or lord of parliament, or of any person qualified by 9 A. c. 5. to serve as a knight of a shire, 18 G. 2. c. 20. s. 13., and 5 G. 2. c. 18. s. 5.

44. Nothing in this act, or in 5 G. 2. c. 18. shall extend to incapacitate the officers of the board of green cloth from being justices of peace within the verge of H. M.'s palaces, or to incapacitate the commissioners and principal officers of the navy, or the two under-secretaries in each of the offices of principal secretary of state, [or the secretary of Chelsea College, 18 G. 2. c. 20. s. 14.] from being justices of peace for such [maritime, 5 G. 2. c. 18.] counties, or places where they usually have been justices, 5 G. 2. c. 18. s. 6., 18 G. 2. c. 20. s. 14.

45. This act shall not extend to any of the heads of colleges, or halls in Oxford or Cambridge, [or to the vice-chancellor of either of such universities, or to the mayor of the city of Oxford, or of the town of Cambridge, 7 G. 2. c. 10. s. 3., 18 G. 2. c. 20. s. 15.] but they may be, and act as justices of peace in the counties of Oxford, Berks, and Cambridge, as fully as if this act had not been made, 5 G. 2. c. 18. s. 7., 7 G. 2. c. 10. s. 3., 18 G. 2. c. 20. s. 15.

46. All persons who shall be justices of peace at the demise of his present majesty, or any of his successors, and shall afterwards be appointed justices of peace by any commission granted by H. M. or his successors, and who shall take the oaths of office of a justice of peace before the clerk of the peace of the county, &c. for which such justice shall act, or the deputy of such clerk of the peace, and who shall have taken and subscribed, at some general session of the peace, the oath required by 18 G. 2. c. 20. may act as justices for such county, &c. without being obliged to take and subscribe again such oath, without incurring any penalty; and all acts done by them, or under their authority, shall be valid, 1 G. 3. c. 13. s. 1.

47. After passing this act, no person who hath taken, or shall take the oaths usually taken by a justice of peace, under a dedimus potestatem issued from the clerk of the crown, shall be obliged to sue out any other dedimus potestatem from such clerk to authorize any person to administer again to any such justice, on any new commission of the peace being issued under the great seal of G. B., the oaths usually annexed to such dedimus and taken by a justice of peace; but the clerk of the peace, or his deputy of every county, &c. in Eng. and W<sup>a</sup>., for which any such justice hath acted and qualified, or hereafter before the issuing any such new commission shall act and qualify himself, shall on every such new commission of the peace being issued, prepare a parchment roll, with the oaths annexed to, and usually taken under the dedimus by justices of the peace, ingrossed on such roll; and shall administer without fee, the oaths in such roll specified to every such justice within the respective counties, &c. for which he shall act, and who shall desire to take such oaths; and every such justice, after the taking the oaths, shall subscribe his name on such roll; and such roll shall be kept by the respective clerks of the peace amongst the records of the sessions, id. s. 2.

48. FOR ORVIATING DOUBTS WHICH HAVE arisen with respect to so much of 1 G. 3. c. 13. as directs the taking of certain oaths by justices of the peace on the issuing of any new commission of the peace, 7 G. 3. c. 9.

49. All justices of the peace, appointed by any commission granted by his present majesty, or after his demise, by any of his successors, who have, after the issuing of the first commission, taken and subscribed the oaths in 1 G. 3. c. 13. shall not be obliged, during the reign of H. M., or during any future reign in which such oaths shall have been so taken and subscribed as aforesaid, to take and subscribe the same oaths, by reason of such persons being again appointed justices by any subsequent commission granted during any such reign; and shall not incur any penalty for the not taking such oaths, 7 G. 3. c. 9.

50. TO OBLIGE JUSTICES OF PEACE AT THEIR GENERAL QUARTER sessions to determine appeals made to them according to the merits of the case, notwithstanding defects of form in the original proceedings, and to oblige persons suing forth writs of certiorari to remove orders made on such appeals into H. M.'s court of K. B., to give security to prosecute the same with effect, 5 G. 2. c. 19.

51. Upon any appeals to the general or quarter sessions for any county, city, or precinct in Eng., against judgments or orders made by any justices, such sessions shall cause any defects of form, found in such original judgments or orders, to be amended without costs, and shall then proceed to hear the merits thereof, and examine all witnesses on oath, and hear all proofs relating thereto, and make such determination as by law they ought to do, in case there had been no such defect, 5 G. 2. c. 19. s. 1.

52. No certiorari shall be allowed to remove any such judgment or order, unless the party prosecuting the same, before its allowance, enters into a recognizance, with sufficient sureties before one justice for the county or place, or the justices at the general or quarter sessions, where the judgment, &c. was had, or before a judge of K. B. in 50l. with condition to prosecute the same at his own costs with effect, without any delay, and to pay the parties, in whose favour such judgment, &c. was given within one month after its confirmation, their full taxed costs; and in case no such recognizance is so entered into, or if such condition is not performed, such justices may make such order for the party for whom such judgment was given, in such manner as if no certiorari had been granted, id. s. 2.

53. Such recognizance so taken, shall be certified to K. B., and there filed with the certiorari, and judgment, &c. removed thereby; and if such judgment, &c. is confirmed by such court, the party entitled to such costs, for recovery thereof within 10 days after demand made of the party who ought to pay them, and on oath of the making such demand and refusal to pay, shall have an attachment against him for contempt; and such recognizance shall not be discharged until such costs be paid and such order so confirmed obeyed, id. s. 3.

54. TO EMPOWER JUSTICES OF PEACE TO ACT IN CERTAIN CASES relating to parishes and places, to the rates and taxes of which they are rated or chargeable, 16 G. 2. c. 18.

55. Every justice within his jurisdiction may execute every thing appertaining to his office, so far as the same relates to the laws concerning the poor, vagrants, highways, or parochial taxes or rates, notwithstanding such justice is rated to, or chargeable with the taxes within such parish, affected by such act of such justice, id. s. 1.

56. This act shall not authorize any justice for any county or riding at large, to act in the determination of any appeal to the quarter sessions for such county, &c. from any order or thing relating to the parish where such justice is so charged or chargeable, id. s. 5.

57. FOR AMENDING AND MAKING MORE EFFECTUAL THE PROVISION in 23 G. 2. c. 26. (s. 11. which is Rep. by this act, s. 4.) for apprehending persons in any county on warrants granted by justices of peace of any other county or place, 24 G. 2. c. 55. [See the principle of this statute much extended, 13 G. 3. c. 31. s. 1. pl. 61., viz. to the apprehending offenders who escape from one part of the U.K. to another.]

58. In case any person, against whom a warrant is issued by any justice or justices of peace of any county, riding, division, city, liberty, town, or place, shall escape, reside, or be in any other county, &c. out of the jurisdiction of the justice who granted such warrant, any justice or justices of such other county, &c. shall, on proof on oath of the hand writing of the justice granting such warrant, indorse his name thereon, and which shall be sufficient authority to the person bringing such warrant, and to those to whom it was originally directed, to execute such warrant in such other county, &c. and to apprehend and carry such offender before such indorsing justice, or some other of the same county, &c. and [the word and is omitted in the act, but seem should be inserted, see 44 G. 3. c. 92. s. 1. pl. 68., &c.] in case the offence is bailable, and such offender is willing to give bail for his appearance at the next assizes, or quarter sessions for the county, &c. where the offence was done, such justice of such other county, &c. may take bail of such offender for his appearance at such assizes or sessions, in the same manner as the justice for the proper county, &c. might; and the justice of such other county, &c. so taking bail, shall deliver the recognizance, together with the examination or confession of such offender, and all other proceedings relating thereto, to the constable or the person apprehending such offender, who shall receive the same, and deliver them over to the clerk of assizes, of the peace, or of the county, &c. where such offender is to appear, and such recognizance, examination, &c. shall be as valid as if taken before the justice of the proper county, &c. and the same proceeding shall be had thereon; and if such constable or other person shall neglect to deliver over such recognizance, &c. to the clerk of assizes or of the peace of the county, &c. wherein such offender is required to appear by such recognizance, he shall forfeit 10l., to be recovered by bill, plaint, or information, in the courts at Westminster, by any person that will sue for it, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance are allowed; and in case the offence, for which such offender is apprehended in any other county, &c. is not bailable, or in case he will not give bail to the satisfaction of the justice before whom he is brought, then such constable or other person shall convey him before one justice of the proper county, &c. where the offence was done, to be dealt with according to law, 24 G. 2. c. 55. s. 1.

59. No action of trespass, false imprisonment, information, or indietment, or other action shall be brought against any justices who shall indorse such warrant for or by reason thereof, (s.2.) but such person may bring his action against the justice who originally granted such warrant, as before this act, 24 G.2. c.55. s.3.

60. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL EXECUTION OF THE CRIMINAL laws in the two parts of the U.K. [then of G.B. only] 13 G.3. c.51. [Amo. as to s.1. by 48 G.3. c.58. s.2. and generally by 44 G.3. c.92. 45 G.3. c.92. and 51 G.3. c.186. Ext. to U.K. 54 G.3. c.186. s.2. pl.52.]

61. If any person against whom a warrant shall be issued by any justice within Eng., for any crime, shall escape, or be in Scot., the sheriff, or steward-depute, or substitute, or any justice of the place where such person shall escape, &c. or be, may indorse his name on the warrant; which warrant so indorsed, shall be authority to the person bringing the same, and to all persons to whom it was originally directed; and also to all sheriffs and stewards, officers, constables, and other peace officers where such warrant shall be indorsed, to execute the same in the place where it is indorsed, by apprehending the person, and to convey him into the county of Eng., adjacent to Scot., in which the crime was committed, and before one of the justices of such county, to be there dealt with according to law; or, in case the crime was committed in a county not next adjacent to Scot.; then to convey him into any county of Eng., next adjacent to that part of Scot., and before one justice of such county, who shall proceed with regard to such person, in the manner directed by 24 G.2. c.56. as if the said person or persons had been apprehended in the said county, 15 G.3. c.51. s.1. [Ext. to the whole of the U.K., 54 G.3. c.186. s.2. pl.82., and see like provision for persons escaping from Ire., into Eng. or Scot., infra, pl.70.]

62. All clauses in 13 G.3. c.31. 44 G.3. c.92. and 45 G.3. c.92. whereby the execution in Scot. of any warrants issued by any justice in Eng., for any offence against the laws of Eng., is regulated, shall extend to all warrants issued by any of the judges in K.B. in Eng., of great sessions in Waa., or by any justice of oyer and terminer, or gaol delivery, or other person having authority to issue the same in Eng., for any offence against the laws thereof, 48 G.3. c.58. s.2.

63. If any person against whom a warrant shall be issued by the lord justice-general, lord justice-clerk, or any of the lords commissioners of judiciary, or by any sheriff, or steward-depute or substitute, or justice of Scot., for any crime against the laws of that part of the U.K., shall escape or be in Eng., any justice of the county, where such person shall escape or be, may indorse his name on the warrant; which shall be authority to the person bringing the same, and to all persons to whom it was originally directed; and also to all constables, or other peace officers of the county, &c. where such warrant shall be indorsed, to execute the same in the county, &c. where it is indorsed, by apprehending the person, and to convey him into the county in Scot., adjacent to Eng., where the crime was committed; and before the sheriff or steward-depute or substitute, or one justice of such county, to be there dealt with according to law; or in case the crime was committed in a county not next adjacent to Eng., then to convey him into any county of Scot., next adjacent to Eng., and before the sheriff or steward-depute, or substitute, or one of the justices of such county; which sheriff, &c. is to proceed with such person according to the law of Scot., as if he had been apprehended in that county, 13 G.3. c.31. s.2. [Ext. to the whole of the U.K. 54 G.3. c.186. s.2. pl.82.]

64. The expence of removing prisoners as aforesaid shall be repaid to the person defraying the same by the treasurer of the county of Eng., or by the sheriff, or steward-depute, or substitute of the county of Scot. in which the crime was committed, the amount being previously ascertained by an account thereof verified on oath before two justices of such county, and allowed and signed by them, 13 G.3. c.31. s.3.

65. If any person having stolen money, cattle, goods, or other effects, in either part [extended to any part of the U.K. 44 G.3. c.92. s.7 pl.74.] of the U.K., [of G.B.] shall afterwards have the same effects, or part thereof, in his possession, in the other part thereof, it shall be lawful to indict, try, and punish such person for theft or larceny in that part of U.K. where he shall so have such effects in his possession, id. s.4.

66. Any person, in either part of the U.K. of G.B. who shall receive or have any effects stolen, in the other part of the U.K., knowing the same to be stolen, shall be liable to be indicted, tried, and punished for such offence in that part of the U.K. where he shall receive the said effects, id. s.5. [Ext. to any part of U.K. 44 G.3. c.92. s.8. pl.75.]

67. TO RENDER MORE EASY THE APPREHENDING AND bringing to trial offenders escaping from one part of the U.K. to the other, and also from one county to another, 44 G.3. c.92. [Amo. 45 G.3. c.92.]

68. In case any person against whom a warrant shall be issued by any justice within Ire., shall escape or be in any other place out of the jurisdiction of such justice, any justice or justices for the county, city, liberty, town, or place, where such person shall escape or be, on proof made on oath of the hand writing of the justice granting such warrant, shall indorse his (or their) name or names thereon, which indorsement shall be sufficient authority to the person bringing the same, and to all others to whom it was originally directed to execute such warrant, in the county, &c. where it was indorsed, and to apprehend and carry him before the indorsing justice, or some other justice or justices of the county, &c. or place where such warrant was indorsed, [who in case the offence is bailable, and the offender ready to give bail for his appearance at the next assizes, or general gaol delivery, or general quarter sessions for the county, &c. or place where the offence was committed, shall proceed with him and take bail accordingly, in the same manner as the justices of the proper county, &c. might have done; but see additional provisions for taking bail in these cases, 45 G.3. c.92. s.1. pl.78.] and shall deliver the recognizance with the offender's examination or confession, and all other proceedings relating thereto had before him or them, to the constable or other officer, or person so apprehending such offender, who shall receive and deliver over to the clerks of the crown or peace for the county, &c. or place where such offender is required to appear by such recognizance; and such recognizance and examination respectively shall be as effectual as if taken or acknowledged before a justice, &c. of the county, &c. or place where the offence was committed, and the same proceedings shall be had thereon, and any such constable or officer, who shall not deliver over the same as above, shall forfeit St., Irish currency, to be recovered by bill, civil bill, plaint or information, in any of H.M.'s court of record in Ire., by any person who will sue for the same, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one impurance shall be allowed; and in case the offence for which he is so apprehended, shall not be bailable, or if the offender shall not give bail for his appearance as above, to the satisfaction of the justice, then the constable, &c. so apprehending him, shall carry him before a justice of the proper county, &c. or place where such offence was committed, to be there dealt with according to law, 44 G.3. c.92. s.1.

69. No action of trespass, or false imprisonment, indictment, or other action, shall be commenced against any justice or justices for indorsing such warrant, but any person may prosecute his action against the justice, &c. who originally granted it, as he might before this act, id. s.2.

70. If any person against whom a warrant shall be issued by any of the judges of K.B., or by any justice of oyer and terminer, or gaol delivery, or any justice of peace, or other persons having authority to issue the same within Ire., for any offence against the laws in force in Ire., shall escape or be in Eng., or Scot., any justice of the county, &c. or place, in the latter respectively where the offender is, may indorse his name on such warrant, which, when so indorsed, shall be sufficient authority to the persons bringing it, and to all those to whom it was originally directed, and to all constables or other peace officers of the county, &c. or place where such warrant shall be so indorsed, to execute the same in the county, &c. or place where it is so indorsed, by apprehending the person against whom it is granted, and to convey him by the most direct way into Ire., and before one of the justices of the county in Ire., living near the place and in the county where such offender shall land, who shall proceed as if the latter had been legally apprehended in his county in Ire., id. s.3.

71. If any person against whom a warrant shall be issued by any judge of K.B., or of the great sessions in Waa., or by any justice of oyer and terminer, or gaol delivery, or any justice of peace in Eng., or Scot., for any offence against the laws of either country, shall escape to or be in Ire., any justice of the county or place in the latter, where such person is, shall indorse his name on such warrant, which, when so indorsed, shall be sufficient authority to the person bringing the same, and to those to whom it was originally directed, and to all constables, sheriffs, and other peace officers of the county or place in Ire., where it is so indorsed, to execute the same therein, by apprehending the offender, and to convey him by the most direct way to Eng. or Scot., respectively, and before a justice of the county or stewartry, living near the place and in the county where he shall arrive and land; which justice shall proceed with regard to him as if he had been legally apprehended in the said county, &c. of Eng. or Scot. respectively, id. s.4.

72. The expence of removal of prisoners to any place in Eng., Ire., and Scot., shall be defrayed by the treasurer of the county in Eng., and Ire., and in Scot., as in 13 G.3. c.31. s.3. pl.64., 44 G.2. c.92. s.5.

73. The treasurers of the several counties in Ire. who have paid the amount of any such expences so ascertained as aforesaid, shall lay the said account, with its allowance, signed as in s.5. [or as in 13 G.3. c.31. s.3. pl.64.] before the grand juries at the next or any subsequent assizes, who shall present the same to be raised from the county at large, to reimburse such treasurers, id. s.6.

74. Persons having stolen or otherwise feloniously taken money, cattle, goods, or other effects, in any one of the parts of the U.K., and afterward having the same or any part thereof in possession or custody, in any other part of the U.K., may be indicted, tried and punished for theft or larceny in the latter part of the U.K., as if such money, &c. had been actually stolen there, 44 G.3. c.92. s.7.

76. Persons in any one part of U.K. who shall receive or have any cattle, goods, or effects, stolen or feloniously taken in any other part of U.K., knowing them to have been so stolen, &c. shall be liable to be indicted, tried, and punished, in that part of the U.K. where they shall receive, &c. such goods, as if the same had been originally stolen, &c. in the latter part of the U.K., id. s.8.

77. To AMEND 13 G.3. c.31., and 44 G.3. c.92., [Iter. as to ss. 5—6. by 54 G.3. c.186. s.1.]

78. After reciting "That no provision is made by 13 G.3. c.31., and 44 G.3. c.92. for bailing persons apprehended in one part of U.K. for bailable offences charged to be committed by them in another part of U.K.," [but see that part of 44 G.3. c.92. s.1. pl. 68., which is between brackets], it is enacted, that persons apprehended in either Eng., Scot., or Ire., for an offence charged to have been committed in either of the other parts thereof, under any warrant indorsed as by 13 G.3. c.31. s.1. pl. 61., and 44 G.3. c.92. s.1. pl. 68. is provided, may be taken before the indorsing judge or justice, or before some other justice of the county, &c. or place where the same was indorsed; and if the offence be bailable, and the offender is ready to give bail for appearance, according to the exigence of the warrant, such judge or justice may proceed with such offender, and take bail for him according to the said exigence, as the judge or justice who originally issued the same might have done; and shall take the recognizance or bail-bond of such offender and his bail in duplicate, and shall deliver one of them to the constable or other persons so apprehending such offender, who shall receive and deliver it to the clerk of the crown or peace, or other proper officer of the court in which such offender is bound to appear; and the same shall be as valid as if taken before a judge or justice of the county where the offence was committed; and such bailing judge or justice, &c. shall transmit the other duplicate to the court of exchequer of that part of U.K. where such bail is taken, to be kept of record; and the court in which any person so bound to appear shall forfeit any recognizance or bail-bond, shall transmit a certificate under their seal, or under that of one of the justices thereof, testifying such forfeiture to the said court of exchequer, which may proceed on such certificate to levy the sum forfeited, in the same manner as they may proceed on any recognizance, &c. forfeited within the same part of U.K., and estreated in due course into that court; provided that if the offence is not bailable, or if the offender shall not give bail as above, such judge shall remand him to the custody of the person who apprehended him, who shall convey him into that part of U.K. wherein the offence was committed, by the means provided by the recited acts, 45 G.3. c.92. s.1.

79. In case any person suing out such warrant shall shew, by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the judge or justice granting it, that it may be necessary to execute it in a part of U.K. different from that in which it is issued, and if the offence appears to the latter to be such that it would not be lawful for any judge, &c. before whom such offender might be brought by reason of the indorsement, to admit him to bail, he shall write on the face of such warrant not bailable; and where these words are omitted, the latter judge, &c. may admit the offender to bail, id. s.2.

80. The service of every subpoena or other process on any person in any one part of U.K., requiring their appearance to give evidence in any criminal prosecution in any other part thereof, shall be as valid as if issued in the latter part of U.K.; and if he shall not appear, then the court, on proof of service of subpoena, shall transmit a certificate of default to the K.B. in Eng. if such service was had there, or if in Scot. to the judiciary court there, or if in Ire. to the K.B. there, which courts shall proceed against and punish the defaulter as if he had neglected to appear in obedience to their subpoena or other process, id. s.3.

81. No such court shall in any case proceed against any person for not appearing to give evidence in obedience to such subpoena or process, unless it appears to them that a reasonable sum to defray the expenses of going and returning had been tendered at the time of serving the subpoena, id. s.4. [See a former like provision, applying only to English offenders in Scot. tried in Eng., and Scotch offenders in Eng. tried in Scot., 47 J.1. c.1. s.27. and s.32.]

82. All warrants issued in Eng., Scot., or Ire., respectively, shall be indorsed, executed, enforced, and acted upon, by all justices and officers of the peace, in any part of the U.K. in the manner directed by 13 G.3. c.31. ss. 1—2. pl. 61. and 63., in relation to warrants issued in Eng. or Scot. respectively, 54 G.3. c.186. s.2.

83. Any judge of any of H.M.'s courts of record in Westminster, of the court of sessions in the county palatine of Chester, or of great sessions in Waa., or in any such court of record in Dublin, may indorse any letters of second diligence issued in Scot. for compelling attendance of any witness resident in Eng., Waa., or Ire., on any criminal trial in

Scot.; and the same when so indorsed shall have the like force as in Scot., and shall entitle the bearer to apprehend the witness or witnesses named therein, and convey him to Scot., for the purposes of the trial, without tendering expenses to such witness, 51 G.3. c.186. s.3.

84. FOR RENDERING JUSTICES OF THE PEACE MORE SAFE in the execution of their office, and for indemnifying constables and others acting in obedience to their warrants, 24 G.2. c.44. [AMEND. and EX. to Ire., 45 G.3. c.143. and by 45 G.3. c.141.]

85. No writ shall be sued out against, nor any copy of any process at the suit of a subject be served on any justice of the peace, for any governor or deputy governor of any county or place in Ire., 45 G.3. c.143. s.1.] for any thing done by him in the execution of his office, until notice in writing of such intended writ or process be delivered to him, or left at the usual place of his abode, by the attorney for the party who intends to sue, at least one calendar month before the suing out or serving the same; in which notice shall be clearly and explicitly contained the cause of action, and on which shall be indorsed the name of such attorney, with the place of his abode, who shall be intitled to the fee of 20s. for preparing and serving such notice, 24 G.2. c.44. s.1., 44 G.3. c.143. s.1. for Ire.

86. Such justice [and such governor, &c. 45 G.3. c.143. s.2.] at any time within one calendar month after such notice given, may tender amendments to the party complaining, or to his attorney; and in case the same is not accepted, may plead such tender in bar to any action grounded on such writ or process, together with the plea of not guilty, and any other plea, with leave of the court; and if on issue joined, the jury find the amendments so tendered to have been sufficient, they shall give a verdict for the defendant; and in such case, or in case the plaintiff becomes nonsuit, or discontinues, or judgment be given for such defendant upon demurrer, such justice [or governor, &c. 45 G.3. c.143. s.2.] shall have the like costs as if he had pleaded the general issue only; and if the jury find that no amendments were tendered, or that the same were not sufficient, and also against the defendant on such other plea, they shall give a verdict for the plaintiff, and such damages as they think proper, which he shall recover, together with his costs, 24 G.2. c.44. s.2., 45 G.3. c.143. s.2. for Ire.

87. No such plaintiff shall recover any verdict against such justice, [or governor, &c. 45 G.3. c.143. s.3.] where the action is grounded on any act of the defendant as justice of the peace, [or governor, &c. 45 G.3. c.143. s.3.] unless it is proved upon the trial that such notice was given, but in default thereof such justice, [or governor, &c. 45 G.3. c.143. s.3.] shall recover a verdict and costs, 24 G.2. c.44. s.3., 45 G.3. c.143. s.3. for Ire.

88. In case any such justice, [or governor, &c. 45 G.3. c.143. s.4.] shall neglect to tender amendments, or has tendered insufficient amendments before action brought, he may by leave of the court, before issue joined, pay into court such sum as he shall see fit, whereupon such proceedings, &c. shall be had as in other actions, where the defendant is allowed to pay money into court, 24 G.2. c.44. s.4., 45 G.3. c.143. s.4. for Ire.

89. No evidence shall be permitted to be given by the plaintiff in such action of any cause except such as is contained in such notice, 24 G.2. c.44. s.5., 45 G.3. c.143. s.5. for Ire.

90. No action shall be brought against any constable, headborough, or other officer [in Ire.; 45 G.3. c.143. s.6.] or against any person acting by his order and in his aid, for any thing done in obedience to any warrant under the hand and seal of any justice of peace [or governor or deputy-governor of any county, &c. in Ire. 45 G.3. c.143. s.6.] until demand made or left at his usual place of abode by the party intending to bring such action, or his attorney or agent, in writing, signed by the party demanding the same, of the perusal and copy of such warrant, and the same hath been neglected for 6 days; and in case after such demand and compliance therewith by showing such warrant, and permitting a copy thereof to be taken, any action is brought against such officer or person for any such cause, without making the justice [or governor, &c. 45 G.3. c.143. s.6.] who signed and sealed such warrant defendants, then on producing such warrant at the trial, the jury shall give a verdict for the defendant, notwithstanding any defect of jurisdiction in such justice [or governor, &c. 45 G.3. c.143. s.6.], and if such action is brought jointly against such justice [or governor, &c. 45 G.3. c.143. s.6.] and such officer and such person, then on proof of such warrant, the jury shall find for such constable or officer, and such person; and if a verdict be given against such justice [or governor, &c. 45 G.3. c.143. s.6.] the plaintiff shall recover his costs, taxed in such manner by the proper officer as to include such costs as such plaintiff is liable to pay to such defendants for whom such verdict is so found, 24 G.2. c.44. s.6., 45 G.3. c.143. s.6. for Ire.

91. Where the plaintiff in any such action against such justice [or governor, &c. 45 G.3. c.143. s.6.] shall obtain a verdict, in case the judges who tried the cause shall in open court certify on the back of the record that the injury for which such action was brought was malicious and wilful, the plaintiff shall have double costs, 24 G.2. c.44. s.7., 43 G.3. c.133. s.6. for Ire.

92. No action shall be brought against any justice of peace [or governor, &c. 43 G.3. c.143. s.7.] for any thing done in execution of his office, or against any constable or other officer or person acting as in s.6., unless commenced within 6 calendar months after the act committed, 24 G.2. c.44. s.8., 43 G.3. c.143. s.7. for Ire.

93. IN ALL ACTIONS BROUGHT IN G. B. OR Ire. AGAINST ANY JUSTICE OF PEACE FOR OR ON ACCOUNT OF ANY CONVICTION BY HIM MADE UNDER ANY ACT IN FORCE IN THE U. K., OR FOR ANY THING DONE OR COMMANDED BY SUCH JUSTICE TO BE DONE, FOR THE LEVYING OF ANY PENALTY, APPREHENDING OF ANY PARTY, OR FOR OR ABOUT CARRYING SUCH CONVICTION INTO EFFECT; IN CASE SUCH CONVICTION HAS BEEN QUASHED, THE PLAINTIFF, BESIDES THE AMOUNT OF THE PENALTY WHICH MAY HAVE BEEN LEVIED ON HIM IN CASE SUCH LEVY WAS MADE, SHALL NOT RECOVER ANY GREATER DAMAGES THAN 2*l*., NOR ANY COSTS, UNLESS IT IS EXPRESSLY ALLEGED IN THE DECLARATION, AND WHICH SHALL BE IN AN ACTION ON THE CASE ONLY, THAT SUCH ACTS WERE DONE MALICIOUSLY AND WITHOUT PROBABLE CAUSE, 43 G.3. c.141. s.1.

94. Such plaintiff shall not recover against such justice any penalty which has been levied, or any damages or costs, in case it is proved at the trial that such plaintiff was guilty of the offence for which he was convicted or apprehended, or had otherwise suffered, and that he had undergone no greater punishment than was assigned by law for such offence, id. s.2.

95. FOR SETTLING AND ASCERTAINING THE FEES to be taken by clerks to justices of peace, 26 G.2. c.14. [AMD. as to such fee in Middlesex, 27 G.2. c.16. s.4. pl.100.]

96. The justices of peace throughout Eng., at their respective general quarter sessions next after 24 June, 1753, shall make a table of the fees to be taken by clerks to justices of peace within the county, city, or division for which such sessions are held; and such respective tables of fees being approved by the justices of peace at the next succeeding general quarter sessions for such county, &c., with such alterations as such sessions think proper, shall be laid before the judges at the next assizes, or at the great sessions for Wa., and the counties palatine of Chester, Lancaster, and Durham, for the respective county, &c.; who shall confirm such respective tables of fees as settled by such justices, or with such alteration as to such judges appear reasonable; and such justices in their respective quarter sessions may, from time to time, make any other table of fees to be taken instead of the fees contained in the table so confirmed, and after the same are approved by the justices of peace at the next succeeding general quarter sessions, may lay such new table before the judges at the next assizes, or at the great sessions for Wa. and such counties palatine, who shall ratify the same if they think fit; but no table of fees to be made by such justices shall be valid until confirmed by such judges, 26 G.2. c.14. s.1.

97. If at any time after 3 calendar months from the time that such table of fees is made and ratified, any clerk to any justice of peace, or any person acting as such, shall under pretence of any thing done by such justice in the execution of his office, or done by such clerk, demand or receive any other or greater fee than is so ascertained and confirmed, he shall forfeit 20*l*. to any person who shall sue for the same by action of debt, &c., or information in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s.2.

98. All the tables of fees so made and confirmed shall be deposited with the clerk of the peace for the respective county, city, or other division; and who shall cause copies of such tables to be kept constantly in a conspicuous part of the room where the general or quarter sessions are held; under pain of forfeiting 10*l*., to be recovered as in s.2. directed, id. s.3.

99. All suits brought by virtue of this act, shall be brought before the end of 3 months after the offence committed, id. s.4.

100. The table of fees to be taken by clerks to justices of peace for Middlesex, which shall be settled and approved by the justices for such county at their general or quarter sessions, shall be laid before the chief justices of the K. B. and of C. P., and the chief baron of the exchequer, or any two of them, who shall confirm such table as so settled, or with such alterations as to them, or any 2 of them, appear reasonable; and such justices for such county shall make a table of such fees at their next general or quarter sessions after the 24th of June, 1754, and approve or alter the same at the next succeeding sessions, and from time to time make and approve any other table of such fees, 27 G.2. c.16. s.4.

101. TO CONFIRM CERTAIN ACTS AND ORDERS MADE BY JUSTICES OF THE PEACE, BEING OF THE quorum, notwithstanding any defect in not expressing therein that such justices are of the quorum, 24 G.2. c.27. [AMD. AND EXT. to cases within cities, &c. which have only one justice of the quorum, 7 G.3. c.21.]

102. No act, order, adjudication, warrant, indenture of apprenticeship, or other instrument done, or hereafter to be done or executed by

2 or more justices, which doth not express that one of them was of the quorum, shall be impeached for that defect only, 26 G.2. c.27.

103. All acts, orders, adjudications, warrants, indentures of apprenticeship, or other instruments, which shall be done under any act of parliament made or to be made by 2 or more justices qualified to act within any such cities, boroughs, towns corporate, franchises, and liberties, as have only one justice of the quorum, though neither of them are of the quorum, shall be as valid in law as if one of them was of the quorum, 7 G.3. c.21.

104. FOR THE MORE EASY AND EFFECTUAL PROCEEDING UPON distresses to be made by warrants of justices of peace, 27 G.2. c.20. [AMD. 53 G.3. c.55. s.3.] see ss. 1, 2 of 53 G.3. c.55. post, pl.128—129.

105. In all cases where any justice of peace is or shall be required by any act of parliament to issue a warrant of distress for levying any penalty, or sum directed to be paid by any such act, such justice in such warrant may order the goods so to be distrained to be sold within a time therein limited, so as such time be not less than 4, or more than 8 days, unless the penalty or sum for which such distress was made be sooner paid, with the reasonable charges of distress, 27 G.2. c.20. s.1.

106. The officer distraining shall deduct the reasonable charges of taking, keeping, and selling such distress out of the money arising by such sale; and the overplus after such charges and penalty or sum are paid, shall be returned on demand to the owner of such goods, and such officer shall, if required, shew his warrant to the party distrained, and suffer a copy to be taken, id. s.2.

107. This act shall not alter or repeal the provisions or directions relating to distresses made for tithes and church rates payable by Quakers in 7 & 8 W.3. c.51. and 1 G.1. s.2. c.6. contained, id. s.3.

108. In all cases where any penalty, forfeiture, fine, or other money, may by warrant of any justice or justices of peace be directed to be levied by distress and sale of the goods, &c. of any party, if sufficient distress cannot be found within the jurisdiction of the justice granting such warrant, on oath thereof made by one witness before any justice of any other county, riding, division, city, borough, town corporate, or place, (which oath shall be certified by him by indorsement on the warrant,) such penalty, &c. or so much thereof, as may not have been levied before, shall by virtue of such warrant and indorsement be levied by the persons to whom the same was originally directed on the goods of such person in such other county, &c. and the money arising thereby shall be applied in like manner, as if such goods had been found within the jurisdiction of the justice first granting such warrant; and if no such distress is found, such offenders may be proceeded against according to law, provided that the justice indorsing such certificate, and authorizing the execution of any such warrant not granted within his jurisdiction, shall not be answerable for any irregularity done in obtaining it, 55 G.3. c.55. s.3.

109. TO EMPOWER JUSTICES OF PEACE TO ADMINISTER OATHS, where any penalty is to be levied or distress to be made, in pursuance of any act of parliament, wherein the same is not expressly directed, 15 G.3. c.39.

110. Where any penalty is directed to be levied, or distress to be made by any act of parliament now or hereafter to be made, the justice or justices acting under any of such acts, may administer any oath or affirmation for the levying of such penalty, or making such distress, id. ibid.

111. FOR THE PAYMENT OF COSTS TO PARTIES ON COMPLAINTS determined before the justices of peace out of sessions, and for the payment of the charges of constables in certain cases, 18 G.3. c.19. ss. 1—6. 9—10. [see ss. 7, 8. FELONY, pl.80—82.]

112. Where any complaint is made before any justice of peace for any county, riding, division, city, town corporate, franchise, or liberty, and any warrant or summons issues in consequence thereof, any justice who has heard and determined such complaint, may award costs to be paid by either party, as he sees fit, to the party injured; and if the same are not forthwith paid, or security given to the satisfaction of such justice, he may, by warrant under hand and seal, levy the same by distress and sale of the goods of the party so neglecting to pay, and where no goods are to be found, may commit him to the house of correction for the county, &c. wherein such party shall reside, there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month, nor less than 10 days, or until such money, together with expences of such commitment, be first paid, 18 G.3. c.19. s.1.

113. On the conviction of any person on any penal statute, when the penalty shall amount to, or exceed 5*l*., such costs shall be deducted by such justice at his discretion from the penalty, so that such deduction shall not exceed one-fifth of the penalty, and the remainder shall be paid to the parties entitled to the whole as if this act had not been made, id. s.2.

114. The forms hereto annexed, shall in their respective cases be used, id. s.3. [see APPENDIX.]

115. Every constable, headborough, or tithing-man, shall every 3 months, and within 14 days after he goes out of office, deliver to the overseers of the poor of the parish, township, or place, an account entered in a book, and signed by him, of all sums expended by him on account of such parish, &c. in all cases not before provided for by law, or by this act, and also of all sums received by him on account of such parish, &c. and such overseer shall, within 14 days after, lay the same before the inhabitants of such parish, &c.; and if the same is approved by a majority, shall pay what is due out of the poor-rates, but if the same, or part thereof, is disallowed, such overseers shall return such account to such constable, &c. who may produce such book to a justice of peace for the county, &c. as in s. 1., giving notice thereof to such overseers, which justice shall examine the same, and determine the objections to such account, and settle the sum that is due, and enter the same in such account, and sign his name thereto, and such overseers shall pay such sum out of such rates, 18 G. 3. c. 19. s. 4.

116. In case the overseer or overseers shall find such parish, &c. aggrieved by any neglect or act done, or omitted by such constable, &c. or by any justice, or shall have a material objection to such account or determination, he or they may, on giving notice to such justice, as well as to such constable, &c. appeal to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, &c.; and the justices there shall receive and finally determine such appeal, but if no reasonable notice has been given, may adjourn it to the next quarter sessions, and then finally determine the same; and such justices may award to the party, for whom such appeal is determined, reasonable costs, as they may do under 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 30. in cases of poor settlements, id. s. 5.

117. In all corporations or liberties which have not 4 justices of the peace, such overseer may appeal (where appeal is hereby given) to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, riding, or division, wherein such corporation may lie, id. s. 6. [See ss. 7, 8. FELONY, pl. 80—82.]

118. The justices for any county, &c. as in s. 1., in quarter sessions assembled, may lay down or alter such rules as to any costs or charges thereafter to be allowed under this act, as to them appears just, which rules having received the approbation and signature of a judge of oyer and terminer, or gaol-delivery, at the assizes for the county, shall be binding, and not otherwise, on all persons; and no person shall be allowed a greater sum than according to such rules, id. s. 9.

119. Actions against any person for any thing done in pursuance hereof, shall be brought within 6 calendar months after the fact done, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof; and if it so appear the jury shall find for the defendant; and if the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues his action after appearance, or has a verdict, or judgment on demurrer against him, the defendant shall have treble costs with usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 10.

120. TO ENABLE JUSTICES OF PEACE TO ACT AS SUCH in certain cases, out of the limits of the counties in which they actually are, 28 G. 3. c. 49. [AMENDING 9 G. 1. c. 7. s. 3., see ss. 1—2. 4. of 9 G. 1. c. 7. POOR, pl. 174—176., ss. 5—9. tit. pl. 221—225.; and AMD. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 65.]

121. Any justice or justices of peace, acting as such, for two or more counties adjoining, may act as such in all matters concerning either of such counties, and all acts of such justice or justices, and of any constable or other officer in obedience thereto, shall be as valid as if done in the county to which such acts more particularly relate; and all constables and other officers of the county to which such acts relate, shall obey the warrants and orders of such justice or justices, and do their duties, under the pains to which any constable may be liable for neglect of duty; provided such justice or justices be personally resident in one of such counties at the time of doing such act, and such warrants, &c. be directed in the first instance to the constable or other officer of the county to which the same more particularly relate, 28 G. 3. c. 49. s. 1.

122. Any constable, tythingman, headborough, or other peace officer, or any other person apprehending any person offending against law, and whom they might take into custody, may convey the person so apprehended to any justice, acting for such county, and resident in such adjoining county; and such constables, &c. and persons shall in such cases so act, as if such justice was resident within the county to which they belong; and all persons obstructing such constables, &c. in their offices in such county so adjoining, shall be liable to the same penalties as if the same had been committed in the county for which such constables were appointed to act, id. s. 2.

123. Any sheriff, or person acting under his authority, constable, or peace officer, or other person lawfully taking into custody any person offending against law, and whom he might convey to gaol, may convey such person so in custody into and through any part of such county so adjoining, in their way to such gaol within the county where such offence was done; and all persons escaping from such custody, or aiding such escape, or rescuing such person so in custody, shall be subject to the like penalties, as if the escape, &c. had happened, in the county wherein such offence was done, id. s. 3.

124. If any justice of peace for any county shall dwell in any city, or other precinct that is a county of itself, situate within the county at large, for which he is appointed a justice, although not within the same county, he may grant warrants, take examinations, and make orders for any matter which one justice may act in, at his own dwelling-house, although it be out of the county where he is authorized to act, and is in some city or precinct adjoining, that is a county of itself, and all such warrants, orders, and acts, and the act of any constable, tythingman, headborough, overseer of the poor, surveyor of highways, and other officer in obedience thereto, shall be valid in law, although out of the limits of the proper authority; but nothing herein shall give power to justices for counties at large, to hold their quarter sessions in cities or towns, being counties of themselves, nor empower justices, sheriffs, bailiffs, constables, or other peace officers of counties at large, to act or intermeddle in matters arising in such cities or towns, but all such actions shall be of the same force as if this act had not been made, 9 G. 1. c. 7. s. 3.

125. Any justice acting for any county at large, may act as such at any place within any city, or other precinct, being a county of itself, and situate within, or adjoining to such county at large; and all acts done by such justice for such county at large, within such city, &c. shall be as valid as if done within the county at large; provided nothing in this act shall give power to the justices for any county at large, not being justices for such city or precinct, or any constable acting under them, to act in any matters arising within such city, 28 G. 3. c. 49. s. 4.

126. Any justice acting for any county at large, or for any riding or division of a county in which there are distinct commissions of the peace, may act as a justice for such county at large, riding, or division, in sessions or otherwise, at any place within any city, town or other precinct, having exclusive jurisdiction, but not being a county of itself, and situate within, surrounded by, or adjoining to any such county at large, riding, &c. and all acts heretofore done by such justice, for such county at large, riding, &c. shall be valid, but nothing herein shall give power to the justices for any county at large, riding, &c. not being justices for such city, &c. or to any officers acting under them, to meddle in any matters arising within such city, &c., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 65.

127. TO AUTHORIZE JUSTICES OF PEACE TO ENFORCE FINES upon constables, overseers, and other peace or parish officers, for neglect of duty, and on masters of apprentices for ill usage of such their apprentices, and also to make provision for the execution of warrants of distress granted by magistrates, 33 G. 3. c. 55. [See similar provision for Ir., 59 G. 3. c. 92. ss. 5—7.]

128. Two justices assembled at any special or petty sessions, on complaint on oath before them, of any neglect of duty or disobedience of any lawful warrant or order of any justice of peace, by any constable, overseer of the poor, or other peace or parish officer, or on complaint made to such two justices on oath by or on the behalf of any apprentice, whether bound by the parish, township, or otherwise, provided no more than 10*l.* be paid on such binding, against his master or mistress of any ill usage of such apprentice by him or her, (such constable, &c. master or mistress having been duly summoned to appear and answer such complaint,) may impose on conviction any reasonable fine, not exceeding 40*s.*, upon such constable, &c. master, &c. as a punishment; and by warrant under their hands and seals at such sessions, may direct such fines, if not paid, to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, rendering overplus after deducting the fine and charges to him; and such fine when imposed on any such constable, &c. shall go to the poor of his parish, &c. at the discretion of such justices, and when imposed on such master or mistress shall, at the like discretion, be either so applied or be paid to the use of such apprentice as a recompence for the injury done him, and all persons aggrieved by the imposition of any such fine, or order, or warrant of distress, or by the judgment of such justices, or by any act done in the execution of such warrant, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, riding, or division, giving 10 days' notice thereof, and for want of such distress, such person shall be committed to the house of correction for not exceeding 10 days, 33 G. 3. c. 55. s. 1. [and see tit. APPRENTICE, pl. 13—16.]

129. No person acting under any such warrant of distress shall be a trespasser ab initio, by reason of any irregularity or informality in such warrants, or the proceedings thereon but any person aggrieved by the issuing and execution thereof, may recover special damages in an action on the case, in any court of record, id. s. 2. [The last section, viz. s. 3., relates to warrants of distress, which see ante, pl. 107.]

130. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PRESERVING THE PEACE, AND securing the freedom of election in the town of Nottingham, and county of such town, 43 G. 3. c. 45.

131. The justices of peace for the county of Notts. may act as justices for the town and county of the town of Nottingham, in as full and ample a manner as if such town had not been made a distinct county, and as fully as the mayor and aldermen of such town as justices of peace have done before this act, and all persons either within such county of Notts. at large, or within such town, who are authorized by any of such justices acting as such for such town under this act, may act in pursuance of such authority, in the same manner, and subject to the same pains, and under the same privileges as to any act to be done in pursuance thereof, as if such act was required to have been done within the county of Notts. at large, 43 G. 3. c. 45. s. 1.

132. FOR GIVING JURISDICTION TO JUSTICES OF PEACE to hear and determine prosecutions for penalties incurred by any offence against the laws relating to the revenue of customs, 49 G. 3. c. 65. ss. 1—6. [See the rest of this act, TITANIS POLICE.]

133. Two justices for any county, riding, division, city, or liberty, wherein any offence shall arise, or the offenders be found, may examine into and determine all prosecutions for penalties incurred for any offence against this act, or any act now or hereafter to be made relating to the customs, and on information exhibited, may summon the party accused, and on his appearance or default may examine the matter of fact, and on proof by confession or oath of one witness may convict the offender in the penalty, and in case of non-payment, may by warrant under their hands and seals cause the same to be levied upon the goods of the offender, and in default of distress may commit him to the county gaol for 6 months, or until the penalty is paid, 49 G. 3. c. 65. s. 1.

134. This act shall not empower such justices to hear and determine any prosecution for any such penalties where they in the whole exceed 50*l.* unless they are allowed by any other act now, or hereafter to be in force, id. s. 2.

135. In all proceedings before any justice or justices for any fine, penalty or forfeiture incurred under any act now or hereafter to be in force, relating to the customs, every summons issued for the appearance of the party accused, and left at his house, or usual abode, and directed to him by his right or assumed name, shall (except where particular provisions are made for summoning offenders, or for condemning seizures made by persons unknown) be deemed as good as if the same had been served personally upon the party, and directed to him by his proper name, id. s. 3.

136. Where any party is convicted before any two of such justices in any such penalties, &c. under such acts, wherein no power of mitigation is given, or where it is given only by reference to some other law, such justices may mitigate such penalty to any sum not less than one-half, id. s. 4.

137. Where any such offender is committed to any such gaols for default of distress, and there remains for the time for which he was committed, he shall be wholly discharged from the payment of such penalty in respect whereof the warrant of distress was issued, id. s. 5.

138. No information or proceeding for any such fines, &c. shall be exhibited before any justice of the peace after expiration of 6 months from the time of the offence being committed, id. s. 6.

139. TO REMEDY CERTAIN INCONVENIENCIES IN LOCAL AND exclusive jurisdictions, 60 G. 3. and 1 G. 4. c. 14.

140. The justices of peace acting within and for any town, liberty, soke or place not being a county, but having exclusive jurisdiction for the trial of felonies and misdemeanors committed within the same, shall have full power within such limits at their discretion to commit any person duly charged before them with any capital offence committed within such limits to the gaol of the county in which such town, &c. is situated,

there to be tried at the next session of oyer and terminer, or general gaol delivery for the county, in the same manner as if such offence had been done in other part of the county, and as if he had been committed by any justice acting for the county at large, 60 G. 3. and 1 G. 4. c. 14. s. 1.

141. Where any justice or justices of peace under this act shall commit any person to the county gaol, they shall also bind over all necessary parties and witnesses by recognizance, to prosecute and give evidence against such offenders at the next sessions of oyer and terminer and general gaol delivery, and shall transmit such recognizance, and all depositions taken before them relating to the charge to the clerk of the crown, assize, or other proper officer, to be filed in the court of oyer, &c. for such county, to the intent that the same be used or put in force by the judge of the court as shall be thought fit, id. s. 2.

142. In all cases of any commitment to the county gaol under this act, all the expences to which the county may be put by reason of such commitment, together with all such expences of prosecution and witnesses as the judge shall allow by virtue of any law in force, shall be borne by such town, &c. within which such offence was committed, in like manner, and to be raised by the same means whereby such expences would have been raised, if the offender had been prosecuted and tried within the limits of such exclusive jurisdiction, and the judge or court of oyer, &c. shall make such order touching such costs and expences as he may think proper, and direct to whom and in what manner such expences shall in the first instance be paid, and how it shall be repaid and raised within such exclusive jurisdictions, in case there be no treasurer or other officer within the same, who by the custom of such place ought to pay the same in the first instance, id. s. 3.

143. TO INCREASE THE POWER OF MAGISTRATES in the appointment of special constables, 1 G. 4. c. 37. [PUBLIC CLAUSE, s. 5.]

144. Where it appears to any 2 or more justices acting for any county, city, division, riding, or place, by the information on oath of 5 respectable householders of such county, &c. that any tumult, riot, or felony has taken place, or is likely to take place, such justices may call upon and appoint, by precept in writing under their hands, any householders or others (not legally exempt from serving the office of constable) residing within their respective divisions, or the neighbourhood thereof, to act as special constables, for such time and in such manner as such justices think necessary for the preservation of the public peace, and the prevention or suppression of any tumult, &c., and may administer to such person the usual oaths administered to special constables, id. s. 1.

145. Every person (not being so exempt as in s. 1.) so called in, who shall neglect to take the office, and to act as such special constable, shall be liable to such fines as persons neglecting to take the office of constable are by law (see 33 G. 3. c. 55. ante, pl. 128.) subject to, id. s. 2.

146. The general or quarter sessions for any county, as in s. 1., where special constables have been called out, may direct such reasonable allowances to be made them as to the justices there shall seem meet; the same to be paid by the treasurer of such county, &c. to such persons as the said justices direct, and such treasurer shall forthwith pay the sum allowed to such persons, and be allowed the same in his accounts, id. s. 3.

147. The court before which any indictments may be tried under this act, shall award reasonable costs of trial to such persons as may prefer such indictments, and may order the treasurer of such county, &c. to pay the sum so ordered to such persons as the court shall direct, and such treasurer shall forthwith pay and be allowed the same in his account, id. s. 4.

12. THAT THE MASTER OF THE ROLLS AND other officers of chancery shall not go to the war, 11 H. 7. c. 18., [AMD. 19 H. 7. c. 1.]

13. Every person within Eng. or Wa., having offices, fees, and annuities by gift or grant from H. M., who does not personally attend him when he goes to the wars, [semb. takes the field] in person, (except by H. M.'s special licence, or in case of unforeseen illness, or hindrance of personal attendance as above, duly proved), shall forfeit such offices, &c., which shall stand void at H. M.'s pleasure, 11 H. 7. c. 18. s. 1.

14. Tenants of honours, castles, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, by grant from H. M., shall attend him, as in last pl. on pain of forfeiture, 19 H. 7. c. 1. s. 1. [but semb. REP., 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 1.]

15. Such person shall have H. M.'s wages from the time of coming from his house toward him up to his return thither, at 20 miles a day from the time of setting out till their return, id. s. 2. [see note to last pl.]

16. The persons exempted from this attendance are spiritual persons, the master of the rolls and officers and clerks of chancery, justices of either bench, barons of exchequer, and other officers and clerks of those courts, H.M.'s attorney and solicitor general, the serjeants at law, [11 H. 7. c. 18. s. 2., 19 H. 7. c. 1. s. 3.], the clerk of H.M.'s council, and all persons above 60 or under 21 years are also exempted, 19 H. 7. c. 1. s. 3.

17. This act shall not extend [to forfeit H.M.'s grant of any ward or idiot, or custody of the same, REF. 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 2. nor] to females inheriting by H.M.'s grant, 19 H. 7. c. 1. s. 3., nor to H.M.'s grants of land wherein any consideration in money is expressed as paid for the same, 19 H. 7. c. 1. s. 4.

18. FOR AVOIDING SECOND LETTERS PATENT granted by H.M., 6 H. 8. c. 15.

19. If any person make suit to H.M. for any lands, offices or other things by H.M. granted to any person during pleasure, the first patentee being in life, he shall express in his petition or patent the tenor of the former patent, and that H.M. hath determined his pleasure against the first patentee; or the second patent shall be void, id. s. 1.

20. CONCERNING CLERKS OF THE SIGNET AND PRIVY SEAL, 27 H. 8. c. 11.

21. Every grant made in writing by H.M., signed with his sign manual, to be passed under the great seal of Eng. or Ire., or of the duchy of Lancaster, or of any of his counties palatine, or of Wa., or by process out of exchequer; and all grants and writings which any officers shall make in H.M.'s name, shall, before it is passed under any H.M.'s seals, or process made of the same, be brought to the principal secretary, or one of the clerks of the signet to be passed, id. s. 1.

22. The clerk of the signet to whom the said writings are delivered, shall, within 8 days (unless he know H.M.'s pleasure to the contrary), make letters of warrant, subscribed with his hand and sealed with H.M.'s signet to the lord privy seal; and one of the clerks of the privy seal, on examination had by the lord privy seal of the warrant, shall, within 8 days (unless the latter command to the contrary), make other letters of like warranty, subscribed with the name of the clerk of privy seal, to the lord chancellor, chancellor of the duchy, &c. or other officer for the writing and enrolling of letters patent or closed, or other process making, according to the tenor of the warrant from the privy seal, id. s. 2.

23. No person shall write any warrant upon any grant made by H.M. or any of his aforesaid officers, or procure the same to be passed under any the above seals otherwise than as before specified, on pain to forfeit 10*l.* one half to H.M. and the other half to him that will sue, id. s. 3.

24. The clerks which shall pass any grants by immediate warrant, shall receive for the offices of the signet and privy seal, as well the fees in this act taxed for writing such grant, as also those for the seal which they shall deliver to one of the clerks of the signet or privy seal of the same, within 3 months, on pain of 10*l.* to be levied in form aforesaid, id. s. 4.

25. This act shall not prejudice the lord treasurer concerning such warrants or precepts as he by virtue of his office, may direct immediately to the lord chancellor, or other person for making out H.M.'s grants of any offices, or other thing belonging to his disposition, id. s. 5.

26. All leases of H.M.'s manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments in the county palatine of Lancaster which the chancellor of the duchy or county palatine shall make in the name of H.M., may pass under the seals of the duchy or county, id. s. 6.

27. Grants of offices, or other thing in the said county or duchy, the yearly fees whereof amount to not above 2*l.* per day, may be passed by the chancellor of the duchy as before, id. s. 7.

28. Every clerk of H.M.'s signet and privy seal shall have for writing a warrant on a bill for tales or reward, 12*d.*; for a warrant for gift of every office, 20*d.*; for a warrant for a pension, annuity or wages, 20*d.*; for a warrant for a special living or other perpetuity, 6*s.* 8*d.*; for a warrant on every bill for a conge d'elire, royal assent, restitution of temporalities, donatives, advocations, presentations or other ecclesiastical matter, 3*s.* 4*d.*; for every warrant on a placard, licence, pardon or sheriff's reward, 2*s.*; for every warrant on a denizen, 3*s.* 4*d.*; for a warrant for keeping an idiot, 20*d.*; on pain for taking larger fees of 10*l.*, one half to his H.M. and the other to him that will sue, id. s. 8.

29. The lord chancellor may use his discretion in passing any thing by the great seal without fees for the great seal, signet, and privy seal, as the case shall require, and as hath been accustomed, and the clerks for writing such patents shall be discharged of all penalties for not receiving and paying fees to the signet and privy seal, id. s. 9.

30. This act shall not prejudice any persons whom H.M. shall by express command appoint to procure any thing to be sealed for H.M.'s private affairs, or those of his realm, so that his name be entered in the book of the clerk of the hanaper, thus: "per A. ad mandatum domini regis," id. s. 11.

31. Nor shall prejudice any person having the grant or lease of any farm the yearly rent of which does not amount to 6*l.* 1*s.* 4*d.*, id. s. 12.

32. FOR RATIFICATION OF H.M.'s style, 35 H. 8. c. 3. [virtually REF. as to the treason by 1 M. St. 1. c. 1. s. 3.; expressly REF. by 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 8. s. 20.; but REF. as to all but the treason by the REF. of the latter act by 1 El. c. 1. s. 2.]

33. It shall be high treason to attempt to deprive H.M. of this style, viz. Henry the 8th, by the grace of God, king of Eng. France (now omitted) and Ire. [but see now the union acts], defender of the faith, and of the church of Eng. and Ire. in earth the supreme head, 35 H. 8. c. 3. [Semb. entirely superseded as to the king's style by the proclamation thereof, in pursuance of 30 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. Art. 1., IRELAND (Union), pl. 3.]

34. CONCERNING GRANTS AND GIFTS MADE BY PATENTEES out of letters patent, 3 & 4 E. 6. c. 4. (and recital in s. 1.) [EXPLD. 13 E. c. 6.]

35. All persons claiming under patents made by H.M., or any other that have any estate or interest in any lands, offices or other things, by or under such patentees, may convey unto themselves title as well against H.M. as any other person, by shewing forth the exemplification or constat of the roll, or of so much thereof as shall serve for the matters in variance under the great seal, and the exemplification or constat of the enrolment shall be of the same force as the first letters patent should be for, if the same were pleaded or shewed, 3 & 4 E. 6. c. 4. s. 2.

36. All patentees, and other persons having by or from them any estate or interest in lands, or other thing by the queen to be granted, may convey to themselves such title, as well against her as against all other persons, by shewing forth any exemplification or constat under the great seal of the enrolment of such patent, or of so much thereof as may serve for such title, the patents then remaining in force, as if they were pleaded and shewed forth, id. s. 2.

37. THE ROYAL POWER OF THIS REALM, and all the dignities belonging to the same, being vested in either male or female, shall be as fully enjoyed by one as the other, 1 M. St. 3. c. 1. s. 3.

38. FOR RE-ESTABLISHING THE OFFICE OF lord steward of the queen's household, 1 M. St. 3. c. 4. [repealed; 32 H. 8. c. 39. which erected a great master of H.M.'s house instead of the above.]

39. FOR RESTORING TO THE CROWN THE ANCIENT jurisdiction over the state, ecclesiastical and spiritual, and abolishing all foreign power repugnant to the same, 1 El. c. 1. ss. 16—17. 19—34. 37—38., (and recital in s. 1.)

40. No foreign prince or person, spiritual or temporal, shall exercise any power or privilege, spiritual or ecclesiastical, within this realm or any of the queen's dominions, id. s. 16.

41. Such jurisdictions spiritual and ecclesiastical, as by any spiritual &c. power have been or may lawfully be exercised for visitation of the ecclesiastical state and persons, and for reformation, &c. of the same, and of all errors, heresies, schisms, &c. shall for ever be annexed to the imperial crown of this realm, id. s. 17.

42. Every ecclesiastical person soever, and every temporal judge, justice, mayor, and other lay officer, and every other person having H.M.'s wages, shall take a corporal oath on the evangelists before such persons as shall please H.M. under the great seal to be assigned, id. s. 19. [This oath of supremacy is abrogated by 1 W. & M. c. 8., and another appointed, but the present forms are provided by 1 G. 1. S. 2 c. 13. and 6 G. 3. c. 57. s. 1. OATHS.]

43. If any such ecclesiastical officer or minister, temporal judge, or other lay officer, shall refuse to take the oath, he shall forfeit during life every ecclesiastical benefice, &c. and every temporal promotion which he hath solely at the time of such refusal; and the title in every such promotion, as against such person refusing, shall be void, id. s. 20.

44. Every person so refusing shall be disabled to exercise any office, &c. which he hath jointly with any other person, id. s. 21.

45. Every person preferred to any archbishopric, bishopric, or other ecclesiastical promotion, or to any lay office, before he takes on him to exercise such promotion, shall take the oath before the persons who have authority to admit to such office, or before such as by H.M., by commission under the great seal, shall be appointed, id. s. 22.

46. If any person so promoted refuses to take such oath, he shall be disabled to have the same promotion, id. s. 23.

47. Every temporal person doing homage to or received into service with H.M. shall take the said oath before the lord chancellor or persons by H.M. appointed, id. s. 24.

48. Every person taking orders, and promoted to any degree of learning in any university, before he shall take the same, shall take such oath before his ordinary, &c., chancellor, or vice-chancellor, id. s. 25.

49. If any person having any estate of inheritance in a temporal office, shall refuse, but afterwards shall willingly require to take, and does take the said oath, he shall be vested in like estate and possession thereof as before the refusal, id. s. 26.

50. If any person inhabiting within the said dominions shall by writing, printing, teaching, preaching, express words or act, advisedly, &c. affirm the authority, &c. or jurisdiction spiritual of any foreign prince, state, or person heretofore claimed within this realm; or shall advisedly, &c. execute any thing for the advancement thereof, he shall on conviction, for his first offence, forfeit unto H. M. all his goods, as well real as personal, 1 R. c. 1. s. 27.

51. If any person so convicted shall not have goods to the value of 20*l.* he shall, beside the forfeiture of them, suffer imprisonment one year, id. s. 28.

52. All the ecclesiastical promotions of every spiritual person so offending shall be void; and the patron may present to them, as if the incumbent were dead; and such offender shall on conviction for the second offence incur a præmunire, id. s. 29.

53. If a third time convicted, his offence shall be adjudged high treason, id. s. 30.

54. No person shall be impeached for any of the offences so committed only by preaching, teaching or words, unless indicted within one year; and if he be imprisoned for the offences in s. 27., and be not indicted in one half year, he shall be set at liberty, id. s. 31.

55. This act shall not repeat any clause contained in the act of repeal, 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 8. s. 40. concerning any matter of præmunire, id. s. 32.

56. If any peer is indicted of any offence revived or made præmunire or treason by this act, he shall be tried by his peers as in treason, id. s. 34.

57. No person shall be arraigned for any offence under this act, unless two witnesses testify the same, and are confronted at the time of the arraignment, id. s. 37.

58. If any person shall give relief or comfort to the person of any offender in case of præmunire or treason revived or made by this act, it is no offence unless it be proved by two witnesses that the persons that give such relief had notice of such offence committed by the offender, id. s. 33.

59. FOR CONSOLIDATING THE ESTATES TAIL, and reversion in fee which H. M. hath in the post office, and 24,000*l.* per annum of the hereditary excise, 1 J. 2. c. 12. [ss. 1—3. are Exp.]

60. H. M. his heirs, and successors, shall henceforth be seised of, all and singular, the revenues, issues, and profits, of the general post office, and of the yearly sum of 24,000*l.* issuing out of the hereditary excise, in fee simple, 1 J. 2. c. 12. s. 4. [but see 1 G. 4. c. 1. infra, pl. 141. Civil List Act.]

61. FOR ESTABLISHING THE CORONATION OATH, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 6. (and recital in s. 1.)

62. The following oath shall be administered to every king or queen who shall succeed to the imperial crown of this realm at their respective coronations, by one of the archbishops or bishops of Eng. thereto appointed by such king or queen, and before all persons present at such coronation, in this manner, id. s. 1.

The archbishop or bishop shall say.—Will you solemnly promise and swear to govern the people of this kingdom of Eng. and the dominions thereto belonging, according to the statutes in parliament agreed on, and the laws and customs of the same?

The king or queen shall say.—I solemnly promise so to do.

Archbishop or bishop.—Will you to your power cause law and justice in mercy to be executed in all your judgments?

King or queen.—I will.

Archbishop or bishop.—Will you to the utmost of your power maintain the laws of God, the true profession of the gospel and protestant reformed religion established by law? and will you preserve unto the bishops and clergy of this realm, and to the churches committed to their charge, all such rights and privileges as by law do or shall appertain unto them, or any of them?

King or queen.—All this I promise to do.

After this, the king or queen, laying his or her hand upon the holy gospels, shall say,

King or queen.—The things which I have here before promised, I will perform and keep. So help me God.

Then the king or queen shall kiss the book.

63. NO COMMISSION, EITHER CIVIL OR MILITARY, shall determine by reason of the death or demise of the king or queen of this realm, but every such commission shall remain in full force for 6 months next after any such death, &c. unless in the mean time superseded, &c. by the next and immediate successor to whom the imperial crown of this realm is limited to descend, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 27. s. 21. [EXPL. 1 A. St. 1. c. 8., commencing 25th March, 1701., id. s. 7.]

64. No grant of any office or employment, either civil or military, hereafter made, shall determine on the demise of the king or queen, but every such grant shall remain in full force for 6 months next after any such demise, unless in the mean time superseded or made void by the successor, 1 A. St. 1. c. 8. s. 2.

65. No writ, plea, or other proceeding on any indictment or information for any offence or misdemeanor, nor any process for any debt or account due to the sovereign for any lands, tenements, or other revenue, pending at his demise, shall be discontinued thereby, but shall remain in full force notwithstanding, id. s. 4.

66. No commission of assize, oyer and terminer, general gaol delivery, or of association, writs of admittance, si non omnes, of assistance, or commission of the peace, shall be determined by the demise of any king or queen of the realm, but shall continue in full force for 6 months next ensuing, notwithstanding any such demise, unless determined by the successor, and no original writ, writ of nisi prius, commission, process or proceedings soever, in, or issuing out of any court of equity, nor any proceeding on any office or inquisition; nor any writ of certiorari, or habeas corpus in any cause criminal or civil; nor any writ of attachment, or process for contempt, nor any commission of delegacy or reviver, for any matter ecclesiastical, testamentary, or maritime, or any process thereon, shall be abated or discontinued by such demise, 1 A. St. 1. c. 8. s. 5.

67. This act and 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 27. s. 21. ante, pl. 63. shall extend to Ireland, Jersey, Guernsey, and H. M.'s dominions in America, and elsewhere, id. s. 6.

68. FOR FURTHER LIMITATION OF THE CROWN, and better securing the rights and liberties of the subject, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 2.

69. The princess Sophia, electress of Hanover, and the heirs of her body being protestants, declared next successors to the crown after the king and princess Anne of Denmark, and their issue, &c., id. s. 1.

70. A papist or person married to a papist, is incapacitated from inheriting the crown, and every king and queen succeeding to the crown shall take the coronation oath, and subscribe the declaration in 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 6., id. s. 2.

71. TO REPEAL SO MUCH OF 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 2. s. 3. AS ENACTS, that no person who should come to possession of the crown, shall go out of the dominions of Eng., Scot., or Ire. without consent of parliament, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 51. (s. 1. is to this purport, so is not repeated here.)

72. FOR [enabling H. M. to discharge the debt due on his civil list, &c.] PREVENTING THE CIVIL LIST from being in arrear in future, by regulating the mode of payments thereof, and by suppressing or regulating certain officers paid out of the civil list revenues, 22 G. 3. c. 32. [AND. 44 G. 3. c. 80. s. 2., 50 G. 3. c. 117. ss. 13—14.] and see 50 G. 3. c. 111. relating to SCOTLAND (Pensions).

73. The office of [third secretary of state, or secretary of state for the colonies, but quære now.] the board of trade and plantations; the offices of the lords and gentlemen of police in Scot.; the principal officers of the board of works; of the great wardrobe; of the jewel office; the treasurer of the chamber; the cofferer of the household; the offices of the six clerks of the board of green cloth; of paymaster of the pensions; of the master of the harriers, the master of the fox hounds, and the master of the stag hounds; together with certain of the officers dependent on the same, shall be abolished, 22 G. 3. c. 32. s. 1.

74. Any office of the same nature established hereafter, shall be deemed a new office, id. s. 2.

75. The treasury shall direct persons to prepare for their approbation methods accommodated to the reforms in this act, and to appoint officers for carrying such plans into execution, under the lord steward or chamberlain, master of the horse, and any other officer, to whom the said officers shall be subordinate; and the said lord steward, &c. shall within 15 days after each quarter, make out an estimate of all the articles of expence of H. M.'s civil government, within their departments; which, after being inspected, and approved by the said lord steward, &c. shall be presented to the treasury; and which estimate shall not be exceeded (except as after) above 5000*l.* in any of those departments in one year, without reasons produced to the treasury; and upon the expiration of the quarter, the treasury shall direct so much of the monies of the civil list revenues to be issued at the exchequer to the lord steward, &c. or persons appointed by the lord steward, &c. with the consent of the treasury, as shall be sufficient to pay the whole expence incurred in such quarter, to be by him distributed among the persons intitled to receive the same, id. s. 4.

76. The court of virge, or the green cloth, shall be held with all the accustomed jurisdiction, powers, and privileges, without any of the clerks of the green cloth, whose office is taken away, id. s. 5. [ss. 6—12. are REL. by 54 G. 3. c. 157. s. 1., which act regulates the conduct and expenditure of the office of works, see WORKS (PENTIC).]

77. The furniture, pictures, plate, and all other moveables soever, formerly under the care of the office of great wardrobe, or other wardrobe or jewel office, shall be committed to the care of the chamberlain, id. s. 13.

78. Work formerly done under the direction of the wardrobe shall be executed (so far as regards the previous estimate and subsequent control and account) in the manner directed for works undertaken by the surveyor of the buildings, id. s. 14.

79. The business done by the commissioners of trade and plantations may be exercised by any committee of the privy council, which H. M. shall appoint, without any salary for exercising the same, id. s. 15.

80. All public money under management of the lords of trade and police in Scot. shall be under management of the convention of royal burghs, id. s. 16.

81. No pension exceeding 300*l.* per annum shall be granted to one person; and the whole pensions granted in one year shall not exceed 600*l.*, a list of which, with the names of the persons, shall be laid before parliament in 20 days after the beginning of each session, until the whole pension list is reduced to 90,000*l.*; which sum it shall not exceed by more than 5000*l.* in the whole of all the grants: nor shall any pension, after the said reduction, to one person, exceed 1,200*l.* yearly, except to the royal family, or on an address of either house of parliament, 22 G. 3. c. 82. s. 17.

82. As it hath been usual that persons who have served the crown in foreign courts, have, after the expiration of their service, received a proportion of their former appointment, nothing in this act relative to pensions, shall extend to such allowance, if the persons do not enjoy some place or profit from the crown to the amount of the pension usually paid in such cases, and the list of pensions shall be laid before parliament, id. s. 18.

83. No pension or allowance shall be granted to any person for having served the crown in foreign courts within less than 10 years from date of his first appointment in such service, during which time he shall have served not less than 3 years; and no such allowance shall exceed 2000*l.* per annum, and shall abate if he is appointed to any civil office, or under the crown, of equal or greater amount, and also shall be subject to proportionate abatement if its value is less than the amount of such allowance, 50 G. 3. c. 117. s. 13.

84. Before granting any such pension, the grantee shall not be less than 35 years old, and the secretary of state for foreign affairs shall transmit to the treasury a certificate under his hand, that such person has not within 10 years declined serving as a foreign minister, except for sufficient cause, in any rank or station equal or superior to that in which he had last served, which certificate shall be recited in the grant of such pension, id. s. 14.

85. No pension shall be paid but at the exchequer, and with the name of the person to whom, or in trust for whom, it is granted; and those transferred thither by this act shall be subject to no taxes or fees, except those to which before this act they were subject; nor shall any pension hereafter granted be charged with other fees than were heretofore paid, 22 G. 3. c. 82. s. 19. [see other fees, 26 G. 3. c. 90.]

86. Nothing herein shall restrain the first commissioner of the treasury, by H. M.'s consent, from taking away from the private list of pensions, the names and pensions of any person at present entered on the said list, id. s. 20.

87. He may return into the exchequer any pension or annuity, without the name of the person to whom the same is payable, on taking an oath before the barons of the exchequer, or one baron, or before the curiaTOR baron:

'I A. B. do swear, that, according to the best of my knowledge, belief, and information, the pension or pensions, annuity or annuities, returned without a name by me into the exchequer, is or are not, directly or indirectly, for the benefit, use, or behoof, of any member of the house of commons, or, so far as I am concerned, applicable, directly or indirectly, to the purpose of supporting or procuring an interest in any place returning members to parliament. So help me God,' id. s. 21.

88. On taking oath, the pension, &c. shall be paid at the exchequer to the order of the first commissioner, and his receipt taken as an acquittance for the same, id. s. 22.

89. If such secret pension continues in the list for more than 5 years, the first commissioner, or one of the secretaries, or one of the chief clerks of the treasury, shall make oath, before it is paid at the exchequer, that he does believe that the person for whose use the pension hath been granted is living, id. s. 23.

90. It shall not be lawful to issue from the exchequer, to any secretary of the treasury, or other person soever, from the civil list revenues, for secret service within this kingdom, any money exceeding 10,000*l.* in one year, id. s. 24.

91. When it is expedient to issue money for foreign secret service it shall be issued to a secretary of state, or to the first commissioner of the admiralty; and who shall for his discharge at the exchequer within 3 years from issuing the money, produce the receipt of H. M.'s minister, commissioner, or consul, in foreign parts, or of any commander-in-chief, or other commander of the navy or land forces, to whom the same shall have been given, that it hath been received; which shall be filed in exchequer, in order to charge the said minister, &c. and shall be sufficient to acquit the secretary or first commissioner of the admiralty, in their account at exchequer, id. s. 25.

92. Any foreign minister, &c. charged by any secret service money received, shall stand discharged thereof, if within one year after his arrival in G. B. he shall either return the said money into the exchequer, or make oath before the barons of the exchequer, or one of them.

'I A. B. do swear, that I have disbursed the money intrusted to me for foreign secret service, faithfully, according to the intent and purpose for which it was given, according to my best judgment, for H. M.'s service.

'So help me God,' id. s. 26.

93. Whenever it is necessary for the secretary of state, or first commissioner of the admiralty, to make payment of any money issued for foreign secret service, or for secret service, in detecting, preventing, or defeating conspiracies against the state, in any place within this kingdom, then it shall be sufficient to acquit the said secretary or first commissioner, for such secretary, or the under secretary in the office to which such secret service money hath been paid, or for the first commissioner or secretary of the admiralty, to make the following oath before the barons of the exchequer, or before the curiaTOR baron.

'I A. B. do swear that the money paid to me for foreign secret service, [or for secret service in detecting, preventing, or defeating treasonable or other dangerous conspiracies against the state, mutatis mutandis, as the case may be], has been bona fide applied to the said purpose or purposes, and to no other; and that it hath not appeared to me convenient to the state that the same should be paid abroad.

'So help me God,' id. s. 27.

94. The stated sums now paid to secretaries of state, under the name of secret service money, but which are part of the salary of the office, shall be given under the name of salary; and no stated sum shall be allowed for secret service out of the civil list; but when deemed necessary by the treasury, shall be issued by their direction to the officer aforesaid, as before directed, id. s. 28.

95. Whenever any money is issued for any special service, or given without provision of annual or other payment, but in a gross sum, as to any secretary of the treasury, or others, to be paid over to any person for special service, or as royal bounty, the said money, together with the service, or as royal bounty, to which the same is applied, as also the name of the person to whom the money is paid, shall be entered in a book in the treasury, to be produced to either house of parliament, if required, id. s. 29.

96. Money given as royal bounty, more than once in 3 years, shall be reputed a pension, id. s. 30.

97. The treasury shall draw out a plan of the establishments and payments of the civil list in classes, to be signed by the commissioners, and deposited with the clerk of the house of commons, and all money shall be paid according to the plan, id. s. 31. [see 1 G. 4. c. 1. pl. 141.]

98. Whenever any such classes have become in arrear more than 2 quarters, the treasury shall cause an account of such arrear, and the class in which it arises, to be laid before the house of commons in one month after, or if parliament is not then sitting, in 14 days after then next sitting, 44 G. 3. c. 80. s. 2.

99. It shall not be lawful for the treasury to direct the payment of any salary or pension till the bills, salaries and pensions of all those who are entitled, according to the foregoing order, are first discharged, or cash set apart in exchequer sufficient to answer the whole demand in the preceding classes: but nothing herein prevents the treasury from ordering all occasional payments for which warrants are granted at the treasury, and not comprehended in the classes aforesaid, to be made according to their discretion, and the circumstances of the case, id. s. 32.

100. If any salary, fee, or pension remains in arrear at the usual time of payment, at the end of 2 years, from want of cash belonging to the civil list, to pay the same, it shall not be carried as a debt to the account of the year following, but shall be wholly extinguished, as if it had not been payable, id. s. 33.

101. All fines hitherto payable, and by this act not excepted on any payment within the civil list, shall still continue to be paid, and remain for the disposal of the treasury, id. s. 34.

102. The treasury shall cause books to be kept for the charges of each of the classes distinctly; and the result of payment in the said books shall be entered in a separate book at the end of each year, and being opposed to the receipt of the civil list cash, a balance shall be struck upon the whole, id. s. 35.

103. The treasury may allow to every person holding his office by patent for life, or having purchased his place, an annuity equal to the emoluments of his office; and also to other persons in the subordinate offices, such annuities as they shall think equitable, for the support of such person, until provided for in H. M.'s service, according to his abilities, id. s. 36.

104. Whatever is directed by this act to be done by the treasury, may be done by the high treasurer, or commissioners of the treasury for the time being, or 3 of them, id. s. 37.

105. FOR PREVENTING THE ACCUMULATION OF DEBTS BY ANY future heirs apparent of the crown, and for regulating the mode of expenditure from the time when a separate establishment shall be made for such future heir apparent, 35 G. 3. c. 125.

106. When a separate establishment is made for any heir apparent, his principal officer shall in 14 days after prepare for his approbation a plan thereof in distinct departments and classes, with a plan of the payments of each and of every office therein; and shall also make an estimate of the annual expences of each distinct department, one copy of which (after being approved by the heir) shall be lodged with the treasury, another in the office of the treasurer, or other principal officer of the heir, and another with the clerks of both houses respectively, and after the first quarter day for payment of such revenue, all disbursements made thereout for the above purposes, shall be made by such treasurer or principal officer in the order specified in such estimate, and no other; and for which he shall be responsible in damages to the party grieved; provided that any alteration which may be expedient to make in such establishment shall be stated by him, on being directed by the heir, and if approved of by the latter shall be lodged as above; and on any increase to such establishment, the said treasurer, &c. shall prepare a new estimate under the same rules, 35 G. 3. c. 125. s. 1.

107. Such treasurer or principal officers for the time being shall cause a book to be kept, in which all payments for the above purposes shall be duly entered with their dates, and the treasury shall, from time to time (at least once a year) demand inspection thereof, which shall be granted, id. s. 2.

108. Such treasurer, &c. in 14 days after expiration of every quarter, shall cause to be prepared a just account of the expences of the preceding quarter, containing the sums paid, demands made and outstanding, and the expences of each department, and shall audit the same with the vouchers, and sign his approbation thereof, if not exceeding the estimates made as above, id. s. 3.

109. On such settlement of the quarterly account, such treasurer or principal officer authorized thereto, by warrant under privy seal of such heir apparent, may pay the sums specified in such accounts as the quarterly expence, as aforesaid, to the respective creditors of such heir, id. s. 4.

110. If any deficiency arises in his revenues at the end of any quarter, so as to create an arrear in the payment of any claims against such heir so allowed, such arrears shall be carried to the next quarter's account, and (except where arrears of the preceding quarter are likewise carried to the same account), shall be placed therein, and shall be paid first out of the next quarter: provided that no arrear of salary from such heir, &c. to any officer concerned in executing this act, shall be carried on above one quarter after that in which it is due, nor shall any arrear of any sort be carried on above two quarters of a year after due, and shall have a preference in the quarter to which carried; and no such officer, &c. shall audit, allow, or settle any accounts, or pay any sums for that quarter till such arrears are paid, provided that the arrears of the last preceding quarter are paid next, id. s. 5.

111. If at the end of any quarter of a year, any surplus of the revenue shall remain after paying all debts and arrears, it shall be paid over to the heir's privy purse, id. s. 6.

112. Every creditor whose demand accrues after the first quarterly day of payment, shall deliver into the office of such treasurer, &c. a particular in writing of the nature and amount thereof, and signed by him, within 10 days after the quarter expired, in order to its being included in the preceding quarterly account to be audited as above, or the same shall not be included in the same, or paid by such treasurer, &c.; and all such demand and securities for the same shall be barred at law and equity; and any such treasurer, officer, &c. neglecting to insert such demands in their accounts shall pay the amount in damages to the party grieved, id. s. 7.

113. No action shall be brought by any creditor against such heir apparent for any debt accruing after the 1st quarter day for payment of such revenue, nor on any security for the same; and all such proceedings are void, id. s. 8.

114. Where a demand is made or debt claimed, which have wholly accrued after the said first quarter day, and within the next preceding quarter, and the particulars have been declared as in s. 7., and the same is not paid, the creditors, at any time within 3 calendar months after delivery of such particulars, may sue such treasurer, &c. for recovery thereof; but no execution shall issue against his person or effects, but the judgment shall be a charge on the funds of such heir which shall be in the treasurer's hands, in 2 quarters after that in which the debt sued for shall have accrued; which funds shall be liable to payment of the same and costs, in preference to all demands, except those on any such prior judgment; and a docket of every judgment so obtained shall be entered by the creditor in the office of such treasurer, &c. within 10 days after signing the same, in order to entitle him to the benefit hereof, id. s. 9.

115. If any officer of the establishment, or other person entrusted with the management of such revenues, shall neglect to make up or transmit, or to audit and investigate the same, or to pay the monies in his hands for that purpose in the order hereby established, or shall misapply the same contrary to this act, or shall wilfully omit to insert in his quarterly account the claim of any creditor, delivered as above, or shall wilfully make up, &c. any false account, he shall pay damages to the party grieved; and all penalties and damages incurred by virtue of this act may be recovered by action of debt or on the case, in any court at Westminster, with costs without essoin or more than one imparlance allowed, 35 G. 3. c. 125. s. 10.

116. CONCERNING THE DISPOSITION OF CERTAIN real and personal property of H. M., and also of the real and personal property of H. M. and of the queen-consort for the time being, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 88.

117. None of the provisions in 1 A. St. 1. c. 7. ss. 5—8. (Crown Property, pl. 25—29.) 1 G. 3. c. 1. s. 3. and 1 G. 1. S. 1. c. 1. [Exp.] and 34 G. 3. c. 75. (tit. id. pl. 33, &c.) shall extend to any manors, messuages, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of whatever tenure, purchased by H. M., his heirs or successors, out of monies issued for their privy purse not appropriated to any public service; nor to any lands, &c. which have or shall come to H. M. by gift, devise, or descent, from any of his ancestors or other persons not kings or queens of this realm; and the operation hereof shall commence from the birth of king G. 3., id. s. 1.

118. All hereditaments of copyhold, customary, or leasehold tenure, purchased by or come to H. M. by gift, devise of, or descent from persons not kings and queens of this realm, whether surrendered or assigned to H. M., or to any person in trust for him, shall be vested in James earl of Cardigan, his heirs, executors, and administrators, according to the tenure, in trust for H. M.; and all such copyhold, &c. lands, &c. so to come to H. M. by gift, &c. as above, shall be vested in some trustee, to be appointed by instrument in writing under the sign manual; which earl and the other trustee shall be duly admitted to such copyhold or customary hereditaments, on payment of such fines, and subject to such rents, services, and customs, as of right shall be due; and shall be deemed, in respect of the lords of such manors, to be the only tenants of such hereditaments, id. s. 2.

119. Nothing herein shall defeat any grant already made by H. M. of any hereditaments so purchased by and conveyed, surrendered or assigned in trust to or for him, id. s. 3.

120. Notwithstanding any thing in the acts in s. 2., H. M., by instrument under his sign-manual, attested by 2 or more witnesses, or by last will, &c., in writing attested by 3 or more witnesses, may grant, sell, give, or devise any of the hereditaments so purchased or come to him or them as above, (and whether conveyed to or vested in himself, or in any trustee for him,) unto any person for any estate or purpose, as any of H. M.'s subjects may grant, give, or devise the like belonging to such subjects; and such trustee for H. M. shall convey the same as H. M. under his sign-manual, attested as above, shall direct; and all provisions made by law for conveyance of trust-estates, by infants, idiots, and lunatics, shall extend to such trustees for H. M., who shall convey the same accordingly, id. s. 4.

121. If no disposition by grant, will, or otherwise, be made by H. M., his heirs or successors, &c. or if any disposition so made shall not exhaust the whole estate therein, the said lands and hereditaments shall on the demise of H. M., descend in the same manner as before making this act, subject to the provisions of s. 10., as to any personalty part thereof; and every freehold in fee simple which shall so descend, shall be subject to the restrictions of the acts recited in s. 1., id. s. 5.

122. The lands, &c. (as in s. 4.) so vested in H. M. or his trustees, shall be subject to all parliamentary and parochial taxes, to be assessed as if they belonged to any of H. M.'s subjects, id. s. 6.

123. As long as such lands, &c. are vested in H. M. or his trustees, freed under this act from the restrictions of the acts recited in s. 1., the taxes mentioned and other annual payments payable in respect thereof, shall be paid out of the privy purse, and accounts thereof shall be returned to the persons executing the office of H. M.'s privy purse, who shall pay the same, id. s. 7.

124. The queen consort for the time being may, during her own and H. M.'s joint lives, by deed under her hand and seal, attested by 2 witnesses, or by last will attested by 3 or more witnesses, grant, and dispose of, convey or devise, any lands, &c. purchased by or in trust for her, or vesting in her or her trustees, for any estate of inheritance, or freehold, or copyhold, or customary estate, under any deed, gift, will, or otherwise, for all or any part of such estate, right, and interest, as she or such her trustee hath or have therein, and also by her last will may bequeath all such her chattels, whether real or personal, and personal estate soever, to any person and for any purpose, as if she were sole; but nothing in this act shall enable such queen-consort to make any grant or disposition of any palace or mansion, gardens, lands, or hereditaments belonging to H. M., in right of the crown, but vested in her for life, for her jointure, or to make any other grant which she could not make if sole, id. s. 9.

125. All personal estate of H. M. consisting of monies issued or applied for the use of his privy purse, or not appropriated to the public service, or goods, chattels, or effects which have not come to H. M. in right of the crown, shall be deemed his personalty, subject to disposition by will, in writing under his sign-manual, and to payment of such of his debts as are of right payable out of his privy purse; and such part thereof as shall not be so bequeathed, &c. shall go in such manner on his demise, as if this act had not been made, 59 & 40 G. 3. c. 88. s. 10.

126. Any will already made by H. M. is valid, id. s. 11.

127. H. M. may, by warrant under his sign-manual, direct the execution of any trusts or purposes to which any hereditaments which have escheated or shall escheat to H. M., his heirs or successors, shall have been liable at the time they so escheated, or would have been liable in the hands of subjects, and to make any grants of such hereditaments, to any trustee or otherwise, for execution of such trusts, and to make grants of any hereditaments which shall escheat as above, to any person either for restoring the same to any of the family of the person whose estates they had been, or of rewarding any persons making discovery of such escheat as to H. M. seems fit, id. s. 12.

128. TO ENABLE THE KEEPER OF THE PRIVY PURSE, for the time being, to dispose of and transfer all such public stocks or funds as stand in his name in the books of the bank of Eng. in trust for H. M., 52 G. 3. c. 148. (and recital in s. 1.)

129. He shall account for the proceeds thereof to the person by law authorized to audit such accounts, id. s. 2.

130. FOR APPROPRIATING THE CIVIL LIST REVENUES to ensure regular payment of the annual charges thereon, as specified in a schedule of the several classes thereof annexed, 56 G. 3. c. 46. ss. 3—15. (framed to show the object of these sections; ss. 1—2. appear personal.) [The schedule is EXR. and a new one is provided by 1 G. 4. c. 1. viz]

1st Class. H. M.'s privy purse	£ 60,000
2d Class. Allowances to the lord chancellor, judges, and speaker of the house of commons	92,955
3d Class. Salaries, &c. of H. M.'s ambassadors and other ministers, salaries to consuls, and pensions to retired ambassadors and ministers	226,950
4th Class. Expenses (except salaries) of H. M.'s household in the departments of the lord steward, lord chamberlain, master of the horse, master of the robes, and surveyor-general of works	209,000
5th Class. Salaries in the above departments	140,700
6th Class. Pensions limited by the act 28 G. 3. c. 32.	95,000
7th Class. Salaries to certain officers of state, and various other allowances	41,300
8th Class. Salaries to the commissioners of the treasury and chancellor of the exchequer	18,822
Occasional payments, not comprised in any of the aforesaid classes	26,000
1 G. 4. c. 1. Schedule.	£ 845,727

131. The treasury, at commencement of each quarter, or within 30 days therefrom, shall, by warrant under their hands, direct what sums shall respectively be appropriated in the receipt of exchequer, out of the quarterly civil list revenues, for defraying the several charges on the respective classes thereof, but so that the sum appropriated to the 6th class does not exceed 1-4th of its estimated annual amount, as in the schedule; and so that the sums appropriated to the other classes in any one quarter are equal to 1-4th of the estimated amount together with any saving on such class, in the preceding quarter; and the several sums so directed to be appropriated shall, in the first instance, be applied in payment of all the unsatisfied charges of every description of the class in respect to which the appropriation was made, in preference to any other charges on the civil list revenues; and no part thereof shall be applied for any other purpose, or in aid of other classes or charges in such civil list, except as in s. 4.; but if the actual charge of any such class exceeds the sum appropriated thereto, such excess may be issued out of the civil list revenues not appropriated to any class, 56 G. 3. c. 46. s. 3.

132. If any savings or surplus arise in any quarter in respect of any money appropriated to any particular class, so that the same is more than sufficient for the full payment of the charges thereon, such quarterly surplus shall be carried forward in exchequer to the credit, and applied for the purposes of the class in which it has arisen, until 5th Jan. yearly; and if it arises in the 3d class, the treasury shall direct it to be carried to the consolidated fund; and if in any other classes of the civil list, to be applied in aid of the charges of any other class, or on H. M.'s civil list revenues, as appears most expedient, id. s. 4.

133. The treasury shall, from time to time, by warrant, direct the proper officers of exchequer to pay to any person named therein, any sum directed to be paid to any person from any pension, fee or salary, but unpaid, in consequence of his death, before the day up to which it was so directed to be paid, and the sums received under such warrant shall be repaid into exchequer; and if arising on the 3d class, shall be applied to the account of the consolidated fund; and if in any other classes of the civil list, to the account of its revenues, id. s. 7.

134. The treasury shall appoint a proper person, who shall examine and audit all the tradesmen's bills, and expenses incurred in the departments of the lord chamberlain, lord steward, and master of the horse, and shall examine into all the expenditure within those departments during its progress, and report thereon to the treasury, that the same may be as far as practicable in conformity to previous estimates thereof, as approved by the treasury; and such officer, in execution of his duty, shall obey the orders of the treasury, who may grant him out of the civil list revenues not exceeding 1500*l.* per annum; but he shall not sit in parliament, 56 G. 3. c. 46. s. 8.

135. The treasury shall prepare a full code of instructions for guidance of such auditor's conduct in execution of his duties, and may alter or add to the same as the good of the service may require, all of which shall bind him, as if here inserted, id. s. 9.

136. Such officer, with authority of treasury in each particular case, may call before him any persons holding offices under the lord chamberlain, lord steward, or master of the horse; and any persons not belonging to those departments, who may have furnished or been concerned in furnishing any articles for the use of either of them, or who may (in his judgment) be able to give information relating thereto; and may examine them on oath, or affirmation (if quakers), which he may administer as to any such accounts, charges, &c. or articles supplied, or as to any thing necessary for the full audit of such accounts, &c.; and in case of failure to comply with such lawful requisition, every person so refusing, if an officer, servant or tradesman, employed in any such department, shall be dismissed, and incapable of being employed as such in H. M.'s service; and shall pay such fine to H. M. as the court of exchequer, on application by the said officer or attorney-general, shall think fit to impose, id. s. 10.

137. Every person, who in such examination on oath or affirmation, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, shall be liable to the penalties of wilful perjury, id. s. 11.

138. The officer so to be appointed shall, after duly examining such accounts and vouchers, make up a state thereof according to his instructions, and deliver it to the treasury, who may, if they see fit, direct any further examination of the account or allow it, if they are satisfied therewith; which allowance, and a warrant under sign-manual, issued in pursuance thereof, shall be a full discharge on such account without further audit or discharge, id. s. 12.

139. TO PROVIDE FOR CERTAIN LADIES AND OTHER ATTENDANTS of the late Queen Charlotte; (framed from preamble to this section,) 59 G. 3. c. 22. (s. 5.)

140. H. M. may grant pensions not exceeding 18,240*l.* per ann. to such persons as he shall think fit, charging same on consolidated fund; to commence 5th April, 1819, and be payable quarterly at exchequer, free of taxes, id. ibid.

141. FOR SUPPORT OF H. M.'S HOUSEHOLD, AND OF THE HONOUR and dignity of the crown of the U. K., 1 G. 4. c. 1. [EXPL. as to s. 8. by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 51.]

142. All powers and provisions of 1 G. 5. c. 1., 22 G. 7. c. 82., 25 G. 3. c. 61., 27 G. 3. c. 15., 53 G. 3. c. 34. (Id.) 51 G. 3. c. 157., 56 G. 3. c. 46., 59 G. 3. c. 22., or of any other statute of G. B. or Ire., or of the U. K. in force at the demise of G. 3., as to the hereditary revenues in Eng. and Ire., and the collecting and payment or keeping separate accounts thereof, or computing the amount of all or any of them, shall remain in force, id. s. 1.

143. The produce of the hereditary revenues in Eng., which, during the life of G. 3., were by those acts made part first of the aggregate fund; and (after 27 G. 3. c. 15.), of the consolidated fund of G. B. and all the hereditary revenues in that part of U. K., which by 53 G. 3. c. 51. (Id.) were made part of the consolidated fund of Ire., and which hereditary revenues in Eng. and Ire. respectively, at the demise of G. 3., made part of the consolidated fund of the U. K.; and all arrears since such demise, shall, during the life of H. M., be made part of the consolidated fund of U. K.; and after his demise shall be payable to H. M., his heirs and successors, id. s. 2.

144. 850,000*l.* in Eng., and 207,000*l.* in Ire., shall be payable quarterly on 10th Oct., 5th Jan., 5th April, and 5th July, out of the consolidated fund of U. K. for support of H. M.'s household, and of the honour and dignity of the crown; and the sum due for the quarter, may be issued by the treasury weekly, daily, or otherwise, during such quarter, but shall not be exceeded; and on each quarter day, the whole then due shall be made up, id. s. 3.

145. Monies applied out of the vote of 200,000*l.* in the last session to the payment of pensions charged on the civil list or consolidated fund, shall be retained in the exchequer towards the aids of 1820, out of the first payments to the civil list under this act, and those applied to the like purposes out of the hereditary revenues paid into exchequer, between the demise of G. 3. and 5th April, 1820, according to 1 G. 3. c. 1. and 27 G. 3. c. 15. shall be repaid to the consolidated fund, and the remainder still unapplied, shall be carried to the consolidated fund on 5th July, 1820, id. s. 4.

146. All the provisions of the recited acts, applicable to the civil list revenues at the demise of G. 3., shall apply to those granted by this act, id. s. 5.

147. The sum to be appropriated in each quarter to defraying the charge of the first class of the civil list, shall be equal only to 1-4th of the sum of 60,000*l.*, being the estimated amount of the future annual charge of this class; (see Sched.), 1 G. 4. c. 1. s. 6.

148. Whenever the total charge on the civil list exceeds 1,070,000*l.* [1,100,000*l.* by 56 G. 3. c. 16. s. 13. restored to 992,000*l.*, 59 G. 3. c. 22. s. 10. before this act], an account stating particulars, and cause of such exceedings, shall be submitted to parliament within 30 days after their being ascertained, if parliament is then sitting; and if not, then within 50 days after its next meeting, id. s. 7.

149. The revenues payable to G. 3. in Scot. for his life, shall be paid from his demise during H. M.'s life, in like manner, and subject to the same charges as in the life of G. 3., with a general saving of all rights to or demands on the same, except by H. M. or his trustees, id. s. 8. [s. 9. relates to Scotland (Pensions), s. 10. to same in Ire]

150. FOR REMOVING DOUBTS AS TO THE CONTINUANCE of the hereditary revenue in Scot., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 31.

151. The hereditary revenues of the crown in Scot., and other revenues granted to G. 2., during his life, and reserved to G. 3. during his life, by 1 G. 3. c. 1., were at the disposal of G. 3. during his life by virtue of that act, subject to the provisions by law established concerning the same, any thing in 59 G. 3. c. 53. (Supply act) notwithstanding; and the hereditary revenues so settled on G. 3. for life, belong to, and are at disposal of H. M. in the same manner as they belonged, &c. to G. 3. before passing 59 G. 3. c. 53.; and they and the civil establishment in Scot. payable thereout, shall continue to be paid in like manner as before that act; but nothing herein shall prevent the surplus remaining after defraying the whole charges upon the said fund, recited in 1 G. 4. c. 1., from being carried to the account of the consolidated fund of U. K. as by that act directed, id. s. 1.

152. Nothing herein shall impeach H. M.'s right or prerogatives over the small branches of his revenue, viz. the first fruits and tenths of the clergy, fines for writs of covenant, and writs of entry payable in the alienation office, post-fines, [revenue of wine licences, &c.] monies arising by sheriffs' proffers, and compositions in exchequer, and by seizures of uncustomed or prohibited goods, revenue of duchy of Cornwall, and rents of lands in Eng. and W.a., or fines for leases thereof, and monies arising from the further subsidies of tonnage, poundage and other duties, by 1 A. (St. 1.) c. 7. s. 5. granted, and all other branches and revenues chargeable with the 700,000*l.* per ann. [granted, 9 & 10 H. 3. c. 23.] except the duty of 4 per cent. in specie arising in Barbadoes and the Leeward Islands] used by his predecessors since 1 A. (St. 1.) c. 7. other than the power of granting during his life, or for term of years, the produce of any such of those small branches as are subject to the restrictions of that act, with respect to the absolute disposition thereof, in derogation of the special purpose of this act, to carry the same to the consolidated fund, 1 G. 4. c. 1. s. 11. [a similar provision, 1 G. 3. c. 1. s. 9. The above seem to be the small branches of revenue alluded to, and are extracted from 1 A. St. 1. c. 7. s. 3. and 1 G. 3. c. 1. s. 7.]

153. Nothing herein shall affect any rights or powers of control or direction exercised by authority of the crown, or other lawful warrant relative to any leases, grants, or assurances of any such small branches of hereditary revenues, or to any proceedings for recovery thereof, or compositions made for them, or to any remission or mitigation of any penalties incurred by import of prohibited and uncustomed goods, or to fines, rents, boons, and services resumed on such grants, &c. or to their mitigation or remission; but such rights shall be enjoyed as at the demise of G. 3., the true intent of this act being not that they should in any degree be abridged, but only that the monies arising from their full enjoyment subject as above, shall, during H. M.'s life, be made part of the consolidated fund, id. s. 12.

154. An annual account of all monies hereafter arising or received for droits of admiralty or crown, and from the surplus of the 4 per cent. duties [see above, s. 11. and recited from 1 A. St. 1. c. 7. s. 3.] over all charges thereon, and from all surplus revenues of Gibraltar, or other H. M.'s possessions out of U. K. and from all other casual revenue, whether arising in or out of U. K., and of the application thereof, shall be laid before parliament on or before 24th Mar. in each year, if parliament be then sitting, or if not, then within 30 days after its next meeting, id. s. 11.

17. FOR LABOURERS AND ARTIFICERS WITHIN THE CITY OF London, 7 H. 8. c. 5. [Semb. REP. 5 El. c. 4. s. 2.]

18. TOUCHING THE RETAINING OF JOURNEMEN BY DIVERS persons, 5 & 4 E. 6. c. 22. [REP. 5 El. c. 4. s. 2.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. ALL ALLIANCES AND COVINS OF MASONS AND CARPENTERS and congregations, chapters, ordinances and oaths between them made, shall be void, 34 E. 3. c. 9.

2. MASONS SHALL NOT CONFEDERATE THEMSELVES IN chapters and assemblies, and those convicted of causing the same to be held, shall be adjudged for felons, and those attending the same, punished by imprisonment, with fine and ransom at H. M.'s will, 5 H. 6. c. 1.

3. TOUCHING DIVERS ORDERS FOR ARTIFICERS, LABOURERS, and servants in husbandry, 5 El. c. 4. (recital in s. 1.) and ss. 2. 5—14. 21—24. 47—48. [AMD., &c. 39 El. c. 12. (which was CON. 1 J. 1. c. 25. ss. 17—21., 21 J. 1. c. 24. s. 1. EXP.) 1 J. 1. c. 6. ss. 3—9. (semb. REP. as to ss. 5—9. by 55 G. 3. c. 10. s. 1.) 20 G. 2. c. 19. (which see infra, pl. 24.) 6 G. 3. c. 25. ss. 4—5., 55 G. 3. c. 40.; see the sections REP. and EXP. in (Chronological Table of "SECTIONS, &c. Repealed and Expired," and rest of this title and statute, APPENDIX, pl. 6, &c.)]

4. All statutes concerning the hiring keeping, departing, working, wages, or order of servants, workmen, artificers, apprentices, and labourers, and the penalties therein, are repealed, 5 El. c. 4. s. 2.

5. So much of 5 El. c. 4. viz. ss. 15—20., with 1 J. 1. c. 6. s. 3., and the Scotch acts, 22 Parl. J. 6. and 1 Parl. C. 2. "Ancient Justices of Peace and Constables," as authorizes justices of peace or magistrates of cities and burghs, to rate wages or fix prices of work for artificers, labourers, and craftsmen, are repealed, 55 G. 3. c. 40.

6. No master or mistress shall put away his or her servant, and no person retained according to this statute, shall depart from his master, &c. before the end of his term, on 40*s.* penalty, recoverable as in s. 8. pl. 8. except for some reasonable cause shewn and allowed before one or 2 justices within the county, or before the mayor, or other chief officer of the city, borough, or town corporate, where the master, &c. lives, who shall hear and determine the same according to the equity of the cause,

5 El. c. 4. s. 5. [but the power of the justices under this act is confined to servants employed in husbandry, Rex v. Inhabitants of Hulcot, 6 Term. Rep. 583.]

7. No such master or mistress shall put away any such servant at the end of his term without giving him one quarter's warning before such end; nor shall any such servant depart from his master, &c. at the end of his term without one quarter's warning given before such end, [before 2 witnesses comm. scmb. see s. 9. pl. 10.] on penalty as in next pl., id. s. 6.

8. Every person, who after retaining any servant, shall put him away before end of his year, unless for some reasonable cause allowed as in s. 5. pl. 6., or who shall put away any servant at the end of his term without a quarter's warning given before such end as in s. 6., shall (unless he be able to prove by 2 such sufficient witnesses such reasonable cause before the justices of oyer and terminer, of assize, or of quarter sessions, or before the mayor or other head-officer of any city, borough, or town corporate, and 2 aldermen, or 2 other discreet burghesses, if there are no aldermen,) forfeit 10s. id. s. 8.

9. Every person between 12 and 60 years old, not retained or apprentice with any fisherman or mariner, nor in service with any carrier of corn or meal for the city of London, nor with any husbandman in husbandry, nor in any city in any of the acts in s. 4. [R.E.P.] mentioned, nor retained for half year or a year in mining for silver, tin, lead, iron, copper, stone, sea, stone, moor or clerk coal, nor in glass-making, nor being a gentleman born, or student, or scholar in university or any school, nor having 10s. a-year for life, &c. in land, nor 10l. in goods; nor having a father or mother, or other ancestor, whose heir-apparent he is, having land of 10l. yearly value, or 40l. in goods, nor being officer or servant, nor having a farm, &c. on which to labour, nor otherwise retained, shall be compelled to serve in husbandry within the shire, (see s. 47. pl. 11.) by the year, id. s. 7.

10. If any person retained under this statute, depart from his service before the end of his term, unless for cause allowed, as in s. 5. pl. 6. or at the end of his term without giving a quarter's warning, as in s. 6. pl. 7., and before 2 witnesses;* or if any person bound to serve in husbandry, &c. refuses to serve for the wages limited, or covenants to serve but doth not, then on complaint by the master or person with whom such refusal is made, or promise not kept, to 2 justices, or to the mayor, &c. as in pl. 8., they may commit him to ward, till he be bound to the party to serve for the wages limited, and to be discharged without fee to the gaoler, id. s. 9.

11. If any servant or apprentice of husbandry, or of any occupation aforesaid, [see s. 3. scmb. R.E.P.] unlawfully [see next pl.] depart into any other shire, the said justices and chief officers of towns, &c. being justices there, may grant writs of captias directed to the sheriffs or other head officers of the places, whither such servant, &c. have so departed, to take their bodies returnable before them, so that if they come by such process, they be put in prison till they find surety to serve their masters, id. s. 47.

12. No person retained under this statute, (see s. 2. pl. 4. and s. 7. pl. 9.) shall, after his retainer expired, depart from the city, town, parish, lath, rape, wapentake, hundred, or shire, where he last served, to serve elsewhere, without a certificate under seal of such city or town, or of the constable or constables, or other head officer or officers, and of 2 other honest householders of the city, town, or parish, where he last served, declaring his lawful departure, and the name of the shire and place where he last dwelt before his departure according to the following form; which certificate or testimonial shall be delivered to him, and registered by the parson or curate of parish where the master dwells, taking 2d. fee only:

* Memorandum, That A. B. late servant to C. D. of E. husbandman or sailor, &c. in the county, &c. is licensed to depart from his said master, and is at his liberty to serve elsewhere according to the statute in that case made and provided. In witness whereof, &c. dated the day, month, year, and place, &c. of the making thereof, id. s. 10.

13. No person that shall depart out of a service, shall be retained into any other, without shewing such certificate to the chief officer of the town, and in every other place to the constable, curate, churchwarden, or other head officer, where he is retained, on pain of imprisonment, till he can procure a certificate, which if he cannot do within 21 days, he shall be whipped and used as a vagabond; every person retaining such person without certificate, shall forfeit 5l.; and any such person taken with a forged certificate, shall be whipped as a vagabond, id. s. 11.

14. All artificers and labourers being hired by the day or week, shall between the middle of March and Sept. be at work at or before 5 in the morning, and continue till between 7 and 8 at night, (except the time of breakfast, dinner, or drinking, which shall not exceed 2 hours and a half, viz. half an hour at drinking, for dinner one hour, and for sleep when allowed to sleep, which is from midst of May to midst of Aug. half an hour at most, and half an hour at breakfast,) and between midst of

Sept. and midst of March, shall be at work from spring of day till night, except in time for breakfast and dinner, on pain to forfeit 1d. for every hour's absence, to be deducted from the wages, 5 El. c. 4. s. 12.

15. Every artificer and labourer lawfully retained in any work taken in piece, task, or gross, shall not depart from same before it is finished, unless for not paying the wages agreed on, or on being taken to serve H. M. or other lawful cause, without licence of master, on pain of one month's imprisonment, and forfeiture of 5l. to the party from whom he departs, recoverable with costs by action of debt in any court of record without essoin, &c., id. s. 13.

16. No such artificer or labourer retained to work, shall depart from his work till finished, if his master will so long have him, and pay his wages, on pain of one month's imprisonment, id. s. 14.

17. EVERY ARTIFICER, CALICO PRINTER, HANDICRAFTSMAN, miner, collier, keel, pit, or glass man, potter, labourer, or other person, who shall contract with any person soever for any time soever, and shall absent himself from service before the term is completed, or is guilty of any other misdemeanour, then any justice where such artificer, &c. is found, on complaint thereof made on oath to him by the party with whom he contracted, or by his steward or agent, may issue his warrant for apprehending him, and enquire into the complaint; and if it appear to such justice that any such artificer, &c. has not fulfilled his contract, or has been guilty of any misdemeanor, he may commit him to the house of correction for not more than 3 months, nor less than one month, 6 G. 3. c. 25. s. 4.

18. Any person grieved by such determination, order, or warrant of any justice, except an order of commitment, may appeal to the next general quarter sessions, giving 6 days' notice of appeal, and of the cause and matter thereof, to such justice and the parties concerned, and entering into recognizance within 3 days after such notice before some justice to try such appeal, abide the order, and pay the costs awarded by the quarter sessions; which quarter sessions shall, on due proof of such notice and recognizances, determine such appeals, and give such relief and costs to the parties as they judge proper, and their judgments shall be conclusive on all parties concerned, id. s. 5.

19. Any servant, workman, or labourer, wilfully assaulting his master or mistress, or other person, having at the time of the assault the oversight of him or his work, shall, on conviction before any 2 justices of the county, where the offence is committed, or before the head officer in a town corporate, by confession or evidence of 2 witnesses, be imprisoned by discretion of such justices, or of such head officer, with 2 of the corporation at least, for one year or less, or shall suffer greater punishment, not extending to life or limb, as shall be awarded by the justices in open sessions, or by such head officer with 6 of the corporation, before whom the offence is examined, 5 El. c. 4. s. 21.

20. In hay and corn harvest, every justice and constable, or other head officer of every township, on request, and for avoiding the loss of grain or hay, may cause all artificers and persons fit to labour, by the discretion of such justice, &c. to serve by the day for mowing, reaping, getting, and insuring those crops, on pain of 2 days' and a night's imprisonment in the stocks by such constable for refusal: and the latter shall forfeit for not doing thereof 40s., id. s. 22.

21. All persons of the counties where they have used to go into other shires for harvest work, and having no harvest work sufficient in the county where they dwell in the winter past, bringing with them a testimonial of one justice or other head officer, for which 1d. only shall be paid, (other than persons retained in service) may repair into any other county for harvest works, id. s. 23. [see form of testimonial, id. s. 10. pl. 12.]

22. Two justices, the head officer of any city, borough, or town corporate, and 2 aldermen, or 2 other discreet burghesses, if there are no aldermen, may appoint any unmarried woman of between 12 and 40 years old, and out of service, whom they think fit to serve, to be retained for the year, week, or day, at what wages they think fit, and if she refuse, may commit her to ward till she be bound to serve as above, id. s. 24.

23. High constables of hundreds may keep petty sessions, called statute sessions, where they have been used, id. s. 48.

24. FOR BETTER ADJUSTING AND MORE EASY RECOVERY of the wages of certain servants, and for their better regulation, 20 G. 2. c. 19. ss. 1—2. 5—6. [see s. 3. APPRENTICE, pl. 14. R.E.P. as to s. 7. by 27 G. 2. c. 6. s. 1. AMD. as to s. 1. by 31 G. 2. c. 11. s. 3. (ss. 1—2. of which act see Poon, pl. 207.) and 1 G. 4. c. 93. s. 4. Exr. to the tinnars and miners in the stannaries of Devon and Cornwall, 27 G. 2. c. 6. s. 2. with a saving for those who choose to apply to the stannary courts, or to the warden, &c. as heretofore, id. s. 5.]

25. Differences arising between masters and servants in husbandry hired for a year or more, [or for less than a year, 31 G. 2. c. 11. s. 3.] or between masters and artificers, handicraftsmen, miners, colliers, keelmen, pitmen, glassmen, potters, and other labourers, [this term extends to labourers of all descriptions, Louther v. Earl of Radnor, 8 East 113.]

employed for any certain time, shall be heard by one or more justices of the county or place where the master shall inhabit, and they shall examine on oath such servants, &c. or other witnesses, and may make any order of payment therein as seems just, but not exceeding 10*l.* to any servant, nor 5*l.* to any artificer, &c. to be levied by distress and sale of the employer's goods, with costs of distress and sale, rendering him the overplus in case of nonpayment, within [21 days, 20 G. 2. c. 19. s. 1. 31 G. 2. c. 11. s. 3., now by 1 G. 4. c. 93. s. 4.] any period the justice or justices think proper, 20 G. 2. c. 19. s. 1., 31 G. 2. c. 11. s. 3., 1 G. 4. c. 93. s. 4. [NOTE. 1 G. 4. c. 93. expires at the end of the session of 1822, id. s. 5.]

26. Such justice, &c. may hear and determine the master's complaint on oath, against any such servant, artificer, &c. as in last pl. for ill behaviour in their employment, and may punish the offender by commitment to house of correction, there to be corrected and kept to hard labour, for not exceeding one month, or by abating some part of his wages, or discharging him from his service; and on the servant's complaint on oath of ill treatment, or refusal of necessary provisions, may also summon the master at a reasonable time fixed in the summons: at which time they may examine the complaint, whether the master be present or not: and on proof on oath of due service of the summons, may discharge such servant, artificer, &c. from his employment, by discharge given gratis under his hand and seal, 20 G. 2. c. 19. s. 2.

27. Every person aggrieved by the determination or warrant of such justices, except any order of commitment, may appeal to the next general quarter sessions, who shall finally determine the same, and award such costs to the appellant or respondent, as they think reasonable not exceeding 40*l.* to be levied as in s. 1. pl. 25., id. s. 5.

28. No certiorari or other process, shall remove proceedings under this act, into any court at Westminster, id. s. 6.

LACE MANUFACTURE.

1. TO PREVENT ABUSES IN THE PAYMENT OF WAGES TO persons employed in the bone and thread lace manufactory, 19 G. 3. c. 49.

2. All lace merchants and dealers in lace or other persons, who shall employ any person in making of bone and thread lace, or who shall buy any bone or thread lace of the maker, shall pay such persons for their labour, and for all the lace bought of them, in money only, and not with goods, or by way of truck, or in any other manner whatever, either in the whole or in part, 19 G. 3. c. 49. s. 1.

3. If any lace merchant or dealer in lace, or other person, shall pay any person employed in making such lace, in the whole or in part, for their labour, or for the purchase of any such lace, with goods or by way of truck, or in any other manner than with money only, such lace merchant, dealer, or other person, so offending, shall forfeit 10*l.* to be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the offender, by warrant, under the hand and seal of any one justice; rendering overplus after charges of such warrant, distress and sale deducted, to the owner of the goods, and such forfeitures shall be paid to the party aggrieved; and for want of sufficient distress, such justice shall commit the offender to the common gaol for 6 calendar months, unless such penalty and charges attending the recovery shall be sooner paid, id. s. 2.

4. If any money shall be due to any person employed in making lace, for labour, or for the purchase of such lace, such person may apply to any one justice, and in case it shall, upon the oath of the party complaining, appear to him that such money is due, he shall cause the same to be levied as such forfeiture may be, id. s. 3.

5. Any person aggrieved by any thing done in pursuance of this act, may appeal to the general quarter sessions within 6 calendar months after the fact was committed, first giving 14 days' previous notice to the person in whose favour the act shall be done, of his intention to appeal; and the quarter sessions may hear and determine such appeal, and make such order therein, and award costs to either party, as they think fit: and may by warrant levy the costs by distress and sale of the goods of the party liable to pay the same, rendering overplus after costs of distress and sale deducted, to the owner; and the determination of such quarter sessions shall be conclusive upon all parties, id. s. 4.

6. FOR BETTER ENCOURAGING THE MANUFACTURE of thread lace in G. B. 46 G. 3. c. 81. [See as to the duties on foreign lace, mentioned in ss. 1—2.; 59 G. 3. c. 52. Sch. (A.) tit. Lace.—NOTE. A Conviction on this act for selling British thread lace without a licence, as in s. 15. pl. 14. was quashed on evidence that the lace was of cotton thread: and the majority of magistrates held that as the act of 46 G. 3. referred to 43 G. 3. c. 68., at the passing of which last mentioned act, cotton thread lace was not known: and as both acts used the term British thread lace in the same way, the legislature could not have meant to include cotton thread lace. Re. ex. inform. Owen v. Watts, Manchester sessions, Jan. 1821. Mr. Williams for the Appellant.]

7. All thread lace of foreign manufacture shall, after entry at the custom-house, and before delivery into the importer's custody, be marked or sealed at one end of every piece with such mark, &c. and by such officer as the commissioners of customs shall appoint, who shall in his own hand, together with such mark, &c. also signify the number of yards in such piece, and rate of custom duty paid thereon, but no such thread lace shall be so marked, &c. nor imported in a parcel containing less than 12 yards, unless of 2*l.* or more value per yard, or unless brought into G. B. for private use, and not for use of another, or to be sold as merchandize: and pieces of thread lace joined or pieced, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of customs, 46 G. 3. c. 81. s. 3. [ss. 4—8. are Exp.]

8. On oath of any one credible person, that there is reason to suspect that foreign thread lace, for which the duty ought to have been paid, and without mark thereon, as in s. 3. is in the possession of any lace dealer, shopkeeper, &c. or other person for sale, two justices may issue their warrant to any officer of customs or of the peace, to search for the same in the day-time, and to open doors, boxes, &c. and to seize and carry away the same, with its packages; all of which shall be forfeited, and the party in whose possession it is found, shall for every offence forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 9.

9. Foreign thread lace found on land within G. B., not marked or sealed, nor having the hand-writing, as in s. 3. pl. 4. on one end of every entire piece or remnant of thread lace, exceeding 12 inches in length, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of customs, and the persons having possession thereof, shall forfeit 50*l.* or (if the value of the lace so found exceed 50*l.*) double the value thereof, and on every 2*d* conviction before two justices for like offence, the convict shall pay double the sum forfeited on the 1*st*; and for every 3*d*, treble; in moieties to H. M., and the officer of customs suing, id. s. 10.

10. Every person who shall forge any mark or seal to resemble any mark, &c. provided for the above purpose, or the impression thereof, shall on conviction suffer death as a felon without clergy, and every person who shall sell or expose to sale, or have in possession any such thread lace, with a counterfeit mark, seal, or hand writing, see s. 3., pl. 7. knowing it to be counterfeited, or shall use or affix any such mark, &c. to any piece or remnant of lace, other than the original, shall forfeit 100*l.* in moieties as in s. 10., id. s. 11.

11. The proof that thread lace is not of foreign manufacture, shall be on the person having it in his possession, id. s. 12.

12. The value of foreign thread lace shall be ascertained on its importation, as in [43 G. 3. c. 68. (or semble now as in 59 G. 3. c. 52.) Sch. (A.) Inwards tit. Lace.] and if not valued by the importer according to its true value, shall be dealt with according to the 43 G. 3. c. 68. but such lace shall be only sold for exportation, and if worn or used in this kingdom, may be seized by any customs officer, id. s. 13.

13. Foreign thread lace shall be imported into G. B. at the port of London only, id. s. 14.

14. Every dealer in foreign thread lace shall annually take out a licence, on which shall be charged a stamp duty of 3*l.* 5*s.*, and every dealer in British thread lace, [see note to pl. 6.] a like licence, with 5*s.* stamp duty, and both shall take out distinct licences for every shop, &c. where they expose such lace to sale, id. s. 15.

15. The above duties shall be under the care of the commissioners of stamps, who may employ such officers with such salaries, &c. and use such stamps to denote the duties as to them seem necessary, with all their other powers under former stamp acts, id. s. 16.

16. Any 2 such commissioners, or persons authorized by them, may grant such licences: all of which, if issued between 1*st Aug.* and 1*st Sept.*, shall bear date 2*nd Aug.*, if at any other time, shall bear date the day of their issue, to continue in force till 1*st Aug.* following, id. s. 17.

17. All money arising by stamp duties hereby granted, shall be paid to the receiver general for stamps, who shall pay it over to the exchequer, with the other stamp duties to be carried to the consolidated fund, id. s. 18.

18. Every person who shall forge or counterfeit, or cause to be forged, &c. any stamp made or used in pursuance of this act, or who shall counterfeit or resemble, or procure, &c. the impression of any such stamp on any vellum, parchment, paper, or other material, or the impression of the stamp on any vellum, &c. allowed to be used under this act, thereby to defraud H. M. of the duties on such licences, shall suffer death as a felon, without clergy, id. s. 19.

19. No person shall sell or expose to sale foreign or British made thread lace, unless licensed as in s. 15, pl. 14. on pain of forfeiting 50*l.* if a dealer in foreign lace; 5*l.* if in British lace, id. s. 20. [See note to pl. 6.]

20. Every person vending or exposing to sale any foreign or British made thread lace, and having taken out a licence as above, shall cause the words "Dealer in Foreign lace," or "Dealer in British lace," to be painted, &c. in large or legible characters, either over the door, or in some visible place in front of his shop or place where such lace is kept for sale; and if he be a licensed hawk or pedlar, then on the cart and boxes used for conveyance thereof, on penalty of 50*l.* if a dealer in foreign, or 5*l.* if in British lace, id. s. 21.

21. When any new statute regulation is made respecting foreign thread lace, the commissioners of customs shall cause an alteration in the mark or seal directed in s. 3. pl. 7.; and all thread lace sold or exposed to sale by any lace dealer, after one calendar month from such alteration, with the old mark, &c. may be seized by any customs or peace officer, by order under the hand of one or more justices of the county or place where it is found; and the vendor shall be liable to penalty, as if the lace had not been marked, &c., as in s. 7. pl. 7.; provided that all thread lace having the original mark or seal, and brought to the custom house within such month, shall be marked with the new mark, &c. gratis, 46 G. 3. c. 81. s. 22.

22. All pecuniary penalties of more than 50*l.* incurred under this act, shall be recovered with costs in any court at W. s. m. d., by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, without essoin, &c., or more than one imparlance, and shall go in moieties to H. M. and the person suing, id. s. 23.

23. Every person summoned as a witness to give evidence before any justice touching this act, and who shall not appear at the appointed time and place, without reasonable excuse to be allowed by the justice, or who on appearance shall refuse to give evidence, shall forfeit 10*l.* for every such offence, recoverable as in next pl., and shall be committed to gaol or the house of correction for not more than 2, nor less than one month, id. s. 24.

24. Pecuniary penalties imposed by this act, and not exceeding 50*l.* shall be recoverable before 2 justices of the county or place wherein the offence is committed, on proof thereof, either by confession or oath of one or more witnesses; to go in moieties to H. M. and informer, and in case of non-payment, the justices by warrant shall cause it to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, (the overplus, after deducting costs of the latter, being rendered to the owner) and shall also commit the offender to gaol till such penalties and reasonable charges of distress are paid by such offender, or levied as above; and any justice may by warrant cause such offender to be apprehended and brought before him, to answer any charge for such penalty, and commit him to gaol till the hearing, unless he enter into a recognizance, with 2 sureties in a sufficient sum fixed by the justices, to appear thereto, id. s. 25.

25. No person committed to any gaol, &c. for any offence against this act, shall be detained therein for more than 3 months, id. s. 26.

26. Persons aggrieved by judgment of such justices may, on entering into a recognizance with 2 sureties, approved by such justices, to the amount of the value of such penalty, together with a sum in judgment of such justices adequate to the amount of costs which may be awarded, conditioned to pay the penalty and costs adjudged if the judgment is affirmed, appeal to the next quarter sessions, who shall summon and examine their witnesses on oath, and finally determine the same, or at discretion may state the fact specially for determination of K. B. therein; and if the judgment of such justices is affirmed, such justices, (viz. the sessions) or K. B. may award the costs of appeal, as seems fit, id. s. 27.

27. Convictions in the form following, mutat. mutand., shall be good, without stating the evidence, or more than the substance of the offence, in all cases where justices shall act, id. s. 28.

Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — at — in the county of — A. B. came before us C. D. and E. F. two of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the said county, residing near the place near where the offence hereinafter mentioned was committed, and informed us, that E. F. of — in the said county of — [here set forth the fact for which the information is made]; whereupon the said E. F. being duly summoned to answer to the said charge, appeared before us, and, having heard the charge contained in the said information, acknowledged and voluntarily confessed the facts therein contained to be true; but in his [or, her] defence alledged [here setting forth the substance of the defence] [*or, voluntarily confessed the said charge to be true, or did not make any defence against the said charge, whereupon the same was fully proved on the oath of G. 28. No conviction on this act shall be removed by certiorari or otherwise into K. B. or other court, except as above, id. s. 29.

29. Every person sued for any thing done in pursuance hereof, may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if a verdict pass for defendant, or if plaintiff is nonsuited, or has judgment against him on demurrer, or discontinues, or is nonprossed, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 30.

LANDLORD AND TENANT.

1. THE STATUTE OF GAVELET IN LONDON, 10 E. 2.

2. All persons having rents in the city of London may distrain their tenants for arrears of rent, and if nothing be found in the fee whereby they may be distrained, then the tenants shall be impleaded of gavelet, by writ of customs and services, which may be well done by freemen in the hustings court, so that if the tenants admit their services, they shall satisfy the lords of their arrears. But if they deny them, the demandants shall name their suit, to wit, 2 witnesses, whose names shall be enrolled, and shall have a day given to bring them, at the next hustings; at which day, if they bring their witnesses, and it is shewn in open court that the plaintiffs have at any time received the rents they demand, then the tenants shall lose their fees by award of the court, and the plaintiffs recover their tenements in demean. But if the tenants acknowledge their services, and the arrears, then the arrears shall by judgment of the court be doubled, and they shall give to the sheriff for the wrongful withholding 100*s.* And if they do not come in, after summons, then such fees shall be delivered unto the plaintiff, in full hustings, to be holden for a year and a day, within which time, if the tenants do come unto them, and offer to satisfy their arrears double, and the sheriff his fine, they shall have the same again, but otherwise, after the year and a day accomplished, such tenements shall remain to the lords of the fees in demean for ever; and then such tenement shall be called forseboke, because they remain for ever in demean for default of service. The same shall be observed if the tenants do acknowledge the arrears, and do not make such satisfaction, id. ibid.

3. CONCERNING GRANTEES OF REVERSIONS TO TAKE ADVANTAGE of the conditions to be performed by the lessees, 32 H. 8. c. 34.

4. All grantees or assignees to or by H. M., or to or by any other person, and the heirs, executors, successors, and assigns of every of them, shall have like advantage against the lessees, their executors, &c. and assigns, by entry for non-payment of rent, or for doing of waste, or other forfeiture; and also shall have the same advantage by action only for not performing of other covenant, conditions, or agreements contained in the indentures of their leases, devises, or grants, against all the lessees, farmers, and grantees, their executors, &c. and assigns, as such lessors or grantors, or their heirs might have had, id. s. 1.

5. All farmers, lessees, and grantees of lordships, manors, lands, tenements, rents, parsonages, tithes, portions, or any other hereditaments for years, life, or lives, their executors, &c. and assigns, shall have like action, advantage, and remedy against all persons and bodies politic, their heirs, successors, and assigns, which shall have any gift or grant of H. M., or of any other person, of the reversion of the same manors, lands, &c. so letten, for any condition, covenant, or agreement expressed in any indentures of lease, as the same lessees or any of them might have had against such lessors and grantors, their heirs and successors, all benefits of recoveries in value, by reason of any warranty in deed or in law, by voucher, or otherwise excepted, id. s. 2.

6. FOR RECOVERY OF ARREARAGES OF RENTS BY EXECUTORS of tenant in fee-simple, 32 H. 8. c. 37. [*see as to rents, rack-rents of assize, and chief rents, 4 *G. 2. c. 28. s. 5. pl. 31.]

7. The executors or administrators of persons unto whom any rent or fee farm, is due at the time of his death, shall have an action of debt for such rent or fee-farm against the tenants, that ought to have paid it in the life of their testator, or against the executors and administrators of such tenants; and such executors and administrators of any person to whom such rent or fee-farm is due at the time of his death, may distrain for the arrears thereof upon the lands, &c. charged with the payment of such rents, so long as such lands continue in the seisin or possession of the said tenant in demean, who ought to have paid the same in the life-time of the testator, or in that of any other person claiming only by or from such tenant by purchase, gift, or descent, in like manner as their testator might have done in his life-time, and such executor or administrator may make avowry accordingly, 32 H. 8. c. 37. s. 1.

8. This act shall not extend to any such manor or lordship in Wa., whereof the inhabitants have used time out of mind to pay unto every lord of such lordship, &c. at his first entry, any sums of money for the discharge of all duties and penalties wherewith such inhabitants were chargeable to any of the lord's ancestors or predecessors, id. s. 2.

9. If any man shall have in right of his wife, any estate in fee-simple, fee-tail, or for term of life, in any rents or fee-farms, and the same are unpaid in the wife's life; the husband, after the death of his wife, his executors and administrators, shall have an action of debt for such arrears against the tenant of the demean that ought to have paid the same, his executors or administrators; and also such husband after the death of his wife may distrain for such arrears, in like manner as if his wife had been living, and may make avowry accordingly, id. s. 3.

10. If any shall have any rents or fee-farms for term of life of any other person, and such rent, &c. shall be unpaid in the life of such person, and after such person doth die; he unto whom such rent or fee-farm was due, his executors or administrators, shall have an action of debt against such tenant in the demean that ought to have paid the same when first due, his executors and administrators, and also distrain for the same arrearages upon such lands, &c. out of which such rents or fee-farms were issuing, in like manner as if such person, by whose death the estate in such rents and fee-farms was determined, had been in full life, and may make avowry accordingly, 52 H. 8. c. 37. s. 4.

11. FOR ENABLING THE SALE OF GOODS DISTRAINED FOR RENT, in case the rent be not paid in a reasonable time, 2 H. & M. S. 1. c. 5., (and recital in s. 1.)

12. Where any goods or chattels be distrained for rent reserved and due upon any demise, lease, or contract, and the tenant or owner does not, within 5 days after such distress taken, and notice thereof (with cause of such taking) left at the chief mansion-house, or other most notorious place on the premises charged with such rent, replevy same with sufficient security to be given to the sheriff, then at the expiration of 5 days, the party distraining shall, with the sheriff or under-sheriff of the county, or with the constable of the hundred, parish, or place, (who shall assist therein,) cause the goods distrained to be appraised by 2 sworn appraisers, (whom such sheriff or constable may swear,) and shall afterwards sell the same for the best price that can be gotten towards satisfaction of such rent, and the charges of distress, appraisement, and sale, leaving overplus in the hands of such sheriff, &c. for the owner's use, id. s. 2. [See 8 A. c. 11. s. 5. pl. 22., 11 G. 2. c. 19. s. 10. pl. 40.]

13. Any person having rent arrear, upon any such demise, &c. as in s. 2., may seize and secure any sheaves or cocks of corn, or corn loose or in the straw, or hay lying or being in any barn or granary, or upon any hovel, stack or rick, or otherwise upon any part of the land charged with such rent, and may lock up and detain same where found as a distress, until replevied upon such security as aforesaid; and in default of replevying within the times in s. 2., the same may be so appraised and sold; so as such corn, grain, or hay distrained is not removed by the party distraining to the damage of the owner, but kept where found (as unremoved), until replevied, or sold in default of such replevy, within such time, id. s. 3. [See as to growing crops, 11 G. 2. c. 19. s. 8. pl. 38.]

14. Upon any found breach, or removal of goods distrained for rent the party aggrieved shall, in a special action on the case, recover his treble damages and costs of suit against such offender, or against the owners of the goods, in case the same be afterwards found in his possession, id. s. 4.

15. Provided, that if any such distress and sale is made, under colour of this act, for rent pretended to be due where none is due, then the owner of the goods, &c. so distrained and sold, his executors or administrators shall, by action of trespass, or on the case, to be brought against the party distraining, or his executors or administrators, recover double the value of the goods, &c. distrained and sold, with full costs of suit, id. s. 8. [See 11 G. 2. c. 19. s. 19. pl. 49.]

16. FOR THE BETTER SECURITY OF RENTS AND TO PREVENT FRAUDS committed by tenants, 8 A. c. 11. [AMD. as to holding over after notice to quit given by the landlord, 4 G. 2. c. 28. s. 1., and after notice given by the tenant, 11 G. 2. c. 19. s. 18., and as to regulating proceedings in ejectments on re-entry for non-payment of rent, and making surrenders of under-lease unnecessary, or the grant of a new lease in chief, by 1 G. 2. c. 28. (not to EXT. to SCOT., id. s. 7.), and AMD. generally, 11 G. 2. c. 19., which is AMD. as to recovery in cases of vacant possession, 57 G. 5. c. 52.] [See as to proceeding in ejectment on notice to quit, 1 G. 4. c. 87. pl. 61.]

17. No goods upon any tenements leased shall be taken by any execution, unless the party at whose suit the execution is sued out, shall, before the removal of such goods, pay to the landlord of such premises, or his bailiff, all rent due for such premises; provided the arrears do not amount to more than one year's rent; and in case the arrears shall exceed one year's rent, then the party at whose suit execution is sued out, paying such landlord or his bailiff one year's rent, may proceed to execute his judgment; and the sheriff shall levy and pay to the plaintiff, as well the money paid for rent, as the execution money, 8 A. c. 14. s. 1.

18. In case any lessee for life, years, at will, or otherwise, of tenements, upon the demise whereof any rents shall be reserved, shall fraudulently or clandestinely carry off from such premises his goods, with intent to prevent the lessor from distraining the same for rent, such lessor, or any person by him empowered, within 5 days next ensuing such carrying off, may seize such goods wherever found, as a distress for such arrears of such rent; and may sell or dispose of the same as if the goods had been distrained upon such premises, id. s. 2.

19. In case any tenant or lessee of lands or tenements, upon the demise whereof any rent is reserved, shall fraudulently or clandestinely carry off his goods, to prevent the landlord or lessor from distraining such landlord within Eng., Wa., or Ber., or any person by him empowered, within 5 days next ensuing such carrying off, may seize such goods wherever found, as a distress for the rent, and may sell or dispose of the same as if such goods had been distrained upon such premises, 11 G. 2. c. 19. s. 1.

20. Nothing in this act shall empower such lessor to seize any goods as a distress for rent, which shall be sold bona fide, and for a valuable consideration before such seizure, 8 A. c. 11 s. 3. [See further as to fraudulently conveying away any goods from off premises, 11 G. 2. c. 19. ss. 5—7. pl. 55—57, &c.]

21. Any person, having rent due upon any lease for life, may bring an action of debt for such arrears, as upon a lease for years, id. s. 4.

22. All distresses hereby empowered to be made shall be liable to such sales, and to be distributed in such manner as by 2 H. & M. S. 1. c. 5. pl. 12—15. directed, id. s. 5.

23. Any person having rent due upon any lease for life, for years, or at will, which has determined, may distrain for such arrears after the determination of such leases, as if the same were not ended, id. s. 6.

24. Provided that such distress be made within 6 calendar months after the determination of such lease, and during the continuance of such landlord's title, and during the possession of the tenant from whom such arrear became due, id. s. 7.

25. Nothing in this act shall prejudice H. M. in the levying any debts, or forfeitures due to her, but same may be levied as before this act made, id. s. 8.

26. In case any tenant for life or lives, or years, or other person who shall come into possession of any lands, &c. under or by collusion with such tenants, shall wilfully hold over after the determination of such terms, and after demand made and notice in writing given for delivering possession thereof by his landlord or lessor, or person to whom the remainder or reversion shall belong, his or their authorized agents; then the persons so holding over shall pay to the person so kept out of possession, his executors, &c. or assigns, during such time as he shall hold over, at the rate of double the yearly value of the lands detained, to be recovered in any courts of record by action of debt, whereunto the defendant shall give special bail, against which penalty there shall be no relief in equity, 1 G. 2. c. 28. s. 1.

27. In case any tenant shall give notice to quit the premises by him holden, at a time mentioned therein, and shall not accordingly deliver up the possession thereof at the time specified, then such tenant, his executors or administrators, shall henceforward pay to the landlord or lessor double rent, to be levied, sued for, and recovered in the same way as single rent, and such double rent shall continue to be paid whilst such tenant remains in possession, 11 G. 2. c. 19. s. 18.

28. In all cases between landlord and tenant, as often as one half year's rent shall be in arrear, and the landlord or lessor hath right by law to re-enter for non-payment, such landlord, &c. may, without any formal demand or re-entry, serve a declaration in ejectment for recovery of such premises; or in case same cannot be legally served, or no tenant is in actual possession, may affix it upon the door of any demised messuage, or upon some notorious place of the lands, &c. comprised in such declaration; which serving and affixing such declaration, shall stand instead of a demand and re-entry; and in case of judgment against the casual ejector, or nonsuit for not confessing lease, entry, and ouster; [and possession, see Rule of M. T. 1:20, 4 B. & A. Rep. 196.] it shall be made appear to the court where the suit is depending, by affidavit, or be proved upon the trial in case the defendant appears, that half a year's rent was due before such declaration was served, and no sufficient distress was to be found on the premises demised, and that the lessor in ejectment had power to re-enter; the lessor in ejectment shall recover judgment and execution, in the same manner as if the rent in arrear had been legally demanded and a re-entry made; and in case the lessee or his assignee, or other person claiming under such lease, shall suffer judgment to be recovered on such ejectment, and execution to be executed thereon, without paying the rent and arrears, with costs, and without filing any bill for relief in equity within 6 calendar months after execution executed, such lessee or his assignee, and all persons claiming under such lease, shall be barred from all relief in law or equity, other than by writ of error for reversal of such judgment; and such landlord or lessor shall hold such premises discharged of such lease; and if on such ejectment verdict passes for the defendant, or the plaintiff is nonsuited, except for not confessing lease, entry, &c. defendant shall have full costs, provided that nothing herein shall bar the right of any mortgagee of such lease, who shall not be in possession, so as such mortgagee, within 6 calendar months after judgment obtained and execution executed, shall pay all rent in arrear, and costs and damages sustained by the lessor, and perform all covenants and agreements on the part of the first lessee to be performed, 4 G. 2. c. 28. s. 2.

29. In case the lessor, or other person claiming any right or interest in law or equity to such lease, shall within the time aforesaid file a bill for relief in any court of equity, he shall not have or continue any injunction against proceedings, &c. on such ejectment, unless he shall within 40 days after full answer filed by the lessor of the plaintiff, bring into court such sum of money, as such lessor shall in his answer swear to be due and over and above all just allowances, and also the costs taxed in such suit, to remain till the hearing of the cause, or to be paid out to the lessor on security, subject to the decree of the court; and in case such bill shall be filed within the time aforesaid, and after execution executed, the lessor of the plaintiff shall be accountable only for so much as he shall really and without wilful neglect make of the demised premises, from the time of his entering into actual possession; and if what shall be so made by the lessor of the plaintiff happens to be less than the rent reserved, the lessee before he shall be restored to his possession, shall pay such lessor what the money so by them made fell short, 4 G. 2. c. 28. s. 5.

30. If the tenant or his assignee shall, at any time before trial in such ejectment, tender to the lessor, his executors or administrators, or his attorney in that cause, or pay into court all arrears with costs, all proceeding in such ejectment shall cease; and if such lessee, his executors, administrators or assigns shall, upon such bill filed, be relieved in equity, he shall enjoy such demised lands according to the lease made, without any new lease to be made, id. s. 4.

31. All persons shall have like remedy by distress, and by impounding and selling the same, in cases of rents seck, rents of assize, and chief rents, which have been answered or paid for 3 years within the space of 20 years before the first day of this session of parliament (21 Jan. 1730.), or shall be hereafter created, as in case of rent reserved upon lease, id. s. 5.

32. In case any lease shall be surrendered in order to be renewed, and a new lease made and executed by the chief landlord, the new lease shall without a surrender of any of the under leases, be as valid as if all the under leases had been surrendered; and every person in whom any estate for life or years shall be vested by virtue of such new lease, their executors and administrators shall be intitled to the rents, covenants, and duties, and have like remedy for recovery thereof, and the under lessees shall hold and enjoy the lands, tenements, &c. as if the original leases had been kept on foot; and the chief landlord shall have the same remedy, by distress or entry on the lands, &c. comprised in such under leases, for the rents and duties reserved by such new lease, so far as the same exceed not the rents and duties reserved in the lease out of which such under lease was derived, as they would have had in case such former lease had been continued, or the under leases had been renewed under such new lease, id. s. 6.

33. If any such tenant shall fraudulently remove his goods, or if any person shall knowingly assist such tenant in such fraudulent conveying away his goods, or in concealing same, all persons so offending shall forfeit to the landlord, &c. from whose estate such goods were carried off, double the value of such goods, to be recovered by action of debt in any court of record at Westminster, or in the courts of session in the counties palatine, or of great sessions in Wa., wherein no essoin and only one imparlance shall be allowed, 11 G. 2. c. 19. s. 3.

34. Where the goods so carried off shall not exceed the value of 50*l.* such landlord from whose estate such goods were removed, his bailiff, servant, or agent, may exhibit a complaint in writing against such offenders before 2 justices of peace residing near the place whence the goods were taken, or where found, not being interested in the tenements; who may summon parties concerned, examine the fact, and all witnesses upon oath, or if quakers, upon affirmation; and in a summary way determine whether such person be guilty of such offence, and inquire of the value of the goods by them so fraudulently carried off or concealed; and on proof of the offence, by order under their hands and seals, such justices may adjudge the offenders to pay double the value of the goods to such landlord, his bailiff, &c. when such justices shall appoint; and in case the offenders, having notice of such order shall neglect so to do, shall by like warrant levy same by distress and sale of the offender's goods; and for want of distress may commit them to the house of correction, without bail, to be kept to hard labour for 6 months, unless the money be sooner satisfied, id. s. 4.

35. Any person aggrieved by such order of the two justices, may appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county, who shall finally hear and determine the same, and give costs to either party in their discretion, id. s. 5.

36. Where the party appealing shall enter into a recognizance with one or two sureties in double the sum so ordered to be paid, with condition to appear at such quarter sessions, the order of such two justices shall not be executed in the mean time, id. s. 6.

37. Where any goods fraudulently carried away by any tenant, his servant or agent, or other person assisting, shall be put in any place locked up, or otherwise secured, so as to prevent such goods from being seized for rent, the landlord or lessor, his steward, bailiff, receiver, or other person empowered, may seize for rent such goods (first calling to his assistance the constable, headborough, borsholder, or other peace officer, of the place where the same shall be suspected to be concealed, who shall assist; and in case of a dwelling house, oath being also made before some justice of peace, of a reasonable ground to suspect that such goods are there) in the day time may break open such house, place, &c. and seize such goods for rent, as they might have done if such goods had been put in any open place, 11 G. 2. c. 19. s. 7.

38. Every lessor or landlord, his steward, bailiff, receiver, or other person empowered by him, may seize as a distress for rent, any cattle or stock of their tenants feeding upon any common appendant or appurtenant, or otherwise belonging to any part of the premises demised; and also may seize corn and grass, hops, roots, fruits, or other product, growing on the estates demised, as a distress for rent; and the same may cut, gather, and lay up, when ripe, in the barns or other proper place on such premises; and in case there shall be no proper place, then in any other barn or proper place which such landlord shall procure as near as may be to such premises; and in convenient time may appraise, sell, or dispose of the same, towards satisfaction of the rent due, and of the charges of such distress, appraisement, and sale, in the same manner as other goods may be seized and disposed of; and the appraisement thereof shall be taken when gathered, cured, and made, id. s. 8. [See as to crops cut down, and being in any barn, field, &c., 2 W. & M. S. 1. c. 5. s. 3., pl. 13.]

36. Provided that notice of the place where the goods shall be lodged, shall within one week afterwards be given to such tenant or lodger, or left at the last place of his abode; and if after distress for rent so taken, of corn, grass, or other product growing, and before the same shall be ripe and cut, the tenant, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall pay to the landlord, or to the steward, or other person employed to receive such rents, the whole rent in arrear, together with costs, then such distress shall cease, and the corn, grass, or other product distrained shall be delivered up to the lessee or tenant, his executors, &c., id. s. 9.

40. Any person lawfully taking any distress for rent, may impound or secure the distress on such part of the premises chargeable with the rent as shall be most convenient, and appraise, sell, and dispose of the same upon the premises, in such manner as any person may now do off the premises, by virtue of 2 W. & M. S. 1. c. 5. or of 4 G. 2. c. 28. and any person may come and go to and from such part of such premises, where the same are impounded, to view, appraise, and buy, and also to carry off the same on account of the purchaser; and if any pound breach or rescous be made of goods distrained for rent secured by virtue of this act, the person aggrieved shall have like remedy as in cases of pound breach or rescous by such statute, id. s. 10. [for s. 11. see ATTORNEYMENT. pl. 5.]

41. Every tenant to whom any declaration in ejectment is delivered for any land, &c. in Eng. Wa., or Ber., shall forthwith give notice thereof to his landlord, or his bailiff, or receiver, under penalty to forfeit the value of 3 years' improved or rack rent of the premises, so demised, or holden in possession of such tenants, to the person of whom he holds; to be recovered by action of debt in any court of record at Westminster, or in the counties palatine of Chester, LANCASTER, and Durham, or in the court of great sessions in Wa., wherein no essoin, &c. nor more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 12.

42. The court where any such ejectment is brought, shall suffer the landlords to make themselves defendants by joining with the tenants to whom such declaration is delivered, if they shall appear; and in case they do not appear, judgment shall be signed against the casual ejector for want of appearance; but if the landlord of the lands, &c. for which such ejectment is brought, shall desire to appear by himself, and will enter into the like rule, that by the course of the court, the tenant in possession if he had appeared, ought to have done; then the court may permit him so to do, and shall stay execution upon such judgment against the casual ejector till further order is made therein, id. s. 13.

43. The landlord, where the agreement is not by deed, may recover a reasonable satisfaction for the tenements occupied by the defendants, in an action on the case for the use and occupation of what was so held; and if in evidence on the trial any parol demise, or any agreement not by deed, whereon a certain rent was reserved shall appear, the plaintiff shall not be nonsuited, but may make use thereof as an evidence of the quantum of the damages, id. s. 14.

44. Where any tenant for life shall die before, or on the day on which any rent was reserved upon any demise, which determined on the death of such tenant for life, the executors or administrators of such tenant for life may, in an action on the case, recover of the under-tenants, if such tenant for life die on the day on which the same was made payable, the whole, or if before such day, then a proportion of such rent, according to the time such tenant for life lived, of the last year or quarter, or other time in which such rent was growing due, making all just allowances, or proportionable part thereof respectively, id. s. 15.

45. If any tenant holding tenements at a rack rent, or where the rent reserved shall be full 3-4ths of the yearly value of demised premises, who shall be in arrear for one year's rent, shall desert such premises, and leave the same uncultivated or unoccupied, so as no sufficient distress can be had to countervail the arrears; 2 justices of peace (having no interest in such premises), at the request of the lessor or landlord, his bailiff or receiver, may go upon and view the same, and affix on the most notorious part of the premises notice in writing, what day (at the distance of 14 days at least) they will return to take a 2d view; and if upon such 2d view the tenant, or some person on his behalf, shall not appear and pay the rent in arrear, or there shall not be sufficient distress upon such premises, such justices may put the landlord, &c. into possession, and the lease to such tenant, as to any demise therein contained only, shall become void, 11 G. 2. c. 19. s. 16.

46. The remedies by 11 G. 2. c. 19. s. 16. pl. 45. given to lessors and landlords, in case of any tenant deserting the demised premises, and leaving the same unoccupied, so as no sufficient distress can be had to countervail the arrears, shall be extended to the case of tenants holding any lands, &c. at a rack rent, or where the rent reserved shall be full 5-4ths of the yearly value of the demised premises, and who shall be one half year's rent in arrear, (instead of one year as by the said act provided,) and who shall hold the lands, &c. under any demise or agreement, either verbal or written, and although no power of re-entry is reserved to the landlord, in case of non-payment of rent, who is in arrear one half year's rent, 57 G. 3. c. 52.

47. Provided that such proceedings of such justices shall be examinable into in a summary way by the next justices of assize, and if they lie in London or Middlesex, by the judges of the courts of K. B. or C. P.; and if in the counties palatine, then before the judges thereof; and if in Wm., before the courts of grand sessions; who shall order restitution to be made to such tenant, together with his costs, to be paid by the landlord or lessor, if they shall see cause for the same; and in case they shall affirm the act of such justices, shall award costs not exceeding 5*l.* for the frivolous appeal, 11 G. 2. c. 19. s. 17.

48. All defendants in replevin may avow, or make cognizance generally, that the plaintiff in replevin, or other tenant of the lands, &c. whereon any distress for rent, quit-rent, relief, heriot or other services is made, enjoyed the same under a grant or demise at such a certain rent during the time wherein this rent distrained for incurred, which rent was then and still remains due; or that the place where the distress was taken was parcel of such certain tenements held of such honour, lordship or manor, for which tenements the rent, relief, heriot, or other service distrained for, was, at the time of such distress, and still remains due, without setting forth the grant, tenure, demise or title of such landlords or lessors, or owners of such manors, and if the plaintiff in such action becomes nonsuit, discontinues, or has judgment against him, the defendant in replevin shall have double costs, id. s. 22.

49. Where any distress is made for any kind of rent justly due, and any irregularity or unlawful act is afterwards done by the party distraining, or his agent, the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party making it a trespasser ab initio; but the party aggrieved thereby may recover full satisfaction for the special damage sustained thereby and no more, in an action of trespass, or on the case at the election of the plaintiff; provided that where the plaintiff shall recover in such action he shall have full costs with the usual remedy to recover same, id. s. 19.

50. No tenant or lessee shall recover in any such action if tender of such arrears hath been made by the party distraining, or his agent, before such action brought, id. s. 20.

51. In all actions of trespass, or on the case brought against any persons entitled to rents or services of any kind, or their bailiffs or receivers, or other persons relating to any entry under this act, or otherwise, upon the premises charged with such rent, &c. or to any distress or seizure, sale or disposal of any goods thereupon, the defendant may plead general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues, or has judgment against him, the defendant shall have double costs, id. s. 21.

52. All sheriffs and other officers granting replevins, shall, in every replevin of a distress for rent, take in their own names from the plaintiff and two responsible witnesses, a bond in double the value of the goods distrained (such value to be ascertained by oath of one witness not interested in the goods, and which oath may be administered by the person granting the replevin), and conditioned for prosecuting the suit with effect and without delay, and for duly returning goods distrained in case a return is awarded before any deliverance is made of the distress; and such sheriff or officer taking such bond, shall, at the costs and request of the avowant or person making cognizance, assign such bond to him by indorsing the same, and attesting it under his hand and seal in the presence of two witnesses, which may be done without stamp if the stamp is affixed before action brought thereon; and if such bond be forfeited such assignee may bring an action, and recover on it in his own name, and the court wherein such action is brought, may, by a rule, give such relief to the parties on such bond as may be agreeable to justice, and such rule shall be in the nature of a defeazance to such bond, id. s. 23.

53. TO REGULATE THE COSTS OF DISTRESSES LEVIED for payment of small rents, 57 G. 3. c. 93.

54. No person making any distress for rent where the sum demanded does not exceed 20*l.* for such rent, nor any person employed in making such distress, or in doing any act in the course thereof, shall take out of the produce of the goods distrained and sold, or from the tenant distrained on, or from the landlord or other person, any more costs for such distress than such as mentioned in the following list, or for any act there mentioned, unless it were really done, id. s. 1.

Levying distress, 3*s.*; Man in possession, per day, 2*s.* 6*d.*; Appraisement, whether by one broker or more, 6*d.* in the pound on the value of the goods; Stamp, the lawful amount thereof; all expences of advertisement, if any, 10*s.*; Catalogue, sale and commission and delivery of good, 1*s.* in the pound in the net produce of the sale.

55. If any person shall in any manner levy or receive from any person, or retain or take from the produce of any goods sold for payment of rent, any greater costs than as aforesaid, or make any charge for any thing mentioned in the foregoing list and not really done, the party aggrieved may apply to a justice of the peace for the county, city, town, and acting for the division where such distress was made or proceeded in for redress; who shall summon the party complained of to appear before him at a time fixed in the summons, and examine into the complaint, and hear the defence of the party complained of; and if it appears that the party complained of has so offended, such justice shall order him to pay to the complainant treble the amount of money unlawfully taken; and in case of non-payment of any money or costs so ordered to be paid, shall issue his warrant to levy the same by distress and sale of goods, rendering the overplus to the owner after payment of the charges of such distress and sale, and if no sufficient distress can be had, shall commit him to the common gaol or prison within his jurisdiction until such order is satisfied, id. s. 2.

56. Such justices, at the request of either party, shall summon all persons as witnesses, and administer an oath to them touching such complaint or defence against it; and if any person so summoned shall not obey, without some lawful excuse, or shall refuse to be examined on oath or affirmation, he shall forfeit 10*s.*, to be ordered, levied, &c. as in s. 2. directed, except as to the form of the order, and hereinafter provided for, id. s. 3.

57. Such justice, if he finds the complaint unfounded, may adjudge costs not exceeding 20*s.* to the other party, which order shall be effected as in s. 2. directed; but nothing herein shall empower such justice to make any order or judgment against the landlord for whose benefit any such distress is made, unless such landlord personally levied the same, provided no person aggrieved by such distress, or by any proceeding thereon, or by any costs or charges levied in respect thereof, shall be barred from any remedy which he had before this act, except so far as the complaint to be preferred under this act has been determined by the order and judgment of the justice before whom it was heard, &c. and which order and judgment may be given in evidence under the general issue, id. s. 4.

58. Such orders and judgments on such complaints shall be in the form following, and may be proved in any court by proof of the signature of such justice thereto, and such orders as regard persons summoned as witnesses may be made in such form as to such justice seems meet, id. s. 5.

The Forms.

FORM of the order and judgment of the justice before whom complaint is preferred, where the same is for the complainant.

In the matter of the complaint, A. B. against C. D., for a breach of the provision of an act of the 57th year of H. M. King George the third, intitled an act [insert the title], of 1. E., a justice of the peace for the county of —, and acting within the division of —, do order and adjudge that the said C. D. shall pay to A. B. the sum of — as a compensation and satisfaction for unlawful charges and costs levied and taken from the said A. B. under a distress for rent; and the further sum of — for costs on this complaint.

(Signed) E. F.

THE LIKE when the justice dismisses the complaint as unfounded and with or without costs.

In the matter [same as other to the *] that the complaint of the said A. F. is unfounded, [if costs are given] and I do further order and adjudge that the said A. B. shall pay unto the said C. D. the sum of — for costs.

(Signed) F. F.

59. Every broker, &c. making any distress, shall give a copy of his charges, and of all the costs of any distress signed by him to the person on whose goods the same is levied, although the rent demanded shall exceed 20*l.*, id. s. 6.

60. A printed copy of this act shall be hung up in some convenient place in the halls, &c. where the justices of each county in Eng. and Wa. hold either their quarter or other sessions, id. s. 7.

61. FOR ENABLING LANDLORDS MORE SPEEDILY TO RECOVER possession of lands and tenements unlawfully held over by tenants, 1 G. 4. c. 87. [EXTENDS to all parts of U. K. except Scot., id. s. 8. See as to proceeding in ejectment on forfeiture of lease by, and power of re-entry on, non-payment of rent, 4 G. 2. c. 28. ss. 2—4. pl. 24—30.]

62. Where the term or interest of any tenant holding under a lease or agreement in writing any lands, tenements or hereditaments for any term of years certain, or from year to year, has expired, or been determined either by landlord or tenant, by regular notice to quit, and such tenant, or any person holding or claiming under him, refuses to deliver up possession accordingly, after lawful demand in writing made and signed by landlord or his agent, and served personally on, or left at the usual abode of such tenant or person, and the landlord shall thereupon proceed by ejectment for recovery of possession, he may, at the foot of the declaration, address a notice to such tenant or person, requiring him to appear in the court in which such action is brought on the 1st day of the next term (or if brought in W.a., or in any county palatine, then on the first day of the next session or assizes, or at the court day or other usual period for appearance to process then next following), there to be made defendant, and find such bail if ordered by the court, and for such purposes as are next herein specified, 1 G. 4. c. 87. s. 1.

63. On the party's appearance at the day prescribed, or in case of his non-appearance, then, on usual affidavit of service of declaration and notice, the landlord, on producing the lease or agreement, or some counterpart or declaration thereof, and proving its execution by affidavit, and on affidavit that the premises have been actually enjoyed under the same, and that the tenant's interest therein has expired, or been determined by regular notice to quit (as it may be), and that possession hath been lawfully demanded as above, may move the court for a rule for such tenant or person to shew cause within a time fixed by the court, on considering the situation of the premises why such tenant, &c. on being admitted defendant, besides entering into the common rule [confessing inter alia defendant's possession, R.M.T. 1820, 4 B. & A. Rep. 196.] and giving the common undertaking, should not undertake, in case of verdict for plaintiff, to give him a judgment to be entered up against the real defendant of the term next preceding the time of trial (or if the action is brought in W.a., or the counties palatine respectively, then of the session, assizes or court day at which the trial shall be had), and also why he should not enter into a recognizance by himself and two sufficient sureties in a reasonable sum, conditioned to pay the costs and damages recovered by the plaintiff in the action; and the court, on cause shewn, or affidavit of service of the rule if no cause is shewn, may make the same absolute in the whole or in part, and shall order such tenant, &c. within a time to be fixed on consideration of all the circumstances, to give such undertakings and find such bail as shall be specified in the rule, or in that part thereof which is so made absolute, and if the party shall not do so, laying no ground to induce the court to enlarge the time for obeying the same, then on affidavit of service of such order an absolute rule shall be made for entering up judgment for plaintiff, id. ibid.

64. Wherever hereafter it shall appear on trial of any ejectment at suit of landlord against tenant, that the latter or his attorney has been served with due notice of trial, the plaintiff shall not be nonsuited by default of defendant's appearance, or of confession of lease, entry and ouster; but production of consent rule [see the matter within brackets in last pl.] and undertaking of defendant, shall be sufficient evidence thereof; and the judge before whom such cause shall be tried, shall, whether defendant appear or not, permit plaintiff on the trial, after proof of his right to recover possession of the whole or any part of the premises in the declaration, to go into evidence of the mesne profits thereof which might have accrued from the determination of tenant's interest down to the time of the verdict in the cause, or to some preceding day specially mentioned therein; and the jury finding for plaintiff shall, in such case, give their verdict on the whole matter, both as to recovery of the whole or any part of the premises, and as to the amount of the damages for mesne profits; but nothing herein shall bar any such landlord from bringing trespass for the mesne profits accruing from the verdict or the day so specified therein down to the day of delivery of possession of the premises recovered in the ejectment, id. s. 2.

65. Where such undertaking is given and security found as above, if on the trial verdict passes for plaintiff, but it appears to the judge that the finding of the jury was contrary to evidence, or that the damages given were excessive, he may order the execution of the judgment to be stayed absolutely till the 5th day of the next term, (or till the next session, assizes, or court day, as may be,) which order he shall in all other cases make on requisition of defendant, in case he shall forthwith undertake to find, and on condition that he shall within 4 days from the day of trial actually find security by recognizance of himself and 2 sureties in a reasonable sum, directed by the judge, conditioned not to commit any waste or act in nature thereof, or other wilful damage, and not to sell or carry off any standing crops, hay, straw, or manure produced or made and still being on the premises, from the day on which the verdict is given to that on which execution is finally made on the judgment, or the same is set aside, (as may be); which recognizance shall immediately stand discharged, if a writ of error is brought on such judgment; and the plaintiff shall become bound with 2 sufficient sureties unto the defendant therein, in such sum and with such condition as may be conformable to the provisions for staying execution respectively provided by 16 & 17 C. 2. c. 8. ss. 3—4, in Eng. and 17 & 18 C. 2. c. 12. (Ir.) on bringing writs of error on judgments in ejectments, 1 G. 4. c. 87. s. 3.

66. All recognizances and securities entered into, pursuant to this act, may be taken respectively in such manner, and by and before the officer authorized to take recognizances of bail on actions in the court where such ejectment is brought; which officer on payment of 2s. 6d. only shall file the same; but no action or other proceeding shall be commenced on any such recognizance or security after expiration of 6 months from the time when possession of the premises or any part thereof shall actually have been delivered to the landlord, id. s. 4.

67. Defendant shall not remove any ejectment commenced by a landlord under this act from any court of great session in W.a. to be sued in an English county, unless the former court on special application is of opinion that it ought to be so removed, id. s. 5.

68. In all cases wherein the landlord shall proceed in ejectment under this act, and the tenant shall have found bail as in s. 1., then if the landlord is nonsuited on the trial, or loses a verdict on the merits, judgment shall pass against him with double costs, id. s. 6.

69. Saving for all former rights and remedies of landlords in any case hereinbefore provided for, id. s. 7.

4. All acts by 38 G. 3. c. 5. required to be done by any commissioners, assessors, or collectors, (except where hereby varied or otherwise provided for) may be done by them for the year in which any assessment is made under this act, in like manner, and at like times and places, as therein directed, in regard to the year 1798, and all things authorized or required by such act to be done, within any limited time after the year 1798, may be done within the like period after the year for which any assessment is made; and all dates and times in that act mentioned, within or during, or after which, or with reference to which any authorities, &c. are to be executed, which are within or computed from 1798, or from any time within such year, or any prior, or subsequent year, with reference to the execution of such act, and the 38 G. 3. c. 60. for the year 1798, shall be construed to refer to the year of assessment and be computed accordingly, 53 G. 3. c. 142. s. 1.

5. All persons, bodies corporate, guilds, and fraternities, within such different counties, &c. having estates in ready money, or debts, or in goods, &c. or personal estate within G. B. or without, belonging to or in trust for them, except and out of the premises deducted such sums as they shall bonâ fide owe, and such debts owing to them as shall by the commissioners under this act be adjudged desperate, and except the stock upon lands and household stuff in use, and except loans and debts due from H. M., shall pay unto H. M. 4*s.* in the pound according to the true yearly value thereof for one year, viz. 20*s.* for every 100*l.* of such ready money, debts, and goods, &c. and so in proportion to be assessed and collected as herein mentioned; and all persons and commissioners having or exercising any public office or employment of profit in Eng., Wa., or Ber., and all their clerks, agents, secondaries, substitutes, and other inferior ministers, (except military officers, who shall be in muster by the army muster-master-general, or in pay in the army or navy, in respect of such offices only) shall pay 4s. for each 20s. they receive in virtue of their offices for one year, without any deduction; and all persons, bodies, guilds, and fraternities, having any annuity, pension, stipend, or other yearly payment, either out of any branch of H. M.'s revenue in Eng., Wa., or Ber., or payable, or secured to be paid by persons in Eng., Wa., or Ber., not issuing out of any lands, &c. or charged on the same, touching which other directions are herein given, and not being annuities, which by any act of parliament made or to be made, &c. are specially exempted from taxes, shall pay to H. M. 4s. for every 20s. for every such annuity, &c. and after that rate for one year, the same to be levied as hereinafter expressed, 38 G. 3. c. 5. s. 5.

6. All manors, messuages, lands, and tenements, all quarries, mines of coal, tin, and lead, copper, mundie, iron and other mines, iron mills, furnaces, and other iron works, salt springs, and salt works, all alum mines and works, all parks, chaces, warrens, woods, underwoods, coppices, and all tithings, tithes, tolls, annuities, and other yearly profits, and all hereditaments whatever, being within the respective counties, &c. aforesaid, as well within ancient demesne and other liberties as without, within Eng., Wa., or Ber., and all persons, bodies, guilds, mystics, fraternities, and brotherhoods, whether corporate or not, holding any such manors, messuages, lands, &c. shall be charged by a pound rate, towards the sum hereby imposed upon all such counties, cities, &c. so that by such rates so to be assessed upon such ready money, &c. the full sum for Eng., Wa., and Ber., be completely assessed and paid into receipt of H. M.'s exchequer, id. s. 4.

7. "Whereas many manors, messuages, lands, tenements, tythes, hereditaments, and premises, are subject to the payment of several rent-charges, or to the payment of divers fee farm rents, or other rents, thereupon reserved," be it enacted, that the landlords, owners, and proprietors of such manors, &c. in Eng., Wa., or Ber., being charged with a pound rate, may abate out of such fee farm rent, &c. so much of such pound rate, which shall be assessed upon such manors, &c. as a like rate for such fee farm rent amounts to, so as such fee farm rent, &c. amounts to 20s. per ann. or more; and persons entitled to such rent, &c. and their auditors, reeves, receivers, and deputies, shall allow same to be made, id. s. 5.

8. All persons who by 37 G. 3. c. 55. were named and appointed commissioners for executing that act, within the several counties, cities, boroughs, cinque ports, towns, and places of Eng., Wa., and Ber., duly qualifying themselves according to this act, shall, together with other persons who may be appointed by any act made in this session, be commissioners to execute this act within such counties, &c., id. s. 6. [sees to the qualification of commissioners, ss. 90—96. pl. 98—106. and see also ss. 106—7. pl. 115.]

9. The persons herein named [here follow the names for Eng., and Wa.] being first qualified to act as commissioners of land-tax, as herein directed, shall be commissioners to execute the powers of 59 G. 3. c. 7. for the duties on pensions, &c. and so much of 38 G. 3. c. 5. as was continued for ever by 38 G. 3. c. 60. within the several counties, ridings, cities, boroughs, cinque ports, towns, and places in Eng., Wa., and Ber., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 123. s. 1.

10. The qualifications of such persons shall be the same as those required by 38 G. 3. c. 5. 48. and they shall be subject to the same penalties mentioned in those acts, id. s. 3. No person who has held the office of inspector or surveyor of assessed taxes, shall be a commissioner under this act, although named therein, id. s. 4.

11. Provided that where in any city, liberty, or place, the qualification of a commissioner to act therein, consists of a personal estate, such person having a personal estate of the required value, may act as a commissioner in all cases where he has been taxed and paid for such personal estate on the last assessment made for such city, &c. by virtue of any act for continuing the duties on pensions, &c.; provided all persons who act as justices of peace for any county, riding, shire, or stewartry in G. B., being so duly qualified, may act as such commissioners, although not specially named in this act, id. s. 5.

12. The commissioners under this act shall meet at the most usual place within the counties, &c. within Eng., Wa. and Ber., for which they are appointed commissioners, as often as necessary to put this act in execution, and at such meetings shall ascertain and set down in writing the several proportions which ought to be charged upon each hundred, lathe, wapentake, rape, ward, or other division within Eng., Wa. and Ber., by charging in proportion to the sums assessed on the same hundreds, &c. by 4 W. & M. c. 1., and shall, if they see cause, distribute themselves in smaller numbers, so as three or more may be appointed for the service of each hundred, &c., nevertheless not to restrain such commissioners from acting for a whole county, 38 G. 3. c. 5. s. 7.

13. The commissioners, or major part of them, present at such general meetings, shall agree, and set down in writing, who and what number of commissioners shall act in each hundred, and shall deliver true copies of such writing to the receiver-general appointed by H. M.; and the commissioners within the several hundreds, &c. in Eng., Wa., and Ber., or any two of them, shall cause the proportions charged in the respective hundreds, &c. towards the aid hereby granted, to be equally assessed within each hundred, &c.; and for that end shall direct their joint or several precepts to such inhabitants, high constables, petty constables, bailiffs, and other officers, and ministers, and such number of them as they deem meet to be presentors and assessors, requiring them to appear before such commissioners, at such time and place, not exceeding 8 days after the date of such precept, as they shall appoint; and at their appearance such commissioners as are then present shall openly read the several rates, duties, and charges in this act mentioned, and openly declare the effect of their charge to them, and how they should make their assessments, and proceed in execution of the act; and if such constable, inhabitant, &c. to whom such precept is directed, shall absent himself without lawful excuse, to be made out on oath of two witnesses, or if any officer or other person appearing shall refuse to serve such officer, &c., shall, for such default, forfeit to H. M. so much as such commissioners shall think fit, not exceeding 5*l.*, nor less than 4*0s.*; and after such charge given, the commissioners shall issue warrants, directed to two of the most sufficient inhabitants of each parish, township, or place, residing within the parish where such township or place shall be, in their respective divisions thereby appointed, requiring them to be assessors of all such rates by this act imposed, and appointing and prefixing a certain day and place for such assessors to appear and bring in their assessments in writing; which assessors shall assess the sum given in charge, upon all ready-money debts, personal estates, offices, employments, annuities, and pensions, chargeable (as in s. 3. pl. 5.) according to this act, and by an equal pound rate upon all manors, lands, tenements, rents, hereditaments, and other the premises within the limits of the respective places for which made assessors; and shall bring with them, at the time and place appointed to bring their assessments, a certificate in writing of the said assessment, and return the names of 2 persons living within the limits of the places where they are made chargeable, to be collectors of the monies to be assessed and to be paid to H. M. under this act, and the parish for which they are collectors shall be answerable for the due payment thereof to the receiver-general, or his deputy; and if any assessor shall neglect to serve, or not appear at the time appointed, without lawful excuse, to be made by the oaths of two witnesses, which oath two of such commissioners may administer, or shall not perform his duty, he shall forfeit to H. M. any sum in the discretion of the commissioners, not exceeding 4*0*l., to be levied by distress and sale of his goods, in like manner as by s. 17. (pl. 24.) appointed for levying the several rates herein mentioned in case of neglect of payment, and to be charged on the receiver-general, together with such rates; and such assessors shall deliver one copy of assessments subscribed by them to the commissioners within the time so prefixed, and 3 of such commissioners shall sign and send two duplicates thereof, and deliver one of them to 2 persons to be collectors, (which the commissioners are hereby authorized to nominate for each place,) with warrant to them to collect such assessments, so as the same may be paid to the receiver-general at the times herein limited; and such commissioners shall give such collectors notice at what time or place the appeals of any persons over-rated by the assessors may be determined, which day of appeal, so to be appointed, shall be 30 days from the time of signing, &c. such duplicates to such collectors, who, within 10 days after receipt of such duplicates, shall give notice in every parish church or chapel of ease belonging to any such parish within his district, after divine service, on Lord's day, (if any performed within that time,) of the time and place of appeal, and cause like notices to be fixed upon the doors of each such churches or chapels, on the same day; and such collectors, at all reasonable times, shall permit any person thinking himself over-rated, or his steward or bailiff, to inspect the duplicates of such rates and assessments without fee; and all such appellants shall give notice in writing to one of the assessors of the parish, of his intention to appeal, that they may attend and justify their assessment; and all appeals once determined by such commissioners, or three of them, or the major part of them present on the days appointed, shall be final; and all such commissioners shall deliver a schedule in parchment under their hands and seals, containing the whole sum assessed on each parish and place, and also the christian and surname of the respective assessors and collectors, unto the receiver-general of each county, city, town, place, &c. within Eng., Wa. and Ber., or his deputy, and transmit a like schedule unto H. M.'s remembrancer's office of the exchequer, on or before 8*th Aug.* 1798, or within 20 days after, (all appeals being by them first determined) for which duplicates the remembrancer shall give a receipt gratis, under 10*l.* penalty, to be recovered to H. M.'s use, as other penalties by this act may, 38 G. 3. c. 5. s. 8.

14. The commissioners for executing 38 G. 3. c. 5. shall cause 2 duplicates of every assessment to be made out on parchment by their clerk with a 6 calendar months after 25th of March next following, containing the whole sum assessed upon each parish, and the christian and surnames of the assessors or collectors, one of which they shall send to the receiver-general of such county, riding, city, &c. in Eng., Wa., and Ber., or his deputy, and the other to the tax-office, where copies shall be taken, and from whence a duplicate shall be transmitted to the king's remembrancer in the exchequer, for which an acquittance shall be given gratis; and if any clerk to such commissioners shall neglect to make out and deliver such duplicates within the time limited, and as directed, or shall wilfully make any false entry, or omit any sum in such duplicates, he shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered to H.M.'s use as other penalties may be by such act, 53 G.3. c.142. s.2.

15. The collectors in Eng., Wa., and Ber. shall levy the rates and taxes so assessed, and shall demand all sums of money so assessed of the parties themselves, as the same grows due, if to be found, or else at their last place of abode, or on premises charged; and such collectors shall levy the money so charged, and pay the same unto receivers-general, or their deputies, at such time and place as the commissioners, or two of them shall appoint, so as the whole sum due for each quarterly payment, shall be paid to such receivers upon the days appointed by this act, 58 G.3. c.5. s.9.

16. The money received by such collectors shall be paid to the receivers-general, or his deputy appointed under his hand and seal, whereof notice under such hand and seal shall be given to 2 commissioners within the respective divisions or hundreds, within 10 days after the next general meeting, and so from time to time within 10 days after the death or removal of any deputy; and the receipt of such receiver or his deputy (which shall be given gratis) shall be a sufficient discharge to such collectors, who shall pay all sums so received by them, to such receivers or their deputies; for the payment whereof such collectors shall not be obliged to travel more than 10 miles from place of their abode, id. s.10.

17. No stamp-duty shall be chargeable on receipts given by receivers-general of the land-tax duties to any collectors, 55 G.3. c.142. s.8.

18. If any such receiver-general die, or is removed, or if such receiver for the last aid is not appointed for the present, notice thereof shall be given by the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, to two commissioners for each division in such county or place before the time appointed for the first quarterly payment; and so from time to time as occasion requires, 58 G.3. c.5. s.11.

19. The sum of 497,418*l.* 6*s.* 11*d.*, and nine-sixteenths of a penny, for the first quarterly payment of such assessments for Eng., Wa., and Ber., shall be levied, collected, and paid to such receivers-general of the several counties, cities, and other places, on or before 24th June, 1798, a like sum for the second quarter's payment on or before 29th Sept. 1799, a like sum for the third quarter, on or before 25th Decem. 1798, and a like sum for the fourth quarter, on or before 25th March, 1799, in full of such sum of 1,989,673*l.* 7*s.* 10*d.*, id. s.12.

20. Such receiver-general in Eng., Wa., and Ber., &c. within one month after full sum received for each hundred or division, shall give to such commissioners acting for such division, a receipt under his hand and seal for the same, which receipt shall be a full discharge to each hundred for such payment; which receivers shall, within 20 days after the receipt of the money granted by this act, transmit to the receipt of the exchequer; and the treasury shall allow them 2*d.* in the pound for so much as they shall pay in on clearing their accounts, id. s.13. [Note: The treasury may cause such sums of money as they judge reasonable, to be paid or allowed to such receivers out of any overplus monies to arise by any land-tax, after discharging all payments charged thereupon by parliament, see 7 G.1. c.20. s.36.]

21. Such collectors in Eng., Wa., and Ber., for gathering the particular sums charged upon such parish or place for which appointed collectors, and for giving receipts to persons from whom they receive the same, shall be allowed 3*d.* in the pound, and may detain the same out of the last quarterly payment; and the receiver-general, on the receipt of the whole assessments for the county, &c. (in case he has received the duplicates of each parish and place therein, and the same be returned to the king's remembrancer, and not otherwise,) shall allow according to 2 commissioners' warrant 3 half-pence in the pound to the commissioners' clerks, which clerks shall be appointed by a majority of the acting commissioners present at each meeting within each hundred, lathe, &c. id. s.14. [See 42 G.3. c.116. s.177. LAND-TAX REDEMPTION, pl. 214.]

22. All duplicates of the books of assessments delivered by the assessors of land-tax to the commissioners or their clerks, and all minute-books, and other public books or papers relating to the land-tax, which shall be in custody of any such clerk who shall be removed from office, or of the executors, administrators, or other legal representatives of persons who shall die holding such offices, or after their removal from the same, or in custody of their agents or attorneys, or other person, shall be deemed the property of the commissioners of land-tax acting in such division, as records belonging to them, and shall remain in their custody, or that of their clerks, or of such other person as shall be appointed by 3 commissioners at their meetings, 58 G.3. c.5. s.15.

23. All persons having in their custody any such books and papers, shall, within one calendar month after notice in writing, signed by 3 commissioners, or a true copy thereof given to or left at the usual place of abode of such persons, deliver the same to the person appointed by such notice, whose receipt shall be a discharge to the persons so delivering the same; and all such persons who shall neglect so to do, within the time limited by the notice, and demand made, shall forfeit 50*l.*; one moiety to the receiver-general for the county where the offence was committed, to be applied in aid of the land-tax, and the other to any person who will sue for the same, to be recovered with full costs by action of debt, &c. or information, in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance, shall be allowed, id. s.16.

24. If any person shall neglect to pay any sum whereat he is assessed, in Eng., Wa. or Ber. by this act, on demand by the collector of the place, according to the estreats delivered by the commissioners, such collector shall levy the same by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such person, or distrain upon the messuages, lands, &c. charged with the sum without any authority from the commissioners for that purpose; and the goods there found and the distress so taken shall keep for 4 days at the charges of the owners; and if the owners do not pay the sums rated within 4 days, then the distress may be appraised by 2 inhabitants where taken, or other person, and sold by the collectors for payment of the money, and the overplus to be returned to the owner; and any house may be broken open in the day time, and by warrant of 2 commissioners any chest where such goods are, calling to their assistance the constables, tythingmen or headboroughs, within the county, &c. where refusal made, which officers shall be aiding in the premises, as they answer the contrary at their perils; and if question or difference shall arise touching any distress, 2 commissioners shall determine the same; and if any person assessed to this tax in Eng., Wa. and Ber. shall neglect to pay the same by 10 days after demand, or convey away his goods or personal estate, whereby the sums assessed cannot be levied, then 2 commissioners for any city, county or place, may, by warrant under their hands and seals, commit such person (except a peer or peeress of G. B.) to prison, till the money and charges be paid; and the several tenants of all houses, lands, &c. in Eng., Wa. and Ber. which shall be rated by virtue of this act, shall pay the same, and deduct it out of the rent, and the landlords shall then allow same on receipt of the residue of such rent, id. s.17.

25. Every tenant shall be discharged for what he shall so pay, and if any difference shall arise between landlord and tenant, or any other, concerning such rates, the several commissioners, or two of them, in their several divisions, shall settle the same; and in case the proportions set by this or any other act on each county, town, and place, in Eng., Wa., and Ber. shall not be fully assessed and paid according to the meaning thereof, or if any such assessments be imposed on persons not able to pay, or upon any empty house or land where the same cannot be collected, or in case by neglect or accident such assessment is not paid to the receiver-general or his deputy, then the commissioners, assessors, and collectors shall re-assess all such sums upon the respective divisions or hundreds wherein such deficiency shall happen, or parishes therein, as such commissioners, or such number of them as are authorized to act on the first assessment deem just; the new assessment to be made and collected in the same manner as the first, id. s.18.

26. If any assessor, collector, or other person shall wilfully neglect to perform his duty, or is guilty of fraud or abuse in executing this act, 3 commissioners may fine him any sum not exceeding 40*l.*, which fines may be discharged by consent of the majority of the commissioners who imposed it, but shall be levied by warrant under hand and seal of 2 commissioners, by distress and sale of goods; and in default thereof, the offender (if not a peer or peeress) may by like warrant be committed to prison till payment made; and all fines imposed under this act in Eng., Wa., and Ber., &c. shall be paid to the receivers-general, and by them into the receipt of the exchequer, and shall be inserted in new duplicates, and transmitted to the remembrancer to be charged in account, id. s.19.

27. Every collector under this act who shall neglect to pay the sums by him received, or who shall detain the same in his hands and not pay the same as herein directed, may be imprisoned by two commissioners for each county, &c. in their respective divisions, and their estates real and personal, belonging to them, or coming into the hands of their heirs, executors, or administrators, whenever found, may be seized; and the seizing commissioners shall appoint a general meeting of the commissioners for the county, &c. and cause notice to be given of the place 6 days before the meeting, and the major part of those there present, in case the money so detained is not paid by such collector, may sell such estates or part thereof, and pay the sum so detained to the receiver-general for the county, &c., id. s.20.

28. If any collector of duties under 38 G. 3. c. 5. 60. being duly summoned or called before them in the manner thereby directed, shall neglect to attend the commissioners, or shall not answer all questions put to him touching his office, or shall neglect to produce to them the certificate of assessments, accounts, or vouchers of the receipts or payments of such duties by him, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be charged on him in any assessment under such acts, and to be recovered as such assessments may be besides any forfeiture or disability, incurred under such acts for detaining money in his hands; and whenever any such money is detained in the hands of such collector, or any penalty imposed on him is unpaid, and the same or any part cannot be recovered by warrant or authority of such commissioners, or if such commissioners shall neglect to issue their warrant, then such part as cannot be so recovered, which has arisen from such duties, shall be recovered as a debt or record due to H. M., with costs; and the part which has arisen by penalty may be recovered by action or information as other penalties may under such acts, with full costs; and the sum so recovered shall be paid to the receiver-general, in aid of the parish answerable for the same, 53 G. 3. c. 142. s. 7.

29. The commissioners for executing 38 G. 3. c. 5. 60. may make conveyance of the copyhold estates of collectors seized by them under 38 G. 3. c. 5. s. 119. pl. 128. to the purchasers by deed indented between 2 of such commissioners and the purchasers, and such sale shall be effectual in like manner as sale of copyhold estates of bankrupts by deed indented and enrolled; provided such purchasers, in like manner as the vendors of such bankrupts' copyhold estates before they enter into and take the profit thereof, shall agree with the lords of the manors of whom holden for the usual fines or incomes; and on such agreement or composition, the lords at the next court holden for such manors shall not only grant to such vendees, on request, the same copyhold lands, &c. by copy of the court roll for such interest as to them was sold, reserving the ancient rents, &c., but also admit them tenants and receive their fealty, id. s. 9.

30. All collectors shall, if required, give security to 3 commissioners under this act equal to the amount of the rate to be collected in each district for duly paying to the receiver-general such monies so assessed as shall come to their hands; and in default of such security being given, 3 commissioners may appoint 2 other persons who can give such security, residing within the limits of the parishes, &c. where charged, to be collectors of the money raised under this act; but if no persons can be found within the several parishes willing to give security, the persons first named shall be collectors, 38 G. 3. c. 5. s. 21.

31. At the expiration of the respective times for payment of the quarterly assessments in Eng. Wa., and Ber., 2 commissioners within their divisions shall call before them the collectors within such divisions, &c. and examine them on oath and assure themselves of the full payment of the assessment charged thereon, and of the due return thereof to the receiver-general of the respective counties, and by such receivers into the receipt of the exchequer; and in case of failure of payment, the commissioners shall cause the same to be levied and paid forthwith, id. s. 22.

32. In case of controversy concerning such assessments, or the dividing, apportioning, or payment thereof, which concerns any commissioner under this act, the commissioner so concerned in his own right or that of another, as steward, agent, &c. shall have no voice, but shall withdraw till the same is determined by the rest; and in default thereof the commissioners then present may impose fines on him not exceeding 20*l.* and levy the same as other fines by this act imposed [see s. 19. pl. 26.] may be; and all questions and differences regarding assessments in Eng. Wa., and Ber. shall be finally heard by such commissioners as herein directed, upon complaint by the party grieved, without suit to any court, id. s. 23.

33. No privileged place, person, or body corporate within the counties, &c. of Eng. Wa., and Ber., shall be exempted from the said assessments, but they and all fee-farm rents and other rents, payments, sums of money, and annuities payable out of any lands, shall be liable towards payment of every sum by this act to be levied; and all such tenants shall pay them proportionably, and shall be saved harmless by this act from any further payment of such proportion of such rents, &c. to any person to whom the same are payable, as if they had been fully paid, id. s. 24.

34. This act shall not charge any college or hall in the universities of Oxford or Cambridge, or the colleges of Windsor, Eton, Winton, or Westminster, or the corporation for the relief of the poor widows and children of clergymen, or the college of Bromley, or any hospital in Eng. Wa., and Ber., in respect of the sites of the said colleges, &c. or any buildings within the walls thereof; or any master, fellow, scholar, or exhibitor of such colleges or hall, or any reader, officer, or master of the said universities, colleges, or halls, or any master of any school in Eng. Wa., or Ber., in respect of any stipend, wages, rent, profits, or exhibitions growing due by virtue of such places or employments in such universities, colleges or schools; or any houses or lands, which before 25th Mar., 1693, did belong to sites of any college in Eng. Wa., or Ber., or to Christ's, Saint Bartholomew, Bridewell, Saint Thomas, and Ratcliffe hospitals in the city of London, and borough of Southwark, or to the corporation for the relief of poor widows and children of clergymen or college of Bromley; or shall any hospitals or almshouses in Eng. Wa., and Ber., in respect only of the rents or revenues which before 25th Mar., 1693, were payable to such hospitals and almshouse for the immediate relief of the poor thereof, 38 G. 3. c. 5. s. 25.

35. No tenants holding any lands or houses by lease or other grant from the said corporations, hospitals or almshouses, shall claim any exception by this act, but that such lands and houses, shall be assessed at their yearly worth, over the rents reserved to such corporation, &c. id. s. 26.

36. This act shall not discharge any tenant of the houses or lands of such colleges, halls, &c. who, by their leases, &c. are obliged to pay all taxes, id. s. 27.

37. All questions how far any lands, &c. belonging to any hospital, &c. (not exempted by name out of this act, pl. 74.) ought to be assessed to the land-tax, shall be determined by 3 commissioners, or the major part of them present, upon appeal before them at the day by them appointed for determining of appeals; and whose determination shall be final, id. s. 28.

38. All lands, revenues, or rents belonging to any hospital or almshouse, or settled to any charitable use as were assessed in the fourth year of H. & M. shall be liable to payments under this act; and no other lands, &c. then belonging to any hospital or almshouse, or settled to any charitable use, shall be assessed to the land-tax under this act, id. s. 29.

39. All auditors, Reeves, receivers, and their deputies, who audit or receive any fee farm rents, or other chief rents (arising in Eng. Wa., or Ber.) due to H. M. or other person claiming by grant from the crown, shall allow 4*s.* in the pound in the rents, and a proportionable rate for any greater sum than 10*s.* to the party paying the same, without fee, under the penalty of 20*l.* to the party grieved, to be recovered by action of debt or on the case, with full costs; and if any auditor of H. M.'s revenues, or his deputy, shall, in the account of any receiv., &c. set in super, or make any tenant or other person on his estate liable to any distress or vexation for any money by this act allowed, or shall refuse, neglect, or delay to allow and finally discharge the same in the proper account, he shall forfeit 100*l.* to the party grieved, to be recovered as aforesaid, and be incapable to enjoy any office, &c. under H. M., id. s. 30.

40. The fee farm rents for which a deduction of 4*s.* in the pound is allowed, are such only as are answerable to H. M., or have been purchased from the crown by virtue of 22 C. 2. c. 6. and 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 24., or one of them, and which were not before 25 March, 1693, payable to any college, hospital, reader in either university, or other person, as in s. 25. pl. 54. exempted; provided such deduction does not exceed the sum assessed by virtue of this act on the whole estate out of which such purchased rents do issue, and the owners and receivers of such rents shall, on payment thereof, allow 4*s.* in the pound, and so in proportion for any sum not less than 10*s.*, to the party paying the same, id. s. 31.

41. The officers in the receipt of the exchequer, and in other public offices shall, on request made by the assessors, deliver gratia lists of the pensions, annuities, stipends, or other annual payments, and of all fees, salaries, and other allowances payable at such receipt, or in such public offices, to any commissioners or officers for the execution of this act: and in all cases where any pensions, &c., or the fees, &c. charged by this act, shall be payable at the receipt of exchequer or other public office, or by any H. M.'s receivers or paymasters in Eng. Wa., or Ber., the tax under this act charged in respect of such premises, &c. shall (in case of nonpayment thereof) be stopped out of the same, or out of any money paid on such pensions, &c., and applied in satisfaction of such tax; and the proper officer in the exchequer and such public offices shall keep the accounts of such stoppages, and on request give copies to the collectors, id. s. 32.

42. Where any person inhabiting within the city of London, or other city or town corporate of Eng. Wa., or Ber., hath his dwelling-house in one parish or ward therein, and any goods, &c. in another, he shall be taxed for such his goods, &c. in the parish where he dwelleth, id. s. 33.

43. No clause or proviso of this act shall extend to lessen the full sum appointed by this act to be taxed and paid, but the same shall be fully collected, id. s. 34.

44. This act shall not extend to alter or make void any contracts, &c. between landlord and tenant, or other persons, touching the payment of taxes, id. s. 35.

45. All places, constabliwicks, divisions, and allotments, which have used to be taxed, shall pay and be assessed in such county, hundred, rape, &c., or division within Eng., Wa., and Ber., as heretofore usual, 38 G. 3. c. 5. s. 36.

46. Provided that if the commissioners think fit, the hundred of West Barnfield may be assessed in the lathe of Skay in Kent; the tithing of Northmore, in Oxfordshire, in the hundred of Bampton, in the said county; the tithings of Charlbury, Faller, and Finstock, in the hundred of Chadlington in the same county; and the whole town and parish of Leeds, in Yorkshire, in the hundred of Skyrack in the same county; and the parish of Ombersley, in Worcestershire, in the lower division of Oswaldslow hundred in the same county; and the parish of Aldemaston, in the eastern division of Oswaldslow hundred; and the parishes of Yardley, Hanbury, and Stoke Prior, in Bromsgrove division of Halsshire hundred, in the same county; and the parish of Church Leach, and that part of the parish of Crople which is now assessed in Bromsgrove division of Halsshire hundred, in the same county, in the Perishore division; and the forest of Chute shall be assessed where it was assessed under the 1 W. & M. c. 1.; and the parish of Cyton-upon-Scearn, in Worcestershire, formerly assessed in the lower division of Oswaldslow hundred, may be assessed in the lower division of Perishore hundred, in the said county; and the profits of the navigation of the rivers Culder and Ayre, in the west riding of Yorkshire, shall be assessed, one moiety in Wakefield, and the other in Leeds, id. s. 57.

47. Persons inhabiting apartments, &c. in Somerset House shall be liable to the payment of the assessments set on them respectively, in proportion to those set on other lands, &c. within liberty of the duchy of Lancaster, and the same powers and remedies shall be used to levy the same as hereby given in other cases, id. s. 58.

48. If any action, &c. or information is prosecuted against persons for things done in pursuance of this act in Eng., Wa., and Ber., such persons may plead the general issue not guilty, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, forbears prosecution, discontinues, or if a verdict pass against him, the defendants shall have treble costs, id. s. 59.

49. In case any lands or houses in any parish, &c. in Eng., Wa., or Ber., are unoccupied, and no distress can be found on the same, by reason whereof the said parish, &c. is forced to make good the deficiency, the collectors, constables, or tythingmen of the said parish, &c., at any time after, may enter and distrain on the lands or houses where there shall be any distresses found, and sell the same if not redeemed within 4 days, returning the overplus to the owner; and such collector, &c. shall distribute the money so raised proportionably to the parishes who made up the deficiency, id. s. 40.

50. Provided where any woodlands in Eng., Wa., or Ber. be assessed, and no distress to be found, the collector, &c., by warrant under the hands and seals of 2 commissioners of that division, at seasonable times of the year, may cut and sell to any person so much of the wood (timber trees excepted) as will pay the assessment and charges incident thereto; and the person and his assigns to whom the same is sold, may cut down and carry away the same to his own use, rendering overplus to the owner, id. s. 41.

51. Where any assessment is laid on any tythes, tolls, profits of markets, fairs, or fisheries, or other annual profits in Eng., Wa., and Ber. not distrainable, in case the same be not paid within 6 days after such assessment charged, the collector, constable, &c. thereunto appointed may, by warrant under the hands and seals of 2 commissioners, seize and sell sufficient of tythes wherever found, tolls, &c. to pay the tax and charges, rendering the overplus to the owner, id. s. 42.

52. If any receiver-general of money granted by this act shall return or certify unto the court of exchequer any sum to be in arrear after he has received the same, or shall cause any person to be set insuper for money so received, such receiver shall pay to the person so molested treble the damage thereby occasioned, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information, in which no essoin, &c. or more than one impurance allowed, and shall forfeit to H. M. double the sum unjustly certified, or set insuper, id. s. 43.

53. The commissioners within any county, city, or place, in Eng., Wa., or Ber., or the major part of them, shall assess each assessor within their divisions for all matter by this act taxable; and the sums so assessed, and the assessments so made, shall be written, estreated, levied, and gathered according to this act, id. s. 44.

54. No person inhabiting any city, borough, or town corporate in Eng., Wa., or Ber., shall be compelled to be an assessor or collector under this act, out of such city, &c., id. s. 45.

55. Every assessment made under this act on any house inhabited by foreign ministers or agents, shall be paid by the landlord, id. s. 46.

56. In all privileged and other places, being extra-parochial, or not within the constabliwicks or precincts of the assessors under this act, in Eng., Wa., or Ber., (although not before rated in any monthly or other tax) and in parishes where 2 sufficient inhabitants cannot be found, 2 commissioners shall appoint 2 persons living near such places to be assessors, and make returns of assessments; and also 2 collectors, to collect and pay in the same as hereby appointed, 38 G. 3. c. 5. s. 47.

57. Provided no commissioner, assessor, or collector employed in execution of this act, in Eng., Wa., or Ber., shall be liable by reason of such execution, to any penalties other than such as by this act are inflicted, id. s. 48.

58. Provided no person shall be capable, in Eng., Wa., or Ber., to act as a commissioner under this act (except to administer oaths) until he has taken the oaths prescribed by 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 15., and 6 G. 3. c. 55., and likewise if required, an oath specifying in writing the parish, situation, quantity of land, whether freehold or copyhold, of the premises which entitle him to act as a commissioner, which oaths 2 commissioners may administer to the others, id. s. 49. Any such commissioners acting before such oaths taken, shall forfeit 200*l.* to H. M., id. s. 50.

59. Every person in Eng., Wa., or Ber. assessed for his office or employment, shall be rated and pay for the same in the county or place where the same is exercised, although the profits arising thereby are payable elsewhere, id. s. 51.

60. But the master of the roll, the masters in chancery, six clerks, clerks of the potty bag, examiners, registers, clerks of inrolment, clerks of the affidavit, and subpena officers, and all other officers of the court of chancery that execute their offices within the liberty of the Rolls, shall be assessed there for the same, and not elsewhere; and the masters in chancery, and six clerks, and registers, shall (taking the oaths directed by this act) be commissioners for putting this act in execution within such liberty, and execute the powers in this and other acts contained; and all annuities, stipends, and pensions, payable to officers in respect of their offices, shall be assessed where such officers are assessed for their offices; and all other annuities, &c. in Eng., Wa., or Ber., not charged on lands, shall be assessed in the places where payable; and every person who shall be rated in Eng., Wa., or Ber., in respect of any personal estate to him belonging, shall be rated at his place of residence when this act is executed; and all persons not being householders, nor having any certain residence, shall be taxed at the place where resident when this act is executed; and if any person, who ought to be taxed in Eng., Wa., or Ber., under this act, for his personal estate, is at the time of his assessment out of the realm, he shall be rated for the same in the place where last abiding within the realm, id. s. 52.

61. Where any person has any goods, wares, or merchandizes, in any county, riding, city, district, town, or place, or in any counties, &c. other than the county, &c. where he is resident, then before 24th Aug. 1798. [see Land tax, MADE PERP. 38 G. 3. c. 60. ante, pl 1.] such person may be rated for such goods, &c. in any county, &c. where the same are, and every person, who shall be rated for any manors, messuages, lands, or tenements, or other the premises, according to the former clauses of this act, shall be rated in the places where such manors, &c. do lie, id. s. 53.

62. If any persons, by reason of having several manors or residences, or otherwise, is doubly charged for any personal estate, offices, or otherwise, then on certificate made by 2 commissioners for the county, riding, city, or place, of his last personal residence, under their hands and seals, of the sums charged upon him (which shall be given without delay or fee) and on oath made of such certificate before a justice of peace of the county, where the same was made, he shall be discharged from so much as is certified, in every other county, &c. id. s. 54.

63. This act shall not extend to Scot., Ire., Jersey, or Guernsey, for assessing any personal estate therein, towards the sum charged in Eng., Wa., or Ber.; and if any person, who ought to be taxed under this act in Eng., Wa., or Ber., in respect of his personal estate, shall, by changing his residence, or by fraud, escape from taxation, on proof thereof before 2 commissioners, or one justice of peace for the county, where the person dwells, at any time within a year after the tax made, such person shall be charged at treble value of so much as he ought to have been charged by this act; such treble value, on certificate thereof made into the exchequer by the commissioners or justices, before whom such proof is made, to be levied on the goods, lands, and hereditaments of such persons, id. s. 55.

64. Every householder in Eng., Wa., or Ber. shall, on demand of the assessors of each parish, &c. give an account of the names and qualities of such persons as lodge in their houses, under the penalty of 5*l.* to H. M., to be levied and recovered as other penalties herein mentioned, id. s. 56.

65. All persons having shares in The New River, or Thames, or Marybone, or in the Hampstead water-works, or in any insurance office against fire, or in any lights, or in The King's Printing House, shall pay 4*s.* for each 20*s.* of the annual value thereof; and they, and all companies of merchants in London and the Bank of England, and all salaries and pensions (taxable in London) payable at the general post and excise office, charged by this act, shall be assessed by 2 commissioners for such city, and the same shall be paid by the governors, treasurers, or receivers, of such works, to the person appointed by 2 commissioners to collect the same, and be deducted out of their next dividend; and persons having salaries in respect of any employment exercised in that ward of London where the post-office is situated, shall be assessed for same in such ward such 4s. in the pound, 38 G.3. c.5. s. 57.

66. Provided that when such governors, treasurers, or receivers shall, on demand to any of them made by the proper collector, refuse or neglect to pay the sum, whereto the holders of shares in such works shall be assessed, such collector may levy the same by distress and sale of the goods jointly belonging to such holders of shares, rendering overplus after charges of distress deducted to such governors, &c., id. s. 58.

67. Provided that K. B. prison, lands, garden, and common side, and all rents, offices, profits, and perquisites of marshal and other officers of the K. B. prison, and also the prison-house, lands, and garden of the marshal of the Marshalsea, and other offices, &c. of the Marshalsea court and prison, lying in the parish of St. George the Martyr, in the borough of Southwark, Surrey, and the judges of such court, and all counsellors and attorneys having a right to practise in such court, and all profits and fees accruing to them shall be assessed in the parish of St. George aforesaid; at 4s. in the pound, id. s. 59.

68. Where any officer of such prison shall neglect or refuse to pay money assessed upon him under this act, 2 commissioners for Surrey shall certify in writing, under their hands and seals, such neglect or refusal, and sum payable, to the commissioners for executing this act in the county where such officer resides, and 2 such commissioners, on receipt of such certificate, by warrant under their hands and seals, shall authorize the collectors of the parish where such officer resided to distrain his goods, &c. and keep the same for 4 days; and if such officer does not pay such money within such 4 days, then such goods may be appraised and sold by 2 persons appointed by such 2 commissioners who signed the warrant, and the money thereby arising shall be paid to the collector of St. George's parish; and the surplus, after the charge of distress deducted, shall be returned to the owner; but in case no distress can be found, then 2 commissioners, by like warrant, may authorize the collector, or any person they think fit, to apprehend such officer wherever found, and commit him to the common gaol, where he shall happen to be taken, there to remain without bail, till payment of the money assessed, and the charges of prosecution, to be allowed by such commissioners, or 2 of them, id. s. 60.

69. Provided the Fleet prison, house, lands, gardens, and the common side, and all the rents, profits, and perquisites of the office of warden of the Fleet, lying in the parish of St. Bridget, adus Bride's, London, shall be assessed in such parish, id. s. 61.

70. The officers of H. M.'s dock yard at Stoke Damarel, near Plymouth, shall be assessed under this act for their salaries and other profits, within the town and parish of Plymouth, where they were assessed for the old dock yard in 1693, so as the full proportion assessed on such town, in 1693, be assessed under this act, and so as Stoke Damarel be not charged with any greater proportion in respect of such salaries, than in 1693, id. s. 62.

71. The officers of H. M.'s hospital for sick and hurt seamen, in the parish of East Stonehouse, near Plymouth, shall be assessed for their salaries, &c. where they were in 1759, so as the full proportion assessed on the town and borough of Plymouth, in 1759, be again assessed under this act, and so as such parish be not charged with a greater proportion than in such year, id. s. 63.

72. Provided, that out of such assessment on such hospital 20l. be paid to the collector of land-tax for the parish of East Stonehouse, to be applied in aid of the assessment on such parish, id. s. 64.

73. The commissioners, clerks, and officers, for stamps shall be assessed under this act for the salaries and other profits of their places in Shire Lane ward within the division of St. Clement Danes and St. Mary le Strand, in Westminster, where they were assessed in 1785, so as the full proportion assessed in such division in 1785, be again assessed therein, and so as no other division, district, parish, or place, be charged with a greater proportion for such salaries, &c. than in such year; provided, that out of such assessment there be paid to the collectors of land-tax for the division, &c. to which the stamp office is removed, one-fourth part thereof, and also the whole land-tax for all additional officers of stamps, created since 25th Dec. 1785, or to be so hereafter created, to be applied in aid of the assessment on such division, &c., id. s. 65.

74. The commissioners, clerks, and other officers of H. M.'s navy victualling office, shall be assessed for their salaries, &c. in the manor of East Smithfield, in the parish of St. Botolph without Aldgate, within the Tower division in Middlesex, so as the full proportion which was assessed on such manor and parish be again assessed under this act; and so as any other division, &c. to which such office may be removed, be not charged with a greater proportion than it was on 25th Dec. 1785; provided, that out of such assessment on such commissioners, &c. there be paid to the collectors of the land-tax for the division to which such office is removed, one-fourth of the sums assessed on all such commissioners, &c. of the said office as have been created between the 15th Feb. 1692, and 25th Dec. 1785; and also the whole land-tax for all additional commissioners, &c. of such office, created since 25th Dec. 1785, or which may hereafter be created, to be applied in aid of the assessment on such division, &c. under this act, 38 G.3. c.5 s. 66. [See 25 G.3. c.103. now Exp.]

75. The commissioners, clerks, and other officers of the navy pay office and navy office shall be assessed on this act for their salaries, &c. in the wards of Broad-street and Tower respectively, so as the full proportion which was assessed on such wards be continued to be assessed thereon, under this act, and so as any other division, &c. to which either of such offices is removed, be not charged with a greater proportion for such salaries than it was on 25th Dec. 1785; like proviso for payment of a part of such land-tax, to the collectors of the places to which removed, as in s. 66. pl. 74, id. s. 67. [See 26 G.3. c.105. now Exp.]

76. The commissioners, clerks, and officers of the duties on salt shall be assessed on this act for their salaries, &c. in the parish of St. Martin in the fields within Westminster, where they were in 1788, so as the full proportion which was assessed on such division of St. Martin in the Fields, in 1788, be again assessed thereon under this act; and so as any other division, whither such office has been or may be removed, be not charged with a greater proportion for such salaries, &c. than it was in 1788; provided, that out of such assessment on such officers, there be paid to the collectors of the land-tax, for the division, &c. whither such office is or may be removed, one moiety thereof; and also the whole land-tax for all additional officers hereafter to be appointed to such office, to be applied in aid of the assessment on such division, &c., id. s. 68.

77. The commissioners of the tax-office, and such of their officers, as are taxable for their respective employments under this act, shall be assessed on this act, for the district for offices in Westminster-Hall within Westminster, where they were in 1778, so as the full proportion which was assessed on such district for offices in Westminster-Hall, be again assessed thereon under this act; and so as any other division, &c. whither such office is or may be removed, be not charged with a greater proportion for such salaries, &c. than it was in 1778; provided, that out of such assessment there be paid to the collectors of the land-tax for the division, &c. to which such office is or may be removed, one-third part thereof; and the whole land-tax for all additional officers hereafter to be employed, to be applied in aid of the assessment for such division, &c. id. s. 69.

78. The water-works in Southwark shall be assessed therein by the commissioners and assessors for the county of Surrey, and not by those for London; and shall be assessed according to the clear yearly profits thereof, id. s. 70.

79. The water-works in the liberty of Westminster shall be assessed by the commissioners and assessors for Westminster, and not by those of London, id. s. 71.

80. Provided, all offices and places which were assessed within the palaces of Whitehall and St. James, for the years 1703 and 1704, or either of them shall, (except such as are herein excepted) still be assessed there, id. s. 72.

81. Half the amount of the pension-list shall be assessed, and continue so to be, to the land-tax in the division of the palaces of Whitehall and St. James, in each year, and the other half with the offices executed in Westminster Hall, the said offices paying one moiety of the clear monies received in the said half amount to the parishes of St. Margaret and St. John the Evangelist, Westminster, id. s. 73.

82. The persons who collect or receive the yearly profits on the Colchester water-works in Essex, shall be charged with the payment of the tax assessed thereon under this act, to be levied as other assessments are by this act directed; and such collectors paying the same, shall be allowed the same in their account with their employers, id. s. 74.

83. The person who shall collect and receive the yearly profits for the water-works in New Windsor, in Berks., shall be charged with the payment of the tax assessed on such profits, to be levied in manner as other assessments by this act are directed, id. s. 75.

84. The patent officers of the several bishops in Eng. and Wales, shall be assessed for their respective employments, relating to such bishoprics where they were in 1793, id. s. 76.

85. The proportion, which at the first meeting of the commissioners for Middlesex shall, pursuant to this act, be laid on that part of the parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, which is in such county, shall be equally raised, without making any distinction between the part above and the part below the bars; and in the subdivision of the commissioners to act for hundreds in such county, a number shall be appointed to act accordingly for such part of such parish as lies within such county, id. s. 77.

86. The parish of St. George, Hanover Square, in the city of Westminster, shall, in execution of this act, be chargeable with a distinct quota, separate from the parish of St. Martin in the Fields; and if any controversy shall arise among the commissioners concerning such quota, and the apportioning thereof out of the joint quota of such 2 parishes, the commissioners, who are inhabitants of or have any interest in such parishes, shall have no voice, but shall withdraw from the debate of such controversy; and in default thereof, the commissioners then present, not being such inhabitants, nor having such interest, may impose such fines as they think fit upon such commissioners as refuse to withdraw, not exceeding 20*l.*, and cause the same to be levied as other fines hereby imposed may be, 38 G.3. c.5. s.78.

87. The parishes of St. John, St. Peter, and Berchinton in the Isle of Thanet, within the liberty of Dover, shall be deemed a distinct division in such liberty, and shall be charged according to the proportion assessed on such parishes by 4 W. & M. c.1.; and all commissioners, collectors, and receivers, &c. shall apply themselves diligently to execute this act, id. s.79.

88. No person shall be charged with land-tax in respect of any lands, &c. in Eng., Wa., and Ber., that does not produce the clear annual value of 20*s.*, id. s.80.

89. If any collector in Eng., Wa. or Ber. shall keep in his hands any money by him collected for any longer time than by this act directed (other than the allowance made him, or shall pay any part thereof to any person other than the receiver-general of the county or place, or his deputy), he shall forfeit for each offence not exceeding 40*l.* or less than 5*l.*, to be levied by distress and sale of his goods, as in this act, s.17. pl. 24. directed in like cases of distress; and in case any receiver-general in Eng., Wa. or Ber., or his deputy, shall pay any part of such money to him paid by such collectors to any person other than in the receipt of the exchequer, and at or within the times limited by this act, or in case he shall pay any of such monies by any treasury warrant, or any tally of pro, or of anticipation, or otherwise, he shall forfeit for each offence 500*l.* to him that will sue for the same in any court of record by bill, plaint or information, wherein no essoin, &c., id. s.81. [See as to recovery of arrears of land-tax in the hands of the collectors, ss. 117—119. pl. 128. Exp.]

90. The treasury shall not direct any warrant to the collectors or receivers in Eng., Wa. or Ber., for the payment of any part of the monies hereby given to any person other than into the exchequer, nor direct any warrant to the officers of the exchequer for striking any tally of pro or anticipation, nor do any thing to divert the monies from the exchequer, nor shall the officers of the exchequer strike, direct or record any tally of pro, &c. on any such monies, nor shall the teller throw down any bill whereby to charge himself with such monies until actually received, id. s.82.

91. No stay of prosecution on any command, warrant, motion, order or direction by non vult ulterius prosequi shall be had or allowed in any court in any proceeding by action of debt, &c. or otherwise for the recovery of all or any forfeitures on any person by this act inflicted, or for or in order to the conviction or disability of any person offending against this act in Eng., Wa. or Ber., id. s.83.

92. If any person who is assessed by this act to or with a pound rate on his manors, lands, &c. shall, on complaint to the commissioners, at such times and manner as in cases of appeal, make it appear to 3 of such commissioners present for hearing appeals by proof on oath, that such assessment exceeds the equal pound rate that ought to be charged on him, then the major part of the commissioners there present may lessen the assessment so much as it exceeds the equal rate that ought to be charged on him, and cause the money so abated to be assessed and levied in such ways as they think fit, within the whole hundred, division, &c. although the rate of 4*s.* in the pound be exceeded; or if any particular part of the same, or any person therein, is under rated, then the money so abated shall be raised on such particular part or person, so that the whole land-tax for the hundred, &c. is duly paid to H. M., id. s.84. [See 42 G.3. c.116. s.181. LAND-TAX REDEMPTION, pl. 219.]

93. The receiver-general for each district in Eng., Wa. or Ber. shall appoint fit persons to be his deputies, for whom he shall be answerable to receive from the sub-collectors all the rates and assessments they receive; and such receivers-general shall appoint so many deputies that such sub-collectors need not travel more than 10 miles from his abode in order to pay the monies received by him; and if any such receiver-general neglects so to do, or shall wilfully neglect to attend by himself, or deputy, at the time or place by him appointed for his receipts, he shall forfeit 100*l.*, the one moiety to H. M. and the other to him that will sue for it by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed, id. s.85.

94. Members of parliament who, at the execution of this act during this session, shall abide in London and Westminster, and the suburbs of the same in Middlesex, shall, for their ready money or debts be assessed only in the places where they have their mansion houses, or other places where they most usually reside; and in case any assessor or commissioner shall assess any such member contrary hereto, he shall forfeit to the party grieved 40*l.*, to be recovered by action of debt, or on the case, together with full costs, id. s.86. [Qu. Exp. ? but see 53 G.3. c.142. l. 1. pl. 4.]

95. In case there is not a sufficient number of commissioners for any city, borough, cinque port, town or place in Eng., Wa. or Ber. (for which by this act commissioners are particularly appointed) qualified to act under this act, then the commissioners for the county at large within which such city, &c. stands, or next adjoining thereto, may act within such city, &c. 38 G.3. c.5. s.86. [But see the necessary qualification and oath, 38 G.3. c.48. s.1. pl. 102.]

96. All mayors, bailiffs and other chief magistrates appointed commissioners for executing this act, shall have power to act as such for any city, &c. wherein they inhabit, as well where commissioners are specially appointed as where they are not, id. s.87.

97. The first general meeting of commissioners for the west riding of Yorkshire shall be held at Pontefract, that for the north riding at Thirsk, and that for the east riding of such county at Beverley, id. s.89. [semb. Exp.]

98. So much of 38 G.3. c.5. s.90. as enacts, that no person shall act as a commissioner in any county at large, unless rated at 100*l.* per annum, shall be Rev. 38 G.3. c.48. s.2.

99. No person shall act as a commissioner in execution of 38 G.3. c.5. for any county in Eng. or Wa. (the counties of Merioneth, Cardigan, Carmarthen, Glamorgan, Montgomery, Pembroke, Radnor, and Monmouth, excepted) or in any ridings of Yorkshire, unless he is possessed of lands, &c. of value of 100*l.* per annum, of his own estate, being freehold, copyhold, or leasehold, over and above all incumbrances and reservations payable out of the same, or unless he is the heir-apparent of some person seised of a like estate of 300*l.* annual value, one moiety of which shall be situate within the county or riding for which he is appointed a commissioner, id. s.3.

100. Any person appointed a commissioner for the county of Anglesea, or Carnarvon, shall be capable to act in execution of this act for such counties, being taxed by himself or tenants under 37 G.3. c.2., for 60*l.* per annum, 38 G.3. c.5. s.91.

101. No commissioner for executing this act in Eng., Wa., or Ber. shall be disabled to act as such within any city, borough, cinque port, or town corporate, for which he is particularly nominated, and whereof he is an inhabitant at the time of executing this act, nor from acting within any of the inns of court, or liberty of the Rolls; and no attorney or solicitor, or person practising as such, who shall not be seised of lands, &c. freehold, copyhold, or leasehold, over and above all incumbrances and reservations payable out of such leasehold estates, of the value of 100*l.* per ann. of his own estate, in the same county, city, &c. for which he is named a commissioner, or within the county at large, within which such city, &c. doth stand, or which is next adjoining thereto, and which were taxed under 37 G.3. c.2., or any receiver-general or collector of any aid granted to H. M. shall be capable of acting as a commissioner in Eng., Wa., or Ber. under this act, id. s.92.

102. No person shall act as a commissioner in execution of 38 G.3. c.5. within any city, borough, cinque-port, or town corporate, (except the cities, liberties, and places the commissioners acting within which are required to be qualified as in the said act mentioned,) unless possessed of lands, &c. of the annual value of 40*l.* or more, of his own estate, being freehold, copyhold, or leasehold, over and above all incumbrances and reservations payable out of such leasehold estates, or unless possessed of a personal estate to the amount of 100*l.*, nor unless in either case, an inhabitant of the city, &c. for which he shall act as a commissioner, nor (except in administering the oath) until he has taken and subscribed the oath or affirmation following, viz.

‘I A. B. do swear, [or being a quaker, solemnly affirm] that I truly and bonâ fide am possessed of in my own right, and in the actual enjoyment or receipt of the rents and profits of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the clear yearly value of 40*l.*, or possessed of a personal estate to the amount of 100*l.* So help me God.’

Which oath the commissioners may administer to one another; and if any person hereby required to be so qualified, and not being so, or not having taken such oath, &c. shall act as such commissioner, he shall forfeit 50*l.* to the use of the person who will sue for the same, to be recovered with full costs by action of debt in any court of record at Westminster, besides the legal punishment for perjury; and in such action the proof of qualification shall lie on the party complained of, and it shall be enough for plaintiff to prove that the defendant hath acted as such commissioner, 38 G.3. c.48. s.1.

103. No commissioner shall act in execution of this act within the city of London, and liberty of St. Martin le Grand, unless he is seised of lands, &c. being freehold, copyhold, or leasehold, over and above all incumbrances and reservations, in respect of such leasehold estate which were taxed in such city or liberty, at 20*l.* per ann. or more, of his own estate, or unless he paid in such city or liberty, for the value of 150*l.* personal estate, under 37 G.3. c.2., 38 G.3. c.5. s.93.

104. No commissioner shall act within the liberty of Westminster, unless he is seised of lands, &c. being freehold, &c. over all incumbrances and reservations in respect of such leasehold estates which were taxed, or did pay in such liberty for 50*l.* per ann. of his own estate, under 37 G.3. c.2., id. s.94.

105. No other qualification shall be required of the master and first clerk of H. M.’s household, the clerk of the kitchen, and others, who by virtue of their offices have heretofore acted as commissioners under the land-tax act, to act as such than the possession of their offices, id. s.95.

106. If any person disabled to act as a commissioner shall notwithstanding presume to act as such, he shall forfeit 50*l.* to any person who will inform, or sue for the same in any court of record, by action of debt, &c., or information, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed, 38 G.3. c.5. s.96.

107. The persons who receive or collect, the yearly profits of the new water-works, within city and county of Exon, shall be charged with payment of the tax assessed on such profits, to be levied in like manner as other assessments by this act directed, and the same shall be allowed them in their accounts with their employers, id. s.97.; like provision for the Shrewsbury water works, id. s.114.

108. This act shall not charge the queen in respect of any money or annuities granted by H. M. to her, but the same shall be free from all taxes, id. s.98.

109. This act shall not charge the prince of Wales, the dukes of York, Clarence, and Gloucester, or their officers or servants attending them, in respect of any annuities granted by H. present M. to them; but the same shall be free from all taxes, id. s.99.

110. This act shall not charge the pensions of any superannuated commission or warrant sea officers, or the pensions of widows of sea officers slain in the service of the crown, or the pensions of officers for their services or sufferings in H. M.'s navy, granted to them for the merit of their husbands or parents, or the revenue of the order of the garter, or the pensions of the poor knights of Windor, payable out of the exchequer only; but the same shall not lessen the sum provided by this act, id. s.100.

111. And sums payable by statute without deduction, shall not be charged with the duty by this act imposed, id. s.101.

112. "Whereas the rents and revenues belonging to residentiaries of the cathedral churches in Eng. and Wa. are chargeable with land-tax, and in some cases the overplus thereof is divided amongst the residentiaries," it is ENACTED, that in such cases the residentiaries shall not be chargeable under the act as enjoying offices of profit out of such rent and revenues id. s.102.

113. This act shall not charge Charles II.'s pension of 100*l. per ann.* to the poor clergy of the Isle of Man, id. s.103.; nor lay any charge or duty on the pensions or salaries of H. M.'s pages of honour, id. s.104.

114. In case of any failure of raising or paying the money charged on any county, city, riding, or place, by this and former acts granted by a land-tax; the receiver-general of such county, &c. of such tax, or the receiver-general appointed under this act, shall certify under his hand to the barons of the exchequer, the particular place where such failure happens, together with the names of the assessors and collectors, and the several persons belonging to such place charged with such tax, and which place shall be liable to process for such neglect, id. s.105.

115. The commissioners for the county of the city of Lincoln may act in execution of this act within the Bail and Close of Lincoln, id. s.106.; and those for the county of Lincoln within the parish of St. Martin, Stamford Baron in Northamptonshire as usual, id. s.107. [see s.6. pl.8.]

116. There shall be kept in the exchequer in the office of the auditor of the receipt, a register, in which all money paid into the exchequer for the pound rates hereby granted shall be registered apart from all other monies payable to H. M., id. s.108.

117. Where offices chargeable by this act are executed by deputy, such deputy shall pay such assessment as is charged thereon, and deduct the same out of the profits; and in case of refusal or non-payment, such deputy shall be liable to such distress as by this act prescribed against persons holding offices of profit, and all other remedies and penalties herein contained, id. s.109.

118. At every time and place appointed by the commissioners for the collectors to pay in the money under this act to be paid to the receiver-general or his deputy for any county, &c. in Eng., Wa., and Ber., such receiver under his hand shall deliver a list or certificate to such person, as 3 commissioners authorize to attend for that purpose, containing the several sums then and there and before paid by the collectors for each place in that division; and in case of neglect in delivering such certificate, such receiver shall forfeit not exceeding 20*l.*, to be imposed by 3 commissioners, and to be levied into the exchequer in such manner as hereby directed, s.81. pl.89. touching fines set on assessors and collectors, id. s.110.

119. Where any person who in pursuance of this act shall distrain the goods or chattels of any collector, his heirs, executors, or administrators, on non-payment of any money which such collector, &c. ought to have paid under this act, such person may, out of the money arising from the sale of such goods, (such money for which the distress was made being first satisfied,) keep in their hands for their own use so much as 2 commissioners (who ordered the distress) deem reasonable for making the distress as also the charges thereof, rendering the overplus to the owner, id. s.111.

120. No receiver of monies granted by this act to be raised in Eng., Wa., or Ber., or his heirs, executors, or administrators, in any account of such monies, shall, unless the same be passed in the exchequer within 2 years after 24 March, 1798, be admitted to set insuper, or charge any county in Eng., Wa., or Ber., for any money hereby granted, which shall be in arrear, but the same shall remain a debt on such receiver, to be answered by him and his securities, and his and their heirs, &c. lands, goods, &c., 38 G.3. c.5. s.112. [see 42 G.3. c.116. s.178. LAND-TAX REMISSION. pl.215.]

121. Whenever it is proved to the satisfaction of the commissioners for the affairs of taxes, or any 3 of them, that the receiver of any county, division, or place in Eng. hath been prevented by reason of no proper duplicates of land-tax having been transmitted to him, or for other cause not arising from his own wilful default from passing his land-tax accounts in exchequer for any year within the periods fixed by law, any 3 of such commissioners, by writing under their hands, may authorize such receiver to set insuper, or charge such county, &c. for any arrears of land-tax by 38 G.3. c.5. s.60. granted, 45 G.3. c.71. s.4.

122. Receivers of any money granted by 38 G.3. c.5. s.60., or their heirs, executors, or administrators, in the account of monies chargeable on them since 25 March 1810, may set insuper, or charge any county, &c. in Eng., Wa., or Ber. for any such monies which shall be in arrear; provided the accounts of such receiver for the year, in which such money is in arrear, signed by him, together with all tallies and vouchers, be delivered by him, or his heirs, &c. into the auditor's office in the usual course, on or before first day of Midsummer term next after the expiration of one year, from the end of the year for which assessment is payable; but in default of the delivery thereof, such money for which such insuper might have been set, shall be a debt upon such receiver, and be answered by him, his securities, heirs, or lands, goods, and chattels, 55 G.3. c.142. s.3.

123. Every insuper set on any county, &c. for any such monies so in arrear, shall have effect by process from the exchequer; provided the receiver's accounts for the year wherein the duty is payable containing such insuper, be sworn and declared in the exchequer before the last day of Easter term next after the time appointed for the delivery of such accounts, id. s.4.

124. This act shall not repeal or alter the powers given to the tax-office by 15 G.3. c.71. s.4. pl.121., so far as the same relate to extending the time for settling insupers by receiver-general in the cases and manner therein described, id. s.5. [Certain insupers and charges set before this act passed, or to be set within 5 months after, to be in force though accounts on which they were made were not passed within the times limited, id. s.6. scmb. Exr.]

125. On every writ of distringas issued upon any insuper, the officer to whom the same is directed, shall return issues after the rate of 5*l.* for each 100*l.* set insuper, and when returned shall be forthwith drawn down into the great toll of the pipe; and the usual exchequer process shall issue for levying the same at the first general issuing of process for H. M. out of and under the seal of the exchequer, unless treasury or chancellor, or 2 barons of the exchequer shall order the drawing down into the pipe, or the issuing of process to be restricted till a further day, 38 G.3. c.5. s.113., [see s.114., ante, pl.107.]

126. "Whereas the barons of the exchequer have in pursuance of several former land-tax acts discharged several parishes and places of certain sums wherewith they were overburdened," it is ENACTED, that the case so given shall accrue only to the respective parishes, &c. so formerly overburdened, and no other, id. s.115.

127. Where the lands, tenements, rents, and hereditaments, of a whole parish, &c. having a proportion to raise under this act, shall be charged with more than 1*s.* in the pound on the yearly value thereof, (reckoning by the rack rents and the highest improvements made of such lands, &c.) towards the sum herein granted, because the estates of persons formerly doubly taxed are hereby made liable only to a single assessment; 2 commissioners for the division where same lies may, and 2 commissioners for any city, &c. for which commissioners are hereby appointed to act, on complaint thereof may, examine the same, and if satisfied of the truth thereof, may before 29th Sept. 1798, and not afterwards certify the same to the barons of the exchequer, who before the 30 Nov. 1798, may discharge the overplus; and such certificates whereby such parishes were discharged, shall be produced by the persons claiming the benefit thereof to the commissioners at their next meeting, to ascertain the proportion on each division after such certificates have been obtained, id. s.116. [scmb. Exr.; but see 55 G.3. c.142. s.1. pl.4.]

128. Proviso for the recovery of money received by collectors under any land-tax act passed at any time within 7 years before the beginning of this session, id. s.117—120. [scmb. Exr.; but see 55 G.3. c.142. s.1. pl.4.]

129. No receiver-general of any tax hereby granted, or any agent, or servant of his employed in carrying money received on account of such taxes, shall maintain any action against any hundred in Eng. on account of being robbed on king's highway of such monies, unless he is at the time of the robbery in company, and be in number 3 at least to attest the truth of his robbery, id. s.121.

130 The tolls or duties on turnpike roads shall not be liable to the land-tax under this or any former act, and the officers or persons employed in collecting such tolls and repairing such roads, shall not be rated in respect of such employments, 38 G.3. c.5. s.122.

131. The commissioners may, before 29 Sept. 1798, summon assessors, who have not charged their own estates since 6 May, 1717, and examine them on oath and award satisfaction, id. s.123. [semb. Exp., but see pl. 4.]

132. The sum appointed by this act to be raised by the town of Cambridge, shall be raised by rating all manors, messuages, lands, and tenements, woods, underwoods, coppices, fishings, locks, weirs, and sluices, on river Cam, alias Grant, tithes, tolls, markets, fairs, booths, stalls, and standings in such fairs and markets, and the rents and profits of the same and all other hereditaments situate within such town or the precincts thereof, and also all estates in goods, &c. belonging to such town, or to the members of the same, except personal estate, excepted by this act, id. s.124.

133. The collectors shall demand the entire sum assessed for the whole year, on such fairs, in such town, and the booths, &c. in the same from the parties themselves who occupy them, if to be found, or else on the premises charged, at any time within 7 days after the fair proclaimed, and in default of payment shall levy the same by distress and sale of all goods, &c. found in such booths, &c., in manner herein directed in other cases, id. s.125.

134. The collectors shall have power to make such distress as in other cases, and the tenants of all such booths, &c. so rated, shall pay the money rated on them, and deduct it out of their rents, id. s.126.

135. The sum of 47,954*l.* 1*s.* 2*d.* by this act granted, shall be raised in Scot. by an 8 month's cess of 5,994*l.* 5*s.* 14*d.* of lawful money of G. B. for every month; such cess to be raised out of the land rent of Scot., according to the monthly proportions within the respective shires, stewartries, cities, and burghs following, viz.

38 G.3. c.5. s.128.

136. Provided the proportion of boroughs in Scot., be rated and paid as their tax-roll now is or shall be settled by themselves, 38 G.3. c.5. s.129.

137. The first 2 months cess of 11,988*l.* 10*s.* 34*d.* shall be paid before 24th June, 1798, a like sum for 2d cess before 29th Sept. 1798, a like sum for 3d, before 25th Dec. 1798, and a like sum for 4th, before 25th Mar. 1799, id. s.130.

138. All persons appointed commissioners of land-tax in Scot. by 37 G.3. c.35. or such of them as shall qualify, according to the Scotch laws, shall, together with others to be appointed by any act to be passed in this session, be commissioners to put this act in execution in Scot.; and such commissioners shall choose their own clerk, and do every thing concerning such supply, as is appointed by the cess act of 6th Nov. 1706, and other acts made in the Scotch parliament, to which such act doth relate, id. s.131.

139. All persons hereinafter named, (viz.) [here follow the names of the commissioners for Scot.] being duly qualified to act as commissioners of land-tax, shall be commissioners for executing the 38 G.3. c.5. as MADE PERP. by 38 G.3. c.60. within the several shires, stewartries, and places in Scot., 1 & 2 G.4. c.123. s.2. [see further, the same act ss. 3—5. ante. pl. 9—11.]

140. Execution shall be done in Scot., for bringing in such supply as is provided by such acts, and the first meeting of the commissioners of shires in Scot., shall be at the respective headburghs thereof, on 30th April, 1798; and the sheriffs and stewards, or their deputies, shall intimate the same to the commissioners for their respective shires, &c. with power to such commissioners to appoint subsequent diets of their meetings and their convenors, as also to appoint collectors, with such caution as they think fit, 38 G.3. c.5. s.132.

141. All former Scotch acts relating to the bringing in the cess, and quartering, and touching riding money, shall stand in force as to the supply now imposed on Scot., id. s.133.

142. No person, whether heritor or collector, shall be holden to produce the receipt of payment of such supply, after 3 years, from the time of payment, unless diligence be done there by denunciation within such 3 years, in which case one year further is added, id. s.134.

143. Every debtor owing money in Scot., at 6 per cent. interest, shall in payment of his annual rents have a retention of a sixth part of 6 per cent., and this retention to be from 11th Nov. 1797, to 11th Nov. 1798; and it is declared usury for any creditor to refuse to grant the same, id. s.135. [Qu. Exp.? but see 53 G.3. c.142. s.1. pl. 4.]

144. Such sum of 47,954*l.* 1*s.* 2*d.* shall be raised in Scot., in the respective shires, stewartries, cities, and boroughs, free of all charges to H. M., and shall be paid at the city of Edinburgh, to the person appointed by the treasury to be receiver-general, or receivers thereof, which receivers shall be accountable for the same to H. M. in the exchequer, id. s.136.

145. No person hereby appointed a commissioner in Scot. shall act as such, unless he is enfeoffed in superiority or property, or possessed as proprietor, or life renter of lands, valued in the tax-roll of the county or stewartry where he acts, to the extent of 100*l.* Scotch per ann. excepting the eldest sons and heirs apparent of persons enfeoffed to such value; and every person not so qualified, acting in execution of this act, shall forfeit 20*l.*, to be recovered by action, complaint, or petition, in a summary way, at suit of any heritor, within such county or stewartry, before the county or Stewart court, or the lords of session, and in such action the person complained of shall prove that he is so qualified, or otherwise shall forfeit 20*l.*, without any further proof, other than that the person complained did so act, id. s.137.

146. Persons acting as commissioners in Scot. shall, before they act, take and subscribe the oaths of allegiance and abjuration, and subscribe the assurance appointed by law, for persons in offices of public trust in Scot., under the penalty of 20*l.*, and which oaths any 2 commissioners may and shall administer, id. s.138.

147. Any provost, bailie, dean of guild, treasurer, master of the merchants' company, or deacon, convener of the trades, for the time being, of any royal borough, or borough of regality or barony, herein appointed a commissioner for any county or stewartry, or the factors for the time being of the several forfeited estates annexed to the crown, by 25 G.2. c.41. [which act was REP. by 24 G.3. S.2. c.57. s.34.] may act as commissioners for such county, &c.; and neither the court of session nor any other court or magistrate in Scot., may grant any stay to the bringing in of such supply, by quartering according to the proportions settled by the commissioners of the several shires and royal burghs, according to their usage, id. s.139.

148. Any person, natives and foreigners, bodies politic or corporate, may lend to H. M. at his exchequer any sum of money, not exceeding 2 millions, on the credit of the several rates hereby granted, and such other sums as are hereby appointed for repaying the same, with interest, and shall have for their forbearance 4*l.* 10*s.* per cent. per ann. on the amount so raised, so as such loans be allowed by the treasury, who may issue warrants for that purpose, as fast as such loans are made for the public service; and no money so to be lent, shall be rated under this or any other act, 58 G.3. c.5. s.140.

149. Every person who shall lend any money on the credit of this act, and pay the same into the exchequer, shall have a tally of loan struck, and an order for his repayment, bearing even date with the tally, and in such order shall be contained a warrant for the payment of interest so as the same does not exceed 4l. 10s. per cent. and to be paid every month; and all such orders shall be registered according to their dates, and all persons paid as their orders stand registered, so as the person, his executors, administrators or assigns, who has his order first entered, shall be the first to be paid, and the second the second, and so on, and the monies paid in under this act shall in like manner be liable to the satisfaction of such persons, without any undue preference, and shall not be diverted to any other use; and no fee shall be taken of H. M.'s subjects for making such registers, or any entries, views or searches, in or for payment of money lent, or the interest thereof, by any of H. M.'s officers, their clerks or deputies, under penalty of treble damages to the party grieved, by the party offending, with full costs of suit; or if the officer himself take or demand such fee, he shall forfeit his place also; and if any undue preference is made either in point of registry or payment by any such officer, he shall be liable by action of debt, or on the case, to pay the value of the debt with costs of suit, to the party grieved, and shall be forfjudged of his place, and if such undue preference is made by his deputy or clerk, without the privity of the master, then such deputy, &c. shall be liable to such action, and be for ever incapable of his office; and if the auditor of the receipt shall not direct such orders of loans or the clerk of the rolls record, or the tellers make payment according to each person's order as before directed, they shall forfeit, and the deputies and clerks therein offending be liable to such action, debt, damages and costs, as aforesaid, which penalties, &c. shall be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. id. s.141.

150. But if several such tallies or orders bear date, or be brought the same day to the auditor to be registered, it shall not be undue preference which he enters first if they all be entered the same day, id. s.142.

151. Nor shall it be undue preference if subsequent orders are paid to the holders, who come and demand the same before other persons, who did not come to take their monies, and bring their orders in course, so as money be reserved to pay such prior orders, which shall not be otherwise disposed of. Interest on the loan to cease from the time the money is reserved and kept in the bank for them, id. s.143.

152. The holders of such orders, their executors, administrators, and assigns, after order registered, may by proper words indorsed thereon assign and transfer their right, in such order to another, which being notified to the auditor of the receipt, and an entry made in the book of register, (which the officers shall, on request, make without fee) shall entitle such assignee, his executors, &c. to the benefit thereof; and such assignee may in like manner again assign the same, and toties quoties; and afterwards the assignor shall not be at liberty to release or discharge the same or any money thereby due, id. s.144.

153. If the treasury deem it advisable to raise such 2,000,000l. by exchequer bills, instead of such loans, then they may make at the exchequer new exchequer bills of one common sum, or different sums, in principal monies, so as not to exceed 2 millions if no such loans are made, but if any made so as not to exceed such sum, with such loans and exchequer bills together, id. s.144. [NOTE.—The ss.144—156, relate to these exchequer bills and loans, and seem to be Exp.; the same observation will apply to ss.140—145. but they have been inserted, as the point seems not altogether clear. See 53 G.3. c.142. s.1. *pl.*4.]

154. The money arising by this act shall be applied at the exchequer towards paying off orders of loans lent there, and satisfying the interest thereon, in manner hereinbefore directed, until all are fully paid, or towards paying off the exchequer bills under this act, or the charge of issuing the same, or the other purposes by this act directed, id. s.152.

155. TO MAKE FURTHER PROVISION FOR EXONERATING small livings and charitable institutions from the land-tax, 46 G.3. c.133. ss.2—6. [AMD. and time EXTD. 49 G.3. c.67., 50 G.3. c.58. s.1., 53 G.3. c.123. ss.35—37., 54 G.3. c.173. s.7., 57 G.3. c.100. ss.1—8. See the rest of these last 3 acts, LAND TAX REDEMPTION. *pl.*242, &c.]

156. The commissioners for redeeming land-tax, by letters patent under the great seal, may at any time direct the exoneration and discharge of the land-tax charged on messuages, lands, &c. belonging to any living, or other ecclesiastical benefices, or charitable institutions, in cases where the clear annual income of such livings does not exceed 150l., without the giving any consideration for the same, and under the directions of this act, 55 G.3. c.123. s.33.

157. Such commissioners may exonerate the messuages, lands, &c. belonging to any living, or other ecclesiastical benefices, or charitable institutions, the annual income of which does not amount to 150l., although not rated to the land-tax, from any future assessment to the land-tax, in same manner as by 53 G.3. c.123. s.53. directed, in cases where the messuages, lands, &c. of such livings were or should have been rated to the land-tax, 54 G.3. c.173. s.7.

158. Such commissioners [as in *pl.*156.] may, within 2 years [see *pl.*156.] after passing this act, exonerate the messuages, lands, &c. belonging to any ecclesiastical benefices or livings, or charitable institutions, in cases where the annual income does not exceed 150l. without payment of any consideration for the same, 57 G.3. c.100. s.1.

159. Two commissioners may, within 2 years after this act, exonerate from land-tax farms with which two or more livings have been jointly augmented under Queen Anne's bounty, in case it appears to them that the annual income of no one of such livings, inclusive of the augmentation, shall exceed 150l., without the transfer or payment of any consideration for the same, id. s.5.

160. Proceedings to be laid before parliament before expiration of the session ending in 1820; or in cases where necessary in 1821, 7 G.7. c.100. s.8. [EXPI.]

161. Every incumbent of any such living, or other ecclesiastical benefice, and all feoffees or trustees of any such charitable institutions, shall, within one year after the passing of this act, transmit a memorial to such commissioners, verified as they shall direct, and stating the nature of the property whence the income of such living is derived, and the amount derived from each; and also a certificate signed by the collector of the land-tax for the district (which he shall grant) containing a description of the messuages, or other hereditaments, belonging to such living, &c. and the name of the place where situated, and the amount of the land-tax charged thereon; and such commissioners may enlarge such time to 6 calendar months more (s.54); and such commissioners may by writing certify that such lands, &c. are exonerated from land-tax (s.55); and which certificate the officer appointed for the registry of contracts for redemption of land-tax shall register gratis; and no certificate or copy of the registry, shall be liable to stamp duty (s.56); and the proceedings as to such exoneration shall be laid before parliament by the sessions for 1815, 55 G.3. c.127. ss.34—37., 57 G.3. c.100. s.2.4.6—8. [And see as to livings the land-tax whereon has been redeemed or discharged, although not rated to the land-tax, 55 G.3. c.127. s.52. post, LAND-TAX REDEMPTION, *pl.*241.]

FOR CONSOLIDATING THE PROVISIONS OF THE several acts passed for the redemption and sale of the land-tax into one act, and for making further provisions for the redemption and sale thereof, and for removing doubts respecting the rights of persons claiming to vote at elections for knights of the shire, and other members to serve in parliament, in respect of messuages, lands, or tenements, the land-tax whereon shall have been redeemed or purchased, 42 G.3. c.116. [AMD. 43 G.3. c.51., 45 G.3. c.77., 46 G.3. c.133., ss.1.7.8., 50 G.3. c.58. ss.2—4., 53 G.3. c.123. ss.1—32. 34—44., 51 G.3. c.173., 57 G.3. c.100.]

2. The 38 G.3. c.60., 39 G.3. c.6.21.40. 13.108., 59&40 G.3. c.50., 41 G.3. G. B. c.28., and 41 G.3. U. K. c.72. shall cease from 24th June 1802, except in the cases following, and except such parts of 58 G.3. c.60. as make the land-tax perpetual, and except commissions already granted by H.M. by letters patent under the great seal or the sign manual, for the purpose of executing the said acts, and also all appointments under them; and every contract entered into after 24th June 1802, for the redemption of land-tax, shall be made according to this act, 42 G.3. c.116. s.1.

3. The provisions of the recited acts relating to contracts for the redemption of land-tax, and to all sales, enfranchisements, and mortgages of any manors, lands, &c. made on or before 24th June 1802, shall be in force, unless hereby varied, id. s.2.

4. The powers, &c. of 38 G.3. s.5. not hereby varied, shall continue in force in relation to the land-tax remaining from time to time payable to H.M., id. s.3.

5. All commissioners and officers already appointed may execute this act; provided every commissioner who has taken the oath prescribed by the said former land-tax acts, may act in execution of this, without taking any oath hereby prescribed, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 4.

6. H. M., by warrant under his sign manual, may appoint in every county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, borough, cinque port town, and place in G. B., any persons named in any act now in force, [see 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 123. see LAND-TAX, pl. 9—11.] or is hereafter to be passed, to execute 38 G. 3. c. 5. to be commissioners for selling the land-tax in the several counties, &c. for which they are appointed, and such persons shall be commissioners accordingly, id. s. 5.

7. Every commissioner so hereafter to be appointed, and also every commissioner of appeals, before entering on his office, shall take the oath following, viz.:

'I, A. B. do swear that I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my skill and judgment, execute the several powers and trusts reposed in me by the act of the 42 G. 3. intitled, "An act [here set forth the title of this act] according to the tenor and purport of the said act. So help me God.'

which oath one commissioner may administer to another, id. s. 6.

8. Whenever H. M. in pursuance of 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 199. pl. 237. shall revoke all or any of the several commissions granted by warrant under the royal sign-manual, which authorize the persons therein named to be commissioners for selling the land-tax remaining unredeemed in G. B., or such commissioners, or any of them, shall otherwise cease then until H. M., by like warrant, shall grant other commissions to any other person for such purpose, the commissioners for taxes shall have and exercise all the like powers in relation to the redemption and sale of land-tax, as by such act, or any other land-tax redemption act, or this act are vested in the several persons appointed commissioners under the royal sign-manual, or to be so appointed for executing the said acts and this act; and any commissioners for taxes may do all acts which by this act such commissioners are authorized to do, 53 G. 3. c. 123. s. 1.

9. Such commissioners acting by warrant under the sign-manual, [see s. 5. pl. 67.] may examine on oath or affirmation all persons desirous of redeeming or purchasing any land-tax, and all persons willing to be examined touching the title of any person in remainder, reversion, or expectancy, to any estate, or having any mortgage, lien, or incumbrance on any estate, the land-tax on which is proposed to be redeemed or purchased under this act, or touching any thing relating thereto, the commissioners think necessary for their information, for the execution of their powers; and also may require of persons claiming any benefit of preference under this act, the production on oath or affirmation of any instrument relating to such estate; and may receive any affidavit or deposition in writing, on oath or affirmation made in G. B. or Ire., before any mayor or magistrate of any city or place therein, having authority to administer an oath in any civil or criminal matter, or before any justice of peace for any county or district where the deponent shall be, or before any commissioners authorized to take affidavits in causes depending in the courts at Westminster, and may receive any affidavit or deposition in writing on oath, or affirmation made in parts beyond the seas before any magistrate of the county or place, having power to administer an oath, and residing near the deponent, and certified and transmitted to the commissioners, under such magistrate's hand and seal; provided in such affidavits, &c. the addition and abode of the deponent is expressed, and the same is entitled as made in pursuance of this act; and where any affidavit is hereby directed to be made and shewn to such commissioners, the examination of the party who made such affidavit, by and before such commissioners, or 2 of them, on oath or affirmation to be administered as aforesaid, shall be as valid as if the affidavits had been made and shewn to the commissioners, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 7.

10. The commissioners acting in execution of this act as aforesaid, in any county, &c. or 2 of them, may contract and agree with all bodies politic and corporate, and companies whether corporate or not, and feoffees or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, and other persons hereinafter described for the redemption of the land-tax, according to the assessment made under the 38 G. 3. c. 5. on the terms and conditions hereinafter prescribed, id. s. 8.

11. All bodies politic and companies, notwithstanding any statutes of mortmain, or other acts of parliament, and all feoffees and trustees for charitable and other public purposes, having any estate or interest in any manors, messuages, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, subject to land-tax, may contract for the redemption of the whole or part thereof, id. s. 9.

12. All other persons having any estate or interest in any manors, lands, &c. whereon any land-tax is charged (except tenants at rack-rent for term of years, from year to year, or at will, and tenants holding of the crown any lands and tenements within the survey and receipt of the exchequer, or duchy of Lancaster, or under the duke of Cornwall, any lands, &c. parcel of the duchy of Cornwall, for a term of years, from year to year, or at will,) may contract for the redemption of such land-tax, or part thereof, id. s. 10.

13. Where two or more persons are seised or entitled in undivided shares, either as coparceners, heirs, portioners, tenants in common, or joint tenants, of or to any manors, lands, &c., any one or more of them may contract for the redemption of his or their share of the land-tax charged thereon, as if such share had been separately charged, and such person or persons solely seized, &c.; and if any one or more of such persons so seized, &c. shall neglect to redeem his share of such land-tax, then any one of the others, on giving 3 calendar months notice of his intention to the party so neglecting, may contract for the redemption of the share of the persons so neglecting to redeem in such land-tax, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 11.

14. Any companies of proprietors of canals or other navigations, or other such works of public utility sanctioned by parliament, may contract for the redemption of the land-tax charged, as well on the tolls and other profits of such canals, &c. as on any messuages, lands, &c. belonging thereto; or each of the respective proprietors may contract for the redemption of their respective shares of such tax, and also for the shares of other proprietors neglecting to redeem their shares, in like manner as coparceners, &c. in s. 11. pl. 13, id. s. 12.

15. All persons having shares in the New River, Thames, Marglebone, or Hampstead water works, or in any insurance office against fire, or in any lights, or in the King's Printing-house, and all companies of merchants in London, the Bank of England, and the proprietors of the water works in Colchester, Exeter, or Shrewsbury, may contract for the redemption of the land-tax charged on their shares, profits, &c.; and any proprietor thereof may either jointly or severally contract for the redemption of so much and such parts of the land-tax as is equivalent to the shares of any individual proprietor, or any number of proprietors in such shares, &c. on the same conditions and terms, and in the same manner as herein directed for land-tax charged on any manors, lands, &c. id. s. 13.

16. All committees and curators of lunatics or idiots, and tutors and guardians of infants, and all persons authorized to act for infants, married women, and others incapable to act for themselves, may contract on behalf of such lunatics, &c. for the redemption of any land-tax hereby made redeemable, which such infants, &c. might have redeemed if they had not been incapacitated; and all trustees may contract on behalf of their cestui que trusts for the redemption of land-tax hereby made redeemable, which is charged on any manors, lands, &c. or other property of which they shall be trustees, id. s. 14.

17. The governors of Queen Anne's bounty may contract for the redemption of the land-tax charged on the lands, tythes, or other profits arising from any livings within the meaning of their charter, or the acts in force directing the application of such bounty, not contracted for by the incumbents, id. s. 15. [See s. 44. pl. 55, s. 161. pl. 198.]

18. The trustees of any trust property heretofore given by any will, for the purpose of being laid out in the purchase of lands or impropriate tythes, for the benefit of the poor clergy in Eng., with such consent as is required by such will, may contract for the redemption of the land-tax charged on the lands, tythes, or other profits arising from such livings belonging to the church of Eng. as the trustees, with like consent, think fit, id. s. 16.

19. Where the land-tax charged on the glebe, tythes, or other profits of any livings in the patronage of any college, cathedral church, hall, or house of learning in Oxford or Cambridge, or of the colleges of Eton or Winchester, or of any trustees of such college, &c., or of any bodies politic, &c., or companies of feoffees or trustees, for charitable or other public purposes, or other persons, is not redeemed by the incumbent, such patrons thereof may contract for the redemption of the land-tax thereon on the same terms as the incumbent might, id. s. 17.

20. Corporations and persons hereinbefore empowered to contract for the redemption of any land-tax shall have the preference till 24 June, 1803, id. s. 18. Corporations, trustees, and persons in possession, except tenants for years absolute, or determinable on lives, or any demise for which a fine was paid, and tenants for lives on any demise where any rent is reserved or a fine paid, shall be preferred to those in reversion till 25 Dec. 1803, and those in reversion to all having no interest in the land, till 24 June, 1803, id. s. 19. [Both Exp.]

21. All bodies politic, &c. and companies, and feoffees or trustees for charitable and other public purpose, to whom such benefit of preference is given, until 24 June 1803, may, at any time after, contract for the redemption of the land-tax charged on their manors, lands, &c. wherein they have any interest, in the same manner and under the same terms (except as to the time allowed for the transfer or payment of the consideration) as they might do prior to 24 June 1803; provided no offer has been made to purchase such land-tax in pursuance of the provisions hereinafter contained; provided also, that when any such bodies, companies, &c. shall, after 24 June 1803, give notice in writing to such commissioners of their intention to redeem such land-tax, it shall not be sold to any other body, company, &c. not having any estate or interest therein until 3 calendar months have expired from the date of such notice; provided also, that where any bodies politic, &c., companies, or other persons, being in actual possession, or entitled immediately to the rents of any manors, messuages, lands, &c. shall, after such 24 June 1803, give notice in writing to such commissioners of their intention to redeem such land-tax, it shall not be redeemed by any bodies, companies, or persons having any estate in remainder, reversion, or expectancy in, or or being substitute heirs of entail called to succeed thereto, until the expiration of 3 calendar months from the date of such notice; (save where such estate is expectant on the determination of any grant or demise for years absolute, or for years determinable on lives, for which fine or premium hath been paid, or for lives where a rent is reserved or a fine or premium paid; in which case such notice shall not entitle such bodies, &c. being in actual possession or entitled, as aforesaid, to such preference of redemption), 42 G.3. c.116. s.20.

22. And where any such manors, lands, &c. shall be leased at a rack rent, for a term of years or at will, the bodies politic or companies, or other persons beneficially entitled to the rent, shall (notwithstanding any covenant, &c. for payment of the land-tax charged on such manors, lands, &c. by the tenant or lessee thereof,) be considered as being in the actual possession of such manors, lands, &c. sufficient to claim such preference, id. s.20.

23. Where any bodies politic, &c. or companies, or feoffees, or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, shall in pursuance of the recited acts hereafter enter into any treaty for the sale of any of their manors, lands, &c. holden under any demise made by them by copy of court roll, or otherwise, for lives, or any term of years determinable on lives, or for years absolute, or shall hereafter apply to the commissioners acting under this act, by virtue of H. M.'s letters patent under the great seal, for their sanction of any such sale, and obtain a certificate from 2 of them, that such bodies, feoffees, &c. are in their opinion proceeding with reasonable diligence in such sale, (which certificate shall specify for how long the same shall operate,) such bodies, feoffees, &c. during such period, notwithstanding any thing in this act the contrary, may contract for the redemption of the land-tax chargeable on their manors, lands, &c. in preference to any body or person holding the same under any such demise; provided such bodies, feoffees, &c. hereby enabled to contract with such preference, shall produce such certificate to the commissioners acting under this act, by virtue of a sign-manual warrant, for the county or place where the manors, lands, &c. the land-tax whereof is to be redeemed do lie, id. s.21. [see s.61. pl.75.]

24. The powers, &c. contained in 42 G.3. c.116. ss. 21.61. pl.23.75. and so far as bodies politic and corporate, and companies, and feoffees, or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, and other persons therein mentioned, who are in actual possession of or immediately entitled to the rents and profits of any manors, lands, &c. charged with land-tax, and the committees, curators, tutors, guardians, or trustees of any such person as aforesaid, are by such powers enabled to contract for the redemption of such land-tax, in preference to any other bodies, companies, or persons having the remainder, or reversion, or expectancy, or being substitute heirs of entail in the same manors, lands, &c. shall cease; and such bodies, companies, and persons may henceforth contract for, or may redeem such land-tax, without preference other than by priority of contract, and the powers of such act shall apply as if no preference had been given, 53 G.3. c.123. s.2.

25. The consideration for such redemption shall be so much in the 3 per cent consols, or 3 per cent reduced, as will yield a dividend exceeding the amount of the land-tax redeemed by one tenth, to be transferred to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, 42 G.3. c.116. s.22.

26. Where the land-tax so to be redeemed in any county, riding, &c. for which separate commissioners under the sign-manual are appointed to act, shall not exceed 26l. per ann. the consideration for the same may be paid in lawful British money in lieu of stock, and shall be paid into the hands of the receiver-general of the land-tax for the county, &c. in Eng., or his deputy, or to the collector for the shire, &c. in Scot., where the manors, lands, &c. the land-tax whereof is to be redeemed are situate, and the amount of such consideration shall be calculated according to the price of stocks, to be from time to time transmitted to such receiver or collector in the manner directed by the schedule to this act annexed marked L., &c., id. s.23.

27. When the books of the bank of Eng. are opened for the transfer of the 3 per cent. consols, after 5th Jan. in each year, and until opened for the transfer of 3 per cent. reduced, after 5th April in each year, and so from time to time when such books are opened for the transfer of 3 per cent. consols after 5th July in each year, until opened for the transfer of 3 per cent. reduced, after 10th Oct. in such year, the cashier of the bank on Tuesday, weekly, (the same not being a holiday,) shall cause an account to be made out of the average price at which the

3 per cent. consols have been bought on such day, (or otherwise on the following open day on which stock is bought, if any is bought at the bank of Eng.) and transmitted to the commissioners for taxes; and so from time to time when such books shall be opened at the bank for the transfers of 3 per cent. reduced, after 1st April, in every year, until opened at such bank for the transfer of 3 per cent. consols, after 5th July, in such year; and so from time to time when such books are so opened for the transfers of 3 per cent. reduced, after 10th Oct. in each year, and until opened for the transfer of 3 per cent. consols, after 5th Jan. then next ensuing, such cashier shall transmit to the commissioners for taxes such and the like account of the average price of the 3 per cent. reduced, as before required of the 3 per cent. consols; and such commissioners shall publish in the London Gazette, and transmit to the respective receivers-general in the several counties, &c. in Eng., or their deputies, and to the receiver-general in Scot., to be by him transmitted to the respective collectors in the shires, &c. in Scot., an account of the price, which according to the heads in such schedule ought to be the consideration for the redemption of such land-tax; which account, so published, shall be sufficient authority to such officers to settle and adjust the sums, which by such schedule ought to be paid for the redemption of such land-tax on all payments made pursuant to such account, 42 G.3. c.116. s.24.

28. Whenever the price of 3 per cent. bank annuities to be transmitted in pursuance of 42 G.3. c.116. s.24., shall be at any price between 50 and 60, the amount of money to be paid as the whole, or as any instalment of the consideration for the redemption or purchase of the land-tax, shall be settled and paid according to the table to this act annexed, and all the rules, &c. in the said act, and in the schedule thereto contained, in relation to settling of such amount in cases where the price of such 3 per cent. is above 60, shall be observed in settling such amount, in cases where the price of such stock is between 50 and 60, 43 G.3. c.51. s.1.

29. Whenever by reason of any variation in the prices of such 3 per cent. which are not provided for in the said tables to 42 G.3. c.116. and this act annexed, it is necessary to transmit other tables to the respective receivers in Eng. and collectors in Scot. to enable them to ascertain the amount of money to be paid as the consideration for such redemption or purchase; the treasury may order proper tables, adapted to meet such variations, to be formed upon the same principles as those to this act, and the 42 G.3. c.116. annexed; and such tables shall be transmitted by the tax office to the respective receivers-general in Eng. or collectors in Scot., and be as valid to enable such receivers or collectors to settle the amount to be paid as the whole or as any instalment of the consideration for such redemption or purchase, as if such tables were hereto annexed, id. s.2.

30. Where the consideration for the redemption of land-tax is in stock, and the same is contracted for by any bodies politic, &c. or companies, or other persons entitled to preference under s.18. pl.20., the whole amount shall be transferred, within 2 years from the date of the contract, to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt by 4 instalments in each year, viz. either on or before 1st May, 1st Aug., 1st Nov., and 1st Feb., the first instalment to be made on or before such of those days as next ensue the entering into the contract; provided such bodies, persons, &c. may stipulate with the commissioners with whom the contract is made for the transfer of the whole stock at once, or by instalments at stated periods, so that it be by even instalments at equal intervals, and on or before the days before mentioned in each year, or on such of those days as fall within the period stipulated for such transfer, and provided, notwithstanding such stipulation, the whole or any part of the consideration may be transferred to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt in advance; but if the whole stock is not transferred at one time, and the division thereof shall occasion a fraction less than 1d., the fractional part shall be taken from the prior instalment, and added to the last, so as to avoid any fraction less than a 1d., 42 G.3. c.116. s.25.

31. Where the first instalment shall not have been transferable till after 1st Feb. 1801, application may be made to the commissioners for executing this act, within 3 months from 24th June, 1802, who may alter the contract, and agree that the remaining instalments may be transferred within any period not exceeding 5 years, id. s.26. [Q. R. Exr. ?]

32. Where the consideration for the redemption of any land-tax is in money, the same may be paid either by one payment or equal instalments as the party chooses, so as such instalments do not exceed 8 in number, and that the whole consideration is paid within 2 years from the date of the contract, according to the price of stock to be transmitted as before directed, to the receivers-general in Eng., and collectors in Scot., in the second week subsequent to the day of entering into the contract; but where the whole consideration is not paid at once, but by instalments, then for the second and subsequent instalments according to the prices of stock transmitted in the week preceding the days stipulated, and conformable to the schedule L; and in such case the sum stipulated to be paid, shall be paid to such receivers or collectors on the days so stipulated; with like provision in respect of fractions of a farthing as in s. 25. pl. 50. directed in respect to fractions of a penny, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 27.

53. The whole or part of such consideration may be paid to the receiver-general in Eng. and collectors in Scot. in advance, notwithstanding any stipulation to the contrary; provided that bodies politic, &c. companies, and persons desirous of so paying in advance, shall give 21 day's notice in writing to such receiver or collector of such intention, and such receiver, &c. shall on receipt of such notice, transmit to the commissioners for taxes for the information of the treasury, an account of payment intended to be made in advance, and of the days when; and such payments shall be made according to the price of stock transmitted in the week preceding the day of payment, and the table, rules, &c. of schedule L, id. s. 28.

54. On making the second and subsequent instalments, a sum by way of interest shall be paid (in cases where the consideration is in stock) to the cashier of the bank, (and when in money) to the receivers-general in Eng., and collectors in Scot., to the use of H. M., equal to the amount of land-tax redeemed, deducting therefrom a sum bearing the same proportion to such land-tax, as the amount of stock then before transferred bears to the whole amount of stock agreed to be transferred, or (in cases of consideration in money) the number of instalments then before paid, bears to the number agreed to be paid, having regard in stock cases, to the time when the first dividend after the transfer of such stock will become payable; of which sums for interest a separate account shall be kept in the bank of Eng., and by such receivers and collectors, and the same shall be paid separately into the receipt of the exchequer, to be applied to any purposes to be voted by the commons, and the receipt of such cashier, and of such receiver or collector, as the case is, shall be a good discharge to the party paying such interest; and after the whole stock is transferred, or the money paid in advance, no more interest shall be payable, id. s. 29.

55. Where the consideration for the redemption of any land-tax should be in stock, and such land-tax shall be contracted for by any bodies, companies, or persons entitled to any benefit of preference under 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 18. pl. 20. the whole amount of such consideration may be contracted to be transferred within 16 years from the date of such contract; and in such cases it shall be transferred to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, by equal instalments yearly, the first to be made on or before one of the quarterly days in 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 25. pl. 55. specified as shall next ensue the entering into such contract; provided that the whole stock so agreed on may be so transferred in advance, notwithstanding any stipulations to the contrary; provided also, that if division of the entire quantity of stock would occasion a fraction less than a 1d. such fraction shall be added to the last instalment, so as to avoid fractions of a penny, and that on transfer of the second and every subsequent instalment upon such contract, interest shall be paid into the bank of Eng. for the use of H. M., in like manner as in 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 29. pl. 58., directed in cases of transfer of stock by instalments, 46 G. 3. c. 135. s. 1.

56. All the provisions of 42 G. 3. c. 116. so far as the same are applicable, and where not expressly varied hereby, shall be applied in like manner and exercised in execution of this act, id. s. 8.

57. On all contracts for redemption of any land-tax in G. B. the consideration whether in stock or money may be stipulated to be transferred or paid in equal sums by half-yearly instalments, during the period stipulated for transfer, &c. viz. on the 29th Sept. and 25th Mar. in each year, of assessment of land-tax; and on all such contracts the consideration may be stipulated to be wholly in money (whatever the amount may be) and calculated and settled either according to the land-tax acts in force at the time of passing this act, or according to this act; and every such contract where the consideration shall be in stock, to be ascertained according to such former land-tax acts, shall be in form contained in this act, in the schedule marked (A. No. 1.) and when in money to be likewise so ascertained in form in this act, in the schedule marked (A. No. 2.) and when in money to be ascertained under this act in form, in the schedule of this act marked (B.) except in cases hereinafter excepted, 53 G. 3. c. 125. s. 3.

58. In contracts hereafter to be entered into, it shall be lawful to stipulate for the transfer or payment of the consideration within any period not exceeding 16 years as the parties shall choose, to be computed from the 25th Mar. next preceding the date of the contract, by even sums in each year as near as may be computed; provided that the stock to be transferred within any year shall not be under 100*l.* nor the money to be paid under 60*l.* the duration of the contract to be regulated by the amount of the consideration thereon; and where the consideration is under 100*l.* stock, or 60*l.* money, the same shall be transferred or paid within one year in one sum, or by two equal sums as specified in the contract, except in the cases hereinafter authorized, 53 G. 3. c. 125. s. 4.

59. Whenever any contract is made for the payment of the consideration for the redemption of any land-tax in money to the receiver-general in Eng., or collector of cess in Scot. by two instalments yearly, on or before days herein mentioned, and such receiver or collector is not on his receipt of land-tax within the county, shire, &c. no forfeiture or charge of interest shall accrue under 42 G. 3. c. 116. or this act, if the party contracting shall pay what is then due on the day appointed for the next receipt of land-tax for that county, &c. where such receiver or collector shall attend, id. s. 8.

60. All bodies politic, &c. companies, and persons claiming any preference hereby given on their own or any other's behalf, shall produce to any two commissioners of land-tax, acting for the hundred, &c. of the county, &c. in Eng., or in Scot., to 2 commissioners of supply of the county, or stewardry, or chief magistrate of a city, &c. within which any manor, lands, &c. or other property whereof the land-tax is proposed to be redeemed shall be situate, a schedule of such manors, lands, &c.; which shall contain the nature of the premises, the names of the occupiers thereof, and the parish or place where situate; and such commissioners or chief magistrate shall settle and adjust the amount of land-tax charged thereon, distinguishing according to the form and method in the schedule marked (A.) hereto annexed, the district and parish within which and manors, lands, &c. upon which each separate assessment shall be charged, and grant a certificate thereof to the applicants, who shall thereupon produce such certificate to the commissioners acting under this act, by H. M.'s sign-manual warrant, or transmit it to their clerk; and if the land-tax to be redeemed does not exceed 25*l.* and the consideration is to be in money, shall specify the same in writing, and whether it is to be paid at once or by instalments, and also the day or days when; and such last mentioned commissioners shall examine, and if necessary amend such certificate, and contract with the applicants for the redemption, and insert a description of such lands, &c. in the certificate of contract, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 50.

61. Where such consideration is in stock, the certificate of the contract shall be according to the schedule hereto annexed, marked (B.) and when in money according to that marked (C.) id. s. 51. [See as to these forms, 53 G. 3. c. 125. s. 3., under, pl. 37.]

62. Where the commissioners acting under this act as aforesaid, are in possession of true copies of assessments of land-tax, charged on the parishes or places in their respective counties, cities, &c. transmitted to them by the clerk of the commissioners of land-tax acting for any hundred, &c. in Eng. and of supply in Scot. of the county, &c. where such parishes, &c. are situate, according to 39 G. 3. c. 6. [which was 11x. by s. 1. of this act], they may contract for the redemption of land-tax, although no certificate of account shall be produced by the parties applying to redeem; provided such parties shall transmit to the clerk of the commissioners under this act such schedule in writing as is hereby required to be produced to the commissioners of land-tax or supply, who shall insert in every certificate of such contract a description of the manors, lands, &c. contained in such schedule, and a true copy of the assessment, so far as it relates to such manors, lands, &c. together with the amount of land-tax charged thereon, according to the assessment so in their possession, id. s. 32.

63. Where the commissioners acting under this act as aforesaid, have not in possession any such copies of the assessments charged on any parish or place, and have demanded the same from the clerks to the commissioners of land-tax and supply acting in their respective divisions, (which they shall do,) and also in every case where any alteration is made in the assessments by such commissioners, such clerk having such assessments in his custody, shall within 6 days after demand made, or after any such alteration make out a true copy of such assessments or alterations, which two commissioners of land-tax or supply shall subscribe; and such clerk shall deliver such copies to the commissioners acting under this act, or their clerk, within the time limited, or permit him to take copies thereof, and in case he shall neglect so to do, within such 6 days, he shall forfeit 50*l.* to be recovered as any penalty under this act may be, id. s. 33.

64. Every clerk to the land-tax or supply commissioners shall for each such copy, on application to the receiver-general in Eng. or collector in Scot. of the county, &c. on production of a certificate of 2 commissioners acting under this act that such copy has been duly delivered receive after the rate of 4*d.* for every chancery sheet contained in such copy, reckoning every separate amount of land-tax set down in figures as 3 words, id. s. 34.

65. In case any difficulty arises in the redemption of land-tax charged on any tithes, or any fee-farm rents, feu-duties, or other rents, or any lands, &c. because such tithes, &c. have not been assessed, or distinctly assessed to the land-tax, or because the land-tax has been deducted out of any such rents by the owners or occupiers of the lands charged therewith, any body politic, &c. or company, or other person entitled to such tithes, &c. may apply to the commissioners of land-tax or supply, to settle the proportion of land-tax which ought to be paid by such bodies, companies, &c. on account of such tithes, &c. who shall thereupon ascertain and settle the same, and grant a certificate thereof; and on the production of such certificate, the commissioners under this act may contract for the redemption of the land-tax, and such bodies, companies, &c. may do all acts to execute such contracts, as if such tithes, &c. had been distinctly assessed, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 35.

46. Where any such rents or feu-duties and the manors, messuages, lands, &c. out of which the same issue are not distinctly assessed to the land-tax, the commissioners under this act on application of the bodies, companies, &c. entitled to such rents, &c. and who are desirous of redeeming their proportions of land-tax, may settle such proportions in like manner as the commissioners of land-tax or supply may, [see s. 35. pl. 45.] and thereupon contract with the bodies, companies, &c. who shall apply for such redemption, id. s. 36.

47. Where any such certificate as in s. 30. pl. 40. or schedule, as in s. 32. pl. 42. shall be produced or transmitted by any body, company, or person for the purpose of entering into any contract for the redemption of land-tax by payment of the consideration in money, the clerk to the commissioners under this act shall transmit an account to the commissioners of taxes for the information of the treasury, and also to the county receiver-general, if in Eng. or to the receiver-general if in Scot. specifying the amount of land-tax to be redeemed, and day or days of payment on which the whole or the different instalments of the consideration, as the case is, are to be paid; and the treasury may from time to time direct any money to be advanced to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, for the purchase of so much capital stock as is necessary to complete such contracts, or any instalment thereof, as well before or on the days appointed for payment of the money payable on such contracts as before or on the days whereon payments in advance shall be made as herein before provided, or as soon after as is convenient, out of any monies in the hands of such receivers-general, or in the exchequer, applicable to the service of the year, as the treasury deem fit, which sums shall be replaced by the money paid on such contracts to such receivers, and the stock so purchased shall be placed in the names of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, for the uses of this act, as if purchased with the money paid on such contract; and as soon as such contract is completed the commissioners who entered into the same shall give notice thereof to the commissioners of taxes, as also to such receiver-general as aforesaid, id. s. 37.

48. On production of a certificate of any such contract at the bank of Eng. in cases where the consideration is in stock, and on the transfer to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, of the 5 per cent. to be transferred as the consideration for the redemption of the land-tax thereby contracted for, or of any instalment thereof, the cashier of the bank shall acknowledge such transfer by granting a receipt indorsed on the certificate of contract, according to the form in the schedule hereto annexed, marked (E); and in case the consideration is in money, then on production of the certificate of such contract to the receiver-general for the county, &c. in Eng. or his deputy, or to the collector for the shire, &c. in Scot. where the manors, lands, &c. of which the land-tax is to be redeemed are situate; and on payment of the money agreed on, or any instalment thereof, such officers shall acknowledge such payment by indorsing a receipt in the form prescribed in the schedule to this act annexed marked (F); and every such certificate or receipt of such cashier, or such receiver-general in Eng. or collector in Scot. shall be an acquittance to the body, company, or persons transferring such stock, or paying such money; and on the transfer or payment of such consideration, or any instalment thereof, the manors, lands, &c. comprised in such contract shall be wholly freed from the land-tax, from such of the quarterly days of payment of land-tax, as shall next precede the day of transfer and payment, provided the certificate of contract is duly registered according to this act; provided that where any contract for redemption of land-tax is not registered within the time hereinafter limited, the lands, &c. comprised therein shall only be discharged from the quarterly day next preceding the day whereon the contract is left for registering, id. s. 38.

49. When any one or more coparceners, heirs, portioners, tenants in common, or joint-tenants of any manors, lands, &c. shall redeem his, her, or their proportions of the land-tax charged thereon, [see s. 11. pl. 13.] and partition shall at any time afterwards be made of such manors, lands, &c. between them, the manors, lands, &c. allotted to those who have redeemed their proportions of the land-tax, shall immediately on such partition being completed be discharged from the land-tax, id. s. 39.

50. Where in any contract already made under the recited acts for the redemption of land-tax, an option is declared to consider bodies politic, &c. or companies or other persons so contracting on the same footing as persons not interested in the manors, lands, &c. comprised in such contracts, whereby such manors, lands, &c. remain chargeable with the land-tax, and such bodies, companies, &c. or their successors, heirs, executors, &c. shall be desirous of exonerating such manors, lands, &c. from the land-tax, they may at any time hereafter apply for that purpose to the commissioners acting under this act as aforesaid for the county, city, &c. where such manors, lands, &c. do lie; and on such application, and on the production of a certificate under the hands and seals of any 2 commissioners of land-tax acting for the division where the same is situate of the amount of land-tax, and of the certificate of contract to the commissioners acting under this act, two of them may contract with such bodies, companies, &c. their successors, heirs, executors, &c. for exonerating such manors, lands, &c.; and in such case, where it appears by certificate and contract that no variation has taken place in the mean time in the amount of such land-tax, may amend the certificate of contract by striking out all such parts thereof as relate to the declaration of option, and certify their having so done under their hands and seals on the back; and after the registry of such certificate and indorsement thereon (whether the same has been previously registered or not), the manor, lands, &c. comprized therein shall be exonerated from the quarterly day of payment next preceding the leaving such certificate for registry at the proper office, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 40.

51. And when it appears in any such case as in pl. 50. by the certificate of amount of land-tax and the certificate of the contract for its redemption, that the amount then charged on the manors, lands, &c. comprized therein, is either more or less than the amount redeemed, 2 of such commissioners may rescind such contract and enter into a new one for the redemption of the land-tax then charged on the said manors, lands, &c. without any declaration of option, and indorse on the certificate of such new contract a true copy of any receipt indorsed on the original, purporting to be given by any cashier of the bank of Eng., or any receiver-general of land-tax in Eng. or collector in Scot. for the consideration, or any part thereof, to be transferred or paid, and actually transferred, &c. on such original contract; provided no such manors, lands, &c. shall be exonerated in any case where the land-tax has been increased, unless the applicant shall contract to transfer or pay, and shall at the time in the contract mentioned actually transfer at the bank of Eng., or pay to the receiver-general in Eng. or collector in Scot. of the county, &c. or place where the same is situate, so much 3 per cents. in addition to stock already transferred, or so much money in addition to the sum already paid as shall be equal to redeem the difference between the land-tax contracted for in the new contract, and that contracted for by the contract rescinded; provided where the land-tax shall decrease in amount, and which amount has been duly charged on other manors, lands, &c. in the same parish, and a new contract is made for the redemption of the land-tax then charged, the commissioners who shall enter into such last-mentioned contract shall certify in writing signed by two of them to the commissioners for taxes, the several amounts of the stock or money to be transferred or paid, and actually transferred or paid in pursuance of the original and new contracts respectively; and thereupon the commissioners for taxes may order the bank of Eng., or the receiver-general in Eng. or collector in Scot. for the county, &c. where such manors, lands, &c. are situate in cases where more consideration has been transferred or paid on the original than the consideration inserted in the new contract, to repay to the party entitled the difference, if such monies have not been invested in stock; and in cases where stock has been purchased, then, on certificate signed by any 3 commissioners of taxes of the amount transferred on the old, and the amount to be transferred on the new contract, one commissioner for the reduction of the national debt shall transfer such difference to the party entitled, and after the registry of such certificate of contract as before directed, the manors, lands, &c. shall be discharged as in s. 38. pl. 48. directed, id. s. 40.

52. Where any manors, messuages, lands, &c. shall belong to or stand limited to the use and benefit of any body politic, &c. or public company, or any fellows or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, and any personal property invested in the public funds or placed out on mortgage or other security, either in the names of such bodies, companies, &c. or in the names of any trustees or of the officers of any court, is subject to any trust to be laid out in the purchase of other lands, &c. to be limited to the use and benefit of such bodies, companies, &c. then such bodies, companies, &c. or such trustees and officers may, with the consent of two commissioners under this act, acting under H.M.'s letters patent under the great seal (to be certified under their hands), apply such personal property towards the redemption of the land tax, or part thereof, charged on such manors, lands, &c. belonging to such bodies, companies, &c.; and where such personal property is under the controul of any court, the same shall be so applied by order of such court to be made on the production of such certificate from such commissioners as aforesaid, id. s. 41.

53. Where any manors, lands, &c. are settled or limited to any uses or trusts, and any other property is subject to any trust to be applied in the purchase of other manors, lands, &c. to be settled to the same uses or trusts, or to be applied in payment of debts or charges affecting the same, then such other property may be applied in the redemption of the land-tax charged on such settled manors, lands, &c. with such consent as is necessary for applying it in purchase of any manors, lands, &c. according to the terms of the trust affecting the same, whether such trust has been created by statute, will or otherwise; and when such trust property is under the controul of any court, the same shall be so applied under the order of such court, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 42.

54. Where any land-tax charged on any manors, lands, &c. belonging to any bodies, companies, &c. as in s. 41. pl. 52. is redeemed by the application of such personal trust property in pursuance of this act, such land-tax shall sink and become merged in the same manors, lands, &c. for the benefit of the bodies, companies, &c. entitled thereto; provided that if such personal trust property which is so applied is insufficient for the redemption of the whole land-tax charged on such manors, lands, &c. such bodies, companies, &c. may exercise the powers by this act given them, in order to raise money for the redemption of so much land-tax charged on such manors, lands, &c. as such personal trust property is insufficient to redeem, id. s. 43.

55. The governors of queen Anne's bounty may apply any sums which under their charter or any acts now in force, shall be applicable to the augmentation of livings, in the redemption of the land-tax charged on the lands, tythes or other profits arising from any such livings which may be contracted for by such governors in pursuance of this act, and the transfer or payment of the consideration for such redemption shall, from the quarter-day next preceding the making thereof, wholly exonerate such lands, &c. from land-tax, and which shall then sink for the benefit of such livings; and such governors may apply any such sums towards purchasing any rent charge granted under the authority of the recited acts, or this act, by any incumbent of any living which such governors shall agree to augment, and such rent charge, when purchased, shall be surrendered to the incumbent to be extinguished for the benefit of such living, id. s. 44. [See s. 15. pl. 17., s. 161. pl. 98.]

56. Whenever the governors of queen Anne's bounty have appropriated any sum of money for the benefit of any living or the incumbent of any living which such governors shall agree to augment, the incumbent of such living, by direction of such governors, may contract for the purchase of the land-tax on the same terms and in the manner directed by 42 G. 3. c. 116. [see s. 15. pl. 17., s. 44. pl. 55., s. 161. pl. 98.] and may apply such sum so appropriated, or part thereof, in satisfaction of the consideration stipulated in such contracts; and such incumbent of such livings so to be augmented from period of exoneration of such land-tax, and his successors, shall have and be in actual seisin and possession of a fee farm rent equal in amount to land-tax so purchased, issuing out of such manors, lands, &c. on the days on which such land-tax was payable, and shall enjoy all such remedies for recovery of such fee farm rents as are by 42 G. 3. c. 116. given to purchasers of land tax, 53 G. 3. 125. s. 32.

57. The trustees of property heretofore given by will to be laid out in the purchase of lands or in appropriate tythes, for the benefit of the poor clergy in Eng., (with such consent as by the will is required) may apply any money or funds, which by such will are applicable to such purposes, towards the redemption of any land-tax charged on the lands, tythes, or profits, arising from any livings belonging to the church of Eng., which shall be contracted for by the incumbents with the consent of such trustees, or of such other person whose consent is required by such will, or which may be contracted for by such trustees in pursuance of this act; and the transfer or payment of the consideration for such redemption shall, from the quarter day next preceding the making thereof, wholly exonerate the land, &c. of such livings from such land-tax, and which shall be extinguished for the benefit of such livings; and such redemption shall be deemed valid in law, and equivalent to a purchase of lands or tythes for such purpose, under the trusts of such will, any statute of mortmain or other statute notwithstanding, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 45.

58. Where any lands, &c. are settled to charitable uses, for the benefit of any parish or place, the land-tax thereon may be redeemed out of any poor-rate made on such parish, in case the rents and profits of such lands shall be applicable to the benefit of the poor; and out of any church-rate when applicable to the repairing of any church or chapel, or otherwise out of such parish-rate as the circumstances of the case shall require; provided, no rate shall be so applied without the approbation of 2 justices of peace for the county, &c. certified in writing to the commissioners under this act, under H. M.'s sign-manual warrant, upon proof before them, by oath or affirmation, of notice having been given, during divine service on 2 Sundays, in the parish church or chapel, or where there is none, then in the church of the parish next adjoining, of an intention to apply, and of the time and place of application for such approbation, id. s. 46.

59. Where under any act of parliament, deed, will, or decree of any court, any trust-property is applicable to charitable purposes, for the benefit of any parish or place, it may be applied in redemption of the land-tax charged on any manors, lands, &c. settled to charitable uses, for the benefit of such parish, &c. and by deed under the hands and seals of the parson, vicar, or curate, and of the churchwardens and overseers of such parish, or the major part of them, inrolled in manner hereinafter directed, for deeds executed by trustees and others, for the sale of lands to redeem land-tax, such manors, lands, &c. may be charged with the payment of an annuity equal to the amount of the income of the trust-property applied in such redemption; provided, the same be done with like approbation of 2 justices on like proof of notice, as by s. 46. pl. 58. directed, where the poor or church rates are applied in such redemption, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 47.

60. The governors and directors of hospitals and other charitable institutions, may apply any legacies or voluntary donations given them for the benefit of such hospitals, &c. in redemption of land-tax, charged on any manors, lands, &c. belonging to them, where the same are not directed by the donor to be applied in any particular manner, id. s. 48.

61. Any company of proprietors of canals, or other navigations, or works of public utility, may, in order for the redemption of land-tax charged on the profits, &c. arising therefrom, as well as on their messuages, lands, &c. raise money necessary for such purpose, either by calls on the proprietors, or by mortgage, or such other ways as are allowed by any act in force, or hereafter to be made for the purposes in such acts mentioned, id. s. 49.

62. Any person by will or otherwise, or any body politic, &c. or company, may give money for the purpose of applying the same in the redemption of the land-tax, charged on any manors, lands, &c. settled to any charitable purposes; and the same shall be so applied accordingly, id. s. 50.

63. For the purpose of redeeming the land-tax, charged on any manors, lands, &c. belonging to any person or persons, (not being bodies politic, &c. or companies, or feoffees, or trustees, for charitable or other public purposes) whether such manors, lands, &c. are situate in the same or in any other division in the same county &c. or in any other county, &c.; and whether such land-tax has been or shall be contracted for either before 24th June 1802, or thereafter under this act, such person as is seised or entitled beneficially in possession to the rents and profits of, but who have not an absolute estate or interest in any manors, lands, &c. or any heriots, services, enoluments, or advantages arising from any freehold, copyhold, or customary messuages, lands, &c. or incident thereto, or accruing therefrom, (other than tenants at rack-rent, for any term of years, or from year to year, or at will; and tenants holding under the crown, any lands or tenements within the survey or receipt of the exchequer or duchy of Lancaster, or under the duke of Cornwall any lands or tenements parcel of such duchy); but under the restrictions and regulations hereinafter mentioned, may absolutely sell by public sale or private contract, and by deed indented and enrolled, or registered as hereby prescribed, convey (either at once for making good the whole consideration for redeeming such land-tax, or at various times for making good the different instalments thereof, as they become due, or any number of instalments at once, as is most expedient) any such manors, lands, &c. or any such heriots, &c. whereof such person is in actual possession, or entitled beneficially to the rents and profits, as are eligible, whether of freehold or copyhold, or customary tenure, or holden for any term of years (other than any term of years at a rack-rent), and whether the manors, lands, &c. heriots, &c. so sold, shall or shall not be charged with land-tax, and if charged, then freed from the same, id. s. 51.

64. And all such persons who shall be in the actual receipt of, and beneficially entitled to the rents and services reserved out of any manors, lands, &c. which have been or shall be granted by them, or any former owners thereof, for any beneficial leases, or by any copy of court roll, or demised according to the custom of any manor for life or lives, or years absolute, or years determinable on any lives, may in like manner sell and convey (either at once or at various times) the fee-simple, and inheritance of such manors, lands, &c. which have been so granted or demised for any beneficial lease, or by copy of court roll, or any other grant according to the custom of any manor for life, &c.; and also the rents, services, &c. reserved and payable in respect of such leasehold or copyhold tenements, subject to the subsisting interests of the lessees, copyholders, or other customary tenants, whether such last mentioned manors, lands, &c. shall or shall not be charged with land-tax, or whether such land-tax shall have been redeemed by the lessees, &c. thereof, or not; and if the same shall be charged with land-tax, then freed from the same, id. s. 61.

65. And all such persons, by deed indented and enrolled, or registered, and under the restrictions herein directed, may convey or demise any such freehold, copyhold, or leasehold manors, lands, &c. whereof they shall be in the actual possession, or beneficially entitled to the rents and profits as aforesaid, freed from land-tax, in case any i-charged thereon, to any person by way of mortgage, either in fee-simple or for term of years (where the same shall not be of copyhold or customary tenure) for securing such sums as shall be sufficient to redeem the land-tax so contracted for by such person, or grant any rent-charge, to be issuing out of such manors, lands, &c., not exceeding the amount of land-tax so contracted for; provided, no sale, mortgage, or grant out of any manors, lands, &c., shall be made under this act, but only to redeem the land-tax charged thereon, (in cases where it is so charged); and also on other manors, lands, &c. which stand limited or settled and subject to the same trusts, &c., or in the same order of limitation as the manors, lands, &c. which shall be so sold, mortgaged, or charged, except as to such variations as may be occasioned by the difference in tenure of freehold and copyhold estates, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 51.

66. Any person who is seised in fee-tail of any manors, lands, &c. in Eng., may convey such part thereof as is deemed eligible to be sold for the purpose of redeeming the land-tax charged thereon, by deed indented and enrolled, or registered, as hereby prescribed; and such deed, so enrolled, &c., shall bar all estates-tail, and other estates in possession, reversion, remainder, or expectancy, in the hereditaments so conveyed, as if such tenant in tail had levied a fine, or suffered a common recovery thereof, id. s. 52.

67. For the purposes aforesaid, all committees and curators of lunatics, or idiots' guardians, or tutors of infants, and executors and administrators, curators, and trustees, seised of any manors, lands, &c. in trust, and authorized to act for infants, minors, issue unborn, femes covert, or other persons incapable by law or deed to act for themselves, may, on behalf of such persons, and under the restrictions herein contained, sell, or mortgage and convey, or grant any rent charge out of any manors, lands, &c. belonging to, or settled to the use and for the benefit of such incapacitated persons, which they (but in case of issue unborn, if in esse) might have sold, &c. in order to redeem any land-tax in respect of their estate or interest therein, either under this act or otherwise, if they had not been so incapacitated, id. s. 53.

68. All sales, mortgages, or grants, in relation to estates in Eng. made under this act, by any person (other than bodies politic, &c., or companies, or feoffees, or trustees for charitable or public purposes, and other than such persons holding under any grant from the crown, or act of parliament, as hereinafter mentioned), shall be made, with the consent of the commissioners acting under this act, by warrant under the royal sign manual, for the county, &c. in which such manors, lands, &c. so sold, &c. shall be situate; and no such sale, mortgage, or grant, shall be valid, unless 2 of such commissioners shall certify their consent thereto, by signing or sealing the deed of sale, &c., id. s. 54.

69. No manors, lands, &c. in Eng. shall be sold or mortgaged, nor any rent-charge granted thereout under this act by any persons under the authority of the last mentioned commissioners, without one calendar month's previous notice in writing given to such commissioners by the party so selling, &c. nor unless he shall before such sale, &c. produce to such commissioners a schedule in writing, declaring the quantity or duration of his estate or interest in the manors, lands, &c. whereon the land-tax to be redeemed is charged, and (if the same is not an estate of inheritance) then the parties next entitled to any beneficial interest in such manors, lands, &c. expectant on the determination of the immediate estate or interest therein; and if such manors, lands, &c. are subject to any mortgage, charge, lien, or incumbrance, then the name of the party having such mortgage, &c. and the amount thereof, and if more than one, the priorities of the respective incumbrances, id. s. 55.

70. If any manors, lands, &c. which shall be sold at various times, are situate in different counties, then the party making such sale shall in case any manors, lands, &c. situate in any other county have been sold for making good any prior instalments, produce to such last mentioned commissioners a certificate under the hands and seals of the commissioners of such other counties of the former sales, which certificate shall contain a statement of the manors, lands, &c. which have been so sold, and of the amount of the purchase money thereof, and which they shall give to the parties applying for the same; and such commissioners, under whose authority such subsequent sale is to be made, may examine on oath or affirmation, as hereby directed, s. 7. pl. 9., persons desirous to make such sales, touching such former sales, and receive any affidavit or deposition in writing in the manner herein prescribed, id. s. 56.

71. This act shall not enable any tenant for lives or years determinable on lives, or for years absolute, though not at rack rent to sell any part of the tenement demised, in case of a demise for which a fine was paid without the consent of the body politic, &c. company, or person entitled to the immediate estate in reversion on such demise, id. s. 57.

72. Where any trusts, mortgages, charges, liens, or incumbrances, shall equally affect divers manors, lands, &c. part whereof is to be sold to redeem the land-tax charged on such manors, lands, &c. so equally subject to such trusts, &c. then the court of chancery in Eng. and of session in Scot., if satisfied that such of the said manors, lands, &c. as shall not be sold, are sufficient to secure such trusts, mortgages, &c. may direct that such of the said manors, lands, &c. as are so sold shall be conveyed to the purchaser discharged from such trusts, mortgages, &c. who after registry or enrolment of the conveyance as herein directed, may hold the same discharged therefrom; provided neither this act nor any such order shall discharge the manors, lands, &c. so sold from any trusts, mortgages, &c. which shall not equally affect the whole thereof, the land-tax of which shall be redeemed by a sale of part thereof; but all such trusts, &c. shall remain a charge on such manors, lands, &c. as if this act had not been passed, and the money arising from such sales, and the surplus thereof (if any) shall be applied under the direction of such courts in the manner as herein directed in other cases of sales of estates to redeem land-tax, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 58.

73. Where any such sale is by auction, the commissioners authorizing the same, shall give 10 days' notice thereof in the newspaper of the county, &c. where the manors, lands, &c. are situate; and where such sale is by private contract, they shall not certify their consent thereof, without having estimates in writing, verified by oath or affirmation (which any one of them may administer,) of the value of the part to be sold, nor without being satisfied that sale thereof will not materially injure the residue of the estate, and that the part proposed to be sold is proper for the purposes of this act, id. s. 59.

74. Any person (not being bodies politic, &c. companies, or feoffees, or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, and not holding by grant from the crown, or by statute as hereinafter mentioned,) who is seized, or beneficially entitled to any manors, lands, &c. in Eng. of which any copyhold or customary estates are holden, may, by leave of the court of chancery signified by order on petition in a summary way, enfranchise such copyhold or customary estates, id. s. 60.

75. Where any heir of entail in possession in Scot. or his tutor, or where he is a lunatic or idiot, his curator, mean to sell part of such estate to purchase the land-tax thereon, he may apply by petition to the court of session, stating amount of land-tax payable out of the same, what part is proposed to be sold, and the annual value of that part, and praying the court on proof thereof, and that the sale of such part will not materially hurt the estate remaining unsold, and that such part is proper to be sold, to authorize such sale to proceed as hereinafter enacted, and such court shall intimate such petitions on the walls of the outer and inner house of such court in common form, for 10 secedunt days, and also cause it to be advertized weekly for 2 weeks successively in the Edinburgh Gazette, which intimation and advertizement shall be valid against all persons whatever, as if such petition had been personally intimated to, or served on all persons having any interest in such estate as substitute heirs of entail, creditors or otherwise; and such intimation being duly made, the court shall proceed summarily in the matter, and authorize the sale of such part which the court thinks proper, and against which no reason is shewn by any interested person; and the extract of the decree of such court shall be authority to the commissioners under this act to carry on the sale as herein directed, id. s. 61. [see pl. 23.]

76. Where any heir, tutor, or curator, as in s. 61. pl. 75. in Scot. means to burden such estate with money borrowed to enable him to purchase the land-tax, he may apply by petition to the court of session, stating the amount of land-tax payable, the sum to be borrowed, and whether it is intended to grant the heritable security over the whole or part of the estate, and if over part, what part, and praying the court to authorize him to borrow such sum, as the court deems fit for the purpose of this act, and to grant heritable security in common form for that sum over the whole or part of the estate, as the court deems proper; and such court shall intimate and advertise such petitions as in s. 61. pl. 75. directed, and the effect shall be the same in both cases, and such intimation and advertisement being duly made, the court shall proceed summarily, and authorize the petitioner accordingly, provided no reason is stated to the contrary by any interested party, id. s. 62.

77. Where any farms, lands, or tenements, originally possessed together, are proposed to be sold under this act, which are more than sufficient for that purpose, and it appears to the court of session, either from the detached situation of such farms, &c. or otherwise, that the same cannot be divided without a loss, or that the sale of the whole would be more advantageous to the entailed estate, and the successive substitute heirs of entail, such court may proceed as it is in other cases authorized by this act to order the sale of the whole of such lands, due notice having been given to the next substitute heir of entail resident in G. B., and of lawful age, of such proposed sale; and the surplus money after the land-tax has been redeemed, and costs of sale paid, shall with the annual proceeds thereof, be disposed of under the direction of such court in the same manner as in s. 100. pl. 128. directed, with respect to the eventual surplus money arising from sales of only so much as was deemed adequate for the redemption of land-tax, id. s. 63. All expenses incurred by heirs of entail, or others entitled as aforesaid to purchase the land-tax affecting the entailed estate in Scot. either in selling part of such estate, or borrowing money on heritable security, or purchasing out of their own proper means the land-tax affecting the entailed estate, shall be defrayed out of the price of land so sold or included in the heritable or other proper security, and be made part of the charge on the entailed estate; provided the amount be previously ascertained by decree of the court of session on a summary application for that purpose, 42 G.3. c. 116. s. 64. [see pl. 118.]

78. Where any such sale is made by order of the court of session, the same shall be done by public auction, at such time and on such notice as the court shall direct; and before such sale, such court shall draw up articles of sale in the usual forms according to the Scotch laws, to make such sale effectual, and whereby the purchaser shall be bound to pay the price to a trustee named by the vendor, to be approved of by such court, and who shall find a security duly to apply the sum so paid to him for the purposes herein enjoined and directed; and further such trustee shall forthwith be bound, on receipt of such price, to pay the same into bank of Eng., to be placed to the account of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt for the purposes of this act, and the cashier's receipt shall discharge such trustee and such purchaser for the money agreed to be paid by him, and which purchaser on such payment into the bank, shall be entitled to demand from the heir of entail or vendor such disposition, conveyance, or other title to the subjects sold, containing all usual clauses for rendering his right complete under the direction of such court, id. s. 65.

79. Where any part of an entailed estate in Scot. is sold for the purposes of this act, and where any heritable security is granted on any entailed estate under this act, such sale and grant shall be as valid as if the estate, part of which is sold, or on which any heritable security is granted, had been held by such seller and grantor in fee-simple unfettered by any entail; and such grantee, his heirs, executors, and assignees shall have all legal powers and remedies to recover either the interest or the principal; provided it shall not be competent to adjudge any part of the entailed estate either for principal or interest, id. s. 66.

80. For the purpose of raising money to redeem the land-tax charged on any manors, lands, &c. subject to any restriction in the power of the persons beneficially entitled to the rents and profits thereof, to cut down timber standing thereon, such persons with the consent of the court of chancery in relation to estates in Eng., and of session in relation to estates in Scot., may cut down such quantity of timber as such courts by petition in a summary way shall direct, and apply the proceeds under the order of such courts in the manner herein directed for money obtained on the sale of estates to redeem the land-tax; and the land-tax, which is redeemed by money arising from such timber, when all instalments to be transferred or paid on the contract for redemption are completed, shall become merged in such manors, lands, &c. whereon charged for the benefit of the persons beneficially entitled thereto, unless such courts shall make any order respecting the manner in which the income to be derived from the redemption of such land-tax ought to be applied, during so long as the manors, lands, &c. on which such timber has been growing, are in the possession of any person having a limited interest therein; which order such courts may make, having regard to the state of the timber and to the rights of all persons interested in such manors, lands, &c.; provided that such courts may order that the expenses incurred in surveying, valuing, and felling such timber or otherwise, on account of the sale thereof, shall be paid out of the purchase-money for the same, id. s. 67.

81. Where the money to be paid as the consideration for any sale, mortgage, or grant, to be made under this act by any person (other than bodies politic, &c. companies, or trustees, for charitable or other public purposes), does not exceed 1000*l.*, the deed of sale, &c. or the enrolment thereof, and in cases of copyhold or customary estates the deed of sale, or grant, or the admittance to such copyhold or customary estates, or any copy of the entry on the court rolls of such deed, &c. shall not be liable to stamp-duty; and every deed of sale or mortgage, and every surrender, grant, and admittance of, or to any messuages, lands, &c. sold under the recited acts for not exceeding 1000*l.*, and all copies of entries on the rolls, &c. of any such surrenders, &c. shall be valid though not stamped, and all persons indemnified from penalties on account thereof, id. s. 68.

82. For the purpose of redeeming any land-tax charged on any manors, lands, &c. belonging to any bodies politic, &c. or companies, or any feoffees, or trustees, for charitable or other public purposes, (whether such manors, lands, &c. are situate in the same or any other division of same county, &c. or in any other county, &c. and whether such land-tax was contracted for either before or on the 24th June, 1802, under the recited acts or any time after under this act,) such bodies, companies, &c. (notwithstanding their own bye-laws to the contrary,) but under the restrictions hereinafter mentioned, may absolutely dispose of by public sale or private contract, and by deed indented and enrolled, or registered as herein prescribed, (either at once or various times for the purposes in s. 51. pl. 63. mentioned,) any such manors, lands, &c. whereof they are in actual possession, or beneficially entitled to the rents and profits, as are eligible, whether of freehold, copyhold, or customary tenure, or holden for a term of years (other than at rack rent), and whether the manors, lands, &c. so sold, are or are not charged with land-tax, or are exempted from it, and if charged, then freed therefrom, or absolutely may so sell and convey, either at once or at various times the fee-simple of any manors, lands, &c. belonging to such bodies, companies, &c. which have been or shall be granted or demised for beneficial leases, or by copy of court roll, or any other grant according to the custom of any manor for life or lives, or years absolute, or years determinable on any life or lives, and also the rents, services, and other profits reserved in respect of such leasehold or copyhold tenements, (subject to the subsisting interests of the lessees, copyholders, and customary tenants,) whether such manors, lands, &c. are, or are not charged with, or exempt from land-tax, and although it has been redeemed by such lessees, &c. but if charged, then freed from such land-tax, 42 G.3. s. 116. s. 69.

83. And such bodies, companies, &c. for such purposes, may by like deed enrolled or registered as herein prescribed, convey or demise any parts of such freehold, copyhold, customary or leasehold manors, lands, &c. before mentioned, whereof they shall be so in the actual possession, or entitled to the rents and profits freed from land-tax (in case any is charged thereon) to any person by way of mortgage, either in fee-simple or for term of years, (where not being of copyhold or customary tenure) for securing such sum as is sufficient to redeem the land-tax contracted for by such bodies, companies, &c., or may grant any rent charge chargeable on such manors, lands, &c. not exceeding the amount of land-tax so contracted for; provided no sale, mortgage, or grant of, or out of such manors, lands, &c. shall be made under this act by any bodies, companies, &c. but only for redeeming land-tax charged thereon, (in cases where it is charged,) and also on any other manors, lands, &c. which shall stand limited, or subject to the same uses, trusts, &c. or in the same course of limitation as the manors, lands, &c. so sold, &c. except as to such variations as the nature of the tenure of freehold or copyhold estates may occasion, id. s. 69.

84. For the purpose of redeeming land-tax, such bodies, companies, &c. by like deed so enrolled or registered, may enfranchise any messuages, lands, &c. holden by copy of court roll, or other customary tenure of any manor belonging to them, whether such manor is subject to lease or not, and also dispose of any heriots, fee farm, chief or quit rents, or other emoluments payable in respect of any freehold, copyhold, or customary manors, messuages, lands, &c. or incident thereto and accruing therefrom, id. s. 70.

85. Where any person holding under grant from the crown or any statute, any manors, lands, &c. wherein H. M. hath any interest in remainder, reversion, or expectancy (other than persons holding under the crown any manors, lands, &c. within the survey and receipt of the exchequer, or the duchy of Lancaster, or holding under the duke of Cornwall, any manors, lands, &c. parcel of such duchy by virtue of any demise, or grant by copy of court roll or otherwise, for life or lives, or years determinable on any life or lives, or for years absolute, or from year to year, or at pleasure,) have contracted, or shall contract for the redemption of any land-tax charged on any such manors, lands, &c. such person (being in actual possession, or entitled beneficially to the rents and profits of such manors, lands, &c.) for the purpose of raising money to complete such redemption, (but under the regulations hereinafter mentioned,) may sell and dispose of by public sale or private contract, and by deed indented and enrolled, or registered, as herein prescribed, may convey either at once, or at various times, as in s. 51. pl. 63. mentioned, any such manors, lands, &c. whether charged or not with land-tax, and if charged, then freed from the same; and such person for such purpose and under such restrictions, may enfranchise any messuages, lands, &c. holden by copy of court roll, or other customary tenure of any such manors so holden, and may also sell and dispose of any heriots, fee farm, chief or quit rents, or other emoluments payable in respect of any manors, lands, &c. or incident thereto, or arising therefrom; provided that the manors, lands, &c. of which the land-tax is redeemed, stand limited to the same uses, trusts, &c. as the manors, lands, &c. heriots, &c. so sold, or the manors of which any copyhold or customary estate so enfranchised stood limited, id. s. 71.

86. H. M., by letters patent under the great seal of G. B., may appoint any members of the privy council to be commissioners for regulating sales, &c. made by such bodies politic, companies, or such feoffees or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, of any manors, lands, &c. belonging to them by virtue of this act, and also for regulating, &c. all such sales, &c. of any manors, lands, &c. wherein H. M. shall have any interest in remainder, reversion, or expectancy, by any such person holding under any grant from the crown, or any act of parliament; and any two of them, already or hereafter to be appointed, may do any act which all such commissioners are by this act required to do, id. s. 72.

87. Every such commissioner as last aforesaid, before he shall enter on the execution of his office, shall take an oath to the effect following, viz. [See the form, ante, s. 6. pl. 7.] which oath may be administered by any one of the persons already or hereafter to be appointed to any other commissioner, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 73.

88. The powers by 42 G. 3. c. 116., or any other act relative to the redemption and sale of the land-tax, vested in commissioners appointed by letters patent under the great seal shall cease and determine, 54 G. 3. c. 173. s. 1.

89. H. M. by letters patent under the great seal, may appoint any peers of the realm, or any members of the privy council to be commissioners, for confirming, regulating, &c. all sales and contracts for sale, enfranchisements, mortgages, and grants of rent-charge, which shall be made by any corporations, companies, feoffees or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, of or out of any manors, lands, &c. belonging to them by virtue of 42 G. 3. c. 116., or of any subsequent land-tax redemption acts or this act, and also for confirming, regulating, &c. all sales and enfranchisements, which by virtue of such acts shall be made of any manors, lands, &c. wherein H. M. has any estate or interest in possession, remainder, reversion, or expectancy, by any person holding by grant from crown, or by act of parliament, id. s. 2.

90. Such commissioners before entering on their offices shall take the oath herein set down, which oath may be administered by any one of the persons to be appointed commissioner to the others, id. s. 3. [See the form 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 6. pl. 7.]

91. The commissioners to be appointed under this act, shall have the like powers, &c. as by such acts for redemption of land-tax were vested in any persons acting as a commissioner by letters patent under the great seal, and 2 of them may do any thing hereby required of them, id. s. 4.

92. If the statements made to commissioners under this act by virtue of H. M.'s letters patent under the great seal, by any body, company, &c. or other person selling under their authority, respecting any such sales, mortgages, or grants, or the value of the estate to be sold are not satisfactory, they may require further information thereon, and may receive any affidavits, depositions in writing, on oath or affirmation, made before any commissioner for taking affidavits in the courts at Westminster, or before a justice of peace, respecting such matters, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 74.

93. Such commissioners as last mentioned may appoint a secretary and other officers, dismiss them, and appoint others in their stead, id. s. 75.

94. Every sale, enfranchisement, mortgage, or grant of rent-charge, made of or out of any manors, lands, &c. under this act, by any bodies politic, &c. companies, feoffees, &c. or by any such person holding under grant from the crown, or by act of parliament, shall be so made with the sanction and consent of the said last mentioned commissioners, and no other consent, &c. shall be required to enable such sales, &c.; provided no such sales, &c. shall be valid, unless 2 of such commissioners certify their consent by signing and sealing the deed of sale, &c. as parties thereto, id. s. 76.

95. The governors of the charity for the relief of the poor widows and children of clergymen, with the consent and under the direction of such last mentioned commissioners, may sell any manors, lands, &c. given to them by will, either generally for the relief of such widows or children, or subject to any qualifications or restrictions as to the mode of applying such relief, in extent of the allowance to be made to individuals, and apply the proceeds to redeem the land-tax charged on any other manors, lands, &c. vested in them for the purposes of such charity, id. s. 77.

96. Where the land-tax charged on the glebe lands, tythes, or other profits of any living in the patronage of any college, cathedral church, hall, or house of learning in Oxford, or Cambridge, or of either of the colleges of Eton or Winchester, or of any trustee for any such college, &c. or in the patronage of any corporation aggregate, has been or shall be redeemed by or on the behalf of any such college, &c., or corporation aggregate, under the recited acts, or this act, any such college, &c. or any trustees thereof, or any such corporation aggregate, may provide for such redemption, by sale of any lands, &c. belonging to such corporations, or by grant of any rent-charge which they might lawfully make for the redemption of any land-tax charged on their lands, and the land-tax so redeemed shall be forthwith extinguished; but every such college, &c., or such corporation aggregate, shall be entitled to an annual rent-charge issuing out of such living, equal to the amount of land-tax redeemed, unless it is declared in writing, under the common seal of the body, having such right of patronage at the time of any presentation to the living, that it shall be suspended during such incumbency, which declaration they may make; provided such suspension shall be without prejudice to the right of such body to recover such rent-charge after the next or any future avoidance; provided also that any such declaration, made at the time of redeeming the land-tax, shall be as available during the then incumbency, as if made at the time of presentation, id. s. 78. [See as to redeeming land-tax of livings under sequestration, or where the incumbent is outlawed, 53 G. 3. c. 123. ss. 27, 28. pl. 264, 265.]

97. Where the land-tax charged on any glebe lands, tythes, or other profits of any living has been or shall be redeemed or purchased by the patron or any former incumbent thereof, or other person, the incumbent for the time being may treat and agree for the purchase of an assignment of such land-tax, for the benefit of such living; and in order to raise money for the purchase of such assignment from the patron or former incumbent, or person redeeming the same, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, may execute the powers by 42 G. 3. c. 116. given to raise money by sale, mortgage, or grant, for the redemption of any land-tax, in the same manner, and under same rules, &c. as such incumbent for the time being might have done in the first instance, and the land-tax so assigned shall become merged for the benefit of such living; provided that the monies so arising shall not be paid into the Bank of Eng. or to any receiver-general or collector, but the same, or so much thereof as is requisite shall, under the order of any 2 commissioners under great seal appointed for the purposes of such act, be paid to the assignor of such land-tax, whose receipt, in pursuance of such order, shall effectually discharge the purchasers or mortgagees; and the remainder, after payment of the expenses incurred by such sale, &c. shall be paid into the Bank of Eng., or to such receiver or collector, and applied as in such act is directed in cases of monies arising from sales, &c. made for the purpose of purchasing assignments of land-tax under such act; provided no such assignment or deed of sale, &c. shall be liable to stamp duty, 45 G. 3. c. 77. s. 1.

98. In all cases wherein any incumbent for time being shall purchase an assignment of the land-tax charged on the lands, tythes, or other profits thereof, from the patron or former incumbent, or from any person who has redeemed or purchased the same, or their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, such incumbent for the time being, in order to reimburse himself the sum paid from his own money for such assignment, may put in execution all the powers given by 45 G. 3. c. 77., in order to raise such money by sale, mortgage, or grant, to purchase an assignment of such land-tax; provided that the money arising thereby, or so much thereof as may be requisite, shall, under the order of 2 commissioners under the great seal, be paid to such incumbent for the time being, whose receipt in pursuance of such order shall be a full discharge to the purchasers or mortgagees, and the remainder (if any) shall be paid and applied as by 45 G. 3. c. 77. s. 1. pl. 97. directed, concerning the remainder of money arising by sales, &c. thereby authorized, 55 G. 3. c. 123. s. 29.

99. Where the land-tax charged on the glebe lands, tythes, &c. of any living has been or shall be redeemed by the patron, or any former incumbent, or any other person, and the incumbent for the time being has purchased or shall purchase under 45 G. 3. c. 77., an assignment of such land-tax for the benefit of such living, such assignment shall be transmitted within 6 calendar months after the date thereof, (or, in cases where already purchased, after passing of this act,) to the officer appointed to register contracts for redemption of land-tax, who shall register the same gratis; and a copy of such registry, signed by such officer, shall be allowed in all courts to be evidence, and no copy of such registry shall be liable to stamp duty, id. s. 30.

100. Where the land-tax charged on the glebe lands, tythes, or other profits of any living in patronage of any archbishop, bishop, or other corporation sole, or any companies, shall be redeemed by or on behalf of such corporations, &c. under the land-tax acts, such archbishop, &c. or such corporations, whether sole or aggregate, or companies, may provide for such redemption by sale of any lands, &c. belonging to them, or by grant of any rent charge which they might make for the redemption of any land-tax charged on their lands, &c., and the land-tax so redeemed shall be forthwith extinguished; but every such archbishop, corporation, &c. shall be entitled to an annual rent-charge issuing out of such living, equivalent to the amount of land-tax redeemed, unless it shall be declared under the seal or common seal of the archbishop, corporation, &c. having the patronage of such livings at the time when any clerk is presented, that such rent charge shall be suspended during his incumbency; which declaration they may make; but such suspension shall be without prejudice to their right to recover such rent on the next or any future avoidance; and any such declaration made at the time of redeeming the land-tax, shall be as available during the incumbency of the then incumbent as if made at time of his being preferred to such living, 50 G. 3. c. 58. s. 2.

101. For the purpose of redeeming any land-tax by any rector or vicar, or for the purpose of raising money to reimburse the stock or money previously transferred, or paid for the redemption of such land-tax, or for the purpose of purchasing an assignment thereof, under powers of any land-tax redemption act, the land sold shall not be necessarily confined to such quantity of any lands belonging to such rector, &c. as shall appear to the commissioners authorising the same necessary to be sold for such purpose, but that any sale of lands, for any such purposes, shall be deemed good, notwithstanding the restrictions contained in any such acts, although the lands so sold shall appear to such commissioners more than necessary for such purposes; provided such commissioners are satisfied that such sale will be beneficial to such rectors, &c. and the ordinary's consent, in writing under his hand, is produced to them, 54 G.3. c. 173. s. 6.

102. Any ecclesiastical or lay corporations, and feoffees, trustees for charitable or other public purposes, and all other persons entitled to the patronage of any living, may contract for the redemption of the land-tax charged on the glebe lands, tythes, or other hereditaments belonging to such living, in consideration only of so much capital stock in the 3 per cents, as will yield an annuity equal in amount to land-tax to be redeemed, 57 G.3. c. 100. s. 19.

103. And, in order to provide for any such redemption, any ecclesiastical or lay corporations, or trustees, under the authority of the commissioners under the great seal, may sell any hereditaments belonging to such corporations or trustees, in the same manner as by the land-tax acts directed, or may apply for the like purpose any personal property invested in the public stocks, or any legacies or voluntary donations, or other trust money, which they are authorized by land-tax acts to lay out in the redemption of land-tax, or any surplus stock or money arisen or to arise by sale, mortgage, or grant, under the powers in such acts, id. s. 13.

104. Such corporations, &c. who shall be desirous of redeeming any land-tax charged on any living in their patronage, may declare in the redemption contracts that they are desirous that the lands shall not be subject to any annual rent, or other charge, in favour of such corporations or trustees in respect of such redemption; but if no such declaration shall be contained in such redemption contracts, such corporations or trustees redeeming such land-tax shall be entitled to an annual rent-charge issuing out of such living, equivalent to the amount of the land-tax redeemed, and to like power on presenting any clerk to such living of suspending payment of such rent charge [see pl. 100.], during incumbency of such clerk as are given by such acts, id. s. 14.

105. And when any lands or other hereditaments are proposed to be sold by any ecclesiastical or lay corporation, or feoffees, or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, for the purpose of redeeming any land-tax under the power, in s. 14. pl. 104. contained, such corporation, &c. shall present a memorial to the commissioners under the great seal, stating their intention of making such sale, and the object thereof, for their approbation, 2 of whom, if they so approve, shall certify accordingly, id. s. 15.

106. Where any ecclesiastical rector has in right of his rectory, the patronage or donation of or to any vicarage or perpetual curacy, and has no glebe lands belonging to such vicarage, &c. which are eligible to be sold to redeem the land-tax charged on the glebe tythes, or other profits thereof, and such land-tax shall be redeemed by such rector, then such rector, whether he is incumbent of such vicarage, &c. or not, may provide for the redemption of such land-tax, by sale of part of the glebe lands of such rectory, in the same manner as he might provide for the redemption of such land-tax charged on the glebe, &c. thereof, and the tax so redeemed shall be forthwith extinguished; but when such rectory and vicarage, &c. are held by different incumbents, the incumbent of such rectory shall have an annual rent-charge out of such vicarage, &c. equal to the amount of land-tax so redeemed, 42 G.3. c. 116. s. 79. [see as to united livings, 53 G.3. c. 123. s. 26. pl. 265.]

107. No mines, minerals, or seams or veins of coal, metals or other profits of the like nature, belonging to any manors, lands, &c. sold by any bishop or other ecclesiastical corporation aforesaid, for the purpose of redeeming any land-tax, whether opened or not, nor any right, title, or claim to open the same, nor any advowson or right of patronage, or presentation to any living or benefice, or right of nomination to any perpetual curacy, shall pass by any conveyance of such manors, &c. either by express or general words, although such advowson, right, patronage, or presentation, or nomination, may be appendant to such manors, lands, &c.; and such mines, &c. with all proper powers for opening and working the same, and such advowsons, &c. shall be always absolutely excepted and reserved to such bishops, &c. as if the conveyance expressly excepted them, id. s. 80.

108. No instrument whatever, whereby any sale, mortgage, enfranchisement, or grant shall be made of or out of any manors, lands, &c. under the authority of the said last mentioned commissioners shall be liable to stamp duty, id. s. 81.

109. Where any manors, lands, &c. belonging to any body politic, &c. companies, feoffees, or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, which shall be sold under this act, shall be either exclusively or in common with other manors, lands, &c. subject to or charged with any yearly sum, to or for the use of any rector, vicar, curate, or other person, such last-mentioned commissioners may direct how and in what manner and proportions, and out of what part of the manors, lands, &c. originally liable thereto, such sum, or any part of it, shall be paid in future; and thenceforth the manors, lands, &c. or such parts thereof, by or out of which the same is directed to be paid, shall be exclusively subject thereto, and to the powers for the recovery thereof, as provided by law for the recovery of rent reserved on leases, 42 G.3. c. 116. s. 82.

110. Where part only of divers manors, lands, &c. which have been usually demised together by such bodies, companies, &c. as in s. 82. pl. 109. by one lease on which an entire ancient and accustomed rent is reserved, shall be sold under this act, such last mentioned commissioners may apportion such rents, and adjust the proportion thereof which shall thenceforth be paid in respect to such manors, lands, &c. comprised in such lease or settle out of what part thereof the whole shall be paid, if it will not admit of apportionment; and in all leases thereafter to be granted of such last-mentioned manors and other hereditaments, the sum or thing so settled and apportioned shall be the rent to be reserved thereon, id. s. 83.

111. Where any bodies, companies, &c. shall enfranchise any copyhold or customary messuages, lands, &c. holden of any manors belonging to them which is under lease, such last-mentioned commissioners may settle any disputes that may arise between such bodies, companies, &c. and their lessees, or any certain trust of such lessee concerning such enfranchisement, and may direct a recompence to be reserved out of the purchase money to such lessees, and the person entitled as certain trusts, or otherwise under such lessees for any loss occasioned by any such enfranchisement, id. s. 84.

112. Where the reversion of any manors, lands, &c. holden of any bodies, companies, &c. under any lease for life or lives, or years absolute, or years determinable on any life or lives, or by copyhold or customary tenure for life or lives, is purchased under this act with the proper money of the persons beneficially entitled to the rents and profits thereof, and where such lease is subject to any will or settlement, so that such person is not at the time of purchasing such reversion entitled to the absolute interest under such lease, and is bound by covenants to renew the lease at the accustomed periods, with his own money, or out of the rents and profits of the estate, then the immediate interests under such subsisting lease, as well as the reversion expectant thereon, shall, under the direction of such last mentioned commissioners, be charged with the repayment of the money advanced to purchase such reversion with lawful interest, for the benefit of the person advancing the same, his executors, administrators, or assigns; but if there is no covenant so to renew the lease at the accustomed periods, then the reversion only expectant on the subsisting lease shall, under such direction, be charged for the benefit of such person, with the payment of the principal money advanced for the purchase thereof, together with lawful interest to accumulate from the time of purchase, till the expiration of the subsisting lease, after deducting out of such interest the annual rent payable during the lease, and which was purchased with the reversion, unless the party advancing the money is desirous that the same, together with the interest, be made a charge on the subsisting lease, in which case the immediate estates under the same, as well as the reversion expectant thereon, shall be made subject to the payment of principal and interest, as if such person had been bound to renew the lease, id. s. 85.

113. And subject to such charges so to be made, the fee simple of such manors, lands, &c. shall be settled under such direction, for the benefit of the purchaser and of the persons entitled under such will or settlement, to the benefit of any renewed lease, so as to be enjoyed by them for such estates, as considering the alteration of the tenure shall appear to such commissioners most correspondent with the intention of such will or settlement; provided that where the immediate interests under any such lease are charged with the payment of the principal money advanced to purchase the reversion, the persons successively entitled to the rents and profits of the manors, lands, &c. comprised in such subsisting lease, shall be chargeable with the interest accruing during their estate therein; and no greater arrears than one year's interest shall be recoverable against any person entitled in remainder for interest accrued during the term of any of his predecessors therein; provided such commissioners may direct an application to the court of chancery, in a summary way, to obtain direction as to the mode of settling any such reversion, or the equity of redemption thereof, where the case is attended with difficulty, id. s. 85.

114. Any body politic, &c. companies, feoffees, or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, by and under the authority of the last mentioned commissioners, may contract with their respective lessees and tenants, holding under any demise by copy of court roll, or otherwise, who under the recited acts or this act have redeemed the land-tax charged on the manors or other hereditaments comprised in such demises for an assignment to such bodies, companies, &c. of the land-tax so redeemed; and in order to complete the assignment, the powers hereby given for raising money by sale of any manors, lands, or other hereditaments, to redeem any land-tax in the first instance, may be put in execution; provided that if any money shall be then in the bank of Eng., or any stock is then invested in the names of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, which has arisen from sales, before made by any such bodies, companies, &c. so contracting for such assignment, and which has not been applied to redeem land-tax, 2 commissioners under the great seal may direct the consideration for such assignment to be paid or transferred out of such money or stock; and the bank of Eng., and such commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, shall, on certificate of such order signed by 2 such commissioners under the great seal, pay or transfer to the assignor of such land-tax the money or stock in such certificate specified; and the receipt of such assignor shall be a good discharge for such money or stock, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 86.

115. Where any manors, lands, &c. belonging to any such bodies, companies, &c., are sold to raise money for the redemption of land-tax, and it afterwards appears that the money thereby arising is not sufficient to redeem the whole land-tax charged on such manors, lands, &c., and such bodies, companies, &c. are willing to pay into the bank such further sum as is necessary to redeem the whole, then the cashier shall give a receipt for such sum, and apply the monies in completing such redemption, id. s. 87.

116. Where the land-tax charged on any manors, lands, &c. belonging to any bishop or other ecclesiastical corporation, have been redeemed by such bishop or ecclesiastical corporation with any monies raised under the powers of the recited acts, or this act, such land-tax shall be considered as a yearly rent, payable to such bishop, &c. and his successors, over the reserved rent during the demise existing at the time of such sale, and shall be recovered as such; and the land-tax so redeemed shall, in all future demises of such manors, lands, &c. be added to the accustomed yearly rent, during the terms to be granted as aforesaid, and be recoverable as such yearly rent by like remedies as such bishop, &c. may use for the recovery of such accustomed rent on such demises; and where such manors, lands, &c. are demised to any under lessee, who is bound by any covenant or agreement to pay the land-tax thereon, then the amount of such land-tax shall be deemed rent reserved on such last-mentioned demise, and be recovered as rent in arrears, id. s. 88.

117. Where any land-tax charged on any manors, lands, &c., which are holden by copy of court roll, or other customary tenure of any manor belonging to any body, company, &c., by virtue of any lease, have been or shall be redeemed by such body, company, &c. under the powers of the recited acts, or this act, the amount of land-tax redeemed shall be considered as rent reserved to such body, company, &c. out of such copyhold or customary manors, &c., and be payable on the same days as such land-tax was before its redemption, and shall be recovered as rent in arrears, id. s. 89.

118. If any farm and lands usually occupied together, shall be proposed to be sold under this act, which is more than sufficient to redeem the tax; and in case it appears to the commissioners authorizing the sale, that such farm and lands cannot be divided, in order that an adequate part may be sold, without loss to the parties interested; and (in cases of sales by persons, other than bodies, companies, &c., as in s. 86, pl. 114.) if the person who is entitled to the first or next beneficial estate, in remainder, reversion, or expectancy, being of full age, shall consent to the sale of the whole, on the terms and under the restrictions herein mentioned, such commissioners may then authorize the sale of the whole of such farm and lands as hereby directed, id. s. 90. [see pl. 77.]

119. Where any bodies, companies, &c., or other persons, shall redeem their, his, or her land-tax, out of their, &c. personal estate, or by, or out of any trust-property, applicable to such redemption by the recited acts, or this act, or otherwise than by sale, mortgage, or grant, made under the recited acts, or this act; and also where any such bodies, companies, &c., or other persons are entitled under the recited acts, to demand an assignment of land-tax on the determination of any precedent estate (in cases of contract already entered into under such acts, wherein an option has been declared), or shall agree under this act with the executors or administrators of any person dying before the transfer or payment of all instalments, to be transferred or paid on any contract entered into by him, to take an assignment of such contract for the purpose of completing the same, every such body, company, &c., and other person, either for reimbursing all stock (in cases where the original consideration for any redemption of land-tax was in stock), and for reimbursing all sums (in cases where the money) which shall respectively have been transferred or applied in the redemption of such land-tax, or for the purpose of raising money to purchase such assignment of land-tax, or for the purpose of raising money, as well as to purchase the assignment of any contract not completed, as to complete the instalments remaining due thereon, may carry into execution all the powers of raising money by sale, mortgage, or grant, for the redemption of land-tax, in such manner as such bodies, companies, &c., or persons might have done, to redeem such land-tax in the first instance; and where any such bodies, companies, &c. or other person, have redeemed or shall redeem such land-tax, by and out of monies which have arisen or shall arise by any mortgage or grant, which was or shall be made under the recited acts, or this act, it shall also be lawful for the purpose of paying off any sums borrowed on that account, to exercise the powers by this act given, to raise money for the redemption of land-tax, in such manner as such bodies, companies, &c. or other persons might have done to redeem such land-tax in the first instance, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 91.

120. Where any deduction or allowance is made out of any fee-farm or other rents, or annuities payable out of any manors, lands, &c. for the benefit of any body, company, &c. as in s. 86. pl. 114. or other person in respect of any land-tax charged on such manors, lands, &c. such bodies, companies, &c. or other persons, may sell such rents, &c. for the purposes, and under the provisions of this act, subject to such deduction, &c. and whether the land-tax charged on the manors, lands, &c. out of which the same are payable, has been redeemed at the time of such sale or not, and although the purchase money of the same is in the judgment of the commissioners authorizing such sale, sufficient to redeem so much land-tax only as is equal to the clear rent, &c. after such deduction, &c. made; and such rent, &c. shall thenceforth be freed from such land-tax in all future assessments, and all deductions in respect of such land-tax, other than the deduction, &c. made at the time of such sale, id. s. 92.

121. Where fee-simple and inheritance of any manors, lands, &c. holden under any beneficial lease, or by copy of court roll, as before mentioned is to be sold under this act, 2 calendar months' notice shall be given thereof by the vendors to the party beneficially interested therein under such lease, &c. or to their committees in cases of lunacy, or guardian in cases of infancy, or in other cases of incapacity to the trustees or persons having authority to act, during which period the person so beneficially interested, or his committee, guardian, trustee, &c. in his behalf, shall be entitled to contract for the purchase thereof, in preference to all others; and any one coparcener, joint-tenant, or tenant in common so beneficially interested, shall have like privilege of pre-emption in respect of the whole estate comprised in such lease or grant, by copy of court roll, on refusal of any other coparcener, &c. to purchase their respective shares, and such manors, lands, &c. shall not be sold to other persons, till after the expiration of such notice, unless the party having privilege of pre-emption shall, by writing, waive the same; in which case such fee-simple, &c. may be sold to any other person before the expiration of such notice; provided that when any price has been offered for the purchase of any such manors, lands, &c. by any person having such privilege of pre-emption, which is not accepted by the body, company, &c. proposing to sell the same, such manors, lands, &c. shall not afterwards be sold for a less price than that offered, till the expiration of 2 calendar months' further notice given to such person so offering such price, of the sale to be made at such reduced price, who shall, during that period, have the like privilege of pre-emption at such reduced price; but if such privileged person shall waive the same as aforesaid, such manors, lands, &c. may be sold to any other person at such reduced price before the expiration of such period; provided that every such notice to such committees, guardians, trustees, &c. shall be valid to enable the sale of such manors, lands, &c. to any person having no such interest as aforesaid after the expiration of such notice, (or sooner, in case of waiver as aforesaid,) as if given to or made by any having capacity to act for himself, id. s. 93.

122. No sale or mortgage of any copyhold or customary messuages, lands, &c. under this act, shall affect the right of any lord or lady of any manor of which the same were holden to the accustomed fine paid on any alienation of or admittance to such messuages, &c. or authorize any purchaser or mortgagee to enter and take any rents or profits thereof, under this act, till such fine is paid; but on the production of the deed of sale, or mortgage and tender of the fine, such lords, &c. shall at the next court holden for such manor, at the request of the purchaser or mortgagee of such copyhold, &c. messuages, lands, &c. not only grant the same to him by copy of court roll for the estate sold, reserving the accustomed rents and services, but shall also admit him tenant thereof, and receive his fealty accordingly, id. s. 94.

123. No other or greater quantity of any estate (except as in s. 63. pl. 77. and see also pl. 118. aforesaid) shall be sold under this act, than what appears to the commissioners authorizing the sale necessary for the purposes thereof, and no more money raised by any such sale, or by any mortgage or grant of any rent charge under this act than what appears to such commissioners sufficient for the purpose of redeeming the land-tax proposed to be redeemed, and also for satisfying the expenses which any body, company, &c. as in s. 86. pl. 114. or other person making any such sale, &c. shall incur on account thereof; and such commissioners and also any courts where their authority is requisite to such sale, &c. may direct such expenses to be paid in the first instance out of the money arising thereby, and such order shall be a sufficient discharge for so much of such money as is so paid by any purchaser, &c. 42 G.3. c.116. s.95.

124. No manors, lands, &c. shall be sold, mortgaged, or charged under this act, if the bodies politic, &c. companies, or other persons beneficially entitled to the first or next beneficial estate in remainder, reversion or expectancy therein, or the guardian of any such person in cases of infancy, or committees of his estates in cases of lunacy, shall within one calendar month after notice in writing given them by the bodies, &c. desirous of making such sale, &c. agree to redeem the land-tax for the redemption of which such sale, &c. was to be made; and which land-tax any such guardians or committees may redeem out of any money or personal property belonging to any infant, or lunatics for whom they are guardians, &c.; and in such case the contract for the redemption shall be made in the name of, or assigned to the body, company, or person beneficially entitled in remainder, &c. who shall be bound to complete the same, and enjoy all the benefits arising thereby, as other persons in remainder or reversion redeeming any land-tax may do; but no such notice as last mentioned, shall be required to enable any sale, &c. under this act, where the person desirous to make such sale, &c. is the guardian, &c. or husband of the persons so beneficially entitled to the first or next beneficial estate in remainder, id. s.96.

125. Any person, body politic, &c. or company interested in remainder, reversion, or expectancy in any estate in Eng. of which any part is to be sold or mortgaged under this act, or the guardians, committees, or trustees of such persons who are aggrieved by such sale or mortgage, may, before such estate has been actually conveyed away, petition the court of chancery, which court shall in a summary way make such order respecting the suspending or proceeding in such sale or mortgage, or for the sale or mortgage of another part of such estate, as well as for payment of costs on such petition as such court shall deem fit, id. s.97.

126. All money arising by any sale, mortgage, or grant made in pursuance of this act, (except such part as is reversed under the order of the commissioners authorizing the sale, &c. for payment of expenses incurred therein, and except in cases where the payment thereof is otherwise authorized by this act,) shall be paid by the vendors, mortgagees, or granters, into bank of Eng., and placed to the account of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, under the title of "An Account of the Sale of the Land-Tax;" and such bank shall keep distinct accounts thereof, and cause the same to be invested in the 5 per cents. in their names according to this act, whether the contract for such redemption, or the deed of sale, &c. is or is not completed; and the cashiers of the bank shall receive such money, and their receipts shall be good, and the bodies, companies, and other persons whose land-tax is redeemed therewith, shall, on the production of the certificate of contract of such redemption, be entitled to receive the same certificates and discharges, and their estates shall be exonerated from land-tax in the same manner as if the 5 per cents. to be purchased with such money had been actually transferred by them as the consideration for such redemption, id. s.98.

127. Where any manors, lands, &c. shall be sold under this act, the bodies, companies, or persons making such sale, with the consent of the commissioners authorizing such sale, may agree with the purchaser that the consideration for the purchase shall be in the 5 per cent. consols., or 3 per cent. reduced, to be transferred by such purchasers to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt in lieu of money to be paid into the bank of Eng. as in s.98. pl. 126. directed; and such last-mentioned commissioners shall receive such transfer; and the certificate of any cashier of the bank acknowledging such transfer shall be as effectual a discharge to the purchasers transferring stock, as if the consideration had been money paid into the bank, as by s.98. pl. 126. directed, and the bodies, companies, &c. or other persons whose land-tax is redeemed therewith, shall be entitled to the same certificates and discharges, and their, his, or her estate shall be exonerated from land-tax, in like manner as if such stock had been transferred by them as the consideration for such redemption, id. s.99.

128. Whenever, by reason of any fluctuation in such bank annuities, or that the precise quantity of estate necessary to be sold cannot be set apart to be sold, or by reason of the whole of any faria and lands, &c. being sold under this act, there is any surplus of stock transferred, as the consideration for, or purchased with the money arising by any sale, mortgage, or grant to be made by virtue thereof, after reserving so much of such stock as was agreed to be transferred as the consideration for the land-tax redeemed, such surplus stock shall, where such manors, lands, &c. so sold, &c. are situated in Eng., be placed in the books of the bank, in the name and with the privy of the accountant-general of the court of chancery, and applied as herein mentioned; viz. such stock may be sold, and the produce, under the direction of such court, (to be signified by an order made on petition in a summary way,) applied in discharge of any debts, or parts thereof, affecting the manors, lands, &c. the land-tax whereon was so redeemed, or where it is not so applied, then under such direction such surplus shall be invested in the purchase of other manors, lands, &c. to be conveyed to the like uses, trusts, &c. and in the same manner as the manors, lands, &c. so sold, mortgaged, or charged, stood limited, or such of them as are capable of taking effect; and in the interim, the dividends and annual produce of such stock shall go to the person who would have been entitled to the rents of such manors, lands, &c. in case such last-mentioned purchase was made, 42 G.3. c.116. s.100. [See post, pl. 131. and s.160. pl. 197.]

129. No surplus stock to be transferred as the consideration for, or purchased with money arising by any sale, mortgage, or grant made under 42 G.3. c.116. or any subsequent land-tax redemption act, or this act, by any bodies, companies, feoffees, or trustees for charitable or public purposes, shall be placed in the books of the bank, in name of and with privy of accountant general of the court of chancery, pursuant to such act, until such bodies, companies, &c. have got a certificate under the hands of 2 commissioners under the great seal, that the whole land-tax charged, as well on the lands, &c. by sale of which such surplus arose, as on the messuages, lands, &c. limited to like uses, or subject to the same trusts as the messuages, lands, &c. so sold, &c. stood settled at the time of such sale, &c., has been wholly redeemed, or so much thereof as such commissioners think reasonable, 53 G.3. c.123. s.39.

130. In all cases where any surplus of stock transferred as consideration for, or purchased with money arising by any sale, mortgage or grant made under any land-tax redemption act, or this act, by any archbishop, bishop, rector, or vicar, or other corporation sole, for the purpose of redeeming or purchasing land-tax, (after reserving so much of such stock as is agreed to be transferred as the consideration for the land-tax redeemed or purchased,) such surplus of it does not exceed 1000*l.* 3 per cent. capital stock, shall be transferred into the joint names of such archbishop, &c. and their successors, having an interest therein, and of some person named by them, in order that the same may be applied for the benefit of such archbishop, &c. as directed by 42 G.3. c.116. s.102. pl. 136. in regard to surplus stock not exceeding 200*l.*; and if the consideration for such redemption or purchase by the archbishop, &c. shall by contract be agreed to be paid in money, the surplus, if any, after such consideration reserved, shall, if it does not exceed 100*l.* be paid to a trustee to be named by such archbishop, &c. having an interest in such surplus, and be by him laid out in the joint names of himself, and such archbishop, &c. in the purchase of stock, to be applied for the benefit of such archbishop, &c. and their successors, id. s.40.

131. In all cases where there is any surplus stock transferred as the consideration for or purchased with money arising by any sale, mortgage, or grant, made under any land-tax redemption acts by any bodies, companies, feoffees, or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, for the purpose of redeeming any land-tax, (after reserving the consideration for such land-tax,) it shall, if it does not exceed 1000*l.* 3 per cent. consols., or reduced, be transferred into the joint names of 2 trustees, to be appointed by such corporation, &c. in order to be applied for the benefit of them and their heirs and successors, according as by 42 G.3. c.116. s.102. pl. 136. directed, with respect to stock not exceeding 200*l.*, 54 G.3. c.173. s.8.

132. No surplus stock transferred as the consideration for or purchased with money arising by any sale, mortgage, or grant made under any such redemption acts, or by this act by any such bodies, companies, &c. or by any archbishop, bishop, rector, vicar, or other corporation sole, shall be transferred into the names of the accountant-general, or into the joint names of such trustees as in s.8. pl. 131. or of such archbishop, &c. and a trustee until certificate obtained under the hands of 2 of such commissioners appointed under the great seal, that the whole land-tax charged, as well as the land, &c. by sale, &c. of which such surplus arose, as on the messuages, lands, &c. limited to the like uses, or subject to the same trusts as those so sold were limited, &c. has been wholly redeemed or purchased, or so much thereof as such commissioners think reasonable, id. s.9.

133. Where there is standing in the names of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt any surplus stock to the account of any bodies, companies, or feoffees, or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, arising from any sale, mortgage, or grant made by any such bodies, companies, &c. under the powers of the land-tax redemption acts, or this act, after satisfying the purposes for which such sale, &c. was made; the commissioners under the great seal, by any writing under their hands, may direct the commissioners for the reduction, &c. to sell and transfer so much of such stock as at the time of sale will produce enough to answer the sum allowed by the commissioners under the great seal, as costs to such bodies, companies, &c. which sum so raised shall be paid to such bodies, companies, &c. or their agent, in discharge of such costs, 57 G.3. c.100. s.18.

134. In all cases of contracts already or to be entered into by any bodies politic, &c. companies, feoffees, or trustees for charitable and other public purposes either under the powers of any land-tax redemption act, or this act, such commissioners under the great seal by writing under their hand may give such order to the commissioners for the reduction, &c. with regard to the transfer of any such surplus stock, or the sale thereof, and with regard to the application of the money arising thereby as they think proper, for the purpose of making good the transfer or payment of the consideration for such redemption according to the terms of the contract, and for payment of any costs allowed therein; and such commissioners for the reduction, &c. shall do so accordingly, 57 G.5. c.100. s.19.

135. Where such manors, lands, &c. so sold, mortgaged or charged, are in Scot., such surplus stock may be sold, and the money arising therefrom be paid into one or other of the public banks in Scot., with the authority of the court of session; which court shall, on summary petition, to be presented to them by or on the behalf of the proprietor, or heir in possession, order that such overplus be laid out under their direction, in the payment of debts affecting the said intended charged estates, or in the purchase of other lands, as in s.100. pt.128. s.19., in the interim, may order such surplus to be laid out on such security as the court deems fit, on interest; and direct such clauses to be inserted therein as to secure to the persons who would have been entitled to the profits of such manors, lands, &c., in case such sale, &c. had not been made, and the succeeding heirs of entail who came to the possession, the enjoyment of the interest, and preserve the capital until such money is so employed, 42 G.5. c.116. s.101.

136. Provided that if such surplus does not exceed 200*l.* stock, it shall be transferred to a trustee, to be named by the party redeeming the land-tax, to be applied as hereinbefore directed, but without such direction of the courts of chancery or session, id. s.102.

137. Where any manors, lands, &c. shall be sold or charged to redeem any land-tax, and the consideration for such redemption is stipulated to be paid in money, and the money produced by such sale, mortgage, or grant, shall not exceed 500*l.*, then the purchasers, or mortgagees of such manors, lands, &c. or the grantees of any rent-charge thereout, may pay the purchase or mortgage money to the receiver-general for the county, or collector for the shire where such manors, lands, &c. are situate, whose receipts shall be as effectual a discharge to such purchasers, mortgagees, or grantees, as the receipt of the cashier of the bank of Eng., in case the money was paid into the bank; and the bodies politic, &c. companies, or other persons, whose land-tax is redeemed therewith, shall be entitled to have the same discharges, and their estates shall be exonerated from such land-tax, in the same manner as if the money had been paid by them; and in case there shall be any surplus of such monies, after redeeming the land-tax, it shall be paid to a trustee, named by the bodies, companies, &c. redeeming the land-tax, in order to be applied as herein (pt.136.) directed, respecting any surplus stock, which does not exceed 200*l.* stock, id. s.103.

138. Where any money is raised under this act, for the purpose of reimbursing stock or money laid out in the redemption of land-tax, or of paying off any sums borrowed for that purpose, or of purchasing the assignment of any land-tax under this act, or the assignment of any contracts not completed, in order to complete the same; such monies shall not be paid into the bank of Eng., or to the receiver-general, or collector; but the same, or (in cases of purchasing an assignment of any contract, in order to complete the same, or in cases of sale) so much thereof as is requisite, shall, under the order of the commissioners, authorizing the sale, &c., be paid to the party entitled thereto, whose receipt shall be as good as that from the bank, or any receiver-general, or collector, in case the same had been paid to one or other of them; and the remainder of such money, under such order, shall be paid into the bank, or to the receiver-general, or collector, to the same account, and be applied in the same manner; and the cashier, &c. shall give a receipt for the same, as if the whole purchase or mortgage money had been paid into the bank, or to such receiver, &c., id. s.104.

139. Where any manors, lands, &c. shall be sold under this act, the vendors may agree with the vendees, that the purchase money be paid by instalments, provided they be paid into the bank as hereby directed, within the same period, and on the same days and times as is specified in the contract for the redemption of land-tax, together with interest, at the time of payment of each instalment, as herein directed to be paid, on the transfer of stock by instalments; provided such agreement and the days and times stipulated for the payment, and the amount of each instalment is inserted in the indenture of conveyance of such manors, lands, &c.; provided also, that after such conveyance is executed, no such body, company, or other person, or their successors, executors, &c. shall be subject to any penalty by this act imposed, in case of default in transfer of any instalments, according to the contract of redemption entered into by such body, company, &c.; nor shall such land-tax be revived, but all such penalties shall be borne by such vendors, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, and all the subsequent instalments shall be recovered as a debt to H. M., on record against them or their estates, goods, and effects, 42 G.5. c.116. s.105.

140. Where any manors, lands, &c. shall be sold by any bodies politic, &c. companies, or other persons, for the redemption of the land-tax, under a contract with the purchaser that the money be paid into bank of Eng., in not more than six equal instalments, at equal periods, and be completed within one year; then the treasury, after the first instalment is paid, may agree with the purchaser to advance to him so much money as is sufficient to complete such contract immediately, on such terms for securing the repayment of the money advanced, with lawful interest, as the treasury shall think reasonable, and as shall be agreed to by such purchaser; or otherwise the treasury may agree with any other bodies, companies, or other persons, for the advance unto the bank of Eng. by them on the behalf of such purchaser of such sum as they desire to be advanced for the purposes before mentioned, on such terms as such bodies, companies, &c. and such purchaser shall agree, id. s.106.

141. Every person for whom any such sum is advanced, for the purposes aforesaid, shall enter into security for the repayment of the same, with interest, by writing obligatory to H. M., in such sum as is directed by the treasury, or the party advancing the same, to be paid to H. M., by such form of words as obligations to H. M. usually are, and with such condition to be there under-written as between the treasury, or the parties advancing such money and the purchasers, shall be agreed on; and all obligations so to be made shall be good in law, and of the same quality as any obligations made to H. M. have heretofore been; but obligations to H. M. under this act shall not be liable to stamp duty, id. s.107.

142. If default is made by such purchaser, or his heirs or assigns, in repayment of the money so advanced, or the interest thereon, or any part thereof, at the times limited by the obligations for the payment thereof, the treasury, or the party advancing the same, shall, from time to time, issue a certificate to the proper officer of the crown having the management of proceedings on obligations to H. M., requiring him to proceed against the party making such default, or his heir, executors, and administrators, for the recovery of the sum then due, with interest and costs, the amount of which principal sums so to be levied the treasury or party advancing shall cause to be testified by note, under the hands of two of them, to such officer, and which sums shall be inserted in the process; and the like process shall from time to time issue as occasion requires, and the amount recovered (except costs) shall be paid into the bank, id. s.108.

143. In any proceeding under this act, no writs of scire facias shall be required to issue, but on production of such certificates as in s.108. before any baron of exchequer in Eng. or Scot. an extent may go in the first process on the fiat of such baron, without any affidavit or other verification of the cause except such certificates, id. s.109.

144. After the due payment of the sums advanced, with interest, every obligation entered into in pursuance of this act, shall be delivered up to be cancelled, and in case any obligation has been prosecuted, the treasury shall, by warrant, direct the proper officer of the respective courts of exchequer to enter up satisfaction on such obligation being so satisfied, on the record, or otherwise to deliver up the same to be cancelled, id. s.110.

145. Such process may issue on such obligations, against the manors, lands, &c. so purchased, and all others, and also the goods of such purchaser, his heirs, executors, &c., for the benefit of such parties, their heirs, successors, executors, administrators, or assigns, who, in pursuance of any agreement with the treasury, lend money to such purchasers, id. s.111.

146. All bodies, companies, and other persons making such sales or contracts for such sales, for the purpose of redeeming their land-tax, to whom such advance is made, shall, from the time of registry of contract for redemption, enjoy the land-tax contracted for in like manner as if they had themselves completed the contract by transfer of the whole consideration, id. s.112.

147. No auction duty shall be payable for any sales by auction of any manors, lands, &c. under this act, id. s.113.

148. All bodies, companies, and persons, having any mortgage, charge, lien, or incumbrance on any manors, lands, &c. which are mortgaged, or out of which any rent-charge is granted under this act, shall be entitled to all remedies, privileges, and advantages, as if this act was not passed; and the persons who have lent or shall lend money for the purposes of the recited acts, or this act, shall not have priority of security on such manors, lands, &c. by virtue of such acts, or this act, over any such prior mortgage, &c. in respect of the money so lent, but for interest only; provided all bodies, companies, or persons, having any prior mortgage, &c. on such manors, lands, &c. shall be entitled according to their respective priorities, to advance the money required for the redemption of such land-tax, in preference to all others, id. s.114.

149. No bodies, companies, or persons entitled in remainder, reversion, or expectancy to, or having any future interest in, any manors, lands, &c. so conveyed by way of mortgage, or whereout any rent-charge has been or shall be granted under this act, shall be liable, on coming into possession, or being beneficially entitled to the same, to the payment for more than one year's arrear of the interest on the sum secured by mortgage, or of such rent-charge, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 115.

150. Every person to whom any rent-charge is granted under this act, shall have the same powers for the recovery thereof as landlords have for the recovery of rents reserved on common demises or leases, id. s. 116.

151. Where any money arising by sale of manors, lands, &c. is not paid into bank, under this act, but invested in the 3 per cents. to be transferred to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, as the consideration for the redemption of the land-tax charged on any manors, lands, &c. belonging to any bodies, companies, or other persons by whom such first-mentioned manors, lands, &c. shall be sold, then one commissioner for the reduction of the national debt shall accept such transfer, and grant to any purchaser or his agent a certificate of the amount so transferred; and on the production of such certificate to any cashier of the bank of Eng. he shall give such receipt as hereby directed, as well for money so invested, as for money paid by him into the bank, in the manner required by this act, id. s. 117.

152. In all cases where the land-tax charged on any manors, lands, &c. belonging to any body politic or corporate, (other than bishops, or other ecclesiastical corporations,) or to any companies or other persons, and granted out on any beneficial lease, or by copy of court-roll, or other grant, according to the custom of any manor, for lives, years absolute or years determinable on lives, shall be redeemed by monies arising from the sale of the fee simple and inheritance of any part of such manors, lands, &c., then the part remaining unsold shall become chargeable for the benefit of such bodies, companies, &c. with such yearly sum as is equal in amount to the land-tax redeemed, to be applied in the same way as the yearly rents and profits of such manors, lands, &c. id. s. 118.

153. Every deed whereby any sale, mortgage, or grant, of any rent-charge so made under this act, in relation to estates in Eng. shall be enrolled, within 6 calendar months after its execution, in one of the courts of record at Westminster, or in the courts of the counties palatine of Chester, LANCASTER, or Durham, or courts of great sessions in Wux. as the case shall require, or be registered in the counties of Mid-~~l~~sex, or York, in the manner required by law for conveyances of real estates in those counties; and all deeds and conveyances in relation to estates in Scot. shall be executed and registered in the manner required by the Scotch law in respect of sales or charges of real estates; but where the consideration expressed in any such deed shall not exceed 20*l.*, the registry thereof with the officer appointed for the registry of contracts for the redemption of land-tax, shall be as valid as if registered, before directed, and such officer shall register the same gratis; and after payment of the purchase or mortgage money into the bank of Eng. or to the receiver-general, or his deputy in Eng. or to the collector in Scot. (in cases where the same may be paid to such parties,) in the manner before directed, and after such registry or enrolment, every such deed of sale, mortgage, or grant, made under this act shall be valid, id. s. 119.

154. All deeds required by 42 G. 3. c. 116., or any land-tax act, to be enrolled or registered, shall be valid, although not enrolled within the time therein limited, if done within 6 calendar months after the passing hereof, 43 G. 3. c. 51. s. 7., 45 G. 3. c. 77. s. 4., 46 G. 3. c. 135. s. 7., 49 G. 3. c. 67. s. 5., all Exp.] [twelve calendar months from the passing hereof, 50 G. 3. c. 58. s. 3., 50 G. 3. c. 80., 53 G. 3. c. 125. s. 15., 54 G. 3. c. 175. s. 11., 57 G. 3. c. 100. s. 24., all Exp.]

155. All conveyances made subsequent to any deeds already enrolled or registered, or to be so enrolled, under this act, or any former land-tax redemption act, and depending, in point of title, on such deeds, shall be of the same effect as if such deeds had been enrolled, &c. on the day of the date, nevertheless without prejudice to the validity of any assurance heretofore made to correct or supply defects arising from the want of such enrolment, 53 G. 3. c. 125. s. 41., 57 G. 3. c. 100. s. 24.

156. In case any such deeds be not so enrolled, or deeds hereafter to be executed be not enrolled within 6 calendar months after execution thereof, two commissioners for redemption and sale of land-tax may, on production of such deeds, order them to be enrolled; and such deeds shall be as valid as if enrolled within the time limited, 57 G. 3. c. 100. s. 24.

157. The proof of the due execution of any deed of sale, enfranchisement, mortgage, or grant, made under the recited acts, or this act, by the commissioners parties thereto, shall be allowed in all courts, and before all persons, to be good and sufficient evidence, that the several notices and other matters required by the recited acts or this act to be given and done by such vendors, mortgagors, or grantors, previously to such sale, &c. were given and done, id. s. 120.

158. Where any money is paid into the bank of Eng. to the account of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, as the purchase-money for any manors, lands, &c. sold by any bodies, companies, as in s. 86. pl. 114., and other persons, and it shall appear to the commissioners appointed under the great seal, in cases where such sales were made under their authority; and to the commissioners for taxes, in all other cases, that such money ought not to have been so paid, then 2 commissioners under the great seal, by writing, under their hands, or 3 commissioners for taxes, may order the bank to repay all such money to the party by whom or on whose account it was paid in; and in all cases where such money has been invested in the 3 per cents. in the names of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, then on certificate signed by 2 commissioners under the great seal, or 3 commissioners for taxes, that the money ought not to have been so invested, the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt shall transfer such stock to the party by whom or on whose account such money was paid into the bank, whose receipt for the same shall be good, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 121.

159. Contracts entered into before the passing of this act, for the sale, mortgage of, or charges out of manors, lands, &c. shall be valid to complete such sales under this act, id. s. 122.

160. Where any person having any estate or interest (other than an estate of inheritance) in any manors, lands, &c. shall redeem the land-tax charged thereon, out of his own absolute property, such manors, lands, &c. shall be charged for the benefit of such person, his executors, administrators, or assigns, with the amount of 3 per cent. transferred or money paid as the consideration for such redemption, as the case may be, and with the payment of a yearly sum equal to the land-tax redeemed; but no person, in remainder, reversion, or expectancy, having any future interest in such manors, lands, &c. who shall afterwards come into the actual possession, or be beneficially entitled to the rents and profits of any such manors, lands, &c., shall be liable to pay any such annual sum, save only from the time of their coming into possession, or being so beneficially entitled; but where the land-tax charged on any manors, lands, &c. is redeemed by any bodies politic, &c., companies, feelees or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, or other persons having any estate or interest in remainder, &c. therein, or being substitute heirs of entail intitled to succeed in their order, they shall, until their interests vest by the determination of the preceding estate, be entitled to have a yearly sum out of such manors, lands, &c. equal in amount to the land-tax so redeemed, id. s. 123.

161. Where any one or more persons seised in undivided shares of, or to any manors, lands, &c. as co-parceners, heirs, portioners, tenants in common, or joint tenants, shall not only redeem his or their own proportion of the land-tax charged thereon, but also the proportions of any others of such co-parceners, &c., whereby the whole of such manors, lands, &c. are exonerated from such land-tax, the shares of such co-parceners, &c. whose proportion of land-tax has been redeemed by the others of them, in such manors, lands, &c. shall become chargeable for the benefit of the person or persons redeeming the same, his or their executors, administrators, and assigns, with so much of the stock transferred, or money paid as the consideration for such redemption, as would have been enough to redeem their proportions, and also with the payment of an annual sum equal to such proportions, id. s. 121. [See s. 11 pl. 15.]

162. In all cases where any body politic, &c. company, or other person shall under this act be intitled to receive out of any manors, lands, &c. any yearly sum by way of interest, rent, or rent-charge, equal in amount to the land-tax redeemed, such yearly sum shall be payable on the same days as such land-tax was (unless where other days are appointed hereby) and shall be recoverable by action, suit, distress, or other means whereby rent reserved on leases may be recovered, id. s. 125.

163. Where any tenant or lessee at a rack rent for any term of years, or at will, of any manors, lands, &c. is bound by agreement to pay the land-tax charged thereon during any demise, and such land-tax is redeemed in behalf of the body, company, &c. beneficially entitled to the rent reserved on such demise, the amount of the land-tax so redeemed shall, during such demise, be considered as rent reserved or made payable thereon, and shall be payable on the same days, and recovered by the same means as such rent when in arrear, id. s. 126.

164. Where any bodies politic, companies, or other persons shall under the recited acts, have redeemed, or shall under this act redeem, any land-tax charged on any manors, lands, &c. which at the time of redemption is charged with or subject to the payment of any fee-farm, fee-duty, or other annual rent, for which such bodies, companies, &c. would, on payment of the land-tax, be entitled to deduct a just proportion of rate under 38 G. 3. c. 5., such bodies companies, &c. may continue to abate a just proportion from time to time, on payment of such fee-farm, &c. rent, as if the land-tax had not been redeemed, id. s. 127.

165. All guardians, tutors, and curators of infants, or trustees for married women, contracting for the redemption of land-tax, charged on any manors, lands, &c. wherein such infants and feme covert are interested, may transfer to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, so much of 3 per cent. stock which is standing in the names of such infants or feme covert, either solely or jointly, with such guardians, &c. as will redeem such land-tax; and the bank of Eng. shall permit such transfer to be made; and the cashier shall give a certificate and receipt for the same, which shall be a discharge to such guardians, &c. and the bank is hereby indemnified against all persons for any transfer under this act, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 128.

166. No contract entered into, after the passing of this act, for the redemption of any land-tax, nor the amount of land-tax redeemed thereby, shall be affected by the judgment of the commissioners, on any appeal from the assessment by which the tax was charged, whether such appeal was made before or after any proceedings to enter into such contract; but such appeal shall be decided wholly between such other parties charged by such assessment, as have not entered into any such contract, and in the same manner as if the contract so entered into had been completed before the making or determining such appeals; and every such contract shall be good, and the land-tax redeemed thereby shall be considered as if no such appeal had been made, id. s. 129.

167. If the land-tax so contracted for shall have been reduced in its amount by any assessment made within 3 years preceeding the completion of such contract, and any such appeal is made against the contractor for redemption, his heirs, or assigns, and it shall appear to the commissioners hearing such appeal, and be so adjudged by them, that the reduction in amount was fraudulently obtained by some undue practice, so as to prove that such reduction was wrongfully made, then, but not otherwise, the land-tax so contracted for may be revised and altered (in the same manner as if the contract were not completed) by any determination on any appeal, which shall be determined within one year after the completion of such contract, id. s. 150.

168. The surveyor-general of the land revenues of the crown in respect to the land-tax charged on the manors, lands, &c. rents, or other revenues of the crown within the survey and receipt of the exchequer, with consent of the treasury, the receiver-general of the revenues of the duchy of Lancaster, with the consent of the chancellor of such duchy, in respect to the land-tax charged on the manors, lands, rents, or other revenues of the crown within the survey and receipt of the chancellor, and council, and officers of such duchy, and the surveyor-general of the duchy of Cornwall, in respect to the land-tax charged on the manors, lands, rents, and other revenues of such duchy, may contract with the commissioners under this act, acting by warrant under the royal sign manual, for the redemption of such land-tax, and proceed therein as hereinbefore directed, in cases of redemption of any land-tax, subject to such benefit of preference hereby given to any bodies corporate, except where otherwise herein provided, id. s. 151.

169. H. M. may, by warrant under his sign manual, appoint such and so many persons as he thinks fit, to ascertain the proportion of the land-tax charged on all the manors, lands, &c. rents, or other revenues belonging to the crown, within survey and receipt of the exchequer in Eng.; and such commissioners shall certify in writing under their hands and seals to the treasury, such proportions, and the several parishes and places within which such manors, lands, &c. rents, or other revenues upon which the same is charged, and transmit a copy of such certificate to the surveyor-general of H. M.'s land revenue, id. s. 152.

170. The surveyor-general of the land revenues of the crown for the time being, may contract with any person, or body politic or corporate, for the sale, from time to time, of so much of the manors, lands, tenements, rents, tithes, mines, minerals, collieries, woods, wood-grounds, fens, marshes, waste lands, or other hereditaments belonging to the crown, and within the survey and receipt of the exchequer in Eng. for the best prices in money which such surveyor-general, under the approbation of the treasury, can procure, as will raise money enough to redeem the land-tax charged on the manors, lands, &c. rents, and other revenues of the crown; and the purchase-money shall be paid into the bank of Eng. to the account of the treasury, and the bank shall open an account under that title; and shall be laid out by order of such surveyor in the purchase of 3 per cent. consols. in the name of the treasury, in like manner as directed by 54 G. 3. c. 75.; but in such manner that the accounts may be kept separate, id. s. 153.

171. No such contract shall be made unless by special warrant of the treasury, id. s. 154.

172. The chancellor and council of the duchy of Lancaster, under the duchy seal, may appoint such and so many persons as they deem fit, to ascertain the proportion of the land-tax charged on all manors, lands, &c., rents, and other revenues belonging to the crown, within the survey and receipt of such duchy and its officers; and such last-mentioned commissioners shall certify and report in writing, under their hands and seals, unto such chancellor and council, the proportion of such land-tax, and the several parishes and places within which, and the manors, lands, &c., rents, &c. on which the same is charged, and transmit a copy of such certificate to such officer of such duchy, as such chancellor, &c. shall appoint, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 155.

173. Whenever such surveyor-general shall contract with any party for the sale of any manors, lands, &c. belonging to the crown, he shall grant to the purchasers a certificate, under his hand, specifying the premises so contracted for, and the amount of money to be paid for the same; and the cashier of the bank, on the production of such certificate, shall accept the purchase-money therein specified, and acknowledge the receipt of the same on the back of such certificate, without fee; and such certificate and receipt shall afterwards be enrolled in the office of auditor of the land revenue, or of the clerk of the pipe, if the premises are in charge before him; and such officers shall attest such enrolment under their hands, and return such certificate and receipt to the purchaser; and from and after such enrolment, the purchasers, their heirs or assigns, shall be deemed to be in actual possession of the premises so bought, and shall hold the same freed from all claims by H. M. or any person claiming under him, and from all incumbrances thereon, as fully as H. M. might have held the same, id. s. 156.

174. The treasury may order any expenses necessarily incurred for making surveys, of any manors, lands, &c. hereby authorized to be sold, or otherwise, in relation to the sale thereof, to be defrayed out of the purchase-money arising from such sales, id. s. 157.

175. Every contract made under this act for the sale of any part of the land revenues of the crown, within the survey and receipt of the exchequer shall be in the form hereto annexed, marked H., and when within the survey, &c. of the chancellor and council of the duchy of Lancaster, in the form marked G., and every certificate of sale of any the revenues of the duchy, of Cornwall in the form marked L., and the receipt for the consideration in the form marked K., id. s. 158.

176. The chancellor and council of the duchy of Lancaster may sell to any person or body politic, &c. from time to time, and thereupon grant and assure in the name of H. M. under the duchy seal, such and so much of the manors, lands, tenements, tithes, &c. as in s. 153. pl. 170. belonging to the crown, and within the survey and receipt of such duchy, and the officers of the same, at the best prices in money which such chancellor, &c. can get for the same, as will raise money sufficient to redeem the land-tax charged on the manors, lands, &c. rents, or other revenue, belonging to the crown, within the survey and receipt of such duchy, and its officers; and the purchase-money for the same shall be paid to the receiver-general of the revenues of such duchy, and acquittances and receipts given by him for the same, and the same shall be laid out and invested in like manner as by 19 G. 3. c. 45., or any other acts now in force, for the sale of any manors, lands, &c. within the survey, &c. of such duchy, id. s. 159.

177. The treasury, in respect of crown lands within the survey and receipt of the exchequer, and the chancellor and council of the duchy of Lancaster, by order in council, in respect of crown lands within their survey and receipt, may transfer to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, so much of the stock vested in their names, arising from sales made under 19 G. 3. c. 15., and 54 G. 3. c. 75., and this act, and other acts in force for the sale of any manors, lands, &c. within such surveys, &c., as may be necessary to redeem the land-tax, charged on any of the said manors, lands, &c. rents and other revenues of the crown; and in the interim, until such transfer is made, the proceeds of such part as is not applied to such redemption, shall be accounted for and applied in the same way as by such act directed, in respect of stock purchased under such acts, id. s. 160.

178. On the redemption by the transfer of stock as before-mentioned of any land-tax, charged on any manors, lands, &c. rents, &c. belonging to the crown, and the registry thereof, as herein directed, the manors, lands, &c. rents, &c. of the crown on which such tax has been charged, shall be wholly freed therefrom; and the amount thereof, during the continuance of any lease now in being, shall be considered as rent due to H. M., and be recovered as such, id. s. 161.

179. The Prince of Wales, as Duke of Cornwall, by warrant under his sign manual, may appoint persons to ascertain his proportion of land-tax in the duchy of Cornwall, to be reported to his council, and a copy sent to the surveyor general, id. s. 162. [QU. EXP. ?]

180. The surveyor general of the duchy of Cornwall may contract with any persons or bodies politic, &c. for the sale, from time to time, of such and so much of the manors, lands, tenements, tithes, &c. as in s. 153. pl. 170. belonging to and parcel of such duchy, for the best consideration that he can get for the same, as will raise a sum sufficient for the redemption of such land-tax charged on the manors, lands, &c., rents and other revenues belonging to such duchy; and the purchase-money for the same shall be paid into the bank of Eng. by the purchasers, to be there received by the cashiers, and accounted for and invested as after directed, id. s. 163.

181. No such contract shall be made, unless by special warrant from the council or commissioners of the revenues of H. R. H. or 3 of them, id. s. 164.

182. The bank of Eng. shall open an account in their books, under the title of "The Account of the Duchy of Cornwall," and carry to the credit of such account the several monies directed to be paid into the bank, on account of the purchase of any such manors, lands, &c. of such duchy; and whenever the surveyor-general of such duchy shall contract with any person or body, for the sale of any manors, lands, &c., rents, &c. of such duchy, he shall grant unto the purchaser a certificate under his hand, specifying the premises so contracted for, and the amount of purchase money to be paid for the same; and the cashier of the bank shall, on production of such certificate, accept the purchase money therein specified, and acknowledge the receipt thereof on the back of the certificate, without fee; and such certificate and receipt shall afterwards be brought to the office of the auditor of such duchy, and be forthwith there enrolled in proper books, kept apart from other business; and such auditor having enrolled such certificate and receipt, shall attest the same under his hand, and return it to the purchaser; and from and after such enrolment, the purchasers of any such manors, lands, tenements, rents, tythes, &c. as in s. 153. pl. 170., parcel of such duchy, and their heirs and assigns, shall be deemed to be in actual possession of the same, and enjoy the same peaceably and quietly, as amply as the duke might have enjoyed the same, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 145.

183. If any person, with whom such surveyor-general of the land revenue of the crown or of the duchy of Cornwall shall contract for the sale of any manors, lands, &c., rents or other revenues, hereby authorized to be sold, shall neglect to sue forth the certificate of such surveyor of his contract, or to pay into the bank the consideration therein specified, or to enrol such certificate and the cashier's receipt according to this act, for 10 days, to be computed from the day on which such contract was made, such contract shall be void, and the consideration money, if paid into the bank, shall be forfeited, unless such surveyor shall, on reasonable cause shewn him, order such certificate to be enrolled non pro tunc, which he may do, id. s. 146.

184. All money paid into the bank of Eng. under this act, on account of the duchy of Cornwall, shall be laid out by order of the council, or commissioners of the revenues of H. R. H. the prince of Wales, in the purchase of 3 per cents. in the name of the duke of Cornwall; in which name the bank shall permit transfers to be made of such stock, and each transfer to be accepted by the receiver-general of such duchy, for and in the name of duke of Cornwall, and such receiver-general shall accept the same accordingly; and all stock so purchased shall remain in the name of the duke of Cornwall, and not be transferable to any person except as herein-after described; and all dividends shall be paid to such receiver-general, and shall by force of this act be deemed part of the revenues of such duchy, and be answered, accounted for, and applied as such revenues now are, or would have been applied, in case the 48 G. 3. c. 60. and this act had not been made, id. s. 147.

185. The council and commissioners of the revenues of H. R. H. or 2 of them, shall, by warrant or power of attorney under their hands and seals of office, from time to time, transfer to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt so much capital stock vested in the name of the duke of Cornwall, arising from any sales made under this act, as may be necessary to redeem the land-tax charged on any of the manors, lands, &c. belonging to such duchy, id. s. 148.

186. On any such redemption as in s. 148., and on the registry thereof, as before directed, the manors, lands, &c. of such duchy, on which such land-tax has been charged, shall thenceforth, during any demise, be wholly freed of land-tax; and the amount of such land-tax shall, during such demise, be considered as rent, and be recoverable as such by H. R. H. the prince of Wales and duke of Cornwall, against any lessee or tenant, and by them against their under-lessees, &c., id. s. 149.

187. "Whereas lessees and tenants, holding lands, &c. within the survey and receipt of the exchequer, under demise from the crown, have redeemed land-tax charged thereon, and have transferred the consideration in like manner as if they had been entitled so to do:" now be it enacted, that the treasury, in all such cases, may cause to be transferred to such lessees, &c., their executors, &c., so much capital stock, which may be vested in the names of the treasury, arising by sales under this act, as is equivalent in amount to the stock which was so transferred by such lessees, &c.; and from and after such transfer, the contracts so entered into by such lessees, &c. shall be valid to entitle H. M. to the benefit of the land tax, from the quarter day next preceding the day of transfer of such stock in like manner, as if such contract had been entered into by the surveyor-general of the land revenues of the crown according to this act; and the person to whom such stock is transferred shall, by writing under his hand, either indorsed on the original contract, or in such other manner as such surveyor-general requires, acknowledge such transfer, and such acknowledgement shall be registered with the officer appointed for the registry of contracts for the redemption of land-tax, but the same shall not be liable to stamp duty; and such lessees, &c., or their executors, &c., to whom such stock is so transferred, shall receive the amount of such land-tax from the quarter day next preceding the transfer of the consideration by them up to the quarter day next preceding the transfer of the amount of such consideration made to such lessees, &c. or their executors, &c. under this act, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 150.

188. Where the whole of the land-tax charged on any county, stewartry, city, &c. or place, in respect of any manors, lands, &c. therein, shall not have been redeemed on or before the 24th June 1803, by the bodies, companies, or persons, having the benefit of preference under the recited acts or this act, but any part of it shall remain chargeable to H. M., the commissioners acting under this act under H. M.'s sign-manual for such county, &c. may contract with any other bodies, companies, or persons, for the sale of any land-tax so remaining unredeemed, or any part thereof, on the terms hereinafter contained; and all such rules, directions, &c. as are herein prescribed, with respect to the redemption of land-tax by any bodies, companies, &c. having such preference, shall be observed with respect to sales of land-tax, by virtue hereof, id. s. 151.

189. If the persons entitled to preference in redemption of land-tax shall have, prior to 24th June 1803, given notice that they do not intend to redeem it, the commissioners may contract with any other persons for the sale thereof, id. s. 152. [Exp.]

190. The consideration for the purchase of any such land-tax shall be so much capital stock in either of the 5 per cents. (as in s. 22. pl. 25. directed,) to be transferred as the consideration for the redemption of any land-tax, by persons having benefit of preference; or where the land-tax sold shall not exceed the annual sum of 25*l.*, then, either so much of such stock, or so much money (as in s. 22. pl. 25. directed) to be paid as the consideration for the redemption of any land-tax (in cases where the same is in money) according to the rules, tables, &c. contained in the schedule (L.) hereto annexed, and the price of stock to be ascertained, and transmitted to the receiver-general or collector (as in s. 24. pl. 27. directed,) in cases of redemption of land-tax; and the whole of such consideration shall be transferred or paid, either at once (and in such case within 3 months from the date of such contract) or by 4 instalments, at equal intervals within one year, and on such days as the party shall elect and stipulate in the contract, with power to the contractors to transfer, or pay the whole or part of the consideration in advance, in the manner by s. 25. pl. 50. directed, id. s. 153.

191. Every person desirous of purchasing the land-tax charged on any manors, lands, &c. shall make and produce to 2 commissioners of land-tax, acting for the hundred, division, &c. of the county, &c. if in Eng., or if in Scot. to the commissioners of supply of the county or stewartry, or chief magistrate of the city or burgh, within which the same is situated, a schedule in writing of the land-tax proposed to be purchased, and of the manors, lands, &c. whereon the same is charged; and such commissioners of land-tax and supply, or such chief magistrate, shall respectively ascertain the amount of land-tax to be redeemed, and the manors, lands, &c. whereon charged, and grant a certificate thereof, in the form hereto annexed, marked A., to the bodies, companies, or persons applying for the same, which certificate shall contain the description of such manors, lands, &c. distinguishing the parishes or places wherein the same are situated, and also the names of the proprietors and occupiers thereof; and where such manors, lands, &c. are separately assessed, shall distinguish the amount of each separate assessment of land-tax; and such bodies, companies, and persons shall produce such certificate to the commissioners under this act, acting under H. M.'s sign-manual; and where the land-tax proposed to be purchased shall not exceed 25*l.*, shall also give notice in writing to such commissioners, whether the consideration is to be in money or stock, and if in money whether the same is to be paid at once or by instalments, and also the day on which the same is to be paid; and such last-mentioned commissioners shall examine and amend, if necessary, such certificate, and cause notice to be fixed on the church doors of the parish or place where the manors, lands, &c. (the land-tax whereon is to be redeemed) are situated, of the offer made to purchase the same 16 days before the contract of sale is entered into, and if within that period no other offer to purchase such land-tax is made, exceeding the former one by 1*l.* per cent. on the amount of stock or money so offered, then such last-mentioned commissioners may contract with the bodies, companies, &c. making the first offer for the sale thereof; but if any such higher price is offered, then they must contract for the sale of such land-tax with the body, company, &c. making the higher offer, and such commissioners shall insert in the contract a description of the manors, lands, &c. and other particulars relative thereto, as hereinbefore required; and on the production of such contract at the bank, where the consideration is in stock, and on transfer to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt of the 3 per cents. to be transferred as the consideration for such purchase, or of such proportion thereof as has been agreed on, as the first instalment thereof not being less than 1-4th of the whole; and in cases where the consideration is in money, then, on production of such contract to the receiver-general of the county, &c. in Eng., or to the collector of the stewartry, &c. in Scot., where the manors, lands, &c. of which the land-tax is so purchased are situate, and on payment to them of the money agreed on, such bodies, companies, &c. shall be entitled to the like certificates and receipts from the cashier of the bank, and from the receiver-general or collector, as in s. 38. pl. 48. directed in like cases; and on the registry of such contract and also of the certificate of such commissioners of supply or chief magistrate, as by the act directed, the manors, lands, &c. the land-tax whereof is so purchased, shall be exonerated from such land-tax from the like periods, as in s. 38. directed in like cases; but the respective purchasers of such land-tax, and their heirs and assigns, shall be entitled, from the like period, to demand for their own use for ever, and shall be deemed, by virtue hereof, to be in the actual possession of an annual fee-farm rent, equal to the land-tax so purchased, free of all charges issuing out of such manors, lands, &c. on the same days as such land-tax was payable at the time of purchase, and such respective purchasers, their heirs, &c. shall have priority of security on such manors, lands, &c. in respect of such fee-farm rent, and shall have all benefits and remedies to recover the same, whether by action, suit, distress, or otherwise, as landlords have for their rent reserved on leases; but the sale of any such land-tax, and such exoneration of any manors, lands, &c. shall not affect H. M.'s right to any arrears thereof unpaid up to the time of such exoneration, or his right to recover the same, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 154.

192. If any proprietor or person, beneficially interested in any manors, lands, &c. which stand limited to the same uses, trusts, &c. and in the same order of limitation, and subject to the same charges, liens and incumbrances, the land-tax whereof has been purchased, is desirous that such land-tax, after the purchase thereof as fee-farm rent, shall be paid out of one particular part of such manors, lands, &c., and shall give notice in writing of such his desire to such commissioners acting under this act as last aforesaid, then such commissioners may order the whole of such fee-farm rent, whether consisting of one or several assessments of land-tax, be paid out of any one part, and what part of such manors, lands, &c.; and in such case from thenceforth such part only as is so appointed shall be exclusively subject thereto, and to the remedies for the recovery thereof, and the rest entirely discharged; provided that the annual value of such part as is so made exclusively liable shall be 3 times the amount of such fee-farm rent, and such part as is discharged therefrom shall be distinguished in the contract; and when the contract has been previously entered into, then in an indorsement thereon, or in a schedule annexed thereto, under the hands and seals of 2 of such commissioners, id. s. 155.

193. The certificate of the contract, for the purchase of any such land-tax, shall be in the form hereto annexed marked (D.), id. s. 156.

194. Every person, who shall become entitled to any fee-farm rent, by the purchase of any land-tax sold under this act, may bar any entail thereof which might have been barred by fine or recovery, by deed acknowledged by such person, and enrolled in any court of record at Westminster, or in the counties palatine of Chester, Lancaster, or Durham, or in the courts of great sessions in W. a., or registered in the office for registering deeds in the counties of York or Middlesex, as the case requires, id. s. 157.

195. Where the land-tax charged on any manors, lands, &c. which are or shall be leased or demised at rack rent, for any term of years, or from year to year, or at will, is purchased by any tenant or lessee thereof, who is not bound by any covenant or agreement to pay the land tax during the demise, such tenant, &c. during such demise may retain, out of the rent reserved thereon, the amount of land-tax purchased; and the payment or tender of the residue of such rent shall be as valid to discharge him, as the payment, &c. of the whole would have been, if the land-tax had not been purchased, id. s. 158.

196. All bodies politic, &c. companies, and feoffees, or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, notwithstanding the statutes of mortmain, and all persons hereby authorized to lay out personal trust property, in redemption of land-tax, may lay out the same under the same regulations, in the purchase of any land-tax sold under this act; and the amount as a fee-farm rent shall be settled and limited to the same uses and trusts, as the manors, lands, &c. of such bodies, companies, &c. or other person, the land-tax whereof might have been redeemed by such trust property under this act, shall stand limited; and where any personal trust-property is subject to any trust, to apply the same in the purchase of real-estate, to be settled to or for any particular uses, for the benefit of any bodies, companies, &c. or other persons, the same may be applied in the purchase of any land-tax to be sold under this act; which land-tax, when purchased, shall as a fee-farm rent, stand limited to such uses, and subject to such trusts, to and for which such real estate ought to have been according to the terms of such trust, id. s. 159.

197. Where any surplus stock, or money arising by any sale, mortgage, or grant made under this act, to redeem any land-tax, shall remain, after transferring or paying the consideration for such redemption, such surplus may be applied under the direction in s. 100. pl. 128. required in the purchase of any land-tax, as fee-farm rents under this act, and which shall be limited to the same trusts as the hereditaments so sold, mortgaged, or charged, stood limited, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 160. [see ante, s. 100. pl. 128—134.]

198. The governors of Queen Anne's bounty, and the trustees of any trust-property heretofore given by will, to be laid out in the purchase of lands, or impropriate tithes for the benefit of the poor clergy in Eng., may apply any money, or other funds, which they are by s. 44. pl. 55. allowed to apply in the redemption of any land-tax charged on any lands, tithes, &c. of any livings herein mentioned, in the purchase of any land to be sold under this act, for the purpose of augmenting any living they think proper, and such land-tax shall for ever, after the purchase thereof, be annexed to such living, and be issuing as a fee-farm rent out of the manors, lands, &c. whereon the same is charged at the time of purchase, or such of them as remains chargeable therewith under this act [see s. 155. pl. 192.] for the benefit of such livings, and be payable on the same days as such land-tax was; and the incumbents for the time being on such livings, shall enjoy the same powers, remedies, &c. for the recovery thereof, whether by action, suit, distress, or otherwise, as landlords have for rents reserved on leases; and every such purchase of land-tax for the benefit of such livings shall be deemed valid and equivalent to a purchase of lands or tithes for that purpose, notwithstanding the statutes of mortmain; and such governors may take any land-tax which has been so purchased as a fee-farm rent, and which shall be given or bequeathed to them by deed, will, or otherwise, for the purpose of augmenting any such livings, and apply the same accordingly; and the incumbents of such livings shall hold such land-tax, and all remedies for its recovery, as if it had been purchased by such governors, and annexed to such livings under this act, id. s. 161 [see s. 155. pl. 17., s. 44. pl. 55.]

199. Every gift or disposition of any land-tax, which has been or shall be redeemed under the revited acts or this act, made by any person entitled thereto by deed, will, or otherwise, for the augmentation of any living, shall be valid, and such land-tax shall be enjoyed by the incumbent of the livings augmented thereby, according to the tenor of such deed, &c. any statute of mortmain, or other law to the contrary notwithstanding, id. s. 162.

200. No greater fee shall be taken by any clerk to the commissioners of land-tax or supply, or chief magistrate of any city or borough, for any certificate of the amount of any land tax granted under this act, than 1s. for each sum so certified, id. s. 163.

201. Every contract entered into under this act for the redemption or purchase of any land-tax charged as aforesaid, shall, before the transfer or payment of the second instalment of stock, or money thereon, or within 5 calendar months from the time of making the transfer or payment of stock or money thereon, if the whole consideration is transferred or paid at once, be registered with the proper officer; which registers shall be made in books kept for that purpose, and such officer shall make out 3 duplicates on parchment under his hand and seal, of the amount of land-tax so redeemed or purchased and exonerated, distinguishing the places where assessed, and deliver one to the receiver-general for the county, &c. another to the commissioners of land-tax, acting for the division where the parish or place in which such land-tax was charged is situated, and the third to the king's remembrancer in the exchequer, when required, id. s. 164.

202. Every copy of the register of any contract made under this act, and registered according to the directions of s. 119. pl. 157. with the proper officer, which is signed by him, shall be allowed in all courts a sufficient evidence of such contract, id. s. 165.

203. If any person who shall contract for the redemption of any land-tax under this act, shall die before the transfer or payment of all instalments of the consideration contracted for, without having made any provision by will or otherwise, how the future instalments shall be paid, then such instalments shall be paid out of the assets of the person so dying as a debt to H. M. on record, and his executors or administrators, and the trustees, guardians, tutors, and curators, of any infant, minor, or other person entitled to the estate of the person so dying, shall be indemnified against such infant, &c. and all other persons for making good the instalments necessary to complete such contract; and if such executors, &c. shall not have assets for that purpose, they shall sell, assign, or dispose of such contract; provided that when the person so dying contracted for such land-tax under a benefit of preference by this act given, without having the absolute estate in the manors, lands, &c. whereon the same was charged, and the person next beneficially entitled in succession, reversion, remainder, or expectancy, and which shall become vested in possession by the determination of the preceding estate of the person so dying, or his guardian or tutor, in cases of infancy, or curator in cases of lunacy, shall be desirous to take an assignment of such contract, in order to complete it, the executors or administrator of the person dying may assign the same to them, whether they have assets or not; provided also, that such assignee shall be bound to complete such contract on the same terms, and by the same instalments, and at the same periods, and in the same manner, and have the same benefits as the contractor so dying had; and the respective courts of exchequer, or the commissioners of taxes, may in all such cases give the like relief, by enlarging the time for making good any future instalment, as they are authorized by s. 169. pl. 206. to do in cases of forfeiture through the default of the party, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 166.

204. If any person, after entering into any contract for the redemption of the land-tax, shall afterwards neglect to complete the same by the due transfer or payment of the consideration (whether by instalments or otherwise) agreed to be made thereon, then and immediately after such default so made, such contract shall become null and void, and the whole land-tax so contracted for shall revive, and become again chargeable on the manors, lands, &c. wherein it was charged prior to such contract, and be again assessed and collected, or again sold in the same manner as if such contract had not been entered into; and such defaulter shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding one-sixteenth part of the consideration agreed on; and where the consideration to be transferred shall be in the 3 per cents, and no part thereof has been transferred, such penalty shall be the value of such sixteenth part according to the average price of the 3 per cents. consols, on the day when the transfer of the consideration, or if the first instalment ought to have been made, or if the transfer book is shut, then according to the price of the 3 per cents. reduced on such day, id. s. 167.

205. Where any land-tax shall revive and become again chargeable on any manors, lands, &c. the commissioners of land-tax or supply acting in and for the division or place, county or stewartry, or chief magistrate of the city or borough within which such manors, lands, &c. are situate, or 3 of them, shall within 6 calendar months after the land-tax is so revived, deliver a duplicate in parchment under their hands and seals to the receiver-general for the county, &c. if in Eng., or to the receiver-general if in Scot., and transmit a like duplicate to the king's remembrancer's office if in Eng., and to the barons of exchequer if in Scot.; which duplicate shall specify the amount of the land-tax so revived, and the year in which and period from whence; and if it is revived from any period preceding the commencement of the year for which such duplicate is so made out, it shall specify the amount of the arrears up to the commencement of such year, distinguishing the amount of land-tax so revived from the amount of such arrears, id. s. 168.

206. Where any contract shall become forfeited, the courts of exchequer in Eng. and Scot., on application of the party who has incurred such penalty, or any other person prejudiced by such default, may by summary petition, stating the grounds of such application, enlarge the time for making good any subsequent instalments, and grant such relief to the parties on payment of such costs, and on such reasonable conditions as they think fit; provided, where the value of the penalty shall not exceed 50*l.*, the commissioners for taxes (with the approbation of the treasury) may enlarge the time for making good any such subsequent instalments, or grant such relief to the parties as they with such consent deem fit, id. s. 169.

207. Where any contract made under this act shall become void, and no prosecution for the penalty is brought, the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, and the receivers-general in Eng., and collectors in Scot. may, where any instalment or instalments have been transferred or paid on such contract, reserve to the use of the public such part of the consideration under such contract, as equals the penalty incurred, and on demand made thereof, shall transfer or pay the rest to the bodies, companies, or persons interested in such stock or money, their successors, executors, administrators, or assigns, id. s. 170.

208. Where any bodies, companies, or other persons have transferred, or shall hereafter transfer to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, on account of the redemption of the land-tax, any 3 per cents. which ought not to be transferred for that purpose, or have paid or shall pay into the bank of Eng. any money by way of interest, which ought not to have been paid them on certificate signed by 3 commissioners for taxes, that such 3 per cents. ought not to have been so transferred, or that such money ought not to have been so paid, one of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, or the bank, as the case requires, shall retransfer such 3 per cents. or repay out of any money in the hands of the bank on account of interest under this act, the said money to such bodies, companies, or other persons, on whose account the same were transferred and paid; and when it satisfactorily appears to the commissioners for taxes, that any money has been paid to any receiver-general, on account of the redemption of land-tax, or of interest, which ought not to have been so paid, then 3 of such last-mentioned commissioners may order such receiver-general to repay all such monies to the bodies, companies, or other persons entitled thereto, and their receipt shall be a good discharge for such 3 per cents. so retransferred, or monies so repaid, id. s. 171.

209. Where any 3 per cents. shall be transferable to any bodies, companies, or other persons under the direction of the commissioners re-ing under this act, by virtue of H. M.'s letters patent under the great seal, or the commissioners for taxes, or without such direction, in case where any contract is void, all such dividends, or arrears of dividends, shall be issued from the receipt of the exchequer, and be payable at the bank in respect of such 3 per cents., which shall be so retransferred as in s. 171. pl. 208., would have been payable thereon, in case the same 3 per cents. had not been transferred to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 172.

210. No contract for the redemption of any land-tax, nor any assignment thereof, nor any copy of the register thereof, nor any certificate or receipt given under the recited acts or this act, to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, nor any letter of attorney, authorizing any person to transfer any stock to such commissioners, or to accept any stock previously to and for the purpose of transferring the same to them, nor any affidavit made in pursuance of the recited acts or this act, shall be liable to any stamp duty, id. s. 173.

211. Where any respective collectors of cess or land-tax, appointed in the several shires, &c. in Scot., shall act under 39 G. 3. c. 40. have not entered into the bond by such act required, they shall, within 40 days after the passing hereof, or after their appointment, as the case may be, and before they shall receive any money to be paid as the consideration for the redemption of any land-tax under this act, enter into bond to 3 of the commissioners for the purposes of this act in such shires, &c., with such sufficient caution as the barons of the Scotch exchequer require, binding them and their sureties conjunctly and severally for their duty paying to the receiver-general for Scot. at Edinburgh, at such times after the receipt thereof as such barons shall direct, to be inserted in such bonds, all such money as is paid to them in pursuance of this act for the redemption of land-tax, under a penalty of 200*l.* sterling over the performance, and which bonds 3 of such commissioners shall take; and such commissioners shall forthwith cause such bonds to be delivered to the receiver-general at Edinburgh, or not being so delivered, shall cause them to be registered in the books of council and session, and extracts thereof delivered to such receiver at Edinburgh; and such bonds already entered into to be in force, id. s. 171.

212. In case the collector in any shire, &c. shall fail to enter into such bond within the period limited, such commissioner shall certify such failure to the barons of the Scotch court of exchequer, who shall, on receipt of such certificate, order that the consideration for the redemption of any land-tax in such shire, &c. where the same is in money, shall be paid to such receiver-general or his deputy at Edinburgh, or to some person in such shire, &c. appointed by him to receive the same; and after such order, all persons, bodies, and companies, who shall redeem any land-tax, the consideration whereof is in money, shall pay the same to such receiver, or such person as he shall appoint; and the certificate or receipt of such receiver or person (which they shall give) shall be as valid as the receipt of such collector is by the said act directed to be, in case such consideration was paid to him, id. s. 175.

213. Where any such collector does not duly pay over to such receiver-general, or his deputy, any such money within the time limited by his bond, after he has received it, such receiver shall present such bond, or an extract thereof, to one of the barons of the Scotch exchequer, with a petition stating the sum due, and praying a horning or other legal process of court, on such bond, &c. on oath, that the sum stated in the petition is due and not accounted for; and the baron to whom such petition is presented may order a horning or other legal process of court to issue, and which may be proceeded in by arrest, pouncing, denunciation, caption, imprisonment, and otherwise, for recovering from such collector and his sureties the sum due, and the penalty of 200*l.*; or the receiver-general or his deputy, on making oath to the sums due and unaccounted for, may recover the payment thereof, and of the penalty in the bond, by any process for recovering H. M.'s debts according to the course of the Scotch court of exchequer, id. s. 176.

214. So long as a duplicate of the land-tax charged on any parish or place, in respect of any manors, lands, &c. therein, shall, under 38 G. 3. c. 5. s. 14. [see LAND-TAX, pl. 21.] and this act be required to be delivered to any receiver-general in Eng., Wa., and Ber., such receiver shall, on receipt of the whole assessments of the county, &c. for which he is receiver, in case he has received such duplicates, and the same are returned into the king's remembrancer's office in the exchequer, pursuant to 38 G. 3. c. 5., allow and pay to the clerks of the commissioners of land-tax who delivered such duplicates, 1*d.* in the pound, as well on account of the land-tax redeemed in such parishes, &c., as on that which remains chargeable; provided the treasury may order such allowance to cease in any land-tax redeemed, when they think it necessary, id. s. 177.

215. No receiver-general of land-tax, his heirs, executors, or administrators, shall, in his account of the money to be raised under 38 G. 3. c. 5., in any year subsequent to 1801, be allowed to set insuper [see 38 G. 3. c. 5. s. 112. LAND-TAX, pl. 120.] any county, &c. in Eng., Wa., or Ber., for any of such monies which shall be in arrear, unless such account be passed in the exchequer within 2 years after the expiration of the year (each year beginning with 25th March) for which such monies shall be raised; but all such arrears shall be a debt on such receiver, and be answered by him and his securities, their executors and administrators, lands and goods, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 178.

216. The conditions of all bonds to H. M., which have been entered into by such receivers-general and their sureties, and now in force in regard to the receiving, accounting for, and paying the land-tax within the period in 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 72. specified, shall relate to the period specified in this act, id. s. 179.

217. The whole land-tax charged on any parish or place, shall (notwithstanding the discharge of any part thereof) continue to be inserted in the certificates of assessments to be signed by the commissioners of land-tax, so long as any part of land-tax payable in such parish, &c. shall remain payable in such parish, &c. either to H. M. or to the persons purchasing the land-tax under the recited acts, and who have declared an option in their contracts to be considered on the same footing as persons not interested; and all manors, lands, &c. not exonerated by the recited acts or this act, from land-tax, shall continue subject to a new assessment yearly by an equal rate, according to the annual value of such manors, lands, &c. not exceeding 4s. in the pound, which shall be raised, &c. as by 38 G. 5. c. 5. directed, as if the manors, lands, &c. so remaining payable formed an entire parish; provided that on the delivery of the certificates and precepts to the several collectors for the raising, levying, &c. the land-tax so remaining payable in such parish, such collectors shall be directed to return in their schedule to the receiver-general of the county, &c. the amount of land-tax so redeemed in such parish, and from the payment of which such parish is exonerated; provided that if any of such lands, &c. are in Scot., the same shall continue subject to a new yearly assessment, according to the rates and as by law established in that country, id. s. 180.

218. If any assessment of land-tax which shall continue to be charged under this act, shall be found to exceed 4s. in the pound on the annual value of the manors, lands, &c. wherein the same is charged, it shall be subject to abatement, as directed by 38 G. 3. c. 5. s. 84. pl. 92. id. s. 181.

219. After such abatement made, an assessment specifying the same shall be made, and the commissioners making it shall cause duplicates thereof to be returned to the receivers-general, the commissioners for taxes and offices of the king's remembrancers at Westminster and Edinburgh, as in other cases of assessments, id. s. 181.

220. Whenever any parish or place separately assessed to the land-tax, the whole of which has been redeemed or purchased, and all manors, lands, &c. therein exonerated under the recited acts or this act, from payment of land-tax, all assessments in such parish under this act shall cease, id. s. 182.

221. The treasury may direct any sums to be issued out of any of the public monies, for the payment of the allowances hereinafter directed, to the commissioners acting in execution of this act by warrant under the royal sign manual, and also for payment of any salaries to any secretaries, clerks, or others, acting in execution thereof, and for discharging such incidental expenses as shall attend the execution of this act in such manner as the treasury shall deem fit; provided such commissioners shall not have more than 5d. in the pound on land-tax sold, to be divided equally among them; and that an account of such expenses shall be laid before parliament; and that such expenses shall not be liable to account otherwise than before the treasury, id. s. 183.

222. Whenever any notice required to be given by this act cannot be delivered to the persons to whom such notice is directed, the party giving such notice may leave the same at the most usual abode of the person to whom the same is to be given in G. B.; or if beyond seas, then to be published in the London Gazette, id. s. 184.

223. The acceptance of any commission from H. M. under this act shall not vacate the seat of any member of parliament accepting the same; nor shall such acceptance impeach the election of any person returned to serve in parliament; provided the office of a commissioner for redemption or sale of land-tax shall not, by reason of any allowance, be deemed a place or employment of profit under H. M. notwithstanding the appointment shall be by warrant under the sign manual; but it shall be deemed a place under this act, and shall not impeach the claims of such commissioners to any other allowance under H. M., id. s. 185.

224. When any 3 per cents. shall be under this act transferred to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, the dividend payable thereon shall cease to be issued from the exchequer; and the money shall be deemed part of the growing produce of the consolidated fund of G. B., and applied under the direction of parliament, id. s. 186.

225. The duty by 38 G. 5. c. 60. made perpetual, shall be paid into receipt of the exchequer, and carried to the consolidated fund of G. B., id. s. 187.

226. Two commissioners for the reduction of the national debt may execute the matters and things herein required of them, id. s. 188.

227. All penalties and forfeitures to be sued for by the party grieved under this act, may be sued for by action of debt or on the case, in the courts of law of Eng. or Scot., holding plea of 40s.; wherein the plaintiff shall have full costs, as in other cases; and one moiety of all other forfeitures hereby imposed, when they exceed 50s., shall, if sued for within 6 calendar months from the time incurred go to H. M., and the other, with full costs of suit, to the person suing, and which shall be sued for in the courts of exchequer in Eng. for offences committed there, and in the like court in Scot. for offences committed there, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c., and only one imparlance shall be allowed; but the attorney-general in Eng. or H. M.'s advocate in Scot. in cases where it appears that such last-mentioned penalties were incurred without intention of fraud, may stay all further proceedings by entering a noli prosequi, or otherwise, as well with respect to the informer's share of the penalty, as that of H. M., 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 189.

228. In all cases where the amount or value of any penalties (other than to the parties grieved) incurred under this act shall not exceed 50s., 2 justices of the peace for the county or place wherein the party incurring such penalty shall reside, may hear and determine any matter subjecting such party to any such penalty; which justices shall, on information exhibited, summon the party and also the witnesses on either side, and examine into the fact, and on due proof thereof, made either by confession or by oath of one witness, give judgment for the penalty according to this act, and award their warrant under their hands and seals for levying the same on the goods of the offender, and cause them to be sold within 6 days if not redeemed, rendering overplus to the party; but when no goods can be found, they shall commit the offender to prison for 6 months, unless the penalty is sooner paid; and all persons aggrieved by the judgment of any such justices may (on giving security to the value of the penalty, together with such costs as shall be awarded in case the judgment is affirmed) appeal to the next quarter-sessions for the county or place, and the justices there shall summon and examine witnesses on oath, and finally determine the same; and in case such judgment is affirmed, the quarter-sessions may award the persons to pay the costs of such appeal as to them seems meet; provided, that if such quarter-sessions fall within 6 days after such conviction, the party may appeal to the next subsequent ones, id. s. 190.

229. All persons summoned as witnesses to give evidence before such justices touching any matters relative to this act, either on one side or the other, who shall neglect to appear at the time and place appointed, without some excuse, to be allowed by such justices, or appearing, shall refuse to be examined on oath and give evidence before such justices, shall forfeit 10s., to be levied and paid as by s. 190. directed, id. s. 191.

230. In default of prosecution within the time hereby limited [see s. 189. pl. 227.] no such penalty other than to the party grieved, shall be recoverable afterwards, except in the name of the attorney-general in Eng. and of H. M.'s advocate in Scot., in which case the whole penalty shall go to H. M.; and all penalties and forfeitures, and shares thereof, incurred as aforesaid belonging to H. M., shall be paid to such person as the commissioners of taxes shall appoint; and where the whole penalty, &c. belongs to H. M., such commissioners may cause such reward as they think fit, not exceeding one-half of the penalty so recovered, after deducting all charges and expenses of the recovery, to be paid thereout to any person who is entitled thereto as informer, id. s. 192.

231. If any person on examination on oath, or affirmation before any of the commissioners acting under this act by virtue of a warrant under the royal sign manual, or in any affidavit, deposition, or affirmation before any mayor, magistrate, or justice in G. B., or before any commissioners for taking affidavits from the courts at Westminster, relating to this act, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, or shall in such affidavit, &c. wilfully or corruptly swear or affirm any matter which is false or untrue, he shall on conviction undergo the pains by law inflicted on persons convicted of wilful or corrupt perjury, id. s. 193.

232. If any person shall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or cause, or procure to be forged, &c. or knowingly or wilfully act or assist in the forging, &c. any contract for the redemption or sale of any land-tax, or any assignment of such land tax, or of any such contract, or of any portion of land-tax therein comprised, or any certificate of the commissioners of land-tax or supply, or of any chief magistrate thereby authorized to make out such certificate, or of the surveyor-general of the land revenue of the crown or of the duchy of Cornwall, or any certificate or receipt of the cashier or cashiers of the bank of Eng., or any certificate or attested copy of any certificate hereby directed to be made out by the proper officer, or shall wilfully deliver or produce to persons acting under this act, or shall utter such forged, &c. contract, assignment, certificate, or receipt, knowing the same to be forged, &c. with intent to defraud H. M., or any body, company, or other person, and being thereof convicted, shall be guilty of felony, without benefit of clergy, and suffer death, id. s. 194.

233. Actions against any persons for any thing done under this act, shall be commenced within 6 months next after fact committed, and shall be laid in the county where the complaint arose, and not elsewhere, and the defendants therein may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and if the jury shall find for the defendant, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues after the defendant has appeared, or if on demurrer judgment is given against the plaintiff, the defendant shall have treble costs, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 195.

234. The several persons who are named commissioners of the land-tax, to execute 38 G. 3. c. 5. or this act in any county, riding, or place, and being also justices of peace for such county, &c. and not being commissioners under this act, appointed under the royal sign-manual, shall be commissioners for hearing appeals to be made under this act, for the division of the county, &c. within which they usually act as commissioners of land-tax, and justices of peace, id. s. 196.

235. Any persons aggrieved by the determination of the commissioners acting under this act by virtue of H. M.'s warrant under the royal sign manual in relation to any right or benefit of preference, or of redemption of any land-tax to be sold under this act, or in relation to the sale or mortgage of any messuages, lands, &c., or the grant of any rent-charge thereout for the purposes of this act with relation to the redemption or purchase of any land-tax for which no more than 500*l.* 3 per cent. stock would be transferred in the whole, if such land-tax was redeemed, may appeal to the commissioners of appeal appointed under this act at the next petty sessions held by them for the district wherein such land-tax or any part thereof is charged; and 2 of such commissioners shall determine such appeals at any petty sessions to be appointed by them, and on due consideration of the case, and on examination on oath or affirmation of the parties interested in such appeal, and all other persons willing to be examined touching the matters in dispute, which oath or affirmation 2 of such commissioners may administer, and on production on oath or affirmation of any deeds, conveyances, or instruments, or on the production of any affidavits, or depositions on oath or affirmation, to be made as in s. 7. pl. 9. directed as to such affidavits, &c. as may be produced to the said commissioners acting under this act, as last aforesaid, such commissioners of appeal may determine such appeal, and give such order therein as they deem expedient, which shall be final; and if such commissioners have any doubt touching the determination of such appeal, they may require the advice of a barrister of 5 years standing, and may award costs incurred in such appeal, together with the expence of obtaining of such advice, to be paid either to the party against whom such appeal is determined, or by both, in such proportions as they deem just; and in case of nonpayment of such sums so ordered for 21 days after such determination, such commissioners of appeal, or 2 of them, may issue their warrant to levy the same by distress and sale of the goods of the party ordered to pay, rendering the overplus to the owner after the charges of such distress and sale are deducted; provided that the stock which would be requisite to be transferred for the redemption or purchase of any land-tax about which such dispute may arise, would in the whole exceed 500*l.*, any person so aggrieved may apply to the court of chancery or exchequer in Eng., or to the courts of session or exchequer in Scot., by petition in a summary way, which courts may grant such relief, and make out such order therein, as to them seems meet, id. s. 197.

236. All sums which under the 39 G. 3. c. lxxxiii. for incorporating "The Globe Insurance Co.," and the charter to be granted in pursuance thereof, shall be laid out and invested in the purchase of land-tax, as by the said act provided shall be so laid out, &c.; and all contracts thereby directed to be entered into for the purchase of such land-tax, shall be so entered into according to this act, id. s. 198.

237. H. M., at his pleasure, may revoke the several commissions already granted, or to be granted under this act, to the several persons therein described, for the purpose of selling the land-tax in the several counties, shires, &c. of G. B., or any of such commissioners, and grant other commissions to any other persons for the purpose of selling the land-tax under this act; and the persons named in such new commissions (taking the oath hereby prescribed) shall have all the same powers in relation to the sale and redemption of the land-tax in G. B., or such parts of G. B. to which the new commission shall extend, as are given to the several persons already appointed, or to be appointed under the recited acts or this act, in relation to the redemption and sale of land-tax in the several counties, shires, &c. in and for which they may be appointed commissioners; and all such rules, &c. as herein prescribed in relation to the redemption and sale of land-tax, and the powers of raising money, or other powers requisite to complete the same, under the commissions already granted or to be granted to H. M. by warrant under the royal sign manual according to this act, shall be observed, &c. in relation to any redemption or sale of land-tax, and to any of the aforesaid powers which shall be exercised under such new commissions so far as they are applicable, id. s. 199.

238. Every person who shall tender his vote at the election of any knight of the shire or other member to serve in parliament within Eng. or Wa., in respect of any messuages, lands, &c., of the quality and value which would entitle him to vote at such election, the land-tax charged whereon has been redeemed or purchased, shall be entitled to vote at such election without being obliged to shew that such messuages, lands, &c. have been assessed to the land-tax, on proving to the returning officer on oath or otherwise that such land-tax hath at any time previous to such election been redeemed or purchased, and such messuages, lands, &c. exonerated therefrom under the recited acts for the redemption of the land-tax, or this act, the 19 G. 2. c. 28. and 20 G. 2. c. 17. [see PARLIAMENT, pl. 248. and pl. 157.] notwithstanding, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 200.

239. No dividends shall be issued at the bank of Eng. to any bodies politic or corporate, or companies, feoffees, or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, for any bank annuities purchased with any money arising from sale, mortgage or grant of any manors, lands, &c. belonging to them for the redemption of land-tax, unless, and until they shall have obtained and produced to the cashier a certificate under the hands of 2 of such commissioners under the great seal, certifying that it appears by the production of the contract, or by the affidavit of their agent, that such bodies, companies, &c. have redeemed or intended bona fide to redeem the land-tax charged on their manors, lands, &c. or such part of such land-tax as it had been proposed to redeem by any monies arising from the sale, &c. which by such commissioners or two of them had been authorized for that purpose, 45 G. 3. c. 77. s. 2.

240. The clerks to the commissioners of land-tax acting for the several hundreds, divisions, &c. in Eng., and the clerks to the commissioners of supply of the several counties, stewartries, cities, &c. in Scot., shall in all cases where no alteration has been made in the assessment of land-tax for the preceding year, within six days after the appeal against any such assessment has been determined, and where no appeal within six days after the expiration of the time limited for hearing appeals, transmit to the commissioners appointed by H. M.'s sign manual, to act in execution of 42 G. 3. c. 116. for the county, &c. a certificate signed by two of such commissioners of land-tax or supply, that no alteration has been made in the assessment of the land-tax of the preceding year, and such commissioners acting in execution of such act, shall not after 25th Mar. in each year, or before the receipt of such certificate, or of any copy of any altered assessment by such act required to be transmitted to them, contract to redeem any land-tax comprised in any such assessment, unless a certificate of the amount thereof, signed by 2 commissioners of land-tax or supply is produced on behalf of the party applying to redeem; and in case any such clerk shall neglect to transmit such certificates within the time limited, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be recovered as any other penalty under 42 G. 3. c. 116., may be, id. s. 5.

241. Where the whole of the land-tax shall be redeemed, the collectors of the assessed taxes shall, on any order to pay the rewards for apprehending deserters, pay the same out of any monies in their hands arising from the assessed taxes, in the same manner, and under the same regulation as when paid out of the land-tax; provided that the receiver-general of such taxes shall replace the money so paid out of the land-tax duties, in manner directed by the tax-office, and money so paid shall be allowed him in his accounts of such land-tax, 50 G. 3. c. 58. s. 4.

242. In every contract entered into after the passing of this act, and before 24th June 1818, according to the assessment of land-tax for 1817, for the redemption of any land-tax charged in any messuages or other buildings without any land held therewith, or with land consisting only of yards, not exceeding one-fourth of a statute acre, the consideration shall be calculated at 18 times the amount of land-tax redeemed, to be paid in one entire sum, and the contract shall be in the form marked C., 53 G. 3. c. 123. s. 5., 54 G. 3. c. 173. s. 5., 57 G. 3. c. 100. s. 10. [QU. EXP. ?]

243. But no contract shall be made for the redemption of the land-tax, on the terms of 18 years' purchase, unless affidavit be exhibited shewing the particulars of the premises, 57 G. 3. c. 100. s. 11.

244. Persons in actual possession or receiving rents immediately from tenants in actual possession of any tenements or hereditaments, the land-tax whereon does not exceed the annual sum of 10*l.*, may contract for the redemption of such land-tax at any time before 25th Mar. 1815, by payment of an annual sum in addition to amount of land-tax to be redeemed for 18 years, or until such sum will purchase 3 per cent. stock equal to land-tax and no more, and such contracts shall be a form in the schedule annexed, marked D. No. 1. and D. No. 2., 53 G. 3. c. 123. s. 6. [EXP.]

245. No contracts shall be made for redemption of land-tax on terms in s. 5. 6. contained, unless an affidavit in writing is exhibited to the commissioners for executing the contract, shewing in cases of contracts under s. 5., that the premises in question do not exceed the admeasurement required in such cases, and in cases under s. 6., that the party contracting is authorized so to do, id. s. 7. [EXP.]

246. The commissioners of taxes at the times when the assessed tax notices are circulated shall prepare, and the commissioners for land-tax or their clerks shall in every year deliver to every body, company, or person charged with land-tax, or on the premises so charged in G. B. proper notices specifying the modes and terms by which contracts for the redemption of land-tax may by this or any other land-tax act be entered into, together with a form to be filled up by the party desirous of redeeming, declaratory of his intention so to do, and the mode and terms he wishes to adopt, 33 G. 3. c. 123. s. 9.

247. The commissioners of land-tax for the division, &c. when in Eng., or their clerk and the surveyor of the district when in Scot., shall on request of any body, company, &c. entitled to redeem land-tax, or their agents, deliver to them certificates signed by such commissioners, or their clerk, or surveyor of the amount of land-tax proposed to be redeemed, containing the names of the owners and occupiers, description of the premises, and parish where situate, as it appears from the last assessment; and such party may declare his intention of redeeming, and the modes and terms thereof, by filling up and signing by themselves or agents, in the presence of such commissioners, their clerks, or surveyors, the forms annexed to the notices in s. 9. pl. 246. required to be circulated, id. s. 10.

248. Such commissioners, or their clerk, or surveyor, shall attest such signature, and forthwith transmit such declaration with a duplicate of the certificate of the amount of land-tax (to be signed by them, and annexed to such declaration) to the commissioners for executing 42 G. 3. c. 116. and this act, id. s. 11.

249. The commissioners under 42 G. 3. c. 116. on receipt of such declaration, and copy of such certificate, shall sign a certificate of contract with such party for the redemption of the land-tax therein mentioned, according to such form as is applicable to the mode and terms of redemption to which such declaration shall refer, which contract shall be binding on the body, company, &c. signing such declaration, their successors, heirs, or assigns, and all owners of lands, the land-tax whereon was intended to be redeemed, shall be charged to complete the same; and such last-mentioned commissioners shall, in all cases where an assessment is hereby required to be made for payment of the consideration, transmit an abstract of so much thereof, as is necessary to form such assessment according to the directions of this act to the commissioners of land-tax or supply, in whose division the land-tax contracted for is charged, which assessment shall be made according to the rules contained in the schedule to this act annexed, marked B, applicable to such contract; and where no such assessment is required, such commissioners under such acts and this act shall notify their consent to such contract to the contracting parties as soon as convenient, and transmit such abstract thereof, as may be necessary to ascertain the amount of stock to be transferred, or money paid previous to registry of such contract, id. s. 12.

250. All land-tax collectors in Eng. to whom any money shall be paid pursuant to this act, on account of the redemption of the land-tax by any additional assessment, shall pay over the same to the receivers-general for the county where such lands are situate, at the times when land-tax is paid; and such receivers shall keep distinct accounts of all money paid to them on account of land-tax, and of all other money received on account of the redemption or sale of land-tax, distinguishing the several schedules under which received and the date of entering into contract, and the collectors in Scot. shall do likewise, and pay the same to the receiver-general distinctly under such accounts; and such receivers general shall pay such money by them received for the redemption of land-tax, or the full amount to be paid on such contracts out of any public money in their hands for the completion of such contracts, or any instalments thereon, and as the commissioners of taxes direct, into the bank of Eng., where it shall be placed to the account of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt under distinct heads, as well with relation to the date of contract, as to the schedule of this act, according to which the contract was made, and the county wherein the tax was charged, entering the contracts made in each year, ending on 25th March yearly in separate books; and such last-mentioned commissioners shall invest such money in 3 per cent. bank annuities in their names, and cause it to be placed to the like accounts; provided that money so advanced by such receivers for the completion of such contract, or any instalment thereon shall be replaced out of the money paid for the redemption or sale of such land-tax, id. s. 13.

251. The dividends arising from stock transferred to, or purchased by the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, in pursuance of contracts entered into in the forms contained in the schedules marked (A.) and (B.), shall cease to be issued at the receipt of exchequer, or charged on the consolidated fund of G. B.; and those arising from such contracts, made in the forms marked (C.) and (D.), hereto annexed, or from dividends of stock before purchased on the same account, shall be paid into the bank to their account, under the same heads as the stock from whence they arose, id. s. 14.

252. Such last-mentioned commissioners shall invest all such dividends, so placed to their account, in the purchase of like bank annuities, to accumulate in the nature of compound interest, in aid of stock purchased by additional assessments, and for the benefit of the parties so contracting, until such annuities shall together yield a dividend exceeding the amount of land-tax redeemed by one-tenth; and dividends thereafter arising shall not be issued from the exchequer, or charged on the consolidated fund, 33 G. 3. c. 123. s. 15.

253. The cashiers of the bank, shall receive all money hereby directed to be paid into the bank; and their receipts shall be a full discharge to the person paying the same, id. s. 16.

254. The inspectors and surveyors of assessed taxes, may under the direction of the commissioners of taxes, inspect the several land-tax assessments, and those made under this act, and all contracts, books, and papers, relating to the redemption thereof, and may make copies of, or extracts from them; and the clerks of the commissioners of land-tax and supply, and the collectors in G. B. shall produce the same, and suffer such copies, &c. to be made; and every person obstructing such inspector or surveyor, or withholding such assessments, &c. shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered and levied as any other penalty under the land-tax redemption acts now in force may be, id. s. 17.

255. The collectors collecting such additional assessments, and paying over same to receiver-general, at times, in the schedule of this act specified, marked D. No. 2., shall be allowed out of any money in the hands of such receiver, (excepting money paid on such additional assessments), 3*d.* in the pound on the amount received by them, of monies arising from such additional assessment, to be paid on receiving the full sum contained in such additional assessments of each year, and which shall be allowed in the receivers account, id. s. 18.

256. The several receivers-general, and the clerks to the commissioners of land-tax, shall, on application by them to the commissioners of taxes, be severally allowed such sum annually, or otherwise as the commissioners of taxes with the concurrence of treasury deem reasonable; and the treasury may direct such sums so allowed to be paid out of money in the receiver general's hands, who shall be allowed the same in his account, id. s. 19.

257. The commissioners executing this act may contract for the redemption of land-tax, with any bodies, companies, &c. at any time after 25th March, until the assessment of the subsequent and then current year shall be signed, according to the assessment for the preceding year; provided that if it afterwards appears to such commissioners by the assessment for the current year that the land-tax charged upon the said manors, lands, &c. comprized in the certificate of any such contract for redemption is altered, such commissioners may amend or rescind such contract, and make a new one according to the modes or terms specified in the original contract, id. s. 20.

258. If the commissioners for executing such acts, or this act, or if at any time after such commissioners have contracted for redemption of any land-tax, and whether the whole consideration for such redemption is satisfied or not, there appears to them any error in the certificate of such contract, in the description of the premises or in the names of the parties contracting, either in the contract, or in any deed of sale, mortgage, or grant of tenements, or hereditaments, sold, &c. in pursuance of such acts, or this act, or in any entry, account, or memorial of the same, they may amend or rescind the same, and enter into a new one, for the redemption of the land-tax intended by the old one to be redeemed; and such commissioners may amend any indorsement on the certificate of contract, or where a new contract is made indorse on the certificate of it, a true copy of any receipt or certificate indorsed on the old one, by whomsoever given, for the consideration actually transferred or paid on the original contract; and may make such orders as they think proper for the transfer of stock, or payment of money, in addition to any stock or money that has been previously transferred or paid, or for the retransfer of stock, or repayment of any money in diminution of stock transferred or money paid, as is necessary to complete any instalment on such amended or new contract, as also for the amendment of any entry, account, or memorial as may be necessary in pursuance thereof; and the bank of Eng., or the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, and the several receivers and collectors to whom the same appertains shall, on certificate of such error, and of the corrections thereof, signed by 3 commissioners of taxes, amend the same accordingly, id. s. 21.

259. Every clerk to the commissioners of land-tax for Eng., or of supply for Scot., who shall neglect to deliver copies of assessment of land-tax to the parties hereby authorized to demand the same, or shall not permit the same to be taken by them, within 6 days after demand, or who shall neglect to enter the annual assessments of land-tax, on account of sums payable as the consideration for such redemption, or neglect to do any other thing required to be done by them, or such commissioners shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered as other penalties under 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 189. pl. 227. may be, and two commissioners of taxes may either suspend or wholly withhold from such clerks so offending the whole or part of his allowance, id. s. 22.

260. All sales and conveyances made by bodies politic or corporate, or feoffees, or trustees, for charitable or other public purposes, of any manors, lands, &c. to other bodies, &c. for the purpose of redeeming any land-tax shall be valid, and the manors or other hereditaments so sold, shall be held by the vendors, their successors, heirs, and assigns, in such manner as if such vendors were under no legal disability to purchase and hold the same, 53 G. 3. c. 123. s. 23.

261. Such bodies, companies, &c. as in s. 23. pl. 260. may for the purpose of raising money for the redemption of land-tax, but with the consent of the commissioners for executing 42 G. 3. c. 116., and this act, by virtue of H. M.'s letters patent, sell and convey to any other such bodies, companies, &c. (in the same manner and under the same regulations, as near as may be, as by 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 24. pl. 27. directed,) and any such manors, lands, &c. as they are authorized to sell under such act, id. s. 24.

262. Any such bodies, companies, &c. as in s. 23. pl. 260. who shall purchase any manors, lands, &c. under power in s. 24. contained, may apply any personal property which is, or hereafter may be, invested in the public funds, or any legacies, or voluntary donations, or any other trust-money, which by 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 159. pl. 196. they are authorized to lay out in redemption of land-tax, or any surplus stock, or money arising by any sale, mortgage, or grant by any such bodies, companies, &c. for redeeming their land-tax under such act, or any other subsequent land-tax redemption act, or this act, towards the purchase of any manors or other hereditaments that may be sold by any other bodies, companies, &c. under such power; but where such property is under the direction of any court, it shall be so applied by order of such court, signified on petition preferred in a summary way, id. s. 25.

263. In cases in which one living has been united to another, and the lands of one such living sold to redeem the land-tax on both, such sales shall be confirmed; and all such sales hereafter to be made for such purpose, shall be as valid as if made merely for redeeming the land-tax charged on the land of the living, the land belonging to which has been so sold, and as if such living had not been united to any other living; but in case any consolidated livings, the land-tax charged on which hath been or shall be so redeemed, shall at any time become disunited, and held by different incumbents, the incumbent of the living, the land whereof was sold to redeem the land-tax on both, shall be entitled to an annual rent-charge, issuing out of the other, equivalent to the land-tax charged on it, id. s. 26. [see 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 79. pl. 106.]

264. When the profits of any livings are under sequestration (whether there is any incumbent or not), or when any incumbent of any living is outlawed, the sequestrator, with consent of the college, cathedral church, bodies, companies or feoffees, or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, or other person having the patronage of such living, and if the ordinary, or such person with the consent of the ordinary, at any time during the continuance of such sequestration, or until outlawry is reversed, may contract for benefit of such living for the redemption of the land-tax charged on the lands, tithes and other profit thereof, by sale or mortgage of any glebe lands, tithes, &c. belonging thereto, or by grant of any rent-charge thereon, in the same manner as any incumbent of such living could under 42 G. 3. c. 116. in case there had been no such sequestration or outlawry, id. s. 27. [see pl. 96.]

265. Where any bodies politic, corporate or collegiate, or feoffees or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, or any other person who by 42 G. 3. c. 116. are authorized to redeem the land-tax charged on any living in their patronage, are entitled to an alternate right of patronage to any livings the land-tax on which is not redeemed by the incumbent, such body, company, &c. so entitled to alternate patronage, who shall first apply to the commissioners for executing this act, may contract for such redemption in the same manner as if entitled to the exclusive patronage, and may provide for such redemption by the sale of any lands, or by grant of any rent-charge thereout, as they could do under 42 G. 3. c. 116. for redemption of land-tax charged on the lands belonging to them, and the land-tax so redeemed shall be forthwith extinguished; but every such body, company, &c. by whom or on whose behalf such land-tax is so redeemed, their heirs and successors, shall be entitled to an annual rent-charge out of such living equal to the land-tax redeemed, unless it is declared in writing under the common seal, or seal of such bodies, companies, &c. or under the hands of such other persons, or their heirs, at the time of presenting any clerk to such living, that such rent-charge shall be suspended during his incumbency, which declaration such bodies, companies, &c. may make; provided that such suspension shall not prejudice the right of such bodies, companies, &c. or their heirs and successors to recover such rent charge at the next avoidance, and any such declaration made at time of redeeming such land-tax shall be as valid during the then incumbency as if made at time of presentation, id. s. 28.

266. In order to provide for the purchase of land-tax under the powers of 42 G. 3. c. 116. by any bodies politic, &c. or companies, or any feoffees or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, such bodies,

&c. may sell any lands, &c. belonging to them, or mortgage the same, or grant a rent-charge out of the same, or enfranchise any messuages, lands, &c. holden by copy of court roll, or otherwise, of any manor belonging to them, and may dispose of any heriots or fee-farm, chief or quit-rents, or other advantages issuing out of any freehold, copyhold or customary manors, or other hereditaments in the same manner and under the same regulations as such bodies, &c. may do under 42 G. 3. c. 116. for the like purpose, 53 G. 3. c. 123. s. 31.

267. In all cases where any tithes or other hereditaments have been sold by any body politic or corporate, or company, or any feoffees or trustees for charitable or other public purposes, the sales and conveyances thereof shall be valid, and the tithes, &c. therein comprised discharged of land-tax, notwithstanding that the tithes, &c. so sold were not rated to land-tax, or the land-tax thereon has not been previously redeemed or purchased; and all such tithes, &c. belonging to any livings comprised in any contract for redemption of the land-tax charged on the messuages, lands, &c. belonging to any such living, as at the time of the contract for redemption were not so rated, shall nevertheless be discharged from land-tax; and further all such messuages, lands, &c. belonging to the several livings or other such benefices or institutions which have been intended to be exonerated from land-tax under 46 G. 3. c. 133., 49 G. 3. c. 67. and 50 G. 3. c. 58., shall be exonerated, notwithstanding certain parts of the tithes, &c. belonging to such livings, benefices or institutions were not included in the assessment to the land-tax, id. s. 38.

268. All lay corporations aggregate, and all companies, feoffees or trustees for charitable or other public purposes shall, within three calendar months after passing hereof, transmit to the commissioners acting under 42 G. 3. c. 116. by letters patent under the great seal an account of the amount of land-tax not redeemed by or on their behalf, id. s. 41. [Exp.]

269. The schedules hereto annexed and rules therein contained shall be deemed part of this act, and applied and construed in execution of any land-tax redemption act as if enacted in such acts; and all the powers contained in 42 G. 3. c. 116., or in any land-tax redemption act, except where hereby repealed or altered, shall be applied to this act, id. s. 44.

270. [When the powers which by 42 G. 3. c. 116., or by any subsequent land-tax redemption act, or by this act, are vested in the commissioners to be appointed by letters patent under the great seal shall have ceased, or shall by any future act of parliament be determined, 53 G. 3. c. 123. s. 42.] the treasury, by direction of H. M. under the royal sign-manual, may allow the commissioners who acted, or shall act in execution of such powers by virtue of such letters patent, or to the executors, &c. of any who die, out of any public money applicable to the services of the year, such sum as H. M. thinks proper, 53 G. 3. c. 123. s. 42., 54 G. 3. c. 173. s. 10.

271. "Whereas for certain purposes for which lands and hereditaments are authorized to be sold under some land-tax redemption act, some sales have been made by persons seised or entitled beneficially in possession to the rents and profits of, but not having the absolute estate or interest in such lands, &c. or not strictly authorized by such acts," it is ENACTED, that all sales so made and conveyances executed of such lands, &c. provided the same have been done bona fide and for valuable consideration, and with the consent of the commissioners required by such acts, shall be and are hereby ratified and confirmed from the periods when made, and be as valid as if made in strict conformity with such acts, 54 G. 3. c. 173. s. 12.

272. Every person prejudiced by such confirmation shall have relief, either by a decree of a court of equity or a bill filed, or by summary application to such court by petition, and by the usual proceeding before the master, or other proper officer on such petition, and an order thereon; and shall, under such decree or order, have an annual rent-charge to such amount, and for such term, and charged on such lands, &c. as the court shall direct; and such court shall adjudge the proportion and terms of such rent-charge between different claimants, and direct the settlement thereof in such manner and make such order as to costs as such court thinks proper, id. s. 13.

273. Any receiver-general in G. B., may from time to time advance out of any public money in his hands, into the bank of Eng., to the joint account of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt and such receivers, such money as the commissioners of taxes think necessary for the purchase of 3 per cent. bank annuities, as the consideration for any land-tax contracted, and as such commissioners shall direct; and the cashier of the bank shall receive such sums, and place them to the proper account; out of such money so much as is necessary shall be applied towards the completion of such contracts, or any instalment thereon, according to the certificate of two commissioners of taxes; and so from time to time, when any such contract is entered into, or any contract heretofore entered into shall remain to be completed; and the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt shall, according to such certificate of the commissioners of taxes, cause such money to be invested in the purchase of such stock in the names of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, (except as hereinafter is excepted,) and placed under distinct heads as directed by 53 G. 3. c. 123. [see s. 14. pl. 251.] and this act; entering the contracts made in each year, ending on 25th Mar. yearly, under schedule marked (C.) contained in this act [no such schedule exists]; and the schedules marked (C.), (D. 1.), and (D. 2.), in the 53 G. 3. c. 123. in separate accounts, and distinct from other accounts authorized by the acts now in force: provided that sums so advanced shall be replaced by monies so contracted to be paid on account of the redemption or purchase of such land-tax, 54 G. 3. c. 173. s. 14.

274. All money paid in pursuance of any act now in force into the bank, for or on account of the redemption or purchase of the land-tax, and remaining there unapplied at the end of any year ending 25th Mar., shall be applied towards completion of any contract entered into in pursuance of such acts, according to the certificate of the commissioners of taxes, transmitted to the cashiers of the bank as agents for the commissioners for reducing the national debt, as if paid in expressly for those purposes; and the balance of each account shall be carried to the account of the subsequent year in the books of the bank, id. s. 15.

275. Whenever it is certified to the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, by two commissioners of taxes, that any money so paid into the bank will not be wanted for the purposes of this act, and ought to be repaid to any receivers-general, their executors, administrators or assigns, such commissioner for the reduction of the national debt, shall direct their agent to repay the same accordingly, id. s. 16.

276. Any affidavit authorized by any land-tax redemption act to be made, may henceforth be made before any commissioner for executing such acts, or before 2 commissioners of land-tax acting for the place where the land-tax to be redeemed or purchased is charged, id. s. 17.

277. Where any tenant or lessee at a rack rent for any term of years, or at will, of any lands, tythes or hereditaments, belonging to any ecclesiastical benefices or charitable institutions, exonerated from land-tax, shall be bound by agreement to pay the land-tax, the amount shall be considered as rent reserved, and be payable on the same days, and the same powers used for the recovery thereof, as rent in arrear, 57 G. 3. c. 100. s. 9.

278. Where any lands, the whole or part whereof shall be exclusively subject to any trusts, mortgages, liens or incumbrances, shall be proposed to be sold under the powers of the acts for redeeming land-tax, for the purpose of redeeming land-tax charged on hereditaments, which shall, with the exception of such trusts or incumbrances, stand settled to the same uses as the lands proposed to be sold, or for reimbursing any stock previously transferred for redeeming land-tax, the commissioners for redemption, if, in their judgment, the lands proposed to be sold shall in other respects be eligible, may direct the parties applying for the sale to make application to the court of chancery, if in Eng., or court of session, if in Scot.; and in such cases, such courts, upon application by petition in a summary way, may order that the lands proposed to be sold, shall be sold and conveyed, subject to such trusts or incumbrances; and the commissioners for redemption of land-tax shall carry such order into effect, id. s. 16.

279. Where the land-tax charged upon hereditaments, tythes, &c. belonging to any archi-episcopal or episcopal see, or to any rectory or vicarage, shall have been redeemed by any archbishop, bishop, rector or vicar, out of his private monies, and it shall happen that any stock is standing in name of the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, &c. on account of any such see, or rectory or vicarage, which shall have arisen from any sale, mortgage or grant, and not applied for the purposes for which such sale, &c. was made, the archbishop or bishop, or rector or vicar, under the authority of the commissioners appointed under the great seal, may treat with the archbishop, &c. who shall have so redeemed such land-tax, or with his executors, administrators or assigns, for the purchase of an assignment from them of the land-tax redeemed; and for the purpose of completing the purchase of such assignment, such last-mentioned commissioners or 2 of them, may order the consideration for such purchase to be paid or transferred by sale or transfer of a sufficient part of such stock; and the bank and such commissioner for the reduction of the national debt, &c., shall, on production of such order, signed by 2 of them, pay or transfer to such assignors such money or stock, and the receipts of such persons shall be sufficient discharges; and upon any such payment or transfer being made, as hereby directed, and on an assignment being made of such land-tax to such archbishop, &c. for the time being, (and which shall not be liable to stamp duty,) such land-tax shall become merged for the benefit of such see or living, the hereditaments of which were charged with such land-tax, id. s. 17.

280. In all cases wherein, by reason of any purchase of land-tax, the lands or hereditaments, the land-tax on which has been purchased, shall become charged with a yearly fee-farm rent, equal in amount to land-tax purchased, and any common, waste or other lands within the same parish or district shall hereafter be divided or inclosed under any act, the commissioners authorized to carry such acts into execution shall allot unto corporations, companies, or persons entitled to such fee-farm rents, and in lieu thereof, and to the like uses, such parts of the lands so to be divided or inclosed as commissioners shall deem an equivalent for such fee-farm rents, taking care that such allotments shall adjoin or be as contiguous as may be to any other allotments, if any, to the proprietors of such fee-farm rents, 57 G. 3. c. 100. s. 20.

281. All the powers contained in 41 G. 3. c. 109. (the inclosure act), shall, so far as applicable to the case, be exercised with respect to any allotment to be made in lieu of fee-farm rents under this act, id. s. 21.

282. On production to the commissioners for taxes, or two of them of any deeds of sale, mortgage, or grant that have been executed by any tenant for life, or other person having power under the land-tax redemption acts to make any such sale, &c. with the consent of 2 commissioners under the sign manual, but which deeds have not been executed by the commissioners whose consent was necessary to their validity, the commissioners of taxes, on being satisfied that such deeds would have been available if so executed, may sign and seal such deeds, and indorse thereon any thing that may be necessary to show their consent; and such deeds so signed, sealed, and indorsed, shall be valid from their dates, and as effectual as if signed and sealed by 2 commissioners under the sign-manual; and shall not require any stamp by reason of such confirmation, id. s. 22.

283. Where any contract has been entered into for the redemption of any land-tax, and for the sale of any lands, &c. for raising money to complete such redemption, and such contract for sale cannot under any land-tax act be completed by reason of defective titles, 2 commissioners for taxes may rescind and declare such contract for such redemption void, and make order for the re-transfer of any stock, or re-payment of any money previously advanced in pursuance of such rescinded contract; and the bank, the commissioners for the reduction of the national debt, and the receivers-general in Eng. and collectors in Scot. shall on certificate of such contract being rescinded, make such re-transfer or re-payment accordingly, id. s. 23.

284. All sales made, and all conveyances executed of lands or hereditaments sold for the purpose of redeeming or purchasing any land-tax, or for raising money for reimbursing the stock or money previously transferred or paid, as the consideration for redeeming land-tax, or purchasing assignments thereof, or for some other purpose for which lands, &c. were to be sold under the land-tax redemption acts, (provided such conveyances appear to have been executed under the authority of the commissioners authorized to consent to such sales made under such acts), shall be and are hereby confirmed from their dates, and be considered as conferring a good title on the purchasers, and all persons claiming through them, id. s. 25.

285. Every person who deems himself prejudiced by such sales hereby confirmed shall within 5 years after the passing of this act, or within 5 years after removal of any legal disability, if under any such disability, be entitled to relief by a decree in equity, on a bill filed, or by a summary application to a court of equity, by petition, and by the usual proceedings before the master on such petition and order thereon; and shall under such order or decree have an annual rent-charge to such amount, and for such term or estate, and charged on such lands, &c. as such court shall direct; and such court shall adjust the proportions and terms of such rent-charge between different claimants, and direct the settlement thereof, and make such order respecting costs as such court shall think fit, id. s. 26.

286. All the powers of any acts respecting redemption of land-tax shall be applied to this act, id. s. 27.

LEASES.

1. LESSEES SHALL ENJOY THEIR FARMS AGAINST TENANTS IN tail, 32 H. 8. c. 28. [See as to leases by ecclesiastics, 5 G. 3. c. 17. pl. 29. and 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 41. pl. 33. LEASES ECCLESIASTICAL.]

2. All leases of any manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments by writing indented under seal for a term of years, or for life, by any person of 21 years old, having any estate of inheritance either in fee-simple or fee-tail in their own right, or in right of their churches or wives, or jointly with their wives, of any estate of inheritance made before or after coverture, shall be good in law against the lessors, their wives, heirs, and successors, according to such estate as is specified in such indenture of lease, in like manner as if the lessor had been tenant in fee-simple, id. s. 1.

3. This act shall not extend to leases of manors, lands, &c. in the hands of any farmer under an old lease, unless the same expires or is surrendered within one year next after making of the new lease, nor to any grants made of any reversion of any manors, lands, &c.; nor to any lease of any manors, lands, &c. which have not most commonly been letten to farm, or occupied by the farmers thereof for 20 years next before such lease thereof made; nor to any lease made without impeachment for waste, or for above 21 years, or 3 lives from the date thereof; and on every such lease there shall be reserved yearly during the lease due to the lessors, their heirs and successors to whom such lands should come on the death of the lessors, (if such lease had not been made,) and to whom the reversion thereof appertains, according to their estates, the rent must usually be yielded for the manors, lands, &c. so letten for 20 years next before such lease; and every person to whom the reversion of such manors, lands, &c. so letten appertains after the death of the lessors or their heirs, shall have like remedy against the lessee thereof, their executors and assigns, as the lessors might. So that if the lessor were seised of any special estate tail of the same hereditaments at the time of such lease, that the issue or heir thereof shall have the reversion, rents, and services reserved in such lease as the lessor might have had, 32 H. 8. c. 28. s. 2.

4. Provided the wife shall be party to leases made by her husband of any manors, lands, &c. of her inheritance; and every such lease shall be made by indenture, in the name of the husband and wife, and sealed by her, and the rent shall be reserved to the husband and wife, and the heirs of the wife, according to her estate in the same; and the husband shall in no wise alien, discharge, grant, or give away the rent reserved longer than during the coverture, without it be by fine levied by husband and wife; but such rent shall, on the death of the husband, revert to the same heirs as if no lease had been made, id. s. 3.

5. This act shall not empower any person to take any mo farms, leases, or takings, of any manors, lands, &c. than he might have done before this act; nor give liberty to any person or vicar to make any lease or grant of any of their messuages, lands, &c. belonging to their churches or vicarages, otherwise than as before this act, id. s. 4. [But see as to leases by ecclesiastics, 5 G. 3. c. 17. ante pl. 1.]

6. No fine, feoffment, or other act done by the husband only, of any manors, lands, &c. being the inheritance or freehold of the wife during the coverture between them, shall make discontinuance thereof, or be prejudicial to such wife, or her heirs, or to such as have lawful right, title or interest to the same by the death of such wife; but such wife and her heirs, and such other to whom such right appertains on her death, may lawfully enter into such manors, lands, &c. according to their rights notwithstanding such fine, feoffment, or other act; fines levied by the husband and wife, whereunto the wife is party and privy only excepted, id. s. 6. [See 33 & 34 H. 8. c. 22, as to recoveries by women covert, LONDON (Recoveries).]

7. This act shall not give power to any wife, or her heirs, to avoid any lease made by herself and her husband of her inheritance for 21 years or under, whereupon as much yearly rent or more is reserved as hath been yielded for 20 years next before making of any such lease, id. s. 7.

8. TO ENABLE INFANTS, LUNATICS, AND FEMES COVERT TO SURRENDER LEASES in order to renew the same, 20 G. 2. c. 31. [See as to such parties accepting surrenders of old leases and granting new ones, 11 G. 3. c. 30. pl. 13; and as to granting leases in chief without surrender of the under leases, 4 G. 2. c. 28. s. 6. LANDLORD AND TENANT, pl. 52.]

9. Where any person under the age of 21, or any lunatic, or feme-covert, is interested in, or intitled to, any lease for lives or years, either absolute or determinable upon death, or otherwise, such person under age, or his guardian, or other person on his behalf, and such lunatic, or his guardian, or committee, or other person on his behalf, and such feme-covert or any person on her behalf, may apply to the court of chancery of G. B., the court of exchequer, the courts of equity of Chester, Lancaster, and Durham, or the courts of great session of Wales, by petition or motion in a summary way; and by the order of such courts made upon hearing all parties, such person so under age, and such lunatic or person appointed by such courts, and such feme-covert, by deed only, without levying any fine, shall be enabled to surrender such lease, and accept in the name and for the benefit of such person under age, lunatic, or feme-covert, new leases of the premises surrendered for such lives, or term determinable upon lives, or term absolute, as was mentioned in such lease so surrendered, at the making thereof or otherwise, as such courts shall direct, id. s. 1.

10. All money and other consideration paid or advanced by such guardian or person, as a fine for renewal of such lease, and all reasonable charges, shall be paid out of the effects of the infant or lunatic for whose benefit the lease is renewed, or shall be a charge upon the leasehold premises, with interest as such courts direct; and concerning leases to be made upon surrenders by femes covert, unless the fine and charges be otherwise paid or secured, the same with interest shall be a charge upon such leasehold premises, for the use of such person who advances the same, id. s. 2.

11. The leases so renewed shall be to the same uses, and liable to the same trusts, charges, incumbrances, dispositions, devises, and conditions, as the leases so surrendered were, id. s. 3.

12. Every such surrender, and lease granted thereupon, shall be as valid as if made by a person of full age, sane mind, or not married, id. s. 4.

13. TO ENABLE LUNATICS ENTITLED TO RENEW LEASES, their guardians and committees, to accept of surrenders of old leases, and grant new ones, 11 G. 3. c. 20.

14. Where any lunatic is entitled to or has a right to renew any leases to be made or granted for the life or lives of one or more persons, or for any term of years absolute or determinable on the death of one or more persons, or otherwise, such lunatic, or his guardian or committee of his estates in his or her name, may by the direction of the chancellor of G. B., signified by an order made on hearing all parties concerned, upon petition in a summary way, accept of a surrender of such lease; and make to any person or body politic, corporate, or collegiate, aggregate, or sole, a new lease of the premises comprised in the lease so surrendered under this act, for such number of lives or years, either determinable on lives, or absolute, as were mentioned in the lease so surrendered or otherwise, as such chancellor by any such order so obtained shall direct, id. s. 1.

15. All leases so to be made shall be deemed as good and valid in law, as if such lunatic at the time of making them, was of sane mind and had executed the same in his proper person, id. s. 2.

16. All fines, premiums, foregifts, and sums which may be had, received, or paid, for or on account of renewing any such lease, shall (after a deduction of the necessary incident expenses,) be paid to the guardian or committee of such lunatic for his benefit, in such manner as such chancellor shall direct; but on the death of such lunatic all such sums as shall arise by such fines, &c. or so much as remains unapplied for the benefit of such lunatic at his death shall, as between the representatives of the real and personal estates of all such lunatics, be considered as real estate, unless such lunatic shall be tenant for life only; and then it shall be considered as personal estate, id. s. 3.

23. All leases, gifts, grants, feoffments, conveyances, or estates, to be made, had, done, or suffered, by any masters and fellows of any college, dean and chapter of any cathedral or collegiate church, master or guardian of any hospital, parson, vicar, or other, having any spiritual or ecclesiastical living, of any house, lands, tithes, tencements, or other hereditaments, being parcel of the possessions of any such college, cathedral, &c., or other spiritual promotion, or any ways belonging to the same, or to any person, bodies politic or corporate (other than for 21 years, or 3 lives from the time the term was granted, whereupon the accustomed yearly rent or more shall be reserved during the said term) shall be utterly void, 13 El. c. 10. s. 3. [See as to conveyances by bishops, &c., 1 El. c. 19. s. 5. BISHOPS, pl. 59.]

24. By the words "master or guardian" of any hospital in 13 El. c. 10. s. 3. mentioned, were intended, all hospitals, maison Dieu, bead houses, and other houses ordered for the sustentation or relief of the poor, and so shall be expounded, 14 El. c. 14. s. 2.

25. The 13 El. c. 10. s. 3. shall not extend to any grant, assurance, or lease, of any houses belonging to any trustees and fellows of colleges, deans and chapters of cathedral or collegiate churches, masters or guardians of any hospitals, or parson, or vicar, or other, having any spiritual or ecclesiastical living, nor to any grounds appertaining to such houses, which houses be situate in any city, borough, town corporate, or market town, or the suburbs of the same; but all such houses may be demised, granted, and assured, as by law, and the statutes of such colleges, &c. they might have been before such act; so that such houses be not the capital or dwelling-houses used for the habitation of such persons, nor have ground appertaining above 10 acres, 14 El. c. 11. s. 17.

26. But no lease shall be made by force of this act, in reversion, nor without reserving the accustomed yearly rent, nor without charging the lessee with repairs, or for more than 40 years at most; nor shall any houses be aliened, unless in recompence thereof there shall be good and lawful assurance in fee-simple absolutely, to such colleges, &c. and their successors, of lands of as good and of as great yearly value as those aliened, id. s. 19.

27. This act [see pl. 25.] shall not extend to make good any lease or other grant to be made by any such college or collegiate church within the universities of Oxford or Cambridge, or elsewhere in Eng. for more years than are limited by their private statutes, 13 El. c. 10. s. 4.

28. This act shall not extend to any lease hereafter to be made on surrender of any lease heretofore made, or by reason of any covenant, &c. contained in such lease heretofore made, and now continuing, so that the lease to be made does not contain more than the residue of the years of the former lease, nor any less rent than reserved in the former lease, id. s. 5.

29. TO CONFIRM ALL LEASES ALREADY MADE BY ARCHBISHOPS and bishops, and other ecclesiastical persons, of tythes and other incorporeal hereditaments, for one, 2, or 3 lives, or 21 years, and to enable them to grant such leases, and to bring actions of debt for recovery of rents reserved, and in arrears on leases for life or lives, 5 G. 3. c. 17. [Public clause, s. 4.]

30. All leases for one, 2, or 3 lives, or any term not exceeding 21 years, which shall be hereafter made of any tythes, tolls, or other incorporeal hereditaments, solely and without any corporeal hereditaments, by any archbishop, bishop, master and fellows, or other head and members of colleges or halls, deans and chapters, precentors, prebendaries, masters and guardians of hospitals, and every other person who is enabled by the several statutes now in being, or any of them, to make any new lease for one, 2, or 3 lives or any term not exceeding 21 years, of any lands, tenements, or other corporeal hereditaments, shall be good in law against such archbishops, &c. so granting the same, and their successors or any of them, as any lease already made or to be made by any such archbishop, &c. and other persons having spiritual promotion of any lands, or other corporeal hereditaments, now are under 32 H. 8. c. 28. s. 1. (LEASES, pl. 2.) or any other statute now in force, id. s. 1.

31. But nothing herein shall enable any master and fellows, or other head and members of colleges, &c. or other ecclesiastical persons as aforesaid, to grant leases for any longer terms than by the local statutes of their several foundations they are now enabled to do, id. s. 2.

32. In case the rents or yearly sums reserved by any lease to be made by any archbishop, &c. and other person so enabled to make leases, as in s. 1. pl. 30. in pursuance of the several statutes already made, and this act, is behind for 28 days over the day wherein the same by the lease was payable, then such archbishop, &c. so making or granting such leases, or their executors, administrators, and successors, may bring an action of debt against the lessee to whom any such lease for life, lives, or years, is granted, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, for recovering the rent so in arrears, in such manner, and as fully as any landlord, or lessor, or other person could do, for recovering of arrears of rent due on any lease for life, lives, or years, by the laws now in force, id. s. 3.

33. TO EXPLAIN AND AMEND 32 H. 8. c. 28., 1 El. c. 19. s. 5., 13 El. c. 10., 14 El. c. 11. so far as respects leases granted by archbishops, bishops, masters, and fellows of colleges, deans, and chapters of cathedral or collegiate churches, masters and guardians of hospitals, and others having any spiritual or ecclesiastical living or promotion, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 41. [NOTE. See 32 H. 8. c. 28. s. 1. LEASES, pl. 1., 1 El. c. 19. s. 5. BISHOP, pl. 39. The 13 El. c. 10. ante, pl. 25, 27, 28., and 14 El. c. 11. is REP., 57 G. 3. c. 99. s. 1. (See SPIRITUAL PERSONS).]

34. Where any honours, castles, manors, messuages, lands, tythes, tenements, or other hereditaments, being parcel of the possessions of any archbishop, bishop, master and fellows, dean and chapter, master or guardians of any hospital, or other person, or body politic, &c. having any spiritual or ecclesiastical living or promotion, and having been anciently demised by one lease under one rent, or divers rents issuing out of the whole, shall be demised by several leases to one or several persons, under an apportioned or several rents, or where only part of such honours, &c. shall be demised by a separate lease or leases, under a less rent than was accustomedly reserved for the whole, and the residue still remains in possession of the lessor, the several and distinct rents so reserved on the separate demises of the several specific parts shall be deemed ancient rents within the meaning of 32 H. 8. c. 28., 1 El. c. 19., 13 El. c. 10., 14 El. c. 11., id. s. 1.

35. Proviso for demises made before this act (s. 2.) But where the manors, lands, &c. accustomedly demised by one lease, shall be demised in parts by several leases after the passing of this act, the aggregate amount of the several rents, which are reserved by such separate leases, shall not be less than the old accustomed rent theretofore reserved by such entire leases; and where a part only shall be demised by any such separate lease, and the residue remain in the possession of the lessor, the rent reserved by such separate lease, shall not be less in proportion to the fine received on granting such lease, than the rent accustomed to be reserved for the whole of such premises was in proportion to the fine received on granting the last entire lease, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 41. s. 3.

36. Provided no greater proportion of the accustomed rent be reserved by any separate lease hereby confirmed and allowed to be granted, than the part of the premises severally demised thereby will bear, and afford competent security for, id. s. 4.

37. Where any specific thing, incapable of division, shall have been reserved to the lessor, his heirs or successors, either by way of rent, or covenant or agreement, contained in any such entire lease, the same may be wholly reserved out of a competent part of such lands demised by any such several lease; and in case in any lease already granted, and hereby intended to be confirmed, any such provision appears to have been made for the delivery of any money, stipends, augmentations, or other things as aforesaid, the same shall be deemed lawful, if the lands and tenements charged therewith shall be of a greater annual value than the payment or other things so charged, exclusive of the rent or annual payment reserved to the lessor, id. s. 5.

38. Nothing herein shall confirm leases wherein no annual rent is reserved to the lessors, their successors or assigns, id. s. 6.

39. This act shall not authorize the reservation or payment of any rent or rents, on any such several lease made or to be made under this act, by any master, provost, president, warden, dean, governor, rector, or chief ruler of any college, cathedral, church, hall, or house of learning in Oxford or Cambridge, or by the warden, or other head officer of the colleges of Winchester and Eton, in any other manner or proportion than in 18 El. c. 6. (an act for the maintenance of Winchester and Eton colleges) required, id. s. 7.

40. Where any such accustomed entire leases have usually contained covenants on the part of the lessees, for payment or delivery, or have in any way subjected such lessees to the payment, &c. of any money, stipend, augmentation, or other thing, to or for the use of any vicar, curate, schoolmaster, or other person, other than and besides the lessor and his heirs and successors; all or any such leases as shall hereafter be granted of the same lands or tenements in severalty as aforesaid, shall provide for the future payment, &c. of such money, &c. by and out of any part of the lands, &c. accustomedly charged therewith, not being of less annual value than 3 times the amount of the payment so charged thereon, exclusive of the proportion of rent, or other annual payment reserved to the lessor, id. s. 8.

41. Nothing herein shall establish or confirm the claim of any vicar, &c. to any such sum, salary, stipend, or other thing as aforesaid, the payment or continuance whereof depends only on the will of the person or body politic or corporate, granting or renewing such leases, id. s. 9.

42. Where any person shall hold any such leases, as in this act mentioned, or shall hold the same, or any specific part of the lands thereby demised, in trust for any persons, bodies politic, or corporate, or shall have granted any under lease of any specific parts of their holdings, and be under covenant or engagement for renewal thereof; when, and as often as their own leases are renewed, such first mentioned persons may surrender their leases, in order that separate leases may be granted by the original lessors of such specific parts of the same premises as have been held in trust, or subject to such covenants, &c. for renewal to the respective under-lessees and cestuigue trusts, on reasonable terms, subject to an apportionment of the accustomed rents and other payments, according to this act; and every such surrender so made, and the new leases to be granted thereon, shall be good in law and equity, although such under-lessees, and cestuigue trusts, may be infants, issue unborn, femes covert, persons absent from the realm, or otherwise incapacitated to act for themselves; provided such new leases be for the benefit of those entitled to the benefit of the surrendered leases, and be so expressly declared in the body of such new leases, id. s. 10.

(STATUTES in force.)

1. AGAINST REGRATORS OF TANNED LEATHER, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 15. [This act was REF. by 1 M. S. 3. c. 8. s. 2. which was also repealed by 5 EL. c. 8. QU. is this act in force?] 2.

No person shall buy or engross any kind of tanned leather to the intent to sell the same again, upon pain to forfeit the same, or the price thereof, to go in moieties to H. M. and the party seizing or suing for the same in any court of record by action of debt, &c. or information, in which no essoin, &c. shall be allowed, id. s. 1.

3. Provided that all saddlers, girdlers, cordwainers, and all other artificers, such as make mauls, bougets, leather pots, tankards, bur-hides, or other wares of leather, may buy all such kind of tanned leather as they need, id. s. 2.

4. Provided that every girdler and other artificer before mentioned, may sell his necks, woules, and shreds of tanned leather, such as they cannot use about their wares, to any person, without incurring any penalty, id. s. 3.

5. Every person having H. M.'s special licence to transport over sea any kind of tanned leather, may buy for the furniture of their said licence in open fair or market, so much tanned leather as they are licensed to transport, so as such licence is shewn to the chief officer of the city, town, fair, or market, where such leather, or any part thereof is bought, who shall indorse on it the quantity bought, and the day, time, and place of buying the same, id. s. 4.

6. The transportation of boots, shoes, buskins, stirrups, or slippers, prohibited on pain to forfeit the same, id. s. 5. [Virtually REF. by 15 & 14 C. 2. c. 7. s. 6.] proviso in favour of H. M.'s subjects, carrying boots, buskins, or slippers to Calais, or the Isle of Man, id. s. 6. [REF. 5 EL. c. 8. as to Calais, and virtually by 15 & 14 C. 2. c. 7. s. 6.]

7. No saddler, girdler, cordwainer, nor other artificer, dwelling within the city of London, and the suburbs thereof, who shall cut such tanned leather to make it into wares, shall curry or dress the same in his own house, or by his servants, on pain to forfeit the same, to be recovered and applied as in s. 1., id. s. 7.

8. TO REPEAL PART OF 1 J. 1. c. 22. AND TO AVOID the selling of tanned leather by weight, 4 J. 1. c. 6. and recital in s. 1. [EXPLD. and AMD. by 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 53. (and recital in s. 1—2.): 12 G. 2. c. 25. (which has a PUBLIC clause, s. 9.): but QU. if not virtually REF. by the last act, which repeals 1 J. 1. c. 22. in toto?]

9. No person shall at any time incur any penalty for housing, selling, or buying of any tanned sheep skins, unsearched or unsealed, so as they be wrought in Eng., 4 J. 1. c. 6. s. 2.

10. No person shall utter or sell, or cause to be uttered or sold by weight, any kind of tanned leather soever, on pain to forfeit the leather so uttered and sold: the said leather, or the value thereof, to be recovered in any court of record by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. shall be allowed, to go one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party so suing, 4 J. 1. c. 6. s. 3.

11. Any person may sell or buy leather, hides, and skins by weight, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 33. s. 6.

12. Every hide, skin, or piece of tanned leather, shaved or liquored, of what colour soever, with any lawful liquoring or dressing, and being well and truly curried according to the direction of 1 J. 1. c. 22. shall be adjudged to be the made ware and manufacture of the currier, and subject to the view, search, and seizure of the master and warden of the mysteries of the cordwainers, curriers, girdlers, and saddlers of the city of London, as by that statute provided, and shall be liable to be seized, and to the same penalties as other wares insufficiently made of tanned leather, are by that act liable, id. s. 3.

13. This act shall not give power to the said master and wardens to visit, search, or seize any leather hide or skin, but such only as shall be curried or dressed within London, or 3 miles thereof, by one of their own company, nor in any other place but in open market: or in the shops, houses, or warehouses of such curriers, id. s. 4. [QU. are not ss. 3—4. in last and this pl. REF. by the repeal of 1 J. 1. c. 22. by 48 G. 3. c. 60.?] 14.

All leather sellers, curriers, shoemakers, and other persons that deal or work in leather, may freely buy all [sorts of red, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 33. s. 6. EXTD. by 12 G. 2. c. 25. s. 1. to] sorts of tanned leather in any open fair or market, whether curried or uncurried, the same being first searched and sealed according to the statutes made on that behalf, and may sell it again, [in the same pieces to the artificers who work up and convert the same into wares, 12 G. 2. c. 25. s. 1. or] to any other person, [to cut and convert into wares, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 33. s. 6.] 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 33. s. 6. 12 G. 2. c. 25. s. 1.

15. This statute shall not give liberty to any persons to make or cause to be made any boots, shoes, clogs, or slippers, or to sew close, or fit to the last, pieces of leather for making boots, &c. for sale, other than such as are legally entitled to exercise the trade of cordwainers, or such as be cobblers or translators, s. 2. Nor shall give right to any leather-seller, currier, shoemaker, or other person, to exercise their trades in any town corporate, or place, where by law they cannot now exercise the same, 12 G. 2. c. 25. s. 3.

16. If any currier refuses to curry any leather brought or sent to him for that purpose by any leather-sellers, shoemakers, or other persons whatsoever, who deal or work in leather, or shall neglect to curry the same within 16 days between 28th Sept. and 25th March following, and within 8 days in the remaining part of the year, after such leather is brought or sent and delivered to him or them; such currier, on conviction of either of such offences before one justice within the county, city, or place wherein the offence was committed, by oath of one or more witnesses, forfeit 5*l.*, to be recovered by distress and sale of the offender's goods, rendering overplus after deducting the expenses of distress and sale to the owner, to go in moieties to the informer, and the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, id. s. 4.

17. But such justice may mitigate such penalty according to his discretion, id. s. 5.

18. Every person aggrieved by the determination of such justice, may appeal to the next general quarter sessions for the county, city, town corporate, liberty, or place, whose determination shall be final, and no certiorari shall be allowed to remove any such proceedings as above directed, id. s. 6.

19. Nothing herein shall lessen, or take away any powers or privilege given to the said company of curriers by charter or grant, so far as the mayor can use them in the city of London, or liberties thereof, id. s. 8.

20. FOR PREVENTING FRAUDS AND ABUSES FROM BEING COMMITTED by persons employed in the leather manufacture, 13 G. 2. c. 8. ss. 1—11. [see rest of this statute, MANUFACTURES.]

21. If any person hired or employed in any cutting, paring, or other manufacturing soever, of gloves, breeches, leather skins, boots, shoes, slippers, wares, or other materials used in any of those trades, or any branch thereof, shall fraudulently purloin, embezzle, secrete, sell, pawn, or exchange any gloves, breeches, boots, shoes, slippers, or wares, when manufactured, or do, or permit any other act, whereby to lessen the value of such gloves, &c. either before or after making them into wares, and is thereof lawfully convicted on the oath or affirmation of the master or owner of such goods, or wares, or any other credible witness or witnesses, or by confession of the parties charged before one or more justices of the county, division, &c. or place, where such offence shall be committed, or where the parties so charged shall reside, such justice shall award the offender to make a suitable recompence for every offence to the parties injured for the damage by them sustained, so as the same do not exceed double the value of the gloves, or materials by such offender so purloined, &c. one half thereof to go to the party grieved, and the other half to the use of the poor of the parish or place where such offence was committed, with full costs of conviction, to be levied under such justice's warrant by distress and sale of the offender's goods, rendering the overplus to the owner; but if the offender have not goods sufficient to answer for levying the penalties and costs, and neglects immediately to pay the same, the offender shall, by like warrant of such justice be committed to the house of correction, or other public prison of such county or place, to be kept to hard labour for 14 days, and be there likewise whipped as the justice shall direct, and in case of a second or subsequent offence, the offender being convicted as above, shall forfeit 4 times the value of the damages which the owner of such materials either before or after making the same up into wares, shall sustain thereby, together with the costs of prosecution adjudged reasonable by the justice before whom such offender shall be convicted; and in case immediate payment of the respective forfeitures, with costs of prosecution, is refused to be made, such justice may commit the offender to the house of correction, or other public prison, to be kept to hard labour for not more than 3 nor less than one month, and during the time of his commitment shall cause him to be whipped at the market-place of the market town, where such offender shall be committed once or oftener, as seems reasonable to the justice, 13 G. 2. c. 8. s. 4.

22. Every person who shall knowingly buy, or receive, accept, or take by way of pawn, pledge, or sale, or in any other manner, from any offender as in s. 4., or from any other person soever, except from the person in whom the property of such gloves, &c. or materials shall be at the time of such sale, pawn, or exchange, or who shall offer so to do, shall for every offence, being convicted thereof as above, make such suitable satisfaction within 2 days after the fact determined by any one or more justices as above on hearing the same, or else be liable to such distress, and for want of sufficient distress, to the like punishment as hereby directed to be inflicted on such person as shall purloin, &c. gloves, &c. as in s. 4., and so for every subsequent offence, id. s. 5.

23. All payments hereafter to be made to any such workman, &c. for any work in the above leather manufactures, shall be in lawful coin of the realm, [or note or notes of the bank of Eng., or of any duly licensed banker, where the workman consents to take the same, but not otherwise, 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1. MANUFACTURES.] and not by any virtuals or goods, &c. soever in lieu; except at his request only; and all goods and materials delivered out to be wrought up in such manufacture shall be delivered with a declaration, at the same time, of the true weight, quantity, or sale thereof, on penalty [to the workman, REPEALED, 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 2. tit. MANUFACTURES] of double the value of what shall be due for such work to such workman; and if the latter is guilty of any fraud or default in the work by him undertaken, he shall answer to the owner thereof double the damages thereby sustained, id. s. 6. [See form of conviction for payment of wages otherwise than above, 58 G. 3. c. 51. Sched. A. tit. MANUFACTURES.]

24. All wages, demands, frauds, neglects, &c. of workmen in the leather manufacture as above, may be heard by any justices of the county, &c. division, or place, where the controversy shall arise, who shall summon and examine witnesses on oath or affirmation concerning the same, id. s. 7.

25. Every person who shall be first employed in making up any gloves, breeches, boots, shoes, slippers, or other wares as aforesaid, for any one master, and shall neglect the performance thereof, either by procuring or permitting himself to be subsequently employed by any other master, before completing the work in which he was originally employed, and which was first delivered to him or them, shall on conviction, on oath of one or more credible witnesses before one or more justices of peace, be sent to the house of correction for not exceeding one month's hard labour, id. s. 8.

26. Every person aggrieved by any judgment or order of such 2 justices, may appeal from it to the next quarter sessions for the same county, &c. or place, giving 8 days' notice of appeal to the respondent, and the next quarter sessions shall summon and examine witnesses on oath or affirmation, and finally determine the matter of such appeal, and shall award the costs of the appeal to be paid by either party, as to them seems meet, for treble costs in cases of appeals against convictions relating to wages decided against appellant, see 1 G. 4. c. 93. s. 3. tit. MANUFACTURES.] No such order shall be quashed for want of form only, id. s. 9.

27. No person shall by virtue of this act suffer the punishments herein directed twice for the same offence, id. s. 10.

28. The provisions of 1 A. S. 2. c. 18. and this act, are extended to Scot., and no warrant of distress issued by any justice under either act shall be sisted or suspended except by appeal to the quarter sessions, as in s. 9. pl. 27., id. s. 11.

29. EVERY TANNER, TAWER, OR DRESSER OF HIDES OR SKINS before bringing any raw hide or skin of any bull, ox, cow, calf, steer, or heifer into his tan-yard, warehouse, or place for dressing skins, shall give notice to the excise officer of the district, and shall produce him a certificate under the hand and seal of one or more justices of peace, or commissioners of land-tax, specifying the colour of the hide or skin, the name and abode of the owner, and that it appeared to him on examination on oath of one or more credible persons, that the beast from which the hide was taken was free from any infection, which certificate shall by the said officer be entered in a book kept there for the purpose: and any tanner, &c. who shall bring such raw hide or skin into his tan-yard, or pits, &c. or other place used for dressing skins, or who shall tan, &c. such skin without such notice and certificate, shall forfeit 10*l.*, to be applied and recoverable as in 19 G. 2. c. 5., 22 G. 2. c. 46. s. 24.

30. Any excise officer acting for the district in which such tan-yard, &c. is situate, by day or night, (and if at night, in presence of a constable, or other lawful officer of the peace,) may on his request enter such tan-yards, &c. and search any part thereof for such concealed skins, and any tanner obstructing him therein shall forfeit 10*l.*, to be recovered and as above, id. s. 25.

31. No CURRIER OR OTHER PERSON, NOT BEING AN ENTERED tanner, shall use sumack in or about the currying of any hide or skin, or in the preparation or dressing of any leather, except only for closing the same, on pain to forfeit 100*l.* for every such offence, 56 G. 3. c. 110. s. 5.

32. NO PERSON USING THE TRADE OF BUSINESS OF TANNING leather by himself or other persons, shall during the time he shall use such trade, use or occupy, or carry on the trade or business of a shoemaker, currier, leather-cutter, or other artificer, exercising the cutting or working of leather, on pain of forfeiting every such hide or skin so by him wrought or tanned during such time, or the value thereof, to any person suing for the same by action of debt, or on the case, or information, &c. in any court of record at H Westminster, wherein no esoin, &c., to go in moieties to H. M. and the party so suing, 48 G. 3. c. 60. s. 7. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 8. [NOTE.—By 48 G. 3. c. 60. ss. 1—6. the 1 J. 1. c. 22., 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 7. s. 4. ss. 15—14., 9 A. c. 11. s. 10., 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 19. s. 2. are repealed.]

LIBEL.

1. TO REMOVE DOUBTS RESPECTING THE FUNCTIONS OF JURIES in cases of libel, 32 G. 3. c. 60. [commonly called Mr. Fox's Libel Act.]

2. On every trial of an indictment or information for making or publishing a libel, where an issue or issues are joined between H. M. and the defendant, on plea of not guilty, the jury sworn to try the issue may give a general verdict of "guilty," or "not guilty," on the whole matter put in issue on such indictment, &c. and shall not be directed by the court or judge to find defendant guilty, merely on proof of publication by him of the paper charged to be a libel, and of the sense ascribed thereto in such indictment, &c. id. s. 1.

3. On every such trial, the court or judge before whom such indictment, &c. shall be tried, shall, at their discretion, give their or his opinion and directions to the jury on the matter in issue between H. M. and the defendant, in like manner as in other criminal cases, id. s. 2.

4. But nothing herein shall prevent the jury from finding a special verdict in their discretion, as in other criminal cases, id. s. 3.

5. In case the jury find the defendant guilty, the latter may move in arrest of judgment on such ground, and in such manner as he might by law have done before passing this act, id. s. 4.

6. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL PREVENTION AND PUNISHMENT OF blasphemous and seditious libels, 60 G. 3. & 1 G. 4. c. 8.

7. In every case in which any verdict or judgment by default shall be had against any person tending to bring into hatred and contempt the person of H. M., his heirs, or successors, or the regent, or the government and constitution of the U. K. as by law established, or either house of parliament, or to excite H. M.'s subjects to attempt the alteration of any matter in church or state as by law established, otherwise than by lawful means, the judge or court before whom, or in which such verdicts shall have been given, or the court in which such judgment by default, shall be had, may make order for seizure, and carrying away, and detaining in safe custody as directed in such order, all copies of the libel being in possession of the defendant or other person named in the order for his use, evidence on oath having been previously given to satisfaction of such court or judge that such copy or copies are in possession of such other person to the use of defendant, in either of which cases, any justice, constable, or peace officer acting under such order, or person acting in aid of such justice, &c. may search for any such copies in any house, building, or other place soever belonging to the defendant, or other person so named, in whose possession any such copies belonging to defendant are, and in case admission is refused or not obtained within a reasonable time after first demanded, may enter such house by force by day, &c. and carry away the copies there found, and detain same in safe custody till restored under this act, or disposed of according to further order made therein, id. s. 1.

8. If judgment is arrested or reversed after entry on writ of error, a copies so seized shall be forthwith returned free of expence, and without payment of fees, and where final judgment is entered on the verdict so found against the defendant, all copies so seized shall be disposed of as the court directs, 60 G. 3. & 1 G. c. 8. s. 2..

9. In Scot. in every case where any person is found guilty before the court of justiciary, of composing, printing, or publishing any blasphemous or seditious libel, or where sentence of fugitation has been pronounced against any person in consequence of non-appearance to answer to any indictment charging them with having composed, &c. the same, the court may make order for seizing and detaining in safe custody all copies thereof in possession of defendant, or of any other person named in such order for his use, evidence on oath being previously given to satisfaction of such court or judge, that a copy or copies of such libel are in possession of such other person for use of defendant; and every order so made shall be carried into effect in such and the same manner, as any order made by the court, or circuit court of justiciary, according to the law and practice of Scot.; provided that in event of any person being reponed against such sentence of fugitation, and thereafter acquitted, all copies so seized shall be forthwith returned to the persons from whom they have been so taken, and in all other cases shall be disposed of as the court directs, id. s. 3.

10. Every person legally convicted of having after 30th Dec. 1819, composed, printed, or published any blasphemous or seditious libel as aforesaid, and shall after such conviction offend a second time, and is thereof legally convicted before any commission of oyer and terminer, or gaol delivery, or in K.B. such person may, on such second conviction, be adjudged at discretion of the court, either to suffer such punishment as may now by law be inflicted in cases of high misdemeanor, or to be banished from the U.K. and all other parts of H.M.'s dominions, for term of years as the court shall order, id. s. 4.

11. In case any person so sentenced and ordered to be banished as above shall not depart from U.K. within 30 days after pronouncing such sentence and order as aforesaid for the purpose of going into such banishment as above, H.M. may convey such person to such parts out of H.M.'s dominions as H.M. by and with advice of his privy council shall direct, id. s. 5.

12. If any offender so ordered by such court to be banished as above shall, after 40 days from the time such sentence and order have been pronounced, be at large within any part of the U.K., or any other part of H.M.'s dominions, without some lawful cause before expiration of the term for which he has been so ordered to be banished, he being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be transported to such place as is appointed by H.M. for not exceeding 14 years; and such offender may be tried either before any justices of assize, oyer and terminer, great sessions or gaol delivery for the county, &c. or place where he is taken, or where sentenced to banishment; and the clerks of assize and peace, or other officer of the court having custody of the records where such order of banishment is made, shall, when thereunto required on H.M.'s behalf, give a certificate in writing signed by him containing the effect and substance only (omitting the formal part) of every indictment and conviction of such offender, and of the order for his banishment to the justices of assize, &c. where such offender is indicted, for which 6s. 8d., and no more, shall be paid, which certificate shall be sufficient proof of the conviction and order for banishment of such offender, id. s. 6.

13. The clerks of assize and of peace, or other officer of the court having custody of the records where any offenders have been convicted of having composed, printed or published any blasphemous or seditious libel, shall, on request of the prosecutor on H.M.'s behalf, make out and give a certificate in writing signed by him containing the substance only (omitting the formal part) of every indictment and conviction of such offender to the justices of assize, &c. as in pl. 12., where such offender is indicted for any second offence of composing, &c. any such libel; for which certificate 6s. 8d., and no more, shall be paid, and which shall be sufficient proof of the conviction of such offender, id. s. 7.

14. Any action brought against any justice of the peace, constable, peace officer or other person within Eng. or Ire. for any thing done in pursuance hereof, shall be commenced within 6 calendar months after the fact, and not after, and the venue shall be laid in the proper county only; the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and special matter in evidence at any trial thereon, and if such action is brought after the time limited, or the venue laid in any other place than above, the jury shall find a verdict for defendant on the merits, or if plaintiff becomes nonsuit or discontinues after appearance, or if on demurrer judgment is given against plaintiff, defendant shall have double costs, id. s. 8.

15. Every action brought against any person in Scot. for any thing done in pursuance hereof, shall be commenced within 6 calendar months in the court of session, and defender may plead that the matter complained of was done in pursuance of this act, giving it and the special matter in evidence; and if such action is brought after the time limited for bringing it, it shall be dismissed, and in such case, or if defender is assailed, or the pursuer shall suffer the action to fall asleep, or a decision is pronounced against the pursuer on the relevancy, defender shall have double costs, 60 G. 3. & 1 G. 4. c. 8. s. 9.

16. Nothing herein shall, in any respect, alter the law or practice of Scot. regarding the punishment of persons convicted of composing, printing, publishing or circulating any blasphemous and seditious libel, id. s. 10.

LIBERTIES AND RIGHTS.

1. A CONFIRMATION OF LIBERTIES, 9 H. 3. M.C. c. 1., 14 E. 3. S. 1. c. 1., 2 H. 4. c. 1.

2. First we have granted to God, and by this our present charter have confirmed for us and our heirs for ever, that the church of Eng. shall be free, and shall have all her whole rights and liberties inviolable; we have granted also, and given to all the freemen of our realm for us and our heirs for ever, all the liberties underwritten [viz. contained in Magna Charta and Carta de Foresta], to have and to hold to them and their heirs of us and our heirs for ever, 9 H. 3. M.C. c. 1.

3. Holy church shall have her liberties in quietness without interruption or disturbance, and magna charta and the charter of the forest be holden in all points; and the city of London, and all other cities and boroughs of Eng. shall have all their ancient reasonable franchises and customs, 14 E. 3. S. 1. c. 1.

4. Holy church shall have her rights and liberties, and all the lords spiritual and temporal, and all cities, boroughs and towns enfranchised, shall enjoy all the liberties which they have duly used, and all the lieges may, in safe protection of H.M., go and come to his courts, and full right and justice shall be done as well to poor as rich in those courts, 2 H. 4. c. 1.

And by CHARTERS

----------	----------	----------	----------

6. NO FREEMAN SHALL BE TAKEN OR IMPRISONED, or disseised of his freehold, or his liberties or free customs, or be outlawed or exiled, or in any otherwise destroyed, nor will we pass upon nor condemn him [so, see 2 Inst. 46. and 16 C. 1. c. 10. s. 1.], unless by lawful judgment of his peers or by the law of the land; to no one will we sell or deny or delay right or justice, 9 H. 3. M.C. c. 29. [AMP. and ENFORCED 5 E. 3. c. 9., 25 E. 3. S. 5. c. 4., 28 E. 3. c. 5., 42 E. 3. c. 3.]

7. NO MAN SHALL, FROM HENCEFORTH, BE ATTACHED by any accusation, nor forejudged of life or limb, nor his lands, tenements, goods or chattels seized into H.M.'s hands, but according to magna carta and the law of the land, 5 E. 3. c. 9.

8. NONE SHALL BE TAKEN BY PETITION OR SUGGESTION made to H.M. or his council, unless by indictment of lawful people of the neighbourhood, or by process by original writ at common law; and none shall be put out of his franchises or freehold, unless he be duly brought to answer and forejudged thereof by course of law, 25 E.3. St. 5. c. 4.

9. No man shall be put out of land or tenement, nor taken, imprisoned, disinherited, nor put to death, without being brought in answer by due process of law, 28 E.3. c. 3.

10. NO MAN SHALL BE PUT TO ANSWER without presentment before justices, or matter of record of due process or writ original, according to the ancient law of the land, and any thing done to the contrary shall be void in law and held for error, 42 E.3. c. 3.

11. H. M. OR HIS HEIRS SHALL HAVE NO tallage or aid without consent of parliament, 34 E.1. (St. 4.) c. 1. De tallagio non concedendo.

12. All archbishops and bishops of Eng. having read this charter in their cathedral churches shall publicly excommunicate, and in every parish church of their dioceses cause to be excommunicated, twice a-year, the breakers of this charter, id. c. 6.

13. CONCERNING TRESPASSERS IN PARKS AND PONDS, it is not yet discussed; for the lords demanded the proper imprisonment of such as they should take therein, which H. M. denied, and therefore it was deferred, 21 H.3. c. 11.

14. Magna Carta AND THE Carta de Foresta, shall be sent under H. M.'s seal to all his justices, sheriffs, officers and cities through the realm, to be published there, 25 E.1. c. 1.

15. JUDGMENTS GIVEN CONTRARY TO SUCH CHARTERS are void, id. c. 2.

16. THESE CHARTERS SHALL BE SENT UNDER H. M.'s SEAL to cathedral churches, and there read before the people twice a year, id. c. 3.

17. THE ARCHBISHOP AND BISHOPS SHALL PRONOUNCE SENTENCE of the great excommunication against all those who by word, deed, aid, or council, break 25 E.1. c. 4. or do contrary to the above charters, and such sentences shall by them be twice a year denounced and published; and if the bishops are negligent in making the above denunciation, they shall be so distrained and compelled by the archbishops of Canterbury and York, to make it in form aforesaid, id. c. 4. [Excommunication now abolished, see page 168. pl. 33.]

18. COMMISSIONERS SHALL BE CHOSEN BY THE COMMONALTY of the counties to inquire of offences done contrary to these charters, 28 E.1. St. 3. c. 1. Art. sup. Cart.

19. HOW AIDS GRANTED TO H. M. SHALL BE TAXED, 1 E.3. St. 2. c. 6.

20. "Because the people have felt great grievance that when they granted an aid to H. M. of their goods, and certain were assigned to tax them who levied and accounted for and paid the money in exchequer, yet certain justices have been afterwards assigned to inquire of their doings, who have taken ransoms and fines of the taxers and others under their commissions," H. M. wills, that henceforth they be taxed after the old manner, and not otherwise, id. ibid.

21. CITIES, BOROUGH, AND FRANCHISED TOWNS shall enjoy their franchises, usages, and free customs, 1 E.3. St. 2. c. 9.

22. IT SHALL NOT BE COMMANDED BY THE GREAT OR LITTLE SEAL to disturb or delay common right, and though such commands come, the justices shall not cease to do right, 2 E.3. c. 8.

23. "Whereas, before this time, if a man demanded by petition in parliament certain lands and tenements being in H. M.'s hands, to which petition it was answered in parliament, chancery, or K. B. that H. M. will, that a writ be sued to the treasurer and chamberlains of exchequer, to search charters, muniments, and other remembrances, whereby he might be advised to make answer: to which writs the latter have commonly answered, that they have searched; and would not answer that they have fully searched and nothing found, nor that they could no more find but what they have sent, whereby the demandant hath not had cause to put those who were for H. M. to answer to his great delay;" it is assented, that after the four writs of search are returned, whether the muniment or remembrance be found for H. M. or not, then in parliament, chancery, K. B. or C. P., they who are for H. M. shall answer and defend the lands so demanded against H. M., so always that the 4 writs be delivered to the treasurer and the chamberlains 40 days before the day of the return, and no point of this statute shall be delayed by commandment under the great or privy seal, nor shall justice be delayed thereby, 14 E.3. St. 1. c. 14. [and see last pl.]

24. THE SUBSIDY [on wool and leather, 14 E.3. St. 1. c. 21., and of the 9th sheaf, fleece, and lamb for 2 years, and of the 9th of all the goods of the citizens and burgesses, and the 15th of those of foreign merchants, and other which live not of gain or of store of sheep, 14 E.3. St. 2.] granted to H. M. shall not be drawn into example, nor shall the prelates, earls, barons and commons, citizens, burgesses, and merchants, be charged to make any aid except by common assent of the great men and commons in parliament, 14 E.3. St. 2. c. 1.

25. THE REALM OF Eng. shall not be put in subjection of H. M., his heirs, or successors, as kings of France, id. c. 5.

26. THE FRANCHISES GRANTED BY H. M. to holy church, the peers of the land, to London, and other cities and boroughs, to the cinque ports, and commons of the land, and all their franchises and free customs shall be maintained; and writs demanded to have allowance of charters, and franchises, and charters of pardons of debts, and other things granted by H. M. and his progenitors, shall be freely granted, without disturbance, before all justices, or other ministers where allowance is needed, and they shall be made quiet at exchequer and elsewhere, 15 E.3. St. 1. c. 1.

27. NONE SHALL HEREAFTER BE COMPELLED TO MAKE loans to H. M. because they are against reason and the franchise of the land, 2 Printed Rot. Parl. p. 239. No. 16. [Ext. 1 R.3. c. 2. Rec. 3 C.1. c. 1. s. 1.]

28. NO SUBJECT SHALL HENCEFORTH be charged by any exaction called a benevolence, or by any like charge, 1 R.3. c. 2. [Rec. in the PETITION OF RIGHT, 3 C.1. c. 1. Voluntary gifts permitted, 12 C.2. St. 1. c. 4.]

29. PEACE SHALL BE FIRMLY KEPT IN THIS REALM, so that loyal subjects may safely go, come, and abide, according to its laws and usages, and good justice and equal right shall be done to every one, 1 R.2. c. 2.

30. None shall be arrested contrary to the great charter and other statutes, which, and the privileges of holy church, the chancellor, treasurer, barons, and chancellor of exchequer, the justices of both benches, and other officers, shall be sworn to maintain, 15 E.3. c. 3.

31. Such officers shall be punished by the peers in parliament for any default, id. c. 4.

32. H. M.'s SIGNET OR PRIVY SEAL shall not be sent to the damage of the realm, or disturbance of the law, 11 R.2. c. 10., [and see 2 E.3. c. 8. pl. 22.]

33. NONE OF H. M.'s SUBJECTS SHALL BE CONSTRAINED to appear before the council of any lord, to answer for his freehold, nor any other real or personal thing belonging to the law of the land; and any person grieved may sue to the chancellor, who shall give remedy, 15 R.2. c. 12.

34. EVERY LORD OR OTHER SUBJECT DOING CONTRARY TO 15 R.2. c. 12. shall forfeit 20*l.* to H. M., 16 R.2. c. 2.

35. THE PETITION OF RIGHT, [RECITING, in s. 1., 34 E.1. St. 4. c. 1. pl. 11., 25 E.3. &c. pl. 8., 1 E.3. St. 2. c. 6. pl. 19., 1 R.3. c. 2. pl. 28., and other recitals in ss. 2—9.]

36. No man shall be compelled to yield any gift, loan, benevolence, tax, or such like charge, without common consent by act of parliament; and none shall be called to make answer, or take oath, or to give attendance, or be confined, or otherwise disquieted concerning the same, or for refusal thereof; and no freeman shall be imprisoned or detained without cause shewn, to which he may make answer according to law; and the people shall not be burthened, to suffer soldiers and mariners to sojourn in their houses against their wills; and no commissions shall issue, to proceed within the land according to martial law, 3 C.1. c. 1. s. 10.

37. The late proceedings in the premises shall not be drawn into consequence; and all H. M.'s officers shall serve him according to the laws of the realm, as they tender the honour of H. M. and the prosperity of the kingdom. id. s. 11.

38. FOR DECLARING UNLAWFUL AND VOID the late proceedings touching ship-money, and for vacating all records and process concerning the same, 16 C.1. c. 10. (and recital in ss. 1—2.)

39. The court called the star-chamber shall be dissolved, and neither the lord chancellor, lord treasurer, keeper of the privy seal, or president of the council, nor any bishop, temporal lord, privy councillor, or judge, shall have power to hear or determine any matter in the star-chamber, or to do any judicial or ministerial act in the said court; and all acts of parliament, by which any jurisdiction is given to the star-chamber, shall, for so much, be repealed, id. s. 3.

40. The like jurisdiction used in the court before the president and council in the marches of Wa., [dissolved, 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 27. s. 2.] and in the court before the president and council in the northern parts, and also in the court of the duchy of Lancaster, and in the court of exchequer of the county palatine of Chester held before the chamberlain and council of that court, shall be also Rep.; and no court or place of judicature shall be erected within Eng. or Wa., which shall have the like jurisdiction as hath been used in the star-chamber, id. s. 4.

41. Neither H. M., nor his privy council, have any jurisdiction, power, or authority, by English bill, petition, articles, libel, or any other arbitrary way whatsoever, to examine, or draw into question, determine or dispose of the lands or goods of any subjects of this kingdom; but the same ought to be tried and determined in the ordinary courts of justice, and by course of law, id. s. 5.

42. If any lord chancellor, lord treasurer, keeper of the privy seal, president of the council, bishop, temporal lord, privy councillor, judge, or justice, shall offend contrary to this law, they shall forfeit 500*l.* to any party grieved, his executors or administrators, who shall prosecute for the same, and first obtain judgment, to be recovered in any court of record at Westminster; and if any person, against whom any such recovery shall be had, shall offend again in the same, he shall forfeit 100*l.* to any party grieved, who shall prosecute, &c.; and if any person, against whom such second recovery shall be had, shall offend again in the same kind, and shall be convicted by indictment, information, or any other lawful way, he shall be incapable to bear his office, and to make any gift or disposition of his lands or goods, or to take any gift or legacy to his own use, 16 C. 1. c. 10. s. 6.

43. Every person so offending shall likewise forfeit to the party grieved his treble damages, to be recovered in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, id. s. 7.

44. If any person shall be restrained of his liberty by order or decree of any such court, as before, or by command of H. M. in person, or by warrant of the council-board, or of any of H. M.'s privy council, every person so restrained, on demand or motion made unto the judges of K. B. or C. P. in open court, shall without delay for the ordinary fees have a habeas corpus directed generally to all and every sheriffs, gaoler, minister, officer, or other persons, in whose custody the party shall be, who shall at the return of the writ, and according to its command (on due notice given him, at the charge of the party who requireth such writ, and on security by his own bond, to pay the charge of carrying back the prisoner, if he shall be remanded, such charges to be ordered by the court, if any difference shall arise, as in like cases has been used) bring the body of the party before the judges in open court, and shall certify the cause of his detainer, and thereupon the court, within 3 court-days after such return made, shall proceed to determine whether the cause of commitment be just, and shall thereupon do what to justice shall appertain. And if any thing shall be wilfully done or omitted by any judge, officer, &c. contrary to the direction hereof, such person offending shall forfeit to the party grieved his treble damages, to be recovered as aforesaid, id. s. 8.

45. This act shall extend only to the court of star-chamber, and to the said courts holden before the president and council in the marches of Wa., [dissolved, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 27. s. 2.] and before the president and council in the northern parts, and to the court of the duchy of Lancaster, and the court of exchequer of the county palatine of Chester, and all courts of like jurisdiction to be hereafter erected, and to the warrant and directions of the council board, and to the commitments of any persons made by H. M. in person, or by the privy council, id. s. 9.

46. No person shall be molested for any offence against this act, unless he be impeached within two years after the offence committed, id. s. 10.

47. DECLARING THE RIGHTS AND LIBERTIES OF THE SUBJECT, and settling the succession of the crown, 1 W. & M. S. 2. c. 2. [called the BILL OF RIGHTS, and solemnly assented to by their majesties, id. s. 11.] [See the recitals of the illegal acts of king J. 2. in s. 1.]

48. "Whereas the lords spiritual and temporal and commons assembled at Westminster, representing all the estates of the people of this realm, did, upon the 13th Feb. 1688, present unto their majesties, then prince and princess of Orange, a declaration, by which, after reciting the attempt of king James II., to subvert the protestant religion, and the laws and liberties of the kingdom;"

The said lords spiritual and temporal, and commons, being assembled in a full and free representative of this nation, for the vindicating their ancient rights and liberties, declare;

"That the pretended power of suspending of laws, or the execution of laws, by regal authority, without consent of parliament, is illegal."

"That the pretended power of dispensing with laws, or the execution of laws, by regal authority, as it hath been assumed and exercised of late, is illegal."

"That the commission for erecting the late court of commissioners for ecclesiastical causes, and all other commissions and courts of like nature, are illegal and pernicious."

"The levying money for or to the use of the crown, by pretence of prerogative, without grant of parliament, for longer time, or in other manner than the same is or shall be granted, is illegal."

"That it is the right of the subjects to petition H. M., and all commitments and prosecutions for such petitioning are illegal."

"That the raising or keeping a standing army within the kingdom in time of peace, unless it be with consent of parliament, is against law."

"That the subjects which are protestants may have arms for their defence, suitable to their conditions, as allowed by law."

"That election of members of parliament ought to be free."

"That the freedom of speech, and debates or proceedings in parliament, ought not to be impeached or questioned in any court or place out of parliament."

"That excessive bail ought not to be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted."

"That jurors ought to be duly impanelled and returned, and jurors which pass upon men in trials for high treason ought to be freeholders."

"That all grants and promises of fines, and forfeitures of particular persons before conviction, are illegal and void."

"And that for redress of all grievances, and for the amending, strengthening, and preserving of the laws, parliaments ought to be held frequently."

"And they do claim, demand, and insist upon all and singular the premises, as their undoubted rights and liberties; and that no declarations, judgments, doings, or proceedings, to the prejudice of the people in any of the said premises, ought in any wise to be drawn hereafter into consequence or example," AND THEREUPON THEY TENDERED THE CROWN to, which was accepted by, their majesties, who were pleased that the two houses should continue to sit, to make provision for SETTLEMENT of the religion, laws, and liberties of the kingdom, to which the latter agreed, 1 W. & M. S. 2. c. 2. ss. 1—5.

49. All and singular the rights and liberties asserted and claimed in the said declaration are the true, ancient, and indubitable rights and liberties of the people of this kingdom, and so shall be esteemed, allowed, adjudged, and taken to be; and all the particulars aforesaid shall be firmly holden as expressed in the said declaration; and all officers shall serve their majesties according to the same in all times to come, id. s. 6.

50. The lords and commons declare that king James the second having abdicated the government, and their majesties having accepted the crown and royal dignity as above, they did become and are king and queen of Eng. France, Ire. and the dominions thereof, id. s. 7.

51. The crown limited to their majesties and to the survivor for life, with the sole exercise of regal power by king William, in name of both during their joint lives; after their deceases the crown limited to the heirs of the body of H. M.; and in default, to the princess Anne and the heirs of her body; and in default of such issue, to the heirs of the body of king William, id. s. 8. [Further limitation, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 2. pl. 57.]

52. Every person reconciled to or holding communion with the see or church of Rome, or professing the popish religion, or marrying a papist, shall be excluded and forever disabled to inherit possess, or enjoy the crown and government of this realm and Ire., and the dominions thereunto belonging, or any part thereof, or to exercise regal authority therein; and in every such case, the people of these realms are absolved of their allegiance, and the crown and government shall from time to time descend to and be enjoyed by such protestant as would have inherited the same in case the person so deprived as above were naturally dead, id. s. 9.

53. Every king and queen of this realm who at any time hereafter shall succeed to the imperial crown, shall on the first day of the meeting of the first parliament next after his or her coming to the crown, sitting on the throne in the house of peers, in presence of the lords and commons therein assembled, or at his coronation before such person who shall administer the coronation-oath, at the time of taking the said oath (which shall first happen), make, subscribe, and audibly repeat the declaration against popery, in 30 C. 2. (PARLIAMENT, pl. 67.); but if such king or queen on succession is under 12 years of age, he or she shall make, &c. such declaration at the coronation or on the first day of the meeting of the first parliament, which shall first happen after his or her attaining that age, id. s. 10.

54. No dispensation by non obstante of any statute shall be allowed, but shall be void, except a dispensation be allowed of in such statute; and except in such cases as shall be specially provided for during this session of parliament, id. s. 12.

55. No charter granted before 23d Oct. 1689, shall be invalidated by this act, but shall remain of the same force as if this act had never been made, id. s. 13.

56. FOR FURTHER LIMITATION OF THE CROWN and better securing the rights and liberties of the subject, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 2. [REF. as to Articles 3, 4. which see: ENFORCED as to Art. 5. 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 4. s. 2.]

57. "Whereas it is necessary that further provision be made for securing our religion, laws, and liberties after the death of H. M., and the princess Anne of Denmark, and in default of issue of either respectively [This is the preamble to s. 3., which seems to comprehend that of s. 1.], it is enacted that in case of such respective default, the princess Sophia, electress of Hanover, daughter of Elizabeth, queen of Bohemia, daughter of James the First, is next in succession in the protestant line, and the succession shall remain to her and the heirs of her body, being protestants; and thereunto the lords and commons of the realm promise humbly and faithfully to submit themselves and their heirs, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 2. s. 1.

58. Every person who shall inherit the said crown under the above limitation, and shall be reconciled to, or hold communion with the see or church of Rome, or profess the popish religion, or marry a papist, shall be subject to the incapacities established by 1 W. & M. S. 2. c. 2. s. 9. pl. 52.; and every king and queen of this realm, who shall succeed to the imperial crown thereof by virtue of this act, shall have the coronation oath administered to them at their respective coronations, according to 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 6. s. 4. (KING, &c. pl. 62.) and shall make, subscribe, and repeat the declaration in 1 W. & M. S. 2. c. 2. s. 10. viz. pl. 53. in manner and form thereby prescribed, id. s. 2.

59. FURTHER PROVISIONS TO SECURE LIBERTIES, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 2. s. 3. Whoever shall come to possession of the crown, shall join in communion with the church of Eng. as by law established.

In case the crown and imperial dignity of this realm shall hereafter come to any person not a native of Eng., this nation shall not be obliged to engage in any war for defence of any dominions or territories which do not belong to the crown of Eng. without consent of parliament.

No person who shall hereafter come to possession of this crown shall go out of the dominions of Eng., Scot., or Ire., without consent of parliament. [Rep. 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 51.]

After the time that the further limitation by this act shall take effect, all things relating to well governing this kingdom which are properly cognizable in privy council by the laws and customs of the realm, shall be transacted there, and all resolutions thereon shall be signed by such as advise and consent thereto, [Rep. 4 A. c. 8. s. 24. after the above limitation has taken effect.]

No person born out of Eng., Scot., or Ire., or the dominions thereto belonging (though naturalized or made a denizen, except such as are born of English parents) shall be capable to be * of the privy council, or a member of either house of parliament, or to enjoy any office or place of trust, civil or military, or to have any grant of lands, tenement, or hereditaments from the crown, to himself or to any other in trust for him.

[Note. No person shall hereafter be naturalized, or bill for naturalization received, unless there be a clause inserted therein to declare that such person shall not thereby be enabled to be [as above, from the asterisk to end] 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 1. s. 2.]

No person having an office or place of profit under H. M., or receiving a pension from the crown, shall be capable of serving as a member of the house of commons. [Rep. 4 A. c. 8. s. 25. See present incapacities in respect of certain offices, 6 A. c. 7. ss. 25—28. PARLIAMENT, pl. 185. as to pensions for years, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 56. OFFICES, &c. and as to places, 41 G. 3. C. A. c. 52. s. 9.]

After such further limitation shall take effect, judges' commissions shall be made "Quamdiu se bene cesserint," and their salaries ascertained and established; but they may be removed on address of both houses. [Ext. and Ann. 1 G. 3. c. 23. JUSTICES OF ASSIZE, &c., pl. 52.]

No pardon under the great seal of Eng. shall be pleadable to an impeachment by the commons in parliament.

60. The laws and statutes now in force for securing the established religion, rights and liberties of the people of this realm, which are their birth-right, and according to which all the sovereigns thereof ought to administer government, and their ministers to serve them, are confirmed, 1 & 13 W. 3. c. 2. s. 4.

LIBRARIES (PARISH).

1. FOR BETTER PRESERVATION OF PAROCHIAL LIBRARIES in Eng., 7 J. 1. c. 14.

2. In every parish or place where a library is erected, the same shall be preserved to the uses to which it is given, and the orders and rules of the founders shall be observed and kept, id. s. 1.

3. Every incumbent, rector, vicar, minister, or curate of a parish, before he is permitted to use such library, shall enter into such security by bond or otherwise, for its preservation and due observance of the rules thereof, as the proper ordinaries within their jurisdictions shall think fit; and in case any book of such library is taken away or detained, such incumbent, &c. may bring an action of trover in the name of the ordinary, whereupon treble damages shall be given with costs, as if the same were their proper books; which damages shall be applied to the use of such library, id. s. 2.

4. The ordinary or his commissary, or the archdeacon, or by his direction his official (if the archdeacon be not the incumbent of the place), in their visitation, may inquire into the condition of such libraries, and amend defects of the same; and the ordinary may appoint persons to view the condition of such libraries, and such ordinaries, archdeacons, or officials, may have free access when they appoint, id. s. 3.

5. Where any library is appropriated to the use of the minister, of any parish, every minister or curate of the same, within 6 months after his induction or admission, shall make a new catalogue of the books in such library, and shall sign the same; which catalogue shall be delivered to the ordinary within the time aforesaid, to be registered in his court, without fee, id. s. 4.

6. Where any library shall hereafter be given to the use of any parish or place, where there is a minister or curate, such minister shall make a catalogue, and deliver the same as aforesaid, within six months after receiving such library, id. s. 5.

7. Immediately after the death or removal of any minister or curate, the library belonging to such place shall be shut up and entered by the churchwardens, or by such persons as shall be appointed by the ordinary or archdeacon, so that the same shall not be opened till a new minister be inducted into the church of such place, 7 A. c. 14. s. 6.

8. In case the place where such library is kept is used for any public occasion, the place shall be used as formerly, and after such business dispatched, shall be locked up as before, id. s. 7.

9. A book shall be kept within the library for the registering of all benefactions, and the minister or curate shall enter such benefactions, and an account of all books that shall be given, and by whom, id. s. 8.

10. The ordinary with the donor of such benefaction, if living, and the ordinary alone after the donor's death, may make rules concerning the same besides those made by the donor, but not contrary to them which shall be entered in a book kept for the purpose, id. s. 9.

11. No such books shall be alienable, nor shall any book given by any benefactor be alienated, without consent of the ordinary, and then only when there is a duplicate: and in case any books be taken or lost out of the library, any justice may grant his warrant to search for the same; and if found, such books shall immediately, by his order, be restored to the library, id. s. 10.

12. Nothing herein extends to a public library lately erected in the parish of Ryegate in Surrey, for the use of the freeholders, vicar, and inhabitants, and of the gentlemen and clergymen inhabiting in parts adjacent, id. s. 11.

10. In what cases they shall be liable to the alien duties, id. s. 4. [Aliens' duty taken away, 24 G. 3. s. 2. c. 16. s. 1.]

11. FOR PUNISHING PERSONS WILFULLY AND MALICIOUSLY destroying any linen [yarn, 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 16. only] or linen or cotton goods, or any implements prepared or used in the manufacture thereof, 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 16. 22 G. 3. c. 40. s. 3. [see rest of this title and statutes, Silk Manufactures, Wool, &c. passim, 22 G. 3. c. 40. s. 3. is EXT. to Scot. by 29 G. 3. c. 46. s. 4., but 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 16. is not; and Scot. and Ire. are expressly excepted from its operation, id. s. 32.]

12. Any person who shall by day or night break into, or by force enter into any house, shop, cellar, vault, or other building, with intent to steal, cut, or destroy any linen yarn, cloth, or any manufacture of linen yarn, belonging to any manufactory, or the looms, tools, and implements used therein, or shall wilfully cut in pieces or destroy such goods, when exposed to bleach or dry, shall, on conviction, suffer as a felon, without benefit of clergy, 4 G. 3. c. 37. s. 16. [see note to last pl.]

13. If any person shall by day or night, break into, or enter by force, into any house or shop, with intent to cut or destroy any linen, or cotton, or linen and cotton mixed with any other materials, or other linen and cotton manufacture in the loom, or any warp, or shuttle, tools, tackle, and utensils prepared for or employed in the making thereof, or shall wilfully and maliciously break and destroy any tools, &c. used in carding, spinning, weaving, preparing, or making in any way whatever any such linen, or cotton, or linen or cotton mixed with any other materials, or other linen and cotton manufactures soever, not having consent of owner so to do, every such offender being lawfully convicted thereof, shall be guilty of felony, without clergy; [in Scot., being convicted before justiciary or circuit court, shall suffer death as in other capital crimes, 29 G. 3. c. 46. s. 4.] 22 G. 3. c. 40. s. 3. and 29 G. 3. c. 46. s. 4. for Scot.

[NOTE.—The several bounties given by 7 G. 3. c. 45. s. 17—21. to encourage the linen manufacture of the Isle of Man are taken away by 11 G. 3. c. 52. s. 4.: those relating to the fishery remain. See FISHERIES (Isle of Man), pl. 1.]

14. FOR ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE ARTS OF DESIGNING and printing linens, cottons, calicoes, and muslins, by vesting the properties thereof in the designers, printers, and proprietors, 27 G. 3. c. 38. PUBLIC clause, s. 3. [CON. 29 G. 3. c. 19. AND. and MADE FRAP. 34 G. 3. c. 23.]

15. The inventors or proprietors of any new and original pattern for printed linens, cottons, calicoes, or muslins, shall have the sole right of printing and reprinting them, for [2 months, 27 G. 3. c. 38. s. 1. EXT. by 34 G. 3. c. 23. s. 1. to] 3 months to commence from the day of first publishing thereof, which shall be truly printed with the name of the printer or proprietors at the end of every such piece of linen, &c. and if any calico printer, linen draper, or other person soever shall print, work, or copy, or cause to be printed, &c. such original pattern, or shall print, or reprint, or cause to be printed, &c. any such pattern, and shall publish, sell, or expose to sale, or in any other manner dispose of, or cause to be published, &c. any linen, cotton, calico, or muslin so printed, without consent of the proprietor first obtained in writing, signed by him in presence of 2 or more credible witnesses, knowing the same to be so printed, or reprinted without consent of the proprietor of such pattern, then every such proprietor shall, if the offence is committed in Eng., by special action on the case brought against the person so offending, recover such damages as a jury on the trial of, or execution of writ of enquiry on such action shall assess, together with costs of suit, in which no wager of law, essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, 34 G.3. c.25. and 27 G.3. c.38. s.1.

17. If the offence be committed in Scot., every such proprietor may by an action before the court of session, or any judge competent to try civil causes in his bounds, recover the damages by them assessed with costs, for payment whereof decree shall be issued, and any execution allowed by the laws of Scot., in like cases shall pass thereon: any person who shall hereafter purchase any plate or block for printing from the original proprietors, may print, reprint, and expose for sale, or cause to be printed, &c. from the same, without being liable to any action on that account, 27 G.3. c.38, s.1.

18. Action for offences against this act, shall be brought in 6 months after so doing, and if in Eng., defendant may plead the general issue, and give special matter in evidence, with full costs, if verdict is for defendant, or if plaintiff discontinues or is nonsuited: if brought in Scot., and not insisted in, or if defender is assoltized, he shall have full costs, with pursuer's remedy for same, id. s.2.

4. The author of any book, composed, and not printed and published, or which shall hereafter [viz. comm. semb. after 29th July, 1814., when this act passed], be composed, and printed and published; and his assignee, [by instrument in writing, Power v. Moore, 3 M. & S. 7.], shall have the sole liberty of printing and reprinting it for 28 years, to commence from the day of first publishing the same; and also if the author is living at the end of that period, for the residue of his natural life; and if any person soever in the U.K., in the Iles of Man, Jersey, or Guernsey, or in any other part of H.M.'s dominions, shall, within the above terms and times, print, reprint, or import, or cause to be printed, &c., any such books, without consent of the authors or other proprietors of the copyright of and in such book first obtained in writing; or knowing the same to be so printed, &c., without such consent, shall sell, publish, or expose to sale, or cause to be sold, &c., or shall have in his possession for sale any such book or books, without such consent first had and obtained as aforesaid; then such offenders shall be liable to a special action on the case, at suit of the author or authors or other proprietors of the copyright of such book or books, so unlawfully printed, reprinted, or imported, or published, or exposed to sale, or in possession of such offenders, for sale as aforesaid, contrary to this act, 54 G.3. c.156. s.4.

5. And every such author or authors, or other proprietor or proprietors, shall, in any such action to be brought against such offenders in any court of record in that part of U.K., or of the British dominions, in which the offence has been committed, recover such damages as a jury may assess at the trial of such action, or on the execution of a writ of inquiry thereon shall give or assess with double costs of suit, in which action, no wager of law or essoin, and only one imparlance shall be allowed; every such offender shall also forfeit such book, and every sheet, being part thereof, and deliver the same to the author, or other proprietor of the copyright, upon order of the court in which any action or suit in law or equity shall be commenced, to be made on motion or petition to the court; and such author or other proprietor shall forthwith damask, or make waste paper of such books and sheets, and every such offender shall also forfeit 3d. per sheet, either printed or printing, or published, or exposed to sale, contrary to this act; the one moiety to H.M., his heirs and successors, and the other to any person who shall sue for the same in any such court of record, by action of debt, &c., or information, in which no wager of law, essoin, &c., or more than one imparlance shall be allowed; provided, that such offenders in Scot. shall be liable to an action of damages in the court of session, to be brought and prosecuted in the same manner in which any other action of damages to the like amount may be brought there; and in any such action where damages are awarded, double costs of suit or expences of process shall be allowed, 54 G.3. c.156. s.4.

6. But this act [viz. s.1. R&P. see pl. 2.] shall not extend to books already composed or published, [a more liberal course adopted 54 G.3. c.156. s.8., pl. 19.], or to exempt or indemnify any persons against any penalties or actions to which they may be liable, on account of unlawful printing, importing, selling, or exposing to sale, any such books, contrary to the laws in force at time of union, by 39 & 40 G.3. c.67., 41 G.3. c.107. U.K. s.2. [QU. Exp.? See pl. 2.]

7. Trinity College, Dublin, shall, at their own printing press, within that college, have for ever, the sole liberty of printing and reprinting, all such books, as shall at any time, heretofore have been, or (not having been heretofore published or assigned) shall at any time hereafter be bequeathed, or otherwise given or assigned by the authors or their representatives, to or in trust for that college for the above purposes, [viz. that the profits arising from printing or reprinting, or such books shall be applied as a fund for the advancement of learning, or other beneficial purposes of education within the above college, see preamble to this section], unless the same have been bequeathed, given, or assigned, or shall hereafter be bequeathed, &c. for any term of years, or other limited term; and every person who shall, after the passing this act, [viz. 2d July, 1801.], unlawfully print, reprint, or import, or cause to be printed, &c., or knowing the same to be so unlawfully printed, &c., shall sell, publish, or expose to sale, or cause to be sold, &c., or have in his possession for sale, any such last mentioned books, shall be subject to the penalties in s.1., pl. 2., [QU. how far in force? See note to pl. 2.] with respect to offenders against the copyrights of authors and their assigns; but nothing herein shall extend to grant any exclusive right to the said college, otherwise, than so long as the books or copies belonging to such college, are printing only at its printing press within the same, and for its own sole benefit; and if the said college, shall delegate, grant lease, or sell the copyrights, or exclusive rights of printing the books hereby granted, or any part thereof, or shall permit or authorize any person or body corporate to print or reprint the same, then their privilege hereby granted shall be void; but they shall have a right to sell such copies, so bequeathed or given as above, in like manner as any author may lawfully do, under this or any other act now in force, 41 G.3. U.K. c.107. s.3.

8. No bookseller, printer, or other person, shall be liable to the said penalty of 3d. per sheet, for the printing, reprinting, importing, or selling any such book or books, or having the same in custody for sale without consent of the proprietor of the copyright thereof, unless before the time of publication by the proprietors [being other than Trinity College, Dublin, see s.3. last pl.], the right and title of such proprietor shall be duly entered in the register book of the stationers' company in London, as hath been usually heretofore done by the proprietors of copies and copyrights in G.B.; nor if the consent of such proprietor for printing, &c. [as above] is in like manner entered; nor, unless the title of the said college to the copyright of such book as has been already bequeathed, given, or assigned to the said college, be entered in the said register book before 29th Sept. 1801; and every such book hereafter bequeathed &c. as aforesaid, shall be so entered within 2 months after such bequest, &c. has come to the knowledge of the provost; for every of which entries 6d. shall be paid, and no more, [but see pl. 13.]; which said register book, shall at all times be kept at the hall of the said company, and may, at all reasonable times, be inspected by any person for the above purposes, without fee, [but see pl. 13.]; and the clerk of the company shall, when required, give a certificate under his hand of such entry, taking 6d. for the same, [but see pl. 13.]; and shall also, without fee, within 15 days' next after 31st Dec. and 30th June, annually make for the use of Trinity College, Dublin, a list of the titles of all such books, the copyright to which has been so entered in the course of the preceding half-year; and shall, on demand, deliver such lists to any person duly authorized to receive the same for that college, 41 G.3. U.K. c.107. s.4.

9. If the clerk of the stationers' company shall refuse or neglect to register, or make such entries, or to give such certificates, being thereunto respectively required by the authors or proprietors of such copyrights, or by the person to whom such consent is given, or by some one on his behalf in presence of 2 or more credible witnesses, then such parties so refused, (notice being first duly given, by advertisement in the London Gazette), shall have the like benefit, as if such entries or certificates had been duly made and given; and the clerk so refusing shall, for any such offence, forfeit 20*l.* to the author or proprietor, or to the person to whom such consent is given; or if he refuse or neglect to make the above list, or to deliver it to any person duly authorized to demand it, on behalf of Trinity College, Dublin, he shall also forfeit 20*l.* to that college, which penalties may be recovered in any of H. M.'s courts of record in the U. K., by action of debt, &c., or information, in which no wager of law, essoin, &c., or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 107. s. 5., 8 A. c. 19. s. 2.

10. So much of 8 A. c. 19. (viz. s. 5.), and of 41 G. 3. (U. K. c. 107. (viz. s. 6.)) as requires copies of books, printed or reprinted, &c. with additions, &c. to be delivered to the company of stationers for the libraries therein mentioned, and imposes a penalty on omission, is repealed, 54 G. 3. c. 156. s. 1.

11. Eleven printed copies of the whole of every book, and of every volume thereof, upon the paper on which the largest number or impression of such book shall be printed for sale, together with all maps and prints belonging thereto, which from and after 29th July, 1814, shall be published, shall, on demand in writing left at the publisher's place of abode, at any time within 12 months next after publication thereof, under the hand of the warehouse-keeper of the company of stationers, or of the librarian or other person thereto authorized, by the persons or body, politic and corporate, proprietors or managers of the libraries following: viz. the British Museum, [Qu. If any demand in writing need be made by this institution? see s. 5. pl. 13.] Sion College, Bodleian library at Oxford, public library at Cambridge, the library of the faculty of advocates at Edinburgh, the libraries of the 4 universities of Scot., Trinity College library, and King's Inns library at Dublin, or so many of such 11 copies as shall be respectively demanded on behalf of such libraries respectively, shall be delivered by the publisher within one month after demand made thereof, in writing to the warehouse-keeper of the stationers' company; which copies he shall receive at the company's hall, for use of the library for which such demand is made, within such 12 months as above; and shall, within one month after any such book or volume is so delivered to him as above, deliver the same for the use of such library; and if any publisher or such warehouse-keeper shall not observe the directions of this act therein, and shall make default in not delivering or receiving the said 11 printed copies, he shall forfeit besides their value the sum of 5*l.* for each copy not so delivered or received, with full costs of suit, the same to be recovered in an action of debt in any court of record in the U. K. by the person or persons, or body politic or corporate, proprietors or managers of the library, for the use whereof such copy or copies ought to have been delivered, 54 G. 3. c. 156. s. 2.

12. No such printed copy or copies of the second, or any subsequent edition of any book, shall be demanded by or delivered to or for the use of any of the above libraries, unless the same shall contain additions or alterations; and in case of any such alteration or addition in any edition after the first, no printed copy thereof shall be demanded or delivered as above, if a printed copy of such additions or alterations printed in a uniform manner with the former edition of such book be delivered to each of the above libraries, for whose use a copy of the former edition has been demanded, and delivered as above, provided that the copy of every book demanded by the British Museum shall be delivered of the best paper on which such work is printed, id. s. 3.

13. "In order to ascertain what books are from time to time published;" the publisher of every book demandable under this act, which shall be published at any time after passing the same, [viz. 29th July, 1814.] shall, within one calendar month after the first day of publication, within the bills of mortality, or within 3 calendar months, if the said book is sold, published or advertised, in any other part of the U. K., enter the title to the copy of every such book, and the name or names, and place of abode of the publishers thereof, in the register book of the company of stationers in London, in the manner of entry heretofore used; and deliver one copy (on the best paper, as in s. 3.) for the use of the British Museum: which register book shall be kept in the hall of such company, and 2*s.* shall be paid for each entry, and which said register book may, at all seasonable and convenient times, be inspected by any person on payment of 1*s.* to the warehouse-keeper of such company, who, when required, shall give a certificate under his hand of every or any such entry, on payment of 1*s.*; and if such entry of the title of such book is not duly made within the herein limited periods, the publisher shall forfeit 5*l.*, together with 11 times the price at which such book is sold or advertised, to be recovered with costs of suit, by the person or persons, body politic or corporate, authorized to sue; and who shall first sue for the same in any court of record of U. K., by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance, shall be allowed: provided, that in the case of magazines, reviews or other periodical publications, it shall be sufficient to make such entry within one month after publication of the first number, and no failure in making such entry shall affect the copyright, but shall only subject the defaulter to the penalty, 54 G. 3. c. 156. s. 5., superseding 8 A. c. 19. s. 2.

14. The warehouse-keeper of stationers' hall, without any greater interval than 3 months, shall transmit to the librarian on behalf of the libraries before mentioned, a list of all books entered and not contained in former lists; and on being required so to do, by such librarians, or other authorized persons, or either of them, he shall call on the publishers of such books for as many of the said copies as may have been demanded of them, 54 G. 3. c. 156. s. 6.

15. If any publisher is desirous of delivering the copy of any book or volume so demanded, on behalf of any of the said libraries at such library, he may deliver the same thereto to the librarian, or other person authorized to receive the same, (who shall give a receipt in writing for the same,) which delivery shall, for all purposes of this act, be held as equivalent to a delivery to the said warehouse-keeper, id. s. 7.

16. No person shall import into any part of the U. K. for sale, any printed book or books, first composed, written, or printed and published in any part of U. K., and reprinted in any other country or place soever; and every person who shall so import any such printed book or books into any part of the U. K., contrary to this act; or shall knowingly sell, publish, or expose to sale, or have in possession for sale any such books, the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of customs or excise, and shall be forthwith made waste paper; and every person so offending, shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit 10*l.*, and double the value of each copy of such work so imported, &c. or knowingly sold, &c., contrary to this act; and the commissioners of customs or excise in Eng., Scot. or Ire., accord ag to the place where the seizure is made, and the officer who seizes, shall reward him with any sum they deem fit, not exceeding the value of such books, to be paid out of any duties in their hands, but no person shall be liable to any of the last mentioned penalties, for importing any book which has not been printed or reprinted in some part of U. K., within 20 years next before such importation, or of any book reprinted abroad, and inserted among other books or tracts, to be sold in any collection where the greatest part of such collection shall have been first composed, or written abroad, 41 G. 3. (U. K. c. 107. s. 7.

17. This act shall not extend to prohibit the importation, vending or selling of any books in Greek or Latin, or of any foreign language printed beyond seas, (8 A. c. 17. s. 7.), nor to affect the right which any university or person have or claim to have, to the printing or reprinting any book or copy already or hereafter to be printed, 8 A. c. 17. s. 9.

18. If any action is brought against any person soever, for things done under these acts, the defendant may plead the general issue, giving the special matter in evidence; and if in such action he obtains a verdict, or if plaintiff is non-suited or discontinues, defendant shall have full costs, 8 A. c. 19. s. 8., 41 G. 3. c. 107. (U. K.) s. 8. [see rest of the last section, infra, pl. 21.]

19. "Whereas it is reasonable that authors of books already published, and now living, should also have the benefit of extension of copyright," it is enacted, that if the author of books not published 14 years at the time of passing this act, [viz. 29th July 1814.] shall be living at the said time, and if such author shall die before the expiration of such 14 years, then his personal representative, and the assigns of the latter shall have the sole right to print and publish the same for 14 years more after the expiration of the first 14 years, (see pl. 2.) but this shall not affect the right of the assignee or assigns of such author to sell any copies of such book which were printed by such assignee, &c. within the first 14 years, or the terms of any contract between such author and assignee, &c. 54 G. 3. c. 156. s. 8.

20. If the author of any books already published shall be living at the end of 28 years after the first publication of his book, he shall have the sole right of printing and publishing the same for the remainder of his life, (with like proviso as in s. 8. last pl. extended to 28 years,) id. s. 9.

21. All actions, indictments, or informations for any offence committed against 8 A. c. 19. shall be brought within 3 months, (id. s. 10.) against 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 107. within 6 months (id. s. 8.) against 54 G. 3. c. 156. within 12 months after the offence committed; or shall be void, 54 G. 3. c. 156. s. 10.

22. FOR ENABLING THE TWO UNIVERSITIES IN ENGLAND AND the four universities in Scot., and the colleges of Eton, Winchester, and Westminster, to hold in perpetuity their copyright in books given or bequeathed to them for advancement of useful learning and other purposes of education, 15 G. 3. c. 53. ss. 1—5. and s. 7. (see as to s. 6. pl. 1. and 27.) [Public clause, id. s. 8.]

23. The said universities and colleges shall at their respective presses have for ever the sole liberty of printing and reprinting all such books as shall at any time heretofore have been or (having not been heretofore published or assigned) shall at any time hereafter be bequeathed or otherwise given by the authors or their representatives, to or in trust for such universities, or any college or house of learning within the same, or the four universities of Scot., or the colleges of Elton, Westminster, and Winchester, or any of them, for the purposes in last pl. mentioned, unless the same shall have been or shall be bequeathed for any limited term, 15 G.3. c.53. s.1.

24. Every bookseller or other person who shall print, reprint, or import, or cause to be printed, &c. any such books, or who knowing the same to have been so printed, &c. shall sell, publish, or expose to sale, or cause to be sold, &c. any such book, shall forfeit the same and every sheet or sheets being part thereof to the university, college, or house of learning respectively to whom the book belonged, who shall forthwith damask and make waste paper of them; and shall also forfeit 1*d.* per sheet found in his custody, either printed or printing, published, or exposed to sale contrary to this act, to go in moieties to H. M., and the party suing in the courts at Westminster, or in the court of session in Scot. by action of debt, &c. or information, in which no essoin, &c. or more than one impurance shall be allowed, id. s.2.

25. This act shall not extend to grant any exclusive right, otherwise than so long as the books or copies belonging to the said universities or colleges are printed at their own presses within such universities, &c. and for their sole benefit, and if any university or college shall delegate, grant, lease, or sell their copyrights or exclusive rights of printing the books hereby granted, or shall permit the same to be reprinted, then such the privileges hereby granted shall become void, but such universities, &c. shall nevertheless have a right to sell such copies so bequeathed in the like manner as authors may under 8 A. c.19., 15 G.3. c.53. s.3.

26. This act shall not make any bookseller or other person liable to the forfeitures herein mentioned for printing, reprinting, exposing to sale, or importing any book, unless the title to the copy of such book already bequeathed or given to any such university or college be entered in the register-book of the stationers' company, in the usual way, and unless the title to the copy of all books hereafter so bequeathed, be so entered within 2 months after such bequest or gift came to the knowledge of the vice-chancellors of such universities, or the heads of such colleges, or of the principal of such four universities for ever, for every of which entries sd. shall be paid; and which register-book shall be open at all seasonable times to public inspection without fee, and the clerk of such company shall give a certificate of such entry under his hand on payment of 6*d.*, id. s.4.

27. If the clerk of such company shall neglect to register such books, or make such entries, or to give such certificate when required by the agent of either of such universities or colleges, then either of the latter being the proprietor of such copyright (notice being first given of such refusal by advertisement in the gazette,) shall have the like benefit as if such entry and certificate had been duly given, and such clerk shall forfeit 2*l.* to such proprietor, to be recovered as in s.2., id. s.5. [Note, s.6. seems REP. or EXP. since 8 A. c.19. s.5. is REP. by 54 G.3. c.156. s.1. Statute Exp. pl.1.]

28. In actions brought for any thing done under this act, defendant may plead the general issue, giving the special matter in evidence, and if a verdict, or if in the court of session a judgment shall be given for him, or if plaintiff is nonsuited and discontinues, defendant shall have full costs, id. s.7.

LITERARY PROPERTY (PRINTS AND ENGRAVINGS).

29. FOR ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE ARTS OF DESIGNING, engraving and etching historical and other prints, by vesting the properties thereof in the inventors and engravers during the time therein mentioned, 8 G.2. c.13. Public clause, s.6. [and the property in certain prints vested in Jane Hogarth, widow, ss.3—4.] 7 G.3. c.38. [see as to copyright in new patterns for printed linens, 27 G.3. c.38. LINEN MANUFACTURE, pl.14., &c.]

30. Every person who shall invent and design, engrave, etch, or work in mezzotinto or chiaro oscuro, or from his own works and invention shall cause to be designed and engraved, etched or worked in mezzotinto or chiaro oscuro any historical or other print or prints, shall have the sole right and liberty of printing and reprinting the same for 14 years, to commence from the day of first publishing thereof, which shall be truly engraved with the name of the proprietor in each plate, and printed on every such print; and every print-seller or other person who within the time hereby limited shall so engrave, etch, or work, or in any other manner copy and sell, or cause to be engraved, etched, or copied and sold in the whole or in part, by varying, adding to or diminishing from the main design, or shall print, reprint, or import for sale, or cause to be printed, &c. any such prints, or parts thereof without the consent of the proprietor thereof first had in writing, signed by him in the presence of 2 witnesses; or knowing the same to be so printed or reprinted without such consent, shall publish, sell or expose to sale, or otherwise or in any other manner dispose of, or cause to be published, &c. any such prints without such consent, shall forfeit the plate or plates on which such print or prints are copied, and all and every sheet or sheets (being part of or whereon such print or prints shall be so copied or printed) to the proprietor of the original print, who shall forthwith destroy and damask the same, and shall also forfeit 5*s.* for every print found in his custody, printed, published, exposed to sale, or otherwise disposed of contrary to this act; to go one moiety to H. M., and the other to any person suing for the same in any court of record at Westminster by action of debt or information, wherein no essoin, &c. and but one impurance shall be allowed, 8 G.2. c.13. s.1.

31. Any person who shall hereafter purchase any plate for printing from the original proprietors thereof, may print and reprint from the same, without incurring the penalties in this act mentioned, id. s.2.

32. All actions brought against any person for any offence committed against this act, shall be brought within 5 months after the discovery thereof, id. s.4.

33. All persons who shall invent or design, engrave, etch, or work in mezzotinto or chiaro oscuro, or from his own work, design, or invention, shall cause to be designed, engraved, etched, or worked in mezzotinto or chiaro oscuro, any historical print, or any print of any portrait, conversation, landscape, or architecture, map, chart, or plan, or any other print soever, shall have the benefit of 8 G.2. c.13. under the limitations after-mentioned, 7 G.3. c.38. s.1.

34. All persons who shall engrave, etch, or work in mezzotinto or chiaro oscuro, or cause to be engraved, etched, or worked, any print, taken from any picture, drawing, model, or sculpture either ancient or modern, shall have the benefit of the said act, and this act, for the term herein after-mentioned; and if any person shall engrave, print, and publish, or import for sale any copy of any such print, contrary to this and the former act, every such person shall be liable to the penalties in the said act, to be recovered as therein and herein mentioned, id. s.2.

35. All the penalties inflicted by 8 G.2. c.13., and extended to the cases comprised in this act, may be recovered as thereby appointed with full costs of suit, id. s.5.

36. The party shall commence prosecution within 6 calendar months after offence committed, id. s.6.

37. The sole right and liberty of printing and reprinting, intended to be secured by 8 G.3. c.13., and this act, shall be extended and vested in the respective proprietors for 28 years, to commence from the day of first publishing of any of the works in this and the former act mentioned, id. s.7.

38. All actions for any thing done in pursuance of these acts, shall be brought within [3 months, 8 G.2. c.13. s.3., altered by 7 G.3. c.38. s.8. to] 6 calendar months after the fact committed, and the defendant therein may plead the general issue and the special matter in evidence, and if a verdict therein be given for the defendant, or if plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues, defendant shall have full costs, 8 G.2. c.13. s.3., 7 G.3. c.38. s.8.

39. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY SECURING THE PROPERTY OF PRINTS to inventors and engravers, by enabling them to sue for and recover penalties in certain cases, 17 G.3. c.57.

40. If any engraver, etcher, print-seller, or other person, shall, within the time limited by 8 G.2. c.13. or 7 G.3. c.38., or either of those acts, engrave, etch, or work, or cause to be engraved, &c. in mezzotinto or chiaro oscuro, or otherwise, (see pl.38.) or in any manner copy in the whole, or in part, by varying, adding to, or diminishing from the main design, or shall print, reprint, or import for sale, or cause to be printed, &c. or shall publish, sell, or otherwise dispose of, or cause to be published, &c. any copy of any historical print, or any print of any portrait, conversation, landscape, or architecture, map, chart, or plan, or any other print whatsoever, which shall be engraved, etched, drawn, or designed in G.B., without the express consent of the proprietor thereof first had in writing signed by him with his own hand, in the presence of, and attested by 2 witnesses, then such proprietor may, in a special action upon the case to be brought against the person offending, recover such damages as a jury on the trial of such action, or on the execution of a writ of enquiry thereon, shall give, together with double costs, 17 G.3. c.57.

LITERARY PROPERTY (SCULPTURE).

41. FOR ENCOURAGING THE ART OF MAKING NEW MODELS and casts of busts, and other things therein mentioned, 38 G.3. c.71. [And made more effectual by 54 G.3. c.56., the terms of which include and supersede 38 G.3. c.71.; and see Lord Ellenborough's observations on the latter statute, 3 Camp. N.P. Rep. 114, 115.]

42. Every person who shall make, or cause to be made, any new or original sculpture or model, or copy or cast of the human figure or figures, or of any bust or busts, or of any part of the human figure clothed in drapery or otherwise; or of any animal or animals, or of any part or parts thereof combined with the human figure or otherwise; or of any subject being matter of invention in sculpture; or of any alto or basso rilievo, representing any of the things above mentioned; or any cast from nature of the human figure, or of any part or parts thereof; or of any cast from nature of any animal, or any part or parts thereof; or of any such subject containing or representing any such things, whether separate or combined, shall have the sole right and property thereof, for and during the term of 14 years, from the first publication; provided the proprietor causes his name, with the date [scilicet of first publication: see pl. 30. as to engravings] to be put on all such models, copies, casts, &c. before they be published, 54 G. 3. c. 56. s. 1.

43. The sole right and property of all works published under the protection of 58 G. 3. c. 77., shall be extended to, continued and vested in the respective proprietors for 14 years from the date of the first publication, id. s. 2.

44. Every person who shall within such 14 years make or import, or cause to be made, imported, or exposed to sale, or otherwise disposed of, any printed copy or cast of any such new and original sculpture or model, or copy, &c. (as in s. 1.) whether such printed copy or cast be produced by moulding or copying from, or imitating in any way any of the matters or things published under the protection of this act, or of 58 G. 3. c. 71., to the damage of the original proprietor of the work so pirated, then such proprietor or his assignee may, by a special action on the case against the party so offending, receive such damages as a jury may assess, with double costs, id. s. 3.

45. No person who shall purchase the right or property of any such new and original sculpture or model, &c. or of any of the things protected by this act, without the consent of the proprietor or proprietors expressed in a deed or writing signed by him or them respectively, with his, &c. own hand or hands, shall be subject to an action for copying or casting or vending the same, id. s. 4.

46. All actions brought for any offence against this act shall be commenced within 6 calendar months after discovery of the offence, id. s. 5.

47. Provided, that immediately after the expiration of such term of 14 years the sole right of making and disposing of such new and original sculpture, or things in s. 1. mentioned, shall return to the person or persons who originally made, or caused to be made the same if he or they be then living, for the further term of 14 years, except when such person, by sale or otherwise, hath divested himself of such right of making or disposing of such sculpture, &c. before passing this act, [viz. before 18th May, 1814,] id. s. 6.

LONDON (BROKER).

1. FOR REPEALING 1 J. 1. c. 19. (For the well garbling of spices) and for granting an equivalent to the city of London, by admitting brokers, 6 A. c. 16.

2. The 1 J. 1. c. 19. shall be REP., and all suits depending for seizure, &c. under such act shall be discharged id. ss. 1, 2.

3. The lord mayor, court of aldermen, and common-council of the city of London shall appoint a person to execute the office of garbler within such city and the liberties thereof, who, at the request of any owner of spices, drugs, and other wares garbleable, and not otherwise, shall garble the same and receive for his fee such as such mayor, court of aldermen, &c. shall appoint, id. s. 3.

4. Persons who shall act as brokers within the city of London, and the liberties thereof, shall be admitted so to do by the court of mayor and aldermen, under such restrictions for their honest and good behaviour, as such court deem reasonable, and shall on admission pay to the chamberlain of such city 40s., and yearly also another 40s. on 29th Sept., to go to the mayor and commonalty and citizens of London, id. s. 4.

5. Every person who shall act as a broker or employ any other to act as such, within such city, &c. not being so admitted, shall forfeit to such mayor and commonalty, &c. for each offence 25l., to be recovered by action of debt in the name of the chamberlain of such city, in any court of record in which no protection, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 5.

6. ALL PERSONS EMPLOYED AS BROKERS, SOLICITORS, or otherwise, to make any bargain or contract for buying or selling any tallics, orders, exchequer bills, or exchequer tickets, bank bills, or any shares in any joint stock created by act of parliament, or by letter patent under the great seal, or bonds of any company thereby created who shall take directly or indirectly any sum or other reward exceeding 2s. 9d. per 100l., and so in proportion, for his services in soliciting such bargain, &c. shall forfeit 20l. to any person who will sue by action of debt, &c. or information, in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c., and only one imparlance, shall be allowed, 10 A. c. 19. s. 121.

LONDON (CATTLE).

7. TO PREVENT THE MISCHIEFS THAT ARISE FROM driving cattle within the cities of London and Westminster, and liberties thereof, and the bills of mortality, 14 G. 3. c. 87. [which is EXP.] and 21 G. 3. c. 67. (PUBLIC clause, s. 15.)

8. If any person employed to drive any cattle within the cities of London or Westminster, or the liberties thereof, or the bills of mortality, shall, by negligence or ill usage in driving such cattle, be the means that any mischief shall be done by such cattle, or any of them, so committed to his care; or if any driver of cattle, within such limits, shall misbehave himself in the driving, care, or management of such cattle, by improper driving, treating, or using of such cattle; then any constable, or other peace officer, upon view thereof, or information of any person (who shall declare his name and place of abode to such constable), may seize and secure, and, without warrant, convey such offender before some justice, within such limits; and the party accused being brought before such justice, such justice shall examine upon oath any witness touching such offence; and if the party shall be convicted, either by confession, or upon such information, he shall forfeit not exceeding 20s. nor less than 5s., to the person who shall prosecute; and if he shall not forthwith pay the sum forfeited, such offender shall, by warrant under the hand and seal of such justice, be committed to the house of correction, or some other prison within such limits, there to be kept to hard labour not exceeding one month, id. s. 1.

9. And if any person, not employed to drive cattle within such limits, shall pelt with stones, brickbats, or by any other means drive or hunt away, or shall set any dog at any ox, heifer, cow, steer, or other cattle, without the consent of the owner, or his servant, then any constable, or other peace officer, upon view thereof, or information of any person who shall declare his name and place of abode to such constable, may seize and secure, and without warrant convey such offender before some such justice; and the party accused being brought before such justice, such justice shall examine upon oath any witness touching such offence; and if the party shall be convicted by confession or upon such information, he shall forfeit not exceeding 20, nor less than 5s. to the person who shall prosecute; and if he shall not forthwith pay the sum forfeited, such offender shall, by like warrant of such justice, be committed to the house of correction, or some other such prison, there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month, id. s. 2.

10. And in case the person giving such information shall not attend without some excuse, to be allowed by the justice, such constable or other peace officer within 6 hours of his making such information, the offender shall (upon proof being made on the oath of such constable, that such person had given such information) forfeit not exceeding 40 nor less than 10s. to such constable, &c. which if not paid upon demand by such constable, &c. the same shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by like warrant of such justice, id. s. 3.

11. The court or mayor and aldermen of the city of London may make and set down in writing, such reasonable rules, orders, or ordinances, for governing and regulating all persons who shall drive any cattle, sheep, calves, or lambs, within such cities of London or Westminster, and liberties thereof, or the bills of mortality, and annex reasonable penalties and forfeitures for the breach of such rules, &c. not exceeding 40s. nor less than 10s. for any one offence; and such rules they may amend, id. s. 4.

12. Nothing in this act shall impower such court of mayor and aldermen to shorten the time for keeping Smithfield market open; but the same shall be kept open from 12 o'clock at night till 3 o'clock in the afternoon on the several market days, and at no other hours, unless such court shall judge it proper to enlarge the time for keeping it open, id. s. 5.

13. One justice of London or Westminster, or the bills of mortality, shall have power to hear and determine in a summary way complaints of offences that shall be committed contrary to any of the rules, orders, or ordinances, hereafter to be made by the court of mayor and aldermen, in pursuance of this act; and such justice is, upon view, or upon complaint made, on oath, of any offence committed contrary to such rules, &c. within 6 days, to issue his warrant, under hand and seal, directed to such constable, &c. as the justice shall think fit, thereby requiring him to apprehend such offender, and to bring him before such justice, to answer the matters of complaint to be contained in such warrant; and if such offender shall be convicted, either by confession, or the oath of one witness, such justice may impose a fine upon him for such offence, not exceeding the penalty which shall be inflicted by such rules, &c.; and if the person convicted shall not forthwith pay the penalty, such justice may deal with him as (in s. 2.) aforesaid, unless the penalty shall be sooner paid; which penalties shall go to the prosecutor, 21 G. 3. c. 67. s. 6.

14. If any person apprehended for any offence against this act, shall refuse to discover his name or place of abode, to the justices before whom he shall be brought, such person shall be immediately delivered over to a constable, and conveyed to the common gaol, or house of correction, there to remain for one month, or until he shall declare his name and place of abode to such justices, id. s. 7.

15. An abstract of this act, and all such rules, &c. so to be made by the court of mayor and aldermen, shall, within 14 days after making of such rules, &c. be printed and affixed upon such of the most conspicuous places within London and Westminster, the liberties thereof, and bills of mortality, as such court shall think proper and order, id. s. 8.

16. In case any person against whom a warrant shall be issued by any justice, either before or after conviction, for any offence against this act, or against such rules, &c. shall escape, go into, reside, or be in any other county, &c. out of the jurisdiction of the person granting such warrant; or if the goods of any such offender shall be in a different county than where such party was convicted, or the warrant of distress granted, any justice of the county, &c. into which such person shall escape, either before or after conviction, or where his goods shall be after conviction, upon proof made, upon oath, of the handwriting of the justice granting such warrant, may indorse his name on such warrant, and the same, when so indorsed, shall be a sufficient authority to all peace-officers to execute such warrant, in such other county, &c.; and such justices, after indorsing such warrant, may, on the offender being apprehended and brought before such justices, or one of them, hear and determine the complaint in the same manner as if it had originally arisen within their jurisdictions, or may direct the offender to be carried to the person who granted the warrant, id. s. 9.

17. No person shall suffer punishment for any offence against this act, unless the prosecution be commenced within 14 days after the offence done; and when any person shall suffer imprisonment in default of payment of any such penalty, he shall not be liable afterwards to pay such penalty, id. s. 10.

18. Any person aggrieved by the order or judgment of any justices for any offence against this act, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions, first giving security, in the sum forfeited, before such justice, to prosecute such appeal with effect, and abide by the order made on such appeal; and giving 14 days' notice in writing of such intention to appeal, to the party on whose prosecution such conviction was founded, if there are so many days between the conviction and such sessions; and if not, then to the next subsequent general or quarter sessions; and such sessions shall hear and determine such appeal, and make such order therein, and award such costs, as to them shall appear just; and cause to be levied, under the order of such session, the costs awarded, together with the money they adjudge to be forfeited, by distress and sale of the goods of the person who shall refuse to pay, or of the person who shall have become surety, id. s. 11.

19. No order or proceedings before any justice, as under this act, shall be quashed for want of form; and the order of sessions shall be final; and no proceedings out of or in such sessions, in pursuance of this act, shall be removeable by certiorari, id. s. 12.

20. Such justice may cause the conviction under this act to be drawn up in the following form, or to that effect, id. s. 13.

Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — A. D. is convicted before me (C. D. one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the cities of London or Westminster, or the county of Middlesex, either on his own confession, or on the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses [as the case shall be], by virtue of an act made in the twenty-first year of the reign of H. M. King George the third, to prevent the mischiefs that arise from driving cattle within the cities of London and Westminster, and liberties thereof, and bills of mortality; [specifying the offence, and time and place when and where the same was committed, as the case shall be.] Given under my hand and seal, the day and year above written.

21. Actions against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this act shall be brought within 6 calendar months after the cause accrued, and shall be laid in the county, city, or place where the offence was committed; and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof; and if it appears to have been so done, or if it is not brought within the time limited, or is laid in the wrong county, &c. the jury shall find for the defendants, and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues, or has judgment against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 14.

22 & 23 C. 2. c. 15. s. 2.

24. Which sums to be paid in lieu of tithes shall be the respective certain annual maintenance, (over and above glebes and perquisites, gifts, and bequests) of the respective parsons, vicars, and curates, legally instituted, inducted, and admitted into the respective parishes, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 15. s. 3.

25. The alderman of the ward wherein any of such parishes lie, and the common-council-men of such ward, with the churchwardens, and one or more of the parishioners, shall, before the 20th May 1671, assemble, and proportionably assess upon all houses, shops, warehouses, and cellars, wharfs, keys, cranes, water-houses, and tofts of ground remaining unbuilt, and all other hereditaments, (except parsonage and vicarage-houses) the whole respective sum by this act appointed, id. s. 4. [EXR.]

26. Such assessors within 10 days after such assessments made, and appeals determined, shall make 3 transcripts thereof in parchment, and subscribe the same; and within 20 days after, one of such transcripts shall be returned to the lord mayor of London, to be kept among the records of the city; and another into the registry of the lord bishop of London; and the other shall be kept in the vestry of such respective parish, id. s. 8.

27. Such sums so assessed shall be paid to the respective parsons, vicars, and curates, at the four usual feasts, viz. the Annunciation of the Virgin, the Nativity of John the Baptist, Michaelmas, and Christmas, or within 14 days after, by equal payments, to commence from such time as the incumbent begins to officiate, id. s. 9.

28. In any parish where any impropriations be, the impropriators shall pay what really and bona fide they have used and ought to pay to the incumbent, at any time before the late fire, and the same shall be computed as part of the maintenance of such incumbent, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 15. s. 10.

29. If any inhabitants in any parish neglect to pay any sum payable by this act, (being lawfully demanded at the premises whereout the same is payable), the lord mayor, upon oath made before him of such neglect, may grant warrants for the officer or person appointed to collect the same, with the assistance of a constable in the day-time, to levy the same by distress and sale of the goods of the party so neglecting to pay, restoring the overplus to the owner, after charges of the distress deducted, id. s. 11.

30. In case the lord mayor or court of aldermen neglect to execute any of the powers to them by this act granted, or to perform every thing relating to the assessing or levying such sums, the lord chancellor or 2 barons of the exchequer may, by warrant under their hands and seals, do what such lord mayor and court of aldermen ought to have done; and by such warrant may either empower any person to make the assessments, or to authorize the officers or persons appointed to collect the sums aforesaid, to levy the same by distress and sale of the goods of any person neglecting to pay, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 15. s. 12.

31. No court or judge ecclesiastical or temporal shall hold plea for any sum to be paid by virtue of this act, other than the persons hereby authorized; nor shall any parson, vicar, curate, or incumbent sue any person neglecting to pay in any court, or before any judge, other than what are appointed by this act, id. s. 14.

32. The warden and minor canons of St. Paul's church, London, parson and proprietors of the rectory of St. Gregory, may receive and enjoy all tithes, oblations, and duties arising within such parish, as formerly they lawfully might have done, id. s. 15.

LONDON (ERROR).

33. REDRESS OF ERRORS and misprisions in the city of London, 28 Ed. 3. c. 10. [Amended as to s. 1. by 1 H. 4. c. 15. and Cons. as to the rest, id. ibid.]

34. The mayor, sheriffs, and aldermen, having the governance of the city of London, shall cause to be redressed the errors, defaults, and misprisions, notoriously used therein for default of their good governance, the same to be duly punished by a (certain) penalty; [1000 marks for the 1st, 2000 for the 2d, and forfeiture of the city franchise to H. M. for the 3d neglect, 28 Ed. 3. c. 10. s. 1. Amended as follows by 1 H. 4. c. 15. s. 1.] but these penalties are not limited in certain, but shall be by advice and discretion of the justices thereto assigned, as other cities and boroughs be, within the realm, 1 H. 4. c. 15. s. 1. [and see 28 Ed. 3. c. 10. s. 4. pl. 56., sub. fin.]

35. If such mayor, &c. do not afford due redress (as in s. 1.) it shall be enquired of their defaults, by inquests of foreign counties, viz. of Kent, Essex, Sussex, Hertford, Buckingham, and Berks, as well at suit of H. M. as of others who will complain; and if they be by such inquests indicted, they shall be caused to come by due process before H. M.'s justices thereto assigned, without the said city, before whom they shall answer as well to H. M. as the party; and if they put themselves on inquests, the same shall be taken by foreign people as above; and if attainted, the penalty shall be levied of such mayor, &c. and nevertheless the plaintiff shall recover treble damages against them, 28 Ed. 3. c. 10. s. 2.

36. Because the sheriffs of London are parties, the constable of the Tower, or his lieutenant shall be officer in their place, to reserve the writs, as well original out of chancery, as judicial under seals of the justices for execution thereof in the city; process shall be made by attachments and distresses, and by exigent if necessary, to be awarded at returns of the 1st capias at H. M.'s suit, and of 3d at that of the party, where the mayor, &c. have lands out of the city, process shall be had against them by attachments, &c. in the counties where they be; and every of the said mayors, &c. appearing before the justices, shall answer separately for himself, as well at the peril of those absent as at his own; and no franchise or custom shall avail against this ordinance, id. s. 3.; which shall extend to other cities and boroughs of the realm, where such defaults, &c. be used and not redressed, the inquests being taken of foreign people of the county, where such cities, &c. are, and the penalty of those attainted shall be at discretion of the justices thereto assigned, id. s. 4.

LONDON (FIRE).

37. THE LORD MAYOR, ALDERMEN, AND COMMON COUNCIL of the city of London, may prohibit such trades and occupations as they judge noisome or perilous in respect of fire, to be exercised in the principal streets of such city, 19 C. 2. c. 3. s. 21.

38. The 2d Sept., unless the same is a Sunday, and then the next day shall be yearly for ever observed as a day of public fasting and humiliation within such city, s. 28.; and a pillar shall be set up in memory of the dreadful fire of London, id. s. 29. [see BUILDINGS, Stats. Exp. &c. pl. 2.]

LONDON (FRANCHISE).

39. EVERY FREEMAN AND CITIZEN OF London may lead, carry, and go, with his merchandize, at his liberty, to any fair or market in Eng., notwithstanding ordinances of London to the contrary (which are hereby declared void,) and without loss of his liberty and franchise within the city; and any person prejudicing another by occasion hereof, shall forfeit to H. M. 10*l.* recoverable by a common informer in action of debt, H. M. having execution of one-half, and the plaintiff of the other, 3 H. 7. c. 9. s. 1.

40. THE ANNUAL ADMISSION and swearing the mayor of London at Guildhall shall be performed there, the 8th Nov., 25 G. 2. c. 31. s. 4.

41. THE PRESENTING AND SWEARING the mayor of London into office before H. M. in exchequer, shall be observed there on the 9th Nov., or on the day following if the 9th fall on a Sunday, 24 G. 2. c. 48. s. 11.

LONDON (JURY). (See ATTAINT.)

42. THEY THAT DWELL AT THE STEWS IN Southwark shall not be impanelled in juries, nor keep any inn or tavern, except there, 11 H. 6. c. 1.

43. THE CHALLENGE IN THE CITY OF London, called riens dryns le gard, shall be no challenge, saving to all persons all other challenges, 7 H. 7. c. 4. or c. 5.

44. CONCERNING JURIES IN London, 11 H. 7. c. 21. (intituled "An act against perjury," [Amended 4 H. 8. c. 5. (ss. 2. and 3. of which are explained, 5 H. 8. c. 5.; sed quare if not Ex. P. see s. 5. at the end.) and by 37 H. 8. c. 5.]

45. No person shall be sworn in any jury or inquest in courts within London, except he have lands, tenements, or goods and chattels worth 40 marks, or for lands or tenements, or action personal, of 40 marks value or above, except he have lands, &c. (as above) worth 100 marks; and want of such qualification shall be ground of challenge, and every juror making default shall forfeit, in issues, 12*d.*, at the second default 2*s.*, and double at every succeeding default, 11 H. 7. c. 21. s. 1.

46. All such issues lost in the mayor's court shall be forfeited to the use of the mayor and commonalty, and those in the sheriff's court to the use of the sheriffs of London towards their fee farm, [11 H. 7. c. 21. s. 1.] and they may respectively distrain and retain the distresses till satisfied of such issues, 4 H. 8. c. 5. s. 1.

47. The sheriffs of London may return citizens having goods of 100 marks value as jurors to try issues joined in actions in K. B., C. P., and exchequer, triable in London, who shall be sworn and act as other persons having lands of 40*s.* yearly value, 4 H. 8. c. 5. s. 2.

48. The said sheriffs shall be bound to return at every first distress of ni si prius to be had at St. Martin's le Grand in every such action 20*d.*, on the 2d, 40*d.*; and on every other distress, the double on every juror till a full jury appear and be sworn to try the issues joined therein; and the sheriffs who shall make any other return on such distresses, [viz. before justices or justice of ni si prius in London, 5 H. 8. c. 5. s. 1.] shall forfeit 10*l.* in moieties to H. M. and party suing; but may make their returns on all other processes out of the above courts as before the statutes, 1 H. 8. c. 5. s. 3., 5 H. 8. c. 5. s. 1.

49. The party grieved by any false verdict in any of the city courts, may sue attain by bill before the mayor and aldermen in the court of hustings, [11 H. 7. c. 21. s. 2.] and any citizens having chattels worth 200 marks, may be impanelled and returned by the sheriffs therein, without challenge for insufficiency of lands, [37 H. 8. c. 5. s. 5.] the justices shall sit only at the Guildhall, or other convenient place within the city, and there swear the grand jury, and take the verdicts in such attaints, and none of the parties shall challenge the array or any juror therein impanelled for insufficiency of goods or lands, 11 H. 7. c. 21. s. 2., 37 H. 8. c. 5. s. 5.

50. The judgment in such attaint shall not extend to any lands, &c. or to other punishment of the petty jury, nor other process therein had than herein limited; and if 24 of the 48 persons sworn in the attaint, [viz. the grand jury] find that the petty jury have given an untrue verdict, the judgment shall be against the defendant as at common law, and against the petty jury that every juror shall forfeit 20*l.*, or more at discretion of the court of hustings to like use as the other penalties forfeited in actions commenced before the mayor, &c. of the city, and shall be imprisoned for 6 months or less at like discretion, and be disabled to be sworn as a juror before any temporal judge, 11 H. 7. c. 21. s. 3.

51. Though the grand jury in attaint affirm the first verdict, yet they may enquire if any of the petty jury took money or other reward or promise thereof, to the intent of [Qu. to affect] their verdict, and the punishment thereof shall be imprisonment and disability as in s. 3., with forfeiture to the plaintiff of ten times the sum so taken, id. s. 4.

52. The defendant in attaint corrupting the petty jury, shall forfeit 10 times the sum or other reward by him given to them, and shall be imprisoned for 6 months or less at the like discretion, and where any debts, damages, or costs are recovered in any action in which the jury are attainted of a false verdict, the plaintiff shall have an action of debt against the defendant for the restitution thereof, 11 H. 7. c. 21. s. 5.

53. If any plaintiff in attaint commenced before the said mayor, &c. on any record remaining in the city, be nonsuit, or if the first oath therein be affirmed, he shall be imprisoned and fined by discretion of the mayor, &c. the fine going to the mayor and commonalty; attaints shall not abate by the death or nonsuit of one plaintiff, defendant, or any of the petty jury, so that 2 of the latter remain, id. s. 6.

54. Every grand juror making default, shall for the first offence forfeit 40s., for the 2d, 5s., and for every other, 10s., to the use of the mayor and commonalty, [but shall not be distrained to attend without the limits of the city, 37 H. 8. c. 5. s. 3.] all process in attaint against the grand and petty jury, and parties shall be as at common law, returnable at every husting of common pleas; and no default in appearance of defendant, or of the petty jury shall stay the attaint, 11 H. 7. c. 21. s. 7. and 37 H. 8. c. 5. s. 3.

55. All attaints commenced in the city on any record wherein the trial was by a jury de medietate lingue, shall be taken by a grand jury, half of strangers having 100l. or more in goods inhabiting the city, and the residue of citizens qualified as above, id. s. 8.

56. Other acts respecting attaints shall not extend to London, id. s. 9.

LONDON (POOR).

57. FOR KEEPING REGULAR UNIFORM AND ANNUAL REGISTERS of all parish poor infants under a certain age within the bills of mortality, 2 G. 3. c. 22. [And, and Ext. to children under 6 years old, 7 G. 3. c. 39. Public clause, s. 24. See 52 G. 3. c. 146. REGISTER.]

58. The churchwardens and overseers of the poor of every parish within the bills of mortality, shall enter in the book belonging to their parish, all infants under 4 years, which shall be in the workhouse or other place provided for the maintenance of the poor, on 1st July 1762, or under their care, with the times when received, their names, age, and description, as far as can be traced, 2 G. 3. c. 22. s. 2.

59. All infants under 4 years, brought to any workhouse, shall be, by the churchwardens or overseers, entered regularly in such book, with the times of their admittance, and all circumstances relating to them, id. s. 3.

60. The first annual register shall commence on 1st July, and end 31st Dec.; and after that time, it shall commence the 1st Jan. and end 31st Dec., id. s. 4.

61. After the expiration of each year, the names of all infants under 4 years of age, then living and registered, and not discharged, shall be transferred to the registers for the year ensuing, under the description in the preceding registers, previous to any further entry; so that each annual register shall contain a full register of the whole number at that time, as well as the children received under such age, in the current year, without being intermixed with the deaths or discharges of the preceding years, id. s. 5.

62. Such registers shall be signed within 30 days after the expiration of each year by the vestry, or any 5 of them, and by the churchwardens, overseers, vestry clerk, and master of the workhouse; and where there is no vestry, by the churchwardens, overseers, and master of the workhouse; and where there is no master of the workhouse, by the churchwardens and overseers, 2 G. 3. c. 22. s. 6.

63. In case any infant is received before baptized, due care shall be taken to baptize the same within 14 days after the reception of such infant, so that the christian and the true surname, if known, and if not known, a surname to be given by the churchwardens and overseers of the poor, be regularly entered in the books, and registered in the parish register; and in case of a difficulty of distinguishing children, some proper mark shall be affixed to the child's clothes, or hung round its neck, id. s. 7.

64. Nothing herein contained shall extend to such children whose parents receive money from the parish in aid of the maintenance of such children, not being in the workhouse, id. s. 8.

65. A copy of such register wrote up, from time to time, shall, every month, be laid by the vestry clerk, before the vestries, or parochial meetings, to be revised by them, id. s. 9.

66. Such copy of the register being completed at the end of the year, shall be deposited in the vestry room, or other place of parochial meetings, to remain there for the use of the vestry, id. s. 10.

67. The original vestry book shall remain with the rest of the parish books in the hands of the parish officers, id. s. 11.

68. All the parishes within the bills of mortality, by the hand of their vestry clerk, or where there is no vestry clerk, by the hands of the churchwardens, shall before 15 Feb. in every year, deliver fair copies of their registers, signed in manner hereby directed, into the hands of the clerk of the company of parish clerks, or such person as such company shall appoint, he returning a receipt for the same signed by himself, 2 G. 3. c. 22. s. 12.

69. Such clerk, or other person so appointed, shall receive such copies, and cause the same to be bound in a book, collecting and ranging together the registers of the 97 parishes within London, those of the 17 parishes without, those of the 23 parishes in Middlesex and Surrey, and those of the 10 parishes in the city and liberty of Westminster, in alphabetical order; and in this order he shall, before the 25th March in every year, make out one general abstract of the same, id. s. 13.

70. Such registers, together with such general abstract, being bound in a book together, shall remain in the custody of such company of parish clerks, id. s. 14.

71. The said clerk, or other person appointed by such company, shall print the general abstract, and deliver 6 copies thereof to every vestry clerk, or one of the churchwardens, of all the parishes within the bills, for the use of the parishioners and officers, id. s. 15.

72. Each parish shall, by the hands of the vestry clerk or churchwardens, pay into the hands of the clerk, or other person appointed by such company 15s. at the time the copies of registers are delivered to him, he passing a receipt for the same, id. s. 16.

73. If any churchwarden, overseer of the poor, vestryman, clerk of the vestry, master of the workhouse, master or warden of such company of parish clerks, or any clerk of such company, or any other person, shall neglect his duty directed by this act, such churchwarden, &c. shall for every offence, forfeit to the informer 10s.; to be recovered before one justice, and to be levied by distress and sale, by warrant of such justice under his hand and seal, directed to any peace-officer, id. s. 17.

74. All children who shall be born in any workhouse or parish house, or received by any select vestries, governors, directors, or managers, for parochial affairs, or by any churchwardens, overseers of the poor, or other officers authorized by the several parishes following; viz. the 17 parishes without the walls of London; the 23 parishes of Middlesex and Surrey, within the bills of mortality, and the liberty of the Tower of London; and the 10 parishes within the city and liberty of Westminster; shall be nursed and taken care of in manner as after mentioned, 7 G. 3. c. 39. s. 1.

75. All children who shall be born in or received into workhouses or parish-houses of such parishes, not being suckled by the mother under the age of 2 years, shall, within 14 days after their birth or reception, be sent into the country, not less than 5 miles from London or Westminster; and all children received into such houses above the age of 2, and under 6 years, shall, within 14 days after their reception, be sent into the country, not less than 5 miles from London and Westminster, to be nursed, id. s. 3.

76. For the nursing and maintenance of each child so put out, these sums shall be paid; viz. for the first 6 years of their age, not less than 2s. 6d.; and from that time until put out apprentice or returned to the workhouse, not less than 2s. per week; and shall also over such charge, pay to every nurse who shall have received any child of or under the age of 9 months (the said child being alive, and having been treated properly, and to the satisfaction of the guardians hereafter mentioned), after having been under her care 12 months, not less than 10s., as a reward for her pains; and the governors, directors, managers, or overseers of the poor, shall find good, proper, and sufficient clothing, and shall defray the conveyance, medicines, burials, and all other necessary expences incurred on account of such children; and shall keep separate and exact accounts of all expences in relation thereto, id. s. 4.

77. Five noblemen or gentlemen, inhabitants of each parish, shall be appointed guardians of the parish poor children; 2 or more of which shall be chosen out of the select vestry, or out of the governors, directors, or managers of the poor; and where there is no select vestry, governors, &c. then such 5 guardians to be appointed out of the noblemen and gentlemen inhabitants of each parish; and the election to be made upon Tuesday, or some other day in Easter week, by the vestry; and in case there shall be no noblemen or gentlemen, or not a sufficient number of such who will accept of the office of guardians; then such guardians shall be chosen out of the principal inhabitants; and if any of the parties so chosen shall refuse to act, or shall afterwards resign, or die, a further choice shall, be made within 14 days after, id. s. 5.

78. Such noblemen, gentlemen, or principal inhabitants, who shall be first appointed, shall continue in office till Easter, 1770; and the guardians then chosen, or at any time thereafter to be chosen, shall remain in office for 3 years then next ensuing; and all appointments in future shall be once in 3 years only; except in cases of death, resignation, or refusal, id. s. 6.

79. No churchwarden or overseer shall be elected guardian, id. s. 7.

80. Such guardians, or any one of them, shall have free admittance to visit and see the parish poor children; and also have full liberty to examine all registers, books, and accounts, relating to such children; and in case of any improper conduct whereby the life or health of a child may appear to be in danger, to report the same to the select vestry, governors, directors, or managers, or to the churchwardens or overseers; and if they do not take measures to remedy the evil complained of, then the guardians, or one of them, may inform one justice, and give evidence of the facts; and such justice shall give such orders therein as he shall think proper, 7 G.3. c.39. s. 9.

81. Such guardians shall be summoned by the vestry clerk, once in 6 weeks, to meet at the vestry room, or other convenient place; and 2 of the guardians shall make a quorum, either having the liberty of calling in one of the churchwardens or overseers; and when only one of the guardians is present, he shall have liberty of calling in 2, who shall attend; and when any number of the 5 guardians meet, they shall have liberty of calling in 2, as the majority think proper, id. s. 9.

82. Such select vestries, governors, directors, or managers, churchwardens, or overseers, may send their parish poor children, under the age of 6 years, to the hospital for the maintenance and education of exposed and deserted young children; and such select vestries, &c. shall agree with the governors and guardians of the hospital, on terms adequate to the support and maintenance of each child, id. s. 10.

83. The sums agreed to be paid for the admission, maintenance, and education of such parish poor children as shall be sent to such hospital, shall be paid by the overseer, out of the poor's rate; and in case the money agreed between such select vestry, &c. and the governors, &c. of such hospital, or 5 of them in committee, is not paid by such overseer to the person authorized by such governor, &c. to receive the same, one justice may summon the overseer, and order immediate payment, together with costs incurred, in consequence of such neglect; and if the overseer shall refuse or neglect to obey the order of such justice, the sum directed to be paid thereby shall be recovered by distress and sale of the goods of such overseer, with costs, id. s. 11.

84. At the death, discharge, or apprenticeship of any such parish poor child, a certificate thereof shall be sent by the secretary of such governors and guardians, to the vestry clerk, or overseers of the poor, of such parish to which the child did belong, id. s. 12.

85. The hospital account shall be kept with each parish distinct, in a proper book, with marginal columns, according to schedule (A); and shall be signed by the secretary of the hospital, id. s. 13.

86. It shall be lawful to bind out boys as well as girls apprentices for 7 years, or till they attain the age of 21, and no longer, id. s. 14.

87. No such parish child shall be bound out with less than 4l. 2s. as an apprentice-fee; 40s. whereof to be paid to the master or mistress within 7 weeks after executing the indentures, and the remaining 42s. after the apprentice has served 3 years of apprenticeship, id. s. 15.

88. The vestries, governors, directors managers, overseers of the poor, or other officers, shall provide at the expence of the parishes wherein there is or shall be a workhouse, hospital, or other place for the maintenance of the poor, a book of royal paper, ruled with distinct columns, and the title of each column shall be wrote or printed in such page agreeable to the schedule (B); and the book belonging to each parish, where there is not any workhouse, or place, shall in every page be ruled with distinct columns, and the title of each column shall be wrote or printed in such page agreeable to schedule (C), notwithstanding 2 G.3. c.22., id. s. 16.

89. There shall be mentioned at the foot of each register, the gross number of children remaining in the hands of mothers relieved by the parishes during the year, not entered in the register; and the number of such who are alive, id. s. 17.

90. The abstract of the register of the said infant poor shall be according to schedule marked (D), s. 18.

91. A full list of all apprentices placed out shall be made out by the vestry clerks, or other proper officer, and delivered, in the month of February in every year, to the company of parish clerks, to be written on royal paper according to schedule (E), to be bound up and deposited by the company of parish clerks; and such company shall make out an abstract thereof, distinguishing the number from each parish, and how many of them were born in the workhouse, and shall cause the same to be printed, and send 6 copies of the abstract to each parish, id. s. 20.

92. Such annual register and lists shall commence 1st Jan. and end 31st Dec. following, id. s. 21.

93. All expences incident to the nursing, maintenance, education, placing out apprentice, or the matters herein contained, not herein particularly ordered, shall be paid out of the poor rates, id. s. 22.

94. If any churchwarden, overseer, vestryman, clerk of the vestry, master of the workhouse, or master or warden or clerk of such company of parish clerks, or any other person, shall neglect his duty directed by this act, he shall forfeit 5l. to the informer 5l., to be recovered before two justices, and levied by distress and sale of the goods of the offender, by warrant under their hands and seals, directed to any constable or peace officer; and the overplus shall be returned to the owner, after the charge of distress and sale is deducted, 7 G.3. c.39. s. 23.

LONDON (RECOVERIES).

95. OF FEIGNED RECOVERY IN London, to make a termor lose his term, 6 E.1. c.11. [Ext. 21 H.8. c.15. See RECOVERIES.]

96. If any man lease his tenement in the city of London, for a term of years, and the owner of the freehold causes himself to be implicated by collusion, and maketh default or cometh into court and giveth it up, to make the termor lose his term, and the demandant hath his suit, so that the termor may have recovery by writ of covenant, the mayor and bailiffs may inquire by a good inquest, in the presence of the termor and the demandant, whether the defendant moved his plea upon good right, or by collusion, to make the termor lose his term; and if it be found that he had such right, judgment shall be given forthwith; but if it be found that he implicated him by fraud, to put the termor from his term, then such termor shall enjoy his term, and execution of judgment shall be suspended till the term expired; and in like manner shall it be of equity in such case before the justices, if the termor challenge before judgment, id. ibid.

97. FINES IN TOWNS CORPORATE SHALL BE MADE as the same have been in times past, 34 & 35 H.8. c.22. [The word "Fines" is used in this title, but QU. ought it not to have been "Recoveries?"]

98. All recoveries, deeds enrolled, and releases hereafter to be taken and acknowledged by women covert, before the mayors, aldermen, recorders, chamberlains, or other head officers, as well of city of London as of any other city, borough, or town corporate in Eng., having authority to take the same, according to the customs thereof, shall be of like force as they were before 32 H.8. c.28. s.6, made 34 & 35 H.8. c.22. [The 32 H.8. c.20. s.6. declares that no act done by the husband only, shall operate as a discontinuance to the wife's inheritance, see LEASES, pl. 6.]

LONDON (SHIPPING).

99. TO PREVENT MISCHIEFS AND ANNOYANCES UPON THE RIVER Thames below London bridge, 5 G.2. c.20. ss. 4. 15. [For rest of this act, see PILOTAGE. STATUTES R.E. and EXP. pl. 2.]

100. If the master or commander of any vessel (except H.M.'s ships) shall, while such vessel lies in the Thames between London bridge and Blackwall, keep any gun belonging to such vessel shotted or loaded with ball, or shall fire or discharge, or permit to be fired, &c. any gun on board of such vessel lying above Blackwall, before sun-rising or after sun-setting, he shall forfeit 5s. for each gun so kept shotted or loaded, and 10s. for each gun fired; and if such master, &c. or other person on board of such vessel shall, while she lies in the Thames between London bridge and Blackwall, heat or melt, or permitted to be heated, &c. by fire, logger, heat, shot or any thing on board of such vessel, any pitch, tar, rosin, grease, tallow, oil or other combustible matter, he shall forfeit 5l., id. s. 4.

101. The Trinity House of Deptford Strand, by an instrument under their common seal, may appoint any elder brother of such corporation to go in a boat between sun-rise and sun-set to any vessel, and enter on board thereof (except H.M.'s ships), in order to search for [powder, R.E., 12 G.3. c.61. s.51. see (GUNPOWDER) gun shotted, and the heating and melting of such combustible matters within such limits, and if any master, commander or other officer in any such vessel shall, on demand, refuse to permit such person to enter and search he shall forfeit 5l., id. s. 5.

102. All penalties imposed by this act shall go to the poor of such corporation, id. s. 6.

103. Two justices for the city of London, or for the four counties above mentioned [so in act, but no counties are mentioned, probably the counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent, and Essex, were meant], not being members of such corporation, may determine offences against this act; and on information exhibited, or complaint made, within 10 days after the offence committed, may summon the accused, and also the witnesses on either side: or after oath made of the commission of any such facts by one witness, may issue a warrant to apprehend the offender in such cities or counties, or on the Thames within such limits, and on his appearance, or contempt in not appearing [on proof of notice given], may proceed to the examination of witnesses on oath, and give judgment accordingly; and where the party is convicted on view of such justice, or on such information or on confession, may award warrants to levy the penalty on the goods of the offender, and may sell the same if not redeemed within 5 days, rendering overplus to the owner; and if no such goods can be found, may commit the offender to prison for 3 months, or till the penalty is paid, and the party grieved by such sentence may appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county, city or place where the offence was committed, who may summon and examine the witnesses on oath and finally determine the same, and in case of conviction may issue warrants to levy such penalties as aforesaid, 5 G. 2. c. 20. s. 7. [The ss. 8, 9. are Exp.]

104. If any vessel shall be laid up or moored in the mouth or any part of St. Saviour's dock (except vessels loading or unloading, and except vessels, not exceeding two at a time, as shall lie in Shipwright Yard whilst repairing), the master or owner thereof shall pay for each day his vessel shall continue so laid up or moored, 20s., to be recovered and applied as other penalties under this act may be, id. s. 10.

105. This act shall not abridge, interrupt or defeat any grants, liberties, franchises and privileges heretofore enjoyed by ancient custom by the pilots of the Trinity House, of Kingston upon Hull, or Newcastle upon Tyne, id. s. 11.

106. This act shall not abridge, prejudice or impeach any grant, franchise, authorities or immunities, nor lessen the sole right of piloting all merchant vessels, from or by Dover, Deal and the Isle of Thanet, up the Thames and Medway, granted to the society and fellowship of the master, warden and pilots of the Trinity House of Dover, Deal and the Isle of Thanet, by the 3 G. 1. c. 15. and 7 G. 2. St. 1. c. 21., but they shall remain in full force, 5 G. 2. c. 20. s. 12. [This act REPEALED together with all others relating to pilotage, by 48 G. 3. c. 104. and 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 1. See PILOTAGE.]

107. This act shall be deemed a public act, and all actions for any thing done in pursuance hereof shall be commenced within 3 months after the fact done, and shall be laid in the county, city or place where the cause arose, and the defendants therein may plead the general issue, not guilty, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof; and if it appear to have been so done, or if such action is brought after the time limited, or is laid in the wrong county, &c. the jury shall find for the defendants; or if the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues, or has a verdict or judgment on demurrer against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 13.

108. This act shall not prejudice any right, property or jurisdiction of the mayor, or mayor commonalty and citizens of the city of London, to, in and upon the Thames, id. s. 14.

109. This act shall not prejudice or derogate from any right, authority or jurisdiction belonging to the office of the lord high admiral, but the same shall continue as before this act, id. s. 15.

LONDON (SHOEMAKERS).

(STATUTES REPEALED.)

110. FOR REGULATING SHOEMAKERS IN London, and within 3 miles thereof, 4 E. 4. c. 7. RLP. 113 15 H. 8. c. 9.

STATUTE in force.

111. FOR PREVENTING JOURNEMEN SHOEMAKERS selling, exchanging or pawning boots, shoes, slippers, cut leather, or other materials for making boots, &c. and for better regulating the said journeymen, 9 G. 1. c. 27.

112. If any journeyman shoemaker, or other person hired or employed as such, within the bills of mortality shall be accused by the master so employing such journeyman, &c. of having fraudulently purloined, embezzled, sold, pawned or exchanged any boots, shoes, slippers, cut leather, lace, silk, lasts, or other materials for making boots, shoes, slippers or other wares not being his proper goods, one justice for the county, city or place where the offence was committed, or the offender resides, shall, on complaint or information on oath of such offence, summon the party or issue his warrant to apprehend the party accused, and bring him before him, and, upon his appearance or default, may examine the matter charged, and on proof made by confession, or the oath of one witness, determine the same, and convict the offender; and, upon such conviction, shall award to the party injured reasonable satisfaction for the damages sustained, and upon his neglect to pay, may levy the same by warrant under hand and seal upon the goods of the offender, and for want of distress may cause the offender to be whipt in the parish where the offence was committed, and in case of conviction for any second or other such offence, may commit the offender to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month, nor less than 14 days, id. s. 1.

113. Every person who shall buy or receive or take in pawn of or from any journeyman shoemaker, or other such person, or from any other person, any boots, shoes, slippers, &c. or such other materials not being their own proper goods, shall, on conviction as aforesaid, make such recompence within 2 days after the fact is determined, as upon hearing the same shall be awarded, or else shall be subject to such distress, and for want of distress shall be liable to like punishment as is hereby inflicted on such journeyman or other persons so purloining, pawning, &c. such goods or materials, 9 G. 1. c. 27. s. 2.

114. Any two justices dwelling within such limits as in s. 1., on complaint or information on oath, may issue their warrant for searching in the day time the house, warehouse or other place of such persons as such justice shall suspect to have received, bought or taken in pawn any such goods so fraudulently embezzled or purloined, and on refusal may break open such house, &c.; and all persons who shall oppose such search shall forfeit 10*l.* to any person who will inform, and sue for it within 2 calendar months after the offence committed in any court of record at Westminster by action of debt, &c. or information wherein no essoins, &c. and only one imprisonment allowed; and if it appear by the oath of one witness, or upon such search, that such persons had in their custody any such goods so fraudulently sold, exchanged or pawned, such justices shall restore them to the owners, and oblige the offender to recompence such owner for the damage in detaining such goods and the charges for getting the same, and on refusal so to do shall be subject to the like punishment as is inflicted on such journeymen, &c. so purloining, &c. such goods, id. s. 3.

115. Every person who shall be retained in the making of boots, shoes, slippers and other wares for one master, and shall neglect to perform the same by suffering himself to be retained by another master before he has completed such first master's work, shall, on conviction by oath of one witness before one justice where the offence was committed, be sent to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding one month, id. s. 4.

116. Any person aggrieved by orders made by such justices may appeal to the quarter sessions for the county, city or place where such order was made, giving 8 days' notice thereof, and such session shall hear the master and make satisfaction to either party, and their determination shall be final, id. s. 5.

LONDON (SKAVAGE OR SKEWAGE).

117. CONCERNING SKAVAGE OR SKEWAGE, 19 H. 7. c. 8.

118. If any mayor or other officer of any city, or town, levy the custom called skavage or skewage, of any denizen, of any merchandize customed to H. M. brought to any city, &c. to be sold; or for nonpayment thereof, shall disturb any denizens to sell their merchandize, he shall forfeit 20*l.*, to go one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party grieved, or to any who will sue for the same by action of debt, wherein no essoins, &c., id. s. 1.

119. Provided that the mayor, sheriff, and commonalty of London, may take such sums for skavage as H. M. in council may determine, id. s. 2.

LONDON (TYTHES).

(STATUTE EXPIRED.)

FOR LIMITING AN ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF TYTHES, 27 H. 8. c. 21. [Exp.]

(STATUTES in force.)

120. FOR TYTHES IN London, 57 H. 8. c. 12. [but see 22 & 23. C. 2. c. 15. LONDON (Clergy).]

121. Arbitrators shall be chosen between the parsons, vicars, and curates of London, and the citizens and inhabitants of the same, as to the payment of tythes, and the decree of such arbitrators shall be enrolled in chancery, and be as valid as an act of parliament, and every person who shall refuse to pay his tythes, oblations, and other duties according to such decree, shall be imprisoned by the mayor, or in his default, by the chancellor, till he shall have agreed for his tythes, &c., id. ibid.

The Decree.

¶ 11. As touching the payment of tythes in the city of London, and the liberties of the same, it is fully ordered and decreed by the most reverend father in God, Thomas archbishop of Canterbury, primate and metropolitan of Eng., Thomas lord Wryothescly, lord chancellor of Eng., William lord St. John, president of H. M.'s council, and lord great master of his highness' household, John lord Russell, lord privy seal, Edmund earl of Hereford, lord great chamberlain of Eng., John viscount Lisle, high admiral of Eng., Richard Lister, knight, chief justice of Eng., and Roger Cholmley, knight, chief baron of his grace's exchequer, this present twenty-fourth day of February, anno Domini, secundum cursum & computationem Ecclesie Anglicane, millesimo quingentesimo quadragesimo quinto, according to the statute in such case lately provided, that the citizens and inhabitants of the said city of London, and liberties of the same, for the time being, shall yearly, without fraud or covin, for ever pay their tythes to the parsons, vicars, and curates of the said city, and their successors for the time being, after the rate hereafter following, that is to wit, of every 2*s.* rent by the year of all and every house and house, shops, warehouses, cellars, stables, and every of them within the said city and liberty of the same, xvj d. ob.; and every of xx s. rent by the year of all and every such house and houses, shops, warehouses, cellars, and stables, and every of them within the said city and liberties, ij s. and ix d.; and so above the rent of xx s. by the year, ascending from x s. to x s. according to the rate aforesaid.

‘III. That where any lease is or shall be made of any dwelling-house or houses, shops, warehouses, cellars, or stables, or any of them, by fraud or covin, reserving less rent than has been accustomed, or is, or that any such lease shall be made without any rent reserved upon the same, by reason of any fine or income paid beforehand, or by any other fraud or covin; that then in every such case the tenant or farmer, tenants and farmers thereof shall pay, for his or their tythes of the same after the rate aforesaid, according to the quality of such rent or rents, at the same house or houses, shops, warehouses, cellars, or stables, or any of them were last letten for, without fraud or covin, before the making of such lease.

‘IV. That every owner or owners, inheritor or inheritors, of any dwelling-house or houses, shops, warehouses, cellars, or stables, or any of them, within the said city and liberties, inhabiting or occupying the same himself or themselves, shall pay after such rate or tythes as is abovesaid, after the quantity of such yearly rent as the same was last letten for, without fraud or covin.

‘V. If any person or persons have taken, or hereafter shall take any messuage or mansion place by lease, and the taker or takers thereof, his or their executors or assigns, doth or shall inhabit in any part thereof, and have or hath within eight years last past before this order, or hereafter will or shall let out the residue of the same; that then in such case the principal farmer or farmers, or first taker or takers thereof, his or their executors or assigns, shall pay his or their tythes after the rate aforesaid, according to his or their quantity therein, and that his or their executors, assignee or assignees, shall pay his or their tythes after the rate abovesaid, according to the quantity of their rent by year.

‘VI. And that if any person or persons have, or shall take divers mansion-houses, shops, warehouses, cellars, or stables, in one lease, and letteth or shall let out one or more of the said houses, and keepeth or shall keep one or more in his or their own hands, and inhabiteth or inhabit in the same; that then the said taker or takers and his and their executors or assigns shall pay his or their tythes after the rate abovesaid, according to the quantity of the yearly rent of such mansion-house, or houses, retained in his or their hands; and that his assignee or assignees of the residue of the said mansion-house, or houses, shall pay his or their tythes after the rate abovesaid, according to the quantity of their yearly rents.

‘VII. If such farmer or farmers, or his or their assigns of any mansion-house, or houses, warehouses, shops, cellars, or stables, hath at any time within 8 years last past, or shall hereafter let over all the said mansion-house or houses, contained in his or their lease, to one person or to divers persons; that then the inhabitants, lessees, or occupiers of them, and every of them, shall pay their tythes after the rate of such rents as the inhabitants, lessees, or occupiers, and their assignee or assignees have been or shall be charged withal, without fraud or covin.

‘VIII. If any dwelling house, within 8 years last past, was or hereafter shall be converted into a warehouse, storehouse, or such like, or if a warehouse, storehouse, or such like, within the said 8 years, was or hereafter shall be converted into a dwelling-house; that then the occupiers thereof shall pay tythes for the same, after the rate above declared of mansion-house rents.

‘IX. That where any person shall demise any dyehouse or brewhouse, with implements convenient and necessary for dying or brewing, reserving a rent upon the same, as well in respect of such implements, as in respect of such dyehouse or brewhouse; that then the tenant shall pay his tythes after such rate as is abovesaid, the third penny abated; and that every principal house or houses, with key or wharf, having any crane or gibbet belonging to the same, shall pay after the like rate of their rents, as is aforesaid, the third penny abated; and that other wharfs belonging to the houses having no crane or gibbet, shall pay for his tythes as shall be paid for mansion-houses, in form aforesaid.

‘X. That where any mansion-house, with a shop, stable, warehouse, wharf with crane, timber-yard, winter-yard, or garden belonging to the same, or as parcel of the same, is or shall be occupied together, that if the same be hereafter severed or divided, or at any time within 8 years last past were severed or divided; that then the farmer or farmers, occupier or occupiers thereof, shall pay such tythes as is abovesaid, for such shops, stables, warehouses, wharf with crane, timber-yard, winter-yard, or garden aforesaid, so severed or divided, after the rate of their several rents thereupon reserved.

‘XI. That the said citizens and inhabitants shall pay their tythes quarterly, that is to say, at the feast of Easter, the nativity of St. John Baptist, the feast of St. Michael the archangel, and the Nativity of our Lord, by even portions.

‘XII. That every householder paying 10s. rent or above, shall, for him or herself, be discharged of their four offering-days; but his wife, children, servant, or others of their family, taking the rights of the church at Easter, shall pay 2d. for their four offering-days yearly.

‘XIII. Provided always, and it is decreed, that if any house or houses, which hath been or hereafter shall be letten for 10s. rent by year, or more, be or hath at any time within 8 years last passed, or hereafter shall be, divided and leased into small parcels or members, yielding less yearly rent than 10s. by the year; that then the owner or owners, if he or they dwell in any part of such house, or else the principal lessee and lessees, if the owner or owners do not dwell in some part of the same, shall from henceforth pay for his or their tythes after such rate of rent as the same house was accustomed to be letten for, before such division or dividing into parts or members; and the under farmer and farmers, lessee and lessees, to be discharged of all tythes for such small parcels, parts, or members, rented at less yearly rent than 10s. by year, without fraud or covin, paying 2d. yearly for four offering-days.

‘XIV. Provided always, and it is decreed, That for such gardens as appertain not to any mansion house, and which any person or persons holdeth or shall hold in his or their hands for pleasure, or to his own use; that the then person so holding the same, shall pay no tythes for the same: but if any person or persons, which holdeth, or shall hold any such garden, containing half an acre or more, doth or shall make any yearly profit thereof by way of sale; that then he or they shall pay tythes for the same, after such rate of hire, as is herein first above specified.

‘XV. Provided also, That if any such gardens now being of the quantity of half an acre, or more, be hereafter by fraud or covin, divided into less quantity or quantities, then to pay tythe according to the rate abovesaid.

‘XVI. Provided always, that this decree shall not extend to the houses of great men, or noble men, or noble women, kept in their own hands, and not letten for any rent, which in times past hath paid no tythes, so long as they shall so continue unletten: nor to any halls of crafts or companies, so long as they be kept unletten, so that the same halls in times past have not used to pay any tythes.

‘XVII. Provided always, and it is decreed, That this present order and decree shall not in any wise extend to bind or charge any sheds, stables, cellars, timber-yards, ne teinter-yards, which were never parcel of any dwelling-house, ne appertaining or belonging to any dwelling-house, ne have been accustomed to pay any tythes; but that the said citizens and inhabitants shall thereof be quit of payment of any tythes, as it hath been used and accustomed.

‘XVIII. Provided also, and it is decreed, That where less sum than after 16<sup>d</sup>. in the 10s. rent, or less sum than 2s. 9d. in the 20s. rent, hath been accustomed to be paid for tythes; that then in such places the said citizens and inhabitants shall pay but only after such rate as hath been accustomed.

XIX. It is also decreed, That if any variance, controversy, or strife, do or shall hereafter arise in the said city for non-payment of any tythes; or if any variance or doubt arise upon the true knowledge or division of any rent or tythes, within the liberties of the said city, or of any extent or assessment thereof, or if any doubt arise upon any other thing contained within this decree; that then upon complaint made by the party grieved, to the mayor of the city of London for the time being, the said mayor by the advice of council, shall call the said parties before him, and make a final end in the same, with costs to be awarded by the discretion of the said mayor and his assistants, according to the intent and purport of this present decree.

‘XX. And if the said mayor make not an end thereof within 2 months after complaint to him made, or if any of the said parties find themselves aggrieved, that then the lord chancellor of Eng. for the time being, upon complaint to him made within 3 months then next following, shall make an end in the same, with such costs to be awarded as shall be thought convenient, according to the intent and purport of the said decree.

‘XXI. Provided always, That if any person or persons take any tenement for a less rent than it was accustomed to be letten for, by reason of great ruin or decay, burning, or such like occasions or misfortunes; that then such person or persons, his executors or assigns, shall pay tythes only after the rate of the rent reserved in his or their lease, and none otherwise, as long as the same lease shall endure.

N. B. This decree is not entered on the statute roll of this year in chancery; nor has it been found enrolled on any other roll in chancery; nor is it annexed to the bill in the parliament office; it was not inserted in the earliest printed editions of the statutes; it is printed in Rastall's Abridgement of the Statutes (edit. 1579.) title Tithes; and in Pulton's Statutes at large, printed in 1618.

LONDON (VICTUAL).

122. WHO MAY GOVERN OR REFORM THE DEFAULTS OF victuallers in London, 31 E.3. c.10.

123. All persons may freely bring into, and sell in the city of London, all manner of victuals, without interruption by any fisher, butcher, poulterer, or others; and the mayor and aldermen of such city may rule and redress the defaults of fishers, &c. as they do those that sell bread, wine, or ale; and such mayor, &c. shall execute the same, upon the pain late ordained touching such arts, [Qu. 28 E.3. c.10. LONDON (Error)?] id. ibid.

LONDON (WARRANTY).

124. ONE IMPEADED in London VOUCHETH FOREIGN WARRANTY, 6 E.1. c.12.

125. If a man impeaded for a tenement in the same city doth vouch a foreigner to warranty, he shall come into chancery, and have a writ to summon his warrantor at a certain day, before the justices of the bench; and another writ to the mayor and bailiffs of London, to surcease in the matter, until the plea of warranty be determined before such justices of the bench, and when that is determined, the warrantor shall be commanded to go into the city to answer the chief plea; and a writ shall be awarded at the suit of the demandant by such justices to the mayor, &c., to proceed in the plea; and if the demandant recover against the tenant, the tenant shall come before such justices, and have a writ to the mayor and bailiffs, that if the tenant has lost his land, they shall cause the land to be extended and valued, and return the extent at a certain day into the bench, and afterwards it shall be commanded to the sheriff of the shire where the warrantor was summoned, to cause him to have as much of the land of the warrantor in value, 6 E. 1. c. 19.

126. And if the tenant make default at the day given to him in bank then a writ to the justices of the bench shall issue to the mayor and bailiffs, to take the land demanded into H. M.'s hand by the petit cape, and to summon the tenant, that he be at the hustings at a certain day, whereof the justices shall be advised to judge of such default if he cannot save it; and if he can save it, then the justices shall be thereof certified by their record, and the justices shall by their record proceed to determine on the warrant, Art. St. Gloucest. [annexed by way of note to the foregoing statute in the Statutes at Large.]

LONDON (WATER).

127. THE LORD MAYOR, ALDERMEN, AND COMMONALTY OF THE CITY of London, by order of common council, may, at their pleasure, remove out of any high-street all conduits that may be hereafter erected, and erect the same in another place within such city, or contract them into smaller compass in the places where they are erected, 19 C. 2. c. 5. s. 22.

9. TO REPEAL ALL FORMER ACTS CONCERNING the longitude at sea, except so much thereof, as relates to the appointment and authority of the commissioners thereby constituted; and also such clauses as relate to the constructing, printing, publishing, vending, and licensing of nautical almanacks, and other useful tables; and for the more effectual encouragement and reward of such person and persons as shall discover the method for finding the same, or shall make useful discoveries in navigation, and for the better making experiments relating thereto, 14 G. 3. c. 66., [AMENDED, 17 G. 5. c. 48. (which act is EXP.), and virtually REPEALED, by 58 G. 3. c. 20. s. 4.]

10. FOR GIVING A PUBLIC REWARD TO SUCH PERSON OR PERSONS, H. M.'s subject or subjects, as shall discover a northern passage for vessels by sea, between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans; and also unto such as shall first approach by sea within one degree of the northern pole, 16 G. 3. c. 6. [REPEALED, 58 G. 3. c. 20. s. 9.]

11. FOR CONTINUING THE ENCOURAGEMENT AND REWARD OF persons for making certain discoveries for finding the longitude at sea, or making other useful discoveries and improvements in navigation; and for making experiments relating thereto, 20 G. 3. c. 61., 21 G. 3. c. 52., 36 G. 3. c. 107., [EXP., and see 58 G. 3. c. 20. s. 4. pl. 5.]

12. FOR CONTINUING THE ENCOURAGEMENT AND REWARD OF PERSONS making certain discoveries for finding the longitude at sea, or making other useful discoveries and improvements in navigation, and for making experiments relating thereto; and for adding a commissioner, to execute the several acts for the discovery of the longitude at sea, 30 G. 3. c. 14. [REPEALED, 58 G. 3. c. 20. s. 1.]

13. TO RENDER 5 G. 5. c. 20. more effectual; and for discharging certain debts incurred by the commissioners of the longitude, in carrying the acts relating thereto into execution, 45 G. 3. c. 118. [EXP., and see 58 G. 3. c. 20. s. 4. pl. 5.]

14. FOR CONTINUING THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF PERSONS making discoveries for finding the longitude at sea, or other useful discoveries and improvements in navigation, and for making experiments relating thereto; and for discharging certain debts incurred by the commissioners of the longitude, in carrying the acts relating thereto into execution, 46 G. 3. c. 77., 55 G. 3. c. 75., [both acts EXP., and see 58 G. 3. c. 20. s. 4. pl. 5.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY DISCOVERING THE LONGITUDE AT SEA, and encouraging attempts to find a northern passage between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, and to approach the northern pole, 58 G. 3. c. 20. [AMENDED, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 2.]

2. The acts 12 A. c. 15., 26 G. 2. c. 25., and 50 G. 3. c. 14. are REPEALED, 58 G. 3. c. 20. s. 1.

3. The lord high treasurer of the U. K., or the first commissioner for executing such office, the lord high admiral, or first commissioner, and such other commissioners for executing such office, as may be flag officers, the speaker of the house of commons, the president of the council for trade and plantations, the governor of Greenwich hospital, the judge of the high court of admiralty, the secretaries of the treasury, the secretaries of the admiralty, the comptroller of the navy, the president and 5 fellows of the royal society, the royal astronomer at Greenwich, the Savilian, Lucasian, Plumian, and Lowndian professors of mathematics and astronomy at Oxford and Cambridge, the observer at the Ratcliffe observatory at Oxford, for the time being, and three other persons well versed in the science of mathematics, astronomy, or navigation, to be annually chosen, as hereinafter provided, shall be commissioners for discovering the longitude at sea, and for judging all proposals, experiments, and improvements relating to the same, and for rewarding persons making useful discoveries and improvements in or connected with navigation, 58 G. 3. c. 20. s. 2.

4. And the 3 members of the royal society, so to be commissioners, shall be lord Colchester, Davis Gilbert, e. q. and colonel William Mudge; and in the event of vacancy by death, resignation, or refusal to act, such vacancy shall be filled up by the choice and election of the president and council of the royal society; and the said 5 other commissioners shall be doctor William Hyde Wollaston, and doctor Thomas Young, and captain Henry Kater, who shall continue commissioners until 1st Jan. 1820, after which time, the 5 persons to be such last-mentioned commissioners, shall be annually, or as often as a vacancy by death, resignation, or refusal to act, may occur, chosen by the lord high admiral, or commissioners for executing such office, and shall be persons well versed in the sciences of the mathematics, astronomy, or navigation, and shall be generally resident in or near London, and capable of attending at the board of commissioners, id. s. 3.

5. All and every act conferring any duty, authority, or power on the commissioners constituted by the acts recited in pl. 2., shall be REPEALED, id. s. 4.

6. Such commissioners shall from time to time, as they see proper, propose, by their memorial to H. M. in council, to establish three scales of proportionate rewards to be paid to persons who shall, by any principle not already made public, ascertain the longitude within 3 corresponding scales of limit and condition, such rewards not exceeding 5000*l.*, 7500*l.*, and 10,000*l.*; and if H. M. in council shall approve such proposal, then the same shall be published in the London Gazette, and such commissioners may enquire into and examine all proposals for finding the longitude; and if on reasonable experiment, to be judged of and certified by such commissioners, it shall be found that the longitude hath been ascertained within any of such 3 scales, it shall be lawful for them to pay the proportionate reward assigned to the scale, 58 G. 3. c. 20. s. 5.

7. Such commissioners may pay or expend any sum, not exceeding 1000*l.* in any one year, towards the making, correcting, or publishing any experiments, modes, observations, calculations, or tables, id. s. 6.

8. And as it is expedient that the commissioners should be enabled to cause to be ascertained, as accurately as may be, the latitude and longitude of places not already ascertained, it is enacted that they may expend any sum not exceeding 1000*l.* in any one year for such purposes, 58 G.3. c.20. s.7.

9. And as it may happen that proposals, inventions, and tables, or corrections and amendments of former ones, ingenious in themselves and useful to science may be made to such commissioners, it is enacted, that such commissioners may pay, not exceeding 500*l.* to any one person for one proposal or invention, or 2000*l.* in one year, as they may consider such proposals, inventions, tables, or corrections to deserve, id. s.8.

10. The acts 18 G.2. c.17., and 16 G.3. c.6. relating to the discovery of a northern passage, are hereby repealed, id. s.9.

11. And if any ships belonging to H. M.'s subjects, or to H. M., shall first find out and sail through any passage by sea, between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, in any direction or parallel of the northern hemisphere, the owners of such ships, if belonging to subjects, or the commander, officers, seamen, and marines of such ships, if belonging to H. M., shall receive a reward of 20,000*l.*, id. s.10.

12. If any ship shall approach within one degree of the northern pole, the owner thereof belonging to any of H. M.'s subjects, or the commander, officers, seamen, and marines of such ship, if belonging to H. M., shall be entitled to receive a reward of 5000*l.*, id. s.11.

13. Such commissioners may, by memorial, propose to H. M. in council to direct proportionate rewards to be paid to such person who shall first have accomplished certain proportions of such passage or approach; and if H. M. shall sanction such proposal, then the same shall be published in the London Gazette; and any person accomplishing such passages, or the specified proportions of them, shall be entitled on the award of such commissioners, to receive such total or proportionate sums as may have been offered for the object accomplished, id. s.12.

14. The proportionate rewards by 58 G.3. c.20. s.12. directed to be established by the commissioners of the longitude, and published in the London Gazette, shall be taken to be parts only of the sums of 20,000*l.* and 5000*l.* by the said act allowed to the ship first sailing through any passage between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, or first approaching within one degree of the north pole, and such proportionate rewards as H. M. may be pleased hereafter to direct, by his order in council under such act, shall be parts only of such sums, so that no more than such sums of 20,000*l.* and 5000*l.* shall be payable under such order in council for the accomplishment of the whole of such passage or approach; whether the same is attempted or accomplished by parts or by one voyage only, 1 & 2 G.4. c.2. s.1.

15. H. M. in council may revoke, alter, or annul, as may seem proper, any order in council already made, or to be made under the recited act, or this act, id. s.2.

16. Such commissioners may call for the journals, books, and papers, kept on board the ships of the claimants; and also may examine upon oath all such persons as they shall think proper, with regard to any claims, as well any person produced by such claimants, as any that are capable of giving any information; and such commissioners being fully satisfied, upon such examination and proof that such northern passage is effectually discovered and sailed through, or that such approach within one degree of the northern pole, or any specified proportion of such passage or approach, shall have been made, they are authorized to pay such rewards, or such proportion of them as the claimants may under this act, or such order in council, be entitled to receive, 58 G.3. c.20. s.13.

17. If such rewards shall be claimed by and adjudged to the commander or officers, seamen and marines of any ship belonging to H. M., the same shall be distributed in such proportions as shall be directed by H. M. in council, id. s.14.

18. Executors, administrators, and assigns of any person to whom any sum has been awarded by such commissioners, shall be entitled to receive the same in the event of his death, id. s.15.

19. Such commissioners may cause nautical almanacks, or other useful tables, to be constructed, and may print, publish, and vend such almanacks, or other useful tables, in order to facilitate the method of discovering the longitude at sea, id. s.16.

20. And no person shall print, publish, or vend any nautical almanack, or other table, constructed under the direction of such commissioners, without being first licensed by them; and if any person not so licensed shall print, publish, or vend any such almanacks or tables, such person shall, for every copy, forfeit 20*l.* to be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any court of record at Westminster, one moiety to H. M. and the other to him that shall prosecute, id. s.17.

21. Such penalty shall be sued for by the secretary of such commissioners, or by some other person authorized by such commissioners, and shall not be sued for by any other person; and such suits shall not abate by reason of the death of such prosecutors, but shall be continued, in the case of a sole plaintiff dying before judgment obtained, in the name of such secretary, 58 G.3. c.20. s.18.

22. No such nautical almanack shall be subject to any stamp duty, id. s.19.

23. There shall be annually paid to each of the 3 last-named commissioners such annual sum as H. M., by order in council, shall direct, id. s.20.

24. Some person of competent skill and ability shall be appointed by the commissioners of the admiralty to be secretary to the board of commissioners, and for superintending, under the directions of the board in general, and the astronomer royal in particular, the correct publication of the nautical almanack, and for taking care of and regulating such timekeepers as may be intrusted to his care by the commissioners of the admiralty, id. s.21.

25. Such secretary shall hold his office during the pleasure of the commissioners of the admiralty, and shall receive such annual salary as H. M., by order in council, may direct; but if it shall so happen that a person shall not be found competent to execute the 3 several duties of secretary to such board, and of superintending the publication of the nautical almanack, and the care and regulation of timekeepers, such commissioners may propose to H. M. in council to divide such duties, and assign them to several persons, and to apportion to each such part of the salary as may seem to them proportionate to the several duties, id. s.22.

26. Such salaries to the 3 annual commissioners, and such secretary, shall be annually placed on the ordinary estimate of the navy, id. s.23.

27. No receipt of any salary or reward under this act shall prevent any officer entitled to any military or naval half-pay from receiving such half-pay in addition to such salary or reward, id. s.24.

28. Such commissioners shall, at the beginning of every year, make an estimate of the sum necessary for executing the purposes of this act, to be transmitted to the secretary of the admiralty, and, on being approved or amended by the commissioners of the admiralty, placed on the ordinary estimate of the navy, id. s.25.

29. Any sum to be paid under the authority of this act shall be paid, upon certificates under the hands and seals of the commissioners of the longitude, to the commissioners of the navy, and the commissioners of the navy shall make out bills for the sums contained in such certificates, payable by the treasurer of the navy, who shall pay out of money in his hands unapplied to the use of the navy; but all such sums as shall exceed 5000*l.* shall be certified under the hands and seals of two-thirds of such commissioners, and all such as shall exceed 1000*l.* under the hands and seals of the major part of them, and all such as shall not exceed 1000*l.* under the hands and seals of any 5 or more of them; such certificates being, in every case whatsoever, signed by one at least of the following commissioners, viz. the lord high treasurer, or first commissioner of the treasury; the lord high admiral, or first commissioner of the admiralty; the secretaries of the treasury, and the secretaries of the admiralty, id. s.26.

30. And in any other respects where any power is vested in the commissioners under this act, the same may be exercised by any 5 commissioners, provided that one of the following commissioners be present, viz. the first or one other of the commissioners, or one of the secretaries of the admiralty, and also 3 other of the following commissioners shall be present; viz. the president of the royal society, the astronomer royal the professors and observer at the 2 universities, and the 3 commissioners annually elected and receiving salaries, id. s.27.

31. There shall be held at least 4 stated meetings of such commissioners within every year, on such days as H. M. by order in council may appoint, and such other meetings as may be necessary; of all which notice shall be given to such commissioners, id. s.28.

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR SUPPRESSING LOTTERIES, 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 17. [CONF. 10 A. c. 19. s. 109., AmD. 5 G. 1. c. 9. s. 43., and as to publishing the setting up of lotteries, and giving justices power to suppress them, 9 A. c. 6. s. 56.; and as to selling tickets of lotteries established by act of parliament, 8 G. 1. c. 2. ss. 36, 37.; and as to foreign lotteries, 9 G. 1. c. 9. ss. 4, 5. pl. 10, 11.; but see further 12 G. 2. c. 28. ss. 1—5., pl. 12.; and as to lottery insurance, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 120., pl. 38, &c.]

2. All lotteries shall be deemed public nuisances; and all grants and patents for the same, shall be void, and against law, 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 17. s. 1.

3. No person shall, either publicly or privately, exercise, keep open, shew or expose, to be played at, drawn or thrown at, or shall draw, play at, &c., any lottery, either by dice, lots, cards, balls, or other numbers or figures, or any other way; and every person who shall exercise, &c. any lottery, shall forfeit 500*l.*, to be recovered by information, &c. or action at law, in any court of record, wherein no essoyn, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed; 1-3*d* to H. M., 1-3*d* to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, and the other 5*d*, together with double costs, to the party suing; and the parties so offending, shall be prosecuted as common rogues, id. s. 2.

4. Every person, who shall play, throw or draw at any such lottery, &c., shall forfeit 20*l.*, to be recovered with double costs, and applied as in s. 2., id. s. 3.

5. The justices of peace, and all mayors, bailiffs, head officers, constables and other civil officers, shall use their utmost endeavours to prevent the drawing of any such unlawful lottery; and every person who shall set up, or by writing or printing, publish the setting up the same, with intent to have it drawn, shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered by information, &c. or action at law, in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoyn, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed; 1-3*d* to H. M., 1-3*d* to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, and 1-3*d*, with costs, to the party who shall inform and sue for the same, 9 A. c. 6. s. 56.

6. The 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 17. and 9 A. c. 6. s. 56., shall be duly put in execution, 10 A. c. 19. s. 109.

7. "Whereas several persons have given notice for taking subscriptions for the sale of chances, to arise in tickets in the lottery established under 5 G. 1. c. 3. not being possessed of such tickets?" IT IS ENACTED, that the same and all such kinds of undertakings shall be declared to be within the meaning of the acts against private lotteries; and the several persons buying, selling, subscribing, or taking subscriptions for the purchase of such chances or lots, or parts thereof, of one or more tickets in the lottery made out under this or any other act, or of or on the number of such tickets, without having such original tickets in his custody, shall be liable to the penalties inflicted on persons concerned in private lotteries; and if any persons shall sell, or take subscriptions for the sale of any chance, or parts of a chance, of or on any one or more tickets, or of or on the number of any ticket made out in pursuance of this or any other act, for a public lottery, without having such ticket in his custody, such person shall, for every chance, or part of a chance so sold or subscribed for, forfeit 100*l.* over and above all other penalties to which he may be liable by any former act against private lotteries; one moiety thereof to go to H. M., and the other to such person as in his own right, at the commencement of the drawing of such lottery, shall be possessed of the ticket on which such chance was sold, to be recovered by action of debt or on the case, bill, suit, or information, in the courts of record at Westminster, 5 G. 1. c. 9. s. 43.

8. Every person who shall set up or keep any office or place under the denomination of sales of houses, lands, advowsons, presentations to livings, jewels, ships, goods, or other things, for the improvement of small sums of money, or shall sell or expose to sale any houses, &c. by way of lottery, or by lots, tickets, numbers, or figures; or shall make, print, advertise, or publish proposals or schemes for advancing small sums by several persons, amounting in the whole to large sums, to be divided among them by the chances of the prizes in any public lottery established by act of parliament, or shall deliver out tickets to persons advancing such sums, to entitle them to a share of the money advanced according to such proposals or schemes; or shall make, print, or publish any proposal or scheme of the like kind, and shall be thereof convicted on the oath of one witness, by 2 or more justices of the county or place where the offence was committed, or the offender found, the person so convicted shall (over and above any former penalties inflicted by any other act against private or public lotteries) forfeit 500*l.*, one-third to H. M., one-third to the informer, and one-third to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed, to be levied by distress and sale of goods by warrant of the convicting justices; and shall also be committed to the county gaol for one year, and from thence till the 500*l.* be paid; and parties aggrieved may appeal to the next quarter sessions, whose judgment shall be final, 8 G. 1. c. 2. s. 56.

9. All persons who shall be adventurers in, or pay any money or other consideration, or any way contribute to any such sales, lotteries, proposals or schemes, shall forfeit double the sum so paid or contributed, to be recovered with costs by action of debt, &c. or information, in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoyn, &c., and only one imparlance shall be allowed; and to go, one moiety to H. M., and the other to the informer, id. s. 37.

10. Every person who, by virtue or colour of any grant or authority from any foreign prince, state, or government, shall erect or set up any lottery, or undertaking in the nature of a lottery under any denomination, or who shall make or publish any proposal or scheme for any such lottery or undertaking, or shall, within this kingdom, sell or dispose of any ticket in any foreign lottery, and shall be convicted thereof on oath of one witness, by 2 justices of peace for the county, liberty, or division where such offence was committed, shall forfeit (besides the penalties inflicted by former acts relating to unlawful lotteries) 200*l.*; one-third to H. M., one-third to the informer, and one-third to the poor of the parish where such offence was done, the same to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods by warrant under the hand and seal of the convicting justices, and shall also be committed by such justices to the county gaol for one year, and from thence until such 200*l.* is paid, 9 G. 1. c. 19. s. 4.

11. But any person aggrieved by the determination of such justices in such cases, may appeal to the next quarter-sessions for the county, &c., whose judgment shall be final, id. s. 5.

12. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PREVENTING OF EXCESSIVE and deceitful gaming, 12 G. 2. c. 28. [AmD. 13 G. 2. c. 19. ss. 9, 10. EXT. to IRE., 29 G. 2. c. 7. s. 26., and see tit. GAMES, &c.]

13. "Recital of the provisions of 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 17., 9 A. c. 6. s. 56. and 8 G. 1. c. 2., and that such provisions had not effectually answered the ends proposed; and that difficulties had arisen on the methods of conviction of offenders against this act," IT IS ENACTED, that if any person shall set up or keep any office or place under the denomination of a sale of houses, land, advowsons, presentations to livings, plate, jewels, ships, goods, or other things, by way of lottery, or by lots, tickets, numbers or figures, cards or dice, or shall make, print, advertise or publish, or cause to be made, &c., schemes for advancing small sums by several persons, amounting in the whole to large sums, to be divided among them by chances of the prizes in some public lottery established by act of parliament, or shall deliver tickets to the persons advancing such sums, to entitle them to a share of the money so advanced according to such schemes, or shall expose to sale any houses, land, advowsons, &c. by any game or device to be determined by any lot or drawing, whether out of a box or wheel, or by cards or dice, or by any machine or device of chance of any kind; such person being convicted before one justice for any county, division, or place, or before the mayor or other justice for any city or town corporate, upon the oath of one witness, or upon the view of such justice, mayor, &c., or on confession, shall forfeit 200*l.*, to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant of one or more justices for such county, &c.; which forfeitures, after deducting the charges of prosecution, shall be applied, one-third to the informer, and two-thirds to the poor of the parish where such offence is committed; excepting the said two-thirds of forfeitures incurred by any person within the city of Bath, which shall be applied to the use of the poor in the hospital, for poor persons resorting to the said city for the benefit of the waters, 12 G. 2. c. 28. s. 1.

14. The games of the ace of hearts, furo, basset and hazard, are hereby declared to be games or lotteries within the meaning of the said acts; and all persons who set up or keep them, shall be liable to all the penalties by this act inflicted upon persons keeping lotteries, and be prosecuted in like manner, id. s. 2.

15. Every person who shall be an adventurer in any of the said games, lotteries or sales, or shall play, set at, stake or punt, at either of the said games of the ace of hearts, pharaoh, basset and hazard, shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be recovered as aforesaid, id. s. 3.

16. All sales of houses, lands, advowsons, presentations to livings, plate, jewels, ships, goods or other things, by any game, lottery, or other device to be determined by chance or lot, are hereby declared to be void: and all such houses, &c. so exposed to sale, shall be forfeited to such person who shall sue for the same by action or information in any court of record, or at the assizes for the county where the offence is committed, in which action, no essoin, &c., and only one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 4.

17. Any person aggrieved by the determination of any justice or mayor, may appeal to the next general quarter-sessions; but the appellant shall give reasonable notice to the prosecutor, and enter into recognizance before some justices, with 2 sureties, on condition to try such appeal there, and every such appeal shall there be finally determined, and not afterwards; and in case such judgment or conviction be affirmed, the appellant shall pay to the prosecutor treble costs, id. s. 5.

18. No such conviction or judgment shall be set aside by the quarter-sessions for want of form, in case the facts alleged in the conviction be proved; nor shall such conviction or judgment be removable by certiorari, or other process, into any court of record at Westminster, until judgment is given thereupon by the quarter-sessions, id. s. 6.

19. No certiorari or other process shall issue to remove the record of any such conviction from the quarter-sessions, or any proceedings on such conviction, into any court of record at Westminster, until the party against whom such conviction is made, before the allowance of such writ of certiorari or other process, find 2 sureties to become bound to the prosecutor in 100*l.*, with condition to prosecute the same with effect within 6 calendar months, and to pay to the prosecutor his treble costs, in case such conviction be affirmed, id. s. 7.

20. If any person be convicted of setting up or keeping any of the said lotteries or games, or therein shall adventure, and have not sufficient goods whereon to levy the penalties, or do not immediately pay or give security for the same, the justice before whom such person is convicted, may commit such person to the common gaol of the county or place where such offence is committed, for any time not exceeding 6 months, id. s. 8.

21. If any justice or mayor neglect do what is required of him by this act, he shall forfeit 10*l.* for each offence; one moiety to go to any person who shall sue for the same, and the other to the poor of the parish where such offence is committed; and to be recovered by action or information, with full costs, in any court of record, or at the assizes for any county, such prosecution being commenced within 6 months next after such refusal of such justices or mayor, id. s. 9.

22. Nothing in this act, or in any former acts against gaming, shall extend to hinder any person from gaming or playing at any of the games in this or in any former act mentioned, within any of H. M.'s royal palaces, where H. M. then resides, id. s. 10.

23. Nothing herein shall affect any estate or interest in any manors, honours, royalties, lands, tenements, advowsons, presentations, rents, services, and hereditaments, hereafter legally allotted to or held by an allotment or partition by lots; but all persons truly seised as part-owners, joint-tenants, and tenants in common of any manors, &c. shall be capable to take such estates and interest in like manner as they might have done by lot, chance or allotment, had this act never been made, id. s. 11.

24. Any suit for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within 3 calendar months after the fact committed, and laid in the county or place where the cause of action arises, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done by authority hereof; and if plaintiff be nonsuited, or discontinue, or has judgment against him on demurrer, the defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s. 12.

25. THE GAME OF PANSAGE, AND ALL OTHER GAMES WITH ONE OR more dice, or with any other instrument or device in the nature of dice, having figures thereon (backgammon, and the other games now played with the backgammon tables, only excepted) shall be deemed games or lotteries by dice, within the meaning of 12 G. 2. c. 28.; and every person who shall set up or keep any office, table or place (save as in that act declared) for the said prohibited games, shall forfeit the penalties by the said act inflicted upon persons who keep games or lotteries; and every person who shall play, set at, stake or adventure at, the said prohibited games, save as in that act declared, shall forfeit the penalties thereby inflicted on persons who play at the games mentioned therein; and every such offender shall be prosecuted and convicted, and the penalties sued for, and disposed of in like manner as by that act is directed, 13 G. 2. c. 19. s. 9.

26. If any action, &c. or information, be brought on this act, no essoin, &c. and but one imparlance shall be allowed; and over and above the penalties, the plaintiff or informer shall recover his double costs, id. s. 10.

27. If any offence against any act made in this kingdom for preventing private lotteries be committed in Ire., the offender shall incur a like penalty, and such penalties as by any of those acts are directed to be recovered in any court at Westminster, shall in case of offences committed in Ire., be recovered in any court of record at Dublin, 29 G. 2. c. 7. s. 26.

28. TO SUPPRESS CERTAIN GAMES AND LOTTERIES not authorized by law, 42 G. 3. c. 119. [AND. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 120. s. 57.]

29. All games or lotteries called Little Goes, shall be deemed, and are hereby declared, common and public nuisances, and against law, 42 G. 3. c. 119. s. 1.

30. No person shall publicly or privately keep any office or place to exercise, keep open, show, or expose to be played, drawn, or thrown at, or in, either by dice, lots, cards, balls, or by numbers or figures, or by any other way or device, any game or lottery called a little go, or any other lottery not authorized by parliament, or shall knowingly suffer to be exercised, kept open, &c. shown or exposed to be played, drawn, or thrown at or in, either by dice, lots, &c. or any other device, any such game or lottery, in his house, room, or place, upon pain to forfeit 500*l.*, to be recovered in the court of exchequer, at the suit of H. M.'s attorney-general, and to be to the use of H. M. And every person so offending, shall be deemed a rogue and a vagabond, within the meaning of 17 G. 2. c. 5. (VAGRANT), and be punishable as such accordingly, 42 G. 3. c. 119. s. 2.

31. Every offender against this act, against whom no information has been made as aforesaid, shall be deemed a rogue and a vagabond, within the 17 G. 2. c. 5. and 27 G. 3. c. 1. [which last act was REF. by 46 G. 3. c. 148. s. 64., but is referred to by 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 120. s. 57. pl. 57.] and be punishable as such according to such acts, and this act, 42 G. 3. c. 119. s. 3.

32. On complaint, or information on oath, before any justice of the peace, of any offence committed against this act, in any house or place within his jurisdiction, whereby the offenders may be liable to be punished as rogues and vagabonds, such justice may, by special warrant under his hand and seal, empower any person, by night or by day, (and if by night in the presence of a peace officer, who shall assist therein,) to break open the doors of such house or place where such offence was committed, and enter the same, and apprehend all such offenders, and other persons discovered therein, and who have knowingly aided, or been any way concerned with any such offender, in committing such offence, and convey them before any justice for the county, city, &c. where they are apprehended, to be dealt with according to law; and all persons who may be discovered in such house or place, knowingly aiding or in any way concerned with such offenders in carrying on any transactions regarding such little goes or lotteries, shall be deemed rogues and vagabonds, and punishable as in 17 G. 2. c. 5. directed; and the officer executing such warrant, and the other persons acting in his aid, may arrest and detain all persons discovered in such house, and convey them before such justice; and if any person shall forcibly obstruct, oppose, molest, or hinder any such officer, or persons acting in his aid, in the execution of their duty, or in entering into such house, &c. in the seizing, detaining, or conveying such offenders and persons before such justices, such person so obstructing, &c. shall be deemed offenders against law and public peace; and the court trying such offenders may order them to be fined, imprisoned, and publicly whipped, as they think fit; and all persons, although not discovered in such house or place, who shall employ, or cause to be employed, any person in carrying on such transactions, or in aiding any such persons, shall be deemed rogues and vagabonds, and be punishable in like manner as by 27 G. 3. c. 1. [REF. see s. 3. last pl.] directed, id. s. 4.

33. No person shall, under any pretence, device, form, denomination, or description whatsoever, promise or agree to pay any sums, or to deliver any goods, or to do or forbear doing any thing for the benefit of any person, whether with or without consideration, on any event or contingency relative or applicable to the drawing of any tickets, lots, numbers, or figures, in any such game or lottery, or publish any proposal for any such purposes, on pain that the persons offending herein shall forfeit 100*l.* id. s. 5.

34. Any person may apprehend on the spot any persons so offending, and convey them before some magistrate or justice of peace residing near where the offence was committed, to be proceeded against under this act; and such magistrate or justice may examine into the circumstances of the case, and on due proof on oath or affirmation of any such offence committed, may give judgment accordingly; and where the accused is convicted, and such penalty is not immediately paid, may commit him to prison for not exceeding 6 calendar months, nor less than one, without appeal, or until such penalty is satisfied; and such penalty when paid shall go 1-3d to H. M., another to the informer, and the other to the persons apprehending or securing such offender, 42 G. 3. c. 119. s. 6.

35. All the pains, forfeitures, fines, exemptions, powers, rules, &c. contained in 27 G. 3. c. 1. [which is REP. by 46 G. 3. c. 148. s. 64.] shall extend and apply in all cases, and for all purposes, as to this act, and 42 G. 3. c. 54. [an annual lottery act which seems EXP.] where no special or different provision is made by this, or the 42 G. 3. c. 54., as fully as if such forfeitures, &c. had been herein re-enacted, id. s. 7.

36. If any sheriff's officer or other person is sued or molested for any thing done in pursuance hereof, he may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the defendant shall have a verdict, or the plaintiff discontinues or is nonsuited, or has judgment against him on demurrer, or otherwise, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 8.

37. The word "place," when and where the same is mentioned in this act, and the 27 G. 3. c. 1. [which was REP. by 46 G. 3. c. 148. s. 64.] and 42 G. 3. c. 119. relating to the drawing of the illegal lottery called a little goe, or the assembling of persons for any illegal purpose mentioned therein, or for the purpose of little goe or lottery insurance, shall be taken to mean any place in or out of an inclosed building or premises, whether upon land or water, where such illegal practices, or any thing relating thereto, shall be, or shall be attempted to be, carried on, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 120. s. 57.

38. FOR GRANTING TO H. M. A SUM OF MONEY to be raised by lotteries, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 120.

39. The treasury may sell 60,000 tickets, to be drawn in one or more lotteries, for such sums, and subject to such regulations, as shall be thought expedient, id. s. 1. [Regulations as to the lottery, id. ss. 2—10.]

40. If any person shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged, &c. or willingly act in the forging, &c. any ticket or certificate or order made forth under this act, or alter any number, figure, word, or letter therein, or knowingly utter, vend, barter, or dispose of any such false, altered, forged, &c. ticket, &c. the number whereof, or any figure, &c. therein has been altered (knowing the same to be forged, &c.) to the managers and directors of the lottery, or the cashiers or accountant-general of the Bank of Eng., or any other person, with a fraudulent intent, or shall willingly act, hire, or command any person to commit any such offence, then every person duly convicted thereof shall be adjudged a felon, and suffer death without clergy. And such managers, &c. may order the person bringing or uttering any such forged, &c. ticket, &c. or aiding, &c. hiring or commanding any person therein, to be apprehended, and commit him to Newgate gaol, or the county gaol, to be proceeded against as a felon, id. s. 11.

41. If any person who shall commit any such offence, or be aiding, &c. hiring, or commanding therein, shall afterwards, being out of prison, discover any person who shall commit, or be aiding, abetting, or concerned in any such offence, so as the person discovered is convicted, the discoverer shall have H. M.'s pardon, and be entitled to a reward of 50*l.*, id. s. 12. But no attainder for any such offences shall work any corruption of blood, loss of dower, or disherison of heirs, id. s. 13.

42. Further regulations as to the swearing of the managers, and the payment of the money for tickets, and the prizes on the fortunate tickets, money for such tickets may be paid by instalments, id. ss. 14. 19.

43. And no person shall take down the numbers of the tickets at the time of drawing, unless employed as a clerk by the managers, or licensed so to do by the commissioners of stamps, id. s. 20.; regulations as to persons licensed for such purpose, id. s. 21.

44. If any person, summoned as a witness to give evidence before any magistrate, touching any matter relative to this act, on either party's side, shall neglect to appear at the time and place appointed, without reasonable excuse to be allowed by such magistrate, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be levied and paid as in s. 21. directed, id. s. 22.; form of conviction, id. s. 23. [and see s. 64. pl. 61.]

45. Further regulations as to licensing lottery-office keepers by the commissioners of stamps, executors, &c. of persons so licensed, may carry on the business under such licence, in case of the death of the party licensed; lottery offices to be open from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.; treasury may annul such licences, id. ss. 24—32.

46. Every person who shall forge, or counterfeit, or cause to be forged, &c. or assist in forging, &c. any licence authorized to be made under this act, shall fraudulently alter, or cause to be altered, or assist in altering any such licence as is really granted under this act, or shall knowingly make use of any such forged, &c. licence, shall forfeit 500*l.*, one moiety to H. M. and the other to him that will sue for the same, by action of debt, &c. or information, in any court of record at Westminster, for licences granted in G. B., and at Dublin for licences granted in Ire., in which no coin, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed, and shall also be subject to imprisonment for not exceeding 6 months, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 120. s. 33.

47. No person shall sell the chance of the benefit which may belong to any ticket in the lottery, for any less time than the whole time of drawing then to come; or sell any other chance of any benefit which may belong to any such ticket, other than that what is hereinafter expressly permitted, or insure for or against the drawing of any such ticket, or receive any money or goods in consideration of any agreement to repay any sums, or deliver the same, or other goods, if any such ticket, shall prove fortunate or unfortunate, or on any chance or event relative to the drawing of any such ticket, whether as to their being drawn fortunate or unfortunate, or the time of their being drawn; or otherwise howsoever promise or agree to pay any sum, or deliver any goods, or do, or forbear doing any thing for the benefit of any person, whether with or without consideration, or any contingency relative or applicable to the drawing of any such ticket, or publish any proposal for such purposes; and if any person shall offend against this act in any such matters, the contract shall be void; and the party offending, if not licensed to divide tickets into shares, shall be deemed a rogue and vagabond, and shall be punished as such, as after directed; and if so licensed, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 34.

48. On information on oath made before any magistrate or justice of peace, stating any person to be a reputed lottery insurer, and in the opinion of the informer to be in possession of books, papers, or memorandums of illegal contracts entered into, relating to lottery insurances, such magistrate or justice shall issue his warrant, directed to a constable or police officer, to empower him, with proper assistance, to search the person of such reputed insurer, and to enter his house, and search for and seize such papers, &c.; and if any are so found, or if any memorandums of insurance in the lottery or little goe shall be then found, written in chalk or otherwise, on or about such place or premises, then to apprehend and bring such person, against whom the warrant was issued, with such person on whom such lottery or little goe insurance papers, &c. were found, before 2 magistrates or justices; and on proof before them by 2 credible witnesses, on oath, that such papers, &c. do appear to relate to any little go, or to any insurance in any lottery or little go, whether actually drawn or not, or on like proof, that such memorandums were written in chalk, or otherwise, on or about the premises of the person, against whom such warrant was issued, which could not be brought away without injury to the premises, such persons shall be deemed rogues and vagabonds, and punished as such, id. s. 35.

49. Any magistrate or justice may issue his summons, to order the attendance of any witness to give evidence on the hearing of every such offence, and service of such summons at the usual residence of the person summoned, shall be good; and in default of attendance of such witness at the time mentioned, and if no excuse is made to the satisfaction of such justice, then such magistrate or justice may issue his warrant, directed to any constable or police officer, who shall by virtue thereof, apprehend and detain him, to be examined touching matters against this act; and on proof of due diligence used to apprehend such witness, such magistrate or justice may remand the person to whom such offence, as in s. 35. is imputed, for not more than 7 days between each remand, but for so long in the whole, as such magistrate or person deems fit, id. s. 36.

50. On hearing of any case before any magistrates, where it is imputed, that any person is a rogue or vagabond, by committing any offence against this act, it shall not be permitted to produce any information on oath, whether filed or not, id. s. 37.

51. If any person shall sell any ticket or chance, or share of any ticket or chance, in any lottery, except such as are authorized by this or some other act to be sold, or shall publish any proposal for the sale of tickets, &c., or shares of any ticket, &c., except lotteries so authorized, or shall sell any share of any ticket or chance in any lottery to be drawn under this act, in any proportion other than one-half, quarter, eighth, or sixteenth part or share only, or shall publish any proposals for selling any shares, or enter into any agreement for any share of any ticket or chance in such lotteries, otherwise than in such parts as aforesaid; such person shall forfeit 50*l.*, and be deemed a rogue and vagabond, and punished as such, id. s. 38.

52. Regulations as to the form of such shares, and the division of such tickets; time of drawing to be limited to prevent insurances, id. ss. 39—42.

53. If any person shall forge or counterfeit, or caused to be forged, &c., or willingly act in forging, &c. any share, chance, or agreement for any share or chance of any ticket in any lottery, to be drawn under this act, or alter any figure, word, letter, or stamp therein, or thereon; or shall knowingly utter, vend, or dispose of any such forged, &c., share, &c., with intent to defraud any person, he shall be guilty of felony, and suffer as a felon, id. s. 43.

54. Regulations as to depositing tickets, and giving receipts for the same; and as to keeping books for registering such tickets, which may be inspected on payment of 2d.; and as to selling shares on paper or parchment, not duly stamped according to this act; and further regulations on this point, and the application of money hereby arising, and as to payment of prizes, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 120 ss. 44—55.

55. On complaint or information on oath, before any justice of peace, of any offence against this act, in any house or place within the jurisdiction of any justice, whereby any person may be liable to be punished as a rogue or vagabond; such justice, before whom the oath is taken, may by special warrant, under his hand and seal, authorize any person by day or night, but if in the night, then in the presence of a constable or other peace officer, who shall be aiding or assisting therein, to break open the door of any house where such offence has been committed, and to seize and apprehend all such offenders, and other persons discovered in such house, and who have knowingly aided and assisted, or been anywise concerned with such offenders in such offence, and to convey them before any justice for the county, riding, city, division, liberty, or place, to be dealt with according to law; and all persons so found in such house, or assisting in carrying on any transactions respecting such lotteries, contrary to this act, shall be deemed rogues and vagabonds, and punishable as such; and the officer executing such warrant, and all others acting in his aid, may arrest and detain every person so discovered in such house, and convey him before such justice; and all persons who shall molest or hinder any officer or person acting in his aid in the execution of their duty, or in entering such house, or in seizing, &c. any such offenders or persons, shall be deemed offenders against law and the public peace; and the court trying such offenders, may order them to be fined, imprisoned, and publicly whipped, as the court deems proper, id. s. 56. [see s. 57. supra, pl. 37.]

56. All persons, though not discovered in such house or place, who shall employ any person in carrying on any transactions herein mentioned as illegal, and all persons acting as agents thereto, or in assisting any such person, shall be deemed rogues and vagabonds, and be punishable as hereby directed, id. s. 58.

57. All pecuniary penalties for any offence against this act, (except where otherwise herein directed) shall go to H. M.; and no person (except where herein otherwise directed) shall commence any action, &c., or information for the recovery of any such penalties, unless the same is commenced in the name of the attorneys-general for Eng. and Ire., and H. M.'s advocate for Scot., in the respective courts of exchequer of the respective countries, otherwise, all proceedings thereunder shall be void, id. s. 59.

58. Every person who shall steal, or take by robbery, any ticket, or any share, or chance, of any ticket, made, shared, and issued under this act, being the property of any person or corporation, shall be deemed guilty of felony, of the same nature, and with or without clergy, in the same manner, as if such offender had stolen or taken by robbery any goods of the like value as such ticket, &c., and be punished accordingly, id. s. 60.; but no attainder for any offence hereby made felony, shall work any corruption of blood, loss of dower, or disherison of heirs, id. s. 61.

59. Upon every bill, plaint, suit, or information, a capias or other writ may issue as the first process, specifying the amount of the penalties sued for, whereof an affidavit shall be first duly made and filed; and the defendant shall give bail by natural born subjects, persons naturalized, or denizens, to the person to whom such writ is directed, to appear at the day of the return of such process, to answer such suit or prosecution; and shall likewise, after appearance, give bail by such persons to pay the penalties, or yield himself to prison, but no bail shall be required above 500*l.*, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 120. s. 62.

60. Where the amount of penalties sued for is not inserted in the writ, or no affidavit thereof is made and filed, the defendant shall be served with a copy of the process, and proceed as in cases of debt, where the cause of action does not amount to 1*l.*, id. s. 63.

61. If any person is brought before 2 or more justices for the county, &c. where any offence against this act has been committed, and is convicted thereof, and adjudged a rogue, &c. such justices shall order such offender to be sent to the house of correction for not exceeding 6 or less than one calendar month; and if such person has been convicted under this or any former lottery act of a like offence, the entry in the book kept at the police offices for that purpose, signed by 2 magistrates, shall be deemed good evidence, and then in addition to the punishment last mentioned, such offender shall be privately whipped; and any such adjudication or conviction under this act shall be as follows, mutatis mutandis, (via.)

Middlesex, } To the keeper of — Whereas A. B. of — in the county of to wit, } Middlesex, is this day duly convicted before us C. D. and E. F., two of the justices of our lord the king, assigned to keep the peace of our said lord the king, in and for the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanors committed within the said county, for that he the said A. B. at — in the said county, on the day of — [state offence] against the form of the statute made in the second year of the reign of our said lord the king, entitled, [here set forth the title of this act,] and the said A. B. having for such offence been adjudged a rogue and vagabond by us the said justices, within the intent and meaning of the said statute, we do order that the said A. B. be committed to the house of correction at — in and for the said county of Middlesex, there to remain for the space of —, now next ensuing, and we do hereby require the keeper of the said house of correction, to receive into his custody the body of the said A. B. herewith sent, and him safely keep and detain in the said house of correction accordingly. Given under our hands and seals, &c. &c.
And such proceedings shall not be subject to appeal, nor be removable by certiorari or otherwise, id. s. 64.

62. Persons sued for any thing done under this act, may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and if a verdict passes for the defendant, or if the plaintiff discontinues, or is nonsuited, or judgment is given against him on demurrer, or otherwise, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 65.

63. Irish acts relating to lotteries and lottery tickets, contradictory to this, shall be Rev., and so much of any act in force in Ire., as relates to the stamp duty on licences to keep lottery offices in Ire., shall be in force and applied, and put in execution, with respect to the stamp duties on licences required by this act to be taken by persons dividing tickets, &c. or issuing chances under this act, id. s. 66.

(STATUTES in force.)

- I. Provisions against frauds of workmen in certain manufactures, and for due payment of their wages.
- II. Provisions against exportation of machines and tools used in certain manufactures, and against seducing workmen employed therein.

I. Provisions against frauds of workmen in certain manufactures, and for due payment of their wages.

1. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING THE ABUSES AND FRAUDS of persons employed in working up the woollen, linen, fustian, cotton, and iron manufactures of this kingdom, 1 A. N. 2. c. 18. [MADE PERP. 9 A. c. 30. EXT. to Scot. 13 G. 2. c. 8. s. 11. AMD. by 13 G. 2. c. 8. ss. 1—5. & 11. (which act is not repealed by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 90. see s. 11. of that act, nor by 4 G. 3. c. 151., except as thereby altered, (see s. 50. of that act.) and is AMD. by 32 G. 3. c. 44. ss. 1—4. tit. SILK MANUFACTURES, and by 22 G. 2. c. 97. which see, infra, this title, (which is AMD. by 17 G. 5. c. 56. which see, infra, this title; 32 G. 3. c. 44. ss. 1—4) tit. SILK MANUFACTURES, and as to wages by 1 G. 4. c. 39. which see, infra, this title.]

2. If any person or persons employed to work up any woollen, linen, fustian, cotton, or iron manufactures, shall purloin, embezzle, secrete, sell, pawn, exchange, or otherwise illegally dispose of any materials, with which they are respectively intrusted to work up such respective manufactures, whether the same or any part thereof be or be not first wrought or made up, &c. into merchantable wares, and shall be thereof convicted by oath of one or more credible witnesses, or by confession of the accused, before any one or more justices of the county, &c., division, or place, where the offence is committed, they shall respectively forfeit double the value of the damages sustained by the owner of the materials, (to go one moiety to such owner, and the other to the use of the poor of the parish, with appeal as in 1 A. N. 2. c. 18. s. 4., 15 G. 2. c. 8. s. 3., and 1 A. N. 2. c. 18. s. 1.) together with reasonable costs of prosecution; and in case immediate payment thereof be not made, the convicting justice may cause the offender to be committed to the house of correction, to be there whipped and kept to hard labour, for not exceeding 14 days; [1 A. c. 18. s. 1., 13 G. 2. c. 8. s. 1: What follows is provided by the latter act only: And in case of a further conviction of any person for a second or subsequent offence, in embezzling or purloining any of the above materials, whether made up into merchantable wares or not, he shall on like conviction, forfeit four times the value of the damages which the owners shall thereby sustain, together with reasonable costs of prosecution; and if immediate payment thereof be not made, then the same or any other justice shall cause the offender to be committed to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not more than 3 nor less than one month, as seems to him reasonable; and during his commitment, shall cause him to be publicly whipped, once or oftener, at the market-place or cross of the town where he is committed, 13 G. 2. c. 8. s. 1. and s. 4. [See 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 1. as altered by 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 1. pl. 9.]

3. Every person who shall buy or receive, accept or take by way of gift, pawn, pledge, or sale, or from any of the persons in either act mentioned, any woollen, linen, cotton, or iron materials or manufactures soever, either before or after the same shall be made up into merchantable wares, knowing the same to be purloined or embezzled, and being convicted as above, shall be subjected to the respective forfeitures and punishments in last pl., 1 A. N. 2. c. 18. s. 2., 13 G. 2. c. 8. s. 1.

4. All payments, &c. made to workmen for work done in such manufacture, shall be by lawful coin of the realm, [or note or notes of the bank of Eng., or of any duly licensed banker, where the workman consents to take the same, but not otherwise, 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1., see pl. 44.] and not by any cloth, victuals, or commodities in lieu thereof; and all wool delivered out shall be wrought up shall be so delivered, with declaration of the true weight thereof, on pain, that every offender in either case shall forfeit [to such workman, R.E.P. 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 2. pl. 45.] double the sum due to him for work done; and if the latter be guilty of any fraud or default in his work, he shall pay the owner double the damages sustained, 1 A. N. 2. c. 18. s. 3. [See form of conviction for payment of wages, otherwise than above, 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1., Sch. (A.) pl. 48.]

5. All wages, demands, frauds, and defaults of labourers in the woollen, linen, fustian, cotton, [see COTTON MANUFACTURE,] and iron manufactures, or concerning work done therein, shall be determined by any 2 justices of the county, city, division, &c., who may summon and examine witnesses on oath therein, but any party grieved by their judgment and order shall appeal against the same to the next quarter session for the same county, &c., who shall examine witnesses on oath, and finally determine the appeal; and if they give judgment against such appellant, then the justices shall order the prevailing party his reasonable [or treble costs in cases of appeals against convictions relating to wages decided against appellant, 1 G. 4. c. 95. s. 3. pl. 55.] costs, to be paid by the appellant, id. s. 4.

6. [For the method of appeal against the judgment of the 2 justices, see 13 G. 2. c. 8. s. 9. LEATHER, &c. pl. 26.]

7. 1 A. N. 2. c. 18. and this act are extended to Scot., and no warrant of distress issued by any justice there under this act shall be sisted otherwise, than by appeal to quarter-sessions, as in s. 9. last pl., 13 G. 2. c. 8. s. 11.

8. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL PREVENTING OF FRAUDS AND ABUSES, committed by persons employed in the manufacture of hats, and in the woollen, linen, fustian, cotton, iron, leather, fur, hemp, flax, mohair, and silk manufactures: AND FOR PREVENTING UNLAWFUL COMBINATIONS of journeymen dyers and hot-pressers, and of all persons employed in the said several manufactures, and for the better payment of their wages, 22 G. 2. c. 27. [Reciting in s. 1., 13 G. 2. c. 8. ss. 1—5., to which its provisions seem cumulative. EXT. to Scot. and Ire., 57 G. 3. c. 122. s. 3., and in all its provisions for facilitating the recovery of wages by labourers in the woollen trade; and for punishing masters paying labourers in goods, to persons employed in the manufacture of articles made of steel, or of steel and iron combined, and of plated articles or other articles of cutlery, 57 G. 3. c. 115. s. 2.; and to labourers in collieries, 57 G. 3. c. 122. s. 2. AMD. 23 G. 2. c. 15. s. 9., 17 G. 5. c. 56., 58 G. 3. c. 44. ss. 4—5., 58 G. 3. c. 51., 1 G. 4. c. 95. ss. 1—3. ENFORCED, 17 G. 2. c. 55. s. 7., 24 G. 3. s. 2. c. 3. s. 1. This act and 17 G. 2. c. 56. are not R.E.P. by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 90., (see s. 11.), or by 45 G. 3. c. 151., see s. 30.]

9. If any person employed to make any felt or hat, or to prepare or work up any woollen, linen, fustian, cotton, iron, leather, fur, hemp, flax, mohair, or silk manufactures; or any manufactures made up of wool, fur, hemp, flax, cotton, mohair, or silk, or of any such materials mixed one with another, shall purloin, imbezzle, secrete, sell, pawn, exchange, or otherwise unlawfully dispose of any materials with which he is intrusted, whether the same or any part thereof be or be not first converted into merchantable wares, and shall be thereof convicted on the oath or (if the owner is a quaker) affirmation of the owner of such goods or materials, or of any other witness or witnesses, or by his own confession before any 2 justices [17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 2., repealing 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 8. and s. 1. which gave the power to one or more justices] of the county, city, division, &c., or place where such offence is committed, or where the person shall reside, such justices shall commit the offender to the house of correction, or other public prison of such county, division, &c., or place, [to be kept to hard labour for not less than 14 days, nor more than 3 months: and in case of a further conviction, for not less than 3 nor more than 6 months; and may likewise, at discretion, for the first or subsequent offence, order the person convicted to be once publicly whipped: This punishment is given by 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 1., altering that prescribed by 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 1., except as follows, which seems in force, and adopted by 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 3. infra, pl. 11. sub fin.] at the market or some other public place of the city, town, or place where the offender is so committed, 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 1. and s. 8., as AMD. by 17 G. 3. c. 56. ss. 1.—2.

10. No person charged with an offence against 22 G. 2. c. 27. shall be convicted but by 2 justices, 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 2. [Repealing 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 8. and part of s. 1.]

11. Every person who shall buy, receive, [as to such buying, &c. of silk, see 32 G. 3. c. 44. s. 4. next pl.] accept, or take by way of gift, pawn, pledge, sale, or exchange, or in any manner soever of, or from any person employed to make or work up any of the manufactures mentioned in 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 1. (pl. 9.) any ends of yarn or other materials of wool, fur, hemp, flax, cotton, or iron, or any leather mohair, or silk, whether made up or not, knowing the seller, &c. to be so employed, and not having first obtained the consent of his employer; or who shall bring, receive, accept, or take, in any manner, of any other person any such materials, knowing them to be purloined or embezzled, shall on conviction, as in s. 1. of this act, [pl. 9., and 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 2.] prescribed, forfeit for the first offence not more than 40*l.* nor less than 20*l.*, at discretion of the justices, to be applied as follows: 1st, in defraying the expenses of the prosecution; 2dly, in such satisfaction to the parties grieved as the justices shall think proper; and 3dly, a sum in discretion of the justices, and never exceeding 10*l.*, to the informer, and the residue, if any, to the poor of the parish or some public charity; [but these penalties are now otherwise applied, see 58 G. 3. c. 51. ss. 3—4. infra, pl. 46, 47.] and if such penalties are not paid on conviction, the justices shall commit the offender to prison to hard labour, for not more than 6 nor less than 3 months as they shall direct, unless sooner paid: or for 3 days, exclusive of the day of commitment, with an order for a public whipping at such market-place, &c., as in s. 1. pl. 9., within that time, 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 2., 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 3.

12. Every person who shall so buy or receive, &c. as in last pl., of any person employed to work up any silk manufacture, or manufacture of silk mixed with other materials, whether manufactured or not, or mixed with other materials or not, under the circumstances enumerated in last pl., may be proceeded against under the same, or prosecuted for a misdemeanor, and punished by fine, imprisonment, or whipping, as the court of general or quarter sessions hereby empowered to try such offenders shall inflict, though no proof is given on the trial, as to who is the owner of such silk, 32 G. 3. c. 4. s. 4. [See this section at length, SILK MANUFACTURES.]

13. If any person shall sell, pawn, pledge, exchange, or otherwise unlawfully dispose of any silk, wrought or unwrought, mixed or unmixed, knowing the same to be purloined, he shall on conviction, be liable to the penalties in s. 4., of unlawfully receiving the same, id. s. 5.

14. Where any person is charged, on oath or affirmation, with the offence of buying or receiving such materials as in 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 2. pl. 11., and 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 3. same pl., and it appears to the justices that the party has been already convicted of a like offence, they shall not convict, but shall commit him to prison till the next general or quarter sessions for the place where the offence committed, or till such offender has entered into a recognizance to answer for such offence thereat, which sessions shall determine the same; and if the offender is convicted on oath or affirmation of one or more witnesses, he shall forfeit not more than 100*l.*, nor less than 50*l.*, in discretion of the justices, which shall be disposed of as in s. 3. pl. 11., with like punishments on default of payment thereof, 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 4.

15. Every person who shall sell, pawn, pledge, exchange, or otherwise unlawfully dispose of, or offer to sell, &c. any such materials as aforesaid, whether wrought or unwrought, mixed or unmixed, knowing them to have been purloined, shall, on conviction, be liable to the punishment of receiving the same knowing them to have been purloined, &c. (pl. 11.) id. s. 5.

16. When any person shall be charged on oath, before any 2 or more justices, by virtue of this act, with being suspected of, or with having purloined or received any such materials as aforesaid, whether wrought or unwrought, mixed or unmixed, knowing the same to have been either purloined, &c. or received from some person not entitled to dispose thereof; and if it appear to the satisfaction of such justices, on the oath or affirmation of one or more witnesses, that such person has purloined, &c. or received any such materials knowing them to be so purloined or received as above, though no proof be given of the owner of the materials, such person shall be liable to the punishment of receiving the same knowing them to have been purloined, &c., 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 6.

17. If any person so convicted of buying, receiving, or taking to pawn any of the above materials, shall be aggrieved by the justices' judgment, he may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions held for the county, division, &c. city, or place where such judgment is given; and the execution thereof shall be suspended; such person entering into a recognizance, taken by such justices, at the time of such conviction, with 2 sufficient sureties in double the forfeiture incurred, on condition to prosecute such appeal with effect, and to be forthcoming to abide the judgment of the sessions, the justices in which shall determine the same, and award reasonable costs to be paid by either party; and if on hearing the same, the judgment of the convicting justice shall be affirmed, such appellant shall immediately pay the penalty adjudged, with defendant's costs of such appeal as awarded by the sessions, or, in default of payment, shall suffer the penalties in s. 2. pl. 11., 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 3.

18. The justices before whom any person shall be convicted under 22 G. 2. c. 27. or 17 G. 3. c. 56., of buying, receiving, or taking to pawn any of the materials therein mentioned, shall cause such conviction to be drawn up on parchment thus: viz.

'— } Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the — year of our to wit. } Lord — A. B. was convicted before us — of H. M.'s justices of the peace in and for the said county of — [or for the — riding of the said county of —, or for the city, liberty, town, or place aforesaid, in the said county, as case is] of [here specifying the offence, and when and where committed]. Given under our hands and seals the day and year first above written, 17 G. 3.
c. 56. s. 21. [repeating the form in 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 9.]

and shall not be removable by certiorari into K. B., and shall be certified by such justices to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, city, division, or place where made, to be there recorded; and, in case of appeal, to the said sessions; the latter on receiving the conviction drawn up as above, shall proceed to determine such appeal according to [22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 3. pl. 17.] 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 9., 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 21.

19. If any person is charged and convicted of purloining or embezzling any of the above materials, or of buying and receiving the same as in s. 2. pl. 11., the convicting justices may issue a search-warrant empowering any person or persons, in the presence of a constable or headborough, and in the day-time, to enter and search the premises of the person convicted; and if on such search any such materials are found, the searcher shall bring them before the justices to be kept in safe custody; and if, in 24 days after such seizure, it be made appear to the satisfaction of such justices that the person from whose premises the said materials are taken is the lawful owner thereof, they shall be restored to him; but if they are not so shewn within that time, they shall be deemed purloined and embezzled, and the justices may order a public sale thereof, the produce, after deducting the charges of such sale, to be distributed among the poor of the parish, &c. where the convict resides, 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 4.

20. The justices, within 3 days after such materials brought to them as above, shall give notice thereof in writing under their hands and seals to the person convicted as above, appointing therein a time and place for his attending them in order to prove his property therein, which time shall be within 21, and not less than 18 days after such notice given; and if such person is detained in any prison, &c. the justices shall cause a like copy of such notice to be delivered to the gaoler, who shall bring him before them at the time and place fixed if he be then in his custody; or, on refusal, shall forfeit to the person named in such notice the full value of the materials sold, to be recovered by distress and sale of his goods by like justice's warrant, if not forthwith paid, id. s. 5.

21. Every person aggrieved by the judgment or order of the said justices relating to the sale or disposal of the materials so found and detained as above, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions of the same county, city, division, or place, and in the mean time the sale of such materials shall be postponed, notice thereof in writing under the hand of the appellant being given to the justices by whom such order is made, before the time appointed for sale of such materials, and the said sessions shall summon and examine witnesses on oath, and finally determine the appeal; and if the same be not prosecuted, or if the justices' order is affirmed, the sessions may award costs to the defendant, to be paid by the appellant, id. s. 6. [See the general appeal given under these acts, 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 20. pl. 30.]

22. Any 2 justices of any county, city, division, or place, on complaint to them, on oath, by any one credible person, or on affirmation of a quaker, that there is just cause to suspect that any such purloined or embezzled materials, whether mixed or unmixed, wrought or unwrought, are concealed in any dwelling or outhouse, yard, garden, or other place, may, by warrant under their hands and seals, cause the same to be searched in the day-time, and if any materials so suspected are found therein, may cause the same, and the person in whose house, &c. they are so found, to be brought before any 2 justices for the same county, &c., and if he shall not give an account of his possession thereof to the satisfaction of the justices, he shall be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished as in s. 14. pl. 26., though no proof is given to whom the materials belong, 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 10.

25. Every peace-officer of a county, &c. or place where there are officers, every beadle within his ward, parish, or district, and every watchman (while on duty only) shall and may apprehend every person reasonably suspected of having or conveying between sun-set and sun-rise, any materials so suspected to be purloined, and the same, with such person, shall carry before any 2 such justices as above; and if the person so apprehended shall not produce the parties entitled to dispose thereof from whom he received the same, or some witness to testify on oath or affirmation to such sale or delivery, or shall not account for his possession thereof to the satisfaction of such justices, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished as in s. 14. pl. 26., though no proof is given to whom such materials belong, id. s. 11.

24. In either of these cases as in ss. 10, 11. pl. 22, 25. the justices shall, at the request of the person brought before them, appoint a reasonable time for him to produce the persons entitled to dispose thereof of whom he received the same, and shall issue a summons to the constable, &c. of the place where such person or witness are respectively resident, requiring the latter to appear at the appointed time and place, to give evidence in the matters aforesaid; but the party so brought up shall enter into a recognizance for his appearance at such day, &c., with or without surety as the justices shall think fit, or for want thereof, shall be committed till the time so fixed, and if then convicted, shall be punished as in s. 14. pl. 26., id. s. 12.

25. Where any conviction of a misdemeanor in either of the cases in ss. 10, 11. pl. 22, 25. takes place, the convicting justices may cause the seized materials to be deposited with the parish officers of the poor of the place where they are found, for not exceeding 30 days, and order them to insert an advertisement in some newspaper usually circulated near such place, or else to give notice by some public crier, and by fixing on the church door a notice describing such materials, and where deposited, that persons having lost may come and claim the same; and in case any person can prove his property therein, on oath or affirmation, to the satisfaction of the justices, the latter shall order restitution to the owners, after paying reasonable charges of removing, depositing, and giving public notice; but if before the end of the 30 days no person shall prove his property therein, they shall order the same to be sold, and, after deducting the said charges, with those of sale, shall apply one moiety of the produce to the use either of the prosecuting or apprehending of the offender, or both of them, as the justices shall appoint, and the other moiety to the poor of the parish, or to a public charity, id. s. 13.

26. Every person adjudged guilty of any of the misdemeanors in ss. 10—13. of this act, shall forfeit for the 1st offence, 20*l.*; for the 2d, 30*l.*; and for every subsequent offence, 40*l.*; to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant of the convicting justices: of which forfeiture, one moiety shall be paid to the informer and the other to the poor of the parish, or to such public charity as the justices appoint: [but these penalties are now otherwise applied, see 58 G. 3. c. 51 ss. 3, 4. infra, pl. 46, 47.] if no sufficient distress can be found, they may commit the offender to any gaol in their jurisdiction, for one month for the 1st, 2 for the 2d, and 6 for every subsequent offence, id. s. 14.

27. If any person entrusted with any of the above materials to manufacture the same, shall not use the whole thereof in such working them up, and shall delay for [21, 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 7., altered by 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 7. to] 8 days to return (if required by the owner thereof) so much of the materials as remain unused to the person entrusting him therewith, such neglect, &c. shall be deemed an embezzling or purloining of such materials, and the offender, &c. being convicted as above, shall suffer the punishments inflicted for the same by both acts, 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 7., 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 7.

28. Any [one justice, 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 8., altered by 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 2. pl. 9. to] two justices of the county, city, or place, on complaint to them on oath, or on affirmation if by a quaker, of any offence against this act committed within their jurisdiction, may issue their warrant for bringing the party charged before them, and shall determine the same, and proceed to conviction and judgment thereon, 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 8.

29. If any person employed to work up any materials, whether mixed or unmixed, for any master, shall wilfully neglect the same for 3 days successively, or having taken in any materials for manufacture from one master, or 2 masters, being partners, shall afterwards take in any materials, whether mixed or unmixed, from any other master, or shall be retained in any other employment sooner than 8 days before completion of the work taken, then, on conviction on oath or affirmation of one or more witnesses before 2 or more justices, he shall be sent to the house of correction or other public prison for not more than 3, nor less than 1 month's hard labour, 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 8.

30. If any person shall receive any such materials in a fictitious name, in order to be manufactured, or shall receive in his own name any such materials in order to be manufactured by himself, and shall afterwards deliver the same to be manufactured by another (without the owner's consent), or if any carrier or person employed to deliver materials to any workman shall designedly deliver them to any other than the person intended by the owner, all such persons shall be respectively liable to prosecution and punishment, as in s. 8., id. s. 9.

31. Nothing in this act shall repeal any of the provisions in 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 15., 20 C. 2. c. 6., or 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 36., for punishing silk winders, doublers, and other persons convicted of purloining, &c. any silk delivered them to wind, double, or work up, or after the same is wrought up, or the buyers, receivers, or persons taking to pawn such silk, 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 10.

32. No person shall, by virtue of the said acts, or of this act, be liable to suffer the punishments thereby inflicted twice for the same offence, id. s. 11.

33. All the provisions and penalties contained in 12 G. 1. c. 31. ss. 1—6. (WOOLLEN MANUFACTURES,) shall extend to journeymen dyers, hot-pressers, and all other persons soever employed in any of the woollen manufactures of this kingdom, and also to journeymen, workmen and all other persons employed in making felts or hats, or in any of the other manufactures enumerated in s. 1. of this act, pl. 9., 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 12. [See the form of conviction for non or mis-payment of wages, 58 G. 3. c. 51. Sch. A, infra, pl. 48.]

34. The owner of such materials as in s. 1. pl. 9. may enter at all reasonable hours in the day-time, the shops, &c. or working-places of any persons by him employed to work up such materials, and in case of refusal by the person so employed to permit such entrance or inspection, he shall forfeit not more than 40*s.*, nor less than 10*s.* as the convicting justice thinks proper, to be recovered and applied as in s. 14. pl. 26., 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 15.

35. Every punishment or provision contained in 22 G. 2. c. 27. as far as is not varied by this act, in respect to the said materials, shall apply to any tool and implement with which any person shall be entrusted for manufacturing or working up such materials, and also to any drugs or ingredients with which any person shall be entrusted for dying or preparing, &c. any such materials as are usually so dyed, &c., id. s. 16.

36. If any person employed as a journeyman dyer, servant or apprentice, in dying any felt or any woollen, linen, fustian, cotton, leather, fur, flax, mohair, or silk materials, whether wrought or unwrought, mixed or unmixed, shall, without consent of the master, wilfully dye any such materials, or receive the same for that purpose, whether the same shall be dyed or prepared for dying, he shall, for the first offence, forfeit 10*s.*, for the second, 20*s.*, and for every subsequent offence, 40*s.*; or if any person shall procure such materials to be dyed by such journeyman, &c. without consent of his employer, or shall offer any such materials to him for such purpose, the offender being convicted by the oath, &c. of one or more witnesses before 2 justices, shall for the first offence forfeit 5*s.*, for the second, 20*s.*, and for every subsequent offence 4*l.*, to be paid to the informer, [but these penalties are otherwise applied by 58 G. 3. c. 51. ss. 2—4., infra, pl. 45—47.] and in case of non-payment on conviction, the offender shall be committed to gaol or house of correction for not exceeding one month, id. s. 17.

37. Any inhabitant of a parish in which any offence shall be committed contrary to 12 G. 1. c. 34., (WOOLLEN MANUFACTURES,) or 22 G. 2. c. 27., shall be a competent witness, id. s. 18.

38. Any one justice, on complaint to him made on oath or affirmation, of any offence against this act, shall issue his warrant for apprehending and bringing before 2 justices the person charged with such offence, who shall determine the matter, and proceed to conviction, id. s. 19.

39. Any person who shall be aggrieved by the judgment of any 2 justices before whom he shall have been convicted of any of the offences in 12 G. 1. c. 34. (WOOLLEN MANUFACTURES,) or 22 G. 2. c. 27., or in this act mentioned, may appeal; and the said justices shall make known to such person, at the time of his conviction, his right to appeal to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, &c., or place where such conviction is made, (such person, at the time of such conviction, giving to such justice notice in writing of his intention to appeal, and entering into a recognizance, with sufficient sureties conditioned to try the same, and to abide the judgment and pay the costs awarded by the justices at the sessions;) but if he shall not then enter into such recognizance, the justices may commit him to the next quarter sessions, or till he enter into such recognizance; and the quarter sessions shall determine such appeal, and award reasonable costs to be paid by either party, [and treble costs may be awarded against the appellant, where the cause of appeal relates to any provisions of any of the above acts, respecting the payment or receipt of wages, and the same is decided against him, 1 G. 4.

c. 23. s. 3., see infra, pl. 53.] and if the judgment of the convicting parties is affirmed, such appellant shall, in 48 hours after, suffer the corporal punishment directed in his conviction, or immediately pay the penalty, with costs awarded by the sessions for defraying defendant's costs in the appeal, or in default thereof shall be committed to the common gaol, &c. in the same manner and for the time directed by the original judgment of conviction, unless he has been imprisoned under the original conviction, in which case the time of his confinement shall be included, 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 20.

40. No order made touching any matters in this act, nor any proceedings in the conviction of any offender against 22 G. 2. c. 27., or this act, shall be quashed for want of form, or removable by certiorari into K. B., and the convicting justices shall cause the same to be drawn up in form as in s. 31. pl. 18., to be fairly written on parchment, and transmitted at the next general or quarter sessions of the peace, to be held for the county or place wherein such conviction was had, to be filed among the records of the said general or quarter sessions, and if the convict appeals to the sessions, the latter, on receiving the above conviction, shall determine the appeal, id. s. 23.

41. Nothing herein shall repeal any former laws now in force for the punishment of any of the offences herein above specified, except those expressly specified herein, and no offender proceeded against under this act for any offence shall be proceeded against for the same under any former law, id. s. 23.

42. Every action commenced against any person for any thing done in pursuance hereof, shall be severally laid and tried in the county or place where the fact was committed, and not elsewhere, and the general issue may be pleaded, and the special matter given in evidence, and that the act was done in pursuance of this act, and if so done, or if any such action is brought in any other county, &c. the jury shall find for defendant, and on such verdict, or if the plaintiff shall be nonsuit or discontinue, after defendant has appeared, or if on demurrer judgment is given against plaintiff, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 25.

43. TO AMEND 4 E. 4. c. 1., 1 A. St. 2. c. 18., [10 A. c. 16., 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 15., 7 A. c. 13., REPEAL by 49 G. 3. c. 109. s. 1.] 12 G. 1. c. 34., 13 G. 1. c. 23., 13 G. 2. c. 8., 22 G. 2. c. 27., 29 G. 2. c. 33., [13, so in the act, and in the conviction, pl. 48., but the act is really] 17 G. 3. c. 56., 57 G. 3. c. 115. 122., as far as they prohibit the payment of wages of workmen in certain trades, otherwise than in the lawful coin or money of the realm, 58 G. 3. c. 51. [AMD. and EXT. 1 G. 4. c. 93.]

44. Every person concerned in the trades or occupations, or in the employment of workmen of the descriptions mentioned in the above acts, [viz. in the manufactures of woollen, linen, fustian, cotton, and iron, 1 A. St. 2. c. 18., 13 G. 2. c. 8. of woollen, 12 G. 1. c. 34., 13 G. 1. c. 23., 29 G. 2. c. 33., of leather, 13 G. 2. c. 8., of felts or hats, woollen, linen, fustian, cotton, iron, leather, fur, hemp, flax, mohair, and silk, and in the trade of dying and holpressing, 22 G. 2. c. 27., 17 G. 3. c. 56., the manufacture of articles of steel, or of steel and iron combined, and of plated and other cutlery articles, 57 G. 3. c. 115., and in the collieries and coal-mines in G. B. and Ire., id. c. 122.] or any of them, may pay the wages of his workmen in a note or notes of the bank of Eng., or of any duly licensed banker or bankers, issued under authority of the statutes in force for the time being, and according to those in force for granting and regulating the stamp duties, in all cases where his workmen shall freely consent and be willing to accept the same in payment of their wages, and not otherwise, 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 1.

45. So much of the said acts as directs the payment of any penalties for payment of wages otherwise than in money, either to the workmen themselves or in equal moieties to the informer and party grieved, shall be repealed, id. s. 2.

46. If any person shall incur and be convicted in any penalty under any of the above acts, the same shall be applied (not as therein directed) but one moiety to the informer and the other to the churchwardens and overseers, or in Scot. to the kirk session, of the parish within which the offence is committed, for the use of the poor thereof, id. s. 3.

47. If the informer be called to give evidence, the whole penalty shall go to the poor of the parish, id. s. 4.

48. The following conviction in Sched. A. shall be the legal form as to any penalty to be incurred under any or either of the above acts, [semb. in the manner of payment of wages only. See pl. 18., the other form of conviction.]

'—shire, } Bz it remembered that on this — day of — at — in the said the day and year first above written.' id. s. 5.

49. All the powers and penalties in the above acts contained for the above purposes, shall be exercised as amply as if hereby enacted, 58 G. 3. c. 51. s. 6.

50. TO AMEND AND RENDER MORE EFFECTUAL THE PROVISIONS OF 4 E. 4. c. 1., 1 A. St. 2. c. 18., 12 G. 1. c. 34., 13 G. 1. c. 23., 13 G. 2. c. 27., 29 G. 2. c. 33., 17 G. 3. c. 56., 57 G. 3. c. 115. 122., 58 G. 3. c. 51., for securing to the artificers, workmen, and labourers therein mentioned the due payment of their wages, 1 G. 4. c. 93. ss. 1—3. [see s. 4., tit. LABOURER pl. 25., CON. to the end of the session of 1822., id. s. 5.]

51. If any person or persons concerned in the employment of workmen in the descriptions above mentioned, [viz. those in the bracketed part of pl. 44.] shall make or impose, or cause to be made, &c. any restriction, stipulation, or agreement, either directly or indirectly, as to the place or manner of laying out the whole or any part of any wages, money, or bank notes agreed to be paid to any such workmen, or as to the persons with whom the same or any part thereof shall be laid out, or shall in any way do any thing contrary to the said acts, as respects the payment or receipt of wages, every such offender being thereof lawfully convicted, [viz. comm. semb. as in s. 10. pl. 10.] shall pay in lieu of any penalty imposed by those acts any sum not less than 10*l.* nor more than 20*l.*, in discretion of the convicting justice or justices, together with full costs of conviction, which such justice, &c. shall ascertain, 1 G. 4. c. 93. s. 1.

52. All powers of the above acts for recovery of penalties, shall be exercised for enforcing those of this act, id. s. 2.

53. Any court of quarter sessions, to which appeal is made in pursuance of any provisions contained in the above acts, or any of them, or of this act, respecting payment or receipt of wages, may award treble costs to be paid by the appellant in any case where the cause of appeal is determined against the appellant, and may enforce payment thereof as in the case of common costs, id. s. 3. [see s. 4., tit. LABOURER, pl. 25.]

II. Provisions against Exportation of Machines and Tools used in certain Manufactures, and against seducing Workmen employed therein.

54. For effectual punishment of persons convicted of seducing artificers in the manufactures of G. B. and Ire. into foreign parts, out of H. M.'s dominions, 5 G. 1. c. 27. [AMD. 23 G. 2. c. 13. ss. 1, 2. This title is framed from those of both acts.]

55. If any person shall contract with, entice, [persuade, 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 1.] endeavour to persuade or solicit, [or seduce, id. ibid.] any manufacturer [workman, id. ibid.] or artificer, of or in wool, [mohair, cotton, or silk, or of or in any manufactures made up thereof, or of any such materials mixed one with another, or of or in, id. ibid.] iron, steel, brass, or any other metal, or any clock or watchmaker, or any other manufacturer, &c. of [any other of the manufactures of, id. ibid.] G. B., [or Ire., of what nature or kind soever, id. ibid.] to go out of this kingdom, [or Ire., id. ibid.] into any foreign country, [out of H. M.'s dominions, 5 G. 1. c. 27.; not within the dominions of the crown of G. B., 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 1.] and shall be lawfully convicted thereof, on indictment or information, in any of H. M.'s courts [in K. B., id. ibid.] at Westminster, or [by indictment, id. ibid.] at the assizes or general gaol delivery [for quarter sessions of the peace, 5 G. 1. c. 27. s. 1.] for the county, riding, or division wherein such offence is committed, [if in Eng., or by indictment in the court of judicature, or any circuit court in Scot., if there committed, or by indictment or information in K. B. at Dublin, (if committed in Ire.), 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 1.] the person or persons so convicted SHALL [*be fined any sum not exceeding 100*l.* for such first offence, at discretion of the court in which such conviction shall be, and shall be imprisoned for 3 months, and until such fine paid; and on a second conviction of a like offence, shall be fined at discretion of the same court, and be imprisoned for 12 months, and until such fine paid, 5 G. 1. c. 27. s. 1. semble, in force, see 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 1., preamble,] BE, FOR EVERY artificer so by him or them respectively contracted with, &c. severally forfeit 500*l.*, and shall be imprisoned in the common gaol of the county, &c., or stewartry, for 12 months, and until such forfeiture be paid; and on any second or subsequent conviction for a like offence, shall forfeit for every person so contracted with, &c. 1000*l., and shall suffer 3 years' imprisonment, and until such forfeiture paid, 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 1. [5 G. 1. c. 27. s. 1., as EXT. and AMD. by 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 1.]

56. No person shall be prosecuted for any of the above offences, unless such prosecution is commenced within 12 [calendar 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 2.] months after such offence committed, 5 G. 1. c. 27. s. 2. and 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 2. [See as to actions brought for acts done in pursuance of 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 2. of that act, post. pl. 67.]

57. Every subject being such artificer, &c. who shall go into any country out of H. M.'s dominions, there to use or exercise, or to teach any of the said trades or manufactures to foreigners; or who, being in any such foreign country, and there using any of the said trades, &c. shall not return into this realm within 6 months next, after warning given him by the ambassador, envoy, resident minister, or consul of the crown of G. B., in the country where he shall be, or by any person authorized by such ambassador, &c. or by a secretary of state, and shall not thenceforth continually inhabit within this realm, shall be thenceforth incapable of taking any legacy devised to him, or any lands or hereditaments by descent, devise, or purchase, within this kingdom; or of being executor or administrator to any person therein, and shall forfeit all his lands, hereditaments, and chattels, in this kingdom, to H. M.'s use, and shall be deemed an alien, 5 G. 1. c. 27. s. 3.

58. On complaint on oath before any justice, that any person is endeavouring to seduce or draw away any such artificer, &c. out of H. M.'s dominions, for any of the said purposes, or that the latter hath promised, or is preparing to go out of the same for any such purpose, such justice may issue his warrant to bring the accused before him, or some other of the justices for the same county, &c. or city; and if, on bringing the accused before him, his guilt shall appear to such justice, by the oath of one witness, or by confession, such justice may bind him over to appear at the next assizes general gaol delivery, [for quarter sessions, this is left out in 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 1. see above, pl. 55.] to answer the premises, with reasonable sureties for appearance, in default of which security, such justice may commit the offender to the county gaol till the next assizes [or quarter sessions, see note above, pl. 55.] at election of such justice, and until their delivery by due course of law; and any such artificer, &c. who is so afterwards convicted of such promise or preparation to go abroad for any of the said purposes, shall give such security to H. M. not to depart his dominions for any such purpose as the court shall deem reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till such security given, id. s. 4.

59. Any of the above offences committed in Scot. shall be prosecuted in the court of judicatory or circuits there, id. s. 5.

60. TO PREVENT THE EXPORTATION TO FOREIGN PARTS of utensils made use of in the cotton, linen, woollen, and silk manufactures of this kingdom, 23 G. 2. c. 13. ss. 3—8. and 14 G. 3. c. 71. [ENF. and AMU. by 15 G. 3. c. 5., 21 G. 3. c. 37., 22 G. 3. c. 60., 26 G. 3. c. 76.]

61. Every person in G. B. or Ire., who shall, on any pretence soever, load or put on board, or cause to be laden, &c. in any vessel or boat not bound directly to some port or place in G. B. or Ire. [or to some other of the dominions of the crown of G. B., 25 G. 2. c. 13. s. 3.] any tools or utensils used in the woollen or [cotton or linen, 14 G. 3. c. 71. s. 1.] silk manufactures, or any or either of them, or any other goods in which cotton and linen, or either of them are used; or any parts or parcels of such tools, by what name soever known; shall not only forfeit such tools, &c. so put on board, but also 200*l.*, to be recovered by action of debt, or information in any court of record at Westminster, or in the court of session of Scot., or in any of the four courts of Dublin, respectively, without essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance, 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 3. and 14 G. 3. c. 71. s. 1. [and see 21 G. 3. c. 37. s. 1. pl. 68.]

62. Any customs or revenue officer, may seize and secure, in some or one of H. M.'s warehouses, all such tools or utensils, or parts thereof, as he shall find on board any vessel or boat not bound, as in last pl. and shall be indemnified for so doing, and all such tools seized and secured as above, shall be publicly sold to the best bidder, and one moiety of the produce shall go to H. M., and the other to the seizer, 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 4., 14 G. 3. c. 71. s. 2.

63. Every captain of any vessel in G. B. or Ire., who shall knowingly permit any such tools, &c. to be put on board his ship, shall forfeit 100*l.* by 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 5., 200l. by 14 G. 3. c. 71. s. 3. recoverable as in pl. 61., and if it be a king's ship, shall also lose his command, and be disabled for any further employment under the crown, 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 5. 14 G. 3. c. 71. s. 3.

64. Every customs or revenue officer, who shall take, or knowingly suffer to be taken any entry outward, or who shall sign any cockpit or sufferance for the shipping of any such tools, &c., or shall knowingly permit the same to be done, directly or indirectly, contrary to this act, shall forfeit 100*l.* by 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 6. and 200*l.* by 14 G. 3. c. 71. s. 4. recoverable as in pl. 61., and shall lose his office, and be disabled, as in 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 6., 14 G. 3. c. 71. s. 4.

65. If any person shall collect, obtain, or have in his custody or possession, any such tools, &c. [as in pl. 61.] or any tools or implements used in the woollen or silk manufactures of this kingdom, or any parts thereof; [This clause, and 21 G. 3. c. 37. s. 1. REPEALED as to prohibiting the exportation of wool cards, not exceeding 4*s.* per pair, and spinners cards not exceeding 1*s. 6d.* per pair value, intended to be exported to the American colonies, 15 G. 3. c. 5., 21 G. 3. c. 37. s. 9. but the last act 26 G. 3. c. 76., omits these words, and is general] and complaint is made on oath of one witness, before any justice, that there is reason to believe that such person hath collected, &c. or got into his possession such tools, &c. or parts thereof, with intent to export the same to some place out of G. B. or Ire. the justice may issue his warrant to seize all such tools, and bring the person complained of before him, or some other justice; and if, when so brought up, such person shall not give such justice a satisfactory account of the purpose to which such tools are intended to be appropriated, the latter shall cause such tools to be detained, and shall bind the persons so charged to appear at the next assizes, gaol-delivery or quarter sessions for the county where such offence is committed, with reasonable sureties for appearance, or if refusing to give such security, may commit such person to the county gaol, till the next assizes or quarter sessions at the justices' election, and till delivered by law, and in case he is convicted at such assizes, &c. he shall not only forfeit all such tools so seized, but also 200*l.* recoverable as in pl. 61., 14 G. 3. c. 71. s. 5., 15 G. 3. c. 5., 21 G. 3. c. 37. s. 9., 26 G. 3. c. 76.

66. One moiety of the forfeitures by these acts, [except comm. remb. where otherwise specially disposed of, as in 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 4., and 14 G. 3. c. 71. s. 2. pl. 62.] shall, when recovered, go to H. M. and the other to the person suing for the same, 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 7. 14 G. 3. c. 71. s. 6.

67. Every action brought against any person, for any thing done in pursuance of these acts, shall be commenced within six months after the fact committed; defendant may file common bail or a common appearance, and plead general issue, not guilty, giving this act and the special matter, in evidence; and if plaintiff is nonsuit, discontinues, or has verdict or judgment against him on demurrer, defendant shall recover treble costs, 23 G. 2. c. 13. s. 8., 14 G. 3. c. 71. s. 7.

68. If any person in G. B. or Ire. shall put on board, or pack, or cause, &c. to be put on board, or packed in order to be put on board of any vessel not bound directly to some port in G. B. or Ire. or shall lade, or cause, &c. to be laden on board any boat or other vessel, or shall bring, or cause to be brought to any quay, wharf, or other place, in order to be so put on board any such vessel, any machine, engine, tool-press, paper utensil, or implement soever, used in, or proper for the working, pressing, or completing of the woollen, cotton, linen, or silk manufactures of this kingdom, or any of them, or any other goods, wherein wool, cotton, linen, or silk, or any of them are used, or any part of such machine, &c. by whatever name known, or any model or plan of such machine, or any part thereof, and complaint being made, on the oath of one witness, before any justice, the latter shall issue his warrant, not only to seize all such machines, models, plans, and parts thereof respectively, with the packages and all other goods packed therewith, but also to bring the person complained of before him or some other justice for the same county; and if, when so brought up, such person shall not give a satisfactory account of the purpose to which such machines, models, plans, &c. are intended to be appropriated, the justice may not only cause such machines, &c. seized, together with the packages and all other goods packed therewith, to be detained, but may also bind over the person charged, to appear at the next assizes, general gaol delivery or quarter sessions, with reasonable sureties for his appearance; and if he shall not give such security, may commit him to the common gaol or house of correction till the next assizes, or sessions, and till delivered by law; and if he is convicted of any of the offences aforesaid, on any indictment or information against him, at such assizes or sessions, he shall not only forfeit all such machines, &c. together with the packages, and all other goods packed therewith; but also 200*l.* with 12 months imprisonment in the common gaol of the county, and until such forfeiture is paid, 21 G. 3. c. 37. s. 1.

69. Any officer of customs in G. B. and of revenue in Ire. may seize and secure in some H. M.'s warehouses, all such machines, &c. as he shall find to be laid on board, or intended to be laid on board of any vessel or boat, not bound directly to some port in G. B. or Ire. contrary to this act, together with the packages, and all other goods packed therewith, and is indemnified in so doing; and all machines, &c. together with the packages and other goods packed therewith, so seized, shall after condemnation, be publicly sold to the best bidder, by order of the customs in G. B., or commissioners of revenue in Ire.; and one moiety of the produce, after deducting the charges of condemnation and sale, shall be to the use of H. M., and the other to the seizer, id. s. 2.

70. If the captain of any vessel or boat, in G. B. or Ire., shall knowingly permit any machine, &c. by this act prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his vessel, he shall forfeit 200*l.*; and if the vessel belong to H. M., he shall also forfeit his employment, and be incapable of holding office under H. M., id. s. 3.

71. If any officer of customs shall take, or knowingly suffer to be taken any entry outward, or shall sign any cockpit for the shipping or exporting of any of the said machines, &c. or shall knowingly permit the same to be done, contrary to this act, he shall forfeit 200*l.* and his office, and be disabled as in s. 3., id. s. 4.

72. The penalties and forfeitures herein (the recovery whereof is not before directed) shall be recovered by action of debt or information, in any court of record at Westminster, or in the court of session in Scot. or in any of the four courts at Dublin, in the name of the attorney-general, or lord advocate, or in the names of some officer of customs in G. B. or of revenue in Ire., one moiety shall go to H. M., and the other to such officer of customs or revenue as shall sue, after deducting the charges of prosecution from the whole, id. s. 5.

73. If any person hath in his possession, or shall obtain, make, apply for, or cause to be made any such machine, &c. with intent to export, or that the same may be exported to some other part than G. B. or Ire.

and complaint is made, on oath of one witness, before any justice, that there is reason to believe such person hath in his possession, or hath obtained, &c. the same, with intent to export, or that the same may be exported to some other port than in G. B. or Ire., the said justice may issue his warrant to seize all such machines, &c. and to bring the person complained of before him, or some other justice, and if he shall not give a satisfactory account of the purpose to which such machines, &c. are, or were intended to be appropriated, such justice may cause all such machines, &c. so seized to be detained, and may bind the person so charged to appear at the next assizes, general gaol delivery, or quarter sessions, with reasonable sureties for his appearance; and if he shall not give such security, such justice may commit such person to the county gaol, till the next assizes or quarter sessions, and till his delivery by law; and if he is there convicted of having in his possession, or of having obtained, &c. any such machine, &c. with such intent, then he shall forfeit all such machines, &c. so seized, and also 200*l.*, and shall suffer imprisonment in the common gaol of the county, for 12 months, and till such forfeiture is paid; but such prosecution must be commenced within 12 months, 21 G. 3. c. 37. s. 6.

74. The forfeitures by this act inflicted on offenders against the same, shall, when recovered (where not otherwise provided) go to the use of the informer, after expenses of prosecution paid, id. s. 7.

75. Actions against any person for what he does in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within six months, and the person sued may file common bail or appearance, plead the general issue, and give this act in evidence, and if the plaintiff be nonsuit, discontinue, or have verdict or judgment on demurrer against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s. 8.

76. TO PREVENT THE SEDUCING OF WORKMEN EMPLOYED in printing calicoes, cottons, muslins, and linens, or in making blocks, plates, or other implements used in that manufactory, to go to parts beyond the seas, and to prohibit the export of such blocks, &c., 22 G. 3. c. 60.

77. Every person who shall contract with, entice, persuade, or endeavour to seduce or encourage any artificer or workman employed, or having been employed, in printing calicoes, cottons, muslins, or linens of any sort, or in making or preparing any blocks, plates, or other utensils for such manufactory, to go out of G. B. to parts beyond the seas, and who shall be convicted thereof, on indictment, &c. in K. B. at Westminster, or at the assizes or gaol delivery for the county or place wherein such offence is committed, or the offender is resident, or by indictment in the courts of judicature, or circuit courts in Scot., shall, for every artificer so contracted with, &c. forfeit 500*l.* and be committed to the common gaol for 12 months, and till such forfeiture paid; and in case of a like subsequent offence, shall, on like conviction, forfeit for every person contracted with, &c. 100*l.* and be committed to common gaol for 2 years, and till forfeiture paid, 22 G. 3. c. 60. s. 1.

78. Prosecutions for the above offences, shall be commenced within 12 months after the offence committed, id. s. 2.

79. No person shall export from G. B. to any parts beyond the seas, any blocks, plates, engines, tools, or utensils used in, or proper for preparing, working up, or finishing of the callicoe, cotton, muslin, or linen printing manufactures, or any part of such blocks, &c. and if any person shall put or endeavour to put on board any vessel, not bound directly to some port of G. B., any such blocks, &c. or part thereof, he shall forfeit all such blocks, &c. and also 500*l.* to be recovered by action of debt or information in any court at Westminster, or in the court of session in Scot. with no essoin, &c. and but one imparlance allowed, id. s. 3.

80. Any officer of customs or excise, shall seize, and secure in some of H. M.'s warehouses, all such blocks, &c. or parts thereof, as he shall find, or be informed are on board, or in any way of being put on board any vessel, not bound directly to some port in G. B.; and all blocks &c. or parts thereof so seized shall after condemnation be publicly sold to the best bidder, to be used in G. B. and not elsewhere; and one moiety of the produce shall go to H. M., and the other to the officer, id. s. 4.

81. If the captain or other officer of any vessel in G. B. or Ire., shall permit any such blocks, &c. or parts thereof, to be put on board his vessel, or shall connive at the same, he shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered as aforesaid; and if the vessel belongs to H. M., the captain, or other officer thereof, so permitting or conniving, shall, besides forfeiting the 100*l.*, be incapable of holding any office or commission under H. M., id. s. 5.

82. If any officer of customs shall take or permit any entry outwards, or sign any cocket for the shipping or exporting, of any of the said blocks, &c. or parts thereof, or suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered as in s. 3.; and also his office, and be forever rendered incapable of holding office under H. M., id. s. 6.

83. One moiety of the forfeitures, shall go to the use of H. M., and the other to the person suing, id. s. 7.

84. Actions against any person for what he shall do in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within six months after the fact; and the person sued may file common bail, and plead the general issue; and if plaintiff is nonsuit, discontinues, or has judgment against him, defendant shall have treble costs, 22 G. 3. c. 60. s. 8.

85. TO PROHIBIT THE EXPORTATION TO FOREIGN PARTS of tools and utensils made use of in the iron and steel manufactures of this kingdom, and to prevent the seducing of artificers or workmen employed in those manufactures, to go into parts beyond the seas, 25 G. 3. c. 67. [AMD. &c. 26 G. 3. c. 89. which act is CON. by 30 G. 3. c. 18. s. 12. and made perpetual, 35 G. 3. c. 38. s. 4.]

86. If any person in G. B. shall export or put on board, or pack, or cause to be put on board, or packed in order to be put on board of any vessel which shall be bound to some port in parts beyond the seas (except Ire.), or shall lade, or cause to be laden on board any boat or other vessel, or shall bring, or cause to be brought, to any quay, wharf, or other place, in order to be so laden or put on board any such vessel, any tool or utensil hereafter mentioned; that is to say,

Hand stamps, dog head stamps, pulley stamps, stamps of all sorts, hammers and anvils for stamps, screws for stamps, iron rods for stamps, presses of all sorts, in iron, steel, or other metal used for giving impressions to metal, or any parts of these articles; presses of all sorts called cutting out presses, beds and punches to be used therewith; piercing presses of all sorts, beds and punches to be used therewith, either in parts or pieces, or fitted together; iron or steel dies to be used in stamps or presses either with or without impressions on them; rollers of cast iron, wrought iron, or steel, for rolling of metal, and frame for the same; flasks or casting moulds, and boards used therewith; lathes of all sorts for turning, burnishing, polishing, either the whole together, or separate parts thereof; lathe strings, polishing brushes, scoring or shading engines, presses for horn buttons, dies for horn buttons, sheers for cutting of metal, rolled metal with silver thereon, parts of buttons not fitted up into buttons, or unfinished; engines for chasing, stocks for casting buckles, buttons, and rings; cast iron anvils and hammers for forging mills for iron and copper; roles, slitters, beds, pillars and frames for slitting mills; die-sinking tools of all sorts, engines for making button shanks, laps of all sorts, drilling engines, tools for pinching of glass, engines for covering of whips, polishing brushes, bars of metal covered with gold or silver, iron or steel screw plates, pins and stocks for making screws;

or other tool or utensil whatsoever, which may be used in, or proper for working or completing the iron or steel manufactures of this kingdom, by what name soever known, or any model or plan of any such tool, or any part thereof; the offender shall forfeit all such tools, or parts thereof, with the packages, and all other goods packed therewith, and complaint being made, on the oath of one witness, before any justice, he may issue his warrant to bring the person complained of before him, or some other justice for the same county; and if, when brought before such justice, he shall not give a satisfactory account of the purpose to which such tools, &c. and models, plans, or parts thereof are intended to be appropriated, such justice may bind him to appear at the next assizes, general gaol delivery, or quarter sessions, with reasonable sureties for his appearance; and in case he shall not give such security, such justice may commit the person so refusing to the common gaol, till the next assizes, or quarter sessions, and till his delivery by law; and in case such person shall be convicted on any indictment or information against him at such assizes or sessions, he shall forfeit 200*l.*, and also suffer imprisonment in the common gaol for 12 months, and till such forfeiture is paid, 25 G. 3. c. 67. s. 1.

87. Any officer of customs in G. B., may seize and secure, in some of H. M.'s warehouses, all such tools, models, or parts thereof respectively, as he shall find put on board, or intended to be put on board any vessel or boat bound to some port in parts beyond the seas, (except Ire.), contrary to this act, together with the packages and all other goods packed therewith, and is indemnified in so doing; and all tools, models, or parts thereof, with the packages and other goods packed therewith, so seized, shall, after condemnation, be publicly sold to the best bidder, by order of commissioners of customs; and one moiety arising by the sale, after deducting the charges of condemnation and sale, shall be to H. M., and the other to the seizer, id. s. 2.

88. If the captain, &c. of any vessel or boat in G. B., shall knowingly permit any such tool, or part thereof, or any model, or part thereof, to be put on board his vessel, he shall forfeit 200*l.*, and if the vessel belong to H. M., shall also forfeit his employment, and be incapable of holding any office under H. M., id. s. 3.

89. Every officer of customs in G. B. who shall take, or knowingly suffer to be taken any entry outward, or shall sign any cocket for shipping or exporting of any of the said tools, models, or parts thereof, or shall knowingly permit the same to be done, shall forfeit 200*l.* and also his office, and be incapable of holding office under H. M., id. s. 4.

90. If any person hath in his possession, or shall obtain, make, apply for, or cause to be made any such tool, or part thereof, or any such model or plan, or part thereof, with intent to export, or that the same may be exported out of G. B. to any part beyond the seas, (except Ire.), and complaint being made, on the oath of one witness, before any justice, that there is reason to believe such person hath in his possession, or hath collected, &c. any such tools, &c. with intent to export, or that the same may be exported to some other place than G. B. or Ire.; the said justice may issue his warrant to seize all such tools, &c. and to bring the person complained of before him, or some other justice for the same county and if he shall not give a satisfactory account of the use to which such tools, &c. were intended to be appropriated, such justice may cause such tools, &c. so seized, to be detained, and bind the person charged to appear at the next assizes, general gaol delivery, or quarter sessions, with reasonable sureties for appearance; and if he shall not give such security, may commit him to the county gaol, till the next assizes, or quarter sessions, and till delivered by law; and in case he is convicted on any indictment or information against him at such assizes or quarter sessions, of having in his possession, or of having obtained, &c. such tool, &c. with such intent as aforesaid, the convict shall forfeit all such tools, &c. so seized, and also 200*l.*, and shall suffer imprisonment in the common gaol of the county, for 12 months, without bail, and till such forfeiture paid, 25*G. 3. c. 67. s. 5.*

91. If any person shall contract with, entice, persuade, or endeavour to seduce or encourage any artificer or workman employed, or having been employed in the iron or steel manufactures, or in making or preparing any tools, &c. for such manufactory to go out of G. B. to any foreign parts, except Ire. and shall be convicted thereof, on indictment or information in K. B. at Westminster, or by indictment at the assizes or quarter sessions for the county or place where the offence is committed, or the offender resides, or in the judiciary or circuit courts in Scot. he shall, for every artificer so contracted with, &c. forfeit 500*l.*, and be committed to the common gaol for 12 calendar months, and till such forfeiture is paid; and for a like subsequent offence, shall forfeit 1000*l.* and be committed to the common gaol for 2 years, and till such forfeitures be paid, id. s. 6.

92. Prosecutions for the above offences, shall be brought within 12 calendar months after the offence committed, id. s. 7.

93. The penalties shall be recovered by action of debt or information in any court of record at Westminster, or in the courts of exchequer, or of session of Scot., in the name of the attorney-general or lord advocate, or of some officer of customs in G. B.; and one moiety shall go to the king, and the other to such officer of customs as shall sue, after deducting the charges of prosecution from the whole, id. s. 8.

94. Actions against any person for what he shall do in pursuance hereof, shall be commenced within 3 months, and the person sued may plead the general issue; and if the plaintiff shall be nonsuit, &c. the defendant shall recover treble costs, 25*G. 3. c. 67. s. 9.*

95. It shall be lawful to export from G. B. to the British West Indies, or to any part whatever any tools or utensils made use of in the iron or steel manufactures of this kingdom, which might have been legally exported before the passing of 25*G. 3. c. 67.* (except Rollers, either plain, grooved, or of any other form or denomination of cast iron, wrought iron, or steel, for the rolling of iron, or any sort of metals, and frames, beds, pillars, screws, pinions, and each implement, tool, or utensil thereunto belonging; rollers, slitters, frames, beds, pillars, and screws, for slitting mills; presses of all sorts in iron, steel, or other metals, which are used with a screw exceeding one inch and a half in diameter; or any parts of such articles, or any model of any such utensils, implements, and machines, or any part thereof; and all sorts of utensils, engines, or machines used in the casting or boring cannon, or any sort of artillery, or any parts thereof, or any model tools, utensils, engines or machines used in casting or boring of cannon, or any sort of artillery, or parts thereof; hand-stamps, dog-head stamps, pulley stamps, hammers and anvils for stamps, presses of all sorts called cutting-out presses, beds and punches to be used therewith, piercing presses of all sorts, beds and punches to be used therewith, either in parts or pieces, or fitted together; scoring or shading engines, presses for horn buttons, dies for horn buttons, rolled metal with silver thereon, parts of buttons not fitted up into buttons, or in an unfinished state; engines for chasing, stocks for casting buckles, buttons and rings; die sinking tools of all sorts, engines for making button shanks, laps of all sorts, tools for pinching of glass, engines for covering of whigs, bars of metal covered with gold or silver, burnishing stones, commonly called blood stones, either in the rough state or finished for use); any thing in 25*G. 3. c. 67. s. 1.* notwithstanding, 26*G. 3. c. 89. s. 1.*

96. No person in G. B. may export to parts beyond the seas (except Ire.), or have in his possession with intent to export, any of these tools:

viz.

- * Wire moulds for making paper; wheels made of metal, stone, or wood, for cutting, roughing, smoothing, polishing, and engraving glass; pincellas, pincers, sheers, and pipes, used in blowing glass; potters' wheels and potters' lathes for plain, round, and for engine-turning tools, used by saddlers, harness-makers, and bridle-makers, namely, cantle-strainers, side-strainers, point-strainers, creasing-irons, screw-creasers, wheel-irons, seat-irons, pricking-irons, bolstering-irons, clams, head-knives; and 25*G. 3. c. 67.* so far as it concerns the exporters or possessors of the tools therein enumerated or described, shall extend to all exporters or possessors of the tools herein enumerated, 26*G. 3. c. 89. s. 2.*

MARKETS AND FAIRS.

1. NO FAIRS OR MARKETS SHALL BE KEPT in church-yards, 15*E. 1. c. 6. Stat. Wymt.*

2. ALL SHERIFFS SHALL PROCLAIM AND PUBLISH that all lords that have fairs shall hold the same for the time they ought, and no longer; viz. those that have them by H. M.'s charter, for the time thereby granted, and those without charter for the time they ought by right. Every lord, at beginning of his fair, shall proclaim how long the fair endures, to the intent that merchants who stay over such time shall be grievously punished towards H. M.; and the lords shall not hold fairs over due time, on pain to seize same into H. M.'s hands till fine is made to H. M., after it is duly found that they held such fairs longer than they ought, or that the merchants have stayed above the time so proclaimed, 2*E. 3. c. 15.*

3. MERCHANTS AFTER THE TIME OF HOLDING the fair is ended, shall close their booths or stalls, without putting to sale any ware there; and if they sell any wares there after such time, shall forfeit to H. M. double value of the thing sold; and to recover same, every man who will sue for H. M. shall be received, and shall have 1-4th of the penalty, 5*E. 5. c. 5.*

4. THE CLERK OF THE MARKET OF H. M.'s house shall do his office well and duly: all false measures and weights shall be burned: he shall take no common fine; but every person in default touching the office, shall be punished according to desert: he shall not ride but with 6 horses, at most, or tarry in any town or place longer than necessary for his business; and if convict of any thing contrary to this statute, shall pay to H. M., on 1st conviction, 100*s.*; at the 2d, 10*l.*; at the 3d, 20*l.*, 15*R. 2. c. 4.*

5. THE CLERK OF THE MARKET SHALL have all his measures and weights of brass, according to the exchequer standard, and marked with the proper sign of the exchequer, and shall carry the same with him when he makes assay of weights and measures within the realm, and no other measure or weight shall be used by him or any other, on the pains contained in former statutes; 16*R. 2. c. 3. s. 1.* [AMD. 16*C. 1. c. 19.* For the modern regulations for regulating weights and measures, see tit. WEIGHTS, &c.]

6. FOR BETTER ORDERING AND REGULATING THE OFFICE OF CLERK of the market allowed and confirmed by this statute, 16*C. 1. c. 19.*, and recital in s. 1. [ss. 5—6. and 8—9. See rest of this statute, WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.]

7. The clerk of the market of H. M.'s house, or of any future duke of Cornwall, or his deputy, shall execute his office only within the verge of H. M.'s court, where it then resides; and the head officers of corporations, and the lords of franchises, and their deputies, may execute the said office according to their several jurisdictions, id. s. 3.

8. Every such clerk of the market or head officer, lord of franchise, or their deputies, who shall seal or give allowance to any other weight or measure than the standard of exchequer, or shall, on reasonable warning, refuse to seal, &c. such as are agreeable thereto, on paying only the fees warranted by ancient custom or by statute, shall forfeit for each offence 50*l.*, to be levied as in s. 2. (tit. WEIGHTS, &c.) to the use of the poor of the parish where the offence is committed, id. s. 4.

9. If they shall take from any subject, by color of office, any common fine, fee, or other money, other than that allowed by statute or ancient custom, for making, signing, or examination of any weights or measures having been formerly marked or sealed, or shall impose any fine without legal trial of the offence, or shall otherwise mis demean themselves in their offices, and are thereof convicted, they shall respectively forfeit for the 1st offence 5*l.*; for the 2d, 10*l.*; for every other 20*l.* to be levied to the use of the poor, as in s. 2. (tit. WEIGHTS, &c.), id. s. 5.

10. Persons fined or amerced under this act shall not be again punished for the same offence under former statutes, id. s. 6.

11. Every officer, his assistant, or other authorized to execute this statute, who shall be sued for any act done therein, may plead the general issue "not guilty," and give this statute or any other special matter in evidence [id. s. 8.]; and if the verdict is not guilty, or if plaintiff is nonsuited, shall recover treble costs, id. s. 9.

12. CERTAIN DAYS WHEREIN FAIRS AND MARKETS OUGHT NOT to be kept, 27*H. 6. c. 5.* [seeb. in force, see s. 2., and Comyns v. Boyer, Cro. Eliz. 485., and Drury v. Defontaine, 1 Taunt. Rep. 151.]

13. All fairs and markets [in the principal feasts, viz.] in the feast of the Ascension, in the days of Corpus Christi, of Whitunday, Trinity, and other Sundays, and in the feast of Assumption, All-Saints-Day, and on Good-Friday, shall clearly cease from all shewing of goods, &c. (necessary victual only except) on pain of forfeiture of the goods shewed to the lord of the franchise (the 4 Sundays in harvest except); but fairs granted to be held on those festivals may be held by their old grant in 3 days next before or after the feasts, making proclamation to the people: on which day they shall be holden, without fine or fee to

H. M.'s use; and those fairs having sufficient days before or after the feasts, shall hold the same their full number of days, except the above days, 27 H. 6. c. 5.

14. FOR TRIAL OF MATTERS IN COURTS OF PIETOUDE at fairs, 17 R. 4. c. 2. [MADE PERP. 1 R. 5. c. 6.]

15. No steward, &c. of such a court shall hold plea therein unless plaintiff or his attorney, in presence of defendant, if he desires it, shall make oath on the holy Evangelists that the contract, trespass, or deed comprised in the declaration were made or done in the fair time of the fair, where he takes his action, and within its bounds and jurisdiction: defendant may plead to the action or in abatement of plaint, and may tender an issue that such contract, &c. was made out of the time, or at other places out of the jurisdiction of the same fair; and if it be so tried [found], or if plaintiff refuse to be sworn, defendant shall be discharged, and plaintiff is left to common law. Such steward, &c. shall for every default forfeit 100s., one moiety to H. M., the other to the party suing by action of debt in his own name, 17 E. 4. c. 2., 1 R. 3. c. 6.

16. The franchise of bishopric of Durham being excepted, 17 E. 4. c. 2.

17. THAT PERSONS DWELLING IN THE COUNTRY SHALL NOT SELL divers wares in cities and towns corporate by retail, 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 7. (and recital in s. 1.)

18. Any person who shall dwell out of any city, borough, town corporate, or market town, shall not sell by retail any woollen or linen cloth, haberdashery, grocery, or mercery wares within such cities, &c. or the suburbs or liberties thereof, except it be in open fairs, on penalty of 6s. 8d., and all wares so sold or offered to be sold contrary to this act shall go in moieties to H. M. and to the person suing for same by action of debt, information, &c., wherein no essoin, &c., id. s. 2.

19. This act shall not prejudice any person who brings any such wares to any city, &c. to be sold by wholesale, but not by retail; but the same may be sold by wholesale as before this act, id. s. 3.; so persons, &c. being free of any of the guilds and liberties of such cities, and dwelling within the same, may sell any of such wares by retail, id. s. 4.

20. All persons may sell, by retail or otherwise, all manner of cloth, linen, or woollen of their own making, in every city and town as before, id. s. 5.; and this act shall not prejudice the privileges of the universities of Oxford or Cambridge, id. s. 6.

MARQUE.

1. FOR REGULATING THE GRANT OF LETTERS OF MARQUE, 4 H. 5. c. 7. [REP. as to the grant thereof against Scot. in s. 3. by 4 J. 1. c. 1. s. 1.]

2. [After reciting 2 H. 5. c. 6., making breach of truce high treason, whereby though enemies break the same, subjects cannot act against them, now REP. 20 H. 6. c. 11., 14 E. 4. c. 4., 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 2.] In case of breach of truce by enemies, letters of marque shall be granted to the parties grieved, id. s. 1.; who may complain to the keeper of the privy seal, who shall make for the complainant (if he so require) letters of request of restitution under his seal in due form; and if restitution be not made accordingly within a reasonable time, the chancellor of England shall cause to be made out to him letters of marque in due form, id. s. 2.

3. TO AUTHORIZE THE ISSUING OF COMMISSIONS, AND LETTERS OF MARQUE AND REPRISAL, against H. M.'s enemies, to such ships and vessels belonging to H. M. as are employed in the service of the boards of customs or excise, and other public boards in this kingdom, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 76.

4. The lord high admiral, or commissioners for executing that office, or any 3 of them, may, if they think fit, or any person by them appointed, may, at the request of the commissioners of customs, excise, navy transports, ordnance, or victualling, cause to be issued in the usual manner, commissions or letters of marque and reprisal, to any person they may appoint to be commanders of such ship or vessel, for taking with such ships, &c. any place or fortress upon land, or any ships or vessels, arms, ammunition, stores of war, goods and merchandise possessed by H. M.'s enemies in any sea, creek, haven, or river; and such ship, arms, &c., with all their furniture, tackle, and apparel so to be taken, after final adjudication thereof as lawful prize in the high court, or in any other court of admiralty in H. M.'s dominions duly authorized thereto, shall wholly belong and be divided between the persons on board thereof aiding and assisting in the taking thereof, in such shares as any public boards in this kingdom shall think fit; and neither H. M. nor any other person, other than those on board, shall be entitled to any share therein, except to the duties payable in respect thereof [33 G. 3. c. 66. s. 9. now EXP.] notwithstanding, id. s. 1.

5. But before granting any commission or letter of marque in pursuance of this act, such like bail and security shall be taken as usual in cases where granted to merchants' ships, and the sufficiency thereof shall be enquired into and reported, and such oath taken as by 33 G. 3. c. 66. [s. 14. now EXP.] required; and all the rules, regulations, &c. in that act contained, relating to the applying for, obtaining, using, or revoking such commissions or letters, for vessels belonging to H. M.'s subjects, and relating to the officers and crews thereof, or offences by them committed, or to any persons granting certificates, or otherwise acting in respect to such ships, &c. (except where hereby altered) shall be observed, &c. as far as applicable to this act, and to vessels having commissions or letters of marque, and to the officers and crews thereof, and other persons acting in anywise relating thereto, 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 76. s. 2.

MARRIAGE.

1. THE PROHIBITED DEGREES OF MARRIAGE ARE THE FOLLOWING: No subjects of this realm, or in any H. M.'s dominions, shall marry within the following degrees; and the children of such unlawful marriages are illegitimate: viz. a man may not marry his mother or step-mother; his sister; his son's or daughter's daughter; his father's daughter by his step-mother; his aunt; his uncle's wife; his son's wife; his brother's wife; his wife's daughter; his wife's son's daughter; his wife's daughter's daughter; his wife's sister, 25 H. 8. c. 22. s. 3.; and this provision shall be interpreted of such marriages, where marriages were solemnized and carnal knowledge had, 25 H. 8. c. 22. s. 14.

2. CONCERNING [PRECONTRACTS OF] MARRIAGES, AND TOUCHING degrees of consanguinity, 32 H. 8. c. 38. [REP. by 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 23. ss. 1, 2., as to annulling marriages for precontracts; and wholly by 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 8. s. 20., but so much as was not REP. by 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 23. is REV. by 1 E. 1. c. 1. s. 11.]

3. All such marriages as within the church of Eng. shall be contracted between lawful persons (as all persons be lawful that be not prohibited by God's law to marry) being contract and solemnized in the face of the church, and consummate with bodily knowledge and fruit of children, shall be lawful and indissoluble, notwithstanding any dispensation, prescription, or other thing; and no reservation or prohibition (God's law except) shall impeach any marriage without the Levitical degrees; and no person shall be admitted in the spiritual courts to any process contrary to this act, 32 H. 8. c. 38. s. 1.

4. As concerning pre-contracts, 32 H. 8. c. 38. shall be REP., and reduced to the state of H. M.'s ecclesiastical law, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 23. s. 2.

5. NO PERSON SHALL BE MARRIED AT ANY PLACE PRETENDING to be exempt from the visitation of the bishop, without a licence, except the banns be published and certified; and every parson, vicar, and curate, who shall marry any persons contrary to the meaning hereof, shall forfeit 100l., to be recovered in any of H. M.'s courts of record, one moiety to H. M. and the other to the informer; and shall for the second offence be suspended ab officio et beneficio for 3 years, 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 6. s. 52. [see rest of this act, REGISTER, pl. 1.]

6. FOR ENFORCING THE LAWS WHICH RESTRAIN MARRIAGES without licence or banns, and for better registering marriages, births and burials, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 35., (and recital in s. 1.)

7. Every parson, vicar, or curate who shall marry any person without publication of banns, or without licence, shall forfeit 100l., id. s. 2.

8. Every parson, vicar, or curate, who shall substitute, or knowingly permit any other minister to marry any persons in any church or chapel to such parson, &c. belonging, without publication of banns or licences, shall forfeit 100l., to be recovered in any of H. M.'s courts of record, by action of debt or information, without essoin, &c. or more than one imprisonment, one moiety to H. M., and the other to him that shall sue, id. s. 3.

9. Every man married without licence or publication of banns, shall forfeit 10l., to be recovered with costs as aforesaid; and every sexton or parish clerk who shall knowingly assist at such marriages shall forfeit 5l., recoverable in like manner, id. s. 4.

10. [TO GUARD AGAINST LOSS TO STAMP DUTIES BY CLANDESTINE MARRIAGES.] Every parson, vicar, or curate, or other person in holy orders, who shall marry any person without publication of banns, or licence from the proper ordinary, shall forfeit 100l., to be recovered with costs in any court of record at Westminster, [as in pl. 8.] one moiety to H. M. and the other to him who shall sue; and if such offender is a prisoner in any prison (other than a county gaol) and is convicted of such offence by action or information, then on oath of such imprisonment made before any judge of the above courts, and on producing a copy of the record of such conviction proved on oath, the judge shall grant his warrant to the keeper of the gaol where such offender is prisoner, to remove him to the gaol of the county; and every gaoler knowingly permitting any marriage to be solemnized in his prison, before publication of banns, or licence obtained, shall forfeit 100l. as aforesaid, 10 A. c. 19. s. 176. Saving to all archbishops, bishops, and other ordinaries, &c. all ecclesiastical jurisdiction, id. s. 177.; the provision for marriages shall not extend to Scot., id. s. 178. [See rest of this statute, STAMPS.]

11. FOR THE BETTER PREVENTING OF CLANDESTINE MARRIAGES, 26 G. 2. c. 33. [EXT., as to s. 13., to Ire. by 58 G. 3. c. 81. s. 3.]

12. All banns of matrimony shall be published in an audible manner in the parish church, or in some public chapel in which banns have been usually published, belonging to such parish or chapel, wherein the persons to be married dwell, according to the form prescribed by the rubric prefixed to the office of matrimony in the book of common prayer, on 3 Sundays preceding the solemnization, during morning service, (or evening service, if there be no morning service in such church or chapel,) on any of those Sundays, immediately after the 2d lesson; and when the persons to be married dwell in divers parishes or chapelries, shall be published in the church, &c. of each parish, &c.; and where both or either of them dwell in any extra-parochial place having no church, &c. wherein banns have been usually published, then the banns shall be published in the parish church, &c. belonging to some parish, &c. adjoining to such extra-parochial place; and where banns shall be published in any church, &c. belonging to any parish adjoining to such extra-parochial place, the parson, vicar, minister, or curate, publishing such banns, shall under his hand certify the publication thereof, in such manner as if either of the persons to be married dwelt in such adjoining parish; and all other rules prescribed by the said rubric concerning the publication of banns and the solemnization of matrimony, not hereby altered, shall be observed: and in all cases where banns have been published, the marriage shall be solemnized in one of the parish churches or chapelries where such banns have been published, and in no other place, 26 G. 2. c. 33. s. 1.

13. No parson, vicar, minister, or curate, shall be obliged to publish the banns of matrimony between any persons, unless the persons to be married shall, 7 days before the time required for the first publication, cause to be delivered to such parson, &c. a notice in writing of their christian and surnames, and of their respective abodes, within such parish, chapelry, or extra-parochial place, and of the time during which they have dwelt in such houses respectively, id. s. 2.

14. No parson, &c. solemnizing marriages between persons, both or one of whom shall be under the age of 21 years, after banns published, shall be punishable by ecclesiastical censures for solemnizing such marriages without consent of parents or guardians, whose consent is required by law, unless such parson, &c. have notice of the latter's dissent; and in case the latter, or one of them, publicly cause to be declared in the church, &c. where the banns shall be published, at the time of such publication, their dissent to such marriage, such publication of banns shall be void, id. s. 3.

15. No licence of marriage shall be granted by any person having authority to grant such licences, to solemnize any marriage in any other church or chapel, than in the parish church or public chapel belonging to the parish or chapelry within which the usual place of abode of one of the persons to be married shall have been for 4 weeks immediately before granting such licence; or where both or either of the parties to be married dwell in any extra-parochial place having no church, &c. wherein banns have been usually published, then in the parish church or chapel belonging to some parish or chapelry adjoining thereto, id. s. 4.

16. All parishes where there is no parish church, &c., or none wherein divine service shall be usually celebrated every Sunday, may be deemed extra-parochial places for the purposes of this act, id. s. 5.

17. Nothing herein shall deprive the archbishop of Canterbury and his officers of the right which hath hitherto been used under 25 H. 8. c. 21. of granting special licences to marry at any convenient time or place, id. s. 6.

18. No surrogate deputed by any ecclesiastical judge, having power to grant licences of marriages, shall grant any such licence before taking an oath before the said judge, faithfully to execute his office according to law, to the best of his knowledge, and giving security by bond in 100*l.* to the bishop of the diocese, for faithful execution of his office, id. s. 7.

19. Every person who shall solemnize matrimony in any other place than a church or public chapel, where banns have been usually published, (unless by special licence from the archbishop of Canterbury), or shall solemnize it without publication of banns, unless licence of marriage is first obtained from some competent person, shall be judged guilty of felony, and transported to some of H. M.'s plantations in America for 14 years, according to the laws for transportation of felons. And all marriages so solemnized are void, id. s. 8.

20. Prosecutions for such felony shall be commenced within 5 years after the offence committed, id. s. 9.

21. After solemnization of any marriage under a publication of banns, it shall not be necessary, in support of it, to prove the dwelling of the parties in the respective parishes or chapelries wherein the banns were published; or where the marriage is by licence, to prove that the usual place of abode of one of the parties, for 4 weeks as aforesaid, was in the parish or chapelry where the marriage was solemnized; nor shall any evidence, in either of the said cases, be received to prove the contrary in any suit touching the validity of such marriage, id. s. 10.

22. All marriages solemnized by licence, where either party, not being a widower or widow, shall be under 21, without consent of the father of such of the parties so under age, if living, or, if dead, of the guardians of the person of the party so under age, or one of them; and in case there be no such guardian, then of the mother, if living and unmarried; or if there be no mother living and unmarried, then of a guardian of the person appointed by the court of Chancery, shall be void, 26 G. 2. c. 33. s. 11.

23. In case any such guardian or mother, or any of them, whose consent is made necessary, shall be non compos mentis, or beyond the seas, or shall refuse their consent to the marriage, any person desirous of marrying, in any of the beforementioned cases, may apply by petition to the lord chancellor, who shall proceed on such petition in a summary way; and if the marriage proposed appear proper, shall judicially declare the same to be so by an order of court, which shall be deemed as good as if the guardian or mother of the person so petitioning had consented thereto, id. s. 12.

24. In no case shall any suit or proceeding be had in any ecclesiastical court, to compel a celebration of any marriage in facie ecclesie, by reason of any contract of matrimony, whether per verba de presenti or per verba de futuro, entered into after 25th Mar. 1754, id. s. 13. [or in Ire. after 15th June 1818, 58 G. 3. c. 81. s. 3.]

25. The church and chapelwardens of every parish or chapelry shall provide books of vellum, or durable paper, in which all marriages and banns of marriage respectively, there published or solemnized, shall be registered; every page thereof shall be marked at the top with the number of such page, beginning at the second leaf with number 1, and shall be ruled with lines at proper and equal distances; and all banns and marriages published or celebrated in any church or chapel, or within any such parish or chapelry, shall be registered, printed, or written on, or as near as may be to such ruled lines, and signed by the parson, vicar, minister, or curate, or by some other person in his presence, and by his direction; and such entries shall be made on or near such lines in successive order, where the paper is not damaged or decayed, till a new book is necessary; and the directions aforesaid shall be observed in every such new book. And all books provided as aforesaid shall belong to every such parish or chapelry respectively, and shall be carefully preserved for public use, id. s. 14. [See title, REGISTER, pl. 1—2.]

26. All marriages shall be solemnized in the presence of 2 witnesses, besides the minister who shall celebrate the same: and immediately after celebration of every marriage, an entry thereof shall be made in such register; in which it shall be expressed, that it was celebrated by banns or licence; and if both or either of the parties married by licence be under age, with consent of the parents or guardians, as the case is; and shall be signed by the minister with his proper addition, and also by the parties married, and attested by such 2 witnesses; the entry to be thus; viz.

27. If any person shall, with intent to elude this act, wilfully insert, or cause to be inserted in the register book of such parish or chapelry any entry of anything relating to any marriage; or shall falsely make, alter, forge, or counterfeit, or cause to be falsely made, &c. or assist in falsely making, &c. any such entry in such register; or falsely make, &c., or cause to be falsely made, &c., or assist in falsely making, &c. any such licence of marriage as aforesaid; or publish as true any such false, altered, forged, or counterfeited register, or a copy thereof, or any such false, &c. licence of marriage, knowing such register or licence of marriage respectively to be false, &c.; or if any person shall wilfully destroy, or cause to be destroyed, any register book of marriages, or any part of such register book, with intent to avoid any marriage, or to subject any person to any of the penalties of this act; every person so offending, and being convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall suffer death without benefit of clergy, id. s. 16.

28. This act shall not extend to the marriages of the royal family, id. s. 17. see 12 G. 3. c. 11., or to Scot., or to any marriages amongst Quakers, or amongst persons professing the Jewish religion, where both the parties to such marriage shall be Quakers or Jews, or to marriages solemnized beyond the seas, id. s. 18.

29. FOR BETTER REGULATING THE FUTURE MARRIAGES OF THE ROYAL family, 12 G. 3. c. 11.

30. No descendant, male or female, of the body of G. 2., (other than the issue of princesses who have married, or may marry, into foreign families), shall be capable of contracting matrimony without consent of H. M., signified under the great seal declared in council, (which consent shall be set out in the licence and register of marriage, and be entered on the books of the privy council), and every marriage or matrimonial contract of such descendant, without such consent is void, id. s. 1.

31. In case any such descendant, being above 25 years old, shall persist in his resolution to contract a marriage so disapproved by H. M., he may, on giving notice to the privy council, (which shall be entered in their books), at any time after the expiration of 12 calendar months after, contract such marriage, and the same may be duly solemnized without H. M.'s consent, and shall be good, unless both houses, before expiration of such 12 months, declare their disapprobation thereof, 12 G. 3. c. 11. s. 2.

32. Every person who shall knowingly or wilfully solemnize, or assist, or be present at the celebration of any marriage without such consent, shall incur a præmunire, id. s. 3.

33. TO RENDER VALID CERTAIN MARRIAGES SOLEMNIZED IN CERTAIN churches and public chapels, in which banns had not usually been published before or at the passing of 26 G. 2. c. 33., 21 G. 3. c. 53., 44 G. 3. c. 77., 48 G. 3. c. 127.

34. Marriages solemnized before 25d Aug. 1808, in any church or chapel in Eng., Wa., or Ber., duly consecrated, are declared valid, 48 G. 3. c. 127. s. 1.: ministers who have solemnized them are indemnified, id. s. 2.: registers of them shall be received in evidence, id. s. 3.

35. The registers of all marriages hereby made valid shall, within 30 days from 25 Aug. 1808, be removed to the parish church of the parish where such chapel is situate; and if situate in an extra-parochial place, then to the parish church next adjoining, the same to be kept with the registers of such parish, according to 26 G. 2. c. 33. s. 14. pl. 25., and within 12 months after such removal, 2 copies thereof shall be transmitted by the churchwardens to the bishop of the diocese or his chancellor, subscribed by the hands of the minister and churchwardens, that they may be preserved in the bishop's registry, id. s. 4.

36. TO REGULATE THE CELEBRATION OF MARRIAGES IN Newfoundland, 57 G. 3. c. 51.

37. All marriages had in Newfoundland shall be celebrated by persons in holy orders, and marriages hereafter to be celebrated contrary to this act shall be void; but nothing herein shall extend to any marriages to be had under circumstances of peculiar and extreme difficulty in procuring a person in holy orders to perform the ceremony, and in which the law might, on that account, otherwise determine on the validity of such marriage, provided that in such case the circumstances and the actual contract of marriage shall be certified on oath of the parties before the magistrate nearest their place of residence, or before a person authorized by the officer administering the government of Newfoundland, to administer such oath, id. s. 1.

38. Nothing herein shall extend to marriages held previous to 1 Jan. 1818, nor to marriages amongst quakers or Jews, where both parties are quakers or Jews, id. s. 2.

39. TO REMOVE DOUBTS AS TO THE VALIDITY OF CERTAIN marriages had and solemnized within the British territories in India, 58 G. 3. c. 84.

40. All marriages solemnized within those territories before 31st Dec. 1818, by ordained ministers of the church of Scot. as by law established, shall be of the same force and effect as if solemnized by clergymen of the church of Eng., and after that day, all marriages between persons, one or both of them being members of the church of Scot., and making a declaration as hereinafter mentioned, which are solemnized by ministers of the established church of Scot., and appointed by the East India company to officiate as chaplains within the said territories, shall be equally valid as if so solemnized as above; provided that no such marriage shall be solemnized till one or both of such persons have signed a declaration in writing in duplicate, stating that they, he, or she are members of, or holding communion with the church of Scot., id. s. 1.

41. The minister shall, immediately on the solemnization, certify such marriage by a writing under his hand, in duplicate subjoined to, or indorsed on the before-mentioned declaration in duplicate, specifying in such certificate the names and descriptions of the parties, and the witnesses, and the time and place of celebration, which certificate in duplicate, shall be signed by the parties and the witnesses, and the minister shall deliver one duplicate and certificate to the persons married, or one of them, and transmit the other to the chief secretary of government at the presidency, id. s. 2.

MASTER AND SERVANT.

(Statute repealed.)

THAT A SERVANT EMBEZZLING HIS MASTER'S GOODS TO THE value of 40s. shall lose his clergy and sanctuary, 27 H. 8. c. 17. [MADE PERP. 28 H. 8. c. 2. CONF. 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 18. REP. by general words of 1 M. St. 1. c. 1. s. 5.]

(Statutes in force.)

1. FOR PUNISHMENT OF SUCH SERVANTS AS SHALL WITHDRAW themselves, and go away with their masters or mistresses caskets and other jewels or goods committed to them in trust to be kept, 21 H. 8. c. 7. [MADE PERP. 28 H. 8. c. 2. REP. by general words of 1 M. St. 1. c. 1. s. 3. recited 5 E. 1. c. 10. ss. 1—2. and REV. and MADE PERP. 5 E. 1. c. 10. s. 3.]

2. If any servant to whom any caskets, jewels, money, goods, or chattels shall by his master be delivered to keep, shall withdraw himself from his master, and go away with the same or any part thereof, with intent to steal the same, and defraud his master thereof, contrary to the trust reposed in him, or if he, being in his master's service, shall without his assent or command, embezzle, or otherwise convert the same to his own use, with like purpose to steal, then, (if the said caskets, &c. be worth 40s. or more) he shall be deemed guilty of felony, and punished as a felon at common law, 21 H. 8. c. 7. s. 1.

3. This act shall not prejudice any apprentice or person within the age of 18 years, going away with his masters goods or jewels, or otherwise converting the same to his own use during such apprenticeship, or within the above age, id. s. 2. (See EMBEZZLEMENT.)

4. FOR PREVENTING THE COUNTERFEITING OF CERTIFICATES OF the character of servants, 39 G. 3. c. 56.

5. Every person who shall falsely personate any master or mistress, or the executor, administrator, wife, relation, housekeeper, steward, agent, or servant of any such master, &c. and shall, either personally or in writing, give any false, forged, or counterfeited character to any person offering to be hired as a servant into any person's service, shall be punished as in s. 6. pl. 10., id. s. 1.

6. Every person who shall knowingly and wilfully pretend, or falsely assert in writing, that any servant has been hired or retained for any period, or in any capacity soever, other than that for or in which he shall have hired or retained such servant in his service, or for that of any other person, shall be punished as in s. 6. pl. 10., id. s. 2.

7. Every person who shall knowingly and wilfully pretend, or falsely assert in writing that any servant was discharged or left his service at any other time than that at which he was discharged or actually left it, or that he had not been hired or employed in any previous service contrary to truth, shall be punished as in s. 6. pl. 10., id. s. 3.

8. Every person who shall offer himself as a servant, pretending that he hath served in any service in which he hath not actually served, or with a false, forged, or counterfeit certificate of character, or who shall in anywise add to or alter, or erase any word, date, matter, or thing contained or referred to in any certificate given to him by his last actual master or mistress, or by any other person duly authorized by them to give the same, shall be punished as in s. 6. pl. 10., id. s. 4.

9. Any person having before been in service, who on offering to hire himself as a servant in any service soever, shall falsely and wilfully pretend not to have been hired or retained in any previous service as a servant, shall be punished as in s. 6. pl. 10., id. s. 5.

10. If any person shall be convicted of any or either of the above offences, by confession, or oath of one or more witnesses, before 2 or more justices for the county or place where the offence is committed, (which oath they shall administer) such offender shall forfeit 20l. in moieties to informer and poor of the parish where, &c. and if the party so convicted shall not immediately pay such 20l., with 10s. costs of conviction, or shall not give notice of appeal, and enter into recognizance, as in s. 10. pl. 14. such justices shall commit such offender to the house of correction, or other prison of the same county or place, there to remain and be kept to hard labour, without bail, &c. for not exceeding 3 months nor less than one month, or until he pay the same, id. s. 6.

11. The informer shall be a competent witness in law, notwithstanding being entitled to a part of the penalty as above, id. s. 7.

12. Any servant who having been guilty of any of the said offences, shall, before any information is lodged against him for such offence, discover or inform against any person concerned with him in any offence against this act, shall be discharged from the penalties to which he may at the date of the information be liable for his own offences, id. s. 8.

13. All justices before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence against this act, shall cause the conviction to be drawn up in the following, or in any other form to the same effect, as may happen, 'Be it remembered, that on the — day of — A. D. is convicted before us — two of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the county of — [specifying the offence, and time and place when and where committed, as the case is], given under our hands and seals the day and year aforesaid,' id. s. 9.

14. Any person who shall think himself aggrieved by any thing done in pursuance hereof, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions for the county or place where the cause of complaint has arisen, on entering into recognizance, with 2 sufficient sureties in 20l. each, conditioned to try such appeal, and abide the order of, and pay the costs awarded by the sessions, on due proof of such notice being so given, and of entering into such recognizance; and the sessions shall determine such appeal in a summary way, and award such costs to either party as they think fit; and their determination shall be final, and no conviction or order, or other proceedings relating thereto, shall be quashed for want of form, or removed by certiorari or other process into any court at Westminster, 32 G. 3. c. 56. s. 10.

MAYHEM.

1. PERSONS CUTTING THE TONGUES OR PUTTING OUT THE EYES of any subject of malice prepense, (that being duly proved and found) shall incur the pain of felony, 5 H. 4. c. 5.

2. TO PREVENT MALICIOUS MAIMING AND WOUNDING, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 1. [s. 1—6. Exp. and Personal, and s. 9. Exp.]

3. Any person who on purpose, and of malice aforethought, and by lying in wait, shall unlawfully cut out or disable the tongue, put out an eye, slit the nose, cut off a nose or lip, or cut off or disable any limb or member of any subject, with intention in so doing to maim or disfigure him, shall himself, his counsellors, aiders, and abettors privy to the offence, suffer death as a felon, without clergy, id. s. 7.

4. No attainder of such felony shall corrupt the blood or forfeit the dower of the wife, or the offender's lands, goods, or chattels, id. s. 8.

MEDITERRANEAN PASS.

1. TO PREVENT THE COUNTERFEITING OF MEDITERRANEAN PASSES, 4 G. 2. c. 18.

2. Every person who shall within or without G. B. or Ire. or any other H. M.'s dominions, falsely make, forge, or counterfeit, or cause to be forged, &c. or who shall knowingly act or assist in forging, &c. any pass for any ship soever, commonly called a Mediterranean Pass, or who shall counterfeit the seal of office, or the hand of the lord high admiral, or of any commissioner for executing that office to any such pass, or who shall alter or erase any true pass issued by such lord high admiral or commissioners; or who shall utter or publish as true any such false, &c. pass, knowing the same to be forged, altered, or erased, shall, being duly convicted in any proper court of G. B., Ire., or the plantations beyond seas, where such offence is committed respectively, suffer death as a felon, without clergy, id. s. 1.

3. The offences in s. 1. committed in any place out of G. B., either within or without H. M.'s dominions, may be tried in any county of G. B. under H. M.'s commission of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery, or before any court of judicature in Scot., id. s. 2.

MERCHANT.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. MERCHANTS SHALL NOT INCREASE MERCHANTIZES TO enhance their price, and shall use only one sort of merchandize, 37 E. 3. c. 5. [REP. 58 E. 5. St. 1. c. 2. s. 1.]

2. FOR REGULATING ALIEN MERCHANTS, 18 H. 6. c. 4. [Exp.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. ALL MERCHANTS, UNLESS OPENLY PROHIBITED BEFORE, SHALL have safe and sure conduct to depart out of, come into, tarry in, and go through Eng. by land and water, to buy and sell, without evil tolls at the rightful customs, except in time of war; and if they be of a country at war with us, and be found here at the beginning of the war, shall be attached without harm of body or goods, till it be known to us, or our chief justice, how our merchants are treated in their country, and if ours be safe there, the others shall be safe in our land, 9 H. 3. c. 50. M. C.

2. ALL STAPLES SHALL CEASE, AND ALL MERCHANTIZES MAY go and come with their merchandizes, according to 9 H. 3. M. C. c. 50. 2 E. 3. c. 9.

3. ALL MERCHANTS, DENIZENS AND FOREIGNERS, EXCEPT THOSE which are of enmity, may safely come into Eng. with their goods, and tarry and return, paying customs and other profits, so that franchises granted to London and other cities and towns be saved, 14 E. 3. St. 2. c. 2.

4. MERCHANT STRANGERS MAY BUY AND SELL WITHIN THE REALM, without disturbance, 9 E. 3. St. 1. c. 1., 25 E. 3. St. 4. c. 2. [Both CONF. 11 R. 2. c. 7. s. 3., and 16 R. 2. c. 1. s. 1., partly REP. in their operation, id. s. 2.; but 2 R. 2. St. 2. c. 1., which in part supports their enactments, is not alluded to in 16 R. 2. c. 1.; it is therefore annexed.]

5. All merchants, aliens and denizens, that will buy or sell corn, wines, [goods], flesh, fish, and all other provisions and victuals, [woollen cloths, wares, and all other merchandizes, semb. REP. 16 R. 2. c. 1. s. 2. post. pl. 10.] at any place in the realm, within franchise or without, may freely sell them to any [persons, as well foreigners as, semb. REP. 16 R. 2. c. 1. s. 2. pl. 10.] denizens; and if any disturbance be done to such merchant or to any other for the sale of such things in any city, town, port, or other place which hath franchise, and the mayor or other which hath rule of such franchise being required to provide remedy, do not, and are attainted thereof, the franchise shall be seized into H. M.'s hands, and the disturbers shall also pay the merchant his double damages; and if such disturbance be done in places without franchise, and the lord or his bailiffs, &c. or other ruler of such places in his absence, being required to do right therein, does not, and thereof is attainted, he shall yield the party double damages; and the disturbers, whether within or without franchise, shall, on attain thereof, have one year's imprisonment, and be fined at H. M.'s will, 9 E. 3. St. 1. c. 1. s. 1.

6. No alien or denizen shall be troubled under the same penalty; but may freely buy and export the things recited in s. 1.; but shall not export wines, id. s. 2.

7. All charters of franchise contrary to this act are declared void, saving to H. M. his customs, id. s. 3.

8. The chancellor, treasurer, and justices assigned to hold H. M.'s pleas in places where they come, shall enquire of and punish such disturbances as in s. 1. pl. 8. is ordained; but H. M. may, at pleasure, assign commissioners under the great seal for the same purpose, id. s. 4.

9. Every merchant or other, as well alien as denizen, that brings wines, flesh, fish, or other victuals [wools, woollfells, goods, or merchandizes, semb. REP. 16 R. 2. c. 1. s. 2. next pl.] to the city of London, or to other cities and towns of Eng., or sea-ports, may freely sell in gross, retail, or parcels, at his will, to all buyers [not to aliens to sell again, 10 R. 2. c. 1. s. 2. next pl.] notwithstanding franchises or customs to the contrary; and no mayor or officer shall meddle with the sale of any victuals vendible brought to cities, towns, or market; and proclamation thereof shall be made anew in Eng.; and H. M. shall assign justices, if need be, to enquire of such offenders, and punish them according to 9 E. 3. St. 1. c. 1.; and every person that will sue against any such shall have a writ in chancery to attach him by his body as disturbing the common weal, to cause him to answer thereof in H. M.'s court, 25 E. 3. St. 4. c. 2.

10. No merchant alien shall sell or buy merchandize within the realm with another merchant alien to sell again, or shall sell at retail within the realm, or put to sale, any wares or merchandize, except victuals and provisions, and all aliens shall also sell wines by whole vessels; and spicery by whole vessels and bales only, 16 R. 2. c. 1. s. 2.

11. ANY STATUTE OR JUDGMENT made against 9 E. 3. c. 1. and 25 E. 3. c. 2. shall be repealed, 11 R. 2. c. 7.

12. THAT ALL MERCHANTS MAY BUY AND SELL within the realm without disturbance, 2 R. 2. St. 1. c. 1.

13. Merchants aliens coming from countries in H. M.'s amity may safely come within the realm of Eng. and abide in all places therein within franchise and without, with their merchandize, under H. M.'s protection, without disturbance; and such merchants, as well aliens as denizens, who will buy or sell corn, flesh, fish, and all other provisions, and all manner of spiceries, fruit, [fur, and small wares, as silk, gold or silver wire coverchiefs, &c. mentioned in 2 R. 2. St. 1. c. 1., are omitted in the recital and confirmation by 16 R. 2. c. 1. of the other statutes; viz. 9 E. 3. St. 1. c. 1. and 25 E. 3. St. 4. c. 2. which are in pari materia with these provisions: but the latter, as to the bracketed part, (see pl. 5. and pl. 9.) appear virtually REP. by 16 R. 2. c. 1. s. 2.] may sell and buy in gross and parcels to [foreigners as well as, semb. REP. if sold to sell again, 16 R. 2. c. 1. s. 2.] denizens: but aliens shall sell their wines in gross only by whole vessels as imported [so in 16 R. 2. c. 1. s. 2.], and not at retail in the cities, towns, and boroughs franchised, by any but the inhabitants and freemen: [and as to all other great wares, as cloth of gold and silver, silk drapery, linen cloth, cnnyas, and all other great merchandizes, as well aliens and denizens in London and in other cities, &c., and elsewhere within franchise and without, may sell the same in gross to every person [foreign or] denizen, except H. M.'s enemies, by the bale or whole pieces, and not at retail on pain of forfeiture, [Q. REP. as above?] but only the citizens and burgesses in their own cities and boroughs: and they may unfold and cut in their proper cities and boroughs the great merchandizes, and the same there sell in gross and retail, paying the customs: and the merchants that will buy and sell their merchandizes at fairs and markets shall not be restrained by this statute to sell or buy in gross or at retail as they were wont, 2 R. 2. St. 1. c. 1. s. 1.]

14. And if disturbance be done to any merchant, alien or denizen, upon the sale of such things against this ordinance, and the mayor, bailiff, or other having the keeping of such franchise, and required to make remedy, do not the same, and be thereof attainted, the franchise shall be seized into H. M.'s hands, and the disturbers shall yield double damages to plaintiff; and if the disturbance is made where no franchise is, and the lord or his bailiff are required to do right, and do not, and thereof be attainted, they shall yield double damages to plaintiff, and the disturbers, as well within as without franchise, shall have one year's imprisonment, and be ransomed at H. M.'s will; and the chancellor, treasurer, and justices assigned to hold pleas of H. M. shall enquire of such disturbances, and do punishment, and nevertheless H. M. shall assign, by commission, certain people to enquire as above, id. s. 2.

15. PROTECTION OF MERCHANT STRANGERS IN COMING INTO AND departing out of the realm with their goods, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 2.

16. Merchant strangers not being of enmity may, under safe conduct, come and dwell where they will, and return with their ships and merchandizes, and freely sell the latter, paying customs. Their goods shall not be liable to purveyance under forfeiture to the merchant of double what is taken, and like fine to H. M.; and process shall be made for same from day to day and hour to hour, according to the law of the staple, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 2.

17. IF ANY MERCHANT, privy, or stranger, be robbed of his goods upon the sea, and they come within the realm, and he will sue for them, he shall be received to prove them to be his own by his marks, or by his chart or cocket, or by lawful merchants, natives or strangers; and by such proofs the goods shall be delivered to the merchants without suit at common law. And in case any ships going out of the realm, or coming into the same, by misfortune break upon the sea-banks, and the goods come to land, which may not be called wreck, they shall be presently delivered to the merchants, or their servants, paying to them that have saved and kept the same for their labour, viz. by discretion of the sheriffs and bailiffs, or other ministers in places guildable, and by advice of 4 or 6 of the most discreet men of the country; and if within the franchise of other lords, by the stewards and bailiff, or wardens of the franchises, and by advice of 4 or 6 discreet men of the country, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 13.

18. NO MERCHANT-STRANGER shall be impeached for another's trespass or debt whereof he is not debtor, pledge or innkeeper; provided that if the liege people, merchants or other, be endangered by any lords of strange lands or their subjects, and the said lords (duly required) fail of right, H. M. shall have the law of marque, and of taking them; and in case debate rise with lords of strange lands, the people and merchants of the said lands shall not be suddenly subdued because of such debate, but shall be warned, and proclamation thereof published, that they avoid the realm within 40 days after the proclamation; nor shall they be let of making profit of their merchandize if they sell them; and in case that for want of wind, stress, or from sickness, they cannot avoid the realm within so short a time, they shall have other 40 days, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 17.

19. NO MERCHANT NOR OTHER shall forfeit goods for the trespass of his servant, unless he do it by the procurement of his master, or that he hath offended in the office in which his master hath set him, or in other manner than the master be holden to answer for the deed of his servant by the law-merchant. And speedy right shall be to them done from day to day, and hour to hour, according to the laws used in staples elsewhere, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 19. [QU. if in force? see 2 E. 3. c. 9. pl. 2.]

20. IF ANY OUTRAGE OR GRIEVANCE be done to merchants-strangers in the country out of the staple, the justices of the place shall do speedy justice to them after the law-merchant from day to day, and from hour to hour, without driving them to sue at common law; and if any be convict that he hath grieved the merchants, he shall be punished for the contempt, in as much as shall be adjudged to the merchants for their damages; and to the merchants-strangers their double damages shall be judged, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 20.

21. NO SHIP SHALL BE COMPELLED to come to any port of Eng. nor to abide, against the will of the master, or of the merchants whose the goods be. And if such ships come of their good will, or be driven by misfortune to any port in Eng., and the masters or merchants will sell part of their merchandizes, any man may buy the same, albeit they be not put to land to sell; [so that no merchant nor other go to meet such ships to forestall the merchandizes; not recited 20 R. 2. c. 4.] so that the masters and merchants, after they have sold that which pleaseth them, and paid the custom, may freely depart. And none shall disturb any ship to come to any port of Eng., but to the port where the masters and merchants will of their free will arrive, nor shall meddle with the sale of the merchandizes, nor disturb the merchants; and if any cause disturbance, he shall incur a grievous forfeiture to H. M., 29 E. 3. c. 15. ss. 3, 4. CONF. and REC. 20 R. 2. c. 4.]

22. ALL MERCHANTS, AS WELL ALIENS AS DENIZENS, may [sell and buy all manner of merchandizes, QU. P. see 16 R. 2. c. 1. s. 2. pl. 10.] and freely carry them out of the realm, paying customs, except that English merchants shall not pass out of the realm carrying wool or woollens, 38 E. 3. St. 1. c. 2. [rest of act for preventing the carrying gold or silver out of the realm except by persons engaged in fisheries, at the chancellor's pleasure, semb. REF. 59 G. 3. c. 49. s. 10.]

23. ALL MERCHANTS, AS WELL ALIENS AS DENIZENS, may come into Ire. with their merchandize, and freely return without fine, saving to H. M. his customs, 34 E. 3. c. 17.

24. THE PEOPLE OF Eng., which have possessions in Ire., may bring their corn, beasts, and victuals to Ire., and from thence recarry their goods into Eng. freely, paying their customs, 34 E. 3. c. 18.

25. MERCHANTS OF GENOA, VENICE, CATALONIA, ARRAGON, and other countries towards the west, in H. M.'s amity, who will bring to Hampton or elsewhere in the realm, carracks, ships, galleys, or other vessels, laden or unladen, may there freely sell their merchandize, as in

2 R. 2. c. 1., pl. 15. provided, and there relate their vessels with [wools and woollens, QU. P. see 16 R. 2. c. 1. s. 2. pl. 10.] leather, tin, and other staple merchandizes, and freely carry them to their countries, paying at the ports of lading all manner of customs, subsidies, and other duties of Calais, as they would if they had carried them to the staple there, so that they find surety to carry the same towards the west and not the east, but to Calais, on pain of the forfeiture in 2 R. 2. St. 1. c. 1.: 2 R. 2. St. 1. c. 3., [but see 2 E. 3. c. 9., pl. 2.]

26. MERCHANT STRANGERS SHALL BE WELL TREATED in all parts of the realm, with their merchandizes, and suffered to go and come, and into their own countries peaceably to return, without disturbance, 5 R. 2. St. 2. c. 1.

27. All aliens in amity with H. M. and his realm, coming within any city or town therein, within and without liberties, with fish [QU. P. see FISH, pl. 57—78.] and all manner of other victuals, shall, in tarrying and returning, be under special protection of H. M., and may cut the same in pieces without denial of any man; and may sell and make profit thereof, in part or in all, by retail or gross, as they think fit, 6 R. 2. St. 1. c. 10. [CONF. 1 H. 4. c. 17., 14 H. 6. c. 6. AMD. 14 H. 6. c. 6.]

28. Every man disturbing any alien in selling their fish, [QU. P. as in last pl.] by gross or retail, in part or in whole, contrary to the above ordinances, and duly attainted thereof at suit of H. M. or the party, shall forfeit 40*l.*, in moieties to H. M. and the party suing for the same, for H. M. or for himself; and for any such offence committed in London, such suit may be taken, either in Middlesex, Hertford, Essex, Kent, Surrey, or London, 14 H. 6. c. 6.

29. EVERY ALIEN BRINGING MERCHANDIZE into Eng., shall find surety before the customers to buy other merchandize, to the value of the moiety of that so brought, as wool, leather, woollens, lead, tin, butter, cheese, cloths, or other commodities of the land, 14 R. 2. c. 1. s. 2.

30. MERCHANT STRANGERS RESORTING HITHER shall be well used, 14 R. 2. c. 9.

31. FOR REGULATING ALIEN MERCHANTS, 5 H. 4. c. 7. [REC. and CONF. 4 H. 5. c. 5.]

32. ALL ALIEN MERCHANTS SHALL be entreated in this realm, as the denizen merchants are entreated beyond the seas, on pain of forfeiture of their goods to H. M. and imprisonment, 5 H. 4. c. 7.

33. FOR REGULATING ALIEN MERCHANTS, 5 H. 4. c. 9. [REF. 6 H. 4. c. 4., but REC. and CONF., 4 H. 5. c. 5. AMD. 4 E. 4. c. 6., which last act is EXP.]

34. IN EVERY CITY, TOWN, AND PORT in Eng., where alien merchants are or repair, sufficient hosts shall be assigned them by the chief officers of such cities, &c.; and such merchants shall not remain in other places, but with their hosts so to be assigned, who shall take for their trouble as of old time, 5 H. 4. c. 9., 4 H. 6. c. 5.

35. FOR REGULATING ALIEN MERCHANTS, 6 H. 4. c. 4.; alien merchants shall not export foreign goods by them imported, id. ibid.

36. FOR REGULATING MERCHANTS IN London, 7 H. 4. c. 9.

37. RECITAL, "that English drapers and clothellers, &c. had been used to buy and sell their commodities in gross, as well with aliens as denizens, and that they are now constrained by the drapers and by the mayor, &c. of London, to sell only to the inhabitants of that city." The drapers, clothellers, and other merchants, of wine, iron, oil, and wax, and other merchandize, may freely sell in gross, as well to any H. M.'s lieges as to the citizens of London, 7 H. 4. c. 9. [But see repeal as to liberties of London, Printed Rot. Parl., 9 H. 4., nu. 30., that non-freemen shall not buy of and sell to each other in London, id. ibid. scmb. EXP.]

38. FOR REGULATING THE TRADE in Eng. with alien merchants, 8 H. 6. c. 24. [virtually, REF. as to s. 2. by 9 H. 6. c. 2.]

39. No alien merchant shall bind any English subject by covenant, promises or bond, to pay him his debt in gold, nor shall refuse payment thereof in silver, on penalty of double the value, 8 H. 6. c. 24. s. 1.

40. No such subject shall sell within this realm, or cause to be sold to any alien merchant any merchandize, [but for ready payment, or merchandize for merchandize paid in hand, on pain of forfeiture, id. s. 2. Six months' credit now allowed to be given, 9 H. 6. c. 2., continuing during H. M.'s pleasure, id. ibid.]

41. NO NEW IMPOSITION SHALL be laid on merchants buying wines in Gascony or Guienne by H. M.'s officers there, on penalty of 20*l.* and treble damages, 23 H. 6. c. 17. semb. EXP.

42. ALIEN MERCHANTS SHALL EMPLOY their money received in Eng. or Wa. on commodities of this realm, on pain of forfeiture of goods and imprisonment: the same being duly proved by them before departing from the same port where they arrived, by writing from the merchant to whom the money is paid, witnessing that he hath so done, or by such proofs as seem reasonable to the customer of the same port or chief governor of the city, &c. where such port is; on pain of forfeiting all his goods within this realm, with one year's imprisonment, (saving to such alien his reasonable costs by the oversight of such chief governor) which forfeiture shall be recovered at his election, by action of debt, either at common law, or before justices of peace of the county, or by bill before the mayor, &c. of places corporate, 17 E.4. c.1. 5th part, as divided in 1 Stat. Rev. ed. 662, 663. [MADE PERP. and EXT. to Jersey and Guernsey merchants, who shall give security to the customs for so doing, 3 H.7. c.8.]

43. ENGLISH SUBJECTS SHALL HAVE free resort to the coasts of Flanders, Holland, Zealand, Brabant, and adjacent places to the marts there, to buy, sell, and exchange, without exaction or fine levied of them by any English person to his own use, or to that of the merchants and London merchants, except 10 marks; and no Englishman shall take of another any other exaction, &c. above that sum, for liberty to buy and sell there, on penalty of 20*l.* to H. M.; and of ten times the exaction to the party grieved, who shall have an action of debt as at common law for the same in any of H. M.'s courts within the realm, by writ, bill, plaint, or information, without essoin, &c.; and the trial thereof shall be had in the shire or place where the action is commenced, 12 H.7. c.6.

44. NO STATUTES RELATING TO MERCHANTS or merchandizes shall affect the ancient privileges of the Hanse merchants of London; but this statute shall not prejudice the liberties or privileges of that city, 19 H.7. c.23.

45. TO ENABLE ALL H. M.'s loving subjects of Eng. and Wa., to trade freely into the dominions of Spain, Portugal, and France, 3 J.1. c.6. [EXPLD. 4 J.1. c.9. and recital, id. ss.1—2.]

46. All such subjects may have free trade into the dominions of Spain, Portugal, and France, any charter to the contrary notwithstanding, 3 J.1. c.6. s.1; but this act shall not give liberty to any person to go over seas without licence, who by any law or statute shall be restrained, id. s.2.

47. 3 J.1. c.6. shall not impeach the charter of the governor and society of merchants of Essex trafficking to France, 4 J.1. c.9. s.3.

MESNE.

1. REMEDY FOR TENANTS IN DEMESNE by the writ of Mesne, 15 E.1. West. Sec. c.9. [See 2 Inst. 374., and qu. exp. since 18 E.1. West.3. Quia Emptores.]

2. When any tenant in demesne, having a mesne between him and the chief lord is distrained, he shall purchase his writ of mesne; and if the mesne having land in the same county, absent himself until the great distress is awarded, the plaintiff shall have a day given him in his great distress, before the coming whereof two counties may be holden, and the sheriff shall be commanded to distrain the mesne by the great distress; and the sheriff in two full counties shall cause to be proclaimed solemnly, that the mesne do come at a day contained in the writ, to answer his tenant, at which day if he come, the plaint shall proceed between them after the common usage; but if not, he shall lose the service of his tenant, who shall not henceforth answer him any thing, but shall answer the same to the chief lord: nor shall the chief lord distrain tenants in demesne, so long as such tenant shall offer him the services and customs due; and if the chief lord exact more than the mesne ought, the tenant shall have the same exceptions against him as against the mesne: but if the mesne have nothing, the tenant shall have the less purchase, his writ of mesne to the sheriff of the shire where he is distrained; and if the sheriff return that the mesne have nothing, the tenant shall sue his attachment; and if he have nothing to be attached by he shall sue his writ of great distress, and proclamation shall be made as aforesaid. And if the mesne have no land in the shire where the distress was taken, but hath land in some other shire, then a writ original to summon him, shall issue to the sheriff of that shire where the distress is taken, and when testified by the latter that he hath nothing in his shire, a writ judicial shall issue to summon him unto the sheriff of that shire in which it is testified that he has land, and suit shall be made in that shire and in the county where he has nothing, until the process comes to the great distress and proclamation; and after proclamation made in both counties, the mesne shall be forejudged of his fee and service. And whereas sometimes the tenant in demesne holds of his mesne by less service than the mesne ought to do of the chief lord, when after such proclamation he has attorned tenant to the chief lord, he must answer unto the chief lord all the services due, and after that the mesne is come into court, and acknowledges that he ought to acquit the tenant, and complaint is made that he does not, then a writ judicial shall issue to the sheriff to distrain him to acquit, and be before the justices on a day certain, to shew why he did not acquit him before; and when they have proceeded unto the great distress, the plaintiff shall be heard; and if the plaintiff proves that he has not acquitted him, he shall yield damages by award of the court, and the tenant shall go quit from the mesne and attorn to the chief lord; and if he come at the great distress, a writ shall issue to distrain him again, and proclamation shall be made, and when returned they shall proceed to judgment, 15 E.1. West. Sec. c.9. s.1.

3. Tenants are not excluded by this statute, but may have a warranty of the mesnes and their heirs, if impleaded of their lands as before, and may sue their mesnes either by the old process or by this statute; and no remedy is provided but to tenants where one mesne only is between them and the lord that distrains, and where that mesne is of full age, and where the tenant may attorn unto the chief lord without prejudice to any other than of the mesne which is said for tenants in dower, and by the curtesy or otherwise, for life or in fee-tail, to whom remedy is for certain causes not yet provided, but shall be at another time, id. s.2.

MILLS.

1. HOW TOLL OF A MILL SHALL BE TAKEN, Stat. incert. Temp. c.2.

2. The toll of a mill shall be taken according to custom, either to the 20th or 24th corn, and the measure shall be by H. M.'s measure, and the toll shall be taken by strike and not by heap or cantel; and they who do otherwise, shall be grievously punished, id. ibid.

3. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL PUNISHMENT OF PERSONS demolishing barns or spoiling mills, 9 G.3. c.29. ss.1, 2. 4. [AND. as to mills, 41 G.3. (U. K.) c.24.; see s.3., MINES, *pl.*12.]

4. If any person or persons unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assembled together to the disturbance of the public peace, shall unlawfully, and with force, demolish or pull down, or begin to demolish, &c. any wind saw mill or other wind mill, or any water mill or other mill, or any of the works thereto belonging, every such demolishing or pulling down, or beginning to demolish, &c. shall be adjudged felony without benefit of clergy, and the offenders shall suffer death accordingly, 9 G.3. c.29. s.1.

5. Every person who shall wilfully or maliciously burn or set fire to any mill mentioned in s.1., shall be guilty of felony without clergy, and shall suffer death, id. s.2. Prosecutions under this act must be commenced within 18 months, id. s.4.

6. If any wind saw or other wind mill, water or other mill, or any works thereto belonging are demolished or pulled down wholly or in part, by any persons so unlawfully, &c. assembled, as in *pl.*4. the damages sustained may be recovered, raised, and reimbursed under the provisions of 1 G.1. St.2. c.5. (Riot), 41 G.3. (U. K.) c.24.

7. FOR BETTER REGULATION OF MILLS, 36 G.3. c.85. [PUBLIC clause, id. s.11.]

8. Every miller or other person keeping a mill for grinding corn, shall have therein a true and equal balance, with proper weights of exchequer standard, and any persons appointed under 35 G.3. c.102. [see now 55 G.3. c.143. ss.1, 2., 57 G.3. c.143. ss.1, 2., tit. WEIGHTS, &c.] may examine the weights and balances within their respective jurisdictions, and proceed with them as in that act provided with respect to weights and balances; and every miller, &c. in whose mill no such balance or weights are found, shall forfeit not exceeding 20*s.*, and every miller, &c. in whose mill any weight not according to exchequer standard, or any false balance, is found, and all persons obstructing the above persons in examining the same, shall be proceeded against, and shall pay the penalties in 35 G.3. c.102. [see now 55 G.3. c.43. s.3., tit. WEIGHTS, &c.] 36 G.3. c.85. s.1.

9. Every person bringing, or causing to be brought, any corn to a mill to be ground, may require the miller, &c., or person acting for him, to weigh in his presence such corn before grinding, and its produce after it is ground, on penalty of not exceeding 40*s.* on refusal, id. s.2.

10. Every miller, &c. shall, if required, after grinding any corn, deliver to the person bringing it the whole produce thereof in weight, allowing for the diminution caused by waste in grinding, and by taking toll where toll is allowed (as in s.5.) to be taken, and if dressed into flour, then its whole produce in weight allowing for the waste in grinding and dressing, and by taking toll as above; and if such corn shall in either case appear to weigh less than such full weight, the miller shall for every bushel so deficient forfeit not more than 1*s.* and treble the value of the deficiency, id. s.3.

11. Where toll is allowed as in s.5., the quantity of corn taken for the same shall be deducted before the corn is put into the mill, id. s.4.

12. No miller, &c. shall demand or take any part of the corn brought for grinding, or of its produce when ground, as toll for payment, on penalty of 5*l.*, but shall in lieu thereof be entitled to demand payment in money; provided that where the person bringing, &c. as in s.2. such corn to be ground has not money to pay for its grinding, the miller, &c. may, with his consent, take a quantity of corn equal to the money price, in the table of prices, as in s.6.; but nothing in this clause shall extend to Soke mills, or other ancient mills, where the right and obligation of the possessors to grind corn for particular persons or in particular districts is established by law and ancient custom, id. s.5.

13. Every miller or other person grinding for hire or toll, shall put up, in some conspicuous place in his mill, and renew when necessary, in fair and legible characters, a table of prices in money, or amount of toll or multure, for which the several operations of his mill are to be performed, on penalty of 20s. for not setting up or not keeping the same legible, 56 G. 3. c. 85. s. 6. Nothing in this act extends to private mills, id. s. 7.

14. Every penalty by this act imposed is recoverable before any one or more justices for the county or place where the offence is committed, [by information within 10 days after such offence, id. s. 9.] on confession or conviction of the party, by oath of one or more credible witnesses, and shall be levied by warrant under hand and seal of such justice, &c. by distress and sale of offender's goods; and when so levied, shall be paid in moieties to the informer and poor of the parish, any overplus, after deducting costs of conviction and distress, being returned to the offender; and if no distress be found, and such penalty and costs be not forthwith paid, the justice, &c. may, by like warrant, commit the offender to the gaol or house of correction of the county or place, for not exceeding one month, unless such penalty and costs are sooner paid; provided that the party grieved by such judgment may, on giving security to the value of such penalty and costs, in case of judgment affirmed, appeal to quarter sessions for the same county, division, or place, who, if they affirm such judgment, may award the offender to pay such costs of appeal as they think fit, and no such conviction shall be removable by certiorari, id. s. 8, 9.

15. Convictions shall be as follows; and shall be certified to the next quarter sessions, to be filed among their records:

— Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord to wit. } — A. B. was, on the complaint of C. D., convicted before — of the justices of the peace for —, in pursuance of an act passed in the 36th year of the reign of H. M. king Geo. the 3d, for [or as the case may be.] Given under — hand and seal the day and year above written. id. s. 10.

MINES.

1. NO MINE OF COPPER, TIN, IRON, OR LEAD, SHALL BE TAKEN to be a royal mine, though gold and silver may be extracted from the same, 1 W. & M. 8. 1. c. 50. s. 4., [see ss. 1, 2., GOLD AND SILVER, Stat. Rep., &c. pl. 7.; s. 3., id. pl. 15.] ENF. by 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 6., and recited, id. s. 1., and ALT. as to the rate of pre-emption of lead by the crown, in 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 6. s. 3., by 55 G. 3. c. 134. s. 1.]

2. TO PREVENT DISPUTES AND CONTROVERSIES CONCERNING royal mines, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 6. [AMD. 55 G. 3. c. 134. s. 1.] All subjects, bodies politic or corporate, that now are or hereafter shall be owners or proprietors of any mine in Eng., Wa., or Ber., wherein any ore shall be discovered or wrought, and in which there is copper, tin, iron, or lead, may enjoy the same mine and ore, and work the same, notwithstanding it shall be pretended or claimed to be a royal mine, id. s. 2.

3. H. M., or the claimant of royal mines under him, may have the ore of any such mine, (except the tin ore in Devon and Cornwall,) paying the owners of the mines wherein it is found, within 30 days after the same is raised and laid on the bank thereof, and before removing it thence, 16*l.* per ton for all ore washed, cleaned, and merchantable, wherein is copper; 40*s.* per ton for all ore so washed, &c., wherein is tin or iron; and [9*l.* altered by 55 G. 3. c. 134. s. 1. to] 25*l.* for all ore so washed, &c. where there is lead, and in default of payment the owner of the mine may dispose of it to his own use, id. s. 3.

4. Nothing in this act shall affect the charters or privileges of the tinners, or the laws or customs of the stannaries of Devon or Cornwall, id. s. 4.

5. FOR RELIEF OF THE CREDITORS AND PROPRIETORS OF THE "Company of mine adventurers," by establishing a method for settling the differences between them and their creditors, and for uniting them in order to an effectual working the company's mines, 9 A. c. 24. [PUBLIC clause, id. s. 16.]

6. All grants, contracts, bargains, sales, leases, mortgages, conveyances, and assurances made of any mines, minerals, lands, tenements, hereditaments, stocks, goods, and chattels, by the company of mine adventurers of Eng., to any person since they first stopt payment of their bills or bonds, or by any person seized of any mines, &c. in trust for them, shall be void, id. s. 1. [ss. 2—8. Exp.]

7. The governor, deputy governor, and directors of the co., with the consent of a general assembly of the members thereof duly called, after such new division, &c. of the 6012 shares by this act made, shall call in any sum not exceeding 40*s.* per share; and all executors and administrators, trustees and guardians, shall be indemnified in paying it; and any member neglecting to pay his share of the money so called in, at the time appointed by notice in the London Gazette, shall forfeit a moiety of his shares, which shall be for the use of the co., who may dispose thereof at a general court, and the governor, &c. may restrain such member from transferring his other moiety of shares or interest, or part thereof, in the co.; provided that the governor, &c. may, by several calls as above, appoint the payment of any part of the said 40*s.*, and at several times, but shall not call in at any time or times any sum in the whole exceeding 40*s.* per share, and every call so made after payment by the proprietors, of the 6012 shares, of 40*s.* per share, shall be void, 9 A. c. 24. s. 9. [ss. 10—15. Exp., 17—19. Personal. Saving all rights of the crown, id. s. 20.]

8. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL SECURING MINES OF BLACK LEAD FROM theft and robbery, 25 G. 2. c. 10.

9. Every person who shall unlawfully break, or by force enter into any mine, wad hole of wad or black cawke, called black lead, or into any pit, shaft, adit, or vein of wad, black cawke or black lead, with intent to take and carry away any such wad, &c., or shall unlawfully from thence take away any wad, black cawke, or black lead, although such mine, &c. be not actually broke or by force entered into by such offender, or shall aid, abet, assist, hire, or command any person to commit such offence, shall be deemed guilty of felony; and the court or judge before whom such offender shall be convicted, may order him to be committed to the prison appointed for criminals, or to some house of correction within the same county, for not exceeding one year, there to be kept to hard labour, and to be publicly whipt by the common hangman, or by the master of such house of correction, at such times and places, and in such manner as such court or judge shall think proper, or may order such offender to be transported for not exceeding 7 years, and thereupon judgment shall be given that the person so convicted shall be committed and whipt, or transported accordingly; and if transportation be directed, the same shall be executed as is provided by law for transportation of felons; and if any such persons so committed or transported, voluntarily escape or break prison, or return from transportation, before the expiration of the time for which transported, and shall be convicted thereof, he shall suffer death as a felon without clergy, and shall be tried for such felony in the county where he so escaped, or shall be apprehended, id. s. 1.

10. If any person convicted of any such offences shall voluntarily escape, or break prison, or return from transportation, and is apprehended in any other county or city different from that wherein the offence was committed, the clerk of the assize or of the peace for the county, &c. where such conviction or attainder was had, shall, at the request of the prosecutor, or of any other on H. M.'s behalf, certify the same by a transcript in a few words, containing the effect of such conviction or attainder, for which certificate 2*s.* shall be paid, and the same being produced in court, shall be sufficient proof of such former conviction or attainder, id. s. 2.

11. Every person who shall buy or receive any wad or black cawke, knowing the same to be so unlawfully taken, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and being convicted, shall be subject to all the pains and penalties of buying and receiving goods feloniously stolen, knowing the same to have been stolen, id. s. 3.

12. FOR PREVENTING THE DESTROYING OR DAMAGING OF engines for draining collieries and mines, or bridges, waggon ways, or other things used in conveying coals, lead, tin, or other minerals from mines: or fences for inclosing lands, in pursuance of acts of parliament: 9 G. 3. c. 29. (ss. 3, 4.) [see ss. 1, 2. MILLS, pl. 4—5.]

13. Every person who shall wilfully or maliciously set fire to, burn, demolish, pull down, or otherwise destroy or damage any fire or other engine erected for draining water from collieries or coal mines, or for drawing coals thereout, or for draining water from any mine of lead, tin, copper, or other mineral, or any bridge, waggon way, or trunk erected for conveying coals from any colliery or staith for depositing the same; or any bridge or waggon way erected for conveying lead, tin, copper, or other mineral from any such mine, or any fence made for dividing or inclosing any common, waste, or other lands, in pursuance of any statute; or who shall cause or procure any such offence to be done, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and the court before whom he is tried may transport him for 7 years, id. s. 3. [prosecutions under this act must be commenced within 18 months, id. s. 4.]

14. FOR SECURITY OF COLLIERIES AND MINES, AND FOR BETTER regulation of colliers and miners, 59 & 40 G. 3. c. 77.

15. If any person shall wilfully and maliciously pull down, fill up, or begin or attempt to pull down or fill up any air or water way, drain, pit, level, or shaft, or damage or destroy any railway, tram, or other road to or from any coal or other mine work; or if any person (not having or bona fide claiming a right to possess or work the same respectively) shall wilfully and unlawfully cut, dig, raise, or carry away any coal, culm, or other mineral from any bed, vein, or mine lying in any waste or open lands, or shall wilfully, &c. enter into any level, pit, or shaft, with an intent so to do, or shall abet, &c. any person to commit any such offence, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and the court or judge before whom the party is tried or convicted, may cause him to be imprisoned for not exceeding 6 months, id. s. 1.

16. Nothing herein shall extend to any damage done underground by any owners of adjoining coal or other mines in working them, or by other duly authorized persons, id. s. 2.

17. If any person making any bargain, or entering into any contract in writing, for raising any coal, culm, iron, stone, or ore, shall wilfully, and to the prejudice of the owner, raise, get, or work such coal, &c. in a different manner to his stipulations, and contrary to the directions and will of the owner or his agents, or shall refuse to fulfil his engagements, such offender shall, on conviction by confession, or on oath of one or more witnesses before any one or more justices, on complaint of the owner or his agents, and not otherwise, forfeit not exceeding 40s. with costs, to be ascertained by such justice, &c. who, on non-payment, shall commit the offender to the county gaol for not exceeding 6 months, or till penalty and charges paid; and on such conviction, every such bargain shall become void, 35 & 40 G. 3. c. 77. s. 3.

18. Every person who shall wall or stack any coal, iron, stone, or ore in any fraudulent manner, with intent to deceive his employer, or shall cause the same to be done; or who shall remove any iron, stone, or ore with intent to defraud the person who has raised the same, shall, on conviction, (as in s. 3.) be committed to the house of correction or common gaol for not more than 3 months, id. s. 4.

19. Every person who shall steal any coal, culm, or coke, wood, iron, ropes, or leather not exceeding 5s. value from any bank, yard, wharf, or other place, or off or out of any barge, waggon, &c., or other carriage; or who shall wilfully break or damage the same, being used for carrying coal, culm, coke, iron, or iron stone; or who shall steal, damage, or embezzle any tools or implements used in raising the same, not exceeding that value, shall, on conviction by complaint of the owner or his agent, either by confession or oath of one or more witnesses before any justice or justices, for the first offence forfeit any sum not exceeding 10s. as to such justice seems meet, besides the charges of conviction by him ascertained, and on nonpayment shall be committed to the house of correction for one month's hard labour, till penalty and charges paid; for the second offence 20s. penalty, and on nonpayment commitment for 3 months' hard labour, or till payment and charges paid; for the third offence 40s. penalty, and on nonpayment commitment for 6 months' hard labour, or till penalty and charges paid: provided, that a conviction under this act exempts offender from all other prosecution, id. s. 5.

20. The forfeitures of this act shall be divided between the informer and overseers of the parish or place where the offence is committed, for the use of the poor thereof, in proportions settled by the convicting justice or justices, id. s. 6.

21. Evidence of inhabitants of the place where offence committed shall be admissible, id. s. 7.

22. The conviction shall be drawn as follows:—

‘Be it remembered, that on the — day of — A. D. —, A. B. having been brought before me [or, having been duly summoned, and not having appeared, as the case may be] is on his own confession [or, on due proof, as the case may be] convicted before me, C. D., one of H. M.’s justices of peace for the county of —, for that he the said A. B., on the — day of — at — in the said county of —, did [here specify the offence according to the fact, and following the words of the act, and whether the same is the first, or what other offence] against the form of the statute in that case made; and I do adjudge him to forfeit and pay for the said offence the sum of —, and also the further sum of £ — for the charges of this conviction. Given under my hand and seal [or our hands and seals] the day and year first aforesaid.’ id. s. 8.

23. Prosecutions for offences against this act must begin within 9 calendar months after the offence committed, id. s. 9.

24. Any person grieved by any determination of a justice, except an order of commitment, may, in 3 calendar months, complain to the general quarter sessions who shall determine the same there, or may adjourn it to the next sessions; and may quash any conviction, mitigate any fine, and award costs to either party, or order any money levied to be returned, and award such further satisfaction to the party grieved as they think reasonable; but no proceedings shall be quashed, &c. for want of form, or removed by certiorari, &c. into any other court, id. s. 10.

25. FOR REMOVING DIFFICULTIES IN THE CONVICTION OF offenders stealing property from mines, 56 G. 3. c. 73. [EXT. to other indictments, 1 G. 4. c. 102.; see that act, id. INDICTMENT.]

26. It shall be lawful and deemed sufficient, to all intents and purposes soever, for conviction of any offender charged in any indictment with grand or petty larceny for stealing any minerals, timber, iron, or other materials used in working mines, being the personal property of any company or adventurers carrying on the same, to allege and aver that “the minerals, &c. so stolen are the property of some one or more of the partners or adventurers in such mining concern, and others his or their partners or co-adventurers:” which form of designating the property so stolen shall be as valid as if the same were averred to be the property of all the owners, and as if their names were particularly set forth in the indictment, id. ibid.

27. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL PUNISHMENT OF PERSONS RIOTOUSLY destroying or damaging buildings, engines, and machinery used in and about collieries and other mines, waggon-ways, bridges, and other works used in conveying and shipping coals and other minerals, and for enabling the owners of such property to recover damages for the injury sustained, 56 G. 3. c. 123.

28. If any persons unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assembled together, in disturbance of the public peace, shall unlawfully and with force demolish, pull down, destroy, or damage, or begin to demolish, &c. any fire or other engine, erected or to be erected for making, sinking, or working collieries, coal or other mines, or any bridge, waggon-way, or trunk, erected or made, or to be erected, &c. for conveying coals or other minerals from any colliery, coal or other mine, to any place, or for shipping the same, or any staith or other erection or building for depositing the same, or used in conducting the business of any such colliery, coal or other mine, whether the said engines, &c. are respectively completed and finished, or are only begun to be set up, made, and erected, then every such demolishing, &c. shall be adjudged felony without clergy, and the offenders shall suffer death, id. s. 1.

29. The persons injured by such demolishing, &c. or beginning to demolish &c. any property in s. 1. specified, may recover the value thereof, or the amount of the damage done to the same, which value or damage may be recovered, levied, raised, and reimbursed as by 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 5. directed, id. s. 2.

30. Whenever any person or number of persons shall so unlawfully assemble together in disturbance of the public peace, as in s. 1., the proprietor of any of the engines, &c., or other property in s. 1. specified, shall, as soon as conveniently may be, after such unlawful assembly shall take place, by himself or his servants, give, or cause to be given, due notice and information of its having taken place to some or one of the nearest magistrates, and to the constable or some one resident house-keeper of the towns, villages, or hamlets near the place of such assembly, or in Scot. to the sheriff; and no person (nor any steward-depute, or substitute of the county or stewartry where the offence is committed, in order to taking the measures prescribed by the law of Scot. therein,) shall recover damages under this act, unless he has so given the aforesaid notice, &c. within 2 days after such injury done him; and shall, within 4 days after such notice, give in his examination on oath, or on oath of his servant or servants that had the care of his property so destroyed or damaged as aforesaid, before any justice of the county, liberty, or division where the fact is committed, or near thereto, whether he or they do know the persons or any of them who committed such fact, and if on such examination it be confessed that he or they do know them, then he or they so confessing shall be bound by recognizance to prosecute the offenders, id. s. 3.

31. No person sustaining damage by reason of any such offence, as in s. 1. recited, shall be thereby enabled to sue the hundred, except he commence his action within one year after the offence committed, id. ibid.

MINT. (See COIN.)

(STATUTES expired.)

1. A MINT SHALL BE ESTABLISHED AT Calais during H. M.’s pleasure, 9 H. 5. St. 1. c. 4. [EXP.]

2. TO ENABLE Matthew Boulton to export the machinery necessary for the erection of a mint in the dominions of the emperor of Russia, 39 G. 3. c. 96. [EXP.]

3. TO ENABLE H. M. to export like machinery for the king of Denmark, 44 G. 3. c. 70., to the Brazils, 50 G. 3. c. 65., to the United States, 56 G. 3. c. 92. [ALL EXP.]

2. The master of the mint shall keep his alloy in making white money, according to the form of his indenture, and shall receive silver at its value according to such alloy, on penalty of double damages, and shall convert the whole into coin, without any sale or alienation thereof, [and see as to silver coinage, 56 G. 3. c. 63. s. 4. and 18 G. 2. c. 5. COIN.] and H. M.’s assayer, who is a person indifferent between the master of the mint and the merchant, and the controller thereof, [see 57 G. 3. c. 67. s. 2. pl. 13.] shall be present when silver bullion is brought to the mint, in order that the former may assay the same according to the alloy, in case of variance between the party bringing it and the master; and the controller shall control all silver brought into and taken out of the mint; both officers doing their duties without other reward than H. M.’s salary, on pain of double damages, such assayer and controller being credible, substantial, and men expert in the knowledge of goldsmiths and of the mint; and the master of the mint shall not sell or alienate any gold or silver coin or bullion brought to the mint, to any other use than to the coin, 2 H. 6. c. 12. s. 1.

3. The master of the mint shall strike from time to time half-nobles, gold farthings, groats, half-groats, pence, half-pence, and farthings, id. s. 2.

4. TO ASCERTAIN THE SALARY OF THE MASTER AND WORKER OF H. M.'s mint, 39 G. 3. c. 94.

5. He shall have a net salary of 3000*l.* per ann. in lieu of his present salary and fees, such net salary being payable half-yearly, on 5th April and 10th Oct. as provided in s. 3., id. s. 1.

6. All taxes to which the master of the mint is liable in respect of his office, shall be paid out of the monies arising as in s. 3. id. s. 2.

7. The same proportion of fees, &c. now received by the master of the mint, shall be still received by a person appointed by the treasury, with a reasonable salary, and giving sufficient security; and the surplus, after payment of the sums charged thereon in ss. 1, 2., shall be paid into exchequer, to the consolidated fund, out of which fund any deficiency in those sums shall be made up, id. s. 3.

8. The office of master of the mint shall be granted, subject to this act, id. s. 4.

9. Such master of the mint may sit in the house of commons, 22 G. 3. c. 45. notwithstanding, 39 G. 3. c. 94. s. 5.

10. FOR REGULATING CERTAIN OFFICES, AND ABOLISHING others in H. M.'s mints in Eng. and Scot. respectively, 57 G. 3. c. 67.

11. The office of warden of H. M.'s mint in Eng. is abolished, and his powers and duties, whether required to be exercised by him alone or in conjunction with others, shall be performed by the master and worker of the mint or his deputy at their present salaries, id. s. 1.

12. The office of comptroller of the mint, shall, after termination of existing interests, be executed in person and not by deputy, id. s. 2.

13. The office of governor of the mint in Scot. shall, on termination of the existing interests, be held by master of the mint in Eng., and all other offices of the Scotch mint shall, at the like expiration of existing interests, be abolished, and exercised by the corresponding officers in Eng., without additional salaries, id. s. 3. [1200*l.* per ann. may be granted by treasury for salaries of the Scotch mint officers, 7 A. c. 24. s. 3.]

14. On the termination of the existing interests of officers entitled to apartments in the buildings of the mint in Scot., or on their relinquishment thereof, the treasury may direct them to be sold, and the proceeds shall be paid to the receiver-general in Scot. to be accounted for as other public monies, id. s. 5.

MISDEMEANOR.

1. TO PREVENT DELAY IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE IN CASES OF MISDEMEANOR, 60 G. 3. and 1 G. 4. c. 4.

2. Where any person is prosecuted in K. B. at Westminster, or in Dublin respectively, for any misdemeanor, either by information or indictment there found, or removed into such courts, and shall appear in person, in term time, in either court respectively to answer thereto, such defendant, on being charged therewith, shall not be permitted to imparle to a following term, but shall plead or demur thereto within 4 days from appearance, and in default thereof, judgment may be entered against him for want of a plea; and if he appear by clerk or attorney, he shall not imparle to a following term, but a rule requiring him to plead may forthwith be given, and plea or demurrer to such indictment, &c. may be enforced, or judgment by default entered thereon, as might have been done before passing this act, in cases where defendant had so appeared in a previous term, id. s. 1.

3. The said courts, or any judge of them, on sufficient cause shewn, may allow further time for such defendant to plead or demur to such indictment, id. s. 2.

4. Persons prosecuted for misdemeanor by indictment at any session of the peace, oyer and terminer, great sessions, or session of gaol delivery within Eng., or in Ire., having been committed to custody, or held to bail to appear to answer for such offence 20 days at least before the session at which such indictment is found, shall plead thereto, and the trial shall proceed thereon at such same session, unless a certiorari for removing the same into K. B. at Westminster or Dublin respectively, shall be delivered at such session before the jury are sworn for such trial, id. s. 3.

5. Such certiorari may be applied for, and issued in like cases and manner, and on the same terms, as well before as after indictment found, id. s. 4.

6. Persons prosecuted for any misdemeanor by indictment at any session of the peace, (as in s. 3.) within Eng. or Ire., not having been committed to custody, or held to bail to appear to answer for such offence 20 days before the session at which such indictment was found, but being committed, &c. to appear to answer for such offence at some subsequent session, or having received notice of such indictment found, 20 days before such subsequent session, shall plead to such indictment thereat, and trial shall proceed thereon at the same session, &c. unless a certiorari, for removing such indictment into K. B. at Westminster or in Dublin, shall be delivered at such session before the jury is sworn at such trial, id. s. 5.

7. Nothing herein shall prevent any indictment found by a grand jury of any city or town corporate, from being removed at the prayer of defendant, for trial by a jury of the county next adjoining to the county of such city, &c. pursuant to 38 G. 3. c. 52., and on such removal defendant shall plead, and trial shall be had according to this act, as if such indictment had originally been found by a grand jury of such adjoining county, 60 G. 3. and 1 G. 4. c. 4. s. 6.

8. The court at any session of the peace, &c. as in s. 3., on sufficient cause shewn, may allow further time for pleading to such indictment, or for trial thereof, id. s. 7.

9. In all prosecutions for misdemeanors instituted by the attorney or solicitor general in any of the above courts, the court shall, if required, order a copy of the information or indictment to be delivered after appearance to the party prosecuted, or his clerk in court, or attorney, on application, free of all expence to the party on applying, provided that the party, or his attorney, &c. has not previously received a copy thereof, id. s. 8.

10. In case any prosecution for misdemeanor instituted as in s. 8., is not brought to trial within 12 calendar months next after not guilty pleaded therein, the court, on application made on behalf of any defendant in such prosecution (20 days notice of such application having been given to such attorney or solicitor general), may make order, if they see fit, authorizing such defendant to bring on the trial of such prosecution, who may do so, unless nolle prosequi be first entered therein, id. s. 9.

11. Nothing in this act shall extend to any prosecution by information in nature of a quo warranto, or for non-repair of any bridge or highway, id. s. 10.

MONOPOLY. (See LITERARY PROPERTY.)

1. CONCERNING MONOPOLIES AND DISPENSATIONS WITH PENAL LAWS, and the forfeitures thereof, 21 J. 1. c. 3.

2. All monopolies and commissions, grants, licences, charters, and letters patent granted to any person or body politic or corporate soever, of the sole buying, selling, making, working, or using of any thing within this realm, or Wa., or of any other monopolies, or of power to dispense with any others, or to give licence to do, use, or exercise any thing against the tenor of any statute; or to give or make any warrant for such dispensation or licence to be given, or to agree or compound with any others for any penalty limited by statute; or of any grant or promise of the benefit of any penalty or sum of money due by any statute before judgment thereon had, and all proclamations, restraints, warrants of assistance, and other things soever any way tending to further the same, are contrary to the laws, and utterly void, id. s. 1.

3. All such monopolies and commissions, &c. shall be determined as to their validity by the common law, id. s. 2., and no person shall exercise them, id. s. 3.

4. Any person grieved or disquieted, or his chattels taken by pretext of any such monopoly or commission, &c. may sue the offenders at common law, by action grounded on this statute, to be determined in K. B., C. P., or exchequer, and shall recover treble damages and double costs, without essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance allowed; and any person who, after notice that the action pending is grounded on this statute, shall cause it to be stayed or delayed before judgment by colour of any other authority save that of the court; or who, after judgment had, shall procure execution to be stayed by colour of any authority except writ of error or attain, shall incur the penalties of a premunire, id. s. 4.

5. The declarations herein shall not extend to letters patents and grants of privilege for 14 years or under, of the sole working or making of any new manufactures in this realm, to the true and first inventor of such manufactures, which others at the time of making such patent shall not use, so as they be not contrary to the law and mischievous to the state, by raising the prices of commodities at home, or hurt of trade or general inconvenience; the 14 years to be accounted from the date of the patent, id. s. 6. [not to affect grants theretofore allowed by statute, while the latter continues in force, id. s. 7.]

6. This act shall not extend to any warrant or privy seal directed by H. M. to the justices of K. B. or C. P., and barons of exchequer, justices of assize, of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery, of the peace, and other justices, having power to determine offences against any penal statute, to compound for the forfeitures thereof pending in suit before them after plea pleaded, id. s. 8.

7. This act shall not extend to the city of London, or other city, borough, or town corporate within this realm, for or concerning any grants, charters, or letters patents to them granted, or to their customs, or to any corporations, &c. of any art, trade, or mystery, or to any companies of merchants erected for maintenance of any trade, but the immunities of these bodies shall remain in force, id. s. 9.

8. Nor to letters patents concerning printing, digging, or compounding saltpetre or gunpowder, casting or making ordnance or their shot, nor to any former grant or patent of offices now in being, and not decreed by H. M.'s proclamation, id. s. 10.; nor to grants, patents, &c. for digging, compounding, or making allum and allum mines, 21 J. 1. c. 3. s. 11.

9. This act shall not extend to any use, custom, &c., or privilege heretofore enjoyed by the fellowship of the hostmen of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, or by the ancient fraternity, &c. commonly called hostmen, concerning the selling, lading, shipping or trading, of or for any sea, stone, or pit coals out of the haven and river of Tyne, or to any grant by them to queen Elizabeth of any duty in respect thereof, nor to any licences for keeping any tavern, or selling or retailing wines to be drunk in the mansion-house, or other place in occupation of the party selling the same, or to making any compositions for such licences where the benefit thereof is reserved to H. M., id. s. 12.

MORTGAGE.

1. TO PREVENT FRAUDS BY CLANDESTINE MORTGAGES, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 16. (and recital in s. 1.)

2. If any person shall borrow any money, or for other valuable consideration for the payment thereof voluntarily give, acknowledge, permit, or suffer to be entered against him one or more judgments, statutes, or recognizances, to any creditor; and if he shall afterwards borrow any other money of any other person, or for other valuable consideration become indebted to such person, and for securing the repayment thereof shall mortgage his lands or tenements, or any part thereof, to the said second or other creditor, or to any other person in trust for, or to the use of such second or other creditor, and shall not give notice to the said [second] mortgagee, of the said judgment, statute, or recognizance, in writing under his hand, before execution of the mortgage, unless such mortgagor or his heirs, on notice given by the mortgagee or his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, in writing under his or their hands and seals, attested by two or more sufficient witnesses, of any such former judgment, &c. shall, within 6 months, pay off the same, and all interest and charges due thereon, and cause the same to be vacated by record; then the mortgagor, his heirs, &c., shall have no remedy against the mortgagee, his heirs, &c. in equity or elsewhere, for redemption of the said lands, or any part thereof, but the latter, his heirs, &c. may hold the same for such term therein as was granted to him, against the mortgagor and all claimants under him, freed from equity of redemption, and as fully as if it were purchased absolutely and without power of redemption, id. s. 2.

3. If any person who shall mortgage any lands or tenements to any person, for security of money lent or otherwise become due, or for other valuable considerations, shall again mortgage the same, or any part thereof, to any other person for valuable consideration (the former mortgage being in force, and not discharged), and shall not discover to the said second or other mortgagees, or some or one of them, the former mortgage in writing under his hand, then such mortgagor, his heirs, &c. shall have no relief or equity of redemption against the second or after mortgagee, his heirs, &c. on the said after mortgage, but such mortgagee, his heirs, &c. may hold and enjoy such more than once mortgaged lands, &c. for such term thereon, as was granted by the mortgagor against him, or his heirs, &c. respectively free, from equity of redemption, and as fully to all intents, as if it had been an actual purchase without power of redemption, id. s. 3.

4. If it happen that there be more than one mortgage at the same time made by any person to any person, of the same lands, &c. the several late or under mortgagees, their heirs, &c. shall have power to redeem any former mortgage, on payment of the principal debt, interest, and costs of suit to the prior mortgagee, his heirs, &c. id. s. 4.

5. Nothing in this act shall be construed to bar any widow of any mortgagor of lands, &c. from her dower and right therein, who did not legally join with her husband in such mortgage or otherwise bar herself of such her right, id. s. 5.

6. FOR THE MORE EASY REDEMPTION AND FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGES, 7 G. 2. c. 20.

7. Where any action is brought on any bond for payment of the money secured by mortgage, or for performance of the covenants therein contained; or where any action or ejectment is brought in any court of record at Westminster, or of great sessions in W.a. or in any superior court in the counties palatine, by any mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, for recovery of possession of any mortgaged lands, tenements, or hereditaments; and no suit shall be then pending in any court of equity in Eng. for foreclosing or redeeming the same; if the person having right to redeem, and who shall appear and become defendant in such action, shall, at any time pending the same, pay unto such mortgagees; or in case of refusal, shall bring into the court where the action is pending, all the principal and interest due on the mortgage, with all the costs expended in suits in law or equity thereon, (the amount for principal, &c. being computed by the court, or proper officer by them appointed); the monies so paid or brought into court shall be taken to be in full discharge of the mortgage, and the court shall discharge such mortgagor or defendant accordingly, and may, by rule of court, compel such mortgagee at the mortgagor's costs, to assign, surrender, or re-convey such mortgaged lands, &c. and such estate as he hath therein, and deliver up all deeds and writings in his custody relating to the title thereto, unto such mortgagor, his heirs, &c. or to such other person as they shall appoint, 7 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1.

8. Where any bill or suit shall be filed or brought in any court of equity in Eng. by any person having any estate or interest in any lands, &c. under any mortgage thereof, to compel the defendant (having a right to redeem the same) to pay the plaintiff in such suit the principal and interest due thereon, or the principal and interest so due, together with any sum due on any incumbrance, or specialty charged on the equity of redemption, and in default of payment thereof to foreclose such defendant of his equity of redeeming such mortgaged lands, &c. such court of equity, on application by defendant (having such right to redeem as above), and on admitting the title of plaintiff, may, at any time before bringing the cause to hearing, make such decree therein, as such court might have made, in case such suit had been regularly brought to hearing before such court; and all parties thereto shall be bound by such decree, to all intents and purposes as if made by such court, at or after the hearing of the suit, id. s. 2.

9. This act shall not extend to any case, where the person against whom the redemption is prayed shall, by writing under his hand, or that of his attorney to be delivered to the attorney for the other side, before the money shall be brought into such court at law insist, either that the party praying a redemption has no right to redeem, or that the premises are chargeable with other principal sums than what appear on the face of the mortgage, or are admitted on the other side, nor to any case where the right of redemption to the mortgaged lands and premises in question shall be controverted between different defendants in the same suit, nor shall prejudice any subsequent mortgagee or incumbrancer, id. s. 3.

10. FOR EXPLAINING 12 A. St. 2. c. 16. (tit. USURY), WITH REGARD TO LOANS ON MORTGAGE IN Ire. OR THE COLONIES, 14 G. 3. c. 79. [Am. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 51.]

11. All mortgages and securities which, by any of H. M.'s subjects already have been made and executed in G. B. of or concerning any lands, tenements, hereditaments, slaves, cattle, or other things, lying in Ire., or in any of H. M.'s colonies, plantations, or dominions; or any estate or interest therein, to any of H. M.'s subjects, for securing the repayment of money thereon really lent, with interest for the same, and all bonds, covenants, and securities, for payment of the same, and all transfers or assignments which have been made in G. B. of such mortgages, securities, or bonds, to any such subjects, shall be as valid, as if they had been made in the kingdom, island, plantation, country, or place, where the lands, &c. severally lie; and none shall be subject to any of the penalties in 12 A. St. 2. c. 16. by taking interest for the money advanced on such mortgage, &c. at the rate of interest allowed by the law of the kingdom, &c. wherein the mortgaged premises lie, 14 G. 3. c. 79. s. 1.

12. All mortgages and securities which shall be made and executed in G. B., concerning lands, &c. lying in Ire., or in any of the said colonies, &c. to any like subjects, for securing the repayment of money thereon bona fide lent, with interest for the same; and all bonds, &c. for payment of the same, and all transfers or assignments which shall be made and executed in G. B., of such mortgages, &c. to any of H. M.'s subjects, shall be as valid as if the same were executed in the kingdom, &c. where the lands, &c. severally lie; and none of H. M.'s subjects in G. B. shall be subject to any of the penalties in the said act of 12 A. by receiving interest for money advanced on any such mortgage, &c. so as the interest so received, do not exceed 6 per cent., id. s. 2.

13. All mortgages and securities made, (as in 2 last placita) at any time before or after passing this act, for securing repayment of the money bona fide lent thereon, with interest for the same, whether payable in G. B. or in the country, island, plantation, or place where the things comprised in any such mortgage, security, transfer, or assignment severally lie, and all bonds and covenants at any time made and executed in G. B., either by persons borrowing such money, or by any other person, either residing in G. B. or elsewhere, by way of collateral security for payment of such interest; and all transfers and assignments at any time made, &c. in G. B. of such mortgages, securities, or bonds to any of H. M.'s subjects, shall be as valid as if they were made, &c. and the interest thereon was payable, and as if the persons entering into such bonds, &c. as collateral security had resided in the country, &c. where the things comprised in any such mortgage or assignment, severally lie, and none of H. M.'s subjects in G. B. shall be subject to any of the penalties in 12 A. St. 2. c. 16. by receiving, or having received interest for the money really lent on any such mortgage, bond, covenant, transfer, or assignment, so as the interest thereon does not exceed 6 per cent., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 51.

14. This act shall not make good any mortgage, &c. where the lender of any money has knowingly advanced, or shall knowingly advance, more money than the lands, &c. were or shall be, at the time of advancing such money, bonâ fide worth, to be sold, 14 G. 3. c. 79. s. 2.

15. Every person borrowing money under this act, upon such lands, &c. as aforesaid, exceeding the value which the same shall, at the time of borrowing such money, be really worth, to be sold over all incumbrances which shall then affect the same, shall forfeit treble the value of the sum borrowed; one half to the informer, the other to the treasurer of Greenwich hospital, for the use of the hospital, id. s. 4.

16. All such mortgages, &c. under this act, shall be registered within the kingdom, &c. (as in pl. 11.) where the lands, &c. severally lie, within the time limited by the laws of such kingdom, &c. otherwise they shall be subject to the provisions and penalties contained in 12 A. St. 2. c. 16. in such manner as the same would have been if this act had never been passed, unless the mortgagee, or other person for whose behoof such mortgage shall have been made, shall have bonâ fide used his endeavour to cause the same to be registered within the time before limited. id. s. 5.

MORTMAIN.

1. IT SHALL NOT BE LAWFUL TO GIVE LANDS to any religious house, and to take the same land again to hold of the same house, or for the religious houses to accept the land for that purpose: If any man so give his lands to any religious house, and be convict, the gift shall be void, and the land shall return to the lord of the fee, 9 H. 3. M. C. c. 56.

2. NO PERSON SHALL PRESUME TO BUY OR sell, or by any craft or engine to appropriate lands, under pain of forfeiture of the same, whereby such lands may come into mortmain; if any person offend against this statute, the lords of the fee may enter into the same within a year from the time of the alienation, and hold it in fee; and if the chief lord immediate will not enter within the year, the next chief lord may enter within half a year next; and so every lord mediate may enter, if the next immediate lord to him be negligent; and if all the lords of such fees, which be of full age, within the four seas, and out of prison, be negligent, H. M., after the year accomplished, shall take such lands, and enfeoff others therein by services for defence of the realm; saving to the lords their escheats and services, 7 E. 1. Statutum de Religiosis.

3. WHEREAS ECCLESIASTICAL PERSONS DO IMPLEAD, and the party maketh default, whereby he ought to lose the land, IT IS ORDAINED, that after default made, it shall be enquired by the country, whether the demandant had right, and if it be found that he had, he shall recover seisin; and if he had no right, the land shall accrue to the lord of the fee, if he demand it within a year from the time of the inquest taken; and if he do not demand it, it shall accrue to the next lord above, if he demand it within half a year; and so every lord after the lord immediate shall have half a year, until it come to the king; and to challenge the jurors of the inquest the lords of the fees shall be admitted, and likewise for the king; and after judgment given, the land shall remain in the king's hands until it be deraigned by the demandant, or some other chief lord, and the sheriff shall answer therefore at the exchequer, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 32.

4. LANDS WHERE CROSSES SHALL BE SET (to assume the privileges of Templars and Hospitaliers), shall be forfeit, as provided for lands aliened in mortmain, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 33.

5. BY THE PURCHASES PERMITTED by this statute, such lands shall in nowise come into mortmain, 18 E. 1. St. 1. c. 3. Quia emptores terrarum.

6. TOUCHING THE GRANT OF H. M. TO BE OBTAINED ON inquests returned for lands to be put in mortmain, nothing shall be done where there shall be any lords mesne, except the religious persons can shew H. M. their assent under their patents; and nothing shall pass where the donor retaineth nothing to himself: and where inquisitions be made without warrant, viz. without the writ original returned with the inquisition, and except the writ make mention of every thing according to the new ordinance, [See 27 E. 1. St. 2.] 34 E. 1. St. 3.

7. IF PRELATES OR CLERKS BENEFICED, WHICH HAVE PURCHASED lands, and the same have put to mortmain, be impeached before our justices, and they shew a charter of licence, and process thereon made by inquest of ad quod damnum, &c. they shall be let in peace; and in case they cannot shew that they have entered by due process, shall be received to make reasonable fine, 18 E. 3. St. 3. c. 3.

8. WHEREAS SOME SPIRITUAL PERSONS HAVE ENTERED in lands adjoining to their churches, and of the same by sufferance of the tenants have made churchyards, and by bulls of the bishop of Rome have halloed the same without licence of H. M. and of the lords; it is declared, that it is within 7 Ed. 1. (pl. 2.), and no purchase shall be made, so as spiritual persons take the profits, upon pain of forfeiture; and the statute shall be kept of all lands, advowsons, and other possessions, to be purchased to the use of fraternities; and mayors, bailiffs, and commons of cities and towns, that have a perpetual commonalty, and others which have offices perpetual, shall not purchase, upon the pain contained in the statute, 15 R. 2. c. 5.

9. FOR FEOFFMENTS AND ASSURANCES OF LANDS AND TENEMENTS made to the use of any parish church, chapel, or the like, 23 H. 8. c. 10. and recital in s. 1. [QU. how far superseded by 9 G. 2. c. 36. ?]

10. ALL USES, &c. TO THE USE OF PARISH CHURCHES, churches, chapels, churchwardens, guilds, companies, or brotherhoods, made of devotion, or by assent of the people, without any corporation, and also to the intent to have any continual service of a priest for 60 years, or other like uses, shall be void, id. s. 2.

11. But every person being seised of lands, &c. may ordain any of the uses above specified, so that none such uses be made to continue above 20 years after the making, id. s. 3.

12. If any persons, in fraud of this statute, bind their heirs, or any other persons, that they shall suffer such uses to continue contrary to this act, upon penalties of loss of any other lands or things, or attempt by any other colour to make any such uses to be declared contrary to this act, to continue for any longer time than above limited, then such penalty, &c. shall be void; and this statute shall be always interpreted as beneficially as may be, to the destruction of such uses, &c. except as above provided, id. s. 4.

13. Proviso for customs of cities and towns corporate, to devise lands in mortmain, id. s. 5.

14. FOR ENCOURAGEMENT OF CHARITABLE GIFTS AND dispositions, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 37.

15. H. M., when and as often, and in such cases as he shall think fit, may grant to any person, licence to alien in mortmain, and also to purchase and hold in mortmain, in perpetuity, or otherwise, any lands or hereditaments, id. s. 1; and lands, &c. so aliened or acquired, and licensed, shall not be subject to any forfeiture by reason thereof, id. s. 2.

16. TO RESTRAIN THE DISPOSITION OF LANDS, whereby they become unalienable. 9 G. 2. c. 36. [Not extending to Scot., id. s. 6.]

17. No manors, lands, tenements, rents, advowsons, or other corporeal or incorporeal hereditaments; nor any money, goods, chattels, stocks in public funds, securities for money, or other personal estate soever, to be laid out in purchase of any lands, &c. shall be in any ways given, conveyed, or settled on any person, or body politic or corporate, or otherwise, for any estate or interest soever, or any ways charged by any person in trust, or for benefit of any charitable uses whatever; unless such gift, conveyance, or settlement of any such lands, &c. or personal estate, (other than stocks in public funds) be made by deed indented, sealed, and delivered, in presence of 2 or more credible witnesses, 12 calendar months before the death of such donor or grantor (including the days of execution and death), and be enrolled in chancery within 6 calendar months after its execution, and unless such stock be transferred in the public books usually kept for transfer of stocks 6 months at least before death of such donor or grantor (including the days of transfer and death), and unless the same be made to take effect in possession for the charitable use intended, immediately from the making thereof, and without power of revocation, reservation, or clause soever for benefit of the grantor, or of any claimant under him, id. s. 1.

18. Nothing above-mentioned relating to sealing and delivering any deed, 12 calendar months at least before the grantor's death, or to the transfer of any stock, 6 like months before the death of the grantor or person making such transfer, shall extend to any purchase of any estate or interest in lands, &c. or to any transfer of stock really made, for a full and valuable consideration actually paid, or before making such conveyance or transfer, without collusion, id. s. 2.

19. All gifts, conveyances, and settlements of lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, or of any charge or incumbrance affecting any lands, &c., or of any stock, money, goods, or other personalty or securities for money to be laid out in purchase of any lands, &c. or interest therein, or of any incumbrance affecting the same, to or in trust for any charitable uses soever, which shall, at any time after 24th June, 1736, be made any otherwise than by this act appointed, shall be void, id. s. 3.

20. This act shall not avoid the dispositions of any lands, &c. or of any personal estate to be laid out in the purchase thereof, which shall be made in any other manner than by this act directed, to or in trust for either of the two universities in Eng., or any of the colleges or houses of learning therein, or to or in trust for the colleges of Eton, Winchester, or Westminster, or either of them, for the better maintenance of the scholars only, on their respective foundations, id. s. 4.

MORTUARY.

1. CONCERNING THE TAKING OF MORTUARIES; OR demanding, receiving, or claiming the same, 21 H. 8. c. 6. [and recital in s. 1.]

2. No spiritual person or their lessees, shall receive or demand of any person within this realm, for any person dying in the same, any mortuary or corse present, nor other thing for the same, more than is hereafter mentioned; nor shall convent any person before any spiritual judge, for recovery of more than is so mentioned, on pain to forfeit, for every demand or calling before the spiritual judges so much as is taken above the sum herein limited, and 40s. over that, to the party grieved, who shall have an action of debt, &c. or information for the same in any of H.M.'s courts, 21 H. 8. c. 6. s. 2.

5. No mortuary shall be given or demanded of any person, but in places where they have been used to be paid, and then, not otherwise, than after the following rates: viz. for every person who does not leave goods to the value of 10 marks, nothing; for every person who leaves goods to the value of 10 marks and under 30*l.*, 3*s.* 4*d.*; if above 30*l.*, and under 40*l.*, 6*s.* 8*d.*; if above 40*l.*, of what value soever they may be, only 10*s.*, id. s. 5.

4. For no woman being covert baron, nor child, nor for any person not keeping house, nor for any wayfaring man not dwelling nor making residence in the place where he happens to die, but the mortuary of such wayfaring persons shall be answerable at the rate in s. 3. in the place where they have most habitation, and no where else, 21 H. 8. c. 6. s. 4.

5. All persons, &c. and other spiritual persons, may receive money bequeathed to them, or to the high altar of the church, id. s. 5.

6. No mortuaries shall be taken in Wa. or the marches, nor in the towns of Culais or Ber., or the marches, but only where they have been accustomed to be paid, and then according to the rates in s. 3. id. s. 6.

7. Saving for taking the accustomed mortuaries by the bishops of Bangor, Llandaff, St. David's, and St. Asaph, and by archdeacon of Chester, id. s. 7. [but see the 12 A. St. 2. c. 6. as to the bishoprics; and 28 G. 2. c. 6. as to Chester, which take away mortuaries in all those places.]

8. In places where mortuaries have been accustomed to be taken, of less value than in s. 3., no person shall be compelled to pay any other, or more for any mortuary than is so accustomed; nor shall any mortuary in such place be taken of any person exempt by, or in any way contrary to this act, on penalty in s. 1., id. s. 8.

NATURALIZATION. (See ALIEN.)

(STATUTES expired.)

1. FOR THE NATURALIZING OF CHILDREN OF H. M.'s English subjects born in foreign countries during the late troubles, 29 C. 2. c. 6. [EXP.]

2. TO NATURALIZE THE CHILDREN OF SUCH OFFICERS and soldiers and others, the natural-born subjects of this realm, who have been abroad during the war, the parents of such children having been in the service of this government, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 20. [EXP.]

3. FOR ALLOWING A TIME FOR 215 FAMILIES of protestant palatines now settled in Ire., to take the oaths in order to entitle them to all benefits intended them by 7 A. c. 5., 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 29. [EXP.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. THAT ALL SUCH AS ARE TO BE NATURALIZED OR restored in blood, shall first receive the sacrament of the Lord's supper, and the oath of allegiance, and the oath of supremacy, 7 J. 1. c. 2.

2. No person of the age of 18 years or above, shall be naturalized or restored in blood, unless he have received the sacrament of the Lord's supper within one month before any bill exhibited for that purpose, and also shall take the oath of supremacy and allegiance in the parliament house, before his bill be twice read; and the lord chancellor, if the bill begin in the upper house, and the speaker of the commons house, if the bill begin there, shall have authority during the session, to administer such oaths, id. ibid.

3. AFTER THE LIMITATION OF THE CROWN HEREIN mentioned shall take effect, no person born out of Eng., Scot., or Ire., or the dominions thereof (although he is naturalized or made a denizen, except such as are born of English parents), shall be capable to be of the privy council, or a member of either house of parliament, or to enjoy any office or place of trust, either civil or military, or to have any grant of lands or hereditaments from the crown, to himself or others, in trust for him, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 2. s. 3. [EXPL. 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 4.]

4. No person shall be naturalized, unless, in the bill exhibited for that purpose, there be a clause to declare, that such person shall not be enabled to be of the privy council, or a member of either house of parliament, or enjoy any office of trust, or have any grant from the crown, of any lands, &c. to himself, or to others in trust for him; and no bill of naturalization shall be received, without such clause, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 4. s. 2. [And see 14 G. 3. c. 84. pl. 31.] [NOTE.—This clause, as also 7 J. 1. c. 2., is usually suspended before the introduction of a bill to naturalize foreign princes. See 4 & 5 A. c. 1., 7 G. 2. c. 3., 4 G. 3. c. 4.]

5. FOR NATURALIZING FOREIGN PROTESTANTS [and the children of natural-born subjects born out of the allegiance of the British crown], 7 A. c. 5. [REP. except what (viz. s. 5.) relates to such children, 10 A. c. 5., and EXPL. 4 G. 2. c. 21., which is EXT. to the children of such children, 13 G. 3. c. 21.]

6. The children of all natural-born subjects born out of the allegiance of H. M. shall be deemed to be natural-born subjects of this kingdom, 7 A. c. 5. s. 3.

7. All children to be born out of the allegiance of the crown of Eng. or of G. B. whose fathers shall be natural-born subjects of such crown at the time of the birth of such children, shall by virtue of the 7 A. c. 5. s. 3. and of this act, be adjudged to be natural-born subjects of the crown of G. B., 4 G. 2. c. 21. s. 1.

8. But nothing in 7 A. c. 5. or in this act, did or shall extend to make any children to be born out of such allegiance, to be such natural-born subjects whose fathers at the time of their birth shall be attainted of high treason by judgment, outlawry, or otherwise, either in this kingdom or Ire., or whose fathers at the time of the birth of such children shall by any law made in this kingdom or Ire., be liable to penalties of high treason or felony in case they return here or to Ire. without H. M.'s licence, or who shall be in the actual service of any foreign state in enmity with the crown of Eng. or G. B., but such children shall remain in the same state as if this act or the 7 A. c. 5. had never been made, 4 G. 2. c. 21. s. 2.

9. Proviso for children of persons so attainted returning here or to Ire., and continuing to reside here or in Ire., or taking certain oaths or receiving certain rents of lands, &c., to be deemed natural-born subjects, id. s. 3. [EXP.]

10. All persons born out of the allegiance of the crown of Eng. or of G. B., whose fathers were by 4 G. 2. c. 21. entitled to all rights and privileges of natural-born subjects of Eng., or of G. B., shall be natural-born subjects of G. B., as if born in this kingdom, the 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 2. notwithstanding, 13 G. 3. c. 21. s. 1.

11. Nothing in this act shall make any persons born out of the allegiance of the crown of Eng., or of G. B., to be natural-born subjects thereof, contrary to 4 G. 2. c. 21. or to repeal, abridge, or alter the same; but the same shall remain as if this act had never been made, id. s. 2.

12. Nothing in this act shall repeal, abridge, or alter 5 G. 1. c. 27., nor repeal, &c. any law, statute, custom, or usage, concerning alien duties, customs, and impositions, nor cause any privilege, exemption, or abatement relating thereto, in favour of any person naturalized by this act, unless such person shall come into this realm, and there reside, and shall take and subscribe the oaths, and make, repeat, and subscribe the declaration appointed by 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13., and also receive the sacrament according to the church of Eng., or in some protestant or reformed congregation within G. B., within 3 months before their taking the oaths in such act mentioned; and shall, at the time of taking the said oaths, &c. produce a certificate signed by the person administering the sacrament, attested by 2 witnesses, whereof an entry shall be made of record in the court wherein such oaths shall have been taken, without fee, id. s. 3.

13. No person shall be enabled hereby to defeat any estate, right, or interest, on the last day of this session vested in any other person, or to demand any estate or interest which shall hereafter accrue, unless such demand be made within 5 years next after the same shall accrue, id. s. 4.

14. FOR NATURALIZING FOREIGN PROTESTANTS and others therein mentioned as are settled or shall settle in any of H. M.'s colonies in America, 13 G. 2. c. 7. [EXT. to other foreign protestants who conscientiously scruple the taking of an oath, 20 G. 2. c. 44., and to such foreign protestants as have served or shall serve for the time therein mentioned as officers or soldiers in H. M.'s royal American regiment, or as engineers in America, 4 G. 5. c. 25. EXPL. as to such persons holding offices of trust, 13 G. 3. c. 25.]

15. All persons born out of the allegiance of H. M., who shall reside 7 years in any of H. M.'s colonies in America, and shall not have been absent out of some of such colonies for more than 2 months at one time, during such 7 years, and shall take and subscribe the oaths and declaration appointed by 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13., or, being quakers, shall make and subscribe the declaration of fidelity, and affirm the effect of the abjuration oath appointed by 3 G. 1. c. 6., and make and subscribe the profession of his christian belief, appointed by 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 18., before the chief judge, or other judge of the colony wherein such persons reside, shall be deemed H. M.'s natural-born subjects; which oath or affirmation and subscription such judge may administer, and the same shall be taken and made before such judge in open court, between the hours of 9 and 12 in the forenoon; and shall be entered in the same court, and also in the secretary's office of the colony wherein such person resides: and every chief judge, or other judge of every respective colony, before whom such oath, &c. shall be taken and made, shall make an entry thereof in a book, for the doing whereof 2s. and no more shall be paid, under the penalty of 10*l.* of lawful money of G. B. for every neglect: in like manner every secretary of the colony shall make an entry thereof in a book kept in his office, upon notification to him by the judge, under the like penalty, 13 G. 2. c. 7. s. 1.

16. No person, except quakers as shall qualify themselves and be naturalized as hereby directed, or such as profess the Jewish religion, shall be naturalized by this act, unless such person has received the sacrament in some protestant congregation in G. B., or some of the colonies in America, within 3 months next before his taking such oaths, &c.; and unless at the time of taking such oaths, &c. he produce a certificate signed by the person administering such sacrament, and attested by 2 witnesses; whereof an entry shall be made in the secretary's office of the colony where such person resides, and also in the court where such oaths shall be taken, without fee, id. s. 2.

17. Whenever any Jew shall present himself to take the oath of abjuration, in pursuance of this act, the words upon the true faith of a christian shall be omitted in administering the same to such Jew, and the taking and subscribing such oath by such Jew, and the other oaths appointed by such act, in like manner as Jews were permitted to take the oath of abjuration by the 10 G. 1. c. 4., shall be sufficient to entitle him to be naturalized by this act, id. s. 3.

18. A testimonial under the seal of any such colonies, of any persons having resided 7 years within some of such colonies to be specified in such certificate, with the time of residence in each colony, (whereof the colony under the seal of which such certificate is given shall be one) and of his having taken such oaths, &c. and in case of a quaker, made the declaration of fidelity, and affirmed the effect of the abjuration oath; and in case of a Jew, taken the oath of abjuration, within the same colony under the seal whereof such certificate is given, shall be deemed proof thereof, and of his being a natural-born subject of G. B., and as such shall be allowed in all courts of G. B. and Ire. and the colonies of America, id. s. 4.

19. Every secretary of such respective colonies shall at the end of every year to be computed from the 1st of June 1740, transmit to the office of the commissioners for trade and plantations in London or Westminster, a list of all persons who have entitled themselves to the benefit of this act; under the penalty of 50*l.* for every neglect: all which lists so transmitted shall be entered by such commissioners in a book to be kept in their office for public inspection, id. s. 5.

20. No person who shall become a natural-born subject by virtue of this act, shall be of the privy council, or a member of either house of parliament, or capable of taking any office of trust in G. B. or Ire., civil or military, or any grant from the crown to himself, or any other in trust for him, of any lands or hereditaments in G. B. or Ire., id. s. 6.

21. All foreign protestants, who conscientiously scruple the taking of an oath, and who are born out of the allegiance of H. M., who have resided or shall reside for 7 years in any of H. M.'s colonies in America, and shall not have been absent out of some of such colonies longer than 2 months at one time during such 7 years, and shall make and subscribe the declaration of fidelity, and affirm the effect of the abjuration oath prescribed by 8 G. 1. c. 6., and subscribe the profession of christian belief prescribed by 1 W. & M. c. 18. before the chief judge, or other judge of the colony wherein they reside, shall be deemed natural-born subjects of this kingdom, which affirmation and subscription such judge may administer, and the taking such affirmation and making such declaration, shall be in such manner and place, and at such times, and such entries made thereof, and for the same fees, and under the same penalties, as in 15 G. 2. c. 7.; and lists of the persons who shall take the benefit of this act, shall be transmitted to the commissioners of trade and plantations, in like manner, and under the same penalties, as lists of the persons taking the benefit of such act, 20 G. 2. c. 44. s. 1.

22. No person shall be naturalized by virtue of this act, unless he have received the sacrament, in some protestant congregation, within some of the colonies in America, within 3 months next before his making such affirmation and declaration, and at the time of making such affirmation, &c. produce a certificate signed by the person administering such sacrament, and attested by 2 witnesses; whereof an entry shall be made in the secretary's office of the colony wherein he resides, as also in the court where such affirmation is taken, without fee, id. s. 2.

23. The provisions contained in the 13 G. 2. c. 7. with regard to certificates of residence, and of having made such declaration and affirmation, and as to such certificates being evidence in the courts of G. B. and Ire., and in the colonies, and all other benefits of such act shall extend to foreign protestants who scruple the taking of an oath, and shall be qualified as aforesaid, id. s. 3.

24. Such foreign protestants shall enjoy the privileges of natural-born subjects, and all the benefits of this act, and the 15 G. 2. c. 7., id. s. 4.

25. Nothing in this act, or 13 G. 2. c. 7. shall naturalize any person who by 4 G. 2. c. 21. s. 2. pl. 8. is declared not entitled to the benefit of 7 A. c. 5. pl. 6., but all such persons shall remain in the same condition as they would have been in, if 13 G. 2. c. 7. or this act, had never been made, 20 G. 2. c. 44. s. 6.

26. All foreign protestants, as well officers as soldiers, who have served or shall hereafter serve in the royal American regiment, or as engineers in America, for 2 years, and shall take and subscribe the oaths, and make and subscribe the declaration appointed by 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13., and shall at such times produce certificates, signed as by 3 G. 2. c. 7. directed, of their having received the sacrament within G. B., or within some of the colonies in America, within 6 months before, shall be deemed to be H. M.'s natural-born subjects of this kingdom; and no estate purchased by them in any of H. M.'s colonies in America, since 29 G. 2. c. 5. shall be liable to seizure into the hands of H. M., or their titles thereto be impeached by reason of their having been aliens at the time of purchase, 2 G. 3. c. 25. s. 1.

27. Nothing in this act shall extend to naturalize any person, who, by virtue of 4 G. 2. c. 21. s. 2. pl. 8. is declared not to be entitled to the benefit of 7 A. c. 5., but all such persons shall remain in the same state as if this act had never been made, 2 G. 3. c. 25. s. 2.

28. No person who shall become a natural-born subject by this act, shall be enabled to be of the privy council, or a member of either house of parliament, or be capable of enjoying any office or place of trust within G. B. or Ire. either civil or military; or of taking any grant from the crown of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments within the kingdoms aforesaid, 13 G. 2. c. 7. s. 6., 20 G. 2. c. 44. s. 5., 2 G. 3. c. 25. s. 3.

29. Every person that shall become natural-born subjects by 13 G. 2. c. 7. and 2 G. 3. c. 15., shall be capable of taking and holding any office of trust, either civil or military, and of taking any grant of lands, &c. from the crown, to themselves or to others in trust for them, as well under the great seal as otherwise, except offices and grants within G. B. and Ire. 13 G. 3. c. 25.

30. TO PREVENT CERTAIN INCONVENIENCES THAT MAY HAPPEN BY bills of naturalization, 14 G. 3. c. 84. [see 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 4. s. 2. pl. 4.]

31. No person hereafter shall be naturalized, unless in the bills exhibited for that purpose there is a clause to declare that such person shall not thereby obtain within any foreign country, any of the indulgencies or immunities in trade which are or may be claimed therein by natural born British subjects, by virtue of any treaty or otherwise, unless such person has resided within G. B., or the dominions thereof, for 7 years, subsequent to the first day of the session of parliament in which such bill of naturalization passed, and has not been absent longer than 2 months at one time during such 7 years, and no bill of naturalization shall be received in either house of parliament unless such clause is inserted, 11 G. 3. c. 84.

(except the islands of Madeline), or on the islands, seas, and harbours to which ships repair from Labrador, and the islands so re-annexed to Newfoundland as above for carrying on the fishery, 49 G. 3. c. 27. ss. 14—15.

4. The governor of Newfoundland may from time to time institute courts of civil jurisdiction, to be called "Surrogate courts," in different parts of Newfoundland and the islands aforesaid, [and in those parts of the coast of Labrador, from the river St. John to Hudson's Straits, and in the island of Anticosti, and in all other smaller islands which are re-annexed to the government of Newfoundland by 49 G. 3. c. 27. ss. 14—15., with all powers of the like courts instituted by that act, 51 G. 3. c. 45. s. 2.], to hear and determine in a summary way all suits arising within the limits in 49 G. 3. c. 27. s. 1. [and 51 G. 3. c. 45. s. 2.] mentioned, which courts shall be courts of record, and shall determine according to the law of Eng. as far as it can be applied thereto, and shall be held by a surrogate appointed by the governor, who shall appoint the officers of such courts and their salaries, 49 G. 3. c. 27. s. 2., 33 G. 3. c. 76. s. 2., 51 G. 3. c. 45. s. 2.

5. The supreme and surrogate courts respectively may cause to appear from day to day all persons interested in the matter in dispute, and may examine them on oath, and thereupon make order, judgment, or decree therein, with costs or damages, and where the cause of action does not exceed 5*l.* and is sworn to in an affidavit made by plaintiff, defendant may be caused to appear by arrest or attachment of goods, and the execution of any order, &c. may be enforced by attachment of effects, or arrest of the person, and the chief justice and surrogates may respectively authorize some person in his or their absence, to issue process, and do all acts in their respective courts, except trying any crime or civil action, 49 G. 3. c. 27. s. 3., 33 G. 3. c. 76. s. 3.

6. Where the cause of action exceeds 40*l.* and plaintiff or defendant pray the summons of a jury to try the same, the chief justice and surrogates may respectively cause 24 persons to be summoned, of whom 12 shall be a jury, for trial of such action, provided that if a sufficient number of jurors do not appear on being summoned, the governor may appoint 2 assessors for the chief justice, and each surrogate in his court may appoint in like manner two for himself, who, with such chief justice or surrogates respectively, shall proceed to the trial of such action as if such jury had not been prayed, ss. 4. of both the above acts.

7. On any decree in a surrogate court for any sum exceeding 40*l.*, the party failing against whom judgment given, may appeal to the supreme court, having first given notice of his intention, and having entered into security to the surrogate in double the sum for which the decree was made, within 2 days after making the same, for duly prosecuting such appeal, and in any decree in the supreme court for more than 100*l.* an appeal lies to the king in council on like notice given, and security entered into, to be approved by the chief justice; and execution shall be stayed as soon as such notice and security are given, ss. 5. of both acts.

8. As often as the goods, debts, and credits of any person are attached, and it appears to the court that they are not sufficient to pay 20*l.* in the pound for his debts contracted within the island, or on the banks of Newfoundland, and on the islands and seas in pl. 2., or in G. B. and Ire., the court may summon the plaintiff in the attachment, the party whose goods, &c. are attached, and his creditors to appear in court on a fixed day, and if, on due examination, he be found insolvent, may declare him insolvent, and proceed to take order for discovering and selling his effects and debts, and rateably distributing the produce to his creditors, and may authorize one or more of the latter, chosen by a majority in value of three of them, whose debts amount respectively to 10*l.* or upwards to perform the same, and may from time to time make further order therein as above, ss. 6. of both acts.

9. In such distribution every fisherman or seaman in the fishery, who is a creditor for wages earned in the then current season, shall first be paid 30*s.* in the pound, then every creditor for supplies furnished in the current season shall be paid a like sum; and next, every creditor within 2 years shall be paid a like sum, and lastly, all other creditors shall be paid equally as far as the effects go, 49 G. 3. c. 27. s. 7., 33 G. 3. c. 76. s. 7.

10. If such insolvent shall make true disclosure of all his effects soever, and shall conform to the orders of the court, the latter, with consent of one-half in number and value of his creditors, may grant a certificate thereof, which shall bar [must be pleaded in bar, 1 Brod. & Bing. Rep. 15.] all suits for debts contracted within the limits in 49 G. 3. c. 27. s. 1. pl. 2. prior to his being declared insolvent, ss. 8. of both acts.

11. The chief justice, or any person appointed by him for that purpose, may grant administration of intestates' effects, and the probate of wills, and no effects shall be administered in the island or banks of Newfoundland, or on the islands and seas aforesaid, without either administration or probate granted, 49 G. 3. c. 27. s. 9., 33 G. 3. c. 76. s. 10.

12. No courts in Newfoundland, &c. except the supreme and surrogate courts appointed by this act, shall hold plea of any suit of a civil nature, but the court of vice-admiralty of the island may hold plea of maritime causes and of the revenue; and disputes concerning the wages of seamen or fishermen, and all offences committed by their hirer or employer against this or any other act relating to the island of Newfoundland, or the islands and seas aforesaid, or the fishery thereof, and concerning such seamen, &c. absents themselves, or refusing to work, may be determined, and the penalties recovered in the court of session, or before any 2 justices of peace, 49 G. 3. c. 27. s. 11., 33 G. 3. c. 76. s. 12.

13. The court of session may hear and determine in a summary way all suits for payment of debts not exceeding 40*s.*, and not contracted more than one year before the suits commenced, and that court, or 2 justices respectively, may award costs therein, which judgment and award shall be final, and executed by attachment and sale of the party's goods, 49 G. 3. c. 27. s. 12., 33 G. 3. c. 76. s. 13.

14. The chief justice may settle forms of process and rules of practice for dispatch of business in the supreme and surrogate courts, and courts of session, or before one or more justices of peace, and may appoint the fees for conducting the same, and for granting administration of effects of intestates, and for probate of wills, all which fees received in the surrogate courts shall be paid and accounted for by the surrogate in the supreme court, and the chief justice may limit the fees and poundage of the sheriff of Newfoundland, but no such fees shall be taken till they receive the approbation of the governor, signified under his hand and seal, 49 G. 3. c. 27. s. 13., 33 G. 3. c. 76. s. 14.

15. All penalties imposed by statute relating to Newfoundland, or its fishery, may be recovered in a summary way, in the supreme or any surrogate court; if of 10*l.* or under, in the court of session, or before one or more justices; and all fines, &c. imposed or paid in such inferior courts, shall be estreated and paid by the respective judges thereof into the supreme court, which may issue process to compel them to bring such monies to account, and shall apply the same towards the expence of executing these acts, 49 G. 3. c. 27. s. 16., 33 G. 3. c. 76. s. 15.

16. Actions commenced for any thing done in pursuance of these acts, shall be commenced in 6 months after the act done, the general issue may be pleaded, and special matter given in evidence thereon, with treble costs to defendant, if plaintiff discontinues after appearance, is nonsuited, or has judgment against him on verdict or demurrer, 49 G. 3. c. 27. s. 17., and see 33 G. 3. c. 76. s. 16.

17. THE SHIPS ROOMS FOLLOWING, IN THE TOWN OF St. John's, viz. The ships rooms No. I. Rotten Row, or Pye Corner ships rooms, No. II.; Darkus's, No. II.; Lady's, No. II.; Gallons Hills, No. III.; Burstheart Hills, No. III.; Churchill, No. IV.; Hudson's, No. V.; and Admiral's ships room, No. VI.; as the same are laid down in a plan of the town and harbour of St. John, dated Oct. 1804, and deposited in the government-house, these shall no longer be deemed ships rooms, and occupied during the fishing season as such, but may be let and possessed as private property in like manner as any other portions of land in Newfoundland may be, 51 G. 3. c. 45. s. 1.

NEW HOLLAND AND NEW SOUTH WALES.

(STATUTE repealed.)

TO ENABLE H. M. TO ESTABLISH A COURT OF CRIMINAL JUDICATURE in Norfolk island, 34 G. 3. c. 55. [REP. 35 G. 3. c. 18. s. 1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. TO ENABLE H. M. TO ESTABLISH A COURT OF CRIMINAL JUDICATURE on the eastern coast of New South Wales, and the parts adjacent, 27 G. 3. c. 2.

2. FOR LIKE PURPOSES IN Norfolk island, 35 G. 3. c. 18.

3. "Recital of 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 56. s. 1. [now REF. by 55 G. 3. c. 156. s. 1.] and of the appointment of the eastern coast of New South Wales or some other adjacent islands, as a place of transportation under that act, by two orders in council of 6th Dec. 1786; and recital of an order of transportation of offenders thither, made by Sir James Ryre and Mr. Baron Hotham, under the above statute, and dated 30th Dec. 1786."

4. H. M. may, by commission under great seal, authorize the governor or lieutenant-governor in his absence, to convene as often as may be necessary, a court of judicature consisting of the judge-advocate of the place and 6 naval or military officers, for trial and punishment of all outrages and misdemeanors, which if committed in this realm would, according to its laws be treason or misprision thereof, felony, or misdemeanor: and such court shall try all offenders by calling them before it, and causing the charge against them, being in writing, and exhibited to the court by the judge-advocate, to be read over; and by examining all witnesses on oath, to be administered by the court, as well for as against the offender; and afterwards adjudging the guilt or innocence of the accused by a majority of their number, and (in capital offences) by pronouncing judgment of death, or of such corporal not extending to capital punishment, as they think fit; and in minor offences, by pronouncing judgment of corporal punishment, not extending to life or limb, as to the court shall seem meet, 27 G. 3. c. 2. s. 1.

5. The provisions of 55 G. 3. c. 18. s. 2. for the above purposes in Norfolk Island are the same as in last pl., except that the judge-advocate of Norfolk Island and 4 naval or military officers are sufficient to form such court in the latter place, 55 G. 3. c. 18. s. 2.

6. The provost marshal or other officer appointed by the governor or lieutenant-governor, [or person for the time being administering the government in Norfolk Island] shall execute the judgment of the court according to the warrant under hand and seal of such governor, &c.; and no convict shall be executed for a capital offence, unless 5 persons present in the court for 4 persons in that of Norfolk Island, 55 G. 3. c. 18. s. 3.] concur in adjudging him guilty, until the proceedings are transmitted to and approved by H. M., 27 G. 3. c. 2. s. 2., 55 G. 3. c. 18. s. 3.

7. The above courts shall be courts of record, with all the powers incident thereto, by the laws of Eng., 27 G. 3. c. 2. s. 3., 25 G. 3. c. 18. s. 4.

8. FOR MORE EASY RECOVERY OF DEBTS IN H. M.'s COLONY OF New South Wales, 54 G. 3. c. 15.

9. In any suit or action, to be brought in any court of law or equity within that colony or its dependencies, for or relating to any debt or account, wherein any person residing in G. B. is a party, the plaintiff or defendant, and any witness to be examined in such circuits, &c., may verify any matter by affidavit or affidavits in writing upon oath (or affirmation in case of a quaker) made before any mayor or other chief magistrate of any city, borough, or town corporate in G. B., where or near to which the deponent shall reside, and certified and transmitted under the common seal of such city, &c., or the seal of office of such mayor or other chief magistrate, which oath or affirmation every such mayor, &c. may administer; and every affidavit or affirmation so made, certified and transmitted, shall in all such actions or suits be allowed to be of the same force as if the deponents had appeared, and sworn or affirmed the matters therein contained videlicet in open court, or on a commission issued for the examination of witnesses, or of any party in any such action or suit, provided the addition of the deponent and the particular place of his abode be stated in such affidavit or affirmation, id. s. 1.

10. In all suits now depending or hereafter to be brought in any court of law or equity, by or on behalf of H. M. in the said colony or its dependencies, for or relating to any debt or account, H. M., his heirs and successors, may prove his and their debts and accounts, and examine his witnesses, as a subject may do by this act, id. s. 2.

11. If any person making such affidavit or affirmation on oath, or solemn affirmation as above, shall be guilty of falsely swearing or affirming any thing therein, which, if sworn on an examination in the usual form, would amount to wilful and corrupt perjury, he shall incur the penalties by the laws of this realm provided against persons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury, id. s. 3.

12. The houses, lands, and other hereditaments and real estates situate within New South Wales or its dependencies, and belonging to any person indebted, shall be liable to and chargeable with all just debts, duties, and demands, owing by him to H. M. or any of his subjects, and shall be assets for the satisfaction thereof as real estates are to the law of Eng., liable to satisfaction of debts due by bond or other specialty, and shall be subject to the like remedies, proceedings, and process in the courts of law or equity in that colony or its dependencies, for securing, extending, selling, or disposing of any such houses, &c. towards satisfaction of such debts: personal estates in such colony may be seized, &c. for the like satisfaction of debts, id. s. 4.

13. TO STAY PROCEEDINGS AGAINST ANY GOVERNOR or other persons concerned in imposing and levying duties in New South Wales: TO CONTINUE UNTIL 1st Jan. 1821. certain duties; and to empower such governor to levy a duty on spirits made in such colony, 59 G. 3. c. 114. [Con. until 1st Jan. 1822., 1 G. 4 c. 62., semb. Exp.]

14. Till 1st Jan. [1821, semb. altered as above to] 1822, no action, information, or proceeding soever, shall be prosecuted against any governor of New South Wales or other persons, for advising or executing any order to levy any rate or duty in such colony, previous to the passing of this act; and if any action, &c. is brought, the same may be stayed on applying to the court or a judge in vacation, until 1st Jan. [1821, semb. now] 1822, 59 G. 3. c. 114. s. 1.

15. Until 1st Jan. [1821, semb. see above, pl. 13.] 1822, such governor may collect such duty as was imposed before this act but no other; but nothing herein contained shall prevent him from discontinuing the same, id. s. 2.

16. The governor or person administering the government of New South Wales, may order and direct the levy of a duty on spirits made within the colony, although no such duty has been here before imposed, provided the amount thereof shall in no case exceed the amount of that paid on importation of spirits into such colony; and such persons may regulate the collection of the same in such manner as if such duty on spirits made within the colony had been imposed, collected, and lensed, previous to the passing of this act, id. s. 3.

NEWSPAPERS.

1. FOR PREVENTING THE MISCHIEFS ARISING FROM the printing and publishing newspapers, and papers of the like nature, by persons not known; and for regulating the printing and publication of such papers in other respects, 58 G. 3. c. 78. [See further as to newspapers, STAMPS, (Newspaper).]

2. No person shall print or publish, or cause to be printed, &c. any newspaper or other paper containing public news or intelligence, or serving the purpose of a newspaper, until an affidavit or affirmation is made, and being signed as hereinafter mentioned, is delivered to the commissioners of stamps at their head office, or to some of their officers in towns; and at the offices by them appointed, (but which shall not be on stamped paper) containing the matters hereinafter specified, id. s. 1.

3. Such affidavit or affirmation shall specify the real names, additions, descriptions, and places of abode of all persons who are, or who are intended to be printers and publishers of the newspaper or other paper mentioned therein, and of all the proprietors of the same, if their number, exclusive of the printer and publisher, does not exceed 2, and if it does, then of 2 of such proprietors, exclusive of the printer and publisher, and also the proportional shares of such proprietors in the property of the newspaper or other paper, and the true description of the house where such paper is to be printed, and also the title of such paper, id. s. 2.

4. In every case where the number of such proprietors, exclusive of the printer and publisher, does not exceed 2, the names of 2 (the amount of each of whose particular shares in such newspaper or other paper shall not be less than the proportional share of any other proprietors, exclusive of the printer and publisher) shall be specified in such affidavit or affirmation, id. s. 3.

5. An affidavit, or affirmation of the like import shall be made, signed and given, as often as any of the printers, publishers, or proprietors named in such affidavits, &c. shall be changed, or shall change their residences or printing-house or office, or the title of their paper, and as often as the commissioners of stamps shall think proper to require the same to be made, signed and sworn, and affirmed, and shall give notice thereof by leaving such notice at the place mentioned in the affidavit, &c. last delivered, as the place at which the newspaper to which such notice relates is printed, id. s. 4.

6. Every such affidavit, &c. shall be in writing, and signed by the person making the same, and shall be taken by one of such commissioners or by one officer specially appointed by them to receive such affidavits, &c. and such commissioners and officers may take such affidavits on the oath of the person making the same, and such affirmations in the case of quakers, id. s. 5.

7. When the persons concerned as printers and publishers of any newspapers, &c. together with such number of proprietors as are required to be named in such affidavits or affirmations, shall not altogether exceed 4 persons, such affidavit, &c. shall be sworn or affirmed, and signed by all such persons who are adult; and when they exceed 4, by 4 of them, who are adult, if so many, and if not, by so many as are adult; but the same shall contain the real names, descriptions, and places of abode of all the persons who are or are intended to be the printers and publishers, and of so many of the proprietors of such newspaper, &c. as is hereinbefore required; and the persons so signing and swearing to the truth of such affidavit, &c. in the last-mentioned case, shall give notice within 7 days after such affidavit, &c. shall be so delivered, to each of the persons not signing and swearing, or affirming such affidavit, &c. but named therein, that he is so named; and in case of neglect to give such notice they shall each forfeit 50*l.*, 58 G.3. c.78. s.6.

8. Every person who shall knowingly and wilfully print or publish, or cause to be printed, &c., or shall knowingly, either as proprietor or otherwise, vend or deliver out newspapers, &c., such affidavit or affirmation as aforesaid not having been duly signed, sworn, or affirmed, and delivered as often as hereby required, or any other thing required by this act to be done, not having been done, shall forfeit for each such act done 100*l.*, id. s.7.

9. Every person making such affidavit, &c. who shall knowingly and wilfully insert therein the names, additions, or residences of any person as proprietor, printer, or publisher of any newspaper, &c. to which such affidavit, &c. relates, who is not a proprietor, &c. thereof, or who shall knowingly or wilfully omit to mention therein the names, additions, and residences of any of the proprietors, &c. thereof, contrary to this act, or shall knowingly and wilfully, in any other respect, set forth in such affidavit, &c. any thing by this act required to be set forth, otherwise than according to the truth, or shall omit to set forth according to the truth any thing hereby required, such person so offending shall be liable to the penalties inflicted on persons guilty of corrupt perjury, id. s.8.

10. All such affidavits, &c. shall be filed by the commissioners of stamps, and the same, or copies thereof certified to be true as herein-after mentioned, shall in all proceedings, civil and criminal, touching any newspaper or other such paper mentioned in such affidavits, &c. or any publication or thing contained therein, be received as conclusive evidence of the truth of all matters therein set forth, as are hereby required to be therein set forth, against every person who signed, swore, or affirmed such affidavits, &c., and against all persons who have not signed, &c. the same, but who are mentioned therein as proprietors, printers, or publishers of such newspaper, &c., unless the contrary is proved; provided that if any person against whom such affidavit, &c. or copy thereof is offered in evidence, shall prove that he hath signed, &c. and delivered to such commissioners, or such officer as in s.5., previous to the day of the date of the publication of the newspaper, &c. to which such proceedings, civil or criminal, shall relate, an affidavit or affirmation that he has ceased to be the printer, proprietor, or publisher of such newspaper, &c., such person shall not be deemed, by reason of any former affidavit or affirmation so delivered, to have been the printer, &c. of such paper, after the day in which such last-mentioned affidavit or affirmation was delivered to such commissioners or their officer, id. s.9.

11. In one part of every newspaper, &c. there shall be printed the name, addition, and residence of the printer and publisher of the same, and a true description of the place where printed; and in case any person shall knowingly and wilfully print, or cause to be printed or published, any such newspaper, &c. not containing such particulars, such person shall forfeit 100*l.*; and proof made as herein mentioned, in any proceeding to recover the same, that the party proceeded against is a printer or publisher of a newspaper, &c. so printed or published, shall be deemed proof that such party is a person wilfully, &c. printing or publishing, or causing the same to be printed, &c. unless he can satisfactorily prove the contrary, id. s.10.

12. It shall not be necessary after such affidavit, &c. or a certified copy thereof has been produced in evidence against the persons who signed and made the same, or are therein named, according to this act, and after a newspaper, &c. shall be produced in evidence, entitled in the same manner as the newspaper mentioned in such affidavit, or copy, and wherein the name of the printer and publisher, and the place of printing, shall be the same as the name of the printer, &c. mentioned in such affidavit, &c. for the plaintiff, informant, or prosecutor, or person seeking to recover any of the penalties hereby inflicted, to prove that the newspaper, &c. to which such trial relates was purchased at any house, shop, or office belonging to the defendant or his servant, or where he prints or publishes such paper, or where the same is usually sold, id. s.11.

13. Service at the house, or place mentioned in such affidavit or affirmation as the house where such newspaper, &c. to which any proceedings, civil or criminal, shall relate, is printed or published, or intended so to be, of any legal notice, summons, subpoena, rule, order, or process, of what nature soever, or to enforce any appearance in proceeding, civil or criminal, against any printer, publisher, or proprietor of any such newspaper, &c. shall be deemed good service against all persons named in such affidavit, &c. as the proprietors, printers, or publishers of the newspaper, &c. mentioned in such affidavit, provided that every person who shall have signed, sworn, or affirmed, and delivered to such commissioners, or such officer as in s.5., previous to the day of the date of the publication of the newspaper, &c. to which such proceedings relate, an affidavit or affirmation that he has ceased to be printer, publisher, or proprietor thereof, and shall prove the same, shall not be deemed, by reason of such former affidavit, &c. to have been the printer, &c. of such paper after the day on which such last-mentioned affidavit, &c. was delivered into the stamp office, id. s.12.

14. The commissioners or officers by whom such affidavit or affirmation shall be kept, shall, when required, deliver a copy, certified according to this act, of such affidavit or affirmation to any person applying for the same, on payment of 1*s.*, in order that the same may be produced in any civil or criminal proceedings, 58 G.3. c.78. s.13.

15. A copy of any such affidavit or affirmation, certified to be a true one, under the hand of one of the commissioners or officers in whose possession the same is, shall, on proof made that such certificates have been signed by the hand-writing of the person making the same, and whom it shall not be necessary to prove to be a commissioner or officer, be received in evidence as good proof of such affidavit or affirmation, and that the same was duly sworn or affirmed, and of the contents thereof; and that the affirmations or affidavits of which they purport to be copies have been sworn or affirmed according to this act, and shall have the same effect for the purposes of evidence as if the originals had been produced and proved to have been duly so certified, sworn, and affirmed by the person appearing by such copy to have sworn, &c. the same, id. s.14.

16. Every person, not being such commissioner or officer, who shall give any such certificate, or presume to certify any matter by this act directed or entrusted to be certified by such commissioners and officers, shall forfeit 100*l.*, id. s.15.

17. Every person who shall knowingly and wilfully falsely certify under his hand that any such affidavit or affirmation as hereby required was duly signed and sworn or affirmed before him, the same not having been so signed, &c. or that any copy of any affidavit or affirmation is a true copy of the affidavit, &c. of which the same are certified to be copies, or who shall knowingly, &c. falsely certify or express in any certificate that the affidavit or affirmation of which any copy is certified to be true, was duly sworn or affirmed before the person so certifying, by the parties whose names appear subscribed to the same, as the names of the parties swearing and signing or affirming the same, shall forfeit 100*l.*, id. s.16.

18. The printer or publisher of every newspaper, &c. shall on each day of publishing the same, or within 6 days after, deliver to the commissioners of stamps, at their head office, or to some person appointed by them to receive the same, one of the papers so published, signed by the printer or publisher, in his hand-writing, with his name and place of abode, and the same shall be kept by such commissioners or officer; and such printer or publisher shall receive from such commissioners, once in 6 days, the ordinary price of the newspapers, &c. so delivered; and in case of neglect herein he shall forfeit 100*l.*; and every person who shall apply to such commissioners or officers, in order that such newspaper, &c. so signed may be produced in evidence, in any proceedings civil or criminal, such commissioners or officer shall, at any time within 2 years from the publication thereof, at the expence of the applicant, either cause the same to be produced in court, at the time when required, or shall deliver the same to the party applying for it, taking security, at his expence, for returning the same; and if the same cannot (by reason that it has been previously required by another party to be produced in any court, or hath been previously delivered to any other person for a like purpose) be produced at the time required, it shall be produced as soon after as possible, id. s.17.

19. Every person who shall knowingly or wilfully print or publish, or cause to be printed any newspaper, &c., the same not being duly stamped shall forfeit, besides all other penalties, 20*l.* for each such unstamped newspaper; and proof made as in s.9. pl. 10. in any proceeding to recover the same, that the party proceeded against is the printer or publisher of such unstamped newspaper, shall be deemed proof that such party is a person wilfully, &c. printing and publishing, or causing the same to be printed, &c. contrary to this act, unless he prove the contrary thereof, id. s.18.

20. Every person who shall knowingly and wilfully receive or keep in custody any newspaper, &c. not duly stamped, shall forfeit 20*l.* for each such unstamped newspaper he shall so have in custody, id. s.19.

21. Every person who shall knowingly or wilfully, directly or indirectly send or carry, or endeavour to send or carry, or cause to be sent, &c., or do any act towards sending, &c., or with intent to send or carry out of G. B. any unstamped newspaper shall forfeit 100*l.*, id. s.20.

22. Every person during the present war who shall send any newspaper out of G. B. into any country not in amity with H. M. shall forfeit 500*l.*, besides being liable to all the other penalties by law inflicted on such persons, id. s.21; and all justices may summon and examine such offenders as in s.21. described, id. s.21, 22. [both Exr.]

23. In case any proprietor of any newspaper shall be resident out of G. B., his name and place of abode shall be specified in such affidavit or affirmation in s.1. pl. 2. required, id. s.23.

24. Every person who shall print or publish in any newspaper, &c. printed or published in Eng., any matter having a tendency to excite hatred and contempt of H. M., and the constitution and government of these kingdoms, as having been previously printed and published in some foreign paper or print which hath not been so previously printed,

8. Every dissenter who scruples the taking any oath, shall make and subscribe the aforsaid declaration [viz. that in 30 C. 2. St. 2. s. 2. PARLIAMENT, pl. 67., but see note to pl. 2. this title.] and also the following declaration of fidelity:

'I, A. B. do sincerely promise and solemnly declare before God and the world that I will be true and faithful to King —; and I do solemnly profess and declare that I do from my heart abhor, detest, and renounce, as impious and heretical, that damnable doctrine and position, "That princes excommunicated or deprived by the pope, or any authority of the see of Rome, may be deposed or murdered by their subjects, or any other whatsoever;" and I do declare that no foreign prince, person, prelate, state, or potentate, hath or ought to have any power, jurisdiction, superiority, pre-eminence, or authority, ecclesiastical or spiritual, within this realm.' [Altered as to quakers, 8 G. 1. c. 6. s. 1. QUAKERS, pl. 7.] and shall subscribe a profession of their Christian belief in these words:

'I, A. B. profess faith in God the Father, and in Jesus Christ his Eternal Son, the true God, and in the Holy Spirit, one God blessed for evermore; and do acknowledge the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be given by divine inspiration.'

which declarations and subscription shall be made and recorded at the general quarter sessions for the county, city, or place where such person then resides; and every such person so making and subscribing the said two [but see note to pl. 2.] declarations and profession when required, shall be exempted from the penalties of all the statutes recited in s. 2. pl. 2., and made against popish recusants or protestant nonconformists, and of 5 El. c. 1. PAPIST, pl. 2. &c., for not taking the oath therein required, and also from the penalties of 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 1. [now R.E.P. 52 G. 3. c. 155. s. 1.] and enjoy all the other benefits enjoyed by dissenters under this act, 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 18. s. 13.

9. FOR FURTHER RELIEF OF PROTESTANT DISSENTING MINISTERS and schoolmasters, 19 G. 3. c. 44. PUBLIC clause, s. 4. [EXT. to Tre. 57 G. 3. c. 70.]

10. "Reciting 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 18. s. 8. (pl. 7.) and also reciting that many dissenting ministers scruple to declare their approbation of, and to subscribe the articles not there excepted, i. e. the whole 'residue of the 39 articles,' it is ENACTED, that every person dissenting from the church of Eng. in holy orders, or pretended holy orders, or pretending to holy orders, being a preacher or teacher of any congregation of dissenting protestants, who if he scruple to declare his approbation of the 39 articles, and subscribe the same according to 13 El. c. 12. [as required by 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 18. s. 8.], shall take the oaths and make and subscribe the declaration against popery [in 30 C. 2. St. 2. s. 32. (PARLIAMENT, pl. 67.); but see note to pl. 2.] required by 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 18. s. 13. last pl., and shall also make and subscribe this declaration; viz.

'I, A. B. do solemnly declare in the presence of Almighty God that I am a Christian, and a protestant, and as such, that I believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament, as commonly received among protestant churches, do contain the revealed will of God, and that I do receive the same as the rule of my doctrine and practice.'

shall be entitled to all the exemptions and privileges granted to protestant dissenting ministers by 1 W. & M. c. 18. and 10 A. c. 2. s. 8. 9. (pl. 14. and 20.); and the justices of peace at their general session for the county or place where such dissenting minister resides, shall tender and administer the last-mentioned declaration to such minister on his offering himself to make and subscribe the same, and thereof shall keep a register; and no such minister shall give or pay as a fee to any officer of the said court above 6d. for the entry of his having taken the said oaths, and making and subscribing the said declaration against popery; nor above 6d. for any certificate thereof to be made out and signed by such officer; and every such person so qualifying himself, shall be exempted from serving in the militia, and from any imprisonment or other punishment by the act of uniformity, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. and by 15 C. 2. c. 6. (SERVICE AND SACRAMENTS) for preaching or officiating in any congregation of protestant dissenters for the exercise of religion permitted by law, 19 G. 3. c. 44. s. 1.

11. Provided the making and subscribing the said declaration against popery [but see note to pl. 2.] and the taking of the oaths as in s. 2. pl. 2., and making [the declaration of approbation, and subscription to the said articles R.E.P., see pl. 7. and 10., and scmb. now] the declaration in last pl. shall be entered of record at the general or quarter sessions of the peace, as in s. 2. pl. 2., paying 6d. only to the clerk of the peace: provided that such person shall not at any time preach in any place but with the doors not locked, &c. as in s. 5. pl. 4., (and see pl. 37.) 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 18. s. 9.

12. "Whereas some dissenting protestants scruple to baptize infants," every person in pretended holy orders, or preacher, that shall [subscribe the 39 articles, except as before excepted, scmb. now unnecessary, 19 G. 3. c. 44. s. 1. pl. 10., and also except part of the 27th article in 13 El. c. 12. touching infant baptism; scmb. this is also unnecessary since 19 G. 3. c. 44. s. 1., see that s. and the recital, pl. 10., and shall] take the oaths and make and subscribe the declaration aforsaid [viz. in pl. 2., observing the note there; and scmb. another declaration must now be made by those dissenting ministers who will not subscribe to any of the 39 articles not above excepted, 19 G. 3. c. 44. s. 1. pl. 10.] shall enjoy all the privileges enjoyed by any other dissenting minister under this act, 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 18. s. 10.

13. Every teacher or preacher in holy or pretended holy orders, that is a minister, preacher, &c. of a congregation, who shall take the oaths herein required, and make and subscribe the declaration, (but see pl. 2.) [and subscribe such of the 39 articles as are hereby required, scmb. R.E.P. 19 G. 3. c. 44. s. 1. pl. 10.] shall be from thenceforth exempted from serving on any jury, or from being appointed to bear the office of churchwarden, overseer of the poor, or other parochial or ward or other office in any hundred of any shire, city, town, &c., id. s. 11.

14. Any preacher qualified according to 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 18. may officiate in any congregation duly registered as in pl. 2. though it be not in the county wherein he was qualified, and shall, if required, produce a certificate of his having so qualified himself, under the hand of the clerk of the peace, and shall also, before any justice of peace of the county where he shall so officiate, make and subscribe such declaration [see pl. 2. and note there], and take such oaths [see pl. 2.] as in that act required, 10 A. c. 2. s. 9.

15. Every justice of peace may require any person that goes to any meeting for exercise of religion, to make and subscribe the declaration aforsaid [scmb. against popery, in pl. 2.] and to take the said oaths; [but see pl. 2. and note there] or [if scrupling to take any oaths] the declaration of fidelity in s. 13. pl. 8., and, on refusal thereof, shall commit such person to prison, and shall certify his name to the next general or quarter sessions; and if such person shall, on a second tender at such sessions, refuse to make and subscribe the declaration aforsaid [Qu. which? scmb. that against popery.] he shall be recorded and taken to be a popish recusant convict, and incur all the penalties of the laws in pl. 2. recited, 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 18. s. 13.

16. In case any person shall refuse to take the said oaths when tendered [but see as to that of supremacy, 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 18. note to pl. 2.] (which every justice of peace may do) he shall not be admitted to take and subscribe the 2 declarations aforsaid [viz. in s. 13. pl. 8.] (though required thereto by any justice, or at the general or quarter sessions before or after any conviction of popish recusancy) unless he can, within 31 days after tender to him of such declarations, produce 2 protestant witnesses to testify, on oath, that they believe him to be a protestant dissenter, or a certificate under the hands of 4 protestants conforming to the church of Eng., or having taken the oaths and subscribed the declaration above mentioned [see pl. 2.]: and shall also produce a certificate under the hands and seals of 6 or more sufficient men of the congregation to which he belongs, owning him for one of them, id. s. 14.

17. Until some such proof as in s. 14. is produced, the justice shall take a recognizance, with 2 sureties in the penal sum of 50*l.*, to be levied of his goods and lands to the use of H. M., for producing the same, in default of which he shall be committed to prison till he has produced it, id. s. 15.

18. All the laws for frequenting divine service on Sundays shall remain in force, and be executed against all offenders except those who come to some congregation of religious worship allowed by this act, id. s. 16.

19. This act shall give no advantage to any papist or popish recusant [or person who shall deny, in preaching or writing, the doctrine of the Trinity declared in the 39 articles, R.E.P. by 53 G. 3. c. 160. s. 1. pl. 45.] id. s. 17.

20. Any person dissenting from the church, &c. (not pretending to holy orders, nor preacher of any congregation), but entitled to the benefit of 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 18. if he had duly qualified himself, who shall, during any prosecution on any of the penal statutes in pl. 2. recited, take, make, and subscribe the oaths and declarations, or if a quaker, shall make and subscribe the declarations, and subscribe the profession, &c. as in that act, or before any two justices (who shall take and return the same to the next quarter sessions to be recorded), he shall be entitled to the benefit of that act, and shall be discharged from the penalties, 10 A. c. 2. s. 8.

21. If any person or persons shall willingly and of purpose, maliciously and contemptuously come into any cathedral or parish church, chapel, or other congregation by this act permitted, and disquiet or disturb the same, or misuse any preacher, &c. then, on proof thereof by two witnesses, before any justice, he or they shall find two sureties in the sum of 50*l.*, and in default thereof, shall be committed to prison till the next general or quarter sessions, and on conviction thereof, shall suffer the penalty of 20*l.* to the use of H. M., 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 18. s. 19. [and see 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 5. s. 4. R107, pl. 22.]

22. Provided that no congregation for religious worship shall be hereby allowed, until the place of such meeting be certified to the bishop of the diocese, or archdeacon of the archdeaconry, or to the quarter sessions of the peace of the county, city, or place where such meeting is held, and recorded therein, or registered in the bishop's or archdeacon's court the register or clerk of the peace whereof, respectively shall register the same, and give certificate thereof, to such as shall demand it, for which no more than 6d. shall be taken, 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 18. s. 19.

23. No dissenting minister or other protestant dissenting from the church of Eng. who shall take the aforesaid oaths, and make and subscribe the declaration against popery, required by 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 18., [but see note to pl. 2.] shall be prosecuted for instructing youth as a tutor or schoolmaster, 19 G. 3. c. 44. s. 2.

24. Nothing herein shall enable any dissenter to hold the mastership of any college or school of royal foundation, or of any other endowed college or school for the education of youth, unless founded since 1 W. & M. (A. D. 1688,) for the immediate use and benefit of protestant dissenters, id. s. 3.

25. FOR STRENGTHENING THE PROTESTANT interest in these kingdoms, 5 G. 1. c. 4.

26. If any mayor, bailiff, or other magistrate in Eng., Wa., Ber., Jersey, or Guernsey, shall knowingly resort to, or be present at any public meeting for religious worship, other than of the church of Eng. by law established, in the gown or with the ensigns of his office; every such mayor, &c. being thereof duly convicted, shall be disabled to hold such office, or any public office soever, in the above limits, id. s. 2.

27. TO REPEAL CERTAIN ACTS, AND AMEND OTHER acts relating to religious worship and assemblies, and persons teaching or preaching therein, 52 G. 3. c. 155. PUBLIC clause, s. 19. [for the repeals in s. 1., see supra, pl. 1—3.]

28. No congregation or assembly for religious worship, of protestants (at which there shall be present more than 20 persons, besides the immediate family and servants of the person in whose house, or upon whose premises such meeting, congregation, or assembly shall be had), shall be permitted, unless and until the place of such meeting (if it has not been duly certified and registered under any former act relating to registering places of religious worship) has been duly certified to the bishop of the diocese, or to the archdeacon of the archdeaconry, or to the justices at general or quarter sessions for the county, riding, division, city, town, or place, in which such meeting shall be held; and all places of meetings so certified to the bishop's or archdeacon's court, shall be returned by such court, once a year to the quarter sessions of the county, &c. and all places of meeting certified to such sessions, shall be returned once a year to the bishop's or archdeacon's court, and the converse; and all such places shall be registered in such bishop's or archdeacon's court respectively, and recorded at such sessions, the registrar or clerk of the peace whereof respectively shall register and record the same; and the bishop or registrar, or clerk of the peace to whom any such place of meeting is certified under this act, shall give a certificate thereof to such persons as request it, for which only 2s. 6d. shall be paid; and every person who shall knowingly permit any such congregation or assembly to meet in any place occupied by him, until it has been so certified, shall, for each time such congregation, &c. shall meet, forfeit not exceeding 20*l.*, nor less than 20*s.*, at discretion of the justices convicting for such offence, id. s. 2.

29. Every person who shall teach or preach in any such congregation or assembly, in any place without the consent of the occupier thereof, shall forfeit, not exceeding 30*l.*, nor less than 40*s.*, as in s. 2., id. s. 3.

30. Every person who shall teach or preach at, or officiate in, or resort to any congregation or assembly for religious worship of protestants, whose place of meeting is duly certified under this or any other act or acts relating to the certifying and registering of such places, shall be exempt from all such penalties, under any act relating to religious worship, as any person who has taken the oaths and made the declaration prescribed by 1 W. & M., St. 1. c. 18. (see pl. 2.) or any act amending such act, is exempt, 52 G. 3. c. 155. s. 4.

31. Every person not having taken the oaths, and subscribed the declaration hereinafter specified, who shall preach or teach at any place of religious worship certified under this act, shall, when required by one justice by any writing under his hand or signed by him, take, make, and subscribe, in his presence, the oaths and declarations contained in the 19 G. 3. c. 44. s. 1. pl. 10., and in case, on being so required, he refuse so to do, he shall not be allowed to teach or preach in any such congregation or assembly for religious worship, until he has so taken and made the same, on pain to forfeit, for each time he shall so preach, a sum not exceeding 10*l.*, or less than 10*s.*, at discretion of the convicting justice, id. s. 5.

32. No person shall be required to go any greater distance than 5 miles from his home or place where he resides, at the time of such requisition for the purpose of taking such oaths, id. s. 6.

33. Any of H. M.'s protestant subjects may appear before a justice, and produce to him a copy of the said oaths and declaration, and require him to administer and tender the same to be made, taken, and subscribed, by such person; and such justice shall accordingly do so, and he shall take, &c. the same, in the presence of such justice, who shall attest the same, to be sworn before him, and shall transmit the same to the clerk of the peace for the county, &c. as in s. 2., for which he acts, before, or at the next general or quarter sessions, 52 G. 3. c. 155. s. 7.

34. Every justice before whom any person shall make, &c. such oaths and declaration, shall forthwith give him a certificate thereof under his hand, in this form:

'I, A. B., one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the county, [riding, division, city, or town, or place, as the case is] of — do hereby certify, that C. D., of — [describing the christian and surname and place of abode of the party], did this day appear before us, and did make and take, and subscribe the several oaths and declarations specified in an act made in the 52d year of the reign of K. G. 3., intitled [set forth title of this act.] Witness my hand, this — day of — 18—' for the making and signing of which certificate, where such oaths, &c. are taken on the requisition of the party, such justice shall be entitled to 2*s.* 6d. fee, and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the party therein named has taken and subscribed the oaths and declaration, as by this act required, id. s. 8.

35. Every person who shall teach or preach in any such congregation or assemblies, who shall employ himself solely in the duties of a teacher or preacher, and shall not follow any other occupation for his livelihood, except a schoolmaster, and who shall produce a certificate of his having taken and subscribed such oaths and declaration, shall be exempt from all civil services and offices specified in 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 18. s. 7. pl. 6., and from being balloted for, and from serving in the militia, or local militia of any county or place in the U. K., id. s. 9.

36. Every person who shall produce any false or untrue certificate or paper, as a true certificate of his having made, &c. the oaths and declaration by this act required for claiming exemption from such duties, as in s. 9., under this or any other statute, shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be recovered to the use of any person that will sue by action of debt or information in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, or the courts of great sessions in Wa., or of the counties palatine, as the case is, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 10.

37. No meeting, &c. of persons for religious worship shall be had in any place with the door fastened so as to prevent the entrance of persons during the time of such meeting; and the person teaching or preaching there, shall forfeit, for each time any such meeting is had with the door fastened, not less than 40*s.*, nor more than 20*l.*, at the discretion of the convicting justices, id. s. 11. [see pl. 4.]

38. If any person or persons shall wilfully and maliciously, or contemptuously disquiet or disturb any meeting, assembly, or congregation of persons assembled for religious worship, authorized by this or any other statute; or shall in any way disturb, molest, or misuse, any preacher, teacher, or person officiating at such meeting, &c., or any persons there assembled; such offenders, on proof thereof before any justice of peace by two witnesses, shall find two sureties, and be bound by recognizances, in the penal sum of 50*l.*, to answer for such offence, and in default thereof, shall be committed to prison till the next general or quarter sessions; and on conviction there of such offence, shall suffer the penalty of 40*l.*, id. s. 12.

39. Nothing herein shall affect the celebration of divine service, according to the rites of the church of Eng. and Ire., by ministers of such church, in any place hitherto used for that purpose, or licensed or consecrated by any person authorized so to do; nor shall affect the jurisdiction of the archbishops, bishops, or others exercising lawful authority in the church of U. K., over the said church, according to the rules and discipline of the same, and to the laws of the realm; but such jurisdiction shall remain as before this act passed, id. s. 13.

40. This act shall not extend to quakers, nor to any meetings or assemblies for religious worship convened by them, or in any manner to alter or affect any act, other than those of C. 2. R. & P. by s. 1. (pl. 1—3.) id. s. 14.

41. Every person guilty of any offence, for which a pecuniary penalty is hereby imposed, in respect whereof no special provision is made, may be convicted thereof, by information on oath of one witness, before 2 justices acting for the county, city, &c. where the offence was committed; all which penalties may be levied by distress, under the hands and seals of 2 justices for the county, city, &c. in which the offence was committed or done, or the penalty incurred, and when levied, shall be paid one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where the offence was committed; and in case of no sufficient distress whereon to levy the penalties, the convicting justices may commit the offender to prison for such time not exceeding 3 months, as they think fit, id. s. 15.

42. Persons convicted of any such offences, may appeal to the general or quarter sessions holden next after such conviction, giving the convicting justices notice in writing, within 8 days after such conviction, of their intention to appeal; and the sessions may hear and determine the appeal, and make such order, and award such costs therein, to be paid by either party, not exceeding 40*s.*, as they think fit, id. s. 16.

43. No penalty shall be recoverable under this act, unless sued for, or the offence for which it is imposed, prosecuted before the justices or quarter sessions, within 6 months after the offence committed, and no person who suffers any imprisonment for nonpayment of any penalty, shall thereafter be liable to payment thereof, 52 G.3. c.155. s.17.

44. Actions against any person for things done in pursuance hereof, shall be commenced within 3 months after the fact done, and shall be laid in the county where the cause of action accrued; defendant may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance thereof; and if so done, or if the action is brought after the time limited, or is laid in the wrong county, the jury shall find for defendant, and upon such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues, or has a verdict or judgment on demurrer against him, defendant shall recover treble costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, id. s.18.

45. To RELIEVE PERSONS WHO IMPOUN THE DOCTRINE of the holy Trinity from certain penalties, 53 G.3. c.160. PUBLIC clause, id. s.4. [Ext. to Ire., 57 G.3. c.70.] 1 W. & M. St.1. c.18. s.17. pl.19., as far as relates to denying the Trinity is REV., 53 G.3. c.160. s.1.: 9 & 10 W.3. c.32. is repealed as far as relates to the same subject, id. s.2.; acts of C.2. (Sc.) and 1 Parl. W.3. (Sc.) "against blasphemy" are repealed, id. s.3.

46. Stat. 6 G.1. (Ir.) "For exempting the protestant dissenters of Ire. from certain penalties to which they are now subject is repealed," as far as relates to any penalty or disqualification for denying the Trinity; and 19 G.5. c.44. and 53 G.3. c.160. are extended to Ire., 57 G.3. c.70.

NONSUIT.

1. IF A VERDICT PASS FOR PLAINTIFF IN ASSIZE OF novel disseisin mort d'ancestor, or other action soever, he shall not be nonsuited, 2 H.4. c.7. [see printed Rot. Parl. 2 H.4. nu.67.]

2. TO PREVENT INCONVENIENCES ARISING FROM DELAYS OF causes after issue joined, 14 G.2. c.17.

3. Where any issue is joined in any action at law in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, the court of great session for the principality of Wae., that for the county palatine of Chester, the court of C. P. for the county palatine of Lancaster, or that of pleas for the county palatine of Durham, and plaintiff neglects to bring such issue on to be tried according to the course and practice of those courts, the judge or judges thereof, at any time after such neglect, on motion in open court, (due notice thereof having been given) may give like judgment for defendant therein, as in cases of nonsuit, unless such judge, &c. shall, on just cause and reasonable terms, allow further time for trial of such issue; and on neglect by the plaintiff to try the same within the time so allowed, such judge, &c. shall proceed to give such judgment as above, id. s.1.

4. All judgments given by virtue of this act shall be of like and no other effect as judgments on nonsuit, id. s.2.

5. The defendant shall on such judgment be awarded his costs, in any action where he would upon nonsuit be entitled to the same, and in no other action soever, id. s.3.

6. No indictment, information, or cause soever shall be tried at nisi prius before any judge of assize or nisi prius, or at the London or Westminster sittings, where defendant resides above 40 miles from those cities respectively, unless notice of trial in writing has been given at least 10 days before such intended trial, id. s.4.

7. Every party who has given such notice of trial, and shall not afterwards duly countermand it in writing, at least 6 days before such intended trial, shall be obliged to pay to the party to whom such notice of trial has been so given the like costs, as if such notice of trial had not been countermanded, id. s.5.

NORTHERN BORDERS.

(STATUTES repealed.)

1. March law shall not be used out of the circuit of the counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, and Westmorland, and the town of Newcastle, 31 H.6. c.3. [REP. 4 J.1. c.1. s.4.]

2. FOR FORTIFYING THE BORDERS TOWARDS Scot., 23 El. c.4. [REP. by 4 J.1. c.1. s.8.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR REGULATING THE PROCESS AGAINST FELONS DWELLING within the franchises of Tyndal or Heshamshire in Northumberland, 2 H.5. St.1. c.5. [Ext. to like offenders in Rydesdale, 9 H.5. St.1. c.7.] [but see Tyndal disfranchised, and the king's writ allowed to run there, and annexed to the county of Northumberland, 11 H.7. c.9. pl.5., and the same as to Heshamshire, but the bailiff's rights saved, 14 El. c.13. pl.11.]

2. If any person of the franchises of Tyndal and Heshamshire shall commit any murders, treasons, manslaughters, or robberies, or consent to do the same out of such franchises, process shall be made against him by the common law till he were outlawed, and after such outlawry pronounced and returned, the justices before whom the same is returned shall make certificate thereof to the proper officer of such franchise, who shall take such felon; and his lands, tenements, goods, and chattels within such franchise shall be seized to the lord thereof as forfeit; and the other lands, &c. of such felon out of such franchise shall be to the king and the other lords having thereof franchises, as forfeit; saving always to the king the forfeitures of such murderers, &c. and other offenders, and of other things to him pertaining in right of his crown, 2 H.5. St.1. c.5.

3. Such process, certificate, and execution, as in 2 H.5. St.1. c.5. shall be made against such murderers, &c. resident within the franchise of Rydesdale, by reason of offences done out of such franchise, together with the like forfeitures as in such act aforesaid, 9 H.5. St.1. c.7.

4. THE GATHERING OF HEAD PENCE BY THE SHERIFF OF Northumberland shall cease for ever, on pain of 100*l.*, to be paid one half to the king, and the other to the party suing, 23 H.6. c.6.

5. TO MAKE THE LORDSHIP OF North and South Tyndal to be within the county of Northumberland, 11 H.7. c.9.

6. North and South Tyndal, and all lands within the same, shall be gildable and parcel of the county of Northumberland, and no franchise shall be there, but all the king's writs shall run, and his officers be obeyed there; no man shall demise lands for years or for life, or at will there, unless the lessee find 2 sureties having 40*s.* freehold within such county of Northumberland, to be bound by recognizance in 20*l.* to the king, to answer, within 8 days' warning, to all murders, treasons, felonies, &c., and the lessor shall forfeit 40*s.* for every acre otherwise let, and the lease shall be void: justices of peace shall enquire of such recognizances forfeited, id. ibid.

7. FOR THE SHERIFF OF Northumberland TO BE ACCOUNTABLE for his office as other sheriffs are, 2 & 3 E.6. c.34. (and recital in s.1.)

8. Henceforth every sheriff of the county of Northumberland, before he receive his patent, or exercise his office, shall put in sureties by himself or deputy unto the king's exchequer, there to enter into recognizances in such sum and on such conditions as the lord-treasurer and barons of the exchequer think fit, in such form as all other sheriffs do, upon pain to forfeit to the king 100*l.*, to be levied on his goods and chattels wherever found; and such barons shall make the usual process for levying such sum, id. s.2.

9. Such sheriff so bounden shall not be accountable but for his own time, and the year of his sheriffwick only, neither shall he be charged in his account by any process with any arrears or duties due to H. M. by any of his predecessors, id. s.3.

10. FOR ANNEXING Hexham and Heshamshire TO THE COUNTY OF Northumberland, 14 El. c.13.

11. The franchise of Hexham and Heshamshire, with the liberties of the same, shall henceforth be taken to be parcel of the county of Northumberland. And as well pleas of the crown, as also all suits betwixt party and party, may proceed and have trial within such county, by and before the sheriff and coroners thereof, and also before the justices of peace of gaol delivery of assize, nisi prius, oyer and determiner, and other officers; and shall take effect as any of the like ought to do which happened in such county of Northumberland; and the sheriff, and other officers of such county shall execute his office, and all processes to him directed within Hexham and Heshamshire and the liberties thereof, as in the county of Northumberland, any grant, privilege, custom, &c. notwithstanding; saving to the bailiff of the liberties, or other officers of such town of Hexham and Heshamshire, or the liberties thereof, all liberties and privileges of executing process, return of writs, and otherwise, as they of right ought to have before this act, id. ibid.

12. FOR THE MORE PEACEABLE GOVERNMENT OF THE parts of Cumberland, Northumberland, Westmorland, and the bishopric of Durham, 43 El. c.13. [and recital in s.1.]

13. Whoever shall, without good authority, take any of H. M.'s subjects against their will, and carry them out of such counties, or detain them or imprison them against their will, to ransom them, or to spoil their persons or goods upon feud or otherwise; or whoever shall be privy or consenting thereto, or aiding therein, or procure the same to be done, or whoever shall take or carry to the use of himself or any other, any money, coin, cattle, or other consideration called blackmail, for the protecting of the land or goods from thefts, spoils, and robberies, or who now shall give away any such blackmail, or shall wilfully burn or cause to be burnt, or procure or consent to the burning of any barn, stack of corn or grain, within such counties or places, and shall be indicted and convicted of any such offences, or shall stand mute, or challenge peremptorily above 20, before the justices of assizes, gaol delivery, and oyer and determiner, or justices of peace within any of such counties at their general sessions, shall be adjudged a felon, and shall suffer death without clergy, and forfeit as in cases of felony, id. s.2.

14. Every clerk of the peace within such counties shall, within 2 months after any outlawry within such counties, deliver by writing under his hand, the names of all such as shall be outlawed to the sheriffs of such counties; who shall proclaim them outlawed in the county courts, and in Carlisle, Penrith, and Cockermouth, in the county of Cumberland, and in Appelby and Kendal in the county of Westmorland, and in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Morpeth, Alnwick, and Hexam, in the county of Northumberland, and in the city of Durham, Darlington, Bishop Auckland, and Barnard Castle, in the bishopric of Durham, and in the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed; and such sheriffs shall, once in a month, proclaim at their county courts such persons, till they yield themselves to prison; and the mayors and bailiffs of such places shall proclaim them at every fair kept, and once in 6 weeks at market, id. ss. 3, 4.

15. If any person inhabiting within such counties shall willingly have conference, or in any sort entertain or relieve any person so outlawed for any murders, robberies, burglaries, or other felonies, having knowledge of such outlawry, and shall not arrest the offender, he shall be imprisoned for 6 months, and bound with 2 sureties for his good behaviour for one year after, before he is enlarged, id. s. 5.

16. The justices of assize, within such counties, of gaol delivery, and of oyer and terminer, or the justices of peace at their general sessions, may hear and determine the offences and defaults of such sheriffs, mayors, clerks of the peace, &c., and proceed against them by information or indictment, and punish them by fine and imprisonment, id. s. 6.

17. This act shall not impeach the jurisdiction of the lords wardens of any of the marches of Eng. for and against Scot., id. s. 7.

18. FOR PREVENTING THEFT AND RAPINE UPON THE northern borders of Eng., 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 22. and recital in s. 1. [CON. and AMD. 18 C. 2. c. 3. s. 1., 29 & 30 C. 2. c. 2. s. 1., 1 J. 2. c. 16., 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 17., 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 6. s. 1., 12 A. c. 10., 10 G. 1. c. 17. s. 1., 6 G. 2. c. 37. s. 7., 17 G. 2. c. 40. s. 1., 24 G. 2. c. 57. s. 1. MADE PERP. 31 G. 2. c. 43. s. 1. The 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 22., 18 C. 2. c. 3., 29 & 30 C. 2. c. 2., shall be deemed PUBLIC acts, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 6. s. 2.]

19. The justices of peace of the counties of Northumberland and Cumberland, and the next adjacent parts of Scot., at any general sessions holden for such counties, may, as they see occasion, make an order in open court for charging, according to their proportions, all the inhabitants of such counties for the safeguard of such counties and inhabitants from all injury and rapine of the moss troopers, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 22. s. 2.

20. Provided that the county of Northumberland shall not be charged under this act above 500*l.* per ann., nor Cumberland above 200*l.* per ann., and for this purpose the justices of such counties may, at their quarter sessions, appoint any person to have the command of a certain number of men not exceeding 30 for Northumberland, and 12 for Cumberland, whereby such malefactors may be apprehended and brought to trial; and such justices, at any general sessions for such counties, may, under this act, issue their warrants under their hands for levying any sum so ordered to be paid for the safeguard of such counties, and may give power to the constables and other officers to levy and collect such money on all the inhabitants of such counties, according to their estates in lands or goods, by distress and sale of goods; and they may also examine any complaint against such constables and other officers and ministers of justice, or any other refractory person who shall fail in obedience to this act, or shall do any acts in disturbance thereof, and bind such persons over to the quarter sessions that they may be brought to justice, id. s. 3.

21. Such justices may, on behalf of such counties, appoint a treasurer to receive from such collectors such money, and pay the same according to their orders, made at a general session; and may also agree with such person yearly, as they think fit, to employ in such service, and take security for the due performance thereof, for the best safeguard of the people, id. s. 4.

22. In case any person under this act employed in the border service shall wilfully and corruptly, and for any sinister respect, forbear to discover or apprehend or bring to trial any moss trooper, and shall be convicted thereof, he shall be disabled to take on himself such employment, and be fined in the discretion of the justices at a general sessions, id. s. 5.

23. Such justices may, as they see occasion, lessen such charge, id. s. 6.

24. For the better suppression and banishment of such moss troopers flying out of Eng. into Scot., the 4 J. 1. c. 1. and 7 J. 1. c. 1. shall be duly executed, id. s. 8.

25. The benefit of clergy shall be taken away from notorious thieves and spoil takers in the counties of Northumberland and Cumberland who shall be convicted of theft done within such counties or otherwise, the justices of assize and commissioners of oyer and terminer or gaol delivery before whom such offenders shall be convicted within such counties, may transport such offenders to H. M.'s colonies in America, for life, 18 C. 2. c. 3. s. 2. [RSP. as to so much which takes away the benefit of clergy from such offenders, 1 G. 4. c. 116. s. 1.]

26. The justices of such counties shall, at their quarter sessions, take good security of the persons employed in such service, for the preservation of such counties from theft and rapine, to answer the damages sustained by any person by his neglect or default, and to pay and satisfy, within 4 months after proof made, by oath of one witness before such justices at quarter sessions, which oath such justices shall administer, so as the goods stolen be entered in one of the books kept for that purpose, within 48 hours after the same were stolen; and that the books shall be kept for that purpose in every market town within such counties, by some person appointed by such justices at their general sessions, 29 & 30 C. 2. c. 2. s. 2.

27. Such justices, at their quarter sessions, shall yearly, or every 2 years, in open court, make choice of such persons as they think fit to be employed in such service, id. s. 3.

28. Provided every person so employed, and the treasurer for such service, do receive the sacrament, according to the usage of the church of Eng., in some public church, on Sunday, within 3 months after he shall enter such employment, and deliver a certificate thereof to the next quarter sessions in the county where employed, and take the oaths of allegiance and supremacy, and subscribe the declaration against popery by 25 C. 2. c. 2. prescribed, id. s. 4.

NOTARIES PUBLIC.

1. FOR THE BETTER REGULATION OF PUBLIC NOTARIES IN Eng., 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 79. (PUBLIC clause, s. 18.) [AMD. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 48. s. 3.]

2. No person in Eng. shall be created to act as a public notary, or to use the office of a notary, or to do any notarial act, unless such person has been duly sworn, admitted, and inrolled, as herein directed, in the court wherein notaries have been accustomedly sworn, &c., 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 79. s. 1.

3. No person shall be sworn, admitted, and inrolled as a public notary, unless he has been bound by contract in writing, or indenture of apprenticeship, to serve as a clerk or apprentice for 7 years to a public notary, or person using the mystery of a money scrivener, (according to the privilege and custom of the city of London, such scrivener being also a notary public), duly sworn, admitted, and inrolled, and has continued in such service for 7 years; and every person so bound by contract or indenture shall, within 3 months after the date of such contract or indenture, cause an affidavit to be made and sworn by one of the subscribing witnesses, of the actual execution of such contract or indenture by such public notary or scrivener (being also a notary) and the person so bound; and in such affidavit shall be specified the names of such notary or scrivener (being a notary), and of every such person so bound, and their respective places of abode, together with the date of such contract or indenture; and such affidavit shall be sworn and filed within such time, in the court where such notary to whom such person is bound has been inrolled, with the proper officer or his deputy, who shall make and sign a memorandum of the filing of such affidavit, on the back or at the bottom of such contract or indenture, id. s. 2.

4. No person who shall become so bound shall be admitted and inrolled a public notary in the court of faculties for admitting and inrolling notaries public, before such affidavit has been produced and read in such court at the time of such person's admission and inrolment, id. s. 3.

5. The persons following shall be deemed to be the proper officer for taking and filing such affidavits viz., the master of the faculties, of the archbishop of Canterbury in London, his surrogate or commissioners, id. s. 4.

6. The officer filing such affidavits shall enter in a book the substance of such affidavit, specifying the names and places of abode of such notary, and clerk or person so bound, and of the person making such affidavit, with the date of the contract or indenture in such affidavit mentioned, and the days of swearing and filing it; and such officer shall, at the time of filing such affidavit take 5*s.* for his trouble; and such book may be searched by any person in office hours on payment of 1*s.*, id. s. 5.

7. No public notary or scrivener being also a notary, shall have any clerk or apprentice who shall become so bound, after such notary, &c. has discontinued or left off, or during the time he shall not actually practise the business of a public notary, id. s. 6.

8. Every person who shall become so bound as in s. 2., to serve any public notary, shall, during the time of service specified in the contract, or indenture, or for 7 years at least, (if bound for a longer space) continue and be actually employed by such notary or scrivener, being a notary public in the proper business or practice of a public notary, id. s. 7.

9. If any such notary or scrivener being a notary, with whom any person is so bound shall die before the expiration of such term or leave off his practice; or if such contract or indenture shall by mutual consent be cancelled; or in case such clerk or apprentice shall be legally discharged before the expiration of such term, and he shall in any of such cases be bound by another contract or indenture in writing to serve, and shall accordingly serve as before-mentioned, as a clerk or apprentice to a notary, or a scrivener being a notary, during the residue of such 7 years, then such service shall be deemed as available as if he had continued to serve as such clerk or apprentice for 7 years, the person to whom he was originally bound, so as an affidavit be duly made and filed of the execution of such second contract, in the time and manner in s. 2. pl. 3. directed, 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 79. s. 8.

10. Every person who shall become bound as such clerk or apprentice, shall before he is admitted and enrolled as public notary according to this act, make before and file with the proper officer before-mentioned for that purpose, or cause the notary to whom he is bound so to do, an affidavit that he hath actually and really served and been employed by such notary during the whole term of 7 years, according to the true intent, &c. of this act, id. s. 9.

11. If any notary shall act as such, or suffer his name to be used for the profit of another not entitled to act as a notary; and complaint is made in a summary way to the court of faculties wherein he was admitted and enrolled on oath, that such notary hath so offended, then every notary so offending shall be struck off the roll of faculties, and be for ever disabled from practising as a notary or doing any notarial act, save as to any allowance agreed to be paid to the widows and children of any deceased notaries, by any surviving partners of such deceased notaries, id. s. 10.

12. If any person shall in his own or that of another, make, do, exercise, or execute any act or thing, in anywise belonging to the office, function, and practice of a notary public with expectation of reward, without being so admitted and enrolled, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be sued for and recovered as herein mentioned, id. s. 11.

13. Proviso for persons bound on or before 1st Jan. 1801, for 7 years to any notary or scrivener, who have actually served 7 years, though not bound by contract, &c., id. s. 12. [EXP.]

14. All persons who may apply for a faculty to become a public notary, and practise within the city of London and the liberties thereof, or within the circuit of 3 miles thereof shall become members, and take the freedom of the company of scriveners in London, according to the rules of such company, on payment of the usual fees of admission; and previous to obtaining such faculty, be admitted to the freedom of such company, and obtain a certificate of such freedom, duly signed by the clerk of such company, to be produced to the master of such faculties, and filed in his office, prior to the issuing of any faculty to such person, to enable him to practise within the jurisdiction of such company, id. s. 13.

15. Nothing herein shall extend to any proctor in any ecclesiastical court in Eng., nor to any secretary to any bishop, merely practising as such secretary, or to any other person necessarily created a notary public, for the purpose of holding any office or appointment, or occasionally performing any public duty under government, and not as general practitioners; provided nothing herein shall exempt any proctor being also a notary public, from the pains, &c. by this act imposed, on any public notary, who shall suffer his name to be used for the profit of another not entitled to act as a public notary, 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 78. s. 14.

16. All persons admitted as notaries public before the passing of this act, may act as notaries public, notwithstanding this act, id. s. 15.

17. All pecuniary penalties imposed for offences against this act, shall be sued for and recovered in H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c., and only one imparlance allowed; and wherein the plaintiff, if he recovers, shall have full costs of suit, id. s. 16.

18. Limitation of actions against persons for matters done in pursuance of this act 3 months, general issue, treble costs, id. s. 17.

19. Nothing in 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 79. shall extend to the registrars or solicitors of the universities of Oxford and Cambridge, or to the steward or solicitors of any college or hall in either, or to the chapter clerk of any cathedral or collegiate church, acting only as such registrars, solicitors, stewards, or chapter clerks, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 48. s. 3. [See ss. 1, 2, 4. ATTORNEYS, &c., pl. 75—75.]

NUISANCE.

1. WRITS OF NUISANCES CALLED vicintills shall be made at election of the plaintiff, in the nature of old times used, or else in the nature of assizes, determinable before the justices of K. B. or C. P., or of assize, to be taken in the county of the place assigned, 6 R. 2. St. 1. c. 3.

2. FOR PUNISHING NUISANCES WHICH CAUSE corruption of the air near cities and great towns, 12 R. 2. c. 13.

3. Proclamation shall be made in London, and in other cities, boroughs, and towns where it is needful, as well within franchise as without, that none cast or throw from henceforth, any annoyance garbage, dung, entrails, or other ordure, into the ditches, rivers, waters, and other places, within, about, and nigh, unto cities, boroughs, or towns, and the suburbs of them; and if any do, he shall have a writ before the chancellor at his suit who will complain, and if fraudulently, he shall be punished in the discretion of the chancellor, id. ibid.

OATHS.

[NOTE. — The number of statutes concerning oaths to the government have rendered their consolidation under this title particularly perplexing, inasmuch as though most of the earlier are virtually expired, or altered by subsequent statutes, they yet remain unrepealed, and also because previously to 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. they were framed with little attention to those respectively preceding them, and still in force.]

1. FOR REQUIRING PERSONS TO TAKE THE OATH OF SUPREMACY on their admission into certain offices, 5 El. c. 1. ss. 5—7. [See the rest of this statute, PAPIST, pl. 2—10. See further 25 C. 2. c. 2., PAPIST, pl. 166. This title is framed from the following sections.]

2. As well all persons appointed by 1 El. c. 1. to take the oath expressed in the same, as all other persons which shall take ecclesiastical orders, or shall be promoted to any degree of learning in any university, and all schoolmasters and teachers of children, as also all persons that shall take any degree of learning in the common laws, as well utter barristers as benchers, readers, ancients in any house of court, and all principal treasurers, and such as be of the grand company in every inn of chancery, and all attorneys, prothonotaries, and philizers, and all sheriffs, escheators, and feodaries, and all other persons which shall take upon them any office in the common law or any other law; and all other officers of any court, shall take an oath, [viz. the oath of supremacy altered by 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 8. pl. 37., and see the form, pl. 46.] before they be admitted to take upon them any such office, degree, &c., and that in the open court whereunto they belong, [or before a single judge of K. B., see last pl. of this title,] and if they do not belong to any court, they shall take the oath before a convenient assembly, and before such persons as shall have authority to admit such persons to such office, &c. or else before such persons as by H. M., by commission under the great seal, shall be assigned according to the oath set forth in the act 1 El. c. 1. s. 19., 5 El. c. 1. s. 5.

3. Every archbishop and bishop shall have power to minister such oath to every ecclesiastical person in his proper diocese, as well in places exempt as elsewhere, id. s. 6.

4. The lord chancellor may direct commissions to any persons, giving them authority to minister such oath to such persons as by the commissions they shall be authorized to tender such oath unto, id. s. 7.

5. If any persons compellable by this act, or by 1 El. c. 1., to take such oath, or to whom the oath by any such commission as in pl. 4. is appointed to be tendered, shall at the time of such tender refuse to take such oath, the party so refusing, and being lawfully indicted or presented within one year after refusal, and convicted, shall suffer the penalties provided by the statute of provision and præmunire (16 R. 2. c. 5.), 5 El. c. 1. s. 8.

6. All persons having authority to tender such oath shall, within 40 days after such refusal, if the term be open, and if not, then at the first day of the full term next following such 40 days, make certificate under seal of the names, places, and degrees, of the persons refusing the same, before the K. B., upon pain to forfeit 100*l.* to H. M.; and the sheriff of the county where the K. B. is holden shall impanel a jury to inquire of such refusals, which jury may, upon every such certificate, and other evidence, proceed to indict the persons so offending, in such sort as the same jury may do of any offence against H. M.'s peace committed within such county, id. s. 9.

7. If any such offenders of the first part of this statute (s. 10.), and also if any persons appointed by this act to take the oath, do 3 months after the first tender thereof, the 2d time refuse to take the same, such offenders for the 2d offences shall suffer as in cases of high treason, id. ss. 10, 11.

8. Provided that this act, nor any attainder to be had by force of this act, shall not make any corruption of blood, disheriting of any heir, forfeiture of dower, nor prejudice of the right of any person, other than the right of the offenders during their natural lives, id. s. 12.

9. Every person to whom the right of any lands after the death of any such offender should have appertained, if no such attainder had been, may enter into the same without ouster le main, [taken away by 1 & 2 C. 2. c. 24. s. 4.] as they might have done if this act had never been, id. s. 13.

10. This act shall be read at every quarter sessions by the clerk of the peace, and at every lect, by the steward, and once every term in the hall of every house of court and chancery, by persons to be appointed by the lord chancellor, id. s. 15.

11. Every person who shall be elected a knight, citizen, or burgess, or baron of the 5 ports, for any parliament, shall, before he enter into the parliament house, or have any voice there, pronounce such oath before the lord steward or his deputy; and he who shall enter into the parliament house without taking the oath, shall be no knight, citizen, Burgess, nor baron for that parliament, but shall be held as if he had not been returned, and shall suffer such penalties as if he had presumed to sit without election, id. s. 16.; but this shall not extend to compel any temporal person of or above the degree of a baron [see pl. 59.] to take such oath, 5 Ed. c. 1. s. 16, 17.

12. No person shall be compelled by this act to take such oath, upon the 2d time of offering, except the same person be an ecclesiastical person that have cure or office in the church, or such person as shall have office in any ecclesiastical court, under any archbishop or bishop, or such person as shall wilfully refuse to observe the orders for divine service in the church of Eng., after he has been publicly by the ordinary admonished, or such as shall openly and advisedly deprave by words, writings, or other fact, any of the rites and ceremonies of such church, or that shall hear or say private mass, who shall take such oath on the 2d tender, under the penalties for not taking it at all, id. s. 20.

13. FOR ADMINISTERING THE OATH OF ALLEGIANCE, 7 J. 1. c. 6. s. 2—27. (and recital in s. 1.) [See rest of this title, and s. 28., PAPER, pl. 159.]

14. Every person of either sex above 18 years of age, being hereafter mentioned and intended herein, shall take the oath of allegiance [mentioned in 3 J. 1. c. 4., this form is now REP. 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 8. s. 2. pl. 38.; see the present forms, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13., and 6 G. 3. c. 53. s. 1. pl. 68.] thus, viz.: every archbishop and bishop before [but may now be taken before a single judge; see 1 G. 4. c. 55. s. 4., last pl. of this title] the lord chancellor, 7 J. 1. c. 6. s. 2.; every ecclesiastical judge or officer before the archbishop of the province, or bishop or other ordinary of the diocese wherein such judge, &c. ought to exercise his function, 7 J. 1. c. 6. s. 3.

15. Every person of or above the degree of a baron or baroness of Eng., and all of the privy council residing in London or Westminster, or within 30 miles thereof, before any 4 of the privy council, whereof the lords chancellor, treasurer, privy seal, or principal secretary to be one; and if such persons live in the country, above that distance from London, then before the bishops of the diocese or such other person as are authorized by the chancellor's dedimus potestatem, id. s. 4.

16. The sworn servants, ordinary and extraordinary, of the king, queen, or of the household of the prince, and of the rest of H. M.'s children, before the lord steward, lord chamberlain and vice chamberlain to H. M. and the queen, the treasurer and comptroller of H. M.'s household, the master of the horse, dean of the chapel, knight marshal, officers of the green cloth, or 3 of them, id. s. 5.

17. Every temporal judge, justice of peace, sheriff, escheator, feodary, and other officer of justice not mentioned, and every other person receiving fee of H. M., before the lord chancellor, treasurer, admiral, warden of the cinque ports, or one of them, or before one of the chief justices, or before justices of assize of the county where the parties reside, or persons authorized by the chancellor, as in s. 4. pl. 15., id. s. 6.

18. All mayors, bailiffs, or other chief officers of cities and towns corporate, before such persons as usually administer the oath to them at their entrance into office, id. s. 7.

19. The knights, citizens, burgesses, and barons of the cinque ports of the commons house of parliament, before they be permitted to enter into the house, before the lord steward or his deputy; and the master of the ordnance, lieutenant of the Tower of London, and mint-master there; the 4 principal officers of the navy under the lord admiral, before the lord chancellor and lord admiral, or any of them, id. s. 8.

20. The officers, servants, and others, within the Tower of London, before the lieutenant of the Tower, id. s. 9.

21. All vice-admirals, captains, masters, officers, ministers, and soldiers in H. M.'s ships, before the principal officers of the navy, or any 2 of them, id. s. 10.

22. All persons having charge of fortresses or garrisons, and all captains having charge of soldiers within this realm, before the justices of assize of the county, or before 2 justices of peace, id. s. 11.

23. All doctors, advocates, and proctors of the civil law, and their clerks, before the bishop of the diocese, id. s. 12.

24. All serjeants at law, servants to the judges, and all other in the serjeants' inns, before the chief justices and chief baron, or one of them, id. s. 14.

25. All subjects in the inns of court, and the principals and treasurers of every inn of chancery, before the readers and benchers of the several houses, or 4 of them, in their open halls, id. s. 15. [but see 1 G. 4. c. 55. s. 4., last pl. of this title.]

26. All other, as well ancients as other, not being principal or treasurer, that shall be admitted into any inn of chancery, before the principal or treasurer and ancients, or 4 of them, in their halls, id. s. 16.

27. All prothonotaries, philizers, officers, attorneys, and clerks, in any court of record before the judges of the courts, id. s. 17.

28. All clerks of the chancery, and their under-clerks, and all other officers of the chancery, and their clerks, before the master of the rolls, or before 2 masters of chancery, 7 J. 1. c. 6. s. 18.

29. All parsons and other persons ecclesiastical taking orders, and every schoolmaster and usher, before the bishop or other ordinary in court, id. s. 19.

30. The vice-chancellors of the universities, and heads of houses, proctors, and beadles, in the convocation before the senior masters, id. s. 20.

31. Every person promoted to any degree in school, before the vice-chancellor in the congregation-house, id. s. 21.

32. All fellows of houses, and scholars of halls or colleges, being under the degree of a baron, before the head of the house, and in the open hall, id. s. 22.

33. All doctors of physic, and all other who practise physic, that shall be admitted into the college of physicians in London, before the president of the college, id. s. 23.

34. All aldermen, sheriffs, or under officers, of the cities and towns corporate, and such as shall be made freemen of the city or town corporate, before the mayor, bailiffs, or other chief officer, in the open hall, id. s. 24. [but see 1 G. 4. c. 55. s. 4., last pl. of this title.]

35. Any of the privy council, and every bishop in his diocese, may require any baron or baroness, of the age of 18 years or above, to take the oath; and any 2 justices of peace (whereof one of the quorum) may require any person of the age of 18 years, under the degree of a baron or baroness, to take the oath: and if any person of or above the said age and degree shall be presented or convicted for not coming to church, or not receiving the communion, before the ordinary, or other, having lawful power to take such presentment, 3 of the privy council, whereof the lord chancellor, lord treasurer, lord privy seal, or principal secretary to be one, shall require such person to take the oath; and if any other person of the said age, and under the said degree, shall be presented or convicted for not coming to church, or receiving the sacrament, or if the minister, constable, and churchwardens, or any 2 of them, shall complain to any justice of peace near adjoining to the place where any person complained of shall dwell, and the said justice shall find cause of suspicion, any justice shall require such person to take the oath; and if any person of the age of 18 years shall refuse to take the oath duly tendered, the persons authorized may commit the offender to the common gaol, until the next assizes or quarter sessions, where the oath shall be again required; and if the person shall refuse to take the oath, he shall incur the penalty of præmunire, 16 R. 2. c. 5., except women covert, who shall be committed only to prison till they take the oath, id. s. 26. [Roman Catholics exempted from these penalties for not resorting to parish church, 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 3., PAPER, pl. 233.]

36. Every person refusing to take the oath as above, shall be disabled to execute any public place of judicature, or bear any other office (being no office of inheritance or ministerial function) within Eng., or to practise the law, or physic, or surgery, or the art of an apothecary, or any liberal science for gain, until he shall receive the oath, id. s. 27.

37. FOR ABROGATING THE (PRESENT) OATHS OF supremacy and allegiance, and appointing other oaths, 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 8., and recital in s. 1. [AMD. 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 25., 1 A. St. 1. c. 22. s. 5. Semble the oaths now required to be taken, are those prescribed by 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. and 6 G. 3. c. 53. pl. 68.]

38. No person shall be obliged to take the oaths of allegiance in 3 J. 1. c. 4. and 7 J. 1. c. 6., or of supremacy, in 1 Ed. c. 1., tit. KING, &c. pl. 14., or either of them, by virtue of those, or of any other statute, [viz. 7 J. 1. c. 6. s. 3. pl. 14.] and those oaths are repealed, 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 8. s. 2.

39. The oaths and declarations [see s. 9. pl. 41. sub. fin.] appointed by this act, [Qu. semble, this applies now to the oaths of allegiance prescribed by 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13., and 6 G. 3. c. 53. pl. 68., and see note at the end of the pl.] shall be taken and subscribed by such persons as were required by any statute soever to take the said abrogated oaths in chancery, K. B. [or in C. P. or exchequer, 1 A. St. 1. c. 22. s. 5.] or at the quarter sessions of the county or place where they reside, and the same shall be recorded in those courts, 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 8. s. 3., [But no person shall be summoned to take the oath in 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 8. s. 12. pl. 16. viz. the oath of supremacy, or the declaration against transubstantiation, in 25 C. 2. c. 2. PAPER, pl. 176., or be prosecuted for not obeying such summons, 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 18. PAPER, pl. 246.]

40. Every person neglecting to take the oaths hereby appointed, or either of them, shall incur the same penalties as by any statute was appointed for refusal or neglect to take both or either of the oaths hereby abrogated, 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 8. s. 5.

41. Every person refusing to take the said oaths, or either of them, [but Qu. as to the oath of supremacy in this act, see note to pl. 39., and see NONCONFORMIST, pl. 2.] when tendered to him by any person lawfully authorized to tender them, shall be committed by the latter for 3 months to the common gaol or house of correction, unless he pay down to the person tendering such sum, not exceeding 40s., as he requires him to pay, which money shall be paid to the churchwardens or overseers, for relief of the poor of the parish where such offender last inhabited; and if at the end of 3 months the person so refusing shall again refuse to take the oaths when lawfully tendered, he shall in like manner be committed for 6 months, unless he pay down to the person tendering such sum, not exceeding 10*l.* nor under 5*l.*, as they shall require for his second refusal, to be disposed of as above, and unless he becomes bound, with 2 sureties, with condition to be of good behaviour, and to appear at the next assizes or gaol delivery, at which the oath shall be again tendered by the justices of assizes, &c., and if the offender then refuses to take the oaths, he shall be incapable of any office civil or military, and shall be bound to good behaviour until he take the oaths, [QU. if in force as to the oaths since 1*G.* 1. St. 2. c. 13. ss. 10—11. pl. 75, 76., or are those provisions cumulative?] and in case he refuses also to make the declaration against popery, in 50*C.* 2. S. 2. s. 2. (PARLIAMENT, pl. 67.) he shall suffer all penalties as a popish recusant convict, 1*W.* & M. St. 1. c. 8. s. 9.

42. Every commissioned and non-commissioned, or warrant officer employed in H. M.'s sea or land service shall, before delivery of such commission or warrant, take the oaths, [viz. of allegiance and supremacy, but see note to pl. 59.] and make and subscribe the declaration, [viz. that against popery, see last pl.] before the commissioners of the admiralty, or their deputies, or the person issuing such commission or warrant, or the others authorized to administer the same, and every such officer refusing to take the said oaths, and make and subscribe the said declaration, shall be incapable of holding, &c. such office, id. s. 10.

43. If any commission for a military employment is granted to any person at a distance from London exceeding 20 miles, he may take the above oaths, [see as to that of supremacy, 31*G.* 3. c. 32. s. 18., PAPIST, pl. 246.] at the next muster, [6 months allowed, 9*G.* 2. c. 26. s. 4. pl. 89.] after receipt of the commission, before the commissary of the musters, or his deputy, who shall send up a certificate thereof to the person who issued such commission, 1*W.* & M. St. 1. c. 25. s. 2. and recital in s. 1.

44. If the person receiving the commission refuses to take the said oaths and subscribe the said declaration, his commission is void, id. s. 3. but nothing herein extends to the militia or trained bands of Eng. id. s. 4.

45. The oath prescribed by 15 & 14 C. 2. c. 3. s. 18., and so much of a declaration contained in 15 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. s. 5. as declares it unlawful, on any pretence, to take arms against H. M., and abhorrence of taking arms by his authority against his person, or those commissioned by him, shall no longer be required, 1*W.* & M. St. 1. c. 8. s. 11. [The forms of the oaths of allegiance, and of abjuration and supremacy (which are joined) provided by s. 12. seem virtually superseded by those provided, first by 1*G.* 1. St. 1. c. 13., and now by 6*G.* 3. c. 53. s. 1. See pl. 68.]

46. The oaths intended and required to be taken by this act, are the following; viz.

1. Of Allegiance, [see the present form, 1*G.* 2. St. 2. c. 13. s. 1. pl. 68.]

2. Of Supremacy.

'I A. B. do swear, that I do from my heart abhor, detest, and abjure as impious and heretical, that damnable doctrine and position, "That princes excommunicated or deprived by the pope, or any authority of the see of Rome, may be deposed or murdered by their subjects, or any other whatsoever." And I do declare that no foreign prince, person, prelate, or potentate hath or ought to have any jurisdiction, power, superiority, pre-eminence, or authority ecclesiastical or spiritual, within this realm; So help me God,' &c. 1*W.* & M. St. 1. c. 8. s. 12.

[but no person shall be summoned to take the above oath, or shall be prosecuted for not obeying such summons, 31*G.* 3. c. 32. s. 18. PAPIST, pl. 246.]

47. The names of all such persons and officers, who shall in the court of chancery, K. B., or quarter sessions, [or in C. P. or exchequer, 1*A.* St. 1. c. 22. s. 5.] take the said oaths of allegiance and supremacy, shall be there enrolled, with the day and time of taking the same, in particular rolls, which for chancery, shall be publicly hung in the petty bag office; for K. B., in the crown office; and for quarter sessions, in some public place, there to remain during the whole of every term, and quarter sessions for inspection, without fee or reward; and only 12*d.* shall be given for entry of the taking such oaths, id. s. 13.

48. EVERY PERSON WHO SHALL ACT AS A SERJEANT-AT-LAW, COUNSELLOR, BARRISTER, ADVOCATE, ATTORNEY, SOLICITOR, PROCTOR, CLERK, OR NOTARY, by practising as such in any court, not having taken in chancery or K. B. [C. P. or exchequer, 1*A.* St. 1. c. 22. s. 3.] or quarter sessions of the county wherein he lives, the oaths in 1*W.* & M. St. 1. c. 8. [viz. of allegiance and supremacy], nor having made and subscribed the declaration against transubstantiation, in 25*C.* 2. c. 2., shall incur a præmunire, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 24. [But Roman catholics are now allowed to take other oaths, 31*G.* 3. c. 32. s. 22. PAPIST, pl. 250., and as to their oaths in Scot., see 35*G.* 5. c. 44. ss. 1—2; no person can be summoned to make the above declaration, 31*G.* 3. c. 32. s. 18., PAPIST, pl. 246.; as to barristers, &c. taking the above oaths, &c. before a single judge, see 1*G.* 4. c. 55. s. 4. last pl. of this title.]

49. FOR THE BETTER SECURITY OF H. M.'s PERSON AND GOVERNMENT, [7 & 8 W. 3. c. 27. only.] AND FOR THE SUCCESSION OF THE CROWN in the protestant line, and for extinguishing the hopes of the pretended prince of Wales, and all other pretenders, and their open and secret abettors, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 27., 13 & 14 W. 3. c. 6., [which is AMEND. 6*A.* c. 14. s. 7. and c. 23. s. 14, 1*G.* 4. c. 55. s. 4.]

50. Every person who shall refuse to take the oaths in 1*W.* & M. St. 1. c. 8. [viz. of allegiance and supremacy,] when tendered to him by a person lawfully authorized to administer them, or who shall refuse or neglect to appear when lawfully summoned, in order to have those oaths tendered to him, [but this seems REP. as to that of supremacy, by 31*G.* 3. c. 32. s. 18., PAPIST, pl. 246.], shall, till he has duly taken the same, be liable to the penalties inflicted upon popish recusants convict; and the persons tendering the oaths shall, upon every such refusal or default of appearance, record the names and place of abode of the persons refusing or not appearing, with the time of such tender or default, and certify the record to the justices of assize, oyer and terminer, or gaol-delivery, at their next session, who shall certify the same into the exchequer, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 27. s. 1., [s. 2. is EXP., and ss. 3—11. relate to the association to defend K. W., and are REP., 1*A.* St. 1. c. 32. s. 3. and 15—14. 16—18. seem EXP. and REP. as above.]

51. Quakers who shall make and subscribe the declaration of fidelity in 1*W.* & M. St. 1. c. 18., and shall produce such witnesses and certificates as are by the said act required, and shall own K. W. to be rightful and lawful king of these realms, are exempted from the penalties provided by this act for such as refuse to take the oaths, id. s. 12.

52. The penalties to be incurred by any persons as popish recusants convict by this act for not taking the oaths, may be pardoned by H. M., under the privy seal, id. s. 15.

53. No person who shall refuse to take the oaths [QU. as to that of supremacy, PAPIST, pl. 246.] or being quakers, subscribe the declaration of fidelity (which oaths and subscription, the sheriff or chief officer taking the poll at any election of M. P.s, at request of any candidate, are required to administer), shall be admitted to give any vote for the election of any knight, citizen, Burgess, or baron, to serve in parliament, id. s. 10.

54. Every person that shall bear any office, civil or military, or shall receive any pay by reason of any grant from H. M., or shall have command or place of trust under H. M., or by authority derived from him, within Eng., Wa., or Ber., or in H. M.'s navy, or in Jersey or Guernsey, or shall be of the household, or in the service of H. M., and all ecclesiastical persons, members of colleges and halls in either university, that shall be of the foundation (being of the age of 18 years), and all persons teaching pupils, and all schoolmasters and ushers, and all preachers of separate congregations, and every person that shall act as a serjeant at law, counsellor, barrister, advocate, attorney, solicitor, proctor, clerk, or notary, by practising as such in any court, shall within 3 months, [altered to 6 months, 9*G.* 2. c. 26. s. 4.] after they shall enter upon such office, or take upon them such practice, in the court of chancery, K. B., C. P. or exchequer, [or before a single judge of K. B. sitting under authority of 57*G.* 3. c. 11. (BAIL, pl. 23.), 1*G.* 4. c. 5. s. 1. last pl. of this title.] or at the quarter sessions in open court, between 9 and 12 a. m. take the oath of abjuration [now fixed by 6*G.* 3. c. 53. s. 1.] and shall subscribe his name or mark; during the time of taking which oath all pleas shall cease, 13 & 14 W. 3. c. 2. ss. 2, 3.

55. Every such person, as in last pl., who shall neglect to take the oath, shall be ipso facto incapable to enjoy the office, &c. id. s. 5.

56. Every person who neglects to take the oath, and yet by himself, or his deputy, or trustee, shall execute any of the said offices, &c., and being thereof convicted, on information or indictment, in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, or at the assizes, shall be disabled to prosecute any suit, or to be guardian of any child, or executor or administrator of any person, or capable of any legacy or deed of gift, or to be in any office within Eng., Wa., or Ber., and shall forfeit 500*l.* to him that will sue for same in any H. M.'s courts at Westminster, id. s. 6.

57. On due tender of any person to take the oath the courts shall administer it, and like register shall be kept thereof, as by 25*C.* 2. c. 2. s. 6. (PAPIST, pl. 175.) directed, id. s. 7.

58. But any person who, by neglect or refusal, according to this act, shall lose any office, may have a new grant thereof, or of any other, and have and hold the same again on taking the oath, so as such office be not enjoyed by some other person at the time of the regranting, id. s. 8.

59. No peer of this realm shall vote, or make his proxy in the house of peers, or sit there during any debate, nor shall any member of the house of commons vote in the house, or sit there during any debate after their speaker is chosen, till such peer or member take and subscribe such oath, between 9 a. m. and 4 p. m., by every such peer at the table in the midst of the house, before he take his place, and whilst a full house of peers is there, with their speaker in his place, and by every M. P. at the table in the house of commons, in like manner, id. s. 10.

60. Every peer or M. P. who shall vote or make his proxy, not having taken and subscribed the oath, shall be adjudged a popish recusant convict, and shall be disabled to hold any place of profit or trust, civil or military, and to sit or vote in either house, or make a proxy in the house of peers, or to sue any action at law, or prosecute any suit in equity, or to be guardian of any child, or executor or administrator of any person, or capable of any legacy or deed of gift, and shall forfeit 500*l.*, recoverable as in s. 6. pl. 56., 13 & 14 W. 3. c. 6. s. 11.

61. This act shall not take away any office of inheritance, so as the person having it appoint his deputy, according to a proviso in 25 C. 2. c. 2., PAPIST, pl. 166., and so as the latter take the oath in this act, and is approved of by H. M. under his privy signet, id. s. 12.

62. Any person authorized to administer the oaths appointed in 1 H. & M. S. 1. c. 8. pl. 37., may tender the above oath of abjuration to any person, and if he neglect to take it, shall certify the refusal to the next quarter sessions, and the refusal shall be recorded and certified by the clerk of the peace into chancery or K. B., to be there recorded on a separate roll, id. s. 13.

63. This act shall not extend to the offices of high or petty constable, tithingman, headborough, overseers of the poor, churchwardens, surveyors of the highways, or any like inferior civil office, or to any office of forester or keeper of any park, chase, warren, or game, or bailiff of any manor or lands, nor to any like private offices, nor to any person having only like offices, id. s. 14. [See similar provision, 1 G. 1. c. 13. s. 20.]

64. Any two justices of peace, whereof one is of the quorum, or any other persons by H. M. appointed by order in privy council, or by commission under the great seal, may summon all such persons as they suspect to be disaffected, and tender the oath of abjuration, and at the next quarter sessions cause the names and abodes of all persons refusing to take the oath, to be certified by the clerk of the peace into K. B., and by the clerk of the peace in Scot. into the court of session; and if the persons so certified shall not within the next term or session appear in the chancery, K. B., or session, where such certificate shall be returned, and take the oath, and enter his so doing on the certificate returned, he shall be adjudged a popish recusant convict, and undergo such penalties as a popish recusant convict ought to do by the laws in Eng., c. 1. c. 14. s. 7.

65. If any quaker shall refuse to take the oath, being tendered to him, in pursuance of 6 A. c. 14. s. 7., pl. 64., but shall instead thereof declare the effect of the said oath upon his solemn affirmation, as directed by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 34., he shall not be liable to any penalties mentioned in 6 A. c. 14., 6 A. c. 23. s. 14.

66. FOR FURTHER SECURITY OF H. M.'s PERSON AND GOVERNMENT, and the succession of the crown, in the heirs of the late princess Sophia being protestants, and for extinguishing the hopes of the pretended prince of Wales, and his open and secret abettors, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. [CONF. except as to alteration of the times limited for taking the oaths, 2 G. 2. c. 31. s. 7., 9 G. 2. c. 26. s. 6., 6 G. 3. c. 53. s. 1., and AMD. by 2 G. 2. c. 31. ss. 3—7., 9 G. 2. c. 26. ss. 1—6., 6 G. 3. c. 53. ss. 1, 2.]

67. FOR ALTERING THE OATH OF ABJURATION AND THE ASSURANCE, 6 G. 3. c. 53. ss. 1, 2. [The rest of this title and statute, viz. s. 3., relates to the assimilation of the law of Scot. to that of Eng. in cases of treason.]

68. All persons admitted into any office or offices, civil or military, receiving any pay or salary by reason of any grant from H. M., or who shall have command or place of trust under H. M., or by authority derived from him within Eng., or in H. M.'s navy, or in Jersey or Guernsey, or who shall be of the household of H. M., and all ecclesiastical persons, heads, and other members of colleges and halls in any university, that are of the foundation or enjoy any exhibition, (being of, or as soon as they attain the age of 18 years,) and all persons teaching or reading to pupils in any university or elsewhere, and all schoolmasters and ushers, and preachers and teachers of separate congregations, high or chief constables, and every person that shall act as serjeant and counsellor at law, barrister, advocate, attorney, solicitor, proctor, clerk, or notary, by practising in any manner as such in any court soever, within that part of G. B. called Eng., who shall be admitted into, or enter on, any of the above benefices or offices, or shall come into any such capacity, or take upon them any such practice, employment, or business, shall, within 3 [calendar, 15 G. 1. c. 29. s. 4.] months, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 1. [REP. by 2 G. 2. c. 31. s. 3. at any time before end of next term or quarter sessions for the county or place where resident, 2 G. 2. c. 31. s. 4., REP. 9 G. 2. c. 26. s. 3. and altered to] 6 calendar months after admission, &c. to such benefice or place, or coming into such capacity, or taking on them such practice, &c. take and subscribe the following oaths in the court of chancery, K. B., or C. P., or exchequer, [or before a single judge of K. B. sitting under 57 G. 3. c. 11., see 1 G. 4. c. 55. s. 4. last pl. of this title] or after the general or quarter sessions of the county, city, or place where he resides [or before a single judge, see last pl.] of last, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 2., 9 G. 2. c. 26. s. 3.; viz.

1. Of Allegiance.

'I, A. B. do sincerely promise and swear, that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King George. So help me God.' 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 1. [NOTE, the oath of supremacy is supra, pl. 45.]

2. Of Abjuration.

'I A. B. do truly and sincerely acknowledge, profess, testify, and declare, in my conscience before God and the world, that our sovereign lord king George is lawful and rightful king of this realm, and all other H. M.'s dominions, and countries thereunto belonging; and I do solemnly and sincerely declare, that I do believe in my conscience, that not any of the descendants of the person who pretended to be prince of Wales during the life of the late K. J. 2d, and since his decease pretended to be and took upon himself the style and title of king of Eng., by the names of James the 3d, or of Scot. by the name of James the 8th, or the style and title of king of G. B., hath any right or title whatsoever to the crown of this realm, or any other the dominions thereunto belonging; and I do renounce, refuse, and abjure any allegiance or obedience to any of them: and I do swear that I will bear faith and true allegiance to H. M. king George, and him will defend to the utmost of my power, against all traitorous conspiracies and attempts whatsoever which shall be made against his person, crown, or dignity; and I will do my utmost endeavour to disclose and make known to H. M. and his successors, all treasons and traitorous conspiracies which I shall know to be against him or any of them: and I do faithfully promise, to the utmost of my power, to support, maintain, and defend the succession of the crown against the descendants of the said James, and against all other persons whatsoever; which succession, by an act intitled, "An Act for the further limitation of the crown, and better securing the rights and liberties of the subject;" (viz. 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 2. LIBERTIES AND RIGHTS, pl. 5.) is, and stands limited to the princess Sophia, electress and duchess dowager of Hanover, and the heirs of her body, being protestants; and all these things I do plainly and sincerely acknowledge and swear, according to these express words by me spoken, and according to the plain common sense and understanding of the same words, without any equivocation, mental evasion, or secret reservation whatsoever; and I do make this recognition, acknowledgment, abjuration, renunciation, and promise, heartily, willingly, and truly, upon the true faith of a Christian. So help me God.' [These last words are in 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 1. but not in 6 G. 3. c. 53. s. 1. which fixes the above form of oath, altering that prescribed by the first mentioned act.]

3. The Assurance.

'I A. B. do, in the sincerity of my heart, assert, acknowledge, and declare, that H. M. king George is the only lawful and undoubted sovereign of this realm, as well de jure, that is of right, king, as de facto that is, in the possession and exercise of the government: and therefore I do promise and swear, that I will with heart and hand, life and goods, maintain and defend his right, title, and government against the descendants of the person who pretended to be prince of Wales during the life of the late king James, and since his decease, pretended to be, and took on himself the style and title of king of Eng., by the name of James the 3d, or of Scot., by the name of James the 8th, or the style and title of king of G. B., and their adherents, and all other enemies who, either by open or secret attempts, shall disturb or disquiet H. M. in the possession and exercise thereof. So help me God.' [These last words are in 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 1., 5 G. 1. c. 29. s. 1.; but not in 6 G. 3. c. 53. s. 1., which alters the form of assurance prescribed by 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 1. to the above. See as to the oaths appointed to be taken by Roman Catholic barristers, attornies, clerks, notaries, &c., 31 G. 5. c. 32. s. 22. PAPIST, pl. 250., and the forms, id. pl. 229.]

And all persons required to administer, take, or subscribe the abjuration oath, and the assurance in 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13., or in 5 G. 1. c. 29. (relating to nonconformists in Scot.) contained, shall respectively administer, take, and subscribe the same, according to the form herein prescribed, within such time, in such manner, and with observance of the same requisites, and with benefit of the same savings, provisos, and indemnities; and in case of neglect or refusal, shall be liable to the same penalties and disabilities as by any statutes now subsisting are enacted, 6 G. 3. c. 53. s. 1.

69. From 1st Aug. 1766, the same oath of abjuration by this act appointed to be taken in G. B., shall be the oath of abjuration to be taken in the kingdom of Ire., and the rest of H. M.'s dominions, and no other; and the benefit of the indemnities given by 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. [semble, s. 6. pl. 71., and s. 23. EXP.] shall continue in force as to Ire., as if this act was not made, 6 G. 3. c. 53. s. 2. [A like provision was made for Ire. only from 29 Sept. 1715, with regard to the oaths in 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13., id. s. 33. See 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 6. s. 4. SCOTLAND, (Parl. Commons) pl. 21.]

70. All heads, masters, and members of colleges, halls, or classes in the universities of St. Andrew, Glasgow, Aberdeen, and Edinburgh, and all probationers or licentiates of divinity, before they enter on their trials, or obtain licence to preach, and all schoolmasters in Scot., shall take and subscribe the oaths, and subscribe the assurance in s. 3. mentioned, [see the present forms of oaths, 6 G. 3. c. 53. s. 1. to be taken in Great Britain, id. s. 2.] before such judges, [single judge, see last pl. of this title] and obtain such certificates thereof as by this or former acts directed, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 5.

71. Nothing in these acts shall extend to any person beyond the seas, who by virtue thereof ought to take such oaths, so as he do within 3 months, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 6., 4 months, 2 G. 2. c. 31. s. 5., altered by 9 G. 2. c. 26. s. 4. to] 6 calendar months after his return to, or arrival in, that part of G. B. called Eng., take and subscribe the said oaths, in such manner, form, and place as appointed by 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 6. [and also receive the sacrament of the Lord's supper according to the usage of the church of Eng., and make and subscribe the declaration against transubstantiation, [but see now 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 18. PAPIST, pl. 246.] where that sacrament ought to have been received, and that declaration made and subscribed, 2 G. 2. c. 31. s. 5., 9 G. 2. c. 26. s. 4.] 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 6., 2 G. 2. c. 31. s. 5., 9 G. 2. c. 26. s. 4.

72. Every person who shall neglect or refuse to take the said oaths, or either of them, and subscribe thereto as above, [or who shall neglect or refuse to make and subscribe the declaration against transubstantiation where it ought to be made, &c., 9 G. 2. c. 26. s. 5. but see last pl.] in the places, and at the respective times aforesaid shall be, ipso facto, disabled in law to enjoy such offices or employments, or any profit therefrom, and such offices, &c. shall be void, [or shall incur the penalties and disabilities inflicted by 25 C. 2. c. 2. for not making the above declaration, but see last pl., and in case of executing any such office, &c. after such neglect or refusal shall, having been thereof lawfully convicted as by the said acts directed, incur all the disabilities and penalties thereby provided, to be sued for and recovered as therein prescribed, 2 G. 2. c. 31. s. 6., 9 G. 2. c. 26. s. 5.] 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 7., 2 G. 2. c. 31. s. 6., 9 G. 2. c. 26. s. 5.

73. Every person who shall so neglect or refuse to take such oaths within the times, and at the places aforesaid, and yet after such neglect, &c. shall, by himself or themselves, his or their deputy or trustee, execute any of the said offices or employments, after the said time is expired [this provision is extended to the 6 months now given by 9 G. 2. c. 26. s. 6., as it is to the times fixed in 2 G. 2. c. 31. ss. 4, 5., id. ss. 6, 7.] wherein he ought to have taken the same, and being thereof lawfully convicted, in or upon any information or indictment in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, or at the assizes, or before the justiciary court or circuits in Scot., shall be disabled to sue at law or equity, to be guardian, executor, or administrator, or capable of legacy, or deed of gift, or to be in any office, or to vote at any election of a M. P., and shall forfeit 500*l.*, recoverable by any who will sue for same by action of debt, &c. or information in any court at Westminster, without essoin, &c. allowed, nor more than one imparlance; and by summary complaint before court of sessions, or prosecution before court of justiciary in Scot., 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 8. [CONF. 9 G. 2. c. 31. ss. 6, 7., 9 G. 2. c. 26. ss. 5, 6.]

74. The respective courts aforesaid, [on reference to s. 3. semb. EXP. this appears to apply to the courts mentioned in all former acts respecting taking these oaths in Scot.] may give and administer the oaths to the above persons, and on due tender of any person to take the same, shall administer them; and for every person taking, &c. them, the proper officer shall receive 2*s.*, and shall enter a register thereof in a book, where the names of the persons taking the same, and the dates thereof, shall be written, to be inspected without fee, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 9. [See the old regulation to same effect, 1 A. St. 1. c. 22. s. 6.]

75. Two or more justices, or any persons by H. M. appointed, by order of privy council, or commission under great seal, may tender the above oaths to any person whom they suspect to be disaffected; and if any person refuses to take them, shall certify such refusal to the next quarter sessions, to be recorded there in their rolls, and shall from thence be certified by the clerk of the peace into chancery or K. B., or into court of session or justiciary in Scot., to be recorded there in a separate roll; and every person so refusing to take the above oaths shall be adjudged a popish recusant convict, and, as such, forfeit and be proceeded against, id. s. 10.

76. Any 2 or more justices or other persons, &c. appointed as in s. 10. may, by writing under their hands and seals, summon any person to appear before them at an appointed day and time, to take the said oaths, which summons shall be served on such person, or left at his usual abode, with one of the family there; and if he shall not appear according to such summons, then, on proof of its service on oath, such justices, &c. shall certify the same to the next general quarter sessions, there to be enrolled; and if the person so summoned shall not appear there, and take the oaths, his name shall be publicly read at the 1st meeting of the sessions, and he shall be adjudged a popish recusant convict, &c., and, as such, shall forfeit and be proceeded against as if he had actually refused to take the said oaths; and the same shall be from thence certified as in last pl., id. s. 11.

77. If any head or member of any college or hall within Oxford or Cambridge that are of the foundation, or that enjoy any exhibition, being of the age of 18 years, shall refuse to take and subscribe the above oaths, or to produce a certificate of having taken them, and cause it to be entered in the register of such college, or hall, within one month after his having taken them; and if the persons in whom the right of election shall be do not elect some other person in his place within 12 months after such refusal, H. M. under his great seal or sign-manual, may nominate some person qualified according to the college statutes to succeed, and the latter shall enjoy such place as if he had been chosen by the proper electors of such college or hall, id. s. 12.

78. If the head of any college or hall, &c. refuse to admit any person so nominated as above for 10 days after such admission demanded, the visitor shall admit him in one month after it is demanded, and if he refuse, the K. B. may issue a mandamus to him to admit such person, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 13.

79. Any person who by any neglect shall forfeit his office, may be capable of a new grant thereof, or of any other office, on taking the oaths, so as such office be not then granted to another, id. s. 14.

80. No peer shall vote or make his proxy, or sit in the house of peers during any debate, nor shall any member of H. of C. vote or sit there during any debate, after the speaker chosen, till he has taken the abjuration oath, in such manner, and together with the other oaths and declarations against transubstantiation, [PAPIST, pl. 176.] with which it ought to have been taken, id. s. 16.

81. If any member of either house shall vote or make his proxy, not having taken the oaths, &c. he shall be disabled to sue in any court of law, or to prosecute any suit in equity, or to be guardian, executor, or administrator, or be capable of any legacy or deed of gift, or to be in any office in G. B., or to vote at any election for M. P., and shall forfeit 500*l.* to him who will sue for the same, as in s. 8. pl. 73., id. s. 17.

82. Nothing herein shall take away any office of inheritance, so as the person having such office substitutes a deputy, who shall qualify himself according to 25 C. 2. c. 2., and takes the oaths, and is approved of by H. M. under his privy signet, id. s. 18.; and no office of inheritance in Scot. shall be forfeitable, otherwise than according to the laws now in force there, id. s. 19.

83. This act [semb. These acts, since 6 G. 3. c. 53., &c.] shall not extend to the office of tithingman, headborough, overseers, churchwardens, surveyors of highways, or any inferior civil office, or to any forester or keeper of any park, chase, warren, or game, or to any bailiff of any manor or lands, nor to any like private offices, id. s. 20. [and see ante, pl. 60—63.]

84. All persons by law obliged to receive the sacrament, and make and subscribe the declaration against transubstantiation [PAPIST, pl. 176.] shall continue obliged so to do, together with the above oaths, in such manner and under such penalties in case of such neglect as is required by any former law, id. s. 22.; but all persons who by ss. 10, 11. of this act, pl. 75, 76. shall become popish recusants convict, and shall thereafter take the oaths, &c. shall be discharged from such conviction, id. s. 26.

85. The above oath of abjuration and the assurance shall, in all cases, be taken in lieu of the abjuration and assurance formerly appointed, id. s. 27.

86. No senman or soldier under the degree of a commission or warrant officer shall pay any fee on taking the oaths, id. s. 31.

87. Nothing in this act shall extend to the office of lord chamberlain of Eng., so as he substitute a deputy who shall take the oaths, id. s. 32.

88. FOR ALLOWING FURTHER TIME TO PERSONS ON BOARD the fleet or beyond the seas in H. M.'s service to qualify themselves for the legal enjoyment of offices and employments, 13 G. 1. c. 29. [REP. as to the times limited for taking the oaths in ss. 1. 4. by 9 G. 2. c. 26. ss. 3, 4. pl. 68.]

89. Nothing in 25 C. 2. c. 2. PAPIST, pl. 166., nor in 1 G. 1. c. 13. shall extend to any person who shall be in H. M.'s fleet or service beyond the seas at such time as any office, pay, salary, or wages shall be granted to him, or who by virtue of those acts ought to receive the sacrament or take the oaths, so as he do within [3 months, id. s. 1. altered by 9 G. 2. c. 26. s. 4. to] 6 calendar months after his arrival in G. B. receive the sacrament, take the oaths, and make the declaration in those acts appointed, 15 G. 1. c. 29. s. 1. as AMD. by 9 G. 2. c. 26. s. 4.

90. Every officer on board the fleet or in H. M.'s service beyond the seas, or any subject who ought to receive the sacrament, take the oaths, and make the declaration according to the acts in s. 1. mentioned, but shall make default in so doing [except as in s. 1. pl. 89.] shall incur all the penalties and disabilities by the above statutes provided, id. s. 6.

91. And in case of executing any such office or employment after such default, shall, after conviction, as by 25 C. 2. c. 2. s. 5. PAPIST, pl. 172., and 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 8. supra, pl. 75. directed, be liable to the penalties, &c. by these respective acts provided, id. s. 7.

92. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING THE ADMINISTERING or taking unlawful oaths, 37 G. 3. c. 123. [MADE MORE EFFECTUAL, 52 G. 3. c. 104.]

93. Any person who shall in any manner soever administer or cause to be administered, or be aiding or assisting at, or present and consenting to the administering or taking of any oath or engagement purporting or intended to bind the persons taking the same to engage in any mutinous or seditious purpose, or to disturb the public peace, or to be of any association, society, or confederacy, formed for any such purpose; or to obey the orders or commands of any committee or body of men not lawfully constituted, or of any leader, commander, or other person not legally authorized; or not to inform or give evidence against any associate, confederate, or other person; or not to reveal any unlawful combination or confederacy, or illegal act done or to be done, or illegal oath or engagement which may have been tendered to or taken by such or by any other person, or the import thereof; and any person taking such illegal oath, &c. without being compelled thereto, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of felony, and transported for not more than 7 years, 37 G. 3. c. 123. s. 1.

94. Every person who shall, in any manner or form soever, administer or cause, &c., or be aiding, &c. at administering any oath or engagement purporting or intending to bind the taker to commit any treason, murder, or felony, punishable by law with death, shall, on due legal conviction, be adjudged guilty of felony, and suffer death without clergy; and every person taking any such oath, &c. without compulsion, shall, on like conviction, be adjudged guilty of felony, and transported for life or for such term of years as the court before which he is tried shall adjudge, 52 G. 3. c. 104. s. 1.

95. Compulsion shall not excuse any person taking such oath, &c. unless he shall within [4, 37 G. 3. c. 123. s. 2., altered by 52 G. 3. c. 104. s. 1. to] 14 days, if not prevented by actual force or sickness, and then within [4 days, see above] 14 days after such hindrance ceases, declare the same, together with the whole of what he knows touching the same and the persons by whom and in whose presence, and when and where, such oath or engagement was administered or taken, by information on oath before some justice of peace, secretary of state, or privy counsellor; or if he be on actual service in the forces by sea or land, then by such information on oath as above, or by information to his commanding officer, 37 G. 3. c. 123. s. 2. as AMD. by 52 G. 3. c. 101. s. 2.

96. Persons aiding and assisting or present at and consenting to the administering or taking any such oath, &c. as aforesaid, or causing it to be taken (or administered, though not there present, 52 G. 3. c. 104. s. 4.) shall be deemed, tried, [and punished with death, id. ibid.] as principal offenders, though the persons who actually administered such oath have not been tried or convicted, 37 G. 3. c. 123. s. 3. as AMD. by 52 G. 3. c. 101. s. 4.

97. It shall not be necessary in any indictment for any of the above offences to set out the words or more than the purport of such oath or engagement, or some material part thereof, 37 G. 3. c. 123. s. 4., 52 G. 3. c. 101. s. 5.

98. Any engagement soever in nature of an oath [purporting or intending to bind the taker to commit treason, murder, or capital felony, 52 G. 3. c. 104. s. 6.] shall be deemed an oath within this act in whatever form administered or taken, and whether actually administered by any person to any other, or taken by any person without administration thereof by another, 37 G. 3. c. 123. s. 5., 52 G. 3. c. 104. s. 6.

99. Offences against this act committed on the high seas, or out of this realm, or within Eng., may be tried before any court of oyer and terminer or gaol delivery for any county in Eng., as if the offence had been therein committed; and if in Scot. may be tried either before the justiciary court at Edinburgh, or in any of the circuit courts, 37 G. 3. c. 123. s. 6., 52 G. 3. c. 104. s. 7.

100. Persons tried and acquitted or convicted of any offence against this act shall not be liable to prosecution for the same offence as high treason or misprision thereof; and nothing herein shall prevent any person guilty of any offence against this act and not tried for it as such, from being tried for it as such treason, &c., 37 G. 3. c. 123. s. 7., 52 G. 3. c. 104. s. 8.

101. TO REGULATE THE ADMINISTRATION OF OATHS IN CERTAIN cases to officers in H. M.'s land and sea forces, 57 G. 3. c. 92.

102. H. M.'s principal secretaries of state, the lord high admiral, or commissioners of the admiralty, commander in chief, master-general of the ordnance, and secretary at war for the time being respectively, or any other persons being thereunto lawfully authorized, may deliver commissions or warrants to any officers in the royal navy, land forces, or marines, without previously requiring them to take the oaths, or make and subscribe certain declarations in pl. 68., id. s. 1.

103. Nothing herein shall extend to any oaths required by any statute now in force to be taken, or to any declarations thereby required to be made and subscribed by such officers after they have accepted such commissions or warrants, id. s. 2.

104. ALL OATHS DIRECTED BY 13 C. 2. St. 2. c. 1. s. 10. CORPORATION, pl. 8. (a), and 25 C. 2. c. 2. s. 2. PAPIST, pl. 167., or by any other statute now in being to be taken by persons admitted to offices of trust and profit, and by all barristers and attorneys, may, after 15th July 1820, be administered and taken; and the declaration against transubstantiation in 25 C. 2. c. 2. PAPIST, pl. 176. may be made and subscribed before any single judge of K. B. sitting under authority of 57 G. 3. c. 11. BAIL, pl. 23.; and the proper officer shall, at seasonable times, attend before such single judge for the purpose of administering such oaths, and registering such subscription, 1 G. 4. c. 55. s. 4.

OFFENCE AND OFFENDER.

1. AGAINST SUCH AS LEVY ANY FINE, SUFFER ANY RECOVERY, knowledge any statute, recognizance, bail, or judgment, in the name of any other person or persons not being privy and consenting thereto, 21 J. 1. c. 26. and recital in s. 1.

OFFENCE AND OFFENDER.

2. All persons which shall acknowledge, or procure to acknowledge, any fines, recoveries, deeds inrolled, statutes, recognizances, bails, or judgments, in the name of any other person not privy or consenting to the same, and being thereof lawfully convicted or attainted, shall be adjudged felons, and shall suffer death without clergy, and incur such penalties as other felons do: such attainder shall not be any corruption of blood, nor loss of dowry, id. s. 2.

3. This act shall not extend to any judgments acknowledged by any attorney of record for any person against whom such judgments shall be given, id. s. 3.

4. TO PUNISH GOVERNORS OF PLANTATIONS IN THIS KINGDOM for crimes committed by them in the plantations, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 12.

5. FOR TRYING AND PUNISHING IN G. B. PERSONS holding public employments for offences committed abroad, 42 G. 3. c. 85. ss. 1—5. [See s. 6. OFFICER, PUBLIC, pl. 3.]

6. If any governor, lieutenant, or deputy-governor, or commander in chief of any plantation or colony within H. M.'s dominions beyond the seas shall be guilty of oppressing any of H. M.'s subjects beyond the seas within his government or command, such oppressions, crimes, and offences shall be heard and determined in K. B. in Eng., or before such commissioners and in such county of this realm as shall be assigned by H. M.'s commission, and by good and lawful men of the same county; and such punishments shall be inflicted on such offenders as are usual for like offences committed here in Eng., 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 12.

7. Crimes, misdemeanors, or offences committed by persons employed in any public service abroad, may be prosecuted in K. B. in Eng., either on information by the attorney-general, or on indictment found, laying the offence to have been committed in Middlesex, and the offender shall, on conviction, be punished as if it was committed in Eng., and shall also be liable, at discretion of K. B. to be adjudged incapable of serving H. M. in any station, office, or capacity, civil or military; or of holding or exercising any public employment whatever, 42 G. 3. c. 85. s. 1.

8. In all indictments found, or informations exhibited under this act, the K. B., on motion to be made, and such notice thereof as to them appears sufficient, by or on behalf of H. M.'s attorney-general, or other prosecutor, or of the defendant, may award, at their discretion, a writ or writs of mandamus to any C. J. and judges, or any C. J. or other judge singly, for the time being, of any court or courts of judicature in the country or island, or near to the place where the crime, &c. shall be charged in the indictment, &c. to have been committed; or to any governor or lieutenant-governor or other person having chief authority there, or to any other person or persons resident there, as the case may require, and as to the K. B., under all circumstances, seem most expedient for obtaining and receiving proofs concerning the matters charged, id. s. 2.

9. The person or persons to whom such writ is directed and sent, shall, and are hereby respectively required to hold a court, session, or meeting, with all convenient speed for examining witnesses and receiving other proofs concerning the matters charged in such indictment, &c. and in the mean time to cause public notice to be given, of the holding such court, &c. and to issue the process requisite for attendance of witnesses, and to adjourn from time to time, as occasion requires; and such examinations shall be then and there publicly taken visâ voce in the said court, &c. upon questions put by any such prosecutor, defendant, or agent of either, and by the person or persons to whom such writ is directed, on the respective oaths of witnesses, and of skilful interpreters, if necessary, administered according to the forms of their several religions, and shall by some person sworn for that purpose, be reduced into writing on parchment or paper; and in case any duplicate is required on behalf of the prosecutor, or defendant or defendants respectively, into 2 or more such writings, as the case requires; such examinations shall be sent to H. M. in K. B. closed up and under seal or seals of the person, &c. before whom they are taken, who shall deliver them to any person appointed by K. B. to receive them, or shall transmit them as K. B. shall direct; they shall then, with all convenient speed, be delivered for safe custody to a clerk in court of K. B. in the crown office, who shall administer an oath to the person delivering the same to him in form directed by K. B., and they shall be allowed and read on the trial of such indictment, &c. or other subsequent proceeding relating thereto, and shall be deemed as good evidence as if the witnesses had been present, sworn, and examined, visâ voce, at such trial, saving all just exceptions to be taken to any such examinations, or any part thereof when so offered to be read as above, and all persons concerned, shall be entitled to take copies of such examinations in the custody of such clerk in court, at their own costs, id. ibid.

10. The K. B., on such motion made, and notice thereof, as in s. 2., by or on behalf of the attorney-general or other prosecutor or defendant in any such indictment, &c. may order an examination de bene esse, of witnesses, on interrogatories where vide voce evidence cannot be had, to be taken before an examiner appointed by the court and the depositions taken on such interrogatories, shall be afterwards admitted to be read in evidence on the trial, saving just exceptions to them when offered to be read, 42 G. 3. c. 85. s. 3.

11. Any person or persons to whom such mandamus is directed, or order sent as above (and if directed or sent to more than one person), so many of them as are for that purpose appointed by such writ, &c. therein, and who shall act in execution thereof, shall administer all oaths required to be taken under this act, or necessary for due execution of any such writ or order, or of any thing relating thereto; and shall examine on oath all persons whom he or they find occasion to summon, or think fit to examine, touching all things necessary for due execution of such writ or order, and shall have full power to compel the appearance and giving evidence of any such witness, and to issue special summons or other process for that purpose, and may proceed thereon, by imprisonment of the body of any person refusing to appear or give evidence, as any court of competent authority in this kingdom may proceed for any contempt against its authority, id. s. 4.

12. Every person, who in the course of his examination on oath, under 24 G. 3. c. 25., EAST INDIA COMPANY, pl. 200., or this act, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, and is duly convicted thereof, shall be liable to such penalties, as persons guilty of wilful perjury are, by any laws then in force in the kingdom, island, or place where such false evidence has been so given, id. s. 5.

13. FOR BETTER PREVENTING THEFTS AND ROBBERIES, by making it felony to take money for helping persons to stolen goods, 4 G. 1. c. 11. s. 4. [AMD. and reward given for the apprehension of such offenders, 6 G. 1. c. 23. s. 9. and REP. as to the punishment, and another inflicted, 1 G. 4. c. 115., and advertising with no questions asked for stolen goods, declared illegal, 25 G. 2. c. 36. s. 1. This title is framed from the purport of these acts.]

14. When any person taketh money or reward directly or indirectly, under the pretence or of helping persons to any stolen goods, such person (unless he shall apprehend the felon who stole the same, and bring him to his trial, and give evidence against him) shall be guilty of felony, and suffer, according to the nature of the felony committed in stealing such goods, as if he had stolen them himself, 4 G. 1. c. 11. s. 4.

15. Whoever shall discover, apprehend, and prosecute to conviction of felony without benefit of clergy, any person for the offence of taking money for helping persons to their stolen goods, such offender not having apprehended the felon who stole the same, brought him to trial, and given evidence against him, shall be entitled to a reward of 40*l.*, and have like certificates and payments, without fee, as persons apprehending and convicting highwaymen, 6 G. 1. c. 23. s. 9. [See as to such rewards, 58 G. 3. c. 70. FELONS AND FELONY, pl. 95.]

16. The 4 G. 1. c. 11. s. 4. shall be REP. as to so much thereof as inflicts the punishment of death for the offences therein mentioned, 1 G. 4. c. 115. s. 1. [Another punishment inflicted, see post, pl. 50.]

17. Any person publicly advertising a reward, with no questions asked, for the return of things stolen or lost, or making use of any words in such advertisement, purporting that such a reward will be given, without seizing or making enquiry after the person producing the same, or promising therein to return to any pawnbroker or other person who may have bought or advanced money upon the things so stolen or lost, the money advanced, or any other money or reward for the return thereof, and any person printing such advertisement, shall forfeit 50*l.* to any person who will sue for the same, 25 G. 2. c. 36. s. 1.

18. All penalties hereby inflicted, may be sued for by action of debt, in any court of record at Westminster, wherein it shall be sufficient to declare that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff, in the sum of—l. being forfeited by an act entitled, 'An act for the better preventing thefts and robberies, and for regulating places of public entertainment, and punishing persons keeping disorderly houses;' and the plaintiff, if he recover, shall have his costs, id. s. 15.

19. Actions under this act, must be brought within 6 calendar months after the offence done, id. s. 14.

20. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PUNISHING STEALERS of lead or iron bars fixed to houses, or any fences belonging thereunto, 4 G. 2. c. 32. [EXPL. and AMD., 21 G. 5. c. 68.]

21. Every person who shall steal, rip, cut, or break, with intent to steal, any lead, iron bar, iron gate, iron palisade, or iron rail, being fixed to any dwelling-house, out-house, coach-house, stable, or other building used or occupied with such dwelling-house, or thereunto belonging, or to any other building, or fixed in any garden, orchard, court-yard, fence, or outlet belonging to any dwelling-house or other building, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and be subject to like pains, as in cases of felony, and the court before whom any such offender shall be tried may transport him for 7 years, as other felons may be; and all persons that shall be aiding or assisting in stealing, or in such ripping, cutting, or breaking any lead, iron bar, &c. so fixed to any dwelling-house, &c. or in any such garden, &c. or who shall buy or receive any such lead, iron bar, &c. knowing the same to be stolen, shall be liable to the same punishment as if they had stolen the same, 4 G. 2. c. 32. s. 1.

22. All persons who steal, rip, cut, break, or remove, with intent to steal, any copper, brass, bell-metal, utensil, or fixture, being fixed to any dwelling-house, out-house, coach-house, stable, or other building, or fixed in any garden, orchard, court-yard, fence, or outlet belonging to any dwelling-house or other building, or any iron rail or fencing set up or fixed in any square, court, or other place (such person having no title or claim of title thereto), shall be deemed guilty of felony, and the court before whom any such offender shall be tried and convicted, may transport him for 7 years, as other felons may be, or may order him to be detained in prison and kept to hard labour for not exceeding 3 years, or less than one year, and within that time, once, or not more than three times, to be publicly whipped, and all persons who shall be aiding, abetting, or assisting in stealing, or in such ripping, cutting, breaking, or removing, any copper, &c. fixed to any dwelling-house, &c. or fixed in any garden, &c. or any iron rails or fencing set up in any square, &c. or who shall buy or receive any such copper, &c. knowing the same to be stolen, shall be liable to the same punishment as if they had stolen the same, although the principal felon has not been convicted of stealing the same, 21 G. 3. c. 68.

23. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY DISCOURAGING AND preventing the stealing and the buying and receiving of stolen lead, iron, copper, brass, bell-metal, and solder, and for more effectually bringing the offenders to justice, 29 G. 2. c. 30. [EXPL. and AMD., 21 G. 3. c. 69.]

24. Every person who shall buy or receive any lead, iron, copper, brass, bell-metal, or solder, knowing the same to be stolen or unlawfully come by, or shall privately buy or receive any stolen lead, &c. by suffering any door, window, or shutter to be left open between sun-rising and sun setting for that purpose, or shall buy or receive the same at any time, in any clandestine manner, shall, being convicted, although the principal felon has not been convicted of stealing the same, be transported for 14 years, to any of H. M.'s colonies in America, according to the laws for the transportation of felons, 29 G. 2. c. 30. s. 1.

25. Any justice of peace, upon complaint upon oath that there is cause to suspect stolen lead, iron, copper, brass, bell-metal or solder is concealed in any dwelling-house or other place, may, by warrant under his hand and seal, cause every such dwelling-house and place to be searched in the day-time; and if any lead, &c. suspected to be stolen be found therein, may cause the same and the person in whose house or other place the same is found, to be brought before any 2 justices of peace for the same county or place; and if such person shall not give an account to the satisfaction of such justices, how he came by the same, or shall not within some time to be set by such justices, produce the party from whom he received such stolen lead, &c. such person so offending shall be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, id. s. 2.

26. Every constable, headborough, or tithingman, in every county, city, town, corporation, or other place, where they shall be officers, and every beadle within his district, and every watchman during such time only as he is on his duty, shall apprehend every person suspected of having or carrying, after sun-setting and before sun-rising, any lead, &c. suspected to be stolen, and the same, together with such person, as soon as may be, carry before any 2 justices of peace for the county or place; and if the person so apprehended conveying any such lead, &c. shall not produce the party from whom he received the same, or some other witness to depose upon oath the sale or delivery of such lead, &c. or shall not give an account to the satisfaction of such justices how he came by the same, the person so apprehended shall be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, id. s. 5.

27. Where any person shall be convicted of either of such misdemeanors, any 2 justices may cause such lead, &c. to be deposited in the hands of the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of the place where such lead, &c. was found, or in any other place for not exceeding 30 days, and may order such churchwardens and overseers, or one of them, in all the parishes within the bills of mortality, to insert an advertisement in some public paper, and in every other parish or place to cause notice to be given by some public crier, and by fixing on the church or chapel door notice describing such lead, &c. and where the same is so deposited, that persons having lost such lead, &c. may come and claim the same, or any person on their behalf; and in case any person can prove their property to such lead, &c. upon oath, to the satisfaction of any 2 justices of the county or place, such justices shall order restitution of such lead, &c. to the owner, after paying the charges of removing, depositing, and giving public notice; and if at the end of such 30 days no person shall come and prove his property, nor any person on his behalf, to such lead, &c. the same shall be sold for the best price; and after deducting such charges, one moiety of the money shall be given to the person apprehending the party guilty of either of the misdemeanors afore-mentioned, and the other to the poor of the parish where such offence was committed, if it is known where, or else where such convictions shall be had, 29 G. 2. c. 30. s. 4.

28. Every person to whom any lead, iron, copper, brass, bell-metal, or solder, shall be offered to be sold, pawned, or delivered, shall (there being cause to suspect that such lead, &c. was stolen or unlawfully come by) apprehend and carry before a justice of peace for the county or place where the same shall be so offered, the person so offering the same, together with such lead, &c. and such person so apprehended shall be dealt with, and such lead, &c. deposited and disposed of, as if he had been apprehended by the constable, &c. as in s. 3. pl. 26.; and if it appear upon the oath of any person, notwithstanding such person was concerned in stealing the same, if corroborated with other circumstances, to the satisfaction of 2 justices for the county, &c. where the same is so offered, that there was cause to suspect such lead, &c. was stolen or unlawfully come by, and that the person to whom such lead, &c. was so offered, did not (having it in his power so to do) apprehend and carry before a justice the person who so offered the same, then the same person to whom such lead, &c. was so offered shall be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, id. s. 5.

29. Every person adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, in having in his possession any lead, iron, copper, brass, bell-metal, or solder, suspected to be stolen or unlawfully come by, and not producing the party of whom he received the same, nor giving a satisfactory account how he came by the same; or in having, carrying or conveying lead, &c. suspected to be stolen or unlawfully come by, and not producing the party from whom he received the same, nor any witness to depose upon oath the sale or delivery thereof, nor giving a satisfactory account how he came by the same, shall, for every such misdemeanor, forfeit for the first offence 40s., and for the second offence 4l., and for every subsequent offence 6l.; and every person adjudged guilty of the misdemeanor of neglecting to apprehend and carry before a justice of peace the person who offered to sell, pawn, or deliver any lead, &c. suspected to be stolen or unlawfully come by, shall forfeit for the first offence 30s. and for the second offence 40s. and for every subsequent offence 4l. all which forfeitures shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods of such offender, rendering the overplus to him, after the charges of distress and sale deducted, by warrant under the hands and seals of the 2 convicting justices, and which forfeiture shall go in moieties to the informer and the overseers of the poor, for the use of the poor of the parish or place where such offence was committed (if it is known where) or else where such conviction shall be; and if no sufficient distress be found, such justices shall commit such offender to the common gaol, or other prison or house of correction within their jurisdiction, for one month for the first offence, and for the second for two months, and for every subsequent offence until such offender shall be discharged by order of the general or quarter sessions, id. s. 6.

30. Every conviction of any offender in any of such misdemeanors, shall be certified by two of the justices of peace making the same, to the next general or quarter sessions of the peace, to be filed amongst the records of the said sessions; and such conviction shall be drawn up on parchment, and certified in the words following, or to the like effect, viz.

‘ ——— } Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year — to wit. } A. B. was convicted before us, — of the justices of the peace for the county, city, riding, division, liberty, or place aforesaid, [as the case shall be] of a misdemeanor in having in his, her, or their possession, lead, iron, copper, brass, bell-metal, or solder, suspected to be stolen or unlawfully come by, and not producing the party or parties of whom he, she or they bought or received the same, nor giving a satisfactory account how he, she, or they came by the same; or in having, carrying, or conveying of lead, iron, copper, brass, bell-metal, or solder, suspected to be stolen or unlawfully come by, and not producing the party or parties from whom he, she, or they bought or received the same, nor any credible witness to depose upon oath the sale or delivery thereof, or not giving a satisfactory account how he, she, or they came by the same, or of neglecting to apprehend and secure the person or persons who brought and offered to pawn, sell, or deliver lead, iron, copper, brass, bell-metal, or solder, suspected to be stolen or unlawfully come by [as the case shall be]. Given under our hands and seals, the — day and year aforesaid.’ which conviction, in the same or the like form, shall be good in law, and shall not be set aside for want of any other form or words, nor liable to be removed by certiorari into the K. B., but shall be final, id. s. 7.

31. If any person being out of prison, shall commit any felony by stealing any lead, iron, copper, brass, bell-metal or solder, and afterwards discover two or more persons who shall buy or receive any stolen lead, &c. knowing the same to be stolen, so as two or more of the persons discovered shall be convicted of such buying or receiving, he or she so discovering, shall be entitled to H. M.’s pardon for all such felonies by him or her committed at any time before such discovery; which pardon shall be a bar to any appeal brought for such felony, id. s. 8. [Appeals taken away, 59 G. 3. c. 46.]

32. If any person shall be concerned in the stealing any lead, &c. and shall afterwards, being out of prison, discover any person to whom he shall have offered to sell, pawn, or deliver any stolen lead, &c. so as such person be convicted of the misdemeanor of not apprehending and carrying him before a justice, then the person making such discovery, shall not be liable to be prosecuted for stealing the lead, &c. so offered as aforesaid, 29 G. 2. c. 30. s. 9.

33. If any action shall be brought for any thing done in pursuance of this act concerning such offences, the same shall be commenced within 6 months after the cause accrued, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if the defendant shall have a verdict, or the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 10.

34. Nothing herein shall repeal any former law now in being for the punishment of such offenders, and such offenders having been punished by this act, shall not be punished again for the same offence under any former law, id. s. 11.

35. Every person who shall buy or receive any pewter pot or other vessel, or any pewter in any form whatever, knowing the same to be stolen or unlawfully come by; or shall privately buy or receive any stolen pewter, by suffering any door, window, or shutter to be left open, between sun-setting and sun-rising, for that purpose; or shall buy or receive the same at any time, in any clandestine manner shall, on conviction by due course of law, although the principal felon has not been convicted, be transported for 7 years, or be kept in prison to hard labour, for not exceeding 3 years, nor less than one year; and within that time, (if such court shall think fit) such offenders shall be once, or oftener, but not more than 3 times publicly whipped, 21 G. 3. c. 69.

36. FOR THE MORE EASY DISCOVERY AND EFFECTUAL PUNISHMENT of buyers and receivers of stolen goods 22 G. 3. c. 58. [see tit. FELONS AND FELONY, pl. 43.]

37. In all cases where any goods (except lead, iron, copper, brass, bell-metal, and solder, as to which, see post, pl. 23.) shall have been feloniously taken or stolen, whether the offence of the person so stealing the same shall amount to grand larceny or some greater offence, or to petit larceny only, (except where the person actually committing the felony has been already convicted of grand larceny or some greater offence) every person who shall buy or receive any such goods, knowing them to have been stolen, shall be guilty of and may be prosecuted for a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by fine, imprisonment, or whipping, as the quarter-sessions, who are empowered to try such offender, or as any other court before which he shall be tried, shall think fit to inflict, although the principal felon be not before convicted of the felony, and whether he is amenable to justice or not; and in cases where the felony actually committed shall amount to grand larceny or some greater offence, and where the person actually committing such felony shall not be before convicted, such offender shall be exempted from punishment as accessory, if such principal felon shall be afterwards convicted, id. s. 1.

38. One justice, on complaint on oath, that there is reason to suspect that stolen goods are knowingly concealed in any dwelling or out-house, garden, yard, croft, or other place, may, by warrant under his hand and seal, cause the same to be searched in the day-time; and the person knowingly concealing such stolen goods, or in whose custody the same shall be found being privy thereto, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be brought before any justice, and made to answer the same by like warrant of the latter, and being thereof convicted, shall be punishable as aforesaid, id. s. 2.

39. Every constable, headborough, or tithing-man, in every county, city, or place where there shall be officers, and every beadle within his ward, parish, or district, and every watchman during such time only as he is on duty, shall apprehend every person who may be suspected of having or carrying, or any ways conveying at any time after sun-set and before sun-rise, any goods suspected to be stolen; and the same, together with such person, convey before any justice, to be dealt with according to law; and such person so carrying such goods, knowing the same to have been stolen, and being thereof convicted, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be imprisoned for not exceeding 6 or less than 3 calendar months, id. s. 3.

40. Every person to whom any goods feloniously stolen shall be offered to be sold, pawned, or delivered, shall (there being cause to suspect that such goods are stolen) apprehend and carry before a justice, (having it in his power so to do) the person bringing or offering the same, id. s. 4.

41. If any person being out of custody, if under the age of 15 years, upon any charge of felony within clergy, shall have committed any felony, and shall afterwards discover two or more persons, who shall have bought or received any goods feloniously stolen from any other person, knowing the same to be stolen, so as the persons discovered shall be convicted of such buying or receiving, the discoverer shall have H. M.’s pardon for all felonies by him committed before such discovery, which shall be likewise a bar to any appeal brought for such felony, id. s. 5. [Appeals taken away, 59 G. 3. c. 46.]

42. Nothing herein shall repeal any former law for punishment of such offenders, but offenders convicted under this shall not be afterwards liable to punishment under any other act, 22 G. 3. c. 58. s. 6.

43. TO PROCURE ANNUAL RETURNS OF PERSONS COMMITTED, tried, and convicted, for criminal offences and misdemeanors in Eng. and Wa., 55 G. 3. c. 49. [in Ire., 56 G. 3. c. 120.]

44. The several clerks of assize of the crown, of the sessions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery, of the peace, and town clerks within Eng. and Wa. [in Ire., 56 G. 3. c. 120. s. 1.] shall within the first 14 days of Jan. in each year, return to the home secretary of state, [the chief secretary of Ire. at Dublin Castle, id. ibid.] accounts of the number of persons committed to the several gaols in Eng. and Wa. [Ire.] for trial, and tried or discharged at the several assizes, &c. holden in the preceding year, distinguishing the crimes with which they were respectively charged on commitment; those for which such as were indicted, were indicted, and those convicted, convicted; and distinguishing under each head of offence the numbers committed, acquitted, discharged on no bill found, or by reason of no prosecution, the sentences of those convicted, and the numbers of those executed, to be made out as in the schedule annexed, or in such form and manner, and with any additional particulars ordered by the secretary of state; [chief secretary, such account to be signed by such clerk of assize, &c., id. ibid.] and every such clerk, &c., who shall refuse or neglect to make or transmit such return in the manner prescribed, shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered by information or action at H. M.'s suit, [in any court of record in Ire., id. ibid.] 55 G. 3. c. 49. s. 1., and 56 G. 3. c. 120. s. 1. for Ire.

45. The home secretary [chief secretary for Ire., 56 G. 3. c. 120. s. 2.] shall, between 24th Jan. and 24th Feb. in each year, if parliament be sitting during any part of such period; or if not, then within 14 days after it shall meet after 24th Feb., cause such returns to be laid before parliament, s. 2. in both acts.

46. The justices of assize and other justices assembled, at their assizes, and great and other sessions, shall settle the allowances to the clerks of assize and other clerks, as in s. 1., for their trouble in making such returns, to be paid out of the county rates; and the respective justices of assizes, &c. shall make an order on the county-treasurer for payment thereof, 55 G. 3. c. 49. s. 3. for Eng. and Wa. only.

47. The grand juries assembled at the spring assizes, and at the presenting term for the county and county of the city of Dublin, next after such returns so annually made, shall settle the allowances to be paid to the clerks of assize, &c. for their trouble in making such returns; and they may present the amount to be raised off the county at large, or county of city, &c., which when raised shall be paid by the treasurer of such county, &c. to such clerk, &c., 56 G. 3. c. 120. s. 3., Ire. only.

48. TO REPEAL SO MUCH OF SEVERAL ACTS AS INFLECTS CAPITAL punishment in certain offences therein specified, and to provide more suitable and effectual punishment for such offenders, 1 G. 4. c. 115.

49. So much of 3 H. 7. c. 9. s. 1. as takes away clergy from certain offences in 3 H. 7. c. 2. declared felony, [viz., forcible abduction of women]; and so much of 4 G. 1. c. 11. s. 4. as inflicts death on persons taking money for helping to stolen goods without prosecuting the offender; and so much of 45 G. 2. c. 70. s. 1. as makes it felony without clergy, for bankrupts to conceal, embezzle, &c. his property; and so much of 8 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1. as makes it felony without clergy, to pull down or destroy turnpike-gates, [previously REP. as to turnpike-gates by 15 G. 2. c. 28. s. 86.] or any lock, &c. or other works on any navigable river, or forcibly to rescue any person in custody for any such offences, shall be REP., id. s. 1.

50. All persons convicted of any such offences shall be liable to be transported beyond seas for life, or for such term not less than 7 years, as the court shall think fit, or shall be liable, in case such court shall think fit, to be imprisoned only, or imprisoned and kept to hard labour in the common gaol, house of correction, or penitentiary house, or for not exceeding 7 years, id. s. 2.

51. TO REPEAL SO MUCH OF SEVERAL ACTS AS INFLECT CAPITAL punishment on certain offences therein specified, 1 G. 4. c. 116.

52. So much of 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 4. s. 3. as makes it a capital felony for persons calling themselves Egyptians, to remain in the realm one month; so much of 18 C. 2. c. 5. as takes away clergy from thieves in Northumberland and Cumberland; and so much of 9 G. 1. c. 28. s. 3. as makes it felony without clergy for persons within certain limits to wear masks or disguised habits, and there to oppose the execution of legal process; and so much of 9 G. 2. c. 29. s. 5. (local act) as makes it felony without clergy for any person to blow up or destroy Westminster bridge, shall be REP., id. s. 1.

53. So much of all former acts as relate to the punishment of persons for destroying bridges, REP., id. s. 2. [See Statute 3.]

13. "The 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 16. recited." And its provisions shall extend to Scot. and Ire., and to all offices in the gift of or appointed by the crown, and all commissions civil, naval, or military, and to all places and employments, and deputations to any such offices, commissions, places, or employments in the respective departments, or under the appointment or control of the treasury, secretary of state, admiralty, master-general of ordnance, commander-in-chief, secretary at war, paymaster-general of the forces, commissioners for affairs of India, treasurer of the navy, commissioners of excise, of navy, victualling, and transports, the commissary-general, storekeeper-general, and the principal officers of any other public department or office of government, in any part of the U. K., or H. M.'s dominions or plantations, now or hereafter belonging to H. M., and to all offices, commissions, &c. under the control of the E. I. Co., and shall be construed as one act with the present, 49 G. 3. c. 126. s. 1.

14. Where the right of any person is forfeited under either act, the right of appointment shall vest in H. M., id. s. 2.

15. If any person shall sell, or bargain for the sale of, or receive, have, or take any money, fee, gratuity, loan of money, reward, or profit, directly or indirectly, or any promise, contract, bond, or assurance, or shall by any means agree to receive or have any money, &c. loan of money, or profit, directly or indirectly; and if any person shall purchase, or bargain to purchase, or pay any money, &c. or profit, or enter into any promise, &c. bond or assurance, to pay any money, loan or reward, directly or indirectly, for any of the above offices, commissions, &c. or for any deputation thereto, or for any participation of profits thereof, or for any appointment thereto, or resignation thereof, or for the consent of any person to the same, then he and every person wilfully and knowingly aiding, &c. therein, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, id. s. 3.

16. If any person shall take any money, fee, reward, or profit, directly or indirectly, or any promise, &c. bond or assurance, or by any means or device agree to receive any money, loan, &c. directly or indirectly, for any interest, solicitation, &c. whatever, made or pretended to be made, or under any pretence of making or procuring the same to be made, concerning any nomination, deputation to, or resignation of, any such office, commission, &c., or under any pretence for using the same, or for obtaining the consent or voice of any person thereto; and if any person shall give or pay, or cause, &c. any money, &c. loan, reward, or profit, or make any promise, &c. for the purposes aforesaid; and if any person shall, for, or in expectation of gain, &c. solicit, recommend, or negotiate for any person, in any matter at all relating to any such nomination, deputation, or resignation, &c. for obtaining, directly or indirectly, the consent or voice of any person therein, every such person, his aiders and abettors, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, id. s. 4.

17. Every person who shall open or keep any office or place for soliciting, transacting, or negotiating in any manner, any business relating to vacancies in, or sale or purchase of, or appointment or deputation to, or resignation, transfer, or exchange of, any offices, commissions, &c. whatever, in any public department, and his aiders and abettors therein, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, id. s. 5.

18. Every person who shall advertise or publish, or cause to be, &c. any office or place to have been set up for any of the above purposes, or advertise or publish, or cause, &c. the name of any person as broker, agent, or solicitor for the same, or print or cause or permit to be printed or advertised, any proposal for the same, shall forfeit 50*l.* for every such offence, to be recovered by the plaintiff with full costs, in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, Dublin, or in Scot., for offences in Eng., Ire., or Scot. respectively committed, id. s. 6.

19. Nothing in this act shall extend to purchases, sales, or exchanges of commissions or appointments in the band of gentlemen pensioners, in the yeoman guard, [king's battle-axe guard in Ire., 53 G. 3. c. 51.] or in the Marshalsea and palace court, or to any purchases, sales, or exchanges of commissions in H. M.'s forces, for prices fixed by H. M.'s regulations, or to any thing done in relation thereto, by any agents of regiments authorized by the commander-in-chief or colonel of the regiment, who shall act under H. M.'s regulations, and shall not cause or knowingly permit to be printed or advertised any advertisement or proposal for purchase, sale, or exchange of any commission or negotiation relating thereto, and shall not receive any money, &c. promise, bond, or assurance, or by any way agree to receive any money, &c. for acting in such behalf, 49 G. 3. c. 126. s. 7. [as AMD. by 53 G. 3. c. 54. s. 1.]

20. Every officer of H. M.'s forces who shall receive or pay, or agree to pay, any larger sum of money, directly or indirectly, than allowed by H. M.'s regulations, in relation to the purchase, sale, or exchange of commissions, or who shall pay or cause, &c. any money to any person for negotiating the purchase, &c. of such commission, shall, on conviction by a general court-martial, forfeit his commission, and be cashiered; his commission to be sold, and half the regulated value (not exceeding 500*l.*) shall be paid to the informer, and the other half applied as H. M. shall, by any regulation, direct; and any person who shall sell and cease to hold his commission in H. M.'s forces, and shall in relation to such sale receive, directly or indirectly, any fee, loan, reward, or profit, or any promise, &c. bond or assurance, or shall by any means contract or agree to receive any profit beyond the regulated value of the commission sold, and every person abetting therein shall be guilty of a misdemeanor within this act, id. s. 8.

21. Nothing in this act shall extend to any office excepted from 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 16., or to any office legally saleable before this act, and in the gift of any person by virtue of any office of which he is possessed, patent or life-appointment, or to render invalid or affect any promise, &c. or agreement valid before the act, id. s. 9.

22. Nothing herein shall extend to prevent or make void any deputation to any office where a deputy may be appointed, or any lawful agreement, bond, &c. in respect of any allowance or payment made by such principal or deputy respectively, out of the profits thereof, id. s. 10.

23. Nothing in 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 16., or this act, shall extend to any annual reservation made out of the profits of any office, to any person who shall have held the same, in any commission or appointment of any person succeeding thereto, or to any agreement, bond, &c. made for securing such reservation; provided that the amount thereof, and the circumstances of permitting it shall be stated in the commission or appointment of the successor paying the same, id. s. 11.

24. Nothing in 49 G. 3. c. 126., for preventing the purchase, &c. of offices shall extend to any purchases, sales, or exchanges of any office of a six-clerk or six-clerks of chancery in Ire., 53 G. 3. c. 129. s. 1.

25. After the death, resignation, or removal of the first and second examiner in chancery in Ire., the powers of 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 16., and of this act, shall apply to those offices, 49 G. 3. c. 126. s. 12. [Seemable, not affected by 53 G. 3. c. 129. s. 1.]

26. Every person who shall in Scot. commit any offence made a misdemeanor by this act, shall be punished by fine and imprisonment, or by one or other of such punishments, at discretion of the judge before whom he is convicted, id. s. 13.

27. Such offences committed by any governor, lieutenant-governor, or person having chief civil or military command in any of H. M.'s dominions, or his secretary, may be prosecuted in K. B. at Westminster, under 42 G. 3. c. 85., id. s. 14.

28. This act shall not extend to Gibraltar, Malta, or any place in the Mediterranean, till 3 months; to America or West Indies, till 4 months; to Cape of Good Hope, St. Helena, or Africa, till 6 months; or to any of H. M.'s dominions in the E. Indies, or beyond the Cape of Good Hope, till 12 months after its passing, id. s. 15.

29. TO PREVENT THE GRANTING IN FUTURE ANY PATENT OFFICE to be exercised in any colony or plantation, now, or at any time hereafter, belonging to the crown of G. B., for any longer time than during such time as the grantee thereof, or person appointed thereto, shall discharge the duty thereof in person, and behave well therein, 22 G. 3. c. 75. [AMD. 54 G. 3. c. 61.]

30. No office to be exercised in any colony or plantation, now or hereafter belonging to G. B., shall be granted or grantable by patent for any longer term than during such time as the grantee thereof, or person appointed thereto, shall discharge the duty in person, and behave well therein, 22 G. 3. c. 75. s. 1.

31. No office in any colony, settlement, plantation, or foreign possession belonging to G. B., shall be granted, either by patent under the great seal, or by commission under H. M.'s sign-manual, or any other commission, warrant, &c. for any longer term than during such time as the grantee thereof, or the person appointed thereto, shall reside in the colony, &c., and execute the duty thereof, and behave well therein, 54 G. 3. c. 61. s. 1.

32. If any person holding such office shall wilfully be absent from such colony, &c. wherein it ought to be exercised, without a cause to be allowed by the governor and council thereof, or shall neglect his duty or otherwise misbehave therein, such governor, &c. may remove him therefrom: he may appeal therefrom, as in other cases of appeal from such colony, &c. and H. M. in council shall finally determine thereon, 22 G. 3. c. 75. s. 2.

33. Such governor, &c. may give leave of absence, and in such case, and likewise in case of vacancy by death or amotion, may provide for due discharge of such office till H. M.'s pleasure be known, 22 G. 3. c. 75. s. 3.

34. In all cases where leave of absence is so granted, such governor or person administering the government shall, within one week after granting the same, report the same to one of the principal secretaries of state for confirmation; and in case it is not confirmed within one month after the receipt of such report, the person to whom such leave was granted shall forthwith return, or in default thereof, shall vacate his office, 54 G. 3. c. 61. s. 2.

35. Such governor, &c. neglecting so to report, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding 100*l.*, to be sued for and recovered by action of debt in any court at Westminster, within one year after his arrival in Eng., id. s. 3.

36. Within 6 weeks after the opening of each session of parliament there shall be laid on the table of the H. of C. returns of all persons holding offices in the colonies who may not be present in the execution of their offices, which shall be in this form: id. s. 4.

Name of the colony.	Name of Absent Officer.	Description of his Office.	Period for which leave was granted in the Colony.	Cause of Absence.	Dates of Governor's Report to the Secretary of State.	When received by the Secretary of State.	Whether disallowed or confirmed, and for what Period.

Trinidad	J. Gueer.	Surveyor	Twelve Months, from 1st October 1813.	Private Affairs	1st July 1813 -	1st September 1813 -	Confirmed, for 4 Months

This act shall not affect subsisting grants, or prevent any office from being granted determinable at pleasure, 22 G. 3. c. 75. s. 4.; nor shall this act affect any subsisting grant or renewed grant of any office made in consequence of the demise of the crown to any person now holding the same, nor granted by the E. I. Co., or any rules by them made in respect to the appointment or leave of absence of any of their civil or military servants, 54 G. 3. c. 61. s. 5.

37. H. M. MAY APPOINT THE chancellor of the exchequer of Ire. to be a lord of treasury in Eng. without salary, 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 20. s. 1. to be invested with all the powers of the other lords, s. 2.; and the appointment shall not be deemed a place of profit under the crown, nor disable the holder from sitting in the H. of C., 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 20. s. 3.

38. TO REGULATE THE TAKING OF SECURITIES IN ALL OFFICES in respect of which security ought to be given, and for avoiding the grant of all such offices in the event of such security not being given within a time to be limited after the grant of such office, 50 G. 3. c. 85. [AMD. &c. 52 G. 3. c. 66. REP. as to s. 3. id. s. 4. Its provisions as to registering securities as amended by 52 G. 3. c. 66., and the provisions of the latter act are EXT. to the government offices of Scot., id. s. 1., but not to those of Ire., id. s. 2. Indemnity for omission to give securities, &c. under 50 G. 3. c. 85., and time for so doing EXT. till 2 months after commencement of the next session, 51 G. 3. c. 98. EXP.]

39. Persons hereafter appointed to any office or commission, civil or military, in any public department belonging to Eng., or to any such office of public trust under the crown, or wherein he shall be concerned in the collection, receipt, or expenditure of any public monies, and who by reason thereof, shall be required to give security by sureties or otherwise, shall, in one month after notice of such appointment, if he be then in Eng. [or W<sup>a</sup>., id. s. 2., so in 52 G. 3. c. 66. s. 5., see note at end], or within 2 months if in Scot. or Ire., or within 6 months if in any other part of Europe, America, or West Indies, or 9 months if in Africa, or 18 months if in the East Indies, or other part of Asia, or within 10 months if on the high seas (unless he sooner arrive in Eng., W<sup>a</sup>., Scot., or Ire., and then in 2 months after arrival) execute a bond or other security in such sum and with such sufficient surety or sureties as are approved by the treasury or principal officer of the department, for due performance of trust, and for duly accounting for public monies entrusted to or controlled by him, 50 G. 3. c. 85. s. 1. [Nearly similar provisions for appointments to offices in Eng. before this act passed, id. s. 2., in Scot. 52 G. 3. c. 66. s. 5., semb. EXP.]

40. Every officer who shall execute any such securities as in s. 1. required shall cause a memorial thereof to be registered with the register of the county of Middx., [proper officer appointed in every department, 52 G. 3. c. 66. s. 4.] within 4 months after the security is entered into if the person on whose behalf it is entered into resides in G. B., if in Ire. within 3 months, if in any other part of Europe, West Indies, or America, 12 months; if in Africa, 15 months; if in E. Indies or any part of Asia, 18 months; if on the high seas, 12 months, unless he sooner arrive in the U. K., and then in 4 months after arrival, 50 G. 3. c. 85. s. 3., 52 G. 3. c. 66. ss. 4, 5.

41. Every person required to register his security shall, by self or agent, produce to the officer with whom the same is to be deposited, a memorial thereof signed by himself, containing the christian and surnames, addition and abode of himself and his sureties, if any, the several sums in which they are respectively bound, with the dates of the securities, and the substance of the conditions thereof, which memorial, if correct, shall be signed by such officer, and re-delivered to the party, 50 G. 3. c. 85. s. 4.

42. In every public office the officers of which must give security as above, some person belonging thereto shall be appointed by the head officer thereof to keep and register the securities of his department, and from time to time to report same as in s. 6. next pl. directed: and all such securities shall be delivered to such person for registry within such periods and under such penalties for neglect or omission as in 50 G. 3. c. 85. s. 7. pl. 44. prescribed, 52 G. 3. c. 66. s. 5.

43. The person so appointed to keep and register the securities given by persons employed in each public office shall keep a book of entry thereof, and shall in the first place enter therein all securities thereof already registered with the register of the county of Middx. according to 50 G. 3. c. 85. s. 3. [and which are not by this act required to be registered again, 52 G. 3. c. 66. s. 7.] and thereafter from time to time shall enter all such securities, and all deaths of sureties, all neglects to supply their places, and all other particulars necessary to shew the actual state of the securities in each office; and shall annually, between 1st Jan. and 25th March, lay an account of such actual state of the securities, with an abstract thereof, before the head officer thereof; which abstract shall, in one month after 25th March, be transmitted to the treasury, with a minute of the orders of the treasury or head officer thereon, in relation to any neglect as to such securities, and of what has been done thereon, 52 G. 3. c. 66. ss. 6, 7.

44. Every person appointed to any of the offices, &c. in s. 1. who shall neglect to give security [or register memorial, semb. REP. 52 G. 3. c. 66. s. 4.] in manner and within the period afore-said, shall forfeit his appointment or commission, and the same is declared void: provided that such avoidance shall not annul the acts of the party during the time of his actual holding the same, 50 G. 3. c. 85. s. 7.

45. Every person giving any such security as in s. 1. with sureties, shall give due notice in writing to the head of the office, &c. to which he shall belong of the death or bankruptcy of any surety or person bound for or with him in any such security within 4 calendar months after it has come to his knowledge if he shall reside in G. B. or Ire.; if on the high seas, within 4 months after his arrival in G. B. or Ire.; or within 12 months if in any parts beyond seas, except E. Indies or parts beyond the Cape of Good Hope, and within 18 months if he be in the E. Indies, or in any parts beyond Cape of Good Hope, unless he shall sooner arrive in G. B. or Ire., and then in 4 months after arrival; and every person neglecting to give such notice within such period, shall forfeit 1-4th of the sum for which the surety so dead or become bankrupt shall have given security, to the use of H. M.; to be recovered if such neglect shall relate to any office in Eng., in any of the courts at Westminster by action of debt, &c. or information, at suit of the attorney-general; and if such office be in Scot., in the court of session or of exchequer, in like manner at suit of H. M.'s advocate; and every such person who shall, on the death or bankruptcy of any surety, neglect to give the security of another to be approved as such former surety was approved, within such period from having given notice of the death, &c. of the former surety as by both acts is limited for giving and registering the original security, the same regard being had to the place where such person may then be, shall forfeit his office, &c. subject to the provisions following for extending such periods and giving relief, 52 G. 3. c. 66. s. 8. [as amending 50 G. 3. c. 85. s. 8.]

46. If it shall appear to the heads of any department or to such number of them to whom notice of the death of such surety is given, that the period by this act limited for giving security for such new surety is, in consequence of particular circumstances, insufficient, or that by reason of distance, loss of letters, illness, refusal of surety, or of his being rejected, or other casualty, that further time will be necessary to enable the same to be given, they may allow any further reasonable period, not exceeding 12 months beyond that above limited; which precise period, with the special grounds of allowing the same, shall be either entered in the book in which the original security is registered, or indorsed on the back of the latter, and no forfeiture shall be incurred if a new security is given within such extended time, 52 G. 3. c. 66. s. 9.

47. H. M. may remit any forfeiture, &c. where the failure of giving security or registering memorial, or security under 50 G. 3. c. 85., or delivery of security to the proper person to be registered under s. 5. of this act, did not arise from wilful neglect, 52 G. 3. c. 66. s. 10.

48. Bonds granted by persons holding public offices in Scot. may be taken either according to the law of Scot. or of Eng., and in whichever form granted, may be recovered upon, either in the court of session or exchequer in Scot., id. s. 11.

49. Nothing in either statute shall extend to the bonds or securities of any receiver-general of the duties under management of the commissioners of taxes, or of their sureties; but they shall continue to be taken under treasury warrant by H. M.'s remembrancer of exchequer, and recorded in his office as heretofore, id. s. 12.

50. Where the securities of the principal and sureties are executed at different times, whether taken in one deed or in different ones, the period limited for registering the same, shall be estimated from the time of execution by the last party, id. s. 13.

51. No irregularity in giving or renewing the securities, or registering the same within the periods, or in manner by either statute prescribed, shall vacate the same or discharge the surety, id. s. 14.

52. All deeds, &c. required to be registered, shall be registered by the proper officer, notwithstanding the period expired; but no such registering shall waive any forfeiture incurred, or exempt the person on whose behalf the same has been registered from any forfeiture under either act, id. s. 15.

53. All such securities given to and registered by the same officers and persons, in the same manner, under like regulations, and within the extended periods allowed by this act, shall be valid, id. s. 17.

54. In case of action or information brought against any person hereby meant to be indemnified, [viz. s. 16. now Exp.] recapitulated as in s. 8. or restored as in s. 10. for any forfeiture or disability soever incurred, defendant may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence on the trial, id. s. 18.

55. FOR REGULATING THE OFFICES OF REGISTRARS OF ADMIRALTY AND PRIZE COURTS, 50 G. 3. c. 118.

56. After expiration of the present interests in possession or reversion in the offices of registrar of the courts of admiralty, of appeal for prizes, and for delegates, an account shall be kept in those offices of all the fees and profit received by or for such registrars; and the same shall constitute a fund for payment of the expences of executing the duties of such offices, and out of the surplus 1-3d shall go to the registrar and his assistant, if the latter is necessary, and the other 2-3ds to the consolidated fund, to be paid into the exchequer quarterly, and the account of such fees and expences paid thereout, shall be open to inspection and control of treasury, id. s. 1.

57. An account of the amount of such surplus of 2-3ds for the current quarter, shall be exhibited to the above courts respectively, at least 14 days before the quarter days next mentioned, and shall be verified by oath of the registrar; so much as is directed by the court, being detained in his hands for the current business of the office, and the balance paid into exchequer on or before 4th Jan., 4th April, 4th July, and 9th Oct. yearly, id. s. 2.

58. None of the offices in s. 1. shall, after expiration of present interests, be granted for longer than during pleasure, nor be executed by deputy, but the registrar shall, by himself, or with an assistant, if necessary, execute the duties thereof in person, id. s. 3.

59. The judge of admiralty, at any time when the state of the business in that, or in either of the other courts mentioned in s. 1., appears to him to require the appointment of an assistant registrar, may direct the registrar to make such appointment, either with or without his consent, which assistant shall receive not less than 1-3d, nor more than one-half of one 1-3d of the surplus by s. 1. enacted to belong to the registrar and assistant, as the judge shall appoint, id. s. 4.

60. Nothing herein shall restrain H. M. from regulating the fees of the said court, and amending the table of fees therein, as by advice of privy council he may think proper, id. s. 5.

61. FOR ESTABLISHING CERTAIN REGULATIONS IN THE OFFICES OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, 52 G. 3. c. 111.

62. The speaker, chancellor of exchequer, master of the rolls, attorney and solicitor-generals, being also members of the house, shall be commissioners for the purposes of this act, and any 3 of them may carry it into execution, id. s. 2.

63. After expiration of the letters patent granted to John Hulse and John Ley, as clerks of the house, for their lives, and of the appointment of John Clement as serjeant at arms, the fees of these offices shall be received by the commissioners, to be distributed as in s. 7., and they may act upon the expiration either of the said letters patent or of the appointment, id. ss. 3, 4.

64. After expiration of the interest of the said J. C. as serjeant at arms, the office of housekeeper of the house shall be consolidated with the former office, and its fees paid also to the commissioners, id. s. 5.

65. The collector of the fees shall give security for, and account on oath to the commissioners from time to time, for the money received, and shall pay over the same into the bank of Eng., to the account of such commissioners, &c., 52 G. 3. c. 111. s. 6.

66. The commissioners shall pay, by half-yearly payments, or as they think fit, the first clerk 3000*l.* per ann. for the first 5 years of his office, and after that term, 3500*l.* per ann.; to the clerk-assistant 2000*l.* per ann. for the first 5 years, and 2500*l.* per ann. after that term; to the second clerk-assistant 1500*l.* per ann. for the first 5 years, and 2500*l.* per ann. after, in lieu of all fees soever, except those arising from the examination of the sufficiency of the sureties to recognizances to prosecute petitions, or for taxing the costs, &c. of the same when ascertained under 28 G. 3. c. 53., id. s. 7.

67. The number of years more than 5 which any clerk-assistant, or second clerk-assistant, who shall be appointed to the office of clerk of the house of commons, shall have held the former offices, shall be reckoned as part or the whole of the 5 years required to entitle him as such clerk, to the sum of 3500*l.* per ann., and so in the case of appointment of the 2d clerk-assistant to the office of 1st clerk-assistant, id. s. 8.

68. The commissioners shall pay the serjeant at arms 2000*l.* per ann. in lieu of his fees as such and as housekeeper, and 300*l.* per ann. more for a residence near the house till one be provided him, id. s. 9.

69. Commissioners may pay the deputy-serjeant at arms 800*l.* per ann. in lieu of all fees, except 200*l.* per ann. for a residence near the house till one be provided him, and such caption fees as shall be allowed him by the commissioners, id. s. 10.

70. The commissioners shall pay the collectors of such fees, and the clerks in the office of the clerk of the house, reasonable salaries in lieu of all payments heretofore made on address of the house, id. s. 11.

71. The commissioners shall prepare and lay before the H. of C., within 20 days after commencement of every session, a statement of the amount of money remaining on their account at the bank, or collected under their order pursuant to this act, after making all the payments hereby required, or reserving the sums necessary for the same, together with a plan of the manner in which they propose to apply the residue towards providing for support of such officers of the speaker, or of the clerk, or serjeant at arms of the house, as may from casualty appear to require it, and for affording a permanent allowance to the clerk, 1st or 2d clerk-assistant, serjeant at arms or his deputy, and such other persons as above, who may be disabled by age or infirmity from performing their duties; which plan shall be binding on the commissioners, who shall carry the same into effect, unless the house order otherwise, within 20 sitting days after the plan is laid before them, and then with the variation so ordered, id. s. 12.

72. The commissioners shall prepare and lay before the house of commons, within the further space of 20 sitting days after the said plan has been concluded on and established, a statement shewing the amount of money received by them under this act, and of the purposes to which it has been applied, or for which any money may be necessary to satisfy the same, and carry the plan into execution; in order, that the sums necessary to supply any deficiencies in the fund for the purposes to which it is hereby made applicable, and to pay the salaries and allowances hereby directed may be provided by parliament; and any surplus in their hands, after effecting the above objects, shall be applied towards providing, (if they see fit), a remuneration for the chairman of the committee of ways and means during that session, and if there is then a further surplus, the commissioners shall retain it towards payment of the charges and outgoings of the ensuing year, and to pay thereout all the above allowances by half-yearly payments, or otherwise, as they think fit, and shall, within 20 days after the end of such session, pay the final surplus into exchequer, to the account of the consolidated fund, id. s. 13.

73. After expiration of the present interest of J. H. and J. L., the power of nomination by the clerk of the house of all the clerks in his department, with that of suspending and removing them, shall be holden, &c. by him as at present; but after expiration of the said letters patent of J. H. and J. L., no clerk of the H. of C. shall exercise his office by deputy, id. s. 14.

74. The power of nomination by the serjeant at arms, of all officers, messengers, and attendants of the house, with that on suspending and removing them, shall be enjoyed by him as at present, provided that the officers under him which have been usually sold, shall continue to be so, and their produce accounted for as heretofore, and paid over to the commissioners or their collectors, as in pl. 65., id. s. 15.

75. If any complaint or representation is at any time made to the speaker of the H. of C., of the misconduct or unfitness of any officer, &c. attendant on the H. of C. hereafter to be appointed by the clerk of the house, or by the serjeant at arms, or admitted into their respective departments, (other than the clerk-assistants and deputy-serjeant at arms) the speaker may cause enquiry to be made; and if it appear to him that he has been guilty of misconduct, or unfit to hold his situation, he may require him to be suspended or removed, as the case may be, and he shall do so suspended, &c.; and so if any person who has bought his place of the serjeant at arms, with or without return of consideration paid by him for the same, as the commissioners think proper, 52 G. 3. c. 11. s. 16.

76. FOR THE BETTER REGULATION OF THE CONDUCT OF THE business of the office of works, and the expenditure thereof, 54 G. 3. c. 157. [Seems of a personal nature, and therefore omitted.]

77. TO REGULATE THE OFFICES OF CLERKS OF THE SIGNET AND PRIVY SEAL, 57 G. 3. c. 63.

78. Upon the respective terminations of existing interests in the offices of clerks of signet and privy seal, the duties thereof shall be executed by the persons appointed to execute the same in person, id. s. 1.

79. From time to time, as any of the said offices become vacant, the treasury shall regulate the duties and establishments thereof, so that these duties shall be performed in person by such number of fit persons, to be appointed by the persons authorized to appoint such clerks as the treasury shall deem fit, with such salaries as they shall order, regard being had to the nature and extent of the duties to be performed, and to the responsibility which may attach to the officers executing them, id. s. 2.

80. The treasury shall, within 6 weeks after the regulation of any such office, if parliament is then sitting, or if not, then within 6 weeks after the commencement of the next session, lay before both houses an account of such new establishment, with a statement of the number of offices and amount of the salaries of each, and a statement of the former establishment, id. s. 3.

81. All sums arising from salaries, fees, or emoluments, which shall, by reason of the regulation of any such offices, be more than sufficient to defray the salaries and incidental charges of the new establishment, shall, by directions of the treasury, be carried to the consolidated fund, id. s. 4.

82. Persons belonging to the said offices, when regulated, shall be incapable of sitting or voting as members of the H. of C., id. s. 5.

85. TO ENABLE H. M. TO RECOMPENSE THE SERVICES OF PERSONS holding, or who have held certain high and official civil offices, 57 G. 3. c. 65.

84. After 7th July 1819, H. M., by warrant under his sign manual, countersigned by the treasury, may grant to any person, having served for not less than 2 years, either uninterruptedly or at different times, in one or more of the offices of first lord of the treasury or admiralty, principal secretary of state, or chancellor of exchequer, a pension for life not above 3000*l.* per ann., and at the expiration of every further progressive period of 2 years, may grant in like manner other like pensions to any other such persons as aforesaid, till at the expiration of 12 years from 7th July 1817, 6 such pensions have in all been granted; and after such six pensions have been granted, no further pension shall be granted in respect of such offices, but whenever any such pension shall cease by death, forfeiture, or resignation, like pensions may be granted to any other such persons under like circumstances, so that no greater number of pensions than allowed under this act shall be in force at once, and so that after 12 years expiration as above, no greater number than 6 such pensions shall be granted or existing at one time, except as in s. 2. excepted, id. s. 1.

85. H. M., by warrant under his sign manual, countersigned by the treasury, may grant, at any time after the expiration of 2 years from passing this act, one other like pension of 3000*l.* to any person who shall hold or who has held any one or more of such offices, though he has not held the same for 2 years, and though the full number of pensions in s. 1. shall have been then granted; but every such pension so granted shall be deemed supernumerary, and shall, on the ceasing of the first of any such pensions as shall then be in force, become and be counted as one of the pensions allowed by this act, id. s. 2.

86. After the expiration of 4 years from passing this act, (viz. after 7th July 1821) H. M., by warrant under his sign manual, countersigned by the commissioners of treasury, may grant to any person who shall have served, for not less than 5 years in the whole, either uninterruptedly or at different times, in either or both of the offices of chief secretary for Ire., or secretary at war, a pension for life not exceeding 2000*l.* per ann. and on the expiration of every further progressive period of 4 years more, may grant like pensions to any other such persons, until, at the expiration of 12 years, 3 of such pensions shall have been granted in the whole; and after such 3 pensions of 2000*l.* each have been granted to 3 such persons, H. M. shall not grant any other such pension in respect of such offices; but when it shall cease, by death, forfeiture, or resignation H. M. may grant other like pensions to any other such persons, under like restrictions, so that no greater number of pensions than allowed under this act shall be in force at the same time, and so that after 12 years no greater number than 3 such pensions shall thereafter be existing at the same time, id. s. 3.

87. After expiration of 2 years from passing of this act, H. M., by warrant under his sign manual, countersigned by the treasury, may grant to any person who shall have served not less than 5 years, in any of the offices of the joint secretaries of the treasury, or first secretary of the admiralty, a pension during life not exceeding 1500*l.* per ann., and at the expiration of every further 2 years, another like pension to any other such person, until, at the expiration of 12 years, 6 of such last-mentioned pensions have been granted in the whole; and after such 6 pensions have been granted to 6 such persons, no further pension in respect of such last-mentioned offices shall be granted, but when any such pension shall cease, by death, forfeiture, or resignation, H. M. may grant in like manner other like pensions to any other such persons, under like restrictions; so as no more pensions than allowed under this act shall be in force at the same time, and so as after the expiration of 12 years no greater number than 6 such pensions shall be existing at the same time, 57 G. 3. c. 65. s. 4.

88. H. M., under the regulations of this act, may grant to any person who has filled the office of chancellor of the exchequer of Ire. for any period previous to 5th Jan. 1817, and who shall serve H. M. in any other office in respect whereof H. M. is enabled to grant any pension less than 3000*l.*, and who shall have served in the said office, and also in any other offices, not less than 5 years in the whole, a pension to the like amount, as H. M. may grant to any person having served not less than 5 years in such other offices, id. s. 5.

89. After expiration of 2 years from passing of this act, (viz. after 7th July 1819), H. M., by warrant under his sign manual, countersigned by treasury, may grant to any person who shall have served for not less than 10 years in any one or more of the offices of the under secretaries of state, or clerk of the ordinance, or 2d secretary to the admiralty, a pension during life not exceeding 1000*l.* per ann.; and, at expiration of every further period of 2 years more, another like pension to any other such person, until the expiration of 12 years from the passing of this act, 6 of such last-mentioned pensions shall have been granted in the whole, and after such 6 pensions have been granted to 6 such persons, it shall not be lawful to grant any further pension; but as often as any such pension shall cease, by death, forfeiture, or resignation, H. M. may grant in like manner other like pensions to any other person, under like restrictions; so that no greater number of pensions than allowed under this act shall be in force at the same time, and so that after the expiration of 12 years no greater number than 6 such pensions shall thereafter be existing at the same time, id. s. 6.

90. In case it shall happen that any person has served in more than one of the classes of offices, in respect whereof H. M. is enabled to grant any pension less than 3000*l.*, H. M. may grant to such person any pension not exceeding such pension as is annexed to the highest class of office in which such person may have been employed, whenever the whole period of the service in the several offices shall amount to 8 years, although the period of the service in such highest class shall not have extended to 5 years; provided such person shall have served in such highest class for not less than 3 years, id. s. 7.

91. Every grant of pension, if made to any person actually holding any office entitling him to the same, shall not take effect during the time of his continuing to hold such office, and shall also contain a provision for suspension of such pension during the holding of any office, place, or employment under H. M., the salary whereof shall be not less than double the amount of such pension, and shall also contain a provision for the abatement of one-half of the pension, during the time any person having it shall continue to hold any place under H. M. of equal or greater amount in salary; and no grant of any such pension shall be valid without such provision, id. s. 8.

92. If any pension shall be granted under this act to any person holding any office or offices, for the abolition or regulation of which any provision shall have been made by any statute of this session, or which has been included in the list certified under this act; then all the interest of such person in such office, &c. shall, on any payment in respect of such pension, wholly cease; and every such office, by the ceasing of such interest becoming vacant, shall thereupon be abolished or regulated according to such statutes, id. s. 9. Persons holding pensions, on obtaining pensions under this act, are to relinquish such previous pensions, id. s. 10. The pensions are payable quarterly out of the consolidated fund, free from taxes, on 5th Jan. &c., id. s. 11. The treasury may by warrant direct the auditor of the exchequer to pass debentures for payment of the pensions, without fees, id. s. 12. The warrants are not determinable on the death of H. M., or the death or removal of any lord of the treasury, id. s. 13. The treasury and exchequer are to do without fee all things herein directed, id. s. 14. And the receipts of the pensioners to be sufficient discharges, id. s. 15. In one month after expiration of the present session, a list shall be certified by the treasury, and returned to exchequer, of all offices abolished, or for the abolition or regulation of which any provision has been made by any statute passed in the present session; and the treasury shall, within 6 weeks after the next session, cause accounts to be laid before both houses of parliament of every office contained in such list, together with every office dependent upon any office in such list, which shall have been abolished or become vacant, and been regulated; and shall also from time to time cause like returns to be made to both houses within 6 weeks after the meeting of every subsequent session, till all the offices contained in such list shall have been abolished or regulated, 57 G. 3. c. 65. s. 16.

93. TO AMEND 22 G. 3. c. 82. FOR SUPPRESSING OR REGULATING certain offices therein mentioned, so far as relates to the board of trade, 57 G. 3. c. 66. s. 1.

94. H. M., by order or warrant under his royal sign-manual, countersigned by the treasury of U. K., may direct that the vice-president of the committee of council appointed for consideration of matters relating to trade and foreign plantations, shall have 2000*l.* salary, to be paid out of the fee fund of the council office, and that it shall not be deemed a new office by reason of the salary so annexed thereto; provided that no such warrant or receipt of salary under the same, by the person holding such office at the passing this act, viz. 7th July 1817, shall make void his election, id. ibid.

OFFICER, PUBLIC. (See JUSTICE OF PEACE.)

1. FOR EASE IN PLEADING AGAINST TROUBLESOME AND contentious suits prosecuted against justices of peace, mayors, constables, and certain other H. M.'s officers, for the lawful execution of their office, 7 J. 1. c. 5., 21 J. 1. c. 12. ss. 3—5. [AMD. and MADE PERP., 21 J. 1. c. 12. ss. 1, 2. (But only CON. to the end of the first session of the then next parliament, 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 1.)] EXT. to all persons either in or out of this kingdom authorized to commit to safe custody, 42 G. 3. c. 85. s. 6. See ss. 1—5. of this statute, OFFENCE, &c. pl. 7.

2. If any action, bill, plaint, or suit on the case, trespass, battery, or false imprisonment is brought in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster or elsewhere, against any justice of peace, mayor, or bailiff, of city or town corporate, headborough, port-reve, constable, tithing-man, collector of subsidy or fifteens, [or against any churchwardens and persons called sworn-men, executing the office of churchwarden or overseer of the poor, and their deputies, or any of them, or any other which in their aid or assistance, or by their commandment, shall do any thing touching their or any of their offices, 21 J. 1. c. 12. ss. 3—5.] for or concerning any matter, cause, or thing, by them or any of them done by virtue of his or their offices, [the action, &c. shall be laid within the county where the trespass or fact is done and committed, and not elsewhere, 21 J. 1. c. 12. ss. 3—5.] and every defendant may plead the general issue, not guilty, and give in evidence the special matter, which being pleaded, had been good in law to have discharged defendant of the trespass or other matter laid to their charge, [and if on the trial plaintiff shall not prove that the cause of action accrued within the county in which it is laid, the jury shall find defendant not guilty, without regard to any other evidence for plaintiff, 21 J. 1. c. 12. ss. 3—5.] and if a verdict pass for defendant, or if plaintiff discontinues or is nonsuit, defendant shall have his double costs, which he shall have sustained by wrongful vexation in defence of the said action, 7 J. 1. c. 5., 21 J. 1. c. 12. ss. 3—5.

3. The 21 J. 1. c. 12. shall extend to all persons having, holding, or being employed in any office, station, or capacity, either civil or military, either in or out of this kingdom, and who under any statute or law or lawful authority within it, or in any plantation, island, colony, or foreign possession of H. M., may have, by virtue of such office, &c., power to commit persons to safe custody; and they shall have the privileges of that act; but where any action or suit upon the case, trespass, battery, or false imprisonment, is brought against any such person in this kingdom, for or upon any act or thing done out of the same, the plaintiff may lay the same to have been done in Westminster, or in any county where defendant shall then reside, 42 G. 3. c. 85. s. 6.

OUTLAWRY.

(STATUTE expired.)

PROCLAMATIONS TO WARN HIM THAT, DWELLING IN ONE COUNTY, is sued to an exigent in another, shall be made before the exigent awarded, 4 H. 3. c. 4. [EXP., see 6 H. 3. c. 4. pl. 17.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. OF PARDONS ON OUTLAWRY, 5 E. 3. c. 12.

2. Where he against whom damages are recovered is outlawed at H. M.'s suit, no charter of pardon shall be granted of his outlawry, except the chancellor be certified, that the plaintiff is satisfied of his damages; and in case a man be outlawed before appearance, no such charter shall be granted, except the chancellor be certified that such person hath yielded himself to prison before the justices of the court where the exigent issued; and if the exigent issued from justices of eyer and terminer, and they be risen, he shall yield him in K. B.; and the said justices before whom they shall yield them, shall cause the plaintiff to be warned at a certain day, at which day, if the warning be fully witnessed, and the plaintiff appear, they shall plead on the first original as though no outlawry had been; and if the plaintiff come not, the outlaw shall be delivered by his charter; and all such charters shall be of the grace of H. M. as before, 5 E. 3. c. 12.

3. OF DEFEATING OUTLAWRIES. If any will defeat any outlawry pronounced upon him by testimony of imprisonment, he shall yield himself to prison, and the justices of K. B. shall cause the party, at whose suit the outlawry was pronounced, to be warned to be before them at a certain day, at which day, if he will verify that the witnessing is untrue, his averment shall be received; and in like manner H. M.'s serjeant or attorney, or other that will sue for H. M., shall be received to the same averment where such outlawry is pronounced at H. M.'s suit, 5 E. 3. c. 13.

4. FOR THE MISCHIEFS WHICH HAPPEN OF THAT THE escheators, sheriffs, and other ministers, seize the lands and goods of many, surmising them outlawed, because they bear the names of such as he outlawed, IT IS ORDAINED that the plaintiff shall have a writ of idemptitate nominis, as hath been used; and if any man's lands or goods be seized in such case, he shall find surety before the minister who hath the warrant to seize to answer to H. M. of the value of such lands or goods, in case he cannot discharge himself without taking any thing of the party, and if such minister do the same, and is thereof attainted, the party shall recover double damages against him, and he shall be grievously punished [Qu. amerced] to H. M., 37 E. 3. c. 2. s. 1.

5. SUCH WRIT OF idemptitate nominis MAY BE MAINTAINABLE by executors, 9 H. 6. c. 4.

6. OF RECEIVERS OF H. M.'s MONEY WHICH THEY DETAIN OF them which carry wools beyond the seas, without being cocketed or paying custom, or subsidy whereto they are assessed, and of customers and searchers who suffer the same to H. M.'s damage; of lay ministers which receive H. M.'s money, and the same retain; also of conspirators, confederators, and maintainers of false quarrels; also of them that bring routs into the presence of justices, or other H. M.'s ministers, or elsewhere in counties, in affray of the people; and of them which bring in false money in deceit of the people; against all these in case they may not be found, nor brought in to answer by attachment or distress, the exigent shall be given, 18 E. 3. s. 1. De Declaratione Exigendarum.

7. No exigent SHALL HENCEFORTH ISSUE IN CASE where a man is indicted of trespass which is not against the peace, nor of things not contained in 18 E. 3. s. 1. (last pl.) 18 E. 3. s. 2. c. 5.

8. PROCESS BY WRIT OF capias AND exigent BY THE SHERIFF'S return shall be made in a writ of debt, detinue of chattels, and taking of beasts, as is used in a writ of accompt, 25 E. 3. s. 5. c. 17.

9. FOR REGULATING PROCESS OF capias, exigent, AND OUTLAWRY, in indictments, 6 H. 6. c. 1. [CONF. 8 H. 6. c. 10. s. 4.]

10. Before any exigent is awarded against persons indicted before H. M. in K. B., writs of capias shall be directed as well to the sheriff of the county wherein they are so indicted, as to the sheriff of the county whereof they are named in the indictments, the same capias having 6 weeks at least, or longer, by discretion of the justices, if the case requires, before its return; which writs so returned the justices, shall proceed as heretofore; and any exigent awarded, or outlawry pronounced, before the return of such writs, shall be void, 6 H. 6. c. 1.

11. FOR REGULATING PROCESS OF capias, exigent, AND OUTLAWRY on indictments [and appeals, RFP. see tit. APPEAL.] against persons not dwelling in the counties where the indictment or appeal is found, 8 H. 6. c. 10. and recital in s. 1. [not to extend to indictments taken in the county of Chester, s. 5., AMD. as to s. 2., and CONF. 10 H. 6. c. 6. AMD. 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 29. s. 4.]

12. On any indictment of treason, felony, and trespass against a person not dwelling in the county where such indictment is found, after the first capias a second shall be awarded, directed to the sheriff of the county where defendant is conversant, returnable before the justices of peace or other justices before whom he is indicted, at a certain day, containing 3 months from the date of the last writ to such return day, where the county courts are holden from month to month, and 4 months where holden from 6 weeks to 6 weeks, by which 2d capias the sheriff is commanded to take the defendant by his body, if he be found in his bailiwick, and if not the sheriff shall make proclamation in 2 county courts before return thereof, that the defendant shall appear before such justices, &c. at the day in the last capias contained, to answer to H. M. and the party of the felony, &c.; and in default of appearance after such 2d capias served and returned, the exigent shall be awarded, 8 H. 6. c. 10. s. 2. [and any exigent and outlawry otherwise awarded and pronounced shall be void, id. s. 3., and 10 H. 6. c. 6. sub. fin.]

13. If any such indictments before any justices of peace, or other justices soever, in any county or liberty of Eng., shall be removed into K. B. by certiorari or otherwise, then after such removal, and before exigent awarded, after the first capias returned, another shall be awarded, directed to the sheriff of the county whereof the indicted is or was supposed to be conversant by such indictment, returnable in K. B., in the times mentioned in last pl., and any exigent or outlawry otherwise awarded shall be void, 10 H. 6. c. 6.

14. Every person indicted as in s. 2. (pl. 12.) after due acquittal by verdict, shall have an action on the case, with treble damages, against every procurer of such indictments, and like process shall be thereon as in a writ of trespass, vi et armis, and if plaintiff is attainted in this behalf, plaintiff shall recover his treble damages, 8 H. 6. c. 10. s. 4.

15. Persons indicted of felony or treason, and conversant in the county named in the indictment, at the time of such felony, &c. supposed, shall be prosecuted as formerly, id. s. 6.

16. "IN ORDER TO GIVE PUBLICITY TO OUTLAWRIES IN CRIMINAL CASES;" Upon issuing of any exigent for any criminal matter before judgment or conviction, there shall issue a writ of proclamation bearing the same teste, and return to the sheriff or sheriffs of the county, city, or town corporate where the person in the record is mentioned to be, according to 31 El. c. 5. s. 1., which writ shall be delivered to the sheriff 3 months before its return, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 22. s. 4.

17. FOR PROCLAMATIONS TO BE MADE BEFORE exigent awarded into foreign shires, 6 H. 8. c. 4.

18. If any writ of exigent shall be awarded at suit of H. M., or other person, in any action personal, against any person called of any shire, or city being a shire of itself, or late of any shire, &c. other than such shire whereinto such exigent shall be awarded; and in every writ of exigent, in actions personal, whereof the process shall be directed into London or Middlesex, the defendant being called late of London, or late of Middlesex, and at the time of the exigent awarded not dwelling in London nor Middlesex; the justices, where the exigent shall not be directed into London nor Middlesex, shall award a writ of proclamation to the sheriff of the county, where it doth appear by the using of such action, that the defendant is, or lately was dwelling, if H. M.'s writ there be current, and else to the next adjoining; and in every action, whereof the exigent shall be directed into London or Middlesex, and the defendants called late of London or Middlesex, and at the time of the exigent awarded not having their dwelling in London or Middlesex, the writ of proclamation shall be awarded unto the sheriff of the shire, where the defendant shall have his dwelling, or in case where H. M.'s writ runneth not, unto the next shire; the which writ of proclamation shall contain the effect of the action, and that the sheriff make 3 proclamations within his county; [viz. 2 in the full shire court, and the 3d at the general sessions, (RE. 31 El. c. 5. s. 1.) that the defendant shall yield himself to the sheriff, so that the latter may have his body before the justices], id. s. 1. [See, as to the words within brackets, 31 El. c. 5. s. 1. pl. 30.]

19. Every such writ of proclamation shall have the same day of return as the writ of exigent, and shall be delivered of record to the sheriff, who shall execute the same and make due return, upon pain to forfeit such amercement as by the discretion of the justices shall be set, id. s. 2.

20. The officer, in whose office the exigent is taken, shall make out the said writs of proclamation, id. s. 3., and shall take no more than 6d. for making such writ of proclamation and entering the same of record, id. s. 4.

21. If any outlawry be had in any action personal in any foreign county, and no writ of proclamation as aforesaid awarded and returned, such outlawry shall be void, and all outlawries contrary to this act shall be avoided by averment, without writ of error, id. s. 5.

22. LIKE PROCESS SHALL BE HAD HEREFTER IN EVERY action on 5 R. 2. St. 1. c. 8. [viz. for illegal entry on land] as in a common action of trespass at common law, and the like in every writ of annuity and covenant, as in action of debt, 23 H. 8. c. 14.

23. FOR EXIGENTS AND PROCLAMATIONS IN Wa., and in the county palatine and city of Chester, 1 E. 6. c. 10. and recital in s. 1. [As to exigents in Lancashire, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 26. COUNTIES PALATINE (Lancaster), pl. 6—12.]

24. When any writ of exigent shall be awarded at suit of H. M., or of any plaintiff in any suit in K. B. or C. P., against any person dwelling in Wa., or in the county palatine of Chester, or of the city of Chester, or any of them, then immediately on awarding such exigent, the justice before whom it is sued shall have full power to award one writ of proclamation, according to the tenor of those awarded on exigents, and directed out of any such court into London, against any person dwelling in any other shire where H. M.'s writ is current, according to 6 H. 8. c. 4. s. 1. pl. 18., to be directed to such of the sheriffs of the counties in Wa., and of the county and city of Chester, where defendant shall be dwelling; and every such writ of proclamation shall have the same teste and day of return as the exigents whereon it is awarded, and every sheriff shall make proclamation of such writ, and return the same in such court, and before such justices, as the tenor thereof shall require; and all outlawries pronounced on any such exigent awarded against any person dwelling in Wa. and the county and city of Chester, without writ of proclamation so awarded to the sheriff of the county where defendant is dwelling, or not returned, are void, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 36. s. 2.

25. Every sheriff of a county in Wa., and of the county or city of Chester, shall have in every court of K. B. and C. P. one sufficient deputy to receive all writs directed to such sheriff, in like manner, and on like pains, as other sheriffs in Eng. are bound to have by former statutes; and all writs of proclamation (as in s. 2. pl. 25.) shall be delivered unto every such deputy of record in the same courts, and like fees shall be paid for making and enrolling such writ, as in 6 H. 8. c. 4. s. 4. (pl. 20.), id. s. 3.

26. If any person dwelling in Wa. is outlawed in any action aforesaid, these writs of special capias utlagatum, single capias utlagatum, non molestandum, and other process for or against him may be directed to the sheriff of any county in Wa., as an immediate officer to K. B. or C. P. in that behalf, and such writs may be delivered of record to the deputy of such sheriffs: which sheriff shall execute and return such writ on process to him directed, on the penalties in s. 2. (pl. 25.), id. s. 4.

27. If any such writ of proclamation is delivered unto any of the said sheriffs or his deputy in form aforesaid, and true return thereof is not made, he shall forfeit sl., one half to H. M., the other to such as will sue for the same in an action of debt on this act, in any court of record, id. s. 5.

28. This act shall not be prejudicial to the counties of Wa., or to the county or city of Chester, otherwise than before declared, id. s. 6. [or to any lord marcher in Wa., id. s. 7. RE. 1 W. & M. St. 1. c. 27. s. 2.]

29. FOR AVOIDING PRIVY AND SECRET OUTLAWRIES, 31 El. c. 3.

30. In every action personal wherein any exigent shall be awarded, one writ of proclamation shall be made out, bearing the same teste and return directed and delivered of record to the sheriff of the county where the defendant dwells, which writ of proclamation shall contain the effect of the action: and the sheriff shall make 3 proclamations; viz., one in the open county court, one other at the quarter sessions, and one other one month at least before the quint. exact. at or near the most usual door of the church or chapel of that town or parish where the defendant shall be dwelling; and if the defendant shall be dwelling out of any parish, then in such place of the parish, in the same county next adjoining, to the place of the defendant's dwelling, and upon a Sunday immediately after divine service. And all outlawries had, without writs of proclamations awarded and returned according to this statute, shall be void. And the officer in whose office such writs of exigent and proclamation shall be made, may take the fees by 6 H. 8. c. 4. s. 4. pl. 20. limited, and the sheriff shall have 12d. for making proclamation at the church door, 31 El. c. 3. s. 1. [See s. 2. ACTION REAL, pl. 30., and as to proclamations on exigents in criminal cases, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 22. s. 4. pl. 16.]

31. Before allowance of any writ of error or reversal of outlawry for want of proclamation according to this statute, the defendant, in the original action, shall put in bail, not only to appear and answer the plaintiff in the former suit in a new action, but also to satisfy the condemnation of the plaintiff, shall begin his suit before the end of 2 terms after allowing the writ of error, or otherwise avoiding the outlawry, id. s. 3.

32. FOR MORE EASY REVERSAL OF OUTLAWRIES IN K. B., 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 18. ss. 5.—5., and part of the recital in s. 1. [See rest of this statute, tit. INDICTMENT, &c. pl. 6—8.]

33. No person outlawed in K. B. for any cause except treason and felony shall be compelled to appear in person, but may appear by attorney and reverse the same without bail, except where special bail are ordered by the court, id. s. 3.

34. If any person outlawed in K. B. for any cause (except as above) shall be taken on any capias utlagatum, the sheriff where special bail is not required by the court may take an attorney's engagement under his hand to appear for defendant, and reverse the outlawries, and thereupon may discharge the defendant from such arrest; and where special bail is required, the sheriff may take security of defendant by bond, with one surety in double the sum for which special bail is required, and no more, for his appearance by attorney, and to do such things as are required by the court, id. s. 4.

35. If any person taken on a capias utlagatum is committed to gaol for want of security, whenever the prisoner shall find security for his appearance by attorney, at some return in the term then next following to reverse the said outlawries, and do such other things as are required by the court, the sheriff may discharge the prisoner, id. s. 5.
